48 Their brothers the Levites were appointed* for all the service of the tabernacle, the house of the true God.[a] 49 Aaron and his sons[b] made the sacrifices smoke on the altar of burnt offering[c] and on the altar of incense,[d] performing the duties connected with the most holy things, to make atonement for Israel,[e] according to all that Moses the servant of the true God had commanded. 50 These were the descendants of Aaron:[f] El·e·a′zar[g] his son, Phin′e·has his son, Ab·i·shu′a his son, 51 Buk′ki his son, Uz′zi his son, Zer·a·hi′ah his son, 52 Mera′ioth his son, Am·a·ri′ah his son, A·hi′tub[h] his son, 53 Za′dok[i] his son, and A·him′a·az his son.

54 These were their settlements by their encampments* in their territory: for the descendants of Aaron belonging to the family of the Ko′hathites, as the first lot fell to them, 55 they gave them Heb′ron[j] in the land of Judah, with its surrounding pastures. 56 But the field of the city and its settlements they gave to Ca′leb[k] the son of Je·phun′neh. 57 And to the descendants of Aaron they gave the cities* of refuge,[l] Heb′ron,[m] also Lib′nah[n] with its pastures, Jat′tir,[o] Esh·te·mo′a with its pastures,[p] 58 Hi′len with its pastures, De′bir[q] with its pastures, 59 A′shan[r] with its pastures, and Beth-she′mesh[s] with its pastures; 60 and from the tribe of Benjamin, Ge′ba[t] with its pastures, Al′e·meth with its pastures, and An′a·thoth[u] with its pastures. All their cities for their families were 13 cities.[v]

61 To the rest of the Ko′hathites, there were allotted* ten cities, from the family of the tribe, from the half tribe, the half of Ma·nas′seh.[a]

62 To the Ger′shom·ites by their families they assigned 13 cities from the tribe of Is′sa·char, the tribe of Ash′er, the tribe of Naph′ta·li, and the tribe of Ma·nas′seh in Ba′shan.[b]

63 To the Me·rar′ites by their families they assigned by lot 12 cities from the tribe of Reu′ben, the tribe of Gad, and the tribe of Zeb′u·lun.[c]

64 Thus the Israelites gave the Levites these cities with their pastures.[d] 65 Furthermore, they assigned by lot these cities from the tribe of Judah, the tribe of Sim′e·on, and the tribe of Benjamin, which are mentioned by their names.

66 Some of the Ko′hath·ite families had cities from the tribe of E′phra·im as their territory.[e] 67 They gave them the cities* of refuge, She′chem[f] with its pastures in the mountainous region of E′phra·im, Ge′zer[g] with its pastures, 68 Jok′me·am with its pastures, Beth-ho′ron[h] with its pastures, 69 Ai′ja·lon[i] with its pastures, and Gath-rim′mon[j] with its pastures; 70 and from half of the tribe of Ma·nas′seh, A′ner with its pastures and Bil′e·am with its pastures, to the rest of the families of the Ko′hathites.

71 To the Ger′shom·ites they assigned from the family of the half tribe of Ma·nas′seh, Go′lan[k] in Ba′shan with its pastures and Ash′ta·roth with its pastures;[l] 72 and from the tribe of Is′sachar, Ke′desh with its pastures, Dab′e·rath[m] with its pastures,[n] 73 Ra′moth with its pastures, and A′nem with its pastures; 74 and from the tribe of Ash′er, Ma′shal with its pastures, Ab′don

7 And of the descendants of Benjamin, Sal′lu son of Me·shul′-lam son of Hod·a·vi′ah son of Has·se·nu′ah, 8 Ib·ne′iah son of Je·ro′ham, E′lah son of Uz′zi son of Mich′ri, and Me·shul′lam son of Sheph·a·ti′ah son of Reu′-el son of Ib·ni′jah. 9 And their brothers by line of descent were 956. All these men were heads of their paternal houses.*

10 And of the priests, there were Je·da′iah, Je·hoi′a·rib, Ja′-chin,[a] 11 Az·a·ri′ah son of Hil-ki′ah son of Me·shul′lam son of Za′dok son of Me·ra′ioth son of A·hi′tub, a leader of the house* of the true God, 12 A·dai′ah son of Je·ro′ham son of Pash′hur son of Mal·chi′jah, Ma′a·sai son of Ad′i·el son of Jah′ze·rah son of Me·shul′lam son of Me·shil′le-mith son of Im′mer, 13 and their brothers, heads of the paternal houses, 1,760 mighty, capable men available for the service of the house of the true God.

14 And of the Levites, there were She·mai′ah[b] son of Has′-shub son of Az·ri′kam son of Hash·a·bi′ah from the descendants of Me·rar′i; 15 and Bak-bak′kar, He′resh, Ga′lal, Mat·ta·ni′ah son of Mi′ca son of Zich′ri son of A′saph, 16 O·ba·di′ah son of She·mai′ah son of Ga′-lal son of Je·du′thun, and Ber·e·chi′ah son of A′sa son of Elka′nah, who was dwelling in the settlements of the Ne·toph′a-thites.[c]

17 The gatekeepers[d] were Shal′lum, Ak′kub, Tal′mon, A·hi′-man, and their brother Shal′lum the head, 18 and until then he was at the king's gate to the east.[e] These were the gatekeepers of the camps of the Levites. 19 And Shal′lum son of Ko′re son of E·bi′a·saph son of Kor′-ah, and his brothers of his paternal house, the Kor′ah·ites, were over the duties of the service, the doorkeepers of the tent, and their fathers had been over the camp of Jehovah as the keepers of the entryway. 20 It was Phin′e·has[a] the son of El·e·a′zar[b] who had been their leader in the past; Jehovah was with him. 21 Zech·a·ri′ah[c] the son of Me-shel·e·mi′ah was the gatekeeper of the entrance of the tent of meeting.

22 All those selected as gatekeepers at the thresholds numbered 212. They were in their settlements by their genealogical enrollment.[d] David and Samuel the seer[e] appointed these to their office of trust. 23 They and their sons were over the guard service for the gates of the house of Jehovah,[f] the house of the tent. 24 The gatekeepers were on the four sides —east, west, north, and south.[g] 25 From time to time, their brothers were to come in from their settlements for seven days to serve along with them. 26 There were four chief* gatekeepers in the office of trust. They were Levites, and they were in charge of the chambers# and of the treasuries of the house of the true God.[h] 27 They would spend the night in their stations all around the house of the true God, for they cared for the guard service and were in charge of the key and would open up the house from morning to morning.

28 Some of them were in charge of the utensils[i] of the service; they would count them when they brought them in and count them when they took them out. 29 Some of them were appointed over the utensils, over all the holy utensils,[j] and over the fine flour,[k] the wine,[l] the oil,[m]

the frankincense,[a] and the balsam oil.[b] 30 Some of the sons of the priests mixed the ointment of balsam oil. 31 And Mat·ti·thi′ah of the Levites, who was the firstborn of Shal′lum the Kor′ah·ite, was in the office of trust over the things baked in pans.[c] 32 Some of their brothers of the Ko′hath·ites were in charge of the layer bread,*[d] to prepare it every sabbath.[e]

33 These were the singers, the heads of the paternal houses of the Levites in the chambers,* those set free from other duties; for by day and by night it was their responsibility to be on duty. 34 These were the heads of the paternal houses of the Levites by their line of descent, headmen. These lived in Jerusalem.

35 The father of Gib′e·on, Je·i′el, lived in Gib′e·on.[f] His wife's name was Ma′a·cah. 36 And his firstborn son was Ab′don, followed by Zur, Kish, Ba′al, Ner, Na′dab, 37 Ge′dor, A·hi′o, Zech·a·ri′ah, and Mik′loth. 38 Mik′loth became father to Shim′e·am. And they all lived near their brothers in Jerusalem, along with their other brothers. 39 Ner[g] became father to Kish; Kish became father to Saul;[h] Saul became father to Jon′a·than,[i] Mal′chi-shu′a,[j] A·bin′a·dab,[k] and Esh·ba′al. 40 And Jon′a·than's son was Mer′ib-ba′al.[l] Mer′ib-ba′al became father to Mi′cah.[m] 41 And the sons of Mi′cah were Pi′thon, Mel′ech, Tahr′e·a, and A′haz. 42 A′haz became father to Ja′rah; Ja′rah became father to Al′e·meth, Az′ma·veth, and Zim′ri. Zim′ri became father to Mo′za. 43 Mo′za became father to Bin′e·a and Re·pha′iah his son, El·e·a′sah his son, A′zel his son.

44 A′zel had six sons, and their names were Az·ri′kam, Bo′che·ru, Ish′ma·el, She·a·ri′ah, O·ba·di′ah, and Ha′nan. These were the sons of A′zel.

10 Now the Phi·lis′tines were fighting against Israel. And the men of Israel fled from before the Phi·lis′tines, and many fell slain on Mount Gil·bo′a.[a] 2 The Phi·lis′tines kept in close range of Saul and his sons, and the Phi·lis′tines struck down Jon′a·than, A·bin′a·dab, and Mal′chi-shu′a,[b] Saul's sons. 3 The fighting grew fierce against Saul, and the archers found him, and he was wounded by the archers.[c] 4 Then Saul said to his armor-bearer: "Draw your sword and run me through with it, so that these uncircumcised men may not come and deal ruthlessly*[d] with me." But his armor-bearer was unwilling, because he was very much afraid. So Saul took the sword and fell on it.[e] 5 When his armor-bearer saw that Saul was dead, he too fell on his own sword and died. 6 Thus Saul and his three sons died, and all those of his house died together.[f] 7 When all the people of Israel in the valley* saw that everyone had fled and that Saul and his sons had died, they began to abandon their cities and flee; the Phi·lis′tines then came and occupied them.

8 The next day, when the Phi·lis′tines came to strip the slain, they found Saul and his sons fallen on Mount Gil·bo′a.[g] 9 So they stripped him and took off his head and his armor, and they sent word throughout the land of the Phi·lis′tines to spread the news to their idols[h] and the people. 10 Then they put his armor in the house* of their god and fastened his skull to the house of Da′gon.[a]

11 When all those of Ja′besh[b] in Gil′e·ad heard about all that the Phi·lis′tines had done to Saul,[c] 12 all the warriors rose up and carried off the corpse of Saul and the corpses of his sons. They brought them to Ja′besh and buried their bones under the big tree in Ja′besh,[d] and they fasted for seven days.

13 Thus Saul died for the unfaithfulness he had shown against Jehovah because he had not obeyed the word of Jehovah,[e] also for consulting a spirit medium[f] 14 instead of inquiring of Jehovah. So He put him to death and turned the kingship over to David the son of Jes′se.[g]

11 In time all the Israelites gathered to David at Heb′ron[h] and said: "Look! We are your own bone and flesh.[i] 2 In times past while Saul was king, you were the one who was leading Israel on its campaigns.[j] And Jehovah your God said to you: 'You will shepherd my people Israel, and you will become leader over my people Israel.'"[k] 3 So all the elders of Israel came to the king at Heb′ron, and David made a covenant with them in Heb′ron before Jehovah. Then they anointed David as king over Israel,[l] according to Jehovah's word through Samuel.[m]

4 Later David and all Israel set out for Jerusalem, that is, Je′bus,[n] where the Jeb′u·sites[o] were inhabiting the land. 5 The inhabitants of Je′bus taunted David: "You will never come in here!"[p] However, David captured the stronghold of Zion,[q] which is now the City of David.[r] 6 So David said: "Whoever is the first to strike the Jeb′u·sites will become chief* and prince." And Jo′ab[a] the son of Ze·ru′iah went up first, and he became the chief. 7 Then David took up residence in the stronghold. That is why they called it the City of David. 8 He began to build up the city all around, from the Mound* to the areas around it, and Jo′ab restored the rest of the city. 9 Thus David became greater and greater,[b] and Jehovah of armies was with him.

10 Now these are the heads of David's mighty warriors, who gave him strong support in his kingship, together with all Israel, to make him king according to Jehovah's word concerning Israel.[c] 11 This is the list of David's mighty warriors: Ja·sho′beam[d] the son of a Hach′mon·ite, the head of the three.[e] He brandished his spear over 300 slain at one time.[f] 12 Next to him was El·e·a′zar[g] the son of Do′do the A·ho′hite.[h] He was among the three mighty warriors. 13 He was with David at Pas-dam′mim,[i] where the Phi·lis′tines had gathered together for war. Now there was a plot of land full of barley, and the people had fled because of the Phi·lis′tines. 14 But he took his stand in the middle of the field and defended it and kept striking down the Phi·lis′tines, so that Jehovah brought about a great victory.*[j]

15 Three of the 30 headmen went down to the rock, to David at the cave of A·dul′lam,[k] while a Phi·lis′tine army was camped in the Valley* of Reph′a·im.[l] 16 David was then in the stronghold, and a garrison of the Phi·lis′tines was in Beth′le·hem. 17 Then David expressed his longing: "If only I could have a drink of the water from the cistern by the gate of Beth′-le·hem!"[a] 18 At that the three forced their way into the camp of the Phi·lis′tines and drew water from the cistern by the gate of Beth′le·hem and brought it to David; but David refused to drink it and poured it out to Jehovah. 19 He said: "It is unthinkable on my part from the standpoint of my God to do this! Should I drink the blood of these men who risked their lives?[b] For it was at the risk of their lives that they brought it." So he refused to drink it. These are the things that his three mighty warriors did.

20 A·bish′ai[c] the brother of Jo′ab[d] became head of another three; he brandished his spear over 300 slain, and he had a reputation like the three.[e] 21 Of the other three, he was more distinguished than two of them, and he was their chief; yet he did not attain to the rank of the first three.

22 Be·nai′ah[f] the son of Jehoi′a·da was a courageous man* who performed many exploits in Kab′ze·el.[g] He struck down the two sons of Ar′i·el of Mo′ab, and he descended into a waterpit on a snowy day and killed a lion.[h] 23 He also struck down an Egyptian man of extraordinary size—five cubits* tall.[i] Though the Egyptian had a spear in his hand like the beam of loom workers,[j] he went against him with a rod and snatched the spear away from the Egyptian's hand and killed him with his own spear.[k] 24 These things Be·nai′ah the son of Je·hoi′a·da did, and he had a reputation like that of the three mighty warriors. 25 Although he was distinguished even more than the thirty, he did not attain to the rank of the three.[a] However, David appointed him over his own bodyguard.

ite; 47 E′li·el, O′bed, and Ja·a·si′el the Me·zo′ba·ite.

12 These were the men who came to David at Zik′lag[a] while he was unable to move about freely because of Saul[b] the son of Kish, and they were among the mighty warriors who supported him in battle.[c] 2 They were armed with the bow, and they could use both the right hand and the left hand[d] to sling stones[e] or to shoot arrows with the bow. They were of the brothers of Saul, from Benjamin.[f] 3 The head was A·hi·e′zer, along with Jo′ash, both sons of She·ma′ah the Gib′e·ath·ite;[g] Je′zi·el and Pel′et the sons of Az′ma·veth,[h] Ber′a·cah, Je′hu the An′a·thoth·ite, 4 Ish·ma′iah the Gib′e·on·ite,[i] a mighty warrior among the thirty[j] and over the thirty; also Jeremiah, Ja·ha·zi′el, Jo·ha′nan, Jo′za·bad the Ge·de′rath·ite, 5 E·lu′zai, Jer′i·moth, Be·a·li′ah, Shem·a·ri′ah, Sheph·a·ti′ah the Har′i·phite, 6 El·ka′nah, Is·shi′ah, Az′ar·el, Jo·e′zer, and Ja·sho′be·am, the Kor′ah·ites;[k] 7 and Jo·e′lah and Zeb·a·di′ah the sons of Je·ro′ham of Ge′dor.

8 Some of the Gad′ites went over to David's side at the stronghold in the wilderness;[l] they were mighty warriors, soldiers trained for war, standing ready with the large shield and the lance, whose faces were like those of lions and who were as swift as the gazelles on the mountains. 9 E′zer was the head, O·ba·di′ah the second, E·li′ab the third, 10 Mish·man′nah the fourth, Jeremiah the fifth, 11 At′tai the sixth, E′li·el the seventh, 12 Jo·ha′nan the eighth, El·za′bad the ninth, 13 Jeremiah the tenth, Mach′ban·nai the eleventh. 14 These were of the Gad′ites,[m] heads of the army. The least one was equal to 100, and the greatest to 1,000.[a] 15 These are the men who crossed the Jordan in the first month when it was overflowing its banks, and they chased away all those living in the lowlands, to the east and to the west.

16 Some of the men of Benjamin and Judah also came to David at his stronghold.[b] 17 Then David went out before them and said to them: "If you have come to me in peace to help me, my heart will be united with you. But if it is to betray me to my adversaries when my hands have done no wrong, let the God of our forefathers see it and judge."[c] 18 Then the spirit came upon* A·ma′sai,[d] the head of the thirty:

"We are yours, O David, and we are with you, O son of Jes′se.[e]
Peace, peace be yours, and peace to the one helping you,
For your God is helping
you."[f]

So David received them and appointed them among the heads of the troops.

19 Some from Ma·nas′seh also deserted to David when he came with the Phi·lis′tines to battle against Saul; but he did not help the Phi·lis′tines, for after consultation, the lords of the Phi·lis′tines[g] sent him away, saying: "He will desert to his lord Saul, and it will cost us our heads."[h] 20 When he went to Zik′lag,[i] these deserted to him from Ma·nas′seh: Ad′nah, Jo′zabad, Je·di′a·el, Mi′cha·el, Jo′zabad, E·li′hu, and Zil′le·thai, heads of the thousands of Ma·nas′seh.[j] 21 They helped David against the marauder band, because all of them were mighty, courageous men,[k] and they became chiefs in the army. 22 Day after day people kept coming to David[a] to help him until it was a camp as great as the camp of God.[b]

23 This is the number of the heads of those armed for battle who came to David at Heb′ron[c] to turn the kingship of Saul over to him according to Jehovah's order.[d] 24 The men of Judah carrying the large shield and the lance were 6,800, armed for battle. 25 Of the Sim′e·on·ites, the mighty, courageous men of the army were 7,100.

26 Of the Levites, 4,600. 27 Je·hoi′a·da[e] was the leader of the sons of Aaron,[f] and with him were 3,700, 28 as well as Za′dok,[g] a mighty and courageous young man, along with 22 chiefs from his paternal house.

29 Of the Ben′ja·min·ites, the brothers of Saul,[h] there were 3,000, of whom the greater number had previously been guarding the interests of the house of Saul. 30 Of the E′phra·im·ites, there were 20,800 mighty, courageous men of fame among their paternal houses.

31 Of the half tribe of Manas′seh, there were 18,000 who had been designated by name to come to make David king. 32 Of the tribe of Is′sa·char, who understood the times and knew what Israel should do, there were 200 of their headmen, and all their brothers were under their command. 33 Of Zeb′u·lun, there were 50,000 who could serve in the army, drawing up in battle formation with all the weapons of war, all joining David with undivided loyalty.* 34 Of Naph′ta·li, there were 1,000 chiefs, and with them were 37,000 with the large shield and the spear. 35 Of the Dan′ites, those drawing up in battle formation were 28,600. 36 And of Ash′er, those who could serve in the army for drawing up in battle formation were 40,000.

37 From across the Jordan,[a] of the Reu′ben·ites, the Gad′ites, and the half tribe of Ma·nas′seh, there were 120,000 soldiers with all kinds of weapons of war. 38 All of these were men of war, joining together in battle line; they came with a complete heart to Heb′ron to make David king over all Israel, and also all the rest of Israel were united in wanting* to make David king.[b] 39 And they remained there with David for three days, eating and drinking, for their brothers had made preparation for them. 40 Also those near them, and even those as far as Is′sa·char, Zeb′u·lun, and Naph′ta·li, were bringing food on donkeys, camels, mules, and cattle—provisions of flour, cakes of pressed figs and raisins, wine, oil, and cattle and sheep in great quantity, for there was rejoicing in Israel.

13 David consulted with the chiefs of the thousands and of the hundreds and with every leader.[c] 2 Then David said to all the congregation of Israel: "If it seems good to you and it is acceptable to Jehovah our God, let us send word to our remaining brothers in all regions of Israel and also to the priests and the Levites in their cities[d] with pastures to come and join us. 3 And let us bring back the Ark[e] of our God." For they had not cared for it in the days of Saul.[f] 4 All the congregation agreed to do that, for it seemed right to all the people. 5 So David congregated all Israel, from the river* of Egypt as far as Le′bo-ha′math,*[a] to bring the Ark of the true God from Kir′i-ath-je′a-rim.[b]

6 David and all Israel went up to Ba′al-ah,[c] to Kir′i-ath-je′a-rim, which belongs to Judah, to bring up from there the Ark of the true God, Jehovah, who sits enthroned above* the cherubs,[d] where his name is called on. 7 However, they placed the Ark of the true God on a new wagon[e] and brought it from the house of A·bin′a·dab, and Uz′zah and A·hi′o were leading the wagon.[f] 8 David and all Israel were celebrating before the true God with all their might, accompanied by songs, harps, other stringed instruments, tambourines,[g] cymbals,[h] and trumpets.[i] 9 But when they came to the threshing floor of Chi′don, Uz′zah thrust his hand out and grabbed hold of the Ark, for the cattle nearly upset it. 10 At that Jehovah's anger blazed against Uz′zah, and He struck him down because he had thrust his hand out to the Ark,[j] and he died there before God.[k] 11 But David became angry* because Jehovah's wrath had broken through against Uz′zah; and that place has been called Pe′rez-uz′zah# down to this day.

12 So David became fearful of the true God on that day and said: "How can I bring the Ark of the true God to me?"[l] 13 David did not bring the Ark to where he was in the City of David, but he had it taken to the house of O′bed-e′dom the Git′tite. 14 The Ark of the true God was with the household of O′bed-e′dom, remaining at his house for three months, and Jehovah kept blessing the household of O′bed-e′dom and all he had.[a]

14 King Hi′ram[b] of Tyre sent messengers to David, along with cedar timbers, stonemasons,* and woodworkers to build a house# for him.[c] 2 And David knew that Jehovah had firmly established him as king over Israel,[d] for his kingship was highly exalted for the sake of His people Israel.[e]

3 David took more wives[f] in Jerusalem, and David became father to more sons and daughters.[g] 4 These are the names of the children born to him in Jerusalem:[h] Shammu′a, Sho′bab, Nathan,[i] Sol′omon,[j] 5 Ib′har, E·li′shu·a, El′pelet, 6 No′gah, Ne′pheg, Ja·phi′a, 7 E·lish′a·ma, Be·e·li′a·da, and E·liph′e·let.

8 When the Phi·lis′tines heard that David had been anointed as king over all Israel,[k] all the Phi·lis′tines came up to search for David.[l] When David heard about it, he went out against them. 9 Then the Phi·lis′tines came in and kept making raids in the Valley* of Reph′a-im.[m] 10 David inquired of God, saying: "Should I go up against the Phi·lis′tines? Will you give them into my hand?" At this Jehovah said to him: "Go up, and I will surely give them into your hand."[n] 11 So David went up to Ba′al-pe·ra′zim,[o] and he struck them down there. At that David said: "The true God has broken through my enemies by my hand, like a breach made by waters." That is why they named that place Ba′al-pe·ra′zim.* 12 The Phi·lis′tines abandoned their gods there, and when David gave the order, these were burned in the fire.[p]

13 Later the Phi·lis′tines once again made a raid in the valley.*[a] 14 David again inquired of God, but the true God said to him: "Do not go directly up after them. Instead, go around behind them, and come against them in front of the ba′ca bushes.[b] 15 And when you hear the sound of marching in the tops of the ba′ca bushes, launch your attack, for the true God will have gone out before you to strike down the army of the Phi·lis′tines."[c] 16 So David did just as the true God commanded him,[d] and they struck down the Phi·lis′tine army from Gib′e·on to Ge′zer.[e] 17 And David's fame spread into all the lands, and Jehovah put the dread of him upon all the nations.[f]

15 And he continued building houses for himself in the City of David, and he prepared a place for the Ark of the true God and pitched a tent for it.[g] 2 It was then that David said: "No one is to carry the Ark of the true God except the Levites, for Jehovah has chosen them to carry the Ark of Jehovah and to minister to him always."[h] 3 Then David congregated all Israel at Jerusalem to bring the Ark of Jehovah up to the place that he had prepared for it.[i]

4 David gathered the descendants of Aaron[j] and the Levites:[k] 5 from the Ko′hath·ites, U·ri′el the chief and 120 of his brothers; 6 from the Me·rar′ites, A·sai′ah[l] the chief and 220 of his brothers; 7 from the Ger′shom·ites, Joel[m] the chief and 130 of his brothers; 8 from the descendants of E·li·za′phan,[n] She·mai′ah the chief and 200 of his brothers; 9 from the descendants of Heb′ron, E′li·el the chief and 80 of his brothers; 10 from the descendants of Uz′zi·el,[a] Am·min′adab the chief and 112 of his brothers. 11 Furthermore, David called the priests Za′dok[b] and A·bi′a·thar[c] and the Levites U·ri′el, A·sai′ah, Joel, She·mai′ah, E′li·el, and Am·min′a·dab, 12 and he said to them: "You are the heads of the paternal houses of the Levites. Sanctify yourselves, you and your brothers, and bring the Ark of Jehovah the God of Israel up to the place that I have prepared for it. 13 Since you did not carry it the first time,[d] the anger of Jehovah our God broke out against us,[e] because we did not search out the proper procedure."[f] 14 So the priests and the Levites sanctified themselves to bring up the Ark of Jehovah the God of Israel.

15 Then the Levites carried the Ark of the true God on their shoulders with the poles,[g] just as Moses had commanded by Jehovah's word. 16 David then told the chiefs of the Levites to appoint their brothers the singers to sing out joyfully, accompanied by musical instruments: stringed instruments, harps,[h] and cymbals.[i]

17 So the Levites appointed He′man[j] the son of Joel and, of his brothers, A′saph[k] the son of Ber·e·chi′ah and, of the Me·rar′ites their brothers, E′than[l] the son of Kush·a′iah. 18 Together with them were their brothers of the second division,[m] Zech·a·ri′ah, Ben, Ja·a′zi·el, She·mir′amoth, Je·hi′el, Un′ni, E·li′ab, Benai′ah, Ma·a·sei′ah, Mat·ti·thi′ah, E·liph′e·le·hu, and Mik·ne′iah and O′bed-e′dom and Je·i′el the gatekeepers. 19 The singers He′man,[n] A′saph,[o] and E′than were to play the copper cymbals;[p] 20 and Zech·a·ri′ah, A′zi·el, She·mir′a·moth, Je·hi′el, Un′ni, E·li′ab, Ma·a·sei′ah, and Be·nai′ah

25 Then David and the elders of Israel and the chiefs of the thousands were walking along to bring the ark of the covenant of Jehovah up from the house of O′bed-e′dom[f] with rejoicing.[g] 26 When the true God helped the Levites who were carrying the ark of the covenant of Jehovah, they sacrificed seven young bulls and seven rams.[h] 27 David was dressed in a sleeveless coat of fine fabric, as were all the Levites carrying the Ark, the singers, and Chen·a·ni′ah the chief of the transport and the singers; David was also wearing a linen eph′od.[i] 28 All the Israelites were bringing up the ark of the covenant of Jehovah with joyful shouting,[j] with the sound of the horn, with trumpets,[k] with cymbals, playing loudly on stringed instruments and harps.[l]

29 But when the ark of the covenant of Jehovah came to the City of David,[m] Saul's daughter Mi′chal[n] looked down through the window and saw King David skipping about and celebrating; and she began to despise him in her heart.[o]

16 So they brought the Ark of the true God in and placed it inside the tent that David had pitched for it;[a] and they presented burnt offerings and communion sacrifices before the true God.[b] 2 When David finished offering up the burnt offerings[c] and the communion sacrifices,[d] he blessed the people in the name of Jehovah. 3 Further, he distributed to all the Israelites, to each man and woman, a round loaf of bread, a date cake, and a raisin cake. 4 Then he appointed some of the Levites to minister before the Ark of Jehovah,[e] to honor,* thank, and praise Jehovah the God of Israel. 5 A′saph[f] was the head, and second to him was Zech·a·ri′ah; and Je·i′el, She·mir′a·moth, Je·hi′el, Mat·ti·thi′ah, E·li′ab, Benai′ah, O′bed-e′dom, and Je·i′el[g] played stringed instruments and harps;[h] and A′saph played the cymbals,[i] 6 and Be·nai′ah and Ja·ha·zi′el the priests blew the trumpets constantly before the ark of the covenant of the true God.

7 It was on that day that David first contributed a song of thanks to Jehovah through A′saph[j] and his brothers:

8 "Give thanks to Jehovah,[k]

14 He is Jehovah our God.[d]

15 Remember his covenant

16 The covenant he made with

And the oath he swore to 19 This was when you were few in number,

Yes, very few, and you were 20 They walked about from na-

From one kingdom to anoth-

21 He did not allow any man to

He is more awe-inspiring

17 As soon as David was settled in his own house,* he said to Nathan[a] the prophet: "Here I am living in a house of cedars[b] while the ark of the covenant of Jehovah is under tent cloths."[c] 2 Nathan replied to David: "Do whatever is in your heart, for the true God is with you."

3 On that very night, the word of God came to Nathan, saying: 4 "Go and say to my servant David, 'This is what Jehovah says: "You are not the one who will build the house for me to dwell in.[d] 5 For I have not dwelled in a house from the day I brought Israel out to this day, but I continued going from tent to tent and from one tabernacle to another.*[e] 6 During all the time that I went with all Israel, did I ever say one word to any of the judges of Israel whom I appointed to shepherd my people, saying, 'Why did you not build a house of cedars for me?'"'

7 "Now say this to my servant David, 'This is what Jehovah of armies says: "I took you from the pastures, from following the flock, to become a leader over my people Israel.[f] 8 And I will be with you wherever you go,[g] and I will do away with* all your enemies from before you;[h] and I will make a name for you like the name of the great men of the earth.[i] 9 I will appoint a place for my people Israel and settle them, and they will live there and not be disturbed anymore; and wicked men will not oppress them* again as they did in the past,[j] 10 from the day that

I appointed judges over my people Israel.[a] And I will subdue all your enemies.[b] Moreover, I tell you, 'Jehovah will build a house* for you.'

11 ""When your days come to an end and you go to be with your forefathers, I will raise up your offspring* after you, one of your sons,[c] and I will firmly establish his kingship.[d] 12 He is the one who will build a house for me,[e] and I will firmly establish his throne forever.[f] 13 I will become his father, and he will become my son.[g] I will not remove my loyal love from him[h] the way I removed it from the one who was prior to you.[i] 14 I will cause him to stand in my house and in my kingship forever,[j] and his throne will last forever.""[k]

15 Nathan told David all these words and this entire vision.

16 At that King David came in and sat down before Jehovah and said: "Who am I, O Jehovah God? And what is my house that you have brought me this far?[l] 17 As if this were not enough, O God, you also speak about the house of your servant down to a distant future time,[m] and you have looked on me as if I were a man who should be further exalted,* O Jehovah God. 18 What more can your servant David say to you about the honor given me when you know your servant so well?[n] 19 O Jehovah, for the sake of your servant and in agreement with your heart* you have done all these great things by revealing your greatness.[o] 20 O Jehovah, there is no one like you,[p] and there is no God except you;[q] everything we have heard with our ears confirms this. 21 And what other nation on earth is like your people Israel?[a] The true God went and redeemed them as his people.[b] You made a name for yourself by your great and awe-inspiring deeds,[c] driving out nations from before your people,[d] whom you redeemed from Egypt. 22 You made your people Israel your own people for all time;[e] and you, O Jehovah, became their God.[f] 23 Now, O Jehovah, may the promise you have made concerning your servant and his house prove faithful for all time, and may you do just as you have promised.[g] 24 May your name endure* and be exalted[h] forever, so that people may say, 'Jehovah of armies, the God of Israel, is God to Israel,' and may the house of your servant David be firmly established before you.[i] 25 For you, my God, have revealed to your servant your purpose to build him a house.* That is why your servant has the confidence to offer this prayer to you. 26 And now, O Jehovah, you are the true God, and you have promised these good things concerning your servant. 27 So may it please you to bless the house of your servant, and may it continue forever before you, for you, O Jehovah, have blessed, and it is blessed forever."

18 Some time later, David defeated the Phi·lis′tines and subdued them and took Gath[j] and its dependent* towns out of the hands of the Phi·lis′tines.[k] 2 Then he defeated Mo′ab,[l] and the Mo′ab·ites became David's servants and brought tribute.[m]

phra′tes River.[a] 4 David captured 1,000 chariots, 7,000 horsemen, and 20,000 foot soldiers from him.[b] Then David hamstrung all but 100 of the chariot horses.[c] 5 When the Syrians of Damascus came to help King Had·ad·e′zer of Zo′bah, David struck down 22,000 of the Syrians.[d] 6 David then established garrisons in Syria of Damascus, and the Syrians became David's servants and brought tribute. Jehovah gave David victory* wherever he went.[e] 7 Moreover, David took the circular shields of gold from the servants of Had·ad·e′zer and brought them to Jerusalem. 8 From Tib′hath and Cun, cities of Had·ad·e′zer, David took a great quantity of copper. With it Sol′o·mon made the copper Sea,[f] the pillars, and the copper utensils.[g]

9 When King To′u of Ha′math heard that David had defeated the entire army of King Had·ad·e′zer[h] of Zo′bah,[i] 10 he immediately sent his son Ha·do′ram to King David to ask about his welfare and to congratulate him because he had fought and defeated Had·ad·e′zer (for Had·ad·e′zer had often fought against To′u), and he brought all sorts of articles of gold, silver, and copper. 11 King David sanctified these to Jehovah,[j] along with the silver and the gold that he had carried off from all the nations: from E′dom and Mo′ab, from the Am′mon·ites,[k] the Phi·lis′tines,[l] and the A·mal′ek·ites.[m]

12 A·bish′ai[n] the son of Ze·ru′iah[o] struck down 18,000 E′domites in the Valley of Salt.[p] 13 He established garrisons in E′dom, and all the E′dom·ites became David's servants.[q] Jehovah gave David victory* wherever he went.[r] 14 David kept reigning over all Israel,[a] and he was administering justice and righteousness for all his people.[b] 15 Jo′ab the son of Ze·ru′iah was over the army,[c] Je·hosh′aphat[d] the son of A·hi′lud was recorder, 16 Za′dok the son of A·hi′tub and A·him′e·lech the son of A·bi′a·thar were priests, and Shav′sha was secretary. 17 Benai′ah the son of Je·hoi′a·da was over the Cher′e·thites[e] and the Pel′e·thites.[f] And David's sons were first in position next to the king.

19 Later Na′hash the king of the Am′mon·ites died, and his son became king in his place.[g] 2 At that David said: "I will show loyal love[h] toward Ha′nun the son of Na′hash, because his father showed loyal love toward me." So David sent messengers to offer him comfort over the loss of his father. But when David's servants came into the land of the Am′mon·ites[i] to comfort Ha′nun, 3 the princes of the Am′mon·ites said to Ha′nun: "Do you think that David is honoring your father by sending comforters to you? Is it not to make a thorough search and to overthrow you and to spy out the land that his servants have come to you?" 4 So Ha′nun took the servants of David and shaved them[j] and cut their garments in half at their buttocks and sent them away. 5 When David was told about the men, he at once sent others to meet them, because the men had been deeply humiliated; and the king told them: "Stay in Jer′i·cho[k] until your beards grow back, and then return."

6 In time the Am′mon·ites saw that they had become a stench to David, so Ha′nun and the Am′mon·ites sent 1,000 silver talents* to hire chariots and horsemen from Mes·o·po·ta′·mi·a,* A′ram-ma′a·cah, and Zo′·bah.[a] 7 Thus they hired 32,000 chariots, along with the king of Ma′a·cah and his people. Then they came and camped before Med′e·ba.[b] The Am′mon·ites gathered together from their cities and came out for the battle.

8 When David heard about it, he sent Jo′ab[c] and the entire army, including his mightiest warriors.[d] 9 And the Am′mon·ites went out and drew up in battle formation at the entrance of the city while the kings who had come were by themselves in the open field.

10 When Jo′ab saw that the battle charges were coming against him from the front and the rear, he chose some of the best troops in Israel and drew them up in battle formation to meet the Syrians.[e] 11 He put the rest of the men under the command* of his brother A·bish′·ai,[f] in order to draw them up in battle formation to meet the Am′mon·ites. 12 Then he said: "If the Syrians[g] become too strong for me, then you must come to my rescue; but if the Am′mon·ites become too strong for you, I will rescue you. 13 We must be strong and courageous[h] for our people and for the cities of our God, and Jehovah will do what is good in his eyes."

14 Then Jo′ab and his men advanced to meet the Syrians in battle, and they fled from before him.[i] 15 When the Am′mon·ites saw that the Syrians had fled, they also fled from his brother A·bish′ai and went into the city. After that Jo′ab came to Jerusalem.

17 When the report was made to David, he immediately gathered all Israel and crossed the Jordan and came to them and drew up in battle formation against them. David drew up in battle formation to meet the Syrians, and they fought against him.[c] 18 But the Syrians fled from Israel; and David killed 7,000 charioteers and 40,000 foot soldiers of the Syrians, and he put Sho′phach the chief of the army to death. 19 When the servants of Had·ad·e′zer saw that they had been defeated by Israel,[d] they promptly made peace with David and became his subjects;[e] and Syria did not want to help the Am′mon·ites anymore.

20 At the start of the year,* at the time when kings go on campaigns, Jo′ab[f] led a military expedition and devastated the land of the Am′mon·ites; he came and besieged Rab′·bah,[g] while David stayed in Jerusalem.[h] Jo′ab attacked Rab′bah and tore it down.[i] 2 Then David took the crown of Mal′cam from its head, and found that it weighed a talent* of gold, and in it there were precious stones; and it was placed on David's head. He also took a vast amount of spoil from the city.[j] 3 And he brought out the people who were in it and put them to work[k] at sawing stones and at working with sharp iron instruments and with axes. That was what David did to all the cities of the Am′·mon·ites. Finally David and all the troops returned to Jerusalem.

4 After this, war broke out at Ge′zer with the Phi·lis′tines. At that time Sib′be·cai[a] the Hu′shath·ite struck down Sip′pai, who was a descendant of the Reph′a·im,[b] and they were subdued.

5 And there was war again with the Phi·lis′tines, and El·ha′nan the son of Ja′ir struck down Lah′mi the brother of Go·li′ath[c] the Git′tite, whose spear had a shaft like the beam of loom workers.[d]

6 War broke out yet again at Gath,[e] where there was a man of extraordinary size,[f] with 6 fingers on each hand and 6 toes on each foot, 24 in all; and he too was a descendant of the Reph′a·im.[g] 7 He kept taunting[h] Israel. So Jon′a·than the son of Shim′e·a,[i] David's brother, struck him down.

8 These were descendants of the Reph′a·im[j] in Gath,[k] and they fell by the hand of David and by the hand of his servants.

21 Then Satan* stood up against Israel and incited David to number Israel.[l] 2 So David said to Jo′ab[m] and the chiefs of the people: "Go, count Israel from Be′er-she′ba to Dan;[n] then report to me so that I may know their number." 3 But Jo′ab said: "May Jehovah multiply his people 100 times! My lord the king, are not all of them already servants of my lord? Why does my lord want to do this? Why should he become a cause of guilt to Israel?"

4 But the king's word prevailed over Jo′ab. So Jo′ab went out and traveled throughout Israel, after which he came to Jerusalem.[o] 5 Jo′ab now gave to David the number of the people who were registered. All Israel amounted to 1,100,000 men armed with swords, and Judah, 470,000 men armed with swords.[a] 6 But Le′vi and Benjamin were not registered among them,[b] because the king's word was detestable to Jo′ab.[c]

7 Now this was very displeasing to the true God, so he struck Israel. 8 David then said to the true God: "I have sinned[d] greatly by doing this. And now, please, forgive your servant's error,[e] for I have acted very foolishly."[f] 9 Jehovah then spoke to Gad,[g] David's visionary, saying: 10 "Go and say to David, 'This is what Jehovah says: "I am giving you three options. Choose the one that I should bring on you."'" 11 So Gad came in to David and said to him: "This is what Jehovah says, 'Take your pick 12 whether there should be three years of famine,[h] or three months of being swept away by your adversaries while the sword of your enemies overtakes you,[i] or three days of the sword of Jehovah—pestilence in the land[j]—with Jehovah's angel bringing destruction[k] in all the territory of Israel.' Now consider what I should reply to the One who sent me." 13 So David said to Gad: "It is very distressing to me. Please, let me fall into the hand of Jehovah, for his mercy is very great;[l] but do not let me fall into the hand of man."[m]

14 Then Jehovah sent a pestilence[n] on Israel, so that 70,000 people out of Israel fell.[o] 15 Moreover, the true God sent an angel to Jerusalem to destroy it; but as he was about to do so, Jehovah saw it and felt regret* over the calamity,[p] and he said to the angel bringing destruction: "It is enough![q] Now let your hand drop." Jehovah's angel was standing close to the threshing floor of Or′nan[r] the Jeb′u·site.[s]

standing between the earth and the heavens with a drawn sword[a] in his hand extended toward Jerusalem. David and the elders, covered with sackcloth,[b] at once threw themselves down with their faces to the ground.[c] 17 David said to the true God: "Was it not I who said to number the people? I am the one who sinned, and I am the one who did wrong;[d] but these sheep—what have they done? O Jehovah my God, let your hand, please, come against me and my father's house; but do not bring this scourge on your people."[e]

18 Jehovah's angel then told Gad[f] to tell David to go up and erect an altar to Jehovah on the threshing floor of Or′nan the Jeb′u·site.[g] 19 So David went up at the word of Gad, which he had spoken in the name of Jehovah. 20 Meanwhile, Or′nan turned around and saw the angel, and his four sons who were with him hid themselves. Now Or′nan had been threshing wheat. 21 When David came up to him, Or′nan looked and saw David, and he immediately went out from the threshing floor and bowed down to David with his face to the ground. 22 David said to Or′nan: "Sell* me the site of the threshing floor, so that I may build an altar to Jehovah on it. Sell it to me for the full price, so that the scourge against the people may be halted."[h] 23 But Or′nan said to David: "Take it as your own, and let my lord the king do what seems good to him.* Here, I am providing the cattle for burnt offerings and the threshing sledge[i] for the wood and the wheat as a grain offering. I give all of it."

24 However, King David said to Or′nan: "No, I must buy it for the full price, because I will not take what is yours and give it to Jehovah or offer up burnt sacrifices that cost me nothing."[a] 25 So David gave Or′nan 600 gold shekels* by weight for the site. 26 And David built an altar[b] there to Jehovah and offered up burnt sacrifices and communion sacrifices, and he called on Jehovah, who now answered him with fire[c] from the heavens on the altar of burnt offering. 27 Then Jehovah ordered the angel[d] to return his sword to its sheath. 28 At that time, when David saw that Jehovah had answered him at the threshing floor of Or′nan the Jeb′u·site, he continued to sacrifice there. 29 However, the tabernacle of Jehovah that Moses had made in the wilderness and the altar of burnt offering were at that time on the high place at Gib′e·on.[e] 30 But David had not been able to go before it to consult God, for he was terrified because of the sword of Jehovah's angel.

22 David then said: "This is the house of Jehovah the true God, and this is an altar for burnt offering for Israel."[f]

2 David then gave orders to bring together the foreign residents[g] who were in the land of Israel, and he assigned them to be stonecutters to cut and shape stones for building the house of the true God.[h] 3 David also prepared iron in great quantity for nails for the doors of the gates and for clamps, and so much copper that it was beyond weighing,[i] 4 and also cedar timbers[j] without number, for the Si·do′ni·ans[k] and the Tyr′i·ans[l] brought great quantities of cedar timbers to David. 5 And David said: "My son Sol′o·mon is young and inexperienced,*[a] and the house to be built for Jehovah is to be exceedingly magnificent,[b] so that its fame and beauty[c] will be known in all lands.[d] Therefore, I will make preparation for him." So David prepared materials in great quantity before his death.

6 Moreover, he summoned his son Sol'o·mon and instructed him to build a house for Jehovah the God of Israel. 7 David told his son Sol'o·mon: "As for me, it was my heart's desire to build a house for the name of Jehovah my God.[e] 8 But Jehovah's word came to me, saying, 'You have shed a great deal of blood, and you have fought great wars. You will not build a house for my name,[f] for you have shed a great deal of blood on the earth before me. 9 Look! You will have a son[g] who will be a man of peace,* and I will give him rest from all his enemies who surround him,[h] for Sol'o·mon#[i] will be his name and I will grant Israel peace and quiet in his days.[j] 10 He is the one who will build a house for my name.[k] He will become my son, and I will be his father.[l] I will firmly establish the throne of his kingship over Israel forever.'[m]

11 "Now, my son, may Jehovah be with you, and may you be successful and build the house of Jehovah your God, just as he has spoken concerning you.[n] 12 Only may Jehovah give you discretion and understanding[o] when he gives you authority over Israel, so that you may keep the law of Jehovah your God.[p] 13 Then you will be successful if you carefully observe the regulations[q] and the judgments that Jehovah ordered Moses to give Israel.[r] Be courageous and strong. Do not be afraid or be terrified.[a] 14 Here I have taken great pains to prepare for Jehovah's house 100,000 talents* of gold and 1,000,000 talents of silver and such great quantities of copper and iron[b] that they cannot be weighed, and I have prepared timbers and stones,[c] but you will add to them. 15 A great number of workmen are with you—stonecutters, stonemasons,[d] woodworkers, and all kinds of skilled workers.[e] 16 The gold, silver, copper, and iron are beyond measure.[f] Get up and begin the work, and may Jehovah be with you."[g]

17 David then ordered all the princes of Israel to help his son Sol'o·mon: 18 "Is not Jehovah your God with you, and has he not given you rest on every side? For he handed over to me the inhabitants of the land, and the land has been subdued before Jehovah and before his people. 19 Now determine with all your heart and soul* to seek Jehovah your God,[h] and start building the sanctuary of Jehovah the true God,[i] in order to bring the ark of the covenant of Jehovah and the holy utensils of the true God[j] to the house built for the name of Jehovah."[k]

23 When David had grown old and was near the end of his life,* he made his son Sol'o·mon king over Israel.[l] 2 He then gathered all the princes of Israel, the priests,[m] and the Levites.[n] 3 The Levites who were 30 years old and up were numbered;[o] their number, their head count man by man, was 38,000. 4 Of these, 24,000 served as supervisors over the work of Jehovah's house, and there were 6,000 officers and judges,[a] 5 and there were 4,000 gatekeepers,[b] and 4,000 gave praise[c] to Jehovah on the instruments about which David said, "I made them for giving praise."

6 Then David organized* them into divisions[d] according to the sons of Le'vi: Ger'shon, Ko'hath, and Me·rar'i.[e] 7 Of the Ger'shon·ites were La'dan and Shim'e·i. 8 The sons of La'dan were Je·hi'el the headman, Ze'tham, and Joel,[f] three. 9 The sons of Shim'e·i were She·lo'moth, Ha'zi·el, and Ha'ran, three. These were the heads of the paternal houses for La'dan. 10 And the sons of Shim'e·i were Ja'hath, Zi'na, Je'ush, and Be·ri'ah. These four were the sons of Shim'e·i. 11 Ja'hath was the head and Zi'zah, the second. But since Je'ush and Be·ri'ah did not have many sons, they were counted as one paternal house with one area of responsibility.

12 The sons of Ko'hath were Am'ram, Iz'har,[g] Heb'ron, and Uz'zi·el,[h] four. 13 The sons of Am'ram were Aaron[i] and Moses.[j] But Aaron was permanently set apart[k] to sanctify the Most Holy, he and his sons, to offer sacrifices before Jehovah, to minister to him, and to pronounce blessings in his name always.[l] 14 As for Moses the man of the true God, his sons were named among the tribe of the Levites. 15 The sons of Moses were Ger'shom[m] and E·li·e'zer.[n] 16 Of the sons of Ger'shom, Sheb'u·el[o] was the head. 17 Of the descendants* of E·li·e'zer, Re·ha·bi'ah[p] was the head; E·li·e'zer did not have other sons, but the sons of Re·ha·bi'ah were very many. 18 Of the sons of Iz'har,[a] She·lo'mith[b] was the headman. 19 The sons of Heb'ron were Je·ri'ah the head, Am·a·ri'ah the second, Ja·ha·zi'el the third, and Jek·a·me'am[c] the fourth. 20 The sons of Uz'zi·el[d] were Mi'cah the head and Is·shi'ah the second.

21 The sons of Me·rar'i were Mah'li and Mu'shi.[e] The sons of Mah'li were El·e·a'zar and Kish. 22 El·e·a'zar died, but he had no sons, only daughters. So the sons of Kish, their relatives,* took them as wives. 23 The sons of Mu'shi were Mah'li, E'der, and Jer'e·moth, three.

24 These were the sons of Le'vi according to their paternal houses, the heads of the paternal houses, by those registered who were counted and listed by their names and who carried out the work for the service of the house of Jehovah, from 20 years old and up. 25 For David had said: "Jehovah the God of Israel has given rest to his people,[f] and he will reside in Jerusalem forever.[g] 26 Also the Levites will not have to carry the tabernacle or any of its utensils for its service."[h] 27 For according to the last instructions of David, the Levites from 20 years old and up were numbered. 28 Their function was to assist the sons of Aaron[i] for the service of the house of Jehovah, to be in charge of the courtyards,[j] the dining rooms, the purification of every holy thing, and any work needed for the service of the house of the true God. 29 They assisted with the layer bread,*[k] the fine flour for the grain offering, the wafers of unleavened bread,[l] the griddle cakes, the mixed dough,[m] and all measures of quantity and size. 30 They were to stand morning by morning[a] to thank and praise Jehovah and likewise in the evening.[b] 31 They assisted whenever the burnt sacrifices were offered to Jehovah on the Sabbaths,[c] the new moons,[d] and during the festival seasons,[e] according to the number required by the rules concerning them, doing so regularly before Jehovah. 32 They also took care of their responsibilities toward the tent of meeting, toward the holy place, and toward their brothers the sons of Aaron for the service of the house of Jehovah.

24 Now the divisions of the descendants of Aaron were these: The sons of Aaron were Na′dab, A·bi′hu,[f] El·e·a′zar, and Ith′a·mar.[g] 2 However, Na′dab and A·bi′hu died before their father,[h] and they did not have any sons; but El·e·a′zar[i] and Ith′a·mar continued to serve as priests. 3 David, along with Za′dok[j] from the sons of El·e·a′zar and A·him′e·lech from the sons of Ith′a·mar, made divisions of them for the office of their service. 4 Since the sons of El·e·a′zar had more headmen than the sons of Ith′a·mar had, they divided them accordingly: The sons of El·e·a′zar had 16 as heads of their paternal houses, and the sons of Ith′a·mar had 8 as heads of their paternal houses.

5 Further, they divided them by lots,[k] the one group along with the other, for there were chiefs of the holy place and chiefs of the true God from both the sons of El·e·a′zar and the sons of Ith′a·mar. 6 Then Shemai′ah the son of Ne·than′el the secretary of the Levites recorded their names before the king, the princes, Za′dok[l] the priest, A·him′e·lech[m] the son of A·bi′athar,[n] and the heads of the paternal houses of the priests and of the Levites, one paternal house being selected for El·e·a′zar and one being selected for Ith′a·mar.

7 The first lot came out to Je·hoi′a·rib; the second to Je·da′iah, 8 the third to Ha′rim, the fourth to Se·o′rim, 9 the fifth to Mal·chi′jah, the sixth to Mij′a·min, 10 the seventh to Hak′koz, the eighth to A·bi′jah,[a] 11 the ninth to Jesh′u·a, the tenth to Shec·a·ni′ah, 12 the 11th to E·li′a·shib, the 12th to Ja′kim, 13 the 13th to Hup′pah, the 14th to Je·sheb′e·ab, 14 the 15th to Bil′gah, the 16th to Im′mer, 15 the 17th to He′zir, the 18th to Hap′piz·zez, 16 the 19th to Peth·a·hi′ah, the 20th to Je·hez′kel, 17 the 21st to Ja′chin, the 22nd to Ga′mul, 18 the 23rd to De·la′iah, the 24th to Ma·a·zi′ah.

19 These were their offices for their service[b] when they would come into the house of Jehovah according to the procedure set by their forefather Aaron, just as Jehovah the God of Israel had commanded him.

20 And of the rest of the Levites: of the sons of Am′ram,[c] there was Shu′ba·el;[d] of the sons of Shu′ba·el, Jeh·de′iah; 21 of Re·ha·bi′ah:[e] of the sons of Re·ha·bi′ah, Is·shi′ah the head; 22 of the Iz′har·ites, Shelo′moth;[f] of the sons of Shelo′moth, Ja′hath; 23 and of the sons of Heb′ron, Je·ri′ah[g] the head, Am·a·ri′ah the second, Ja·ha·zi′el the third, Jek·a·me′am the fourth; 24 of the sons of Uz′zi·el, Mi′cah; of the sons of Mi′cah, Sha′mir. 25 The brother of Mi′cah was Is·shi′ah; of the sons of Is·shi′ah, Zech·a·ri′ah.

26 The sons of Me·rar′i[h] were Mah′li and Mu′shi; of the sons of Ja·a·zi′ah, Be′no. 27 The sons of Me·rar′i: of Ja·a·zi′ah, Be′no, Sho′ham, Zac′cur, and Ib′ri; 28 of Mah′li, El·e·a′zar, who did not have any sons;[i] 29 of Kish: the sons of Kish, Je·rah′me·el;

30 and the sons of Mu′shi were Mah′li, E′der, and Jer′i·moth.

These were the sons of Le′vi by their paternal houses. 31 And they also cast lots[a] just as their brothers the sons of Aaron did in the presence of King David, Za′dok, A·him′e·lech, and the heads of the paternal houses of the priests and of the Levites. Regarding the paternal houses, the head one was just as his younger brother.

25 Further, David and the chiefs of the groups for the service separated some of the sons of A′saph, He′man, and Je·du′thun[b] to serve by prophesying with the harps, the stringed instruments,[c] and the cymbals.[d] The list of the official men for this service was, 2 of the sons of A′saph: Zac′cur, Joseph, Neth·a·ni′ah, and Ash·a·re′lah, the sons of A′saph under the direction of A′saph, who prophesied under the direction of the king. 3 Of Je·du′thun,[e] the sons of Je·du′thun: Ged·a·li′ah, Ze′ri, Je·sha′iah, Shim′e·i, Hash·a·bi′ah, and Mat·ti·thi′ah,[f] six, under the direction of their father Je·du′thun, who prophesied with the harp, thanking and praising Jehovah.[g] 4 Of He′man,[h] the sons of He′man: Buk·ki′ah, Mat·ta·ni′ah, Uz′zi·el, Sheb′u·el, Jer′i·moth, Han·a·ni′ah, Ha·na′ni, E·li′a·thah, Gid·dal′ti, Ro·mam′ti-e′zer, Josh·be·kash′ah, Mal·lo′thi, Ho′thir, and Ma·ha′zi·oth. 5 All of these were sons of He′man, a visionary of the king in matters pertaining to the true God to his glory;* thus the true God gave He′man 14 sons and 3 daughters. 6 All of these were under the direction of their father for singing at the house of Jehovah, with cymbals, stringed instruments, and harps[i] for the service of the house of the true God.

Under the king's direction were A′saph, Je·du′thun, and He′man.

7 The number of them and their brothers who were trained in song to Jehovah, all experts, was 288. 8 So they cast lots[a] for their duties, the small and the great alike, the expert along with the learner.

9 The first lot to come out belonged to A′saph for Joseph,[b] the second for Ged·a·li′ah[c] (he and his brothers and his sons were 12); 10 the third for Zac′cur,[d] his sons and his brothers, 12; 11 the fourth for Iz′ri, his sons and his brothers, 12; 12 the fifth for Neth·a·ni′ah,[e] his sons and his brothers, 12; 13 the sixth for Buk·ki′ah, his sons and his brothers, 12; 14 the seventh for Jesh·a·re′lah, his sons and his brothers, 12; 15 the eighth for Je·sha′iah, his sons and his brothers, 12; 16 the ninth for Mat·ta·ni′ah, his sons and his brothers, 12; 17 the tenth for Shim′e·i, his sons and his brothers, 12; 18 the 11th for Az′ar·el, his sons and his brothers, 12; 19 the 12th for Hash·a·bi′ah, his sons and his brothers, 12; 20 for the 13th, Shu′ba·el,[f] his sons and his brothers, 12; 21 for the 14th, Mat·ti·thi′ah, his sons and his brothers, 12; 22 for the 15th, for Jer′e·moth, his sons and his brothers, 12; 23 for the 16th, for Han·a·ni′ah, his sons and his brothers, 12; 24 for the 17th, for Josh·be·kash′ah, his sons and his brothers, 12; 25 for the 18th, for Ha·na′ni, his sons and his brothers, 12; 26 for the 19th, for Mal·lo′thi, his sons and his brothers, 12; 27 for the 20th, for E·li′a·thah, his sons and his brothers, 12; 28 for the 21st, for Ho′thir, his sons and his brothers, 12; 29 for the 22nd, for Gid·dal′ti,[g] his sons and his brothers, 12; 30 for the 23rd, for Ma·ha′zi·oth,[a] his sons and his brothers, 12; 31 for the 24th, for Ro·mam′ti-e′zer,[b] his sons and his brothers, 12.

26 The divisions of gatekeepers[c] were as follows: of the Kor′ah·ites, Me·shel·e·mi′ah[d] the son of Ko′re of the sons of A′saph. 2 And Me·shel·e·mi′ah had sons: Zech·a·ri′ah the firstborn, Je·di′a·el the second, Zeb·a·di′ah the third, Jath′ni·el the fourth, 3 E′lam the fifth, Je·ho·ha′nan the sixth, El′ie·ho·e′nai the seventh. 4 And O′bed-e′dom had sons: She·mai′ah the firstborn, Je·hoz′a·bad the second, Jo′ah the third, Sa′car the fourth, Ne·than′el the fifth, 5 Am′mi·el the sixth, Is′sa·char the seventh, and Pe·ul′le·thai the eighth; for God had blessed him.

6 And to his son She·mai′ah, there were sons born who were rulers of their paternal house, for they were mighty, capable men. 7 The sons of She·mai′ah: Oth′ni, Reph′a·el, O′bed, and Elza′bad; and his brothers E·li′hu and Sem·a·chi′ah were also capable men. 8 All of these were of the sons of O′bed-e′dom; they and their sons and their brothers were capable men and qualified for the service, 62 belonging to O′bed-e′dom. 9 And Me·shel·e·mi′ah[e] had sons and brothers, 18 capable men. 10 And Ho′sah of the sons of Me·rar′i had sons. Shim′ri was the head, for although he was not the firstborn, his father appointed him as head, 11 Hil·ki′ah the second, Teb·a·li′ah the third, Zech·a·ri′ah the fourth. All the sons and brothers of Ho′sah were 13.

12 Of these divisions of the gatekeepers, the headmen had duties just as their brothers did, to minister at the house of Jehovah. 13 So they cast lots,[f] the small and the great alike by their paternal houses, for the different gates. 14 Then the lot to the east fell to Shel·e·mi′ah. For Zech·a·ri′ah his son, a discreet adviser, they cast the lots, and his lot came out to the north. 15 O′bed-e′dom had his to the south, and his sons[a] were assigned the storehouses. 16 Shup′pim and Ho′sah[b] had theirs to the west, near the Shal′lech·eth Gate by the highway that goes up, guard group corresponding to guard group; 17 there were six Levites to the east; to the north, four each day and to the south, four each day; and for the storehouses,[c] two by two; 18 for the portico to the west, there were four at the highway[d] and two at the portico. 19 These were the divisions of the gatekeepers from the sons of the Kor′ah·ites and of the Me·rar′ites.

20 As regards the Levites, A·hi′jah was in charge of the treasuries of the house of the true God and the treasuries of the things made holy.*[e] 21 The sons of La′dan: the sons of the Ger′shon·ite belonging to La′dan, the heads of the paternal houses belonging to La′dan the Ger′shon·ite, Je·hi′e·li[f] 22 and the sons of Je·hi′e·li, Ze′tham and his brother Joel. They were in charge of the treasuries of the house of Jehovah.[g] 23 From the Am′ram·ites, the Iz′har·ites, the Heb′ron·ites, and the Uz·zi′el·ites,[h] 24 Sheb′u·el son of Ger′shom son of Moses was a leader in charge of the storehouses. 25 As regards his brothers, of E·li·e′zer,[i] there was Re·ha·bi′ah[j] his son, Je·sha′iah his son, Jo′ram his son, Zich′ri his son, and Shelo′moth his son. 26 This Shelo′moth and his brothers were in charge of all the treasuries of the things made holy,[a] which King David,[b] the heads of the paternal houses,[c] the chiefs of the thousands and of the hundreds, and the chiefs of the army had made holy. 27 From the wars[d] and from the spoil,[e] they had made things holy to maintain the house of Jehovah; 28 also, all that Samuel the seer,[f] Saul the son of Kish, Ab′ner[g] the son of Ner, and Jo′ab[h] the son of Zeru′iah[i] had made holy. Whatever anyone made holy was put in the care of She·lo′mith and his brothers.

29 Of the Iz′har·ites,[j] Chen·ani′ah and his sons were assigned outside administrative duties as officers and as judges[k] over Israel.

30 Of the Heb′ron·ites,[l] Hasha·bi′ah and his brothers, 1,700 capable men, were over the administration of Israel in the region west of the Jordan for all the work of Jehovah and for the king's service. 31 Of the Heb′ron·ites, Je·ri′jah[m] was the head of the Heb′ron·ites by line of descent of their paternal house. In the 40th year of David's kingship,[n] they were sought out, and mighty, capable men were found among them in Ja′zer[o] in Gil′ead. 32 And his brothers numbered 2,700 capable men, heads of the paternal houses. So King David assigned them over the Reu′ben·ites, the Gad′ites, and the half tribe of the Manas′sites, for every matter of the true God and matter of the king.

27 This is the number of Israelites, the heads of the paternal houses, the chiefs of the thousands and of the hundreds,[p] and their officers who ministered to the king[q] in every matter of the divisions that would come in and go out month by month during all the months of the year; there were 24,000 in each division.

2 Over the first division of the first month was Ja·sho′beam[a] the son of Zab′di·el, and 24,000 were in his division. 3 Of the sons of Pe′rez,[b] he was the head of all the chiefs of the groups assigned to serve during the first month. 4 Over the division of the second month was Do′dai[c] the A·ho′hite[d] with his division, and Mik′loth was the leader, and 24,000 were in his division. 5 The chief of the third group assigned to serve during the third month was Be·nai′ah[e] the son of Je·hoi′a·da[f] the chief priest, and 24,000 were in his division. 6 This Be·nai′ah was a mighty warrior of the thirty and in charge of the thirty, and over his division was his son Am·miz′a·bad. 7 The fourth for the fourth month was As′a·hel,[g] Jo′ab's brother,[h] and his son Zeb·a·di′ah after him, and 24,000 were in his division. 8 The fifth chief for the fifth month was Sham′huth the Iz′rahite, and 24,000 were in his division. 9 The sixth for the sixth month was I′ra[i] the son of Ik′kesh the Te·ko′ite,[j] and 24,000 were in his division. 10 The seventh for the seventh month was He′lez[k] the Pel′o·nite of the E′phra·im·ites, and 24,000 were in his division. 11 The eighth for the eighth month was Sib′be·cai[l] the Hu′shath·ite of the Ze′rah·ites,[m] and 24,000 were in his division. 12 The ninth for the ninth month was Abi-e′zer[n] the An′a·thoth·ite[o] of the Ben′jamin·ites, and 24,000 were in his division. 13 The tenth for the tenth month was Ma′ha·rai[p] the Ne·toph′a·thite of the Ze′rahites,[q] and 24,000 were in his division. 14 The 11th for the 11th month was Be·nai′ah[r] the Pir′athon·ite of the sons of E′phra·im, and 24,000 were in his division. 15 The 12th for the 12th month was Hel′dai the Ne·toph′a·thite,

16 These were the leaders of the tribes of Israel: Of the Reu′ben·ites, E·li·e′zer the son of Zich′ri was leader; of the Sim′e·on·ites, Sheph·a·ti′ah the son of Ma′a·cah; 17 of Le′vi, Hash·a·bi′ah the son of Kem·u′el; of Aaron, Za′dok; 18 of Judah, E·li′hu,[a] one of David's brothers; of Is′sa·char, Om′ri the son of Mi′cha·el; 19 of Zeb′u·lun, Ish·ma′iah the son of O·ba·di′ah; of Naph′ta·li, Jer′i·moth the son of Az′ri·el; 20 of the E′phra·imites, Ho·she′a the son of Az·a·zi′ah; of the half tribe of Ma·nas′seh, Joel the son of Pe·dai′ah; 21 of the half tribe of Ma·nas′seh in Gil′e·ad, Id′do the son of Zech·a·ri′ah; of Benjamin, Ja·asi′el the son of Ab′ner;[b] 22 of Dan, Az′ar·el the son of Je·ro′ham. These were the princes of the tribes of Israel.

23 David did not count those 20 years of age and under, because Jehovah had promised to make Israel as many as the stars of the heavens.[c] 24 Jo′ab the son of Ze·ru′iah had started to take the count, but he did not finish; and God's anger came against Israel* because of this,[d] and the number was not entered into the account of the history of the times of King David.

25 Over the treasuries of the king[e] was Az′ma·veth the son of Ad′i·el. Jon′a·than the son of Uzzi′ah was over the storehouses* in the fields, in the cities, in the villages, and in the towers. 26 Over the field workers who cultivated the soil was Ez′ri the son of Che′lub. 27 Shim′e·i the Ra′math·ite was over the vineyards; over the produce of the vineyards for the wine supplies was Zab′di the Shiph′mite.

28 Over the olive groves and the sycamore trees[a] in the Shephe′lah[b] was Ba′al-ha′nan the Gede′rite; over the oil supplies was Jo′ash. 29 Over the herds that grazed in Shar′on[c] was Shit′rai the Shar′on·ite, and Sha′phat the son of Ad′lai was over the herds in the valley plains.* 30 Over the camels was O′bil the Ish′ma·el·ite; over the donkeys* was Jeh·de′iah the Me·ron′o·thite. 31 Over the flocks was Ja′ziz the Hag′rite. All of these were the chiefs of King David's property.

32 Jon′a·than,[d] David's nephew, was an adviser, a man of understanding and a secretary, and Je·hi′el the son of Hach′moni looked after the king's sons.[e] 33 A·hith′o·phel[f] was an adviser to the king, and Hu′shai[g] the Ar′chite was the king's friend.* 34 After A·hith′o·phel there were Je·hoi′a·da the son of Be·nai′ah[h] and A·bi′a·thar;[i] and Jo′ab[j] was chief of the king's army.

28 David then congregated all the princes of Israel to Jerusalem: the princes of the tribes, the chiefs of the divisions[k] ministering to the king, the chiefs of thousands and the chiefs of hundreds,[l] the chiefs of all the property and livestock of the king[m] and of his sons,[n] together with the court officials and every mighty and capable man.[o] 2 Then King David rose to his feet and said:

"Hear me, my brothers and my people. It was my heart's desire to build a house as the resting-place for the ark of the covenant of Jehovah and as the footstool of our God,[p] and I made preparations to build.[q] 3 But the true God told me,

27:29 *Or "low plains." 27:30 *Lit., "female donkeys." 27:33 *Or "confidant."

'You will not build a house for my name,[a] for you are a man of wars, and you have shed blood.'[b] 4 However, Jehovah the God of Israel chose me out of all the house of my father to become king over Israel forever,[c] for he chose Judah as leader[d] and of the house of Judah, my father's house,[e] and of my father's sons, I was the one whom he approved, to make me king over all Israel.[f] 5 And of all my sons —for Jehovah has given me many sons[g]—he chose my son Sol'o·mon[h] to sit on the throne of the kingship of Jehovah over Israel.[i]

6 "He said to me, 'Your son Sol'o·mon is the one who will build my house and my courtyards, for I have chosen him as my son and I will become his father.[j] 7 I will firmly establish his kingship forever[k] if he resolutely observes my commandments and my judicial decisions,[l] as he is now doing.' 8 So I say before the eyes of all Israel, Jehovah's congregation, and in the ears of our God: Carefully observe and search for all the commandments of Jehovah your God, so that you may possess the good land[m] and pass it on as a permanent inheritance to your sons after you.

9 "And you, Sol'o·mon my son, know the God of your father and serve him with a complete* heart[n] and with a delightful# soul,△ for Jehovah searches through all hearts,[o] and he discerns every inclination of the thoughts.[p] If you search for him, he will let himself be found by you,[q] but if you leave him, he will reject you forever.[r] 10 See, now, for Jehovah has chosen you to build a house as a sanctuary. Be courageous and go to work."

11 David then gave to his son Sol'o·mon the architectural plan[a] of the porch[b] and of its houses, its storerooms, its roof chambers, its inner rooms, and the house of the propitiatory cover.[c] 12 He gave him the architectural plan of everything that had been conveyed to him through inspiration for the courtyards[d] of Jehovah's house, for all the dining rooms around it, for the treasuries of the house of the true God, and for the treasuries of the things made holy;#[e] 13 also for the divisions of the priests[f] and of the Levites, for all the duties of the service of Jehovah's house, and for all the utensils of the service of Jehovah's house; 14 also for the weight of the gold, the gold for all the utensils for the different services, the weight of all the utensils of silver, and for all the utensils for the different services; 15 also the weight for the gold lampstands[g] and their gold lamps, the weight of the different lampstands and their lamps, and the weight of the silver lampstands, for each lampstand and its lamps according to its use; 16 also the weight of the gold for the tables of the layer bread,*[h] for each table, as well as the silver for the tables of silver, 17 for the forks, the bowls, the pitchers of pure gold, and the weight of the small gold bowls,[i] for each small bowl, and the weight of the small silver bowls, for each small bowl. 18 He also gave the weight for the refined gold for the incense altar[j] and for the representation of the chariot,[k] namely, the cherubs[l] of gold that spread their wings out and overshadow the ark of the covenant of Jehovah. 19 David said: "The hand of Jehovah was upon me, and he gave me insight to put all the details of the architectural plan[a] in writing."[b]

20 Then David said to his son Sol'o·mon: "Be courageous and strong and go to work. Do not be afraid or be terrified, for Jehovah God, my God, is with you.[c] He will not desert you or abandon you,[d] but he will be with you until all the work for the service of Jehovah's house is finished. 21 And here are the divisions of the priests[e] and of the Levites[f] for all the service of the house of the true God. You have willing, skilled workers to perform every kind of service,[g] as well as the princes[h] and all the people who will carry out all your instructions."

29 King David now said to all the congregation: "My son Sol'o·mon, the one whom God has chosen,[i] is young and inexperienced,[j] and the work is great, for it is not a temple# for man but for Jehovah God.[k] 2 And I have spared no effort to prepare for the house of my God, providing the gold for the goldwork, the silver for the silverwork, the copper for the copperwork, the iron for the ironwork,[l] the timbers[m] for the timberwork, onyx stones, and stones to be set with mortar, mosaic pebbles, every kind of precious stone, and alabaster stones in great quantity. 3 Moreover, because of my delight in the house of my God,[n] there is also my private treasure[o] of gold and silver that I am giving to the house of my God, in addition to all that I have prepared for the holy house, 4 including 3,000 talents of gold from O'phir[a] and 7,000 talents of refined silver, for coating the walls of the houses, 5 the gold for the goldwork and the silver for the silverwork, and for all the work to be done by the craftsmen. Now who volunteers to come forward today with a gift in hand for Jehovah?"[b]

6 So the princes of the paternal houses, the princes of the tribes of Israel, the chiefs of thousands and of hundreds,[c] and the chiefs of the business of the king[d] came forward voluntarily. 7 And they gave to the service of the house of the true God: 5,000 talents of gold, 10,000 darics,* 10,000 talents of silver, 18,000 talents of copper, and 100,000 talents of iron. 8 Whoever had precious stones gave them to the treasury of the house of Jehovah, under the care of Je·hi'el[e] the Ger'shon·ite.[f] 9 The people rejoiced over making these voluntary offerings, for they made the voluntary offerings to Jehovah with a complete heart,[g] and David the king also rejoiced greatly.

10 Then David praised Jehovah before the eyes of all the congregation. David said: "May you be praised, O Jehovah the God of Israel our father, throughout all eternity.* 11 Yours, O Jehovah, are the greatness[h] and the mightiness[i] and the beauty and the splendor and the majesty,*[j] for everything in the heavens and on the earth is yours.[k] Yours is the kingdom, O Jehovah.[l] You are the One exalting yourself as head over all. 12 The riches and the glory are from you,[m] and you rule over everything,[a] and in your hand there are power[b] and mightiness,[c] and your hand is able to make great[d] and to give strength to all.[e] 13 And now, O our God, we thank you and praise your beautiful name.

14 "And yet, who am I and who are my people that we should be in a position to make voluntary offerings like this? For everything is from you, and we have given to you what comes from your own hand. 15 For we are foreign residents in your presence and settlers, just like all our forefathers.[f] For our days on the earth are like a shadow[g]—without hope. 16 O Jehovah our God, all this wealth that we have prepared to build for you a house for your holy name is from your own hand, and it all belongs to you. 17 I well know, O my God, that you examine the heart[h] and that you take pleasure in integrity.[i] In the uprightness# of my heart, I have voluntarily offered all these things, and I am overjoyed to see your people who are present here make voluntary offerings to you. 18 O Jehovah, the God of Abraham, Isaac, and Israel, our forefathers, keep these inclinations and thoughts in the hearts of your people forever, and direct their hearts to you.[j] 19 And give a complete heart[k] to my son Sol'o·mon, so that he may observe your commandments,[l] your reminders, and your regulations and do all these things and build the temple# for which I have made preparation."[m]

20 David then said to all the congregation: "Now praise Jehovah your God." And all the congregation praised Jehovah the God of their forefathers and bowed low and prostrated themselves to Jehovah and to the king. 21 And they continued to offer sacrifices to Jehovah and to offer up burnt offerings[a] to Jehovah on the following day, 1,000 young bulls, 1,000 rams, 1,000 male lambs, and their drink offerings;[b] they offered sacrifices in great number for all Israel.[c] 22 They continued eating and drinking before Jehovah on that day with great rejoicing,[d] and for a second time they made Sol'o·mon the son of David king and anointed him before Jehovah as leader,[e] and also Za'dok as priest.[f] 23 And Sol'o·mon sat on Jehovah's throne[g] as king in place of David his father, and he was successful, and all the Israelites were obedient to him. 24 All the princes,[h] the mighty warriors,[i] and also all the sons of King David[j] submitted themselves to Sol'o·mon the king. 25 And Jehovah made Sol'o·mon exceedingly great before the eyes of all Israel and bestowed on him royal majesty such as no king over Israel ever had before.[k]

26 Thus David the son of Jes'se reigned over all Israel, 27 and the length* of his reign over Israel was 40 years. In Heb'ron he reigned for 7 years,[l] and in Jerusalem he reigned for 33 years.[m] 28 And he died at a good old age,[n] satisfied with long life,* wealth, and glory; and his son Sol'o·mon became king in his place.[o] 29 As for the history of King David, from beginning to end, it is written among the words of Samuel the seer, Nathan[p] the prophet, and Gad[q] the visionary, 30 together with all his kingship, his mightiness, and the events of the times involving him and Israel and all the surrounding kingdoms.

Cyrus' decree to rebuild the temple (22, 23)

1 Sol′o·mon the son of David grew ever stronger in his kingship, and Jehovah his God was with him and made him exceedingly great.[a]

2 Sol′o·mon sent for all Israel, the chiefs of the thousands and of the hundreds, the judges, and all the chieftains of all Israel, the heads of the paternal houses. 3 Then Sol′o·mon and all the congregation went to the high place at Gib′e·on,[b] for that was where the tent of meeting of the true God was, which tent Moses the servant of Jehovah had made in the wilderness. 4 However, David had brought the Ark of the true God up from Kir′i·ath-je′a·rim[c] to the place that David had prepared for it; he had pitched a tent for it in Jerusalem.[d] 5 And the copper altar[e] that Bez′al·el[f] the son of U′ri the son of Hur had made had been put before the tabernacle of Jehovah; and Sol′o·mon and the congregation would pray before it.* 6 Sol′o·mon now made offerings there before Jehovah, and he offered up 1,000 burnt offerings on the copper altar[a] of the tent of meeting.

7 That night God appeared to Sol′o·mon and said to him: "Ask what you would like me to give you."[b] 8 At this Sol′o·mon said to God: "You have shown great loyal love toward my father David,[c] and you have made me king in his place.[d] 9 Now, O Jehovah God, let your promise to David my father prove faithful,[e] for you have made me king over a people as numerous as the dust particles of the earth.[f] 10 Give me now wisdom and knowledge[g] to lead this people,* for who can possibly judge this great people of yours?"[h]

11 Then God said to Sol′o·mon: "Because this is your heart's desire and you have not asked for wealth, riches, and honor or for the death* of those hating you, nor have you asked for a long life,* but you have asked for wisdom and knowledge to judge my people over whom I have made you king,[a] 12 wisdom and knowledge will be given you; but I will also give you wealth and riches and honor such as no kings before you have had and none after you will have."[b]

13 So Sol'o·mon came from the high place at Gib'e·on,[c] from before the tent of meeting, to Jerusalem; and he reigned over Israel. 14 Sol'o·mon kept accumulating chariots and horses;* he had 1,400 chariots and 12,000 horses,[d] and he kept them stationed in the chariot cities[e] and close by the king in Jerusalem.[f] 15 The king made the silver and the gold in Jerusalem as plentiful as the stones,[g] and cedarwood as plentiful as the sycamore trees in the She·phe'lah.[h] 16 The horses of Sol'o·mon had been imported from Egypt,[i] and the company of the king's merchants would obtain the horses in droves for one price.[j] 17 Each chariot imported from Egypt cost 600 silver pieces, and a horse cost 150; in turn, they would export them to all the kings of the Hit'tites and the kings of Syria.

2 Sol'o·mon now gave the order to build a house for Jehovah's name[k] and a house* for his kingdom.[l] 2 Sol'o·mon enlisted 70,000 men as common laborers,* 80,000 men as stonecutters in the mountains,[m] and 3,600 as overseers over them.[n] 3 Further, Sol'o·mon sent word to Hi'ram[o] the king of Tyre: "Do for me as you did for David my father when you sent him cedarwood to build a house* to live in.[a] 4 Now I am building a house for the name of Jehovah my God, to sanctify it to him, to burn perfumed incense[b] before him, and also for the constant layer bread*[c] and the burnt offerings, morning and evening,[d] on the Sabbaths,[e] on the new moons,[f] and at the festival seasons[g] of Jehovah our God. This is a lasting obligation for Israel. 5 The house that I am building will be great, for our God is greater than all the other gods. 6 And who is up to the task of building him a house? For the heavens and the heaven of the heavens cannot contain him,[h] so who am I that I should build him a house except as a place for making sacrifices smoke before him? 7 Now send me a craftsman who is skilled in working in gold, silver, copper,[i] iron, purple wool, crimson, and blue thread and who knows how to cut engravings. He will work in Judah and in Jerusalem with my skilled craftsmen, whom David my father has provided.[j] 8 And send me timbers of cedar, juniper,[k] and algum[l] from Leb'a·non, for I well know that your servants are experienced at cutting down the trees of Leb'a·non.[m] My servants will work along with your servants[n] 9 to prepare for me great quantities of timber, for the house that I am to build will be extraordinarily great. 10 Now look! I will supply the food for your servants,[o] the woodcutters who cut down the trees: 20,000 cors* of wheat, 20,000 cors of barley, 20,000 baths# of wine, and 20,000 baths of oil."

11 At that Hi'ram the king of Tyre sent this written message to Sol′o·mon: “Because Jehovah loves his people, he has made you their king.” 12 Hi′ram then said: “May Jehovah the God of Israel be praised, who made the heavens and the earth, because he has given to King David a wise son,[a] endowed with discretion and understanding,[b] who will build a house for Jehovah and a house for his kingdom. 13 Now I am sending a skilled craftsman, endowed with understanding, Hi′ram-a′bi,[c] 14 who is the son of a Dan′ite woman but whose father was a man of Tyre; he has experience in working in gold, silver, copper, iron, stones, timbers, purple wool, blue thread, fine fabric, and crimson.[d] He can do every sort of engraving and make any design he is given.[e] He will work with your own skilled craftsmen and the skilled craftsmen of my lord David your father. 15 Now let my lord send the wheat, barley, oil, and wine he has promised to his servants.[f] 16 And we will cut down trees from Leb′a·non,[g] as many as you need, and we will bring them to you as rafts by sea to Jop′pa;[h] and you will take them up to Jerusalem.”[i]

17 Sol′o·mon then took a count of all the men who were foreign residents in the land of Israel,[j] after the census taken by David his father,[k] and there were found 153,600. 18 So he assigned 70,000 of them as common laborers,* 80,000 as stonecutters[l] in the mountains, and 3,600 as overseers for putting the people to work.[m]

3 Then Sol′o·mon started to build the house of Jehovah[n] in Jerusalem on Mount Mo·ri′ah,[o] where Jehovah had appeared to his father David,[p] in the place that David had prepared on the threshing floor of Or′nan[q] the Jeb′u·site. 2 He started to build on the second day of the second month, in the fourth year of his reign. 3 And the foundation that Sol′o·mon laid for building the house of the true God was 60 cubits long and 20 cubits wide,[a] according to the former measurement.* 4 The porch in front was 20 cubits long, corresponding to the width of the house,* and its height was 120;[#] and he overlaid it inside with pure gold.[b] 5 He paneled the great house with juniper wood, after which he covered it with fine gold,[c] and then he decorated it with palm-tree figures[d] and chains.[e] 6 Further, he overlaid the house with beautiful precious stones;[f] and the gold[g] he used was gold from Parva′im. 7 He covered the house, the rafters, the thresholds, its walls, and its doors with gold;[h] and he engraved cherubs on the walls.[i]

8 He now made the Most Holy compartment;[j] its length matched the width of the house, 20 cubits, and its width was 20 cubits. He covered it with 600 talents[#] of fine gold.[k] 9 The weight of the gold for the nails was 50 shekels; and he covered the roof chambers with gold.

10 Then he made in the Most Holy compartment* two cherub sculptures, and he overlaid them with gold.[l] 11 The overall length of the wings of the cherubs[m] was 20 cubits; one wing of the first cherub was five cubits long and touched the wall of the house, and its other wing was five cubits long and touched one of the other cherub's wings. 12 And one wing of the other cherub was five cubits long and touched the other wall of the house, and its other wing was five cubits long and touched one of the first cherub's wings. 13 The wings of these cherubs were spread out 20 cubits; and they stood on their feet, and they faced inward.*

14 He also made the curtain[a] of blue thread, purple wool, crimson, and fine fabric, and incorporated cherub designs into it.[b]

15 Then he made two pillars[c] at the front of the house, 35 cubits in length, and the capital on top of each pillar was five cubits.[d] 16 And he made chains, like necklaces, and put them on the tops of the pillars, and he made 100 pomegranates and put them on the chains. 17 He set up the pillars in front of the temple, one to the right* and one to the left;# he named the one on the right Ja·chin△ and the one on the left Bo·az.⊠

4 Then he made the copper altar,[e] 20 cubits long, 20 cubits wide, and 10 cubits high.

2 He made the Sea*[f] of cast metal. It was circular in shape, 10 cubits from brim to brim and 5 cubits high, and it took a measuring line 30 cubits long to encircle it.[g] 3 And there were ornamental gourds[h] under it, completely encircling it, ten to a cubit all around the Sea. The gourds were in two rows and were cast in one piece with it. 4 It stood on 12 bulls,[i] 3 facing north, 3 facing west, 3 facing south, and 3 facing east; and the Sea rested on them, and all their hindquarters were toward the center. 5 And its thickness was a handbreadth;* and its brim was made like the brim of a cup, like a lily blossom. The reservoir could hold# 3,000 bath measures.△

6 Further, he made ten basins for washing and put five to the right and five to the left.[a] They would rinse in them the things used for the burnt offering.[b] But the Sea was for the priests for washing.[c]

7 He then made ten lampstands of gold,[d] as specified,[e] and put them in the temple, five on the right and five on the left.[f]

8 He also made ten tables and placed them in the temple, five on the right and five on the left;[g] and he made 100 golden bowls.

9 Then he made the courtyard[h] of the priests[i] and the great court*[j] and the doors for the court, and he overlaid their doors with copper. 10 And he placed the Sea on the right side, toward the southeast.[k]

11 Hi'ram also made the cans, the shovels, and the bowls.[l]

So Hi'ram finished the work that he did for King Sol'o·mon on the house of the true God:[m] 12 the two pillars[n] and the bowl-shaped capitals that were on top of the two pillars; the two networks[o] to cover the two bowl-shaped capitals that were on top of the pillars; 13 the 400 pomegranates[p] for the two networks, two rows of pomegranates for each network, to cover the two bowl-shaped capitals that were on the pillars;[q] 14 the ten carriages* and the ten basins on

19 Sol′o·mon made all the utensils[g] for the house of the true God: the altar of gold;[h] the tables[i] with the showbread on them; 20 the lampstands and their lamps of pure gold,[k] to burn before the innermost room according to the requirements; 21 and the blossoms, the lamps, and the snuffers,* of gold, the purest gold; 22 the extinguishers, the bowls, the cups, and the fire holders, of pure gold; and the entrance of the house, its inner doors for the Most Holy,[l] and the doors of the house of the temple, of gold.[m]

4 So all the elders of Israel came, and the Levites lifted up the Ark.[a] 5 They brought up the Ark, the tent of meeting,[b] and all the holy utensils that were in the tent. The priests and the Levites* brought them up. 6 King Sol′o·mon and the entire assembly of Israel who had been summoned to meet with him were before the Ark. So many sheep and cattle were being sacrificed[c] that they could not be counted or numbered. 7 Then the priests brought the ark of the covenant of Jehovah to its place, into the innermost room of the house, the Most Holy, underneath the wings of the cherubs.[d] 8 Thus the wings of the cherubs were spread out over the place of the Ark, so that the cherubs covered over the Ark and its poles[e] from above. 9 The poles were so long that the tips of the poles were visible from the Holy in front of the innermost room, but they were not visible from outside. And they are there to this day. 10 There was nothing in the Ark but the two tablets that Moses placed in it at Ho′reb,[f] when Jehovah made a covenant[g] with the people of Israel while they were coming out of Egypt.[h]

11 When the priests came out from the holy place (for all the priests who were present had sanctified themselves,[i] regardless of their divisions),[j] 12 all the Levite singers[k] who belonged to A′saph,[l] to He′man,[m] to Je·du′thun,[n] and to their sons and their brothers were clothed in fine fabric, holding cymbals, stringed instruments, and harps; they were standing east of the altar, and along with them 120 priests were sounding the trumpets.[o] 13 At the moment when the trumpeters and the singers

were praising and thanking Jehovah in unison, and as the sound ascended from the trumpets, the cymbals, and the other musical instruments as they were praising Jehovah, "for he is good; his loyal love endures forever,"[a] then the house, the house of Jehovah, was filled with a cloud.[b] 14 The priests were not able to stand to minister because of the cloud, for the glory of Jehovah filled the house of the true God.[c]

6 At that time Sol'o·mon said: "Jehovah said he would reside in the thick gloom.[d] 2 Now I have built a lofty house for you, an established place for you to dwell in forever."[e]

3 Then the king turned around and began to bless all the congregation of Israel while all the congregation of Israel stood.[f] 4 He said: "May Jehovah the God of Israel be praised, the one who by his own mouth promised my father David and by his own hands has given fulfillment, saying, 5 'From the day I brought my people out of the land of Egypt, I have not chosen a city out of all the tribes of Israel in which to build a house for my name to remain there,[g] and I have not chosen a man to become leader over my people Israel. 6 But I have chosen Jerusalem[h] for my name to remain there, and I have chosen David to be over my people Israel.'[i] 7 And it was the heart's desire of my father David to build a house for the name of Jehovah the God of Israel.[j] 8 But Jehovah said to my father David, 'It was your heart's desire to build a house for my name, and you did well to desire this in your heart. 9 However, you will not build the house, but your own son who is to be born to you* is the one who will build the house for my name.'[a] 10 Jehovah has carried out the promise that he made, for I have succeeded my father David and I sit on the throne of Israel,[b] just as Jehovah promised.[c] I have also built the house for the name of Jehovah the God of Israel, 11 and there I have placed the Ark containing the covenant[d] that Jehovah made with the people of Israel."

12 Then he stood before the altar of Jehovah in front of all the congregation of Israel, and he spread out his hands.[e] 13 (For Sol'o·mon had made a platform of copper and put it in the middle of the court.[f] It was five cubits# long, five cubits wide, and three cubits high; and he stood on it.) And he knelt down in front of all the congregation of Israel and spread his hands out to the heavens,[g] 14 and he said: "O Jehovah the God of Israel, there is no God like you in the heavens or on the earth, keeping the covenant and showing loyal love to your servants who are walking before you with all their heart.[h] 15 You have kept the promise that you made to your servant David my father.[i] You made the promise with your own mouth, and this day you have fulfilled it with your own hand.[j] 16 And now, O Jehovah the God of Israel, keep the promise you made to your servant David my father when you said: 'There will never fail to be a man of your line before me to sit on the throne of Israel, if only your sons will pay attention to their way by walking in my law,[k] just as you have walked before me.'[l] 17 And now, O Jehovah the God people Israel and who comes from a distant land because of your great name[a] and your mighty hand and your outstretched arm, and he comes and prays toward this house,[b] 33 may you then listen from the heavens, your dwelling place, and do all that the foreigner asks of you, so that all the peoples of the earth may know your name[c] and fear you, as your people Israel do, and may know that your name has been called on this house that I have built.

Let your priests, O Jehovah God, be clothed with salvation, and let your loyal ones rejoice in your goodness.[d] 42 O Jehovah God, do not reject* your anointed one.[e] May you remember your loyal love to David your servant."[f]

7 Now as soon as Sol'o·mon had finished praying,[g] fire came down from the heavens[h] and consumed the burnt offering and the sacrifices, and Jehovah's glory filled the house.[i] 2 The priests were unable to enter the house of Jehovah because Jehovah's glory had filled the house of Jehovah.[j] 3 And all the people of Israel were looking on when the fire came down and the glory of Jehovah was upon the house, and they bowed low with their faces to the ground on the pavement and prostrated themselves and thanked Jehovah, "for he is good; his loyal love endures forever."

4 Now the king and all the people offered sacrifices before Jehovah.[k] 5 King Sol'o·mon offered the sacrifice of 22,000 cattle and 120,000 sheep. Thus the king and all the people inaugurated the house of the true God.[l] 6 The priests were standing at their posts of duty, as were the Levites who had the instruments used to accompany the song to Jehovah.[a] (King David had made these instruments for giving thanks to Jehovah—"for his loyal love endures forever"—when David would offer praise with them.*) And the priests were loudly sounding the trumpets[b] in front of them, while all the Israelites were standing.

7 Then Sol'o·mon sanctified the middle of the courtyard that was before the house of Jehovah, for there he had to offer up the burnt offerings[c] and the fat pieces of the communion sacrifices, because the copper altar[d] that Sol'o·mon had made could not contain the burnt sacrifices, the grain offerings,[e] and the fat pieces.[f] 8 At that time Sol'o·mon held the festival for seven days[g] together with all Israel, a very great congregation from Le'bo-ha'math* down to the Wadi# of Egypt.[h] 9 But on the eighth day* they held a solemn assembly,[i] because they had held the inauguration of the altar for seven days and the festival for seven days. 10 Then on the 23rd day of the seventh month, he sent the people away to their homes rejoicing[j] and feeling glad of heart over the goodness that Jehovah had shown to David and Sol'o·mon and Israel his people.[k]

11 Thus Sol'o·mon finished the house of Jehovah and the house* of the king;[l] and everything that came into Sol'o·mon's heart to do regarding the house of Jehovah and his own house he accomplished successfully.[m] 12 Jehovah then appeared to Sol'o·mon[n] during the night and said to him: "I have heard your prayer, and I have chosen this place for myself as a house of sacrifice.[o] 13 When I shut up the heavens and there is no rain and when I command the grasshoppers to devour the land and if I send a pestilence among my people, 14 if my people on whom my name has been called[a] humble themselves[b] and pray and seek my face and turn away from their evil ways,[c] then I will hear from the heavens and forgive their sin and heal their land.[d] 15 Now my eyes will be open and my ears attentive to prayer at this place.[e] 16 And now I have chosen and sanctified this house so that my name may be there permanently,[f] and my eyes and my heart will always be there.[g]

17 "And you, if you walk before me as your father David walked by doing everything I have commanded you, and you obey my regulations and my judgments,[h] 18 then I will establish the throne of your kingship,[i] just as I made a covenant with your father David,[j] saying, 'There will never fail to be a man of your line ruling over Israel.'[k] 19 But if you turn away and forsake my statutes and my commandments that I have put before you and you go and serve other gods and bow down to them,[l] 20 I will uproot Israel from my land that I have given them,[m] and this house that I have sanctified for my name I will cast out of my sight, and I will make it an object of scorn* and a cause for ridicule among all the peoples.[n] 21 And this house will become heaps of ruins. Everyone passing by it will stare in amazement[o] and will say, 'Why did Jehovah do that to this land and this house?'[p] 22 Then they will say, 'It was because they abandoned Jehovah[q] the God of their forefathers, who had brought them out of the land

8 At the end of 20 years, during which Sol'o·mon built the house of Jehovah and his own house,[d] 2 Sol'o·mon rebuilt the cities that Hi'ram[e] had given Sol'o·mon and settled Israelites there. 3 Furthermore, Sol'o·mon went to Ha'math-zo'bah and captured it. 4 Then he built up* Tad'mor in the wilderness and all the storage cities[f] that he had built in Ha'math.[g] 5 He also built up Upper Beth-ho'ron[h] and Lower Beth-ho'ron,[i] fortified cities with walls, gates, and bars, 6 and Ba'al·ath[j] as well as all of Sol'o·mon's storage cities, all the chariot cities,[k] the cities for the horsemen, and whatever Sol'o·mon desired to build in Jerusalem, in Leb'a·non, and in all the land of his dominion.

7 As for all the people who were left from the Hit'tites, the Am'or·ites, the Per'iz·zites, the Hi'vites, and the Jeb'u·sites,[l] who were not part of Israel,[m] 8 their descendants who were left in the land—those whom the Israelites had not exterminated[n]—were conscripted by Sol'o·mon for forced labor until this day.[o] 9 But Sol'o·mon did not make any of the Israelites slaves for his work,[p] for they were his warriors, the chiefs of his adjutants, and the chiefs of his charioteers and horsemen.[q] 10 There were 250 chiefs of the deputies of King Sol'o·mon, the foremen over the people.[r]

11 Sol'o·mon also brought Phar'aoh's daughter[s] up from the City of David to the house that he had built for her,[t] for he said: "Although she is my wife, she should not dwell in the house of King David of Israel, for the places to which the Ark of Jehovah has come are holy."[a]

12 Then Sol'o·mon offered up burnt sacrifices[b] to Jehovah on the altar[c] of Jehovah that he had built in front of the porch.[d] 13 He followed the daily routine and made offerings according to the commandment of Moses for the Sabbaths,[e] the new moons,[f] and the appointed festivals three times in the year[g]—the Festival of Unleavened Bread,[h] the Festival of Weeks,[i] and the Festival of Booths.[j] 14 Further, he appointed the divisions of the priests[k] for their services according to the rule of his father David, and the Levites for their posts of duty, to praise[l] and to minister in the presence of the priests according to the daily routine, and the gatekeepers in their divisions for the different gates,[m] for such was the commandment of David, the man of the true God. 15 And they did not deviate from the king's commandment to the priests and the Levites concerning any matter or concerning the storehouses. 16 So Sol'o·mon's work was all well-organized, from the day the foundation of the house of Jehovah was laid[n] until it was finished. So the house of Jehovah was completed.[o]

17 It was then that Sol'o·mon went to E'zi·on-ge'ber[p] and to E'loth[q] on the seashore in the land of E'dom.[r] 18 Hi'ram[s] sent him ships and experienced seamen by means of his own servants. They went with Sol'o·mon's servants to O'phir[t] and took from there 450 talents* of gold[a] and brought it to King Sol′o·mon.[b]

9 Now the queen of She′ba[c] heard the report about Sol′o·mon, so she came to Jerusalem to test Sol′o·mon with perplexing questions.* She was accompanied by a very impressive entourage,# with camels carrying balsam oil and great quantities of gold[d] and precious stones. She went in to Sol′o·mon and spoke to him about everything that was close to her heart.[e] 2 Sol′o·mon then answered all her questions. There was nothing too difficult for* Sol′o·mon to explain to her.

3 When the queen of She′ba had seen Sol′o·mon's wisdom,[f] the house that he built,[g] 4 the food of his table,[h] the seating of his servants, the table service of his waiters and their attire, his cupbearers and their attire, and his burnt sacrifices that he regularly offered up at the house of Jehovah,[i] she was left completely breathless.* 5 So she said to the king: "The report that I heard in my own land about your achievements* and about your wisdom was true. 6 But I did not put faith in the reports until I had come and had seen it with my own eyes.[j] And look! I had not been told the half of your great wisdom.[k] You have far surpassed the report that I heard.[l] 7 Happy are your men, and happy are your servants who stand before you constantly, listening to your wisdom! 8 May Jehovah your God be praised, who has taken pleasure in you by putting you on his throne as king for Jehovah your God. Because your God loves Israel,[m] in order to make it continue forever, he appointed you over it as king to administer justice and righteousness."

9 Then she gave the king 120 talents* of gold[a] and a great quantity of balsam oil and precious stones. Never again was such balsam oil brought in as what the queen of She′ba gave to King Sol′o·mon.[b]

10 Moreover, the servants of Hi′ram and the servants of Sol′o·mon who brought gold from O′phir[c] also brought algum timbers and precious stones.[d] 11 The king made from the algum timbers stairs for the house of Jehovah[e] and for the king's house,*[f] as well as harps and stringed instruments for the singers.[g] Nothing like them had ever been seen before in the land of Judah.

12 King Sol′o·mon also gave the queen of She′ba whatever she desired and asked for, more than* what she had brought to the king. Then she left and returned to her own land, together with her servants.[h]

13 And the weight of the gold that came to Sol′o·mon in one year amounted to 666 talents of gold,[i] 14 besides that brought in by the merchants and the traders and all the kings of the Arabs and the governors of the land who were bringing gold and silver in to Sol′o·mon.[j]

15 King Sol′o·mon made 200 large shields of alloyed gold[k] (600 shekels* of alloyed gold went on each shield)[l] 16 and 300 bucklers* of alloyed gold (three mi′nas# of gold went on each buckler). Then the king put them in the House of the Forest of Leb′a·non.[a]

17 The king also made a great ivory throne and overlaid it with pure gold.[b] 18 There were six steps to the throne, and there was a gold footstool attached to the throne, and there were armrests on both sides of the seat, and two lions[c] were standing beside the armrests. 19 And there were 12 lions[d] standing on the six steps, one at each end of the six steps. No other kingdom had made anything like it. 20 All the drinking vessels of King Sol′o·mon were of gold, and all the utensils of the House of the Forest of Leb′a·non were of pure gold. There was nothing made of silver, for silver was considered as nothing in the days of Sol′o·mon.[e] 21 For the king's ships would go to Tar′shish[f] with the servants of Hi′ram.[g] Once every three years, the ships of Tar′shish would come loaded with gold and silver, ivory,[h] apes, and peacocks.

22 So King Sol′o·mon was greater than all the other kings of the earth in riches and wisdom.[i] 23 And the kings of all the earth sought an audience with* Sol′o·mon to hear his wisdom that the true God had put in his heart.[j] 24 They would each bring a gift—articles of silver, articles of gold, garments,[k] armor, balsam oil, horses, and mules—and this continued year after year. 25 And Sol′o·mon had 4,000 stalls for his horses and chariots and 12,000 horses,[l] and he kept them stationed in the chariot cities and close by the king in Jerusalem.[m] 26 And he ruled over all the kings from the River to the land of the Philis′tines and to the boundary of Egypt.[a] 27 The king made the silver in Jerusalem as plentiful as the stones, and cedarwood as plentiful as the sycamore trees in the She·phe′lah.[b] 28 And they would bring horses to Sol′o·mon from Egypt[c] and from all the other lands.

29 As for the rest of the history of Sol′o·mon,[d] from beginning to end, is it not written among the words of Nathan[e] the prophet, in the prophecy of A·hi′jah[f] the Shi′lo·nite, and in the record of visions of Id′do[g] the visionary concerning Jer·o·bo′am[h] the son of Ne′bat? 30 Sol′o·mon reigned in Jerusalem over all Israel for 40 years. 31 Then Sol′o·mon was laid to rest with his forefathers. So they buried him in the City of David his father;[i] and his son Re·ho·bo′am became king in his place.[j]

10 Re·ho·bo′am went to She′chem,[k] for all Israel had come to She′chem to make him king.[l] 2 As soon as Jer·o·bo′am[m] the son of Ne′bat heard of it (he was still in Egypt because he had fled on account of King Sol′o·mon),[n] Jer·o·bo′am came back from Egypt. 3 Then they sent for him, and Jer·o·bo′am and all Israel came to Re·ho·bo′am and said: 4 "Your father made our yoke harsh.[o] But if you make the harsh service of your father easier and you lighten the heavy* yoke he put on us, we will serve you."

5 At this he said to them: "Return to me after three days." So the people went away.[p] 6 King Re·ho·bo′am then consulted with the older men* who had served his father Sol′o·mon while he was alive, saying: "What advice would you give on how to reply to this people?" 7 They answered him: "If you are good to this people and please them and give them a favorable answer, they will always be your servants."

8 However, he rejected the advice that the older men* gave him, and he consulted with the young men who had grown up with him and who were now his attendants.[a] 9 He asked them: "What advice do you offer on how we should reply to this people who have said to me, 'Make the yoke your father put on us lighter'?" 10 The young men who had grown up with him said to him: "This is what you should say to the people who have said to you, 'Your father made our yoke heavy, but you should make it lighter for us'; this is what you should tell them, 'My little finger will be thicker than my father's hips. 11 My father imposed a heavy yoke on you, but I will add to your yoke. My father punished you with whips, but I will do so with scourges.'"

12 Jer·o·bo'am and all the people came to Re·ho·bo'am on the third day, just as the king had said: "Return to me on the third day."[b] 13 But the king answered them harshly. Thus King Re·ho·bo'am rejected the advice of the older men.* 14 He spoke to them according to the advice of the young men, saying: "I will make your yoke heavier, and I will add to it. My father punished you with whips, but I will do so with scourges." 15 So the king did not listen to the people, for this turn of events was caused by the true God,[c] in order to carry out the word that Jehovah had spoken through A·hi'jah[d] the Shi'lo·nite to Jer·o·bo'am the son of Ne'bat.

16 As for all Israel, because the king refused to listen to them, the people replied to the king: "What share do we have in David? We have no inheritance in the son of Jes'se. Each one to your gods, O Israel! Now look after your own house, O David."[a] With that all Israel returned to their homes.*[b]

18 Then King Re·ho·bo'am sent Ha·do'ram,[d] who was in charge of those conscripted for forced labor, but the Israelites stoned him to death. King Re·ho·bo'am managed to mount his chariot to flee to Jerusalem.[e] 19 And the Israelites have been in revolt against the house of David down to this day.

11 When Re·ho·bo'am arrived in Jerusalem, he immediately congregated the house of Judah and Benjamin,[f] 180,000 trained* warriors, to fight against Israel in order to restore the kingdom to Re·ho·bo'am.[g] 2 Then the word of Jehovah came to She·mai'ah[h] the man of the true God, saying: 3 "Say to Re·ho·bo'am the son of Sol'o·mon the king of Judah and to all Israel in Judah and Benjamin, 4 'This is what Jehovah says: "You must not go up and fight against your brothers. Each of you return to his house, for I have caused this to happen."'"[i] So they obeyed the word of Jehovah and returned and did not go against Jer·o·bo'am.

5 Re·ho·bo'am lived in Jerusalem and built fortified cities in Judah. 6 Thus he built up* Beth'le·hem,[j] E'tam, Te·ko'a,[k] 7 Beth-zur, So'co,[l] A·dul'lam,[m] 8 Gath,[n] Ma·re'shah, Ziph,[o] 9 Ad·o·ra'im, La'chish,[p] A·ze'kah,[q] 10 Zo'rah, Ai'ja·lon,[r] and Heb'ron,[s] fortified cities that were in Judah and Benjamin. 11 Further, he reinforced the fortified places and put commanders in them and supplied them with food and oil and wine, 12 and he supplied all the different cities with large shields and lances; he reinforced them to a very great degree. And Judah and Benjamin remained his.

13 And the priests and the Levites who were in all Israel took their stand with him, coming out of all their territories. 14 The Levites left their pastures and their possession[a] and came to Judah and Jerusalem, because Jer·o·bo′am and his sons had dismissed them from serving as priests to Jehovah.[b] 15 Jer·o·bo′am then appointed his own priests for the high places[c] and for the goatlike demons*[d] and for the calves that he had made.[e] 16 And those from all the tribes of Israel who had their heart set on seeking Jehovah the God of Israel followed them to Jerusalem to sacrifice to Jehovah the God of their forefathers.[f] 17 For three years they strengthened the kingship of Judah and supported Re·ho·bo′am the son of Sol′o·mon, for they walked in the way of David and Sol′o·mon for three years.

18 Then Re·ho·bo′am took as his wife Ma′ha·lath the daughter of David's son Jer′i·moth and of Ab′i·ha·il the daughter of Jes′se's son E·li′ab.[g] 19 In time she bore him sons: Je′ush, Shem·a·ri′ah, and Za′ham. 20 After her, he married Ma′a·cah the granddaughter of Ab′sa·lom.[h] In time she bore him A·bi′jah,[i] At′tai, Zi′za, and She·lo′mith. 21 Re·ho·bo′am loved Ma′a·cah the granddaughter of Ab′sa·lom more than all his other wives and concubines,[j] for he took 18 wives and 60 concubines, and he became father to 28 sons and 60 daughters. 22 So Re·ho·bo′am appointed A·bi′jah the son of Ma′a·cah as head and leader among his brothers, for he intended to make him king. 23 However, he acted with understanding and sent* some of his sons to all the regions of Judah and Benjamin, to all the fortified cities,[a] and gave them abundant provisions and acquired many wives for them.

12 Soon after the kingship of Re·ho·bo′am was firmly established[b] and he had become strong, he abandoned the Law of Jehovah,[c] and also all Israel with him. 2 In the fifth year of King Re·ho·bo′am, King Shi′shak[d] of Egypt came up against Jerusalem, for they had behaved unfaithfully toward Jehovah. 3 He had 1,200 chariots, 60,000 horsemen, and countless troops who came with him from Egypt—Lib′y·ans, Suk′ki·im, and E·thi·o′pi·ans.[e] 4 He captured the fortified cities of Judah and finally reached Jerusalem.

5 She·mai′ah[f] the prophet came to Re·ho·bo′am and the princes of Judah who had gathered at Jerusalem because of Shi′shak, and he said to them: "'This is what Jehovah says, 'You have abandoned me, so I have also abandoned you[g] to the hand of Shi′shak.'" 6 At that the princes of Israel and the king humbled themselves[h] and said: "Jehovah is righteous." 7 When Jehovah saw that they had humbled themselves, the word of Jehovah came to She·mai′ah, saying: "They have humbled themselves. I will not destroy them,[i] and in a little while I will rescue them. I will not pour out my wrath on Jerusalem through Shi′shak. 8 But they will become his servants, so that they will know the difference

9 So King Shi'shak of Egypt came up against Jerusalem. He took the treasures of the house of Jehovah[a] and the treasures of the king's house.* He took everything, including the gold shields that Sol'o·mon had made.[b] 10 So King Re·ho·bo'am made copper shields to replace them, and he entrusted them to the chiefs of the guard,* who guarded the entrance of the king's house. 11 Whenever the king came to the house of Jehovah, the guards would come in and carry them, and then they would return them to the guard chamber. 12 Because the king humbled himself, Jehovah's anger turned away from him,[c] and he did not destroy them completely.[d] Moreover, there were some good things found in Judah.[e]

13 King Re·ho·bo'am strengthened his position in Jerusalem and continued to reign; Re·ho·bo'am was 41 years old when he became king, and he reigned for 17 years in Jerusalem, the city that Jehovah had chosen out of all the tribes of Israel as the place to put his name. The name of the king's mother was Na'a·mah the Am'mon·it·ess.[f] 14 But he did what was bad, for he had not resolved in his heart to search for Jehovah.[g]

15 As for Re·ho·bo'am's history, from beginning to end, is it not written among the words of She·mai'ah[h] the prophet and of Id'do[i] the visionary in the genealogical record? And there were constant wars between Re·ho·bo'am and Jer·o·bo'am.[j] 16 Then Re·ho·bo'am was laid to rest with his forefathers and was buried in the City of David;[k] and his son A·bi'jah[a] became king in his place.

13 In the 18th year of King Jer·o·bo'am, A·bi'jah became king over Judah.[b] 2 He reigned for three years in Jerusalem. His mother's name was Mi·cai'ah[c] the daughter of U·ri'el of Gib'e·ah.[d] And there was war between A·bi'jah and Jer·o·bo'am.[e]

3 So A·bi'jah went to war with an army of 400,000 mighty, trained* warriors.[f] And Jer·o·bo'am drew up in battle formation against him with 800,000 trained* men, mighty warriors. 4 A·bi'jah now stood on Mount Zem·a·ra'im, which is in the mountainous region of E'phra·im, and said: "Hear me, O Jer·o·bo'am and all Israel. 5 Do you not know that Jehovah the God of Israel gave to David a kingdom over Israel forever,[g] to him and to his sons,[h] by a covenant of salt?*[i] 6 But Jer·o·bo'am[j] the son of Ne'bat, the servant of David's son Sol'o·mon, rose up and rebelled against his lord.[k] 7 And idle, worthless men kept gathering to him. And they proved superior to Re·ho·bo'am the son of Sol'o·mon when Re·ho·bo'am was young and fainthearted, and he could not hold his own against them.

8 "And now you think you can hold your own against the kingdom of Jehovah in the hand of the sons of David because you are a large crowd and you have the golden calves that Jer·o·bo'am made as gods for you.[l] 9 Have you not driven out Jehovah's priests,[m] the descendants of Aaron, and the Levites, and have you not appointed your own priests just like the peoples of the other lands?[n] Anyone who came along with* a young bull and seven rams could become a priest of what are not gods. 10 As for us, Jehovah is our God,[a] and we have not abandoned him; our priests, the descendants of Aaron, are ministering to Jehovah, and the Levites assist in the work. 11 They are making burnt offerings smoke to Jehovah each morning and each evening[b] along with perfumed incense,[c] and the layer bread*[d] is on the table of pure gold, and they light up the golden lampstand[e] and its lamps each evening,[f] because we are caring for our responsibility to Jehovah our God; but you have abandoned him. 12 Now look! the true God is with us, leading us, with his priests and the signal trumpets for sounding the battle alarm against you. O men of Israel, do not fight against Jehovah the God of your forefathers, for you will not be successful."[g]

13 But Jer·o·bo′am dispatched an ambush to come from behind them, so that they were in front of Judah and the ambush was behind them. 14 When the men of Judah turned around, they saw that they had to fight the battle both in front and from behind. So they began to cry out to Jehovah,[h] while the priests were loudly sounding the trumpets. 15 The men of Judah broke out in a war cry, and when the men of Judah shouted the war cry, the true God defeated Jer·o·bo′am and all Israel before A·bi′jah and Judah. 16 The Israelites fled before Judah, and God gave them into their hand. 17 A·bi′jah and his people inflicted a great slaughter on them, and the slain of Israel kept falling, 500,000 trained* men. 18 Thus the men of Israel were humbled at that time, but the men of Judah proved superior because they relied* on Jehovah the God of their forefathers.[a] 19 A·bi′jah kept chasing after Jer·o·bo′am and captured cities from him, Beth′el[b] and its dependent* towns, Jesh′a·nah and its dependent towns, and E′phra·in[c] and its dependent towns. 20 And Jer·o·bo′am never regained his power during the time of A·bi′jah; then Jehovah struck him down and he died.[d]

21 But A·bi′jah grew in strength. In time he took 14 wives,[e] and he became father to 22 sons and 16 daughters. 22 And the rest of A·bi′jah's history, his deeds and his words, is recorded in the writings* of the prophet Id′do.[f]

14 Then A·bi′jah was laid to rest with his forefathers, and they buried him in the City of David;[g] and his son A′sa became king in his place. In his days the land had rest for ten years.

2 A′sa did what was good and right in the eyes of Jehovah his God. 3 He removed the foreign altars[h] and the high places, smashed the sacred pillars,[i] and cut down the sacred poles.[j] 4 Further, he told Judah to search for Jehovah the God of their forefathers and to observe the Law and the commandment. 5 So he removed from all the cities of Judah the high places and the incense stands,[k] and under him, the kingdom continued without disturbance. 6 He built fortified cities in Judah,[l] since the land had no disturbance and there was no war against him during these years, for Jehovah gave him rest.[a] 7 He said to Judah: "Let us build these cities and surround them with walls and towers,[b] gates and bars. For the land is still at our disposal, because we have searched for Jehovah our God. We have searched, and he has given us rest all around." So their building was successful.[c]

8 A′sa had an army of 300,000 men from Judah, equipped with large shields and lances. And out of Benjamin were 280,000 mighty warriors who carried bucklers* and were armed with bows.#[d] 9 Later Ze′rah the E·thi·o′pian came against them with an army of 1,000,000 men and 300 chariots.[e] When he reached Ma·re′shah,[f] 10 A′sa went out against him and they drew up in battle formation in the Valley of Zeph′a·thah at Ma·re′shah. 11 A′sa then called to Jehovah his God[g] and said: "O Jehovah, it does not matter to you whether those you help are many or have no power.[h] Help us, O Jehovah our God, for we are relying* on you,[i] and in your name we have come against this crowd.[j] O Jehovah, you are our God. Do not let mortal man prevail against you."[k]

12 So Jehovah defeated the E·thi·o′pi·ans before A′sa and before Judah, and the E·thi·o′pians fled.[l] 13 A′sa and the people with him pursued them as far as Ge′rar,[m] and the E·thi·o′pi·ans continued falling until not one of them was alive, for they were crushed by Jehovah and by his army. Afterward they carried off a very great deal of spoil. 14 Further, they struck all the cities around Ge′rar, for the dread of Jehovah had come upon them; and they plundered all the cities, for there was much to plunder in them. 15 They also attacked the tents of those with livestock, and they captured a great number of flocks and camels, after which they returned to Jerusalem.

15 Now the spirit of God came upon Az·a·ri′ah the son of O′ded. 2 So he went out to meet A′sa and said to him: "Hear me, O A′sa and all Judah and Benjamin! Jehovah is with you as long as you remain with him;[a] and if you search for him, he will let himself be found by you,[b] but if you abandon him, he will abandon you.[c] 3 For a long time* Israel had been without the true God, without a priest teaching, and without law.[d] 4 But when in their distress they returned to Jehovah the God of Israel and searched for him, he let himself be found by them.[e] 5 In those times no one could travel safely,* for there was much unrest among all the inhabitants of the lands. 6 Nation was being crushed by nation and one city by another city, because God kept them in disorder with every sort of distress.[f] 7 But you, be strong and do not become discouraged,*[g] for your activity will be rewarded."

8 As soon as A′sa heard these words and the prophecy of O′ded the prophet, he took courage and removed the disgusting idols from all the land of Judah[h] and Benjamin and from the cities that he had captured from the mountainous region of E′phra·im, and he restored Jehovah's altar that was before the porch of

Jehovah.[a] 9 And he gathered together all Judah and Benjamin and the foreign residents with them from E′phra·im and Manas′seh and Sim′e·on,[b] for they had deserted to him from Israel in great number when they saw that Jehovah his God was with him. 10 So they were gathered together at Jerusalem in the third month of the 15th year of A′sa's reign. 11 On that day they sacrificed to Jehovah from the spoil they had brought, 700 cattle and 7,000 sheep. 12 Furthermore, they entered into a covenant to search for Jehovah the God of their forefathers with all their heart and with all their soul.*[c] 13 Whoever would not search for Jehovah the God of Israel was to be put to death, whether small or great, man or woman.[d] 14 So they took an oath to Jehovah with a loud voice, with joyful shouting, and with the trumpets and horns. 15 And all Judah rejoiced over the oath, for they had taken the oath with all their heart and they eagerly sought him and he let himself be found by them,[e] and Jehovah continued to give them rest on every side.[f]

16 A′sa the king even removed Ma′a·cah[g] his grandmother from her position as queen mother,# because she had made an obscene idol for the worship of the sacred pole.[h] A′sa cut down her obscene idol and pulverized it and burned it in the Kid′ron Valley.[i] 17 But the high places were not removed[j] from Israel.[k] Nevertheless, A′sa's heart was complete all his life.#[l] 18 And he brought the things that he and his father had made holy into the house of the true God—silver, gold, and various utensils.[a] 19 There was no war until the 35th year of A′sa's reign.[b]

16 In the 36th year of the reign of A′sa, King Ba′a-sha[c] of Israel came up against Judah and began to build up* Ra′mah[d] to prevent anyone from going out or coming in to# King A′sa of Judah.[e] 2 At that A′sa brought out silver and gold from the treasuries of Jehovah's house[f] and the king's house* and sent them to King Ben-ha′dad of Syria,[g] who was dwelling in Damascus, saying: 3 "There is a treaty* between me and you and between my father and your father. I am sending you silver and gold. Come, break your treaty* with King Ba′a-sha of Israel, so that he will withdraw from me."

4 Ben-ha′dad listened to King A′sa and sent the chiefs of his armies against the cities of Israel, and they struck down I′jon,[h] Dan,[i] A′bel-ma′im, and all the storage places of the cities of Naph′ta·li.[j] 5 When Ba′a·sha heard of it, he immediately quit building* Ra′mah and abandoned his work on it. 6 King A′sa then took all Judah, and they carried off the stones and timbers of Ra′mah[k] that Ba′a·sha had been building with,[l] and with them he built up* Ge′ba[m] and Miz′pah.[n]

7 At that time Ha·na′ni[o] the seer came to King A′sa of Judah and said to him: "Because you relied* on the king of Syria and did not rely# on Jehovah your God, the army of the king of Syria has escaped out of your hand.[p] 8 Were not the E·thi·o′pi·ans and the Lib′y·ans a very great army with many chariots and horsemen? But because you relied on Jehovah, he gave them into your hand.[a] 9 For the eyes of Jehovah are roving about through all the earth[b] to show his strength* in behalf of those whose heart is complete toward# him.[c] You have acted foolishly in this matter; from now on there will be wars against you."[d]

10 However, A'sa became offended at the seer and put him in prison* because he was enraged at him over this. And A'sa began to mistreat others among the people at that same time. 11 Now the history of A'sa, from beginning to end, is written in the Book of the Kings of Judah and of Israel.[e]

12 In the 39th year of his reign, A'sa developed an ailment in his feet until he became very sick; and even in his sickness, he turned, not to Jehovah, but to the healers. 13 Then A'sa was laid to rest with his forefathers;[f] he died in the 41st year of his reign. 14 So they buried him in the grand burial place that he had excavated for himself in the City of David,[g] and they laid him on a bier that had been filled with balsam oil and different sorts of ingredients mixed into a specially made ointment.[h] Further, they made an extraordinarily great funeral burning for him.*

17 And his son Je·hosh'a·phat[i] became king in his place, and he strengthened his position over Israel. 2 He stationed military forces in all the fortified cities of Judah and put garrisons in the land of Judah and in the cities of E'phraim that A'sa his father had captured.[a] 3 Jehovah continued with Je·hosh'a·phat because he walked in the former ways of his forefather David[b] and did not search for the Ba'als. 4 For he searched for the God of his father[c] and followed* his commandment and not the practices of Israel.[d] 5 Jehovah kept the kingdom firmly established in his hand;[e] and all Judah continued to give gifts to Je·hosh'a·phat, and he had riches and glory in abundance.[f] 6 His heart became bold in the ways of Jehovah, and he even removed the high places[g] and the sacred poles*[h] from Judah.

7 In the third year of his reign he sent for his princes, Ben-ha'il, O·ba·di'ah, Zech·a·ri'ah, Ne·than'el, and Mi·cai'ah, to teach in the cities of Judah. 8 There were Levites with them: She·mai'ah, Neth·a·ni'ah, Zeb·a·di'ah, As'a·hel, She·mir'a·moth, Je·hon'a·than, Ad·o·ni'jah, To·bi'jah, and Tob-ad·o·ni'jah, and along with them E·lish'a·ma and Je·ho'ram the priests.[i] 9 They began teaching in Judah, taking with them the book of Jehovah's Law,[j] and they went around through all the cities of Judah teaching among the people.

10 And the dread of Jehovah came upon all the kingdoms of the lands surrounding Judah, and they did not fight against Je·hosh'a·phat. 11 And the Philis'tines brought to Je·hosh'a·phat gifts and money as tribute. The Arabs brought him 7,700 rams and 7,700 male goats from their flocks.

12 Je·hosh'a·phat grew greater and greater,[k] and he continued building fortified places[l] and storage cities[m] in Judah. 13 He carried out extensive projects in the cities of Judah, and he had soldiers, mighty warriors, in Jerusalem. 14 These were grouped by their paternal houses: of Judah the chiefs of thousands, Ad′nah the chief, and with him were 300,000 mighty warriors.[a] 15 And under his command was Je·ho·ha′nan the chief, and with him were 280,000. 16 And also under his command was Am·a·si′ah the son of Zich′ri, who volunteered for Jehovah's service, and with him were 200,000 mighty warriors. 17 And out of Benjamin[b] was E·li′a·da, a mighty warrior, and with him were 200,000 men equipped with the bow and shield.[c] 18 And under his command was Je·hoz′a·bad, and with him were 180,000 men equipped for the army. 19 These were ministering to the king in addition to those whom the king put in the fortified cities throughout all Judah.[d]

18 Je·hosh′a·phat had riches and glory in abundance,[e] but he made a marriage alliance with A′hab.[f] 2 So years later he went down to A′hab at Sa·mar′i·a,[g] and A′hab sacrificed sheep and cattle in abundance for him and for the people with him. And he urged* him to go up against Ra′moth-gil′e·ad.[h] 3 Then King A′hab of Israel said to King Je·hosh′a·phat of Judah: "Will you go with me to Ra′moth-gil′e·ad?" He replied to him: "I am the same as you, and my people are the same as your people and will support you in the war."

4 But Je·hosh′a·phat said to the king of Israel: "First inquire, please, for the word of Jehovah."[i] 5 So the king of Israel gathered the prophets together, 400 men, and said to them: "Should we go to war against Ra′moth-gil′e·ad, or should I refrain?" They said: "Go up, and the true God will give it into the king's hand."

6 Je·hosh′a·phat then said: "Is there not here a prophet of Jehovah?[a] Let us also inquire through him."[b] 7 At that the king of Israel said to Je·hosh′a·phat: "There is still one more man[c] through whom we can inquire of Jehovah; but I hate him, for he never prophesies good things concerning me, but always bad.[d] He is Mi·cai′ah the son of Im′lah." However, Je·hosh′a·phat said: "The king should not say such a thing."

8 So the king of Israel called a court official and said: "Bring Mi·cai′ah the son of Im′lah quickly."[e] 9 Now the king of Israel and Je·hosh′a·phat the king of Judah were each sitting on his throne, dressed in royal attire; they were sitting at the threshing floor at the entrance of the gate of Sa·mar′i·a, and all the prophets were prophesying before them. 10 Then Zed·e·ki′ah the son of Che·na′a·nah made for himself iron horns and said: "This is what Jehovah says, 'With these you will gore* the Syrians until you exterminate them.'" 11 All the other prophets were prophesying the same way, saying: "Go up to Ra′moth-gil′e·ad and you will be successful;[f] Jehovah will give it into the king's hand."

12 So the messenger who went to call Mi·cai′ah said to him: "Look! The words of the prophets are unanimously favorable to the king. Let your word, please, become like theirs,[g] and speak favorably."[h] 13 But Mi·cai′ah said: "As surely as Jehovah is living, whatever my God says is what I will speak."[i] 14 Then he came in to the king, and the king asked him:

"Mi·cai′ah, should we go to war against Ra′moth-gil′e·ad, or should I refrain?" At once he replied: "Go up and you will be successful; they will be given into your hand." 15 At that the king said to him: "How many times must I put you under oath not to speak to me anything but the truth in the name of Jehovah?" 16 So he said: "I see all the Israelites scattered on the mountains, like sheep that have no shepherd.[a] Jehovah said: 'These have no master. Let each one go back to his house in peace.'"

17 Then the king of Israel said to Je·hosh′a·phat: "Did I not tell you, 'He will not prophesy good things concerning me, only bad'?"[b]

23 Zed·e·ki′ah[h] the son of Che·na′a·nah now approached and struck Mi·cai′ah[i] on the cheek[j] and said: "Which way did the spirit of Jehovah pass from me to speak with you?"[a] 24 Mi·cai′ah replied: "Look! You will see which way on the day when you will enter the innermost room to hide." 25 Then the king of Israel said: "Take Mi·cai′ah and turn him over to A′mon the chief of the city and to Jo′ash the king's son. 26 Tell them, 'This is what the king says: "Put this fellow in the prison[b] and feed him with a reduced allowance of bread and water until I return in peace."'" 27 But Mi·cai′ah said: "If you do return in peace, Jehovah has not spoken with me."[c] Then he added: "Take note, all you peoples."

28 So the king of Israel and Je·hosh′a·phat the king of Judah went up to Ra′moth-gil′e·ad.[d] 29 The king of Israel now said to Je·hosh′a·phat: "I will disguise myself and will go into the battle, but you should put on your royal attire." So the king of Israel disguised himself, and they entered the battle. 30 Now the king of Syria had ordered his chariot commanders: "Do not fight with anyone, small or great, except the king of Israel." 31 And as soon as the chariot commanders saw Je·hosh′a·phat, they said to themselves: "It is the king of Israel." So they turned to fight against him; and Je·hosh′a·phat began to cry for help,[e] and Jehovah helped him, and God at once diverted them from him. 32 When the chariot commanders saw that it was not the king of Israel, they immediately turned back from following him.

33 But one man shot his bow at random,* and he struck the king of Israel between the joints of his coat of mail. So the king said to his charioteer: "Turn around and take me out of the battle,# for I have been badly wounded."[a] 34 The fighting raged throughout that day, and the king of Israel had to be propped up in the chariot, facing the Syrians until the evening; and he died at sunset.[b]

19 Then King Je·hosh′a·phat of Judah returned safely*[c] to his own house# in Jerusalem. 2 Je′hu[d] the son of Hana′ni[e] the visionary went out to meet him and said to King Jehosh′a·phat: "Is it the wicked you should be helping,[f] and is it those who hate Jehovah you should love?[g] Because of this the indignation of Jehovah is against you. 3 Nevertheless, there are good things that have been found in you,[h] because you cleared out the sacred poles* from the land and you have prepared your heart# to search for the true God."[i]

4 Je·hosh′a·phat continued living in Jerusalem, and he went out again among the people from Be′er-she′ba to the mountainous region of E′phra·im,[j] to bring them back to Jehovah the God of their forefathers.[k] 5 He also appointed judges throughout the land in all the fortified cities of Judah, city by city.[l] 6 And he said to the judges: "Pay attention to what you are doing, for you do not judge for man but for Jehovah, and he is with you when you pass judgment.[m] 7 Now let the fear of Jehovah be upon you.[n] Be careful about what you do, for with Jehovah our God there is no injustice,[o] no partiality,[p] no bribe-taking."[q]

8 In Jerusalem also, Je·hosh′a·phat appointed some of the Levites and the priests and some of the heads of the paternal houses of Israel to serve as judges for Jehovah and to settle legal cases for the inhabitants of Jerusalem.[a] 9 And he commanded them: "This is what you should do in the fear of Jehovah, with faithfulness and a complete* heart: 10 Whenever your brothers living in their cities bring a legal case that involves the shedding of blood[b] or a question about a law, a commandment, regulations, or judgments, you should warn them so that they may not become guilty before Jehovah; otherwise his indignation will come against you and your brothers. This is what you should do, so that you may not incur guilt. 11 Here is Am·a·ri′ah the chief priest who is over you for every matter of Jehovah.[c] Zeb·a·di′ah the son of Ish′ma·el is the leader of the house of Judah for every matter pertaining to the king. And the Levites will serve as officers for you. Be strong and act, and let Jehovah be with those who do what is good."*[d]

20 Afterward the Mo′ab·ites[e] and the Am′mon·ites,[f] together with some of the Am′mon·im,* came to wage war against Je·hosh′a·phat. 2 So Je·hosh′a·phat was told: "A large crowd has come against you from the region of the sea,* from E′dom,[g] and there they are in Haz′a·zon-ta′mar, that is, En-ged′i."[h] 3 At that Je·hosh′a·phat became afraid, and he resolved* to search for Jehovah.[i] So he proclaimed a fast for all Judah. 4 The people of Judah then gathered together to inquire of Jehovah;[j] they came from all the cities of Judah to consult Jehovah.

5 Then Je·hosh′a·phat stood up in the congregation of Judah

"O Jehovah the God of our forefathers, are you not God in the heavens;[a] do you not have dominion over all the kingdoms of the nations?[b] In your hand are power and might, and no one can stand against you.[c] 7 O our God, did you not drive away the inhabitants of this land from before your people Israel and then give it as a lasting possession to the offspring* of your friend Abraham?[d] 8 And they settled in it, and they built for you there a sanctuary for your name,[e] saying, 9 'If disaster should come on us, whether by sword, adverse judgment, pestilence, or famine, let us stand before this house and before you (for your name is in this house)[f] and call to you for help out of our distress, and may you hear and save us.'[g] 10 Now here are the men of Am'mon, Mo'ab, and the mountainous region of Se'ir,[h] whom you did not allow Israel to invade when they came out of the land of Egypt. 13 Meanwhile, all those of Judah were standing before Jehovah, along with their little ones, their wives, and their children.*

14 Then in the middle of the congregation, the spirit of Jehovah came upon Ja·ha·zi'el son of Be·nai'ah son of Je·i'el son of Mat·ta·ni'ah the Levite of the sons of A'saph. 15 He said: "Pay attention, all Judah and you inhabitants of Jerusalem and King Je·hosh'a·phat! Here is what Jehovah says to you, 'Do not be afraid or be terrified because of this large crowd, for the battle is not yours but God's.[a] 16 Tomorrow go down against them. They will be coming up by the pass of Ziz, and you will find them at the end of the valley* before the wilderness of Je·ru'el. 17 You will not need to fight this battle. Take your position, stand still,[b] and see the salvation of Jehovah in your behalf.*[c] O Judah and Jerusalem, do not be afraid or be terrified.[d] Tomorrow go out against them, and Jehovah will be with you.'"[e]

18 At once Je·hosh'a·phat bowed low with his face to the ground, and all Judah and the inhabitants of Jerusalem fell down before Jehovah to worship Jehovah. 19 Then the Levites who were descendants of the Ko'hath·ites[f] and the Kor'ah·ites rose up to praise Jehovah the God of Israel with a very loud voice.[g]

20 They rose up early the next morning and went out to the wilderness of Te·ko'a.[h] As they went out, Je·hosh'a·phat stood up and said: "Listen to me, O Judah and you inhabitants of Jerusalem! Put faith in Jehovah your God so that you may be able to stand firm.* Put faith in his prophets,[i] and you will be successful."

men, saying: "Give thanks to Jehovah, for his loyal love endures forever."[a]

22 When they began joyfully singing praises, Jehovah set an ambush against the men of Am'mon, Mo'ab, and the mountainous region of Se'ir who were invading Judah, and they struck each other down.[b] 23 And the Am'mon·ites and the Mo'ab·ites turned against the inhabitants of the mountainous region of Se'ir[c] to destroy and annihilate them; and when they finished with the inhabitants of Se'ir, they helped to destroy one another.[d]

24 But when Judah came to the watchtower of the wilderness[e] and looked toward the crowd, there they saw their carcasses fallen to the ground;[f] there were no survivors. 25 So Je·hosh'a·phat and his people came to carry off the spoil from them, and they found among them an abundance of goods, clothing, and desirable articles, which they stripped off for themselves until they could carry no more.[g] It took three days to carry off the spoil, for it was abundant. 26 On the fourth day they congregated together at the Valley* of Ber'a·cah, for there they praised# Jehovah. That is why they named that place Valley of Ber'a·cahᵃ[h]—until today.

27 Then all the men of Judah and Jerusalem, with Je·hosh'a·phat at their head, returned to Jerusalem with rejoicing, for Jehovah had made them rejoice over their enemies.[i] 28 So they came into Jerusalem with stringed instruments, harps,[j] and trumpets[k] and went to the house of Jehovah.[l] 29 And the dread of God came upon all the kingdoms of the lands when they heard that Jehovah had fought against the enemies of Israel.[a] 30 Thus the kingdom of Je·hosh'a·phat had no disturbance, and his God continued to give him rest on every side.[b]

31 And Je·hosh'a·phat continued reigning over Judah. He was 35 years old when he became king, and he reigned for 25 years in Jerusalem. His mother's name was A·zu'bah the daughter of Shil'hi.[c] 32 He kept walking in the way of his father A'sa.[d] He did not deviate from it, and he did what was right in Jehovah's eyes.[e] 33 However, the high places were not removed,[f] and the people had not yet prepared their heart for the God of their forefathers.[g]

34 As for the rest of the history of Je·hosh'a·phat, from beginning to end, there it is written among the words of Je'hu[h] the son of Ha·na'ni,[i] which were included in the Book of the Kings of Israel. 35 After this King Je·hosh'a·phat of Judah made an alliance with King A·ha·zi'ah of Israel, who acted wickedly.[j] 36 So he made him his partner in making ships to go to Tar'shish,[k] and they built the ships in E'zi·on·ge'ber.[l] 37 However, E·li·e'zer the son of Dod·av'a·hu of Ma·re'sha spoke prophetically against Je·hosh'a·phat, saying: "Because you have made an alliance with A·ha·zi'ah, Jehovah will destroy your works."[m] So the ships were wrecked,[n] and they were unable to go to Tar'shish.

21 Then Je·hosh'a·phat was laid to rest with his forefathers and was buried with his forefathers in the City of David; and his son Je·ho'ram became king in his place.[o] 2 His brothers, Je·hosh'a·phat's sons, were Az·a·ri'ah, Je·hi'el, Zech·a·ri'ah, Az·a·ri'ah, Mi'cha·el, and Shepha·ti'ah; all of these were the sons of King Je·hosh'a·phat of Israel. 3 And their father had given them many gifts in silver and gold, and valuable things, along with fortified cities in Judah;[a] but he gave the kingdom to Je·ho′ram,[b] for he was the firstborn.

4 When Je·ho′ram had taken control of the kingdom of his father, he strengthened his position by killing all his brothers[c] with the sword, as well as some of the princes of Israel. 5 Je·ho′ram was 32 years old when he became king, and he reigned for eight years in Jerusalem.[d] 6 He walked in the way of the kings of Israel,[e] just as those of the house of A′hab had done, for A′hab's daughter had become his wife;[f] and he kept doing what was bad in Jehovah's eyes. 7 But Jehovah did not want to bring the house of David to ruin for the sake of the covenant that he had made with David,[g] since he had promised to give a lamp to him and to his sons always.[h]

8 In his days E′dom revolted against Judah[i] and then set up its own king.[j] 9 So Je·ho′ram and his commanders crossed over with all his chariots, and he rose up by night and defeated the E′dom·ites who were surrounding him and the chariot commanders. 10 But E′dom has kept up its revolt against Judah to this day. Lib′nah[k] also revolted against him at that time, because he had abandoned Jehovah the God of his forefathers.[l] 11 He had also made high places[m] on the mountains of Judah to cause the inhabitants of Jerusalem to commit spiritual prostitution, and he led Judah astray.

12 Eventually a written message came to him from E·lī′jah[n] the prophet, saying: "This is what Jehovah the God of David your forefather says, 'You have not walked in the ways of your father Je·hosh′a·phat[a] or in the ways of King A′sa[b] of Judah. 13 But you walk in the way of the kings of Israel[c] and cause Judah and the inhabitants of Jerusalem to commit spiritual prostitution[d] like the prostitution of the house of A′hab,[e] and you even killed your own brothers,[f] the household of your father, who were better than you. 14 Therefore, Jehovah is dealing a great blow to your people, to your sons, to your wives, and to all your possessions. 15 And you will suffer with many sicknesses, including a disease of your intestines, until your intestines come out because of the disease, day after day.'"

16 Then Jehovah stirred up[g] against Je·ho′ram the Phi·lis′tines*[h] and the Arabs[i] who were near the E·thi·o′pi·ans. 17 So they invaded Judah, forcing their way in, and carried off all the possessions that were found in the king's house,*[j] as well as his sons and his wives; and the only son left to him was Je·ho′a·haz,#[k] his youngest son. 18 And after all of this, Jehovah afflicted him with an incurable disease in his intestines.[l] 19 Some time later, when two full years had passed, his intestines came out because of his disease, and he died while suffering severely from his disease; and his people did not make a burning for him like the burning that was made for his forefathers.[m] 20 He was 32 years old when he became king, and he reigned for eight years in Jerusalem. No one regretted it when he died. So they buried him in the City of David,[n] but not in the burial places of the kings.[o]

22 Then the inhabitants of Jerusalem made his youngest son A·ha·zi′ah king in his place, for the marauder band that came with the Arabs to the camp had killed all the older ones.[a] So A·ha·zi′ah the son of Je·ho′ram began to reign as king of Judah.[b] 2 A·ha·zi′ah was 22 years old when he became king, and he reigned for one year in Jerusalem. His mother's name was Ath·a·li′ah[c] the granddaughter* of Om′ri.[d]

3 He too walked in the ways of the house of A′hab,[e] for his mother became his adviser in acting wickedly. 4 And he kept doing what was bad in Jehovah's eyes, like the house of A′hab, for they became his advisers after the death of his father, to his destruction. 5 He followed their advice and went with Je·ho′ram the son of King A′hab of Israel to wage war against King Haz′a·el[f] of Syria at Ra′moth-gil′e·ad,[g] where the archers wounded Je·ho′ram. 6 He returned to Jez′reel[h] to recover from the wounds that they had inflicted on him at Ra′mah when he fought against King Haz′a·el of Syria.[i]

A·ha·zi′ah* the son of Je·ho′ram[j] the king of Judah went down to Jez′re·el to see Je·ho′ram[k] the son of A′hab, because he had been wounded.#[l] 7 But God brought about the downfall of A·ha·zi′ah by his coming to Je·ho′ram; and when he came, he went out with Je·ho′ram to meet Je′hu[m] the grandson* of Nim′shi, whom Jehovah had anointed to do away with# the house of A′hab.[n] 8 When Je′hu began to execute judgment on the house of A′hab, he found the princes of Judah and the sons of A·ha·zi′ah's brothers, ministers of A·ha·zi′ah, and he killed them.[a] 9 Then he looked for A·ha·zi′ah; they captured him where he was hiding in Sa·mar′i·a, and they brought him to Je′hu. Then they put him to death and buried him,[b] for they said: "He is the grandson of Je·hosh′a·phat, who searched for Jehovah with all his heart."[c] There was no one of the house of A·ha·zi′ah who had the power to rule the kingdom.

10 When Ath·a·li′ah,[d] A·ha·zi′ah's mother, saw that her son had died, she rose up and destroyed the entire royal line* of the house of Judah.[e] 11 However, Je·ho·shab′e·ath the daughter of the king took Je·ho′ash[f] the son of A·ha·zi′ah and stole him away from among the sons of the king who were to be put to death, and she put him and his nurse in an inner bedroom. Je·ho·shab′e·ath the daughter of King Je·ho′ram[g] (she was the wife of Je·hoi′a·da[h] the priest and a sister of A·ha·zi′ah) managed to keep him concealed from Ath·a·li′ah, so that she did not put him to death.[i] 12 He remained with them for six years, hidden at the house of the true God, while Ath·a·li′ah was ruling over the land.

23 In the seventh year, Je·hoi′a·da acted courageously and made a pact* with the chiefs of hundreds,[j] namely, Az·a·ri′ah the son of Je·ro′ham, Ish′ma·el the son of Je·ho·ha′nan, Az·a·ri′ah the son of O′bed, Ma·a·sei′ah the son of A·dai′ah, and E·li·sha′phat the son of Zich′ri. 2 Then they went throughout Judah and gathered together the Levites[k] from all the cities of Judah and the heads of the paternal houses of Israel. they came to Jerusalem, 3 the entire congregation made a covenant[a] with the king in the house of the true God, after which he said to them:

"Look! The king's son will reign, just as Jehovah promised concerning the sons of David.[b] 4 This is what you are to do: One third of the priests and of the Levites who will be on duty[c] on the Sabbath will be doorkeepers;[d] 5 another third will be at the house* of the king,[e] and the other third will be at the Gate of the Foundation, and all the people will be in the courtyards of the house of Jehovah.[f] 6 Do not let anyone enter the house of Jehovah except the priests and the Levites who are ministering.[g] These may enter because they are a holy group, and all the people will keep the obligation to Jehovah. 7 The Levites must surround the king on every side, each with his weapons in hand. Anyone entering the house will be put to death. Stay with the king wherever he goes."*

8 The Levites and all Judah did exactly what Je·hoi'a·da the priest had commanded. So each one took his men who were on duty on the Sabbath, together with those who were off duty on the Sabbath,[h] for Je·hoi'a·da the priest had not dismissed the divisions[i] from their duty. 9 Je·hoi'a·da the priest then gave the chiefs of hundreds[j] the spears and the bucklers* and the circular shields that had belonged to King David,[k] which were in the house of the true God.[l] 10 He then stationed all the people, each with his weapon* in hand, from the right side of the house to the left side of the house, by the altar and by the house, all around the king. 11 Then they brought the king's son[a] out and put on him the crown* and the Testimony#[b] and made him king, and Je·hoi'a·da and his sons anointed him. Then they said: "Long live the king!"[c]

12 When Ath·a·li'ah heard the sound of the people running and praising the king, she immediately came to the people at the house of Jehovah.[d] 13 Then she saw the king standing there by his pillar at the entrance. The princes[e] and the trumpeters were with the king, and all the people of the land were rejoicing[f] and blowing the trumpets, and the singers with musical instruments were leading* the praises. At this Ath·a·li'ah ripped her garments apart and cried out: "Conspiracy! Conspiracy!" 14 But Je·hoi'a·da the priest brought out the chiefs of hundreds, those appointed over the army, and said to them: "Take her out from among the ranks, and if anyone follows her, put him to death with the sword!" For the priest had said: "Do not put her to death in the house of Jehovah." 15 So they seized her, and when she reached the entrance of the Horse Gate of the king's house,* they immediately put her to death there.

16 Then Je·hoi'a·da made a covenant between himself and all the people and the king, that they would continue as the people of Jehovah.[g] 17 After that all the people came to the house* of Ba'al and tore it down,[h] and they smashed his altars and his images,[i] and they killed Mat'tan the priest of Ba'al[j] in front of the altars. 18 Then Je·hoi′a·da put the oversight of the house of Jehovah in the hands of the priests and the Levites, whom David had assigned in divisions over the house of Jehovah to offer up the burnt sacrifices of Jehovah[a] according to what is written in the Law of Moses,[b] with rejoicing and with song, as directed by* David. 19 He also stationed the gatekeepers[c] by the gates of the house of Jehovah, so that no one unclean in any respect could enter. 20 He now took the chiefs of hundreds,[d] the nobles, the rulers of the people, and all the people of the land and escorted the king down from the house of Jehovah. Then they came through the upper gate to the king's house* and seated the king on the throne[e] of the kingdom.[f] 21 So all the people of the land rejoiced and the city was quiet, for they had put Ath·a·li′ah to death with the sword.

24 Je·ho′ash was seven years old when he became king,[g] and he reigned for 40 years in Jerusalem. His mother's name was Zib′i·ah from Be′er-she′ba.[h] 2 Je·ho′ash continued doing what was right in Jehovah's eyes all the days of Je·hoi′a·da the priest.[i] 3 Je·hoi′a·da chose two wives for him, and he became father to sons and daughters.

4 Afterward it was the heart's desire of Je·ho′ash to renovate the house of Jehovah.[j] 5 So he gathered the priests and the Levites together and said to them: "Go out to the cities of Judah and collect money from all Israel to repair the house of your God[k] from year to year; and you should act quickly in the matter." But the Levites did not act quickly.[l] 6 So the king called Je·hoi′a·da the chief and said to him:[a] "Why have you not required the Levites to bring in from Judah and Jerusalem the sacred tax ordered by Moses[b] the servant of Jehovah, the sacred tax of the congregation of Israel, for the tent of the Testimony?[c] 7 For the sons of Ath·a·li′ah,[d] that wicked woman, had broken into the house of the true God,[e] and they had used all the holy things of the house of Jehovah for the Ba′als." 8 Then, at the king's order, a chest[f] was made and placed outside at the gate of the house of Jehovah.[g] 9 After that a proclamation was issued throughout Judah and Jerusalem to bring to Jehovah the sacred tax[h] that Moses the servant of the true God had imposed on Israel in the wilderness. 10 All the princes and all the people rejoiced,[i] and they kept bringing contributions and dropping them into the chest until it was full.*

11 Whenever the Levites brought the chest in to be turned over to the king and they saw that there was a great deal of money in it, the secretary of the king and the commissioner of the chief priest would come and empty the chest,[j] and then they would take it back to its place. That was what they did from day to day, and they gathered money in abundance. 12 Then the king and Je·hoi′a·da would give it to those supervising the work of the service of Jehovah's house, and they would hire the stonecutters and the craftsmen for renovating Jehovah's house,[k] and also workers in iron and copper to repair Jehovah's house. 13 And those supervising the work got it started, and the repair work progressed under their supervision, and they restored the house of the true God to its proper condition and reinforced it. 14 And as soon as they finished, they brought the money that was left over to the king and Je·hoi′a·da, and they used it to make utensils for the house of Jehovah, utensils for the ministry and for making offerings and cups and utensils of gold and of silver.[a] And they would offer up burnt sacrifices[b] at the house of Jehovah regularly all the days of Je·hoi′a·da.

15 When Je·hoi′a·da was old and satisfied with years, he died; he was 130 years old at his death. 16 So they buried him in the City of David along with the kings,[c] because he had done good in Israel[d] with respect to the true God and His house.

17 After Je·hoi′a·da's death the princes of Judah came and bowed down to the king, and the king listened to them. 18 They abandoned the house of Jehovah the God of their forefathers and began serving the sacred poles* and the idols, so that God's anger came# against Judah and Jerusalem because of their guilt. 19 He kept sending prophets among them to bring them back to Jehovah, and they kept warning* them, but they refused to listen.[e]

20 God's spirit came upon* Zech·a·ri′ah the son of Je·hoi′a·da[f] the priest, and he stood above the people and said to them: "This is what the true God says, 'Why are you violating the commandments of Jehovah? You will not be successful! Because you have abandoned Jehovah, he will, in turn, abandon you.'"[g] 21 But they conspired against him[h] and stoned him at the king's order in the courtyard of Jehovah's house.[a] 22 Thus King Je·ho′ash did not remember the loyal love that his father* Je·hoi′a·da had shown toward him, and he killed his son, who said as he was dying: "May Jehovah see to it and call you to account."[b]

23 At the beginning of the year* the Syrian army came up against Je·ho′ash, and they invaded Judah and Jerusalem.[c] Then they did away with all the princes[d] of the people, and they sent all their spoil to the king of Damascus. 24 For although the invading Syrian army had a small number of men, Jehovah handed over to them a very large army,[e] because they had abandoned Jehovah the God of their forefathers; so they* executed judgment on Je·ho′ash. 25 And when they withdrew from him (for they left him severely wounded*), his own servants conspired against him because he had shed the blood of the sons# of Je·hoi′a·da[f] the priest. They killed him on his own bed.[g] So he died and they buried him in the City of David,[h] but they did not bury him in the burial places of the kings.[i]

26 These were the conspirators[j] against him: Za′bad the son of Shim′e·ath the Am′mon·it·ess and Je·hoz′a·bad the son of Shim′rith the Mo′ab·i·tess. 27 Regarding his sons and the many pronouncements against him[k] and the renovation* of the house of the true God,[l] all these things are recorded in the writings# of the Book of the Kings. And his son Am·a·zi′ah became king in his place.

25 Am·a·zi′ah was 25 years old when he became king, and he reigned for 29 years in Jerusalem. His mother's name was Je·ho·ad′dan of Jerusalem.[a] 2 He continued to do what was right in Jehovah's eyes, but not with a complete heart. 3 As soon as he had the kingdom firmly in his control, he killed his servants who had killed his father the king.[b] 4 But he did not put their sons to death, for he acted in harmony with what is written in the Law, in the book of Moses, where Jehovah commanded: "Fathers should not die for their sons, and sons should not die for their fathers; but each one should die for his own sin."[c]

5 And Am·a·zi′ah gathered Judah together and had them stand according to the paternal houses, by the chiefs of thousands and by the chiefs of hundreds for all Judah and Benjamin.[d] He registered them from 20 years old and up,[e] and he found them to be 300,000 trained* warriors to serve in the army, able to handle the lance and the large shield. 6 Further, he hired from Israel 100,000 mighty warriors for 100 silver talents.* 7 But a man of the true God came to him, saying: "O king, do not let the army of Israel go with you, for Jehovah is not with Israel,[f] not with any of the E′phra·im·ites. 8 But go by yourself, act, and be courageous in battle. Otherwise, the true God could cause you to stumble before an enemy, for God has the power to help[g] and to cause stumbling." 9 At this Am·a·zi′ah said to the man of the true God: "But what about the 100 talents that I have given to the troops of Israel?" The man of the true God replied: "Jehovah has the means to give you much more than that."[a] 10 So Am·a·zi′ah dismissed the troops that had come to him from E′phra·im, sending them to their own place. However, they were very angry with Judah, so they returned to their own place in the heat of anger.

11 Then Am·a·zi′ah took courage and led his own troops to the Valley of Salt,[b] and he struck down 10,000 men of Se′ir.[c] 12 And the men of Judah captured 10,000 alive. So they brought them to the top of the crag and threw them down from the top of the crag, and they were all dashed to pieces. 13 But the members of the troop whom Am·a·zi′ah had sent back from accompanying him to the war[d] were making raids on the cities of Judah, from Sa·mar′i·a[e] clear to Beth-ho′ron;[f] they struck down 3,000 of them and took much spoil.

14 But after Am·a·zi′ah returned from striking down the E′dom·ites, he brought the gods of the men of Se′ir and set them up for himself as gods,[g] and he began to bow down before them and to make sacrificial smoke to them. 15 So Jehovah grew very angry with Am·a·zi′ah, and he sent a prophet who said to him: "Why are you following the people's gods that did not rescue their own people out of your hand?"[h] 16 As he spoke to him, the king said: "Did we appoint you as an adviser to the king?[i] Stop![j] Why should they strike you down?" Then the prophet quit, but he added: "I know that God has decided to bring you to ruin, because you have done this and you have not listened to my advice."[k]

son of Je·ho′a·haz son of Je′hu the king of Israel, saying: "Come! Let us confront each other in battle."[a] 18 King Je·ho′ash of Israel sent this message to King Am·a·zi′ah of Judah: "The thorny weed in Leb′a·non sent a message to the cedar in Leb′a·non, 'Give your daughter to my son as a wife.' However, a wild beast of Leb′a·non passed by and trampled down the thorny weed. 19 You have said, 'Look! I have struck down E′dom.'[b] So your heart has become arrogant, wanting to be glorified. But now stay in your own house.# Why should you provoke disaster and fall, bringing Judah down with you?"

20 But Am·a·zi′ah did not listen,[c] for this was from the true God to give them into the hand of the enemy,[d] because they had followed the gods of E′dom.[e] 21 So King Je·ho′ash of Israel went up, and he and King Am·a·zi′ah of Judah confronted each other in battle at Beth-she′mesh,[f] which belongs to Judah. 22 Judah was defeated by Israel, so each one fled to his home.* 23 King Je·ho′ash of Israel captured King Am·a·zi′ah of Judah, son of Je·ho′ash son of Je·ho′a·haz,* at Beth-she′mesh. Then he brought him to Jerusalem and made a breach in the wall of Jerusalem from the Gate of E′phra·im[g] to the Corner Gate,[h] 400 cubits.# 24 He took all the gold and the silver and all the articles that were found in the house of the true God with* O′bed-e′dom and in the treasuries of the king's house,#[i] as well as hostages. Then he returned to Sa·mar′i·a.

25 Am·a·zi′ah[a] the son of Je·ho′ash the king of Judah lived for 15 years after the death of Je·ho′ash[b] the son of Je·ho′a·haz the king of Israel.[c] 26 As for the rest of the history of Am·a·zi′ah, from beginning to end, look! is it not written in the Book of the Kings of Judah and of Israel? 27 From the time that Am·a·zi′ah turned away from following Jehovah, they formed a conspiracy[d] against him in Jerusalem, and he fled to La′chish, but they sent men after him to La′chish and put him to death there. 28 So they carried him back on horses and buried him with his forefathers in the city of Judah.

26 Then all the people of Judah took Uz·zi′ah,[e] who was 16 years old, and made him king in place of his father Am·a·zi′ah.[f] 2 He rebuilt E′loth[g] and restored it to Judah after the king* was laid to rest with his forefathers.[h] 3 Uz·zi′ah[i] was 16 years old when he became king, and he reigned for 52 years in Jerusalem. His mother's name was Je·co·li′ah of Jerusalem.[j] 4 He continued to do what was right in Jehovah's eyes, just as his father Am·a·zi′ah had done.[k] 5 And he kept searching for God in the days of Zech·a·ri′ah, who taught him to fear the true God. During the time he was searching for Jehovah, the true God made him prosper.[l]

6 He went out and fought against the Phi·lis′tines[m] and broke through the wall of Gath,[n] the wall of Jab′neh,[o] and the wall of Ash′dod.[p] Then he built cities in the territory of Ash′dod and among the Phi·lis′tines. 7 The true God continued to help him against the Phi·lis′tines, against the Arabians[q] who were dwelling in Gur·ba′al, and against the Me-

u'nim. 8 The Am'mon·ites[a] began to give tribute to Uz·zi'ah. His fame eventually spread as far as Egypt, for he became extremely powerful. 9 Moreover, Uz·zi'ah built towers[b] in Jerusalem by the Corner Gate,[c] the Valley Gate,[d] and the Buttress, and he fortified them. 10 Further, he built towers[e] in the wilderness and dug* many cisterns (for he had a great deal of livestock); he also did so in the She·phe'lah and on the plain.# He had farmers and vinedressers in the mountains and in Car'mel, for he loved agriculture.

11 Moreover, Uz·zi'ah came to have an army equipped for war. They would go out on military campaigns, organized in divisions. They were numbered and registered[f] by Je·i'el the secretary[g] and Ma·a·sei'ah the officer, under the command of Han·ani'ah, one of the king's princes. 12 The entire number of the heads of the paternal houses who were over these mighty warriors was 2,600. 13 The armed forces under their command numbered 307,500 men ready for war, a powerful military force to support the king against the enemy.[h] 14 Uz·zi'ah equipped the entire army with shields, lances,[i] helmets, coats of mail,[j] bows, and slingstones.[k] 15 Further, in Jerusalem he made engines of war designed by engineers; they were set on the towers[l] and on the corners of the walls and could shoot arrows and large stones. So his fame spread far and wide, for he received tremendous help and he became strong.

16 However, as soon as he was strong, his heart became haughty to his own ruin, and he acted unfaithfully against Jehovah his God by entering the temple of Jehovah to burn incense on the altar of incense.[a] 17 Immediately Az·a·ri'ah the priest and 80 other courageous priests of Jehovah went in after him. 18 They confronted King Uz·zi'ah and said to him: "It is not proper for you, Uz·zi'ah, to burn incense to Jehovah![b] It is only the priests who should burn incense, for they are the descendants of Aaron,[c] those who have been sanctified. Go out from the sanctuary, for you have acted unfaithfully and you will receive no glory from Jehovah God for this."

19 But Uz·zi'ah, who had a censer in his hand to burn incense, became enraged;[d] and during his rage against the priests, leprosy[e] broke out on his forehead in the presence of the priests in the house of Jehovah next to the altar of incense. 20 When Az·a·ri'ah the chief priest and all the priests turned toward him, they saw that he had been stricken with leprosy in his forehead! So they rushed him out of there, and he himself hurried out, because Jehovah had struck him.

21 King Uz·zi'ah remained a leper until the day of his death, and he kept staying in a separate house as a leper,[f] for he had been excluded from the house of Jehovah. His son Jo'tham was in charge of the king's house,* judging the people of the land.[g]

22 And the rest of the history of Uz·zi'ah, from beginning to end, was recorded by the prophet Isaiah[h] the son of A'moz. 23 Then Uz·zi'ah was laid to rest with his forefathers, and they buried him with his forefathers, but in the burial field that belonged to the kings, for they said: "He is a leper." And his son Jo′tham[a] became king in his place.

27 Jo′tham[b] was 25 years old when he became king, and he reigned for 16 years in Jerusalem. His mother's name was Je·ru′shah the daughter of Za′dok.[c] 2 He kept doing what was right in Jehovah's eyes, just as his father Uz·zi′ah had done,[d] except that he did not invade the temple of Jehovah.[e] But the people were still acting ruinously. 3 He built the upper gate of Jehovah's house,[f] and he did much building on the wall of O′phel.[g] 4 He also built cities[h] in the mountainous region of Judah,[i] and he built fortified places[j] and towers[k] in the wooded areas. 5 He waged war against the king of the Am′mon·ites[l] and eventually prevailed against them, so that the Am′mon·ites gave him in that year 100 silver talents,* 10,000 cor measures# of wheat, and 10,000 of barley. The Am′monites also paid this to him in the second and third years.[m] 6 So Jo′tham kept growing strong, for he established* his ways before Jehovah his God.

7 As for the rest of the history of Jo′tham, all his wars and his ways, it is written in the Book of the Kings of Israel and of Judah.[n] 8 He was 25 years old when he became king, and he reigned for 16 years in Jerusalem.[o] 9 Then Jo′tham was laid to rest with his forefathers, and they buried him in the City of David.[p] And his son A′haz became king in his place.[q]

28 A′haz′ was 20 years old when he became king, and he reigned for 16 years in Jerusalem. He did not do what was right in Jehovah's eyes as David his forefather had done.[a] 2 Instead, he walked in the ways of the kings of Israel,[b] and he even made metal statues*[c] of the Ba′als. 3 Moreover, he made sacrificial smoke in the Valley of the Son of Hin′nom* and burned up his sons in the fire,[d] following the detestable practices of the nations[e] that Jehovah had driven out from before the Israelites. 4 He also kept sacrificing and making sacrificial smoke on the high places,[f] on the hills, and under every luxuriant tree.[g]

5 So Jehovah his God gave him into the hand of the king of Syria,[h] so that they defeated him and carried off a great number of captives and brought them to Damascus.[i] He was also given into the hand of the king of Israel, who inflicted on him a great slaughter. 6 For Pe′kah[j] the son of Rem·a·li′ah killed in Judah 120,000 in one day, all brave men, because they had abandoned Jehovah the God of their forefathers.[k] 7 And Zich′ri, an E′phra·im·ite warrior, killed the king's son Ma·a·sei′ah and Az·ri′kam, who was in charge of the palace,* and El·ka′nah, who was second to the king. 8 Moreover, the Israelites took 200,000 of their brothers captive—women, sons, and daughters; they also seized a great deal of spoil, and they took the spoil to Samar′i·a.[l]

9 But a prophet of Jehovah named O′ded was there. He went out before the army that was coming to Sa·mar′i·a and said to them: "Look! It was because Jehovah the God of your forefathers was angry with Judah that he gave them into your hand,[m] and you slaughtered them with a fury that has reached clear to the heavens. 10 And now you intend to make the people of Judah and Jerusalem your male and female servants.[a] Nevertheless, are you not also guilty before Jehovah your God? 11 Now listen to me and return the captives whom you took from your brothers, for Jehovah's burning anger is against you."

12 At that some of the chiefs of the E'phra·im·ites, Az·a·ri'ah the son of Je·ho·ha'nan, Ber·e·chi'ah the son of Me·shil'le·moth, Je·hiz·ki'ah the son of Shal'lum, and A·ma'sa the son of Had'·lai, confronted those coming in from the military campaign, 13 and they said to them: "Do not bring the captives in here, for it will make us guilty before Jehovah. What you intend to do will add to our sins and to our guilt, for our guilt is already great and there is burning anger against Israel." 14 So the armed soldiers handed over the captives and the plunder[b] to the princes and the entire congregation. 15 Then the men who had been designated by name rose up and took hold of the captives, and they provided clothes from the spoil for all those among them who were naked. So they clothed them and gave them sandals, food and drink, and oil for their skin. Furthermore, they transported the feeble on donkeys and brought them to their brothers in Jer'i·cho, the city of palm trees. After that they returned to Sa·mar'i·a.

16 At that time King A'haz asked the kings of As·syr'i·a for help.[c] 17 And once again the E'dom·ites invaded and attacked Judah and carried off captives. 18 The Phi·lis'tines[d] also made a raid on the cities of the She·phe'·lah[e] and the Neg'eb of Judah and captured Beth-she'mesh,[f] Ai'jalon,[g] Ge·de'roth, So'co and its dependent* towns, Tim'nah[a] and its dependent towns, and Gim'·zo and its dependent towns; and they settled there. 19 Jehovah humbled Judah because of King A'haz of Israel, for he had let Judah go unrestrained, resulting in great unfaithfulness toward Jehovah.

20 King Til'gath-pil·ne'ser[b] of As·syr'i·a eventually came against him and caused him distress[c] rather than strengthening him. 21 For A'haz had stripped the house of Jehovah and the house* of the king[d] and the houses of the princes and made a gift to the king of As·syr'i·a; but it was of no help to him. 22 And during his time of distress, King A'haz acted even more unfaithfully toward Jehovah. 23 He began to sacrifice to the gods of Damascus[e] that had defeated him,[f] and he went on to say: "Because the gods of the kings of Syria are helping them, I will sacrifice to them so that they may help me."[g] But they caused him and all Israel to stumble. 24 Furthermore, A'haz collected the utensils of the house of the true God; he then cut to pieces the utensils of the house of the true God,[h] closed the doors of the house of Jehovah,[i] and made altars for himself in every corner of Jerusalem. 25 And in all the cities of Judah, he made high places for making sacrificial smoke to other gods,[j] and he offended Jehovah the God of his forefathers.

26 As for the rest of his history, all his dealings from beginning to end, there it is written in the Book of the Kings of Judah and of Israel.[k] 27 Then A'haz was laid to rest with his forefathers, and they buried him in the city, in Jerusalem, for they did not bring him into the burial places of the kings of Israel.[a] And his son Hez·e·ki′ah became king in his place.

29 Hez·e·ki′ah[b] became king at the age of 25, and he reigned for 29 years in Jerusalem. His mother's name was A·bi′jah the daughter of Zech·a·ri′ah.[c] 2 He kept doing what was right in Jehovah's eyes,[d] just as David his forefather had done.[e] 3 In the first year of his reign, in the first month, he opened the doors of the house of Jehovah and repaired them.[f] 4 Then he brought the priests and the Levites and assembled them in the square to the east. 5 He said to them: "Listen to me, you Levites. Now sanctify yourselves[g] and sanctify the house of Jehovah the God of your forefathers, and remove what is impure from the holy place.[h] 6 For our fathers have been unfaithful and have done what was bad in the eyes of Jehovah our God.[i] They abandoned him and turned their faces away from the tabernacle of Jehovah and turned their back on him.[j] 7 They also closed the doors of the porch[k] and extinguished the lamps.[l] They stopped burning incense[m] and offering up burnt sacrifices[n] in the holy place to the God of Israel. 8 Therefore, Jehovah's indignation came against Judah and Jerusalem,[o] so that he made them an object of horror and astonishment and a cause for whistling,* as you can see with your own eyes.[p] 9 Here our forefathers fell by the sword,[q] and our sons, our daughters, and our wives went into captivity for this.[r] 10 Now it is my heart's desire to make a covenant with Jehovah the God of Israel,[s] so that his burning anger may turn away from us. 11 My sons, now is not the time to be negligent,* for Jehovah has chosen you to stand before him, to serve as his ministers,[a] and to make his sacrifices smoke."[b]

12 At that the Levites rose up: Ma′hath the son of A·ma′sai and Joel the son of Az·a·ri′ah of the Ko′hath·ites;[c] from the Merar′ites,[d] Kish the son of Ab′di and Az·a·ri′ah the son of Je·hal′·le·lel; from the Ger′shon·ites,[e] Jo′ah the son of Zim′mah and E′den the son of Jo′ah; 13 from the sons of E·li·za′phan, Shim′·ri and Je·u′el; from the sons of A′saph,[f] Zech·a·ri′ah and Mat·ta·ni′ah; 14 from the sons of He′·man,[g] Je·hi′el and Shim′e·i; from the sons of Je·du′thun,[h] She·mai′ah and Uz′zi·el. 15 Then they gathered their brothers together and sanctified themselves and came, as the king had commanded by the words of Jehovah, to cleanse the house of Jehovah.[i] 16 The priests then went inside the house of Jehovah to do the cleansing and brought out all the uncleanness that they found in the temple of Jehovah and took it to the courtyard[j] of the house of Jehovah. In turn the Levites took it and carried it outside to the Kid′ron Valley.[k] 17 Thus they began the sanctification on the first day of the first month, and on the eighth day of the month they reached the porch of Jehovah.[l] They sanctified the house of Jehovah for eight days, and on the 16th day of the first month they finished.

18 After that they went in to King Hez·e·ki′ah and said: "We have cleansed the whole house of Jehovah, the altar of burnt offering[m] and all its utensils,[n] and the table of the layer bread*[o]

20 And King Hez·e·ki′ah got up early and gathered the princes of the city together, and they went up to the house of Jehovah. 21 They brought seven bulls, seven rams, seven male lambs, and seven male goats as a sin offering for the kingdom, for the sanctuary, and for Judah.[c] So he told the priests, the descendants of Aaron, to offer them up on the altar of Jehovah. 22 Then they slaughtered the cattle,[d] and the priests took the blood and sprinkled it on the altar;[e] next they slaughtered the rams and sprinkled the blood on the altar, and they slaughtered the male lambs and sprinkled the blood on the altar. 23 Then they brought the male goats of the sin offering before the king and the congregation and laid their hands on them. 24 The priests slaughtered them and made a sin offering with their blood on the altar, to make atonement for all Israel, because the king said that the burnt offering and the sin offering should be for all Israel.

27 Then Hez·e·ki′ah ordered that the burnt sacrifice be offered on the altar.[k] When the burnt offering started, the song of Jehovah started and also the trumpets, following the direction of the instruments of King David of Israel. 28 And the whole congregation bowed down while the song was sung and the trumpets were sounding—all this continued until the burnt offering was finished. 29 And as soon as they finished making the offering, the king and all those with him bowed low and prostrated themselves. 30 King Hez·e·ki′ah and the princes now told the Levites to praise Jehovah with the words of David[a] and of A′saph[b] the visionary. So they offered praise with great rejoicing, and they bowed down and prostrated themselves.

31 Then Hez·e·ki′ah said: "Now that you have been set apart* for Jehovah, come and bring sacrifices and thanksgiving offerings to the house of Jehovah." So the congregation began to bring sacrifices and thanksgiving offerings, and everyone with a willing heart brought burnt offerings.[c] 32 The number of burnt offerings that the congregation brought was 70 cattle, 100 rams, 200 male lambs—all of these as a burnt offering to Jehovah[d]— 33 and the holy offerings were 600 cattle and 3,000 of the flock. 34 But there were not enough priests to skin all the burnt offerings, so their brothers the Levites helped them out[e] until the work was finished and until the priests could sanctify themselves,[f] for the Levites were more conscientious* about sanctifying themselves than the priests were. 35 Also, there were many burnt offerings,[g] as well as the fat pieces of the communion sacrifices[h] and the drink offerings for the burnt offerings.[a] Thus the service of the house of Jehovah was restored.* 36 So Hez·e·ki′ah and all the people rejoiced over what the true God had established for the people,[b] for this had all happened so suddenly.

30 Hez·e·ki′ah sent word to all Israel[c] and Judah, and even wrote letters to E′phra·im and Ma·nas′seh,[d] to come to the house of Jehovah in Jerusalem to observe the Passover to Jehovah the God of Israel.[e] 2 However, the king, his princes, and the whole congregation in Jerusalem decided to observe the Passover in the second month,[f] 3 for they had not been able to observe it at the regular time,[g] because not enough priests had sanctified themselves[h] nor had the people gathered in Jerusalem. 4 This arrangement seemed right in the eyes of the king and the entire congregation. 5 So they decided to make an announcement throughout Israel, from Be′er·she′ba to Dan,[i] that the people should come and observe the Passover to Jehovah the God of Israel at Jerusalem, for as a group they had not observed it according to what is written.[j]

6 Then the couriers* went throughout all Israel and Judah with the letters from the king and his princes, as the king had commanded, saying: "People of Israel, return to Jehovah the God of Abraham, Isaac, and Israel, so that he may return to the remnant who escaped out of the hand of the kings of As·syr′i·a.[k] 7 Do not be like your forefathers and your brothers who acted unfaithfully toward Jehovah the God of their forefathers, so that he made them an object of horror, just as you are seeing.[a] 8 Now do not be obstinate like your forefathers.[b] Submit to Jehovah and come to his sanctuary[c] that he has sanctified forever and serve Jehovah your God, so that his burning anger may turn away from you.[d] 9 For when you return to Jehovah, your brothers and your sons will be shown mercy by their captors[e] and will be allowed to return to this land,[f] for Jehovah your God is compassionate* and merciful,[g] and he will not turn his face away from you if you return to him."[h]

10 So the couriers* went from city to city throughout the land of E′phra·im and Ma·nas′seh,[i] even to Zeb′u·lun, but the people were making fun of them and mocking them.[j] 11 However, some individuals from Ash′er, Ma·nas′seh, and Zeb′u·lun humbled themselves and came to Jerusalem.[k] 12 The hand of the true God was also in Judah to unite them* to carry out what the king and the princes had commanded by the word of Jehovah.

13 A multitude of people gathered together at Jerusalem to observe the Festival of Unleavened Bread[l] in the second month;[m] it was a very large congregation. 14 They rose up and removed the altars that were in Jerusalem,[n] and they removed all the incense altars[o] and threw them into the Kid′ron Valley. 15 Then they slaughtered the Passover sacrifice on the 14th day of the second month. The priests and the Levites felt ashamed, so they sanctified themselves and brought burnt offerings to the house of Jehovah. 16 They took their customary places, according to the Law of Moses the man of the true God; then the priests sprinkled the blood[a] received from the hand of the Levites. 17 There were many in the congregation who had not sanctified themselves, and the Levites were in charge of slaughtering the Passover sacrifices for all who were not clean,[b] to sanctify them to Jehovah. 18 For a great number of the people, especially those from E′phra·im, Ma·nas′seh,[c] Is′sa·char, and Zeb′u·lun, had not cleansed themselves, but they still ate the Passover, contrary to what is written. But Hez·e·ki′ah prayed for them, saying: "May Jehovah, who is good,[d] make allowance for 19 everyone who has prepared his heart to search for the true God,[e] Jehovah, the God of his forefathers, although he has not been purified according to the standard of holiness."[f] 20 And Jehovah listened to Hez·e·ki′ah and pardoned* the people.

21 So the Israelites who were in Jerusalem observed the Festival of Unleavened Bread[g] for seven days with great rejoicing,[h] and the Levites and the priests were praising Jehovah day by day, loudly playing their instruments to Jehovah.[i] 22 Moreover, Hez·e·ki′ah spoke to and encouraged* all the Levites who served Jehovah with discretion. And they ate throughout the festival for seven days,[j] sacrificing communion sacrifices[k] and giving thanks to Jehovah the God of their forefathers.

23 Then all the congregation decided to observe it for seven more days, so they observed it for seven more days with rejoicing.[l] 24 And King Hez·e·ki′ah of Judah contributed for the congregation 1,000 bulls and 7,000 sheep, and the princes contributed for the congregation 1,000 bulls and 10,000 sheep;[a] and priests were sanctifying themselves in great number.[b] 25 And all the congregation of Judah, the priests, the Levites, all the congregation that came from Israel,[c] and the foreign residents[d] who came from the land of Israel and those living in Judah continued rejoicing. 26 And there was great rejoicing in Jerusalem, for from the days of Sol′o·mon the son of David the king of Israel, nothing like this had happened in Jerusalem.[e] 27 Finally the Levite priests stood up and blessed the people;[f] and God heard their voice, and their prayer reached his holy dwelling, the heavens.

31 As soon as they had finished all of this, all the Israelites who were present went out to the cities of Judah, and they smashed the sacred pillars,[g] cut down the sacred poles,*[h] and tore down the high places[i] and the altars[j] throughout Judah and Benjamin, as well as in E′phra·im and Ma·nas′seh,[k] until they had destroyed them completely, after which all the Israelites returned to their cities, each one to his own possession.

2 Then Hez·e·ki′ah appointed the priests in their divisions[l] and the Levites in their divisions,[m] each of the priests and Levites for their service,[n] for the burnt offerings and the communion sacrifices, to minister and to give thanks and praise in the gates of the courtyards* of Jehovah.[o] 3 A portion of the king's own goods was given for the burnt offerings,[p] including the morning and evening offerings,[a] as well as the burnt offerings for the Sabbaths,[b] the new moons,[c] and the festivals,[d] according to what is written in the Law of Jehovah.

4 Furthermore, he commanded the people living in Jerusalem to give the portion due the priests and the Levites,[e] so that they might adhere strictly* to the law of Jehovah. 5 As soon as the order was issued, the Israelites gave in great quantities the firstfruits of the grain, new wine, oil,[f] and honey, and of all the produce of the field;[g] they brought in abundantly the tenth of everything.[h] 6 And the people of Israel and of Judah living in the cities of Judah also brought in the tenth of cattle and sheep and the tenth of the holy things[i] that were sanctified to Jehovah their God. They brought it in and put it in many heaps. 7 In the third month[j] they began laying their contributions in heaps; and in the seventh month[k] they finished. 8 When Hez·e·ki′ah and the princes came and saw the heaps, they praised Jehovah and blessed his people Israel.

9 Hez·e·ki′ah asked the priests and the Levites about the heaps, 10 and Az·a·ri′ah the chief priest of the house of Za′dok said to him: "From the time they started bringing the contributions into the house of Jehovah,[l] the people have been eating to satisfaction and there is still an abundant surplus, for Jehovah has blessed his people, and this great plenty is left over."[m]

11 At this Hez·e·ki′ah told them to prepare storerooms*[n] in the house of Jehovah, so they prepared them. 12 They kept faithfully bringing in the contributions, tenth parts,*[a] and the holy things; Con·a·ni′ah the Levite was put in charge of all of this as supervisor, and his brother Shim′e·i was second. 13 Jehi′el, Az·a·zi′ah, Na′hath, As′ahel, Jer′i·moth, Jo′za·bad, E′li·el, Is·ma·chi′ah, Ma′hath, and Benai′ah were commissioners assisting Con·a·ni′ah and his brother Shim′e·i, by the order of King Hez·e·ki′ah, and Az·a·ri′ah was supervisor of the house of the true God. 14 And Ko′re the son of Im′nah, the Levite gatekeeper on the east side,[b] was in charge of the voluntary offerings[c] of the true God, and he distributed the contribution made to Jehovah[d] and the most holy things.[e] 15 And under his direction were E′den, Mi·ni′a·min, Jesh′u·a, She·mai′ah, Am·a·ri′ah, and Shec·a·ni′ah, in the cities of the priests,[f] in their office of trust, to distribute equally to their brothers in the divisions,[g] to great and small alike. 16 This was in addition to the distribution made to the males from three years old and up who were listed in the genealogical enrollment, who came daily to serve in the house of Jehovah and to carry out the duties of their divisions.

17 The genealogical enrollment of the priests was by their paternal house,[h] as was that of the Levites who were 20 years old and up,[i] by the duties of their divisions.[j] 18 The genealogical enrollment included all their children, their wives, their sons, and their daughters, their entire congregation—for they kept themselves sanctified for what was holy because of their office of trust— 19 as well as the descendants of Aaron, the priests who were living in the fields of the pastures surrounding their cities.[a] In all the cities, men had been designated by name to give portions to every male among the priests and to everyone included in the genealogical enrollment of the Levites.

20 Hez·e·ki′ah did this throughout Judah, and he continued to do what was good and right and faithful before Jehovah his God. 21 And every work that he undertook to search for his God, whether in connection with the service of the house of the true God[b] or in the Law and the commandment, he did wholeheartedly, and he was successful.

32 After these things and these acts of faithfulness,[c] King Sen·nach′er·ib of As·syr′i·a came and invaded Judah. He besieged the fortified cities, intent on breaking through and capturing them.[d]

2 When Hez·e·ki′ah saw that Sen·nach′er·ib had come and intended to wage war against Jerusalem, 3 he decided, after consulting with his princes and his warriors, to stop up the waters of the springs outside the city,[e] and they gave him their support. 4 Many people were gathered together, and they stopped up all the springs and the stream that flowed through the land, saying: "Why should the kings of As·syr′i·a come and find plenty of water?"

5 Furthermore, with determination he rebuilt the entire broken-down wall and raised towers on it, and outside he made another wall. He also repaired the Mound*[f] of the City of David, and he made a large number of weapons# and shields. 6 He then appointed military chiefs over the people and assembled them at the public square of the city gate and encouraged them,* saying: 7 "Be courageous and strong. Do not be afraid or be terrified because of the king of As·syr′i·a[a] and all the multitude with him, for there are more with us than there are with him.[b] 8 With him is an arm of flesh,* but with us is Jehovah our God to help us and to fight our battles."[c] And the people were strengthened by the words of King Hez·e·ki′ah of Judah.[d]

9 After this, while King Sen·nach′er·ib of As·syr′i·a was at La′chish[e] with all his imperial might,* he sent his servants to Jerusalem, to King Hez·e·ki′ah of Judah and to all the Ju·de′ans in Jerusalem,[f] saying:

10 "This is what King Sen·nach′er·ib of As·syr′i·a says, 'In what are you trusting that you remain in Jerusalem while it is besieged?[g] 11 Is not Hez·e·ki′ah misleading you and handing you over to die by famine and thirst, saying: "Jehovah our God will rescue us from the hand of the king of As·syr′i·a"?[h] 12 Is this not the same Hez·e·ki′ah who removed your God's* high places[i] and His altars[j] and then said to Judah and Jerusalem: "You should bow down before one altar and on it you should make your sacrifices smoke"?[k] 13 Do you not know what I and my forefathers did to all the peoples of the lands?[l] Were the gods of the nations of the lands able to rescue their land from my hand?[m] 14 Who among all the gods of these nations that my forefathers devoted to destruction was able to rescue his people from my hand, so that your God should be able to rescue you from my hand?[a] 15 Now do not let Hez·e·ki′ah deceive you or mislead you like this![b] Do not put faith in him, for no god of any nation or kingdom was able to rescue his people from my hand and from the hand of my forefathers. How much less, then, will your own God rescue you from my hand!′"[c]

16 His servants said even more against Jehovah the true God and against Hez·e·ki′ah his servant. 17 He also wrote letters[d] to insult Jehovah the God of Israel[e] and to speak against him, saying: "Like the gods of the nations of the lands who could not rescue their people from my hand,[f] so the God of Hez·e·ki′ah will not rescue his people from my hand." 18 They kept calling loudly in the language of the Jews to the people of Jerusalem who were on the wall, to make them afraid and to terrify them, in order to capture the city.[g] 19 They spoke against the God of Jerusalem the same way as against the gods of the peoples of the earth, which are the work of man's hands. 20 But King Hez·e·ki′ah and the prophet Isaiah[h] the son of A′moz kept praying about this and crying out to the heavens for help.[i]

21 Then Jehovah sent an angel and wiped out every mighty warrior,[j] leader, and chief in the camp of the king of As·syr′i·a, so that he went back to his own land in disgrace. He later entered the house* of his god, and there some of his own sons struck him down with the sword.[k] 22 So Jehovah saved Hez·e·ki′ah and the inhabitants of Jerusalem from the hand of King Sen·nach′er·ib of Assyr′i·a and from the hand of all others and gave them rest on every side. 23 And many brought gifts to Jehovah at Jerusalem and choice things to King Hez·e·ki′ah of Judah,[a] and he was greatly respected by all the nations after that.

24 In those days Hez·e·ki′ah became sick and was at the point of death, and he prayed to Jehovah,[b] who answered him and gave him a sign.*[c] 25 But Hez·e·ki′ah did not respond appreciatively to the good done to him, for his heart became haughty, bringing indignation against him and against Judah and Jerusalem. 26 However, Hez·e·ki′ah humbled himself for the haughtiness of his heart,[d] he and the inhabitants of Jerusalem, and Jehovah's indignation did not come upon them in the days of Hez·e·ki′ah.[e]

27 And Hez·e·ki′ah came to have vast riches and glory;[f] and he made storehouses[g] for himself for silver, gold, precious stones, balsam oil, shields, and for all the desirable articles. 28 He also made storage places for the produce of grain and new wine and oil, as well as stalls for all the different kinds of livestock and stalls for the flocks. 29 He also acquired cities for himself, and an abundance of livestock, flocks, and herds, for God gave him very many possessions. 30 It was Hez·e·ki′ah who stopped up the upper source of the waters[h] of Gi′hon[i] and directed them straight down to the west to the City of David,[j] and Hez·e·ki′ah was successful in every work of his. 31 However, when the spokesmen of the princes of Babylon were sent to ask him about the sign*[k] that had occurred in the land,[l] the true God left him alone to put him to the test,[m] to get to know all that was in his heart.[n]

32 As for the rest of the history of Hez·e·ki′ah and his acts of loyal love,[a] they are written in the vision of Isaiah[b] the prophet, the son of A′moz, in the Book of the Kings of Judah and of Israel.[c] 33 Then Hez·e·ki′ah was laid to rest with his forefathers, and they buried him in the ascent to the burial places of the sons of David;[d] and all Judah and the inhabitants of Jerusalem honored him at his death. And his son Ma·nas′seh became king in his place.

2 He did what was bad in Jehovah's eyes, following the detestable practices of the nations that Jehovah had driven out from before the people of Israel.[g] 3 He rebuilt the high places that his father Hez·e·ki′ah had torn down,[h] he set up altars to the Ba′als and made sacred poles,* and he bowed down to all the army of the heavens and served them.[i] 4 He also built altars in the house of Jehovah,[j] about which Jehovah had said: "In Jerusalem my name will be forever."[k] 5 And he built altars to all the army of the heavens in two courtyards of the house of Jehovah.[l] 6 And he made his own sons pass through the fire[m] in the Valley of the Son of Hin′nom;[n] he practiced magic,[o] used divination, practiced sorcery, and appointed spirit mediums and fortune-tellers.[p] He did on a grand scale what was bad in Jehovah's eyes, to offend him.

7 He put the carved image that he made into the house of the true God[q] about which God had said to David and to his son Sol′o·mon: "In this house and in Jerusalem, which I have chosen out of all the tribes of Israel, I will permanently put my name.[a] 8 And I will never again remove the feet of Israel from the land that I assigned to their forefathers, provided they carefully observe all that I have commanded them, the entire Law, the regulations and the judicial decisions given through Moses." 9 Ma·nas′seh kept leading Judah and the inhabitants of Jerusalem astray, causing them to do worse than the nations that Jehovah had annihilated from before the Israelites.[b]

10 Jehovah kept speaking to Ma·nas′seh and his people, but they paid no attention.[c] 11 So Jehovah brought against them the army chiefs of the king of As·syr′i·a, and they captured Manas′seh with hooks* and bound him with two copper fetters and took him to Babylon. 12 In his distress, he begged Jehovah his God for favor* and kept humbling himself greatly before the God of his forefathers. 13 He kept praying to Him, and He was moved by his entreaty and heard his request for favor, and He restored him to Jerusalem to his kingship.[d] Then Ma·nas′seh came to know that Jehovah is the true God.[e]

14 After this he built an outer wall for the City of David[f] west of Gi′hon[g] in the valley* and as far as the Fish Gate,[h] and he continued it around to O′phel,[i] and he made it very high. Further, he appointed army chiefs in all the fortified cities in Judah. 15 He then removed the foreign gods and the idol image from the house of Jehovah[j] and all the altars that he had built in the mountain of the house of Jehovah[k] and in Jerusalem, and he had them thrown outside the city. 16 He also prepared the altar of Jehovah[a] and began to offer up communion sacrifices[b] and thanksgiving sacrifices[c] on it, and he told Judah to serve Jehovah the God of Israel. 17 Nevertheless, the people were still sacrificing on the high places, although only to Jehovah their God.

18 As for the rest of the history of Ma·nas′seh, his prayer to his God, and the words of the visionaries who spoke to him in the name of Jehovah the God of Israel, they are recorded in the history of the kings of Israel. 19 Also his prayer[d] and how his entreaty was granted him, all his sins and his unfaithfulness,[e] the locations where he built high places and set up the sacred poles*[f] and the graven images before he humbled himself, they are written among the words of his visionaries. 20 Then Ma·nas′seh was laid to rest with his forefathers, and they buried him at his house; and his son A′mon became king in his place.[g]

21 A′mon[h] was 22 years old when he became king, and he reigned for two years in Jerusalem.[i] 22 And he continued to do what was bad in Jehovah's eyes, just as his father Ma·nas′seh had done;[j] and A′mon sacrificed to all the graven images that his father Ma·nas′seh had made,[k] and he kept serving them. 23 But he did not humble himself before Jehovah[l] as Ma·nas′seh his father had humbled himself;[m] instead, A′mon greatly increased his guilt. 24 Eventually his servants conspired against him[n] and put him to death in his own house. 25 But the people of the land struck down all those who conspired against King A′mon,[o] and they made his son Jo·si′ah[a] king in his place.

34 Jo·si′ah[b] was eight years old when he became king, and he reigned for 31 years in Jerusalem.[c] 2 He did what was right in Jehovah's eyes and walked in the ways of David his forefather, and he did not deviate to the right or to the left.

3 In the 8th year of his reign, while he was still a boy, he started to search for the God of David his forefather;[d] and in the 12th year, he started to cleanse Judah and Jerusalem[e] of the high places[f] and the sacred poles,* the graven images,[g] and the metal statues.# 4 Further, they tore down the altars of the Ba′als in his presence, and he cut down the incense stands that were up above them. He also broke into pieces the sacred poles,* the graven images, and the metal statues# and reduced them to powder and sprinkled it over the graves of those who used to sacrifice to them.[h] 5 And he burned the bones of priests on their altars.[i] Thus he cleansed Judah and Jerusalem.

6 And in the cities of Ma·nas′seh, E′phra·im,[j] Sim′e·on, and clear to Naph′ta·li, in their surrounding ruins, 7 he tore down the altars and he crushed the sacred poles* and the graven images,[k] reducing them to powder; and he cut down all the incense stands in all the land of Israel,[l] after which he returned to Jerusalem.

8 In the 18th year of his reign, when he had cleansed the land and the temple,* he sent Sha′phan[m] the son of Az·a·li′ah, Ma·a·sei′ah the chief of the city, and Jo′ah the son of Jo′a·haz the recorder to repair the house of Jehovah his God.[n] 9 They came to Hil·ki′ah the high priest and gave him the money that had been brought to the house of God, which the Levites serving as doorkeepers had collected from Ma·nas′seh, E′phraim, and all the rest of Israel,[a] as well as from Judah, Benjamin, and the inhabitants of Jerusalem. 10 Then they gave it to those who were appointed over the work in the house of Jehovah. In turn the workers in the house of Jehovah used it to mend and repair the house. 11 They gave it to the craftsmen and the builders to buy hewn stones and timbers for braces and to build with beams the houses that the kings of Judah had allowed to fall into ruin.[b]

12 And the men did the work faithfully.[c] Over them were appointed the Levites Ja′hath and O·ba·di′ah of the Me·rar′-ites,[d] and Zech·a·ri′ah and Me-shul′lam of the Ko′hath·ites,[e] to serve as overseers. And the Levites, all of whom were skilled musicians,[f] 13 were in charge of the common laborers* and were overseers of all those who were doing the work in every kind of service; and some of the Levites were secretaries, officers, and gatekeepers.[g]

14 While they were taking out the money that had been brought to the house of Jehovah,[h] Hil·ki′ah the priest found the book of Jehovah's Law[i] given through* Moses.[j] 15 So Hil·ki′ah said to Sha′phan the secretary: "I have found the book of the Law in the house of Jehovah." With that Hil·ki′-ah gave the book to Sha′phan. 16 Then Sha′phan brought the book to the king and told him: "Your servants are doing everything that was assigned to them.

17 They have poured out the money that was found in the house of Jehovah, and they have handed it over to the appointed men and to those doing the work." 18 Sha′phan the secretary also told the king: "There is a book that Hil·ki′ah the priest has given me."[a] Then Sha′phan began to read from it before the king.[b]

19 As soon as the king heard the words of the Law, he ripped his garments apart.[c] 20 Then the king gave this order to Hil-ki′ah, A·hi′kam[d] the son of Sha′-phan, Ab′don the son of Mi′-cah, Sha′phan the secretary, and A·sai′ah the king's servant: 21 "Go, inquire of Jehovah in my behalf and in behalf of those who remain in Israel and in Judah concerning the words of the book that has been found; for Jehovah's rage that will be poured out against us is great because our forefathers did not carry out the word of Jehovah by observing all that is written in this book."[e]

22 So Hil·ki′ah, along with those sent by the king, went to Hul′dah the prophetess.[f] She was the wife of Shal′lum son of Tik′vah son of Har′has, the caretaker of the wardrobe, and she was dwelling in the Second Quarter of Jerusalem; and they spoke to her there.[g] 23 She said to them: "This is what Jehovah the God of Israel says, 'Tell the man who sent you to me: 24 "This is what Jehovah says, 'I will bring calamity on this place and its inhabitants,[h] all the curses that are written in the book[i] that they read before the king of Judah. 25 Because they have abandoned me[j] and are making sacrifices smoke to other gods in order to offend me[k] with all the works of their hands, my rage will pour out on this place and it will not be extinguished.'"[a] 26 But to the king of Judah who sent you to inquire of Jehovah, this is what you should say to him, "This is what Jehovah the God of Israel says: 'Regarding the words that you have heard,[b] 27 because your heart was responsive* and you humbled yourself before God on hearing his words concerning this place and its inhabitants and you humbled yourself before me and ripped your garments apart and wept before me, I also have heard you,[c] declares Jehovah. 28 That is why I will gather you to your ancestors,* and you will be laid in your grave in peace, and your eyes will not see all the calamity that I will bring on this place and its inhabitants.'"'"[d]

Then they brought the reply to the king. 29 So the king sent word and summoned all the elders of Judah and Jerusalem.[e] 30 After that the king went up to the house of Jehovah with all the men of Judah, the inhabitants of Jerusalem, the priests, the Levites—all the people, the great as well as the small. He read in their hearing all the words of the book of the covenant that had been found in the house of Jehovah.[f] 31 The king stood in his place and made a covenant*[g] before Jehovah that he would follow Jehovah and keep his commandments, his reminders, and his regulations with all his heart and with all his soul#[h] by carrying out the words of the covenant that were written in this book.[i] 32 Furthermore, he had all those who were in Jerusalem and Benjamin to agree to it. And the inhabitants of Jerusalem acted according to the covenant of God, the God of their forefathers.[a] 33 Jo·si'ah then removed all the detestable things* out of all the lands that belonged to the Israelites,[b] and he made everyone in Israel serve Jehovah their God. Throughout his lifetime# they did not deviate from following Jehovah the God of their forefathers.

35 Jo·si'ah held a Passover[c] to Jehovah in Jerusalem, and they slaughtered the Passover sacrifice[d] on the 14th day of the first month.[e] 2 He assigned the priests to their duties and encouraged them to carry out their service of the house of Jehovah.[f] 3 Then he said to the Levites, the instructors of all Israel,[g] those who were holy to Jehovah: "Put the holy Ark in the house that Sol'o·mon the son of David the king of Israel built;[h] you are no longer to carry it on your shoulders.[i] Now serve Jehovah your God and his people Israel. 4 And prepare yourselves by your paternal houses according to your divisions, following what was written by King David[j] of Israel and by his son Sol'o·mon.[k] 5 Stand in the holy place grouped by the paternal houses of your brothers, the rest of the people,* with a corresponding group of the paternal house of the Levites. 6 Slaughter the Passover sacrifice[l] and sanctify yourselves and make preparation for your brothers to carry out the word of Jehovah through Moses."

7 Jo·si'ah contributed flocks to the people, male lambs and young male goats, for the Passover sacrifices for all who were present, a total of 30,000, as well as 3,000 cattle. These were from the king's own property.[m] 8 His princes also made a contribution as a voluntary offering for the people, the priests, and the Levites. Hil·ki′ah,[a] Zech·a·ri′ah, and Je·hi′el, the leaders of the house of the true God, gave to the priests 2,600 Passover sacrifices and 300 cattle. 9 Con·a·ni′ah and his brothers She·mai′ah and Ne·than′el, along with Hash·a·bi′ah, Je·i′el, and Jo′zabad, the chiefs of the Levites, contributed to the Levites 5,000 Passover sacrifices and 500 cattle.

10 The service was prepared, and the priests stood at their places and the Levites by their divisions,[b] as the king had commanded. 11 They slaughtered the Passover sacrifices,[c] and the priests sprinkled the blood they received from them,[d] while the Levites were skinning the animals.[e] 12 Next they prepared the burnt offerings so as to distribute them to the rest of the people, who were grouped by paternal house, so that they could be presented to Jehovah as it is written in the book of Moses; and they did the same with the cattle. 13 They cooked* the Passover offering over the fire according to the custom;[f] and they cooked the holy offerings in pots, cauldrons, and pans, after which they brought it quickly to all the rest of the people. 14 Then they made preparations for themselves and for the priests, because the priests, the descendants of Aaron, were offering up the burnt sacrifices and the fat pieces until nightfall, so the Levites made preparations for themselves and for the priests, the descendants of Aaron.

15 And the singers, the sons of A′saph,[g] were at their positions by the commandment of David,[h] A′saph,[i] He′man, and Je·du′thun[a] the visionary of the king; and the gatekeepers were at the different gates.[b] There was no need for them to leave their service, because their brothers the Levites made preparations for them. 16 So all the service of Jehovah was prepared on that day to hold the Passover[c] and to offer up the burnt offerings on the altar of Jehovah, according to the order of King Jo·si′ah.[d]

17 The Israelites who were present held the Passover at that time and the Festival of Unleavened Bread for seven days.[e] 18 There had never been held a Passover like it in Israel since the days of Samuel the prophet; nor had any of the other kings of Israel held a Passover like that held by Jo·si′ah,[f] the priests, the Levites, all Judah and Israel who were present, and the inhabitants of Jerusalem. 19 This Passover was held in the 18th year of Jo·si′ah's reign.

20 After all of this, when Josi′ah had prepared the temple,* King Ne′cho[g] of Egypt came up to fight at Car′che·mish by the Eu·phra′tes. Then Jo·si′ah went out against him.[h] 21 So he sent messengers to him, saying: "What does this have to do with you, O king of Judah? I am not coming against you today, but my fight is against another house, and God says that I should hurry. For your own sake, refrain from opposing God, who is with me, or he will bring you to ruin." 22 However, Josi′ah would not turn away from him, but he disguised himself[j] to fight against him and would not listen to the words of Ne′cho, which were from the mouth of God. So he came to fight in the Plain of Me·gid′do.[j]

23 And the archers shot King Jo·si′ah, and the king said to his servants: “Get me out of here, for I am severely wounded.” 24 So his servants took him out of the chariot and had him ride in his second war chariot and brought him to Jerusalem. Thus he died and was buried in the tomb of his forefathers,[a] and all Judah and Jerusalem mourned Jo·si′ah. 25 And Jeremiah[b] chanted over Jo·si′ah, and all the male and female singers[c] keep singing about Jo·si′ah in their dirges* down to this day; and a decision was made that they should be sung in Israel, and they are written among the dirges.

26 As for the rest of the history of Jo·si′ah and his deeds of loyal love, in keeping with what is written in the Law of Jehovah, 27 and what he did, from beginning to end, they are written in the Book of the Kings of Israel and of Judah.[d]

36 Then the people of the land took Jo·si′ah’s son Je·ho′a·haz[e] and made him king in Jerusalem in place of his father.[f] 2 Je·ho′a·haz was 23 years old when he became king, and he reigned for three months in Jerusalem. 3 However, the king of Egypt deposed him in Jerusalem and fined the land 100 silver talents* and a gold talent.[g] 4 Furthermore, the king of Egypt made Je·ho′a·haz’ brother E·li′a·kim king over Judah and Jerusalem and changed his name to Je·hoi′a·kim; but Ne′cho[h] took his brother Je·ho′a·haz and brought him to Egypt.[i]

5 Je·hoi′a·kim[j] was 25 years old when he became king, and he reigned for 11 years in Jerusalem. He continued to do what was bad in the eyes of Jehovah his God.[a] 6 King Neb·u·chad·nez′zar[b] of Babylon came up against him in order to bind him with two copper fetters to take him off to Babylon.[c] 7 And Neb·u·chad·nez′zar took some of the utensils of the house of Jehovah to Babylon and put them in his palace in Babylon.[d] 8 As for the rest of the history of Jehoi′a·kim, the detestable things that he did and what was found against him, it is written in the Book of the Kings of Israel and of Judah; and his son Je·hoi′a·chin became king in his place.[e]

9 Je·hoi′a·chin[f] was 18 years old when he became king, and he reigned for three months and ten days in Jerusalem; and he continued to do what was bad in Jehovah’s eyes.[g] 10 At the start of the year,* King Neb·u·chad·nez′zar sent to have him brought to Babylon,[h] along with valuable articles of the house of Jehovah.[i] And he made his father’s brother Zed·e·ki′ah king over Judah and Jerusalem.[j]

11 Zed·e·ki′ah[k] was 21 years old when he became king, and he reigned for 11 years in Jerusalem.[l] 12 He continued to do what was bad in the eyes of Jehovah his God. He did not humble himself before the prophet Jeremiah,[m] who spoke at the order of Jehovah. 13 He also rebelled against King Neb·u·chad·nez′zar,[n] who had made him take an oath by God, and he remained stubborn* and hardhearted and refused to turn to Jehovah the God of Israel. 14 All the chiefs of the priests as well as the people were exceedingly unfaithful, practicing all the detestable things of the nations, and they defiled the house of Jehovah[o] that he had sanctified in Jerusalem.

1 In the first year of King Cyrus[a] of Persia, in order that Jehovah's word spoken by Jeremiah[b] would be fulfilled, Jehovah stirred the spirit of King Cyrus of Persia to make a proclamation throughout his kingdom, which he also put in writing,[c] saying:

2 "This is what King Cyrus of Persia says, 'Jehovah the God of the heavens has given me all the kingdoms of the earth,[d] and he has commissioned me to build him a house in Jerusalem,[e] which is in Judah. 3 Whoever there is among you of all his people, may his God be with him, and let him go up to Jerusalem, which is in Judah, and rebuild the house of Jehovah the God of Israel—he is the true God—whose house was in Jerusalem.* 4 Anyone who is residing as a foreigner,[f] wherever he may be, let him be helped by his neighbors* by their giving him silver and gold, goods and livestock, along with the voluntary offering for the house of the true God,[g] which was in Jerusalem.'"

5 Then the heads of the paternal houses of Judah and of Benjamin and the priests and the Levites—everyone whose spirit the true God had stirred—prepared to go up and rebuild the house of Jehovah, which was in Jerusalem. 6 All those around them supported them by giving them* utensils of silver and of gold, goods, livestock, and valuable things, besides all the voluntary offerings.

7 King Cyrus also brought out the utensils of the house of Jehovah that Neb·u·chad·nez′zar had taken from Jerusalem and had put in the house of his god.[a] 8 King Cyrus of Persia brought them out under the supervision of Mith′re·dath the treasurer, who made an inventory of them for Shesh·baz′zar*[b] the chieftain of Judah.

9 Now this was the inventory: 30 basket-shaped vessels of gold, 1,000 basket-shaped vessels of silver, 29 replacement vessels, 10 30 small gold bowls, 410 small silver bowls, 1,000 other utensils. 11 All the utensils of gold and of silver were 5,400. Shesh·baz′zar brought all of these up when the exiles[c] were brought out of Babylon to Jerusalem.

2 And these were the people of the province* who came up from the captives of the exile,[d] those whom King Neb·u·chad-

Ad′don, and Im′mer, but they were unable to verify their paternal house and their origin, as to whether they were Israelites:[a] 60 the sons of De·la′iah, the sons of To·bi′ah, the sons of Ne·ko′da, 652. 61 And of the sons of the priests: the sons of Ha·bai′ah, the sons of Hak′koz,[b] the sons of Bar·zil′lai, who took a wife from the daughters of Barzil′lai[c] the Gil′e·ad·ite and was called by their name. 62 These looked for their records to establish their genealogy, but they did not find them, so they were disqualified from the priesthood.[d] 63 The governor told them that they could not eat from the most holy things[e] until there was a priest who could consult the U′rim and Thum′mim.[f]

64 The total number of the entire congregation was 42,360,[g] 65 apart from their male and female slaves, who were 7,337; they also had 200 male and female singers. 66 Their horses were 736, their mules 245, 67 their camels 435, their donkeys 6,720.

68 When they arrived at the house of Jehovah in Jerusalem, some of the heads of the paternal houses made voluntary offerings[h] for the house of the true God, to rebuild it* on its own site.[i] 69 According to their means, they gave to the project treasury 61,000 gold drachmas,* 5,000 silver mi′nas,#[j] and 100 robes for the priests. 70 And the priests, the Levites, some of the people, the singers, the gatekeepers, and the temple servants* settled in their cities, and all the rest of Israel# settled in their cities.[a]

3 When the seventh month[b] arrived and the Israelites* were in their cities, they gathered together with one accord in Jerusalem. 2 Jesh′u·a[c] the son of Je·hoz′a·dak and his fellow priests and Ze·rub′ba·bel[d] the son of She·al′ti·el[e] and his brothers rose up and built the altar of the God of Israel, so that they could offer up burnt sacrifices on it, as it is written in the Law of Moses[f] the man of the true God.

3 So they set the altar up on its former site, despite their fear of the peoples of the surrounding lands,[g] and they began offering up burnt sacrifices to Jehovah on it, the morning and the evening burnt sacrifices.[h] 4 Then they held the Festival of Booths* according to what is written,[i] and day by day they offered up the specified number of burnt sacrifices that were required each day.[j] 5 Afterward they offered up the regular burnt offering[k] and the offerings for the new moons[l] and those for all the sanctified festival seasons[m] of Jehovah, as well as those from everyone who willingly offered a voluntary offering[n] to Jehovah. 6 From the first day of the seventh month[o] they started to offer up burnt sacrifices to Jehovah, though the foundation of Jehovah's temple had not yet been laid.

7 They gave money to the stonecutters[p] and the craftsmen,[q] and food and drink and oil to the Si·do′ni·ans and the Tyr′i·ans for bringing cedar timbers

by sea from Leb′a·non to Jop′pa,[a] according to the authorization granted them by King Cyrus of Persia.[b]

8 In the second year after they came to the house of the true God at Jerusalem, in the second month, Ze·rub′ba·bel the son of She·al′ti·el, Jesh′u·a the son of Je·hoz′a·dak and the rest of their brothers, the priests and the Levites, and all those who had come to Jerusalem out of the captivity[c] started the work; they appointed the Levites from 20 years old and up to serve as supervisors over the work of the house of Jehovah. 9 So Jesh′u·a, his sons and his brothers, and Kad′mi·el and his sons, the sons of Judah, joined together to supervise those doing the work in the house of the true God, along with the sons of Hen′a·dad,[d] their sons and their brothers, the Levites.

10 When the builders laid the foundation of the temple of Jehovah,[e] then the priests in official clothing, with the trumpets,[f] and the Levites, the sons of A′saph, with the cymbals, stood up to praise Jehovah according to the direction of King David of Israel.[g] 11 And they began to sing in response[h] by praising and giving thanks to Jehovah, "for he is good; his loyal love toward Israel endures forever."[i] Then all the people shouted with a loud shout of praise to Jehovah because the foundation of the house of Jehovah had been laid. 12 Many of the priests, the Levites, and the heads of the paternal houses —the old men who had seen the former house[j]—wept with a loud voice when they saw the foundation of this house being laid, while many others shouted joyfully at the top of their voice.[k] 13 So the people could not distinguish the sound of the joyful shouts from the sound of the weeping, for the people were shouting so loudly that the sound was heard from a great distance.

4 When the enemies of Judah and Benjamin[a] heard that the returned exiles[b] were building a temple to Jehovah the God of Israel, 2 they immediately approached Ze·rub′ba·bel and the heads of the paternal houses and said to them: "Let us build along with you; for like you, we worship* your God[c] and we have been sacrificing to him since the days of King E′sar-had′don[d] of As·syr′i·a, who brought us here."[e] 3 However, Ze·rub′ba·bel and Jesh′u·a and the rest of the heads of the paternal houses of Israel said to them: "You have no share with us in building a house to our God,[f] for we alone will build it to Jehovah the God of Israel, just as King Cyrus the king of Persia has commanded us."[g]

4 Then the people of the land were continually discouraging* the people of Judah and disheartening them from building.[h] 5 They hired advisers against them to frustrate their plans[i] all the days of King Cyrus of Persia until the reign of King Dari′us[j] of Persia. 6 At the beginning of the reign of A·has·u·e′rus, they wrote an accusation against the inhabitants of Judah and Jerusalem. 7 And in the days of King Ar·ta·xerx′es of Persia, Bish′lam, Mith′re·dath, Tab′e·el, and the rest of his colleagues wrote to Ar·ta·xerx′es the king; they translated the letter into Ar·a·ma′ic,[k] writing it with Ar·a·ma′ic characters.*

8 * Re′hum the chief government official and Shim′shai the scribe wrote a letter against Jerusalem to King Ar·ta·xerx′es, as follows: 9 (It was from Re′hum the chief government official and Shim′shai the scribe and the rest of their colleagues, the judges and the lesser governors, the secretaries, the people of E′rech,[a] the Babylonians, the inhabitants of Su′sa,[b] that is, the E′lam·ites,[c] 10 and the rest of the nations that the great and honorable As′e·nap·par took into exile and settled in the cities of Sa·mar′i·a,[d] and the rest in the region Beyond the River,* and now 11 this is a copy of the letter that they sent him.)

"To King Ar·ta·xerx′es from your servants, the men of the region Beyond the River: And now 12 let it be known to the king that the Jews who came up here from you to us have arrived at Jerusalem. They are rebuilding the rebellious and wicked city, and they are finishing the walls[e] and repairing the foundations. 13 Now let it be known to the king that if this city should be rebuilt and its walls finished, they will not give tax, tribute,[f] or toll, and it will result in a loss to the treasuries of the kings. 14 Since we eat the salt of the palace* and it is not proper for us to see the king's interests harmed, we have therefore sent to make this known to the king, 15 so that there may be an investigation of the book of records of your ancestors.[g] You will find in the book of records and learn that this city is a rebellious city, injurious to kings and provinces,* and within it have been those stirring up sedition from ancient times. That is why this city was destroyed.[h] 16 We are making known to the king that if this city is rebuilt and its walls are finished, you will have no control* of the region Beyond the River."[a]

17 The king sent word to Re′hum the chief government official and Shim′shai the scribe and the rest of their colleagues who were dwelling in Sa·mar′i·a and the rest of the region Beyond the River:

"Greetings! And now 18 the official document that you sent us has been clearly read* before me. 19 By my order an investigation was made, and it was found that from long ago the city has had uprisings against kings, and rebellions and revolts have taken place there.[b] 20 There were powerful kings over Jerusalem who ruled the whole region Beyond the River, and tax, tribute, and toll were paid to them. 21 Now issue an order for these men to stop work, so that the city may not be rebuilt until I issue an order. 22 Be careful not to neglect acting in this regard, so that the king's interests are not harmed any further."[c]

23 Now after the copy of the official document of King Ar·ta·xerx′es had been read before Re′hum and Shim′shai the scribe and their colleagues, they quickly went to Jerusalem to the Jews and used force to stop them. 24 It was then that the work on the house of God, which was in Jerusalem, came to a halt; and it remained at a standstill until the second year of the reign of King Da·ri′us of Persia.[d]

5 Then the prophets Hag′gai[e] and Zech·a·ri′ah[f] the grandson of Id′do[g] prophesied to the Jews who were in Judah and

"To King Da·ri′us:

"All peace! 8 Let it be known to the king that we went to the province* of Judah to the house of the great God, and it is being built with large stones rolled into place, and timbers are being laid in the walls. The work is being eagerly done by the people and is making progress through their efforts. 9 Then we questioned their elders, asking them: 'Who issued an order to you to build this house and to finish this structure?'#[a] 10 We also asked them their names to inform you, so that we could write the names of the men who are taking the lead.

11 "This is the response they gave us: 'We are the servants of the God of the heavens and the earth, and we are rebuilding the house that was built many years ago, which a great king of Israel built and finished.[b] 12 However, because our fathers angered the God of the heavens,[c] he gave them into the hand of King Neb·u·chad·nez′zar[d] of Babylon, the Chal·de′an, who demolished this house[e] and took the people into exile to Babylon.[f] 13 Nevertheless, in the first year of King Cyrus of Babylon, King Cyrus issued an order to rebuild this house of God.[g] 14 Moreover, King Cyrus took out of the temple of Babylon the gold and silver vessels of the house of God that Neb·u·chad·nez′zar had taken from the temple in Jerusalem and had brought to the temple of Babylon.[h] They were given to a man named Shesh·baz′zar,*[i] whom Cyrus made governor.[j] 15 Cyrus said to him: "Take these vessels. Go, deposit them in the temple that is in Jerusalem, and let the house of God be rebuilt in its former place."[k] 16 Then this Shesh·baz′zar came, and he laid the foundations of the house of God,[l] which is in Jerusalem; and it has been under construction from then until now, but it has not been completed.'[m]

17 "Now if it seems good to the king, let an investigation be made in the royal treasury there in Babylon, to determine whether King Cyrus issued an order to rebuild that house of God in Jerusalem;[a] and let the decision of the king concerning this be sent to us."

6 It was then that King Da·ri′·us issued an order, and they made an investigation in the archives* where the treasures were deposited in Babylon. 2 And a scroll was found in the citadel at Ec·bat′a·na, in the province* of Me′di·a, and the following memorandum was written on it:

3 "In the first year of King Cyrus, King Cyrus issued an order concerning the house of God in Jerusalem:[b] 'Let the house be rebuilt as the place where they are to offer sacrifices, and its foundations are to be set in place; its height is to be 60 cubits,* its width 60 cubits,[c] 4 with three layers of large stones rolled into place and one layer of timbers;[d] and let the expense be paid from the king's house.[e] 5 Also, let the gold and silver vessels of the house of God that Neb·u·chad·nez′zar took out of the temple that was in Jerusalem and brought to Babylon[f] be returned, so that they may be put in their place in the temple in Jerusalem and be deposited in the house of God.'[g]

6 "So now Tat′te·nai the governor of the region Beyond the River,* She′thar-boz′e·nai, and your colleagues, the lesser governors of the region Beyond the River[h]—stay away from there. 7 Do not interfere with the work on that house of God. The governor of the Jews and the elders of the Jews will rebuild that house of God in its former place. 8 Furthermore, I am issuing an order as to what you are to do for these elders of the Jews for rebuilding that house of God: From the royal treasury,[a] from the tax collected in the region Beyond the River, the expenses are to be promptly given to these men to continue without interruption.[b] 9 And whatever is needed—young bulls[c] as well as rams[d] and lambs[e] for the burnt offerings to the God of heaven, wheat,[f] salt,[g] wine,[h] and oil,[i] just as the priests who are in Jerusalem say—is to be given them continually day by day without fail, 10 so that they may continually present offerings that please the God of the heavens and pray for the life of the king and his sons.[j] 11 I have also issued an order that if anyone violates this decree, a timber will be pulled out of his house and he will be lifted up and fastened to it,* and his house will be turned into a public latrine# for this offense. 12 And may the God who has caused his name to reside there[k] overthrow any king and people who lift a hand to violate this order and destroy that house of God, which is in Jerusalem. I, Da·ri′us, issue this order. Let it be done promptly."

13 Then Tat′te·nai the governor of the region Beyond the River, She′thar-boz′e·nai,[l] and their colleagues promptly carried out everything that King Da·ri′us had ordered. 14 And the elders of the Jews continued building and making progress,[m] urged on by the prophesying of Hag′·gai[n] the prophet and Zech·a·ri′·ah[o] the grandson of Id′do; they finished building it by the order of the God of Israel[p] and by the order of Cyrus[q] and Da·ri′us[r] and King Ar·ta·xerx′es[s] of Persia. 15 They completed the house by the third day of the month of

A′dar,* in the sixth year of the reign of King Da·ri′us.

16 Then the Israelites, the priests, the Levites,[a] and the rest of the former exiles held the inauguration* of this house of God with joy. 17 And they presented for the inauguration of this house of God 100 bulls, 200 rams, 400 lambs, and as a sin offering for all Israel 12 male goats, corresponding to the number of the tribes of Israel.[b] 18 And they appointed the priests in their groups and the Levites in their divisions for the service of God in Jerusalem,[c] according to what is written in the book of Moses.[d]

19 And the former exiles held the Passover on the 14th day of the first month.[e] 20 The priests and the Levites, without exception, had cleansed themselves,[f] so they were all clean; they slaughtered the Passover sacrifice for all the former exiles, for their fellow priests, and for themselves. 21 Then the Israelites who had returned from the exile ate of it, along with everyone who had joined them and had separated himself from the uncleanness of the nations of the land to worship* Jehovah the God of Israel.[g] 22 They also joyfully held the Festival of Unleavened Bread[h] for seven days, for Jehovah caused them to rejoice and he had made the heart of the king of As·syr′i·a favorable toward them,[i] so that he supported them* in the work of the house of the true God, the God of Israel.

7 After these things, during the reign of King Ar·ta·xerx′es[j] of Persia, Ez′ra*[k] returned. He was the son of Se·rai′ah,[l] son of Az·a·ri′ah, son of Hil·ki′ah,[a] 2 son of Shal′lum, son of Za′dok, son of A·hi′tub, 3 son of Am·a·ri′ah, son of Az·a·ri′ah,[b] son of Me·ra′ioth, 4 son of Zer·a·hi′ah, son of Uz′zi, son of Buk′ki, 5 son of Ab·i·shu′a, son of Phin′e·has,[c] son of El·e·a′zar,[d] son of Aaron[e] the chief priest. 6 This Ez′ra came up from Babylon. He was a copyist* who was well-versed in# the Law of Moses,[f] which Jehovah the God of Israel had given. The king granted everything he requested, for the hand of Jehovah his God was upon him.

7 Some of the Israelites, the priests, the Levites,[g] the singers,[h] the gatekeepers,[i] and the temple servants,[j] went up to Jerusalem in the seventh year of King Ar·ta·xerx′es. 8 And Ez′ra came to Jerusalem in the fifth month, in the seventh year of the king. 9 On the first day of the first month, he began the journey from Babylon, and he arrived in Jerusalem on the first day of the fifth month, for the good hand of his God was upon him.[k] 10 Ez′ra had prepared his heart to consult the Law of Jehovah and to practice it,[l] and to teach its regulations and judgments in Israel.[m]

11 This is a copy of the letter that King Ar·ta·xerx′es gave to Ez′ra the priest and copyist,* an expert in the study# of the commandments of Jehovah and of his regulations to Israel:

12 # "Ar·ta·xerx′es,[n] the king of kings, to Ez′ra the priest, the copyist* of the Law of the God of the heavens: May you have perfect peace. And now 13 I have issued an order that everyone in my realm of the people of Israel and their priests and Levites who is willing to go with you to Jerusalem should go.[a] 14 For you are sent by the king and his seven advisers to investigate whether the Law of your God, which is with you,* is being applied in Judah and Jerusalem, 15 and to take the silver and the gold that the king and his advisers have voluntarily given to the God of Israel, whose residence is in Jerusalem, 16 with all the silver and the gold that you receive* in all the province# of Babylon, along with the gift that the people and the priests voluntarily give to the house of their God, which is in Jerusalem.[b] 17 And you are to buy promptly with this money bulls,[c] rams,[d] lambs,[e] along with their grain offerings[f] and their drink offerings,[g] and you are to present them on the altar of the house of your God in Jerusalem.

18 "And whatever seems good to you and to your brothers to do, you may do with the rest of the silver and the gold, according to the will of your God. 19 And all the vessels that are given to you for the service of the house of your God, you are to deliver before God at Jerusalem.[h] 20 And the rest of the necessities of the house of your God that you are required to give, you will give out of the royal treasury.[i]

21 "I, King Ar·ta·xerx'es, have issued an order to all the treasurers in the region Beyond the River,* that everything that Ez'ra[j] the priest, the copyist# of the Law of the God of the heavens, requests of you is to be done promptly, 22 up to 100 talents* of silver, 100 cor measures# of wheat, 100 bath measures△ of wine,[a] 100 bath measures of oil,[b] and salt[c] without limit. 23 Let everything that is ordered by the God of the heavens be done with zeal for the house of the God of the heavens,[d] so that there may be no wrath against the king's realm and his sons.[e] 24 And you are further advised that it is not permitted to impose any tax, tribute,[f] or toll on any of the priests and Levites, musicians,[g] doorkeepers, temple servants,*[h] and workers of this house of God.

25 "And you, Ez'ra, according to the wisdom that you possess from your God,* appoint magistrates and judges to judge all the people in the region Beyond the River, all those who know the laws of your God; and you should instruct anyone who does not know them.[i] 26 And everyone who does not observe the Law of your God and the law of the king should have judgment executed on him promptly, whether it is death, banishment, a fine, or imprisonment."

27 May Jehovah the God of our forefathers be praised, who put it into the heart of the king to beautify the house of Jehovah in Jerusalem![j] 28 And he has shown me loyal love before the king[k] and his advisers[l] and all the mighty princes of the king. was upon me, and I gathered out of Israel leading men* to go up with me.

8 Now these were the heads of their paternal houses and the genealogical enrollment of those who went up with me out of Babylon during the reign of King Ar·ta·xerx′es:[a] 2 of the sons of Phin′e·has,[b] Ger′shom; of the sons of Ith′a·mar,[c] Daniel; of the sons of David, Hat′-tush; 3 of the sons of Shec·a·ni′ah, of the sons of Pa′rosh, Zech·a·ri′ah, and with him there was an enrollment of 150 males; 4 of the sons of Pa′hath-mo′ab,[d] El′ie·ho·e′nai the son of Zer·a·hi′ah, and with him 200 males; 5 of the sons of Zat′tu,[e] Shec·a·ni′ah the son of Ja·ha·zi′el, and with him 300 males; 6 of the sons of A′din,[f] E′bed the son of Jon′a·than, and with him 50 males; 7 of the sons of E′lam,[g] Je·sha′iah the son of Ath·a·li′ah, and with him 70 males; 8 of the sons of Sheph·a·ti′ah,[h] Zeb·a·di′-ah the son of Mi′cha·el, and with him 80 males; 9 of the sons of Jo′ab, O·ba·di′ah the son of Je-hi′el, and with him 218 males; 10 of the sons of Ba′ni, She·lo′-mith the son of Jo·si·phi′ah, and with him 160 males; 11 of the sons of Be′bai,[i] Zech·a·ri′-ah the son of Be′bai, and with him 28 males; 12 of the sons of Az′gad,[j] Jo·ha′nan the son of Hak′ka·tan, and with him 110 males; 13 of the sons of Ad·o-ni′kam,[k] those who were the last, and these were their names: E·liph′e·let, Je·i′el, and She·mai′-ah, and with them 60 males; 14 and of the sons of Big′vai,[l] U′thai and Zab′bud, and with them 70 males.

15 I assembled them at the river that comes to A·ha′va,[m] and we camped there for three days. But when I examined the people and the priests, I did not find any of the Levites there. 16 So I sent for E·li·e′zer, Ar′i-el, She·mai′ah, El·na′than, Ja′rib, El·na′than, Nathan, Zech·a·ri′ah, and Me·shul′lam, who were leading men, and for Joi′a·rib and El·na′than, who were instructors. 17 Then I gave them a command concerning Id′do the leader in the place called Ca·si·phi′a. I told them to tell Id′do and his brothers, the temple servants* who were in Ca·si·phi′a, to bring to us ministers for the house of our God. 18 Since the good hand of our God was upon us, they brought a discreet man from the sons of Mah′li[a] the grandson of Le′vi the son of Israel, namely, She·re·bi′ah,[b] and his sons and his brothers, 18 men; 19 and Hash·a·bi′ah, and with him Je-sha′iah from the Me·rar′ites,[c] his brothers and their sons, 20 men. 20 And there were 220 of the temple servants,* whom David and the princes gave to the service of the Levites, all of whom had been designated by name.

21 Then I proclaimed a fast there at the river A·ha′va, to humble ourselves before our God, to seek guidance from him for our journey, for us and for our children and for all our goods. 22 I was ashamed to ask the king for soldiers and horsemen to protect us against the enemies along the way, because we had said to the king: "The good hand of our God is over all those seeking him,[d] but his strength and his anger are against all those abandoning him."[e] 23 So we fasted and made request of our God concerning this, and he listened to our entreaty.[f]

She·re·bi′ah and Hash·a·bi′ah,[a] along with ten of their brothers. 25 Then I weighed out to them the silver and the gold and the utensils, the contribution that the king and his advisers and his princes and all the Israelites who were present there had made to the house of our God.[b] 26 Thus I weighed out into their hand 650 talents* of silver, 100 silver utensils worth 2 talents, 100 talents of gold, 27 20 small gold bowls worth 1,000 darics,* and 2 utensils of fine copper, gleaming red, as desirable as gold.

28 Then I said to them: "You are holy to Jehovah,[c] and the utensils are holy, and the silver and the gold are a voluntary offering to Jehovah the God of your forefathers. 29 Guard them carefully until you weigh them out before the chiefs of the priests and the Levites and the princes of the paternal houses of Israel in Jerusalem,[d] in the chambers* of the house of Jehovah." 30 And the priests and the Levites took the silver and the gold and the utensils that had been weighed out to them, in order to bring them to Jerusalem to the house of our God.

31 Finally we pulled away from the river A·ha′va[e] on the 12th day of the first month[f] to go to Jerusalem, and the hand of our God was over us, and he rescued us from the hand of the enemy and from ambush along the way. 32 So we came to Jerusalem[g] and stayed there for three days. 33 And on the fourth day, we weighed out the silver and the gold and the utensils in the house of our God[h] and handed them over to Mer′e·moth[i] son of U·ri′jah the priest, and with him was El·e·a′zar son of Phin′e·has, and with them were the Levites Jo′za·bad[a] son of Jesh′u·a and No·a·di′ah son of Bin′nu·i.[b] 34 Everything was numbered and weighed, and all the weight was recorded. 35 Those coming out of the captivity, the former exiles, presented burnt sacrifices to the God of Israel, 12 bulls[c] for all Israel, 96 rams,[d] 77 male lambs, and 12 male goats[e] as a sin offering; all of this was a burnt offering to Jehovah.[f]

36 Then we gave the decrees of the king[g] to the satraps* of the king and the governors of the region Beyond the River,[#h] and they supported the people and the house of the true God.[i]

9 And as soon as these things had been done, the princes approached me and said: "The people of Israel and the priests and the Levites have not separated themselves from the peoples of the lands and their detestable practices,[j] those of the Ca′naan·ites, the Hit′tites, the Per′iz·zites, the Jeb′u·sites, the Am′mon·ites, the Mo′ab·ites, the Egyptians,[k] and the Am′or·ites.[l] 2 They have taken some of their daughters as wives for themselves and for their sons.[m] Now they, the holy offspring,[*n] have become mingled with the peoples of the lands.[o] The princes and the deputy rulers have been the foremost offenders in this unfaithfulness."

3 Now as soon as I heard of this, I ripped apart my garment and my sleeveless coat and pulled out some of the hair of my head and my beard, and I sat

5 And at the time of the evening grain offering,[b] I stood up from my humiliation, with my garment and my sleeveless coat torn apart, and I got down on my knees and spread out my hands to Jehovah my God. 6 And I said: "O my God, I feel ashamed and embarrassed to raise my face to you, O my God, for our errors have multiplied over our heads and our guilt has mounted up to the heavens.[c] 7 From the days of our forefathers until this day our guilt has been great;[d] and because of our errors, we, our kings, and our priests have been given into the hand of the kings of the lands, to the sword,[e] to captivity,[f] to plunder,[g] and to disgrace, as is the case today.[h] 8 But now for a brief moment, favor has come from Jehovah our God by letting a remnant escape and by giving us a secure position* in his holy place,[i] to make our eyes shine, O our God, and to revive us a little in our slavery. 9 For although we are slaves,[j] our God has not abandoned us in our slavery; but he has extended his loyal love toward us before the kings of Persia,[k] to revive us so as to raise up the house of our God[l] and to restore its ruins and to give us a stone wall* in Judah and in Jerusalem.

10 "But now what can we say, O our God, after this? For we have left your commandments, 11 which you gave us through your servants the prophets, saying: 'The land that you are going in to take possession of is an impure land because of the impurity of the peoples of the lands, because of their detestable practices with which they have filled it from end to end with their uncleanness.[a] 12 Therefore, do not give your daughters to their sons, neither accept their daughters for your sons;[b] and you must never seek their peace and their prosperity,[c] so that you may grow strong and eat the good of the land and take possession of it for your sons forever.' 13 And after all that has come upon us for our bad deeds and our great guilt—for you, O our God, have not dealt with us according to our error,[d] and you have allowed those of us here to escape[e]— 14 are we to break your commandments again and form marriage alliances* with the peoples who practice these detestable things?[f] Would you not become so angry with us that you would completely destroy us, leaving no remnant or survivor? 15 O Jehovah the God of Israel, you are righteous,[g] for we have survived as a remnant to this day. Here we are before you in our guilt, for it is impossible to stand before you because of this."[h]

10 While Ez'ra was praying[i] and making confession, weeping and lying prostrate before the house of the true God, a large crowd of men, women, and children of Israel gathered around him, for the people were weeping profusely. 2 Then Shec·a·ni'ah the son of Je·hi'el[j] of the sons of E'lam[k] said to Ez'ra: "We have acted unfaithfully against our God by marrying* foreign women from the peoples of the land.[l] Despite this, there is still hope for Israel. 3 Now let us make a covenant with our God[a] to send away all the wives and those born from them, in harmony with the direction of Jehovah and of those who have reverence for* the commandment of our God.[b] Let us act according to the Law. 4 Get up, for this matter is your responsibility, and we are with you. Be strong and take action."

5 At that Ez'ra rose and had the chiefs of the priests, the Levites, and all Israel take an oath to do what had been said.[c] So they took an oath. 6 Ez'ra now got up from before the house of the true God and went to the chamber* of Je·ho·ha'nan the son of E·li'a·shib. Although he went there, he ate no food and drank no water, for he was in mourning because of the unfaithfulness of the exiled people.[d]

7 Then they made a proclamation throughout Judah and Jerusalem that all the former exiles gather together at Jerusalem; 8 and according to the decision of the princes and the elders, anyone who did not come within three days' time would have all his goods confiscated,* and he would be banished from the congregation of the exiled people.[e] 9 So all the men of Judah and Benjamin gathered together at Jerusalem within three days, that is, in the ninth month, on the 20th day of the month. All the people were sitting in a courtyard of the house of the true God, shivering because of the matter at hand and because of the heavy rain.

10 Then Ez'ra the priest rose and said to them: "You have acted unfaithfully by marrying foreign women,[a] and so you have added to the guilt of Israel. 11 Now make confession to Jehovah the God of your forefathers and do his will. Separate yourselves from the peoples of the land and from these foreign wives."[b] 12 To this the whole congregation answered with a loud voice: "It is our duty to do exactly as you say. 13 However, there are many people, and it is the rainy season. It is not possible to stand outside, and the matter will not take just one or two days, for we have rebelled extensively in this matter. 14 So, please, let our princes represent the entire congregation;[c] and let all those in our cities who have married foreign women come at an appointed time, along with the elders and judges of each city, until we turn back the burning anger of our God from us concerning this matter."

15 However, Jon'a·than the son of As'a·hel and Jah·zei'ah the son of Tik'vah objected to this, and the Levites Me·shul'lam and Shab'be·thai[d] supported them. 16 But the former exiles did what was agreed on; and Ez'ra the priest and the family heads of their paternal houses, all designated by name, convened separately on the first day of the tenth month to look into the matter; 17 and by the first day of the first month they finished dealing with all the men who had married foreign women. 18 And it was discovered that some of the sons of the priests had married foreign women:[e] of the sons of Jesh'u·a[f] the son of Je·hoz'a·dak and his brothers, Ma·a·sei'ah, E·li·e'zer, Ja'rib, and Ged·a·li'ah. 19 But they promised* to send their wives away, and since they were guilty, they

1 The words of Ne·he·mi′ah*[a] the son of Hac·a·li′ah: Now in the month of Chis′lev,# in the 20th year, I was in Shu′shan△[b] the citadel.⊠ 2 At that time Hana′ni,[c] one of my brothers, arrived with other men from Judah, and I asked them about the remaining Jews who had escaped the captivity,[d] and also about Jerusalem. 3 They replied: "Those remaining there in the province* who have survived the captivity are in a terrible situation and in disgrace.[e] The walls of Jerusalem are broken down,[f] and its gates have been burned with fire."[g]

4 As soon as I heard these words, I sat down and began to weep and mourn for days, and I kept fasting[h] and praying before the God of the heavens. 5 I said: "O Jehovah, the God of the heavens, the great and awe-inspiring God who keeps his covenant and shows loyal love to those who love him and keep his commandments,[i] 6 please, let your ear be attentive and your eyes open to listen to the prayer of your servant that I am praying to you today, day and night,[j] concerning your servants the Israelites, all the while confessing the sins that the people of Israel have committed against you. We have sinned, both I and the house of my father.[a] 7 We have certainly acted corruptly against you[b] by not keeping the commandments, regulations, and judicial decisions that you gave to your servant Moses.[c]

8 "Remember, please, the word that you commanded* your servant Moses: 'If you act unfaithfully, I will scatter you among the peoples.[d] 9 But if you return to me and observe my commandments and obey them, though your dispersed people should be at the end of the heavens, I will gather them[e] from there and bring them to the place that I have chosen to have my name reside.'[f] 10 They are your servants and your people, whom you redeemed by your great power and by your mighty hand.[g] 11 O Jehovah, please, let your ear be attentive to the prayer of your servant and to the prayer of your servants who take delight in fearing your name, and please, grant success to your servant today, and may this man show me compassion."[h]

Now I was cupbearer to the king.[i]

2 In the month of Ni′san,# in the 20th year[j] of King Ar·ta·xerx′es,[k] wine was set before him, and as usual I took up the wine and gave it to the king.[l] But I had never been gloomy in his presence. 2 So the king said to me: "Why do you look so gloomy when you are not sick? This can be nothing but gloominess of heart." At this I became very frightened.

3 Then I said to the king: "Long live the king! Why should I not look gloomy when the city, the place where my forefathers are buried, lies in ruins, and its gates have been consumed by fire?"[a] 4 The king then said to me: "What is it that you are seeking?" At once I prayed to the God of the heavens.[b] 5 I then said to the king: "If it pleases the king and if your servant has found favor with you, send me to Judah, to the city where my forefathers are buried, so that I may rebuild it."[c] 6 Then the king, with his royal consort* sitting beside him, said to me: "How long will your journey be, and when will you return?" So it pleased the king to send me,[d] and I gave him a set time.[e]

7 Then I said to the king: "If it pleases the king, let letters be given me for the governors of the region Beyond the River,[f] granting me safe passage until I reach Judah, 8 as well as a letter to A′saph the keeper of the Royal Park, so that he may give me timber for beams for the gates of the Fortress[g] of the House# and for the walls of the city[h] and for the house where I will go." So the king gave them to me,[i] for the good hand of my God was upon me.[j]

9 Eventually I came to the governors of the region Beyond the River and gave them the king's letters. The king also sent with me army chiefs and horsemen. 10 When San·bal′lat[k] the Hor′o·nite and To·bi′ah[l] the Am′mon·ite[m] official* heard about it, they were very displeased that someone had come to do something good for the people of Israel.

11 At length I came to Jerusalem, and I stayed there for three days. 12 I rose up by night, I and a few men with me, and I did not tell anyone what my God had put into my heart to do for Jerusalem, and there was no animal with me except the one I was riding. 13 And I went out at night through the Valley Gate,[a] passing in front of the Fountain of the Big Snake to the Gate of the Ash Heaps,[b] and I inspected the walls of Jerusalem that were broken down and its gates that had been consumed by fire.[c] 14 And I passed along to the Fountain Gate[d] and to the King's Pool, and there was not enough space for the animal I was riding to pass. 15 But I continued up the valley*[e] by night, and I kept inspecting the wall, after which I came back and entered through the Valley Gate, and then I returned.

16 The deputy rulers[f] did not know where I had gone and what I was doing, for I had not yet said anything to the Jews, the priests, the nobles, the deputy rulers, and the rest of the workers. 17 Finally I said to them: "You can see what a terrible situation we are in, how Jerusalem lies in ruins and its gates have been burned with fire. Come, let us rebuild the walls of Jerusalem, so that this disgrace will not continue." 18 Then I told them of how the good hand of my God was upon me[g] and also of the words that the king had spoken to me.[h] At this they said: "Let us get up and build." So they strengthened themselves* for the good work.[i]

17 After him the Levites did repair work: Re'hum the son of Ba'ni; and next to him Hash·a·bi'ah, a prince of half the district of Kei'lah,[h] did repair work for his district. 18 After him their brothers did repair work: Bav'vai the son of Hen'a·dad, a prince of half the district of Kei'lah.

19 And next to him E'zer the son of Jesh'u·a,[i] a prince of Miz'pah, was repairing another section in front of the ascent to the Armory at the Buttress.[j]

20 After him Bar'uch the son of Zab'bai[k] worked with fervor and repaired another section, from the Buttress as far as the entrance of the house of E·li'a·shib[l] the high priest.

21 After him Mer'e·moth[m] the son of U·ri'jah the son of Hak'koz repaired another section, from the entrance of the house of E·li'a·shib as far as the end of E·li'a·shib's house.

22 And after him the priests, men of the district of the Jordan,*[n] did repair work. 23 After them Benjamin and Has'shub did repair work in front of their own house. After them Az·a·ri'ah the son of Ma·a·sei'ah the son of A·nani'ah did repair work near his own house. 24 After him Bin'nu·i the son of Hen'a·dad repaired another section, from the house of Az·a·ri'ah as far as the Buttress[o] and as far as the corner.

25 After him Pa'lal the son of U'zai did repair work in front of the Buttress and the tower that goes out from the King's House,*[a] the upper one that belongs to the Courtyard of the Guard.[b] After him there was Pe·dai'ah the son of Pa'rosh.[c]

26 And the temple servants*[d] who lived in O'phel[e] did repair work as far as in front of the Water Gate[f] on the east and the protruding tower.

27 After them the Te·ko'ites[g] repaired another section, from in front of the great protruding tower as far as the wall of O'phel.

28 The priests did repair work above the Horse Gate,[h] each in front of his own house.

29 After them Za'dok[i] the son of Im'mer did repair work in front of his own house.

And after him She·mai'ah the son of Shec·a·ni'ah, the keeper of the East Gate,[j] did repair work.

30 After him Han·a·ni'ah the son of Shel·e·mi'ah and Ha'nun the sixth son of Za'laph repaired another section.

After him Me·shul'lam[k] the son of Ber·e·chi'ah did repair work in front of his own hall.

31 After him Mal·chi'jah, a member of the goldsmith guild, did repair work as far as the house of the temple servants*[l] and the traders, in front of the Inspection Gate and as far as the roof chamber of the corner.

32 And between the roof chamber of the corner and the Sheep Gate,[m] the goldsmiths and the traders did repair work.

4 Now as soon as San·bal'lat[n] heard that we were rebuilding the wall, he became angry and very upset,* and he kept mocking the Jews. 2 And in the presence of his brothers and the army of Sa·mar′i·a, he said: "What are the feeble Jews doing? Will they do this by themselves? Will they offer sacrifices? Will they finish up in a day? Will they bring the charred stones to life out of the heaps of dusty rubble?"[a]

3 Now To·bi′ah[b] the Am′mon·ite,[c] who was standing beside him, said: "If even a fox would climb up on what they are building, it would knock down their stone wall."

4 Hear, O our God, for we are being treated with contempt,[d] and make their reproach return on their own heads,[e] and give them over as plunder in a land of captivity. 5 And do not cover over their guilt or let their sin be erased from before you,[f] for they have insulted the builders.

6 So we kept building the wall, and the entire wall was joined together and rebuilt up to half its height, and the people continued to put their heart into the work.

7 Now as soon as San·bal′lat, To·bi′ah,[g] the Arabians,[h] the Am′mon·ites, and the Ash′dod·ites[i] heard that the repairing of the walls of Jerusalem was progressing and that the gaps were being filled in, they became very angry. 8 They conspired together to come and fight against Jerusalem and to create a disturbance in it. 9 But we prayed to our God and kept a guard posted against them day and night.

10 However, people of Judah were saying: "The strength of the laborers* has failed, and there is so much rubble; we will never be able to build the wall."

11 And our enemies kept saying: "Before they know it or see us, we will come right in among them and kill them and stop the work."

12 Whenever the Jews living near them came in, they told us again and again:* "They will come at us from all directions."

13 So I kept men posted at the lowest parts of the space behind the wall at the exposed places, and I posted them by families with their swords, their lances, and their bows. 14 When I saw their fear, I immediately rose and said to the nobles[a] and the deputy rulers and the rest of the people: "Do not be afraid of them.[b] Remember Jehovah, who is great and awe-inspiring;[c] and fight for your brothers, your sons and daughters, your wives and homes."

15 Now after our enemies heard that what they were doing had become known to us and that the true God had frustrated their plan, we all went back to work on the wall. 16 From that day forward, half of my men would do the work[d] and half of them would hold the lances, the shields, the bows, and the coats of mail. And the princes[e] stood behind the whole house of Judah 17 who were building the wall. Those who were carrying the loads did the work with one hand while holding a weapon* in the other hand. 18 And each of the builders had a sword strapped to his hip while building, and the one to blow the horn[f] stood beside me.

19 I then said to the nobles and the deputy rulers and the rest of the people: "The work is large and extensive, and we are spread out on the wall far apart from one another. 20 When you hear the sound of the horn, gather together to where we are. Our God will fight for us."[g]

21 So we kept working while the other half were holding the lances, from the break of dawn until the stars came out. 22 At that time I said to the people: "Let the men, each along with his attendant, spend the night inside Jerusalem, and they will guard us by night and work during the day." 23 So neither I nor my brothers, my attendants,[a] and the guards who followed me ever took off our garments, and each of us kept his weapon in his right hand.

5 However, there was a great outcry from the people and their wives against their Jewish brothers.[b] 2 Some were saying: "We are many with our sons and our daughters. We must get grain in order to eat and stay alive." 3 Others were saying: "We are giving our fields and our vineyards and our houses as security to get grain during the food shortage." 4 Still others were saying: "We have borrowed money on our fields and our vineyards for the king's tribute.[c] 5 Now we are of the same flesh and blood as our brothers,* and our children are just like their children; yet we have to subject our sons and daughters to slavery, and some of our daughters are already in slavery.[d] But we are powerless to stop this, because our fields and our vineyards belong to others."

6 I became very angry when I heard their outcry and these words. 7 So I considered these things in my heart, and I took issue with the nobles and the deputy rulers and said to them: "Each one of you is demanding interest* from your own brother."[e]

Further, I arranged for a great assembly because of them.

8 And I said to them: "To the extent possible, we have bought back our own Jewish brothers who were sold to the nations; but will you now sell your own brothers,[a] and are they to be sold back to us?" At this they became speechless, and they could find nothing to say. 9 Then I said: "What you are doing is not good. Should you not walk in the fear of our God[b] so that the nations, our enemies, cannot reproach us? 10 Moreover, I, my brothers, and my attendants are lending them money and grain. Let us, please, stop this lending on interest.[c] 11 Please, restore to them on this very day their fields,[d] their vineyards, their olive groves, and their houses, as well as the hundredth* of the money, the grain, the new wine, and the oil that you are demanding as interest from them."

12 To this they said: "We will restore these things to them and ask nothing back. We will do precisely as you say." So I called the priests and made those men swear to keep this promise. 13 Also, I shook out the folds of my garment* and said: "In this manner may the true God shake out from his house and from his possessions every man who does not carry out this promise, and in this manner may he be shaken out and emptied." To this all the congregation said: "Amen!"# And they praised Jehovah, and the people did as they promised.

14 Moreover, from the day that he commissioned me to become their governor[e] in the land of Judah, from the 20th year[f] to the 32nd year[g] of King Ar·ta·xerx'es,[h] 12 years, neither I nor my brothers ate the food allowance due the governor.[i] 15 But the former governors who were before me had burdened the people and had been taking from them 40 silver shekels* for bread and wine each day. Also, their attendants had oppressed the people. But I did not do that[a] because of the fear of God.[b]

16 Furthermore, I took a hand in the work on this wall, and not a field did we acquire;[c] all my attendants were gathered there for the work. 17 There were 150 Jews and deputy rulers dining at my table, as well as those who came to us from the nations. 18 Every day one bull, six choice sheep, and birds were prepared for me,* and once every ten days we had all sorts of wine in abundance. Despite all this I did not demand the food allowance due the governor, because the people were already bearing their burden of service. 19 Do remember me favorably,* O my God, for all that I have done in behalf of this people.[d]

6 Now as soon as San·bal′lat, To·bi′ah,[e] Ge′shem the Arabian,[f] and the rest of our enemies were told that I had rebuilt the wall[g] and that there were no gaps left in it (although up to that time I had not set up the doors in the gates),[h] 2 San·bal′lat and Ge′shem immediately sent this message to me: “Come, and let us set a time to meet together in the villages of the Valley Plain of O′no.”[i] But they were scheming to harm me. 3 So I sent messengers to them, saying: “I am engaged in a great work, and I am not able to go down. Why should the work stop while I leave it to come to you?” 4 They sent me the same message four times, and I gave them the same reply each time.

5 Then San·bal′lat sent his attendant to me with the same message a fifth time, with an open letter in his hand. 6 There it was written: “Among the nations it has been heard, and Ge′shem[a] is also saying it, that you and the Jews are scheming to rebel.[b] That is why you are building the wall; and according to these reports you are to become their king. 7 Also, you have appointed prophets to proclaim about you throughout Jerusalem, ‘There is a king in Judah!’ And now these things will be told to the king. So come, and let us discuss this together.”

8 However, I sent him this reply: “None of the things you are saying have taken place; you are making them up out of your own imagination.”* 9 For they were all trying to frighten us, saying: “Their hands will slacken in the work, and it will not be done.”[c] Now, I pray, strengthen my hands.[d]

10 Then I went to the house of She·mai′ah the son of De·la′iah the son of Me·het′a·bel while he was confined there. He said: “Let us set a time to meet at the house of the true God, within the temple, and let us close the doors of the temple, for they are coming to kill you. They are coming to kill you by night.” 11 But I said: “Should a man like me run away? Can a man like me go into the temple and live?[e] I will not go in!” 12 Then I realized that God had not sent him, but that To·bi′ah and San·bal′lat[f] had hired him to speak this prophecy against me. 13 He had been hired to frighten me and to cause me to sin, so that they would have grounds to damage my reputation in order to reproach me.

14 Do remember, O my God, To·bi′ah[g] and San·bal′lat and these deeds, and also No·a·di′ah the prophetess and the rest of the prophets who were constantly trying to frighten me.

15 So the wall was completed on the 25th day of E′lul,* in 52 days.

16 As soon as all our enemies heard of it and all the surrounding nations saw it, they became greatly ashamed,*[a] and they realized that it was with our God's help that this work had been done. 17 In those days the nobles[b] of Judah were sending many letters to To·bi′ah, and To·bi′ah would reply to them. 18 Many in Judah swore allegiance to him, for he was a son-in-law of Shec·a·ni′ah the son of A′rah,[c] and his son Je·ho·ha′nan had married the daughter of Me·shul′lam[d] the son of Ber·e·chi′ah. 19 Also, they would constantly tell me good things about him and then report to him what I said. Then To·bi′ah would send letters to frighten me.[e]

7 As soon as the wall had been rebuilt[f] I set up the doors;[g] then the gatekeepers,[h] the singers,[i] and the Levites[j] were appointed. 2 I then put my brother Ha·na′ni[k] in charge of Jerusalem, along with Han·a·ni′·ah the chief of the Fortress,[l] for he was a most trustworthy man and feared the true God[m] more than many others. 3 So I said to them: "The gates of Jerusalem should not be opened until the heat of the day, and while they are standing guard, they should shut the doors and bolt them. And assign the inhabitants of Jerusalem as guards, each to his assigned guardpost and each in front of his own house." 4 Now the city was spacious and large, and there were few people inside it,[n] and the houses had not been rebuilt.

5 But my God put it into my heart to gather together the nobles and the deputy rulers and the people to be enrolled genealogically.[a] Then I found the book of genealogical enrollment of those who first came up, and I found written in it:

6 And these were the people of the province* who came up out of the captivity of the exiles, those whom King Neb·u·chad·nez′zar[b] of Babylon had exiled[c] and who later returned to Jerusalem and Judah, each to his own city,[d] 7 those who came with Ze·rub′ba·bel,[e] Jesh′u·a,[f] Ne·he·mi′ah, Az·a·ri′ah, Ra·a·mi′·ah, Na·ham′a·ni, Mor′de·cai, Bil′·shan, Mis′pe·reth, Big′vai, Ne′·hum, and Ba′a·nah.

heads of the paternal houses gave to the project treasury 20,000 gold drachmas and 2,200 silver mi·nas.* 72 And the rest of the people gave 20,000 gold drachmas, 2,000 silver mi·nas, and 67 priests' robes.

73 And the priests, the Levites, the gatekeepers, the singers,[a] some of the people, the temple servants,* and all the rest of Israel# settled in their cities.[b] When the seventh month arrived,[c] the Israelites had settled in their cities.[d]

8 All the people then gathered with one accord at the public square in front of the Water Gate,[e] and they told Ez·ra[f] the copyist* to bring the book of the Law of Moses,[g] which Jehovah had commanded Israel.[h] 2 So Ez·ra the priest brought the Law before the congregation[i] of men, women, and all who could listen with understanding, on the first day of the seventh month.[j] 3 And he read aloud from it[k] before the public square in front of the Water Gate, from daybreak until midday, to the men, the women, and all who could understand; and the people listened attentively[l] to the book of the Law. 4 And Ez·ra the copyist* was standing on a wooden podium made for the occasion; and standing alongside him on his right were Mat·ti·thi'ah, She'ma, A·nai'ah, U·ri'ah, Hil·ki'ah, and Ma·asei'ah; and on his left were Pedai'ah, Mish'a·el, Mal·chi'jah,[m] Ha'shum, Hash-bad'da·nah, Zech·a·ri'ah, and Me·shul'lam.

5 Ez·ra opened the book in the sight of all the people, for he was above all the people. As he opened it, all the people stood up. 6 Then Ez·ra praised Jehovah the true God, the great One, at which all the people answered, "Amen!* Amen!"[a] and lifted up their hands. They then bowed low and prostrated themselves to Jehovah with their faces to the ground. 7 And Jesh'u·a, Ba'ni, She·rebi'ah,[b] Ja'min, Ak'kub, Shab'bethai, Ho·di'ah, Ma·a·sei'ah, Ke·li'ta, Az·a·ri'ah, Jo'za·bad,[c] Ha'nan, and Pe·la'iah, who were Levites, were explaining the Law to the people,[d] while the people remained standing. 8 And they continued reading aloud from the book, from the Law of the true God, clearly explaining it and putting meaning into it; so they helped the people to understand what was being read.*[e]

9 And Ne·he·mi'ah, who was then the governor,# Ez·ra[f] the priest and copyist,* and the Levites who were instructing the people said to all the people: "This day is holy to Jehovah your God.[g] Do not mourn or weep." For all the people were weeping as they heard the words of the Law. 10 He said to them: "Go, eat the choice things* and drink what is sweet, and send portions of food[h] to those who have nothing prepared; for this day is holy to our Lord, and do not feel sad, for the joy of Jehovah is your stronghold."# 11 And the Levites were calming all the people, saying: "Be quiet! for this day is holy, and do not feel sad." 12 So all the people went away to eat and to drink and to send out portions of food and to carry on a great rejoicing,[i] for they understood the words that had been made known to them.[j]

13 And on the second day, the heads of the paternal houses of all the people, the priests, and the Levites gathered around Ez′ra the copyist* to gain further insight into the words of the Law. 14 Then they found written in the Law that Jehovah had commanded through Moses that the Israelites should dwell in booths* during the festival in the seventh month,[a] 15 and that they should make proclamation[b] and announce throughout all their cities and throughout Jerusalem, saying: "Go out to the mountainous region and bring in leafy branches from olive trees, oil trees, myrtle and palm trees, and the leafy branches of other trees to make booths, according to what is written."

16 So the people went out and brought them in to make booths for themselves, each one on his roof, as well as in their courtyards, in the courtyards of the house of the true God,[c] in the public square of the Water Gate,[d] and in the public square of the Gate of E′phra·im.[e] 17 Thus all those of the congregation who had come back from the captivity made booths and were dwelling in the booths, for the Israelites had not done it this way from the days of Joshua[f] the son of Nun until that day, so that there was very great rejoicing.[g] 18 And day by day there was a reading from the book of the Law of the true God,[h] from the first day until the last day. And they held the festival for seven days, and there was a solemn assembly on the eighth day, as was required.[i]

9 On the 24th day of this month the Israelites assembled; they were fasting with sackcloth and dust on themselves.[a] 2 Those of Israelite descent then separated themselves from all the foreigners,[b] and they stood and confessed their own sins and the errors of their fathers.[c] 3 Then they stood up at their place and read aloud from the book of the Law[d] of Jehovah their God for a fourth of the day;* and for another fourth of it they were confessing and bowing down to Jehovah their God.

6 "You alone are Jehovah;[h] you made the heavens, yes, the heaven of the heavens and all their army, the earth and all that is on it, the seas and all that is in them. And you preserve all of them alive, and the army of the heavens are bowing down to you. 7 You are Jehovah the true God, who chose A′bram[i] and brought him out of Ur[j] of the Chal·de′ans and gave him the name Abraham.[k] 8 You found his heart faithful before you,[l] so you made a covenant with him to give him the land of the Ca′naan·ites, the Hit′tites, the Am′or·ites, the Per′iz·zites, the Jeb′u·sites, and the Gir′ga·shites, to give it to his offspring;*[m] and you kept your promises, because you are righteous.

9 "So you saw the affliction of our forefathers in Egypt,[a] and you heard their outcry at the Red Sea. 10 Then you performed signs and miracles against Phar'aoh and all his servants and all the people of his land,[b] for you knew that they acted presumptuously[c] against them. You made a name for yourself that remains to this day.[d] 11 And you split the sea before them, so that they crossed through the sea on the dry land,[e] and you hurled their pursuers into the depths like a stone thrown into the turbulent waters.[f] 12 You led them by day with a pillar of cloud, and by night with a pillar of fire, to light up for them the way they should go.[g] 13 And you came down on Mount Si'nai[h] and spoke with them from heaven[i] and gave them righteous judgments, laws of truth,* good regulations and commandments.[j] 14 You made known to them your holy Sabbath,[k] and you gave them commandments, regulations, and a law through your servant Moses. 15 You gave them bread from heaven when they were hungry,[l] and you brought water out of the crag when they were thirsty,[m] and you told them to enter and take possession of the land that you had sworn* to give to them.

16 "But they, our forefathers, acted presumptuously[n] and became stubborn,[o] and they would not listen to your commandments. 17 They refused to listen,[p] and they did not remember your extraordinary acts that you performed among them, but they became stubborn and appointed a head to return to their slavery in Egypt.[q] But you are a God ready to forgive,# compassionate* and merciful, slow to anger and abundant in loyal love,#[a] and you did not abandon them.[b] 18 Even when they made for themselves a metal statue* of a calf and were saying, 'This is your God who led you up out of Egypt,'[c] and they committed great acts of disrespect, 19 even then you, in your great mercy, did not abandon them in the wilderness.[d] The pillar of cloud did not depart from over them by day to lead them in the way, nor the pillar of fire by night to light up for them the way they should go.[e] 20 And you gave your good spirit to give them insight,[f] and you did not hold back your manna from their mouth,[g] and you gave them water when they were thirsty.[h] 21 For 40 years you provided them with food in the wilderness.[i] They lacked nothing. Their garments did not wear out,[j] and their feet did not become swollen.

26 "However, they became disobedient and rebelled against you[b] and turned their back on your Law.* They killed your prophets who warned them so as to bring them back to you, and they committed acts of great disrespect.[c] 27 For this you gave them into the hand of their adversaries,[d] who kept causing them distress.[e] But they would cry out to you in the time of their distress, and you would hear from the heavens; and because of your great mercy, you would give them saviors to rescue them out of the hand of their adversaries.[f]

28 "But as soon as they had relief, they would again do what is bad before you,[g] and you would abandon them to the hand of their enemies, who would dominate them.[h] Then they would return and call to you for help,[i] and you would hear from the heavens and rescue them time and again because of your great mercy.[j] 29 Although you would warn them so as to bring them back to your Law, they behaved presumptuously and refused to listen to your commandments;[k] and they sinned against your regulations, by which a man will live if he observes them.[l] But they stubbornly turned their back and stiffened their neck, and they refused to listen. 30 You extended patience to them[m] for many years and kept warning them by your spirit through your prophets, but they refused to listen. Finally you gave them into the hand of the peoples of the lands.[a] 31 And in your great mercy, you did not exterminate them[b] or abandon them, for you are a compassionate and merciful God.[c]

32 "And now, O our God, the God great, mighty, and awe-inspiring, who has kept his covenant and shown loyal love,[d] do not treat lightly all the hardship that has found us, our kings, our princes,[e] our priests,[f] our prophets,[g] our forefathers, and all your people from the days of the kings of As·syr'·i·a[h] down to this day. 33 You have been righteous in all that has come upon us, for you have acted faithfully; but we are the ones who have acted wickedly.[i] 34 As for our kings, our princes, our priests, and our forefathers, they have not observed your Law nor paid attention to your commandments or to your reminders* by which you warned them. 35 Even when they were in their kingdom and enjoying the abundant goodness that you gave them and they were in the broad and fertile* land that you bestowed on them, they did not serve you[j] and did not turn away from their bad practices. 36 So here we are today, slaves[k]—yes, slaves in the land that you gave to our forefathers to eat its fruitage and its good things. 37 Its abundant produce is for the kings whom you have put over us because of our sins.[l] They rule over our bodies and over our livestock as they see fit, and we are in great distress.

19 And the gatekeepers were Ak′kub, Tal′mon,[h] and their brothers who kept guard in the gates, 172.

20 The rest of Israel, the priests, and the Levites were in all the other cities of Judah, each in his own inherited property.* 21 The temple servants*[i] were living in O′phel,[j] and Zi′ha and Gish′pa were in charge of the temple servants.*

22 The overseer of the Levites in Jerusalem was Uz′zi son of Ba′ni son of Hash·a·bi′ah son of Mat·ta·ni′ah[k] son of Mi′ca, of the sons of A′saph, the singers; he was in charge of the work of the house of the true God. 23 For there was a royal order in their behalf,[l] and there was a fixed provision for the singers as each day required. 24 And Peth·a·hi′ah son of Me·shez′a·bel of the sons of Ze′rah son of Judah was the king's adviser* for every matter of the people.

25 Regarding the settlements with their fields, some of the people of Judah lived in Kir′i·ath-ar′ba[a] and its dependent* towns, in Di′bon and its dependent towns, in Je·kab′ze·el[b] and its settlements, 26 in Jesh′u·a, in Mo·la′dah,[c] in Beth·pel′et,[d] 27 in Ha′zar-shu′al,[e] in Be′er-she′ba and its dependent* towns, 28 in Zik′lag,[f] in Me·co′nah and its dependent* towns, 29 in En-rim′mon,[g] in Zo′rah,[h] and in Jar′muth, 30 in Za·no′ah,[i] in A·dul′lam and their settlements, in La′chish[j] and its fields, and in A·ze′kah[k] and its dependent* towns. They settled# from Be′er-she′ba clear to the Valley of Hin′nom.[l]

31 And the people of Benjamin were in Ge′ba,[m] Mich′mash, Ai′ja, Beth′el[n] and its dependent* towns, 32 An′a·thoth,[o] Nob,[p] A·na·ni′ah, 33 Ha′zor, Ra′mah,[q] Git′ta·im, 34 Ha′did, Ze·bo′im, Ne·bal′lat, 35 Lod, and O′no,[r] the valley of the craftsmen. 36 And some divisions of the Levites from Judah were assigned to Benjamin.

12 These were the priests and the Levites who went up with Ze·rub′ba·bel[s] the son of She·al′ti·el,[t] and Jesh′u·a:[u] Se·rai′ah, Jeremiah, Ez′ra, 2 Am·a·ri′ah, Mal′luch, Hat′tush, 3 Shec·a·ni′ah, Re′hum, Mer′e·moth, 4 Id′do, Gin′ne·thoi, A·bi′jah, 5 Mij′a·min, Ma·a·di′ah, Bil′gah, 6 She·mai′ah, Joi′a·rib, Je·da′iah, 7 Sal′lu, A′mok, Hil·ki′ah, and Je·da′iah. These were the heads of the priests and their brothers in the days of Jesh′u·a.

8 The Levites were Jesh′u·a, Bin′nu·i, Kad′mi·el,[v] She·re·bi′ah, Judah, and Mat·ta·ni′ah,[w] who led the songs of thanksgiving along with his brothers. 9 And Bak·bu·ki′ah and Un′ni their brothers stood opposite them for guard duties.* 10 Jesh′u·a

12 In the days of Joi'a·kim, these were the priests, the heads of the paternal houses: for Se·rai'ah,[c] Me·rai'ah; for Jeremiah, Han·a·ni'ah; 13 for Ez'ra,[d] Me·shul'lam; for Am·a·ri'ah, Je·ho·ha'nan; 14 for Mal'lu·chi, Jon'a·than; for Sheb·a·ni'ah, Joseph; 15 for Ha'rim,[e] Ad'na; for Me·ra'ioth, Hel'kai; 16 for Id'do, Zech·a·ri'ah; for Gin'ne·thon, Me·shul'lam; 17 for A·bi'jah,[f] Zich'ri; for Mi·ni'a·min, . . . ;* for Mo·a·di'ah, Pil'tai; 18 for Bil'gah,[g] Sham·mu'a; for She·mai'ah, Je·hon'a·than; 19 for Joi'a·rib, Mat·te'nai; for Je·da'iah,[h] Uz'zi; 20 for Sal·la'i, Kal'lai; for A'mok, E'ber; 21 for Hil·ki'ah, Hash·a·bi'ah; for Je·da'iah, Ne·than'el.

22 The heads of the paternal houses of the Levites in the days of E·li'a·shib, Joi'a·da, Jo·ha'nan, and Jad'du·a[i] were recorded, as were the priests, down to the kingship of Da·ri'us the Persian.

23 The Levites who were heads of the paternal houses were recorded in the book of the history of the times, down to the days of Jo·ha'nan the son of E·li'a·shib. 24 The heads of the Levites were Hash·a·bi'ah, She·re·bi'ah, and Jesh'u·a[j] the son of Kad'mi·el,[k] and their brothers stood opposite them to offer praise and give thanks according to the instructions of David[l] the man of the true God, guard group corresponding to guard group. 25 Mat·ta·ni'ah,[m] Bak·bu·ki'ah, O·ba·di'ah, Meshul'lam, Tal'mon, and Ak'kub[n] were standing guard as gatekeepers,[o] guarding the storerooms by the gates. 26 These served in the days of Joi'a·kim the son of Jesh'u·a[a] the son of Jo'za·dak and in the days of Ne·he·mi'ah the governor and Ez'ra[b] the priest and copyist.*

27 At the inauguration of the walls of Jerusalem, they sought the Levites and brought them to Jerusalem from all the places they lived to celebrate the inauguration with rejoicing, with songs of thanksgiving,[c] and with cymbals, stringed instruments, and harps. 28 And the sons of the singers* gathered together from the district,# from all around Jerusalem, from the settlements of the Ne·toph'a·thites,[d] 29 from Beth-gil'gal,[e] and from the fields of Ge'ba[f] and Az'ma·veth,[g] for the singers had built settlements for themselves all around Jerusalem. 30 And the priests and the Levites purified themselves, and they purified the people,[h] the gates,[i] and the wall.[j]

31 Then I brought the princes of Judah up on top of the wall. Further, I appointed two large thanksgiving choirs and processions, and the one walked to the right on the wall toward the Gate of the Ash Heaps.[k] 32 Hoshai'ah and half of the princes of Judah walked behind them, 33 along with Az·a·ri'ah, Ez'ra, Me·shul'lam, 34 Judah, Benjamin, She·mai'ah, and Jeremiah. 35 With them were some of the sons of the priests with the trumpets:[l] Zech·a·ri'ah son of Jon'a·than son of Shemai'ah son of Mat·ta·ni'ah son of Mi·cai'ah son of Zac'cur son of A'saph,[m] 36 and his brothers She·mai'ah, Az'ar·el, Mil'a·lai, Gil'a·lai, Ma'ai, Ne·than'el, Judah, and Ha·na'ni, with the musical instruments of David[n] the man of the true God; and Ez′ra[a] the copyist* went before them. 37 At the Fountain Gate[b] they went straight ahead up the Stairway[c] of the City of David[d] by the ascent of the wall above the House of David and on to the Water Gate[e] to the east.

38 The other thanksgiving choir walked in the opposite direction,* and I followed it with half of the people, on the wall up over the Tower of the Ovens[f] and on to the Broad Wall[g] 39 and up over the Gate of E′phra·im[h] and on to the Gate of the Old City[i] and on to the Fish Gate,[j] the Tower of Ha·nan′el,[k] the Tower of Me′ah, and on to the Sheep Gate;[l] and they came to a halt at the Gate of the Guard.

40 At length the two thanksgiving choirs stood before the house of the true God; so did I and half of the deputy rulers with me, 41 and the priests E·li′a·kim, Ma·a·sei′ah, Mi·ni′a·min, Mi·cai′ah, Eli·o·e′nai, Zech·a·ri′ah, and Han·a·ni′ah, with the trumpets, 42 and Ma·a·sei′ah, She·mai′ah, El·e·a′zar, Uz′zi, Je·ho·ha′nan, Mal·chi′jah, E′lam, and E′zer. And the singers sang loudly under the oversight of Iz·ra·hi′ah.

43 On that day they offered great sacrifices and rejoiced,[m] for the true God made them rejoice with great joy. The women and the children also rejoiced,[n] so that the rejoicing of Jerusalem could be heard far away.[o]

44 On that day men were appointed over the storehouses[p] for the contributions,[q] the firstfruits,[r] and the tenths.[s] Into them they were to gather from the fields of the cities the portions required by the Law[t] for the priests and the Levites,[u] for there was rejoicing in Judah because of the priests and the Levites who were ministering. 45 And they began taking care of the duties of their God and the obligation of the purification, as did the singers and the gatekeepers, according to the instructions of David and his son Sol′o·mon. 46 For long ago in the days of David and A′saph, there were directors for the singers and for the songs of praise and thanksgiving to God.[a] 47 And during the days of Ze·rub′ba·bel[b] and during the days of Ne·he·mi′ah, all Israel gave portions to the singers[c] and the gatekeepers,[d] according to the daily need. They also set aside the portion for the Levites,[e] and the Levites set aside the portion for the descendants of Aaron.

13 On that day the book of Moses was read in the hearing of the people,[f] and it was found written that no Am′mon·ite or Mo′ab·ite[g] should ever enter the congregation of the true God,[h] 2 for they had not met the Israelites with bread and water, but instead they had hired Ba′laam against them to curse them.[i] However, our God had changed the curse into a blessing.[j] 3 As soon as they heard the Law, they began to separate from Israel all those of foreign descent.*[k]

4 Now before this, the priest in charge of the storerooms* of the house# of our God[l] was E·li′a·shib,[m] a relative of To·bi′ah.[n] 5 He had made available for him a large storeroom,* where previously they used to put the grain offering, the frankincense, and the utensils and the tenth# of the grain, the new wine, and the oil,[o] to which the Levites,[p]

6 And during all this time I was not in Jerusalem, for I went to the king in the 32nd year[b] of King Ar·ta·xerx′es[c] of Babylon; and sometime later I asked the king for a leave of absence. 7 Then I came to Jerusalem and noticed the terrible thing that E·li′a·shib[d] had done in behalf of To·bi′ah,[e] making a storeroom available for him in the courtyard of the house of the true God. 8 This was very displeasing to me, so I threw all of To·bi′ah's household furniture out of the storeroom.* 9 After that I gave orders, and they cleansed the storerooms;* and I put back there the utensils of the house of the true God,[f] with the grain offering and the frankincense.[g]

10 I also found out that the portions of the Levites[h] had not been given them,[i] so that the Levites and the singers who did the work had gone off, each to his own field.[j] 11 So I reprimanded the deputy rulers[k] and said: "Why has the house of the true God been neglected?"[l] Then I gathered them together and assigned them back to their posts. 12 And all Judah brought in the tenth[m] of the grain, the new wine, and the oil to the storerooms.[n] 13 Then I put Shel·e·mi′ah the priest, Za′dok the copyist,* and Pe·dai′ah of the Levites in charge of the storerooms, and Ha′nan the son of Zac′cur the son of Mat·ta·ni′ah was their assistant, for these men were considered reliable. It was their responsibility to make the distribution to their brothers.

15 In those days I saw people in Judah treading winepresses on the Sabbath,[b] bringing in heaps of grain and loading them on donkeys, and bringing wine, grapes, figs, and every sort of load into Jerusalem on the Sabbath day.[c] So I warned them against selling provisions on that day.* 16 And the Tyr′i·ans who lived in the city were bringing in fish and all kinds of merchandise, selling them to the people of Judah and in Jerusalem on the Sabbath.[d] 17 So I reprimanded the nobles of Judah and said to them: "What is this evil thing that you are doing, even profaning the Sabbath day? 18 Was not this what your forefathers did, so that our God brought all this disaster on us and also on this city? Now you are adding to the burning anger against Israel by profaning the Sabbath."[e]

19 So as soon as the shadows began to fall on the gates of Jerusalem before the Sabbath, I ordered that the doors be closed. I also said that they should not open them until after the Sabbath, and I stationed some of my own attendants at the gates so that no loads would be brought in on the Sabbath day. 20 So the traders and the sellers of all kinds of merchandise spent the night outside Jerusalem once or twice. 21 Then I warned them and said to them: "Why are you spending the night in front of the wall? If you do it again, I will use force against you." From that time on they did not come on the Sabbath.

themselves and come and guard the gates to keep the Sabbath day holy.[a] This, also, do remember to my credit, O my God, and show me pity according to your abundant loyal love.[b]

23 In those days I also saw Jews who had married* Ash′dod·ite,[c] Am′mon·ite, and Mo′ab·ite[d] women.[e] 24 Half of their sons were speaking Ash′dod·ite and the language of the different peoples, but none of them knew how to speak the language of the Jews. 25 So I reprimanded them and called down a curse on them and struck some of the men[f] and pulled out their hair and made them swear by God: "You should not give your daughters to their sons, and you should not accept any of their daughters for your sons or yourselves.[g] 26 Was it not because of these that King Sol′o·mon of Israel sinned? Among the many nations there was no king like him;[h] and he was loved by his God,[a] so that God made him king over all Israel. But the foreign wives caused even him to sin.[b] 27 Is it not something unheard of for you to commit this great evil in acting unfaithfully against our God by marrying foreign women?"[c]

28 One of the sons of Joi′a·da[d] the son of E·li′a·shib[e] the high priest had become a son-in-law of San·bal′lat[f] the Hor′o·nite. So I drove him away from me.

29 Do remember them, O my God, because they have defiled the priesthood and the covenant of the priesthood[g] and the Levites.[h]

30 And I purified them from every foreign defilement, and I assigned duties to the priests and to the Levites, each to his own service,[i] 31 and arranged for the supply of the wood[j] at appointed times and for the first ripe fruits.

Do remember me favorably,* O my God.[k]

1 Now in the days of A·has·u·e′rus,* that is, the A·has·u·e′rus who ruled over 127 provinces#[a] from In′di·a to E·thi·o′pi·a,^ 2 in those days when King A·has·u·e′rus was sitting on his royal throne in Shu′shan*[b] the citadel,# 3 in the third year of his reign, he held a banquet for all his princes and his servants. The army of Persia[c] and Me′di·a,[d] the nobles, and the princes of the provinces# were before him, 4 and he showed them the wealth of his glorious kingdom and the grandeur and the splendor of his magnificence for many days, 180 days. 5 And when these days were completed, the king held a banquet for seven days for all the people present in Shu′shan* the citadel,# from the greatest to the least, in the courtyard of the garden of the king's palace. 6 There were linen, fine cotton, and blue material held fast in ropes of fine fabric, purple wool in silver rings, pillars of marble, and couches of gold and silver on a pavement of porphyry, marble, pearl, and black marble.

7 Wine was served in gold cups;* each cup was different from the other, and the royal wine was plentiful, according to the means of the king. 8 The drinking was according to the rule that no one was under compulsion,* for the king had arranged with the officials of his palace that each should do as he pleased.

9 Queen Vash′ti[e] also held a banquet for the women at the royal house* of King A·has·u·e′rus.

10 On the seventh day, when the king's heart was in a cheerful mood because of the wine, he told Me·hu′man, Biz′tha, Har·bo′na,[a] Big′tha, A·bag′tha, Ze′thar, and Car′kas, the seven court officials who were personal attendants to King A·has·u·e′rus, 11 to bring before the king Queen Vash′ti, wearing the royal headdress,* to show the peoples and the princes her beauty, for she was very beautiful. 12 But Queen Vash′ti kept refusing to come at the king's order that was conveyed through the court officials. At this the king became very angry, and his rage flared up within him.

13 The king then spoke to the wise men who had insight with regard to precedents* (for in this way the king's matter came before all those versed in law and legal cases, 14 and those closest to him were Car·she′na, She′thar, Ad·ma′tha, Tar′shish, Me′res, Mar·se′na, and Mem·u′can, seven princes[b] of Persia and Me′di·a, who had access to the king and who occupied the highest positions in the kingdom). 15 The king asked: "According to law, what is to be done with Queen Vash′ti because she has not obeyed the order of King A·has·u·e′rus conveyed through the court officials?"

16 To this Me·mu′can said in the presence of the king and the princes: "It is not against the king alone that Queen Vash′ti has done wrong,[c] but against all the princes and against all the peoples in all the provinces# of King A·has·u·e′rus. 17 For what the queen did will become known by all the wives, and they will despise their husbands and say, 'King A·has·u·e′rus said to bring in Queen Vash′ti before him, but she refused to come.'

18 This very day the princesses of Persia and Me'di·a who know about what the queen did will talk to all the princes of the king, resulting in much contempt and indignation. 19 If it seems good to the king, let a royal decree be issued from him, and let it be written among the laws of Persia and Me'di·a, which cannot be repealed,[a] that Vash'ti may never again come in before King A·has·u·e'rus; and let the king confer her royal position on a woman who is better than she is. 20 And when the decree of the king is heard in all his vast realm, all the wives will give honor to their husbands, from the greatest to the least."

21 This proposal pleased the king and the princes, and the king did what Me·mu'can said. 22 So he sent letters to all the royal provinces,*[b] to each province# in its own script△ and to each people in its own language, for every husband to be master⊠ in his own house and to speak in the language of his own people.

2 After these things, when the rage of King A·has·u·e'rus[c] had subsided, he remembered what Vash'ti had done[d] and what had been decided against her.[e] 2 Then the king's personal attendants said: "A search should be made for young, beautiful virgins for the king. 3 And let the king appoint commissioners in all the provinces* of his realm[f] to bring together all the beautiful young virgins to Shu'shan# the citadel,△ to the house of the women.⊠ Let them be put in the care of Heg'a·i[g] the king's eunuch and guardian of the women, and let them be given beauty treatments.* 4 And the young woman who is most pleasing to the king will be queen instead of Vash'ti."[a] The suggestion was pleasing to the king, and that is what he did.

5 There was a certain Jewish man in Shu'shan#[b] the citadel△ whose name was Mor'de·cai[c] son of Ja'ir son of Shim'e·i son of Kish, a Ben'ja·min·ite,[d] 6 who had been taken into exile from Jerusalem with the people who were deported with King Jec·o·ni'ah*[e] of Judah, whom King Neb·u·chad·nez'zar of Babylon took into exile. 7 He was the guardian* of Ha·das'sah,# that is, Esther, the daughter of his father's brother,[f] for she had neither father nor mother. The young woman was beautifully formed and attractive in appearance, and at the death of her father and her mother, Mor'de·cai took her as his daughter. 8 When the king's word and his law were proclaimed and when many young women were brought together at Shu'shan# the citadel△ under the care of Heg'a·i,[g] Esther was also taken to the king's house* under the care of Heg'a·i the guardian of the women.

9 Now the young woman was pleasing to him and won his favor,* so he promptly arranged for her beauty treatments#[h] and her diet, and he assigned to her seven selected young women from the king's house. He also transferred her and her young attendants to the best place in the house of the women.△ 10 Esther did not say anything about her people[a] or her relatives, for Mor′de·cai[b] had instructed her not to tell anyone.[c] 11 Day after day Mor′de·cai would walk in front of the courtyard of the house of the women* to learn about Esther's welfare and about what was happening to her.

12 Each young woman had her turn to go in to King A·has·u·e′rus after completing the 12-month treatment that was prescribed for the women, for this was the way they had to fulfill their beauty treatment*—six months with oil of myrrh[d] and six months with balsam oil[e] and various ointments for beauty treatment.# 13 Then the young woman was ready to go in to the king, and whatever she asked for would be given her when she went from the house of the women* to the king's house. 14 In the evening she would go in, and in the morning she would return to the second house of the women,* under the care of Sha·ash′gaz the king's eunuch,[f] the guardian of the concubines. She would not go to the king again unless the king had been especially pleased with her and she was requested by name.[g]

15 And when the turn came for Esther the daughter of Ab′i·ha·il the uncle of Mor′de·cai, who had taken her as his daughter,[h] to go in to the king, she did not request anything except what Heg′a·i the king's eunuch, the guardian of the women, recommended. (All the while Esther was winning the favor of everyone who saw her.) 16 Esther was taken to King A·has·u·e′rus at his royal house in the tenth month, that is, the month of Te′beth,* in the seventh year[a] of his reign. 17 And the king came to love Esther more than all the other women, and she won his favor and approval* more than any of the other virgins. So he put the royal headdress# on her head and made her queen[b] instead of Vash′ti.[c] 18 And the king held a great banquet for all his princes and his servants, the banquet of Esther. He then proclaimed an amnesty for the provinces,* and he kept giving gifts according to the means of the king.

19 Now when virgins*[d] were brought together a second time, Mor′de·cai was sitting in the king's gate. 20 Esther did not say anything about her relatives and her people,[e] just as Mor′de·cai had instructed her; Esther continued to do what Mor′de·cai said, just as when she was under his care.[f]

21 In those days while Mor′de·cai was sitting in the king's gate, Big′than and Te′resh, two court officials of the king, doorkeepers, got angry and plotted to do away with* King A·has·u·e′rus. 22 But Mor′de·cai learned about it, and he immediately told Queen Esther. Esther then spoke to the king in Mor′de·cai's name.* 23 So the matter was investigated and eventually confirmed, and both men were hanged on a stake; and this was all recorded in the book of the history of the times in the presence of the king.[g]

3 After this King A·has·u·e′rus promoted Ha′man[h] the son of Ham·me·da′tha the Ag′ag·ite[i] and exalted him by putting his throne above all the other princes who were with him.[j]

2 And all the king's servants who were in the king's gate would bow low and prostrate themselves to Ha′man, for this is what the king had commanded respecting him. But Mor′de·cai refused to bow low or prostrate himself. 3 So the king's servants who were in the king's gate said to Mor′de·cai: "Why are you ignoring the king's commandment?" 4 Day after day they would ask him, but he would not listen to them. Then they told Ha′man to see whether Mor′de·cai's conduct would be tolerated;[a] for he had told them that he was a Jew.[b]

5 Now when Ha′man saw that Mor′de·cai refused to bow low and prostrate himself to him, Ha′man became filled with rage.[c] 6 But he despised the thought of doing away with* Mor′de·cai alone, for they had told him about Mor′de·cai's people. So Ha′man began seeking to annihilate all the Jews who were in the entire realm of A·has·u·e′rus, all of Mor′de·cai's people.

7 In the first month, that is, the month of Ni′san,* in the 12th year[d] of King A·has·u·e′rus, they cast Pur[e] (that is, the Lot) before Ha′man to determine the day and the month, and it fell on the 12th month, that is, A′dar.[f] 8 Ha′man then said to King A·has·u·e′rus: "There is a certain people scattered and dispersed among the peoples[g] in all the provinces of your realm,[h] whose laws are different from those of all other peoples; and they do not obey the king's laws, and it is not in the king's interests to let them be. 9 If it pleases the king, let a decree be written that they be destroyed. I will pay 10,000 silver talents* to the officials to put into the royal treasury."*

10 At that the king removed his signet ring[a] from his own hand and gave it to Ha′man[b] the son of Ham·me·da′tha the Ag′agite,[c] who was the enemy of the Jews. 11 The king said to Ha′man: "The silver and the people are given to you, to do with them as you see fit." 12 The king's secretaries[d] were then called on the 13th day of the first month. They put in writing[e] all of Ha′man's orders to the king's satraps, the governors who were over the provinces,* and the princes of the different peoples, to each province# in its own script^ and to each people in its own language. It was written in the name of King A·has·u·e′rus and sealed with the king's signet ring.[f]

13 The letters were sent by means of couriers to all the king's provinces,* giving the order to annihilate, to kill, and to destroy all the Jews, young and old alike, children and women, on a single day, on the 13th day of the 12th month, that is, the month of A′dar,[g] and to seize their possessions.[h] 14 A copy of the document was to be issued as a law in every province# and proclaimed to all the peoples, so that they would be prepared for that day. 15 The couriers went out quickly[i] by order of the king; the law was issued in Shu′shan*[j] the citadel.# The king and Ha′man then sat down to drink, but the city of Shu′shan* was in confusion.

4 When Mor′de·cai[k] learned of everything that had been done,[l] he ripped his garments

apart and put on sackcloth and ashes. Then he went out into the middle of the city, crying out loudly and bitterly. 2 He went only as far as the king's gate, for no one was to enter the king's gate wearing sackcloth. 3 And in every province*[a] where the king's word and his decree reached, there was great mourning among the Jews, along with fasting[b] and weeping and wailing. Many were lying down in sackcloth and ashes.[c] 4 When Esther's female attendants and her eunuchs came in and told her, the queen was deeply distressed. Then she sent garments for Mor′de·cai to wear instead of his sackcloth, but he refused them. 5 At this Esther summoned Ha′thach, one of the king's eunuchs, whom he had appointed to serve her, and she ordered him to find out from Mor′de·cai what this meant and what was happening.

6 So Ha′thach went out to Mor′de·cai in the public square of the city in front of the king's gate. 7 Mor′de·cai told him about everything that had happened to him and the exact amount of money[d] that Ha′man had promised to pay to the king's treasury for the Jews to be destroyed.[e] 8 He also gave him a copy of the written decree that had been issued in Shu′shan*[f] for their annihilation. He was to show it to Esther and explain it to her and instruct her[g] to go in to the king to beg for his favor and to plead directly with him in behalf of her people.

9 Ha′thach came back and told Esther what Mor′de·cai had said. 10 Esther replied to Ha′thach with instructions to tell Mor′de·cai:[h] 11 "All the king's servants and the people of the king's provinces* are aware that if any man or woman goes into the king's inner courtyard[a] without being summoned, there is only one law that applies: He is to be put to death; he may live only if the king holds out to him the golden scepter.[b] And I have not been summoned to the king now for 30 days."

12 When Mor′de·cai was told what Esther had said, 13 he replied to Esther: "Do not imagine that because you are in the king's household you are any more likely to escape than all the other Jews. 14 For if you remain silent at this time, relief and deliverance will come to the Jews from another source,[c] but you and your father's house will perish. And who knows whether it is for a time like this that you have attained to your royal status?"[d]

15 Then Esther replied to Mor′de·cai: 16 "Go, gather all the Jews who are found in Shu′shan* and fast[e] in my behalf. Do not eat or drink for three days,[f] night and day. I along with my female attendants will also fast. I will go in to the king, which is against the law, and if I am to perish, I will perish." 17 So Mor′de·cai went his way and did all that Esther had instructed him to do.

5 On the third day[g] Esther put on her royal robes and stood in the inner courtyard of the king's house,* opposite the king's house, while the king was sitting on his royal throne in the royal house opposite the entrance. 2 As soon as the king saw Queen Esther standing in the courtyard, she gained his favor, and the king held out to Esther the golden scepter[h] that was in his hand. Esther then approached and touched the top of the scepter.

3 The king asked her: "What is the matter, Queen Esther? What is your request? Even to* the half of my kingdom, it will be granted you!" 4 Esther replied: "If it pleases the king, let the king along with Ha'man[a] come today to the banquet that I have prepared for him." 5 So the king said to his men: "Tell Ha'man to come quickly, as Esther requests." So the king and Ha'man went to the banquet that Esther had prepared.

6 During the banquet of wine, the king said to Esther: "What is your petition? It will be granted you! And what is your request? Even to* the half of my kingdom, it will be done!"[b] 7 Esther answered: "My petition and my request is, 8 If I have found favor with the king and if it pleases the king to grant my petition and to act on my request, let the king and Ha'man come to the banquet that I will hold for them tomorrow; and tomorrow I will do as the king says."

9 On that day Ha'man went out joyful and with a cheerful heart. But when Ha'man saw Mor'de·cai in the king's gate and noticed that he did not rise and tremble in his presence, Ha'man was filled with rage against Mor'de·cai.[c] 10 However, Ha'man restrained himself and went to his house. Then he sent for his friends and Ze'resh[d] his wife. 11 Ha'man boasted about his glorious wealth, his many sons,[e] and how the king had promoted him and had exalted him over the princes and the servants of the king.[f]

12 Ha'man added: "What is more, Queen Esther invited no one else but me to accompany the king to the banquet she prepared.[a] I am also invited tomorrow to be with her and the king.[b] 13 But all of this fails to satisfy me as long as I see Mor'de·cai the Jew sitting in the king's gate." 14 So Ze'resh his wife and all his friends said to him: "Have a stake put up, 50 cubits* high. And in the morning tell the king that Mor'de·cai should be hanged on it.[c] Then go with the king to enjoy yourself at the banquet." This suggestion seemed good to Ha'man, so he had the stake put up.

6 That night the king could not sleep.* So he said to bring the book of the historical records of the times,[d] and it was read to the king. 2 There it was found written what Mor'de·cai had reported concerning Bigtha'na and Te'resh, two court officials of the king, doorkeepers, who had plotted to do away with* King A·has·u·e'rus.[e] 3 The king asked: "What honor and recognition has been given to Mor'de·cai for this?" To this the king's personal attendants said: "Nothing has been done for him."

4 Later the king said: "Who is in the courtyard?" Now Ha'man had come into the outer courtyard[f] of the king's house* to speak to the king about having Mor'de·cai hanged on the stake that he had prepared for him.[g] 5 The king's attendants said to him: "It is Ha'man[h] standing in the courtyard." So the king said: "Have him come in."

6 When Ha'man came in, the king said to him: "What should be done for the man whom the king wishes to honor?" Ha'man said in his heart: "Whom would the king wish to honor more than me?"[a] 7 So Ha′man said to the king: "For the man whom the king wishes to honor, 8 let them bring royal attire[b] that the king wears and a horse on which the king rides, with the royal headdress on its head. 9 Then let the attire and the horse be put into the charge of one of the king's noble princes, and they should clothe the man whom the king wishes to honor and have him ride on the horse in the public square of the city. They should call out before him: 'This is what is done for the man whom the king wishes to honor!'"[c] 10 At once the king said to Ha′man: "Quick! Take the attire and the horse, and do what you just said for Mor′de·cai the Jew who is sitting in the king's gate. Do not leave out anything that you have said."

11 So Ha′man took the attire and the horse, and he clothed Mor′de·cai[d] and made him ride in the public square of the city and called out before him: "This is what is done for the man whom the king wishes to honor!" 12 Afterward Mor′de·cai returned to the king's gate, but Ha′man hurried to his house, mourning with his head covered. 13 When Ha′man related to his wife Ze′resh[e] and to all his friends everything that had happened to him, his wise men and his wife Ze′resh said to him: "If Mor′de·cai, before whom you have started to fall, is of Jewish descent,* you will not prevail against him; you will surely fall before him."

7 So the king and Ha′man[a] came in to Queen Esther's banquet. 2 The king said to Esther again on the second day during the banquet of wine: "What is your petition, Queen Esther? It will be granted you. And what is your request? Even to* the half of my kingdom, it will be done!"[b] 3 Queen Esther answered: "If I have found favor with you, O king, and if it pleases the king, let my life* be granted as my petition, and my people[c] as my request. 4 For we have been sold,[d] I and my people, to be annihilated, killed, and destroyed.[e] If we had simply been sold as male and female slaves, I would have kept silent. But the distress is not proper, for it will be damaging to the king."

5 King A·has·u·e′rus then said to Queen Esther: "Who is this, and where is the man who has dared to do such a thing?" 6 Esther said: "The adversary and enemy is this evil Ha′man."

Ha′man became terrified because of the king and the queen. 7 The king rose up in a rage from the banquet of wine and went into the palace garden, but Ha′man stood up to plead with Queen Esther for his life,* for he realized that the king was determined to punish him. 8 The king returned from the palace garden to the house of the wine banquet and saw that Ha′man had thrown himself on the couch where Esther was. The king exclaimed: "Is he also going to rape the queen in my own house?" As soon as these words left the king's mouth, they covered Ha′man's face. 9 Har·bo′·na,[f] one of the king's court officials, now said: "Ha′man also prepared a stake for Mor′de·cai,[g] whose report saved the king.[h] It is standing at Ha′man's house, 50 cubits* high." At that the king said: "Hang him on it." 10 So they hanged Ha′man on the stake that he had prepared for Mor′de·cai, and the king's rage subsided.

8 On that day King A·has·u·e′rus gave the house of Ha′man,[a] the enemy of the Jews,[b] to Queen Esther; and Mor′de·cai came in before the king, because Esther had revealed how he was related to her.[c] 2 Then the king removed his signet ring[d] that he had taken away from Ha′man and gave it to Mor′de·cai. And Esther put Mor′de·cai in charge of the house of Ha′man.[e]

3 Moreover, Esther spoke again to the king. She fell down at his feet and wept and pleaded with him to undo the harm done by Ha′man the Ag′ag·ite and his scheme against the Jews.[f] 4 The king held the golden scepter out to Esther,[g] at which Esther rose and stood before the king. 5 She said: "If it pleases the king and if I have his favor, and if it seems proper to the king and I am pleasing in his eyes, let an order be written to annul the documents of that schemer Ha′man[h] the son of Ham·me·da′tha the Ag′ag·ite,[i] which he wrote to destroy the Jews in all the king's provinces.* 6 For how can I bear to look upon the disaster that will come upon my people, and how can I bear to see the destruction of my relatives?"

7 So King A·has·u·e′rus said to Queen Esther and to Mor′de·cai the Jew: "Look! I have given the house of Ha′man to Esther[j] and have had him hanged on the stake,[k] because of his plot to attack* the Jews. 8 You may now write in the king's name whatever you see fit in behalf of the Jews and seal it with the king's signet ring, for a decree that is written in the king's name and sealed with the king's signet ring cannot be revoked."[a]

9 So the secretaries of the king were summoned at that time in the third month, that is, the month of Si′van,# on the 23rd day, and they wrote all that Mor′de·cai commanded to the Jews, as well as to the satraps,[b] the governors, and the princes of the provinces*[c] from In′di·a to E·thi·o′pi·a, 127 provinces,* to each province△ in its own script▣ and to each people in its own language and to the Jews in their own script▣ and language.

10 He wrote it in the name of King A·has·u·e′rus and sealed it with the king's signet ring[d] and sent the written documents by the hand of couriers on horses; they rode on swift post-horses, bred for royal service. 11 In these documents the king granted permission to the Jews in all the different cities to gather together and defend their lives* and to annihilate, kill, and destroy any forces of any people or province△ that might attack them, including women and children, and to seize their possessions.[e] 12 This was to occur on the same day in all the provinces* of King A·has·u·e′rus, on the 13th day of the 12th month, that is, the month of A′dar.#[f] 13 The text# of the document was to be issued as law throughout all the provinces.* It was to be proclaimed to all the peoples, so that the Jews would be ready on that day to take vengeance on their enemies.[g] 14 The couriers riding the post-horses used in the royal service went out urgently and speedily at the king's order. The law was also issued in Shu′shan*[a] the citadel.#

15 Now Mor′de·cai left the king's presence in royal apparel of blue and linen, wearing a great golden crown and a fine-fabric cloak of purple wool.[b] And the city of Shu′shan* shouted for joy. 16 For the Jews there was relief* and rejoicing and exultation and honor. 17 And in all the provinces△ and all the cities, wherever the decree of the king and his law reached, the Jews were rejoicing and exulting, holding banquets and celebrations. Many of the peoples of the land were declaring themselves Jews,[c] for the dread of the Jews had fallen upon them.

9 On the 13th day of the 12th month, that is, the month of A′dar,*[d] when the king's word and his law were to be carried out,[e] on the day when the enemies of the Jews hoped to overpower them, the opposite happened, and the Jews defeated those who hated them.[f] 2 The Jews gathered together in their cities in all the provinces△ of King A·has·u·e′rus[g] to lay hands on those seeking to harm them, and not a man could stand against them, for the dread of them had fallen upon all the peoples.[h] 3 And all the princes of the provinces,△ the satraps,[i] the governors, and those handling the business of the king were supporting the Jews, for they were in fear of Mor′de·cai. 4 Mor′de·cai had become powerful[j] in the king's house,# and his fame was spreading throughout all the provinces,△ because Mor′de·cai was steadily growing more powerful.

5 The Jews struck down all their enemies with the sword, killing and destroying them; they did whatever they wanted to those hating them.[a] 6 In Shu′shan*[b] the citadel# the Jews killed and destroyed 500 men. 7 Also, they killed Par·shan·da′tha, Dal′phon, As·pa′tha, 8 Pora′tha, A·da′li·a, A·ri·da′tha, 9 Par·mash′ta, Ar′i·sai, Ar′i·dai, and Vai·za′tha, 10 the ten sons of Ha′man the son of Ham·meda′tha, the enemy of the Jews.[c] But after they killed them, they did not seize any plunder.[d]

11 On that day the number of those killed in Shu′shan* the citadel# was reported to the king.

12 The king said to Queen Esther: "In Shu′shan* the citadel# the Jews have killed and destroyed 500 men and the ten sons of Ha′man. What, then, have they done in the rest of the king's provinces?△[e] What is your petition now? It will be granted you. And what is your further request? It will be done." 13 Esther replied: "If it pleases the king,[f] let the Jews who are in Shu′shan* be permitted to act tomorrow also according to today's law;[g] and let the ten sons of Ha′man be hanged on the stake."[h] 14 So the king gave orders for that to be done. A law was issued in Shu′shan,* and the ten sons of Ha′man were hanged.

15 The Jews in Shu′shan* gathered together again on the 14th day of the month of A′dar[i] and killed 300 men in Shu′shan,* but they did not seize any plunder.

16 The rest of the Jews in the provinces△ of the king also gathered together and defended their lives.*[j] They got rid of their enemies,[k] killing 75,000 of those who hated them; but they did not seize any plunder. 17 That was on the 13th day of the month of A′dar, and they rested on the 14th day and made it a day of feasting and of rejoicing.

18 The Jews in Shu′shan* gathered together on the 13th day[a] and on the 14th day,[b] and they rested on the 15th day and made it a day of feasting and rejoicing. 19 That is why the rural Jews inhabiting the cities of the outlying districts made the 14th day of the month of A′dar a day of rejoicing and feasting, a day of celebration,[c] and a time to send portions of food to one another.[d]

20 Mor′de·cai[e] recorded these events and sent official letters to all the Jews in all the provinces* of King A·has·u·e′rus, both near and far. 21 He instructed them to observe the 14th day of the month of A′dar, as well as the 15th day, each and every year, 22 because on those days the Jews rested from their enemies and in that month their grief was changed to rejoicing and their mourning[f] to a day of celebration. They were to observe them as days of feasting and rejoicing and as a time to send portions of food to one another and gifts to the poor.

23 And the Jews agreed to continue the celebration that they had started and to do what Mor′de·cai wrote to them. 24 For Ha′man[g] the son of Hamme·da′tha the Ag′ag·ite,[h] the enemy of all the Jews, had schemed against the Jews to destroy them,[i] and he had cast Pur,[j] that is, the Lot, to throw them into a panic and to destroy them. 25 But when Esther came in before the king, he gave orders in writing:[k] "Let his evil scheme against the Jews[l] come back on his own head"; and they hanged him and his sons on the stake.[m]

26 That is why they called these days Pu′rim, after the name of the Pur.[a] Therefore, because of all that was written in this letter and what they saw concerning this matter and what had come upon them, 27 the Jews obligated themselves and their descendants and all those joining them[b] to celebrate these two days without fail and to carry out what was written concerning them at the appointed time each and every year. 28 These days were to be remembered and observed in every generation, by each family, each province, and each city; and these days of Pu′rim should not cease among the Jews, and their commemoration should not come to an end among their descendants.

29 Then Queen Esther, the daughter of Ab′i·ha·il, and Mor′de·cai the Jew wrote with full authority to confirm a second letter about Pu′rim. 30 He sent official letters to all the Jews in the 127 provinces,[c] the realm of A·has·u·e′rus,[d] in words of peace and truth 31 to confirm the observance of the days of Pu′rim at their appointed times, just as Mor′de·cai the Jew and Queen Esther had instructed them to do[e] and just as they had obligated themselves and their descendants to carry out,[f] including the fasting[g] and supplication.[h] 32 And the command of Esther confirmed these matters concerning Pu′rim,[i] and it was recorded in a book.

10 King A·has·u·e′rus imposed forced labor on the land and the islands of the sea.

He was great* among the Jews and respected by the multitude of his brothers, working for the good of his people and advocating the welfare of# all their descendants.

CHAP. 1

1 There was a man in the land of Uz whose name was Job.[a] He was an upright man of integrity;#[b] he feared God and shunned what was bad.[c] 2 Seven sons and three daughters were born to him. 3 His livestock amounted to 7,000 sheep, 3,000 camels, 1,000 cattle, and 500 donkeys,# along with a very large number of servants, so that he became the greatest of all the people of the East.

4 Each of his sons would hold a banquet at his house on his own set day.* They would invite their three sisters to eat and drink with them. 5 After a series of banquet days was complete, Job would send for them in order to sanctify them. Then he would get up early in the morning and offer up burnt sacrifices[a] for each of them. For Job said: "Maybe my sons have sinned and have cursed God in their heart." That is what Job would always do.[a]

6 Now the day came when the sons of the true God*[b] entered to take their station before Jehovah,[c] and Satan[d] also entered among them.[e]

7 Then Jehovah said to Satan: "Where have you come from?" Satan answered Jehovah: "From roving about on the earth and from walking about in it."[f] 8 And Jehovah said to Satan: "Have you taken note of* my servant Job? There is no one like him on the earth. He is an upright man of integrity,#[g] fearing God and shunning what is bad." 9 At that Satan answered Jehovah: "Is it for nothing that Job has feared God?[h] 10 Have you not put up a protective hedge around him[i] and his house and everything he has? You have blessed the work of his hands,[j] and his livestock has spread out in the land. 11 But, for a change, stretch out your hand and strike everything he has, and he will surely curse you to your very face." 12 Then Jehovah said to Satan: "Look! Everything that he has is in your hand.* Only do not lay your hand on the man himself!" So Satan went out from the presence# of Jehovah.[k]

13 Now on the day when his sons and daughters were eating and drinking wine in their oldest brother's house,[l] 14 a messenger came to Job and said: "The cattle were plowing and the donkeys were grazing beside them 15 when the Sa·be'ans attacked and took them, and they killed the servants with the sword. I am the only one who escaped to tell you."

16 While he was still speaking, another one came and said: "Fire from God* fell from the heavens and blazed among the sheep and the servants and consumed them! I am the only one who escaped to tell you."

17 While he was still speaking, another one came and said: "The Chal·de'ans[a] formed three bands and made a raid on the camels and took them, and they killed the servants with the sword. I am the only one who escaped to tell you."

18 While he was still speaking, yet another one came and said: "Your sons and your daughters were eating and drinking wine in their oldest brother's house. 19 Suddenly a great wind came from the wilderness, and it struck the four corners of the house, so that it fell on the young people and they were killed. I am the only one who escaped to tell you."

20 At that Job got up and ripped apart his garment and cut the hair off his head; then he fell to the ground and bowed down 21 and said:

"Naked I came out of my mother's womb,
And naked I will return.[b]
Jehovah has given,[c] and Jehovah has taken away.
Let the name of Jehovah continue to be praised."

22 In all of this, Job did not sin or accuse God of doing anything wrong.*

2 Afterward the day came when the sons of the true God*[d] entered to take their station before Jehovah,[e] and Satan also entered among them to take his station before Jehovah.[f]

2 Then Jehovah said to Satan: "Where have you come from?" Satan answered Jehovah: "From roving about on the earth and from walking about in it."[a] 3 And Jehovah said to Satan: "Have you taken note of* my servant Job? There is no one like him on the earth. He is an upright man of integrity,#[b] fearing God and shunning what is bad. He is still holding firmly to his integrity,[c] even though you try to incite me against him[d] to destroy△ him for no reason." 4 But Satan answered Jehovah: "Skin for skin. A man will give everything that he has for his life.* 5 But, for a change, stretch out your hand and strike his bone and flesh, and he will surely curse you to your very face."[e]

6 Then Jehovah said to Satan: "Look! He is in your hand!# Only do not take his life!"* 7 So Satan went out from the presence* of Jehovah and struck Job with painful boils#[f] from the sole of his foot to the crown of his head. 8 And Job took a piece of broken pottery to scrape himself, and he was sitting among the ashes.[g]

9 Finally his wife said to him: "Are you still holding firmly to your integrity? Curse God and die!" 10 But he said to her: "You are talking like one of the senseless women. Should we accept only what is good from the true God and not accept also what is bad?"[h] In all of this, Job did not sin with his lips.[i]

11 Three companions* of Job heard about all the calamities that had come upon him, and each came from his own place —El'i·phaz[a] the Te'man·ite, Bil'dad[b] the Shu'hite,[c] and Zo'phar[d] the Na'a·ma·thite. So they agreed to meet together to go and sympathize with Job and comfort him. 12 When they saw him from a distance, they did not recognize him. They began to weep loudly and to rip their garments apart, and they threw dust into the air and onto their heads.[e] 13 Then they sat on the ground with him for seven days and seven nights. No one said a word to him, for they saw that his pain was very great.[f]

3 It was after this that Job began to speak and to curse the day of his birth.*[g] 2 Job said:

3 "Let the day perish on which I was born,[h]
Also the night when someone said: 'A man has been conceived!'
4 Let that day be darkness.
Let God above show no concern for it;
Let no light shine upon it.
5 Let the deepest darkness* reclaim it.
Let a rain cloud settle over it.
Let whatever darkens the day terrify it.
6 That night—let the gloom seize it;[i]
Let it not rejoice among the days of a year,
And let it not enter among the number of the months.
7 Indeed! Let that night become barren;
Let no joyful cry be heard in it.
8 Let those who curse the day put a curse on it,
Those who are able to awaken Le·vi'a·than.*[j]

24 For in place of my food like water.

25 For what I have dreaded has come upon me,
And what I have feared has befallen me.
26 I have had no peace,
no quiet, no rest,
But trouble keeps coming."

4 El'i·phaz[e] the Te'man·ite then said in reply:

2 "If someone tries to speak to you, will you become impatient?
For who can hold back from speaking?
3 True, you have corrected
many,
And you used to strengthen the weak hands.
4 Your words would raise up anyone stumbling,
And you would strengthen those whose knees were

5 But now it has happened to you, and you are

It touches you, and you are

6 Does your reverence for God not give you confidence?
Does your way of integrity[f]
not give you hope?
7 Remember, please: What perished?

4:5 *Lit., "you become weary."

When have the upright ever been destroyed?
8 What I have seen is that those who plow* what is harmful
And those who sow trouble will reap the same.
9 By the breath of God they perish,
And through a blast of his anger they come to an end.
10 The lion roars, and a young lion growls,
But even the teeth of strong lions* are broken.
11 A lion perishes for lack of prey,
And the cubs of a lion are scattered.
12 Now a word was brought to me in secret,
And a whisper of it reached my ear.
13 In troubling thoughts during visions of the night,
When deep sleep falls upon men,
14 A terrible trembling came upon me,
Filling all my bones with dread.
15 A spirit passed over my face;
The hair of my flesh bristled.
16 It then stood still,
But I did not recognize its appearance.
A form was in front of my eyes;
There was a calm, and then I heard a voice:
17 'Can a mortal man be more righteous than God?
Can a man be cleaner than his own Maker?'
18 Look! He has no faith in his servants,
And he finds fault with his angels.*

19 How much more so with those dwelling in houses of clay, Whose foundation is in the dust,[a]
Who are crushed as easily as a moth!
20 They are completely crushed from morning to evening;
They perish forever, and no one takes notice.
21 Are they not like a tent whose cord is pulled out?
They die without wisdom.
5 "Call, please! Is there anyone answering you?
To which of the holy ones will you turn?
2 For resentment will kill the foolish one,
And envy will put the simpleminded to death.
3 I have seen the foolish one taking root,
But suddenly his dwelling place is cursed.
4 His sons are far from safety,
And they are crushed at the city gate,[b] with no one to save them.
5 The hungry one eats what he harvests,
Taking it even from among the thorns,
And their possessions are ensnared.
6 For harmful things do not sprout from the dust,
And trouble does not spring from the ground.
7 For man is born for trouble,
As surely as sparks fly upward.
8 But I would appeal to God,
And to God I would submit my case,
9 To the One doing great and unsearchable things, Wonderful things without number.
10 He gives rain to the earth
And sends waters upon the fields.

11 He raises the lowly up high,
And he raises up the dejected one to salvation.
12 He frustrates the schemes of the crafty,
So that the work of their hands does not succeed.
13 He catches the wise in their own cunning,[a]
So that the plans of the shrewd are thwarted.
14 They meet with darkness during the day,
And they grope about at midday as if it were night.
15 He saves from the sword of their mouth,
Saving the poor from the hand of the strong,
16 So that there is hope for the lowly,
But the mouth of unrighteousness is shut.
17 Look! Happy is the man whom God reproves;
So do not reject the discipline of the Almighty!
18 For he causes pain, but binds up the wound;
He breaks apart, but heals with his own hands.
19 He will save you from six calamities,
Even the seventh will not harm you.
20 During famine he will redeem you from death,
And from the power of a sword during war.
21 You will be protected from the lash of the tongue,[b]
And you will not fear devastation when it comes.
22 You will laugh at destruction and hunger,
And you will not fear the wild beasts of the earth.
23 For the stones of the field will not harm you,*
And the wild beasts of the field will be at peace with you.
24 You will know that your tent is secure,*
And nothing will be missing when you inspect your pasture.
25 You will enjoy many children,
And your descendants will be as plentiful as the vegetation of the earth.
26 You will still be strong when you go to the grave,
Like sheaves of grain gathered in their season.
27 Look! We have investigated this, and it is so.
Listen and accept it."

6 Job then said in reply:
2 "If only my anguish[a] could be fully weighed
And put on scales together with my calamity!
3 For now it is heavier than the sands of the seas.
That is why my words have been wild talk.*[b]

He covers the eyes* of its judges.
If it is not he, then, who is it?
25 Now my days are swifter than a runner;[a]
They run away without seeing good.
26 They glide by like reed boats,
Like eagles that swoop down on their prey.
27 If I say, 'I will forget my complaint,
I will change my expression and be cheerful,'
28 I would still be afraid because of all my pains,[b]
And I know you would not find me innocent.
29 I would be found guilty.*
So why should I struggle in vain?[c]
30 If I wash myself in water from melting snow,
And I cleanse my hands in lye,*[d]
31 Then you would dip me in a pit,
So that even my own garments would detest me.
32 For he is not a man like me that I may answer him,
That we should go to court together.[e]
33 There is no person to decide* between us,
Who could serve as our judge.#
34 If he would stop beating me*
And not let his terror frighten me,[f]
35 Then I would speak to him unafraid,
For it is not in me to speak out of fear.

11 Zo'phar[a] the Na'a·ma·thite said in reply:
2 "Will all these words go unanswered,
Or will a lot of talking make someone right?*
3 Will your empty talk silence people?
Will no one rebuke you for your mocking words?[b]
4 For you say, 'My teaching is pure,[c]
And I am clean in your eyes.'[d]
5 But if only God would speak
And open his lips to you![e]
6 Then he would reveal to you the secrets of wisdom,
For practical wisdom has many sides.
Then you would realize that God allows some of your error to be forgotten.
7 Can you discover the deep things of God
Or discover everything about* the Almighty?
8 It is higher than heaven. What can you accomplish?
It is deeper than the Grave.* What can you know?
9 It is longer than the earth
And broader than the sea.
10 If he passes by and detains someone and convenes a court,
Who can resist him?
11 For he knows when men are deceitful.
When he sees what is evil, will he not take notice?
12 But an empty-headed man will understand
Only when a wild donkey can give birth to a man.*

14 If your hand is doing wrong, put it far away,
And let no unrighteousness dwell in your tents.
15 For then you could lift up your face with no defect;
You could stand firm, free of fear.
16 For then you will forget your trouble;
You will remember it as waters that have flowed past you.
17 Your life will become brighter than midday;
Even its darkness will be like the morning.
18 You will be confident because there is hope,
And you will look around and lie down in security.
19 You will lie down, with no one to make you afraid,
And many people will seek your favor.
20 But the eyes of the wicked will fail;
And they will find no place to escape,
And their only hope will be death.”*[a]

15 El'i·phaz[b] the Te'man·ite said in reply:
2 "Will a wise person answer with empty arguments,*
Or will he fill his belly with the east wind?
3 Reproving with mere words is useless,
And talk alone is of no benefit.
4 For you undermine the fear of God,
And you diminish any concern for God.
5 For your error dictates what you say,*
And you choose crafty speech.
6 Your own mouth condemns you, and not I;
Your own lips testify against you.[c]
7 Were you the first man ever born,
Or was your birth before that of the hills?
8 Do you listen to the confidential talk of God,
Or do you limit wisdom to yourself?
9 What do you know that we do not know?[d]
What do you understand that we do not?

14:22 *Or "His soul." 15:2 *Or "with blustery knowledge." 15:5 *Or "your error trains your mouth."

Or words spoken gently to you?
12 Why does your heart carry you away,

13 For you turn your spirit against God himself,
And you allow such words to go out of your own mouth.
14 What is mortal man that he should be pure,
Or anyone born of a woman that he should be righteous?[a] 15 Look! He has no faith in his holy ones,
And even the heavens are not pure in his eyes.[b]
16 How much less so when a person is detestable and corrupt,[c]
A man who drinks in unrighteousness just like water!
17 I will inform you; listen to me!
I will relate what I have seen,
18 What wise men have related from their fathers,[d]
Things they have not hidden.
19 To them alone the land was given,
And no stranger passed among them.
20 A wicked person suffers torment all his days,
Throughout all the years reserved for the tyrant.
21 Terrifying sounds are in his ears;[e]
In a time of peace, marauders attack him.
22 He does not believe that he will escape from darkness;[f]
He is reserved for a sword.
23 He wanders about in search of food*—where is it?
He well knows that the day of darkness is at hand.
24 Distress and anguish keep terrifying him;
They overpower him like a king ready to launch an attack.
25 For he raises his hand against God himself
And tries to defy* the Almighty;
26 He stubbornly rushes against Him,
With his thick, strong shield;*
27 His face is covered with fat,
And his hips bulge with fat;
28 He resides in cities that will be brought to ruin,
In houses where no one will dwell,
Which will become heaps of stones.
29 He will not grow rich, and his wealth will not accumulate,
Nor will his possessions spread over the land.
30 He will not escape from darkness;
A flame will dry up his twig,*
And he will pass away by a blast of God's# mouth.[a] 31 He should not go astray and trust in what is worthless,
For what he gets in exchange will be worthless;
32 It will happen before his day,
And his branches will never flourish.[b]
33 He will be like a vine that shakes off its unripe grapes,
And like an olive tree that casts off its blossoms.

24 "Why does the Almighty not set a time?[a]
Why do those who know him not see his day?*
2 People move boundary
markers;[b]
They carry off flocks for their own pasture.
3 They drive away the donkey of fatherless children And seize the widow's bull as security for a loan.*[c] 4 They force the poor off
the road;
The helpless of the earth must hide from them.[d] 5 The poor forage for food like wild donkeys[e] in the wilderness;
They seek food in the desert
for their children.
6 They must harvest in another's field*
And glean from the vineyard of the wicked.
7 They spend the night naked, without clothing;[f]
They have no covering for the cold.
8 They are drenched by the mountain rains;
They cling to the rocks
for lack of shelter.
9 The fatherless child is snatched away from the breast;[g]
And the garments of the poor are taken as security for a loan,[h]
10 Forcing them to go about naked, without clothing,
And hungry, as they carry the sheaves of grain.
11 They toil among the terrace walls in the heat of the day;*

24:1 *That is, his day of judgment. 24:3 *Or "as a pledge." 24:6 *Or possibly, "harvest fodder in the field." 24:11 *Or possibly, "they press out oil among the terrace walls."

They tread the winepresses, yet they go thirsty.[a] 12 The dying keep groaning in the city;
The fatally wounded* cry for help,[b]
But God does not regard this as improper.#
13 There are those who rebel against light;[c]
They do not recognize its ways,
And they do not follow its paths.
14 The murderer rises at daybreak;
He slays the helpless and the poor,[d]
While at night he engages in theft.
15 The eye of the adulterer
waits for the twilight,[e]
Saying, 'No one will see me!'[f]
And he covers his face.
16 In the darkness they break into* houses;
By day they shut themselves in.
They are strangers to the light.[g]
17 For morning is the same as deep darkness for them;
They are familiar with the terrors of deep darkness.
18 But they are swiftly carried away by the waters.*
Their portion of the land
will be cursed.[h]
They will not return to their vineyards.
19 Just as drought and heat
take away the melted snow,
The Grave* takes away those who have sinned![i]

24:12 *Or "souls of the wounded." #Or possibly, "God charges no one with wrong." 24:16 *Lit., "dig into." 24:18 *Lit., "He is swift on the surface of the waters." 24:19 *Or "Sheol," that is, the common grave of mankind. See Glossary.

23 God understands the way to find it;

it resides,[b]

29 Job continued his dis-

7 When I used to go out to the city gate[b]
And take my seat in the public square,[c]
8 The young men would see me and step aside,*
And even the old men would rise and remain standing.[d]
9 Princes refrained from speaking;
They would put their hand over their mouth.
10 The voices of the prominent men were silenced;
Their tongue was stuck to the roof of their mouth.
11 Whoever heard me would speak well of me,
And those who saw me would testify for me.
12 For I would rescue the poor who cried for help,[e]
Along with the fatherless child and anyone who had no helper.[f]
13 The one about to perish would bless me,[g]
And I made the heart of the widow rejoice.[h]
14 I put on righteousness as my clothing;

29 Have I ever rejoiced over the destruction of my enemy[a]

31 Have the men of my tent not said,
'Who can find anyone who has not been satisfied with his food?'*[c]
32 No stranger* had to spend the night outside;[d]
I opened my doors to the traveler.
33 Have I ever tried to cover over my transgressions, like other men,[e]
By hiding my error in the pocket of my garment?
34 Have I been in fear of the reaction of the multitude,
Or have I been terrified by the contempt of other families,
Making me silent and afraid to go outside?
35 If only someone would listen to me![f]
I would sign my name to what I have said.*
Let the Almighty answer me![g]
If only my accuser had written out the charges in a document!
36 I would carry it on my shoulder,
And I would bind it around my head like a crown.
37 I would give him an accounting for every step I took;
I would approach him confidently, like a prince.
38 If my own ground would cry out against me

40 Then let thorns sprout for me instead of wheat
And foul-smelling weeds

The words of Job end here.

32 So these three men stopped trying to answer Job, because he was convinced of his own righteousness.[c] 2 But E·li'hu the son of Bar'a·chel the Buz'ite[d] of the family of Ram had become very angry. His anger blazed against Job for trying to prove himself right rather than God.[e] 3 He was also very angry with Job's three companions because they could not find an answer but had declared God wicked.[f] 4 E·li'hu had been waiting to respond to Job, because they were older than he was.[g] 5 When E·li'hu saw that the three men had nothing to say in answer, his anger flared up. 6 So E·li'hu the son of Bar'a·chel the Buz'ite began to speak, saying:

"I am young*
And you men are aged.[h]
So I respectfully held back,[i]
And I dared not tell you what I know.
7 I thought, 'Let age* speak,
And let a multitude of years declare wisdom.'
8 But it is the spirit in people,
The breath of the Almighty, that gives them understanding.[j] 9 Age alone does not* make one wise,
Nor is it only old men who understand what is right.[k]
10 So I say, 'Listen to me,
And I will also tell you what
I know.'
11 Look! I have waited for your words;
I kept listening to your reasoning[a]
As you searched for things to say.[b]
12 I paid close attention to you,
But none of you could prove Job wrong*
Or answer his arguments.
13 So do not say, 'We have found wisdom;
It is God who refutes him,
not a man.'
14 He did not direct his words against me,
So I will not reply to him with your arguments.
15 They are dismayed, they have no more answers;
They have nothing left to say.
16 I have waited, but they do not continue speaking;
They just stand there,
with no further answer.
17 So I too will give an answer;
I too will tell what I know, 18 For I am full of words;
The spirit within me
compels me.
19 My insides are like wine that has no vent,
Like new wineskins ready to burst.[c]
20 Let me speak so that I can find relief!
I will open my lips and give an answer.
21 I will not show partiality to anyone;[d]
Nor will I flatter* any human, 22 For I do not know how to flatter;
If I did, my Maker would quickly do away with me.

When deep sleep falls upon people
While they sleep in their beds.
16 Then he uncovers their ears[a]
And impresses* his instruction upon them,
17 To turn a person away from wrongdoing[b]
And to protect a man from pride.[c]
18 God spares his soul* from the pit,#[d]
His life from perishing by the sword.△
19 A person is also reproved by pain on his bed
And by the constant distress of his bones,
20 So that his very being* loathes bread,
And he# rejects even fine food.[e]
21 His flesh wastes away from sight,
And his bones that were hidden now protrude.*
22 His soul* draws near to the pit;#
His life to those who bring death.
23 If there is a messenger* for him,
One advocate out of a thousand,
To tell to man what is upright,
24 Then God shows him favor and says,
'Spare him from going down into the pit!#[f]
I have found a ransom![g]
25 Let his flesh become fresher* than in youth;[h]
Let him return to the days of his youthful vigor.'[i]

33:16 *Lit., "puts a seal on." 33:18, 22 *Or "life." 33:18, 22, 24 #Or "grave." 33:18 △Or "by a weapon (missile)." 33:20 *Lit., "his life." #Or "his soul." 33:21 *Or "are laid bare." 33:23 *Or "an angel." 33:25 *Or "healthier."

26 He will entreat God,[a]
who will accept him,
And he will see His face
with shouts of joy,
And He will restore His righteousness to mortal man.
27 That person will declare* to men,
'I have sinned[b] and distorted what is right,
But I did not receive what I deserved.[#]
28 He has redeemed my soul* from going into the pit,[#c]
And my life will see the light.'
29 Indeed, God does all these things
Twice, three times, for a man,
30 To bring him* back from the pit,[#]
So that he may be enlightened with the light of life.[d]
31 Pay attention, Job!
Listen to me!
Keep silent, and I will continue speaking.
32 If you have something to say, reply to me.
Speak, for I want to prove you right.
33 If you have nothing to say, you should listen to me;
Keep silent, and I will teach you wisdom."

34 So E·li′hu continued to say in reply:
2 "Listen to my words, you who are wise;
Hear me, you who know so much.
3 For the ear tests words
Just as the tongue* tastes food.
4 Let us evaluate for ourselves what is right;
Let us decide among ourselves what is good.
5 For Job has said, 'I am in the right,[a]
But God has denied me justice.[b]
6 Would I lie about what my own judgment should be?
My wound is incurable, though there is no transgression.'[c]
7 What other man is like Job,
Who drinks up derision like water?
8 He is in company with wrongdoers
And in association with wicked men.[d]
9 For he has said, 'A man does not benefit From trying to please God.'[e]
10 So listen to me, you men of understanding:*
It is unthinkable for the true God to act wickedly,[f]
For the Almighty to do wrong![g]
11 For he will reward a man according to what he does[h]
And bring upon him the consequences of his ways.
12 For a certainty, God does not act wickedly;[i]
The Almighty does not pervert justice.[j]
13 Who put him in charge of the earth,
And who appointed him over the whole world?*
14 If he fixes his attention* on them,
If he gathers their spirit and breath to himself,[k]
15 All humans* would perish together,
And mankind would return to the dust.[l]
16 So if you have understanding, pay attention to this;

Listen carefully to what I say.
17 Should someone who hates
justice be in control,
Or would you condemn a powerful one who is
righteous?
18 Would you say to a king,
'You are good for nothing,'
Or to nobles, 'You are wicked'?[a] 19 There is One who does not show partiality to princes
And who does not favor the rich over the poor,*[b]
For they are all the work of his hands.[c]
20 They may die suddenly,[d] in the middle of the night;[e]
They shake violently and pass away;
Even the powerful are removed, but not by human hands.[f]
21 For God's eyes are upon the ways of a man,[g]
And He sees all his steps.
22 There is no darkness or deep shadow
Where wrongdoers can conceal themselves.[h] 23 For God has not set an appointed time for any man
To appear before him in judgment.
24 He breaks the powerful without needing to investigate And sets up others in their place.[i] 25 For he knows what they are doing;[j]
He overthrows them during the night, and they are crushed.[k]
26 He strikes them for their wickedness,
In a place where all can see,[l] 27 Because they have turned away from following him[m]
And have no regard for any of his ways;[n]
28 They cause the poor to cry out to him,
So that he hears the outcry of the helpless.[a] 29 When God remains silent, who can condemn him?
When he hides his face,
who can see him?
Whether toward a nation or a man, the result is the same, 30 So that a godless person*
may not rule[b]
Or lay snares for the people.
31 For will anyone say to God,
'I have been punished, although I have committed no offense;[c]
32 Teach me what I have failed
to see;
If I have done anything wrong, I will not do it again'?
33 Should he reward you on your terms when you reject his judgment?
You must decide, not I.
So tell me what you know
so well.
34 Men of understanding* will say to me
—Any wise man who hears me—35 'Job speaks without knowledge,[d]
And his words lack insight.'
36 Let Job be tested* to the limit
Because his replies are like those of wicked men!
37 He adds rebellion to his sin;[e]
He scornfully claps his hands before us
And multiplies his words against the true God!"[f]

35 E·li'hu continued his response:
2 "Are you so convinced that you are right that you would say,

God'?[g]

When judgment is rendered and justice is upheld.

And do not let a large bribe lead you astray.
19 Would your cry for help
Or any of your strenuous efforts keep you from distress?[j]

23 Who has directed* his way[a]
Or said to him, 'What you have done is wrong'?[b]
24 Remember to magnify his activity,[c]
Of which men have sung.[d]
25 All mankind has seen it,
Mortal man looks on from a distance.
26 Yes, God is greater than we can know;[e]
The number of his years is beyond comprehension.*[f]
27 He draws up the drops of water;[g]
They condense into rain from his mist;
28 Then the clouds pour it down;[h]
They shower down upon mankind.
29 Can anyone understand the layers of clouds,
The thundering from his tent?*[i]
30 See how he spreads his lightning*[j] over it
And covers the depths# of the sea.
31 By these he sustains* the peoples;
He gives them food in abundance.[k]
32 With his hands he covers the lightning,
And he directs it against its target.[l]
33 His thunder tells about him,

And sends his lightning[a] to the ends of the earth.
4 After that is a roaring sound;
He thunders with a majestic voice,[b]
And he does not hold it back when his voice is heard.
5 God thunders with his voice[c] in a wonderful way;
He does great things that are beyond our understanding.[d]
6 For he says to the snow, 'Fall to the earth,'[e]
And to the downpour of rain, 'Pour down mightily.'[f]
7 God puts a stop to all human activity*
So that every mortal man will know His work.

11 Yes, he weighs down the clouds with moisture;
He scatters his lightning[k] in the clouds;
12 They swirl around where he directs them;
They carry out whatever he commands[l] on the surface of the inhabited earth.*

14 Listen to this, Job;
Stop and consider carefully the wonderful works of God.[a] 15 Do you know how God controls* the clouds
And how he causes the lightning to flash from his cloud?
16 Do you know how the clouds float?[b]
These are the wonderful works of the One perfect in knowledge.[c]
17 Why does your clothing become hot
When the earth is still because of the south wind?[d]
18 Can you, with him, spread out* the skies[e]
As solid as a metal mirror?
19 Tell us what we should say to him;
We cannot answer because we are in the dark.
20 Should he be told that I want to speak?
Or has anyone said something that should be communicated to him?[f]
21 They cannot even see the light,*
Though it is bright in the sky,
Until a wind passes by and clears away the clouds.
22 Out of the north comes golden splendor;
God's majesty[g] is awe-inspiring.
23 Understanding the Almighty is beyond our reach;[h]
He is great in power,[i]
And he never violates his justice[j] and abundant righteousness.[k]

3 Brace yourself, please, like a man;
I will question you, and you inform me.
4 Where were you when
I founded the earth?[c]
Tell me, if you think you

5 Who set its measurements,

Or who stretched a measuring line across it?
6 Into what were its pedestals sunk,
Or who laid its cornerstone,[d]

And all the sons of God*[f] began shouting in applause?
8 And who barricaded the sea

And wrapped* it in thick gloom,
10 When I established my limit

7 After Jehovah had spoken these words to Job, Jehovah said to El'i·phaz the Te'man·ite:

"My anger burns against you and your two companions,[g] for you have not spoken the truth about me[h] as my servant Job has. 8 Now take seven bulls and seven rams and go to my servant Job, and offer up a burnt sacrifice for yourselves. 9 So El'i·phaz the Te'man·ite, Bil'dad the Shu'hite, and Zo'phar the Na'a·ma·thite went and did what Jehovah had told them to do. And Jehovah accepted Job's prayer.

10 After Job had prayed for his companions,[b] Jehovah removed Job's tribulation[c] and restored his prosperity.* Jehovah gave him double what he had before.[d] 11 All his brothers and sisters and all his former friends[e] came to him and ate a meal with him in his house. They sympathized with him and comforted him over all the calamity that Jehovah had allowed to come upon him. Each of them gave him a piece of money and a gold ring.

12 So Jehovah blessed the last part of Job's life more than the beginning,[f] and Job came to have 14,000 sheep, 6,000 camels, 1,000 pairs of cattle, and 1,000 female donkeys.[g] 13 He also came to have seven more sons and three more daughters.[h] 14 He named the first daughter Je·mi'mah, the second Ke·zi'ah, and the third Ker'en-hap'puch. 15 No women in all the land were as beautiful as Job's daughters, and their father gave them an inheritance along with their brothers.

16 After this Job lived for 140 years, and he saw his children and his grandchildren—four generations. 17 Finally Job died, after a long and satisfying life.*

BOOK ONE (Psalms 1-41)

1 Happy is the man who does not walk according to the advice of the wicked
And does not stand on the path of sinners[a]
And does not sit in the seat of scoffers.[b]
2 But his delight is in the law of Jehovah,[c]
And he reads His law in an undertone* day and night.[d]
3 He will be like a tree planted by streams of water,
A tree that produces fruit in its season,
The foliage of which does not wither.
And everything he does will succeed.[e]
4 The wicked are not like that;
They are like the chaff that the wind blows away.
5 That is why the wicked will not remain standing in the judgment;[a] Nor will sinners remain standing in the assembly of the righteous.[b] 6 For Jehovah is aware of the way of the righteous,[c]
But the way of the wicked will perish.[d]

2 Why are the nations agitated
And the peoples muttering*
an empty thing?[e]
2 The kings of the earth take their stand
And high officials gather together* as one[f]

1:2 *Or "he meditates on His law."

2:1 *Or "meditating on." 2:2 *Or "take counsel together."

Against Jehovah and against his anointed one.*[a] 3 They say: “Let us tear off their shackles
And throw off their ropes!”
4 The One enthroned in the heavens will laugh;
Jehovah will scoff at them.
5 At that time he will speak to them in his anger
And terrify them in his burning anger,
6 Saying: “I myself have installed my king[b]
On Zion,[c] my holy mountain.”
7 Let me proclaim the decree of Jehovah;
He said to me: “You are my son;[d]
Today I have become your father.[e]
8 Ask of me, and I will give nations as your inheritance
And the ends of the earth as your possession.[f]
9 You will break them with an iron scepter,[g]
And you will smash them like a piece of pottery.”[h]
10 So now, you kings, show insight;
Accept correction,* you judges of the earth.
11 Serve Jehovah with fear,

Why are so many rising up against me?[a]
2 Many are saying about me:* “God will not save him.”[b] (Selah)#
3 But you, O Jehovah, are a shield around me,[c]
My glory[d] and the One who lifts up my head.[e]
4 I will call aloud to Jehovah,
And he will answer me from his holy mountain.[f] (Selah)
5 I will lie down and sleep;
And I will wake up in safety,
For Jehovah continues to support me.[g]
6 I am not afraid of the tens of thousands Lined up against me on every side.[h]
7 Rise up, O Jehovah! Save me,[i] O my God!
For you will strike all my enemies on the jaw;
You will break the teeth of the wicked.[j]
8 Salvation belongs to Jehovah.[k]
Your blessing is upon your people. (Selah)

To the director; to be accompanied with stringed instruments. A melody of David.

4 When I call, answer me, O my righteous God.[l]
Make a way of escape* for me in my distress.
Show me favor and hear my prayer.
2 You sons of men, how long will you turn my honor into humiliation?
How long will you love what is worthless and search for what is false? (Selah)
3 Know that Jehovah will treat his loyal one in a special way;*

3:2 *Or “my soul.” #See Glossary. 4:1 *Lit., “Make broad space.” 4:3 *Or “distinguish his loyal one; set his loyal one apart for himself.”

Jehovah will hear when I call to him.
4 Be agitated, but do not sin.[a]
Have your say in your heart, upon your bed, and keep silent. (Selah)
5 Offer the sacrifices of righteousness,
And trust in Jehovah.[b]
6 There are many saying:
"Who will show us anything good?"
Let the light of your face shine upon us, O Jehovah.[c]
7 You have filled my heart with greater rejoicing
Than those who have an abundant harvest of grain and new wine.
8 I will lie down and sleep in peace,[d]
For you alone, O Jehovah, make me dwell in security.[e]

To the director for Neʹhi·loth.* A melody of David.

5 Listen to my words, O Jehovah;[f]
Be attentive to my sighing.
2 Pay attention to my cry for help,
O my King and my God, because to you I pray.
3 O Jehovah, you will hear my voice in the morning;[g]
In the morning I will express my concern to you[h] and wait expectantly.
4 For you are not a God who takes pleasure in wickedness;[i]
No one bad may remain with you.[j]
5 No arrogant person may stand in your presence.
You hate all those who behave wickedly;[k]
6 You will destroy those who speak lies.[l]
Jehovah detests violent and deceptive people.*[m]
7 But I will come into your house[a] because of your great loyal love;[b]
I will bow down toward your holy temple* in reverential fear of you.[c]
8 Lead me, O Jehovah, in your righteousness because of my foes;
Make your way clear for me.[d]
9 For nothing they say can be trusted;
Within them is nothing but malice;
Their throat is an open grave;
They flatter with their tongue.*[e]
10 But God will declare them guilty;
Their own schemes will cause their downfall.[f]
May they be driven away because of their many transgressions,
For they have rebelled against you.
11 But all those who take refuge in you will rejoice;[g]
They will always shout joyfully.
You will block approach to them,
And those loving your name will rejoice in you.
12 For you will bless anyone righteous, O Jehovah;
You will surround them with approval as with a large shield.[h]

To the director; to be accompanied with stringed instruments tuned to Shemʹi·nith.* A melody of David.

6 O Jehovah, do not reprove me in your anger,
And do not correct me in your rage.[i]

4 What is mortal man that you keep him in mind,
And a son of man that you take care of him?[k]

And you crowned him with glory and splendor.

You have put everything under his feet:
7 All the flocks and cattle,
As well as the wild animals,*[a] j Ec 7:29

To the director. A melody of David.

13 How long, O Jehovah, will you forget me? Forever?
How long will you hide your face from me?[a] 2 How long will I* have anxious concern,
With grief in my heart each day?
How long will my enemy triumph over me?[b]
3 Look upon me and answer me, O Jehovah my God.
Give light to my eyes, so that I may not fall asleep in death,
4 So that my enemy will not say: "I have defeated him!"
Do not let my opponents rejoice over my downfall.[c]
5 As for me, I trust in your loyal love;[d]
My heart will rejoice in your acts of salvation.[e]
6 I will sing to Jehovah, for he has richly rewarded me.*[f]

To the director. Of David.

14 The foolish* one says in his heart:
"There is no Jehovah."[g]
Their actions are corrupt, and their dealings are detestable;
No one is doing good.[h]
2 But Jehovah looks down from heaven on the sons of men
To see whether anyone has insight, whether anyone is seeking Jehovah.[i]
3 They have all turned aside;[j]
They are all alike corrupt.
No one is doing good,
Not even one.
4 Do none of the wrongdoers understand?
They devour my people as if they were eating bread.
They do not call on Jehovah.

13:2 *Or "my soul." 13:6 *Or "he has dealt rewardingly with me." 14:1 *Or "senseless."

5 But they will be filled with great terror,[a]
For Jehovah is with the generation of the righteous.
6 You wrongdoers try to frustrate the plans of the lowly one,
But Jehovah is his refuge.[b]
7 O that Israel's salvation may come from Zion![c]
When Jehovah gathers back his captive people,
Let Jacob be joyful, let Israel rejoice.

A melody of David.

15 O Jehovah, who may be a guest in your tent?
Who may reside in your holy mountain?[d]
2 The one who is walking faultlessly,*[e]
Practicing what is right[f]
And speaking the truth in his heart.[g]
3 He does not slander with his tongue,[h]
He does nothing bad to his neighbor,[i]
And he does not defame* his friends.[j]
4 He rejects anyone who is contemptible,[k]
But he honors those fearing Jehovah.
He does not go back on his promise,* even when it is bad for him.[l]
5 He does not lend his money on interest,[m]
And he does not accept a bribe against the innocent.[n]
Whoever does these things will never be shaken.*[o]

A mik'tam* of David.

16 Protect me, O God, for I have taken refuge in you.[p]

15:2 *Or "with integrity." 15:3 *Or "shame." 15:4 *Lit., "oath." 15:5; 16:8 *Or "will never stagger (totter)." 16:Sup *See Glossary.

The majestic ones, bring me great delight."[a] 4 Those who pursue other gods multiply their sorrows.[b]
I will never pour out their drink offerings of blood,
Nor will my lips mention their names.[c]
5 Jehovah is my portion, my allotted share,[d] and my cup.[e]
You safeguard my inheritance.
6 Pleasant places have been measured out to me.
Yes, I am content with my inheritance.[f]
7 I will praise Jehovah, who has given me advice.[g]
Even during the night, my innermost thoughts* correct me.[h]
8 I keep Jehovah before me constantly.[i]
Because he is at my right hand, I will never be shaken.[j] 9 So my heart rejoices, my whole being is joyful.
And I reside# in security.
10 For you will not leave me in* the Grave.#[k]
You will not allow your loyal one to see the pit.△[l]

A prayer of David.

17 Hear my plea for justice,
O Jehovah;
Pay attention to my cry for help;
Listen to my prayer spoken without deceit.[a] 2 May you make a just decision in my behalf;[b]
May your eyes see what is right.
3 You have examined my heart, you have inspected me by night;[c]
You have refined me,[d]
You will find that I have not schemed anything bad,
And my mouth has not transgressed.
4 As for the activities of men,
In accord with the word of your lips, I avoid the paths of the robber.[e]
5 Let my steps stay on your tracks
So that my feet will not stumble.[f]
6 I do call on you, because you will answer me,[g] O God.
Incline your ear* to me. Hear my words.[h]
7 Show your loyal love in a wonderful way,[i] O Savior of those seeking refuge at your right hand
From those who rebel against you.
8 Guard me like the pupil of your eye;[j]
Conceal me in the shadow of your wings.[k]
9 Guard me from the wicked who attack me,
From my mortal enemies*
who surround me.[l]
10 They have become insensitive;*
With their mouth they speak
arrogantly;
11 Now they hem us in;[a]
They watch for the chance to cause our downfall.*
12 He is like a lion eager to tear its prey to pieces,
Like a young lion crouching
in ambush.
13 Rise up, O Jehovah, to confront him[b] and bring him down;
Rescue me* from the wicked
with your sword;
14 Rescue me with your hand,
O Jehovah,
From men of this world,*
whose share is in this life,[c]
Those whom you fill with the good things you provide[d]
And who leave an inheritance to their many sons.
15 But as for me, in righteousness I will see your face;
I am satisfied to awaken in your presence.*[e]

To the director. By Jehovah's servant David, who addressed the words of this song to Jehovah in the day that Jehovah rescued him from the hand of all his enemies and from the hand of Saul. He said:[f]

18 I have affection for you, O Jehovah, my strength.[g]
2 Jehovah is my crag and my stronghold and the One who rescues me.[h]

I take refuge,

3 I call on Jehovah, who is worthy of praise,
And I will be saved from my enemies.[a] 4 The ropes of death encircled me;[b]
Flash floods of worthless men terrified me.[c]
5 The ropes of the Grave* surrounded me;
The snares of death confronted me.[d]
6 In my distress I called on Jehovah,
To my God I kept crying for help.
From his temple he heard my voice,[e]
And my cry to him for help reached his ears.[f]
7 Then the earth began to shake and rock;[g]
The foundations of the mountains trembled
And shook back and forth because he had been angered.[h]
8 Smoke ascended from his nostrils,
And a consuming fire came from his mouth;[i]
Glowing coals blazed from him.
9 He made the heavens bend as he descended,[j]
And thick gloom was beneath his feet.[k]
10 He rode on a cherub and came flying.[l]
He swooped down on the wings of a spirit.*[m] 11 He then covered himself in darkness,[n]
All around him as a shelter,
Dark waters and thick clouds.[o]
12 From the brightness before him
Hail and fiery coals broke through the clouds.
13 Then Jehovah began to thunder in the heavens;[a]
The Most High made his voice heard[b]
With hailstones and fiery coals.
14 He shot his arrows and scattered them;[c]
He hurled his lightning and threw them into confusion.[d]
15 The streambeds* became visible;[e]
The foundations of the land were exposed by your rebuke, O Jehovah,
By the blast of the breath from your nostrils.[f]
16 He reached down from on high;
He took hold of me and pulled me from deep waters.[g]
17 He rescued me from my strong enemy,[h]
From those hating me, who were stronger than I was.[i] 18 They confronted me on the day of my disaster,[j]
But Jehovah was my support.
19 He brought me out into a place of safety;*
He rescued me because he was pleased with me.[k]
20 Jehovah rewards me according to my righteousness;[l]

m Ps 9:3 Ps 56:9

By aiming your bow* at them.#
13 Rise up, O Jehovah, in your strength.
We will sing praises* to your mightiness.

To the director; set to "The Doe of the Dawn."* A melody of David.

22 My God, my God, why have you forsaken me?[a]
Why are you far from saving me,
Far from my cries of anguish?[b]
2 My God, I keep calling by day, and you do not answer;[c]
And by night there is no silence on my part.
3 But you are holy,[d]
Surrounded by* the praises of Israel.
4 In you our fathers put their trust;[e]
They trusted, and you kept rescuing them.[f]
5 To you they cried out, and they were saved;
They trusted in you, and they were not disappointed.*[g]
6 But I am a worm and not a man,
Scorned by* men and despised by the people.[h]
7 All those seeing me mock me;[i]
They sneer and shake their heads in derision:[j]
8 "He entrusted himself to Jehovah. Let Him rescue him!
Let Him save him, for he is so dear to Him!"[k]
9 You were the One who brought me out of the womb,[l]
The One who made me feel secure on my mother's breasts.
10 I have been entrusted to your care* from birth;
From my mother's womb, you have been my God.
11 Do not stay far off from me, for trouble is near[a]
And I have no other helper.[b]
12 Many young bulls surround me;[c]
Powerful bulls of Ba′shan encircle me.[d]
13 They open their mouth wide against me,[e]
Like a roaring lion that tears its prey to pieces.[f]
14 I am poured out like water;
All my bones are out of joint.
My heart has become like wax;[g]
It melts deep within me.[h]
15 My strength has dried up like a piece of pottery;[i]
My tongue sticks to my gums;[j]
You are bringing me down to the dust of death.[k]
16 For dogs surround me;[l]
They close in on me like a pack of evildoers,[m]
Like a lion they are at my hands and feet.[n]
17 I can count all my bones.[o]
They look on and stare at me.
18 They divide my garments among themselves,
And they cast lots for my clothing.[p]
19 But you, O Jehovah, do not remain far away.[q]
You are my strength; hurry to help me.[r]
20 Save me* from the sword,
My precious life# from the paws△ of dogs;[s]

The generation to come will be told about Jehovah.
31 They will come and tell of his righteousness.
They will tell the people yet to be born what he has done.

A melody of David.

23 Jehovah is my Shepherd.[a]
I will lack nothing.[b]
2 In grassy pastures he makes me lie down;
He leads me to well-watered resting-places.*[c]
3 He refreshes me.*[d]
He leads me in the paths# of righteousness for the sake of his name.[e]
4 Though I walk in the valley of deep shadow,[f]
I fear no harm,[g]
For you are with me;[h]
Your rod and your staff
reassure me.*
5 You prepare a table for me before my enemies.[i]
You refresh* my head with oil;[j]
My cup is well-filled.[k]
6 Surely goodness and loyal love will pursue me all the days of my life,[l]
And I will dwell in the house of Jehovah for all my days.[m]

Of David. A melody.

24 To Jehovah belong the earth and everything in it,[n]
The productive land and
those dwelling on it.
2 For he has solidly fixed it on the seas[o]
And firmly established it on the rivers.
3 Who may ascend to the mountain of Jehovah,[p]

23:2 *Or possibly, "to tranquil waters." 23:3 *Or "my soul." #Lit., "tracks." 23:4 *Or "comfort me." 23:5 *Or "grease."

And who may stand up in his holy place?
4 Anyone with innocent hands and a pure heart,[a]
Who has not sworn a false oath by My life,*
Nor taken an oath deceitfully.[b]
5 He will receive blessings from Jehovah[c]
And righteousness* from his God of salvation.[d]
6 This is the generation of those seeking him,
Of those seeking your face, O God of Jacob. (Selah)
7 Lift up your heads, you gates;[e]
Open up,* you ancient doorways,
That the glorious King may enter![f]
8 Who is this glorious King?
Jehovah, strong and mighty,[g]
Jehovah, mighty in battle.[h]
9 Lift up your heads, you gates;[i]
Open up, you ancient doorways,
That the glorious King may enter!
10 Who is he, this glorious King?
Jehovah of armies—he is the glorious King.[j] (Selah)

Of David.

27 Jehovah is my light[b] and my salvation.
Whom should I fear?[c]
Jehovah is the stronghold of my life.[d]
Whom should I dread?
2 When evil men attacked me to devour my flesh,[e]
My adversaries and my enemies were the ones who stumbled and fell.
3 Though an army should set up camp against me,
My heart will not fear.[f]
Though war should break out against me,
Even then I will remain confident.
4 One thing I have asked from Jehovah
—It is what I will look for—
That I may dwell in the house of Jehovah all the days of my life,[g]
To gaze upon the pleasantness of Jehovah
And to look with appreciation* upon his temple.#[h]
5 For he will hide me in his shelter on the day of calamity;[i]
He will conceal me in the secret place of his tent;[j]
High on a rock he will place me.[k]
6 Now my head is high above my enemies who surround me;
I will offer sacrifices at his tent with joyful shouting;

12 So that I* may sing your praise and not keep silent.
O Jehovah my God, I will praise you forever.

To the director. A melody of David.

31 In you, O Jehovah, I have taken refuge.[a]
May I never be put to shame.[b] Rescue me because of your righteousness.[c]
2 Incline your ear* to me.
Come quickly to my rescue.[d]
Become for me a mountain stronghold,
A fortified place to save me.[e] 3 For you are my crag and my stronghold;[f]
For the sake of your name,[g] you will lead me and guide me.[h]
4 You will free me from the net that they have secretly laid for me,[i]
For you are my fortress.[j] 5 Into your hand I entrust my spirit.[k]
You have redeemed me,
O Jehovah, the God of truth.*[l]
6 I hate those who are devoted to worthless, vain idols,
But as for me, I trust in
Jehovah.
7 I will rejoice greatly in your loyal love,
For you have seen my afflic-tion;[m]
You are aware of my deep distress.*
8 You have not handed me
over to the enemy,
But you make me stand in a place of safety.*

And my years with groaning.[b]
My strength is waning because of my error;
My bones grow weak.[c]

Especially my neighbors.
And I am dreaded by my acquaintances;
When they see me in public, they flee from me.[e]
12 I am put out of their heart* and forgotten, as if I were dead;
I am like a broken jar.
13 I have heard many evil rumors;
Terror surrounds me.[f]
When they gather together as one against me,
They scheme to take away my life.*[g]

15 My days* are in your hand.
Rescue me from the hand of my enemies and from those persecuting me.[j]

19 How abundant your goodness is![a]

And you have shown it before all men, in behalf of those taking refuge in you.[c]
20 You will conceal them in the secret place of your presence[d]
From the schemes of men;
You will hide them in your shelter
From malicious attacks.*[e]
21 May Jehovah be praised,
For in a wonderful way, he has shown his loyal love to me[f] in a besieged city.[g] 22 As for me, I panicked and said:
"I will perish from before you."[h]
But you heard my pleas for help when I cried out to you.[i] 23 Love Jehovah, all you who are loyal to him![j]

and the wicked will be no more;[b]
You will look at where they were,
And they will not be there.[c]
11 But the meek will possess the earth,[d]
And they will find exquisite delight in the abundance of peace.[e]

ז [Zayin]

12 The wicked man plots against the righteous;[f]
He grinds his teeth at him.
13 But Jehovah will laugh at him,
For He knows that his day will come.[g]

ח [Heth]

14 The wicked draw their swords and bend* their bows
To bring down the oppressed and the poor,
To slaughter those whose way is upright.
15 But their sword will pierce their own heart;[h]
Their bows will be broken.

ט [Teth]

16 Better is the little of the righteous one
Than the abundance of many wicked ones.[i] 17 For the arms of the wicked will be broken,
But Jehovah will support the righteous.

י [Yod]

18 Jehovah is aware of what the blameless go through,*
And their inheritance will last forever.[j]
19 They will not be put to shame in the time of disaster;

39 The salvation of the righteous is from Jehovah;[a]
He is their fortress in the time of distress.[b]
40 Jehovah will help them and rescue them.[c]
He will rescue them from the wicked and save them,
Because they take refuge in him.[d]

A melody of David,
to serve as a reminder.*

38 O Jehovah, do not reprove me in your anger,
Nor correct me in your wrath.[e]
2 For your arrows have pierced deep into me,
And your hand presses down on me.[f]
3 My whole body is sick* because of your indignation.
There is no peace within my bones because of my sin.[g]
4 For my errors loom over my head;[h]
Like a heavy burden, they are too much for me to bear.
5 My wounds stink and fester
Because of my foolishness.
6 I am distressed and extremely downcast;
I walk around sad all day long.
7 There is a burning within me;*
My whole body is sick.[i]
8 I have grown numb and become completely crushed;
My anguished heart makes me groan aloud.*
9 O Jehovah, all my desires are before you,
And my sighing is not hidden from you.

38:Sup *Or "to bring to remembrance." 38:3 *Lit., "There is no sound spot in my flesh." 38:7 *Lit., "My loins are full of burning." 38:8 *Or "roar."

10 My heart pounds, my strength is gone,
And the light of my eyes has left me.[a] 11 My friends and my companions avoid me because of my plague,
And my close acquaintances
keep their distance.
12 Those seeking my life* set traps;
Those trying to harm me speak of ruin;[b]
They mutter deception all day long.
13 But like someone deaf,
I would not listen;[c]
Like someone speechless, I would not open my mouth.[d]
14 I have become like a man who cannot hear,
Whose mouth has nothing to say in defense.
15 For on you, O Jehovah,
I waited,[e]
And you answered me,
O Jehovah my God.[f]
16 For I said: "May they not gloat over me
Or exalt themselves over me
if my foot slips."
17 For I was ready to collapse,
And my pain was always with me.[g]
18 I confessed my error;[h]
I was troubled by my sin.[i] 19 But my enemies are vigorous* and mighty,# Those hating me for no reason have become numerous.
20 They repaid me with bad for good;
They were resisting me for pursuing what is good.
21 Do not abandon me,
O Jehovah.
O God, do not remain far away from me.[a] 22 Do hurry to help me,
O Jehovah, my salvation.[b]

To the director; of Je·du'thun.*[c]
A melody of David.

39 I said: "I will guard my step
To avoid sinning with my tongue.[d]
I will guard my mouth with a muzzle[e]
As long as anyone wicked is in my presence."
2 I was speechless and silent;[f]
I kept quiet even about what is good,
But my pain was intense.*
3 My heart smoldered*
inside me.
As I pondered,# the fire kept burning.
Then my tongue spoke:
4 "O Jehovah, help me to know what my end will be,
And the measure of my days,[g]
So that I may know how short my life is.*
5 Indeed, you have made my days just a few;*[h]
And my life span is as nothing before you.[i]

seems secure, is nothing but a mere breath.[j] (Selah)
6 Surely every man walks about like a shadow.
He rushes around* for nothing.
He piles up wealth, not knowing who will enjoy it.[k]
7 What, then, can I hope for,
O Jehovah?
You are my only hope.

To the director. Of David. A melody.

40 I earnestly hoped in* Jehovah,
And he inclined his ear# to me and heard my cry for help.[i]
2 He brought me up out of a roaring pit,
Out of the slimy mire.
And he set my feet upon a crag;
He made my footing secure.
3 Then he put a new song in my mouth,[j]
Praise to our God.
Many will look on in awe
And put their trust in Jehovah.
4 Happy is the man who trusts in Jehovah
And who does not look to the defiant or to those who are false.*
5 How many things you have done,
O Jehovah my God,
Your wonderful works and your thoughts toward us.[a]
None can compare to you;[b]
If I were to try to tell and speak of them,
They would be too numerous to recount![c]
6 Sacrifice and offering you did not desire,*[d]
But you opened up my ears to hear.[e]
You did not ask for burnt offerings and sin offerings.[f]

8 To do your will, O my God, is my delight,*[h]
And your law is deep within me.[i]

O Jehovah, as you well know.
10 I do not cover over your righteousness in my heart.
I declare your faithfulness and salvation.
I do not hide your loyal love and your truth in the great congregation."[l]

41 Happy is anyone who shows consideration to the lowly one;[k]
Jehovah will rescue him in the day of calamity.

2 Jehovah will guard him and keep him alive.
He will be pronounced happy in the earth;[l]
You will never turn him over to the will* of his enemies.[m]

3 Jehovah will sustain him on his sickbed;[a]
During his sickness you will completely change his bed.

4 For I said: “O Jehovah, show me favor.[b]
Heal me,*[c] for I have sinned against you.”[d]

5 But my enemies speak evil about me:
“When will he die and his name perish?”

6 If one of them comes to see me, his heart speaks falsely.
He gathers something harmful to say;
Then he goes out and spreads it abroad.

7 All those who hate me whisper to one another;
They are scheming something bad against me:

8 “A dreadful thing has overtaken him;
Now that he is down, he will not rise again.”[e]

9 Even the man at peace with me, one whom I trusted,[f]
Who was eating my bread, has lifted his heel against me.*[g]

10 But you, O Jehovah, show me favor and raise me up,
So that I may repay them.

11 By this I will know that you are pleased with me:
When my enemy cannot shout in triumph over me.[h]

12 As for me, you uphold me because of my integrity;[i]
You will keep me in your presence forever.[j]

BOOK TWO
(Psalms 42-72)

To the director.
Mas′kil* of the sons of Kor′ah.[a]

42 As a deer that longs for streams of water,
So I long* for you, O God.
2 I do thirst* for God, for the living God.[b]
When may I come and appear before God?[c]
3 My tears are my food day and night;
All day long people taunt me:
"Where is your God?"[d] 4 These things I remember,
and I pour out my soul,*
For I once walked along with the multitude;
I used to walk solemnly# before them to the house of God,
With sounds of rejoicing and thanksgiving,
Those of a crowd celebrating a festival.[e]
5 Why am I* in despair?[f]
Why is this turmoil
within me?
Wait for God,[g]
For I will yet praise him as my Grand Savior.[h]
6 My God, I am* in despair.[i]
That is why I remember you,[j]
From the land of Jordan and the peaks of Her′mon,
From Mount Mi·zar′.#
7 Deep waters call to deep waters
At the sound of your waterfalls.
All your surging waves have overwhelmed me.[k]
8 By day Jehovah will grant me
his loyal love,
And by night his song will be with me—a prayer to the God of my life.[l]
9 I will say to God, my crag:
"Why have you forgotten me?[a]
Why should I walk about sad
because of the oppression
by my enemy?"[b]
10 With murderous hostility*
my enemies taunt me;
All day long they taunt me:
"Where is your God?"[c]
11 Why am I* in despair?
Why is this turmoil
within me?
Wait for God,[d]
For I will yet praise him as my Grand Savior and my God.[e]

43 Judge me, O God,[f]
Defend my legal case[g]
against a disloyal nation.
Rescue me from the man of deception and unrighteousness.
2 For you are my God, my fortress.[h]
Why have you cast me off?
Why must I walk about sad
because of the oppression
by my enemy?[i] 3 Send out your light and your truth.[j]
May these lead me;[k]
May they guide me to your holy mountain and to your grand tabernacle.[l]
4 Then I will come to the altar of God,[m]
To God, my exceeding joy.
And I will praise you with the harp,[n] O God, my God.
5 Why am I* in despair?
Why is this turmoil
within me?
Wait for God,[o]
For I will yet praise him as my Grand Savior and my God.[p]

To the director.
Of the sons of Kor'ah.[a] Mas'kil.*

44 O God, we have heard with our own ears,
Our forefathers have recounted to us,[b]
The deeds you accomplished
in their days,
In the days of long ago.
2 With your hand you drove away nations[c]
And settled our forefathers
there.[d]
You crushed nations and drove them out.[e]
3 It was not by their own sword that they took possession of the land,[f]
And their own arm did not bring them victory.[g]
Rather, it was by your right hand and your arm[h] and the light of your face,
For you took pleasure in them.[i]
4 You are my King, O God;[j] Command* complete victory[#] for Jacob.
5 By your power we will drive back our adversaries;[k]
In your name we will trample down those who rise up against us.[l]
6 For I do not trust in my bow,
And my sword cannot save me.[m]
7 It was you who saved us from our adversaries,[n]
You who humiliated those who hate us.
8 To God we will offer praise
all day long,
And we will give thanks to your name forever. (Selah) 9 But now you have cast us off and humiliated us,
And you do not go out with our armies.
10 You keep making us retreat from our adversary;[o]
Those who hate us take whatever they want.
11 You hand us over to be devoured like sheep;
You have scattered us among the nations.[a] 12 You sell your people for next to nothing;[b]
You make no profit from the sale.*
13 You make us a reproach to our neighbors,
An object of ridicule and jeering to those all around us.
14 You make us an object of scorn* among the nations,[c]
Something for the peoples to shake their heads at.
15 I feel humiliated all day long,
And I am overwhelmed by my shame,
16 On account of the sound of their taunts and insults,
Because of our enemy who is taking revenge.
17 All of this has come upon us, yet we have not forgotten
you,
And we have not violated
your covenant.[d]
18 Our heart has not deviated;
Our footsteps do not stray from your path.
19 But you have crushed us
where the jackals dwell;
You have covered us with deep shadow.
20 If we have forgotten the name of our God
Or if we spread out our hands in prayer to a foreign god,
21 Will not God discover this?
He is aware of the secrets of the heart.[e]
22 For your sake we are being put to death all day long;
We have been accounted as sheep for slaughtering.[f]

46 God is our refuge and strength,[d]
A help that is readily found in times of distress.[e]
2 That is why we will not fear, though the earth undergoes change,
Though the mountains topple into the depths of the sea,[f]
3 Though its waters roar and foam over,[g]
Though the mountains rock on account of its turbulence. (Selah)
4 There is a river the streams of which make the city of God rejoice,[h]
The holy grand tabernacle of the Most High.
5 God is in the city;[i] it cannot be overthrown.
God will come to its aid at the break of dawn.[j]
6 The nations were in an uproar, the kingdoms were overthrown;
He raised his voice, and the earth melted.[k]
7 Jehovah of armies is with us;[l]
The God of Jacob is our secure refuge.* (Selah)
8 Come and witness the activities of Jehovah,
How he has done astonishing things on the earth.
9 He is bringing an end to wars throughout the earth.[a]
He breaks the bow and shatters the spear;
He burns the military wagons* with fire.

48 Jehovah is great and most worthy of praise
In the city of our God, in his holy mountain.
2 Beautiful in its loftiness, the joy of the whole earth,[e]
Is Mount Zion in the far north,
The city of the Grand King.[f]
3 In her fortified towers,
God has made known that he is a secure refuge.*[g]
4 For look! kings have assembled;*
Together they have advanced.
5 When they saw it, they were amazed.
They panicked and fled in terror.
6 Trembling seized them there,
Anguish like that of a woman giving birth.
7 With an east wind you wreck the ships of Tar'shish.
8 What we heard about, we have now seen for ourselves
In the city of Jehovah of armies, in the city of our God.
God will firmly establish it forever.[h] (Selah)

9 We ponder your loyal love, O God,[a]

Reaches to the ends of the earth.[b]
Your right hand is filled with righteousness.[c]

May the towns* of Judah be joyful, because of your judgments.[e] 12 March around Zion; go all around it;
Count its towers.[f]
13 Set your hearts upon its ramparts.*[g]

So that you may tell about it to future generations.

Will descend into the depths of the earth.
10 They will be handed over to the power of the sword;
They will become food for jackals.*
11 But the king will rejoice in God.
Every person swearing by Him will exult,*
For the mouth of those speaking lies will be silenced.

To the director. A melody of David.

64 Hear my voice, O God, as I plead.[a]
Safeguard my life from the dreadfulness of the enemy.
2 Shield me from the secret plots of wicked men,[b]
From the crowd of wrongdoers.
3 They sharpen their tongue just like a sword;
They aim their cruel words like arrows,
4 To shoot at the innocent from their hiding places;
They shoot at him suddenly, without fear.
5 They hold fast to their evil intent;*
They discuss how to hide their traps.
They say: "Who will see them?"[c]
6 They search out new ways of wrongdoing;
They secretly devise their shrewd strategy;[d]
The thinking within each one's heart is unfathomable.
7 But God will shoot at them;[e]
Suddenly they will be wounded by an arrow.
8 Their own tongue will cause their downfall;[f]
All those looking on will shake their head.
9 Then all men will become afraid,
And they will proclaim what God has done,
And they will have insight into his deeds.[a] 10 The righteous one will rejoice in Jehovah and take refuge in him;[b]
All the upright in heart will exult.*

To the director.
A melody of David. A song.

65 Praise awaits you, O God, in Zion;[c]

To reside in your courtyards.[h]
We will be satisfied with the goodness of your house,[i]

5 You will answer us with awe-inspiring deeds[k] of righteousness,
O God of our salvation;
You are the Confidence of all the ends of the earth[l]

To the director.
Of David, to serve as a reminder.*

70 O God, save me;
O Jehovah, hurry to help me.[f]
2 May those seeking to take my life*
Be put to shame and disgraced.
May those who delight in my calamity
Retreat in humiliation.
3 May those who are saying: "Aha! Aha!"
Be driven back in shame.
4 But let those who are seeking you
Exult and rejoice in you.[g]
May those who love your acts of salvation always say:
"May God be magnified!"
5 But I am helpless and poor;[h]
O God, act quickly in my behalf.[i]
You are my helper and my rescuer;[j]
O Jehovah, do not delay.[k]

71 In you, O Jehovah, I have taken refuge.
May I never be put to shame.[l]
2 In your righteousness save me and rescue me.
Incline your ear* to me and save me.[a]
3 Become for me a rock fortress
Where I can always enter.
Give the command to save me,
For you are my crag and my stronghold.[b]
4 O my God, rescue me from the hand of the wicked,[c]
From the grasp of the unjust oppressor.
5 For you are my hope,
O Sovereign Lord Jehovah;
I have trusted in you* since my youth.[d]
6 I have depended on you from birth;
It was you who took me from my mother's womb.[e]
I praise you constantly.
7 I have become like a miracle to many,
But you are my strong refuge.
8 My mouth is filled with your praise;[f]
All day long I tell about your splendor.
9 Do not cast me off in my old age;[g]
Do not abandon me when my strength fails.[h]
10 My enemies speak against me,
And those seeking to take my life* conspire together,[i] 11 Saying: "God has abandoned him.
Chase after him and seize him, for there is no one to save him."[j]
12 O God, do not remain far away from me.
O my God, hurry to help me.[k]
13 May those who are resisting me*

And endow the son of the king with your righteousness.[e]

And of your lowly ones with justice.[f]

BOOK THREE
(Psalms 73-89)

A melody of A′saph.[a]

73 God is truly good to Israel, to those pure in heart.[b]
2 As for me, my feet had almost strayed;
My steps had nearly slipped.[c]
3 For I became envious of the arrogant*
When I would see the peace of the wicked.[d]
4 For they have no pain in their death;
Their bodies are healthy.*[a]
5 They are not troubled like other humans,[b]
Nor do they suffer like other men.[c]
6 Therefore, haughtiness is their necklace;[d]
Violence clothes them as a garment.
7 Their prosperity* makes their eyes bulge;

73:3 *Or "boasters." 73:4 *Or "Their paunch is fat." 73:7 *Lit., "fat."

They have exceeded the imaginations of the heart.
8 They scoff and say evil things.[a]
They arrogantly threaten oppression.[b]
9 They speak as if they were as high as heaven,
And their tongues swagger about in the earth.
10 So his people turn aside to them,
And they drink from their abundant water.
11 They say: "How does God know?[c]
Does the Most High really have knowledge?"
12 Yes, these are the wicked, who always have it easy.[d]
They keep increasing their wealth.[e]
13 Surely in vain I have kept my heart pure
And washed my hands in innocence.[f]
14 And I was troubled all day long;[g]
Every morning I was chastised.[h]
15 But if I had said these things,
I would have betrayed your people.*
16 When I tried to understand it,
It was troubling to me
17 Until I entered the grand sanctuary of God,
And I discerned their future.
18 Surely you place them on slippery ground.[i]
You make them fall to their ruin.[j]
19 How suddenly they are devastated![k]
How sudden is their finish as they come to a terrible end!
20 Like a dream when one wakes up, O Jehovah,
When you rouse yourself, you will dismiss* their image.
21 But my heart was sour,[a]
And deep inside* I felt sharp pain.
22 I was unreasoning and lacked understanding;
I was like a senseless beast before you.
23 But now I am continually with you;
You have taken hold of my right hand.[b]
24 You guide me with your advice,[c]
And afterward you will lead me to glory.[d]
25 Whom do I have in the heavens?
And besides you I desire nothing on earth.[e]
26 My body and my heart may fail,
But God is the rock of my heart and my portion forever.[f]
27 Truly, those keeping far from you will perish.
You will put an end to* everyone who immorally# leaves you.[g]
28 But as for me, drawing near to God is good for me.[h]
I have made the Sovereign Lord Jehovah my refuge,
To declare all your works.[i]

2 You say: "When I set a time,
I judge with fairness.
3 When the earth and all its inhabitants were dissolved,
It was I who kept its pillars firm." (Selah)
4 I say to the boastful, "Do not boast,"
And to the wicked, "Do not exalt your strength.*
5 Do not exalt your strength* up high
Or speak with arrogance.
6 For exaltation does not come
From the east or the west or the south.
7 For God is Judge.[c]

And all the wicked of the earth will drink it, down to the dregs."[f]

But the strength* of the righteous will be exalted."

To the director; to be accompanied with stringed instruments. A melody of A'saph.[g] A song.

76 God is known in Judah;[h] In Israel his name is great.[i]
2 His shelter is in Sa'lem,[j]
And his dwelling is in Zion.[k]
3 There he broke the flaming arrows of the bow,
The shield and the sword and the weapons of war.[a] (Selah)
4 You shine brightly;*
You are more majestic than the mountains of prey.
5 The courageous of heart have been plundered.[b]
They have fallen asleep;
The warriors were all helpless.[c]
6 From your rebuke, O God of Jacob,
Both the charioteer and the horse have fallen fast asleep.[d]
7 You alone are awe-inspiring.[e]
Who can withstand your intense anger?[f]
8 From heaven you pronounced judgment;[g]
The earth was afraid and was silent[h]
9 When God rose up to execute judgment,
To save all the meek of the earth.[i] (Selah)
10 For the rage of man will serve to your praise;[j]
With the remnants of their rage you will adorn yourself.
11 Make your vows to Jehovah your God and pay them,[k]
Let all who are around him bring their gift in fear.[l]

We will relate to the generation to come[a]
The praiseworthy deeds of Jehovah and his strength,[b]
The wonderful things he has done.[c]
5 He established a reminder in Jacob
And set a law in Israel;
He commanded our forefathers
To make these things known to their children,[d]
6 So that the next generation,
The children yet to be born, might know them.[e]
They in turn would relate them to their children.[f]
7 Then these would put their confidence in God.
They would not forget God's works[g]
But would observe his commandments.[h]
8 Then they would not be like their forefathers,
A stubborn and rebellious generation,[i]
A generation whose heart was unsteady*[j]
And whose spirit was not faithful to God.
9 The E′phra·im·ites were armed with the bow,
But they retreated in the day of battle.
10 They did not keep the covenant of God[k]
And refused to walk in his law.[l]
11 They also forgot what he had done,[m]
His wonderful works that he showed them.[n]
12 He did marvelous things in the sight of their forefathers,[o]
In the land of Egypt, the region of Zo′an.[p]

13 He split the sea to let them pass through,
And he made the waters stand up like a dam.*[a] 14 He led them with a cloud by day
And the whole night with the light of a fire.[b]
15 He split rocks in the wilderness,
He let them drink their fill as if from deep waters.[c]
16 He brought streams out of a crag
And caused waters to flow down like rivers.[d]
17 But they continued to sin against him
By rebelling against the Most High in the desert;[e]
18 They challenged* God in their heart[f]
By demanding food that they craved.#
19 So they spoke against God,
Saying: "Can God spread a table in the wilderness?"[g]
20 Look! He struck a rock
So that waters flowed and streams flooded out.[h]
"Can he also give us bread,
Or can he provide meat for his people?"[i]
21 When Jehovah heard them, he became furious;[j]
A fire[k] blazed against Jacob,
And his anger flared up against Israel[l]
22 Because they did not put faith in God;[m]
They did not trust in his ability to save them.
23 So he commanded the cloudy skies above,
And he opened the doors of heaven.
24 He kept raining down manna for them to eat;

78:13 *Or "wall." 78:18 *Lit., "tested." #Or "food for their soul."

He gave them the grain of heaven.[a] 25 Men ate the bread of mighty ones;*[b]
He provided enough to satisfy them.[c]
26 He stirred up the east wind in the heavens
And made a south wind blow by his power.[d]
27 And he rained down meat on them like dust,
Birds like the sand of the seashore.
28 He made them fall in the midst of his camp,
All around his tents.
29 And they ate and gorged themselves;
He gave them what they desired.[e]
30 But before they fully satisfied their craving,
While their food was yet in their mouth,
31 God's wrath flared up against them.[f]
He put to death their strongest men;[g]
He brought down the young men of Israel.
32 Despite this they sinned even more[h]
And did not put faith in his wonderful works.[i] 33 So he brought their days to an end as if a mere breath,[j]
And their years by sudden terrors.
34 But as often as he killed them, they would search for him;[k]
They would return and look for God,
35 Remembering that God was their Rock[l]
And that the Most High God was their Redeemer.*[m]
36 But they tried to deceive him with their mouth
And lied to him with their tongue.
37 Their heart was not steadfast toward him;[a]
And they were not faithful to his covenant.[b]
38 But he was merciful;[c]
He would forgive* their error and not bring them to ruin.[d]
He often held back his anger[e]
Instead of stirring up all his wrath.
39 For he remembered that they were flesh,[f]
A wind that blows past and does not return.*
40 How often they rebelled against him in the wilderness[g]
And made him feel hurt in the desert![h]
41 Again and again they put God to the test,[i]
And they grieved* the Holy One of Israel.
42 They did not remember his power,*
The day that he rescued# them from the adversary,[j]
43 How he displayed his signs in Egypt[k]
And his miracles in the region of Zo'an,
44 And how he turned the Nile canals into blood[l]
So that they could not drink from their streams.
45 He sent swarms of gadflies to devour them[m]
And frogs to bring them to ruin.[n]
46 He gave their crops to the voracious locusts,
The fruit of their labor to the swarming locusts.[o]

57 They also turned away and were as treacherous as their forefathers.[a]
They were as unreliable as a loose bow.[b]
58 They kept offending him with their high places,[c]
And they incited him to fury* with their carved images.[d] 59 God heard and became furious,[e]
So he utterly rejected Israel.
60 He finally forsook the tabernacle of Shi'loh,[f]
The tent where he had resided among men.[g]
61 He let the symbol of his strength go into captivity;
His splendor into the hand of the adversary.[h]
62 He handed his people over to the sword[i]
And became furious with his inheritance.
63 Fire consumed his young
men,
And to his virgins no wedding songs were sung.*
64 His priests fell by the sword,[j]
And their own widows did not weep.[k]
65 Then Jehovah woke up as from sleep,[l]
Like a mighty man[m] waking up from wine.
66 And he drove his adversaries back;[n]
He put them to lasting disgrace.
67 He rejected the tent of Joseph;
He did not choose the tribe of E'phra·im.
68 But he chose the tribe of Judah,[o]
Mount Zion, which he loves.[p]
69 He made his sanctuary as enduring as the heavens,*[q]

70 He chose David[b] his servant
And took him from the sheep pens,[c]
71 From tending the nursing ewes;
He made him the shepherd over Jacob, his people,[d]
And over Israel, his inheritance.[e]
72 He shepherded them with integrity of heart,[f]
And with skillful hands he led them.[g]

A melody of A′saph.[h]

79 O God, the nations have invaded your inheritance;[i]
They have defiled your holy temple;[j]
They have turned Jerusalem into a heap of ruins.[k]
2 They have given the dead bodies of your servants as food to the birds of the heavens
And the flesh of your loyal ones to the wild beasts of the earth.[l]
3 They have poured out their blood like water around Jerusalem,
And no one is left to bury them.[m]
4 We have become an object of reproach to our neighbors;[n]
Those around us ridicule and jeer us.
5 How long, O Jehovah, will you be furious? Forever?[o]
How long will your indignation burn just like fire?[p]
6 Pour out your wrath on the nations that do not know you
And on the kingdoms that do not call on your name.[q]
7 For they have devoured Jacob
And have desolated his homeland.[a] 8 Do not hold us accountable for the errors of our ancestors.[b]
Quickly show us your mercy,[c]
For we have been brought very low.
9 Help us, O God of our salvation,[d]
For the sake of your glorious name;
Rescue us and forgive* our sins for the sake of your name.[e]
10 Why should the nations say: “Where is their God?”[f]
Before our eyes may it become known among the nations
That the shed blood of your servants has been avenged.[g]
11 May you hear the sighing of the prisoner.[h]
Use your great power* to preserve# those sentenced to death.△[i]
12 Repay our neighbors sevenfold[j]
For the taunts they have leveled at you, O Jehovah.[k]
13 Then we, your people and the flock of your pasture,[l]
Will give thanks to you forever;
And we will declare your praise from generation to generation.[m]

To the director; set to “The Lilies.” A reminder. Of A′saph.[n] A melody.

A melody of A'saph.[a]

82 God takes his place in the divine assembly;*[b]
In the middle of the gods# he judges:[c]
2 "How long will you continue to judge with injustice[d]
And show partiality to the wicked?[e] (Selah)
3 Defend* the lowly and the fatherless.[f]
Render justice to the helpless and destitute.[g]
4 Rescue the lowly and the poor;
Save them out of the hand of the wicked."
5 They do not know, nor do they understand;[h]
They are walking about in darkness;
All the foundations of the earth are being shaken.[i]
6 "I have said, 'You are gods,#[j]
All of you are sons of the Most High.
7 But you will die just as men do;[k]
And like any other prince you will fall!'"[l]
8 Rise up, O God, and judge the earth,[m]
For all the nations belong to you.

A song. A melody of A'saph.[n]

83 O God, do not be silent;[o]
Do not keep quiet* or still, O Divine One.
2 For look! your enemies are in an uproar;[p]
Those who hate you act arrogantly.*
3 With cunning they secretly plot against your people;
They conspire against your treasured ones.*

82:1 *Or "in the assembly of the Divine One." 82:1, 6 #Or "godlike ones." 82:3 *Or "Judge." 83:1 *Or "keep speechless." 83:2 *Or "raise their heads." 83:3 *Lit., "concealed ones."

4 They say: “Come, let us annihilate them as a nation,[a]
So that the name of Israel may be remembered no more.”
5 They devise a unified strategy;*
They have made an alliance# against you[b]—
6 The tents of E′dom and the Ish′ma·el·ites, Mo′ab[c] and the Hag′rites,[d]
7 Ge′bal and Am′mon[e] and Am′a·lek,
Phi·lis′ti·a[f] together with the inhabitants of Tyre.[g]
8 As·syr′i·a[h] too has joined them;
They give support to* the sons of Lot.[i] (Selah)
9 Do to them as you did to Mid′i·an,[j]
As you did to Sis′e·ra and Ja′bin at the stream* of Ki′shon.[k]
10 They were annihilated at En-dor;[l]
They became manure for the ground.
11 Make their nobles like O′reb and Ze′eb[m]
And their princes* like Ze′bah and Zal·mun′na,[n]
12 For they said: “Let us take possession of the land where God dwells.”
13 O my God, make them like a whirling thistle,*[o]
Like stubble blown about by the wind.
14 Like a fire that burns up the forest,
Like a flame that scorches the mountains,[p]
15 So may you pursue them with your tempest[q]
And terrify them with your windstorm.[a] 16 Cover* their faces with dishonor,
So that they may search for your name, O Jehovah.
17 May they be put to shame and be terrified forever;
May they be disgraced and perish;
18 May people know that you, whose name is Jehovah,[b]
You alone are the Most High over all the earth.[c]

For the director; upon the Git′tith.* Of the sons of Kor′ah.[d] A melody.

84 How lovely* your grand tabernacle is,[e]
O Jehovah of armies!
2 My whole being* yearns,
Yes, I am faint with longing,
For the courtyards of Jehovah.[f]
My heart and my flesh shout joyfully to the living God.
3 Even the bird finds a home there
And the swallow a nest for herself,
Where she cares for her young
Near your grand altar,
O Jehovah of armies,
My King and my God!
4 Happy are those dwelling in your house![g]
They continue to praise you.[h] (Selah)
5 Happy are the men who find their strength in you,[i]
Whose hearts are set on the highways.
6 When they pass through the Ba′ca Valley,*
They make it into a place of springs;

For the director. Of the sons of Kor'ah.[i] A melody.

85 You have shown favor, O Jehovah, to your land;[j]
You brought back those of Jacob who were taken captive.[k]
2 You have pardoned the error of your people;
You forgave* all their sin.[l] (Selah)
3 You held back all your fury;
You turned away from your hot anger.[m]

And set aside your displeasure with us.[a]

Will you prolong your anger to generation after generation?
6 Will you not revive us again
So that your people may rejoice in you?[c]
7 Show your loyal love to us, O Jehovah,[d]
And grant us your salvation.
8 I will listen to what the true God Jehovah says,
For he will speak peace to his people,[e] to his loyal ones,
But let them not return to overconfidence.[f]
9 Surely his salvation is near to those who fear him,[g]
So that his glory may reside in our land.
10 Loyal love and faithfulness will meet together;
Righteousness and peace will kiss each other.[h]
11 Faithfulness will sprout from the earth,
And righteousness will look down from the heavens.[i]
12 Yes, Jehovah will give what is good,*[j]
And our land will yield its harvest.[k]
13 Righteousness will walk before him[l]
And make a path for his footsteps.

A prayer of David.

86 Incline your ear,* O Jehovah, and answer me,
For I am afflicted and poor.[m]
2 Guard my life,* for I am loyal.[n]

Of the sons of Kor'ah.[f]
A melody. A song.

87 His city's foundation is in the holy mountains.[g]
2 Jehovah loves the gates of Zion[h]
More than all the tents of Jacob.
3 Glorious things are being said about you, O city of the true God.[i] (Selah)
4 I will count Ra'hab[j] and Babylon among those who know* me;
Here are Phi·lis'ti·a and Tyre,
together with Cush.
It will be said: "This is one who was born there."
5 And about Zion it will be said:
"Each and every one was born in her."

86:14 *Or "seek my soul." #Or "have not set you in front of themselves." 86:15 *Or "gracious." #Or "and truth." 86:17 *Or "evidence." 87:4 *Or "acknowledge."

And the Most High will firmly establish her.
6 Jehovah will declare, when recording the peoples:
"This is one who was born there." (Selah) 7 Singers[a] and those performing circle dances[b] will say:
"All my springs are in you."*[c]

A song. A melody of the sons of Kor'ah.[d] To the director; in the style of Ma'ha·lath,* to be sung alternately. Mas'kil* of He'man[e] the Ez'ra·hite.

88 O Jehovah, the God of my salvation,[f]
By day I cry out,
And by night I come before you.[g]
2 Let my prayer come to you,[h]
Incline your ear* to my cry for help.[i]
3 For my soul* has been filled with calamity,[j]
And my life is on the brink of the Grave.#[k]
4 I am already counted among those going down to the pit;*[l]
I have become a helpless man,#[m]
5 Left among the dead
Like the slain lying in a grave,
Whom you remember no longer
And who have been separated from your care.*
6 You have put me in the lowest pit,
In dark places, in a large abyss.
7 Your rage weighs heavily on me,[n]
And you overwhelm me with your crashing waves. (Selah)
8 You have driven my acquaintances far away from me;[a]
You have made me something detestable to them.
I am trapped and cannot escape.
9 My eye is worn out because of my affliction.[b]
I call on you, O Jehovah, all day long;[c]
To you I spread out my hands.
10 Will you perform wonders for the dead?
Can those powerless in death rise up to praise you?[d] (Selah)
11 Will your loyal love be declared in the grave,
Your faithfulness in the place of destruction?*
12 Will your wonders be known in the darkness
Or your righteousness in the land of oblivion?[e]
13 But I still cry to you for help, O Jehovah,[f]
Each morning my prayer comes before you.[g]
14 Why, O Jehovah, do you reject me?*[h]
Why do you hide your face from me?[i] 15 From my youth on,
I have been afflicted and ready to perish;[j]
I am numb from the terrible things you allow me to suffer.
16 Your burning anger overwhelms me;[k]
Your terrors destroy me.
17 They surround me like waters all day long;
They close in on me from all sides.*

89 I will sing about Jehovah's

With my mouth I will make known your faithfulness

you.[l]
9 You rule over the raging of the sea;[m]

calm them.[n]
10 You have crushed Ra′hab[o]

have scattered your ene-

the earth is yours;[b]
The productive land and what fills it[c]—you have founded them.
12 The north and the south—you created them;
Ta′bor[d] and Her′mon[e] joyously praise your name.
13 Your arm is mighty;[f]
Your hand is strong;[g]
Your right hand is exalted.[h]
14 Righteousness and justice are the foundation of your throne;[i] Loyal love and faithfulness stand before you.[j] 15 Happy are the people who know the joyful shouting.[k]
O Jehovah, they walk in the light of your face.
16 They rejoice in your name
all day long,
And in your righteousness
they are exalted.
17 For you are the glory of their strength,[l]
And by your approval our strength* is exalted.[m]
18 For our shield belongs to
Jehovah,
Our king belongs to the Holy
One of Israel.[n]
19 At that time you spoke in a vision to your loyal ones and said:
"I have granted strength to a mighty one;[o]
I have exalted a chosen one from among the people.[p]

But by evening it withers and dries up.[a] 7 For we are consumed by your anger[b]
And terrified by your rage.
8 You place our errors in front of you;*[c]
Our secrets are exposed by the light of your face.[d] 9 Our days ebb* away because of your fury;
And our years come to an end like a whisper.#
10 The span of our life is 70 years,
Or 80[e] if one is especially strong.*
But they are filled with trouble and sorrow;
They quickly pass by, and away we fly.[f]
11 Who can fathom the power of your anger?
Your fury is as great as the fear you deserve.[g]
12 Teach us how to count our days[h]

90:8 *Or "You are aware of our errors." 90:9 *Or "Our life ebbs." #Or "a sigh." 90:10 *Or "because of special mightiness."

So that we may acquire a heart of wisdom.
13 Return, O Jehovah![a] How long will this last?[b]
Have pity on your servants.[c]
14 Satisfy us with your loyal love[d] in the morning,
So that we may shout joyfully and rejoice[e] during all our days.
15 Make us rejoice in proportion to the days you have afflicted us,[f]
For as many years as we have experienced calamity.[g]
16 May your servants see your activity,
And may their sons see your splendor.[h]
17 May the favor of Jehovah our God be upon us;
May you prosper* the work of our hands.
Yes, prosper* the work of our hands.[i]

91 Anyone dwelling in the secret place of the Most High[j]
Will lodge under the shadow of the Almighty.[k]
2 I will say to Jehovah: "You are my refuge and my stronghold,[l]
My God in whom I trust."[m]
3 For he will rescue you from the trap of the birdcatcher,
From the destructive pestilence.
4 With his pinions he will cover* you,
And under his wings you will take refuge.[n]
His faithfulness[o] will be a large shield[p] and a protective wall.#
5 You will not fear the terrors of the night,[q]
Nor the arrow that flies by day,[r]
6 Nor the pestilence that stalks in the gloom,
Nor the destruction that ravages at midday.
7 A thousand will fall at your side
And ten thousand at your right hand,
But to you it will not come near.[a]
8 You will only see it with your eyes
As you witness the punishment* of the wicked.
9 Because you said: "Jehovah is my refuge,"
You have made the Most High your dwelling;*[b]
10 No disaster will befall you,[c]
And no plague will come near your tent.
11 For he will give his angels[d] a command concerning you,
To guard you in all your ways.[e]
12 They will carry you on their hands,[f]
So that you may not strike your foot against a stone.[g]
13 On the young lion and the cobra you will tread;
You will trample underfoot the maned lion and the big snake.[h]
14 God said: "Because he has affection for me,* I will rescue him.[i]
I will protect him because he knows# my name.[j]
15 He will call on me, and I will answer him.[k]
I will be with him in distress.[l]
I will rescue him and glorify him.

A melody.
A song for the Sabbath day.

92 It is good to give thanks to Jehovah[a]
And to sing praises* to your name, O Most High,
2 To declare your loyal love[b] in the morning
And your faithfulness during the nights,
3 Accompanied by a ten-stringed instrument and a lute,
By the melodious sound of a harp.[c]
4 For you have made me rejoice, O Jehovah, because of your deeds;
Because of the works of your hands I shout joyfully.
5 How great your works are, O Jehovah![d]
How very deep your thoughts are![e]
6 No unreasoning man can know them;
And no foolish person can understand this:[f]
7 When the wicked sprout like weeds*
And all the wrongdoers flourish,
It is that they may be annihilated forever.[g]
8 But you are exalted forever, O Jehovah.
9 Indeed, look in triumph on your enemies, O Jehovah,
Look at how your enemies will perish;
All the wrongdoers will be scattered.[h]
10 But you will exalt my strength* like that of a wild bull;
I will moisten my skin with fresh oil.[i]
11 My eyes will look in triumph on my foes;[j]
My ears will hear about the downfall of the evil men who attack me.
12 But the righteous will flourish like a palm tree
And grow big like a cedar in Leb′a·non.[a] 13 They are planted in the house of Jehovah;
They flourish in the courtyards of our God.[b]
14 Even in old age* they will still be thriving;[c]
They will remain vigorous# and fresh,[d]
15 Declaring that Jehovah is upright.
He is my Rock,[e] in whom there is no unrighteousness.

93 Jehovah has become King![f]
With grandeur he is clothed;
Jehovah is clothed with strength;
He wears it like a belt.
The earth* is firmly established;
It cannot be moved.#
2 Your throne was firmly established long ago;[g]
From eternity you have existed.[h]
3 The rivers have surged, O Jehovah,
The rivers have surged and roared;
The rivers keep surging and pounding.
4 Above the sound of many waters,
Mightier than the breaking waves of the sea,[i] Jehovah is majestic in the heights.[j]
5 Your reminders are very trustworthy.[k]

92:1 *Or "make music." 92:7 *Or "grass." 92:10 *Lit., "horn."

Holiness adorns* your house,[a] O Jehovah, for all times.

94 O God of vengeance, Jehovah,[b]
O God of vengeance, shine forth!
2 Rise up, O Judge of the earth.[c]
Repay to the haughty what they deserve.[d]
3 How long will the wicked, O Jehovah,
How long will the wicked continue to exult?[e]
4 They babble and speak arrogantly;
All the wrongdoers brag about themselves.
5 They crush your people, O Jehovah,[f]
And oppress your inheritance.
6 They kill the widow and the foreign resident,
And they murder the fatherless children.
7 They say: "Jah does not see;[g]
The God of Jacob does not take notice of it."[h]
8 Understand this, you who are unreasoning;
You foolish ones, when will you ever show insight?[i]
9 The One who made* the ear, can he not hear?
The One who formed the eye, can he not see?[j]
10 The One correcting the nations, can he not reprove?[k]
He is the One who imparts knowledge to people![l]
11 Jehovah knows the thoughts of men,
That they are but a mere breath.[m]
12 Happy is the man whom you correct, O Jah,[n]
Whom you teach from your law,[a] 13 To give him tranquillity during days of calamity,
Until a pit is dug for the wicked.[b]
14 For Jehovah will not forsake his people,[c]
Nor will he abandon his inheritance.[d]
15 For judgment will once again be righteous,
And all the upright in heart will follow it.
16 Who will rise up for me against the wicked?
Who will take a stand for me against the wrongdoers?
17 If Jehovah had not been my helper,
I* would soon have perished.#[e]
18 When I said: "My foot is slipping,"
Your loyal love, O Jehovah, kept supporting me.[f]
19 When anxieties* overwhelmed me,#
You comforted and soothed me.△[g]
20 Can a throne* of corruption be allied with you
While it is framing trouble in the name of the law?#[h]
21 They make vicious attacks on the righteous one*[i]
And condemn the innocent one to death.#[j]
22 But Jehovah will become a secure refuge* for me,
My God is my rock of refuge.[k]

5 For Jehovah is good;[a]
His loyal love endures forever,
And his faithfulness through all generations.[b]

Of David. A melody.

101 I will sing about loyal love and justice.
To you, O Jehovah, I will sing praises.*
2 I will act with discretion and blamelessness.*
When will you come to me?
I will walk with integrity of heart[c] inside my house.
3 I will not set anything worthless* before my eyes.
I hate the deeds of those who deviate from what is right;[d]
I will have nothing to do with them.#
4 A crooked heart is far from me;
I will not accept* what is bad.
5 Anyone slandering his neighbor in secret,[e]
I will silence.*
Anyone with haughty eyes and an arrogant heart,
I will not tolerate.
6 I will look to the faithful ones of the earth,
So that they may dwell with me.
The one walking in blamelessness* will minister to me.
7 No deceitful person will dwell in my house,
And no liar will stand in my presence.*
8 Every morning I will silence* all the wicked of the earth,
To cut off all wrongdoers from the city of Jehovah.[a]

A prayer of the oppressed one when he is in despair* and pours out his concern before Jehovah.[b]

102 O Jehovah, hear my prayer;[c]
Let my cry for help reach you.[d]
2 Do not hide your face from me in my time of distress.[e]
Incline your ear* to me;
Do answer me quickly when I call.[f]
3 For my days are vanishing like smoke,
And my bones are charred like a fireplace.[g]
4 My heart has been struck down like grass and has withered,[h]
For I forget to eat my food.
5 Because of my loud groaning,[i]
My bones cling to my flesh.[j]
6 I resemble the pelican of the wilderness;
I am like a little owl among the ruins.
7 I lie awake;*
I am like a solitary bird on a roof.[k]
8 All day long my enemies taunt me.[l]
Those who mock me* use my name as a curse.
9 For I eat ashes as my bread,[m]
And my drink is mingled with tears,[n]
10 Because of your anger and your indignation,
For you lifted me up only to cast me aside.
11 My days are like a fading shadow,*[o]
And I am withering like grass.[p]

13 Surely you will rise up and show mercy on Zion,[c]

generations.[a] 25 Long ago you laid the foundations of the earth,
And the heavens are the work of your hands.[b] 26 They will perish, but you will remain;
Just like a garment they will all wear out.
Just like clothing you will replace them, and they will pass away.
27 But you are the same, and your years will never end.[c] 28 The children of your servants will dwell securely,
And their offspring will be firmly established before you."[d]

Of David.

103 Let me* praise
Jehovah;
Let everything within me
praise his holy name.
2 Let me* praise Jehovah;
May I never forget all that he has done.[e]
3 He forgives all your errors[f]
And heals all your ailments;[g] 4 He reclaims your life from the pit*[h]
And crowns you with his loyal love and mercy.[i] 5 He satisfies you with good things[j] all your life,
So that your youth is renewed like that of an eagle.[k]
6 Jehovah acts with righteousness[l] and justice
For all who are oppressed.[m]
7 He made known his ways to Moses,[n]
His deeds to the sons of Israel.[o]

103:1, 2 *Or "my soul." 103:4 *Or "grave."

8 Jehovah is merciful and compassionate,*[a]
Slow to anger and abundant in loyal love.#[b]
9 He will not always find fault,[c]
Nor will he stay resentful forever.[d]
10 He has not dealt with us according to our sins,[e]
Nor has he repaid us what our errors deserve.[f]
11 For as the heavens are higher than the earth,
So great is his loyal love toward those who fear him.[g]
12 As far off as the sunrise is from the sunset,
So far off from us he has put our transgressions.[h]
13 As a father shows mercy to his sons,
Jehovah has shown mercy to those who fear him.[i]
14 For he well knows how we are formed,[j]
Remembering that we are dust.[k]
15 As for mortal man, his days are like those of grass;[l]
He blooms like a blossom of the field.[m] 16 But when a wind blows, it is no more,
As though it was never there.*
17 But the loyal love of Jehovah is for all eternity*
Toward those who fear him,[n]
And his righteousness toward their children's children,[o]
18 Toward those who keep his covenant[p]
And those who are careful to observe his orders.
19 Jehovah has firmly established his throne in the heavens;[q]
And his kingship rules over everything.[a] 20 Praise Jehovah, all you his angels,[b] mighty in power,
Who carry out his word,[c] obeying his voice.*
21 Praise Jehovah, all his armies,[d]
His ministers who do his will.[e]
22 Praise Jehovah, all his works,
In all the places where he rules.*
Let my whole being# praise Jehovah.

104 Let me# praise Jehovah.[f]
O Jehovah my God, you are very great.[g]
With majesty* and splendor you are clothed.[h]
2 You are wrapped in light[i] as with a garment;
You stretch out the heavens like a tent cloth.[j]
3 He lays beams of his upper rooms in the waters above,*[k]
Making the clouds his chariot,[l]
Moving on the wings of the wind.[m]
4 He makes his angels spirits,
His ministers a consuming fire.[n]
5 He has established the earth on its foundations;[o]
It will not be moved from its place* forever and ever.[p]
6 You covered it with deep waters as with a garment.[q]
The waters stood above the mountains.
7 At your rebuke they fled;[r]

103:8 *Or "gracious." #Or "loving-kindness." 103:16 *Lit., "And its place no longer knows it." 103:17 *Or "from eternity to eternity."

And to my prophets do nothing bad."[k]

23 Then Israel came into Egypt,[c]

25 Whose hearts he let change to hate his people,

27 They performed his signs among them,

28 He sent darkness and the land became dark;[j]

Even in the royal chambers.
31 He ordered the gadflies to invade

And sent lightning* on their land.[n]
33 He struck their vines and their fig trees
And shattered the trees of their territory.
34 He said that the locusts should invade,
Young locusts without number.[o]
35 They devoured all the vegetation in the land,
And they devoured the produce of the ground.
36 Then he struck down every firstborn in their land,[a]
The beginning of their procreative power.
37 He brought his people out with silver and gold;[b]
And no one among his tribes stumbled.
38 Egypt rejoiced when they left,
For the dread of Israel* had fallen on them.[c]
39 He spread a cloud to screen them off[d]

41 He opened a rock, and waters flowed out;[h]
These flowed through the desert like a river.[i] forefathers did;[e]

We have done wrong; we have acted wickedly.[f]
7 Our forefathers in Egypt did not appreciate* your wonderful works.
They did not remember your abundant loyal love,
But they rebelled at the sea,
by the Red Sea.[g]
8 But he saved them for the sake of his name,[h]
To make his mightiness known.[i] 9 He rebuked the Red Sea,
and it dried up;
He led them through its depths as through a desert;*[j]
10 He saved them from the hand of their foe[k]
And reclaimed them from the hand of the enemy.[l] 11 The waters covered their adversaries;
Not one of them survived.*[m] 12 Then they had faith in his promise;[a]
They began to sing his praise.[b] 13 But they quickly forgot what he did;[c]
They did not wait for his counsel.
14 They gave way to their selfish desires in the wilderness;[d]
They tested God in the desert.[e] 15 He gave them what they requested,
But then struck them with disease that made them* waste away.[f]
16 In the camp they grew jealous of Moses
And of Aaron,[g] the holy one of Jehovah.[h]
17 The earth then opened up and swallowed Da'than
And covered those assembled with A·bi'ram.[i] 18 A fire blazed among their group;
A flame consumed the wicked.[j]
19 They made a calf in Ho'reb
And bowed down to a statue of metal;*[k]
20 They exchanged my glory
For the representation of a grass-eating bull.[l]
21 They forgot God[m] their Savior,
Who did great things in Egypt,[n]
22 Wonderful works in the land of Ham,[o]
Awe-inspiring deeds at the Red Sea.[p]
23 He was about to order their annihilation,
But Moses his chosen one interceded with him*

To avert his destructive anger.[a] 24 Then they despised the desirable land;[b]
They had no faith in his promise.[c]
25 They kept grumbling in their tents;[d]
They did not listen to the voice of Jehovah.[e]
26 So he raised his hand in an oath concerning them
That he would make them fall in the wilderness;[f]
27 He would make their descendants fall among the nations,
And he would scatter them throughout the lands.[g]
28 Then they joined in worship of* Ba'al of Pe'or,[h]
And they ate sacrifices offered to the dead.#
29 They provoked Him by their actions,[i]
And a scourge broke out among them.[j]
30 But when Phin'e·has stood up and intervened,
The scourge was halted.[k]
31 And it was counted to him as righteousness
Through all generations forever.[l]
32 They provoked Him at the waters of Mer'i·bah,*
And it went badly for Moses because of them.[m]
33 They embittered his spirit,
And he spoke rashly with his lips.[n]
34 They did not annihilate the peoples,[o]
As Jehovah had commanded them.[p]
35 But they mingled with the nations[q]
And adopted* their ways.[r]
36 They kept serving their idols,[a]
And these became a snare to them.[b]
37 They would sacrifice their sons
And their daughters to demons.[c]
38 They kept spilling innocent blood,[d]
The blood of their own sons and daughters
Whom they sacrificed to the idols of Ca'naan;[e]
And the land was polluted with bloodshed.
39 They became unclean by their works;
They committed spiritual prostitution by their deeds.[f]
40 So the anger of Jehovah blazed against his people,
And he grew to detest his inheritance.
41 He repeatedly handed them over to the nations,[g]
So that those who hated them might rule over them.[h]
42 Their enemies oppressed them,
And they were subject to their power.*
43 Many times he rescued them,[i]
But they would rebel and disobey,[j]
And they would be brought low for their error.[k]
44 But he would see their distress[l]

45 For their sake he would remember his covenant,
And he would feel pity,* moved by his great# loyal love.[n]

BOOK FIVE (Psalms 107-150)

107 Give thanks to Jehovah, for he is good;[a]
His loyal love endures forever.[b]
2 Let those reclaimed* by Jehovah say this,
Those whom he reclaimed from the hand# of the adversary,[c]
3 Whom he gathered together from the lands,[d]
From the east and from the west,*
From the north and from the south.[e]
4 They wandered about in the wilderness, in the desert;
They did not find a way to a city where they could live.
5 They were hungry and thirsty;
They were* faint from exhaustion.
6 They kept crying out to Jehovah in their distress;[f]
He rescued them from their plight.[g]
7 He had them walk in the right way[h]
To come to a city where they could live.[i]
8 Let people give thanks to Jehovah[j] for his loyal love
And for his wonderful works in behalf of the sons of men.[a] 9 For he has satisfied the thirsty*
And filled the hungry# with good things.[b]
10 Some were living in deepest darkness,
Prisoners in affliction and in irons.
11 For they had rebelled against the word of God;
They disrespected the counsel of the Most High.[c]
12 So he humbled their hearts through hardship;[d]
They stumbled, and there was no one to help them.
13 They called to Jehovah for help in their distress;
He saved them from their plight.
14 He brought them out of deepest darkness,
And he tore off their shackles.[e]

O Jehovah, according to your word.

I used to go astray,*
But now I keep your saying.[b]

68 You are good[c] and your works are good.
Teach me your regulations.[d]

69 The presumptuous smear me with lies,
But I observe your orders with all my heart.

70 Their heart is insensitive,*[e]
But I am fond of your law.[f]

71 It is good that I have been afflicted,[g]
So that I may learn your regulations.

72 The law that you have proclaimed is good for me,[h]
More so than thousands of pieces of gold and silver.[i]

73 Your hands made me and formed me.
Give me understanding,
So that I may learn your commandments.[j]

74 Those who fear you see me and rejoice,

75 I know, O Jehovah, that your judgments are righteous[l]
And that you have afflicted me in your faithfulness.[m]

76 May your loyal love[n] please comfort me,
According to the promise,* you made to your servant.

77 Show me mercy, so that I may keep living,[o]
For I am fond of your law.[a]

78 May the presumptuous be put to shame,
For they wrong me without cause.*
But I will ponder over# your orders.[b]

But your regulations I do not forget.[h]

84 How many days must your servant wait?
When will you bring judgment against those persecuting me?[i]

85 The presumptuous dig pits for me,

86 All your commandments are trustworthy.

A Song of the Ascents.

126 When Jehovah gathered back the captives of Zion,[a]
We thought we were dreaming.
2 At that time our mouth was filled with laughter
And our tongue with a joyful shout.[b]
At that time they said among the nations:
"Jehovah has done great things for them."[c]
3 Jehovah has done great things for us,[d]
And we are overjoyed.
4 Do gather back* our captives, O Jehovah, Like streams in the Neg'eb.#
5 Those sowing seed with tears
Will reap with a joyful shout.
6 The one who does go out, though weeping,
Carrying his bag of seed,
Will surely return with a joyful shout,[e]
Carrying in his sheaves.[f]

A Song of the Ascents. Of Solomon.

127 Unless Jehovah builds the house,
It is in vain that its builders work hard on it.[g]
Unless Jehovah guards the city,[h]
It is in vain that the guard stays awake.
2 It is in vain that you rise up early,
That you stay up late,
That you toil for your food,
Since he provides for his loved ones while giving them sleep.[i]
3 Look! Sons* are an inheritance from Jehovah;[j]
The fruit of the womb is a reward.[k]

126:4 *Or "restore." #Or "wadis in the south." 127:3 *Or "Children."

4 Like arrows in the hand of a mighty man,
So are the sons of one's youth.[a] 5 Happy is the man who fills his quiver with them.[b]
They will not be put to shame,
For they will speak with enemies in the city gate.

A Song of the Ascents.

128 Happy is everyone who fears Jehovah,[c]
Who walks in His ways.[d] 2 You will eat what your hands worked hard to produce.
You will be happy and will enjoy prosperity.[e]
3 Your wife will be like a fruitful vine within your house;[f]
Your sons will be like shoots of an olive tree around your table.
4 Look! That is how the man who fears Jehovah
Will be blessed.[g]
5 Jehovah will bless you from Zion.
May you see Jerusalem prosper all the days of your life[h]
6 And see the sons of your sons.
May there be peace upon Israel.

A Song of the Ascents.

129 "Since my youth they have constantly attacked me"[i]
—Let Israel now say—2 "Since my youth they have constantly attacked me;[j]
But they have not defeated me.[k]
3 Plowmen have plowed across my back;[l]
They have made their furrows long."
4 But Jehovah is righteous;[m]
He has cut up the ropes of the wicked.[n]
5 They will be put to shame and will retreat in disgrace,
All those who hate Zion.[a] 6 They will become like grass on the rooftops
That withers before it is pulled up,
7 That cannot fill the reaper's hand
Nor the arms of the one gathering sheaves.
8 Those passing by will not say:
"May the blessing of Jehovah
be upon you;
We bless you in the name of Jehovah."

A Song of the Ascents.

130 From the depths I call to you, O Jehovah.[b]
2 O Jehovah, hear my voice.
May your ears pay attention to my pleas for help.
3 If errors were what you watch,* O Jah,# Then who, O Jehovah, could stand?[c]
4 For with you there is true forgiveness,[d]
So that you may be held in awe.*[e]
5 I hope in Jehovah, my whole being* hopes in him;
I wait for his word.
6 I eagerly wait* for Jehovah,[f]
More than watchmen wait for the morning,[g]
Yes, more than watchmen
wait for the morning.
7 Let Israel keep waiting for
Jehovah,
For Jehovah is loyal in his love,[h]
And he has great power to redeem.
8 He will redeem Israel from all their errors.

Nor do I aspire to things too great,[b]

I am# contented like a weaned child.

From now on and forever.

And all his suffering;[e]

How he vowed to the Powerful One of Jacob:[f]

You and the Ark of your strength.[n]
9 May your priests be clothed with righteousness,
And may your loyal ones shout joyfully.

Do not reject* your anointed one.[a]

He will surely not go back on his word:
"One of your offspring,*
I will place on your throne.[b]
12 If your sons keep my covenant
And my reminders that I teach them,[c]
Their sons too
Will sit on your throne forever."[d]
13 For Jehovah has chosen Zion;[e]
He has desired it for his dwelling place:[f]
14 "This is my resting-place forever;
Here I will dwell,[g] for this is my desire.
15 I will richly bless it with provisions;
I will satisfy its poor with bread.[h]
16 Its priests I will clothe with salvation,[i]

I have prepared a lamp for my anointed one.[k]

139 O Jehovah, you have searched through me, and you know me.[c]
2 You know when I sit down and when I rise up.[d]
You discern my thoughts from afar.[e]
3 You observe* me when I travel and when I lie down;
You are familiar with all my ways.[f]
4 There is not a word on my tongue,

And if I were to make my bed in the Grave,* look! you would be there.[j]
9 If I would fly away with the wings of the dawn
To reside by the most remote sea,
10 Even there your hand would lead me
And your right hand would take hold of me.[a] 11 If I say: "Surely darkness will conceal me!"
Then the night around me would become light.
12 Even the darkness would not be too dark for you,
But night would be as bright as the day;[b]
Darkness is the same as light to you.[c]
13 For you produced my kidneys;
You kept me screened off* in my mother's womb.[d]
14 I praise you because in an awe-inspiring way I am wonderfully made.[e]
Your works are wonderful,[f]

When I was woven in the depths of the earth.[g]

Before any of them existed.

20 Those who say things against you with evil intent;*
They are your adversaries who take up your name
in a worthless way.[a] 21 Do I not hate those who hate you, O Jehovah,[b]
And loathe those who revolt against you?[c]
22 I have nothing but hatred for them;[d]
They have become real enemies to me.
23 Search through me, O God, and know my heart.[e] Examine me, and know my anxious* thoughts.[f]
24 See whether there is in me any harmful way,[g]
And lead me[h] in the way of eternity.

For the director. A melody of David.

140 Rescue me, O Jehovah,
from evil men;
Protect me from violent men,[i]
2 Those who scheme evil in their hearts[j]
And stir up conflict all day long.
3 They sharpen their tongue like that of a serpent;[k]
Venom of vipers is behind their lips.[l] (Selah) 4 Protect me, O Jehovah, from the hands of the wicked;[m]
Safeguard me from violent
men,
Those who scheme to
trip me.
5 The haughty ones hide a trap
for me;
With ropes they spread out a net beside the path.[n]
They set snares for me.[o]
(Selah)
6 I say to Jehovah: "You are my God.
Listen, O Jehovah, to my pleas for help."[a] 7 O Jehovah the Sovereign
Lord, my strong Savior,
You shield my head in the day of battle.[b]
8 Do not grant, O Jehovah, the desires of the wicked.
Do not let their plots succeed, so that they are not exalted. (Selah)[c] 9 May the heads of those surrounding me
Be covered with the evil
spoken by their lips.[d]
10 May burning coals rain down on them.[e]
May they be hurled into the fire,
Into deep pits,*[f] never to rise
again.
11 May the slanderer find no place on the earth.*[g]
May evil pursue men of violence and strike them
down.
12 I know that Jehovah will defend the lowly
And give justice to the poor.[h] 13 Surely the righteous will give thanks to your name;
The upright will dwell before your face.*[i]

A melody of David.

141 O Jehovah, I call on you.[j]
Come quickly to help me.[k]
Do pay attention when I call to you.[l]
2 May my prayer be as incense[m] prepared before you,[n]
My uplifted hands like the evening grain offering.[o]
3 Station a guard for my mouth, O Jehovah,
Do set a watch over the door of my lips.[p]

Mas'kil.* Of David when he was in the cave.[g] A prayer.

With my voice I plead with Jehovah for favor.
2 Before him I pour out my concern;
Before him I tell about my distress[i]

They hide a trap for me.

5 I call to you, O Jehovah, for help.

6 Pay attention to my cry for help,

Rescue me from my persecutors,[e]
For they are stronger than I am.
7 Bring me# out of the dungeon
To praise your name.
May the righteous gather around me
Because you deal kindly with me.

143 O Jehovah, hear my prayer;[f]
Listen to my plea for help.

2 Do not enter into judgment with your servant,

13 Our storehouses will overflow with every kind of produce;
Our flocks in our fields will multiply by the thousands, by the tens of thousands.

9 To execute the judgment written against them.[d]
This honor belongs to all his loyal ones.

1 The proverbs of Sol′o·mon,[a] the son of David,[b] the king of Israel:[c]

2 To learn* wisdom[d] and discipline;
To understand wise sayings;
3 To acquire the discipline[e] that gives insight, Righteousness,[f] good judgment, *[g] and uprightness;#
4 To impart shrewdness[h] to the inexperienced;
To give a young man knowledge and thinking ability.[i]
5 A wise person listens and takes in more instruction;[j]
A man of understanding acquires skillful direction*[k]
6 To understand a proverb and a puzzling saying,*
The words of the wise and their riddles.[l]
7 The fear of* Jehovah is the beginning of knowledge.[m]
Only fools despise wisdom and discipline.[n]
8 Listen, my son, to the discipline of your father,[o]
And do not forsake the instruction* of your mother.[p]
9 They are an attractive wreath for your head[q]
And a fine ornament for your neck.[r]
10 My son, if sinners try to entice you, do not consent.[s]
11 If they say: "Come with us.
Let us set an ambush to shed blood.
We will lie hidden, waiting for innocent victims without cause.
12 We will swallow them alive as the Grave* does,
Whole, like those going down to the pit.
13 Let us seize all their precious treasures;
We will fill our houses with spoil.
14 You should join us,*
And we will all share equally what we steal."#
15 My son, do not follow them.
Keep your feet off their path,[a] 16 For their feet run to do evil;
They hurry to shed blood.[b]
17 It is surely in vain to spread a net in full sight of a bird.
18 That is why these lie in ambush to shed blood;
They lie hidden to take the lives* of others.
19 These are the ways of those seeking dishonest profit,
Which will take away the life* of those who obtain it.[c]
20 True wisdom[d] cries aloud in the street.[e]
It keeps raising its voice in the public squares.[f]
21 At the corner* of the busy streets it calls out.
At the entrances of the city gates it says:[g]
22 "How long will you inexperienced ones love inexperience?
How long will you ridiculers take pleasure in ridicule?
And how long will you foolish ones hate knowledge?[h]
23 Respond to my reproof.*[i]
Then I will pour out my spirit for you;
I will make my words known to you.[j]
24 Because I called out, but you kept refusing,
I stretched out my hand, but no one was paying attention.[k]

25 You kept neglecting all my advice
And rejecting my reproof.
26 I also will laugh when disaster strikes you;
I will mock when what you dread comes,[a] 27 When what you dread comes like a storm,
And your disaster arrives like a storm wind,
When distress and trouble come upon you.
28 At that time they will keep calling me, but I will not answer;
They will eagerly look for me, but they will not find me,[b]
29 Because they hated knowledge,[c]
And they did not choose to fear Jehovah.[d]
30 They refused my advice;
They disrespected all my reproof.
31 So they will bear the consequences* of their way,[e]
And they will be glutted with their own counsel.#
32 For the waywardness of the inexperienced will kill them,
And the complacency of fools will destroy them.
33 But the one listening to me will dwell in security[f]
And be undisturbed by the dread of calamity."[g]

2 My son, if you accept my sayings
And treasure up my commandments,[h]
2 By making your ear attentive to wisdom[i]
And inclining your heart to discernment;[j]
3 Moreover, if you call out for understanding[k]
And raise your voice for discernment;[a] 4 If you keep seeking for it as for silver,[b]
And you keep searching for it as for hidden treasures;[c]
5 Then you will understand the fear of Jehovah,[d]
And you will find the knowledge of God.[e]
6 For Jehovah himself gives wisdom;[f]
From his mouth come knowledge and discernment.
7 He treasures up practical wisdom for the upright;
He is a shield for those walking in integrity.[g]
8 He watches over the paths of justice,
And he will guard the way of his loyal ones.[h]
9 Then you will understand what is righteous and just and fair,
The entire course of what is good.[i]
10 When wisdom enters your heart[j]
And knowledge becomes pleasant to your soul,*[k]
11 Thinking ability will keep watch over you,[l]
And discernment will safeguard you,
12 To save you from the bad course,
From the man speaking perverse things,[m]
13 From those leaving the upright paths
To walk in the ways of darkness,[n]
14 From those who rejoice in wrongdoing,
Who find joy in the perverseness of evil,
15 Those whose paths are crooked
And whose entire course is devious.

16 It will save you from the wayward* woman,
From the smooth# words of the immoral△ woman,[a] 17 Who abandons the close companion* of her youth[b]
And forgets the covenant of her God;
18 For her house sinks down into death,
And her paths* lead to those powerless in death.[c]
19 None of those having relations with* her will return,
Nor will they regain the pathways of life.[d]
20 So follow the way of good people
And stay on the paths of the righteous,[e]
21 For only the upright will reside in the earth,
And the blameless* will remain in it.[f]
22 As for the wicked, they will be cut off from the earth,[g]
And the treacherous will be torn away from it.[h]

3 My son, do not forget my teaching,*
And may your heart observe my commandments,
2 Because they will add many days
And years of life and peace to you.[i]
3 Do not let loyal love and faithfulness* leave you.[j]
Tie them around your neck;
Write them on the tablet of your heart;[k]
4 Then you will find favor and good insight
In the eyes of God and man.[l]
5 Trust in Jehovah[a] with all your heart,
And do not rely* on your own understanding.[b]
6 In all your ways take notice of him,[c]
And he will make your paths straight.[d]
7 Do not become wise in your own eyes.[e]
Fear Jehovah and turn away from bad.
8 It will be a healing to your body*
And refreshment for your bones.
9 Honor Jehovah with your valuable things,[f]
With the firstfruits* of all your produce;#[g]
10 Then your storehouses will be completely filled,[h]
And your vats* will overflow with new wine.
11 My son, do not reject the discipline of Jehovah,[i]
And do not loathe his reproof,[j]
12 For those whom Jehovah loves he reproves,[k]
Just as a father does a son in whom he delights.[l]
13 Happy is the man who finds wisdom[m]
And the man who acquires discernment;
14 To gain it is better than gaining silver,
And having it as profit is better than having gold.[n]
15 It is more precious than corals;*
Nothing you desire can compare to it.
16 Long life is in its right hand;
Riches and glory are in its left hand.

30 Do not quarrel with a man for no reason[b]
If he has done nothing bad to you.[c]
31 Do not envy the violent man[d]
Nor choose any of his ways,
32 For Jehovah detests a devious person,[e]
But His close friendship is with the upright.[f]
33 The curse of Jehovah is on the house of the wicked one,[g]
But he blesses the home of the righteous.[h]
34 For he mocks those who ridicule,[i]
But he shows favor to the meek.[j]
35 The wise will inherit honor,

4 Listen, my sons, to the discipline of a father;[l]
Pay attention in order to gain understanding,
2 For I will give you good instruction;
Do not forsake my teaching.*[m]
3 I was a true son to my father[n]
And the one especially loved by my mother.[o]

"May your heart hold fast to my words.[p]

And with all you acquire, acquire understanding.[b]

It will honor you because you embrace it.[d]
9 It will place an attractive wreath on your head;
It will adorn you with a crown of beauty."
10 Listen, my son, and accept my sayings,
And the years of your life will be many.[e]
11 I will instruct you in the way of wisdom;[f]
I will lead you in the tracks of uprightness.[g]
12 When you walk, your steps will not be hindered;
And if you run, you will not stumble.
13 Hold on to discipline; do not let it go.[h]
Safeguard it, for it means your life.[i] 14 Do not enter the path of the wicked,
And do not walk in the way of evil men.[j]
15 Shun it, do not take it;[k]
Turn away from it, and pass it by.[l]

They are robbed of sleep unless they cause someone's downfall.
17 They feed themselves with the bread of wickedness,
And they drink the wine of violence.

Jas 1:19

18 But the path of the righteous is like the bright morning light
That grows brighter and brighter until full daylight.[a] 19 The way of the wicked is like the darkness;
They do not know what makes them stumble.
20 My son, pay attention to my words;
Listen carefully* to my sayings.
21 Do not lose sight of them;
Keep them deep within your heart,[b]
22 For they are life to those who find them[c]
And health to their whole body.*
23 Above all the things that you guard, safeguard your heart,[d]
For out of it are the sources of life.
24 Put crooked speech away from you,[e]
And keep devious talk far away from you.
25 Your eyes should look straight ahead,
Yes, fix your gaze* straight ahead of you.[f]
26 Smooth out* the course of your feet,[g]
And all your ways will be sure.
27 Do not incline to the right or the left.[h]
Turn your feet away from what is bad.

5 My son, pay attention to my wisdom.
Listen carefully* to my discernment,[i]
2 So that you may guard your thinking abilities

4:20; 5:1 *Lit., "Incline your ear." 4:22 *Lit., "to all their flesh." 4:25 *Or "beaming eyes." 4:26 *Or possibly, "Carefully consider."

And safeguard knowledge with your lips.[a]
3 For the lips of a wayward* woman drip like a honeycomb,[b]
And her mouth is smoother than oil.[c]
4 But in the end she is as bitter as wormwood[d]
And as sharp as a two-edged sword.[e]
5 Her feet descend into death.
Her steps lead straight to the Grave.*
6 She gives no thought to the path of life.
Her course wanders, but she does not know where.
7 Now, my sons, listen to me
And do not turn away from what I am saying.
8 Stay far away from her;
Do not go near the entrance of her house,[f]
9 So that you may not give your dignity to others[g]
Nor reap years of what is cruel;[h]
10 So that strangers may not drain your resources*[i]
And what you labored for go to the house of a foreigner.
11 Otherwise, you will groan at the end of your life
When your flesh and body waste away[j]
12 And you say: "How I hated discipline!
How my heart despised reproof!
13 I did not listen to the voice of my instructors
Or pay attention to my teachers.
14 I have come to the brink of complete ruin
In the midst of the entire congregation."*[k]

5:3, 20 *Lit., "strange." See Pr 2:16. 5:5 *Or "Sheol," that is, the common grave of mankind. See Glossary. 5:10 *Or "power." 5:14 *Lit., "In the midst of the assembly and the congregation."

15 Drink water from your own cistern

17 Let them be for you alone,
And not for strangers with you.[c]

And may you rejoice with the wife of your youth,[d]
19 A loving doe, a graceful mountain goat.*[e]
Let her breasts satisfy# you at all times.
May you be captivated by her love constantly.[f]
20 So why, my son, should you be captivated by a wayward* woman
Or embrace the bosom of an immoral# woman?[g]
21 For the ways of man are before the eyes of Jehovah;
He examines all his paths.[h]
22 The wicked one is ensnared by his own errors,
And he will be caught in the ropes of his own sin.[i]
23 He will die for lack of discipline
And go astray because of his excessive foolishness.

6 My son, if you have put up security* for your neighbor,[j]
If you have given your handshake# to a stranger,[k]
2 If you have been ensnared by your promise,

For you have fallen into the hand of your neighbor:
Go and humble yourself and urgently plead with your neighbor.[a] 4 Do not allow your eyes to sleep,
Nor your eyelids to slumber.
5 Free yourself like a gazelle from the hunter's hand,
Like a bird from the hand of the birdcatcher.
6 Go to the ant, you lazy one;[b]
Observe its ways and become wise.
7 Although it has no commander, officer, or ruler,
8 It prepares its food in the summer,[c]
And it gathers its food supplies in the harvest.
9 How long, you lazy one, will you lie there?
When will you rise up from your sleep?
10 A little sleep, a little slumbering,
A little folding of the hands to rest,[d]
11 And your poverty will come like a bandit,
And your want like an armed man.[e]
12 A useless and wicked man walks about with crooked speech;[f]
13 He winks with his eye,[g] signals with his foot, and motions with his fingers.
14 With a perverted heart,
He is always scheming evil[h] and spreading contentions.[i] 15 Therefore, his disaster will come suddenly;
In a moment he will be broken beyond healing.[j]

Yes, seven things that he* detests:

6 From the window of my

Through my lattice, I looked
down,

I discerned among the youths
a young man lacking good sense.*[a] 8 He passed along the street near her corner,
And he marched in the direction of her house
9 In the twilight, in the evening,[b]
At the approach of night and 10 Then I saw a woman meet

him,
Dressed like* a prostitute,[c]
with a cunning heart.
11 She is loud and defiant.[d]
She never stays* at home.
12 One moment she is outside, next she is in the public squares,
She lurks near every corner.[e] 13 She grabs hold of him and gives him a kiss;
With a bold face, she says
to him:
14 "I had to offer communion sacrifices.[f]
Today I paid my vows.
15 That is why I came out to meet you,
To look for you, and I found
you!
16 I have spread fine covers
upon my bed,
Colorful linen from Egypt.[g]
17 I have sprinkled my bed with myrrh, aloes, and cinnamon.[h] 18 Come, let us drink our fill of love until the morning;
Let us enjoy passionate love
together,

7:7 #Or "inexperienced." 7:10 *Or "with the garment of." 7:11 *Lit., "Her feet never stay."

19 For my husband is not at home;
He has gone on a distant journey.
20 He took a bag of money with him,
And he will not return until the day of the full moon."
21 She misleads him with great persuasiveness.[a]
She seduces him with smooth speech.
22 Suddenly he goes after her, like a bull to the slaughter,
Like a fool to be punished in the stocks,*[b]
23 Until an arrow pierces his liver;
Like a bird rushing into a trap, he does not know that it will cost him his life.*[c]
24 And now, my sons, listen to me;
Pay attention to the words I speak.
25 Do not let your heart turn aside to her ways.
Do not stray onto her paths,[d]
26 For she has caused many to fall down slain,[e]
And those she has killed are numerous.[f]
27 Her house leads to the Grave;*
It goes down to the inner chambers of death.

8 Is not wisdom calling out?
Is not discernment raising its voice?[g]
2 On the heights[h] along the road,
It takes its position at the crossroads.
3 Next to the gates leading into the city,
At the entrances of the doorways,
It keeps crying out loudly:[a]
4 "To you, O people, I am calling;
I raise my voice to everyone.*
5 You inexperienced ones, learn shrewdness;[b]
You stupid ones, acquire an understanding heart.*
6 Listen, for what I say is important,
My lips speak what is right;
7 For my mouth softly utters truth,
And my lips detest what is wicked.
8 All the sayings of my mouth are righteous.
None of them are twisted or crooked.
9 They are all straightforward to the discerning
And right to those who have found knowledge.
10 Take my discipline instead of silver,
And knowledge rather than the finest gold,[c]
11 For wisdom is better than corals;*
All other desirable things cannot compare to it.
12 I, wisdom, dwell together with shrewdness;
I have found knowledge and thinking ability.[d]
13 The fear of Jehovah means the hating of bad.[e]
I hate self-exaltation and pride[f] and the evil way and perverse speech.[g]

18 The one who conceals his hatred speaks lies,[a]
And the one spreading malicious reports* is stupid.
19 When words are many, transgression cannot be avoided,[b]
But whoever controls his lips acts discreetly.[c]
20 The tongue of the righteous one is like the finest silver,[d]
But the heart of the wicked one is worth little.
21 The lips of the righteous one nourish* many,[e]
But the foolish die for lack of sense.[f]
22 It is the blessing of Jehovah that makes one rich,[g]
And He adds no pain* with it.
23 Engaging in shameful conduct is like a game to the stupid one,
But wisdom is for the man of discernment.[h]
24 What the wicked one fears will come upon him;
But the desire of the righteous will be granted.[i]
25 When the storm passes by, the wicked one will be no more,[j]
But the righteous one is a foundation forever.[k]
26 Like vinegar to the teeth and smoke to the eyes,
So the lazy person is to the one who sends him.*
27 The fear of Jehovah prolongs life,[l]
But the years of the wicked will be cut short.[m]

32 The lips of the righteous one know what is pleasing,
But the mouth of the wicked is perverse.

11 Dishonest* scales are detestable to Jehovah,
But an accurate weight# brings pleasure to him.[d]
2 When presumptuousness comes, dishonor will follow,[e]
But wisdom is with the modest ones.[f]
3 The integrity of the upright is what guides them,[g]

5 The righteousness of the blameless one makes his path straight,
But the wicked one will fall because of his own wickedness.[k]
6 The righteousness of the upright will rescue them,[l]
But the treacherous will be caught by their own desires.[m]
7 When a wicked man dies, his hope perishes;
And expectations based on his power also perish.[n]
8 The righteous one is rescued from distress,
And the wicked one takes his place.[a] 9 By his mouth the apostate* brings his neighbor to ruin,
But by knowledge the righteous are rescued.[b]
10 The goodness of the righteous makes a city rejoice,
And when the wicked perish, there is a joyful cry.[c]
11 Because of the blessing of the upright a city is exalted,[d]
But the mouth of the wicked tears it down.[e]

4 A capable wife is a crown

23 The fear of Jehovah leads to life;[n]
The one who has it will have a pleasant rest, free from harm.[o]

26 The one who mistreats his father and drives away his mother
Is a son causing shame and disgrace.[b]

27 My son, if you stop listening to discipline,
You will stray from the sayings of knowledge.

28 A worthless witness mocks justice,[c]
And the mouth of the wicked gulps down evil.[d]

29 Judgment is in store for ridiculers,[e]

20 Wine is a ridiculer,[g] alcohol is unruly;[h]
Whoever goes astray by them is not wise.[i]

2 The terror* of a king is like the growling of a lion;#[j]
Whoever provokes his anger risks his own life.[k]

3 It is honorable for a man to refrain from a dispute,[l]
But every fool will become embroiled in it.[m]

4 The lazy one does not plow in winter,
So he will be begging during the harvest when he has nothing.*[n]

5 The thoughts* of a man's heart are like deep waters,
But the discerning man draws them out.

6 Many men proclaim their loyal love,
But who can find a faithful man?

7 The righteous one is walking in his integrity.[o]

I am pure from my sin"?[e]

10 Dishonest weights and false measures*

11 Even a child* is known by his actions,

13 Do not love sleep, or you will come to poverty.[i]
Open your eyes, and you will be satisfied with bread.[j]

Then he goes away and boasts about himself.[k]

8 Anyone who plots evil
Will be called a master schemer.[a] 9 Foolish schemes* are sinful,
And people detest a ridiculer.[b]
10 If you become discouraged in the day of distress,*
Your strength will be meager.
11 Rescue those who are being taken away to death,
And hold back those staggering to the slaughter.[c]
12 If you say, "But we did not know about this,"
Does not the One who examines hearts* discern it?[d]
Yes, the One who watches you# will know
And will repay each man according to his activity.[e]
13 My son, eat honey, because it is good;
Honey from the comb is sweet to the taste.
14 Likewise, know that wisdom is good for you.*[f]
If you find it, you will have a future
And your hope will not be cut off.[g]
15 Do not wickedly lie in ambush near the home of the righteous one;
Do not destroy his place of rest.
16 For the righteous one may fall seven times, and he will get up again,[h]
But the wicked will be made to stumble by calamity.[i] 17 When your enemy falls, do not rejoice,
And when he stumbles, do not let your heart be joyful;[j]
18 Otherwise, Jehovah will see and be displeased,
And He will turn away his anger from him.[a] 19 Do not be upset because of evil men;
Do not envy wicked people,
20 For there is no future for anyone evil;[b]
The lamp of the wicked will be extinguished.[c]
21 My son, fear Jehovah and the king.[d]
And do not associate with dissenters,*[e]
22 For their disaster will arise suddenly.[f]
Who knows what ruin both* will bring upon them?[g]
23 These sayings also belong to the wise:
Partiality in judgment is not good.[h]
24 Whoever says to the wicked one, "You are righteous,"[i]
Will be cursed by the peoples and denounced by the nations.
25 But it will go well for those reproving him;[j]
Blessings of good things will come upon them.[k]
26 People will kiss the lips of the one replying honestly.*[l]
27 Prepare your outside work, and get everything ready in the field;
Then build your house.*
28 Do not testify against your neighbor without grounds.[m]
Do not use your lips to deceive others.[n]
29 Do not say: "I will do to him just as he has done to me;
I will repay him for what he did."*[o]

30 I passed by the field of the lazy one,[a]
By the vineyard of the man lacking good sense.*
31 I saw that it was overgrown with weeds;
The ground was covered with nettles,
And its stone wall was broken down.[b]
32 I observed this and took it to heart;
I saw it and learned this lesson:*
33 A little sleep, a little slumbering,
A little folding of the hands to rest,
34 And your poverty will come like a bandit,
And your want like an armed man.[c]

25 These also are the proverbs of Sol·o·mon,[d] which the men of Hez·e·ki'ah[e] the king of Judah transcribed:*
2 It is the glory of God to keep a matter secret,[f]
And the glory of kings is to search through a matter.
3 As the heavens are high and the earth is deep,
So the heart of kings is unsearchable.
4 Remove the dross from the silver,
And it will emerge completely refined.[g]
5 Remove the wicked one from the king's presence,
And his throne will be firmly established in righteousness.[h]
6 Do not honor yourself before the king,[i]
And do not take a place among the prominent,[j]
7 For it is better for him to say to you, "Come up here,"
Than to humiliate you in the presence of a noble.[a] 8 Do not rush into a legal dispute,
For what will you do later if your neighbor humiliates you?[b]
9 Plead your case with your neighbor,[c]
But do not reveal what you were told confidentially,*[d]
10 So that the one listening will not put you to shame
And you spread a bad report* that cannot be recalled.
11 Like apples of gold in silver carvings*
Is a word spoken at the right time.[e]
12 Like an earring of gold and an ornament of fine gold
Is a wise reprover to the receptive ear.[f]
13 Just like the coldness of snow on the day of harvest
Is a faithful messenger to those who sent him,
For he refreshes his master.*[g]
14 Like clouds and wind that bring no rain
Is a man who boasts about a gift never given.*[h]
15 By patience a commander is won over,
And a gentle* tongue can break a bone.[i] 16 If you find honey, eat only what you need,
For if you take too much, you may vomit it up.[j]
17 Rarely set foot in your neighbor's house,
So that he does not get tired of you and hate you.

A lion in the public square!"[c]

And the lazy one on his bed.[d]
15 The lazy one buries his hand in the banquet bowl,

19 Is the man who plays a trick on his neighbor and says, "I was only joking!"[g]

So a contentious man kindles a quarrel.[i] 22 The words of a slanderer are like tasty morsels;*
They are gulped right down into the stomach.[j]

24 The one who hates others disguises it with his lips,

His evil will be exposed in the congregation.
27 The one who digs a pit will fall into it,
And whoever rolls away a stone—it will come back on him.[b]

And a flattering mouth causes ruin.[c]

3 A man who loves wisdom makes his father rejoice,[a]
But the one who keeps company with prostitutes squanders his wealth.[b]

4 By justice a king brings stability to a land,[c]
But a man seeking bribes brings it to ruin.

5 A man who flatters his neighbor
Spreads out a net for his feet.[d]

6 A bad man's transgression ensnares him,[e]
But the righteous one cries out joyfully and rejoices.[f]

7 The righteous one is concerned about the legal rights of the poor,[g]
But the wicked one has no such concern.[h]

8 Boastful men inflame a town,[i]
But those who are wise turn away anger.[j]

9 When a wise man enters into a controversy with a fool,
There will be ranting and ridicule, but no satisfaction.[k]

10 Bloodthirsty men hate anyone innocent,*[l]
And they seek to take the life# of the upright.^

11 A stupid person gives vent to all his feelings,*[m]
But the wise one calmly keeps them in check.[n]

12 When a ruler pays attention to lies,
All his servants will be wicked.[o]

13 The poor man and the oppressor have this in common:*
Jehovah gives light to the eyes of both.#

29:10 *Or "blameless." #Or "soul." ^Or possibly, "But the upright seeks to protect his life." 29:11 *Lit., "spirit." 29:13 *Lit., "meet together." #That is, He gives them life.

14 When a king judges the poor fairly,[a]
His throne will always be secure.[b]
15 The rod* and reproof impart wisdom,[c]
But a child left unrestrained brings shame on his mother.
16 When the wicked increase, transgression increases,
But the righteous will see their downfall.[d]
17 Discipline your son and he will bring you rest;
And he will give you* great pleasure.[e]
18 Where there is no vision,* the people go unrestrained,[f]
But happy are those who observe the law.[g]
19 A servant will not let himself be corrected by words,
For though he understands, he does not obey.[h]
20 Have you seen a man hasty with his words?[i]
There is more hope for a fool than for him.[j]
21 If a servant is pampered from his youth,
He will become thankless later on.
22 A man prone to anger stirs up strife;[k]
Anyone disposed to rage commits many transgressions.[l]
23 The haughtiness of a man will humble him,[m]
But whoever is humble in spirit will obtain glory.[n]
24 The partner of a thief hates himself.*
He may hear the call to testify,# but he reports nothing.[o]

25 Trembling at* men is# a snare,[a]

30 The weighty message contained in the words of A′gur son of Ja′keh, which he spoke to Ith′i·el, to Ith′i·el and U′cal.
2 I am more ignorant than anyone else,[f]
And I lack the understanding a man should have.
3 I have not learned wisdom,
And I do not possess the knowledge of the Most Holy One.
4 Who has ascended to heaven and then descended?[g]
Who has gathered the wind in the palms of both hands?
Who has wrapped up the waters in his garment?[h]
Who has established* all the ends of the earth?[i]

Give me neither poverty nor tering knives;

sion,*

stand:
19 The way of an eagle in the heavens,
The way of a serpent on a

The way of a ship in the open sea,
And the way of a man with a young woman.
20 This is the way of an adulter-ous woman:
She eats, she wipes her
mouth;
Then she says, "I have done

21 There are three things that make the earth shudder
And four things it cannot endure:
22 When a slave rules as king,[d]
When a fool is glutted with food,
23 When a hated* woman is taken as a wife,
And when a servant girl takes the place of# her mistress.[e]

wise:*[f]
25 The ants are not strong creatures,*

Yet they prepare their food

26 The rock badgers*[b] are not mighty creatures,# Yet they make their house
in the crags.[c]
27 The locusts[d] have no king, Yet they all go forward in formation.*[e]
28 The gecko lizard[f] clings with its feet,
And it goes into the palace
of a king.
29 There are three things that have an impressive stride, Four that are impressive as they move:
30 The lion, the mightiest
among beasts,
Which does not retreat from anyone;[g]
31 The greyhound; the male goat;
And a king whose army is
with him.
32 If you have foolishly exalted yourself[h]
Or if you have schemed to do so,
Put your hand over your 33 For as the churning of milk produces butter

And the squeezing of the nose produces blood,
So the stirring up of anger
produces quarrels.[j]

31 The words of King Lem′-u·el, the weighty message his mother gave to instruct him:[k]

vows?[l]

Then it hurries back# to the place where it rises again.[a] 6 The wind goes south and circles around to the north;
Round and round it continuously circles; the wind keeps making its rounds.
7 All the streams* flow into the sea, yet the sea is not full.[b]
To the place from which the streams flow, there they return so as to flow again.[c]
8 All things are wearisome;
No one can even speak of it.
The eye is not satisfied at seeing;
Nor is the ear filled from hearing.
9 What has been is what will be,
And what has been done will be done again;
There is nothing new under the sun.[d]
10 Is there anything of which one may say, "Look at this —it is new"?
It already existed from long ago;
It already existed before our time.
11 No one remembers people of former times;
Nor will anyone remember those who come later;
Nor will they be remembered by those who come still later.[e]

12 I, the congregator, have been king over Israel in Jerusalem.[f] 13 I set my heart to study and explore with wisdom[g] everything that has been done under the heavens[h]—the miserable occupation that God has given to the sons of men that keeps them occupied.

14 I saw all the works that were done under the sun,
And look! everything was futile, a chasing after the wind.[a] 15 What is crooked cannot be made straight,
And what is lacking cannot possibly be counted.

16 Then I said in my heart: "Look! I have acquired great wisdom, more than anyone who was before me in Jerusalem,[b] and my heart gained a great deal of wisdom and knowledge."[c] 17 I applied my heart to knowing wisdom and to knowing madness* and to knowing folly,[d] and this too is a chasing after the wind.
18 For an abundance of wisdom brings an abundance of frustration,
So that whoever increases knowledge increases pain.[e]

2 Then I said in my heart: "Come and let me try out pleasure* and see what good comes." But look! that too was futility.
2 I said about laughter,
"It is madness!"
And about pleasure,*
"What use is it?"

3 I explored with my heart by indulging myself with wine,[f] all the while maintaining my own wisdom; I even embraced foolishness to find out what was the best thing for humans to do during their few days of life under the heavens. 4 I undertook great works.[g] I built houses for myself;[h] I planted vineyards for myself.[i] 5 I made gardens and parks for myself, and I planted in them all sorts of fruit trees. 6 I made pools of water for myself, to irrigate a grove* of flourishing trees. 7 I acquired male and female servants,[j] and I had servants born in my household.* I also acquired much livestock —cattle and flocks[a]—more than any of my predecessors in Jerusalem. 8 I accumulated silver and gold for myself,[b] the treasures of* kings and of provinces.[c] I gathered male and female singers for myself, as well as what brings great pleasure to the sons of men—a woman, yes, many women.# 9 So I grew great and surpassed anyone prior to me in Jerusalem.[d] And my wisdom remained with me.

10 I did not deny myself anything that I desired.[e] I did not withhold from my heart any sort of pleasure,# for my heart was joyful because of all my hard work, and this was my reward△ for all my hard work.[f] 11 But when I reflected on all the works that my own hands had done and on all the hard work that I had toiled to accomplish,[g] I saw that everything was futile, a chasing after the wind;[h] there was nothing of real value under the sun.[i]

12 Then I turned my attention to wisdom and madness and folly.[j] (For what can the man do who comes after the king? Only what has already been done.) 13 And I saw that there is an advantage to wisdom over folly,[k] just as there is an advantage to light over darkness.

14 The wise one has his eyes in his head;*[l] but the stupid one is walking in darkness.[m] I have also come to realize that there is one outcome# that befalls all of them.[n] 15 Then I said in my heart: "What happens to the stupid one will also happen to me."[o] What, then, did I gain by becoming excessively wise? So I said in my heart: "This too is futility." 16 For there is no lasting memory either of the wise one or of the stupid one.[a] In the days to come, everyone will be forgotten. And how will the wise one die? Along with the stupid one.[b]

17 So I came to hate life,[c] because everything being done under the sun seemed distressing to me, for everything was futile,[d] a chasing after the wind.[e] 18 I came to hate all that I had worked so hard for under the sun,[f] because I must leave it behind for the man coming after me.[g] 19 And who knows whether he will be wise or foolish?[h] Yet he will take control over all the things I spent great effort and wisdom to acquire under the sun. This too is futility. 20 So I began to despair in my heart over all the hard work at which I had toiled under the sun. 21 For a man may work hard, guided by wisdom and knowledge and skill, but he must hand over his portion* to a man who did not work for it.[i] This too is futility and a great tragedy.#

22 What does a man really gain from all his hard work and ambition that drives him* to work hard under the sun?[j] 23 For during all his days, his occupation brings pain and frustration,[k] and even at night his heart does not rest.[l] This too is futility.

24 There is nothing better for a man than to eat and drink and find enjoyment* in his hard work.[m] This too, I have realized, is from the hand of the true God,[n] 25 for who eats and who drinks better than I do?[o]

26 To the man who pleases him he gives wisdom and knowledge and rejoicing,[a] but to the sinner he gives the occupation of gathering and merely collecting to give to the one who pleases the true God.[b] This too is futility, a chasing after the wind.

3 There is an appointed time
for everything,
A time for every activity
under the heavens:
2 A time for birth and a time
to die;
A time to plant and a time to uproot what was planted;
3 A time to kill and a time to heal;
A time to tear down and
a time to build up;
4 A time to weep and a time
to laugh;
A time to wail and a time
to dance;*
5 A time to throw stones away and a time to gather stones
together;
A time to embrace and a time to refrain from embracing;
6 A time to search and a time to give up as lost;
A time to keep and a time
to throw away;
7 A time to rip apart[c] and a time to sew together;
A time to be silent[d] and a time to speak;[e]
8 A time to love and a time to hate;[f]
A time for war and a time for peace.

9 What does the worker gain from all his efforts?[g] 10 I have seen the occupation that God has given to the sons of men to keep them occupied. 11 He has made everything beautiful* in its time.[h] He has even put eternity in their heart; yet mankind will never find out the work that the true God has made from start to finish.

12 I have concluded that there is nothing better for them than to rejoice and to do good during their life,[a] 13 also that everyone should eat and drink and find enjoyment for all his hard work. It is the gift of God.[b]

14 I have come to know that everything the true God makes will endure forever. There is nothing to add to it and nothing to subtract from it. The true God has made it this way, so that people will fear him.[c]

15 Whatever happens has already happened, and what is to come has already been;[d] but the true God seeks what has been pursued.*

16 I have also seen this under the sun: In the place of justice there was wickedness, and in the place of righteousness there was wickedness.[e] 17 So I said in my heart: "The true God will judge both the righteous and the wicked,[f] for there is a time for every activity and every action."

18 I also said in my heart about the sons of men that the true God will test them and show them that they are like animals, 19 for there is an outcome* for humans and an outcome for animals; they all have the same outcome.[g] As the one dies, so the other dies; and they all have but one spirit.[h] So man has no superiority over animals, for everything is futile. 20 All are going to the same place.[i] They all come from the dust,[j] and they all are returning to the dust.[k] 21 Who really knows whether the spirit of humans ascends upward, and whether the spirit of animals descends down to the earth?[l]
22 And I saw that there is nothing better than for a man to find enjoyment in his work,[a] because that is his reward;* for who can enable him to see what will happen after he is gone?[b]

4 Again I turned my attention to all the acts of oppression that go on under the sun. I saw the tears of the oppressed, and there was no one to comfort them.[c] And their oppressors had the power, and there was no one to comfort them. 2 And I congratulated the dead who had already died rather than the living who were still alive.[d] 3 And better off than both of them is the one who has not yet been born,[e] who has not seen the distressing deeds that are done under the sun.[f]

4 And I have seen how much effort* and skillful work spring from rivalry between people;[g] this too is futility, a chasing after the wind.

5 The stupid one folds his hands while his flesh wastes away.*[h]

6 Better is a handful of rest than two handfuls of hard work and chasing after the wind.[i]

7 I turned my attention to another example of futility under the sun: 8 There is a man who is all alone, without any companion; he has no son or brother, but there is no end to all his hard work. His eyes are never satisfied with riches.[j] But does he ask himself, 'For whom am I working hard and depriving myself* of good things'?[k] This too is futility and a miserable occupation.[l]

9 Two are better than one[m] because they have a good reward* for their hard work. 10 For if one of them falls, the other can help his partner up. But what will happen to the one who falls with no one to help him up?

11 Moreover, if two lie down together, they will stay warm, but how can just one keep warm? 12 And someone may overpower one alone, but two together can take a stand against him. And a threefold cord cannot quickly* be torn apart.

13 Better is a poor but wise child than an old but stupid king,[a] who no longer has enough sense to heed a warning.[b] 14 For he* went out from prison to become king,[c] although in that one's kingship he was born poor.[d] 15 I considered all those alive who walk about under the sun, as well as how it goes with the young successor who stands up in the other's place. 16 Although there is no end to all his supporters, those who come later will not be happy with him.[e] This too is futility, a chasing after the wind.

5 Watch your step whenever you go to the house of the true God;[f] it is better to draw near to listen[g] than to give a sacrifice as the stupid ones do,[h] for they are not aware that what they are doing is bad.

2 Do not be quick with your mouth, nor let your heart speak rashly before the true God,[i] for the true God is in the heavens but you are on the earth. That is why your words should be few.[j] 3 For a dream comes from too many preoccupations,[k] and the chatter of the stupid one comes from too many words.[l] 4 Whenever you make a vow to God, do not delay to pay it,[m] for he finds no pleasure in the stupid ones.[n] What you vow, pay.[o] 5 Better for you not to vow than to vow and not pay.[a] 6 Do not allow your mouth to cause you to sin,[b] and do not say before the angel# that it was a mistake.[c] Why make the true God indignant over what you say so that he has to destroy the work of your hands?[d] 7 For just as many preoccupations lead to dreams,[e] so, too, many words lead to futility. But fear the true God.[f]

8 If you see any oppression of the poor and a violation of justice and righteousness in your district, do not be surprised about the matter.[g] For that high official is being watched by one who is higher than he is, and there are others who are still higher than them.

9 Also, the profit of the land is divided among them all; even the king is served by the field.[h]

10 A lover of silver will never be satisfied with silver, nor a lover of wealth with income.[i] This too is futility.[j]

11 When good things increase, those consuming them increase.[k] And what advantage is it to the owner, except to look at them with his eyes?[l]

12 Sweet is the sleep of the one serving, whether he eats little or much, but the plenty belonging to the rich one does not permit him to sleep.

13 There is a great tragedy* that I have seen under the sun: riches that were hoarded by their owner to his own harm. 14 Those riches were lost because of a disastrous venture,* and when he becomes a father to a son, he has nothing left in his possession.[m]

15 Just as one came from his mother's womb, naked he will go away, just as he came.[n] And he cannot carry away anything for all his hard work.[a]

16 This too is a great tragedy:* Exactly as he came, so he will go away; and what profit is there to the one who keeps working hard for the wind?[b] 17 Also, every day he eats in darkness, with a great deal of frustration and sickness and anger.[c]

18 This is what I have seen to be good and proper: that one should eat and drink and find enjoyment for all the hard work[d] at which he toils under the sun during the few days of life that the true God has given him, for that is his reward.[e] 19 Also, when the true God gives a man riches and material possessions[f] along with the ability to enjoy them, he should take his reward and rejoice in his hard work. This is the gift of God.[g] 20 For he will hardly notice* the passing days of his life, because the true God keeps him preoccupied with the rejoicing of his heart.[h]

6 There is another tragedy* that I have seen under the sun, and it is common among men: 2 The true God gives a man riches and material possessions and glory, so that he lacks nothing that he desires;* yet the true God does not enable him to enjoy them, although a stranger may enjoy them. This is futility and a severe affliction. 3 If a man should become a father a hundred times and live for many years and reach old age, yet he* does not enjoy his good things before he reaches the grave,# I must say that a stillborn child is better off than he is.[i] 4 For this one came in vain and went away in darkness, and his name is shrouded in darkness. 5 Even though he never saw the sun or knew anything, he is still better off* than the former one.[a] 6 What is the benefit of living a thousand years twice over but not experiencing enjoyment? Do not all go to the same place?[b]

5 Better to listen to a wise man's rebuke[b] than to listen to the song of fools. 6 For as the crackling of thorns burning under the pot, so is the laughter of the fool;[c] and this too is futility. 7 But oppression can drive the wise one into madness, and a bribe corrupts the heart.[d]

8 Better is the end of a matter than its beginning. Better to be patient than to be haughty in spirit.[e] 9 Do not be quick* to take offense,[f] for the taking of offense lodges in the bosom of fools.#[g]

16 Do not be overly righteous,[a] nor show yourself excessively wise.[b] Why should you bring ruin to yourself?[c] 17 Do not be excessively wicked, nor be foolish.[d] Why should you die before your time?[e] 18 It is best to grasp one warning without letting go of the other;[f] for the one who fears God will heed them both.

19 Wisdom makes a wise man more powerful than ten strong men in a city.[g] 20 For there is no righteous man on earth who always does good and never sins.[h]

21 Also, do not take to heart every word that people say;[i] otherwise, you may hear your servant calling down evil on* you; 22 for you well know in your heart that many times you yourself have called down evil on others.[j]

23 All of this I tested with wisdom, and I said: "I will become wise." But it was beyond me. 24 What has come to be is out of reach and exceedingly deep. Who can understand it?[k] 25 I directed my heart to know and to explore and to search for wisdom and the reason behind things, and to understand the wickedness of stupidity and the folly of madness.[l] 26 Then I discovered this: More bitter than death is the woman who is like a hunter's net, whose heart is like dragnets, and whose hands are like prison chains. The one who pleases the true God will escape her,[m] but the sinner is captured by her.[n]

27 "See, this is what I found," says the congregator.[o] "I investigated one thing after another to reach my conclusion, 28 but what I* continually sought, I have not found. One man# out of a thousand I found, but a woman among them I have not found. 29 This alone I have found: The true God made mankind upright,[a] but they have sought out many schemes."[b]

8 Who is like the wise man? Who knows the solution to a problem?* A man's wisdom lights up his face and softens his stern appearance.

2 I say: "Obey the king's orders[c] out of regard for the oath to God.[d] 3 Do not rush to depart from his presence.[e] Do not take a stand for anything bad;[f] for he can do whatever he pleases, 4 because the word of the king is absolute;[g] who can say to him, 'What are you doing?'"

5 The one who observes the commandment will not experience harm,[h] and the wise heart will know the right time and procedure.[i] 6 For every matter there is a time and procedure,[j] because the troubles of mankind are so abundant. 7 Since no one knows what will happen, who can tell him how it will happen?

8 Just as no man has power over the spirit* or can restrain the spirit, so no one has power over the day of death.[k] Just as no one is discharged during a war, so wickedness will not allow those who practice it to escape.#

9 All of this I have seen, and I applied my heart to every work that has been done under the sun, during the time that man has dominated man to his harm.*[l] 10 And I saw the wicked being buried, those who used to go in and out of the holy place, but they were soon forgotten in the city where they acted that way.[a] This too is futility.

11 Because sentence against a bad deed has not been executed speedily,[b] the heart of men becomes emboldened to do bad.[c] 12 Although a sinner may do bad a hundred times and still live a long time, yet I am aware that it will turn out well for those who fear the true God, because they fear him.[d] 13 But it will not turn out well for the wicked one,[e] nor will he prolong his days that are like a shadow,[f] because he does not fear God.

14 There is something futile* that takes place on the earth: There are righteous people who are treated as if they had acted wickedly,[g] and there are wicked people who are treated as if they had acted righteously.[h] I say that this too is futility.

15 So I recommended rejoicing,[i] because there is nothing better for man under the sun than to eat and drink and rejoice; this should accompany him as he works hard during the days of his life,[j] which the true God gives him under the sun.

16 I applied my heart to acquire wisdom and to see all the activity* happening on the earth,[k] even going without sleep day and night.# 17 Then I considered all the work of the true God, and I realized that mankind cannot comprehend what happens under the sun.[l] No matter how hard men try, they cannot comprehend it. Even if they claim that they are wise enough to know, they cannot really comprehend it.[m]

9 So I took all of this to heart and concluded that the righteous and the wise, as well as their works, are in the hands of the true God.[a] Men are not aware of the love and the hate that took place prior to them. 2 All have the very same outcome,[b] the righteous and the wicked,[c] the good and the clean and the unclean, those sacrificing and those not sacrificing. The good one is the same as the sinner; the one who swears an oath is the same as the one who is cautious about swearing an oath. 3 This is a distressing thing that happens under the sun: Because all have the same outcome,[d] the heart of humans is also full of bad; and there is madness in their heart during their life, and then they die!#

4 There is hope for whoever is among the living, because a live dog is better off than a dead lion.[e] 5 For the living know* that they will die,[f] but the dead know nothing at all,[g] nor do they have any more reward,# because all memory of them is forgotten.[h] 6 Also, their love and their hate and their jealousy have already perished, and they no longer have any share in what is done under the sun.[i]

7 Go, eat your food with rejoicing, and drink your wine with a cheerful heart,[j] for already the true God has found pleasure in your works.[k] 8 May your clothing always be white,* and do not fail to put oil on your head.[l] 9 Enjoy life with your beloved wife[m] all the days of your futile life, which He has given you under the sun, all the days of your futility, for that is your lot* in life and in your hard work at which you toil under the sun.[n] 10 Whatever your hand finds to do, do with all your might, for there is no work nor planning nor knowledge nor wisdom in the Grave,*[a] where you are going.

11 I have seen something further under the sun, that the swift do not always win the race, nor do the mighty win the battle,[b] nor do the wise always have the food, nor do the intelligent always have the riches,[c] nor do those with knowledge always have success,[d] because time and unexpected events* overtake them all. 12 For man does not know his time.[e] Just as fish are caught in an evil net and birds are caught in a trap, so the sons of men are ensnared in a time of disaster,* when it suddenly overtakes them.

13 I also observed this about wisdom under the sun—and it impressed me: 14 There was a small city with a few men in it; and a mighty king came against it and surrounded it and built great siegeworks against it. 15 In it was found a poor but wise man, and he saved the city by his wisdom. But no one remembered that poor man.[f] 16 And I said to myself: 'Wisdom is better than mightiness;[g] yet a poor man's wisdom is despised, and his words are not heeded.'[h]

17 Better to heed the calm words of the wise than the shouts of the one ruling among fools.

18 Wisdom is better than weapons of war, but just one sinner can destroy much good.[i]

10 As dead flies cause the perfumer's oil to stink and bubble, so a little foolishness outweighs wisdom and glory.[j]

9:10 *Or "Sheol," that is, the common grave of mankind. See Glossary. 9:11 *Or "unforeseen occurrence." 9:12 *Or "calamity."

2 The heart of the wise one leads him in the right way,* but the heart of the stupid one leads him in the wrong way.#[a] 3 In whatever way the fool walks, he is lacking good sense,*[b] and he lets everyone know that he is a fool.[c]

4 If the anger* of a ruler should flare up against you, do not leave your place,[d] for calmness allays great sins.[e]

5 There is something distressing that I have seen under the sun, the sort of mistake made by those in power:[f] 6 Foolishness is put in many high positions, but the rich* remain in low positions.

7 I have seen servants on horseback but princes walking on foot just like servants.[g]

8 The one who digs a pit may fall into it;[h] and the one who breaks through a stone wall may be bitten by a snake.

9 The one who quarries stones may be hurt by them, and the one who splits logs may be endangered by them.*

10 If an iron tool is dull and one does not sharpen its edge, he will need to exert much effort. But wisdom helps to achieve success.

11 If the snake bites before it is charmed, there is no advantage to the skilled charmer.*

12 The words from the mouth of the wise one bring favor,[i] but the lips of the stupid one are his ruin.[j] 13 The first words out of his mouth are foolishness,[k] and his last words are disastrous madness. 14 But the fool keeps on speaking.[l]

10:2 *Lit., "is at his right hand." #Lit., "is at his left hand." 10:3 *Lit., "his heart is lacking." 10:4 *Lit., "spirit; breath." 10:6 *Or "the capable." 10:9 *Or possibly, "should be careful with them." 10:11 *Lit., "the master of the tongue."

A man does not know what will happen; who can tell him what will come after him?[a]

15 The hard work of the stupid one wears him out, for he does not even know how to find his way to the city.

16 How terrible for a land when the king is a boy[b] and the princes start their feasting in the morning! 17 How happy for the land when the king is the son of nobles and the princes eat at the proper time for strength, not for drunkenness![c]

18 Because of extreme laziness the roof beams sag, and because of idle hands the house leaks.[d]

19 Bread* is made for laughter, and wine makes life enjoyable;[e] but money answers every need.[f]

20 Even in your thoughts,* do not curse# the king,[g] and do not curse the rich in your bedroom; for a bird△ may convey the sound,⊠ or a creature with wings may repeat what was said.

11 Cast* your bread on the waters,[h] for after many days you will find it again.[i] 2 Give a share to seven or even to eight,[j] for you do not know what disaster* will occur on the earth.

3 If the clouds are filled with water, they will pour down rain on the earth; and if a tree falls to the south or to the north, the place where the tree falls is where it will lie.

4 The one who watches the wind will not sow seed, and the one who looks at the clouds will not reap.[k]

5 Just as you do not know how the spirit operates in the bones of the child inside* a pregnant woman,[a] so you do not know the work of the true God, who does all things.[b]

6 Sow your seed in the morning and do not let your hand rest until the evening;[c] for you do not know which will have success, whether this one or that one, or whether they will both do well.

7 Light is sweet, and it is good for the eyes to see the sun. 8 For if a man should live many years, let him enjoy them all.[d] But he should remember that the days of darkness may be many; all that is to come is futility.[e]

9 Rejoice, young man, while you are young, and let your heart be glad in the days of your youth. Follow the ways of your heart and go where your eyes lead you; but know that the true God will bring you into judgment* for all these things.[f] 10 So remove troublesome things from your heart, and ward off harmful things from your body,* for youth and the prime of life are futility.[g]

12 Remember, then, your Grand Creator in the days of your youth,[h] before the days of distress* come[i] and the years arrive when you will say: "I have no pleasure in them"; 2 before the sun and the light and the moon and the stars grow dark,[j] and the clouds return after* the downpour; 3 in the day when the guards* of the house become shaky,# and the strong men stoop over, and the women quit grinding because they have become few, and the ladies looking out the windows find it dark;[k] 4 when the doors to the street have been closed, when the sound of the grinding mill becomes low, when one gets up at the sound of a bird, and all the daughters of song grow faint.[a] 5 Also, one is afraid of heights, and there are terrors in the street. And the almond tree blossoms,[b] and the grasshopper drags itself along, and the caper berry bursts, because man is walking to his lasting house[c] and the mourners walk about in the street;[d] 6 before the silver cord is removed, and the golden bowl is crushed, and the jar at the spring is broken, and the waterwheel for the cistern is crushed. 7 Then the dust returns to the earth,[e] just as it was, and the spirit* returns to the true God who gave it.[f]

8 "The greatest futility!"* says the congregator.[g] "Everything is futile."[h]

9 Not only had the congregator become wise but he continually taught the people what he knew,[a] and he pondered and made a thorough search in order to compile* many proverbs.[b] 10 The congregator sought to find delightful words[c] and to record accurate words of truth.

11 The words of the wise are like oxgoads,[d] and their collected sayings are like firmly embedded nails; they have been given from one shepherd. 12 As for anything besides these, my son, be warned: To the making of many books there is no end, and much devotion to them is wearisome to the flesh.[e]

13 The conclusion of the matter, everything having been heard, is: Fear the true God[f] and keep his commandments,[g] for this is the whole obligation of man.[h] 14 For the true God will judge every deed, including every hidden thing, as to whether it is good or bad.[i]

1 The song of songs,* which is Sol'o·mon's:[a]
2 "May he kiss me with the kisses of his mouth,
For your expressions of affection are better than wine.[b]
3 The fragrance of your oils is pleasant.[c]
Your name is like a fragrant oil poured out.[d]
That is why the young women love you.
4 Take me with you;* let us run.
The king has brought me into his interior rooms!
Let us be joyful and rejoice in you.
Let us praise# your expressions of affection more than wine.
Rightly they△ love you.
5 I am dark,* but lovely,

6 Do not stare at me because I am swarthy,
Because the sun has gazed upon me.
The sons of my mother
were angry with me;
They appointed me the keeper of the vineyards,
But my own vineyard I did not keep.
7 Tell me, you whom I love* so much,
Where you pasture your flock,[c]
Where you have them lie down at midday.
Why should I be like a woman wrapped in a veil# Among the flocks of your companions?"
8 "If you do not know, O most beautiful of women,
Go follow the tracks of the flock
And pasture your young goats next to the tents

chariots of Phar′aoh.[d]
10 Your cheeks are lovely

Your neck with strings of beads.
11 We will make for you gold

Studded with silver." 12 "While the king sits at his round table,
My perfume*[e] gives off its fragrance.
13 My dear one is to me like
a fragrant bag of myrrh[f] Spending the night between my breasts.
14 My dear one is to me like

Among the vineyards

Look! You are beautiful.
Your eyes are those 16 "Look! You are beautiful,* my dear one, and

Our rafters are juniper trees.

A lily of the valleys."[e]

Is my beloved among the Sustain me with apples,

For I am lovesick.
6 His left hand is under my head,
And his right hand embraces me.[g]
7 I put you under oath,
O daughters of Jerusalem,

7 “Look! It is the couch belonging to Sol′o·mon.
Sixty mighty men
surround it,
Of the mighty men of Israel,[a] 8 All of them armed with a sword,
All trained in warfare,
Each with his sword
at his side
To guard against the terrors of the night.”
9 “It is the royal litter*
of King Sol′o·mon
That he made for himself from the trees of Leb′a·non.[b]
10 Its pillars he made of silver,
Its supports of gold.
Its seat is of purple wool;
Its interior was lovingly decorated
By the daughters of Jerusalem.”
11 “Go out, O daughters of Zion,
Gaze at King Sol′o·mon Wearing the wedding crown*
his mother[c] made for him
On the day of his marriage,
On the day of his heart’s rejoicing.”

4 “Look! You are beautiful, my beloved.
Look! You are beautiful.
Your eyes are those of doves behind your veil.
Your hair is like a flock of goats Streaming down the mountains of Gil′e·ad.[d] 2 Your teeth are like a flock of newly shorn sheep
That have come up from being washed,
All of them bearing twins,
And not one has lost her young.

For Jehovah has spoken:
"Sons I have brought up and raised,[h]
But they have revolted against me.[i]
3 A bull well knows its buyer,
And a donkey the manger of its owner;
But Israel does not know me,*[j]
My own people do not behave with understanding."
4 Woe to the sinful nation,[k]
The people weighed down with error,
A brood of wicked men, corrupt children!
They have abandoned Jehovah;[l]
They have treated the Holy One of Israel with disrespect;
They have turned their backs on him.
5 Where will you be struck next as you add to your rebellion?[m]
The whole head is sick,
And the whole heart is diseased.[n]
6 From the sole of the foot to the head, nothing is healthy.
There are wounds and bruises and open sores
—They have not been treated* or bound up or softened with oil.[o]
7 Your land is desolate.
Your cities are burned with fire.
Foreigners devour your land right in front of you.[a]
It is like a wasteland overthrown by foreigners.[b]
8 The daughter of Zion has been left like a shelter* in a vineyard,
Like a hut in a cucumber field,
Like a city under siege.[c]
9 Unless Jehovah of armies had left us a few survivors,
We should have become just like Sod′om,
And we should have resembled Go·mor′rah.[d]
10 Hear the word of Jehovah, you dictators* of Sod′om.[e]
Pay attention to the law# of our God, you people of Go·mor′rah.[f] 11 "Of what benefit to me are your many sacrifices?"[g] says Jehovah.
"I have had enough of your burnt offerings of rams[h] and the fat of well-fed animals,[i]
And I have no delight in the blood[j] of young bulls[k] and lambs and goats.[l]
12 When you come to appear before me,[m]
Who has required this from you,
This trampling of my courtyards?[n]
13 Stop bringing in any more worthless grain offerings.
Your incense is detestable to me.[o]
New moons,[p] sabbaths,[q] the calling of conventions[r]

14 I have* hated your new moons and your festivals.

5 O house of Jacob, come,
Let us walk in the light of Jehovah.[a] 6 For you have forsaken your people, the house of Jacob,[b]
Because they have become full of things from the East;
They practice magic[c] like the Phi·lis′tines,
And they abound with the children of foreigners.
7 Their land is filled with silver and gold,
And there is no limit to their treasures.
Their land is filled with horses,
And there is no limit to their chariots.[d]
8 Their land is filled with worthless gods.[e]
They bow down to the work of their own hands,
To what their own fingers have made.
9 So man bows down, he becomes low,
And you cannot possibly pardon them.
10 Enter into the rock and hide yourself in the dust
Because of the terrifying presence of Jehovah
And his majestic splendor.[f]
11 The haughty eyes of man will be brought low,
And the arrogance of men will bow down.*
Jehovah alone will be exalted in that day.
12 For it is the day belonging to Jehovah of armies.[g]
It is coming upon everyone who is haughty and lofty,
Upon everyone, whether exalted or lowly,[h]
13 Upon all the cedars of Leb′a·non that are lofty and exalted

2:11 *Or "be humbled."

And upon all the oaks of Ba′shan,
14 Upon all the lofty mountains
And upon all the high hills,
15 Upon every high tower and every fortified wall,
16 Upon all the ships of Tar′shish[a]
And upon all desirable boats.
17 Man's haughtiness will be brought down,
And the arrogance of men will bow low.*
Jehovah alone will be exalted in that day.
18 The worthless gods will completely disappear.[b]
19 And people will enter into the caves of the rocks
And into the holes in the ground,[c]
Because of the terrifying presence of Jehovah
And his majestic splendor,[d]
When he arises to make the earth tremble in terror.
20 In that day men will take their worthless gods of silver and of gold
That they had made for themselves to bow down to
And throw them away to the shrewmice* and to the bats,[e]
21 In order to enter into the holes in the rocks
And into the clefts of the crags,
Because of the terrifying presence of Jehovah
And his majestic splendor,
When he arises to make the earth tremble in terror.
22 For your own sakes, quit trusting in mere man,
Who is only the breath in his nostrils.*
Why should he be taken into account?

3 For look! the true Lord, Jehovah of armies,
Is removing from Jerusalem and Judah every kind of support and supply,
All support of bread and water,[a]
2 Mighty man and warrior,
Judge and prophet,[b] diviner and elder,
3 Chief of 50,[c] dignitary, and adviser,
The expert magician and the skilled charmer.[d]
4 I will make boys their princes,
And the unstable* will rule over them.
5 The people will oppress one another,
Each one his fellow man.[e]
The boy will assault the old man,
And the lightly esteemed one will defy the respected one.[f]
6 Each one will take hold of his brother in his father's house and say:
"You have a cloak—you be our commander.
Take charge of this overthrown pile of ruins."
7 But he will protest in that day:
"I will not be your wound dresser;*
I have no food or clothing in my house.
Do not make me commander over the people."
8 For Jerusalem has stumbled,
And Judah has fallen,
Because in word and deed they are against Jehovah;
They behave defiantly in his glorious presence.*[g]
9 The expression of their faces testifies against them,

3:4 *Or "fickle." 3:7 *Or "your healer." 3:8 *Lit., "in the eyes of his glory."

And they proclaim their sin

They do not try to hide it.

themselves!

will go well for them;
They will be rewarded for 11 Woe to the wicked one!

Disaster will befall him,
For what his hands have done will be done to him!
12 As for my people, their taskmasters are abusive,
And women rule over them.
My people, your leaders are causing you to wander,
And they confuse the direction of your paths.[c] 13 Jehovah is taking his position to accuse;
He is standing up to pass
sentence on peoples.
14 Jehovah will enter into judgment with the elders and princes of his people.
"You have burned down
the vineyard,
And what you have stolen from the poor is in your houses.[d]
15 How dare you crush my people
And grind the faces of the poor in the dirt?"[e] declares
the Sovereign Lord,
Jehovah of armies.
16 Jehovah says: "Because the daughters of Zion are haughty,
Walking with their heads
high,*
Flirting with their eyes,
skipping along,
Making a tinkling sound
with their anklets,

2 In that day what Jehovah makes sprout will be splendid and glorious, and the fruitage of the land will be the pride and beauty of the survivors of Israel.[b] 3 Whoever remains in Zion and is left over in Jerusalem will be called holy, all of those in Jerusalem written down for life.[c]

4 When Jehovah washes away the filth* of the daughters of Zion[d] and rinses away the bloodshed of Jerusalem from her midst by the spirit of judgment and by a spirit of burning,#[e] 5 Jehovah will also create over the whole site of Mount Zion and over the place of her conventions a cloud and smoke by day and a bright flaming fire by night;[f] for over all the glory there will be a shelter. 6 And there will be a booth for shade by day from the heat,[g] and for refuge and protection from storms and the rain.[h]

5 Let me sing, please, to my beloved
A song about my loved one and his vineyard.[i]
My beloved had a vineyard on a fruitful hillside.
2 He dug it up and rid it of stones.
He planted it with a choice red vine,
Built a tower in the middle of it,
And hewed out a winepress in it.[j]
Then he kept hoping for it to produce grapes,
But it produced only wild grapes.[k]
3 “And now, you inhabitants of Jerusalem and men of Judah, Please judge between me and my vineyard.[a]
4 What more could I have done for my vineyard
That I have not already done?[b]
Why, when I hoped for grapes,
Did it produce only wild grapes?
5 Now, please, let me tell you
What I will do to my vineyard:
I will remove its hedge,
And it will be burned down.[c]
I will break down its stone wall,
And it will be trampled on.
6 I will make it a wasteland;[d]
It will not be pruned or hoed.
It will be overgrown with thornbushes and weeds,[e]
And I will command the clouds not to send any rain on it.[f]
7 For the vineyard of Jehovah of armies is the house of Israel;[g]
The men of Judah are the plantation* he was fond of.
He kept hoping for justice,[h]
But look! there was injustice;
For righteousness,
But look! a cry of distress.”[i]
8 Woe to those who join one house to another house[j]
And who annex one field to another field[k]
Until there is no more room
And you live by yourselves on the land!
9 Jehovah of armies has sworn in my ears
That many houses, though great and beautiful,
Will become an object of horror,
Without an inhabitant.[l]

6 In the year that King Uz·zi'ah died,[j] I saw Jehovah sitting on a lofty and elevated throne,[k] and the skirts of his robe filled the temple. 2 Seraphs were standing above him; each had six wings. Each* covered his face with two and covered his feet with two, and each of them would fly about with two.

3 And one called to the other:
"Holy, holy, holy is Jehovah of armies.[a]
The whole earth is filled with his glory."

4 And the pivots of the thresholds quivered at the sound of the shouting,* and the house was filled with smoke.[b]

5 Then I said: "Woe to me!
I am as good as dead,*
For I am a man of unclean
lips,
And I live among a people of unclean lips;[c]
For my eyes have seen the King, Jehovah of armies himself!"

6 At that, one of the seraphs flew to me, and in his hand was a glowing coal[d] that he had taken with tongs from the altar.[e] 7 He touched my mouth and
said:

"Look! This has touched
your lips.
Your guilt is removed,
And your sin is atoned for."

8 Then I heard the voice of Jehovah saying: "Whom shall I send, and who will go for us?"[f]
And I said: "Here I am! Send me!"[g]

10 Make the heart of this people unreceptive,[a]
Make their ears unresponsive,[b]
And paste their eyes together,
So that they may not see with their eyes
And hear with their ears,
So that their heart may not understand
And they may not turn back and be healed."

11 At this I said: "How long, O Jehovah?" Then he said:
"Until the cities crash in ruins without an inhabitant
And the houses are without people
And the land is ruined and desolate;[c]
12 Until Jehovah removes men far away[d]
And the deserted condition of the land becomes very extensive.

13 "But there will still be a tenth in it, and it will again be burned, like a big tree and like an oak, which after they are cut down leave a stump; a holy seed* will be its stump."

7 Now in the days of A′haz[e] son of Jo′tham son of Uz·zi′ah, the king of Judah, King Re′zin of Syria and Pe′kah[f] son of Rem·a·li′ah, the king of Israel, came up to wage war against Jerusalem, but he* could not capture it.[g] 2 A report was made to the house of David: "Syria has joined forces with E′phra·im."

And the heart of A′haz and the heart of his people began to tremble, like the trees of the forest shaking in the wind.

3 Jehovah then said to Isaiah: "Go out, please, to meet A′haz, you and your son She′ar-ja′shub,[a] at the end of the conduit# of the upper pool[b] by the highway of the laundryman's field. 4 You must say to him, 'Take care to stay calm. Do not be afraid, and do not lose heart because of these two stumps of smoldering logs, because of the hot anger of Re′zin and Syria and the son of Rem·a·li′ah.[c] 5 For Syria with E′phra·im and the son of Rem·a·li′ah have plotted harm against you, saying: 6 "Let us go up against Judah and tear it apart and conquer it# for ourselves, and let us appoint the son of Tab′e·el as its king."[d]

You will not be firmly established.'"

10 Jehovah continued speaking to A′haz: 11 "Ask for a sign from Jehovah your God;[h] it may be as deep as the Grave* or as high as the sky." 12 But A′haz said: "I will not ask, nor will I put Jehovah to the test."

The young woman* will become pregnant and will give birth to a son,[b] and she will name him Im·man′u·el.#[c] 15 He will eat butter and honey by the time that he knows how to reject the bad and choose the good. 16 For before the boy knows how to reject the bad and choose the good, the land of the two kings whom you dread will be completely abandoned.[d] 17 Jehovah will bring against you and against your people and against the house of your father a time such as has not come since the day E′phra·im broke away from Judah,[e] for He will bring the king of As·syr′i·a.[f]

18 "In that day Jehovah will whistle for the flies from the distant streams of the Nile of Egypt and for the bees in the land of As·syr′i·a, 19 and they will all come and settle down on the steep valleys,* on the rocky clefts, on all the thornbushes, and on all the watering places.

20 "In that day by means of a hired razor from the region of the River,* by means of the king of As·syr′i·a,[g] Jehovah will shave the head and the hair of the legs, and it will sweep away the beard as well.

21 "In that day a man will keep alive a young cow of the herd and two sheep. 22 And because of the abundance of milk, he will eat butter, for everyone remaining in the land will eat butter and honey.

23 "In that day wherever there used to be 1,000 vines worth 1,000 pieces of silver, there will be only thornbushes and weeds. 24 Men will go there with bow and arrow, because all the land will become thornbushes and weeds. 25 And all the mountains that used to be cleared with a hoe, you will not go near for fear of thornbushes and weeds; they will become a grazing place for bulls and a trampling ground of sheep."

8 Jehovah said to me: "Take a large tablet[a] and write on it with an ordinary stylus,* 'Ma′her-shal′al-hash-baz.'# 2 And let me have it confirmed in writing* by faithful witnesses, U·ri′ah[b] the priest and Zech·a·ri′ah the son of Je·ber·e·chi′ah."

5 Jehovah spoke to me again:

6 "Because this people has

Do not fear what they fear;
Do not tremble at it.
13 Jehovah of armies—he is

He is the One you should

14 He will become as a

But as a stone to strike

And as a rock to stumble over[g]
To both houses of Israel,
As a trap and a snare
To the inhabitants of Jerusalem.

15 Many of them will stumble and fall and be broken;
They will be ensnared
and caught.
16 Wrap up the written confirmation;*
Seal up the law# among
my disciples!

17 I will keep in expectation of* Jehovah,[a] who is hiding his face from the house of Jacob,[b] and I will hope in him.
18 Look! I and the children whom Jehovah has given me[c] are as signs[d] and as miracles in Israel from Jehovah of armies, who resides on Mount Zion.
19 And if they say to you: "Inquire of the spirit mediums or of the fortune-tellers who chirp and mutter," is it not of their God that a people should inquire? Should they inquire of the dead in behalf of the living?[e] 20 Instead, they should inquire of the law and of the written confirmation!*

When they do not speak according to this word, they have no light.#[f] 21 And each one will pass through the land afflicted and hungry;[g] and because he is hungry and indignant, he will curse his king and his God as he looks upward. 22 Then he will look to the earth and see only distress and darkness, obscurity and hard times, gloom and no brightness.

9 However, the gloom will not be as when the land had distress, as in former times when the land of Zeb′u·lun and the land of Naph′ta·li were treated with contempt.[h] But at a later time He will cause it to be honored—the way by the sea, in the region of the Jordan, Gal′i·lee of the nations.

2 The people who were walking in the darkness
Have seen a great light.
As for those dwelling in the land of deep shadow,
Light has shone on them.[a]
3 You have made the nation populous;
You have made its rejoicing great.
They rejoice before you
As people rejoice in the harvesttime,
As those who joyfully divide up the spoil.
4 For you have shattered to pieces the yoke of their load,
The rod on their shoulders, the staff of the taskmaster,
As in the day of Mid·i·an.[b]
5 Every boot that shakes the earth as it marches
And every garment soaked in blood
Will become fuel for the fire.
6 For a child has been born to us,[c]
A son has been given to us;
And the rulership* will rest on his shoulder.[d]
His name will be called Wonderful Counselor,[e] Mighty God,[f] Eternal Father, Prince of Peace.
7 To the increase of his rulership*
And to peace, there will be no end,[g]
On the throne of David[h] and on his kingdom
In order to establish it firmly[i] and to sustain it Through justice[j] and righteousness,[k]
From now on and forever.
The zeal of Jehovah of armies will do this.
8 Jehovah sent a word against Jacob,
And it has come against Israel.[a] 9 And all the people will know it
—E′phra·im and the inhabitants of Sa·mar′i·a—
Who say in their haughtiness and in their insolence of heart:
10 "Bricks have fallen,
But we will build with hewn stone.[b]
Sycamore trees have been cut down,
But we will replace them with cedars."
11 Jehovah will raise up Re′zin's adversaries against him
And will stir his enemies to action,
12 Syria from the east and the Phi·lis′tines from the west,*[c]
They will devour Israel with open mouths.[d]
In view of all this, his anger has not turned back,
But his hand is still stretched out to strike.[e]
13 For the people have not returned to the One who strikes them;
They have not sought Jehovah of armies.[f]
14 Jehovah will cut off from Israel
Head and tail, shoot and rush,* in one day.[g]
15 The elder and highly respected one is the head,
And the prophet giving false instruction is the tail.[h]
16 Those leading this people are causing them to wander,
And those who are being led are confused.
17 That is why Jehovah will not rejoice over their young men,

9:6, 7 *Or "government; princely rule."

9:12 *Lit., "from behind." 9:14 *Or possibly, "palm branch and reed."

17 Israel's Light[a] will become

It will blaze up and consume

18 He will utterly* do away with

23 Yes, the extermination decided on by the Sovereign
Lord, Jehovah of armies,
Will be carried out in the 24 Therefore this is what the Sovereign Lord, Jehovah of armies, says: "Do not be afraid, my people who are dwelling in Zion, because of the As·syr′i·an, who

He has passed through

At Mich'mash[k] he deposits

They spend the night at

O daughter of Gal'lim!
Pay attention, O La'i·shah!
O poor An'a·thoth![o]

31 Mad·me'nah has run away.
The inhabitants of Ge'bim have sought shelter.

32 This very day he will halt

He shakes his fist at the

The hill of Jerusalem.

33 Look! The true Lord,
Jehovah of armies,
Is chopping off branches

The tallest trees are being

And the lofty are brought 34 He strikes down the thickets

And Leb'a·non will fall by 11 A twig[a] will grow out of

And a sprout[c] from his roots will bear fruit.

2 And the spirit of Jehovah will settle upon him,[d]
The spirit of wisdom[e]
and of understanding,
The spirit of counsel and of mightiness,[f]
The spirit of knowledge and of the fear of Jehovah.

3 And he will find delight in the fear of Jehovah.[g]
He will not judge by what appears to his eyes,
Nor reprove simply according to what his ears hear.[h]

4 He will judge the lowly with fairness,*
And with uprightness he will give reproof in behalf of the meek ones of the earth.
He will strike the earth with the rod of his mouth[i]
And put the wicked to death with the breath# of his lips.[j]

5 Righteousness will be the

And faithfulness the belt of his hips.[k]

13 A pronouncement against Babylon[e] that Isaiah[f] the son of A'moz saw in vision:
2 "Raise up a signal*[g] on a mountain of bare rocks.
Call out to them, wave your
hand,
So that they may come into the entrances of the nobles.
3 I have issued the command to those whom I have appointed.*[h]
I have summoned my warriors to express my anger,
My proudly exultant ones.
4 Listen! A crowd in the

It sounds like a numerous
people!
Listen! The uproar of kingdoms,
Of nations gathered together![i] Jehovah of armies is mustering the army for war.[j] 5 They are coming from a distant land,[k]
From the extremity of the heavens,
Jehovah and the weapons
of his wrath,
To bring ruin to all the earth.[a]
6 Wail, for the day of Jehovah is near!
It will come as a destruction
from the Almighty.[b]
7 That is why all hands will go limp,
And every man's heart will melt with fear.[c]
8 The people are panic-stricken.[d]
They are seized with convulsions and pain,
Like a woman in labor.
They look at one another
in horror,
With faces inflamed by anguish.
9 Look! The day of Jehovah is coming,
Cruel both with fury and
with burning anger,
To make the land an object of horror,[e]
And to annihilate the land's sinners from it.
10 For the stars of the heavens and their constellations*[f]
Will not give off their light;
The sun will be dark when
it rises,
And the moon will not shed
its light.
11 I will call the inhabited earth to account for its badness,[g]
And the wicked for their error.
I will put an end to the pride of the presumptuous,
And I will humble the haughtiness of tyrants.[h]

sess them as male and female

"And I will wipe out from Babylon name and remnant and descendants and posterity,"[b] declares Jehovah.

23 "And I will make her a possession of porcupines and a region of marshes, and I will sweep her with the broom of annihilation,"[c] declares Jehovah of armies.

24 Jehovah of armies has sworn:
"Just as I have intended,
so it will occur,

32 How should they answer the messengers of the nation?
That Jehovah has laid the foundation of Zion,[d]
And that the lowly ones of his people will take refuge
in her.

Because it has been

4 Hesh′bon and E·le·a′leh[a] cry out;
Their voice is heard as far as Ja′haz.[b]
That is why the armed men of Mo′ab keep shouting.
He* is trembling.
5 My heart cries out over Mo′ab.
Its fugitives have fled as far as Zo′ar[c] and Eg′lath-she·li′shi·yah.[d]
On the ascent of Lu′hith they weep as they go up;
On the way to Hor·o·na′im they cry out over the catastrophe.[e]
6 For the waters of Nim′rim are desolate;
The green grass has dried up,
The grass is gone and nothing green is left.
7 That is why they are carrying away what is left of their stores and their riches;
They are crossing the valley* of poplars.
8 For the outcry echoes throughout the territory of Mo′ab.[f]
The wailing reaches to Eg·la′im;
The wailing reaches to Be′er-e′lim.
9 For the waters of Di′mon are full of blood,
And I have more in store for Di′mon:
A lion for those of Mo′ab who escape
And for those remaining in the land.[g]

16 Send a ram to the ruler of the land,
From Se′la through the wilderness
To the mountain of the daughter of Zion.
2 Like a bird chased away from its nest,[h]
So the daughters of Mo′ab will be at the fords of Ar′non.[a] 3 “Offer counsel, carry out the decision.
Make your shadow at high noon like the night.
Conceal the dispersed and do not betray those fleeing.
4 May my dispersed ones reside in you, O Mo′ab.
Become a place of concealment to them because of the destroyer.[b]
The oppressor will reach his end,
The destruction will come to an end,
And those trampling others down will perish from the earth.
5 Then a throne will be firmly established in loyal love.
The one who sits on it in the tent of David will be faithful;[c]
He will judge fairly and will swiftly execute righteousness.”[d]
6 We have heard about the pride of Mo′ab—he is very proud[e]—
His haughtiness and his pride and his fury;[f]
But his empty talk will come to nothing.

They will all wail.[g]

2 The cities of A·ro′er[a] will be abandoned;
They will become places for flocks to lie down
With no one to make them
afraid.
3 Fortified cities will disappear from E′phra·im,[b]
And the kingdom from Damascus;[c]
And those remaining of Syria
Will be like the glory of the Israelites,"* declares
Jehovah of armies.
4 "In that day the glory of Jacob will diminish,
And his healthy body* will grow thin.
5 It will be as when the harvester is gathering the standing grain
And his arm harvests the ears of grain,
Like when one gleans grain in the Valley* of Reph′a·im.[d]
6 Only gleanings will be left,
As when an olive tree is beaten:
Only two or three ripe olives remain on the highest branch,
Only four or five on its fruit-bearing branches,"[e] declares Jehovah the God of Israel.

7 In that day man will look up to his Maker, and his eyes will gaze at the Holy One of Israel. 8 He will not look to the altars,[f] the work of his hands;[g] and he will not gaze at what his fingers have made, either the sacred poles* or the incense stands.

9 In that day his fortress cities will become like an abandoned site in the woodland,[h]

Like a branch that was abandoned before the Israelites;
It will become a wasteland.
10 For you have forgotten the God[a] of your salvation;
You have failed to remember the Rock[b] of your fortress.
That is why you plant beautiful* plantations
And set it with the shoot of a stranger.#
11 In the day you carefully fence in your plantation,
In the morning you make your seed sprout,
But the harvest will vanish in the day of disease and incurable pain.[c] 12 Listen! There is a commotion of many peoples,
Who are as boisterous as the seas!
There is an uproar of nations,
Whose sound is like the roar of mighty waters!
13 The nations will make a sound like the roar of many waters.
He will rebuke them, and they will flee far away,
Chased like the chaff of the mountains before a wind,
Like a whirling thistle* before a storm wind.
14 In the evening there is terror.
Before morning they are no more.
This is the share of those pillaging us
And the lot of those plundering us.

Whose land is washed away by rivers."
3 All you inhabitants of the land and you residents of the earth,
What you see will be like a signal* raised on the mountains,
And you will hear a sound like the blowing of a horn.
4 For this is what Jehovah said to me:
"I will remain undisturbed and look on* my established place,
Like the shimmering heat along with the sunlight,
Like the cloud of dew in the heat of harvest.
5 For before the harvest,
When the blossom is finished and the bloom becomes a ripening grape,
The shoots will be cut off with pruning shears
And the tendrils will be lopped off and removed.
6 They will all be left for the birds of prey of the mountains
And for the beasts of the earth.
The birds of prey will spend the summer on them,
And all the beasts of the earth will spend the harvesttime on them.
7 At that time a gift will be brought to Jehovah of armies,

19 A pronouncement against Egypt:[b]
Look! Jehovah is riding on a swift cloud and is coming into Egypt.
The worthless gods of Egypt will tremble before him,[c]
And the heart of Egypt will melt within it.
2 "I will incite Egyptians against Egyptians,
And they will fight one another,
Each against his brother and his neighbor,
City against city, kingdom against kingdom.
3 And the spirit of Egypt will become bewildered within it,
And I will confuse its plans.[d]
They will resort to the worthless gods,
To the charmers and to the spirit mediums and to the fortune-tellers.[e]
4 I will hand Egypt over to a hard master,
And a harsh king will rule over them,"[f] declares the true Lord, Jehovah of armies.
5 The water of the sea will be dried up,
And the river will become parched and run dry.[g]
6 And the rivers will stink;
The Nile canals of Egypt will become low and parched.
The reeds and the rushes will decay.[a] 7 The plants along the Nile River, at the mouth of the Nile,
And all the land sown with seed along the Nile[b] will dry up.[c]
It will be blown away, and it will be no more.
8 And the fishermen will mourn,
Those casting fishhooks into the Nile will lament,
And those who spread their nets on the water will dwindle.
9 Those who work in combed flax[d]
And those making white fabric on the loom will be put to shame.
10 Her weavers will be crushed;
All the hired workers will grieve.*
11 The princes of Zo'an[e] are foolish.
The wisest advisers of Phar'aoh give unreasonable advice.[f]
How can you say to Phar'aoh:
"I am a descendant of wise ones,
A descendant of ancient kings"?
12 Where, then, are your wise men?[g]
Let them tell you if they know what Jehovah of armies has decided concerning Egypt.
13 The princes of Zo'an have acted foolishly;
The princes of Noph*[h] have been deceived;
The chiefs of her tribes have led Egypt astray.
14 Jehovah has poured out on her a spirit of confusion;[i]

They will feel dread at the mention of it because of the decision that Jehovah of armies has made against them.[b]

18 In that day there will be five cities in the land of Egypt speaking the language of Ca′naan[c] and swearing loyalty to Jehovah of armies. One city will be called The City of Tearing Down.

19 In that day there will be an altar to Jehovah in the middle of the land of Egypt and a pillar to Jehovah at its boundary. 20 It will be for a sign and for a witness to Jehovah of armies in the land of Egypt; for they will cry out to Jehovah because of the oppressors, and he will send them a savior, a grand one, who will save them. 21 And Jehovah will become known to the Egyptians, and the Egyptians will know Jehovah in that day, and they will offer sacrifices and gifts and make a vow to Jehovah and pay it. 22 Jehovah will strike Egypt,[d] striking and healing it; and they will return to Jehovah, and he will respond to their entreaties and heal them.

What is the matter with you that you have all gone up to the roofs?

2 You were full of turmoil,
A boisterous city, an exultant town.
Your slain were not slain with the sword,
Nor did they die in battle.[b]

3 All your dictators have fled together.[c]

The killing of cattle and the slaughtering of sheep,

4 Be ashamed, O Si'don, you stronghold of the sea,
Because the sea has said:
"I have not had birth pains, and I have not given birth, Nor have I brought up young men or raised young women."*[d]
5 As when they heard the report about Egypt,[e]
People will be in anguish over the report about Tyre.[f]
6 Cross over to Tar'shish!
Wail, you inhabitants of the coastland!
7 Is this your city that was exultant from long ago, from her early times?
Her feet used to take her to distant lands to reside.
8 Who has decided this against Tyre,
The bestower of crowns,
Whose merchants were princes,
Whose tradesmen were honored in all the earth?[g]
9 Jehovah of armies himself has decided this,
To profane her pride over all her beauty,
To humiliate all those who were honored throughout the earth.[h]
10 Cross over your land like the Nile River, O daughter of Tar'shish.

23:3 *Lit., "seed." #That is, a branch of the Nile River. 23:4 *Lit., "virgins."

There is no longer any shipyard.*[a] 11 He has stretched his hand out over the sea;
He has shaken kingdoms.
Jehovah has ordered the annihilation of Phoe·ni′cia's strongholds.[b]
12 And he says: "You will exult no more,[c]
O oppressed one, the virgin daughter of Si′don.
Get up, cross over to Kit′tim.[d]
Even there you will find no rest."
13 Look! The land of the Chal·de′ans.[e]
This is the people—As·syr′i·a[f] was not the one—
They made her a place for those haunting the desert.
They have erected their siege towers;
They have stripped bare her fortified towers,[g]
Reducing her to a crumbling ruin.
14 Wail, you ships of Tar′shish,
For your stronghold has been destroyed.[h]

15 In that day Tyre will be forgotten for 70 years,[i] the same as the lifetime* of one king. At the end of 70 years, it will happen to Tyre as in the song of a prostitute:

16 "Take a harp, go around the city, O forgotten prostitute.
Play your harp skillfully;
Sing many songs,
So that they will remember you."

17 At the end of 70 years, Jehovah will turn his attention to Tyre, and she will return to her hire and prostitute herself with all the world's kingdoms on the face of the earth. 18 But her profit and her hire will become something holy to Jehovah. It will not be stored or laid away, because her hire will be for those dwelling before Jehovah, so that they may eat to satisfaction and wear elegant clothing.[a]

24 Look! Jehovah is emptying the land* and making it desolate.[b]
He turns it upside down#[c] and scatters its inhabitants.[d]
2 It will be the same for everyone:
The people as well as the priest,
The servant and his master,
The servant and her mistress,
The buyer and the seller,
The lender and the borrower,
The creditor and the debtor.[e]
3 The land will be completely emptied;
It will be completely plundered,[f]
For Jehovah has spoken this word.
4 The land mourns;*[g] it is wasting away.
The productive land withers; it is fading away.
The prominent people of the land wither.
5 The land has been polluted by its inhabitants,[h]
For they have bypassed the laws,[i] Changed the regulation,[j]
And broken the lasting* covenant.[k]

And very few men are left.[a] 7 The new wine mourns,* the vine withers,[b]
And all those cheerful at heart are sighing.[c]
8 The joy of the tambourines has ceased;
The noise of the revelers has ended;
The happy sound of the harp has ceased.[d]
9 They drink wine without song,
And alcohol tastes bitter to those drinking it.
10 The deserted town is broken down;[e]
Every house is shut up so that no one can enter.
11 They cry out for wine in the streets.
All rejoicing has disappeared;
The joy of the land has gone.[f]
12 The city is left in ruins;
The gate has been crushed to a heap of rubble.[g]
13 For this is how it will be in the land, among the peoples:
As when an olive tree is beaten,[h]
Like the gleaning when the grape harvest comes to an end.[i] 14 They will raise their voice,
They will shout joyfully.
From the sea* they will proclaim the majesty of Jehovah.[j]
15 That is why they will glorify Jehovah in the region of light;*[k]
In the islands of the sea they will glorify the name of Jehovah the God of Israel.[l] 16 From the ends of the earth we hear songs:
"Glory* to the Righteous One!"[a]
But I say: "I am wasting away, I am wasting away!
Woe to me! The treacherous have acted treacherously;
With treachery the treacherous have acted treacherously."[b]
17 Terror and pits and traps await you, inhabitant of the land.[c]
18 Anyone fleeing from the sound of terror will fall into the pit,
And anyone coming up from the pit will be caught in the trap.[d]
For the floodgates above will be opened,
And the foundations of the land will quake.
19 The land has burst apart;
The land has been shaken up;
The land convulses violently.[e]
20 The land staggers like a drunken man,
And it sways back and forth like a hut in the wind.
Its transgression weighs heavily on it,[f]
And it will fall, so that it will not rise up again.
21 In that day Jehovah will turn his attention to the army of the heights above
And to the kings of the earth upon the earth.
22 And they will be gathered together
Like prisoners gathered into a pit,
And they will be shut up in the dungeon;
After many days they will be given attention.
23 The full moon will be abashed,

2 For you have turned a city into a pile of stones,
A fortified town into a crumbling ruin.
The foreigner's tower is a city no more;
It will never be rebuilt.
3 That is why a strong people will glorify you;
The city of tyrannical nations will fear you.[h]
4 For you have become a stronghold to the lowly,
A stronghold to the poor in his distress,[i]
A refuge from the rainstorm,
And a shade from the heat.[j]

So the song of the tyrants is silenced.

For when there are judgments from you for the earth,
The inhabitants of the land learn about righteousness.[a] 10 Even if the wicked is shown favor,
He will not learn righteousness.[b]
Even in the land of uprightness* he will act wickedly,[c]
And he will not see the majesty of Jehovah.[d]
11 O Jehovah, your hand is raised, but they do not see it.[e]
They will see your zeal for your people and be put to shame.
Yes, the fire for your adversaries will consume them.
12 O Jehovah, you will grant us peace,[f]
Because everything we have done
You have accomplished for us.
13 O Jehovah our God, other masters besides you have ruled over us,[g]
But we make mention of your name alone.[h]
14 They are dead; they will not live.
Powerless in death, they will not rise up.[i]
For you have turned your attention to them
To annihilate them and destroy all mention of them.
15 You have enlarged the nation, O Jehovah,
You have enlarged the nation;
You have glorified yourself.[j]
You have greatly extended all the borders of the land.[k]
16 O Jehovah, during distress they turned to you;

26:10 *Or "straightforwardness."

They poured out their prayer in a whisper when you disciplined them.[a] 17 Just as a pregnant woman about to give birth
Has labor pains and cries out
in pain,
So we have been because of
you, O Jehovah.
18 We became pregnant, we had labor pains,
But it is as if we have given birth to wind.
We have not brought salvation to the land,
And no one is born to inhabit
the land.
19 "Your dead will live.
My corpses* will rise up.[b]
Awake and shout joyfully,
You residents in the dust![c]
For your dew is as the dew of the morning,[#]
And the earth will let those powerless in death come to life.[△]
20 Go, my people, enter your inner rooms,
And shut your doors behind
you.[d]
Hide yourself for a brief moment
Until the wrath* has passed by.[e]
21 For look! Jehovah is coming from his place
To call the inhabitants of the land to account for their
error,
And the land will expose her bloodshed
And will no longer cover over her slain."

27 In that day Jehovah, with his harsh and great and strong sword,[f]
Will turn his attention to Le·vi′a·than,* the gliding
serpent,
To Le·vi′a·than, the twisting
serpent,
And he will kill the monster that is in the sea.
2 In that day sing to her:*
"A vineyard of foaming wine![a] 3 I, Jehovah, am safeguarding her.[b]
Every moment I water her.[c]
I safeguard her night and
day,
So that no one may harm
her.[d]
4 There is no wrath in me.[e]
Who will confront me with thornbushes and weeds
in the battle?
I will trample them and set them on fire all together.
5 Otherwise, let him hold fast to my stronghold.
Let him make peace with me;
Peace let him make with me."
6 In the coming days Jacob will take root,
Israel will blossom and sprout,[f]
And they will fill the land with produce.[g]
7 Must he be struck with the stroke of the one striking
him?
Or must he be killed as with the slaughter of his slain?
8 With a startling cry you will contend with her when sending her away.
He will expel her with his fierce blast in the day of the east wind.[h]
9 So in this way the error of Jacob will be atoned for,[i]
And this will be the full fruitage when his sin is taken away:

26:19 *Lit., "A corpse of mine." [#]Or possibly, "the dew of herbs (mallows)." [△]Or "will give birth to those powerless in death." 26:20 *Or "denunciation."

Like a thunderstorm of powerful floodwaters,
He will forcefully hurl it down to the earth.
3 The showy* crowns of the drunkards of E'phra·im
Will be trampled underfoot.[a] 4 And the fading flower of its glorious beauty,
Which is on the head of the fertile valley,
Will become like the early fig before summer.
When someone sees it, he swallows it as soon as it is in his hand.

5 In that day Jehovah of armies will become a glorious crown and a beautiful garland to those left of his people.[b] 6 And he will become a spirit of justice to the one who sits in judgment and a source of mightiness to those who repel the attack at the gate.[c]
7 And these also go astray because of wine;
Their alcoholic beverages make them stagger.
Priest and prophet go astray because of alcohol;
The wine confuses them,
And they stagger from their alcohol;
Their vision makes them go astray,
And they stumble in judgment.[d]
8 For their tables are full of filthy vomit
—There is no place without it.
9 To whom will one impart knowledge,
And to whom will one explain the message?
To those who have just been weaned from milk,

Those just taken away from the breasts?
10 For it is "command after command, command after command,
Line by line, line by line,*[a]
A little here, a little there."
11 So by means of those with stammering speech* and a foreign language, he will speak to this people.[b] 12 He once told them: "This is the resting-place.
Let the weary one rest; this is the place of refreshment," but they refused to listen.[c] 13 So to them the word of Jehovah will be:
"Command after command,
command after command,
Line by line, line by line,*[d]
A little here, a little there,"
So that when they walk,
They will stumble and fall backward
And be broken and ensnared and caught.[e]
14 So hear the word of Jehovah,
you boasters,
You rulers of this people
in Jerusalem, 15 For you men say:

made an agreement.#
When the raging flash flood passes through,
It will not reach us,
For we have made a lie

And we have hidden

Sovereign Lord Jehovah
says:

28:10, 13 *Or "Measuring line upon measuring line, measuring line upon measuring line." 28:11 *Lit., "lip." 28:15, 18 *Or "Sheol," that is, the common grave of mankind. See Glossary. 28:15 #Or possibly, "effected a vision."

That an extermination has been determined for all the land.*[a]

Pay attention and listen to what I say.
24 Does the plower keep plowing all day before he sows seed?
Does he continually break up and harrow his ground?[b]

Does he not then scatter black cumin and sow cumin,
And does he not plant wheat, millet, and barley in their places
And spelt[c] around the edges?

Blind yourselves and be blinded.[c]
They are drunk, but not with wine;
They are staggering, but not from alcohol.
10 For Jehovah has poured a spirit of deep sleep on you;[d]
He has closed your eyes, the prophets,[e]
And he has covered your heads, the visionaries.[f]
11 Every vision becomes for you like the words of a sealed book.[g] When they give it to someone who can read, saying: "Read this out loud, please," he will say: "I cannot, for it is sealed up." 12 And when they give the book to someone who cannot read, saying: "Read this, please," he will say: "I cannot read at all."
13 Jehovah says: "This people approaches me with their mouth
And they honor me with their lips,[h]
But their heart is far removed from me;
And their fear of me is based on commands of men that they have been taught.[a] 14 Therefore, I am the One who will again do wonderful things with this people,[b]
With wonder upon wonder;
And the wisdom of their wise men will perish,
And the understanding of their discreet men will be hidden."[c]
15 Woe to those who go to great lengths to conceal their plans* from Jehovah.[d]
Their deeds are done in a dark place, While they say:
"Who sees us?
Who knows about us?"[e]
16 How you twist things!*
Should the potter be regarded the same as the clay?[f]
Should what is made say about its maker:
"He did not make me"?[g]
And does what is formed say about its former:
"He shows no understanding"?[h]
17 In just a short time, Leb'a·non will be turned into an orchard,[i]
And the orchard will be regarded as a forest.[j]
18 In that day the deaf will hear the words of the book,
And out of the gloom and darkness the eyes of the blind will see.[k]
19 The meek will rejoice greatly in Jehovah,
And the poor among men will be joyful in the Holy One of Israel.[l]
20 For the tyrant will be no more,
The boaster will come to his finish,

29:8 *Or "and his soul is empty." #Or "and his soul is parched."

29:15 *Or "counsel." 29:16 *Or "How perverse of you!"

3 But the protection of humiliation.[a] 4 For his princes are in Zo'an,[b]

And his envoys have reached Ha'nes.
5 They will all be put to shame
By a people who can bring no benefit to them,
Who offer no help and no
benefit,
Only shame and disgrace."[c] 6 A pronouncement against the beasts of the south:
Through the land of distress and hardship,
Of the lion, the roaring lion,
Of the viper and the flying fiery snake,*
They carry their wealth on the backs of donkeys
And their supplies on the humps of camels.
But these things will not benefit the people.
7 For Egypt's help is completely useless.[d]
So I have called this one:
"Ra'hab,[e] who sits still."
8 "Now go, write it on a tablet
in their presence,
And inscribe it in a book,[f]
So that it may serve for a future day
As a permanent witness.[g]
9 For they are a rebellious people,[h] deceitful sons,[i] Sons who are unwilling to 12 Therefore this is what the Holy One of Israel says:

"Since you reject this word[b]
And you trust in fraud and deceit
And you rely on these,[c]
13 So this error will be for you like a broken wall,
Like a bulging high wall
ready to fall.
It will crash suddenly, in an instant.
14 It will be broken like a large potter's jar,
So completely smashed that no fragment among its pieces will be left To rake the fire from the fireplace
Or to scoop water from a puddle."*
15 For this is what the Sovereign Lord Jehovah, the Holy One of Israel, says:
"By returning to me and resting, you will be saved;
Your strength will be in keeping calm and showing trust."[d]
But you were unwilling.[e] 16 Instead, you said: "No, we will flee on horses!"
So flee you will.
"And on swift horses we will ride!"[f]
So those pursuing you will be swift.[g]
17 A thousand will tremble at the threat of one;[h]
At the threat of five you will flee
Until what is left of you is like a mast on the top of a mountain,
Like a signal pole on a hill.[i]

18 But Jehovah is waiting patiently* to show you favor,[a] justice.[c]

Happy are all those keeping in expectation of# him.[d]

19 When the people dwell in Zion, in Jerusalem,[e] you will by no means weep.[f] He will surely show you favor at the sound of your cry for help; he will answer you as soon as he hears it.[g] 20 Though Jehovah will give you bread in the form of distress and water in the form of oppression,[h] your Grand Instructor will no longer hide himself, and you will see your Grand Instructor[i] with your own eyes. 21 And your own ears will hear a word behind you saying, "This is the way.[j] Walk in it," in case you should go to the right or in case you should go to the left.[k]

22 And you will defile the silver overlay of your graven images and the golden plating of your metal statues.[l] You will cast them away like a menstrual cloth and say to them, "Be gone!"#[m] 23 And he will give the rain for the seed you sow in the ground,[n] and the bread that the ground produces will be abundant and rich.[o] In that day your livestock will graze in spacious pastures.[p] 24 And the cattle and the donkeys that work the ground will eat fodder seasoned with sorrel, which was winnowed with the shovel and the pitchfork. 25 And on every tall mountain and on every high hill will be streams and watercourses,[q] in the day of the great slaughter when the towers fall.

30:18 *Or "keeping in expectation." #Or "eagerly waiting for." 30:22 *Or "molten statues." #Or possibly, "and call them filth." 30:23 *Lit., "fat and well-oiled."

26 And the light of the full moon will become like the light of the sun; and the light of the sun will become seven times stronger,[a] like the light of seven days, in the day that Jehovah binds up the breakdown* of his people[b] and heals the severe wound from the blow he inflicted.[c]

27 Look! The name of Jehovah is coming from far away, Burning with his anger and with heavy clouds.
His lips are full of indignation,
And his tongue is like a consuming fire.[d]

28 His spirit* is like a flooding torrent that reaches clear to the neck,
To shake the nations in a sieve of destruction;#
And the peoples will have a bridle in their jaws[e] that leads them astray.

29 But your song will be like the one sung in the night
When you prepare* for a festival,[f]
And your heart will rejoice like one Who walks with# a flute
On his way to the mountain of Jehovah, to the Rock of Israel.[g]

30 Jehovah will make his majestic voice[h] heard
And reveal his arm[i] as it descends in the heat of anger,[j]
With the flame of a consuming fire,[k]
A cloudburst[l] and a thunderstorm and hailstones.[m]

31 For because of the voice of Jehovah, As·syr'i·a will be struck with terror;[n]
He will strike it with a rod.[a]

32 And every swing of his rod of punishment
That Jehovah will bring down on As·syr'i·a
Will be accompanied by tambourines and harps[b]
As he brandishes his arm against them in battle.[c]

33 For his To'pheth*[d] is already prepared;
It is also made ready for the king.[e]
He has made the woodpile deep and wide,
With an abundance of fire and wood.
The breath of Jehovah, like a torrent of sulfur,
Will set fire to it.

31 Woe to those who go down to Egypt for assistance,[f]
Who rely on horses,[g]
Who trust in war chariots because they are numerous,
And in warhorses* because they are mighty.
But they do not look to the Holy One of Israel,
And they do not search for Jehovah.

2 But he is also wise and will bring calamity,
And he will not take back his words.
He will rise up against the house of evildoers
And against those who help wrongdoers.[h]

3 The Egyptians, though, are mere men and not God;
Their horses are flesh and not spirit.[i]

On the people whom
I devoted to destruction.
6 Jehovah has a sword; it will be covered with blood.
It will be covered with the fat,[a]
With the blood of young rams and goats,
With the kidney fat of rams.
For Jehovah has a sacrifice
in Boz'rah,
A great slaughter in the land of E'dom.[b]
7 The wild bulls will go down with them,
The young bulls with the powerful ones.
Their land will be drenched
in blood,
And their dust will be soaked with fat."
8 For Jehovah has a day of vengeance,[c]
A year of retribution for the legal case over Zion.[d] 9 Her* streams will be changed into pitch,
And her dust into sulfur,
And her land will become like burning pitch.
10 By night or by day it will not be extinguished;
Its smoke will keep ascending forever.
From generation to generation she will remain
devastated;
No one will pass through her forever and ever.[e] 11 The pelican and the porcupine will possess her,
And long-eared owls and ravens will reside in her.
He will stretch out over her the measuring line of emptiness
And the plumb line* of desolation.
12 None of her nobles will be called to the kingship,

34:9 *Evidently referring to Bozrah, the capital of Edom. 34:11 *Lit., "the stones."

And all her princes will come to nothing.
13 Thorns will grow in her fortified towers,
Nettles and thorny weeds in her fortresses.
She will become a lair of jackals,[a]
An enclosure for ostriches.
14 Desert creatures will meet up with howling animals,
And the wild goat* will call to its companion.
Yes, there the nightjar will settle and find a place of rest.
15 There the arrow snake will make its nest and lay eggs,
And it will hatch them and gather them in its shadow.
Yes, there the kites will gather, each one with her mate.
16 Search in the book of Jehovah and read it out loud:
Not one of them will be missing;
None of them will be lacking a mate,
For it is the mouth of Jehovah that has given the order,
And it is his spirit that has gathered them together.
17 He is the One who has cast the lot for them,
And his own hand has measured out their assigned place.*
They will possess it for all time;
They will reside in it throughout all generations.

35 The wilderness and the parched land will exult,[b]
And the desert plain will be joyful and blossom as the saffron.*[c]

2 Without fail it will blossom;[a]
It will rejoice and shout for joy.
The glory of Leb′a·non will be given to it,[b]
The splendor of Car′mel[c] and of Shar′on.[d]
They will see the glory of Jehovah, the splendor of our God.
3 Strengthen the weak hands,

Look! Your own God will come with vengeance,

And the thirsty ground springs of water.[l]
In the lairs where jackals rested,[m]
There will be green grass and reeds and papyrus.
8 And a highway will be there,[n]

The unclean one will not travel on it.[o]
It is reserved for the one walking on the way;
No one foolish will stray onto it.

9 No lion will be there,
And no vicious wild beasts will come on it.
They will not be found there;[a]
Only the repurchased ones will walk there.[b]
10 Those redeemed by Jehovah will return[c] and come to Zion with a joyful cry.[d]
Unending joy will crown their heads.[e]
Exultation and rejoicing will be theirs,
And grief and sighing will flee away.[f]

36 In the 14th year of King Hez·e·ki′ah, Sen·nach′er·ib the king of As·syr′i·a[g] came up against all the fortified cities of Judah and captured them.[h] 2 The king of As·syr′i·a then sent the Rab′sha·keh*[i] with a vast army from La′chish[j] to King Hez·e·ki′ah in Jerusalem. They took up a position by the conduit of the upper pool,[k] which is at the highway of the laundryman's field.[l] 3 Then E·li′a·kim[m] son of Hil·ki′ah, who was in charge of the household,* Sheb′·na[n] the secretary, and Jo′ah son of A′saph the recorder came out to him.

4 So the Rab′sha·keh said to them: "Please, say to Hez·e·ki′ah, 'This is what the great king, the king of As·syr′i·a, says: "What is the basis for your confidence?[o] 5 You are saying, 'I have a strategy and the power to wage war,' but these are empty words. In whom have you put trust, so that you dare to rebel against me?[p] 6 Look! You trust in the support of this crushed reed, Egypt, which if a man should lean on it would enter into his palm and pierce it. That is the way Phar′·aoh king of Egypt is to all those who trust in him.[a] 7 And if you should say to me, 'We trust in Jehovah our God,' is he not the one whose high places and altars Hez·e·ki′ah has removed,[b] while he says to Judah and Jerusalem, 'You should bow down before this altar'?"'[c] 8 So now make this wager, please, with my lord the king of As·syr′i·a:[d] I will give you 2,000 horses if you are able to find enough riders for them. 9 How, then, could you drive back even one governor who is the least of my lord's servants, while you put your trust in Egypt for chariots and for horsemen? 10 Now is it without authorization from Jehovah that I have come up against this land to destroy it? Jehovah himself said to me, 'Go up against this land and destroy it.'"

11 At this E·li′a·kim and Sheb′na[e] and Jo′ah said to the Rab′sha·keh:[f] "Speak to your servants, please, in the Ar·a·ma′·ic* language,[g] for we can understand it; do not speak to us in the language of the Jews in the hearing of the people on the wall."[h] 12 But the Rab′sha·keh said: "Is it just to your lord and to you that my lord sent me to speak these words? Is it not also to the men who sit on the wall, those who will eat their own excrement and drink their own urine along with you?"

13 Then the Rab′sha·keh stood and called out loudly in the language of the Jews,[i] saying: "Hear the word of the great king, the king of As·syr′i·a.[j] 14 This is what the king says, 'Do not let Hez·e·ki′ah deceive you, for he is not able to rescue you.[k] 15 And do not let Hez·e·ki′ah cause you to trust in Jehovah[l] by saying: "Jehovah will surely rescue us, and this city will not be given into the hand of the king of As·syr′i·a." 16 Do not listen to Hez·e·ki′ah, for this is what the king of As·syr′i·a says: "Make peace with me and surrender,* and each of you will eat from his own vine and from his own fig tree and will drink the water of his own cistern, 17 until I come and take you to a land like your own land,[a] a land of grain and new wine, a land of bread and vineyards. 18 Do not let Hez·e·ki′ah mislead you by saying, 'Jehovah will rescue us.' 21 But they kept silent and did not say a word to him in reply, for the order of the king was, "You must not answer him."[g] 22 But E·li′a·kim son of Hil·ki′ah, who was in charge of the household,* Sheb′na[h] the secretary, and Jo′ah son of A′saph the recorder came to Hez·e·ki′ah with their garments ripped apart and told him the words of the Rab′sha·keh.

37 As soon as King Hez·e·ki′ah heard this, he ripped his garments apart and covered himself with sackcloth and went into the house of Jehovah.[i] 2 Then he sent E·li′a·kim, who was in charge of the household,* Sheb′na the secretary, and the elders of the priests, covered with sackcloth, to the prophet Isaiah,[j] the son of A′moz. 3 They said to him: "This is what Hez·e·ki′ah says, 'This day is a day of distress, of rebuke,* and of disgrace; for the children are ready to be born,# but there is no strength to give birth.[a] 4 Perhaps Jehovah your God will hear the words of the Rab′sha·keh, whom the king of As·syr′i·a his lord sent to taunt the living God,[b] and he will call him to account for the words that Jehovah your God has heard. So offer up a prayer[c] in behalf of the remnant who have survived.'"[d]

5 So the servants of King Hez·e·ki′ah went in to Isaiah,[e] 6 and Isaiah said to them: "This is what you should say to your lord, 'This is what Jehovah says: "Do not be afraid[f] because of the words that you heard, the words with which the attendants of the king of As·syr′i·a[g] blasphemed me. 7 Here I am putting a thought in his mind,* and he will hear a report and return to his own land;[h] and I will make him fall by the sword in his own land."'"[i]

8 After the Rab′sha·keh heard that the king of As·syr′i·a had pulled away from La′chish, he returned to him and found him fighting against Lib′nah.[j] 9 Now the king heard it said about King Tir·ha′kah of E·thi·o′pi·a: "He has come out to fight against you." When he heard this, he sent messengers again to Hez·e·ki′ah,[k] saying: 10 "This is what you should say to King Hez·e·ki′ah of Judah, 'Do not let your God in whom you trust deceive you by saying: "Jerusalem will not be given into the hand of the king of As·syr′i·a."'[l] 11 Look! The daughter of Jerusalem shakes her head at you.
23 Whom have you taunted[a] and blasphemed?
Against whom have you raised your voice[b]
And lifted your arrogant eyes?
It is against the Holy One of Israel![c]
24 Through your servants you have taunted Jehovah[d] and said,
'With the multitude of my war chariots
I will ascend the heights of mountains,[e]
The remotest parts of Leb′a·non.
I will cut down its lofty cedars, its choice juniper trees.
I will enter its highest retreats, its densest forests.
25 I will dig wells and drink waters;
I will dry up the streams* of Egypt with the soles of my feet.'
26 Have you not heard?
From long ago it was determined.*
From days gone by I have prepared# it.[f]
Now I will bring it about.[g]
You will turn fortified cities into desolate piles of ruins.[h]
27 Their inhabitants will be helpless;
They will be terrified and put to shame.
They will become as vegetation of the field and green grass,
As grass of the roofs that is scorched by the east wind.

37:25 *Or "the Nile canals." 37:26 *Lit., "done." #Or "formed."

28 But I well know when you sit,
when you go out, when you

And when you are enraged

29 Because your rage against me[c] and your roaring have reached my ears.[d]
So I will put my hook in your nose and my bridle[e]
between your lips,
And I will lead you back
the way you came."

30 "'And this will be the sign for you:* This year you will eat what grows on its own;# and in the second year, you will eat grain that sprouts from that; but in the third year you will sow seed and reap, and you will plant vineyards and eat their fruitage.[f] 31 Those of the house of Judah who escape, those who are left,[g] will take root downward and produce fruit upward. 32 For a remnant will go out of Jerusalem and survivors from Mount Zion.[h] The zeal of Jehovah of armies will do this.[i]

33 "'Therefore this is what Jehovah says about the king of As·syr'i·a:[j]

"He will not come into this city[k]
Or shoot an arrow there
Or confront it with a shield
Or cast up a siege rampart against it.'"[l]

34 'By the way he came he will return;
He will not come into this city,' declares Jehovah.
35 'I will defend this city[m] and save it for my own sake[n]
And for the sake of my servant David.'"[o]

36 And the angel of Jehovah went out and struck down 185,000 men in the camp of the As·syr'i·ans. When people rose up early in the morning, they saw all the dead bodies.[a] 37 So King Sen·nach'er·ib of As·syr'i·a departed and returned to Nin'e·veh[b] and stayed there.[c] 38 And as he was bowing down at the house* of his god Nis'roch, his own sons A·dram'me·lech and Shar·e'zer struck him down with the sword[d] and then escaped to the land of Ar'a·rat.[e] And his son E'sar-had'don[f] became king in his place.

38 In those days Hez·e·ki'ah became sick and was at the point of death.[g] The prophet Isaiah[h] the son of A'moz came and said to him, "This is what Jehovah says: 'Give instructions to your household, for you will die; you will not recover.'"[i] 2 At that Hez·e·ki'ah turned his face to the wall and began to pray to Jehovah: 3 "I beg you, O Jehovah, remember,[j] please, how I have walked before you faithfully and with a complete heart,[k] and I have done what was good in your eyes." And Hez·e·ki'ah began to weep profusely.

4 Then the word of Jehovah came to Isaiah, saying: 5 "Go back and say to Hez·e·ki'ah,[l] 'This is what Jehovah the God of David your forefather says: "I have heard your prayer.[m] I have seen your tears.[n] Here I am adding 15 years to your life,[o] 6 and I will rescue you and this city out of the hand of the king of As·syr'i·a, and I will defend this city.[p] 7 This is the sign from Jehovah to show you that Jehovah will carry out the word that he has spoken:[q] 8 Here I will make the declining shadow of the sun on the stairway of A'haz go back ten steps."'"[r] So the sun went back ten steps on the stairway that it had already descended.

9 A writing* of King Hez·e·ki′ah of Judah when he became sick and recovered from his sickness.

10 I said: "In the middle of my life
I must go into the gates of the Grave.*
I will be deprived of my remaining years."

11 I said: "I will not see Jah,*
Jah in the land of the living.[a]
I will look no more on mankind
When I am with the inhabitants of the place where everything ceases.

12 My own dwelling has been pulled out and removed from me[b]
Like the tent of a shepherd.
I have rolled up my life like a loom worker;
He cuts me off like the threads of the warp.
From daylight to nightfall
you keep bringing me to an end.[c]

13 I calm myself until the morning.
Like a lion, he keeps breaking all my bones;
From daylight to nightfall
you keep bringing me to an end.[d]

14 Like the swift or the thrush,*
so I keep chirping;[e]
I keep cooing like the dove.[f]
My eyes look wearily to the height:[g]
'O Jehovah, I am in great
distress;
Be my support!'#[h]

15 What can I say?
He has spoken to me
and acted.
I will walk humbly*
all my years
Because of my bitter
distress.#

16 'O Jehovah, by these things*
every man lives,
And in them is the life of my spirit.
You will restore me to health and preserve me alive.[a]

17 Look! Instead of peace,
I had great bitterness;
But in your fondness for me,*
You preserved me from the pit of destruction.[b]
You have thrown all my sins behind your back.#[c]

18 For the Grave* cannot glorify you,[d]
Death cannot praise you.[e]
Those who go down into the pit cannot hope for your faithfulness.[f]

19 The living, the living can praise you,

21 Isaiah then said: "Bring a cake of pressed dried figs and apply it to the boil, so that he may recover."[j] 22 Hez·e·ki′ah had asked: "What is the sign that I will go up to the house of Jehovah?"[k]

39 At that time the king of Babylon, Mer′o·dach-bal′a·dan son of Bal′a·dan, sent letters and a gift to Hez·e·ki′ah,[l] for he had heard that he had been sick and had recovered.[m]

2 Hez·e·ki′ah gladly welcomed* them and showed them his treasure-house[a]—the silver, the gold, the balsam oil and other precious oil, his whole armory, and everything that was to be found in his treasuries. There was nothing that Hez·e·ki′ah did not show them in his own house# and in all his dominion.

3 After that Isaiah the prophet came in to King Hez·e·ki′ah and asked him: "What did these men say, and where did they come from?" So Hez·e·ki′ah said: "They came from a distant land, from Babylon."[b] 4 Next he asked: "What did they see in your house?"# Hez·e·ki′ah replied: "They saw everything in my house.# There was nothing that I did not show them in my treasuries."

5 Isaiah now said to Hez·e·ki′ah: "Hear the word of Jehovah of armies, 6 'Look! Days are coming, and all that is in your house# and all that your forefathers have stored up to this day will be carried off to Babylon. Nothing will be left,'[c] says Jehovah.[d] 7 'And some of your own sons to whom you will become father will be taken and will become court officials in the palace of the king of Babylon.'"[e]

And the wind carries them away like stubble.[a] 25 "To whom can you liken me to make me his equal?" says the Holy One.
26 "Lift up your eyes to heaven and see.
Who has created these things?[b]
It is the One who brings out their army by number;
He calls them all by name.[c]
Because of his vast dynamic energy and his awe-inspiring power,[d]
Not one of them is missing.
27 Why do you say, O Jacob, and why do you declare, O Israel,
'My way is hidden from Jehovah,
And I receive no justice from God'?[e]

Jehovah, the Creator of the ends of the earth, is a God for all eternity.[f]

29 He gives power to the tired one
And full might to those lacking strength.*[i] 30 Boys will tire out and grow weary,
And young men will stumble and fall,
31 But those hoping in Jehovah will regain power.
They will soar on wings like eagles.[a]
They will run and not grow weary;
They will walk and not tire out."[b]

41 "Listen to me in silence,* you islands;
Let the nations regain their strength.
Let them approach; then let them speak.[c]
Let us come together for judgment.
2 Who has raised up someone from the sunrise,*[d]
Calling him in righteousness to His feet,#
To hand over nations to him
And to make him subdue kings?[e]
Who reduces them to dust before his sword,
Like windblown stubble before his bow?
3 He pursues them, passing along unhindered
Over paths that his feet have not traveled.
4 Who has acted and done this,
Summoning the generations from the beginning?
I, Jehovah, am the First One;[f]
And with the last ones I am the same."[g]

Who is so blind as the one rewarded,
So blind as the servant of Jehovah?[a] 20 You see many things, but you do not keep watch.
You open your ears, but you do not listen.[b]
21 For the sake of his righteousness,
Jehovah has taken pleasure in magnifying the law* and making it glorious.
22 But this is a people plundered and pillaged;[c]
All of them are trapped in the holes and hidden in the prisons.[d]
They have been plundered with no one to rescue them,[e]
And pillaged with no one to say: "Bring them back!"
23 Who among you will hear this?
Who will pay attention and listen for the time to come?
24 Who has given Jacob for pillage
And Israel to the plunderers?
Is it not Jehovah, the One against whom we sinned?
In His ways they refused to walk,
And His law* they would not obey.[f]
25 So He kept pouring out on him wrath,
His anger and the fury of war.[g]
It consumed everything around him, but he paid no attention.[h]
It blazed up against him, but he would not take it to heart.[i]

43 Now this is what Jehovah says,
Your Creator, O Jacob, the One who formed you, O Israel:[j]
"Do not be afraid, for I have repurchased you.[a]
I have called you by your name.
You belong to me.
2 When you pass through the waters, I will be with you,[b]
And through the rivers, they will not flood over you.[c]
When you walk through the fire, you will not be scorched,
Nor will the flame singe you.
3 For I am Jehovah your God,
The Holy One of Israel, your Savior.
I have given Egypt as a ransom for you,
E·thi·o′pi·a and Se′ba in exchange for you.
4 For you became precious in my eyes,[d]
You were honored, and I have loved you.[e]
So I will give people in place of you
And nations in exchange for your life.*

He also warms himself and says:
"Ah! I am warm as I watch the fire."

And their heart has no insight.
19 No one reflects in his heart
Or has knowledge or understanding, saying:
"Half of it I burned up in a fire,
And on its coals I baked bread and roasted meat to eat.
Should I, then, make the rest of it into a detestable thing?[d]
Should I worship a block* of wood from a tree?"

His own deluded heart has led him astray.
He cannot save himself,* nor does he say:

For Jehovah has acted!
Shout in triumph, you depths of the earth!
Shout for joy, you mountains,[e]

24 This is what Jehovah says, your Repurchaser,[g]
Who formed you since you were in the womb:
"I am Jehovah, who made everything.
I stretched out the heavens by myself,[h]
And I spread out the earth.[i]

And completely fulfilling the predictions of his messengers;[l]

And of the cities of Judah, 'They will be rebuilt,[b]
And I will restore her ruins';[c]
27 The One saying to the deep waters, 'Be evaporated,
And I will dry up all your rivers';[d]
28 The One saying of Cyrus,[e] 'He is my shepherd,
And he will completely carry out all my will';[f]
The One saying of Jerusalem, 'She will be rebuilt,'
And of the temple, 'Your foundation will be laid.'"[g]

45 This is what Jehovah says to his anointed one, to Cyrus,[h]
Whose right hand I have taken hold of[i]
To subdue nations before him,[j]
To disarm* kings,
To open before him the double doors,
So that the gates will not be shut:
2 "Before you I will go,[k]

established it,[e]
Who did not create it simply for nothing,* but formed it to be inhabited:[f]

clares what is upright.[h] escapees from the nations.[i] images

And pray to a god that cannot save them.[j]

your case.
Let them consult together
in unity.

And declared it from times past?
Is it not I, Jehovah?
There is no other God
but me;
A righteous God and a Savior,[a] there is none
besides me.[b]
22 Turn to me and be saved,[c] all the ends of the earth,
For I am God, and there is no one else.[d]
23 By myself I have sworn;
The word has gone out of my mouth in righteousness,
And it will not return:[e]
To me every knee will bend, Every tongue will swear
loyalty[f]
24 And say, 'Surely in Jehovah are true righteousness and strength.
All those enraged against him will come before him
in shame.
25 In Jehovah all the offspring* of Israel will prove to be right,[g]
And in him they will make their boast.'"

46 Bel bends down,[h] Ne'bo stoops over.
Their idols are loaded on animals, on beasts of burden,[i] Like baggage that burdens
the weary animals.
2 They stoop and bend down
together;
They cannot rescue the loads,*
And they themselves#
go into captivity.

remain of the house of Israel,[j]

From a distant land the man

I have purposed it, and I will also carry it out.[b] 12 Listen to me, you who are

You who are far away from righteousness.
13 I have brought my righteousness near;
It is not far away,
And my salvation will not delay.[c]
I will grant salvation in Zion,
my splendor to Israel."[d]

47 Come down and sit in the dust,
O virgin daughter of Babylon.[e]
Sit down on the ground
where there is no throne,[f]
O daughter of the
Chal·de'ans,
For never again will people call you delicate and pampered.
2 Take a hand mill and grind flour.
Remove your veil.
Strip off your skirt, uncover your legs.
Cross over the rivers.
3 Your nakedness will be uncovered.
Your shame will be exposed.
I will take vengeance,[g] and no man will stand in my way.*
4 "The One repurchasing us

But you showed them no

Even on the elderly you placed a heavy yoke.[f]
7 You said: "I will always be

You did not take these things

You did not consider how the matter would end.
8 Now hear this, O lover of pleasure,[h]
Who sits in security, who says in her heart:
"I am the one, and there is no one else.[i]
I will not become a widow.
I will never know the loss

In full measure they will come upon you[l]
Because of* your many powerful spells.[m]

10 You trusted in your

You said: "No one sees me."
Your wisdom and knowledge
are what led you astray,
And you say in your heart:
"I am the one, and there is no one else."
11 But calamity will come upon
you,
And none of your charms
will stop it.*

Adversity will befall you; you will not be able to avert it.
Sudden ruin will come upon you like you have never known.[a] 12 Go ahead, then, with your spells and your many sorceries,[b]
With which you have toiled
from your youth.
Perhaps you may be able to benefit;
Perhaps you may strike
people with awe.
13 You have grown weary with the multitude of your advisers.
Let them stand up now and save you,
Those who worship the heavens,* who gaze at the stars,[c]
Those giving out knowledge
at the new moons
About the things that will come upon you.
14 Look! They are like stubble.
A fire will burn them up.
They cannot save themselves* from the power of the flame.
These are not charcoals for keeping warm,
And this is not a fire to sit in front of.
15 So your charmers will become to you,
Those with whom you toiled
from your youth.
They will wander, each one in his own direction.*
There will be no one to save
you.[d]

48 Hear this, O house of Jacob,
You who call yourselves by the name of Israel[e]

47:13 *Or possibly, "Those who divide the heavens; The astrologers." 47:14 *Or "their soul." 47:15 *Lit., "to his own region."

And who have come from the waters of* Judah,
You who swear by the name of Jehovah[a]
And who call on the God of Israel,
Though not in truth and righteousness.[b]
2 For they call themselves after the holy city[c]
And seek the support of the God of Israel,[d]
Whose name is Jehovah of armies.
3 "The former* things I told you long ago.
From my own mouth they went out,
And I made them known.[e]
Suddenly I took action, and they came about.[f] 4 Because I knew how stubborn you are —That your neck is an iron sinew and your forehead is copper[g]— 5 I told you long ago.
Before it came about, I caused you to hear it,
So that you could not say, 'My idol did this;
My carved image and my metal image* commanded this.'
6 You have heard and seen all of this.
Will you not declare it?[h]
From now on I am announcing new things to you,[i] Guarded secrets that you have not known.
7 Only now are they being created, and not long ago,
Things that you never heard before today,
So that you cannot say, 'Look! I already know them.'
8 No, you have not heard,[a] you have not known,
And in the past your ears were not opened.
For I know that you are very treacherous,[b]
And you have been called a transgressor from birth.[c]
9 But for the sake of my name I will hold back my anger;[d]
For my own praise I will restrain myself toward you,
And I will not do away with you.[e]
10 Look! I have refined you, but not in the form of silver.[f]
I have tested* you in the smelting furnace of affliction.[g]
11 For my own sake, for my own sake I will act,[h]
For how could I let myself be profaned?[i]
I give my glory to no one else.*
12 Listen to me, O Jacob, and Israel, whom I have called.
I am the same One.[j] I am the first; I am also the last.[k]
13 My own hand laid the foundation of the earth,[l]
And my right hand spread out the heavens.[m]
When I call to them, they stand up together.
14 Gather together, all of you, and listen.
Who among them has announced these things?
Jehovah has loved him.[n]
He will carry out his delight against Babylon,[o]
And his arm will come against the Chal·de'ans.[p]
15 I myself have spoken, and I have called him.[q]
I have brought him, and his way will be successful.[r]

49 Listen to me, you islands,
And pay attention, you faraway nations.[a] Jehovah has called me before I was born.*[b]
From the time I was in my mother's womb he has made mention of my name.
2 He made my mouth like a sharp sword;
He has hidden me in the shadow of his hand.[c]
He made me a polished arrow;
He concealed me in his quiver.
3 He said to me: "You are my servant, O Israel,[d]
Through whom I will show my splendor."[e]
4 But I said: "I have toiled for nothing.
I used up my strength for an unreality, in vain.
But surely my judgment is with Jehovah,*
And my wages# with my God."[f]
5 And now Jehovah, the One who formed me from the womb as his servant,
Has said for me to bring Jacob back to him,
So that Israel may be gathered to him.[g]
I will be glorified in the eyes of Jehovah,
And my God will have become my strength.
6 And he said: "It is not enough that you are my servant
To raise up the tribes of Jacob
And to bring back those who were preserved of Israel.
I have also given you as a light of nations,[h]

49:1 *Lit., "from the womb." 49:4 *Or "Jehovah will grant me justice." #Or "reward."

So that my salvation may reach the ends of the earth."[a]

7 This is what Jehovah, the Repurchaser of Israel, his Holy One,[b] says to the one who is despised,*[c] to the one who is de-tested by the nation, to the servant of rulers:

"Kings will see and rise up,
And princes will bow down Because of Jehovah, who is faithful,[d]
The Holy One of Israel, who has chosen you."[e]

8 This is what Jehovah says:
"In a time of favor*
I answered you,[f]
And in a day of salvation
I helped you;[g]
I kept safeguarding you to give you as a covenant for the people,[h]
To rehabilitate the land,
To cause them to possess their desolate inheri-tances,[i]

9 To say to the prisoners,
'Come out!'[j]
And to those in the darkness,[k] 'Show yourselves!'
By the roadways they will feed,
Along all the worn paths*
will be their pastures.

10 They will not go hungry,
nor will they thirst,[l]
Nor will scorching heat or the sun beat down on them.[m]
For the One who has mercy on them will lead them,[n]
And he will guide them by the springs of water.[o]

11 I will make all my mountains into a road,
And my highways will be raised up.[p]

Or have no compassion for the son of her womb?
Even if these women forget,
I would never forget you.[i]

16 Look! On my palms I have engraved you.

They are coming to you.

declares Jehovah,
"You will clothe yourself

And you will fasten them on devastated and desolate and your land was in

Since I am a woman bereaved of children and barren,
Exiled and taken prisoner?

So where have these come from?'"[f]

He awakens my ear to listen like the taught ones.[c]

5 The Sovereign Lord Jehovah has opened my ear,

I did not turn in the opposite direction.[e]

6 I offered my back to those striking me
And my cheeks to those who plucked them bare.*
I did not hide my face from humiliating things and from spit.[f]

7 But the Sovereign Lord Jehovah will help me.[g]
That is why I will not feel humiliated.
That is why I have set my face like a flint,[h]

10 Who among you fears Jehovah
And listens to the voice of his servant?[a]
Who has walked in deep darkness, without any brightness?
Let him trust in the name of Jehovah and support himself on* his God.

11 "Look! All of you who are igniting a fire,
Making sparks fly,
Walk in the light of your fire,
Among the sparks you have set ablaze.
This is what you will have from my hand:
In sheer pain you will lie down.

51 "Listen to me, you who are pursuing righteousness,
You who are seeking Jehovah.

And to the quarry from which you were dug.

2 Look to Abraham your father
And to Sarah[b] who gave birth to you.*
For he was only one when I called him,[c]
And I blessed him and made him many.[d]

3 For Jehovah will comfort Zion.[e]

Was it not you who broke Ra'hab*[a] to pieces,
Who pierced the sea monster?[b]
10 Are you not the one who dried up the sea, the waters of the vast deep?[c]
The one who made the depths of the sea a roadway for the repurchased ones to cross?[d]
11 The redeemed ones of Jehovah will return.[e]
They will come to Zion with a joyful cry,[f]
And unending joy will crown them.*[g]
Exultation and rejoicing will be theirs,
And grief and sighing will flee away.[h]
12 "I myself am the One comforting you.[i]
Why should you be afraid of a mortal man who will die[j]
And of a son of man who will wither like green grass?
13 Why do you forget Jehovah your Maker,[k]
The One who stretched out the heavens[l] and laid the foundation of the earth?
And all day long you were in constant fear of the rage of the oppressor,*
As though he were in a position to bring you to ruin.
Where, now, is the rage of the oppressor?
14 The one bent over in chains will soon be set free;[m]
He will not die and go into the pit,
Nor will his bread be lacking.
15 But I am Jehovah your God,
Who stirs up the sea and makes its waves boisterous[n]
—Jehovah of armies is his name.[o]

51:9 *See Glossary. 51:11 *Lit., "be upon their head." 51:13 *Or "the one hemming you in."

16 I will put my words in your mouth,
And with the shadow of my hand I will cover you,[a]
In order to plant the heavens and to lay the foundation of the earth[b]
And to say to Zion, 'You are my people.'[c]
17 Awake! Awake! Rise up, O Jerusalem,[d]
You who have drunk from the hand of Jehovah his cup of wrath.
You have drunk the goblet;
You have drained out the cup causing staggering.[e]
18 Not one of all the sons whom she bore is there to guide her,
And not one of all the sons whom she raised has taken hold of her hand.
19 These two things have befallen you.
Who will sympathize with you?
Destruction and devastation, hunger and sword![f]
Who will comfort you?[g]
20 Your sons have fainted.[h]
They lie down at every street corner*
Like wild sheep in the net.
They are full of the wrath of Jehovah, the rebuke of your God."
21 So please listen to this,
O woman afflicted and drunk, though not with wine.
22 This is what your Lord Jehovah says, your God who defends his people:
"Look! I will take from your hand the cup causing staggering,[i]
The goblet, my cup of wrath;
You will never drink it again.[j]

52 Awake! Awake! Clothe yourself with strength,[b] O Zion![c]
Put on your beautiful garments,[d] O Jerusalem, the holy city!
For no more will the uncircumcised and unclean one enter into you.[e]
2 Shake off the dust, rise and take a seat, O Jerusalem.
Loosen the bonds on your neck, O captive daughter of Zion.[f]
3 For this is what Jehovah says:
"You were sold for nothing,[g]
And without money you will be repurchased."[h]
4 For this is what the Sovereign Lord Jehovah says:
"At first my people went down to Egypt to live there as foreigners;[i] Then As·syr'i·a oppressed them without cause."
5 "What, then, should I do here?" declares Jehovah.
"For my people were taken for nothing.

14 Just as there were many who stared at him in amazement —For his appearance was disfigured more than that of any other man
And his stately form more than that of mankind—
15 So he will startle many nations.[a]
Kings will shut their mouths* before him,[b]
Because they will see what they had not been told
And give consideration to what they had not heard.[c]

53 Who has put faith in the thing heard from us?*[d]
And as for the arm of Jehovah,[e] to whom has it been revealed?[f]
2 He will come up like a twig[g] before him,* like a root out of parched land.
No stately form does he have, nor any splendor;[h]
And when we see him, his appearance does not draw us to him.#
3 He was despised and was avoided by men,[i]
A man who was meant for* pains and was familiar with sickness.
It was as if his face were hidden from us.#
He was despised, and we held him as of no account.[j]
4 Truly he himself carried our sicknesses,[k]
And he bore our pains.[l]
But we considered him as plagued, stricken by God and afflicted.

52:15 *Or "will be speechless." 53:1 *Or possibly, "in what we heard?" 53:2 *"Him" could refer to an observer in general or to God. #Or "there is no special appearance that we should desire him." 53:3 *Or "who understood." #Or possibly, "He was like someone from whom people turned their faces."

5 But he was pierced[a] for our transgression;[b]
He was crushed for our errors.[c]
He bore the punishment for our peace,[d]
And because of his wounds we were healed.[e]
6 Like sheep we have all wandered about,[f]
Each has turned his own way,
And Jehovah has caused the error of us all to meet up with him.[g]
7 He was oppressed[h] and he let himself be afflicted,[i]
But he would not open his mouth.
He was brought like a sheep to the slaughter,[j]
Like a ewe that is silent before its shearers,
And he would not open his mouth.[k]
8 Because of restraint* and judgment he was taken away;
And who will concern himself with the details of his generation?#
For he was cut off from the land of the living;[l]
Because of the transgression of my people he received the stroke.△[m]
9 And he was given a burial place* with the wicked,[n]
And with the rich# in his death,[o]
Although he had done no wrong△
And there was no deception in his mouth.[p]
10 But it was Jehovah's will* to crush him, and he let him become sick.
If you will present his life* as a guilt offering,[a]
He will see his offspring,# he will prolong his days,[b]
And through him the delight△ of Jehovah will have success.[c]
11 Because of his anguish,* he will see and be satisfied.
By means of his knowledge the righteous one, my servant,[d]
Will bring a righteous standing to many people,[e]
And their errors he will bear.[f]
12 For that reason I will assign him a portion among the many,
And he will apportion the spoil with the mighty,
Because he poured out his life* even to death[g]
And was counted among the transgressors;[h]
He carried the sin of many people,[i]
And he interceded for the transgressors.[j]

54 "Shout joyfully, you barren woman who has not given birth![k]
Become cheerful and cry out for joy,[l] you who never had birth pains,[m]
For the sons* of the desolate one are more numerous Than the sons of the woman with a husband,"#[n] says Jehovah.
2 "Make the place of your tent more spacious.[o]
Stretch out the tent cloths of your grand tabernacle.
Do not hold back, lengthen your tent cords,
And make your tent pins strong.[p]

53:8 *Or "oppression." #Or "his manner of life?" △Or "was struck dead." 53:9 *Or "And one will give his burial place." #Lit., "a rich man." △Or "no violence." 53:10 *Or "But Jehovah took delight."

And my righteousness will be revealed.[d] 2 Happy is the man who does
this
And the son of man who

5 "I will give to them in my house and within my walls
a monument and a name, Something better than sons and daughters.
An everlasting name I will give them,
One that will not perish.
6 As for the foreigners who join themselves to Jehovah

To love the name of Jehovah[g]
And to be his servants,
All those who keep the Sabbath and do not profane it
And who hold fast to my

7 I will also bring them to my

And make them rejoice

For my house will be called

Are you not the children of transgression,
The children of deceit,[b]
5 Those who are inflamed with passion among big trees,[c]
Under every luxuriant tree,[d]
Who slaughter the children in the valleys,*[e]
Under the clefts of the crags?
6 With the smooth stones of the valley* is your portion.[f]
Yes, these are your lot.
Even to them you pour out drink offerings and offer gifts.[g]
Should I be satisfied# with these things?
7 On a mountain high and lofty you prepared your bed,[h]
And you went up there to offer sacrifice.[i]
8 Behind the door and the doorpost you set up your memorial.
You left me and uncovered yourself;
You went up and made your bed spacious.
And you made a covenant with them.
You loved sharing their bed,[a]
And you gazed at the male organ.*
9 You went down to Mel'ech* with oil
And with an abundance of perfume.
You sent your envoys far off,
So that you descended to the Grave.#
10 You have toiled in following your many ways,
But you did not say, 'It is hopeless!'
You found renewed strength.
That is why you do not give up.*
11 Whom did you dread and fear
So that you started to lie?[b]
You did not remember me.[c]
You took nothing to heart.[d]
Have I not kept silent and withdrawn?*[e]
So you showed no fear of me.
12 I will make known your 'righteousness'[f] and your works,[g]
And they will not benefit you.[h]
13 When you cry for help,
Your collection of idols will not rescue you.[i]
A wind will carry all of them away,
A mere breath will blow them away,
But the one who takes refuge in me will inherit the land
And will take possession of my holy mountain.[j] 14 It will be said, 'Build up, build up a road! Prepare the way![k]

Proclaim to my people their revolt,[a]
To the house of Jacob their sins.
2 They seek me day after day,
And they express delight to know my ways,
As if they were a nation that had practiced righteousness
And had not abandoned the justice of their God.[b]
They ask me for righteous judgments,
Delighting to draw close to God:[c]
3 'Why do you not see when we fast?[d]
And why do you not notice when we afflict ourselves?'*[e]
Because on the day of your fast, you pursue your own interests,#
And you oppress your laborers.[f]
4 Your fasting ends in quarrels and fights,
And you strike with the fist
of wickedness.
You cannot fast as you do today and have your voice heard in heaven.
5 Should the fast that I choose be like this,
As a day for someone to afflict himself,*
To bow down his head like
a rush,
To make his bed on sackcloth
and ashes?
Is this what you call a fast and a day pleasing to Jehovah?
6 No, this is the fast that I choose:

58:3 *Or "our soul?" #Or "delight." 58:5 *Or "his soul."

To remove the fetters of wickedness,
To untie the bands of the yoke bar,[a]
To let the oppressed go free,[b]
And to break in half every yoke bar;
7 It is to share your bread with the hungry,[c]
To bring the poor and homeless into your house,
To clothe someone naked when you see him,[d]
And not to turn your back on your own flesh.
8 Then your light will shine through like the dawn,[e]
And your healing will spring up quickly.
Your righteousness will go before you,
And the glory of Jehovah will be your rear guard.[f]
9 Then you will call, and Jehovah will answer;
You will cry for help, and he will say, 'Here I am!'
If you remove from among you the yoke bar
And stop pointing your finger and speaking maliciously,[g]
10 If you grant to the hungry what you yourself desire*[h]
And satisfy those who are afflicted,#
Then your light will shine even in the darkness,
And your gloom will be like midday.[i]
11 Jehovah will always lead you
And satisfy you* even in a parched land;[j]
He will invigorate your bones,
And you will become like a well-watered garden,[k]
Like a spring whose waters never fail.

13 If because of the Sabbath you refrain* from pursuing your own interests# on my holy day[d]
And you call the Sabbath an exquisite delight, a holy day of Jehovah, a day to be glorified,[e]
And you glorify it rather than pursuing your own interests and speaking idle words, 14 Then you will find your exquisite delight in Jehovah,
And I will make you ride on the high places of the earth.[f]
I will cause you to eat from* the inheritance of Jacob your forefather,[g]
For the mouth of Jehovah has spoken."

59 Look! The hand of Jehovah is not too short to save,[h]
Nor is his ear too dull* to hear.[i]
2 No, your own errors have separated you from your God.[j]
Your sins have made him hide his face from you,
And he refuses to hear you.[k]
3 For your palms are polluted with blood[l]
And your fingers with error.
Your lips speak lies,[m]
and your tongue mutters unrighteousness.

4 No one calls out for righteousness,[a]
And no one goes to court
in truthfulness.
They trust in unreality*[b] and speak what is worthless.
They conceive trouble and give birth to what is harmful.[c]
5 They hatch the eggs of a poisonous snake,
And they weave the cobweb
of a spider.[d]
Anyone who eats their eggs
would die,
And the egg that is crushed
hatches a viper.
6 Their cobweb will not serve as a garment,
Nor will they cover themselves with what they make.[e]
Their works are harmful,
And deeds of violence are in their hands.[f]
7 Their feet run to do evil,
And they hurry to shed innocent blood.[g]
Their thoughts are harmful thoughts;
Ruin and misery are in their ways.[h]
8 They have not known the way of peace,
And there is no justice in their tracks.[i]
They make their roadways
crooked;
No one treading on them
will know peace.[j] 9 That is why justice is far away from us,
And righteousness does not overtake us.
We keep hoping for light, but look! there is darkness;
For brightness, but we keep walking in gloom.[k] 10 We grope for the wall like blind men;
Like those without eyes we keep groping.[a]
We stumble at high noon as in evening darkness;
Among the strong we are just like the dead.
11 We all keep growling like bears
And cooing mournfully like doves.
We hope for justice, but there is none;
For salvation, but it is far
away from us.
12 For our revolts are many before you;[b]
Each of our sins testifies against us.[c]
For our revolts are with us;
We well know our errors.[d] 13 We have transgressed and denied Jehovah;
We have turned our backs
on our God.
We have spoken of oppression and revolt;[e]
We have conceived lies and muttered false words from the heart.[f]
14 Justice is driven back,[g]
And righteousness stands far off;[h]
For truth* has stumbled in the public square,
And what is upright is unable to enter.
15 Truth* has vanished,[i]
And anyone who turns away from bad is plundered.
Jehovah saw this and was displeased,#
For there was no justice.[j]
16 He saw that there was no man,
And he was astonished that no one interceded,
So his own arm brought about salvation,*

6 Upon your walls, O Jerusalem, I have commissioned watchmen.
Continuously, all day long and all night long, they should not be silent.
You who make mention of Jehovah,
Do not rest,
7 And do not give him any rest until he firmly establishes
Jerusalem,
Yes, until he makes her the praise of the earth."[a] 8 Jehovah has sworn an oath with his right hand,
with his strong arm:
"I will no longer give your grain as food to your enemies,
Nor will foreigners drink your new wine, for which you have toiled.[b] 9 But those gathering it will eat it and they will praise
Jehovah;
And those collecting it will drink it in my holy courtyards."[c]
10 Pass through, pass through the gates.
Clear the way for the people.[d]
Build up, build up the highway.
Rid it of stones.[e]
Raise up a signal* for the peoples.[f]
11 Look! Jehovah has proclaimed to the ends of the earth:
"Say to the daughter of Zion,
'Look! Your salvation is coming.[g]
Look! His reward is with him,
And the wage he pays is before him.'"[h]
12 They will be called the holy people, those repurchased by Jehovah,[i]

62:10 *Or "signal pole."

And you will be called Sought After, a City
Not Abandoned.[a]

63 Who is this coming from E′dom,[b]
From Boz′rah[c] with bright-colored* garments,
This one with splendid clothing,
Marching in his great power?
"It is I, the One speaking in righteousness,
The One with great power to save."
2 Why is your clothing red,
And why are your garments like those of one treading the winepress?[d]
3 "I have trodden the wine trough alone.
No one from the peoples was with me.
I kept treading them in my anger,
And I kept trampling them in my wrath.[e]
My garments were spattered with their blood,
And I have stained all my clothing.
4 For the day of vengeance is in my heart,[f]
And the year of my repurchased ones has come.
5 I looked, but there was no one to help;
I was appalled that no one offered support.
So my arm brought me salvation,*[g]
And my own wrath supported me.
6 I trampled peoples in my anger,
I made them drunk with my wrath[h]
And poured out their blood on the ground."
7 I will mention Jehovah's acts of loyal love,
The praiseworthy acts of Jehovah,
Because of all that Jehovah has done for us,[a]
The many good things he has done for the house of Israel,
According to his mercy and his great loyal love.
8 For he said: "Surely they are my people, sons who will not be disloyal."*[b]
So he became their Savior.[c]
9 During all their distress it was distressing to him.[d]
And his own personal messenger* saved them.[e]
In his love and compassion he repurchased them,[f]
And he lifted them up and carried them all the days of old.[g]
10 But they rebelled[h] and grieved his holy spirit.[i]
He then turned into their enemy,[j]
And he fought against them.[k]
11 And they remembered the days of old,
The days of Moses his servant:
"Where is the One who brought them up out of the sea[l] with the shepherds of his flock?[m]
Where is the One who put within him His holy spirit,[n]
12 The One who made His glorious arm go with the right hand of Moses,[o]
The One who split the waters before them[p]
To make an everlasting name for himself,[q]
13 The One who made them walk through the surging waters,*
So that they walked without stumbling,

63:1 *Or possibly, "bright-red." 63:5 *Or "victory." 63:8 *Or "prove false." 63:9 *Or "the angel of his presence." 63:13 *Or "deep waters."

Like those never called by your name.
64 If only you had ripped the heavens apart and come down,
So that the mountains would quake because of you,
2 As when a fire ignites the brushwood,
And the fire makes the water boil,
Then your name would be known to your adversaries,
And the nations would tremble before you!
3 When you did awe-inspiring things that we dared not hope for,[a]
You came down, and the mountains quaked before you.[b]
4 From of old no one has heard or given ear,
Nor has any eye seen a God except you,
Who acts in behalf of those who keep in expectation of* him.[c]
5 You have met up with those who joyfully do what is right,[d]
Those who remember you and follow your ways.
Look! You became indignant, while we kept sinning,[e]
We did so for a long time.
Should we now be saved?
6 And we have all become like someone unclean,
And all our acts of righteousness are like a menstrual cloth.[f]
We will all wither like a leaf,
And our errors will carry us off like the wind.
7 There is no one calling on your name,
No one who stirs himself to take hold of you,

64:4 *Or "patiently wait for."

For you have hidden your face from us,[a]
And you cause us to waste away* because of# our error.
8 But now, O Jehovah, you are our Father.[b]
We are the clay, and you are our Potter;*[c]
We are all the work of your hand.
9 Do not become too indignant, O Jehovah,[d]
And do not remember our error forever.
Look at us, please, for we are all your people.
10 Your holy cities have become a wilderness.
Zion has become a wilderness,
Jerusalem a wasteland.[e]
11 Our house* of holiness and glory,#
Where our forefathers praised you,
Has been burned with fire,[f]
And all the things we cherished lie in ruins.
12 In view of this, will you still restrain yourself, O Jehovah?
Will you remain silent and let us be afflicted so severely?[g]

65 "I have let myself be searched for by those who did not ask for me;
I have let myself be found by those who did not look for me.[h]
I said, 'Here I am, here I am!' to a nation that was not calling on my name.[i]

Following their own thoughts;[b]
3 A people who constantly offend me to my face,[c]
Sacrificing in gardens[d] and making sacrificial smoke on bricks.
4 They sit among graves,[e]
And they pass the night in hidden places,*
Eating the flesh of pigs,[f]
And the broth of foul# things is in their vessels.[g]
5 They say, 'Keep to yourself; do not approach me,
For I am holier than you.'*
These are a smoke in my nostrils, a fire burning all day long.
6 Look! It is written before me;
I will not stand still,
But I will repay them,[h]
I will repay them in full measure*
7 For their errors and for the errors of their forefathers as well,"[i] says Jehovah.
"Because they have made sacrificial smoke on the mountains
And have reproached me on the hills,[j]
I will first measure out their wages in full."*
8 This is what Jehovah says:
"Just as when new wine is found in a cluster of grapes
And someone says, 'Do not destroy it, for there is some good* in it,'
So I will do for the sake of my servants;
I will not destroy them all.[k]
9 I will bring out of Jacob an offspring*

exultation.[f]

It is the sound of Jehovah repaying his enemies what they deserve.

Before birth pangs came to her, she delivered a male child.
8 Who has ever heard of such a thing?
Who has seen such things?
Will a land be brought to birth in one day?
Or will a nation be born all at once?
Yet, as soon as Zion went into labor, she gave birth to her sons.

1 These are the words of Jeremiah* the son of Hil·ki'ah, one of the priests in An'a·thoth[a] in the land of Benjamin. 2 The word of Jehovah came to him in the days of Jo·si'ah[b] the son of A'mon,[a] the king of Judah, in the 13th year of his reign. 3 It came also in the days of Je·hoi'a·kim[b] the son of Jo·si'ah, the king of Judah, until the completion of the 11th year of Zed·e·ki'ah[c] the son of Jo·si'ah, the king of Judah, until Jerusalem went into exile in the fifth month.[d]

4 The word of Jehovah came to me, saying:

5 "Before I formed you in the womb I knew* you,[a]
And before you were born# I sanctified you.[△b]
I made you a prophet to the nations."

6 But I said: "Alas, O Sovereign Lord Jehovah!
I do not know how to speak,[c] for I am just a boy."*[d]

7 Jehovah then said to me:
"Do not say, 'I am just a boy.'
For you must go to all those to whom I send you,
And you should say everything that I command you.[e]

8 Do not be afraid because of their appearance,[f]
For 'I am with you to save you,'[g] declares Jehovah."

9 Then Jehovah stretched out his hand and touched my mouth.[h] And Jehovah said to me: "I have put my words in your mouth.[i] 10 See, I have commissioned you this day to be over the nations and over the kingdoms, to uproot and to pull down, to destroy and to tear down, to build and to plant."[j]

11 The word of Jehovah again came to me, saying: "What do you see, Jeremiah?" So I said: "I see the branch of an almond tree."*

12 Jehovah said to me: "You have seen correctly, for I am wide awake concerning my word to carry it out."

13 The word of Jehovah came to me a second time, saying: "What do you see?" So I said: "I see a boiling* pot,# and its mouth is tilted away from the north." 14 Then Jehovah said to me:

"Out of the north the calamity will break loose
Against all the inhabitants of the land.[a]

15 For 'I am summoning all the families of the kingdoms of the north,' declares Jehovah,[b]
'And they will come; each one will set up his throne
At the entrance of the gates of Jerusalem,[c]
Against her walls all around
And against all the cities of Judah.[d]

16 And I will declare my judgments against them over all their wickedness, Because they have abandoned me,[e]
And they are making sacrificial smoke to other gods[f]
And bowing down to the works of their own hands.'[g]

17 But you should prepare for action,*
And you must stand up and tell them everything that I command you.
Do not be terrified of them,[h]
So that I do not terrify you before them.

18 For today I have made you a fortified city,
An iron pillar, and copper walls against all the land,[i]
Toward the kings of Judah and her princes,
Toward her priests and the people of the land.[j]

19 And they will certainly fight against you,
But they will not prevail against you,*
For 'I am with you,'[k] declares Jehovah, 'to save you.'"

"I well remember the devotion* of your youth,[a]

3 Israel was holy to Jehovah,[d] the firstfruits of his harvest."'
'Anyone devouring him would become guilty.
Disaster would come upon them,' declares Jehovah."[e]
4 Hear the word of Jehovah, O house of Jacob,
And all you families of the house of Israel.
5 This is what Jehovah says:
"What fault did your forefathers find in me,[f]
So that they strayed so far from me,
And they walked after worthless idols[g] and became worthless themselves?[h]
6 They did not ask, 'Where is Jehovah,
The One who brought us out of the land of Egypt,[i]
Who led us through the wilderness,
Through a land of deserts[j] and pits,
Through a land of drought[k] and of deep shadow,
Through a land where no man travels
And where no humans dwell?'
7 I then brought you to a land of orchards,
To eat its fruitage and its good things.[l]
But you came in and defiled my land;
You made my inheritance something detestable.[a] 8 The priests did not ask, 'Where is Jehovah?'[b]
Those handling the Law did not know me,
The shepherds rebelled against me,[c]
The prophets prophesied by Ba'al,[d]
And they followed those who could bring no benefit.
9 'So I will contend further with you,'[e] declares Jehovah,
'And I will contend with the sons of your sons.'
10 'But cross over to the coastlands* of the Kit'tim[f] and see.
Yes, send to Ke'dar[g] and consider carefully;
See whether anything like this has happened.
11 Has a nation ever changed its gods for those that are not gods?
But my own people have exchanged my glory for what is useless.[h]
12 Stare in amazement at this, you heavens;
Shudder in absolute horror,' declares Jehovah,
13 'Because my people have done two bad things:
They have abandoned me, the source of living water,[i]
And dug* for themselves cisterns,
Broken cisterns, that cannot hold water.'
14 'Is Israel a servant or a slave born in the household?

15 Against him young lions* roar;[a]
They have raised their voice.
They made his land an object of horror.
His cities have been set on fire, so that there is no inhabitant.
16 The people of Noph*[b] and Tah·pan·es[c] feed on the crown of your head.
17 Have you not brought this on yourself
By abandoning Jehovah your God[d]
While he was leading you in the way?
18 Now why do you wish for the way to Egypt[e]
To drink the waters of Shi'hor?*
Why do you wish for the way to As·syr'i·a[f]
To drink the waters of the River?#
19 Your wickedness should correct you,
And your own unfaithfulness should reprove you.
Know and realize how bad and bitter it is[g]
To abandon Jehovah your God;
You have shown no fear of me,'[h] declares the Sovereign Lord, Jehovah of armies.
20 'For long ago I smashed your yoke[i]
And tore off your shackles.
But you said: "I am not going to serve,"
For on every high hill and under every luxuriant tree[j]
You were lying sprawled out, prostituting yourself.[k]
21 I planted you as a choice red vine,[l] all of it pure seed;
So how have you turned into the degenerate shoots of a foreign vine before me?'[a]
22 'Though you should wash with soda* and use much lye,#
Your guilt would still be a stain before me,'[b] declares the Sovereign Lord Jehovah.
23 How can you say, 'I have not defiled myself.
I have not followed the Ba'als'?
Look at your way in the valley.
Consider what you have done.
You are like a swift, young she-camel,
Aimlessly running back and forth in her ways,
24 A wild donkey accustomed to the wilderness,
Sniffing the wind in her lust.*
Who can restrain her when she is in heat?
None of those looking for her will need to weary themselves.
In her season# they will find her.
25 Keep your feet from going bare
And your throat from thirst.
But you said, 'It is hopeless![c]
No! I have fallen in love with strangers,*[d]
And I will follow them.'[e]

28 Now where are your gods that you made for yourself?[c]
Let them rise up if they can save you in your time of calamity,
For your gods have become as numerous as your cities, O Judah.[d]

29 'Why do you keep contending against me?
Why have all of you rebelled against me?'[e] declares Jehovah.

30 I have struck your sons in vain.[f]
They would accept no discipline;[g]

It is on all your skirts.[b]

For Jehovah has rejected those in whom you put confidence;
They will not bring you success."

I will heal your renegade condition."[d]
"Here we are! We have come to you,
For you, O Jehovah, are our God.[e]

23 Truly the hills and the turmoil on the mountains are a delusion.[f]
Truly in Jehovah our God is the salvation of Israel.[g]

24 But the shameful thing* has consumed the toil of our forefathers since our youth,[h]
Their flocks and their herds,
Their sons and their daughters.

25 Let us lie down in our shame,
And let our disgrace cover us,
For we have sinned against Jehovah our God,[i]
We and our fathers since our youth until this day,[j]
And we have not obeyed the voice of Jehovah our God."

4 "If you will return, O Israel," declares Jehovah,
"If you will return to me
And if you will remove your disgusting idols from before me,
Then you will not be a fugitive.[a]

2 And if you swear,
'As surely as Jehovah is alive!' in truth, justice, and righteousness,
Then the nations will obtain a blessing for themselves by him,
And in him they will boast."[b]

3 For this is what Jehovah says to the men of Judah and to Jerusalem:
"Plow for yourselves arable land,
And do not keep sowing among thorns.[c]

4 Circumcise yourselves to Jehovah,
And remove the foreskins of your hearts,[d]
You men of Judah and inhabitants of Jerusalem,
So that my wrath may not blaze up like a fire
And burn with no one to extinguish it,
Because of your evil deeds."[e]

5 Declare it in Judah, and proclaim it in Jerusalem.
Shout and blow a horn throughout the land.[f]
Call out loudly and say:
"Gather together,
And let us flee into the fortified cities.[g]

6 Raise a signal* toward Zion.
Seek shelter, and do not stand still,"
For I am bringing in calamity from the north,[h] a great crash.

7 He has emerged like a lion from his thicket;[i]
The destroyer of nations has set out.[j]

15 For a voice tells the news

Proclaim it against

"Sentinels* are coming from

And they will raise their voices against the cities of Judah.
17 They come against her on all sides like guards of the open field,[b]
Because she has rebelled against me,"[c] declares
Jehovah.
18 "Your own ways and your actions will be brought upon you.[d]
How bitter is your disaster,
For it reaches clear to your heart!"
19 O my anguish,* my anguish!
I feel great pain in my very heart.#
My heart pounds within me.
I cannot keep silent,
For I have△ heard the sound of the horn,
The alarm signal of war.☒[e] 20 Disaster after disaster has been reported,
For the whole land has been destroyed.
Suddenly my own tents are
destroyed,
In a moment my tent cloths.[f]
21 How long will I keep seeing the signal,*

4:16 *Lit., "Watchers," that is, those watching the city to determine when to attack. 4:19 *Lit., "my intestines." #Lit., "in the walls of my heart." △Or "my soul has." ☒Or possibly, "the sound of the battle cry." 4:21 *Or "signal pole."

Keep hearing the sound of the horn?[a] 22 For my people are foolish;[b]
They take no note of me.
They are stupid sons, with no understanding.
They are clever* enough
when it comes to doing bad,
But they do not know how to do good.
23 I saw the land, and look! it was empty and desolate.[c]
I looked at the heavens, and their light was no more.[d] 24 I saw the mountains, and look! they were quaking,
And the hills were shaking.[e] 25 I saw, and look! there was no man,
And the birds of the heavens had all fled.[f]
26 I saw, and look! the orchard had become a wilderness,
And its cities had all been torn down.[g]
It was because of Jehovah,
Because of his burning anger.
27 For this is what Jehovah says: "The whole land will become desolate,[h]
But I will not carry out a complete extermination.
28 For this reason the land will mourn,[i]
And the heavens above will become dark.[j]
It is because I have spoken,
I have decided,
And I will not change my mind,* nor will I turn back from it.[k]
29 At the sound of the horsemen and the archers,
The entire city flees.[l]
They enter into the thickets,
And they climb the rocks.[m]
Every city is abandoned,
And no man dwells in them."
30 Now that you are devastated,
what will you do?
You used to clothe yourself
with scarlet,
To deck yourself with gold ornaments,
And to enlarge your eyes
with black paint.*
But it is in vain that you beautified yourself,[a]
For those lusting after you have rejected you;
They are now seeking to take your life.#[b]
31 For I have heard the sound like that of a sick woman,
The distress like that of a woman giving birth to her first child,
The voice of the daughter of Zion who keeps gasping for breath.
She says as she spreads out her palms:[c]
"Woe to me, for I am* exhausted because of the killers!"

5 Roam the streets of Jerusalem.
Look around and take note.
Search her public squares
to see Whether you can find a man who acts with justice,[d]
One who seeks to be faithful,
And I will forgive her.
2 Even if they say: "As surely as Jehovah is alive!"
They would still swear to what is false.[e]
3 O Jehovah, do your eyes not look for faithfulness?[f]
You struck them, but it made no impact on them.*
You exterminated them, but they refused to accept discipline.[g]

Take away her spreading shoots,

erous with me," declares

12 "They have denied Jehovah,

No calamity will come upon us;
We will not see sword or 13 The prophets are full of wind,

And the word* is not in them.
Let this happen to them!"
14 Therefore this is what Jehovah, the God of armies, says:
"Because these men are saying this,
Here I am making my words
a fire in your mouth,[e]
And this people is the wood,
And it will consume them."[f] 15 "Here I am bringing in on you a nation from far away, O house of Israel,"[g]
declares Jehovah.
"It is an enduring nation.
It is an ancient nation,
A nation whose language
you do not know,
And whose speech you cannot understand.[h]
16 Their quiver is like an open grave;
All of them are warriors.
17 They will devour your harvest and your bread.[i]

5:12 *Or possibly, "He does not exist."
5:13 *That is, God's word.

They will devour your sons and your daughters.
They will devour your flocks and your herds.
They will devour your vines
and your fig trees.
They will destroy with the sword your fortified cities in which you trust."

18 "But even in those days," declares Jehovah, "I will not carry out a complete extermination of you.[a] 19 And when they ask, 'Why has Jehovah our God done all these things to us?' you should answer them, 'Just as you abandoned me to serve a foreign god in your land, so you will serve foreigners in a land that is not yours.'"[b]

20 Declare this in the house of Jacob,
And proclaim it in Judah,
saying:
21 "Hear this, you foolish and senseless people:*[c]
They have eyes but cannot see;[d]
They have ears but cannot hear.[e]
22 'Do you not fear me?'
declares Jehovah,
'Should you not tremble
before me?
It is I who placed the sand as the boundary for the sea,
A permanent regulation that it cannot pass over.
Although its waves toss,
they cannot prevail;
Although they roar, they still cannot pass beyond it.[f]
23 But this people has a stubborn and rebellious heart;
They have turned aside and gone their own way.[g] 24 And they do not say in their heart:
"Let us now fear Jehovah
our God,
The One who gives the rain
in its season,
Both the autumn rain and the spring rain,
The One who guards for us
the appointed weeks of the harvest."[a] 25 Your own errors have prevented these things from coming;
Your own sins have deprived you of what is good.[b] 26 For among my people there are wicked men.
They keep peering, as when birdcatchers crouch down.
They set a deadly trap.
It is men whom they catch.
27 Like a cage full of birds,
So their houses are full of deception.[c]
That is why they have become powerful and rich.
28 They have grown fat and smooth;
They overflow with evil.
They do not plead the legal case of the fatherless,[d]
That they may gain success;
And they deny justice to the poor.'"[e] 29 "Should I not call them to account for these things?"
declares Jehovah.
"Should I* not avenge myself
on such a nation?
30 Something appalling and horrible has occurred in
the land:
31 The prophets prophesy lies,[f]
And the priests dominate by their own authority.
And my own people love it that way.[g]
But what will you do when the end comes?"

6 Take shelter, O sons

7 This is the word that came to Jeremiah from Jehovah, saying: 2 "Stand in the gate of the house of Jehovah and proclaim there this message, 'Hear the word of Jehovah, all you people of Judah who enter these gates to bow down to Jehovah. 3 This is what Jehovah of armies, the God of Israel, says: "Reform your ways and your actions, and I will allow you to keep residing in this place.[e] 4 Do not put your trust in deceptive words and say, 'This is* the temple of Jehovah, the temple of Jehovah, the temple of Jehovah!'[f] 5 For if you truly reform your ways and actions; if you truly uphold justice between a man and his neighbor;[g] 6 if you do not oppress foreign residents, orphans,* and widows;[h] if you do not shed innocent blood in this place; and if you do not follow other gods to your own harm;[i] 7 then I will allow you to keep residing in this place, in the land I gave to your forefathers for all time."'"*

8 "But you are putting your trust in deceptive words[j]—it will bring absolutely no benefit. 9 Can you steal,[a] murder, commit adultery, swear falsely,[b] make sacrifices* to Ba'al,[c] and follow after gods you had not known, 10 and then come and stand before me in this house that bears my name and say, 'We will be saved,' despite your doing all these detestable things? 11 Has this house that bears my name become a cave of robbers in your eyes?[d] Here I have seen it for myself," declares Jehovah.

12 "'However, go now to my place in Shi'loh,[e] where I first caused my name to reside,[f] and see what I did to it because of the badness of my people Israel.[g] 13 But you kept doing all these things,' declares Jehovah, 'and even though I spoke to you again and again,* you did not listen.[h] I kept calling you, but you would not answer.[i] 14 So I will do to the house that bears my name,[j] in which you are trusting,[k] and to this place that I gave to you and your forefathers, just as I did to Shi'loh.[l] 15 I will throw you out of my sight, just as I threw out all your brothers, all the descendants of E'phra·im.'[m]

16 "As for you, do not pray in behalf of this people. Do not cry out or offer a prayer or plead with me in their behalf,[n] for I will not listen to you.[o] 17 Do you not see what they are doing in the cities of Judah and in the streets of Jerusalem? 18 The sons are gathering wood, the fathers are lighting the fire, and the wives are kneading dough in order to make sacrificial cakes to the Queen of Heaven,*[p] and they are pouring out drink offerings to other gods to offend me.[q] 19 'But am I the one they are

And he gives us poisoned water to drink,[b]
Because we have sinned against Jehovah.
15 There was a hope for peace,
but nothing good came,
For a time of healing, but there is terror![c] 16 From Dan is heard the snorting of his horses.
At the sound of the neighing of his stallions,
The whole land quakes.
They come in and devour the land and everything in it,
The city and its inhabitants.”
17 “For here I am sending in serpents among you,
Poisonous snakes that cannot be charmed,
And they will certainly bite
you,” declares Jehovah.
18 My grief is incurable;
My heart is sick.
19 From a distant land there is a cry for help
From the daughter of my
people:
“Is Jehovah not in Zion?
Or is her king not in her?”
“Why have they offended me with their graven images,
With their worthless foreign gods?”
20 “The harvest has passed, the summer has ended,
But we have not been saved!”
21 I am shattered over the breakdown of the daughter of my people;[d]
I am dejected.
Horror has seized me.
22 Is there no balsam* in Gil′e·ad?[e]
Or is there no healer* there?[a] Why has the daughter of my people not been restored to health?[b]

9 O that my head were waters,
My eyes a fountain of tears![c]
Then I would weep day and night
For the slain ones of my
people.
2 O that I had a traveler’s lodging place in the wilderness!
Then I would leave my people and go away from them,
For they are all adulterers,[d]
A band of treacherous
people.
3 They bend their tongue like
a bow;
Falsehood, not faithfulness,
prevails in the land.[e] “They advance from evil to evil,
And they pay no attention to me,”[f] declares Jehovah.
4 “Everyone, be on guard against your neighbor,
And do not trust even your brother.
For every brother is a

And every neighbor is a slanderer.[h]
5 Each one cheats his

They wear themselves out

11 This is the word that came to Jeremiah from Jehovah, saying: 2 "Hear the words of this covenant, you people!

"Speak* them to the men of Judah and to the inhabitants of Jerusalem 3 and say to them, 'This is what Jehovah the God of Israel says: "Cursed is the man who does not obey the words of this covenant,[d] 4 which I commanded your forefathers on the day I brought them out of the land of Egypt,[e] out of the iron-smelting furnace,[f] saying, 'Obey my voice, and do all the things that I command you; and you will become my people and I will be your God,[g] 5 so that I may fulfill the oath that I swore to your forefathers, to give them the land flowing with milk and honey,[h] as it is this day.'"'"

And I answered: "Amen,* O Jehovah."

6 Jehovah then said to me: "Proclaim all these words in the cities of Judah and in the streets of Jerusalem: 'Hear the words of this covenant, and carry them out. 7 For I solemnly admonished your forefathers in the day I brought them out of the land of Egypt and to this day, admonishing them again and again:* "Obey my voice."[i] 8 But they did not listen or incline their ear; instead, each kept stubbornly following his own wicked heart.[j] So I brought on them all the words of this covenant that I commanded them to do, but they refused to carry them out.'"

9 Jehovah then said to me: "There is a conspiracy among the men of Judah and the inhabitants of Jerusalem. 10 They have returned to the errors of their forefathers of old, who refused to obey my words.[a] They too have followed other gods and have served them.[b] The house of Israel and the house of Judah have broken my covenant that I made with their forefathers.[c] 11 Therefore this is what Jehovah says, 'Here I am bringing on them a calamity[d] that they will not be able to escape. When they call to me for help, I will not listen to them.[e] 12 Then the cities of Judah and the inhabitants of Jerusalem will go to the gods to which they are making sacrifices* and call for help,[f] but these will by no means save them in the time of their calamity. 13 For your gods have become as many as your cities, O Judah, and you have set up as many altars to the shameful thing* as there are streets in Jerusalem, altars to make sacrifices to Ba'al.'[g]

14 "As for you,* do not pray in behalf of this people. Do not cry out in their behalf or offer a prayer for them,[h] for I will not be listening when they call out to me because of their calamity.

15 What right does my beloved one have to be in my house
When so many have carried out evil schemes?
With holy flesh* will they avert the calamity when it comes upon you?
Will you exult at that time?
16 Jehovah once called you

Beautiful with fine fruit.
With a great roaring sound,
he has set her on fire,
And they have broken its branches.

17 "Jehovah of armies, your Planter,[a] has declared that a calamity will come upon you because of the evil committed by the house of Israel and the house of Judah, who have offended me by making sacrifices to Ba'al."[b]

18 Jehovah informed me so that I would know;
At that time you caused me to see what they were doing.

19 I was like a docile lamb being brought to the slaughter.
I did not know that they were scheming against me:[c]
"Let us destroy the tree
with its fruit,
And let us cut him off from the land of the living,
So that his name may be remembered no more."

20 But Jehovah of armies
judges with righteousness;
He examines the innermost thoughts* and the heart.[d]
Let me see your vengeance on them,
For to you I have committed my legal case.

21 Therefore this is what Jehovah says against the men of An'a·thoth[e] who are seeking to take your life* and who say: "You must not prophesy in the name of Jehovah,[f] or you will die by our hand"; 22 therefore this is what Jehovah of armies says: "Here I am going to call them to account. The young men will die by the sword,[g] and their sons and their daughters will die by famine.[h] 23 Not even a remnant will be left of them, because I will bring calamity on the men of An'a·thoth[a] in the year of their being called to account."

12 You are righteous,
O Jehovah,[b] when I make my complaint
to you,
When I speak about matters of justice with you.
But why is the way of wicked ones successful,[c]
And why are the treacherous unworried?

2 You planted them, and they have taken root.
They have grown and
produced fruit.
You are on their lips, but far away from their innermost thoughts.*[d]

3 But you know me well,
O Jehovah,[e] you see me;
You have examined my heart and found it in union with
you.[f]
Single them out like sheep
for slaughtering,
And set them apart for the day of killing.

4 How much longer should the land wither away
And the vegetation of every field dry up?[g]
Because of the evil of those dwelling in it,
The beasts and the birds
have been swept away.
For they have said: "He does not see what will happen to us."

5 If you get tired running with footmen,
How can you run a race against horses?[h]
Even if you are confident in the land of peace,
How will you fare among the dense thickets along the Jordan?

Have dealt treacherously with you.[a]
They have raised a loud cry against you.
Do not put faith in them,
Even if they speak good things to you.
7 "I have abandoned my house;[b] I have deserted my inheritance.[c]
I have given my dearly beloved one* into the hand of her enemies.[d]
8 My inheritance has become to me like a lion in the forest.
She has roared against me.
So I have come to hate her.
9 My inheritance is like a multicolored* bird of prey to me;
The other birds of prey surround it and attack it.[e]
Come, gather together, all you beasts of the field,
Come to eat.[f]
10 Many shepherds have destroyed my vineyard;[g]
They have trampled my portion of land.[h]
They have turned my desirable portion of land into a desolate wilderness.
11 It has become a wasteland.
It has withered;*
It is desolate before me.[i]
The whole land has been made desolate,
But no man takes it to heart.[j]
12 On all the worn paths through the wilderness the destroyers have come,
For the sword of Jehovah is devouring from one end of the land to the other end.[k]
There is no peace for anyone.*
13 They have sown wheat, but they have reaped thorns.[l]
They have worn themselves out, but to no benefit.
They will be ashamed of their produce
Because of the burning anger of Jehovah."

14 This is what Jehovah says against all my wicked neighbors, who are touching the inheritance that I caused my people Israel to possess:[a] "Here I am uprooting them from their land,[b] and I will uproot the house of Judah from among them. 15 But after I uproot them, I will again have mercy on them and bring each of them back to his inheritance and to his land."

16 "And if they make sure to learn the ways of my people and to swear by my name, 'As surely as Jehovah is alive!' just as they taught my people to swear by Ba'al, they will then be built up among my people. 17 But if they refuse to obey, I will also uproot that nation, uprooting and destroying it," declares Jehovah.[c]

13 This is what Jehovah told me: "Go and buy a linen belt for yourself and put it around your waist, but do not dip it in water." 2 So I bought the belt according to the word of Jehovah and put it around my waist. 3 And the word of Jehovah came to me a second time: 4 "Take the belt that you bought and are wearing and get up, go to the Eu·phra'tes, and hide it there in a cleft of the crag." 5 So I went and hid it by the Eu·phra'tes, just as Jehovah had commanded me.

6 But many days later Jehovah said to me: "Get up, go to the Eu·phra'tes, and take from there the belt that I commanded you to hide there." 7 So I went to the Eu·phra'tes and dug up the belt and took it from the place where I had hidden it, and

But they did not obey.'[f]

14 This is the word of Jehovah that came to Jeremiah concerning the droughts:[h]
2 Judah mourns,[i] and its gates have faded away.
They sink to the ground dejected,
And a cry goes up from Jerusalem.
3 And their masters send their servants* for water.
They go to the water holes# and find no water.
They return with their vessels empty.
They are ashamed and disappointed,
And they cover their heads.

For there is no rain on the land,[j]
The farmers are dismayed and cover their heads.
5 Even the doe in the field forsakes her newborn
Because there is no grass.
6 The wild donkeys stand on the bare hills.
They pant for air like jackals;
Their eyes fail because there is no vegetation.[a]

O Jehovah, act for the sake of your name.[b]
For our acts of unfaithfulness are many,[c]
And it is against you that we have sinned.
8 O hope of Israel, his Savior[d] in times of distress,
Why are you like a stranger in the land,
Like a traveler who stops only to spend the night?
9 Why are you like a man who is stunned,
Like a mighty man who cannot save?
For you are among us, O Jehovah,[e]
And your name has been called on us.[f]
Do not abandon us.
10 This is what Jehovah says concerning this people: "They love to wander about;[g] they have not restrained their feet.[h] So Jehovah finds no pleasure in them.[i] Now he will remember their error and call them to account for their sins."[j]
11 Then Jehovah said to me: "Do not pray for good to come to this people.[k] 12 When they fast, I do not listen to their entreaties,[l] and when they offer whole burnt offerings and grain offerings, I take no pleasure in them,[m] for by the sword, by famine, and by pestilence,* I will do away with them."[n]

Know that for your sake
I bear this reproach.[a] 16 Your words were found,
and I ate them;[b]
And your word became to me the exultation and the rejoicing of my heart,
For your name has been called on me, O Jehovah
God of armies.
17 I do not sit in the company of merrymakers and rejoice.[c]
Because your hand is upon me, I sit alone,
For you have filled me with indignation.*[d]
18 Why is my pain chronic and my wound incurable?
It refuses to be healed.
Will you become to me like a deceptive water supply
That cannot be relied on?
19 Therefore this is what Jehovah says:
"If you return, then I will restore you,
And you will stand
before me.
If you separate what is precious from what is worthless,
You will become like my own
mouth.*
They will have to turn to you,
But you will not turn to them."
20 "I am making you a fortified copper wall to this people.[e]
They will certainly fight
against you,
But they will not prevail against you,*[f]
For I am with you, to save you and to rescue you,"
declares Jehovah.

the hand of the wicked
And redeem you from the palm of the ruthless."

16 The word of Jehovah
again came to me, saying:
2 "You must not take a wife for yourself, and you must not have sons and daughters in this place.
3 For this is what Jehovah says
concerning the sons and daughters who are born here and concerning their mothers who give birth to them and concerning their fathers who cause their birth in this land: 4 'They will die of deadly diseases,[a] but no one will mourn them or bury them; they will become like manure on the surface of the ground.[b] They will perish by the sword and by famine,[c] and their dead bodies will be food for the birds of the heavens and for the beasts of the earth.'
5 For this is what Jehovah
says,
'Do not enter a house where a mourners' feast is held,
And do not go to wail or offer sympathy.'[d]
'For I have taken away my peace from this people,'
declares Jehovah,
'As well as my loyal love and
mercy.[e]
6 Both the great and the small will die in this land.
They will not be buried,
No one will mourn them,
Nor will anyone cut himself or make himself bald for
them.*
7 And no one will provide food
for those in mourning,
To comfort them over their dead;
Nor will anyone give them
the cup of consolation
To drink over the loss of their father or mother.
8 And do not enter a house of feasting
To sit down with them to eat and drink.'

16:6 *Pagan mourning customs apparently practiced in apostate Israel.

9 "For this is what Jehovah of armies, the God of Israel, says, 'Here in this place, in your days and before your very eyes, I will put an end to the sounds of exultation and rejoicing, the voice of the bridegroom and the voice of the bride.'[a]

10 "When you tell this people all these words, they will ask you, 'Why has Jehovah spoken of all this great calamity against us? What error and what sin have we committed against Jehovah our God?'[b] 11 You must reply to them, '"Because your forefathers abandoned me,"[c] declares Jehovah, "and they kept following other gods and serving them and bowing down to them.[d] But me they abandoned, and my law they did not keep.[e] 12 And you have behaved far worse than your forefathers,[f] and each one of you follows the stubbornness of his wicked heart instead of obeying me.[g] 13 So I will hurl you out of this land into a land that neither you nor your forefathers have known,[h] and there you will have to serve other gods day and night,[i] because I will show you no favor."'

14 "'However, the days are coming,' declares Jehovah, 'when they will no longer say: "As surely as Jehovah is alive, who brought the people of Israel out of the land of Egypt!"[j] 15 but rather: "As surely as Jehovah is alive, who brought the people of Israel from the land of the north and from all the lands to which he had dispersed them!" and I will bring them back to their land, which I gave to their forefathers.'[k]

16 'Here I am sending for many fishermen,' declares Jehovah,
'And they will fish for them.
After that I will send for many hunters,
And they will hunt them down on every mountain and every hill
And out of the clefts of the crags.
17 For my eyes are on everything they do.*
They have not been hidden from before me,
Nor has their error been hidden from my eyes.
18 First, I will repay the full amount due for their error and their sin,[a]
For they have profaned
my land with the lifeless figures* of their disgusting idols
And have filled my inheritance with their detestable things.'"[b] 19 O Jehovah, my strength and my stronghold,
My place to flee in the day
of distress,[c]
To you the nations will come from the ends of the earth,
And they will say: "Our forefathers inherited utter falsehood,
Futility and useless things of no benefit."[d]
20 Can a man make gods for himself
When they are not really gods?[e]
21 "So I will make them know,
At this time I will make them know my power and my might,
And they will have to know that my name is Jehovah."

17 "The sin of Judah is written down with an iron stylus.

engraved on the tablet
of their heart

"Where is the word of Jehovah?[a] Let it come, please!"
16 But as for me, I did not run away from following you as a shepherd,
Nor did I long for the day of disaster.
You well know everything my lips have spoken;
It all took place before your face!
17 Do not be a cause of terror to me.
You are my refuge in the day of calamity.
18 Let my persecutors be put to shame,[b]
But do not let me be put to shame.
Let them be struck with terror,
But do not let me be struck with terror.
Bring the day of calamity on them,[c]
And crush them and destroy them completely.*

19 This is what Jehovah told me: "Go and stand in the gate of the sons of the people by which the kings of Judah go in and out, and in all the gates of Jerusalem.[d] 20 You must say to them, 'Hear the word of Jehovah, you kings of Judah, all people of Judah, and all inhabitants of Jerusalem, who enter by these gates. 21 This is what Jehovah says: "Watch yourselves,* and do not carry any load on the Sabbath day or bring it in through the gates of Jerusalem.[e] 22 You must not bring any load out of your homes on the Sabbath day; and you must do no work at all.[f] Keep the Sabbath day sacred, just as I commanded your forefathers.[g] 23 But they did not listen or incline their ear, and they stubbornly refused* to obey or to accept discipline.'"[a]

24 "'"However, if you strictly obey me," declares Jehovah, "and you bring in no load through the gates of this city on the Sabbath day, and you keep the Sabbath day sacred by not doing any work on it,[b] 25 then kings and princes who sit on the throne of David[c] will also enter in through the gates of this city, riding in the chariot and on horses, they and their princes, the men of Judah and the inhabitants of Jerusalem;[d] and this city will be inhabited for all time. 26 And people will come from the cities of Judah, from the places around Jerusalem, from the land of Benjamin,[e] from the lowland,[f] from the mountainous region, and from the Neg'eb,* bringing whole burnt offerings,[g] sacrifices,[h] grain offerings,[i] frankincense, and thanksgiving sacrifices into the house of Jehovah.[j]

27 "'"But if you do not obey me by keeping the Sabbath day sacred and by not carrying loads and bringing them through the gates of Jerusalem on the Sabbath day, I will set her gates on fire, and it will certainly consume the fortified towers of Jerusalem[k] and will not be extinguished."'"[l]

18 This is the word that came to Jeremiah from Jehovah: 2 "Rise up and go down to the house of the potter,[m] and there I will cause you to hear my words."

3 So I went down to the house of the potter, and he was working on the potter's wheels. 4 But the vessel that the potter was making with the clay was spoiled in his hand. So the potter reworked it into another vessel, just as he saw fit.*

5 Then the word of Jehovah came to me, saying: 6 "'Can I not do to you just as this potter did, O house of Israel?' declares Jehovah. 'Look! As the clay in the hand of the potter, so are you in my hand, O house of Israel.[a] 7 Whenever I may speak about uprooting and pulling down and destroying a nation or a kingdom,[b] 8 and that nation abandons its wickedness that I spoke against, I will also change my mind concerning* the calamity that I intended to bring against it.[c] 9 But whenever I speak about building up and planting a nation or a kingdom, 10 and it does what is bad in my eyes and does not obey my voice, I will change my mind concerning* the good that I intended to do for it.'

11 "Now say, please, to the men of Judah and to the inhabitants of Jerusalem, 'This is what Jehovah says: "Here I am preparing* a calamity and devising a scheme against you. Turn back, please, from your bad ways, and reform your ways and your practices."'"[d]

12 But they said: "It is hopeless![e] For we will walk after our own thoughts, and each of us will act according to the stubbornness of his wicked heart."[f]

13 Therefore this is what Jehovah says:

"Ask for yourselves, please,

this?
The virgin of Israel has done
a most horrible thing.[g]

14 Does the snow of Leb'a·non shake his head.[f]

17 Like the east wind, I will scatter them before the enemy.
I will show them my back,
not my face, in the day
of their disaster."[g]

18 And they said: "Come, let us devise a plot against Jeremiah,[h] for the law* will not perish from our priests or counsel from the wise men or the word from the prophets. Come and let us speak against him# and pay no attention to what he says."

19 Do pay attention to me,
O Jehovah,
And listen to what my opponents are saying.

20 Should good be repaid with bad?
For they have dug a pit for my life.*[i] Remember how I stood before you to speak good

To turn your wrath away from them.

And there proclaim the words that I speak to you. 3 You will say, 'Hear the word of Jehovah, you kings of Judah and inhabitants of Jerusalem. This is what Jehovah of armies, the God of Israel, says:

"'"I am about to bring a calamity on this place, and the ears of anyone who hears about it will tingle. 4 It is because they abandoned me[j] and made this place unrecognizable.[k] In it they are sacrificing to other gods, whom they and their forefathers and the kings of Judah had not known, and they have filled this place with the blood of the innocent ones.[a] 5 They built the high places of Ba′al in order to burn their sons in the fire as whole burnt offerings to Ba′al,[b] something that I had not commanded or spoken of and that had never even come into my heart."'*[c]

6 "'"Therefore look! the days are coming," declares Jehovah, "when this place will no longer be called To′pheth or the Valley of the Son of Hin′nom but the Valley of the Slaughter.[d] 7 I will thwart the plans of Judah and Jerusalem in this place, and I will make them fall by the sword before their enemies and by the hand of those seeking to take their life.* And I will give their dead bodies as food to the birds of the heavens and to the beasts of the earth.[e] 8 And I will make this city an object of horror and something to whistle at. 10 "Then break the flask before the eyes of the men who go with you, 11 and say to them, 'This is what Jehovah of armies says: "This is how I will break this people and this city, like someone who breaks a potter's vessel so that it can never be repaired; and they will bury the dead in To′pheth until there is no more room to bury them."'[h]

14 When Jeremiah returned from To′pheth where Jehovah sent him to prophesy, he stood in the courtyard of the house of Jehovah and said to all the people: 15 "This is what Jehovah of armies, the God of Israel, says, 'Here I am bringing on this city and on all its towns all the calamity that I have spoken against it, because they stubbornly refused* to obey my words.'"[d]

20 Now Pash′hur the son of Im′mer, the priest, who was also the leading commissioner in the house of Jehovah, was listening when Jeremiah prophesied these things. 2 Then Pash′hur struck Jeremiah the prophet and put him in the stocks[e] that were at the Upper Gate of Benjamin, which was in the house of Jehovah. 3 But on the following day when Pash′hur released Jeremiah from the stocks, Jeremiah said to him:

"Jehovah has named you, not Pash′hur, but Terror All Around.[f] 4 For this is what Jehovah says, 'I will make you an object of terror to yourself and to all your friends, and they will fall by the sword of their enemies while your eyes are looking on;[g] and I will give all Judah into the hand of the king of Babylon, and he will take them into exile in Babylon and put them to death by the sword.[h] 5 And I will give all the wealth of this city, all its resources, all its precious things, and all the treasures of the kings of Judah into the hand of their enemies.[a] And they will plunder them and seize them and take them to Babylon.[b] 6 And as for you, Pash′hur, and all who live in your house, you will go into captivity. You will go off to Babylon and die there, and you will be buried there with all your friends, because you have prophesied lies to them.'"[c]

7 You have fooled me,
O Jehovah, and I was fooled.
You used your strength against me, and you prevailed.[d]
I have become a laughingstock all day long;
Everyone ridicules me.[e]
8 For whenever I speak, I must cry out and proclaim,
"Violence and destruction!"
For me the word of Jehovah has been the cause of insults and jeering all day long.[f]
9 So I said: "I am not going to make mention of him,
And I will speak no more in his name."[g]
But in my heart it became like a burning fire shut up in my bones,
And I was tired of holding it in;
I could no longer endure it.[h]
10 For I heard many evil rumors; Terror surrounded me.[i]
"Denounce him; let us denounce him!"
Every man wishing me peace was watching for my downfall:[j]
"Perhaps he will make a foolish mistake,
And we can prevail and take our revenge against him."
11 But Jehovah was with me like a fearsome warrior.[k]
That is why those persecuting me will stumble and will not prevail.[l]

Their everlasting humiliation will not be forgotten.[a] 12 But you, O Jehovah of armies, are examining the righteous one;
You see the innermost thoughts* and the heart.[b]
Let me see your vengeance on them,[c]
For to you I have committed my legal case.[d]
13 Sing to Jehovah! Praise Jehovah!
For he has rescued the poor one* from the hand of evildoers.
14 Cursed be the day I was born!
May the day my mother gave birth to me not be blessed![e]
15 Cursed be the man who brought good news to my father, saying:
"A son has been born to you, a boy!"
Making him rejoice greatly.
16 May that man become like cities that Jehovah overthrew without regret.
May he hear an outcry in the morning and the sound of alarm at midday.
17 Why did he not put me to death in the womb,
So that my mother would become my burial place
And her womb would always remain pregnant?[f]
18 Why did I have to come out of the womb
To see trouble and grief,
To end my days in shame?[g]

21 Jeremiah received the word from Jehovah when King Zed·e·ki′ah[h] sent to him Pash′hur[i] son of Mal·chi′jah and Zeph·a·ni′ah[a] son of Ma·a·sei′ah, the priest, requesting: 2 "Please inquire of Jehovah in our behalf, because King Neb·u·chad·nez′zar* of Babylon is waging war against us.[b] Perhaps Jehovah will perform one of his wonderful works in our behalf, so that he will withdraw from us."[c]

3 Jeremiah said to them: "This is what you should say to Zed·e·ki′ah, 4 'This is what Jehovah the God of Israel says: "Here I am turning around against you* the weapons of war that are in your own hands, with which you are fighting the king of Babylon[d] and the Chalde′ans who are outside the wall besieging you. And I will gather them into the middle of this city. 5 And I myself will fight against you[e] with an outstretched hand and a mighty arm, with anger and wrath and great indignation.[f] 6 I will strike the inhabitants of this city, both man and beast. By a great pestilence* they will die."'[g]

7 ""And after that," declares Jehovah, "I will give King Zed·e·ki′ah of Judah and his servants and the people of this city—those who survive the pestilence, the sword, and the famine—into the hand of King Neb·u·chad·nez′zar* of Babylon, into the hand of their enemies, and into the hand of those who are seeking to take their life.#[h] He will strike them down with the sword. He will not feel sorry for them, nor will he show compassion or have any mercy."'[i]

8 "And to this people you should say, 'This is what Jehovah says: "Here I am putting before you the way of life and the

5 “‘But if you will not obey these words, by myself I do swear,’ declares Jehovah, ‘that this house will become a devastated place.’[e]

‘You are as Gil′e·ad to me,

And do not sympathize with him.
Instead, weep profusely for the one going away,

20 Go up to Leb′a·non and cry out,
Raise your voice in Ba′shan,
And cry out from Ab′a·rim,[d]
For all your passionate lovers have been crushed.[e]

21 I spoke to you when you felt secure.
But you said, ‘I will not obey.’[f]
This has been your course since youth,
For you have not obeyed my voice.[g]

22 A wind will shepherd all your shepherds,[h]
And your passionate lovers will go into captivity.
Then you will be put to shame and humiliated because of all your calamity.

23 O you who dwell in Leb′a·non,[i]

"So I will turn my attention to you because of your evil deeds," declares Jehovah.

3 "Then I will gather together the remnant of my sheep from all the lands to which I have dispersed them,[b] and I will bring them back to their pasture,[c] and they will be fruitful and become many.[d] 4 And I will raise up over them shepherds who will really shepherd them.[e] They will no longer be afraid or be terrified, and none will be missing," declares Jehovah.

7 "However, the days are coming," declares Jehovah, "when they will no longer say, 'As surely as Jehovah is alive, who brought the people of Israel out of the land of Egypt!'[l] 8 but rather, 'As surely as Jehovah is alive, who brought out and brought back the descendants of the house of Israel from the land of the north and from all the lands to which I had dispersed them,' and they will dwell in their own land."[m]

Because of Jehovah and because of his holy words.
10 For the land is full of adulterers;[a]
Because of the curse
the land has gone into mourning[b]
And the pastures of the wilderness have dried up.[c]
Their course is evil, and they abuse their power.
11 "Both the prophet and the priest are polluted.*[d]
Even in my own house I have found their wickedness,"[e]
declares Jehovah.
12 "So their path will become slippery and dark;[f]
They will be pushed and will fall.
For I will bring calamity on
them
In the year of reckoning,"
declares Jehovah.
13 "And in the prophets of Sa·mar'i·a[g] I have seen what is repulsive.
Their prophecies are incited
by Ba'al,
And they lead my people
Israel astray.
14 And in the prophets of Jerusalem I have seen horrible things.
They commit adultery[h] and walk in falsehood;[i]
They encourage* evildoers,
And they do not turn away
from their wickedness.
To me they are all like Sod'om,[j]
And her inhabitants are like Go·mor'rah."[k]

15 Therefore this is what Jehovah of armies says against the prophets:

"Here I am making them eat
wormwood
And giving them poisoned water to drink.[a]
For from the prophets of Jerusalem apostasy has spread throughout the land."

16 This is what Jehovah of armies says:

"Do not listen to the words of the prophets who are prophesying to you.[b]
They are deluding you.*
The vision they speak is from their own heart,[c]
Not from the mouth of Jehovah.[d]
17 They are saying again and again to those who disrespect me,
'Jehovah has said: "You will enjoy peace."'[e]
And to everyone who follows his own stubborn heart
they say,
'No calamity will come upon
you.'[f]
18 For who has stood in the inner circle of Jehovah
To see and hear his word?
Who has paid attention to his word in order to hear it?
19 Look! The windstorm of Jehovah will burst out
in fury;
Like a whirling tempest it will whirl down on the head of the wicked.[g] 20 The anger of Jehovah will not turn back
Until he has carried out and accomplished the intentions of his heart.
In the final part of the days
you will clearly understand
this.
21 I did not send the prophets,
yet they ran.
I did not speak to them,
yet they prophesied.[h]

I will turn my attention on that man and on his household. 35 This is what each of you is saying to his fellow and to his brother, 'What has Jehovah answered? And what has Jehovah spoken?' 36 But the burden* of Jehovah you should mention no more, for the burden* is each one's own word, and you have changed the words of the living God, Jehovah of armies, our God.

37 "This is what you will say to the prophet, 'What answer has Jehovah given you? 24 Then Jehovah showed me two baskets of figs set before the temple of Jehovah, after King Neb·u·chad·nez′zar* of Babylon had carried into exile Jec·o·ni′ah#[a] son of Je·hoi′a·kim,[b] the king of Judah, along with the princes of Judah, the craftsmen, and the metalworkers;△ he took them from Jerusalem to Babylon.[c] 2 One basket had very good figs, like early figs, but the other basket had very bad figs, so bad that they could not be eaten.

work of your hands, to your own calamity.'[a]

8 "Therefore this is what Jehovah of armies says, '"Because you would not obey my words, 9 I am sending for all the families of the north,"[b] declares Jehovah, "sending for King Nebu·chad·nez′zar* of Babylon, my servant,[c] and I will bring them against this land[d] and against its inhabitants and against all these surrounding nations.[e] I will devote them to destruction and make them an object of horror and something to whistle at and a perpetual ruin. 10 I will put an end to the sound of exultation and the sound of rejoicing from them,[f] the voice of the bridegroom and the voice of the bride,[g] the sound of the hand mill and the light of the lamp. 11 And all this land will be reduced to ruins and will become an object of horror, and these nations will have to serve the king of Babylon for 70 years."'[h]

12 "'But when 70 years have been fulfilled,[i] I will call to account* the king of Babylon and that nation for their error,'[j] declares Jehovah, 'and I will make the land of the Chal·de′ans a desolate wasteland for all time.[k] 13 I will bring on that land all my words that I have spoken against it, all that is written in this book that Jeremiah has prophesied against all the nations. 14 For many nations and great kings[l] will make slaves of them,[m] and I will repay them according to their deeds and the work of their own hands.'"[n]

15 For this is what Jehovah the God of Israel said to me: "Take this cup of the wine of wrath out of my hand, and make all the nations to whom I send you drink it. 16 And they will drink and stagger and act like madmen because of the sword that I am sending among them."[a]

17 So I took the cup out of the hand of Jehovah and made all the nations to whom Jehovah sent me drink:[b] 18 starting with Jerusalem and the cities of Judah,[c] her kings and her princes, to make them a ruin, an object of horror, something to whistle at and a curse,[d] as it is today; 19 then Phar′aoh king of Egypt and his servants, his princes, and all his people,[e] 20 and all their mixed populations; all the kings of the land of Uz; all the kings of the land of the Phi·lis′tines,[f] Ash′ke·lon,[g] Gaz′a, Ek′ron, and those remaining of Ash′dod; 21 E′dom,[h] Mo′ab,[i] and the Am′mon·ites;[j] 22 all the kings of Tyre, all the kings of Si′don,[k] and the kings of the island in the sea; 23 De′dan,[l] Te′ma, Buz, and all those with hair clipped at the temples;[m] 24 all the kings of the Arabians[n] and all the kings of the mixed populations who reside in the wilderness; 25 all the kings of Zim′ri, all the kings of E′lam,[o] and all the kings of the Medes;[p] 26 and all the kings of the north near and far, one after the other, and all the other kingdoms of the earth that are on the surface of the ground; and the king of She′shach*[q] will drink after them.

27 "And you must say to them, 'This is what Jehovah of armies, the God of Israel, says: "Drink and get drunk and vomit and fall so that you cannot get up[r] because of the sword that I am sending among you."' 28 And if they refuse to take the cup out of your hand to drink, say to them, 'This is what Jehovah of armies says: "You must drink it! 29 For look! if I am bringing calamity first on the city that bears my name,[a] should you go unpunished?"'[b]

"'You will not go unpunished, for I am calling for a sword against all the inhabitants of the earth,' declares Jehovah of armies.

30 "And you are to prophesy all these words to them and say to them,

'From on high Jehovah will roar,
And from his holy dwelling he will make his voice heard.
He will roar loudly against his abiding place.
Shouting like those treading the winepress,
He will sing triumphantly against all the inhabitants of the earth.'

31 'A noise will resound to the ends of the earth,
For Jehovah has a controversy with the nations.
He will personally pass judgment on all humans.*[c]
And he will put the wicked to the sword,' declares Jehovah.

32 This is what Jehovah of armies says:
'Look! A calamity is spreading from nation to nation,[d]
And a great tempest will be unleashed from the remotest parts of the earth.[e]

33 "'And those slain by Jehovah in that day will be from one end of the earth clear to the other end of the earth. They will not be mourned, nor will they be gathered up or buried. They will become like manure on the surface of the ground.'

34 Wail, you shepherds, and cry out!
Wallow about, you majestic ones of the flock,
Because the time of your slaughter and your dispersion has come,
And you will fall like a precious vessel!

35 The shepherds have no place to flee,
And there is no escape for the majestic ones of the flock.

36 Listen! The outcry of the shepherds
And the wailing of the majestic ones of the flock,
For Jehovah is devastating their pasture.

37 And the peaceful dwelling places have been made lifeless
Because of the burning anger of Jehovah.

38 He has left his lair just like a young lion,*[a]
For their land has become an object of horror
Because of the cruel sword
And because of his burning anger."

26 In the beginning of the reign of Je·hoi′a·kim[b] son of Jo·si′ah, the king of Judah, this word came from Jehovah: 2 "This is what Jehovah says, 'Stand in the courtyard of the house of Jehovah and speak concerning* all the people of the cities of Judah who are coming in to worship# at the house of Jehovah. Tell them everything that I command you; do not take away a word. 3 Perhaps they will listen and each one will turn back from his evil way, and I will change my mind concerning* the calamity that I intend to bring on them because of their evil deeds.[c] 4 Say to them: "This is

7 And the priests and the prophets and all the people heard Jeremiah speaking these words in the house of Jehovah.[d] 8 So when Jeremiah had finished speaking all that Jehovah had commanded him to speak to all the people, then the priests and the prophets and all the people seized him and said: "You will surely die. 9 Why have you prophesied in the name of Jehovah, saying, 'This house will become like Shi'loh, and this city will be devastated and left without an inhabitant'?" And all the people gathered around Jeremiah in the house of Jehovah.

10 When the princes of Judah heard these words, they came up from the house* of the king to the house of Jehovah and sat down at the entrance of the new gate of Jehovah.[e] 11 The priests and the prophets said to the princes and to all the people: "This man deserves the death penalty,[f] because he has prophesied against this city just as you have heard with your own ears."[g]

12 Jeremiah then said to all the princes and to all the people: "It was Jehovah who sent me to prophesy against this house and against this city all the words that you have heard.[h] 13 So now, reform your ways and your actions and obey the voice of Jehovah your God, and Jehovah will change his mind concerning* the calamity that he has spoken against you.[a] 14 But as for me, I am in your hand. Do to me whatever seems good and right in your eyes. 15 Only know for certain that if you put me to death, you will bring innocent blood upon yourselves and upon this city and upon her inhabitants, for in truth Jehovah sent me to you to speak all these words in your hearing."

16 Then the princes and all the people said to the priests and the prophets: "This man does not deserve the death penalty, for he spoke to us in the name of Jehovah our God."

17 Furthermore, some of the elders of the land rose up and began saying to the entire congregation of the people: 18 "Mi'cah[b] of Mo'resh·eth was prophesying in the days of King Hez·e·ki'ah[c] of Judah, and he said to all the people of Judah, 'This is what Jehovah of armies says:

"'Zion will be plowed up as a field,
Jerusalem will become heaps of ruins,[d]
And the mountain of the House* will become like high places in a forest.'"#[e]

19 "Did King Hez·e·ki'ah of Judah and all Judah then put him to death? Did he not fear Jehovah and beg for Jehovah's favor,* so that Jehovah changed his mind concerning# the calamity that he had spoken against them?[f] So we are about to bring a great calamity on ourselves.△

20 "And there was another man prophesying in the name of Jehovah, U·ri'jah son of Shemai'ah from Kir'i·ath-je'a·rim,[g]

who prophesied against this city and against this land with words like those of Jeremiah. 21 King Je·hoi′a·kim[a] and all his mighty men and all the princes heard his words, and the king sought to put him to death.[b] When U·ri′jah heard of it, he at once became afraid and fled to Egypt. 22 Then King Je·hoi′a·kim sent El·na′than[c] the son of Ach′bor and other men with him to Egypt. 23 They brought U·ri′jah from Egypt and took him to King Je·hoi′a·kim, who then struck him down with the sword[d] and cast his dead body into the graveyard of the common people."

24 But A·hi′kam[e] the son of Sha′phan[f] supported Jeremiah, so that he was not handed over to the people to be put to death.[g]

27 In the beginning of the reign of Je·hoi′a·kim son of Jo·si′ah, the king of Judah, this word came to Jeremiah from Jehovah: 2 "This is what Jehovah has told me, 'Make for yourself straps and yoke bars, and put them on your neck. 3 Then send them to the king of E′dom,[h] the king of Mo′ab,[i] the king of the Am′mon·ites,[j] the king of Tyre,[k] and the king of Si′don[l] by the hand of the messengers who have come to Jerusalem to King Zed·e·ki′ah of Judah. 4 Give them this command for their masters:

"'"This is what Jehovah of armies, the God of Israel, says; this is what you should say to your masters, 5 'It is I who made the earth, mankind, and the beasts that are on the surface of the earth by my great power and by my outstretched arm; and I have given it to whomever I please.*[m] 6 And now I have given all these lands into the hand of my servant King Neb·u·chad·nez′zar[a] of Babylon; even the wild beasts of the field I have given him to serve him. 7 All the nations will serve him and his son and his grandson until the time for his own land comes,[b] when many nations and great kings will make him their slave.'[c]

8 "'"'If any nation or kingdom refuses to serve King Neb·u·chad·nez′zar of Babylon and refuses to put its neck under the yoke of the king of Babylon, I will punish that nation with the sword,[d] with famine, and with pestilence,'* declares Jehovah, 'until I have finished them off by his hand.'

9 "'"'Therefore, do not listen to your prophets, your diviners, your dreamers, your magicians, and your sorcerers, who are saying to you: "You will not serve the king of Babylon." 10 For they are prophesying lies to you, so that you will be taken far away from your land and I will disperse you and you will perish.

11 "'"'But the nation that brings its neck under the yoke of the king of Babylon and serves him, I will allow to remain* on its land,' declares Jehovah, 'to cultivate it and dwell in it.'"'"

12 Also to King Zed·e·ki′ah[e] of Judah I spoke in the same way, saying: "Bring your necks under the yoke of the king of Babylon and serve him and his people, and you will keep living.[f] 13 Why should you and your people die by the sword,[g] by famine,[h] and by pestilence,[i] as Jehovah has said about the nation that will not serve the king of Babylon? 14 Do not listen to the words of the prophets who are saying to you, 'You will not serve the king of Babylon,'[j] because they are prophesying lies to you.[k]

28 In that same year, in the beginning of the reign of King Zed·e·ki'ah[a] of Judah, in the fourth year, in the fifth month, the prophet Han·a·ni'ah the son of Az'zur from Gib'e·on[b] said to me in the house of Jehovah in the presence of the priests and all the people: 2 "This is what Jehovah of armies, the God of Israel, says, 'I will break the yoke of the king of Babylon.[c] 3 Within two years* I am bringing back to this place all the utensils of the house of Jehovah that King Neb·u·chad·nez'zar of Babylon took from this place and brought to Babylon.'"[d] 4 "'And I will bring back to this place Jec·o·ni'ah[e] son of Je·hoi'a·kim,[f] the king of Judah, and all the exiles of Judah who have gone to Babylon,'[g] declares Jehovah, 'for I will break the yoke of the king of Babylon.'"

5 Then Jeremiah the prophet spoke to Han·a·ni'ah the prophet in the presence of the priests and all the people who were standing in the house of Jehovah. 6 Jeremiah the prophet said: "Amen!* May Jehovah do this! May Jehovah fulfill your words that you prophesied by bringing back from Babylon to this place the utensils of the house of Jehovah and all the exiled people! 7 However, hear, please, this message that I am speaking in your ears and in the ears of all the people. 8 Long ago the prophets who were prior to me and prior to you used to prophesy concerning many lands and great kingdoms, about war, calamity, and pestilence.* 9 If a prophet prophesies about peace and the word of that prophet comes true, then it will be known that Jehovah truly sent that prophet."

28:3 *Lit., "years of days." 28:6 *Or "So be it!" 28:8 *Or "disease."

10 At that Han·a·ni′ah the prophet took the yoke bar off the neck of the prophet Jeremiah and broke it.[a] 11 Han·a·ni′ah then said in the presence of all the people: "This is what Jehovah says, 'Just like this I will break the yoke of King Neb·u·chad·nez′zar of Babylon from off the neck of all the nations within two years.'"[b] And Jeremiah the prophet went on his way.

12 After Han·a·ni′ah the prophet had broken the yoke bar from off the neck of Jeremiah the prophet, this message of Jehovah came to Jeremiah: 13 "Go and say to Han·a·ni′ah, 'This is what Jehovah says: "You have broken yoke bars of wood,[c] but instead of them you will make yoke bars of iron." 14 For this is what Jehovah of armies, the God of Israel, says: "I will put an iron yoke bar on the neck of all these nations, to serve King Neb·u·chad·nez′zar of Babylon, and they must serve him.[d] Even the wild beasts of the field I will give him."'"[e]

15 Jeremiah the prophet then said to Han·a·ni′ah[f] the prophet: "Listen, please, O Han·a·ni′ah! Jehovah has not sent you, but you have caused this people to trust in a lie.[g] 16 Therefore this is what Jehovah says, 'Look! I am removing you from the face of the ground. This year you will die, for you have urged rebellion against Jehovah.'"[h]

17 So Han·a·ni′ah the prophet died in that year, in the seventh month.

29 These are the words of the letter that Jeremiah the prophet sent from Jerusalem to the rest of the elders among the exiled people, the priests, the prophets, and all the people, whom Neb·u·chad·nez′zar had taken into exile from Jerusalem to Babylon, 2 after King Jec·o·ni′ah,[a] the queen mother,*[b] the court officials, the princes of Judah and Jerusalem, and the craftsmen and the metalworkers# had gone out of Jerusalem.[c] 3 He sent the letter by the hand of El·a′sah the son of Sha′phan[d] and Gem·a·ri′ah the son of Hil·ki′ah[e] of Judah sent to Babylon to King Neb·u·chad·nez′zar of Babylon. It said:

4 "This is what Jehovah of armies, the God of Israel, says to all the exiled people, whom I have caused to go into exile from Jerusalem to Babylon, 5 'Build houses and live in them. Plant gardens and eat their fruit. 6 Take wives and have sons and daughters; take wives for your sons and give your daughters in marriage, so that they too may have sons and daughters. Become many there, and do not decrease. 7 And seek the peace of the city to which I have exiled you, and pray in its behalf to Jehovah, for in its peace you will have peace.[f] 8 For this is what Jehovah of armies, the God of Israel, says: "Do not let your prophets and your diviners who are among you deceive you,[g] and do not listen to the dreams that they are dreaming. 9 For 'they are prophesying lies to you in my name. I have not sent them,'[h] declares Jehovah."'"

10 "For this is what Jehovah says, 'When 70 years at Babylon are fulfilled, I will turn my attention to you,[i] and I will make good my promise by bringing you back to this place.'[j] hearing of Jeremiah the prophet, 30 the word of Jehovah came to Jeremiah, saying: 31 "Send to all the exiled people, saying, 'This is what Jehovah says concerning She·mai'ah of Ne·hel'am: "Because She·mai'ah prophesied to you, though I did not send him, and he tried to make you trust in lies,[a] 32 therefore this is what Jehovah says, 'Here I am turning my attention to She·mai'ah of Nehel'am and his descendants. Not one man of his will survive among this people, and he will not see the good that I will do for my people,' declares Jehovah, 'for he has urged rebellion against Jehovah.'"'"

30 The word that came to Jeremiah from Jehovah, saying: 2 "This is what Jehovah the God of Israel says, 'Write in a book all the words that I speak to you. 3 For "look! the days are coming," declares Jehovah, "when I will gather the captives of my people, Israel and Judah,"[b] says Jehovah, "and I will bring them back to the land that I gave to their forefathers, and they will possess it once again."'"[c]

4 These are the words that Jehovah spoke to Israel and Judah.

5 This is what Jehovah says:
"We have heard the sounds of trembling;
There is terror, and no peace.
6 Ask, please, whether a man can give birth.
Why, then, do I see every strong man with his hands on his stomach*
Like a woman giving birth?[d]
Why has every face turned pale?
7 Alas! For that day is a terrible* one.[e]
There is none like it,
A time of distress for Jacob.
But he will be saved out of it."

8 "And in that day," declares Jehovah of armies, "I will break the yoke from off your neck, and your straps* I will tear in two; and no more will strangers# make him^ their slave. 9 They will serve Jehovah their God and David their king, whom I will raise up for them."[a]

10 "And you, my servant Jacob, do not be afraid," declares Jehovah,
"And do not be terrified, O Israel.[b]
For I will save you from far away
And your offspring from the land of their captivity.[c]
Jacob will return and be calm and undisturbed,
With no one to make them afraid."[d]
11 "For I am with you," declares Jehovah, "to save you.
But I will make an extermination among all the nations to which I scattered you;[e]
However, you I will not exterminate.[f]
I will discipline* you to the proper degree,
And I will by no means leave you unpunished."[g]
12 For this is what Jehovah says:
"There is no cure for your breakdown.[h]
Your wound is incurable.
13 There is no one to plead your cause,
No means of healing your ulcer.
There is no cure for you.
14 All your passionate lovers have forgotten you.[i]

Your pain is incurable!
Because of your great guilt and your many sins[c]
I have done this to you.

And all your enemies will also go into captivity.[e]

17 “But I will restore your health and heal your wounds,”[g] declares Jehovah, “Though they called you an outcast:
‘Zion, for whom no one searches.’”[h]
18 This is what Jehovah says:
“Here I am gathering the captives of the tents of Jacob,[i]
And I will have pity for his tabernacles.
The city will be rebuilt on her mound,[j]
And the fortified tower will stand on its rightful site.
19 And from them will come thanksgiving and the sounds of laughter.[k]

I will make them numerous,*
And they will not be insignificant.[m]

And before me his assembly will be firmly established.[a]
I will deal with all his oppressors.[b]
21 His majestic one will be one of his own,
And from his midst his ruler will emerge.
I will cause him to come near, and he will approach me.”
“For otherwise, who would dare* to approach me?” declares Jehovah.
22 “And you will become my people,[c] and I will be your God.”[d]
23 Look! A windstorm of Jehovah will burst out in fury,[e]
A sweeping tempest that whirls down on the head of the wicked.
24 The burning anger of Jehovah will not turn back Until he has carried out and accomplished the intentions of his heart.[f]
In the final part of the days you will understand this.[g]

31 “At that time,” declares Jehovah, “I will become God to all the families of Israel, and they will become my people.”[h]
2 This is what Jehovah says:
“The people who survived the sword found favor in the wilderness
When Israel was walking to his resting-place.”
3 From far away Jehovah appeared to me and said:
“I have loved you with an everlasting love.
That is why I have drawn you to me with loyal love.*[i]

the city will certainly be given into the hand of the Chal·de′ans."

26 At that the word of Jehovah came to Jeremiah, saying: 27 "Here I am, Jehovah, the God of all mankind.* Is there anything too wonderful for me? 28 So this is what Jehovah says, 'Here I am handing this city over to the Chal·de′ans and into the hand of King Neb·u·chad·nez′zar* of Babylon, and he will capture it.[a] 29 And the Chal·de′ans fighting against this city will come in and set this city on fire and burn it down[b] along with the houses on whose roofs the people offered sacrifices to Ba′al and poured out drink offerings to other gods to offend me.'[c]

30 "'For the people of Israel and of Judah have done only what was bad in my eyes, from their youth on;[d] the people of Israel keep offending me by the work of their hands,' declares Jehovah. 31 'For this city, from the day that they built it down to this day, has been nothing but a cause of anger and wrath to me,[e] so that it must be removed from before my face,[f] 32 because of all the evil that the people of Israel and of Judah have done to offend me—they, their kings,[g] their princes,[h] their priests, their prophets,[i] and the men of Judah and the inhabitants of Jerusalem. 33 They kept turning their backs to me, not their faces;[j] although I tried to teach them again and again,* none of them would listen to receive discipline.[k] 34 And they put their disgusting idols in the house that bears my name, in order to defile it.[l] 35 Furthermore, they built the high places of Ba′al in the Valley of the Son of Hin′nom,[m] in order to make their sons and their daughters pass through the fire to Mo′lech,[a] something that I had not commanded them[b] and that had never come into my heart to do such a detestable thing, causing Judah to sin.'

36 "Therefore this is what Jehovah the God of Israel says concerning this city that you are saying will be given into the hand of the king of Babylon by the sword, the famine, and the pestilence, 37 'Here I will gather them together from all the lands where I dispersed them in my anger and in my wrath and in great indignation,[c] and I will bring them back to this place and let them dwell in security.[d] 38 And they will be my people, and I will be their God.[e] 39 And I will give them one heart[f] and one way so that they may always fear me, for their own good and the good of their children after them.[g] 40 And I will make with them an everlasting covenant,[h] that I will not turn away from doing good to them;[i] and I will put the fear of me in their hearts, so that they will not turn away from me.[j] 41 I will exult over them to do good to them,[k] and I will firmly plant them in this land,[l] with all my heart and with all my soul.'"*

42 "For this is what Jehovah says, 'Just as I have brought on this people all this great calamity, so I will bring on them all the goodness* that I am promising them.[m] 43 And fields will again be bought in this land,[n] though you are saying: "It is a wasteland without man and beast, and it has been handed over to the Chal·de′ans."' witnesses will be called in the land of Benjamin,[a] in the areas around Jerusalem, in the cities of Judah,[b] in the cities of the mountainous region, in the cities of the lowland,[c] and in the cities of the south, because I will bring back their captives,'[d] declares Jehovah."

33 The word of Jehovah came to Jeremiah the second time, while he was still confined in the Courtyard of the Guard,[e] saying: 2 "This is what Jehovah the Maker of earth says, Jehovah who formed it and firmly established it; Jehovah is his name, 3 'Call to me, and I will answer you and readily tell you great and incomprehensible things that you have not known.'"[f]

4 "For this is what Jehovah the God of Israel says concerning the houses of this city and the houses of the kings of Judah that are pulled down because of the siege ramparts and the sword,[g] 5 and concerning those who are coming to fight the Chal·de'ans, filling these places with the carcasses of those whom I struck down in my anger and in my wrath, those whose evil has caused me to hide my face from this city: 6 'Here I am bringing recuperation and health to her,[h] and I will heal them and reveal to them an abundance of peace and truth.[i] 7 And I will bring back the captives of Judah and the captives of Israel,[j] and I will build them up as I did at the start.[k] 8 And I will purify them from all the guilt of their sins against me,[l] and I will forgive all the guilt of their sins and their transgressions against me.[m] 9 And she will become to me a name of exultation, a praise, and a beauty before all the nations of the earth who will hear of all the goodness that I bestow on them.[a] And they will be in dread and will tremble[b] because of all the goodness and peace that I will bestow on her.'"[c]

10 "This is what Jehovah says: 'In this place that you will say is a wasteland, without man or livestock, in the cities of Judah and in the streets of Jerusalem that are desolate, without man or inhabitant or livestock, there will again be heard 11 the sound of exultation and the sound of rejoicing,[d] the voice of the bridegroom and the voice of the bride, the voice of those saying: "Give thanks to Jehovah of armies, for Jehovah is good;[e] his loyal love endures forever!"'[f]

"'They will bring thanksgiving offerings into the house of Jehovah,[g] for I will bring back the captives of the land, as at the start,' says Jehovah."

12 "This is what Jehovah of armies says: 'In this wasteland, without man or livestock, and in all its cities, there will again be pastures for the shepherds to rest their flocks.'[h]

13 "'In the cities of the mountainous region, in the cities of the lowland, in the cities of the south, in the land of Benjamin, in the areas around Jerusalem,[i] and in the cities of Judah,[j] flocks will again pass under the hands of the one counting them,' says Jehovah."

14 "'Look! The days are coming,' declares Jehovah, 'when I will fulfill the good promise that I have spoken concerning the house of Israel and the house of Judah.[k] 15 In those days and at that time I will cause to sprout for David a righteous sprout,*[l] and he will execute justice and righteousness in the land.[m] 16 In those days Judah will be saved[n] and Jerusalem will reside

19 And the word of Jehovah again came to Jeremiah, saying: 20 "This is what Jehovah says, 'If you could break my covenant regarding the day and my covenant regarding the night, to prevent day and night from coming at their proper time,[d] 21 only then could my covenant with my servant David be broken,[e] so that he should not have a son ruling as king on his throne,[f] and so also my covenant with the Levitical priests, my ministers.[g] 22 Just as the army of the heavens cannot be counted and the sand of the sea cannot be measured, so I will multiply the offspring* of my servant David and the Levites who are ministering to me.'"

23 And the word of Jehovah again came to Jeremiah, saying: 24 "Have you not taken note of what this people is saying, 'Jehovah will reject the two families that he chose'? And they are treating my own people with disrespect, and they no longer regard them as a nation.

25 "This is what Jehovah says: 'Just as surely as I have established my covenant regarding the day and the night,[h] the laws* of heaven and earth,[i] 26 so I will never reject the offspring* of Jacob and of my servant David, so as not to take from his offspring* rulers over the descendants* of Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob. For I will gather back their captives[a] and have pity on them.'"[b]

34 The word that came to Jeremiah from Jehovah, when King Neb·u·chad·nez′zar* of Babylon and all his army and all the kingdoms of the earth under his dominion and all the peoples were fighting against Jerusalem and all her cities:[c]

2 "This is what Jehovah the God of Israel says, 'Go and speak to King Zed·e·ki′ah[d] of Judah and tell him: "This is what Jehovah says, 'Here I am giving this city into the hand of the king of Babylon, and he will burn it with fire.[e] 3 And you will not escape out of his hand, for you will without fail be caught and handed over to him.[f] And you will see the king of Babylon eye to eye, and he will speak to you face-to-face, and you will go to Babylon.'[g] 4 However, hear the word of Jehovah, O King Zed·e·ki′ah of Judah, 'This is what Jehovah says concerning you: "You will not die by the sword. 5 In peace you will die,[h] and they will make a burning ceremony for you as they did for your fathers, the former kings who were before you, and they will mourn you, 'Alas, O master!' for 'I have spoken the word,' declares Jehovah."'"'"

6 Jeremiah the prophet then spoke all these words to King Zed·e·ki′ah of Judah in Jerusalem, 7 when the armies of the king of Babylon were fighting against Jerusalem and against all the cities of Judah that were left,[i] against La′chish[j] and against A·ze′kah;[k] for they were the only fortified cities that remained of the cities of Judah.

8 The word that came to Jeremiah from Jehovah after King Zed·e·ki′ah had made a covenant with all the people in Jerusalem to proclaim liberty to them,[a] 9 that everyone should free his Hebrew slaves, male and female, so that no one would keep a fellow Jew as his slave. 10 So all the princes and all the people obeyed. They had entered into the covenant that everyone should free his male and female slaves and not keep them as slaves any longer. They obeyed and let them go. 11 However, they later brought back the male and female slaves whom they had freed, and they again forced them back into slavery. 12 So the word of Jehovah came to Jeremiah from Jehovah, saying:

13 "This is what Jehovah the God of Israel says, 'I made a covenant with your forefathers[b] in the day I brought them out of the land of Egypt, out of the house of slavery,[c] saying: 14 "At the end of seven years, each of you should free his Hebrew brother who was sold to you and who has served you six years; you must set him free."[d] But your forefathers did not listen or incline their ears to me. 15 And recently* you yourselves turned around and did what was right in my eyes by proclaiming liberty to your fellow men, and you made a covenant before me in the house that bears my name. 16 But then you turned around and profaned my name[e] by bringing back your male and female slaves whom you had freed according to their desire,* and you forced them back into slavery.'

17 "Therefore this is what Jehovah says: 'You have not obeyed me in proclaiming liberty, each one to his brother and to his fellow man.[a] So I will now proclaim liberty to you,' declares Jehovah, 'to the sword, to pestilence,* and to famine,[b] and I will make you an object of horror to all the kingdoms of the earth.[c] 18 And this is what will happen to the men who violated my covenant by not carrying out the words of the covenant that they made before me when they cut the calf in two and passed between the halves,[d] 19 namely, the princes of Judah, the princes of Jerusalem, the court officials, the priests, and all the people of the land who passed between the halves of the calf: 20 I will hand them over to their enemies and to those seeking to take their lives,* and their dead bodies will become food for the birds of the heavens and for the beasts of the earth.[e] 21 And I will give King Zed·e·ki′ah of Judah and his princes into the hand of their enemies and into the hand of those seeking to take their lives* and into the hand of the armies of the king of Babylon,[f] who are withdrawing from against you.'[g]

22 "'Here I will give the order,' declares Jehovah, 'and I will bring them back to this city, and they will fight against it and capture it and burn it with fire;[h] and the cities of Judah I will make a wasteland, without an inhabitant.'"[i]

35 The word that came to Jeremiah from Jehovah in the days of Je·hoi′a·kim[j] son of Jo·si′ah, the king of Judah, saying: 2 "Go to the house of the Re′cha·bites[k] and speak with them and bring them into the house of Jehovah, into one of the dining rooms;* then offer them wine to drink."

3 So I took Ja·az·a·ni′ah the son of Jeremiah the son of Hab·az·zi·ni′ah, his brothers, all his sons, and the entire house of the Re′cha·bites 4 into the house of Jehovah. I brought them to the dining room of the sons of Ha′nan the son of Ig·da·li′ah, a man of the true God, which was next to the dining room of the princes that was above the dining room of Ma·a·sei′ah the son of Shal′lum the doorkeeper. 5 Then I put cups and goblets full of wine before the men of the house of the Re′cha·bites and said to them: "Drink wine."

6 But they said: "We will not drink wine, because Je·hon′a·dab*[a] the son of Re′chab, our forefather, gave us this command, 'Neither you nor your sons must ever drink wine. 7 And you must not build a house, sow seed, or plant or obtain a vineyard. Instead, you must always dwell in tents, so that you may live for a long time in the land where you are residing as foreigners.' 8 So we continue to obey the voice of Je·hon′a·dab the son of our forefather Re′chab in all that he commanded us, by never drinking any wine —we, our wives, our sons, and our daughters. 9 And we do not build houses to dwell in, nor do we have vineyards or fields or seed. 10 We keep living in tents and obeying all that Je·hon′a·dab* our forefather commanded us. 11 But when King Neb·u·chad·nez′zar* of Babylon came up against the land,[b] we said, 'Come, let us go into Jerusalem to escape the army of the Chal·de′ans and of the Syrians, and now we are living in Jerusalem.'"

12 And the word of Jehovah came to Jeremiah, saying: 13 "This is what Jehovah of armies, the God of Israel, says, 'Go and say to the men of Judah and to the inhabitants of Jerusalem: "Were you not continually urged to obey my words?"[a] declares Jehovah. 14 "Je·hon′a·dab the son of Re′chab commanded his descendants not to drink wine, and they have carried out his words by not drinking it to this day, thus obeying the order of their forefather.[b] However, I have spoken to you again and again,* but you have not obeyed me.[c] 15 And I kept sending all my servants the prophets to you, sending them again and again,*[d] saying, 'Turn back, please, each of you from your evil ways,[e] and do what is right! Do not walk after other gods and serve them. Then you will keep dwelling in the land that I gave to you and your forefathers.'[f] But you did not incline your ear or listen to me. 16 The descendants of Je·hon′a·dab the son of Re′chab have carried out the order that their forefather gave them,[g] but these people have not listened to me.'"

17 "Therefore this is what Jehovah, the God of armies, the God of Israel, says: 'Here I am bringing on Judah and on all the inhabitants of Jerusalem all the calamity that I have warned them about,[h] for I have spoken to them, but they would not listen, and I kept calling to them, but they would not answer.'"[i]

18 And Jeremiah said to the household of the Re′cha·bites: "This is what Jehovah of armies, the God of Israel, says, 'Because you have obeyed the order of your forefather Je·hon′a·dab and you continue to observe all his orders, doing exactly what he ordered you, 19 this is what Jehovah of armies, the God of Israel, says: "There will never fail to be a descendant of Je·hon'a·dab* the son of Re'chab to serve in my presence."'"

36 Now in the fourth year of Je·hoi'a·kim[a] son of Jo·si'ah, the king of Judah, this word came to Jeremiah from Jehovah, saying: 2 "Take a scroll* and write in it all the words that I have spoken to you against Israel and Judah[b] and all the nations,[c] from the first day I spoke to you in the days of Jo·si'ah to this day.[d] 3 Perhaps when those of the house of Judah hear of all the calamity that I intend to bring on them, they may turn back from their evil ways, so that I may forgive their error and their sin."[e]

4 Jeremiah then called Bar'uch[f] the son of Ne·ri'ah, and Jeremiah dictated all the words that Jehovah had spoken to him, and Bar'uch wrote them in the scroll.*[g] 5 Then Jeremiah commanded Bar'uch: "I am confined and unable to enter the house of Jehovah. 6 So you are the one who must go in and read aloud the words of Jehovah from the scroll that you wrote at my dictation. Read them in the hearing of the people at the house of Jehovah on the day of a fast; thus you will read them to all the people of Judah who come in from their cities. 7 Perhaps their request for favor will reach Jehovah, and they will turn back, each one from his evil ways, for great is the anger and the wrath that Jehovah has declared against this people."

8 So Bar'uch the son of Ne·ri'ah did all that Jeremiah the prophet had commanded him; he read aloud from the scroll* the words of Jehovah at the house of Jehovah.[a]

9 Now in the fifth year of Je·hoi'a·kim[b] son of Jo·si'ah, the king of Judah, in the ninth month, all the people in Jerusalem and all the people who came into Jerusalem from the cities of Judah proclaimed a fast before Jehovah.[c] 10 Bar'uch then read aloud from the scroll* the words of Jeremiah at the house of Jehovah, in the chamber# of Gem·a·ri'ah[d] the son of Sha'phan[e] the copyist,△ in the upper courtyard, at the entrance of the new gate of the house of Jehovah,[f] in the hearing of all the people.

11 When Mi·cai'ah the son of Gem·a·ri'ah the son of Sha'phan heard all the words of Jehovah from the scroll,* 12 he went down to the house* of the king, to the secretary's chamber. All the princes# were sitting there: E·lish'a·ma[g] the secretary, De·la'iah the son of She·mai'ah, El·na'than[h] the son of Ach'bor,[i] Gem·a·ri'ah the son of Sha'phan, Zed·e·ki'ah the son of Han·a·ni'ah, and all the other princes. 13 Mi·cai'ah told them all the words that he had heard when Bar'uch read from the scroll* in the hearing of the people.

14 Then all the princes sent Je·hu'di the son of Neth·a·ni'ah the son of Shel·e·mi'ah the son of Cush'i to Bar'uch, saying: "Come and bring with you the scroll from which you read in the hearing of the people." Bar'uch the son of Ne·ri'ah took the scroll in his hand and went in to them. 15 They said to him: "Sit down, please, and read it aloud to us." So Bar'uch read it to them.

16 Now as soon as they heard all the words, they looked at one another in dread, and they said to Bar′uch: “We must certainly tell the king all these words.” 17 And they asked Bar′uch: “Tell us, please, how you wrote all these words. Was it at his dictation?” 18 Bar′uch replied to them: “He dictated all these words to me, and I wrote them down with ink in this scroll.”* 19 The princes said to Bar′uch: “Go and hide yourselves, you and Jeremiah, and do not let anyone know where you are.”[a]

20 Then they went in to the king, to the courtyard, and deposited the scroll in the chamber of E·lish′a·ma the secretary, and they told the king everything they had heard.

21 So the king sent Je·hu′di[b] out to get the scroll, and he brought it from the chamber of E·lish′a·ma the secretary. Je·hu′di began to read it in the hearing of the king and of all the princes standing by the king. 22 The king was sitting in the winter house, in the ninth month,* with a fire burning in the brazier before him. 23 After Je·hu′di had read three or four columns, the king would cut off that portion with the secretary’s knife and pitch it into the fire that was burning in the brazier, until the entire scroll ended up in the fire that was in the brazier. 24 And they felt no dread; neither the king nor all his servants who heard all these words ripped their garments apart. 25 Although El·na′than,[c] De·la′iah,[d] and Gem·ar′i·ah[e] pleaded with the king not to burn the scroll, he did not listen to them. 26 Further, the king commanded Je·rah′me·el the son of the king, Se·rai′ah the son of Az′ri·el, and Shel·e·mi′ah the son of Ab′de·el to seize Bar′uch the secretary and Jeremiah the prophet, but Jehovah kept them concealed.[a]

27 And the word of Jehovah again came to Jeremiah after the king had burned up the scroll containing the words that Bar′uch had written at Jeremiah’s dictation,[b] saying: 28 “Take another scroll and write on it all the same words that were on the first scroll, which King Je·hoi′a·kim of Judah burned up.[c] 29 And you should say against King Je·hoi′a·kim of Judah, ‘This is what Jehovah says: “You have burned up this scroll and said, ‘Why have you written on it: “The king of Babylon will certainly come and destroy this land and empty it of man and beast”?’[d] 30 Therefore this is what Jehovah says against King Je·hoi′a·kim of Judah, ‘He will have no one to sit on the throne of David,[e] and his dead body will be left exposed to the heat by day and the frost by night.[f] 31 I will call him and his descendants* and his servants to account for their error, and I will bring on them and on the inhabitants of Jerusalem and on the men of Judah all the calamity that I have spoken against them,[g] but they did not listen.’”’”[h]

32 Jeremiah then took another scroll and gave it to Bar′uch the son of Ne·ri′ah, the secretary,[i] and at Jeremiah’s dictation he wrote on it all the words of the scroll* that King Je·hoi′a·kim of Judah had burned in the fire.[j] And many more words like those were added.

37 And King Zed·e·ki′ah[k] the son of Jo·si′ah began to reign in place of Co·ni′ah*[l] the son of Je·hoi′a·kim, for 36:31 *Lit., “seed.” 37:1 *Also called Jehoiachin and Jeconiah.

King Neb·u·chad·nez′zar* of Babylon made him king in the land of Judah.[a] 2 But he and his servants and the people of the land did not listen to the words of Jehovah spoken through Jeremiah the prophet.

3 And King Zed·e·ki′ah sent Je·hu′cal[b] the son of Shel·e·mi′ah and Zeph·a·ni′ah[c] the son of Ma·a·sei′ah the priest to Jeremiah the prophet, saying: "Please pray in our behalf to Jehovah our God." 4 Jeremiah was moving about freely among the people, for they had not yet put him in prison.[d] 5 Now Phar′aoh's army had set out from Egypt,[e] and the Chal·de′ans who were besieging Jerusalem heard the report about them. So they withdrew from against Jerusalem.[f] 6 Then the word of Jehovah came to Jeremiah the prophet, saying: 7 "This is what Jehovah the God of Israel says, 'This is what you should say to the king of Judah, who sent you to me to inquire of me: "Look! The army of Phar′aoh that is coming to assist you will have to go back to their land, Egypt.[g] 8 And the Chal·de′ans will come back and fight against this city and capture it and burn it with fire."'[h] 9 This is what Jehovah says, "Do not deceive yourselves* by saying, 'The Chal·de′ans will surely go away from against us,' because they will not go away. 10 Even if you were to strike down the entire army of the Chal·de′ans who are fighting against you and only their wounded men were left, they would still rise up from their tents and burn this city with fire."'"[i]

11 When the Chal·de′an army had withdrawn from against Jerusalem because of Phar′aoh's army,[j] 12 Jeremiah set out from Jerusalem to the land of Benjamin[a] to receive his portion there among his people. 13 But when he reached the Gate of Benjamin, the officer in charge of the guard, whose name was I·ri′jah the son of Shel·e·mi′ah the son of Han·a·ni′ah, seized Jeremiah the prophet and said: "You are deserting to the Chal·de′ans!" 14 But Jeremiah said: "It is not true! I am not deserting to the Chal·de′ans." But he did not listen to him. So I·ri′jah arrested Jeremiah and brought him in to the princes. 15 The princes were furious with Jeremiah,[b] and they beat him and imprisoned him*[c] in the house of Je·hon′a·than the secretary, which had been made into a prison. 16 Jeremiah was put into the dungeon,* into the vaulted rooms, and he remained there many days.

17 Then King Zed·e·ki′ah sent for him, and the king secretly questioned him in his house.*[d] He asked, "Is there any word from Jehovah?" Jeremiah said, "There is!" and he continued, "You will be given into the hand of the king of Babylon!"[e]

18 Jeremiah also said to King Zed·e·ki′ah: "How have I sinned against you and against your servants and against this people, so that you have put me into the prison? 19 Where, now, are your prophets who prophesied to you, 'The king of Babylon will not come against you and against this land'?[f] 20 Now listen, please, O my lord the king. May you grant, please, my request for favor. Do not send me back to the house of Je·hon′a·than[g] the secretary, or I will die there."[h] 21 So King Zed·e·ki′ah ordered that Jeremiah be put in custody in

38 Now Sheph·a·ti′ah the son of Mat′tan, Ged·a·li′ah the son of Pash′hur, Ju′cal[d] the son of Shel·e·mi′ah, and Pash′hur[e] the son of Mal·chi′jah heard the words that Jeremiah was speaking to all the people, saying: 2 "This is what Jehovah says, 'The one who remains in this city will die by the sword, by famine, and by pestilence.*[f] But the one who surrenders# to the Chal·de′ans will keep living and will have his life△ as a spoil⊠ and live.'[g] 3 This is what Jehovah says, 'This city will surely be handed over to the army of the king of Babylon, and he will capture it.'"[h]

4 The princes said to the king: "Please have this man put to death,[i] for this is how he is weakening the morale* of the soldiers who are left in this city, as well as that of all the people, by speaking such words to them. For this man seeks, not the peace of this people, but their calamity." 5 King Zed·e·ki′ah replied: "Look! He is in your hands, for the king cannot do anything to stop you."

6 So they took Jeremiah and threw him into the cistern of Mal·chi′jah the son of the king, which was in the Courtyard of the Guard.[j] They let Jeremiah down by ropes. Now there was no water in the cistern, only mud, and Jeremiah began to sink down into the mud.

7 E′bed-mel′ech[k] the E·thi·o′pi·an, a eunuch* in the king's house,* heard that they had put Jeremiah into the cistern. Now the king was sitting in the Gate of Benjamin,[a] 8 so E′bed-mel′ech went out of the king's house* and spoke to the king, saying: 9 "O my lord the king, what these men have done to Jeremiah the prophet is evil! They have thrown him into the cistern, and he will die there because of the famine, for there is no bread left in the city."[b]

10 Then the king commanded E′bed-mel′ech the E·thi·o′pi·an: "Take 30 men with you from here, and pull Jeremiah the prophet up out of the cistern before he dies." 11 So E′bed-mel′ech took the men with him and went into the king's house* to a place beneath the treasury,[c] and they took from there some worn-out rags and worn-out pieces of cloth and let them down by ropes to Jeremiah in the cistern. 12 Then E′bed-mel′ech the E·thi·o′pi·an said to Jeremiah: "Please put the rags and the pieces of cloth between your armpits and the ropes." Jeremiah did so, 13 and they drew Jeremiah out with the ropes and pulled him up out of the cistern. And Jeremiah remained in the Courtyard of the Guard.[d]

14 King Zed·e·ki′ah sent for Jeremiah the prophet to come to him at the third entrance, which is in the house of Jehovah, and the king said to Jeremiah: "I have something to ask of you. Do not hide anything from me." 15 Jeremiah then said to Zed·e·ki′ah: "If I tell you, you will certainly put me to death. And if I give you advice, you will not listen to me." 16 So King Zed·e·ki′ah secretly swore to Jeremiah, saying: "As surely as Jehovah is alive, who has given us this life,* I will not put you to death,

17 Jeremiah then said to Zed·e·ki'ah: "This is what Jehovah, the God of armies, the God of Israel, says, 'If you surrender* to the princes of the king of Babylon, your life will be spared,# and this city will not be burned with fire, and you and your household will be spared.[a] 18 But if you will not surrender* to the princes of the king of Babylon, this city will be handed over to the Chal·de'ans, and they will burn it with fire,[b] and you will not escape out of their hand.'"[c]

Obey, please, the voice of Jehovah in what I am telling you, and it will go well with you, and you* will continue to live. 21 But if you refuse to surrender,* this is what Jehovah has revealed to me: 22 Look! 23 And all your wives and your sons they are bringing out to the Chal·de'ans, and you will not escape out of their hand, but you will be seized by the king of Babylon,[a] and because of you this city will be burned with fire."[b]

24 Zed·e·ki'ah then said to Jeremiah: "Do not let anyone know about these things, so that you do not die. 25 And if the princes hear that I have spoken with you and they come and say to you, 'Tell us, please, what you said to the king. Do not hide anything from us, and we will not put you to death.[c] What did the king say to you?' 26 you must answer them, 'I was making a request of the king, that he not send me back to the house of Jehon'a·than to die there.'"[d]

27 In time all the princes came in to Jeremiah and questioned him. He told them everything that the king had commanded him to say. So they said no more to him, for no one had heard the conversation. 28 Until the day that Jerusalem was captured, Jeremiah remained in the Courtyard of the Guard;[e] he was still there when Jerusalem was captured.[f]

39 In the ninth year of King Zed·e·ki'ah of Judah, in the tenth month, King Neb·u·chad·nez'zar* of Babylon and all his army came to Jerusalem, and they besieged it.[g]

2 In the 11th year of Zed·e·ki'ah, in the fourth month, on the ninth day of the month, they broke through the city wall.[h] 3 And all the princes of the king of Babylon went in and sat down in the Middle Gate,[i] namely, Ner'gal-shar·e'zer the Sam'gar, Ne'bo-Sar'se·chim the Rab'sa·ris,* Ner'gal-shar·e'zer the Rab'mag,# and all the rest of the princes of the king of Babylon.

4 When King Zed·e·ki′ah of Judah and all the soldiers saw them, they fled,[a] going out of the city by night by way of the king's garden, through the gate between the double wall, and they continued by the way of the Ar′a·bah.[b] 5 But the Chal·de′an army chased after them, and they overtook Zed·e·ki′ah in the desert plains of Jer′i·cho.[c] They captured him and brought him up to King Neb·u·chad·nez′zar* of Babylon at Rib′lah[d] in the land of Ha′math,[e] where he passed sentence on him. 6 The king of Babylon had the sons of Zed·e·ki′ah slaughtered before his eyes there at Rib′lah, and the king of Babylon had all the nobles of Judah slaughtered.[f] 7 Then he blinded the eyes of Zed·e·ki′ah, after which he bound him with copper fetters to bring him to Babylon.[g]

8 The Chal·de′ans then burned down the king's house* and the houses of the people,[h] and they tore down the walls of Jerusalem.[i] 9 Neb·u′zar·ad′an[j] the chief of the guard took into exile to Babylon the rest of the people who were left in the city, the deserters who had defected to him, and anyone who remained.

10 But Neb·u′zar·ad′an the chief of the guard left in the land of Judah some of the poorest people, those who had nothing at all. On that day he also gave them vineyards and fields to work.*[k]

11 Now King Neb·u·chad·nez′zar* of Babylon gave Neb·u′zar·ad′an the chief of the guard these orders concerning Jeremiah: 12 "Take him and look after him; do him no harm, and grant whatever he asks of you."[a]

13 So Neb·u′zar·ad′an the chief of the guard, Neb·u·shaz′ban the Rab′sa·ris,* Ner′gal-shar·e′zer the Rab′mag,[#] and all the principal men of the king of Babylon sent 14 and had Jeremiah taken out of the Courtyard of the Guard[b] and handed him over to Ged·a·li′ah[c] the son of A·hi′kam[d] the son of Sha′phan[e] to be brought to his house. So he lived among the people.

15 While Jeremiah was confined in the Courtyard of the Guard,[f] the word of Jehovah came to him, saying: 16 "Go and tell E′bed-mel′ech[g] the E·thi·o′pi·an, 'This is what Jehovah of armies, the God of Israel, says: "Here I am fulfilling my words on this city for calamity and not for good, and in that day you will see it happen."'

17 "'But I will rescue you in that day,' declares Jehovah, 'and you will not be handed over to the men you fear.'

18 "'For I will surely provide you with escape, and you will not fall by the sword. You will have your life* as a spoil,[#h] because you trusted in me,'[i] declares Jehovah."

40 The word that came to Jeremiah from Jehovah after Neb·u′zar·ad′an[j] the chief of the guard let him go free from Ra′mah.[k] He had taken him there bound with handcuffs, and he was among all the exiles of Jerusalem and of Judah who were being deported to Babylon. 2 Then the chief of the guard took Jeremiah and said to him: "Jehovah your God foretold this calamity against this place, 3 and Jehovah has brought it about just as he said, because you people sinned against Jehovah and did not obey his voice. That is why this has happened to you.[a] 4 Now I am releasing you today from the handcuffs that were on your hands. If it seems good to you to come with me to Babylon, come, and I will look after you. But if you do not want to come with me to Babylon, do not come. See! The entire land is before you. Go wherever you choose."[b]

5 While Jeremiah still had not turned back, Neb·u′zar·ad′an said: "Return to Ged·a·li′ah[c] the son of A·hi′kam[d] the son of Sha′phan,[e] whom the king of Babylon has appointed over the cities of Judah, and stay with him among the people; or go wherever you choose."

The chief of the guard then gave him a food allowance and a gift and let him go. 6 So Jeremiah went to Ged·a·li′ah the son of A·hi′kam at Miz′pah[f] and stayed with him among the people who were left in the land.

7 In time all the army chiefs who were in the field with their men heard that the king of Babylon had appointed Ged·a·li′ah the son of A·hi′kam over the land and that he had appointed him over the men, women, and children from the poor people of the land who had not been deported to Babylon.[g] 8 So they came to Ged·a·li′ah at Miz′pah.[h] They were Ish′ma·el[i] the son of Neth·a·ni′ah, Jo·ha′nan[j] and Jon′a·than the sons of Ka·re′ah, Se·rai′ah the son of Tan·hu′meth, the sons of E′phai the Ne·toph′a·thite, and Jez·a·ni′ah[k] the son of the Ma·ac′a·thite, together with their men. 9 Ged·a·li′ah the son of A·hi′kam the son of Sha′phan swore an oath to them and to their men, saying: "Do not be afraid of serving the Chal·de′ans. Live in the land and serve the king of Babylon, and it will go well with you.[a] 10 As for me, I will stay in Miz′pah to represent you to* the Chal·de′ans who come to us. But you should gather wine, summer fruits, and oil and put them in your storage containers and settle in the cities that you have taken over."[b]

11 And all the Jews who were in Mo′ab, Am′mon, and E′dom, as well as those who were in all the other lands, also heard that the king of Babylon had let a remnant stay in Judah and that he had appointed over them Ged·a·li′ah the son of A·hi′kam the son of Sha′phan. 12 So all the Jews began returning from all the places to which they had been dispersed, and they came into the land of Judah, to Ged·a·li′ah at Miz′pah. And they gathered wine and summer fruits in very great quantity.

13 Jo·ha′nan the son of Ka·re′ah and all the army chiefs who were in the field came to Ged·a·li′ah at Miz′pah. 14 They said to him: "Do you not know that Ba′a·lis, the king of the Am′monites,[c] has sent Ish′ma·el the son of Neth·a·ni′ah to kill you?"*[d] But Ged·a·li′ah the son of A·hi′kam did not believe them.

15 Then Jo·ha′nan the son of Ka·re′ah secretly told Ged·a·li′ah in Miz′pah: "I want to go and strike down Ish′ma·el the son of Neth·a·ni′ah, and no one will know. Why should he kill you,* and why should all the people of Judah who have gathered to you be scattered and the remnant of Judah perish?" 16 But Ged·a·li′ah[e] the son of A·hi′kam said to Jo·ha′nan the son of Ka·re′ah: "Do not do this, for what you are saying concerning Ish′ma·el is a lie."

41 In the seventh month Ish′ma·el[a] son of Neth·a·ni′ah son of E·lish′a·ma, who was of the royal line* and one of the principal men of the king, came with ten other men to Ged·a·li′ah the son of A·hi′kam at Miz′pah.[b] As they were eating a meal together in Miz′pah, 2 Ish′ma·el the son of Neth·a·ni′ah and the ten men who were with him rose up and struck down Ged·a·li′ah the son of A·hi′kam the son of Sha′phan with the sword. So he put to death the one whom the king of Babylon had appointed over the land. 3 Ish′ma·el also struck down all the Jews who were with Ged·a·li′ah in Miz′pah, as well as the Chal·de′an soldiers who were there.

4 On the second day after Ged·a·li′ah had been put to death, before anyone knew about it, 5 there came 80 men from She′chem,[c] from Shi′loh,[d] and from Sa·mar′i·a.[e] Their beards were shaved off, their garments were ripped apart, they had cut themselves,[f] and they had grain offerings and frankincense[g] in their hand to bring to the house of Jehovah. 6 So Ish′ma·el the son of Neth·a·ni′ah went out from Miz′pah to meet them, weeping as he walked along. When he encountered them, he said to them: "Come to Ged·a·li′ah the son of A·hi′kam." 7 But when they came into the city, Ish′ma·el the son of Neth·a·ni′ah and his men slaughtered them and threw them into the cistern.

8 But there were ten men among them who said to Ish′ma·el: "Do not put us to death, for we have hidden stores of wheat, barley, oil, and honey in the field." So he refrained from putting them to death along with their brothers. 9 Now Ish′ma·el threw all the carcasses of the men he had killed into a great cistern, the one that King A′sa had made because of King Ba′a·sha of Israel.[a] This was the cistern that Ish′ma·el the son of Neth·a·ni′ah filled with the slain men.

10 Ish′ma·el took captive all the rest of the people in Miz′pah,[b] including the daughters of the king and all the people left in Miz′pah, whom Neb·u′zar·ad′an the chief of the guard had put in the custody of Ged·a·li′ah[c] the son of A·hi′kam. Ish′ma·el the son of Neth·a·ni′ah took them captive and went off to cross over to the Am′mon·ites.[d]

11 When Jo·ha′nan[e] the son of Ka·re′ah and all the army chiefs who were with him heard about all the evil that Ish′ma·el the son of Neth·a·ni′ah had done, 12 they took all the men and went off to fight against Ish′ma·el the son of Neth·a·ni′ah, and they found him by the great waters* in Gib′e·on.

13 All the people who were with Ish′ma·el rejoiced when they saw Jo·ha′nan the son of Ka·re′ah and all the army chiefs with him. 14 Then all the people whom Ish′ma·el had taken captive from Miz′pah[f] turned around and went back with Jo·ha′nan the son of Ka·re′ah. 15 But Ish′ma·el the son of Neth·a·ni′ah and eight of his men escaped from Jo·ha′nan and went to the Am′mon·ites.

16 Jo·ha′nan the son of Ka·re′ah and all the army chiefs who were with him took with them the rest of the people from Miz′pah, those whom they had rescued from Ish′ma·el the son of Neth·a·ni′ah after he had struck down Ged·a·li′ah[g] the son of A·hi′kam. They brought the men, the soldiers, the women, the children, and the court officials back from

Gib′e·on. 17 So they went and stayed in the lodging place of Chim′ham next to Beth′le·hem,[a] intending to go on into Egypt[b] 18 because of the Chal·de′ans. For they had become afraid of them, since Ish′ma·el the son of Neth·a·ni′ah had struck down Ged·a·li′ah the son of A·hi′kam, whom the king of Babylon had appointed over the land.[c]

42 Then all the army chiefs, and Jo·ha′nan[d] the son of Ka·re′ah, Jez·a·ni′ah the son of Ho·shai′ah, and all the people, from the least to the greatest, approached 2 and said to Jeremiah the prophet: "Hear, please, our request for favor, and pray in our behalf to Jehovah your God, in behalf of all this remnant, for just a few of many are left,[e] as you can see. 3 May Jehovah your God tell us the way we should walk and what we should do."

4 Jeremiah the prophet replied to them: "I have heard you, and I am praying to Jehovah your God according to your request; and every word that Jehovah answers you, I will tell you. I will not hold back a word from you."

5 They replied to Jeremiah: "May Jehovah be a true and faithful witness against us if we do not do exactly as Jehovah your God instructs us through you. 6 Whether good or bad, we will obey the voice of Jehovah our God, to whom we are sending you, so that it may go well with us because we obey the voice of Jehovah our God."

7 Now ten days later the word of Jehovah came to Jeremiah. 8 So he called for Jo·ha′nan the son of Ka·re′ah and for all the army chiefs who were with him and for all the people, from the least to the greatest.[f] 9 He said to them: "This is what Jehovah the God of Israel says, to whom you sent me to present your request for favor before him: 10 'If you will indeed remain in this land, then I will build you up and not tear you down, and I will plant you and not uproot you, for I will feel regret* over the calamity I have caused you.[a] 11 Do not be afraid because of the king of Babylon, whom you fear.'[b]

"'Do not be afraid because of him,' declares Jehovah, 'for I am with you, to save you and to rescue you out of his hand. 12 And I will show you mercy,[c] and he will have mercy on you and return you to your own land.

13 "'But if you say, "No, we will not remain in this land!" and you disobey the voice of Jehovah your God 14 by saying, "No, we will go instead to the land of Egypt,[d] where we will not see war or hear the sound of the horn or hunger for bread; there is where we will live," 15 then hear the word of Jehovah, O remnant of Judah. This is what Jehovah of armies, the God of Israel, says: "If you are absolutely determined to go to Egypt and you go there to reside,* 16 then the very sword you are afraid of will catch up with you there in the land of Egypt, and the very famine you fear will follow after you to Egypt, and there you will die.[e] 17 And all the men who are determined to go to Egypt to reside there will die by the sword, by famine, and by pestilence.* None of them will survive or escape the calamity that I will bring on them."'

18 "For this is what Jehovah of armies, the God of Israel, says: 'Just as my anger and my wrath were poured out on the inhabitants of Jerusalem,[a] so my wrath will be poured out on you if you go to Egypt, and you will become a curse, an object of horror, a malediction, and a reproach,[b] and you will never again see this place.'

19 "Jehovah has spoken against you, O remnant of Judah. Do not go to Egypt. You should know for a certainty that I have warned you today 20 that your error will cost you your lives.* For you sent me to Jehovah your God, saying, 'Pray in our behalf to Jehovah our God, and tell us everything that Jehovah our God says, and we will do it.'[c] 21 And I told you today, but you will not obey the voice of Jehovah your God or do anything he sent me to tell you.[d] 22 Therefore, know for a certainty that by the sword, by famine, and by pestilence you will die in the place where you desire to go and reside."[e]

43 When Jeremiah had finished speaking to all the people all these words from Jehovah their God, every single word that Jehovah their God had sent him to tell them, 2 Aza·ri'ah the son of Ho·shai'ah, Joha'nan[f] the son of Ka·re'ah, and all the presumptuous men said to Jeremiah: "What you are saying is a lie! Jehovah our God has not sent you to say, 'Do not go to Egypt to reside there.' 3 But Bar'uch[g] the son of Ne·ri'ah is inciting you against us to hand us over to the Chal·de'ans, to put us to death or to take us into exile in Babylon."[h]

4 So Jo·ha'nan the son of Ka·re'ah and all the army chiefs and all the people disobeyed the voice of Jehovah to remain in the land of Judah. 5 Instead, Jo·ha'nan the son of Ka·re'ah and all the army chiefs took with them all the remnant of Judah who had returned to reside in the land of Judah from all the nations where they had been dispersed.[a] 6 They took the men, the women, the children, the daughters of the king, and everyone* whom Neb·u'zar·ad'an[b] the chief of the guard had left with Ged·a·li'ah[c] the son of A·hi'kam[d] the son of Sha'phan,[e] as well as Jeremiah the prophet and Bar'uch the son of Ne·ri'ah. 7 And they went into the land of Egypt, for they did not obey the voice of Jehovah, and they went as far as Tah'pan·hes.[f]

8 Then the word of Jehovah came to Jeremiah in Tah'panhes, saying: 9 "Take in your hand large stones, and hide them in the mortar in the brick terrace at the entrance of the house of Phar'aoh in Tah'panhes, with the Jewish men looking on. 10 Then say to them, 'This is what Jehovah of armies, the God of Israel, says: "Here I am sending for Neb·u·chad·nez'zar* the king of Babylon, my servant,[g] and I will place his throne right above these stones that I have hidden, and he will extend his royal tent over them.[h] 11 And he will come in and strike the land of Egypt.[i] Whoever is meant for deadly plague will be for deadly plague, and whoever is meant for captivity will be for captivity, and whoever is meant for the sword will be for the sword.[j] 12 And I will set the houses* of the gods of Egypt on fire,[k] and he will burn them and lead them captive. 44 The word that came to Jeremiah for all the Jews living in the land of Egypt,[a] those living in Mig′dol,[b] Tah′pan·hes,[c] Noph,[d] and the land of Path′ros,[e] saying: 2 “This is what Jehovah of armies, the God of Israel, says, ‘You have seen all the calamity that I brought on Jerusalem[f] and on all the cities of Judah, and today they are in ruins, without an inhabitant.[g] 3 It is because of the evil things that they did to offend me by going and making sacrifices[h] and serving other gods whom they had not known, neither you nor your forefathers.[i] 4 I kept sending all my servants the prophets to you, sending them again and again, saying: “Please do not do this detestable thing that I hate.”[j] 5 But they did not listen or incline their ear to turn back from their evil by not making sacrifices to other gods.[k] 6 So my wrath and my anger were poured out and burned in the cities of Judah and in the streets of Jerusalem, and they became a ruin and a wasteland, as they are today.’[l]

7 “And now this is what Jehovah, the God of armies, the God of Israel, says, ‘Why are you causing a great calamity to yourselves,* so that every man and woman, child and infant, will perish from Judah, leaving you without a remnant? 8 Why should you offend me with the works of your hands by sacrificing to other gods in the land of Egypt where you have gone to reside? You will perish and become an object of cursing and a reproach among all the nations of the earth.[a] 9 Have you forgotten the wicked deeds of your forefathers and the wicked deeds of the kings of Judah[b] and the wicked deeds of their wives,[c] as well as your own wicked deeds and the wicked deeds of your wives,[d] that were done in the land of Judah and in the streets of Jerusalem? 10 Down to this day they have not humbled themselves,* they have shown no fear,[e] nor have they walked in my law and my statutes that I set before you and your forefathers.’[f]

15 All the men who knew that their wives had been making sacrifices to other gods and all the wives who were standing there, who formed a large group, and all the people who were living in the land of Egypt,[a] in Path'ros,[b] answered Jeremiah: 16 "We will not listen to the word that you have spoken to us in the name of Jehovah. 17 Instead, we will surely carry out every word that our mouths have spoken, to make sacrifices to the Queen of Heaven* and to pour out drink offerings to her,[c] just as we, our forefathers, our kings, and our princes did in the cities of Judah and in the streets of Jerusalem when we were satisfied with bread and were well-off, when we saw no calamity at all. 18 From the time we quit making sacrifices to the Queen of Heaven* and pouring out drink offerings to her, we have lacked everything and have perished by the sword and by the famine."

19 The women added: "And when we were making sacrifices to the Queen of Heaven* and pouring out drink offerings to her, was it without the consent of our husbands that we made sacrificial cakes shaped in her image and we poured out drink offerings to her?"

20 Then Jeremiah said to all the people, to the men and their wives and to all the people who were speaking to him: 21 "The sacrifices that you, your forefathers, your kings, your princes, and the people of the land made in the cities of Judah and in the streets of Jerusalem[d]—Jehovah remembered them and they came up into his heart! 22 Finally Jehovah could no longer put up with your evil practices and the detestable things you had done, and your land became a devastated place, an object of horror and cursing, without an inhabitant, as it is today.[a] 23 It is because you have made these sacrifices and because you have sinned against Jehovah by not obeying the voice of Jehovah and following his law, his statutes, and his reminders that this calamity has come upon you, as is the case today."[b]

24 Jeremiah continued to say to all the people and to all the women: "Hear the word of Jehovah, all you of Judah who are in the land of Egypt. 25 This is what Jehovah of armies, the God of Israel, says, 'What you and your wives have spoken with your mouths, you have fulfilled with your hands, for you said: "We will surely carry out our vows to make sacrifices to the Queen of Heaven* and to pour out drink offerings to her."[c] You women will surely carry out your vows and perform your vows.'

26 "Therefore hear the word of Jehovah, all you of Judah who are living in the land of Egypt: '"Here I swear by my own great name," says Jehovah, "that my name will no longer be called on in an oath by any man of Judah[d] in all the land of Egypt who says, 'As surely as the Sovereign Lord Jehovah is alive!'[e] 27 Now I am watching over them to bring calamity and not something good;[f] all the men of Judah in the land of Egypt will perish by the sword and by the famine, until they cease to exist.[g] 28 Only a few will escape the sword and return from the land of Egypt to the land of Judah.[h] Then all the remnant of Judah who came to the land of Egypt to reside there will know whose word has come true, mine or theirs!"'"

2 For Egypt,[a] concerning the army of Phar'aoh Ne'cho[b] the king of Egypt, who was along the Eu·phra'tes River and was defeated at Car'che·mish by King Neb·u·chad·nez'zar# of Babylon in the fourth year of Je·hoi'a·kim[c] son of Jo·si'ah, the king of Judah:

3 "Prepare your bucklers* and large shields,
And advance to the battle.
4 Harness the horses and mount, you horsemen.
Take your positions and put on your helmets.
Polish the lances and put on your coats of mail.
5 'Why do I see them terror-stricken?
They are retreating, their warriors are crushed.
They have fled in panic, their warriors have not turned around.
There is terror all around,' declares Jehovah.
6 'The swift cannot flee, and the warriors cannot escape.
In the north, by the bank of the Eu·phra'tes River,
They have stumbled and fallen.'[d]
7 Who is this coming up like the Nile River,
Like the rivers of surging waters?
8 Egypt comes up just like the Nile River,[e]
Like rivers of surging waters,
And it says, 'I will go up and cover the earth.
I will destroy the city and those inhabiting it.'
9 Go up, you horses!
Drive madly, you chariots!
Let the warriors advance,

46:3 *A small shield, often carried by archers.

Cush and Put, who handle

And the Lu′dim,[b] who handle

10 "That day belongs to the Sovereign Lord, Jehovah of armies, the day of vengeance for taking revenge on his adversaries. And the sword will devour and satisfy itself and take its fill of their blood, for the Sovereign Lord, Jehovah of armies, has a sacrifice* in the land of the north by the Eu·phra′tes River.[d]

11 Go up to Gil′e·ad to get balsam,[e]
O virgin daughter of Egypt.
In vain you have multiplied
your remedies,
For there is no cure for you.[f]

12 The nations have heard your dishonor,[g]
And your outcry has filled
the land.
For warrior stumbles against warrior,
And they both fall down together."

13 This is the word that Jehovah spoke to Jeremiah the prophet regarding the coming of King Neb·u·chad·nez′zar* of Babylon to strike down the land of Egypt:[h]

14 "Declare it in Egypt, proclaim it in Mig′dol.[i] Proclaim it in Noph* and in Tah′pan·hes.[j]
Say, 'Take your positions and prepare yourselves,
For a sword will devour all around you.

15 Why have your powerful men been swept away?
They did not stand their ground,
For Jehovah has pushed them down.

16 In great numbers they are stumbling and falling.
They are saying to one another:
"Get up! Let us return to our people and our homeland
Because of the cruel sword."'

17 There they have proclaimed,
'Phar′aoh king of Egypt is just a meaningless noise
Who has let the opportunity* pass by.'[a]

18 'As surely as I am alive,' declares the King, whose name is Jehovah of armies,
'He* will come in like Ta′bor[b]
among the mountains
And like Car′mel[c] by the sea.

19 Prepare your baggage for exile,
O daughter inhabiting Egypt.
For Noph* will become an object of horror;
It will be set afire# and left without an inhabitant.[d]

20 Egypt is like a good-looking heifer,
But stinging flies will come against her from the north.

21 Even her hired soldiers in her midst are like fattened calves,
But they have also turned back and fled together.
They could not stand their ground,[e]
For the day of their disaster has come upon them,
Their time of reckoning.'

22 'Her sound is like that of a slithering serpent,
For they come after her in force, with axes,
Like men cutting down trees.*

the people of the north.'[a]

25 "Jehovah of armies, the God of Israel, says: 'Now I am turning my attention to A'mon[b] from No,*[c] to Phar'aoh, to Egypt, to her gods,[d] and to her kings —yes, to Phar'aoh and all those trusting in him.'[e]

26 "'And I will hand them over to those seeking to take their life,* to King Neb·u·chad·nez'zar# of Babylon[f] and his servants. But afterward she will be inhabited as in times past,' declares Jehovah.[g]

27 'As for you, do not be afraid,
my servant Jacob,
And do not be terrified,
O Israel.[h]
For I will save you from far away
And your offspring* from the land of their captivity.[i] Jacob will return and be calm and undisturbed,
With no one to make them
afraid.[j] 28 So do not be afraid, my servant Jacob,' declares Jehovah, 'for I am with
you.
I will make an extermination among all the nations
where I dispersed you,[k]
But you I will not exterminate.[l]

proper degree,[m]

you unpunished.'"

47 This is the word of Jehovah to Jeremiah the prophet concerning the Phi·lis'tines,[a] before Phar'aoh struck down Gaz'a. 2 This is what Jehovah says:

"Look! Waters are coming from the north.
They will become a flooding torrent.
And they will flood the land
and everything in it,
The city and those
inhabiting it.
The men will cry out,
And everyone dwelling in the land will wail.
3 At the sound of the pounding
hooves of his stallions,
At the rattling of his war chariots
And the rumbling of his wheels,
Fathers will not even turn around for their sons,
For their hands fall limp,
4 Because the day that is coming will destroy all the Phi·lis'tines;[b]
It will cut off from Tyre[c] and Si'don[d] every remaining ally.
For Jehovah will destroy the Phi·lis'tines,
Who are the remaining ones from the island of Caph'tor.*[e]
5 Baldness* will come to Gaz'a.
Ash'ke·lon has been silenced.[f]
O remnant of their valley plain,# How long will you keep making cuts on yourself?[g]
6 Ah! The sword of Jehovah![h]
How long will you not be quiet?

47:4 *That is, Crete. 47:5 *That is, they will shave their heads in mourning and shame. #Or "low plain."

Go back into your sheath.
Take your rest and be silent.
7 How can it be quiet
When Jehovah has given it a command?
Against Ash′ke·lon and the seacoast,[a]
There is where he has assigned it.”

48 For Mo′ab,[b] this is what Jehovah of armies, the God of Israel, says:
“Woe to Ne′bo,[c] for she has been destroyed!
Kir·i·a·tha′im[d] has been put to shame and captured.
The secure refuge* has been put to shame and shattered.[e]
2 They no longer praise Mo′ab.
In Hesh′bon[f] they have plotted her downfall:
‘Come, let us put an end to her as a nation.’
You too, O Mad′men, should keep silent,
For the sword is following you.
3 There is the sound of an outcry from Hor·o·na′im,[g]
Of destruction and great collapse.
4 Mo′ab has been broken down.
Her little ones cry out.
5 On the ascent of Lu′hith they weep continually as they climb.
And on the way down from Hor·o·na′im they hear cries of distress over the catastrophe.[h]
6 Flee, escape for your lives!*
You must become like a juniper tree in the wilderness.
7 Because you trust in your works and in your treasures,
You will also be captured.
And Che′mosh[a] will go into exile,
Together with his priests and his princes.
8 The destroyer will come in on every city,
And no city will escape.[b]
The valley* will perish,
And the level land# will be annihilated, just as Jehovah has said.
9 Set up a marker for Mo′ab,
For as she falls into ruins she will flee,
And her cities will become an object of horror,
Without an inhabitant.[c]
10 Cursed is the one who carries out the mission of Jehovah neglectfully!
Cursed is the one who holds back his sword from bloodshed!
11 The Mo′ab·ites have been undisturbed since their youth,
Like wine that has settled on the dregs.
They have not been poured from one vessel into another,
And they have never gone into exile.
That is why their taste has remained the same,
And their aroma has not changed.
12 “‘Therefore look! the days are coming,’ declares Jehovah, ‘when I will send men to overturn them. They will turn them over and empty out their vessels, and they will smash their large jars to pieces. 13 And the Mo′ab·ites will be ashamed of Che′mosh, just as the house of Israel is ashamed of Beth′el, which was their confidence.[d]
14 How dare you say: “We are mighty warriors, ready for battle”?’[e]

48:1 *Or “secure height.” 48:6 *Or “souls.”

48:8 *Or “low plain.” #Or “the tableland; the plateau.”

duced will perish.

39 'How she is terrified! Wail!
How Mo′ab has turned his ed from being a people,[c]

declares Jehovah.

will fall into the pit,

the pit will be caught in the

You will be dispersed in every direction,
And no one will gather those who flee.’”
6 “‘But afterward I will gather the captives of the Am′mon·ites,’ declares

7 For E′dom, this is what Jehovah of armies says:
“Is there no longer any wisdom in Te′man?[a]
Has good advice perished from those with understanding?
Has their wisdom rotted?
8 Flee, turn back!
Go and dwell down in the depths, O inhabitants of De′dan![b]
For I will bring disaster on E′sau
When the time comes to turn my attention to him.
9 If grape gatherers came in
to you,
Would they not leave some behind for gleaning?
If thieves came in by night,
They would cause only as much ruin as they wanted.[c]
10 But I will strip E′sau bare.
I will uncover his places
of concealment,
So that he cannot hide.
His children and his brothers and his neighbors will all be destroyed,[d]
And he will be no more.[e] 11 Leave your fatherless children,
And I will preserve them alive,
And your widows will trust in me.”
12 For this is what Jehovah says: “Look! If those not sentenced to drink the cup must drink it, should you be left completely unpunished? You will not be left unpunished, for you must drink it."[a]

13 "For by myself I have sworn," declares Jehovah, "that Boz'rah will become an object of horror,[b] a reproach, a devastation, and a curse; and all her cities will become perpetual ruins."[c]

14 I have heard a report from Jehovah,
An envoy has been sent among the nations, saying:
"Gather yourselves together and come against her;
Prepare for battle."[d]
15 "For look! I have made you insignificant among the nations, Despised among men.[e]
16 The shuddering you caused has deceived you,
The presumptuousness of your heart,
O you who reside in the retreats of the crag,
Occupying the highest hill.
Although you build your nest high up like an eagle,
I will bring you down from there," declares Jehovah.

17 "And E'dom must become an object of horror.[f] Everyone passing along by her will stare in horror and whistle on account of all her plagues. 18 Just as in the overthrow of Sod'om and Go·mor'rah and of their neighboring towns,"[g] Jehovah says, "no one will dwell there, and no man will settle there.[h]

19 "Look! Someone will come up against the secure pastures like a lion[i] from the dense thickets along the Jordan, but in a moment I will make him run away from her. And I will appoint over her the chosen one. For who is like me, and who will challenge me? What shepherd can stand before me?[a] 20 Therefore hear, O men, the decision* that Jehovah has made against E'dom and what he has thought out against the inhabitants of Te'man:[b]

Surely the little ones of the flock will be dragged away.
He will make their dwelling place desolate because of them.[c]
21 At the sound of their falling, the earth has quaked.
There is an outcry!
The sound has been heard as far as the Red Sea.[d]
22 Look! Just like an eagle he will ascend and swoop down,[e]
And he will spread out his wings over Boz'rah.[f]
In that day the heart of the warriors of E'dom
Will become like the heart of a woman in childbirth."
23 For Damascus:[g]
"Ha'math[h] and Ar'pad have been put to shame,
For they have heard a bad report.
They melt in fear.
There is anxiety in the sea that cannot be calmed.
24 Damascus has lost courage.
She has turned to flee, but panic has seized her.
Distress and pain have taken hold of her,
Like a woman who is giving birth.
25 How is it that the city of praise has not been abandoned,
The town of exultation?
26 For her young men will fall in her public squares,
And all the soldiers will perish in that day," declares Jehovah of armies.

"Rise up, go up to Ke′dar,
And destroy the sons of the East.
29 Their tents and their flocks will be taken,
Their tent cloths and all their goods.
Their camels will be carried off,

devised a strategy
against you,
And he has thought out
a plan against you."
31 "Rise up, go up against the nation that is at peace, Dwelling in security!"
declares Jehovah.

And their abundant livestock
a spoil.

And I will bring their disaster from every direction,"
declares Jehovah.

33 "And Ha′zor will become a lair of jackals,
A perpetual desolation.
No one will dwell there,
And no man will settle
in her."

34 This is the word of Jehovah that came to Jeremiah the prophet concerning E′lam[a] in the beginning of the reign of King Zed·e·ki′ah[b] of Judah:
35 "This is what Jehovah of armies says, 'Here I am breaking the bow of E′lam,[c] the source* of their mightiness.
36 I will bring in on E′lam the four winds from the four extremities of the heavens, and I will scatter them to all these winds. There will not be a nation to which the dispersed ones of E′lam will not go.'"
37 "I will shatter the E′lamites before their enemies and before those seeking to take their life;* and I will bring calamity on them, my burning anger," declares Jehovah. "And I will send the sword after them until I have exterminated them."
38 "And I will set my throne in E′lam,[d] and I will destroy from there the king and the princes," declares Jehovah.
39 "But in the final part of the days, I will gather the captives of E′lam," declares Jehovah.

9 For here I am raising up and bringing against Babylon
An assembly of great nations from the land of the north.[a]
They will come against her in battle formation;
From there she will be captured.
Their arrows are like those of a warrior
Causing bereavement of children;[b]
They do not come back without results.
10 Chal·de′a will become a spoil.[c]
All those taking spoil from her will be fully satisfied,"[d] declares Jehovah.
11 "For you kept rejoicing,[e] you kept exulting
When pillaging my own inheritance.[f]
For you kept pawing like a heifer in the grass,
And you kept neighing like stallions.
12 Your mother has been put to shame.[g]
She who gave birth to you has been disappointed.
Look! She is the least of the nations,
A waterless wilderness and a desert.[h]
13 Because of the indignation of Jehovah she will not be inhabited;[i]
She will become utterly desolate.[j]
Anyone passing by Babylon will stare in horror
And whistle because of all her plagues.[k]
14 Come against Babylon in battle formation on every side,
All you who are bending* the bow.
Shoot at her, spare no arrow,[l]

50:14 *Lit., "treading."

For it is against Jehovah that she has sinned.[a] 15 Shout a war cry against her on every side.
She has surrendered.*
Her pillars have fallen, her walls are torn down,[b]
For it is the vengeance of Jehovah.[c]
Take your vengeance on her.
Do to her just as she has done.[d]
16 Cut off the sower from Babylon
And the one handling the sickle in harvesttime.[e]
Because of the cruel sword,
each will return to his own
people,
Each one will flee to his own land.[f]

17 "The people of Israel are scattered sheep.[g] Lions have dispersed them.[h] First the king of As·syr'i·a devoured them;[i] then King Neb·u·chad·nez'zar* of Babylon gnawed on their bones.[j] 18 Therefore this is what Jehovah of armies, the God of Israel, says: 'Here I will deal with the king of Babylon and with his land in the same way that I dealt with the king of As·syr'i·a.[k] 19 And I will bring Israel back to his pasture,[l] and he will graze on Car'mel and on Ba'shan,[m] and on the mountains of E'phra·im[n] and of Gil'e·ad[o] he* will be satisfied.'"

20 "In those days and at that time," declares Jehovah,
"Israel's guilt will be searched for,
But there will be none,
And the sins of Judah will not be found,
For I will forgive those whom
I let remain."[p]

21 "Go up against the land

the inhabitants of Pe'kod.[a] Let them be massacred and completely destroyed,"*
declares Jehovah.
"Do all that I have commanded you.
22 There is the sound of war
in the land,
A great catastrophe.
23 How the forge hammer of all the earth has been cut down and broken![b]
How Babylon has become an object of horror among the nations![c]
24 I have laid a snare for you, and you have been caught,
O Babylon,
And you did not know it.
You were found and captured,[d]
For it was Jehovah whom you opposed.
25 Jehovah has opened his storehouse,
And he brings out the weapons of his indignation.[e]
For the Sovereign Lord,
Jehovah of armies,
has a work
In the land of the Chal·de'ans.
26 Come against her from distant places.[f]
Open up her granaries.[g]
Pile her up like heaps of grain.
Destroy her completely.*[h]
May she have no one left.
27 Massacre all her young bulls;[i]
Let them go down to the slaughter.
Woe to them, for their day
has come,
Their time of reckoning!

50:21 *Or "and devote them to destruction." 50:26 *Or "Devote her to destruction."

28 There is the sound of those fleeing,
Those escaping from the land of Babylon,
To declare in Zion the vengeance of Jehovah our God,
The vengeance for his temple.[a]
29 Summon archers against Babylon,
All who are bending* the bow.[b]
Camp all around her; let no one escape.
Repay her according to her activity.[c]
Do to her just as she has done.[d]
For she has acted arrogantly against Jehovah, Against the Holy One of Israel.[e]
30 So her young men will fall in her public squares,[f]
And all her soldiers will perish* in that day,"
declares Jehovah.
31 "Look! I am against you,[g] O defiant one,"[h] declares the Sovereign Lord, Jehovah of armies,
"For your day must come, the time that I will call you to account.
32 You, O defiant one, will stumble and fall,
With no one to raise you up.[i]
And I will set your cities on fire,
And it will consume everything around you."
33 This is what Jehovah of armies says:
"The people of Israel and Judah are oppressed,
And all those taking them captive have held onto them.[j]
They have refused to let them go.[a] 34 But their Repurchaser is strong.[b]
Jehovah of armies is his name.[c]
He will surely plead their legal case,[d]
In order to give rest to the land[e]
And to bring agitation to the inhabitants of Babylon."[f]
35 "There is a sword against the Chal·de'ans," declares Jehovah,
"Against the inhabitants of Babylon and against her princes and against her wise ones.[g] 36 There is a sword against the empty talkers,* and they will act foolishly.
There is a sword against her warriors, and they will become terrified.[h]
37 There is a sword against their horses and their war chariots,
And against all the mixed populations in her midst,
And they will become like women.[i]
There is a sword against her treasures, and they will be plundered.[j]
38 There is a devastation on her waters, and they will be dried up.[k]
For it is a land of graven images,[l]
And because of their frightful visions they keep acting with madness.
39 Therefore, the desert creatures will dwell with the howling animals,
And in her the ostriches will dwell.[m]
She will never again be inhabited, like many waters.

The sound of their voice
will be heard.
56 For the destroyer will come upon Babylon;[a]
Her warriors will be captured,[b]
Their bows will be shattered,
For Jehovah is a God of retribution.[c]
He will surely repay.[d]
57 I will make her princes and her wise men drunk,[e]
Her governors and her deputy rulers and her warriors,
And they will sleep a lasting sleep,
From which they will not wake up,"[f] declares the King, whose name is Jehovah of armies.
58 This is what Jehovah of
armies says:
"The wall of Babylon, though broad, will be completely demolished,[g]
And her gates, though high,
will be set on fire.
The peoples will toil for nothing;
The nations will weary themselves just to feed
the fire."[h]

59 This is the word that Jeremiah the prophet gave as a command to Se·rai'ah son of Ne·ri'ah[i] son of Mah·sei'ah when he went with King Zed·e·ki'ah of Judah to Babylon in the fourth year of his reign; Se·rai'ah was the quartermaster. 60 Jeremiah wrote in one book all the calamity that would come upon Babylon, all these words written against Babylon. 61 Furthermore, Jeremiah said to Se·rai'ah: "When you come to Babylon and see her, you must read aloud all these words. 62 Then say, 'O Jehovah, you have said against this place that it will be destroyed and left without an inhabitant, man or beast, and that she will become desolate forever.'[a] 63 And when you finish reading this book, tie a stone to it and throw it into the middle of the Eu·phra′tes. 64 Then say, 'This is how Babylon will sink down and never rise again[b] because of the calamity that I am bringing on her; and they will grow weary.'"[c]

Down to this point are the words of Jeremiah.

52 Zed·e·ki′ah[d] was 21 years old when he became king, and he reigned for 11 years in Jerusalem. His mother's name was Ha·mu′tal[e] the daughter of Jeremiah of Lib′nah. 2 He continued to do what was bad in Jehovah's eyes, according to all that Je·hoi′a·kim had done.[f] 3 It was because of Jehovah's anger that these things took place in Jerusalem and in Judah, until he cast them out of his sight.[g] And Zed·e·ki′ah rebelled against the king of Babylon.[h] 4 In the ninth year of Zed·e·ki′ah's reign, in the tenth month, on the tenth day of the month, King Neb·u·chad·nez′zar* of Babylon came with all his army against Jerusalem. They camped against it and built a siege wall all around it.[i] 5 And the city was under siege until the 11th year of King Zed·e·ki′ah.

6 In the fourth month, on the ninth day of the month,[j] the famine was severe in the city, and there was no food for the people of the land.[k] 7 Finally the city wall was broken through, and all the soldiers fled from the city by night through the gate between the double wall near the king's garden, while the Chal·de′ans were surrounding the city; and they continued by the way of the Ar′a·bah.[a] 8 But the Chal·de′an army pursued the king, and they overtook Zed·e·ki′ah[b] in the desert plains of Jer′i·cho, and all his troops were scattered from his side. 9 Then they seized the king and brought him up to the king of Babylon at Rib′lah in the land of Ha′math, and he passed sentence on him. 10 And the king of Babylon slaughtered Zed·e·ki′ah's sons before his eyes, and he also slaughtered all the princes of Judah there at Rib′lah. 11 Then the king of Babylon blinded Zed·e·ki′ah's eyes,[c] bound him with copper fetters, brought him to Babylon, and kept him imprisoned until the day of his death.

12 In the fifth month, on the tenth day of the month, that is, in the 19th year of King Neb·u·chad·nez′zar* the king of Babylon, Neb·u′zar·ad′an the chief of the guard, who was an attendant of the king of Babylon, came into Jerusalem.[d] 13 He burned down the house of Jehovah,[e] the king's house,* and all the houses of Jerusalem; he also burned down every large house. 14 And the walls surrounding Jerusalem were pulled down by the entire Chal·de′an army that was with the chief of the guard.[f]

15 Neb·u′zar·ad′an the chief of the guard took into exile some of the lowly people and the rest of the people who were left in the city. He also took the deserters who had defected to the king of Babylon as well as the rest of the master craftsmen.[g] 16 But Neb·u′zar·ad′an the chief of the guard left some of the poorest people of the land to serve as

17 And the Chal·de'ans broke into pieces the copper pillars[b] of the house of Jehovah and the carriages[c] and the copper Sea[d] that were in the house of Jehovah, and they carried all the copper away to Babylon.[e] 18 They also took the cans, the shovels, the extinguishers, the bowls,[f] the cups,[g] and all the copper utensils used in the temple service. 19 The chief of the guard took the basins,[h] the fire holders, the bowls, the cans, the lampstands,[i] the cups, and the bowls that were of genuine gold and silver.[j] 20 As for the two pillars, the Sea, the 12 copper bulls[k] under the Sea, and the carriages that King Sol'o·mon had made for the house of Jehovah, the copper of all these articles was beyond weighing.

21 As for the pillars, each pillar was 18 cubits* high, a measuring cord of 12 cubits could encircle it;[l] its thickness was four fingerbreadths,# and it was hollow. 22 And the capital on it was of copper; and the height of the one capital was five cubits;[m] and the network and pomegranates all around on the capital were all made of copper. The second pillar was just like it, also the pomegranates. 23 There were 96 pomegranates on the sides; in all, there were 100 pomegranates around the network.[n]

24 The chief of the guard also took Se·rai'ah[o] the chief priest, Zeph·a·ni'ah[p] the second priest, and the three doorkeepers.[q] 25 And he took from the city one court official who was the commissioner over the soldiers, seven close associates of the king who were found in the city, as well as the secretary of the chief of the army, the one mustering the people of the land, and 60 men of the common people of the land who were yet found in the city. 26 Neb·u'zar-ad'an the chief of the guard took them and brought them to the king of Babylon at Rib'lah. 27 The king of Babylon struck them down and put them to death at Rib'lah[a] in the land of Ha'math. Thus Judah went into exile from its land.[b]

28 These are the people whom Neb·u·chad·nez'zar* took into exile: in the seventh year, 3,023 Jews.[c]

29 In the 18th year of Neb·u·chad·nez'zar,*[d] 832 people# were taken from Jerusalem.

30 In the 23rd year of Neb·u·chad·nez'zar,* Neb·u'zar·ad'an the chief of the guard took Jews into exile, 745 people.#[e]

In all, 4,600 people# were taken into exile.

31 Then in the 37th year of the exile of King Je·hoi'a·chin[f] of Judah, in the 12th month, on the 25th day of the month, King E'vil-mer'o·dach of Babylon, in the year he became king, released* King Je·hoi'a·chin of Judah and brought him out of prison.[g] 32 He spoke kindly with him and put his throne higher than the thrones of the other kings who were with him in Babylon. 33 So Je·hoi'a·chin took off his prison garments, and he regularly ate before him all the days of his life. 34 A regular allowance of food was given him from the king of Babylon, day after day, until the day of his death, all the days of his life.

א [Aleph]*

1 How she now sits all alone, the city that was full of people![a]
How she has become like a widow, she who was populous among the nations![b]
How she who was a princess among the provinces# has been put to forced labor![c]

ב [Beth]

2 She weeps profusely during the night,[d] and her tears cover her cheeks.
Not one of all her lovers is there to comfort her.[e]
All her own companions have betrayed her;[f] they have become her enemies.

ג [Gimel]

3 Judah has gone into exile[g] under affliction and harsh slavery.[h]
She must dwell among the nations;[a] she finds no resting-place.
All her persecutors have overtaken her in her distress.

ד [Daleth]

4 The roads to Zion are mourning, because no one is coming to the festival.[b]
All her gates are desolate;[c] her priests are sighing.
Her virgins* are grieving, and she is in bitter anguish.

ה [He]

5 Her adversaries are now her master;* her enemies are carefree.[d]
For Jehovah has brought grief to her because of her many transgressions.[e]
Her children have gone into captivity before the adversary.[f]

6 All the splendor has departed from the daughter of Zion.[a]
Her princes are like stags that have found no
pasture,
And they walk exhausted
before the pursuer.

ז [Zayin]

7 In the days of her affliction and her homelessness,
Jerusalem remembers
All the precious things that were hers in the days of long ago.[b]
When her people fell into the hand of the adversary and she had no helper,[c]
The adversaries saw her and laughed* over her collapse.[d]

ח [Heth]

8 Jerusalem has sinned greatly.[e]
That is why she has become something abhorrent.
All who used to honor her now treat her as something contemptible, for they have seen her nakedness.[f]
She herself groans[g] and turns away in shame.

ט [Teth]

9 Her uncleanness is in her skirts.
She gave no thought to her future.[h]
Her downfall was astounding; she has no one to comfort her.
O Jehovah, see my affliction, for the enemy has magnified himself.[i]

י [Yod]

10 The adversary has laid his hands on all her treasures.[j]
For she has seen nations enter her sanctuary,[k]
Those whom you commanded should not enter into your congregation.

11 All her people are sighing;
they are looking for bread.[a]
They have given their valuable things for something to eat, just to stay alive.*
Look, O Jehovah, and see that I have become as a worthless woman.#

ל [Lamed]

12 Is it nothing to all of you who pass along the road?
Look and see!
Is there any pain like the pain that was dealt out to me,
Which Jehovah made me suffer in the day of his burning anger?[b]

מ [Mem]

13 From on high he has sent fire into my bones,[c] and he subdues each one.
He has spread out a net for my feet; he has forced me to turn backward.
He has made me a desolate
woman.
All day long I am ill.

נ [Nun]

14 My transgressions are bound as a yoke, fastened together by his hand.
They have been placed on my neck, and my strength has failed.
Jehovah has given me into the hand of those whom
I cannot resist.[d]

ס [Samekh]

15 Jehovah has tossed aside all the powerful men in my midst.[e]
He has summoned an assembly against me to crush my young men.[f] Jehovah has trodden the virgin daughter of Judah
in the winepress.[g]

1:11 *Or "to restore the soul." #A personification referring to Jerusalem.

ע [Ayin]

16 I am weeping because of these things;[a] my eyes flow with tears.
For anyone who could comfort me or refresh me* is far away from me.
My sons are desolate, for the enemy has prevailed.

פ [Pe]

17 Zion has spread out her hands;[b] she has no one to comfort her.
Jehovah has given an order against Jacob to all his adversaries around him.[c]
Jerusalem has become to them an abhorrent thing.[d]

צ [Tsade]

18 Jehovah is righteous,[e] for it is against his commands* that I have rebelled.[f]
Listen, all you peoples, and see my pain.
My virgins# and my young men have gone into captivity.[g]

ק [Qoph]

19 I have called out to my lovers, but they have betrayed me.[h]
In the city my priests and my elders have perished,
While they searched for food in order to stay alive.*[i]

ר [Resh]

20 See, O Jehovah, for I am in great distress.
My insides* are churning.
My heart has turned over within me, for I have been completely rebellious.[j]
Outside the sword bereaves;[k] inside the house it is like death.

ש [Shin]

21 People have heard my sighing; there is no one to comfort me.
All my enemies have heard of my calamity.
They are joyful, because you brought it about.[a]
But you will bring about the day that you proclaimed,[b] when they will become like me.[c]

ת [Taw]

22 May all their badness come before you, and may you deal harshly with them,[d]
Just as you have dealt harshly with me because of all my transgressions.
For my sighs are many, and my heart is sick.

א [Aleph]

2 How Jehovah has covered the daughter of Zion in the cloud of his anger!
He has thrown down the beauty of Israel from heaven to earth.[e]
He has not remembered his footstool[f] in the day of his anger.

ב [Beth]

2 Jehovah has swallowed up without compassion all the dwellings of Jacob.
In his fury he has torn down the fortified places of the daughter of Judah.[g]
He has brought down to the ground and profaned the kingdom[h] and her princes.[i]

ג [Gimel]

3 In the heat of anger he has cut down all the strength* of Israel.
He withdrew his right hand when the enemy approached,[j]
And in Jacob he kept burning like a fire that consumed everything around it.[k]

צ [Tsade]

18 Their heart cries out to Jehovah, O wall of the daughter of Zion.
Let tears stream down like a torrent day and night.
Give yourself no respite,
give your eye* no rest.

ק [Qoph]

19 Rise up! Cry out during the night, at the start of the watches.
Pour out your heart like water before the face of Jehovah.
Raise your hands to him for the lives* of your children,
Who are fainting away
at every street corner# [a] because of famine.[a]

ר [Resh]

20 See, O Jehovah, and look upon the one with whom you have dealt so harshly.
Should women keep eating their own offspring,* their own fully formed
children,[b]
Or should priests and prophets be killed in the sanctuary of Jehovah?[c]

ש [Shin]

21 Young boy and old man are lying dead on the ground in the streets.[d]
My virgins* and my young men have fallen by the sword.[e]
You have killed in the day of your anger; you have slaughtered without compassion.[f]

ת [Taw]

22 As if for a festival day,[g]
you summon terrors
from every direction.
In the day of the wrath of Jehovah, no one escaped or survived;[h]

2:18 *Lit., "the daughter of your eye." 2:19 *Or "souls." #Lit., "at the head of all streets." 2:20 *Or "fruitage." 2:21 *Or "young women."

Those whom I gave birth to* and reared, my enemy exterminated.[a]

א [Aleph]

3 I am the man who has seen affliction because of the rod of his fury.
2 He has driven me out and makes me walk in darkness, not in light.[b] 3 Indeed, he repeatedly brings his hand against me all day long.[c]

ב [Beth]

4 He has worn away my flesh and my skin;
He has broken my bones.
5 He has besieged me; he has surrounded me with bitter poison[d] and hardship.
6 He has forced me to sit in dark places, like men who died long ago.

ג [Gimel]

7 He has walled me in, so that I cannot escape;
He has bound me with heavy copper fetters.[e]
8 And when I cry out desperately for help,
he rejects* my prayer.[f] 9 He has blocked up my paths with hewn stones;
He has made my roadways
crooked.[g]

ד [Daleth]

10 He waits to ambush me like a bear, like a lion in hiding.[h] 11 He has forced me off the paths and torn me to pieces;*
He has made me desolate.[i] 12 He has bent* his bow, and he sets me up as the target for the arrow.

ה [He]

13 He has pierced my kidneys with the arrows* of his quiver.

14 I have become a laughingstock to all the peoples, the theme of their song
all day long.
15 He has filled me with bitter things and saturated me with wormwood.[a]

ו [Waw]

16 He breaks my teeth with gravel;
He makes me cower in
the ashes.[b]
17 You deprive me* of peace;
I have forgotten what is good.
18 So I say: "My splendor has perished, as well as my expectation in Jehovah."

ז [Zayin]

19 Remember my affliction and my homeless state,[c] the wormwood and the bitter poison.[d]
20 You* will surely remember and bow low over me.[e] 21 I recall this in my heart;
that is why I will show a waiting attitude.[f]

ח [Heth]

22 It is because of Jehovah's loyal love that we have not come to our finish,[g]
For his mercies never end.[h]
23 They are new each morning;[i] your faithfulness is abundant.[j]
24 "Jehovah is my share,"[k]
I have said,* "that is why I will show a waiting attitude for him."[l]

ט [Teth]

25 Good is Jehovah to the one hoping in him,[m]
to the person* who keeps seeking him.[n] 26 Good it is to wait in silence*[o] for the salvation of Jehovah.[p]

1 In the 30th year, on the fifth day of the fourth month, while I was among the exiled people[a] by the river Che'bar,[b] the heavens were opened and I began to see visions of God. 2 On the fifth day of the month —that is, in the fifth year of the exile of King Je·hoi'a·chin[c]— 3 the word of Jehovah came to Ezekiel* son of Bu'zi the priest by the river Che'bar in the land of the Chal·de'ans.[d] There the hand of Jehovah came upon him.[e]

4 As I was looking, I saw a tempestuous wind[f] coming from the north, and there was a huge cloud and flashing fire*[g] surrounded by a bright light, and from the midst of the fire was something that looked like electrum.#[h] 5 Within it were what looked like four living creatures,[i] and the appearance of each one was like that of a human. 6 Each one had four faces and four wings.[j] 7 Their feet were straight, and the soles of their feet were like those of a calf, and they were shining like the glow of burnished copper.[k] 8 They had human hands under their wings on all four sides, and the four of them had faces and wings. 9 Their wings were touching one another. They would not turn when they went; they would each go straight forward.[a]

10 Their faces had this appearance: Each of the four had a man's face with a lion's[b] face on the right, a bull's[c] face on the left, and each of the four had an eagle's[d] face.[e] 11 That is how their faces were. Their wings were spread out above them. Each had two wings that were touching one another and two wings covering their bodies.[f]

12 They would each go straight forward, going wherever the spirit would incline them to go.[g] They would not turn as they went. 13 And the living creatures had the appearance of burning coals of fire, and something that looked like torches of bright fire was moving back and forth between the living creatures, and lightning was flashing out from the fire.[h] 14 And when the living creatures would go forth and return, their movement had the appearance of flashes of lightning.

15 As I was watching the living creatures, I saw one wheel on the earth beside each of the living creatures with four faces.[i] 16 The wheels and their structure appeared to glow like chrys'o·lite, and the four of them looked alike. Their appearance and structure looked as though a wheel were within a wheel.* 17 When they moved, they could go in any of the four directions without turning as they went. 18 Their rims were so high that they inspired awe, and the rims of all four were full of eyes all around.[a] 19 Whenever the living creatures moved, the wheels would move along with them, and when the living creatures were lifted up from the earth, the wheels would also be lifted up.[b] 20 They would go where the spirit inclined them to go, wherever the spirit went. The wheels would be lifted up together with them, for the spirit operating on the living creatures* was also in the wheels. 21 When they moved, these would move; and when they stood still, these would stand still; and when they were lifted up from the earth, the wheels would be lifted up together with them, for the spirit operating on the living creatures was also in the wheels.

22 Over the heads of the living creatures was the likeness of an expanse that sparkled like awesome ice, stretched out above their heads.[c] 23 Under the expanse their wings were straight,* one to the other. Each one had two wings for covering one side of their bodies and two for covering the other side. 24 When I heard the sound of their wings, it was like a sound of rushing waters, like the sound of the Almighty.[d] When they moved, it was like the sound of an army. When they stood still, they would let their wings down.

25 There was a voice above the expanse over their heads. (When they stood still, they would let their wings down.) 26 Above the expanse that was over their heads was what looked like a sapphire stone,[a] and it resembled a throne.[b] Sitting on the throne up above was someone whose appearance resembled that of a human.[c] 27 I saw something glowing like electrum[d] that was like a fire radiating from what appeared to be his waist and upward; and from his waist down, I saw something that resembled fire.[e] There was a brilliance all around him 28 like that of a rainbow[f] in a cloud on a rainy day. That was how the surrounding brilliant light appeared. It was like the appearance of the glory of Jehovah.[g] When I saw it, I fell facedown and began to hear the voice of someone speaking.

2 He then said to me: "Son of man,* stand up on your feet that I may speak with you."[h] 2 When he spoke to me, spirit came into me and made me stand up on my feet[i] so that I could hear the One speaking to me.

3 He went on to say to me: "Son of man, I am sending you to the people of Israel,[j] to rebellious nations that have rebelled against me.[k] They and their forefathers have transgressed against me down to this very day.[l] 4 I am sending you to sons who are defiant* and hard-hearted,[m] and you must say to them, 'This is what the Sovereign Lord Jehovah says.' 5 As for them, whether they listen or refuse to listen—for they are a rebellious house[n]—they will certainly know that a prophet was among them.[o]

not be afraid of their words, although you are surrounded by briars and thorns*[a] and are dwelling among scorpions. Do not be afraid of their words,[b] and do not be terrified by their faces,[c] for they are a rebellious house. 7 You must speak my words to them, whether they listen or not, for they are a rebellious people.[d]

8 "But you, son of man, listen to what I am telling you. Do not become rebellious like this rebellious house. Open your mouth and eat what I am giving you."[e]

9 When I looked, I saw a hand stretched out to me,[f] and in it I saw a written scroll.[g] 10 When he spread it out before me, it had writing on both front and back.[h] Dirges and mourning and wailing were written on it.[i]

3 Then he said to me: "Son of man, eat what is before you.* Eat this scroll, and go, speak to the house of Israel."[j]

2 So I opened my mouth, and he made me eat this scroll. 3 He went on to say to me: "Son of man, eat this scroll that I am giving you, and fill your stomach with it." So I began to eat it, and it was as sweet as honey in my mouth.[k]

4 He said to me: "Son of man, go in among the house of Israel and speak my words to them. 5 For you are not being sent to a people who speak an unintelligible language or an unknown tongue, but to the house of Israel. 6 You are not being sent to many peoples speaking an unintelligible language or an unknown tongue, whose words you cannot understand. If I would send you to them, they would listen to you.[a] 7 But the house of Israel will refuse to listen to you, for they do not want to listen to me.[b] All those of the house of Israel are hardheaded and hardhearted.[c] 8 Look! I have made your face exactly as hard as their faces and your forehead exactly as hard as their foreheads.[d] 9 I have made your forehead like a diamond, harder than flint.[e] Do not be afraid of them or be terrified by their faces,[f] for they are a rebellious house."

10 He went on to say to me: "Son of man, take to heart and listen to all my words that I speak to you. 11 Go in among the exiles of your people*[g] and speak to them. Tell them, 'This is what the Sovereign Lord Jehovah says,' whether they listen or refuse to listen."[h]

12 A spirit then carried me along[i] and I heard behind me a great rumbling sound that said: "May the glory of Jehovah be praised from his place." 13 There was the sound of the wings of the living creatures as they were brushing against one another,[j] and the sound of the wheels next to them,[k] and the sound of a great rumbling. 14 And the spirit carried me along and took me, and I went in bitterness and in the rage of my spirit, and the hand of Jehovah rested strongly on me. 15 So I went to the exiled people at Tel-a'bib, who were dwelling by the river Che'bar,[l] and I stayed there where they were dwelling; and in a dazed condition,[m] I stayed among them for seven days.

16 At the end of seven days the word of Jehovah came to me:

26 And I will make your tongue stick to the roof of your mouth, and you will become mute, unable to reprove them, because they are a rebellious house. 27 But when I speak with you I will open your mouth, and you must say to them,[a] 'This is what the Sovereign Lord Jehovah says.' Let the one listening listen,[b] and let the one refusing to listen refuse, because they are a rebellious house.[c]

4 "And you, son of man, take a brick and put it in front of you. Engrave on it a city—Jerusalem. 2 Lay siege to it,[d] build a siege wall against it,[e] raise up a siege rampart against it,[f] set up camps against it, and surround it with battering rams.[g] 3 Take an iron griddle and place it as an iron wall between you and the city. Then set your face against it, and it will be under siege; you are to besiege it. This is a sign to the house of Israel.[h]

4 "Then you should lie on your left side and lay the guilt of the house of Israel on yourself.*[i] You will carry their guilt for the number of days that you lie on your side. 5 And I will impose on you 390 days, corresponding to the years of their guilt,[j] and you will carry the guilt of the house of Israel. 6 And you must complete them.

"Then for a second time you will lie down, on your right side, and you will carry the guilt of the house of Judah[k] for 40 days. A day for a year, a day for a year, is what I have given you. 7 And you will turn your face toward the siege of Jerusalem[l] with your arm bared, and you must prophesy against it.

8 "Look! I will tie you with ropes so that you cannot turn from your one side to your other side until you have completed the days of your siege.

9 "And you should take wheat, barley, broad beans, lentils, millet, and spelt and put them in one container and make them into bread for yourself. For the number of the days that you are lying on your side, 390 days, you will eat it.[a] 10 You will weigh out and eat 20 shekels* of food per day. You will eat it at set times.

11 "And you will drink water by measure, a sixth of a hin.* You will drink it at set times.

12 "You will eat it as you would a round barley loaf; you will bake it before their eyes, using dried human excrement as fuel." 13 Jehovah went on to say: "This is how the Israelites will eat their bread—unclean—among the nations where I will disperse them."[b]

14 I then said: "Not that, Sovereign Lord Jehovah! From my youth until now, I have* not been defiled by eating meat from an animal found dead or a torn animal,[c] and no unclean# meat has entered my mouth."[d]

15 So he said to me: "All right, I will allow you to use cattle manure instead of human excrement, and you will bake your bread over it." 16 He then said to me: "Son of man, here I am cutting off your food supply* in Jerusalem,[e] and with great anxiety they will eat their bread ration by weight,[f] and in horror they will drink their water ration by measure.[g] 17 This will happen so that lacking bread and water, they may look in shock at one another and waste away because of their error.

5 "As for you, son of man, take a sharp sword for yourself to use as a barber's razor. Shave your head and your beard, and then take scales to weigh and divide the hair into portions. 2 You will burn a third of it in the fire inside the city when the days of the siege are completed.[a] Then you will take another third and strike it with the sword all around the city,*[b] and the last third you will scatter to the wind, and I will draw a sword to chase after them.[c]

3 "You must also take a few strands of them and wrap them up in the folds* of your garment. 4 And take some more of them and throw them into the fire and incinerate them. From this a fire will spread to all the house of Israel.[d]

5 "This is what the Sovereign Lord Jehovah says: 'This is Jerusalem. I have set her in the middle of the nations, with lands all around her. 6 But she has rebelled against my judicial decisions and my statutes, acting more wickedly than the nations and the lands all around her.[e] For they have rejected my judicial decisions, and they did not walk in my statutes.'

7 "Therefore this is what the Sovereign Lord Jehovah says: 'Because you were more troublesome than the nations all around you and you did not walk in my statutes or carry out my judicial decisions but, instead, you followed the judicial decisions of the nations all around you,[f] 8 this is what the Sovereign Lord Jehovah says: "Here I am against you, O city,[g] and I myself will execute judgment in your midst before the eyes of the nations.[h] 9 I will do in you what

ting in my house and the elders of Judah were sitting before me, the hand of the Sovereign Lord Jehovah took hold of me there. 2 As I watched, I saw a form similar to the appearance of fire; there was fire below what appeared to be his waist,[a] and from his waist upward his appearance was bright, like the glow of electrum.[b] 3 Then he stretched out what appeared to be a hand and took me by a tuft of hair of my head, and a spirit carried me between the earth and the heavens and brought me to Jerusalem by means of the visions from God, to the entrance of the inner gate[c] that faces north, where the idolatrous symbol of jealousy that incites jealousy stood.[d] 4 And look! the glory of the God of Israel was there,[e] like the appearance that I had seen in the valley plain.[f]

5 He then said to me: "Son of man, please raise your eyes toward the north." So I raised my eyes toward the north, and there, north of the gate of the altar, was this symbol* of jealousy in the entryway. 6 And he said to me: "Son of man, do you see what terrible, detestable things the house of Israel is doing here,[g] things that make me go far away from my sanctuary?[h] But you will see detestable things that are even more terrible."

7 Then he brought me to the entrance of the courtyard, and when I looked, I saw a hole in the wall. 8 He said to me: "Son of man, please bore through the wall." So I bored through the wall, and I saw an entryway. 9 He said to me: "Go in and see the evil, detestable things that they are doing here." 10 So I went in and looked, and I saw all sorts of images of creeping things and loathsome beasts[a] and all the disgusting idols* of the house of Israel;[b] they were carved on the wall all around. 11 And 70 of the elders of the house of Israel were standing before them, with Ja·az·a·ni′ah the son of Sha′phan[c] standing among them. Each one had his censer in his hand, and the perfumed cloud of incense was ascending.[d] 12 He said to me: "Son of man, do you see what the elders of the house of Israel are doing in the darkness, each one in the inner rooms where his idols are displayed?* For they are saying, 'Jehovah is not seeing us. Jehovah has left the land.'"[e]

13 And he went on to say to me: "You will see detestable things that are even more terrible that they are doing." 14 So he brought me to the entrance of the north gate of the house of Jehovah, and there I saw women sitting and weeping over the god Tam′muz.

15 And he further said to me: "Do you see this, O son of man? You will see detestable things that are even more terrible that are worse than these."[f] 16 So he brought me to the inner courtyard of the house of Jehovah.[g] There at the entrance of the temple of Jehovah, between the porch and the altar, were about 25 men with their backs to the temple of Jehovah and their faces to the east; they were bowing down to the sun in the east.[h]

17 He said to me: "Son of man, do you see this? Is it a trivial thing for the house of Judah to do these detestable things, to fill the land with violence[i] and

2 I saw six men coming from the direction of the upper gate[c] that faces north, each with his weapon for smashing in his hand; and there was one man among them clothed in linen, with a secretary's inkhorn* at his waist, and they came in and stood beside the copper altar.[d]

7 Then he said to them: "Defile the house and fill the courtyards with the slain.[a] Go!" So they went out and struck down people in the city.

8 While they were striking them down, I alone was left, and I fell facedown and cried out: "Alas, O Sovereign Lord Jehovah! Are you going to destroy all the remaining ones of Israel while you pour out your rage on Jerusalem?"[b]

9 So he said to me: "The error of the house of Israel and Judah is very, very great.[c] The land is filled with bloodshed,[d] and the city is full of corruption.[e] For they say, 'Jehovah has left the land, and Jehovah is not seeing.'[f] 10 But as for me, my eye will not feel sorry; nor will I show compassion.[g] The consequences of their way I will bring down on their own head."

11 Then I saw the man clothed in linen with the inkhorn at his waist bringing back word, saying: "I have done just as you have commanded me."

10 As I was watching, I saw above the expanse that was over the heads of the cherubs something like a sapphire stone appearing above them, and its appearance resembled a throne.[h] 2 Then he said to the man clothed in linen:[i] "Enter between the wheelwork,[j] under the cherubs, and fill both your hands with burning coals[k] from between the cherubs and toss them over the city."[l] So he entered as I watched.

3 The cherubs were standing to the right of the house when the man entered, and the cloud filled the inner courtyard. 4 And the glory of Jehovah[m] rose up from the cherubs to the threshold of the doorway of the house, and the house gradually became filled with the cloud,[n]

and the courtyard was full of the brightness of the glory of Jehovah. 5 And the sound of the wings of the cherubs could be heard in the outer courtyard, like the sound of God Almighty when he speaks.[a]

6 Then he commanded the man clothed in linen: "Take fire from between the wheelwork, from between the cherubs," and he entered and stood beside the wheel. 7 Then one of the cherubs stretched his hand out toward the fire that was between the cherubs.[b] He took some and put it into both hands of the one clothed in linen,[c] who now took it and went out. 8 The cherubs had what looked like the form of human hands under their wings.[d]

9 As I was watching, I saw four wheels beside the cherubs, one wheel beside each cherub, and the wheels appeared to glow like chrys'o·lite stone.[e] 10 As for their appearance, the four of them were alike, looking as though a wheel were within a wheel. 11 When they moved, they could go in any of the four directions without turning, because they would go to the place where the head would face without turning. 12 Their entire bodies, their backs, their hands, their wings, and the wheels, the wheels of all four of them, were full of eyes all around.[f] 13 As regards the wheels, I heard a voice that called to them, "Wheelwork!"

14 Each one* had four faces. The first face was the face of the cherub, the second face was the face of a man,# the third was the face of a lion, and the fourth was the face of an eagle.[g]

15 And the cherubs would rise—they were the same living creatures* that I had seen at the river Che'bar[a]— 16 and when the cherubs moved, the wheels would move alongside them; and when the cherubs lifted up their wings to be high above the earth, the wheels would not turn or move from their side.[b] 17 When these stood still, they would stand still; and when these rose, they would rise with them, for the spirit operating on the living creatures* was in them.

18 Then the glory of Jehovah[c] departed from over the threshold of the doorway of the house and stood still over the cherubs.[d] 19 The cherubs now lifted up their wings and rose from the earth as I watched. The wheels were also alongside them when they departed. They stopped at the entrance of the eastern gate of the house of Jehovah, and the glory of the God of Israel was above them.[e]

20 These were the living creatures* that I had seen under the God of Israel at the river Che'bar,[f] so I came to know that they were cherubs. 21 All four had four faces, four wings, and what appeared to be human hands under their wings.[g] 22 And the appearances of their faces were like the faces I had seen by the river Che'bar.[h] They would each go straight forward.[i]

11 And a spirit lifted me up and brought me to the eastern gate of the house of Jehovah, the gate that faces east.[j] There at the entrance of the gate I saw 25 men, and among them were Ja·az·a·ni'ah the son of Az'zur and Pel·a·ti'ah the son of Benai'ah, princes of the people.[k]

10:14 *That is, each of the cherubs. #Or "human."

13 As soon as I prophesied, Pel·a·ti'ah the son of Be·nai'ah died, and I fell facedown and cried with a loud voice: "Alas, O Sovereign Lord Jehovah! Are you going to exterminate the remaining ones of Israel?"[a]

14 The word of Jehovah again came to me, saying: 15 "Son of man, your brothers, those of your brothers with the right of repurchase, along with the entire house of Israel, have been told by the inhabitants of Jerusalem, 'Keep far away from Jehovah. The land is ours; it has been given to us as a possession.' 16 Therefore say, 'This is what the Sovereign Lord Jehovah says: "Although I have removed them far away among the nations and I have scattered them among the lands,[b] for a little while I will become a sanctuary for them in the lands to which they have gone."'[c]

17 "Therefore say, 'This is what the Sovereign Lord Jehovah says: "I will also collect you from the peoples and gather you from the lands to which you have been scattered, and I will give you the land of Israel.[d] 18 And they will return there and remove from it all its disgusting things and detestable practices.[e] 19 And I will give them a unified heart, *[f] and I will put a new spirit in them;[g] and I will remove the heart of stone from their bodies[h] and give them a heart of flesh,#[i] 20 in order that they may walk in my statutes and observe my judgments and obey them. 22 The cherubs now lifted up their wings, and the wheels were close to them,[a] and the glory of the God of Israel was above them.[b] 23 Then the glory of Jehovah[c] ascended from the city and stopped over the mountain to the east of the city.[d] 24 A spirit then lifted me up—through a vision by the spirit of God—and brought me to the exiled people in Chal·de′a. Then the vision that I had seen left me. 25 And I began to tell the exiled people all the things that Jehovah had shown me.

12 The word of Jehovah again came to me, saying: 2 "Son of man, you are living in a rebellious house. They have eyes to see, but they do not see, and ears to hear, but they do not hear,[e] for they are a rebellious house.[f] 3 As for you, son of man, prepare for yourself luggage for going into exile. Then, during the day while they are watching, you must go into exile. Go into exile from your home to another place while they are watching. Perhaps they will take notice, even though they are a rebellious house. 4 Bring out your luggage packed for going into exile during the day while they are watching, and then in the evening while they are watching, you should leave like someone being taken into exile.[g]

5 "While they are watching, bore a hole in the wall, and carry your belongings out through it.[h] 6 While they are watching, put your belongings on your shoulder and carry them out in the darkness. Cover your face so that you cannot see the ground, for I am making you a sign to the house of Israel."[i]

7 I did just as I was commanded. During the day I brought out my luggage as luggage for going into exile, and in the evening I bored a hole through the wall by hand. And when it was dark, I took out my belongings, carrying them on my shoulder right before their eyes.

8 In the morning the word of Jehovah again came to me, saying: 9 "Son of man, did not the house of Israel, the rebellious house, ask you, 'What are you doing?' 10 Tell them, 'This is what the Sovereign Lord Jehovah says: "This pronouncement concerns the chieftain[a] in Jerusalem and all the house of Israel within the city."'

11 "Say, 'I am a sign for you.[b] Just as I have done, that is what will be done to them. They will go into exile, into captivity.[c] 12 The chieftain who is among them will carry his belongings on his shoulder and leave in the darkness. He will bore a hole in the wall and carry his belongings out through it.[d] He will cover his face so that he cannot see the ground.' 13 I will cast my net over him, and he will be caught in my hunting net.[e] Then I will bring him to Babylon, to the land of the Chal·de′ans, but he will not see it; and there he will die.[f] 14 And all those around him, his helpers and his troops, I will scatter in every direction;[g] and I will draw out a sword to chase after them.[h] 15 And they will have to know that I am Jehovah when I disperse them among the nations and I scatter them among the lands. 16 But I will spare a few of them from the sword, the famine, and the pestilence, so that they may tell about all their detestable practices among the nations where they will go; and they will have to know that I am Jehovah."

17 And the word of Jehovah again came to me, saying: 18 "Son of man, you should eat

13 And the word of Jehovah again came to me, saying: 2 "Son of man, prophesy against the prophets of Israel,[a] and say to those who fabricate their own prophecies,*[b] 'Hear the word of Jehovah. 3 This is what the Sovereign Lord Jehovah says: "Woe to the stupid prophets, who follow their own spirit, when they have seen nothing![c] 4 O Israel, your prophets have become like foxes among the ruins. 5 You will not go to the broken places in the stone walls to rebuild them for the house of Israel,[d] so that Israel may keep standing in the battle in the day of Jehovah."[e] 6 "They have seen false visions and foretold a lie, those who are saying, 'The word of Jehovah is,' when Jehovah himself has not sent them, and they have waited for their word to come true.[f] 7 Is it not a false vision that you have seen and a lie that you have foretold when you say, 'The word of Jehovah is,' when I have not said anything?"'

8 "'Therefore this is what the Sovereign Lord Jehovah says: "'Because you have spoken what is false and your visions are a lie, I am against you,' declares the Sovereign Lord Jehovah."'[g] 9 My hand is against the prophets whose visions are false and who foretell a lie.[h] They will not be among the people with whom I confide; nor will they be written in the registry of the house of Israel; nor will they return to the land of Israel; and you will have to know that I am the Sovereign Lord Jehovah.[i] 10 All of this is because they have led my people astray by saying, "There

11 "Tell those plastering with whitewash that it will fall. A torrential downpour will come, hailstones* will fall, and powerful windstorms will break it down.[c] 12 And when the wall falls you will be asked, 'Where is your coating of plaster?'[d]

13 "Therefore this is what the Sovereign Lord Jehovah says: 'I will cause powerful windstorms to burst forth in my wrath, and a torrential downpour in my anger, and hailstones in destructive fury. 14 I will tear down the wall that you plastered with whitewash and bring it down to the earth, and its foundation will be exposed. When the city falls, you will perish within her; and you will have to know that I am Jehovah.'

15 "'When I fully unleash my wrath upon the wall and upon those who plastered it with whitewash, I will say to you: "The wall is no more, and those plastering it are no more.[e] 16 The prophets of Israel are gone, those who prophesy to Jerusalem and who see visions of peace for her, when there is no peace,"'[f] declares the Sovereign Lord Jehovah.

17 "As for you, son of man, set your face against the daughters of your people who fabricate their own prophecies, and prophesy against them. 18 Tell them, 'This is what the Sovereign Lord Jehovah says: "Woe to the women who sew together bands for all arms* and make veils for heads of every size in order to hunt down people's lives!* Are you hunting for the lives* of my people and trying to preserve your own lives?* 19 Will you profane me among my people for handfuls of barley and for scraps of bread,[a] putting to death those* who should not die and keeping alive those* who should not live, doing so by your lies to my people, who listen to your lies?"'[b]

20 "Therefore this is what the Sovereign Lord Jehovah says: 'Here I am against your bands, O women, which you use to hunt down people* as though they were birds, and I will rip them from your arms and release those whom you are hunting down like birds. 21 I will rip away your veils and rescue my people out of your hand, and they will no longer be something for you to catch in the hunt; and you will have to know that I am Jehovah.[c] 22 For you have disheartened the righteous one with your falsehood[d] when I was not causing him distress,* and you have strengthened the hands of the wicked one,[e] so that he does not turn back from his bad way and stay alive.[f] 23 Therefore, you women will no longer see false visions and practice divination;[g] and I will rescue my people from your hand, and you will have to know that I am Jehovah.'"

This was the error of Sod'om your sister: She and her daughters[h] were proud[i] and had an abundance of food[j] and carefree tranquillity;[k] yet they did not support the afflicted and the poor.[l] 50 They remained haughty[m] and carried on detestable practices in my sight,[n] so I found it necessary to remove them.[o]

51 "'Nor did Sa·mar'i·a[p] commit even half as many sins as you did. You kept making your detestable practices abound more than they have, to the point that your sisters appeared righteous because of all your detestable practices.[a] 52 You must now bear your humiliation because you have justified the behavior* of your sisters. On account of your sin of acting more detestably than they have, they are more righteous than you. So now, be ashamed and bear the humiliation of making your sisters appear righteous.'

53 "'And I will gather their captives, the captives of Sod'om and her daughters and the captives of Sa·mar'i·a and her daughters; I will also gather your captives along with them,[b] 54 so that you may bear your humiliation; and you will feel humiliated because of what you have done by comforting them. 55 Your own sisters, Sod'om and her daughters, will return to their former state, and Sa·mar'i·a and her daughters will return to their former state, and you along with your own daughters will return to your former state.[c] 56 Sod'om your sister was not worthy of your mention in the day of your pride, 57 before your own wickedness was exposed.[d] Now the daughters of Syria and her neighbors reproach you, and the daughters of the Phi·lis'tines,[e] those all around you, treat you with scorn. 58 You will bear the consequences of your obscene conduct and your detestable practices,' declares Jehovah."

59 "For this is what the Sovereign Lord Jehovah says: 'I will now do with you just as you have done,[f] for you despised the oath by breaking my covenant.[g] 60 But I myself will remember the covenant that I made with you in the days of your youth, and I will establish with you a permanent covenant.[h] 61 You

17 The word of Jehovah again came to me, saying: 2 "Son of man, tell a riddle and relate a proverb about the house of Israel.[d] 3 You must say, 'This is what the Sovereign Lord Jehovah says: "The great eagle,[e] with great wings, long pinions, and full, colorful plumage, came to Leb'a·non[f] and took the top of the cedar.[g] 4 He plucked off its topmost shoot and brought it to the land of traders* and set it down in a city of traders.[h] 5 He then took some of the seed of the land[i] and put it in a fertile field. He planted it like a willow by abundant waters. 6 So it sprouted and became a low, sprawling vine[j] with its foliage facing inward and its roots growing under it. Thus it became a vine and produced shoots and sent out branches.[k]

7 "'"And there came another great eagle,[l] with great wings and large pinions.[m] This vine then stretched its roots eagerly toward him, away from the garden beds where it was planted, and it sent out its foliage toward him so that he would irrigate it.[n] 8 It had already been planted in a good field near abundant waters, in order to produce branches, to bear fruit, and to become a majestic vine."'[a]

9 "Say, 'This is what the Sovereign Lord Jehovah says: "Will it prosper? Will someone not tear out its roots[b] and make its fruit rot and cause its sprouts to wither?[c] It will become so dry that neither a strong arm nor many people will be needed to pull it up by the roots. 10 Although it is transplanted, will it prosper? Will it not dry up completely when the east wind blows on it? It will dry up in the garden bed where it sprouted."'"

11 And the word of Jehovah again came to me, saying: 12 "Please tell the rebellious house, 'Do you not realize what these things mean?' Say, 'Look! The king of Babylon came to Jerusalem and took its king and its princes and brought them back with him to Babylon.[d] 13 Furthermore, he took one of the royal offspring*[e] and made a covenant with him and put him under an oath.[f] Then he took away the prominent men of the land,[g] 14 so that the kingdom would be brought low, unable to rise up, so that only by keeping his covenant might it continue to exist.[h] 15 But the king finally rebelled against him[i] by sending his messengers to Egypt to obtain horses[j] and a large army from them.[k] Will he succeed? Will the one doing these things escape punishment? Can he break the covenant and still escape?'[l]

16 "'"As surely as I am alive," declares the Sovereign Lord Jehovah, "he will die in Babylon, in the place where the king* who made him# king lives, the one whose oath he despised and whose covenant he broke.[m]

18 And the word of Jehovah again came to me, saying: 2 "What does this proverb that you quote in the land of Israel mean, 'Fathers have eaten sour grapes, but the teeth of the sons are set on edge'?[a]

3 "'As surely as I am alive,' declares the Sovereign Lord Jehovah, 'you will not continue to quote this saying in Israel. 4 Look! All the souls*—to me they belong. As the soul of the father so also the soul of the son—to me they belong. The soul# who sins is the one who will die.

5 "'Suppose that a man is righteous and does what is just and right. 6 He does not eat idolatrous sacrifices on the mountains;[b] he does not look up to the disgusting idols* of the house of Israel; he does not defile his neighbor's wife[c] or have relations with a woman who is menstruating;[d] 7 he does not mistreat anyone,[e] but he returns what a debtor has given him in pledge;[f] he does not rob anyone,[g] but he gives his own food to the hungry one[h] and covers the naked one with a garment;[i] 8 he does not charge interest or engage in usury,[j] but he refrains from acting with injustice;[k] he executes true justice between one man and another;[l] 9 and he keeps walking in my statutes and observing my judicial decisions in order to act in faithfulness. Such a man is righteous and will surely keep living,'[m] declares the Sovereign Lord Jehovah.

does any of these other things 11 (though the father has not done any of these things)—he eats idolatrous sacrifices on the mountains, defiles his neighbor's wife, 12 mistreats the needy and the poor,[a] takes things by robbery, does not return a pledge, looks up to the disgusting idols,[b] engages in detestable practices,[c] 13 engages in usury and charges interest[d]—then the son will not keep living. Because of all these detestable things that he has done, he will surely be put to death. His own blood will be upon him.

14 "'But suppose that a father has a son who sees all the sins his father has committed, and though he sees them, he does not do such things. 15 He does not eat idolatrous sacrifices on the mountains; he does not look up to the disgusting idols of the house of Israel; he does not defile his neighbor's wife; 16 he does not mistreat anyone; he does not seize what was pledged; he does not take anything in robbery; he gives his own food to the hungry one and covers the naked one with a garment; 17 he refrains from oppressing the poor; he does not engage in usury or charge interest; and he carries out my judicial decisions and walks in my statutes. Such a man will not die because of the error of his father. He will surely keep living. 18 But because his father practiced fraud, robbed his brother, and did what was wrong among his people, he will die for his error.

19 "'But you will say: "Why does the son not bear guilt because of his father's error?" Since the son has done what is just and righteous, has kept all my statutes and has observed them, he will surely keep living.[e]

4 Nations heard about him and caught him in their pit,
And they brought him to the land of Egypt with hooks.[j]
5 She waited and eventually saw that there was no hope for his return.
So she took another of her cubs and sent him out as a strong young lion.
6 He also walked about among the lions and became a strong young lion.
He learned how to tear prey apart, and he even devoured humans.[a] 7 He prowled among their fortified towers and devastated their cities,
So that the desolate land was filled with the sound of his roaring.[b]
8 Nations from the surrounding districts came against him to cast their net over him,
And he was caught in their pit.
9 With hooks they put him in a cage and brought him to the king of Babylon.
There they confined him, so that his voice would no more be heard on the mountains of Israel.
10 Your mother was like a vine[c] in your blood,* planted by waters.
It bore fruit and was full of branches because of the abundant water.
11 It developed strong branches,* fit for the scepters of rulers.
It grew and towered over the other trees,
And it became visible because of its height and because of the abundance of its foliage.

20 Now in the seventh year, in the fifth month, on the tenth day of the month, some of the elders of Israel came and sat down before me to inquire of Jehovah. 2 Then the word of Jehovah came to me, saying: 3 "Son of man, speak with the elders of Israel, and tell them, 'This is what the Sovereign Lord Jehovah says: "Are you coming to inquire of me? "'As surely as I am alive,' declares the Sovereign Lord Jehovah, 'I will not respond to your inquiry.[b] 32 And what you have in mind* when you say, "Let us become like the nations, like the families of the other lands, who worship# wood and stone,"[c] it will never happen.'"

33 "'As surely as I am alive,' declares the Sovereign Lord Jehovah, 'I will rule as king over you with a mighty hand, with an outstretched arm, and with an outpouring of rage.[d] 34 I will bring you out from the peoples and collect you together out of the lands where you have been scattered with a mighty hand, with an outstretched arm, and with an outpouring of rage.[e] 35 I will bring you into the wilderness of the peoples and enter into judgment with you there face-to-face.[f]

36 "'Just as I entered into judgment with your forefathers in the wilderness of the land of Egypt, so I will enter into judgment with you,' declares the Sovereign Lord Jehovah. 37 'I will make you pass under the shepherd's staff[g] and bring you under obligation to* the covenant. 38 But I will remove from you the rebels and those transgressing against me.[h] For I will bring them out of the land of their foreign residence, but they will not enter the land of Israel;[i] and you will have to know that I am Jehovah.'

39 "As for you, O house of Israel, this is what the Sovereign Lord Jehovah says: 'Each of you go and serve his disgusting idols.[j] But afterward if you do not listen to me, you will no longer be able to profane my holy name by your sacrifices and your disgusting idols.'[a]

40 "'For in my holy mountain, on a high mountain of Israel,'[b] declares the Sovereign Lord Jehovah, 'is where the whole house of Israel, all of them, will serve me in the land.[c] I will take pleasure in them there, and I will require your contributions and the firstfruits of your offerings, all your holy things.[d] 41 Because of the pleasing* aroma, I will take pleasure in you when I bring you out from the peoples and collect you together from the lands to which you have been scattered;[e] and I will be sanctified among you before the eyes of the nations.'[f]

45 And the word of Jehovah again came to me, saying: 46 "Son of man, turn your face in the direction of the southern quarter and proclaim to the south, and prophesy to the forest of the field of the south. 47 Say to the forest of the south, 'Hear the word of Jehovah. 14 "And you, son of man, prophesy and clap your hands and repeat 'A sword!' three times. It is the sword of the slain victims, the sword of great slaughter, that surrounds them.[h] 15 Their hearts will melt with fear[i] and many will fall at their city gates; I will inflict a slaughter by the sword. Yes, it flashes like lightning and is polished for a slaughter! 16 Cut sharply to the right! Swing to the left! mark out two ways for the sword of the king of Babylon to come. Both of them will originate from the same land, and a signpost* should be set up where the road branches off to the two cities. 20 You should mark out one way for the sword to come against Rab′bah[a] of the Am′monites, and the other way against fortified Jerusalem[b] in Judah. 21 For the king of Babylon stops to use divination at the fork in the road, where the two roads branch off. He shakes the arrows. He consults his idols;* he examines the liver. 22 The divination in his right hand is pointed toward Jerusalem, to set up battering rams, to give the word for slaughter, to sound the battle cry, to set battering rams against the gates, to throw up a siege rampart, to build a siege wall.[c] 23 But it will seem like false divination in the eyes of those* who had sworn oaths to them.[d] But he remembers their guilt and will capture them.[e]

24 "Therefore this is what the Sovereign Lord Jehovah says: 'You have caused your own guilt to be remembered by exposing your transgressions and causing your sins to be seen in all your actions. Now that you have been remembered, you will be taken by force.'*

25 "But your day has come, O fatally wounded, wicked chieftain of Israel,[f] the time of your final punishment. 26 This is what the Sovereign Lord Jehovah says: 'Remove the turban, and take off the crown.[g] This will not remain the same.[h] Raise up the low one,[i] and bring low the high one.[j] 27 A ruin, a ruin, a ruin I will make it. And it will not belong to anyone until the one who has the legal right comes,[a] and I will give it to him.'[b]

28 "And you, son of man, prophesy and say, 'This is what the Sovereign Lord Jehovah says about the Am′mon·ites and about their insults.' Say, 'A sword! A sword is drawn for a slaughter; it is polished to devour and to flash like lightning. 29 Despite the false visions and lying divination about you, you will be piled up on the slain,* the wicked men whose day has come, the time of their final punishment. 30 Return it to its sheath. I will blow upon you with the fire of my fury, and I will hand you over to brutal men, the craftsmen of destruction.[c] 32 You will become fuel for the fire;[d] your own blood will be shed in the land, and you will be remembered no more, for I myself, Jehovah, have spoken.'"

22 And the word of Jehovah again came to me, saying: 2 "As for you, son of man, are you prepared to pronounce judgment on* the bloodguilty city[e] and to make known to her all her detestable things?[f] 3 You are to say, 'This is what the Sovereign Lord Jehovah says: "O city that sheds blood[g] within herself, whose time is coming,[h] who makes disgusting idols* to defile herself,[i] 4 your bloodshed has made you guilty,[j] and your disgusting idols have made you unclean.[k] You have hastened the end of your days, and the end of your years has come. 34 You will have to drink it and drain it dry[c] and gnaw on

And then tear out your

"For I myself have spoken," declares the Sovereign
Lord Jehovah.'

35 "Therefore this is what the Sovereign Lord Jehovah says: 'Because you have forgotten me and have completely disregarded me,*[d] you will bear the consequences of your obscene conduct and your acts of prostitution.'"

36 Jehovah then said to me: "Son of man, will you pronounce judgment on O·ho'lah and O·hol'i·bah[e] and confront them with their disgusting practices? 37 They have committed adultery,*[f] and there is blood on their hands. Not only have they committed adultery with their disgusting idols, but they have also made their sons whom they bore to me pass through the fire as food for their idols.[g] 38 Moreover, this is what they have done to me: They defiled my sanctuary on that day, and they profaned my sabbaths. 39 After they slaughtered their sons as sacrifices to their disgusting idols,[h] they came into my sanctuary to profane it[i] on that very day. That is what they did inside my own house. 40 They even sent a messenger for men to come from far away.[a] When they were coming, you washed yourself and painted your eyes and adorned yourself with ornaments.[b] 41 And you sat down on a magnificent couch[c] with a table set in front of it,[d] on which you put my incense[e] and my oil.[f] 42 The sound of a carefree crowd of men was heard there, among whom were drunkards brought in from the wilderness. They put bracelets on the hands of the women and beautiful crowns on their heads.

43 "Then I said regarding her who was worn out with adultery: 'Now she will keep committing her prostitution.' 44 So they kept going in to her, just as one goes to a prostitute. That is how they went in to O·ho'lah and to O·hol'i·bah, the women of obscene conduct. 45 But righteous men will render to her the appropriate judgment for adultery[g] and bloodshed;[h] for adulteresses is what they are, and they have blood on their hands.[i]

46 "For this is what the Sovereign Lord Jehovah says: 'An army will be brought against them to make them an object of horror and something to plunder.[j] 47 The army will hurl stones at them[k] and cut them down with their swords. They will kill their sons and daughters[l] and burn their houses with fire.[m] 48 I will put an end to the obscene conduct in the land, and all the women will learn a lesson and not copy your obscene conduct.[n] 49 They will bring on you the consequences of your obscene conduct and of your sins with your disgusting idols; and you will have to know that I am the Sovereign Lord Jehovah.'"[o]

23:33 *Lit., "filled with." 23:35 *Lit., "have cast me behind your back." 23:37 *That is, spiritual adultery.

24 The word of Jehovah again came to me in the ninth year, in the tenth month, on the tenth day of the month, saying: 2 "Son of man, record this date,* this very day. The king of Babylon has begun his attack against Jerusalem on this very day.[a] 3 And relate a proverb* concerning the rebellious house, and say concerning them:

"'This is what the Sovereign Lord Jehovah says:

"Put the cooking pot# on;
put it on the fire and pour water into it.[b] 4 Put pieces of meat into it,[c]
every good piece,
The thigh and the shoulder;
fill it with the choicest bones.
5 Take the choicest sheep of the flock,[d] and stack the logs all around under the pot.
Boil the pieces, and cook the bones inside it.'"

6 "Therefore this is what the Sovereign Lord Jehovah says:

'Woe to the city of bloodshed,[e] the rusty cooking pot, whose rust has not been removed!
Empty it piece by piece;[f] do not cast lots for them.
7 For its blood is within it;[g]
she poured it out on the bare rock.
She did not pour it out on the earth, to cover it over with dust.[h]
8 To stir up rage for executing vengeance,
I have put her blood on the shining, bare rock
So that it may not be covered over.'[i]

9 "Therefore this is what the Sovereign Lord Jehovah says:

'Woe to the city of bloodshed![a]
I will pile the wood high.
10 Heap on the logs and kindle the fire,
Boil the flesh thoroughly, pour out the broth, and let the bones be charred.
11 Set the empty pot on the coals to make it hot
So that its copper will become red hot.
Its uncleanness will melt away within it,[b] and its rust will be consumed.
12 It is frustrating and exhausting,
For the heavy rust will not come off.[c]
Throw it into the fire with its rust!'

13 "'Your uncleanness was due to your obscene conduct.[d] I tried to cleanse you, but you would not become clean from your uncleanness. You will not become clean until my rage against you subsides.[e] 14 I myself, Jehovah, have spoken. It will come to pass. I will act without holding back, without sorrow, without regret.[f] They will judge you according to your ways and your dealings,' declares the Sovereign Lord Jehovah."

15 And the word of Jehovah again came to me, saying: 16 "Son of man, in a single blow I am about to take away your dear one from you.[g] You should not mourn;* nor should you weep or shed tears. 17 Groan in silence, and do not observe mourning rites for the dead.[h] Bind on your turban,[i] and put on your sandals.[j] You should not cover over the mustache,*[k] and do not eat the bread brought to you by others."#[l]

I will cut you off from the peoples and destroy you from the lands.[f] I will annihilate you, and you will have to know that I am Jehovah.'

26 In the 11th year, on the first day of the month, the word of Jehovah came to me, saying: 2 "Son of man, because Tyre has said against Jerusalem,[a] 'Aha! The gateway of the peoples has been broken![b] Everything will come my way, and I will become rich now that she is devastated'; 3 therefore this is what the Sovereign Lord Jehovah says: 'Here I am against you, O Tyre, and I will bring up many nations against you, just as the sea brings up its waves. 4 They will destroy the walls of Tyre and tear down her towers,[c] and I will scrape away soil and make her a shining, bare rock. 5 She will become a drying yard for dragnets in the midst of the sea.'[d]

"'For I myself have spoken,' declares the Sovereign Lord Jehovah, 'and she will become plunder for the nations. 6 And her settlements* in the countryside will be slaughtered by the sword, and people will have to know that I am Jehovah.'

perfection,#

garden of God.
You were adorned with every precious stone

chrys′o·lite, onyx, and jade;
sapphire, turquoise,[f] and emerald;
And their settings and mountings were made of gold.
They were prepared on the day you were created.
14 I assigned you as the anointed covering cherub.
You were on the holy mountain of God,[a]
and you walked about among fiery stones.
15 You were faultless in your ways from the day you were created Until unrighteousness was found in you.[b]
16 Because of your abundant trade,[c]
You became filled with violence, and you began to sin.[d]
So I will cast you out as profane from the mountain of God and destroy you,[e] O covering cherub, away from the stones of fire.
17 Your heart became haughty because of your beauty.[f]
You corrupted your wisdom because of your own glorious splendor.[g]
I will throw you down to the earth.[h]
I will make you a spectacle
before kings.
18 Because of your great guilt and your dishonest trading,
you have profaned your sanctuaries.
I will cause a fire to break out in your midst, and it will consume you.[i]
I will reduce you to ashes on the earth before all those looking at you.
19 All who knew you among the peoples will stare at you in amazement.[j]
Your end will be sudden and terrible,
And you will cease to exist
for all time."'"[k]

20 And the word of Jehovah again came to me, saying: 21 "Son of man, turn your face toward Si′don,[l] and prophesy against her. 22 You should say, 'This is what the Sovereign Lord Jehovah says:

17 Now in the 27th year, in the first month, on the first day of the month, the word of Jehovah came to me, saying: 18 "Son of man, King Neb·u·chad·nez'zar*[m] of Babylon made his army labor greatly against Tyre.[n] Every head became bald, and every shoulder was rubbed bare. 6 This is what Jehovah says:
'The supporters of Egypt

"'From Mig'dol[b] to Sy·e'ne[c] eign Lord Jehovah says: 'I will bring an end to Egypt's hordes by the hand of King Neb·u·chad·nez'- zar* of Babylon.[e] 11 He and his

Egypt there.[b] Her arrogant power will come to an end,[c] clouds will cover her, and her towns will go into captivity.[d] 19 I will execute judgment on Egypt, and they will

20 And in the 11th year, in the first month, on the seventh day of the month, the word of Jehovah came to me, saying: 21 "Son of man, I have broken the arm of not be bound up to be healed or wrapped with a bandage to make it strong enough to take up the 31 In the 11th year, in the third month, on the first day of the month, the word of Jehovah again came to me, saying: 2 "Son of man, say to Phar'aoh king of Egypt and to his hordes,[c]

'Whom are you like in your greatness?

3 There was an As·syr'i·an,
a cedar in Leb'a·non,
With beautiful branches
like a shady thicket,
lofty in stature;
Its top was among the clouds.

4 The waters made it grow big,
the deep springs of water caused it to grow high.
Streams were all around
where it was planted;
Their channels watered all the trees of the field.

5 That is why it grew taller than all the other trees of the field.
Its boughs multiplied, and its branches grew long Because of the abundant water in its streams.

6 All the birds of the sky
nested in its boughs,
All the wild animals of the field gave birth under its branches,
And all the populous nations were dwelling in its shade.

7 It became majestic in beauty and in the length of its branches,
For its roots went down into abundant waters.

8 No other cedars in the garden of God[d] could compare to it.

None of the juniper trees
had boughs like it,
And none of the plane trees
could match its branches.
No other tree in the garden of God could rival its beauty.

9 I made it beautiful, with abundant foliage,
And all the other trees of E'den, the garden of the true God, envied it.'

10 "Therefore this is what the Sovereign Lord Jehovah says: 'Because it* became so tall, lifting its top among the clouds, and its heart became arrogant because of its height, 11 I will hand it over to the mighty ruler of the nations.[a] He will surely act against it, and I will reject it for its wickedness. 12 And foreigners, the most ruthless of the nations, will cut it down, and they will abandon it on the mountains, and its foliage will fall in all the valleys, and its branches will lie broken in all the streams of the land.[b] All the peoples of the earth will depart from its shade and abandon it. 13 All the birds of the sky will live on its fallen trunk, and all the wild animals of the field on its branches.[c] 14 This is so that no tree near the waters should grow so tall or lift up its top among the clouds and that no well-watered tree may reach up to them in height. For they will all be given over to death, to the land down below, along with the sons of mankind, who are going down into the pit.'*

15 "This is what the Sovereign Lord Jehovah says: 'On the day it goes down to the Grave,* I will cause a mourning. Therefore, I will cover over the deep 33 And the word of Jehovah came to me, saying: 2 "Son of man, speak to the sons of your people,[a] and say to them,

"'Suppose that I bring a sword upon a land,[b] and all the people of that land take a man and make him their watchman, 3 and he sees the sword coming upon the land and blows the horn and warns the people.[c] 4 If someone hears the sound of the horn but does not heed the warning[d] and a sword comes and takes his life,* his blood will be on his own head.[e] 5 He heard the sound of the horn, but he did not heed the warning. His blood will be upon himself. If he had heeded the warning, his life* would have been saved.

6 "'But if the watchman sees the sword coming and he does not blow the horn[f] and the people receive no warning and a sword comes and takes the life* of one of them, that person will die for his own error, but I will ask his blood back from the watchman.'#[g]

7 "As for you, son of man, I have appointed you as a watchman to the house of Israel; and when you hear a word from my mouth you must warn them from me.[h] 8 When I say to someone wicked, 'Wicked one, you will surely die!'[i] but you do not speak out to warn the wicked one to change his course, he will die as a wicked man because of his own error,[j] but I will ask his blood back from you. 9 But if you warn someone wicked to turn back from his way and he refuses to change his course, he will die for his error,[k] but you will certainly save your own life.*[l]

33:4 *Lit., "takes him away." 33:5, 6, 9 *Or "soul." 33:6 #Or "I will hold the watchman accountable for his blood."

10 "And you, son of man, say to the house of Israel, 'You have said: "Our revolts and our sins weigh heavily upon us, causing us to waste away;[a] so how will we keep living?"'[b] 11 Tell them, '"As surely as I am alive," declares the Sovereign Lord Jehovah, "I take no pleasure in the death of the wicked,[c] but rather that someone wicked changes his way[d] and keeps living.[e] Turn back, turn back from your bad ways,[f] for why should you die, O house of Israel?"'[g]

12 "And you, son of man, tell the sons of your people, 'The righteousness of the righteous man will not save him when he revolts;[h] nor will the wickedness of the wicked man make him stumble when he turns away from his wickedness;[i] nor will anyone righteous be able to keep living because of his righteousness in the day that he sins.[j] 13 When I say to the righteous one: "You will surely keep living," and he trusts in his own righteousness and does what is wrong,*[k] none of his righteous acts will be remembered, but he will die for the wrong that he has done.[l]

14 "'And when I say to the wicked one: "You will surely die," and he turns away from his sin and does what is just and righteous,[m] 15 and the wicked one returns what was taken in pledge[n] and pays back what was taken by robbery,[o] and he walks in the statutes of life by not doing what is wrong, he will surely keep living.[p] He will not die. 16 None of the sins he committed will be held* against him.[q] For doing what is just and righteous, he will surely keep living.'[r]

17 "But your people have said, 'The way of Jehovah is unjust,' when it is actually their way that is unjust.

18 "When someone righteous abandons his righteousness and does what is wrong, he must die for it.[a] 19 But when someone wicked turns away from his wickedness and does what is just and righteous, he will keep living for doing so.[b]

20 "But you have said, 'The way of Jehovah is unjust.'[c] I will judge each of you according to his ways, O house of Israel."

21 At length in the 12th year, in the tenth month, on the fifth day of the month of our exile, a man who had escaped from Jerusalem came to me[d] and said: "The city has been struck down!"[e]

22 Now the evening before the escaped man came, the hand of Jehovah had come upon me, and he had opened my mouth before the man came to me in the morning. So my mouth was opened, and I was no longer speechless.[f]

23 Then the word of Jehovah came to me, saying: 24 "Son of man, the inhabitants of these ruins[g] are saying concerning the land of Israel, 'Abraham was just one man, and yet he took possession of the land.[h] But we are many; surely the land has been given to us as a possession.'

25 "Therefore say to them, 'This is what the Sovereign Lord Jehovah says: "You are eating food with the blood,[i] and you lift up your eyes to your disgusting idols,* and you keep shedding blood.[j] So why should you possess the land? 26 You have relied on your sword,[k] you engage in detestable practices, and each of you has defiled his neighbor's wife.[a] So why should you possess the land?"'[b]

27 "This is what you should say to them, 'This is what the Sovereign Lord Jehovah says: "As surely as I am alive, those living in the ruins will fall by the sword; those in the open field, I will give as food to the wild beasts; and those in the strongholds and the caves will die by disease.[c] 28 I will make the land an utterly desolate wasteland,[d] and its arrogant pride will be brought to an end, and the mountains of Israel will be desolated,[e] with no one passing through. 29 And they will have to know that I am Jehovah when I make the land an utterly desolate wasteland[f] because of all the detestable things that they have done."'[g]

30 "As for you, son of man, your people are speaking with one another about you beside the walls and in the doorways of the houses.[h] They are saying to each other, each to his brother, 'Come, and let us hear the word that comes from Jehovah.' 31 They will crowd in to sit before you as my people; and they will hear your words, but they will not do them.[i] For with their mouth they flatter you,* but their heart is greedy for dishonest gain. 32 Look! You are to them like a romantic love song, sung with a beautiful voice and skillfully played on a stringed instrument. They will hear your words, but no one will act on them. 33 And when it comes true—and it will come true—they will have to know that a prophet has been among them."[j]

34 The word of Jehovah again came to me, saying: 2 "Son of man, prophesy against the shepherds of Israel. Prophesy, and say to the shepherds, 'This is what the Sovereign Lord Jehovah says: "Woe to the shepherds of Israel,[a] who have been feeding themselves! Is it not the flock that the shepherds should feed?[b] 3 You eat the fat, you clothe yourselves with the wool, and you slaughter the fattest animal,[c] but you do not feed the flock.[d] 4 You have not strengthened the weak or healed the sick or bandaged the injured or brought back the strays or looked for the lost;[e] rather, you have ruled them with harshness and tyranny.[f] 5 So they were scattered because there was no shepherd;[g] they were scattered and became food for every wild beast of the field. 6 My sheep were straying on all the mountains and on every high hill; my sheep were scattered over all the surface of the earth, with no one searching for them or seeking to find them.

7 "'"Therefore, you shepherds, hear the word of Jehovah: 8 '"As surely as I am alive," declares the Sovereign Lord Jehovah, "because my sheep have become prey, food for every wild beast of the field, for there was no shepherd, and my shepherds did not search for my sheep; rather, they kept feeding themselves and did not feed my sheep,"' 9 therefore, you shepherds, hear the word of Jehovah. 10 This is what the Sovereign Lord Jehovah says: 'I am against the shepherds, and I will demand an accounting of them for my sheep,* and I will dismiss them from feeding# my sheep,[h] and the shepherds will no longer feed themselves. I will rescue my sheep from their mouth, and they will no longer be food for them.'"

10 "Because you said, 'These two nations and these two lands will become mine, and we will take possession of both,'[a] even though Jehovah himself was there, 11 'therefore as surely as I am alive,' declares the Sovereign Lord Jehovah, 'I will deal with you according to the same anger and jealousy that you displayed in your hatred toward them;[b] and I will make myself known among them when I judge you. 12 You will then have to know that I myself, Jehovah, have heard all the insolent things you spoke against the mountains of Israel when you said, "They have been laid desolate and have been given to us to devour."* 13 And you spoke arrogantly against me, and you multiplied your words against me.[c] I heard it all.'

plain,[a] and it was full of bones. 2 He had me pass all around them, and I saw that there were very many bones lying in the valley plain, and they were very dry.[b] 3 He asked me: "Son of man, can these bones come to life?" To that I said: "Sovereign Lord Jehovah, you are the one who knows."[c] 4 So he said to me: "Prophesy over these bones, and say to them, 'You dry bones, hear the word of Jehovah:

5 "'This is what the Sovereign Lord Jehovah says to these bones: "I will cause breath to enter you, and you will come to life.[d] 6 I will put sinews and flesh on you, and I will cover you with skin and put breath in you, and you will come to life; and you will have to know that I am Jehovah."'"

7 Then I prophesied just as I had been commanded. As soon as I prophesied, there was a noise, a rattling sound, and the bones began to come together, bone to bone. 8 Then I saw sinews and flesh come on them, and skin covered over them. But there was still no breath in them.

9 He then said to me: "Prophesy to the wind. Prophesy, son of man, and say to the wind, 'This is what the Sovereign Lord Jehovah says: "From the four winds come in, O wind,* and blow upon these people who were killed, so that they may come to life."'"

10 So I prophesied just as he commanded me, and breath* came into them, and they began to live and to stand on their feet,[e] an extremely large army.

11 Then he said to me: "Son of man, these bones are the whole house of Israel.[f] Here they are saying, 'Our bones are dry, and our hope has perished.[g] We are completely cut off.' 12 So prophesy and say to them, 'This is what the Sovereign Lord Jehovah says: "I will open your graves[a] and raise you up from your graves, my people, and bring you to the land of Israel.[b] 13 And you will have to know that I am Jehovah when I open your graves and when I raise you up out of your graves, O my people."'[c] 14 'I will put my spirit in you and you will come to life,[d] and I will settle you on your land; and you will have to know that I myself, Jehovah, have spoken and I have done it,' declares Jehovah."

15 The word of Jehovah again came to me, saying: 16 "And you, son of man, take a stick and write on it, 'For Judah and for the people of Israel who are with him.'[e] Then take another stick and write on it, 'For Joseph, the stick of E'phra·im, and all the house of Israel who are with him.'[f] 17 Then bring them close to each other so that they become just one stick in your hand.[g] 18 When your people* say to you, 'Will you not tell us what these things mean?' 19 tell them, 'This is what the Sovereign Lord Jehovah says: "I will take the stick of Joseph, which is in the hand of E'phra·im, and the tribes of Israel who are with him, and I will join them to the stick of Judah; and I will make them one stick,[h] and they will become one in my hand."' 20 The sticks that you write on should be in your hand for them to see.

21 "Then tell them, 'This is what the Sovereign Lord Jehovah says: "I will take the Israelites from among the nations where they have gone, and I will collect them together from every direction and bring them

2 By means of visions from God, he brought me to the land of Israel and set me down on a very high mountain,[a] on which there was a structure like a city to the south.

3 When he brought me there, I saw a man whose appearance was like that of copper.[b] He had a flax cord and a measuring reed* in his hand,[c] and he was standing in the gateway. 4 The man said to me: "Son of man, look closely, listen carefully, and pay attention* to everything I show you, for that is why you were brought here. Tell the house of Israel everything that you see."[d]

5 I saw a wall surrounding the outside of the temple.* In the man's hand was a measuring reed six cubits long (to each cubit, a handbreadth was added).# He began to measure the wall, and its thickness was one reed and its height was one reed.

6 Then he came to the gate that faced east[e] and climbed its steps. When he measured the threshold of the gate, its width was one reed, and the width of the other threshold was also one reed. 7 Each guard chamber was one reed long and one reed wide, and there were five cubits between the guard chambers.[f] The threshold of the gate beside the porch of the gate facing the interior measured one reed.

8 He measured the porch of the gate toward the interior, and it was one reed. 9 He then measured the porch of the gate, which was eight cubits; and he measured its side pillars, which were two cubits; and the porch of the gate was on the side facing the interior.

10 There were three guard chambers on each side of the east gate. The three were the same size, and the side pillars on either side were the same size.

11 Then he measured the width of the entrance of the gate, which was 10 cubits; and the length of the gate was 13 cubits.

12 The partitioned area in front of the guard chambers on either side was one cubit. The guard chambers on both sides were six cubits each.

13 He then measured the gate from the roof of the one guard chamber* to the roof of the other, and it was 25 cubits wide; one entrance was across from the other entrance.[a] 14 Then he measured the side pillars, which were 60 cubits tall, as well as the side pillars in the gates all around the courtyard. 15 From the front of the entrance of the gate to the front of the porch on the inner side of the gate was 50 cubits.

16 There were windows with narrowing frames*[b] for the guard chambers and for their side pillars inside the gate on each side. The interior of the porches also had windows on each side, and there were palm-tree figures[c] on the side pillars.

17 He then brought me into the outer courtyard, and I saw dining rooms*[d] and a pavement around the courtyard. There were 30 dining rooms on the pavement. 18 The pavement at the side of the gates corresponded to the length of the gates —this was the lower pavement.

19 Then he measured the distance* from the front of the lower gate to the perimeter of the inner courtyard. It was 100 cubits on the east and on the north.

20 The outer courtyard had a gate facing north, and he measured its length and its width. 21 There were three guard chambers on each side. Its side pillars and porch had the same measurements as the first gate. It was 50 cubits long and 25 cubits wide. 22 Its windows, its porch, and its palm-tree figures[a] were the same size as those of the east gate. People could reach it by climbing seven steps, and its porch was in front of them.

23 There was a gate in the inner courtyard opposite the north gate and one opposite the east gate. He measured the distance from gate to gate, and it was 100 cubits.

24 Next he brought me toward the south, and I saw a gate on the south side.[b] He measured its side pillars and its porch, and they were the same size as the others. 25 There were windows on each side of it and its porch, like the other windows. It was 50 cubits long and 25 cubits wide. 26 There were seven steps leading up to it,[c] and its porch was in front of them. And it had palm-tree figures on its side pillars, one on each side.

27 The inner courtyard had a gate facing south; he measured southward from gate to gate, and the distance was 100 cubits. 28 Next he brought me into the inner courtyard through the south gate; when he measured the south gate, it was the same

32 When he brought me into the inner courtyard from the east, he measured the gate, and it was the same size as the others. 33 Its guard chambers, its side pillars, and its porch were the same size as the others, and there were windows on each side of it and its porch. 39 There were two tables on each side of the porch of the gate on which to slaughter the whole burnt offerings,[f] the sin offerings,[g] and the guilt offerings.[h] 40 On the way up to the north gate, there were two tables outside the entrance. There were also two tables inside, in the porch of the gate. 41 There were four tables on each side of the gate—eight tables in all—on which the sacrifices were slaughtered. 42 The four tables for the whole burnt offering were of hewn stone. They were one and a half cubits long, one and a half cubits wide, and one cubit high. On them were kept the implements used to slaughter the burnt offerings and the sacrifices. 43 Shelves, one handbreadth wide, were attached all around the interior walls; and the flesh of the gift offerings would be placed on the tables.

44 Outside the inner gate were the dining rooms for the singers;[a] they were in the inner courtyard near the north gate, facing south. Another dining room was near the east gate, facing north.

45 He said to me: "This dining room that faces south is for the priests who are responsible for the services in the temple.[b] 46 The dining room that faces north is for the priests who are responsible for the service of the altar.[c] They are the sons of Za′dok,[d] those from the Levites who are assigned to approach Jehovah to minister to him."[e]

47 Then he measured the inner courtyard. It was 100 cubits long and 100 cubits wide, four-square. The altar was in front of the temple.

48 Then he brought me into the porch of the temple,[f] and he measured the side pillar of the porch, and it was five cubits on one side and five cubits on the other side. The width of the gate was three cubits on one side and three cubits on the other side.

49 The porch was 20 cubits long and 11* cubits wide. People would reach it by climbing the steps. There were pillars by the side posts, one on each side.[a]

41 Then he brought me into the outer sanctuary,* and he measured the side pillars; they were six cubits# wide on one side and six cubits wide on the other side. 2 The entrance was ten cubits wide, and the sidewalls* of the entrance were five cubits on one side and five cubits on the other side. He measured its length, which was 40 cubits, and its width, 20 cubits.

3 He then went inside* and measured the side pillar of the entrance, and it was two cubits thick, and the entrance was six cubits wide. The sidewalls of the entrance were# seven cubits. 4 Next he measured the room facing the outer sanctuary, and it was 20 cubits long and 20 cubits wide.[b] And he said to me: "This is the Most Holy."[c]

5 Then he measured the wall of the temple, and it was six cubits thick. The side chambers around the temple were four cubits wide.[d] 6 The side chambers were three stories high, one on top of the other, with 30 chambers on each story. There were ledges around the wall of the temple that served as supports for the side chambers, so that the supports did not go into the wall of the temple itself.[e] 7 On both sides of the temple was a winding passage* that widened as it ascended to the upper chambers.[f] The width increased from story to story as one ascended from the lowest story to the uppermost story by passing through the middle story.

8 I saw that there was a raised platform all around the temple, and the foundations of the side chambers measured a full reed of six cubits to the corner. 9 The width of the outside wall of the side chambers was five cubits. There was an open space* alongside the structure of the side chambers that was part of the temple.

10 Between the temple and the dining rooms*[a] was an area that was 20 cubits wide on each side. 11 There was an entrance between the side chambers and the open space on the north side and another entrance on the south side. The width of the open space was five cubits all around.

12 The building that was on the west facing the open area was 70 cubits wide and 90 cubits long; the wall of the building was five cubits thick all around.

13 He measured the temple, and it was 100 cubits long. The open area, the building,* and its walls were also 100 cubits long. 14 The width of the front of the temple facing east and the open area was 100 cubits.

15 He measured the length of the building that faced the open area in the rear, along with its galleries on both sides, and it was 100 cubits.

He also measured the outer sanctuary, the inner sanctuary,[b] and the porches of the courtyard, 16 as well as the thresholds, the windows with narrowing frames,[c] and the galleries that were in those three areas.

41:1 *Lit., "the temple." In chapters 41 and 42, this expression refers to the outer sanctuary (Holy) or to the entire sanctuary (the temple including the Holy and the Most Holy). #This refers to long cubits. See App. B14. 41:2 *Lit., "sides." 41:3 *That is, into the inner sanctuary, or Most Holy. #Lit., "The width of the entrance was." 41:7 *Apparently referring to circular staircases.

41:9 *Apparently a narrow walkway around the temple. 41:10 *Or "the chambers." 41:13 *That is, the building west of the sanctuary.

Near the threshold were wood panels[a] from the floor up to the windows; and the windows were covered. 17 Measurements were taken above the entrance and in the inner temple and on the outside and on the entire wall all around. 18 It had carved cherubs[b] and palm-tree figures,[c] with each palm tree between two cherubs, and each cherub had two faces. 19 The human face was toward the palm tree on one side, and the face of a lion* was toward the palm tree on the other side.[d] They were carved this way throughout the entire temple. 20 From the floor to the area above the entrance were carved cherubs and palm-tree figures on the wall of the sanctuary.

21 The doorposts* of the sanctuary were square.[e] In front of the holy place# was something like 22 a wooden altar[f] that was three cubits high and two cubits long. It had corner posts, and its base* and its sides were made of wood. He then said to me: "This is the table that is before Jehovah."[g]

23 The outer sanctuary and the holy place each had two doors.[h] 24 The doors had two swinging leaves, two leaves for each door. 25 There were carved cherubs and palm-tree figures on the doors of the sanctuary, like those on the walls.[i] There was also a wooden overhang* on the front of the porch on the outside. 26 There were also windows with narrowing frames[j] and palm-tree figures along both sides of the porch, as well as along the side chambers of the temple and the overhangs.

42 Then he led me to the outer courtyard toward the north.[a] And he brought me to the dining-room block that was next to the open area,[b] north of the adjoining building.[c] 2 Its length at the north entrance was 100 cubits,* and it was 50 cubits wide. 3 It was located between the inner courtyard, which was 20 cubits wide,[d] and the pavement of the outer courtyard. Its galleries faced each other and were three stories high. 4 Before the dining rooms* was an inner walkway[e] 10 cubits wide and 100 cubits long,# and their entrances were to the north. 5 The upper dining rooms of the building were narrower than those in the lower and middle stories, because the galleries took up more of their space. 6 For they were three stories high, but they had no pillars like the pillars of the courtyards. That is why more floor space was taken away from them than from the lower and middle stories.

7 The outer stone wall near the dining rooms toward the outer courtyard that faced the other dining rooms was 50 cubits long. 8 For the length of the dining rooms that were toward the outer courtyard was 50 cubits, but for those facing the sanctuary, it was 100 cubits. 9 The dining rooms had an entryway on the east side leading up to them from the outer courtyard.

the courtyard toward the east, near the open area and the building.[a] 11 There was a walkway before them like that of the northern dining rooms.[b] They were the same length and width, and they had the same exits and layouts. Their entrances 12 were like the entrances of the dining rooms that were toward the south. There was an entrance at the beginning of the walkway, before the adjacent stone wall toward the east, where one could enter.[c]

13 Then he said to me: "The dining rooms of the north and the dining rooms of the south that are next to the open area[d] are the holy dining rooms where the priests who are approaching Jehovah eat the most holy offerings.[e] There they place the most holy offerings, the grain offering, the sin offering, and the guilt offering, because the place is holy.[f] 14 When the priests enter, they should not go out of the holy place to the outer courtyard without first removing the garments in which they minister,[g] for these are holy. They will clothe themselves with other garments in order to approach the areas permitted to the people."

15 When he finished measuring the inner temple area,* he led me out by way of the gate that faces east,[h] and he measured the entire area.

16 He measured the eastern side with the measuring reed.* According to the measuring reed, it was 500 reed lengths from one side to the other.

17 He measured the northern side, and according to the measuring reed, it was 500 reed lengths.

18 He measured the southern side, and according to the measuring reed, it was 500 reed lengths.

19 He went around to the western side. He measured 500 reed lengths with the measuring reed.

20 He measured it on the four sides. It had a wall all around it[a] that was 500 reeds long and 500 reeds wide,[b] to make a division between what is holy and what is for common use.[c]

43 Then he led me to the gate that is facing east.[d] 2 There I saw the glory of the God of Israel coming from the east,[e] and his voice was like the sound of rushing waters;[f] and the earth was illuminated by his glory.[g] 3 What I saw was like the vision I had seen when I* came to bring the city to ruin, and it appeared to be like what I had seen near the river Che′bar;[h] and I fell with my face to the ground.

4 Then the glory of Jehovah entered the temple* through the gate facing the east.[i] 5 A spirit then raised me up and brought me into the inner courtyard, and I saw that the temple had become full of the glory of Jehovah.[j] 6 Then I heard someone speaking to me out of the temple, and the man came and stood beside me.[k] 7 He said to me:

"Son of man, this is the place of my throne[l] and the place for the soles of my feet,[m] where I will dwell among the people of Israel forever.[n] The house of Israel will no longer defile my holy name,[o] they and their kings, by their spiritual prostitution and by the carcasses of their kings at their death. 8 By putting their threshold next to my threshold and their doorpost

beside my doorpost, with only a wall between me and them,[a] they defiled my holy name by the detestable things they did, so I exterminated them in my anger.[b] 9 Now let them put their spiritual prostitution and the carcasses of their kings far away from me, and I will dwell among them forever.[c]

10 "As for you, son of man, describe the temple to the house of Israel,[d] so that they will feel ashamed because of their errors,[e] and they should study its plan.* 11 If they feel ashamed of all they have done, you should make known to them the ground plan of the temple, its arrangement, its exits, and its entrances.[f] Show them all its ground plans and its statutes, its ground plans and its laws, and write them down before their eyes, so that they may observe all its ground plan and carry out its statutes.[g] 12 This is the law of the temple. The entire territory all around the top of the mountain is most holy.[h] Look! This is the law of the temple.

13 "These are the measurements of the altar in cubits[i] (to each cubit a handbreadth was added).* Its base is a cubit, and it is a cubit wide. It has a border all around the edge that is one span# in width. This is the base of the altar. 14 From the base on the floor to the lower surrounding ledge is two cubits, and its width is one cubit. From the small surrounding ledge to the big surrounding ledge is four cubits, and its width is a cubit. 15 The altar hearth is four cubits high, and projecting up from the altar hearth are the four horns.[a] 16 The altar hearth is square, 12 cubits long and 12 cubits wide.[b] 17 The four sides of the surrounding ledge are 14 cubits long and 14 cubits wide; and the surrounding border is half a cubit, and its base is a cubit on all sides.

"And its steps are facing east."

18 He then said to me, "Son of man, this is what the Sovereign Lord Jehovah says: 'These are the directions to follow when the altar is made, so that whole burnt offerings may be offered and blood may be sprinkled on it.'[c]

19 "'You are to give a young bull of the herd as a sin offering[d] to the Levitical priests of the offspring of Za'dok,[e] who approach me to minister to me,' declares the Sovereign Lord Jehovah. 20 'You should take some of its blood and put it on the four horns of the altar, on the four corners of the surrounding ledge, and on the border all around, in order to purify it from sin and to make atonement for it.[f] 21 Then take the young bull, the sin offering, in order to burn it in the appointed place of the temple, outside the sanctuary.[g] 22 On the second day you will offer a sound male goat as a sin offering; and they will purify the altar from sin just as they purified it from sin with the young bull.'

23 "'When you finish purifying it from sin, you will offer a sound young bull of the herd and a sound ram from the flock. 24 You are to present them to Jehovah, and the priests must throw salt on them[h] and offer them up as a whole burnt offering to Jehovah. 25 For seven days you will offer a male goat as a daily sin offering,[i] as well as a young bull of the herd and a ram of the flock; you

4 Then he brought me through the north gate to the front of the temple. Pay close attention to the entryway of the temple and all the exits of the sanctuary.[j] 6 You must say to the rebellious house of Israel, 'This is what the Sovereign Lord Jehovah says: "That is enough of your detestable practices, O house of Israel. 7 When you bring foreigners who are uncircumcised in heart and flesh into my sanctuary, they profane my temple. They will slaughter the whole burnt offering and the sacrifice for the people, and they will stand before the people to minister to them. 12 Because they ministered to them before their disgusting idols and became a stumbling block causing the house of Israel to sin,[d] that is why I have raised my hand against them in an oath,' declares the Sovereign Lord Jehovah, 'and they will bear the consequences of their error. 13 They will not approach me to serve as my priests or approach any of my holy or most holy things, and they will bear their shame because of the detestable things that they did. 14 But I will make them caretakers of the responsibilities of the temple, to take care of its service and all the things that should be done in it.'[e]
