The bath measure should hold a tenth of a ho'mer,* and the e'phah measure should hold a tenth of a ho'mer. The ho'mer will be the standard for measuring. 12 The shekel*[b] is to be 20 ge'rahs.* And 20 shekels plus 25 shekels plus 15 shekels will make up one ma'neh# for you.'

The bath is a tenth of a cor,* and ten baths are a ho'mer, for ten baths equal a ho'mer. 15 And from the flock of the livestock of Israel, one sheep out of every 200 should be given. first month, on the first day of the month, you should take a sound young bull of the herd, and you are to purify the sanctuary from sin.[a] 19 The priest will take some of the blood of the sin offering and put it on the doorpost of the temple,[b] on the four corners of the surrounding ledge of the altar, and on the doorpost of the gate of the inner courtyard. 20 That is what you will do on the seventh day of the month because of anyone who sins by mistake or through ignorance;[c] and you are to make atonement for the temple.[d]

21 "'In the first month, on the 14th day of the month, you will observe the festival of the Passover.[e] For seven days unleavened bread should be eaten.[f] 22 On that day the chieftain will provide a young bull as a sin offering in his own behalf and in behalf of all the people of the land.[g] 23 For the seven days of the festival he will provide as a whole burnt offering to Jehovah seven sound young bulls and seven sound rams each of the seven days,[h] as well as a male goat each day as a sin offering. 24 He should also provide as a grain offering an e′phah for each young bull and an e′phah for each ram, as well as a hin* of oil for each e′phah.

25 "'In the seventh month, on the 15th day of the month, for seven days during the festival,[i] he should provide the same sin offering, whole burnt offering, grain offering, and oil.'"

46 "This is what the Sovereign Lord Jehovah says: 'The gate of the inner courtyard that is facing east[j] should remain shut[k] for the six workdays,[l] but on the Sabbath day and on the day of the new moon it should be opened. 2 The chieftain will enter from outside by way of the porch of the gate,[a] and he will stand by the doorpost of the gate. The priests will offer his whole burnt offering and his communion sacrifices, and he will bow down at the threshold of the gate and then go out. But the gate should not be shut until the evening. 3 The people of the land will also bow down before Jehovah at the entrance of that gate on the Sabbaths and on the new moons.[b]

4 "'The whole burnt offering that the chieftain will present to Jehovah on the Sabbath day should consist of six sound male lambs and a sound ram.[c] 5 The grain offering will be an e′phah* for the ram and whatever he is able to give for the male lambs, along with a hin* of oil with each e′phah.[d] 6 On the day of the new moon the offering will consist of a sound young bull of the herd, six male lambs, and a ram; they should be sound ones.[e] 7 He should offer as a grain offering an e′phah for the young bull, an e′phah for the ram, and whatever he can afford for the male lambs. And he should offer a hin of oil with each e′phah.

8 "'When the chieftain enters, he should enter by way of the porch of the gate, and he should go out the same way.[f] 9 And when the people of the land come in before Jehovah during the festivals,[g] those who come in to worship through the north gate[h] should go out through the south gate,[i] and those who come in through the south gate should go out through the north gate. 12 "'If the chieftain provides a whole burnt offering[b] or communion sacrifices as a voluntary offering to Jehovah, the gate facing east will be opened for him, and he will provide his whole burnt offering and his communion sacrifices just as he does on the Sabbath day.[c] After he goes out, the gate should be shut behind him.[d]

13 "'Each day you should provide a sound male lamb in its first year as a whole burnt offering to Jehovah.[e] You should do this morning by morning. 14 Along with it, each morning you should provide a sixth of an e′phah as a grain offering, along with a third of a hin of oil for sprinkling on the fine flour as a regular grain offering to Jehovah. This is a lasting statute. 15 They must provide the male lamb, the grain offering, and the oil each morning as a regular whole burnt offering.'

19 Then he brought me in by the entryway[a] that was beside the gate leading to the holy dining rooms* of the priests, which faced north,[b] and there I saw a place at the rear toward the west. 20 He said to me: "This is the place where the priests will boil the guilt offering and the sin offering and where they will bake the grain offering,[c] so that they will not carry anything out to the outer courtyard and transmit holiness to* the people."[d]

21 He brought me out to the outer courtyard and led me past the four corners of the courtyard, and I saw a courtyard by each corner of the outer courtyard. 22 At the four corners of the courtyard were small courtyards, 40 cubits* long and 30 cubits wide. All four of them were the same size.# 23 There were ledges* all around the four of them, and beneath the ledges were built places to boil the offerings. 24 Then he said to me: "These are the houses where the ministers of the temple boil the sacrifice of the people."[e]

47 Then he brought me back to the entrance of the temple,[f] and there I saw water flowing eastward from under the threshold of the temple,[g] for the front of the temple was facing east. The water was flowing down from under the right side of the temple, south of the altar.

2 He then led me out by way of the north gate[h] and took me outside and around to the outer gate that is facing east,[a] and I saw water trickling from the right side.

3 When the man went out toward the east with a measuring line in his hand,[b] he measured off 1,000 cubits* and had me pass through the water; the water was ankle deep.

4 Then he measured off another 1,000 and had me pass through the water, and it was up to the knees.

He measured off another 1,000 and had me pass through, and the water was up to the hips.

5 When he measured off another 1,000, it was a torrent that I was unable to walk across, for the water was so deep that one had to swim, a torrent of water that could not be crossed on foot.

6 He asked me: "Have you seen this, son of man?"

Then he had me walk and return to the bank of the stream. 7 When I returned, I saw that on the bank of the stream were very many trees on both sides.[c] 8 Then he said to me: "This water flows toward the eastern region and continues down through the Ar'a·bah*[d] and enters the sea. When it enters the sea,[e] the water there will be healed. 9 Swarms of living creatures* will be able to live wherever the waters# flow. There will be an abundance of fish, because this water will flow there. The seawater will be healed, and everything will live wherever the stream goes.

10 "Fishermen will stand beside it from En-ged'i[f] clear to En-eg'la·im, where there will be a drying yard for dragnets. There will be an abundance of many kinds of fish, like the fish of the Great Sea.*[a]

11 "It will have swampy places and marshy places, and these will not be healed. They will be abandoned to salt.[b]

12 "All sorts of trees for food will grow on both banks of the stream. Their leaves will not wither; nor will their fruitage fail. Each month they will bear new fruit, because the water for them flows from the sanctuary.[c] Their fruitage will serve as food and their leaves for healing."[d]

13 This is what the Sovereign Lord Jehovah says: "This is the territory that you will assign as the land inheritance of the 12 tribes of Israel, and Joseph will have two portions.[e] 14 You will inherit it and receive equal shares.* I swore to give this land to your forefathers,[f] and now it is assigned# to you as an inheritance.

1 In the third year of the kingship of King Je·hoi′a·kim[a] of Judah, King Neb·u·chad·nez′zar of Babylon came to Jerusalem and besieged it.[b] 2 In time Jehovah gave King Je·hoi′a·kim of Judah into his hand,[c] along with some of the utensils of the house* of the true God, and he brought them to the land of Shi′nar# to the house* of his god.[d] He placed the utensils in the treasury of his god.[e]

3 Then the king ordered Ash′pe·naz his chief court official to bring some of the Israelites,* including those of royal and noble descent.[f] 4 They were to be youths* without any defect, of good appearance, endowed with wisdom, knowledge, and discernment,[g] and capable of serving in the king's palace. He was to teach them the writing and the language of the Chal·de′ans. 5 Furthermore, the king assigned to them a daily ration from the king's delicacies and from the wine he drank. 8 But Daniel resolved in his heart that he would not defile himself with the king's delicacies or with the wine he drank. So he asked the principal court official for permission not to defile himself in this way. 9 And the true God caused the principal court official to show Daniel favor* and mercy.[a] 10 But the principal court official said to Daniel: "I am afraid of my lord the king, who has assigned your food and drink. What if he should see you looking worse in appearance than the other youths* of your age? You would make me# guilty before the king." 11 But Daniel said to the guardian whom the principal court official had appointed over Daniel, Han·a·ni′ah, Mish′a·el, and Az·a·ri′ah: 12 "Please, test your servants for ten days, and let us be given some vegetables to eat and water to drink; 13 then compare our appearance with the appearance of the youths* who are eating the king's delicacies, and deal with your servants according to what you see."

14 So he agreed to their proposal and tested them for ten days. 15 At the end of ten days their appearance was better and healthier# than all the youths* who were eating the king's delicacies. 16 So the guardian would take away their delicacies and their wine and give them vegetables. 17 And the true God gave these four youths* knowledge and insight into every kind of writing and wisdom; and Daniel was given understanding in all sorts of visions and dreams.[b]

18 At the end of the time that the king had specified to bring them in,[c] the principal court

official brought them in before Neb·u·chad·nez′zar. 19 When the king spoke with them, no one in the entire group was found to be like Daniel, Han·a·ni′ah, Mish′·a·el, and Az·a·ri′ah;[a] and they continued to serve before the king. 20 In every matter requiring wisdom and understanding that the king would ask them about, he found them ten times better than all the magic-practicing priests and the conjurers[b] in his entire realm. 21 And Daniel remained there until the first year of King Cyrus.[c]

2 In the second year of his kingship, Neb·u·chad·nez′zar had a number of dreams, and he* was so agitated[d] that he could not sleep. 2 So the king gave the order to summon the magic-practicing priests, the conjurers, the sorcerers, and the Chal·de′ans* to tell the king his dreams. So they came in and stood before the king.[e] 3 Then the king said to them: "I have had a dream, and I am* agitated because I want to know what I dreamed." 4 The Chal·de′ans replied to the king in the Ar·a·ma′ic language:*[f] "O king, may you live on forever. Relate the dream to your servants, and we will tell the interpretation."

5 The king answered the Chal·de′ans: "This is my final word: If you do not make the dream known to me, along with its interpretation, you will be dismembered, and your houses will be turned into public latrines.* 6 But if you do tell the dream and its interpretation, you will receive from me gifts and a reward and great honor.[g] So tell me the dream and its interpretation."

7 They answered a second time: "Let the king relate the dream to his servants, and we will tell its interpretation."

8 The king replied: "I am well-aware that you are trying to gain time, for you realize what my final word is. 9 If you do not make the dream known to me, there is only one penalty for all of you. But you have agreed to tell me something false and deceitful until the situation changes. So tell me the dream, and I will know that you can explain its interpretation."

10 The Chal·de′ans answered the king: "There is not a man on earth* who is able to do what the king demands, for no great king or governor has asked such a thing of any magic-practicing priest or conjurer or Chal·de′·an. 11 What the king is asking is difficult, and no one exists who could tell the king this except the gods, who do not dwell among mortals."*

12 At this the king flew into a violent rage and gave the order to destroy all the wise men of Babylon.[a] 13 When the order was issued and the wise men were about to be killed, they also looked for Daniel and his companions to put them to death.

14 At that time Daniel discreetly and cautiously spoke to Ar′i·och the chief of the king's bodyguard, who had gone out to kill the wise men of Babylon. 15 He asked Ar′i·och the officer of the king: "Why is there such a harsh order from the king?" Then Ar′i·och informed Daniel about the matter.[b] 16 So Daniel went in and asked the king to grant him time to tell the interpretation to the king.

17 Daniel then went to his house and informed his companions Han·a·ni′ah, Mish′a·el, and Az·a·ri′ah of the matter. 18 He asked them to pray for mercy from the God of heaven concerning this secret, so that Daniel and his companions would not be destroyed along with the rest of the wise men of Babylon.

19 Then the secret was revealed to Daniel in a vision at night.[a] So Daniel praised the God of heaven. 20 Daniel declared:

"Let the name of God be praised for all eternity,*
For wisdom and mightiness are his alone.[b]
21 He changes times and seasons,[c]
Removes kings and sets up kings,[d]
Gives wisdom to the wise and knowledge to those with discernment.[e]
22 He reveals the deep things and the hidden things,[f]
He knows what is in the darkness,[g]
And with him the light dwells.[h]
23 To you, O God of my forefathers, I offer thanks and praise, Because you have given me wisdom and power.
And now you have made known to me what we requested of you;
You have made known to us the concern of the king."[i]

24 Daniel then went in to Ar′i·och, whom the king had appointed to destroy the wise men of Babylon,[j] and he said to him: "Do not destroy any wise men of Babylon. Take me in before the king, and I will tell the interpretation to the king."

25 Ar′i·och quickly took Daniel in before the king and said to him: "I have found a man of the exiles of Judah[a] who can make known the interpretation to the king." 26 The king said to Daniel, whose name was Bel·te·shaz′zar:[b] "Can you really make known to me the dream that I saw, and its interpretation?"[c] 27 Daniel replied to the king: "None of the wise men, conjurers, magic-practicing priests, or astrologers are able to tell the king the secret that he is asking.[d] 28 But there is a God in the heavens who is a Revealer of secrets,[e] and he has made known to King Neb·u·chad·nez′zar what is to happen in the final part of the days. This is your dream, and these are the visions of your head as you lay on your bed:

29 "As for you, O king, on your bed your thoughts turned to what is to take place in the future, and the Revealer of secrets has made known to you what is to happen. 30 As for me, this secret was not revealed to me because I have greater wisdom than anyone living; rather, it was to make the interpretation known to the king so that you may know the thoughts in your heart.[f]

31 "You, O king, were watching, and you saw an immense image.* That image, which was huge and extremely bright, was standing in front of you, and its appearance was terrifying. 32 The head of that image was of fine gold,[g] its chest and its arms were of silver,[h] its abdomen and its thighs were of copper,[i] 33 its legs were of iron,[j] and its feet were partly of iron and partly of clay.*[k] 34 You looked on until a stone was cut out, not by hands, and it struck the image on its feet of iron and of clay and crushed them.[a] 35 At that time the iron, the clay, the copper, the silver, and the gold were, all together, crushed and became like the chaff from the summer threshing floor, and the wind carried them away so that not a trace of them could be found. But the stone that struck the image became a large mountain, and it filled the whole earth.

36 "This is the dream, and we will now tell the king its interpretation. 37 You, O king—the king of kings to whom the God of heaven has given the kingdom,[b] the might, the strength, and the glory, 38 and into whose hand he has given men wherever they may dwell, as well as the beasts of the field and the birds of the heavens, and whom he has made ruler over all of them[c]—you yourself are the head of gold.[d]

39 "But after you another kingdom will rise,[e] inferior to you; then another kingdom, a third one, of copper, that will rule over the whole earth.[f]

40 "As for the fourth kingdom, it will be strong like iron.[g] For just as iron crushes and pulverizes everything else, yes, like iron that shatters, it will crush and shatter all of these.[h]

41 "And just as you saw the feet and the toes to be partly of clay of a potter and partly of iron, the kingdom will be divided, but some of the hardness of iron will be in it, just as you saw the iron mixed with soft clay. 42 And as the toes of the feet were partly of iron and partly of clay, so the kingdom will be partly strong and partly fragile. 43 Just as you saw iron mixed with soft clay, they will be mixed with the people;* but they will not stick together, one to the other, just as iron does not mix with clay.

44 "In the days of those kings the God of heaven will set up a kingdom[a] that will never be destroyed.[b] And this kingdom will not be passed on to any other people.[c] It will crush and put an end to all these kingdoms,[d] and it alone will stand forever,[e] 45 just as you saw that out of the mountain a stone was cut not by hands, and that it crushed the iron, the copper, the clay, the silver, and the gold.[f] The Grand God has made known to the king what will happen in the future.[g] The dream is true, and its interpretation is trustworthy."

46 Then King Neb·u·chad·nez′zar fell down with his face to the ground before Daniel and paid homage to him. And he gave the order to offer a present and incense to him. 47 The king said to Daniel: "Truly your God is a God of gods and a Lord of kings and a Revealer of secrets, because you were able to reveal this secret."[h] 48 The king then elevated Daniel and gave him many fine gifts, and he made him the ruler over all the province* of Babylon[i] and the chief prefect over all the wise men of Babylon. 49 And at Daniel's request, the king appointed Sha′drach, Me′shach, and A·bed′ne·go[j] over the administration of the province* of Babylon, but Daniel served in the king's court.

3 Neb·u·chad·nez′zar the king made an image# of gold that was 60 cubits△ high and 6 cubits▫ wide. He set it up on the plain of Du′ra in the province* of Babylon. 2 Then

King Neb·u·chad·nez′zar sent word to assemble the satraps, prefects, governors, advisers, treasurers, judges, magistrates, and all the administrators of the provinces* to come to the inauguration of the image that King Neb·u·chad·nez′zar had set up.

3 So the satraps, prefects, governors, advisers, treasurers, judges, magistrates, and all the administrators of the provinces* assembled for the inauguration of the image that King Neb·u·chad·nez′zar had set up. And they stood in front of the image that Neb·u·chad·nez′zar had set up. 4 The herald loudly proclaimed: "You are commanded, O peoples, nations, and language groups, 5 that when you hear the sound of the horn, pipe, zither, triangular harp, stringed instrument, bagpipe, and all the other musical instruments, you must fall down and worship the image of gold that King Neb·u·chad·nez′zar has set up. 6 Whoever does not fall down and worship will immediately be thrown into the burning fiery furnace."[a] 7 So when all the peoples heard the sound of the horn, pipe, zither, triangular harp, stringed instrument, and all the other musical instruments, all the peoples, nations, and language groups fell down and worshipped the image of gold that King Neb·u·chad·nez′zar had set up.

8 Now at that time some of the Chal·de′ans came forward and accused* the Jews. 9 They said to King Neb·u·chad·nez′zar: "O king, may you live on forever. 10 You, O king, gave the command that every man who hears the sound of the horn, pipe, zither, triangular harp, stringed instrument, bagpipe, and all the other musical instruments should fall down and worship the image of gold; 11 and that whoever would not fall down and worship should be thrown into the burning fiery furnace.[a] 12 But there are certain Jews whom you appointed to administer the province* of Babylon: Sha′drach, Me′shach, and A·bed′ne·go.[b] These men have paid no regard to you, O king. They are not serving your gods, and they refuse to worship the image of gold that you have set up."

13 Then Neb·u·chad·nez′zar, in a furious rage, ordered Sha′drach, Me′shach, and A·bed′ne·go to be brought in. So these men were brought in before the king. 14 Neb·u·chad·nez′zar said to them: "Is it really true, Sha′drach, Me′shach, and A·bed′ne·go, that you are not serving my gods[c] and that you refuse to worship the image of gold that I have set up? 15 Now when you hear the sound of the horn, the pipe, the zither, the triangular harp, the stringed instrument, the bagpipe, and all the other musical instruments, if you are ready to fall down and worship the image that I have made, fine. But if you refuse to worship, you will immediately be thrown into the burning fiery furnace. And who is the god who can rescue you out of my hands?"[d]

16 Sha′drach, Me′shach, and A·bed′ne·go answered the king: "O Neb·u·chad·nez′zar, we have no need to answer you in this matter. 17 If it must be, our God whom we serve is able to rescue us from the burning fiery furnace, O king, and to rescue us from your hand.[e] 18 But even if he does not, let it be 19 Then Neb·u·chad·nez′zar became so furious with Sha′drach, Me′shach, and A·bed′ne·go that the expression of his face changed* toward them, and he gave orders to heat the furnace seven times hotter than usual. 20 He ordered some of the mighty men from his army to bind Sha′drach, Me′shach, and A·bed′ne·go and to throw them into the burning fiery furnace.

21 So these men were tied up while still wearing their cloaks, garments, caps, and all their other clothing, and they were thrown into the burning fiery furnace. 22 Because the king's command was so harsh and the furnace was exceptionally hot, the men who took up Sha′drach, Me′shach, and A·bed′ne·go were the ones killed by the flames of the fire. 23 But these three men, Sha′drach, Me′shach, and A·bed′ne·go, fell bound into the burning fiery furnace.

24 King Neb·u·chad·nez′zar then became frightened and quickly rose up and said to his high officials: "Did we not tie up three men and throw them into the fire?" They answered the king: "Yes, O king." 25 He said: "Look! I see four men walking about free in the midst of the fire, and they are unharmed, and the fourth one looks like a son of the gods."

26 Neb·u·chad·nez′zar approached the door of the burning fiery furnace and said: "Sha′drach, Me′shach, and A·bed′ne·go, you servants of the Most High God,[b] step out and come here!" Sha′drach, Me′shach, and A·bed′ne·go stepped out from the midst of the fire. 27 And the satraps, prefects, governors, and the high officials of the king who were assembled there[a] saw that the fire had had no effect on* the bodies of these men;[b] not a hair of their heads had been singed, their cloaks looked no different, and there was not even the smell of fire on them.

28 Neb·u·chad·nez′zar then declared: "Praised be the God of Sha′drach, Me′shach, and A·bed′ne·go,[c] who sent his angel and rescued his servants. They trusted in him and went against the command of the king and were willing to die* rather than serve or worship any god except their own God.[d] 29 I am therefore issuing an order that any people, nation, or language group that says anything against the God of Sha′drach, Me′shach, and A·bed′ne·go should be dismembered, and their houses should be turned into public latrines;* for there is no other god who is able to rescue like this one."[e]

30 The king then promoted* Sha′drach, Me′shach, and A·bed′ne·go in the province# of Babylon.[f]

4 "From King Neb·u·chad·nez′zar to all the peoples, nations, and language groups dwelling in all the earth: May your peace abound! 2 I am pleased to declare the signs and wonders that the Most High God has performed toward me. 3 How great are his signs, and how mighty his wonders! 29 Twelve months later he was walking on the roof of the royal palace of Babylon. 30 The king was saying: "Is this not Babylon the Great that I myself have built for the royal house by my own strength and might and for the glory of my majesty?"

31 While the word was yet in the king's mouth, a voice came down from the heavens: "To you it is being said, O King Neb·u·chad·nez'zar, 'The kingdom has gone away from you,[a] 32 and from mankind you are being driven away. With the beasts of the field your dwelling will be, and you will be given vegetation to eat just like bulls, and seven times will pass over you, until you know that the Most High is Ruler in the kingdom of mankind and that he grants it to whomever he wants.'"[b]

33 At that moment the word was fulfilled on Neb·u·chad·nez'zar. He was driven away from mankind, and he began to eat vegetation just like bulls, and his body became wet with the dew of the heavens, until his hair grew long just like eagles' feathers and his nails were like birds' claws.[c]

34 "At the end of that time[d] I, Neb·u·chad·nez'zar, looked up to the heavens, and my understanding returned to me; and I praised the Most High, and to the One living forever I gave praise and glory, because his rulership is an everlasting rulership and his kingdom is for generation after generation.[e] 35 All the inhabitants of the earth are regarded as nothing, and he does according to his own will among the army of the heavens and the inhabitants of the earth. And there is no one who can hinder him*[f] or say to him, 'What have you done?'[g]

4:35 *Or "check his hand."

36 "At that time my understanding returned to me, and the glory of my kingdom, my majesty, and my splendor returned to me.[a] My high officials and nobles eagerly sought me out, and I was restored to my kingdom, and even more greatness was added to me.

37 "Now I, Neb·u·chad·nez′zar, am praising and exalting and glorifying the King of the heavens,[b] because all his works are truth and his ways are just,[c] and because he is able to humiliate those who are walking in pride."[d]

5 As regards King Bel·shaz′zar,[e] he held a great feast for a thousand of his nobles, and he was drinking wine in front of them.[f] 2 While under the influence of the wine, Bel·shaz′zar gave an order to bring in the vessels of gold and silver that his father Neb·u·chad·nez′zar had taken from the temple in Jerusalem,[g] so that the king and his nobles, his concubines and his secondary wives could drink from them. 3 Then they brought in the gold vessels that had been taken from the temple of the house of God in Jerusalem, and the king and his nobles, his concubines and his secondary wives drank from them. 4 They drank wine, and they praised the gods of gold and silver, of copper, iron, wood, and stone.

5 At that very moment the fingers of a man's hand appeared and began writing on the plaster of the wall of the king's palace opposite the lampstand, and the king could see the back of the hand as it was writing. 6 Then the king turned pale* and his thoughts terrified him, and his hips shook[h] and his knees began to knock together.

5:6 *Or "the king's appearance changed."

7 The king called out loudly to summon the conjurers, the Chal·de′ans,* and the astrologers.[a] The king said to the wise men of Babylon: "Any man who reads this writing and tells me its interpretation will be clothed with purple, a gold necklace will be placed around his neck,[b] and he will rule as the third one in the kingdom."[c]

8 Then all the wise men of the king came in, but they were not able to read the writing or to make known the interpretation to the king.[d] 9 So King Bel·shaz′zar was very frightened and his face turned pale; and his nobles were perplexed.[e]

10 Because of the words of the king and his nobles, the queen entered the banqueting hall. The queen said: "O king, may you live on forever. Do not let your thoughts terrify you, nor let your face turn pale. 11 There is a man[#] in your kingdom who has the spirit of holy gods. In the days of your father, enlightenment and insight and wisdom like the wisdom of gods were found in him.[f] King Neb·u·chad·nez′zar your father appointed him as chief of the magic-practicing priests, conjurers, Chal·de′ans,* and astrologers;[g] your father did this, O king. 12 For Daniel, whom the king named Bel·te·shaz′zar,[h] had an extraordinary spirit and knowledge and insight to interpret dreams, to explain riddles, and to solve knotty problems.*[i] Now let Daniel be summoned, and he will tell you the interpretation."

13 So Daniel was brought in before the king. The king asked Daniel: "Are you Daniel of the exiles of Judah,[j] whom my father the king brought out of Judah?[a] 14 I have heard concerning you that the spirit of gods is in you[b] and that enlightenment and insight and extraordinary wisdom have been found in you.[c] 15 Now the wise men and the conjurers were brought in before me to read this writing and to make its interpretation known to me, but they are not able to tell the interpretation of the message.[d] 16 But I have heard concerning you that you are able to provide interpretations[e] and to solve knotty problems.* Now if you are able to read the writing and to make its interpretation known to me, you will be clothed with purple, a gold necklace will be placed around your neck, and you will rule as the third one in the kingdom."[f]

17 Daniel then replied to the king: "You may keep your gifts and give your presents to others. However, I will read the writing to the king and make known its interpretation to him. 18 As for you, O king, the Most High God granted to Neb·u·chad·nez′zar your father the kingdom and greatness and honor and majesty.[g] 19 Because of the greatness He gave him, all peoples, nations, and language groups trembled with fear before him.[h] Whomever he wanted, he killed or let live, and whomever he wanted, he exalted or humiliated.[i] 20 But when his heart became haughty and his spirit became hardened, so that he acted presumptuously,[j] he was brought down from the throne of his kingdom, and his dignity was taken away from him. 21 He was driven away from mankind, and his heart was made like that of a beast, and his dwelling was with the wild donkeys. He was given vegetation to eat just like bulls, and his body became wet with the dew of the heavens, until he came to know that the Most High God is Ruler in the kingdom of mankind and that he sets up over it whomever he wants.[a]

22 "But you, his son Bel·shaz′zar, have not humbled your heart, although you knew all of this. 23 Instead, you exalted yourself against the Lord of the heavens,[b] and you had them bring you the vessels of his house.[c] Then you and your nobles, your concubines and your secondary wives drank wine from them and praised gods of silver and gold, of copper, iron, wood, and stone, gods that see nothing and hear nothing and know nothing.[d] But you have not glorified the God in whose hand is your breath[e] and all your ways. 24 So the hand was sent from him, and this writing was inscribed.[f] 25 And this is the writing that was inscribed: ME′NE, ME′NE, TE′KEL, and PAR′SIN.

26 "This is the interpretation of the words: ME′NE, God has numbered the days of your kingdom and brought it to an end.[g] 27 "TE′KEL, you have been weighed in the balances and found lacking.

28 "PE′RES, your kingdom has been divided and given to the Medes and the Persians."[h]

29 Then Bel·shaz′zar gave the command, and they clothed Daniel with purple and placed a gold necklace around his neck; and they heralded concerning him that he was to become the third ruler in the kingdom.[i]

30 That very night Bel·shaz′zar the Chal·de′an king was killed.[j] 31 And Da·ri′us[k] the Mede received the kingdom; he was about 62 years old.

6 It seemed good to Da·ri′us to appoint 120 satraps over the whole kingdom.[l] 2 Over them were three high officials, one of whom was Daniel;[a] and the satraps[b] would report to them, so that the king would not suffer loss. 3 Now Daniel was distinguishing himself over the other high officials and the satraps, for there was an extraordinary spirit in him,[c] and the king intended to elevate him over the entire kingdom.

4 At that time the high officials and the satraps were seeking to find some grounds for accusation against Daniel respecting matters of state,* but they could find no grounds for accusation or anything corrupt, for he was trustworthy and no negligence or corruption could be found in him. 5 These men then said: "We will find in this Daniel no grounds for accusation at all, unless we find it against him in the law of his God."[d]

6 So these high officials and satraps went in as a group to the king, and they said to him: "O King Da·ri'us, may you live on forever. 7 All the royal officials, prefects, satraps, high royal officers, and governors have consulted together to establish a royal decree and to enforce a ban,* that for 30 days whoever makes a petition to any god or man except to you, O king, should be thrown into the lions' pit.[e] 8 Now, O king, may you establish the decree and sign it,[f] so that it cannot be changed, according to the law of the Medes and the Persians, which cannot be annulled."[g]

9 So King Da·ri'us signed the decree and the ban.

10 But as soon as Daniel knew that the decree had been signed, he went to his house, which had the windows of his roof chamber open toward Jerusalem.[a] And three times a day he got down on his knees and prayed and offered praise before his God, as he had regularly done prior to this. 11 At that time those men burst in and found Daniel petitioning and pleading for favor before his God.

12 So they approached the king and reminded him about the royal ban: "Did you not sign a ban stating that for 30 days any man who makes a petition to any god or man except to you, O king, should be thrown into the lions' pit?" The king replied: "The matter is well-established according to the law of the Medes and the Persians, which cannot be annulled."[b] 13 They immediately said to the king: "Daniel, who is of the exiles of Judah,[c] has paid no regard to you, O king, nor to the ban that you signed, but three times a day he is praying."[d] 14 As soon as the king heard this, he was greatly distressed, and he tried to think of a way to rescue Daniel; and until the sun set he made every effort to save him. 15 Finally those men went in as a group to the king, and they said to the king: "Take note, O king, that the law of the Medes and the Persians is that any ban or decree that the king establishes cannot be changed."[e]

16 So the king gave the order, and they brought Daniel and threw him into the pit of lions.[f] The king said to Daniel: "Your God whom you are continually serving will rescue you." 17 Then a stone was brought and placed over the entrance* of the pit, and the king sealed it with his signet ring and with the signet ring of his nobles, so that nothing could be changed with regard to Daniel.

18 The king then went to his palace. He passed the night fasting and refused any entertainment,* and he could not sleep.# 19 Finally at the first light of dawn, the king got up and hurried to the lions' pit. 20 As he got near the pit, he called out to Daniel with a sad voice. The king asked Daniel: "O Daniel, servant of the living God, has your God whom you are continually serving been able to rescue you from the lions?" 21 Daniel immediately said to the king: "O king, may you live on forever. 22 My God sent his angel and shut the mouth of the lions,[a] and they have not harmed me,[b] for I was found innocent before him; nor have I done any wrong to you, O king."

23 The king was overjoyed, and he commanded that Daniel be lifted up out of the pit. When Daniel was lifted up out of the pit, he was completely unharmed, because he had trusted in his God.[c]

24 The king then gave an order, and the men who had accused* Daniel were brought, and they were thrown into the lions' pit, along with their sons and their wives. They had not reached the bottom of the pit before the lions overpowered them and crushed all their bones.[d]

25 Then King Da·ri'us wrote to all the peoples, nations, and language groups dwelling throughout the earth:[e] "May you have abundant peace! 26 I am issuing an order that in every domain of my kingdom, people are to tremble in fear before the God of Daniel.[f] For he is the living God and he endures forever. His kingdom will never be destroyed, and his rulership* is eternal.[a] 27 He rescues,[b] saves, and performs signs and wonders in the heavens and on the earth,[c] for he rescued Daniel from the paw of the lions."

28 So this Daniel prospered in the kingdom of Da·ri'us[d] and in the kingdom of Cyrus the Persian.[e]

7 In the first year of King Bel·shaz'zar[f] of Babylon, Daniel saw a dream and visions of his head as he lay on his bed.[g] Then he wrote down the dream;[h] he recorded a complete account of the matters. 2 Daniel declared:

"I was watching in my visions during the night, and look! the four winds of the heavens were stirring up the vast sea.[i] 3 And four huge beasts[j] came out of the sea, each different from the others.

4 "The first one was like a lion,[k] and it had the wings of an eagle.[l] I watched until its wings were plucked out, and it was lifted up from the earth and was made to stand up on two feet like a man, and it was given the heart of a man.

5 "And look! another beast, a second one, like a bear.[m] It was raised up on one side, and three ribs were in its mouth between its teeth; and it was told, 'Get up, eat much flesh.'[n]

6 "After this I kept watching, and look! another beast, like a leopard,[o] but on its back it had four wings like those of a bird. And the beast had four heads,[p] and it was given authority to rule.

7 "After this I kept watching in the visions of the night, and I saw a fourth beast, fearsome and terrifying and unusually strong, and it had large iron teeth. It was devouring and crushing, and what was left it trampled down with its feet.[q] It was different from all the other beasts that were prior to it, and it had ten horns. 8 While I considered the horns, look! another horn, a small one,[a] came up among them, and three of the first horns were plucked up from before it. And look! there were eyes like human eyes in this horn, and there was a mouth speaking arrogantly.*[b]

9 "I kept watching until thrones were set in place and the Ancient of Days[c] sat down.[d] His clothing was white like snow,[e] and the hair of his head was like clean wool. His throne was flames of fire; its wheels were a burning fire.[f] 10 A stream of fire was flowing and going out from before him.[g] A thousand thousands kept ministering to him, and ten thousand times ten thousand stood before him.[h] The Court[i] took its seat, and books were opened.

11 "I kept watching at that time because of the sound of the arrogant* words that the horn was speaking;[j] I watched until the beast was killed and its body was destroyed and it was given over to be burned in the fire. 12 But as for the rest of the beasts,[k] their rulerships were taken away, and their lives were prolonged for a time and a season.

17 "'These huge beasts, four in number,[c] are four kings who will stand up from the earth.[d] 18 But the holy ones of the Supreme One[e] will receive the kingdom,[f] and they will possess the kingdom[g] forever, yes, forever and ever.'

21 "I kept watching as that horn made war on the holy ones, and it was prevailing against them,[k] 22 until the Ancient of Days[l] came and judgment was rendered in favor of the holy ones of the Supreme One,[m] and the appointed time arrived for the holy ones to take possession of the kingdom.[n]

23 "This is what he said: 'As for the fourth beast, there is a fourth kingdom that will come to be on the earth. It will be different from all the other kingdoms, and it will devour all the earth and will trample it down and crush it.[o] 24 As for the ten horns, ten kings will rise up out

28 "This is the end of the matter. As for me, Daniel, my thoughts alarmed me greatly, so that I turned pale;* but I kept the matter in my own heart."

8 In the third year of the kingship of King Bel·shaz′zar,[g] a vision appeared to me, Daniel, after the one that appeared to me previously.[h] 2 I saw the vision, and as I watched I was in Shu′shan*[i] the citadel,# which is in the province△ of E′lam;[j] I viewed the vision, and I was next to the watercourse of U′lai. 3 As I raised my eyes, look! there was a ram[k] standing before the watercourse, and it had two horns.[l] The two horns were tall, but one was higher than the other, and the higher one came up later.[m] 4 I saw the ram making thrusts to the west and to the north and to the south, and no wild beasts could stand before it, and there was no one who could provide rescue from its power.*[a] It did as it pleased and exalted itself.

5 As I kept watching, look! there was a male goat[b] coming from the west* crossing the surface of the whole earth without touching the ground. And the goat had a conspicuous horn between its eyes.[c] 6 It was coming toward the ram with the two horns, which I had seen standing before the watercourse; it was running toward it in a powerful rage.

7 I saw it closing in on the ram, and it was filled with bitterness toward it. It struck down the ram and broke its two horns, and the ram was powerless to stand up to it. It threw the ram to the ground and trampled it down, and there was no one to rescue it from its power.*

8 Then the male goat exalted itself exceedingly, but as soon as it became mighty, the great horn was broken; then four conspicuous horns came up instead of the one, toward the four winds of the heavens.[d]

9 Out of one of them came another horn, a small one, and it grew very great toward the south and toward the east* and toward the Decoration.#[e] 10 It grew so great that it reached all the way to the army of the heavens, and it caused some of the army and some of the stars to fall to the earth, and it trampled them down. 11 It exalted itself even against the Prince of the army, and from him the constant feature* was taken away, and the established place of his sanctuary was thrown down.[f] 12 And an army was given over, together with the constant feature,* because of transgression; and it kept throwing truth to the earth, and it acted and had success.

13 And I heard a holy one speaking, and another holy one said to the one speaking: "How long will the vision of the constant feature* and of the transgression causing desolation continue,[a] to make both the holy place and the army things to trample on?" 14 So he said to me: "Until 2,300 evenings and mornings; and the holy place will certainly be restored to its right condition."

15 While I, Daniel, was watching the vision and seeking to understand it, suddenly I saw standing in front of me someone who appeared to be a man. 16 Then I heard the voice of a man in the midst of the U'lai,[b] and he called out: "Ga'bri·el,[c] make that one understand what he saw."[d] 17 So he came near to where I was standing, but when he came I was so terrified that I fell facedown. He said to me: "Understand, O son of man, that the vision is for the time of the end."[e] 18 But while he was speaking with me, I fell fast asleep with my face to the ground. So he touched me and made me stand up where I had been standing.[f] 19 Then he said: "Here I am causing you to know what will happen in the final part of the denunciation, because it is for the appointed time of the end.[g]

23 "And in the final part of their kingdom, as the transgressors act to a completion,* a fierce-looking king who understands ambiguous sayings# will stand up. 24 His power will become great, but not through his own power. He will bring ruin in an extraordinary way,* and he will be successful and act effectively. He will bring mighty ones to ruin, also the people made up of the holy ones.[b] 25 And by his cunning he will use deception to succeed; and in his heart he will exalt himself; and during a time of security* he will bring many to ruin. He will even stand up against the Prince of princes, but he will be broken without human hand.

26 "What was said in the vision about the evenings and the mornings is true, but you must keep the vision secret, for it refers to a time many days from now."*[c]

27 As for me, Daniel, I felt exhausted and I was sick for some days.[d] Then I got up and carried out the king's work;[e] but I was numbed by what I had seen, and no one could understand it.[f] desolation of Jerusalem,[a] namely, 70 years.[b] 3 So I turned my face to Jehovah the true God, entreating him in prayer, along with fasting[c] and sackcloth and ashes. 4 I prayed to Jehovah my God and made confession and said:

"O Jehovah the true God, the great and awe-inspiring One, who keeps his covenant and shows loyal love[d] to those who love him and keep his commandments,[e] 5 we have sinned and done wrong and acted wickedly and rebelled;[f] and we have deviated from your commandments and your judgments. 6 We have not listened to your servants the prophets,[g] who spoke in your name to our kings, our princes, our forefathers, and all the people of the land. 7 To you, O Jehovah, belongs righteousness, but to us belongs shame* as is the case today, to the men of Judah, the inhabitants of Jerusalem, and all Israel, those nearby and far away, in all the lands to which you dispersed them because they acted unfaithfully toward you.[h]

8 "O Jehovah, to us belongs shame,* to our kings, our princes, and our forefathers, because we have sinned against you. 9 To Jehovah our God belong mercy and forgiveness,[i] for we have rebelled against him.[j] 10 We have not obeyed the voice of Jehovah our God by following his laws that he set before us through his servants the prophets.[k] 11 All Israel has overstepped your Law and turned away by not obeying your voice, so that you poured out on us the curse and the sworn oath written about in the Law of Moses the servant of the true God,[l] for we have sinned against Him. 12 He has carried out his words that he spoke against us[a] and against our rulers who ruled over us,* by bringing great calamity on us; nothing has ever been done under the whole heavens such as what was done in Jerusalem.[b] 13 Just as it is written in the Law of Moses, all this calamity has come upon us,[c] yet we have not begged for the favor* of Jehovah our God by turning away from our error[d] and by showing insight into your truth.#

14 "So Jehovah kept watchful and brought calamity on us, for Jehovah our God is righteous in all the works that he has done; yet we have not obeyed his voice.[e]

15 "Now, O Jehovah our God, the One who brought your people out of the land of Egypt by a mighty hand[f] and made a name for yourself down to this day,[g] we have sinned and acted wickedly. 16 O Jehovah, according to all your righteous acts,[h] please, may your anger and wrath turn away from your city Jerusalem, your holy mountain; for because of our sins and the errors of our forefathers, Jerusalem and your people are an object of reproach to all those around us.[i] 17 And now listen, O our God, to the prayer of your servant and to his entreaties, and cause your face to shine upon your sanctuary[j] that is desolate,[k] for your own sake, O Jehovah. 18 Incline your ear, O my God, and hear! Do open your eyes and see our desolate condition and the city that has been called by your name; for we are not entreating you because of our righteous acts but because of your great mercy.[l] 19 O Jehovah, do hear. 20 While I was still speaking and praying and confessing my sin and the sin of my people Israel and making my request for favor before Jehovah my God concerning the holy mountain of my God,[b] 21 yes, while I was yet speaking in prayer, the man Ga'bri·el,[c] whom I had previously seen in the vision,[d] came to me when I was extremely weary at about the time of the evening gift offering. 22 And he gave me understanding, saying:

"O Daniel, now I have come to give you insight and understanding. 23 When you began your entreaty the word went out, and I have come to report it to you, because you are someone very precious.*[e] So consider the matter and understand the vision.

24 "There are 70 weeks* that have been determined for your people and your holy city,[f] in order to terminate the transgression, to finish off sin,[g] to make atonement for error,[h] to bring in everlasting righteousness,[i] to seal up the vision and the prophecy,#[j] and to anoint the Holy of Holies.△ 25 You should know and understand that from the issuing of the word to restore and to rebuild Jerusalem[k] until Mes·si'ah*[l] the Leader,[m] there will be 7 weeks, also 62 weeks.[n] She will be restored and rebuilt, with a public square and moat, but in times of distress.

26 "And after the 62 weeks, Mes·si'ah will be cut off,*[o] with nothing for himself.[p]

"And the people of a leader who is coming will destroy the city and the holy place.[a] And its end will be by the flood. And until the end there will be war; what is decided upon is desolations.[b]

27 "And he will keep the covenant in force for the many for one week; and at the half of the week, he will cause sacrifice and gift offering to cease.[c]

"And on the wing of disgusting things there will be the one causing desolation;[d] and until an extermination, what was decided on will be poured out also on the one lying desolate."

10 In the third year of King Cyrus[e] of Persia, a revelation was given to Daniel, who was called by the name Bel·te·shaz'zar;[f] and the message was true, and it was about a great conflict. And he understood the message and was given understanding about what he had seen.

2 In those days I, Daniel, had been mourning[g] for three full weeks. 3 I ate no rich food, and no meat or wine entered my mouth, and I did not put any oil on myself for three full weeks. 4 On the 24th day of the first month, while I was on the bank of the great river, the Ti'gris,*[h] 5 I looked up and saw a man clothed in linen,[i] and around his waist was a belt of gold from U'phaz. 6 His body was like chrys'o·lite,[j] his face had the appearance of lightning, his eyes were like fiery torches, his arms and his feet looked like burnished copper,[k] and the sound of his words was like the sound of a multitude. 7 Only I, Daniel, saw the vision; the men with me did not see the vision.[l] However, a great trembling seized them, and they ran away and hid.

8 Then I was left by myself, and when I saw this great vision, there was no power left in me and my dignified appearance left me and I lost all strength.[a] 9 Then I heard the sound of him speaking; but when I heard him speaking, I fell fast asleep with my face to the ground.[b] 10 But then a hand touched me,[c] and it stirred me to get up on my hands and knees. 11 Then he said to me:

"O Daniel, you very precious* man,[d] give attention to the words that I am about to speak to you. Now stand up in your place, for I have been sent to you."

When he said this to me, I stood up, trembling.

12 He then said to me: "Do not be afraid,[e] O Daniel, your words have been heard from the first day that you gave your heart to understanding and to humbling yourself before your God, and I have come because of your words.[f] 13 But the prince[g] of the royal realm of Persia stood in opposition to me for 21 days. But then Mi·cha·el,*[h] one of the foremost princes,# came to help me; and I remained there beside the kings of Persia. 14 I have come to make you understand what will befall your people in the final part of the days,[i] because it is a vision yet for the days to come."[j]

15 Now when he spoke these words to me, I turned my face to the ground and became speechless. 16 Then one who looked like a man touched my lips,[k] and I opened my mouth and said to the one who stood in front of me: "My lord, I am shuddering because of the vision, and I have no strength.[l] 17 So how can my lord's servant speak with my lord?[m] For now I have no strength, and there is no breath left in me."[a]

18 The one who looked like a man touched me again and strengthened me.[b] 19 Then he said: "Do not be afraid,[c] O very precious* man.[d] May you have peace.[e] Be strong, yes, be strong." As he spoke with me I was strengthened and I said: "Let my lord speak, for you have strengthened me."

20 Then he said: "Do you know why I have come to you? Now I will go back to fight with the prince of Persia.[f] When I leave, the prince of Greece will come. 21 However, I will tell you the things recorded in the writings of truth. "Look! Three more kings will stand up* for Persia, and the fourth one will amass greater riches than all others. And when he becomes strong by means of his riches, he will rouse up everything against the kingdom of Greece.[j]

1 The word of Jehovah that came to Ho·se'a* the son of Be·e'ri in the days of Uz·zi'ah,[a] Jo'tham,[b] A'haz,[c] and Hez·e·ki'ah,[d] kings of Judah,[e] and in the days of Jer·o·bo'am[f] son of Jo'ash,[g] the king of Israel. 2 When Jehovah started to speak his word through Ho·se'a, Jehovah said to Ho·se'a: "Go, marry a woman of prostitution* and have children of prostitution,* because by prostitution* the land has turned completely away from following Jehovah."[h]

3 So he went and married Go'mer the daughter of Dib·la'im, and she conceived and bore him a son.

4 Then Jehovah said to him: "Name him Jez're·el,* for in a little while I will hold an accounting against the house of Je'hu[i] for the acts of bloodshed of Jez're·el, and I will put an end to the royal rule of the house of Israel.[j] 5 In that day I will break the bow of Israel in the Valley* of Jez're·el."

6 She conceived again and gave birth to a daughter. And He told him: "Name her Lo-ru·ha'mah,* for I will no longer show mercy[k] to the house of Israel, because I will certainly drive them away.[l] 7 But I will show mercy to the house of Judah,[a] and I will save them by Jehovah their God;[b] I will not save them by bow or by sword or by war or by horses or by horsemen."[c]

8 After weaning Lo-ru·ha'mah, she conceived and gave birth to a son. 9 Then He said: "Name him Lo-am'mi,* because you are not my people and I will not be yours.

10 "And the number of the people* of Israel will be like the grains of sand of the sea, which cannot be measured or numbered.[d] And in the place where it was said to them, 'You are not my people,'[e] it will be said to them, 'The sons of the living God.'[f] 11 And the people of Judah and of Israel will be gathered together into unity[g] and will choose for themselves one head and go up out of the land, for great will be the day of Jez're·el.[h]

2 "Say to your brothers,
'My people!'*#[i]
And to your sisters,
'O woman shown mercy!'#[j]
2 Accuse your mother; accuse her,
For she is not my wife[k] and I am not her husband.
She should remove her prostitution* from herself
And her adultery from between her breasts,

And my new wine in its season,[a]
And I will snatch away my wool and my linen that were to cover her nakedness.
10 Now I will expose her private parts in full view of her passionate lovers,
And no man will rescue her out of my hand.[b] 11 I will put an end to all her joy,
Her festivals,[c] her new moons, her sabbaths, and all her festive seasons.
12 And I will ruin her vines and her fig trees, of which she has said:
"These are my wages, which my passionate lovers gave to me";
I will turn them into a forest,
And the wild animals of the field will devour them.
13 I will hold an accounting against her for the days when she offered sacrifices to the Ba'al images,[d]
When she would adorn herself with her rings and ornaments and would chase after her passionate lovers,
And I was the one she forgot,'[e] declares Jehovah.
14 'So I will persuade her,
I will lead her into the wilderness,
And I will speak to win her heart.
15 I will give her vineyards back to her from that time onward,[f]
And the Valley* of A'chor[g] as a gateway to hope;
She will answer there as in the days of her youth,
As in the day when she came out of the land of Egypt.[h]

2:15 *Or "Low Plain."

16 And in that day,' declares Jehovah,
'You will call me My husband, and you will no longer call me My master.'*
17 'I will remove the names of the Ba'al images from her mouth,[a]
And they will no longer be remembered by their name.[b] 18 In that day I will make a covenant for them with the wild animals of the field,[c]
And with the birds of the heavens and the creeping things of the ground;[d] I will rid the land of the bow and the sword and war,[e]
And I will make them lie down* in security.[f] 19 I will engage myself to you forever;
And I will engage myself to you in righteousness and in justice,
In loyal love and in mercy.[g] 20 I will engage myself to you in faithfulness,
And you will certainly know
Jehovah.'[h]
21 'In that day I will answer,' declares Jehovah,
'I will answer the heavens,
And they will answer the earth;[i] 22 And the earth will answer the grain and the new wine and the oil;
And they will answer
Jez're·el.*[j] 23 I will sow her like seed for myself in the earth,[k]
And I will show mercy to her who was not shown mercy;*
I will say to those not my people:# "You are my people,"[l] And they will say: "You are my God."'"[a]

3 Then Jehovah said to me: "Go once again, love the woman who is loved by another man and is committing adultery,[b] just as Jehovah loves the people of Israel[c] while they turn to other gods[d] and love raisin cakes."*

2 So I purchased her for myself for 15 silver pieces and a ho'mer measure* and a half of barley. 3 Then I said to her: "You will remain mine for many days. You must not commit prostitution,* and you must not have relations with another man, and I will behave the same way toward you."#

4 It is because for a long time* the people of Israel will dwell without a king,[e] without a prince, without a sacrifice, without a pillar, and without an eph'od[f] and teraphim statues.#[g] 5 Afterward the people of Israel will come back and look for Jehovah their God[h] and for David their king,[i] and they will come trembling to Jehovah and to his goodness in the final part of the days.[j]

4 Hear the word of Jehovah,
O people of Israel,
For Jehovah has a legal case against the inhabitants of the land,[k]
Because there is no truth nor loyal love nor knowledge of God in the land.[l]

Israel has defiled itself.[a] 4 Their dealings do not permit them to return to their God, Because there is a spirit of prostitution* among them;[b]
And Jehovah they do not acknowledge.
5 The pride of Israel has testified against him;*[c]
Both Israel and E′phra·im have stumbled in their error,
And Judah has stumbled with them.[d]
6 With their flock and their herd they went to look for Jehovah,
But they could not find him.
He had drawn away from them.[e]
7 They have betrayed Jehovah,[f]
For they have fathered foreign sons.
Now a month will devour them* and their portions.#
8 Blow a horn[g] in Gib′e·ah, a trumpet in Ra′mah![h]
Shout a war cry at Beth-a′ven[i]—after you, O Benjamin!
9 O E′phra·im, you will become an object of horror in the day of punishment.[j]
I have made known what will surely happen among the tribes of Israel.
10 The princes of Judah are like those moving a boundary.[k]
I will pour out my fury on them like water.
11 E′phra·im is oppressed, crushed by judgment,
For he was determined to follow after his adversary.[l]
12 So I was like a moth to E′phra·im

5:5 *Lit., “to his face.” 5:7 *Or possibly, “Within a month they will be devoured.” #Or “fields.”

And like rottenness to the house of Judah.
13 When E′phra·im saw his sickness, and Judah his ulcer, E′phra·im went to As·syr′i·a[a] and sent to a great king.
But he was unable to heal you,
And he could not cure your ulcer.
14 For I will be like a young lion to E′phra·im,
And like a strong lion* to the house of Judah.
I myself will tear to pieces and go away;[b]
I will carry them off, and no one will rescue them.[c]
15 I will go away and return to my place until they bear the consequences of their guilt,
And then they will seek my favor.*[d]
When they are in distress, they will seek me."[e]

6 "Come, and let us return to Jehovah,
For he has torn us to pieces,[f] but he will heal us.
He struck us, but he will bind our wounds.
2 He will revive us after two days.
On the third day he will raise us up,
And we will live before him.
3 We will know, we will earnestly seek to know Jehovah.
His going out is as certain as the dawn;
He will come to us like a pouring rain,
Like a spring rain that saturates the earth."
4 "What should I do with you, E′phra·im?
What should I do with you, Judah?
For your loyal love is like the morning clouds,
Like the dew that quickly vanishes.
5 That is why I will cut them down by means of the prophets;[a]
I will kill them with the words of my mouth.[b]
And the judgments on you will shine as the light.[c] 6 For in loyal love* I delight, not in sacrifice,
And in the knowledge of God, rather than in whole burnt offerings.[d]

8 Gil′e·ad is a town of evildoers,[f]
Covered with footprints of blood.[g]

They murder on the road at She′chem,[h]
For their conduct is shameful.
10 I have seen a horrible thing in the house of Israel.
There E′phra·im practices prostitution;[i] Israel has defiled itself.[j]
11 Furthermore, O Judah, a harvest is set for you,
When I gather back the captives of my people."[k]

7 "At the time when I would heal Israel,

2 But they do not say in their heart that I will remember all their wickedness.[a] Now their dealings are all around them;
They are right in front of my face.
3 They make the king rejoice
by their wickedness,
And princes by their deceit.
4 All of them are adulterers, Burning like an oven fired by a baker, Who stops stirring the fire after kneading the dough until it is leavened.
5 On the day of our king, princes have become sick —They are enraged because of wine.[b]
He has reached out his hand to ridiculers.
6 For they approach with hearts burning like an oven.*
All night long the baker sleeps;
In the morning the oven blazes like a flaming fire.
7 All of them are hot like an oven,
And they devour their rulers.*
All their kings have fallen;[c]
No one among them calls out to me.[d]
8 E′phra·im mixes with the nations.[e] E′phra·im is like a round cake left unturned.
9 Strangers have consumed his strength,[f] but he does not know it.
And his gray hairs have turned white, but he does not notice it.
10 The pride of Israel has testified against him,[g]
But they have not returned to Jehovah their God,[a] Nor have they looked for him despite all of this.
11 E′phra·im is like a simple-minded dove, lacking good sense.*[b]
They have called out to Egypt;[c] they have gone to
As·syr′i·a.[d] 12 Wherever they go, I will spread my net over them.
I will bring them down like the birds of the heavens.
I will discipline them according to the warning given to their assembly.[e] 13 Woe to them, for they have fled from me!
Devastation to them, for they have transgressed against me!
I was ready to redeem them, but they have spoken lies against me.[f] 14 From their heart they did not call to me for help,[g] Although they kept wailing on their beds.
For their grain and new wine they would slash themselves;
They turn against me.
15 Although I disciplined them and strengthened their arms,
They are against me,
scheming what is bad.
16 They changed course, but not to anything loftier;*
They were as unreliable as a loose bow.[h]
Their princes will fall by the sword because of their defiant tongues.
For this they will be an object of ridicule in the land of Egypt."[i]

E′phra·im has hired lovers.[a] 10 Although they hire them from among the nations,
I will now round them up;
They will begin to suffer[b] because of the burden imposed by king and princes.
11 For E′phra·im has multiplied altars to sin.[c]
They became his altars for sinning.[d] 12 I wrote for him the many things of my law,*
But they were regarded as something strange.[e] 13 They offer sacrificial gifts to me, and they eat the meat, But Jehovah takes no pleasure in them.[f]
Now he will remember their error and punish them for their sins.[g]
They have turned back* to Egypt.[h]
14 Israel has forgotten his Maker[i] and has built temples,[j]
And Judah has multiplied fortified cities.[k]
But I will send fire into his cities,
And it will consume the towers of each one."[l]

9 "Do not rejoice, O Israel,[m] Do not act joyfully like the peoples.
For by prostitution* you have strayed from your God.[n]
You have loved the wages of a prostitute on every threshing floor of grain.[o] 2 But the threshing floor and winepress will not feed them,
And new wine will fail her.[p]
3 They will not continue dwelling in the land of Jehovah;[q] Instead, E′phra·im will return to Egypt,

8:12 *Or "instruction." 8:13 *Or possibly, "They will return." 9:1 *Or "immorality; promiscuity."

And in As·syr′i·a they will eat what is unclean.[a] 4 They will no longer pour out wine offerings to Jehovah;[b]
Their sacrifices will not please him.[c]
They are like the bread of mourning;
All those eating it will defile themselves.
For their bread is for themselves alone;*
It will not come into the house of Jehovah.
5 What will you do in the day of meeting,*
In the day of Jehovah's festival?
6 For look! they will have to flee because of destruction.[d]
Egypt will gather them together,[e] and Mem′phis will bury them.[f]
Nettles will take possession of their precious things of silver,
And thornbushes will be in their tents.
7 The days of reckoning will come,[g]
The days of retribution will come,
And Israel will know it.
Their prophet will be a fool, and the man of inspiration will go mad;
Because your error is abundant, the animosity against you is abundant."
8 The watchman[h] of E′phra·im was with my God.[i]
But now all the ways of his prophets[j] are as the traps of a birdcatcher;
There is animosity in the house of his God.
9 They have sunk deep into ruin, as in the days of Gib′e·ah.[k]
He will remember their error and punish their sins.[a] 10 "Like grapes in the wilderness I found Israel.[b]
Like the first of the early figs on a fig tree I saw your forefathers.
But they went to Ba′al of Pe′or;[c]
They dedicated themselves to the shameful thing,*[d]
And they became disgusting like the object of their love.
11 E′phra·im's glory flies away like a bird;
There is no giving birth, no pregnancy, and no conception.[e] 12 Even if they raise children,
I will bereave them until no man is left;[f]
Yes, woe to them when I turn away from them![g]
13 E′phra·im, planted in a pasture, was to me like Tyre;[h]
Now E′phra·im must bring his sons out to the slaughter."
14 Give them, O Jehovah, what you should give them;
A womb that miscarries and dry* breasts.
15 "All their wickedness was in Gil′gal,[i] for there I came to hate them.
I will drive them away from my house because of their evil deeds.[j]
I will no longer love them;[k]
All their princes are stubborn.
16 E′phra·im will be struck down.[l]
Their root will dry up, and they will produce no fruit.
Even if they give birth,
I will put to death their cherished offspring."
17 My God will reject them,
For they have not listened to him,[m]

Now they will be found guilty.
There is one who will break their altars and destroy their pillars.
3 Now they will say, 'We have no king,[e] for we have not feared Jehovah.

So the judgment that springs up is like poisonous weeds in the furrows of the field.[g]
5 The residents of Sa·mar'i·a will fear for the calf idol of Beth-a'ven.[h]

There they have persisted.
War did not overtake* the sons of unrighteousness in Gib'e·ah.
10 I will also discipline them when I please.
And peoples will be gathered against them,
When their two errors are harnessed on them.*
11 E'phra·im was a trained heifer that loved to thresh,
So I spared her fair neck.
Now I will make someone ride* E'phra·im.[g]
Judah will plow; Jacob will harrow for him.
12 Sow seed for yourselves in righteousness and reap loyal love.
Plow for yourselves arable land[h]
While there is time to search for Jehovah,[i]
Until he comes and instructs you in righteousness.[j]
13 But you have plowed wickedness,
You have reaped unrighteousness,[k]
And you have eaten the fruitage of deception;
For you have trusted in your own way,
In the multitude of your warriors.

At the same time my compassions are stirred.*[f]

Where is your destructiveness, O Grave?[c]
Compassion will be concealed from my eyes.

From the desert it comes, to dry up his well and drain his spring.

4 What was left by the devouring locust, the swarming locust has eaten;[a]
And what was left by the swarming locust, the unwinged locust has eaten;
And what the unwinged locust has left, the voracious locust has eaten.[b] 5 Wake up, you drunkards,[c] and weep!
Wail, all you wine drinkers,
Because the sweet wine has been taken from your mouths.[d]
6 For a nation has come up into my land, mighty and without number.[e]
Its teeth are the teeth of a lion,[f] and its jaws are those of a lion.
7 It has devastated my vine and turned my fig tree into a stump, Stripping them completely bare and tossing them aside,
Leaving their twigs white.
8 Wail as a virgin* wearing sackcloth does
For the bridegroom# of her youth.
9 Grain offering[g] and drink offering[h] have ceased from the house of Jehovah;
The priests, the ministers of Jehovah, are in mourning.
10 The field has been devastated, the ground mourns;[i]
For the grain has been devastated, the new wine has dried up, the oil has failed.[j] 11 Farmers are dismayed, vinedressers wail,
Because of the wheat and the barley;
For the harvest of the field has perished.

12 The vine has dried up,
The fig tree has withered.
The pomegranate, the palm, and the apple,
All the trees of the field have dried up;[a]
For joy has turned to shame among the people.
13 Put on sackcloth* and mourn,# you priests;
Wail, you ministers of the altar.[b]
Come in and spend the night in sackcloth, you ministers of my God;
For grain offering[c] and drink offering[d] have been withheld from the house of your God.
14 Proclaim* a fast; call for a solemn assembly.[e]
Gather the elders together, with all the inhabitants of the land,
To the house of Jehovah your God,[f] and cry to Jehovah for help.
15 Woe because of the day!
For the day of Jehovah is near,[g]
And it will come like a destruction from the Almighty!
16 Has not food been taken from before our very eyes,
And rejoicing and joy from the house of our God?
17 The seeds* have shriveled under their shovels.
Storehouses are desolate.
Granaries have been torn down, for the grain has dried up.
18 Even the livestock groan!
The herds of cattle wander in confusion, for they have no pasture!
And the flocks of sheep bear the punishment.

1:13 *Lit., "Gird yourselves." #Or "beat your chest." 1:14 *Lit., "Sanctify." 1:17 *Or possibly, "dried figs."

19 To you, O Jehovah, I will call;[a]
For fire has devoured the pastures of the wilderness,
And a flame has consumed all the trees of the field.
20 Even the wild beasts long for you,
Because the streams of water have dried up
And fire has devoured the pastures of the wilderness."

2 "Blow a horn in Zion![b]
Shout a war cry in my holy mountain.
Let all the inhabitants of the land* tremble,
For the day of Jehovah is coming![c] It is near!
2 It is a day of darkness and gloom,[d]
A day of clouds and thick gloom,[e]
Like light of dawn spreading out on the mountains.
There is a people numerous and mighty;[f]
Never before has there been one like it,
And never again will there be another
Through the years of all generations.
3 Ahead of it a fire devours,
And behind it a flame consumes.[g]
The land ahead of it is like the garden of E′den,[h]
But behind it is a desolate wilderness,
And nothing can escape.
4 Its appearance is like the appearance of horses,
And they run like warhorses.[i]
5 The sound is like that of chariots as they leap on the mountaintops,[j]
Like the crackling of a blazing fire that consumes stubble.
It is like a mighty people drawn up in battle formation.[a] 6 Because of them, peoples will be in anguish.
Every face will grow flushed.
7 They charge like warriors,
They scale a wall like soldiers,
Each keeps to his own course,
And they do not swerve from their paths.
8 They do not shove one another;
Each man advances in his course.
If the weapons* cause some to fall,
The others do not break ranks.
9 Into the city they rush, on the wall they run.
Onto the houses they climb, through the windows they enter like a thief.
10 Before them the land trembles and the heavens rock.
Sun and moon have become dark,[b]
And the stars have lost their brightness.
11 Jehovah will raise his voice before his army,[c] for his camp is very numerous.[d]
For the one carrying out His word is mighty;
For the day of Jehovah is great and very awe-inspiring.[e]
Who can endure it?"[f]
12 "Yet even now," declares Jehovah, "return to me with all your hearts,[g]
With fasting[h] and weeping and wailing.

to E′dom,
And because they did not remember the covenant of brothers.[f] 10 So I will send a fire onto the wall of Tyre,
And it will consume her fortified towers.'[g]
11 This is what Jehovah says,
'For three revolts of E′dom,[h] and for four, I will not reverse it, Because he pursued his own brother with the sword,[i]
And because he refused to show mercy;
In his anger he keeps tearing them apart relentlessly,
And he remains furious with them continually.[j] 12 So I will send a fire into Te′man,[k]
And it will consume the fortified towers of Boz′rah.'[l]
13 This is what Jehovah says,
'"For three revolts of the Am′mon·ites,[m] and for four,
I will not reverse it,
Because they ripped open the pregnant women of Gil′e·ad to widen out their own territory.[n]
14 So I will set fire to the wall of Rab′bah,[o]
And it will consume her fortified towers,
With a war cry in the day of battle,
With a tempest in the day of storm wind.
15 And their king will go into exile together with his princes,"[a] says Jehovah.'
2 "This is what Jehovah says,
'"For three revolts* of Mo′ab,[b] and for four, I will not reverse it, Because he burned the bones of the king of E′dom for lime.
2 So I will send a fire into Mo′ab, and it will consume the fortified towers of Ke′ri·oth;[c]
Mo′ab will die amid an uproar,
With a war cry, with the sound of a horn.[d] 3 I will remove the ruler*
from her midst
And kill all her princes along with him,"[e] says Jehovah.'
4 This is what Jehovah says,
'For three revolts of Judah,[f]
and for four, I will not reverse it,
Because they rejected the law* of Jehovah,
And because they did not keep his regulations;[g]
But the same lies their forefathers followed have led them astray.[h]
5 So I will send a fire into Judah,
And it will consume the fortified towers of Jerusalem.'[i]
6 This is what Jehovah says,
'For three revolts of Israel,[j]
and for four, I will not reverse it,
Because they sell the righteous for silver,

So I said: "A plumb line." Jehovah then said: "Here I am putting a plumb line among my people Israel. I will no longer pardon them.[e] 9 The high places of Isaac[f] will be desolated, and the sanctuaries of Israel will be devastated;[g] and I will come against the house of Jer·o·bo'am with a sword."[h]

10 Am·a·zi'ah the priest of Beth'el[i] sent this message to King Jer·o·bo'am[j] of Israel: "A'mos is conspiring against you right in the midst of the house of Israel.[k] The land cannot put up with all his words.[l] 11 For this is what A'mos says, 'Jer·o·bo'am will die by the sword, and Israel will surely go into exile from its land.'"[m]

12 Am·a·zi'ah then said to A'mos: "O visionary, go, run away to the land of Judah, earn your bread* there, and there you may prophesy.[n] 13 But you must no longer prophesy at Beth'el,[o] for it is the sanctuary of a king[a] and the house of a kingdom."

14 Then A'mos answered Ama·zi'ah: "I was not a prophet nor the son of a prophet; but I was a herdsman,[b] and I took care of sycamore fig trees.* 15 But Jehovah took me away from following the flock, and Jehovah said to me, 'Go, prophesy to my people Israel.'[c] 16 So now hear the word of Jehovah: 'You are saying, "Do not prophesy against Israel,[d] and do not preach[e] against the house of Isaac." 17 Therefore this is what Jehovah says: "Your wife will become a prostitute in the city, and your sons and your daughters will fall by the sword. Your land will be apportioned out with a measuring line, and you yourself will die in an unclean land; and Israel will surely go into exile from its land."'"[f]

8 This is what the Sovereign Lord Jehovah showed me: Look! There was a basket of summer fruit. 2 Then he said, "What do you see, A'mos?" I replied, "A basket of summer fruit." Then Jehovah said to me: "The end has come for my people Israel. I will no longer pardon them.[g] 3 'The songs of the temple will turn into wailing in that day,'[h] declares the Sovereign Lord Jehovah. 'There will be many carcasses thrown everywhere[i]—hush!'

4 Hear this, you who trample on the poor And who bring the meek of the land to an end,[j] 5 Who say, 'When will the new moon festival be over,[k] that we may sell our grain, And the Sabbath,[l] that we may offer grain for sale?
So that we may make the e'phah* measure smaller And the shekel* weight greater,
To falsify our scales of deception;[a] 6 So that we may buy the needy for silver And the poor for a pair of sandals,[b]
And sell the worthless part of the grain.'
7 Jehovah has sworn by the Pride of Jacob,[c]
'Never will I forget all their deeds.[d]
8 On this account the land* will tremble,
And every inhabitant in it will mourn.[e]
Will it not all rise like the Nile,
And surge and sink down like the Nile of Egypt?'[f] 9 'In that day,' declares the Sovereign Lord Jehovah,
'I will make the sun go down
at high noon,
And I will darken the land on a bright day.[g] 10 I will turn your festivals into mourning[h]
And all your songs into dirges.*
I will put sackcloth on all hips and make every head bald;
I will make it like the mourning for an only son,
And the end of it like a bitter day.'
11 'Look! The days are coming,' declares the Sovereign Lord Jehovah,
'When I will send a famine
into the land,
Not a famine for bread or a thirst for water, But for hearing the words of Jehovah.[i] 12 They will stagger from sea to sea

You are utterly despised.[a]

3 The presumptuousness of your heart has deceived you,[b]
You who reside in the retreats of the crag, Dwelling in the height, saying in your heart,

'Who will bring me down to the earth?'
4 Even if you make your dwelling high* like the eagle,
Or if you place your nest among the stars,
I would bring you down from there," declares Jehovah.
5 "If thieves would come to you, robbers by night,
(How utterly you will be destroyed!)*
Would they not steal only what they wanted?
Or if it were grape gatherers who would come to you,
Would they not leave some gleanings behind?[a] 6 O how E'sau has been searched out!
How his hidden treasures have been sought after!
7 They have driven you to the border.
All your allies* have deceived you.
The men at peace with you have prevailed against you.
Those eating bread with you will place a net under you,
But you will not discern it.
8 In that day," declares Jehovah,
"Will I not destroy the wise ones out of E'dom[b]
And discernment out of the mountainous region of E'sau?
9 And your warriors will become terrified,[c] O Te'man,[d]
Because each one in the mountainous region of E'sau will be destroyed in the slaughter.[e]

11 On the day when you stood off to the side,
On the day when strangers took his army into captivity,[a]
When foreigners entered his gate and cast lots[b] over Jerusalem,
You acted like one of them.
12 You should not gloat over your brother's day on the day of his misfortune,[c]
You should not rejoice over the people of Judah on the day of their perishing,[d]
And you should not speak so arrogantly on the day of their distress.
13 You should not come into the gate of my people in the day of their disaster,[e]

15 For the day of Jehovah against all the nations is near.[i]
As you have done, so it will be done to you.[j]
The way you treated others will come back on your own head.
16 For in the way that you have drunk on my holy mountain,
All the nations will keep drinking constantly.[k]
They will drink and gulp down,
And they will be as though they had never existed.
17 But on Mount Zion will be those who escape,[l]

And it will be holy;[a]
And the house of Jacob will take possession of the things belonging to them.[b] 18 The house of Jacob will become a fire,
The house of Joseph a flame,
And the house of E′sau like stubble;
They will set them ablaze and consume them,
And there will be no survivor of the house of E′sau,[c]
For Jehovah himself has spoken.

Of the She·phe′lah and the land of the Phi·lis′tines.[e]
They will take possession of the field of E′phra·im and the field of Sa·mar′i·a,[a]
And Benjamin will take possession of Gil′e·ad.
20 To the exiles of this rampart,*[b]
To the people of Israel will belong the land of the Ca′naan·ites as far as Zar′e·phath.[c]
And the exiles of Jerusalem, who were in Se·phar′ad, will possess the cities of the Neg′eb.[d]

1 The word of Jehovah came to Jo′nah*[a] the son of A·mit′tai, saying: 2 "Get up, go to Nin′e·veh[b] the great city, and proclaim judgment against her, for their wickedness has come to my attention."

3 But Jo′nah got up to run away from Jehovah to Tar′shish; he went down to Jop′pa and found a ship going to Tar′shish. So he paid the fare and went aboard to go with them to Tar′shish, away from Jehovah.

4 Then Jehovah hurled a strong wind at the sea, and there was such a violent storm on the sea that the ship was about to be wrecked. 5 The mariners were so frightened that each of them began to call on his god for help. And they began throwing the articles of the ship into the sea, to make it lighter.[a] But Jo′nah had gone down into the inner part of the ship,* where he lay down and fell fast asleep. 6 The ship captain approached and said to him: "Why are you sleeping? Get up, call out to your god! Perhaps the true God will show his concern for us, and we will not perish."[b]

7 Then they said to one another: "Come, let us cast lots[c] to find out who is to blame for this calamity." So they cast lots, and the lot fell to Jo′nah.[d] 8 They said to him: "Please tell us, who is to blame for this calamity that has come upon us? What is your work, and where do you come from? What is your country, and from what people are you?"

9 He replied: "I am a Hebrew, and I fear* Jehovah the God of the heavens, the One who made the sea and the dry land."

10 At this the men became even more afraid, and they asked him: "What have you done?" (The men learned that he was running away from Jehovah, because he had told them.) 11 So they said to him: "What should we do to you to make the sea calm down for us?" For the sea was growing more and more stormy. 12 He replied: "Lift me up and throw me into the sea, and the sea will calm down for you; for I know that it is because of me that this violent storm has come upon you." 13 However, the men rowed hard* to bring the ship back to dry land, but they could not, because the sea grew more and more stormy around the them.

14 Then they called out to Jehovah and said: "Ah, now, O Jehovah, please, may we not perish because of this man!* Do not hold us responsible for innocent blood, since you have done as you pleased, O Jehovah." 15 Then they lifted Jo′nah up and threw him into the sea; and the sea ceased its raging. 16 Then the men were struck with great fear of Jehovah,[a] and they offered a sacrifice to Jehovah and made vows.

17 Jehovah now sent a huge fish to swallow Jo′nah, so that Jo′nah came to be in the belly of the fish for three days and three nights.[b]

2 Then Jo′nah prayed to Jehovah his God from the belly of the fish,[c] 2 and he said:

"Out of my distress I called out to Jehovah, and he answered me.[d]
Out of the depths* of the Grave# I cried for help.[e]
You heard my voice.
3 When you threw me to the depths, into the heart of the open sea,
Then the currents engulfed me.[f]
All your breakers and waves swept over me.[g]

10 In time Jehovah commanded the fish, and it vomited Jo′nah out onto the dry land.

3 Then the word of Jehovah came to Jo′nah a second time, saying:[g] 2 "Get up, go to Nin′e·veh[h] the great city, and proclaim to her the message that I tell you."

3 So Jo′nah got up and went to Nin′e·veh[i] in obedience to the word of Jehovah.[j] Now Nin′e·veh was a very large city*—a walking distance of three days. 4 Then Jo′nah entered the city, and walking a day's journey, he was proclaiming: "In just 40 days more, Nin′e·veh will be overthrown."

5 And the men of Nin′e·veh put faith in God,[a] and they proclaimed a fast and put on sackcloth, from the greatest to the least of them. 6 When the message reached the king of Nin′e·veh, he rose up from his throne and took off his royal garment and covered himself with sackcloth and sat down in the ashes. 7 Furthermore, he issued a proclamation throughout Nin′e·veh,

"By the decree of the king and his nobles: No man or beast, herd or flock, should eat anything at all. They should not take food, nor should they drink any water. 8 Let them be covered with sackcloth, both man and beast; and let them call out earnestly to God and turn from their evil ways and from the violence they practice. 9 Who knows whether the true God may reconsider* what he intends to do and turn from his burning anger, so that we may not perish?"

10 When the true God saw what they did, how they had turned back from their evil ways,[b] he reconsidered* the calamity that he said he would bring on them, and he did not bring it.[c]

4 But this was highly displeasing to Jo′nah, and he became hot with anger. 2 So he prayed to Jehovah: "Ah, now, Jehovah, was this not my concern when I was in my own land? That is why I tried to flee to Tar′shish[d] in the first place; for I knew that you are a compassionate* and merciful God, slow to anger and abundant in loyal love,[e] one who feels grieved over calamity. 3 Now, O Jehovah, please take away my

5 Jo'nah then went out of the city and sat down east of the city. He made a shelter for himself there and sat in its shade to see what would happen to the city.[b] 6 Jehovah God then provided a bottle-gourd plant* to grow up over Jo'nah, to give him shade for his head and to relieve his misery. And Jo'nah was very pleased with the bottle-gourd plant.

7 But the true God sent a worm at the break of dawn on the next day, and it attacked the bottle-gourd plant, and it withered. 8 When the sun began to shine, God also sent a scorching east wind, and the sun beat down on Jo'nah's head, and he grew faint. He kept asking to die,* and he kept saying, "It is better for me to die than to live."[a]

9 God asked Jo'nah: "Is it right for you to be so angry over the bottle-gourd plant?"[b]

1 The word of Jehovah that came to Mi′cah*[a] of Mo′resh-eth, in the days of Jo′tham,[b] A′haz,[c] and Hez·e·ki′ah,[d] kings of Judah,[e] and that he received in a vision concerning Sa·mar′i·a and Jerusalem:

2 "Hear, all you peoples!
Pay attention, O earth and what fills you,
And let the Sovereign Lord Jehovah serve as a witness against you[f]
—Jehovah from his holy temple.

3 For look! Jehovah is going out from his place;
He will come down and tread on earth's high places.

4 The mountains will melt under him,[g]
And the valleys* will split apart
Like wax before the fire,
Like waters poured down a steep slope.

5 All of this is because of the revolt of Jacob,
Because of the sins of the house of Israel.[h]
What is the revolt of Jacob?
Is it not Sa·mar′i·a?[i]
And what are the high places of Judah?[j]
Are they not Jerusalem?

6 I will make Sa·mar′i·a a heap of ruins of the field,
A place for planting vineyards;
I will hurl* her stones down into the valley,
And I will lay bare her foundations.

7 All her graven images will be crushed to pieces,[k]
And all the gifts for which she hired herself out* will be burned in the fire.[a]
I will devastate all her idols.
For she collected them from the wages of prostitution,
And they will again become the wages of prostitutes."

8 Because of this I will wail and howl;[b]
I will walk barefoot and naked.[c]
My wailing will be like that of jackals,
And my mourning like that of ostriches.

9 For her wound cannot be healed;[d]
It has come as far as Judah.[e]
The plague has spread to the gate of my people, to Jerusalem.[f]

10 "Do not announce it in Gath;
You must not weep at all.
In Beth-aph′rah* roll in the dust.

11 Cross over in nakedness and shame, O inhabitants* of Sha′phir.
The inhabitants* of Za′a·nan have not come out.
There will be wailing in Beth-e′zel, and it will take its support away from you.

12 For the inhabitants* of Ma′roth have waited for good,
But what is bad has come down from Jehovah to the gate of Jerusalem.

13 Harness the chariot to the team of horses, O inhabitants* of La′chish.[g]
You were the beginning of sin to the daughter of Zion,
For in you were found the revolts of Israel.[h]

14 So you will give parting* gifts to Mo′resh-eth-gath.
The houses of Ach′zib[a] were something deceitful to the kings of Israel.
15 The conqueror* I will yet bring in to you,[b] O inhabitants# of Ma·re′shah.[c]
As far as A·dul′lam[d] the glory of Israel will come.
16 Make yourselves bald and shear off your hair for your cherished children.
Make yourselves as bald as an eagle,
For they have been taken away from you into exile."[e]

2 "Woe to those who scheme what is harmful,
Who work out evil on their beds!
When morning light comes they carry it out,
Because it is in the power of their hand.[f]
2 They desire fields and seize them;[g]
Also houses, and they take them;
They defraud a man of his house,[h]
A man of his inheritance.
3 Therefore this is what Jehovah says:
'Here I am devising against this family a calamity[i] from which you will not escape.*[j]
You will no longer walk haughtily,[k] for it is a time of calamity.[l]
4 In that day people will recite a proverb concerning you,
And they will bitterly lament over you.[m]
They will say: "We are completely devastated![n]
He caused the portion of my people to change hands—how he removes it from me![a]
To the unfaithful one he assigns our fields."
5 So you will have no one to stretch the measuring cord,
To allot the land in the congregation of Jehovah.
6 "Stop preaching!" they preach,
"They should not preach these things; Humiliation will not overtake us!"
7 Is it being said, O house of Jacob:
"Has the spirit of Jehovah become impatient?
Are these his deeds?"
Do not my own words bring good to those walking uprightly?
8 But lately my own people have risen up as an enemy.
You openly strip off the majestic ornament with* the garment
From those passing by confidently, like those returning from war.
9 You drive the women of my people out from their delightful houses;
From their children you take away my splendor forever.
10 Get up and go, for this is no place of rest.
Because of uncleanness,[b] there is destruction, grievous destruction.[c] 11 If a man walks after wind and deception and tells this lie:
"I will preach to you about wine and alcoholic drink,"
Then he would be just the preacher for this people![d]
12 I will certainly gather all of you, O Jacob;

For the mouth of Jehovah of armies has spoken.
5 For all the peoples will walk, each in the name of its god,
But we will walk in the name of Jehovah our God[a] forever and ever.
6 "In that day," declares Jehovah,
"I will gather the one* who was limping,
And collect together the dispersed one,[b]
Along with those I treated harshly.
7 I will make the one* who was limping a remnant,[c]
And the one far removed a mighty nation;[d]
And Jehovah will rule as king over them in Mount Zion,
From now on and forever.
8 As for you, O tower of the flock,
The mound of the daughter of Zion,[e]
To you it will come, yes, the first* dominion will come,[f]
The kingdom belonging to the daughter of Jerusalem.[g]
9 Now why are you shouting loudly?
Have you no king,
Or has your adviser perished,
So that pain has seized you like a woman giving birth?[h]
10 Writhe and groan, O daughter of Zion,
Like a woman giving birth,
For now you will go from the city and reside in the field.
You will go as far as to Babylon,[i]
And there you will be rescued;[j]

4:6, 7 *Lit., "her." 4:8 *Or "former."

There Jehovah will buy you back from the hand of your enemies.[a] 11 Now many nations will be gathered against you;
They will say, 'Let her be defiled,
And let our eyes see this happen to Zion.'
12 But they do not know the thoughts of Jehovah,
They do not understand his purpose;*
For he will gather them like a row of newly cut grain to the threshing floor.
13 Get up and thresh,
O daughter of Zion;[b]
For I will change your horns into iron,
And I will change your hooves into copper,
And you will pulverize many peoples.[c]
You will devote their dishonest profit to Jehovah, And their resources to the true Lord of the whole

Jehovah,
"I will do away with your horses from your midst and destroy your chariots.
11 I will destroy the cities of your land
And tear down all your fortified places.
12 I will put an end to the 6 Hear, please, what Jehovah is saying.

Get up, present a legal case before the mountains, And may the hills hear your voice.[d] 2 Hear, O mountains, the legal case of Jehovah,
You firm foundations of the earth,[e]
For Jehovah has a legal case with his people;
It is against Israel that he will argue:[f]
3 "My people, what have
I done to you?
How have I tired you out?[a] Testify against me.
4 For I brought you up out of the land of Egypt,[b]
From the house of slavery
I redeemed you;[c]
I sent before you Moses, Aaron, and Mir'i·am.[d] 5 My people, remember, please, what King Ba'lak of Mo'ab proposed,[e]
And what Ba'laam the son of Be'or answered him[f]
—What took place from Shit'tim[g] to Gil'gal[h]—
So that you may know the righteous acts of Jehovah."
6 With what will I come before Jehovah?
With what will I bow before God on high?
Will I come before him with whole burnt offerings,
With year-old calves?[i] 7 Will Jehovah be pleased with thousands of rams, With tens of thousands of torrents of oil?[j]
Will I give my firstborn son for my revolt,
The fruit of my body for my sin?*[k]

what is good.
And what is Jehovah requiring* of you?
Only to exercise justice,#[l]

appointed it.[p]

1 A pronouncement against Nin'e·veh:[a] The book of the vision of Na'hum* the El'kosh·ite:

2 Jehovah is a God who requires exclusive devotion[b] and takes vengeance;
Jehovah takes vengeance and is ready to express his wrath.[c]
Jehovah takes vengeance against his foes,
And he stores up wrath for his enemies.
3 Jehovah is slow to anger[d] and great in power,[e]
But by no means will Jehovah hold back due punishment.[f]
His path is in destructive wind and storm,
And the clouds are the dust of his feet.[g]
4 He rebukes the sea,[h] and he dries it up;
And he makes all the rivers run dry.[i] Ba'shan and Car'mel wither,[j]
And the blossoms of Leb'a·non wither.
5 Mountains quake because of him,
And the hills melt.[k]
The earth will be in an upheaval because of his face,
Along with the land and all those dwelling in it.[a] 6 Who can stand before his indignation?[b]
And who can withstand the heat of his anger?[c]
His wrath will be poured out like fire,
And the rocks will be shattered because of him.
7 Jehovah is good,[d] a stronghold in the day of distress.[e]
He is mindful of* those seeking refuge in him.[f]
8 With a sweeping flood he will make a complete extermination of her* place,
And darkness will pursue his enemies.
9 What will you plot against Jehovah?
He is causing a complete extermination.
Distress will not arise a second time.[g]
10 For they are interwoven like thorns,
And they are like those drunk with beer;*
But they will be consumed like dry stubble.

plots evil against Jehovah, strength and numerous,

Even so they will be cut

I have afflicted you,# but I will afflict you no more.
13 And now I will break his 14 Jehovah has commanded concerning you,*

'Your name will not be perpetuated further.
I will do away with the

of your gods.
I will make a grave for you, because you are contemptible.'

the feet of one bringing good news,
The one proclaiming peace.[b]
Celebrate your festivals,[c] O Judah, pay your vows,
For the worthless one will never pass through you again.
He will be utterly destroyed."

2 One who scatters has come up against you.*[d]
Guard the fortifications.
Keep watch over the road.
Brace yourselves# and muster all your strength.
2 For Jehovah will restore the pride of Jacob,
Along with the pride of Israel,
For the devastators have devastated them;[e]

4 The war chariots race madly through the streets.
They rush up and down the 5 He will summon his officers.

They will stumble as they advance.
They rush to her wall;
They set up the barricade.

7 It has been decreed:*
She is exposed,
She is carried away, and

They sound like doves as they beat their breasts.#
8 Throughout her days
Nin·e·veh[a] was like a pool of waters,
But now they are fleeing.

But no one is turning back.[b]
9 Plunder silver, plunder gold!
There is no end to the

of precious things.

devastated![c]

All their faces are flushed.
11 Where is the lair of lions,[a] where the young lions* feed,
Where the lion goes out leading its cub,
With no one to make them afraid?
12 The lion tore apart enough prey for his cubs
And strangled for his lionesses.
He kept his dens filled with prey,
His lairs with torn animals.[d]
13 "Look! I am against you," declares Jehovah of armies,[b]
"I will burn up her war chariots in smoke,[c]
And the sword will devour your young lions.*
I will cut off your prey from the earth,
And the sound of your messengers will be heard no more."[d]

3 Woe to the city of bloodshed!
She is completely full of deception and robbery.
She is never without prey!
2 There is the crack of the whip and the rattle of wheels,
The dashing horse and the bounding chariot.
3 The mounted horseman, the flashing sword, and the glittering spear,
The multitude of the slain and the heaps of carcasses
—There is no end to the dead bodies.
They keep stumbling over the dead bodies.

Yes, make yourself as numerous as the locusts!
16 You have multiplied your merchants more than the stars of the heavens.

its skin and flies away.

locust,
And your officers like a locust swarm.
They camp in the stone pens
on a cold day,
But when the sun shines,
they fly away;
And no one knows where they are.
18 Your shepherds are drowsy,
O king of As·syr′i·a;
Your nobles stay in their residences.
Your people are scattered on the mountains,
And no one is gathering them together.[a] 19 There is no relief for your catastrophe.
Your wound is beyond healing.
All those hearing the report about you will clap their hands;[b]

1 A pronouncement that Ha·bak′kuk* the prophet received in a vision:

2 How long, O Jehovah, must I cry for help, but you do not hear?[a]
How long must I ask for help from violence, but you do not intervene?*[b] 3 Why do you make me witness wrongdoing?
And why do you tolerate oppression?
Why are destruction and violence before me?
And why do quarreling and conflict abound?
4 So law is paralyzed,
And justice is never carried out.
For the wicked surround the righteous;
That is why justice is perverted.[c]
5 "Look among the nations and pay attention!
Stare in amazement and be astounded;
For something will happen in your days
That you will not believe even if it is told to you.[d]
6 For here I am raising up the Chal·de′ans,[e]
The ruthless and impetuous nation.
They sweep through vast stretches of the earth
To seize homes not theirs.[f]
7 They are frightening and fearsome.
They establish their own justice and authority.*[g]
8 Their horses are swifter than leopards,
And they are fiercer than wolves in the night.[h]
Their warhorses gallop forward;
Their horses come from far away.
They swoop down like the eagle rushing to feed.[a] 9 All of them come bent on violence.[b]
The assembling of their faces is like the east wind,[c]
And they scoop up captives like sand.
10 They scoff at kings
And laugh at high officials.[d]
They laugh at every fortified place;[e]
They pile up a dirt ramp and capture it.
11 Then they move forward like the wind and pass through,
But they will become guilty,[f]
Because they credit their power to their god."*[g]
12 Are you not from everlasting, O Jehovah?[h]
O my God, my Holy One, you do not die.*[i]
O Jehovah, you appointed them to execute judgment;
My Rock,[j] you established them for punishment.#[k]
13 Your eyes are too pure to look on what is evil,
And you cannot tolerate wickedness.[l]
Why, then, do you tolerate the treacherous[m]
And keep silent when a wicked man swallows up someone more righteous than he is?[n]
14 Why do you make man like the fish of the sea,
Like creeping things that have no ruler?
15 All of these he* hauls up with a fishhook.
He catches them in his dragnet,
And he gathers them in his fishing net.

3 The prayer of Ha·bak'kuk the prophet, in dirges:*
2 O Jehovah, I have heard the report about you.
I am in awe, O Jehovah, of your activity.
In the midst of the years*
bring it to life!
In the midst of the years*
make it known.
May you remember to show mercy during the turmoil.[f]
3 God came from Te'man,
The Holy One from Mount Pa'ran.[g] (Selah)*
His majesty covered the heavens;[h]
With his praise the earth was filled.
4 His brightness was like the light.[i]
Two rays flashed from his hand,
Where his strength was hidden.
5 Before him went pestilence,[j]
And burning fever followed at his feet.
6 He stood still and shook leap.[l]

The paths of long ago are his.
7 I saw trouble in the tents of Cu'shan.
The tent cloths of the land of Mid'i·an trembled.[a] 8 Is it against the rivers, O Jehovah,
Is it against the rivers that your anger is burning?
Or is your fury against the sea?[b]
For you rode on your horses;[c]
Your chariots were victorious.*[d]
9 Your bow is uncovered and ready.
The rods* are assigned with an oath.# (Selah)
You split the earth with rivers.
10 Mountains writhed in pain at the sight of you.[e]
A downpour of waters swept through.
The deep roared with its voice.[f]
It lifted its hands high.
11 Sun and moon stood still in their lofty abode.[g]
Your arrows went out like the light.[h]
The lightning of your spear was brilliant.
12 You marched through the earth with indignation.
You trampled* the nations in anger.
13 You went out for the salvation of your people, to save your anointed one.
You crushed the leader* of the house of the wicked.
It was exposed from the foundation to the top.# (Selah)

When they stormed out to scatter me.
They were overjoyed to devour an afflicted one in secret.

Through the surging of vast waters.
16 I heard and I trembled within;*

1 The word of Jehovah that came to Zeph·a·ni'ah* son of Cush'i son of Ged·a·li'ah son of Am·a·ri'ah son of Hez·e·ki'ah in the days of Jo·si'ah[a] son of A'mon[b] the king of Judah:

2 "I will completely sweep away everything from the surface of the ground," declares Jehovah.[c] 3 "I will sweep away man and beast.
I will sweep away the birds of the heavens and the fish of the sea,[d]
And the stumbling blocks*[e] along with the wicked ones;
And I will remove mankind from the surface of the ground," declares Jehovah.
4 "I will stretch out my hand against Judah
And against all the inhabitants of Jerusalem,
And I will wipe out from this place every vestige* of Ba'al,[f]
The name of the foreign-god priests along with the priests,[g]
5 And those who bow down on the rooftops to the army of the heavens,[a]
And those who bow down and pledge loyalty to Jehovah[b] While pledging loyalty to Mal'cam;[c]
6 And those who turn away from following Jehovah[d]
And who do not seek Jehovah or inquire of him."[e]
7 Be silent before the Sovereign Lord Jehovah, for the day of Jehovah is near.[f] Jehovah has prepared a sacrifice; he has sanctified those he invited.
8 "On the day of Jehovah's sacrifice I will call to account the princes,
The sons of the king,[g] and all those wearing foreign clothing.
9 I will call to account everyone who climbs onto the platform* on that day, Those who fill their master's house with violence and deception.
10 On that day," declares
Jehovah,

1:1 *Meaning "Jehovah Has Concealed (Treasured Up)." 1:3 *Evidently, objects or activities connected with idolatry. 1:4 *Or "trace."

1:9 *Or "podium; threshold." Possibly the platform of the king's throne.

"There will be the sound of an outcry from the Fish

A wailing from the second quarter of the city,[b] And a loud crash from the hills.
11 Wail, you inhabitants of Mak'tesh,*
For all the tradesmen# have been done away with;△
All those weighing out silver have been destroyed.
12 At that time I will carefully search Jerusalem with lamps,
And I will call to account the complacent ones,* who say in their heart,
'Jehovah will not do good,
and he will not do bad.'[c] 13 Their wealth will be plundered and their houses will be devastated.[d]
They will build houses, but they will not occupy them;
And they will plant vineyards, but they will not drink wine from them.[e] 14 The great day of Jehovah is near![f]
It is near and it is approaching very quickly!*[g]
The sound of the day of Jehovah is bitter.[h]
There a warrior cries out.[i] 15 That day is a day of fury,[j]
A day of distress and anguish,[k]
A day of storm and desolation,
A day of darkness and gloom,[l]
A day of clouds and thick gloom,[m] 16 A day of the horn and of the battle cry,[n]
Against the fortified cities and against the high corner towers.[a] 17 I will cause distress to mankind,
And they will walk like blind men,[b]
Because it is against Jehovah they have sinned.[c]
Their blood will be poured out like dust,
And their flesh* like the dung.[d] 18 Neither their silver nor their gold will be able to save them in the day of Jehovah's fury;[e]
For by the fire of his zeal the whole earth will be consumed,[f]
Because he will make an extermination, indeed a terrible one, of all the inhabitants of the earth."[g] 2 Gather together, yes, gather yourselves,[h] shame.[i] effect,

Before the day passes by Jehovah comes upon you,[j] anger comes upon you, ones* of the earth,

decrees.#
Seek righteousness, seek meekness.△
Probably⊠ you will be concealed on the day of Jehovah's anger.[l] abandoned city;

And Ash'ke·lon will be desolated.[m]

Ash′dod will be driven away in broad daylight,*
And Ek′ron will be uprooted.[a] 5 "Woe to those who inhabit the seacoast, the nation of Cher′e·thites![b]
The word of Jehovah is against you.
O Ca′naan, land of the Philis′tines, I will destroy you,
So that there will be no inhabitant left.
6 And the seacoast will become pasture grounds, With wells for shepherds and stone pens for sheep.
7 It will become a region for the remaining ones of the house of Judah;[c]
There they will feed.
In the houses of Ash′ke·lon they will lie down in the evening.
For Jehovah their God will turn his attention to them,*
And he will gather back their captives."[d]
8 "I have heard the reproach by Mo′ab[e] and the insults of the Am′mon·ites,[f]
Who have taunted my people and made boasts against their territory.[g] 9 Therefore as surely as I am alive," declares Jehovah of armies, the God of Israel,
"Mo′ab will become just like Sod′om,[h]
And the Am′mon·ites like Go·mor′rah,[i]
A place of nettles, a salt pit, and a permanent wasteland.[j]
The remaining ones of my people will plunder them, And the remnant of my nation will dispossess them.
10 This is what they will have instead of their pride,[k] Because they taunted and exalted themselves against the people of Jehovah of armies.
11 Jehovah will be awe-inspiring* against them;
For he will bring to nothing#
all the gods of the earth, And all the islands of the nations will bow down to△ him,[a]
Each one from its place.
12 You E·thi·o′pi·ans will also be slain by my sword.[b] 13 He will stretch out his hand toward the north and destroy As·syr′i·a,
And he will make Nin′e·veh desolate,[c] as dry as a desert.
14 Herds will lie down within her, all sorts of wild animals.*
Both pelican and porcupine will spend the night among her pillar capitals.
A voice will sing in the window.
There will be devastation at the threshold;
For he will expose the cedar panels.
15 This is the proud city that was sitting in security,
That was saying in her heart,
'I am the one, and there is nobody else.'
How she has become an object of horror,
A place for the wild animals to lie down!
Everyone passing by her will whistle and shake his fist."[d] 3 Woe to the rebellious, the polluted, the oppressive city![e]

drawn near to her God.[i]

1 In the second year of King Da·ri'us, in the sixth month, on the first day of the month, the word of Jehovah came through Hag'gai*[a] the prophet to Ze·rub'ba·bel[a] son of She·al'ti·el, the governor of Judah, and to Joshua son of Jehoz'a·dak, the high priest, saying:

2 "This is what Jehovah of armies says, 'These people say,

"The time has not yet come for the house* of Jehovah to be built.'"'#[a]

3 And the word of Jehovah again came through Hag'gai[b] the prophet, saying: 4 "Is it the time for you to dwell in your paneled houses, while this house lies in ruins?[c] 5 Now this is what Jehovah of armies says, 'Set your heart on* your ways. 6 You have sown much seed, but you harvest little.[d] You eat, but it is not to satisfaction. You drink, but you do not drink your fill. You put on clothing, but no one gets warm. The one who hires himself out puts his wages in a bag full of holes.'"

7 "This is what Jehovah of armies says, 'Set your heart on* your ways.'

8 "'Go up to the mountain and bring in lumber.[e] And build the house,[f] so that I may take pleasure in it and I may be glorified,'[g] Jehovah says."

9 "'You were expecting much and receiving little; and when you brought it into the house, I blew it away.[h] For what reason?' declares Jehovah of armies. 'Because my house is in ruins, while each of you runs around taking care of his own house.[i] 10 So the heavens above you withheld their dew, and the earth withheld its produce. 11 And I kept calling for a drought on the earth, on the mountains, on the grain, on the new wine, on the oil, on what grows from the ground, on humans and livestock, and on all the labor of your hands.'"

12 Ze·rub'ba·bel[j] son of She·al'ti·el[k] and Joshua son of Je·hoz'a·dak,[l] the high priest, and all the rest of the people listened to the voice of Jehovah their God and to the words of Hag'gai the prophet, because Jehovah their God had sent him; and the people began to show fear because of Jehovah.

13 Then Hag'gai, the messenger of Jehovah, gave this message to the people in harmony with his commission from Jehovah: "'I am with you people,'[a] declares Jehovah."

14 So Jehovah stirred up the spirit[b] of Ze·rub'ba·bel the son of She·al'ti·el, the governor of Judah,[c] and the spirit of Joshua[d] the son of Je·hoz'a·dak, the high priest, and the spirit of all the rest of the people; and they came and began to work on the house of Jehovah of armies, their God.[e] 15 This was on the 24th day of the sixth month in the second year of King Da·ri'us.[f]

2 In the seventh month, on the 21st day of the month, the word of Jehovah came through Hag'gai[g] the prophet, saying, 2 "Please ask Ze·rub'ba·bel[h] son of She·al'ti·el, the governor of Judah,[i] and Joshua[j] son of Je·hoz'a·dak,[k] the high priest, and the rest of the people: 3 'Who is left among you who saw this house* in its former glory?[l] How does it look to you now? Does it not seem like nothing in comparison?'[m]

"'And in this place I will grant peace,'[g] declares Jehovah of armies."

10 On the 24th day of the ninth month, in the second year of Da·ri'us, the word of Jehovah came to Hag'gai[h] the prophet, saying: 11 "This is what Jehovah of armies says, 'Ask, please, the priests about the law:[i] 12 "If a man carries holy flesh in the fold of his clothing, and his clothing touches bread or stew or wine or oil or any sort of food, will it become holy?'"'

The priests answered: "No!"

13 Hag'gai then asked: "If someone who is unclean from contact with a dead body* touches any of these things, will it become unclean?"[j]

The priests answered: "It will become unclean."

14 So Hag'gai said: "'That is how this people is, and that is how this nation is before me,' declares Jehovah, 'and that is how all the work of their hands is; whatever they present there is unclean.'

1 In the eighth month in the second year of Da·rí′us,[a] the word of Jehovah came to the prophet Zech·a·rí′ah*[b] son of Ber·e·chí′ah son of Id′do, saying: 2 "Jehovah grew greatly indignant at your fathers.[c]

3 "Say to them, 'This is what Jehovah of armies says: "'Return to me,' declares Jehovah of armies, 'and I will return to you,'[d] says Jehovah of armies."'

4 "'Do not become like your fathers, to whom the former prophets proclaimed: "This is what Jehovah of armies says, 'Turn away,* please, from your evil ways and your evil deeds.'"'[e]

"'But they did not listen, and they paid no attention to me,'[f] declares Jehovah.

5 "'Where are your fathers now? And did the prophets live forever? 6 However, my words and my decrees that I commanded my servants, the prophets, caught up with your fathers, did they not?'[g] So they returned to me and said: 'Jehovah of armies has dealt with us according to our ways and our deeds, just as he had determined to do.'"[h]

7 On the 24th day of the 11th month, that is, the month of She′bat,* in the second year of Da·rí′us,[i] the word of Jehovah came to the prophet Zech·a·rí′ah son of Ber·e·chí′ah son of Id′do, saying: 8 "I saw a vision in the night. There was a man riding on a red horse, and he stood still among the myrtle trees in the ravine; and behind him there were red, reddish-brown, and white horses."

9 So I said: "Who are these, my lord?"

The angel who was speaking with me replied: "I will show you who these are."

10 Then the man who was standing still among the myrtle trees said: "These are the ones whom Jehovah has sent out to walk about in the earth." 11 And they said to the angel of Jehovah who was standing among the myrtle trees: "We have walked about in the earth, and look! the whole earth is quiet and undisturbed."[a]

12 So the angel of Jehovah said: "O Jehovah of armies, how long will you withhold your mercy from Jerusalem and the cities of Judah,[b] with whom you have been indignant these 70 years?"[c]

13 Jehovah answered the angel who was speaking with me, with kind and comforting words. 14 Then the angel who was speaking with me told me: "Call out, 'This is what Jehovah of armies says: "I am zealous for Jerusalem and for Zion with a great zeal.[d] 15 With great indignation I am indignant with the nations that are at ease,[e] because I felt indignant to a small extent,[f] but they added to the calamity."'[g]

16 "Therefore this is what Jehovah says: '"I will return to Jerusalem with mercy,[h] and my own house will be built in her,"[i] declares Jehovah of armies, "and a measuring line will be stretched out over Jerusalem."'[j]

17 "Call out once more and say, 'This is what Jehovah of armies says: "My cities will again overflow with goodness; and Jehovah will again comfort Zion[k] and again choose Jerusalem."'"[l]

18 Then I looked up and saw four horns.[m] 19 So I asked the angel who was speaking with me: "What are these?" He replied: "These are the horns that dispersed Judah,[n] Israel,[o] and Jerusalem."[p]

20 Jehovah then showed me four craftsmen. 21 I asked: "What are these coming to do?"

He said: "These are the horns that dispersed Judah to such an extent that no one was able to raise his head. These others will come to terrify them, to cast down the horns of the nations that lifted up their horns against the land of Judah, in order to disperse her."

2 And I looked up and saw a man with a measuring line[a] in his hand. 2 So I asked: "Where are you going?"

He replied: "To measure Jerusalem, to see what is her width and what is her length."[b]

3 And look! the angel who was speaking with me went out, and another angel came to meet him. 4 Then he said to him: "Run over there and tell that young man, '"Jerusalem will be inhabited[c] as open rural country,* because of all the men and livestock within her.[d] 5 And I will become to her," declares Jehovah, "a wall of fire all around,[e] and I will become the glory in her midst."'"[f]

6 "Come! Come! Flee from the land of the north,"[g] declares Jehovah.

"For I have scattered you to the four winds of the heavens,"[h] declares Jehovah.

7 "Come, Zion! Make your escape, you who are dwelling with the daughter of Babylon.[i] 8 For this is what Jehovah of armies says, who after being glorified* has sent me to the nations that were plundering you:[j] 'Whoever touches you touches the pupil of my eye.'[#k] 9 For now I will wave my hand against them, and they will become plunder for their own slaves.[l] And you will certainly know that Jehovah of armies has sent me.

10 "Shout for joy, O daughter of Zion;[m] for I am coming,[n] and I will reside in your midst,"[a] declares Jehovah. 11 "Many nations will join themselves to Jehovah in that day,[b] and they will become my people; and I will reside in your midst." And you will have to know that Jehovah of armies has sent me to you. 12 Jehovah will take possession of Judah as his portion on the holy ground, and he will again choose Jerusalem.[c] 13 Be silent, all flesh,* before Jehovah, for he is taking action from his holy dwelling.

3 And he showed me Joshua[d] the high priest standing before the angel of Jehovah, and Satan[e] was standing at his right hand to resist him. 2 Then the angel of Jehovah said to Satan: "May Jehovah rebuke you, O Satan,[f] yes, may Jehovah, who has chosen Jerusalem,[g] rebuke you! Is not this one a burning log snatched out of the fire?"

3 Now Joshua was clothed in filthy garments and standing before the angel. 4 The angel said to those standing before him, "Remove his filthy garments." Then he said to him, "See, I have caused your error* to pass away from you, and you will be clothed with fine garments."[#h]

5 So I said: "Let a clean turban be put on his head."[i] And they put the clean turban on his head and clothed him with garments; and the angel of Jehovah was standing nearby. 6 The angel of Jehovah then declared to Joshua: 7 "This is what Jehovah of armies says, 'If you will walk in my ways and carry out your responsibilities before me, then you will serve as a judge in my house[j] and take care of* my courtyards; and I will give you free access among these who are standing here.'

10 "'In that day,' declares Jehovah of armies, 'Each of you will invite your neighbor to come under your vine and under your fig tree.'"[d]

4 The angel who had been speaking with me came back and woke me up, as when waking someone from sleep. 2 Then he said to me: "What do you see?"

So I said: "I see, and look! a lampstand entirely of gold,[e] with a bowl on top of it. There are seven lamps on it,[f] yes, seven, and the lamps, which are at the top of it, have seven pipes. 3 And next to it are two olive trees,[g] one on the right of the bowl and one on the left."

4 Then I asked the angel who was speaking with me: "What do these things mean, my lord?" 5 So the angel who was speaking with me asked: "Do you not know what these things mean?"

I replied: "No, my lord."

6 He then said to me: "This is the word of Jehovah to Ze·rub′·ba·bel: '"Not by a military force, nor by power,[h] but by my spirit,"[i] says Jehovah of armies. 7 Who are you, O great mountain? Before Ze·rub′ba·bel[j] you will become a level land.*[k] And he will bring out the top stone# amid shouts of: "How wonderful! How wonderful!"'"

11 Then I asked him: "What is the meaning of these two olive trees on the right and on the left of the lampstand?"[e] 12 I asked him a second time: "What is the meaning of the two bunches of twigs* of the olive trees that are pouring out the golden liquid through the two golden tubes?"

13 So he asked me: "Do you not know what these things mean?"

I replied: "No, my lord."

14 He said: "These are the two anointed ones who are standing alongside the Lord of the whole earth."[f]

5 Again I looked up, and I saw a flying scroll. 2 He asked me: "What do you see?"

I replied: "I see a flying scroll, which is 20 cubits* long and 10 cubits wide."

3 Then he said to me: "This is the curse that is going out over the face of all the earth, because everyone who steals,[g] as written on its one side, has gone unpunished; and everyone who makes a sworn oath,[h] as written on its other side, has gone unpunished. 4 'I have sent it out,' declares Jehovah of armies, 'and it will enter into the house of the thief and into the house of the one who makes a false oath in

5 Then the angel who was speaking with me came forward and said to me: "Look up, please, and see what is going out."

6 So I asked: "What is it?"

He replied: "This is the e'phah container* that is going out." He continued: "This is their appearance in all the earth." 7 And I saw that the round lid of lead was lifted up, and there was a woman sitting inside the container. 8 So he said: "This is Wickedness." Then he threw her back into the e'phah container, after which he thrust the lead weight over its mouth.

9 Then I looked up and saw two women coming forward, and they were soaring in the wind. They had wings like the wings of a stork. And they lifted up the container between the earth and heaven. 10 So I asked the angel who was speaking with me: "Where are they taking the e'phah container?"

11 He replied: "To the land of Shi'nar*[a] to build her a house; and when it is prepared, she will be deposited there in her proper place."

5 The angel answered me: "These are the four spirits[a] of the heavens that are going out after having taken their station before the Lord of the whole earth.[b] 6 The one* with the black horses is going out to the land of the north;[c] the white ones are going out beyond the sea; and the speckled ones are going out to the land of the south. 7 And the dappled ones were eager to go out to walk about through the earth." Then he said: "Go, walk about through the earth." And they began walking about through the earth.

8 He then called out to me and said: "See, those going out to the land of the north have caused the spirit of Jehovah to rest in the land of the north."

9 The word of Jehovah again came to me, saying: 10 "Take from Hel'dai, To·bi'jah, and Je·da'iah what they brought from the people in exile; and on that day, you must go to the house of Jo·si'ah the son of Zeph·a·ni'ah along with these who have come from Babylon. 11 You should take silver and gold and make a crown* and put it on the head of Joshua[d] son of Je·hoz'a·dak, the high priest. 12 And say to him,

And you will have to know that Jehovah of armies has sent me to you. And it will occur—if you do not fail to listen to the voice of Jehovah your God.'"

7 And in the fourth year of King Da·ri′us, the word of Jehovah came to Zech·a·ri′ah[b] on the fourth day of the ninth month, that is, the month of Chis′lev.* 2 The people of Beth′el sent Shar·e′zer and Re′gem-mel′ech and his men to beg for the favor* of Jehovah, 3 saying to the priests of the house* of Jehovah of armies and to the prophets: "Should I weep in the fifth month[c] and abstain from food, as I have done for so many years?"

4 The word of Jehovah of armies again came to me, saying: 5 "Say to all the people of the land and to the priests, 'When you fasted and wailed in the fifth month and in the seventh month[d] for 70 years,[e] did you really fast for me? 6 And when you would eat and drink, were you not eating for yourselves and drinking for yourselves? 7 Should you not obey the words that Jehovah proclaimed through the former prophets,[f] while Jerusalem and her surrounding cities were inhabited and at peace, and while the Neg′eb and the She·phe′lah were inhabited?'"

8 The word of Jehovah again came to Zech·a·ri′ah, saying: 9 "This is what Jehovah of armies says, 'Judge with true justice,[g] and deal with one another in loyal love[h] and mercy. 10 Do not defraud the widow or the fatherless child,[a] the foreigner[b] or the poor;[c] and do not scheme evil against one another in your hearts.'[d] 11 But they kept refusing to pay attention,[e] and they stubbornly turned their backs,[f] and they stopped up their ears so as not to hear.[g] 12 They made their heart like a diamond[h] and would not obey the law# and the words that Jehovah of armies sent by his spirit through the former prophets.[i] So there came great indignation from Jehovah of armies."[j]

13 "'Just as they did not listen when I* called,[k] so I would not listen when they called,'[l] says Jehovah of armies. 14 'And I scattered them with a storm wind throughout all the nations that they had not known,[m] and the land was left desolate behind them, with no one passing through or returning;[n] for they turned the desirable land into an object of horror.'"

8 The word of Jehovah of armies again came, saying: 2 "This is what Jehovah of armies says, 'I will be zealous for Zion with a great zeal,[o] and with great wrath I will be zealous for her.'"

3 "This is what Jehovah says, 'I will return to Zion[p] and reside in Jerusalem;[q] and Jerusalem will be called the city of truth,*[r] and the mountain of Jehovah of armies, the holy mountain.'"[s]

4 "This is what Jehovah of armies says, 'Old men and women will again sit in the public squares of Jerusalem, each with his staff in his hand because of his great age.*[t] 5 And the public squares of the city will be

7 And I began to shepherd the flock meant for slaughter,[e] in your behalf, O afflicted ones of the flock. 3 "Jehovah will go out and war against those nations[a] as when he fights in the day of a battle.[b] 4 In that day his feet will stand on the Mount of Olives,[c] which faces Jerusalem on the east; and the Mount of Olives will be split in half, from east* to west,# forming a very great valley; and half of the mountain will move to the north, and half of it to the south. 5 You will flee to the valley of my mountains, for the valley of the mountains will extend all the way to A'zel. You will have to flee, just as you fled because of the earthquake in the days of King Uz·zi'ah of Judah.[d] And Jehovah my God will come, and all the holy ones will be with him.[e]

"Was not E'sau the brother of Jacob?"[a] declares Jehovah. "But I loved Jacob, 3 and E'sau I hated;[b] and I made his mountains desolate[c] and left his inheritance for the jackals of the wilderness."[d]

4 "Though E'dom says, 'We have been shattered, but we will return and rebuild the ruins,' this is what Jehovah of armies says, 'They will build, but I will tear down, and they will be called "the territory of wickedness" and "the people whom Jehovah has forever condemned."[a] 5 Your own eyes will see it, and you will say: "May Jehovah be magnified over the territory of Israel."'"

6 "'A son honors a father,[b] and a servant his master. So if I am a father,[c] where is the honor due me?[d] And if I am a master,* where is the fear# due me?' Jehovah of armies says to you priests who are despising my name.[e]

"'But you say: "How have we despised your name?"'

7 "'By presenting polluted food* on my altar.'

"'And you say: "How have we polluted you?"'

"'By saying: "The table of Jehovah[f] is something to be despised." 8 And when you present a blind animal as a sacrifice, you say: "It is nothing bad." And when you present a lame animal or a sick one: "It is nothing bad."'"[g]

"Try presenting them, please, to your governor. Will he be pleased with you or receive you with favor?" says Jehovah of armies.

9 "And now, please, appeal to* God, that he may show us favor. With such offerings from your own hand, will he receive any of you with favor?" says Jehovah of armies.

10 "And who among you is willing to shut the doors?*[h] For you will not even light my altar without charge.[i] I find no delight in you," says Jehovah of armies, "and I take no pleasure in any gift offering from your hand."[a]

11 "For from the rising of the sun to its setting,* my name will be great among the nations.[b] In every place sacrifices will be made to smoke, and offerings will be made to my name, as a pure gift; because my name will be great among the nations,"[c] says Jehovah of armies.

12 "But you are profaning it*[d] by saying, 'The table of Jehovah is polluted, and its fruit, its food, is to be despised.'[e] 13 You also say, 'Look! How tiresome!' and you sniff scornfully at it," says Jehovah of armies. "And you bring stolen, lame, and sick animals. Yes, you bring such things as a gift! Should I accept it from your hand?"[f] says Jehovah.

14 "Cursed is the cunning one who has a sound male animal in his flock, but he makes a vow and sacrifices a blemished* one to Jehovah. For I am a great King,"[g] says Jehovah of armies, "and my name will be awe-inspiring among the nations."[h]

2 "And now, O priests, this commandment is for you.[i] 2 If you refuse to listen and to take it to heart to glorify my name," says Jehovah of armies, "I will send on you the curse,[j] and I will turn your blessings into curses.[k] Yes, I have turned the blessings into curses, because you are not taking it to heart."

13 "And there is another* thing that you do, which results in covering the altar of Jehovah with tears and with weeping and sighing, so that he no longer pays attention to your gift offering or looks favorably on anything from your hand.[a] 14 And you say, 'For what reason?' It is because Jehovah has acted as a witness between you and the wife of your youth, with whom you have dealt treacherously, although she is your partner and your wife by covenant.[b] 15 But there was one who did not do it, for he had what remained of the spirit. And what was that one seeking? The offspring of God. So guard yourselves respecting your spirit, and do not deal treacherously with the wife of your youth. 16 For I hate* divorce,"[c] says Jehovah the God of Israel, "and the one who covers his garment with violence,"# says Jehovah of armies. "And guard yourselves respecting your spirit, and you must not deal treacherously.[d]

17 "You have made Jehovah weary with your words.[e] But you say, 'How have we made him weary?' By saying, 'Everyone who does bad is good in the eyes of Jehovah, and he finds pleasure in him,'[f] or by saying, 'Where is the God of justice?'"

3 "Look! I am sending my messenger, and he will clear up* a way before me.[g] And suddenly the true Lord, whom you are seeking, will come to his temple;[h] and the messenger of the covenant will come, in whom you take delight. Look! He will certainly come," says Jehovah of armies.

For he will be like the fire of a refiner and like the lye*[a] of laundrymen. 3 And he will sit as a refiner and cleanser of silver[b] and will cleanse the sons of Le'vi; and he will clarify* them like gold and like silver, and they will certainly become to Jehovah people presenting a gift offering in righteousness. 4 And the gift offering of Judah and of Jerusalem will actually be pleasing* to Jehovah, as in the days of long ago and as in the years of antiquity.[c]

5 "I will come near to you for judgment, and I will be a swift witness against the sorcerers,[d] against the adulterers, against those who take false oaths,[e] against those who defraud the hired worker,[f] the widow, and the fatherless child,*[g] and against those who refuse to help# the foreigner.[h] These have not feared me," says Jehovah of armies.

6 "For I am Jehovah; I do not change.*[i] And you are sons of Jacob; you have not yet come to your finish. 7 From the days of your forefathers you have turned aside from my regulations and have not kept them.[j] Return to me, and I will return to you,"[k] says Jehovah of armies.

But you say: "How are we supposed to return?"

8 "Will a mere human rob God? But you are robbing me."

And you say: "How have we robbed you?"

"In the tithes* and in the contributions. 9 You are certainly cursed,* for you are robbing me—yes, the entire nation is doing so. 10 Bring the entire tithe* into the storehouse,[a] so that there may be food in my house;[b] and test me out, please, in this regard," Jehovah of armies says, "to see whether I will not open to you the floodgates of the heavens[c] and pour out# on you a blessing until there is nothing lacking."[d]

11 "And I will rebuke the devouring one* for you, and it will not ruin the fruit of your land, nor will the vine in your field be fruitless,"[e] says Jehovah of armies.

12 "All the nations will have to declare you happy,[f] for you will become a land of delight," says Jehovah of armies.

13 "Your words against me have been strong," says Jehovah.

And you say: "How have we spoken against you among ourselves?"[g]

14 "You say, 'It is of no value to serve God.[h] How have we benefited by keeping our obligations to him and by walking somberly before Jehovah of armies? 15 Now we consider presumptuous people happy. Also, those who practice wickedness are successful.[i] They dare to put God to the test and get away with it.'"

16 At that time those who fear Jehovah spoke with one another, each one with his companion, and Jehovah kept paying attention and listening. And a book of remembrance was written before him[j] for those fearing Jehovah and for those meditating on* his name.[k] cause her husband Joseph was righteous and did not want to make her a public spectacle, he intended to divorce her secretly.[a] 20 But after he had thought these things over, look! Jehovah's* angel appeared to him in a dream, saying: "Joseph, son of David, do not be afraid to take your wife Mary home, for what has been conceived# in her is by holy spirit.[b] 21 She will give birth to a son, and you are to name him Jesus,[c] for he will save his people from their sins."[d] 22 All of this actually came about to fulfill what was spoken by Jehovah through his prophet, saying: 23 "Look! The virgin will become pregnant and will give birth to a son, and they will name him Im·man'u·el,"[e] which means, when translated, "With Us Is God."[f]

24 Then Joseph woke up from his sleep and did as the angel of Jehovah* had directed him, and he took his wife home. 25 But he did not have sexual relations with her until she gave birth to a son,[g] and he named him Jesus.[h]

2 After Jesus had been born in Beth'le·hem[i] of Ju·de'a in the days of Herod*[j] the king, look! astrologers# from the East came to Jerusalem, 2 saying: "Where is the one born king of the Jews?[k] For we saw his star when we were in the East, and we have come to do obeisance* to him." 3 At hearing this, King Herod was agitated, and all Jerusalem with him. 4 On gathering together all the chief priests and scribes of the people, he inquired of them where the Christ* was to be born. 5 They said to him: "In Beth'le·hem[a] of Jude'a, for this is how it has been written through the prophet: 6 'And you, O Beth'le·hem of the land of Judah, are by no means the most insignificant city among the governors of Judah, for out of you will come a governing one, who will shepherd my people Israel.'"[b]

7 Then Herod secretly summoned the astrologers and carefully ascertained from them the time of the star's appearing. 8 When sending them to Beth'le·hem, he said: "Go make a careful search for the young child, and when you have found him, report back to me so that I too may go and do obeisance to him." 9 After they had heard the king, they went their way, and look! the star they had seen when they were in the East[c] went ahead of them until it came to a stop above where the young child was. 10 On seeing the star, they rejoiced with great joy. 11 And when they went into the house, they saw the young child with Mary his mother, and falling down, they did obeisance* to him. They also opened their treasures and presented him with gifts—gold and frankincense and myrrh. 12 However, because they were given divine warning in a dream[d] not to return to Herod, they departed for their country by another way.

13 After they had departed, look! Jehovah's* angel appeared to Joseph in a dream,[e] saying: "Get up, take the young child and his mother and flee to Egypt, and stay there until I give you word, for Herod is about to search for the young child to kill him." 14 So Joseph got up and by night took along the young child and the child's mother and went into Egypt. 15 He stayed there until the death of Herod. This fulfilled what was spoken by Jehovah* through his prophet, saying: "Out of Egypt I called my son."[a]

16 Then Herod, seeing that he had been outwitted by the astrologers, flew into a great rage, and he sent out and had all the boys in Beth'le·hem and in all its districts killed, from two years of age and under, according to the time that he had carefully ascertained from the astrologers.[b] 17 Then was fulfilled what was spoken through Jeremiah the prophet, who said: 18 "A voice was heard in Ra'mah, weeping and much wailing. It was Rachel[c] weeping for her children, and she was unwilling to take comfort, because they are no more."[d]

19 When Herod had died, look! Jehovah's* angel appeared in a dream[e] to Joseph in Egypt 20 and said: "Get up, take the young child and his mother and go into the land of Israel, for those who were seeking the life* of the young child are dead." 21 So he got up and took the young child and the child's mother and entered into the land of Israel. 22 But hearing that Arche·la'us ruled Ju·de'a instead of his father Herod, he was afraid to go there. Moreover, being given divine warning in a dream,[f] he withdrew into the territory of Gal'i·lee.[g] 23 And he came and settled in a city named Naz'areth,[h] in order to fulfill what was spoken through the prophets: "He will be called a Naz·arene'."*[i]

3 In those days John[j] the Baptist came preaching[k] in the wilderness of Ju·de'a, 2 saying: "Repent, for the Kingdom of the heavens has drawn near."[a] 3 This, in fact, is the one spoken of through Isaiah the prophet[b] in these words: "A voice of one calling out in the wilderness: 'Prepare the way of Jehovah!* Make his roads straight.'"[c] 4 Now John was clothed with camel's hair and had a leather belt around his waist.[d] His food was locusts and wild honey.[e] 5 Then the people of Jerusalem and all Ju·de'a and all the country around the Jordan were going out to him,[f] 6 and they were baptized* by him in the Jordan River,[g] openly confessing their sins.

7 When he caught sight of many of the Pharisees and Sadducees[h] coming to the baptism, he said to them: "You offspring of vipers,[i] who has warned you to flee from the coming wrath?[j] 8 Therefore, produce fruit that befits repentance. 9 Do not presume to say to yourselves, 'We have Abraham as our father.'[k] For I say to you that God is able to raise up children for Abraham from these stones. 10 The ax is already lying at the root of the trees. Every tree, then, that does not produce fine fruit is to be cut down and thrown into the fire.[l] 11 I, for my part, baptize you with water because of your repentance,[m] but the one coming after me is stronger than I am, whose sandals I am not worthy to take off.[n] That one will baptize you with holy spirit[o] and with fire.[p] 12 His winnowing shovel is in his hand, and he will clean up his threshing floor completely and will gather his wheat into the storehouse, but the chaff he will burn up with fire[q] that cannot be put out."

13 Then Jesus came from Gal'i·lee to the Jordan to John, in order to be baptized by him.[a] 14 But the latter tried to prevent him, saying: "I am the one who needs to be baptized by you, and are you coming to me?" 15 Jesus replied to him: "Let it be this time, for in that way it is suitable for us to carry out all that is righteous." Then he quit preventing him. 16 After being baptized, Jesus immediately came up from the water; and look! the heavens were opened up,[b] and he saw God's spirit descending like a dove and coming upon him.[c] 17 Look! Also, a voice from the heavens[d] said: "This is my Son,[e] the beloved, whom I have approved."[f]

4 Then Jesus was led by the spirit up into the wilderness to be tempted[g] by the Devil.[h] 2 After he had fasted for 40 days and 40 nights, he felt hungry. 3 And the Tempter[i] approached and said to him: "If you are a son of God, tell these stones to become loaves of bread." 4 But he answered: "It is written: 'Man must live, not on bread alone, but on every word that comes from Jehovah's* mouth.'"[j]

5 Then the Devil took him along into the holy city,[k] and he stationed him on the battlement* of the temple[l] 6 and said to him: "If you are a son of God, throw yourself down, for it is written: 'He will give his angels a command concerning you,' and, 'They will carry you on their hands, so that you may not strike your foot against a stone.'"[m] 7 Jesus said to him: "Again it is written: 'You must not put Jehovah* your God to the test.'"[n]

8 Again the Devil took him along to an unusually high mountain and showed him all the kingdoms of the world and their glory.[a] 9 And he said to him: "All these things I will give you if you fall down and do an act of worship to me." 10 Then Jesus said to him: "Go away, Satan! For it is written: 'It is Jehovah* your God you must worship,[b] and it is to him alone you must render sacred service.'"[c] 11 Then the Devil left him,[d] and look! angels came and began to minister to him.[e]

12 Now when he heard that John had been arrested,[f] he withdrew into Gal'i·lee.[g] 13 Further, after leaving Naz'a·reth, he came and took up residence in Ca·per'na·um[h] beside the sea in the districts of Zeb'u·lun and Naph'ta·li, 14 so as to fulfill what was spoken through Isaiah the prophet, who said: 15 "O land of Zeb'u·lun and land of Naph'ta·li, along the road of the sea, on the other side of the Jordan, Gal'i·lee of the nations! 16 The people sitting in darkness saw a great light, and as for those sitting in a region of deathly shadow, light[i] rose on them."[j] 17 From that time on, Jesus began preaching and saying: "Repent, for the Kingdom of the heavens has drawn near."[k]

18 Walking alongside the Sea of Gal'i·lee, he saw two brothers, Simon, who is called Peter,[l] and Andrew his brother, casting a net into the sea, for they were fishermen.[m] 19 And he said to them: "Come after me, and I will make you fishers of men."[n] 20 At once they abandoned their nets and followed him.[o] 21 Going on from there, he saw two others who were brothers, James the son of Zeb'e·dee and his brother John.[p] They were in the boat with Zeb'e·dee their father, mending their nets, and he called them.[q] 22 At once they left the boat and their father and followed him.

23 Then he went throughout the whole of Gal′i·lee,[a] teaching in their synagogues[b] and preaching the good news of the Kingdom and curing every sort of disease and every sort of infirmity among the people.[c] 24 And the report about him spread throughout all Syria, and they brought him all those who were suffering with various diseases and torments,[d] those who were demon-possessed[e] and epileptic[f] and paralyzed, and he cured them. 25 Consequently, large crowds followed him from Gal′i·lee and De·cap′o·lis* and Jerusalem and Ju·de′a and from the other side of the Jordan.

14 "You are the light of the world.[i] A city cannot be hid when located on a mountain. 15 People light a lamp and set it, not under a basket,* but on the lampstand, and it shines on all those in the house.[j] 16 Likewise, let your light shine before men,[k] so that they may see your fine works[l] and give glory to your Father who is in the heavens.[m]

I came, not to destroy, but to fulfill.[n] 18 Truly I say to you that sooner would heaven and earth pass away than for one stroke of a letter to pass away from the Law until all things take place.[o] 19 Whoever, therefore, breaks one of these least commandments and teaches others to do so will be called least in relation to the Kingdom of the heavens. But whoever does them and teaches them will be called great in relation to the Kingdom of the heavens. 20 For I say to you that if your righteousness does not surpass that of the scribes and the Pharisees,[p] you will by no means enter into the Kingdom of the heavens.[q]

23 "If, then, you are bringing your gift to the altar[d] and there you remember that your brother has something against you, 24 leave your gift there in front of the altar, and go away. First make your peace with your brother, and then come back and offer your gift.[e]

25 "Be quick to settle matters with your legal opponent, while you are with him on the way there, so that somehow the opponent may not turn you over to the judge, and the judge to the court attendant, and you get thrown into prison.[f] 26 I say to you for a fact, you will certainly not come out of there until you have paid over your last small coin.*

27 "You heard that it was said: 'You must not commit adultery.'[g] 28 But I say to you that everyone who keeps on looking at a woman[h] so as to have a passion for her has already committed adultery with her in his heart.[i] 29 If, now, your right eye is making you stumble, tear it out and throw it away from you.[j] For it is better for you to lose one of your members than for your whole body to be pitched into Ge·hen'na.[k] 30 Also, if your right hand is making you stumble, cut it off and throw it away from you.[a] For it is better for you to lose one of your members than for your whole body to land in Ge·hen'na.[b]

31 "Moreover, it was said: 'Whoever divorces his wife, let him give her a certificate of divorce.'[c] 32 However, I say to you that everyone divorcing his wife, except on account of sexual immorality,* makes her a subject for adultery, and whoever marries a divorced woman commits adultery.[d]

33 "Again you heard that it was said to those of ancient times: 'You must not swear without performing,[e] but you must pay your vows to Jehovah.'*[f] 34 However, I say to you: Do not swear at all,[g] neither by heaven, for it is God's throne; 35 nor by earth, for it is the footstool of his feet;[h] nor by Jerusalem, for it is the city of the great King.[i] 36 Do not swear by your head, since you cannot turn one hair white or black. 37 Just let your word 'Yes' mean yes, your 'No,' no,[j] for what goes beyond these is from the wicked one.[k]

38 "You heard that it was said: 'Eye for eye and tooth for tooth.'[l] 39 However, I say to you: Do not resist the one who is wicked, but whoever slaps you on your right cheek, turn the other also to him.[m] 40 And if a person wants to take you to court and get possession of your inner garment, let him also have your outer garment;[n] 41 and if someone in authority compels you into service for a mile,* go with him two miles. 42 Give to the one asking you, and do not turn away from one who wants to borrow* from you.[o]

43 "You heard that it was said: 'You must love your neighbor[a] and hate your enemy.' 44 However, I say to you: Continue to love your enemies[b] and to pray for those who persecute you,[c] 45 so that you may prove yourselves sons of your Father who is in the heavens,[d] since he makes his sun rise on both the wicked and the good and makes it rain on both the righteous and the unrighteous.[e] 46 For if you love those loving you, what reward do you have?[f] Are not also the tax collectors doing the same thing? 47 And if you greet your brothers only, what extraordinary thing are you doing? Are not also the people of the nations doing the same thing? 48 You must accordingly be perfect,* as your heavenly Father is perfect.[g]

6 "Take care not to practice your righteousness in front of men to be noticed by them;[h] otherwise you will have no reward with your Father who is in the heavens. 2 So when you make gifts of mercy,* do not blow a trumpet ahead of you, as the hypocrites do in the synagogues and in the streets, so that they may be glorified by men. Truly I say to you, they have their reward in full. 3 But you, when making gifts of mercy, do not let your left hand know what your right hand is doing, 4 so that your gifts of mercy may be in secret. Then your Father who looks on in secret will repay you.[i]

5 "Also, when you pray, do not act like the hypocrites,[j] for they like to pray standing in the synagogues and on the corners of the main streets to be seen by men.[k] Truly I say to you, they have their reward in full. 6 But when you pray, go into your private room and, after shutting your door, pray to your Father who is in secret.[a] Then your Father who looks on in secret will repay you. 7 When praying, do not say the same things over and over again as the people of the nations do, for they imagine they will get a hearing for their use of many words. 8 So do not be like them, for your Father knows what you need[b] even before you ask him.

9 "You must pray, then, this way:[c]

"'Our Father in the heavens, let your name[d] be sanctified.[e] 10 Let your Kingdom[f] come. Let your will[g] take place, as in heaven, also on earth.[h] 11 Give us today our bread for this day;[i] 12 and forgive us our debts, as we also have forgiven our debtors.[j] 13 And do not bring us into temptation,[k] but deliver us from the wicked one.'[l]

14 "For if you forgive men their trespasses, your heavenly Father will also forgive you;[m] 15 whereas if you do not forgive men their trespasses, neither will your Father forgive your trespasses.[n]

16 "When you fast,[o] stop becoming sad-faced like the hypocrites, for they disfigure their faces* so they may appear to men to be fasting.[p] Truly I say to you, they have their reward in full. 17 But you, when fasting, put oil on your head and wash your face, 18 so that you may not appear to be fasting to men but only to your Father who is in secret. Then your Father who looks on in secret will repay you.

yourselves treasures in heaven,[a] where neither moth nor rust consumes,[b] and where thieves do not break in and steal. 21 For where your treasure is, there your heart will be also.

22 "The lamp of the body is the eye.[c] If, then, your eye is focused,* your whole body will be bright.# 23 But if your eye is envious,*[d] your whole body will be dark. If the light that is in you is really darkness, how great that darkness is!

24 "No one can slave for two masters; for either he will hate the one and love the other,[e] or he will stick to the one and despise the other. You cannot slave for God and for Riches.[f]

25 "On this account I say to you: Stop being anxious[g] about your lives* as to what you will eat or what you will drink, or about your bodies as to what you will wear.[h] Does not life# mean more than food and the body than clothing?[i] 26 Observe intently the birds of heaven;[j] they do not sow seed or reap or gather into storehouses, yet your heavenly Father feeds them. Are you not worth more than they are? 27 Who of you by being anxious can add one cubit* to his life span?[k] 28 Also, why are you anxious about clothing? Take a lesson from the lilies of the field, how they grow; they do not toil, nor do they spin; 29 but I tell you that not even Sol'o·mon[l] in all his glory was arrayed as one of these. 30 Now if this is how God clothes the vegetation of the field that is here today and tomorrow is thrown into the oven, will he not much rather clothe you, you with little faith? 31 So never be anxious[m] and say, 'What are we to eat?' or, 'What are we to drink?' or, 'What are we to wear?'[a] 32 For all these are the things the nations are eagerly pursuing. Your heavenly Father knows that you need all these things.

33 "Keep on, then, seeking first the Kingdom and his righteousness, and all these other things will be added to you.[b] 34 So never be anxious about the next day,[c] for the next day will have its own anxieties. Each day has enough of its own troubles.

7 "Stop judging[d] that you may not be judged; 2 for with the judgment you are judging, you will be judged,[e] and with the measure that you are measuring out, they will measure out to you.[f] 3 Why, then, do you look at the straw in your brother's eye but do not notice the rafter in your own eye?[g] 4 Or how can you say to your brother, 'Allow me to remove the straw from your eye,' when look! a rafter is in your own eye? 5 Hypocrite! First remove the rafter from your own eye, and then you will see clearly how to remove the straw from your brother's eye.

6 "Do not give what is holy to dogs nor throw your pearls before swine,[h] so that they may never trample them under their feet and turn around and rip you open.

7 "Keep on asking, and it will be given you;[i] keep on seeking, and you will find; keep on knocking, and it will be opened to you;[j] 8 for everyone asking receives,[k] and everyone seeking finds, and to everyone knocking, it will be opened. 9 Indeed, which one of you, if his son asks for bread, will hand him a stone? 10 Or if he asks for a fish, he will not hand him a serpent, will he? 11 Therefore, if you, although being wicked, know how to give good gifts to your children, how much more so will your Father who is in the heavens give good things[a] to those asking him![b]

12 "All things, therefore, that you want men to do to you, you also must do to them.[c] This, in fact, is what the Law and the Prophets mean.[d]

13 "Go in through the narrow gate,[e] because broad is the gate and spacious is the road leading off into destruction, and many are going in through it; 14 whereas narrow is the gate and cramped the road leading off into life, and few are finding it.[f]

15 "Be on the watch for the false prophets[g] who come to you in sheep's covering,[h] but inside they are ravenous wolves.[i] 16 By their fruits you will recognize them. Never do people gather grapes from thorns or figs from thistles, do they?[j] 17 Likewise, every good tree produces fine fruit, but every rotten tree produces worthless fruit.[k] 18 A good tree cannot bear worthless fruit, nor can a rotten tree produce fine fruit.[l] 19 Every tree not producing fine fruit is cut down and thrown into the fire.[m] 20 Really, then, by their fruits you will recognize those men.[n]

21 "Not everyone saying to me, 'Lord, Lord,' will enter into the Kingdom of the heavens, but only the one doing the will of my Father who is in the heavens will.[o] 22 Many will say to me in that day: 'Lord, Lord,[p] did we not prophesy in your name, and expel demons in your name, and perform many powerful works in your name?'[q] 23 And then I will declare to them: 'I never knew you! Get away from me, you workers of lawlessness!'[r]

24 "Therefore, everyone who hears these sayings of mine and does them will be like a discreet man who built his house on the rock.[a] 25 And the rain poured down and the floods came and the winds blew and lashed against that house, but it did not cave in, for it had been founded on the rock. 26 Furthermore, everyone hearing these sayings of mine and not doing them will be like a foolish man who built his house on the sand.[b] 27 And the rain poured down and the floods came and the winds blew and struck against that house,[c] and it caved in, and its collapse was great."

28 When Jesus finished these sayings, the effect was that the crowds were astounded at his way of teaching,[d] 29 for he was teaching them as a person having authority,[e] and not as their scribes.

8 After he came down from the mountain, large crowds followed him. 2 And look! a leper came up and did obeisance* to him, saying: "Lord, if you just want to, you can make me clean."[f] 3 So stretching out his hand, he touched him, saying: "I want to! Be made clean."[g] Immediately his leprosy was cleansed away.[h] 4 Then Jesus said to him: "See that you tell no one,[i] but go, show yourself to the priest,[j] and offer the gift that Moses appointed,[k] for a witness to them."

5 When he entered Ca·per'naum, an army officer came to him, pleading with him[l] 6 and saying: "Sir, my servant is laid up in the house with paralysis, and he is suffering terribly." 7 He said to him: "When I get there, I will cure him." 8 The army officer replied: "Sir, I am not worthy to have you come under my roof, but just say the word and my servant will be healed. 9 For I too am a man under authority, having soldiers under me, and I say to this one, 'Go!' and he goes, and to another, 'Come!' and he comes, and to my slave, 'Do this!' and he does it." 10 When Jesus heard that, he was amazed and said to those following him: "I tell you the truth, with no one in Israel have I found so great a faith.[a] 11 But I tell you that many from east and west will come and recline at the table with Abraham and Isaac and Jacob in the Kingdom of the heavens;[b] 12 whereas the sons of the Kingdom will be thrown into the darkness outside. There is where their weeping and the gnashing of their teeth will be."[c] 13 Then Jesus said to the army officer: "Go. Just as you have shown faith, so let it come to pass for you."[d] And the servant was healed in that hour.[e]

14 And Jesus, on coming into Peter's house, saw his mother-in-law[f] lying down and sick with fever.[g] 15 So he touched her hand,[h] and the fever left her, and she got up and began ministering to him. 16 But after it became evening, people brought him many demon-possessed ones; and he expelled the spirits with a word, and he cured all who were suffering, 17 in order to fulfill what was spoken through Isaiah the prophet: "He himself took our sicknesses and carried our diseases."[i]

18 When Jesus saw a crowd around him, he gave the command to depart for the other side.[j] 19 And a scribe came up and said to him: "Teacher, I will follow you wherever you go."[k] 20 But Jesus said to him: "Foxes have dens and birds of heaven have nests, but the Son of man has nowhere to lay down his head."[l] 21 Then another of the disciples said to him: "Lord, permit me first to go and bury my father."[m] 22 Jesus said to him: "Keep following me, and let the dead bury their dead."[a]

23 And when he went aboard a boat, his disciples followed him.[b] 24 Now look! a great storm arose on the sea, so that the boat was being covered by the waves; but he was sleeping.[c] 25 And they came and woke him up, saying: "Lord, save us, we are about to perish!" 26 But he said to them: "Why are you so afraid,* you with little faith?"[d] Then he got up and rebuked the winds and the sea, and a great calm set in.[e] 27 So the men were amazed and said: "What sort of person is this? Even the winds and the sea obey him."

28 When he came to the other side into the region of the Gad·a·renes', two demon-possessed men coming out from among the tombs* met him.[f] They were unusually fierce, so nobody had the courage to pass by on that road. 29 And look! they screamed, saying: "What have we to do with you, Son of God?[g] Did you come here to torment us[h] before the appointed time?"[i] 30 A long way off from them, a herd of many swine was feeding.[j] 31 So the demons began to plead with him, saying: "If you expel us, send us into the herd of swine."[k] 32 And he said to them: "Go!" With that they came out and went off into the swine, and look! the entire herd rushed over the precipice* into the sea and died in the waters. 33 But the herders fled, and going into the city, they reported everything, including the account of the demon-possessed men. 34 And look! all the city turned out to meet Jesus, and when they saw him, they urged him to depart from their region.[l]

9 So boarding the boat, he traveled across and went into his own city.[a] 2 And look! they were bringing him a paralyzed man lying on a stretcher. On seeing their faith, Jesus said to the paralytic: "Take courage, child! Your sins are forgiven."[b] 3 Now certain scribes said to themselves: "This fellow is blaspheming." 4 Jesus, knowing their thoughts, said: "Why are you thinking wicked things in your hearts?[c] 5 For instance, which is easier, to say, 'Your sins are forgiven,' or to say, 'Get up and walk'?[d] 6 However, in order for you to know that the Son of man has authority on earth to forgive sins—" then he said to the paralytic: "Get up, pick up your stretcher, and go to your home."[e] 7 And he got up and went to his home. 8 When the crowds saw this, they were struck with fear, and they glorified God, who gave such authority to men.

9 Next, while moving on from there, Jesus caught sight of a man named Matthew sitting at the tax office, and he said to him: "Be my follower." At that he rose up and followed him.[f] 10 Later as he was dining* in the house, look! many tax collectors and sinners came and began dining* with Jesus and his disciples.[g] 11 But on seeing this, the Pharisees said to his disciples: "Why does your teacher eat with tax collectors and sinners?"[h] 12 Hearing them, he said: "Healthy people do not need a physician, but those who are ill do.[i] 13 Go, then, and learn what this means: 'I want mercy, and not sacrifice.'[j] For I came to call, not righteous people, but sinners."

14 Then John's disciples came to him and asked: "Why do we and the Pharisees practice fasting but your disciples do not fast?"[a] 15 At this Jesus said to them: "The friends of the bridegroom have no reason to mourn as long as the bridegroom[b] is with them, do they? But days will come when the bridegroom will be taken away from them,[c] and then they will fast. 16 Nobody sews a patch of unshrunk cloth on an old outer garment, for the new piece pulls away from the garment and the tear becomes worse.[d] 17 Nor do people put new wine into old wineskins. If they do, then the wineskins burst and the wine spills out and the wineskins are ruined. But people put new wine into new wineskins, and both are preserved."

18 While he was telling them these things, look! a certain ruler who had approached did obeisance* to him, saying: "By now my daughter must be dead, but come and lay your hand on her, and she will come to life."[e]

19 Then Jesus got up and, with his disciples, followed him. 20 And look! a woman suffering for 12 years from a flow of blood[f] approached from behind and touched the fringe of his outer garment,[g] 21 for she kept saying to herself: "If I only touch his outer garment, I will get well." 22 Jesus turned around and, noticing her, said: "Take courage, daughter! Your faith has made you well."[h] And from that hour the woman was made well.[i]

23 When, now, he came into the ruler's house and caught sight of the flute players and the crowd making a commotion,[j] 24 Jesus said: "Leave the place, for the little girl did not die but is sleeping."[k] At this they began to laugh at him scornfully. 25 As soon as the crowd had been sent outside, he went in and took hold of her hand,[l] and the little girl got up.[m]

26 Of course, the talk about this spread into all that region.

27 As Jesus moved on from there, two blind men[a] followed him, shouting out: "Have mercy on us, Son of David." 28 After he had gone into the house, the blind men came to him, and Jesus asked them: "Do you have faith that I can do this?"[b] They answered him: "Yes, Lord." 29 Then he touched their eyes,[c] saying: "According to your faith let it happen to you." 30 And their eyes received sight. Moreover, Jesus sternly warned them, saying: "See that nobody gets to know it."[d] 31 But after going outside, they made it public about him in all that region.

32 When they were leaving, look! people brought him a speechless man possessed of a demon;[e] 33 and after the demon had been expelled, the speechless man spoke.[f] Well, the crowds were amazed and said: "Never has anything like this been seen in Israel."[g] 34 But the Pharisees were saying: "It is by the ruler of the demons that he expels the demons."[h]

35 And Jesus set out on a tour of all the cities and villages, teaching in their synagogues and preaching the good news of the Kingdom and curing every sort of disease and every sort of infirmity.[i] 36 On seeing the crowds, he felt pity for them,[j] because they were skinned and thrown about like sheep without a shepherd.[k] 37 Then he said to his disciples: "Yes, the harvest is great, but the workers are few.[l] 38 Therefore, beg the Master of the harvest to send out workers into his harvest."[m]

10 So he summoned his 12 disciples and gave them authority over unclean spirits,[n] in order to expel these and to cure every sort of disease and every sort of infirmity.

2 The names of the 12 apostles are these:[a] First, Simon, the one called Peter,[b] and Andrew[c] his brother; James the son of Zeb′e·dee and John[d] his brother; 3 Philip and Bar·thol′o·mew;[e] Thomas[f] and Matthew[g] the tax collector; James the son of Alphae′us; Thad·dae′us; 4 Simon the Ca·na·nae′an;* and Judas Iscar′i·ot, who later betrayed him.[h]

5 These 12 Jesus sent out, giving them these instructions:[i] "Do not go off into the road of the nations, and do not enter any Samar′i·tan city;[j] 6 but instead, go continually to the lost sheep of the house of Israel.[k] 7 As you go, preach, saying: 'The Kingdom of the heavens has drawn near.'[l] 8 Cure the sick,[m] raise up the dead, make lepers clean, expel demons. You received free, give free. 9 Do not acquire gold or silver or copper for your money belts,[n] 10 or a food pouch for the trip, or two garments,* or sandals, or a staff,[o] for the worker deserves his food.[p]

11 "Into whatever city or village you enter, search out who in it is deserving, and stay there until you leave.[q] 12 When you enter the house, greet the household. 13 If the house is deserving, let the peace you wish it come upon it;[r] but if it is not deserving, let the peace from you return upon you. 14 Wherever anyone does not receive you or listen to your words, on going out of that house or that city, shake the dust off your feet.[s] 15 Truly I say to you, it will be more endurable for the land of Sod′om and Go·mor′rah[t] on Judgment Day than for that city.

16 "Look! I am sending you out as sheep among wolves;

so prove yourselves cautious as serpents and yet innocent as doves.[a] 17 Be on your guard against men, for they will hand you over to local courts[b] and they will scourge you[c] in their synagogues.[d] 18 And you will be brought before governors and kings[e] for my sake, for a witness to them and the nations.[f] 19 However, when they hand you over, do not become anxious about how or what you are to speak, for what you are to speak will be given you in that hour;[g] 20 for the ones speaking are not just you, but it is the spirit of your Father that speaks by you.[h] 21 Further, brother will hand brother over to death, and a father his child, and children will rise up against parents and will have them put to death.[i] 22 And you will be hated by all people on account of my name,[j] but the one who has endured* to the end will be saved.[k] 23 When they persecute you in one city, flee to another;[l] for truly I say to you, you will by no means complete the circuit of the cities of Israel until the Son of man arrives.

24 "A disciple is not above his teacher, nor a slave above his master.[m] 25 It is enough for the disciple to become as his teacher, and the slave as his master.[n] If people have called the master of the house Be·el′ze·bub,[o] how much more those of his household? 26 So do not fear them, for there is nothing covered over that will not become uncovered, and nothing secret that will not become known.[p] 27 What I tell you in the darkness, say in the light, and what you hear whispered, preach from the housetops.[q] 28 And do not become fearful of those who kill the body but cannot kill the soul;[a] rather, fear him who can destroy both soul and body in Ge·hen′na.#[b] 29 Two sparrows sell for a coin of small value,* do they not? Yet not one of them will fall to the ground without your Father's knowledge.[c] 30 But even the hairs of your head are all numbered. 31 So have no fear; you are worth more than many sparrows.[d]

32 "Everyone, then, who acknowledges me before men,[e] I will also acknowledge him before my Father who is in the heavens.[f] 33 But whoever disowns me before men, I will also disown him before my Father who is in the heavens.[g] 34 Do not think I came to bring peace to the earth; I came to bring, not peace, but a sword.[h] 35 For I came to cause division, with a man against his father, and a daughter against her mother, and a daughter-in-law against her mother-in-law.[i] 36 Indeed, a man's enemies will be those of his own household. 37 Whoever has greater affection for father or mother than for me is not worthy of me; and whoever has greater affection for son or daughter than for me is not worthy of me.[j] 38 And whoever does not accept his torture stake# and follow after me is not worthy of me.[k] 39 Whoever finds his soul* will lose it, and whoever loses his soul* for my sake will find it.[l] righteous man will get a righteous man's reward. 42 And whoever gives one of these little ones only a cup of cold water to drink because he is a disciple, I tell you truly, he will by no means lose his reward."[a]

11 When Jesus had finished giving instructions to his 12 disciples, he set out from there to teach and preach in their cities.[b]

2 But John, having heard in jail[c] about the works of the Christ, sent his disciples[d] 3 to ask him: "Are you the Coming One, or are we to expect a different one?"[e] 4 In reply Jesus said to them: "Go and report to John what you are hearing and seeing:[f] 5 The blind are now seeing[g] and the lame are walking, the lepers[h] are being cleansed and the deaf are hearing, the dead are being raised up and the poor are being told the good news.[i] 6 Happy is the one who finds no cause for stumbling in me."[j]

7 While these were on their way, Jesus began to speak to the crowds about John: "What did you go out into the wilderness to see?[k] A reed being tossed by the wind?[l] 8 What, then, did you go out to see? A man dressed in soft garments?* Why, those wearing soft garments are in the houses of kings. 9 Really, then, why did you go out? To see a prophet? Yes, I tell you, and far more than a prophet.[m] 10 This is the one about whom it is written: 'Look! I am sending my messenger ahead of you,* who will prepare your way ahead of you!'[n] 11 Truly I say to you, among those born of women, there has not been raised up anyone greater than John the Baptist, but a lesser person in the Kingdom of the heavens is greater than he is.[a] 12 From the days of John the Baptist until now, the Kingdom of the heavens is the goal toward which men press, and those pressing forward are seizing it.[b] 13 For all, the Prophets and the Law, prophesied until John;[c] 14 and if you are willing to accept it, he is 'E·li'jah who is to come.'[d] 15 Let the one who has ears listen.

16 "With whom will I compare this generation?[e] It is like young children sitting in the marketplaces who call out to their playmates, 17 saying: 'We played the flute for you, but you did not dance; we wailed, but you did not beat yourselves in grief.' 18 Likewise, John came neither eating nor drinking, but people say, 'He has a demon.' 19 The Son of man did come eating and drinking,[f] but people say, 'Look! A man who is a glutton and is given to drinking wine, a friend of tax collectors and sinners.'[g] All the same, wisdom is proved righteous* by its works."#[h]

20 Then he began to reproach the cities in which most of his powerful works had taken place, for they did not repent: 21 "Woe to you, Cho·ra'zin! Woe to you, Beth·sa'i·da! because if the powerful works that took place in you had taken place in Tyre and Si'don, they would long ago have repented in sackcloth and ashes.[i] 22 But I say to you, it will be more endurable for Tyre and Si'don on Judgment Day than for you.[j] 23 And you, Ca·per'na·um,[k] will you perhaps be exalted to heaven? Down to the Grave* you will come;[l] because if the powerful works that took place in you had taken place in Sod'om, it would have remained until this very day. 24 But I say to you, it will be more endurable for the land of Sod'om on Judgment Day than for you."[a]

25 At that time Jesus said in response: "I publicly praise you, Father, Lord of heaven and earth, because you have hidden these things from the wise and intellectual ones and have revealed them to young children.[b] 26 Yes, O Father, because this is the way you approved. 27 All things have been handed over to me by my Father,[c] and no one fully knows the Son except the Father;[d] neither does anyone fully know the Father except the Son and anyone to whom the Son is willing to reveal him.[e] 28 Come to me, all you who are toiling and loaded down, and I will refresh you. 29 Take my yoke upon you and learn from me, for I am mild-tempered and lowly in heart,[f] and you will find refreshment for yourselves.* 30 For my yoke is kindly,* and my load is light."

12 At that time Jesus went through the grainfields on the Sabbath. His disciples got hungry and started to pluck heads of grain and to eat.[g] 2 At seeing this, the Pharisees said to him: "Look! Your disciples are doing what is not lawful to do on the Sabbath."[h] 3 He said to them: "Have you not read what David did when he and the men with him were hungry?[i] 4 How he entered into the house of God and they ate the loaves of presentation,*[j] something that it was not lawful for him or those with him to eat, but for the priests only?[k] 5 Or have you not read in the Law that on the Sabbaths the priests in the temple violate the Sabbath and continue guiltless?[a] 6 But I tell you that something greater than the temple is here.[b] 7 However, if you had understood what this means, 'I want mercy[c] and not sacrifice,'[d] you would not have condemned the guiltless ones. 8 For the Son of man is Lord of the Sabbath."[e]

9 After departing from that place, he went into their synagogue, 10 and look! there was a man with a withered* hand![f] So they asked him, "Is it lawful to cure on the Sabbath?" so that they might accuse him.[g] 11 He said to them: "If you have one sheep and that sheep falls into a pit on the Sabbath, is there a man among you who will not grab hold of it and lift it out?[h] 12 How much more valuable is a man than a sheep! So it is lawful to do a fine thing on the Sabbath." 13 Then he said to the man: "Stretch out your hand." And he stretched it out, and it was restored sound like the other hand. 14 But the Pharisees went out and conspired against him to kill him. 15 Having come to know this, Jesus departed from there. Many also followed him,[i] and he cured them all, 16 but he sternly ordered them not to make him known,[j] 17 in order to fulfill what was spoken through Isaiah the prophet, who said:

18 "Look! My servant[k] whom I chose, my beloved, whom I have* approved![l] I will put my spirit upon him,[m] and what justice is he will make clear to the nations. 19 He will not quarrel[n] nor cry aloud, nor will anyone hear his voice in the main streets. 20 No bruised reed will he crush, and no smoldering wick will he extinguish,[o] until he brings justice with success.

22 Then they brought him a demon-possessed man who was blind and speechless, and he cured him, so that the speechless man could speak and see. 23 Well, all the crowds were astounded and began to say: "May this not perhaps be the Son of David?" 24 At hearing this, the Pharisees said: "This fellow does not expel the demons except by means of Be·el'ze·bub,* the ruler of the demons."[b] 25 Knowing their thoughts, he said to them: "Every kingdom divided against itself comes to ruin, and every city or house divided against itself will not stand. 26 In the same way, if Satan expels Satan, he has become divided against himself; how, then, will his kingdom stand? 27 Moreover, if I expel the demons by means of Be·el'ze·bub, by whom do your sons expel them? This is why they will be your judges. 28 But if it is by means of God's spirit that I expel the demons, the Kingdom of God has really overtaken you.[c] 29 Or how can anyone invade the house of a strong man and seize his possessions unless he first ties up the strong man? For out of the abundance of the heart the mouth speaks.[c] 35 The good man out of his good treasure sends out good things, whereas the wicked man out of his wicked treasure sends out wicked things.[d] 36 I tell you that men will render an account[e] on Judgment Day for every unprofitable saying that they speak; 37 for by your words you will be declared righteous, and by your words you will be condemned."

38 Then as an answer to him, some of the scribes and the Pharisees said: "Teacher, we want to see a sign from you."[f] 39 In reply he said to them: "A wicked and adulterous* generation keeps on seeking a sign, but no sign will be given it except the sign of Jo'nah the prophet.[g] 40 For just as Jo'nah was in the belly of the huge fish for three days and three nights,[h] so the Son of man will be in the heart of the earth for three days and three nights.[i] 41 Men of Nin'e·veh will rise up in the judgment with this generation and will condemn it, because they repented at what Jo'nah preached.[j] But look! something more than Jo'nah is here.[k] 42 The queen of the south will be raised up in the judgment with this generation and will condemn it, for she came from the ends of the earth to hear the wisdom of Sol'o·mon.[l] But look! something more than Sol'o·mon is here.[m] search of a resting-place and finds none.[a] 44 Then it says, 'I will go back to my house from which I moved,' and on arriving, it finds the house unoccupied but swept clean and adorned. 45 Then it goes and takes along with it seven different spirits more wicked than itself, and after getting inside, they dwell there; and the final circumstances of that man become worse than the first.[b] That is how it will be also with this wicked generation."

46 While he was yet speaking to the crowds, his mother and brothers[c] were standing outside, seeking to speak to him.[d] 47 So someone said to him: "Look! Your mother and your brothers are standing outside, seeking to speak to you." 48 In reply he said to the one who spoke to him: "Who is my mother, and who are my brothers?" 49 And extending his hand toward his disciples, he said: "Look! My mother and my brothers![e] 50 For whoever does the will of my Father who is in heaven, that one is my brother and sister and mother."[f]

13 On that day Jesus left the house and was sitting by the sea. 2 And such large crowds gathered to him that he went aboard a boat and sat down, and all the crowd was standing on the beach.[g] 3 Then he told them many things by illustrations,[h] saying: "Look! A sower went out to sow.[i] 4 As he was sowing, some seeds fell alongside the road, and the birds came and ate them up.[j] 5 Others fell on rocky ground where there was not much soil, and they immediately sprang up because the soil was not deep.[k] 6 But when the sun rose, they were scorched, and they withered because they had no root. 7 Others fell among the thorns, and the thorns came up and choked them.[a] 8 Still others fell on the fine soil, and they began to yield fruit, this one 100 times more, that one 60, the other 30.[b] 9 Let the one who has ears listen."[c]

10 So the disciples came and said to him: "Why do you speak to them by the use of illustrations?"[d] 11 In reply he said: "To you it is granted to understand the sacred secrets[e] of the Kingdom of the heavens, but to them it is not granted. 12 For whoever has, more will be given him, and he will be made to abound; but whoever does not have, even what he has will be taken from him.[f] 13 That is why I speak to them by the use of illustrations; for looking, they look in vain, and hearing, they hear in vain, nor do they get the sense of it.[g] 14 And the prophecy of Isaiah is being fulfilled in their case. It says: 'You will indeed hear but by no means get the sense of it, and you will indeed look but by no means see.[h] 15 For the heart of this people has grown unreceptive, and with their ears they have heard without response, and they have shut their eyes, so that they might never see with their eyes and hear with their ears and get the sense of it with their hearts and turn back and I heal them.'[i]

16 "However, happy are your eyes because they see and your ears because they hear.[j] 17 For truly I say to you, many prophets and righteous men desired to see the things you are observing but did not see them,[k] and to hear the things you are hearing but did not hear them.

es away what has been sown in his heart; this is the one sown alongside the road.[a] 20 As for the one sown on rocky ground, this is the one hearing the word and at once accepting it with joy.[b] 21 Yet, he has no root in himself but continues for a time, and after tribulation or persecution has arisen on account of the word, he is at once stumbled. 22 As for the one sown among the thorns, this is the one hearing the word, but the anxiety of this system of things*[c] and the deceptive power of riches choke the word, and it becomes unfruitful.[d] 23 As for the one sown upon the fine soil, this is the one hearing the word and getting the sense of it, who really does bear fruit and produces, this one 100 times more, that one 60, the other 30."[e]

24 He presented another illustration to them, saying: "The Kingdom of the heavens may be likened to a man who sowed fine seed in his field. 25 While men were sleeping, his enemy came and oversowed weeds in among the wheat and left. 26 When the stalk sprouted and produced fruit, then the weeds also appeared. 27 So the slaves of the master of the house came and said to him, 'Master, did you not sow fine seed in your field? How, then, does it have weeds?' 28 He said to them, 'An enemy, a man, did this.'[f] The slaves said to him, 'Do you want us, then, to go out and collect them?' 29 He said, 'No, for fear that while collecting the weeds, you uproot the wheat with them. 30 Let both grow together until the harvest, and in the harvest season, I will tell the reapers: First collect the weeds and bind them in bundles to burn them up; then gather the wheat into my storehouse.'"[g]

31 He presented another illustration to them, saying: "The Kingdom of the heavens is like a mustard grain that a man took and planted in his field.[a] 32 It is, in fact, the tiniest of all the seeds, but when it has grown, it is the largest of the vegetable plants and becomes a tree, so that the birds of heaven come and find lodging among its branches."

33 He told them another illustration: "The Kingdom of the heavens is like leaven that a woman took and mixed with three large measures of flour until the whole mass was fermented."[b]

34 All these things Jesus spoke to the crowds by illustrations. Indeed, without an illustration he would not speak to them,[c] 35 in order to fulfill what was spoken through the prophet who said: "I will open my mouth with illustrations; I will proclaim things hidden since the founding."*[d]

36 Then after dismissing the crowds, he went into the house. His disciples came to him and said: "Explain to us the illustration of the weeds in the field." 37 In response he said: "The sower of the fine seed is the Son of man; 38 the field is the world.[e] As for the fine seed, these are the sons of the Kingdom, but the weeds are the sons of the wicked one,[f] 39 and the enemy who sowed them is the Devil. The harvest is a conclusion of a system of things,* and the reapers are angels. 40 Therefore, just as the weeds are collected and burned with fire, so it will be in the conclusion of the system of things.*[g] 41 The Son of man will send his angels, and they will collect out from his Kingdom all things that cause stumbling and people who practice lawlessness, 42 and they will pitch them into the fiery furnace.[a] There is where their weeping and the gnashing of their teeth will be. 43 At that time the righteous ones will shine as brightly as the sun[b] in the Kingdom of their Father. Let the one who has ears listen.

13:35 *Or possibly, "the founding of the world." 13:39 *Or "an age." See Glossary. 13:40 *Or "the age." See Glossary.

44 "The Kingdom of the heavens is like a treasure, hidden in the field, that a man found and hid; and because of his joy, he goes and sells everything he has and buys that field.[c]

45 "Again the Kingdom of the heavens is like a traveling merchant seeking fine pearls. 46 Upon finding one pearl of high value, he went away and promptly sold all the things he had and bought it.[d]

47 "Again the Kingdom of the heavens is like a dragnet let down into the sea and gathering fish of every kind. 48 When it was full, they hauled it up onto the beach, and sitting down, they collected the fine ones[e] into containers, but the unsuitable[f] they threw away. 49 That is how it will be in the conclusion of the system of things.* The angels will go out and separate the wicked from among the righteous 50 and will cast them into the fiery furnace. There is where their weeping and the gnashing of their teeth will be.

51 "Did you get the sense of all these things?" They said to him: "Yes." 52 Then he said to them: "That being the case, every public instructor who is taught about the Kingdom of the heavens is like a man, the master of the house, who brings out of his treasure store things both new and old."

53 When Jesus had finished these illustrations, he departed from there. 54 After coming into his home territory,[a] he began to teach them in their synagogue, so that they were astounded and said: "Where did this man get this wisdom and these powerful works?[b] 55 Is this not the carpenter's son?[c] Is not his mother called Mary, and his brothers James and Joseph and Simon and Judas?[d] 56 And his sisters, are they not all with us? Where, then, did he get all of this?"[e] 57 So they began to stumble because of him.[f] But Jesus said to them: "A prophet is not without honor except in his home territory and in his own house."[g] 58 And he did not perform many powerful works there on account of their lack of faith.

14 At that time Herod, the district ruler,* heard the report about Jesus[h] 2 and said to his servants: "This is John the Baptist. He was raised up from the dead, and this is why these powerful works are operating in him."[i] 3 Herod* had arrested John and had bound him and imprisoned him because of He·ro′di·as, the wife of Philip his brother.[j] 4 For John had been saying to him: "It is not lawful for you to have her."[k] 5 However, although he wanted to kill him, he feared the crowd, because they took him for a prophet.[l] 6 But when Herod's birthday[m] was being celebrated, the daughter of He·ro′di·as danced for the occasion and pleased Herod so much[n] 7 that he promised with an oath to give her whatever she asked. 8 Then she, at her mother's prompting, said: "Give me here on a platter the head of John the Baptist."[o] 9 Grieved though he was, the king, out of regard for his oaths and for those dining* with him, commanded it to be given. 10 So he sent and had John beheaded in the prison. 11 His head was brought on a platter and given to the girl, and she brought it to her mother. 12 Later his disciples came and removed his corpse and buried him; then they came and reported to Jesus. 13 At hearing this, Jesus departed from there by boat into an isolated place to be alone. But the crowds, getting to hear of it, followed him on foot from the cities.[a]

14 When he came ashore, he saw a large crowd, and he felt pity for them,[b] and he cured their sick ones.[c] 15 But when evening fell, his disciples came to him and said: "The place is isolated and the hour is already late; send the crowds away, so that they may go into the villages and buy themselves food."[d] 16 However, Jesus said to them: "They do not have to leave; you give them something to eat." 17 They said to him: "We have nothing here except five loaves and two fish." 18 He said: "Bring them here to me." 19 And he instructed the crowds to recline on the grass. Then he took the five loaves and two fish, and looking up to heaven, he said a blessing,[e] and after breaking the loaves, he gave them to the disciples, and the disciples gave them to the crowds. 20 So they all ate and were satisfied, and they took up the leftover fragments, 12 baskets full.[f] 21 Now those eating were about 5,000 men, as well as women and young children.[g] 22 Then, without delay, he made his disciples board the boat and go ahead of him to the opposite shore, while he sent the crowds away.[h]

23 After sending the crowds away, he went up on the mountain by himself to pray.[a] When evening came, he was there alone. 24 By now the boat was many hundreds of yards* away from land, struggling against the waves because the wind was against them. 25 But in the fourth watch of the night* he came to them, walking on the sea. 26 When they caught sight of him walking on the sea, the disciples were troubled, saying: "It is an apparition!" And they cried out in their fear. 27 But at once Jesus spoke to them, saying: "Take courage! It is I; do not be afraid."[b] 28 Peter answered him: "Lord, if it is you, command me to come to you over the waters." 29 He said: "Come!" So Peter got out of the boat and walked over the waters and went toward Jesus. 30 But looking at the windstorm, he became afraid. And when he started to sink, he cried out: "Lord, save me!" 31 Immediately stretching out his hand, Jesus caught hold of him and said to him: "You with little faith, why did you give way to doubt?"[c] 32 After they got up into the boat, the windstorm abated. 33 Then those in the boat did obeisance* to him, saying: "You really are God's Son." 34 And they crossed over and came to land in Gen·nes'a·ret.[d]

35 On recognizing him, the men of that place sent word into all that surrounding country, and people brought him all those who were ill. 36 And they pleaded with him that they might just touch the fringe of his outer garment,[e] and all those who touched it were made completely well.

15 Then there came to Jesus from Jerusalem Pharisees and scribes,[a] saying: 2 "Why do your disciples overstep the tradition of the men of former times? For example, they do not wash* their hands when about to eat a meal."[b]

3 In reply he said to them: "Why do you overstep the commandment of God because of your tradition?[c] 4 For example, God said, 'Honor your father and your mother,'[d] and, 'Let the one who speaks abusively of* his father or mother be put to death.'[e] 5 But you say, 'Whoever says to his father or mother: "Whatever I have that could benefit you is a gift dedicated to God,"[f] 6 he need not honor his father at all.' So you have made the word of God invalid because of your tradition.[g] 7 You hypocrites, Isaiah aptly prophesied about you when he said:[h] 8 'This people honor me with their lips, but their hearts are far removed from me. 9 It is in vain that they keep worshipping me, for they teach commands of men as doctrines.'"[i] 10 With that he called the crowd near and said to them: "Listen and get the sense of it:[j] 11 It is not what enters into a man's mouth that defiles him, but it is what comes out of his mouth that defiles him."[k]

12 Then the disciples came and said to him: "Do you know that the Pharisees were stumbled at hearing what you said?"[l] 13 In reply he said: "Every plant that my heavenly Father did not plant will be uprooted. 14 Let them be. Blind guides is what they are. If, then, a blind man guides a blind man, both will fall into a pit."[m] 15 Peter responded: "Make the illustration plain to us." 16 At this he said: "Are you also still without understanding?[a] 17 Are you not aware that whatever enters into the mouth passes through the stomach and is discharged into the sewer? 18 However, whatever comes out of the mouth comes from the heart, and those things defile a man.[b] 19 For example, out of the heart come wicked reasonings,[c] murders, adulteries, sexual immorality,* thefts, false testimonies, blasphemies. 20 These are the things that defile a man; but to take a meal with unwashed* hands does not defile a man."

21 Leaving there, Jesus now went into the region of Tyre and Si'don.[d] 22 And look! a Phoeni'cian woman from that region came and cried out: "Have mercy on me, Lord, Son of David. My daughter is cruelly demon possessed."[e] 23 But he did not say a word in answer to her. So his disciples came and began to urge him: "Send her away, because she keeps crying out after us." 24 He answered: "I was not sent to anyone except to the lost sheep of the house of Israel."[f] 25 But the woman came and did obeisance* to him, saying: "Lord, help me!" 26 In answer he said: "It is not right to take the bread of the children and throw it to the little dogs." 27 She said: "Yes, Lord, but really the little dogs do eat of the crumbs falling from the table of their masters."[g] 28 Then Jesus replied to her: "O woman, great is your faith; let it happen to you as you wish." And her daughter was healed from that hour on.

29 Departing from there, Jesus next came near the Sea of Gal′i·lee,[a] and after going up on the mountain, he was sitting there. 30 Then large crowds approached him, bringing along people who were lame, maimed, blind, speechless, and many others, and they laid them at his feet, and he cured them.[b] 31 So the crowd felt amazement as they saw the speechless speaking and the maimed being made sound and the lame walking and the blind seeing, and they glorified the God of Israel.[c]

32 But Jesus called his disciples to him and said: "I feel pity for the crowd,[d] because they have already stayed with me for three days and they have had nothing to eat. I do not want to send them away hungry,* for they may give out on the road."[e] 33 However, the disciples said to him: "Where in this isolated place are we going to get enough bread to satisfy a crowd of this size?"[f] 34 At this Jesus said to them: "How many loaves do you have?" They said: "Seven, and a few small fish." 35 So after instructing the crowd to recline on the ground, 36 he took the seven loaves and the fish, and after offering thanks, he broke them and began giving them to the disciples, and the disciples gave them to the crowds.[g] 37 And all ate and were satisfied, and they took up seven large baskets* full of leftover fragments.[h] 38 Now those eating were 4,000 men, as well as women and young children. 39 Finally, after sending the crowds away, he got into the boat and came into the region of Mag′a·dan.[i]

16 Here the Pharisees and Sadducees approached him, and to test him, they asked him to display to them a sign from heaven.[a] 2 In reply he said to them: "When evening falls, you say, 'It will be fair weather, for the sky is fire-red,' 3 and in the morning, 'It will be wintry, rainy weather today, for the sky is fire-red but gloomy.' You know how to interpret the appearance of the sky, but the signs of the times you cannot interpret. 4 A wicked and adulterous* generation keeps seeking a sign, but no sign will be given it[b] except the sign of Jo′nah."[c] With that he went away, leaving them behind.

5 Now the disciples crossed to the other side and forgot to take bread along.[d] 6 Jesus said to them: "Keep your eyes open and watch out for the leaven of the Pharisees and Sadducees."[e] 7 So they began to reason among themselves, saying: "We did not take any loaves along." 8 Knowing this, Jesus said: "Why are you discussing among yourselves that you have no loaves, you with little faith? 9 Do you not yet see the point, or do you not remember the five loaves in the case of the 5,000 and how many baskets you took up?[f] 10 Or the seven loaves in the case of the 4,000 and how many large baskets* you took up?[g] 11 How is it you do not discern that I did not speak to you about bread? But watch out for the leaven of the Pharisees and Sadducees."[h] 12 Then they grasped that he said to watch out, not for the leaven of bread, but for the teaching of the Pharisees and Sadducees.

13 When he had come into the region of Caes·a·re′a Phi·lip′pi, Jesus asked his disciples: "Who are men saying the Son of man is?"[i] 14 They said: "Some say John the Baptist,[j] others E·li′jah,[k] and still others Jeremiah or one of the prophets." 15 He said to them: "You, though, who do you say I am?" 16 Simon Peter answered: "You are the Christ,[a] the Son of the living God."[b] 17 In response Jesus said to him: "Happy you are, Simon son of Jo'nah, because flesh and blood* did not reveal it to you, but my Father in the heavens did.[c] 18 Also, I say to you: You are Peter,[d] and on this rock[e] I will build my congregation, and the gates of the Grave* will not overpower it. 19 I will give you the keys of the Kingdom of the heavens, and whatever you may bind on earth will already be bound in the heavens, and whatever you may loosen on earth will already be loosened in the heavens." 20 Then he sternly instructed the disciples not to tell anybody that he was the Christ.[f]

21 From that time forward, Jesus began explaining to his disciples that he must go to Jerusalem and suffer many things from the elders and chief priests and scribes and be killed, and on the third day be raised up.[g] 22 At this Peter took him aside and began to rebuke him, saying: "Be kind to yourself, Lord; you will not have this happen to you at all."[h] 23 But turning his back, he said to Peter: "Get behind me, Satan! You are a stumbling block to me, because you think, not God's thoughts, but those of men."[i]

24 Then Jesus said to his disciples: "If anyone wants to come after me, let him disown himself and pick up his torture stake* and keep following me.[j] 25 For whoever wants to save his life* will lose it, but whoever loses his life* for my sake will find it.[k] 26 Really, what good will it do a man if he gains the whole world but loses his life?[a] Or what will a man give in exchange for his life?[b] 27 For the Son of man is to come in the glory of his Father with his angels, and then he will repay each one according to his behavior.[c] 28 Truly I say to you that there are some of those standing here who will not taste death at all until first they see the Son of man coming in his Kingdom."[d]

17 Six days later Jesus took Peter and James and his brother John along and led them up into a lofty mountain by themselves.[e] 2 And he was transfigured before them; his face shone as the sun, and his outer garments became brilliant* as the light.[f] 3 And look! there appeared to them Moses and E·li'jah conversing with him. 4 Then Peter said to Jesus: "Lord, it is fine for us to be here. If you wish, I will erect three tents here, one for you, one for Moses, and one for E·li'jah." 5 While he was still speaking, look! a bright cloud overshadowed them, and look! a voice out of the cloud said: "This is my Son, the beloved, whom I have approved.[g] Listen to him."[h] 6 At hearing this, the disciples fell facedown and became very much afraid. 7 Then Jesus came near, and touching them, he said: "Get up. Have no fear." 8 When they looked up, they saw no one but Jesus himself. 9 As they were descending from the mountain, Jesus commanded them: "Tell the vision to no one until the Son of man is raised up from the dead."[i]

10 However, the disciples put the question to him: "Why, then, do the scribes say that E·li'jah must come first?"[j] 11 In reply he said: "E·li'jah is indeed coming and will restore all things.[k] 12 However, I say to you that

He falls often into the fire and often into the water.[d] 16 I brought him to your disciples, but they could not cure him.” 17 In reply Jesus said: “O faithless and twisted generation,[e] how long must I continue with you? How long must I put up with you? Bring him here to me.” 18 Then Jesus rebuked the demon, and it came out of him, and the boy was cured from that hour.[f] 19 Then the disciples came to Jesus privately and said: “Why could we not expel it?” 20 He said to them: “Because of your little faith. For truly I say to you, if you have faith the size of a mustard grain, you will say to this mountain, ‘Move from here to there,’ and it will move, and nothing will be impossible for you.”[g] 21 *—

22 It was while they were gathered together in Gal′i·lee that Jesus said to them: “The Son of man is going to be betrayed into men’s hands,[h] 23 and they will kill him, and on the third day he will be raised up.”[i] And they were very much grieved.

24 After they arrived in Caper′na·um, the men collecting the two drachmas* tax approached Peter and said: “Does your teacher not pay the two drachmas tax?”[j] 25 He said: “Yes.” However, when he entered the house, Jesus spoke to him first and said: “What do you think, Simon? From whom do the kings of the earth receive duties or head tax? From their sons or from the strangers?” 26 When he said: “From the strangers,” Jesus said to him: “Really, then, the sons are tax-free. 27 But that we do not cause them to stumble,[a] go to the sea, cast a fishhook, and take the first fish that comes up, and when you open its mouth, you will find a silver coin.* Take that and give it to them for me and you.”

18 In that hour the disciples came near to Jesus and said: “Who really is greatest in the Kingdom of the heavens?”[b] 2 So calling a young child to him, he stood him in their midst 3 and said: “Truly I say to you, unless you turn around* and become as young children,[c] you will by no means enter into the Kingdom of the heavens.[d] 4 Therefore, whoever will humble himself like this young child is the one who is the greatest in the Kingdom of the heavens;[e] 5 and whoever receives one such young child on the basis of my name receives me also. 6 But whoever stumbles one of these little ones who have faith in me, it would be better for him to have hung around his neck a millstone that is turned by a donkey and to be sunk in the open sea.[f]

7 “Woe to the world because of the stumbling blocks! Of course, it is inevitable that stumbling blocks will come, but woe to the man through whom the stumbling block comes! 8 If, then, your hand or your foot makes you stumble, cut it off and throw it away from you.[a] It is better for you to enter into life maimed or lame than to be thrown with two hands or two feet into the everlasting fire.[b] 9 Also, if your eye makes you stumble, tear it out and throw it away from you. It is better for you to enter one-eyed into life than to be thrown with two eyes into the fiery Ge·hen′na.*[c] 10 See that you do not despise one of these little ones, for I tell you that their angels in heaven always look upon the face of my Father who is in heaven.[d] 11 *—

12 "What do you think? If a man has 100 sheep and one of them strays,[e] will he not leave the 99 on the mountains and set out on a search for the one that is straying?[f] 13 And if he finds it, I certainly tell you, he rejoices more over it than over the 99 that have not strayed. 14 Likewise, it is not a desirable thing to my* Father who is in heaven for even one of these little ones to perish.[g]

15 "Moreover, if your brother commits a sin, go and reveal his fault* between you and him alone.[h] If he listens to you, you have gained your brother.[i] 16 But if he does not listen, take along with you one or two more, so that on the testimony* of two or three witnesses every matter may be established.[j] 17 If he does not listen to them, speak to the congregation. If he does not listen even to the congregation, let him be to you just as a man of the nations[k] and as a tax collector.[l]

18 "Truly I say to you, whatever things you may bind on earth will be things already bound in heaven, and whatever things you may loosen on earth will be things already loosened in heaven. 19 Again I tell you truly, if two of you on earth agree concerning anything of importance that they should request, it will take place for them on account of my Father in heaven.[a] 20 For where there are two or three gathered together in my name,[b] there I am in their midst."

21 Then Peter came and said to him: "Lord, how many times is my brother to sin against me and am I to forgive him? Up to seven times?" 22 Jesus said to him: "I say to you, not up to seven times, but up to 77 times.[c]

23 "That is why the Kingdom of the heavens may be likened to a king who wanted to settle accounts with his slaves. 24 When he started to settle them, a man was brought in who owed him 10,000 talents.* 25 But because he did not have the means to pay it back, his master ordered him and his wife and his children and all the things he owned to be sold and payment to be made.[d] 26 So the slave fell down and did obeisance* to him, saying, 'Be patient with me, and I will pay back everything to you.' 27 Moved with pity at this, the master of that slave let him off and canceled his debt.[e] 28 But that slave went out and found one of his fellow slaves, who owed him 100 de·nar′i·i,* and grabbed him and began to choke him, saying, 'Pay back whatever you owe.' 29 So his fellow slave fell down and began to beg him, saying, 'Be patient with me, and I will pay you back.' 30 However, he was not willing, but he went and had him thrown into prison until he could pay back what he owed. 31 When his fellow slaves saw what had happened, they became greatly distressed, and they went and reported to their master all the things that had happened. 32 Then his master summoned him and said to him: 'Wicked slave, I canceled all that debt for you when you pleaded with me. 33 Should you not also have shown mercy to your fellow slave as I showed mercy to you?'[a] 34 With that his master, provoked to wrath, handed him over to the jailers until he repaid all that he owed. 35 My heavenly Father will also deal with you in the same way[b] if each of you does not forgive your brother from your heart."[c]

19 When Jesus had finished speaking these things, he departed from Gal·i·lee and came to the borders* of Ju·de·a across the Jordan.[d] 2 Also, large crowds followed him, and he cured them there.

3 And Pharisees came to him intent on testing him, and they asked: "Is it lawful for a man to divorce his wife on every sort of grounds?"[e] 4 In reply he said: "Have you not read that the one who created them from the beginning made them male and female[f] 5 and said: 'For this reason a man will leave his father and his mother and will stick to his wife, and the two will be one flesh'?[g] 6 So that they are no longer two, but one flesh. Therefore, what God has yoked together, let no man put apart."[h] 7 They said to him: "Why, then, did Moses direct giving a certificate of dismissal and divorcing her?"[i] 8 He said to them: "Out of regard for your hard-heartedness, Moses made the concession to you of divorcing your wives,[a] but that has not been the case from the beginning.[b] 9 I say to you that whoever divorces his wife, except on the grounds of sexual immorality,* and marries another commits adultery."[c]

10 The disciples said to him: "If that is the situation of a man with his wife, it is not advisable to marry." 11 He said to them: "Not all men make room for the saying, but only those who have the gift.[d] 12 For there are eunuchs who were born that way, and there are eunuchs who were made eunuchs by men, and there are eunuchs who have made themselves eunuchs on account of the Kingdom of the heavens. Let the one who can make room for it make room for it."[e]

13 Then young children were brought to him for him to place his hands on them and offer prayer, but the disciples reprimanded them.[f] 14 Jesus, however, said: "Let the young children alone, and do not try to stop them from coming to me, for the Kingdom of the heavens belongs to such ones."[g] 15 And he placed his hands on them and departed from there.

16 Now look! someone came up to him and said: "Teacher, what good must I do to gain everlasting life?"[h] 17 He said to him: "Why do you ask me about what is good? One there is who is good.[i] If, though, you want to enter into life, observe the commandments continually."[j] 18 He said to him: "Which ones?" Jesus said: "You must not murder,[k] you must not commit adultery,[l] you must not steal,[m] you must not bear false witness,[n] 19 honor your father and your mother,[o] and you must love your neighbor as yourself."[p] 20 The young man said to him: "I have kept all of these; what am I still lacking?" 21 Jesus said to him: "If you want to be perfect,* go sell your belongings and give to the poor, and you will have treasure in heaven;[a] and come be my follower."[b] 22 When the young man heard this, he went away grieved, for he had many possessions.[c] 23 Then Jesus said to his disciples: "Truly I say to you that it will be difficult for a rich man to enter the Kingdom of the heavens.[d] 24 Again I say to you, it is easier for a camel to get through a needle's eye than for a rich man to enter the Kingdom of God."[e]

25 When the disciples heard that, they were greatly astounded, saying: "Who really can be saved?"[f] 26 Looking at them intently, Jesus said to them: "With men this is impossible, but with God all things are possible."[g]

27 Then Peter said in reply: "Look! We have left all things and followed you; what, then, will there be for us?"[h] 28 Jesus said to them: "Truly I say to you, in the re-creation, when the Son of man sits down on his glorious throne, you who have followed me will sit on 12 thrones, judging the 12 tribes of Israel.[i] 29 And everyone who has left houses or brothers or sisters or father or mother or children or lands for the sake of my name will receive a hundred times as much and will inherit everlasting life.[j]

30 "But many who are first will be last and the last first.[k]

20 "For the Kingdom of the heavens is like the master of a house who went out early in the morning to hire workers for his vineyard.[l] 2 After he had agreed with the workers for a de·nar'i·us* a day, he sent them into his vineyard. 3 Going out also about the third hour,* he saw others standing unemployed in the marketplace; 4 and to those he said, 'You too go into the vineyard, and I will give you whatever is fair.' 5 So off they went. Again he went out about the sixth hour* and the ninth hour# and did likewise. 6 Finally, about the 11th hour,* he went out and found others standing around, and he said to them, 'Why have you been standing here all day unemployed?' 7 They replied, 'Because nobody has hired us.' He said to them, 'You too go into the vineyard.'

8 "When evening came, the master of the vineyard said to his man in charge, 'Call the workers and pay them their wages,[a] starting with the last and ending with the first.' 9 When the 11th-hour men came, they each received a de·nar'i·us.* 10 So when the first came, they assumed that they would receive more, but they too were paid at the rate of a de·nar'i·us.* 11 On receiving it, they began to complain against the master of the house 12 and said, 'These last men put in one hour's work; still you made them equal to us who bore the burden of the day and the burning heat!' 13 But he said in reply to one of them, 'Fellow, I do you no wrong. You agreed with me for a de·nar'i·us,* did you not?[b] 14 Take what is yours and go. I want to give to this last one the same as to you. 15 Do I not have the right to do what I want with my own things? Or is your eye envious* because I am good?'#[c] 16 In this way, the last ones will be first, and the first ones last."[d]

17 While going up to Jerusalem, Jesus took the 12 disciples aside privately and said to them on the road:[a] 18 "Look! We are going up to Jerusalem, and the Son of man will be handed over to the chief priests and the scribes. They will condemn him to death[b] 19 and hand him over to men of the nations to be mocked and scourged and executed on a stake;[c] and on the third day he will be raised up."[d]

20 Then the mother of the sons of Zeb′e·dee[e] approached him with her sons, doing obeisance* and asking for something from him.[f] 21 He said to her: "What do you want?" She replied to him: "Give the word that these two sons of mine may sit down, one at your right hand and one at your left, in your Kingdom."[g] 22 Jesus answered: "You do not know what you are asking for. Can you drink the cup that I am about to drink?"[h] They said to him: "We can." 23 He said to them: "You will indeed drink my cup,[i] but to sit down at my right hand and at my left is not mine to give, but it belongs to those for whom it has been prepared by my Father."[j]

24 When the ten others heard about it, they became indignant at the two brothers.[k] 25 But Jesus called them to him and said: "You know that the rulers of the nations lord it over them and the great men wield authority over them.[l] 26 This must not be the way among you;[m] but whoever wants to become great among you must be your minister,[n] 27 and whoever wants to be first among you must be your slave.[o] 28 Just as the Son of man came, not to be ministered to, but to minister[p] and to give his life* as a ransom in exchange for many."[q]

29 As they were going out of Jer′i·cho, a large crowd followed him. 30 And look! two blind men sitting beside the road heard that Jesus was passing by and cried out: "Lord, have mercy on us, Son of David!"[a] 31 But the crowd rebuked them, telling them to keep silent; yet they cried all the louder, saying: "Lord, have mercy on us, Son of David!" 32 So Jesus stopped, called them, and said: "What do you want me to do for you?" 33 They said to him: "Lord, let our eyes be opened." 34 Moved with pity, Jesus touched their eyes,[b] and immediately they recovered their sight, and they followed him.

21 When they got close to Jerusalem and arrived at Beth′pha·ge on the Mount of Olives, then Jesus sent two disciples,[c] 2 saying to them: "Go into the village that is within sight, and you will at once find a donkey tied and a colt with her. Untie them and bring them to me. 3 If someone says anything to you, you must say, 'The Lord needs them.' At that he will immediately send them."

4 This actually took place to fulfill what was spoken through the prophet, who said: 5 "Tell the daughter of Zion: 'Look! Your king is coming to you,[d] mild-tempered[e] and mounted on a donkey, yes, on a colt, the offspring of a beast of burden.'"[f]

6 So the disciples went and did just as Jesus had instructed them.[g] 7 They brought the donkey and its colt, and they put their outer garments on them, and he sat on them.[h] 8 Most of the crowd spread their outer garments on the road,[i] while others were cutting down branches from the trees and spreading them on the road. 9 Moreover, the crowds going ahead of him and those following him kept shouting: "Save, we pray, the Son of David![a] Blessed is the one who comes in Jehovah's* name![b] Save him, we pray, in the heights above!"[c]

10 And when he entered Jerusalem, the whole city was in an uproar, saying: "Who is this?" 11 The crowds kept saying: "This is the prophet Jesus,[d] from Naz'a·reth of Gal'i·lee!"

12 Jesus entered the temple and threw out all those selling and buying in the temple, and he overturned the tables of the money changers and the benches of those selling doves.[e] 13 And he said to them: "It is written, 'My house will be called a house of prayer,'[f] but you are making it a cave of robbers."[g] 14 Also, blind and lame people came to him in the temple, and he cured them.

15 When the chief priests and the scribes saw the marvelous things he did and the boys who were shouting in the temple, "Save, we pray, the Son of David!"[h] they became indignant[i] 16 and said to him: "Do you hear what these are saying?" Jesus said to them: "Yes. Did you never read this, 'Out of the mouth of children and infants, you have brought forth praise'?"[j] 17 And leaving them behind, he went out of the city to Beth'a·ny and spent the night there.[k]

18 While returning to the city early in the morning, he felt hungry.[l] 19 He caught sight of a fig tree by the road and went to it, but he found nothing on it except leaves,[m] and he said to it: "Let no fruit come from you ever again."[n] And the fig tree withered instantly. 20 When the disciples saw this, they were amazed and said: "How is it that the fig tree withered instantly?"[o] 21 In answer Jesus said to them: "Truly I say to you, if you have faith and do not doubt, not only will you do what I did to the fig tree, but even if you say to this mountain, 'Be lifted up and thrown into the sea,' it will happen.[a] 22 And all the things you ask in prayer, having faith, you will receive."[b]

23 After he went into the temple, the chief priests and the elders of the people came up to him while he was teaching and said: "By what authority do you do these things? And who gave you this authority?"[c] 24 In reply Jesus said to them: "I will also ask you one thing. If you tell me, then I will also tell you by what authority I do these things: 25 The baptism by John, from what source was it? From heaven or from men?"* But they began to reason among themselves, saying: "If we say, 'From heaven,' he will say to us, 'Why, then, did you not believe him?'[d] 26 But if we say, 'From men,' we have the crowd to fear, for they all regard John as a prophet." 27 So they answered Jesus: "We do not know." He, in turn, said to them: "Neither am I telling you by what authority I do these things.

28 "What do you think? A man had two children. Going up to the first, he said, 'Child, go work today in the vineyard.' 29 In answer this one said, 'I will not,' but afterward, he felt regret and went out. 30 Approaching the second, he said the same. This one replied, 'I will, Sir,' but did not go out. 31 Which of the two did the will of his father?" They said: "The first." Jesus said to them: "Truly I say to you that the tax collectors and the prostitutes are going ahead of you into the Kingdom of God. 32 For John came to you in a way of righteousness, but you did not believe him. However, the tax collectors and the prostitutes believed him,[a] and even when you saw this, you did not feel regret afterward so as to believe him.

33 "Hear another illustration: There was a man, a landowner, who planted a vineyard[b] and put a fence around it and dug a winepress in it and erected a tower;[c] then he leased it to cultivators and traveled abroad.[d] 34 When the fruit season came around, he sent his slaves to the cultivators to collect his fruit. 35 However, the cultivators took his slaves, and they beat one up, another they killed, another they stoned.[e] 36 Again he sent other slaves, more than the first group, but they did the same to these.[f] 37 Lastly he sent his son to them, saying, 'They will respect my son.' 38 On seeing the son, the cultivators said among themselves, 'This is the heir.[g] Come, let us kill him and get his inheritance!' 39 So they took him and threw him out of the vineyard and killed him.[h] 40 Therefore, when the owner of the vineyard comes, what will he do to those cultivators?" 41 They said to him: "Because they are evil, he will bring a terrible* destruction on them and will lease the vineyard to other cultivators, who will give him the fruits when they become due."

42 Jesus said to them: "Did you never read in the Scriptures, 'The stone that the builders rejected, this has become the chief cornerstone.*[i] This has come from Jehovah,# and it is marvelous in our eyes'?[j] 43 This is why I say to you, the Kingdom of God will be taken from you and be given to a nation producing its fruits. 44 Also, the person falling on this stone will be shattered.[a] As for anyone on whom it falls, it will crush him."[b]

45 When the chief priests and the Pharisees heard his illustrations, they knew that he was speaking about them.[c] 46 Although they wanted to seize* him, they feared the crowds, because these regarded him as a prophet.[d]

22 Once more Jesus spoke to them with illustrations, saying: 2 "The Kingdom of the heavens may be likened to a king who made a marriage feast[e] for his son. 3 And he sent his slaves to call those invited to the marriage feast, but they were unwilling to come.[f] 4 Again he sent other slaves, saying, 'Tell those invited: "Look! I have prepared my dinner, my bulls and fattened animals are slaughtered, and everything is ready. Come to the marriage feast."' 5 But unconcerned they went off, one to his own field, another to his business;[g] 6 but the rest, seizing his slaves, treated them insolently and killed them.

7 "The king grew wrathful and sent his armies and killed those murderers and burned their city.[h] 8 Then he said to his slaves, 'The marriage feast is ready, but those invited were not worthy.[i] 9 Therefore, go to the roads leading out of the city, and invite anyone you find to the marriage feast.'[j] 10 Accordingly, those slaves went out to the roads and gathered all they found, both wicked and good; and the room for the wedding ceremonies was filled with those dining.*

11 "When the king came in to inspect the guests, he caught sight of a man not wearing a marriage garment. 12 So he said to him, 'Fellow, how did you get in here without a marriage garment?' He was speechless. 13 Then the king said to his servants, 'Bind him hand and foot and throw him into the darkness outside. There is where his weeping and the gnashing of his teeth will be.'

15 Then the Pharisees went and conspired together in order to trap him in his speech.[a] 16 So they sent their disciples to him, together with party followers of Herod,[b] saying: "Teacher, we know you are truthful and teach the way of God in truth, and you do not seek anyone's favor, for you do not look at the outward appearance of people. 17 Tell us, then, what do you think? Is it lawful* to pay head tax to Caesar or not?" 18 But Jesus, knowing their wickedness, said: "Why do you put me to the test, hypocrites? 19 Show me the tax coin." They brought him a de·nar'i·us.* 20 He said to them: "Whose image and inscription is this?" 21 They said: "Caesar's." Then he said to them: "Pay back, therefore, Caesar's things to Caesar, but God's things to God."[c] 22 When they heard that, they were amazed, and they left him and went away.

23 On that day the Sadducees, who say there is no resurrection,[d] came and asked him:[e] 24 "Teacher, Moses said: 'If any man dies without having children, his brother must marry his wife and raise up offspring for his brother.'[f] 25 Now there were seven brothers with us. The first married and died, and having no offspring, he left his wife for his brother. 26 The same thing happened with the second and the third, through all seven. 27 Last of all, the woman died. 28 So in the resurrection, of the seven, whose wife will she be? For they all had her as a wife."

29 In reply Jesus said to them: "You are mistaken, because you know neither the Scriptures nor the power of God;[a] 30 for in the resurrection neither do men marry nor are women given in marriage, but they are as angels in heaven.[b] 31 Regarding the resurrection of the dead, have you not read what was spoken to you by God, who said: 32 'I am the God of Abraham and the God of Isaac and the God of Jacob'?[c] He is the God, not of the dead, but of the living."[d] 33 On hearing that, the crowds were astounded at his teaching.[e]

34 After the Pharisees heard that he had silenced the Sadducees, they came together in one group. 35 And one of them, versed in the Law, tested him by asking: 36 "Teacher, which is the greatest commandment in the Law?"[f] 37 He said to him: "'You must love Jehovah* your God with your whole heart and with your whole soul# and with your whole mind.'[g] 38 This is the greatest and first commandment. 39 The second, like it, is this: 'You must love your neighbor as yourself.'[h] 40 On these two commandments the whole Law hangs, and the Prophets."[i]

41 Now while the Pharisees were gathered together, Jesus asked them:[j] 42 "What do you think about the Christ? Whose son is he?" They said to him: "David's."[k] 43 He asked them: "How is it, then, that David under inspiration[l] calls him Lord,

23 Then Jesus spoke to the crowds and to his disciples, saying: 2 "The scribes and the Pharisees have seated themselves in the seat of Moses. 3 Therefore, all the things they tell you, do and observe, but do not do according to their deeds, for they say but they do not practice what they say.[c] 4 They bind up heavy loads and put them on the shoulders of men,[d] but they themselves are not willing to budge them with their finger.[e] 5 All the works they do, they do to be seen by men,[f] for they broaden the scripture-containing cases that they wear as safeguards*[g] and lengthen the fringes of their garments.[h] 6 They like the most prominent place at evening meals and the front* seats in the synagogues[i] 7 and the greetings in the marketplaces and to be called Rabbi* by men. 8 But you, do not you be called Rabbi, for one is your Teacher,[j] and all of you are brothers. 9 Moreover, do not call anyone your father on earth, for one is your Father,[k] the heavenly One. 10 Neither be called leaders, for your Leader is one, the Christ. 11 But the greatest one among you must be your minister.[l] 12 Whoever exalts himself will be humbled,[m] and whoever humbles himself will be exalted.[n]

23 "Woe to you, scribes and Pharisees, hypocrites! because you give the tenth of the mint and the dill and the cumin,[f] but you have disregarded the weightier matters of the Law, namely, justice[g] and mercy[h] and faithfulness. 37 "Jerusalem, Jerusalem, the killer of the prophets and stoner of those sent to her[a]—how often I wanted to gather your children together the way a hen gathers her chicks under her wings! But you did not want it.[b] 38 Look! Your house is abandoned to you.[c] 39 For I say to you, you will by no means see me from now until you say, 'Blessed is the one who comes in Jehovah's name!'"[d]

24 Now as Jesus was departing from the temple, his disciples approached to show him the buildings of the temple. 2 In response he said to them: "Do you not see all these things? Truly I say to you, by no means will a stone be left here upon a stone and not be thrown down."[e]

3 While he was sitting on the Mount of Olives, the disciples approached him privately, saying: "Tell us, when will these things be, and what will be the sign of your presence*[f] and of the conclusion of the system of things?"#[g]

4 In answer Jesus said to them: "Look out that nobody misleads you,[h] 5 for many will come on the basis of my name, saying, 'I am the Christ,' and will mislead many.[i] 6 You are going to hear of wars and reports of wars. See that you are not alarmed, for these things must take place, but the end is not yet.[j]

7 "For nation will rise against nation and kingdom against kingdom,[k] and there will be food shortages[l] and earthquakes in one place after another.[m] 8 All these things are a beginning of pangs of distress.

you,[a] and you will be hated by all the nations on account of my name.[b] 10 Then, too, many will be stumbled and will betray one another and will hate one another. 11 Many false prophets will arise and mislead many;[c] 12 and because of the increasing of lawlessness, the love of the greater number will grow cold. 13 But the one who has endured* to the end will be saved.[d] 14 And this good news of the Kingdom will be preached in all the inhabited earth for a witness to all the nations,[e] and then the end will come.

15 "Therefore, when you catch sight of the disgusting thing that causes desolation, as spoken about by Daniel the prophet, standing in a holy place[f] (let the reader use discernment), 16 then let those in Ju·de'a begin fleeing to the mountains.[g] 17 Let the man on the housetop not come down to take the goods out of his house, 18 and let the man in the field not return to pick up his outer garment. 19 Woe to the pregnant women and those nursing a baby in those days! 20 Keep praying that your flight may not occur in wintertime nor on the Sabbath day; 21 for then there will be great tribulation[h] such as has not occurred since the world's beginning until now, no, nor will occur again.[i] 22 In fact, unless those days were cut short, no flesh would be saved; but on account of the chosen ones those days will be cut short.[j]

23 "Then if anyone says to you, 'Look! Here is the Christ,'[k] or, 'There!' do not believe it.[l] 24 For false Christs and false prophets[m] will arise and will perform great signs and wonders so as to mislead,[n] if possible, even the chosen ones.

25 Look! I have forewarned you. 26 Therefore, if people say to you, 'Look! He is in the wilderness,' do not go out; 'Look! He is in the inner rooms,' do not believe it.[a] 27 For just as the lightning comes out of the east and shines over to the west, so the presence* of the Son of man will be.[b] 28 Wherever the carcass is, there the eagles will be gathered together.[c]

29 "Immediately after the tribulation of those days, the sun will be darkened,[d] and the moon will not give its light, and the stars will fall from heaven, and the powers of the heavens will be shaken.[e] 30 Then the sign of the Son of man will appear in heaven, and all the tribes of the earth will beat themselves in grief,[f] and they will see the Son of man[g] coming on the clouds of heaven with power and great glory.[h] 31 And he will send out his angels with a great trumpet sound, and they will gather his chosen ones together from the four winds, from one extremity of the heavens to their other extremity.[i]

32 "Now learn this illustration from the fig tree: Just as soon as its young branch grows tender and sprouts its leaves, you know that summer is near.[j] 33 Likewise also you, when you see all these things, know that he is near at the doors.[k] 34 Truly I say to you that this generation will by no means pass away until all these things happen. 35 Heaven and earth will pass away, but my words will by no means pass away.[l]

36 "Concerning that day and hour nobody knows,[m] neither the angels of the heavens nor the Son, but only the Father.[n] 37 For just as the days of Noah were,[o] so the presence* of the Son of man will be.[p] 38 For as they were in those days before the Flood, eating and drinking, men marrying and women being given in marriage, until the day that Noah entered into the ark,[a] 39 and they took no note until the Flood came and swept them all away,[b] so the presence of the Son of man will be. 40 Then two men will be in the field; one will be taken along and the other abandoned. 41 Two women will be grinding at the hand mill; one will be taken along and the other abandoned.[c] 42 Keep on the watch, therefore, because you do not know on what day your Lord is coming.[d]

43 "But know one thing: If the householder had known in what watch* the thief was coming,[e] he would have kept awake and not allowed his house to be broken into.[f] 44 On this account, you too prove yourselves ready,[g] because the Son of man is coming at an hour that you do not think to be it.

45 "Who really is the faithful and discreet* slave whom his master appointed over his domestics, to give them their food at the proper time?[h] 46 Happy is that slave if his master on coming finds him doing so![i] 47 Truly I say to you, he will appoint him over all his belongings.

48 "But if ever that evil slave says in his heart, 'My master is delaying,'[j] 49 and he starts to beat his fellow slaves and to eat and drink with the confirmed drunkards, 50 the master of that slave will come on a day that he does not expect and in an hour that he does not know,[k] 51 and he will punish him with the greatest severity and will assign him his place with the hypocrites. There is where his weeping and the gnashing of his teeth will be.[a]

25 "Then the Kingdom of the heavens may be likened to ten virgins who took their lamps[b] and went out to meet the bridegroom.[c] 2 Five of them were foolish, and five were discreet.*[d] 3 For the foolish took their lamps but took no oil with them, 4 whereas the discreet took oil in their flasks along with their lamps. 5 While the bridegroom was delaying, they all became drowsy and fell asleep. 6 Right in the middle of the night there was a shout: 'Here is the bridegroom! Go out to meet him.' 7 Then all those virgins got up and put their lamps in order.[e] 8 The foolish said to the discreet, 'Give us some of your oil, because our lamps are about to go out.' 9 The discreet answered, saying: 'Perhaps there may not be enough for both us and you. Go instead to those who sell it, and buy some for yourselves.' 10 While they were going off to buy it, the bridegroom came. The virgins who were ready went in with him to the marriage feast,[f] and the door was shut. 11 Afterward, the rest of the virgins also came, saying, 'Sir, Sir, open to us!'[g] 12 In answer he said, 'I tell you the truth, I do not know you.'

13 "Keep on the watch,[h] therefore, because you know neither the day nor the hour.[i]

14 "For it is just like a man about to travel abroad who summoned his slaves and entrusted his belongings to them.[j] 15 He gave five talents* to one, two to another, and one to still another, to each according to his own ability, and he went abroad. 16 Immediately the one who received the five talents went and did business with them and gained five more. 17 Likewise, the one who received the two gained two more. 18 But the slave who received just one went off and dug in the ground and hid his master's money.*

19 "After a long time, the master of those slaves came and settled accounts with them.[a] 20 So the one who had received the five talents came forward and brought five additional talents, saying, 'Master, you entrusted five talents to me; see, I gained five talents more.'[b] 21 His master said to him: 'Well done, good and faithful slave! You were faithful over a few things. I will appoint you over many things.[c] Enter into the joy of your master.'[d] 22 Next the one who had received the two talents came forward and said, 'Master, you entrusted two talents to me; see, I gained two talents more.'[e] 23 His master said to him: 'Well done, good and faithful slave! You were faithful over a few things. I will appoint you over many things. Enter into the joy of your master.'

24 "Finally the slave who had received the one talent came forward and said: 'Master, I knew you to be a demanding man, reaping where you did not sow and gathering where you did not winnow.[f] 25 So I grew afraid and went and hid your talent in the ground. Here, you have what is yours.' 26 In reply his master said to him: 'Wicked and sluggish slave, you knew, did you, that I reaped where I did not sow and gathered where I did not winnow? 27 Well, then, you should have deposited my money* with the bankers, and on my coming I would have received it back with interest.

28 "'Therefore, take the talent away from him and give it to the one who has the ten talents.[a] 29 For to everyone who has, more will be given, and he will have an abundance. But the one who does not have, even what he has will be taken away from him.[b] 30 And throw the good-for-nothing slave out into the darkness outside. There is where his weeping and the gnashing of his teeth will be.'

31 "When the Son of man[c] comes in his glory, and all the angels with him,[d] then he will sit down on his glorious throne. 32 All the nations will be gathered before him, and he will separate people one from another, just as a shepherd separates the sheep from the goats. 33 And he will put the sheep[e] on his right hand, but the goats on his left.[f]

34 "Then the King will say to those on his right: 'Come, you who have been blessed by my Father, inherit the Kingdom prepared for you from the founding of the world. 35 For I became hungry and you gave me something to eat; I was thirsty and you gave me something to drink. I was a stranger and you received me hospitably;[g] 36 naked* and you clothed me.[h] I fell sick and you looked after me. I was in prison and you visited me.'[i] 37 Then the righteous ones will answer him with the words: 'Lord, when did we see you hungry and feed you, or thirsty and give you something to drink?[j] 38 When did we see you a stranger and receive you hospitably, or naked and clothe you? 39 When did we see you sick or in prison and visit you?' 40 In reply the King will say to them, 'Truly I say to you, to the extent that you did it to one of the least of these my brothers, you did it to me.'[a]

41 "Then he will say to those on his left: 'Go away from me,[b] you who have been cursed, into the everlasting fire[c] prepared for the Devil and his angels.[d] 42 For I became hungry, but you gave me nothing to eat; and I was thirsty, but you gave me nothing to drink. 43 I was a stranger, but you did not receive me hospitably; naked, but you did not clothe me; sick and in prison, but you did not look after me.' 44 Then they too will answer with the words: 'Lord, when did we see you hungry or thirsty or a stranger or naked or sick or in prison and did not minister to you?' 45 Then he will answer them, saying: 'Truly I say to you, to the extent that you did not do it to one of these least ones, you did not do it to me.'[e] 46 These will depart into everlasting cutting-off,*[f] but the righteous ones into everlasting life."[g]

26 Now when Jesus had finished saying all these things, he said to his disciples: 2 "You know that two days from now the Passover takes place,[h] and the Son of man will be handed over to be executed on the stake."[i]

3 Then the chief priests and the elders of the people gathered in the courtyard of the high priest, who was named Ca′ia·phas,[j] 4 and they conspired together[k] to seize* Jesus by cunning# and to kill him. 5 However, they were saying: "Not at the festival, so that there may not be an uproar among the people."

6 While Jesus was in Beth′a·ny in the house of Simon the leper,[l] 7 a woman with an alabaster jar of costly perfumed oil approached him, and she began pouring it on his head as he was dining.* 8 On seeing this, the disciples became indignant and said: "Why this waste? 9 For this could have been sold for a great deal of money and given to the poor." 10 Aware of this, Jesus said to them: "Why do you try to make trouble for the woman? She did a fine deed toward me. 11 For you always have the poor with you,[a] but you will not always have me.[b] 12 When she put this perfumed oil on my body, she did it to prepare me for burial.[c] 13 Truly I say to you, wherever this good news is preached in all the world, what this woman did will also be told in memory of her."[d]

14 Then one of the Twelve, the one called Judas Is·car′i·ot,[e] went to the chief priests[f] 15 and said: "What will you give me to betray him to you?"[g] They stipulated to him 30 silver pieces.[h] 16 So from then on, he kept looking for a good opportunity to betray him.

17 On the first day of the Unleavened Bread,[i] the disciples came to Jesus, saying: "Where do you want us to prepare for you to eat the Passover?"[j] 18 He said: "Go into the city to So-and-so and say to him, 'The Teacher says: "My appointed time is near; I will celebrate the Passover with my disciples at your home."'" 19 So the disciples did as Jesus instructed them and prepared for the Passover.

20 When evening came,[k] he was reclining at the table with the 12 disciples.[l] 21 While they were eating, he said: "Truly I say to you, one of you will betray me."[m] 22 Being very much grieved at this, each and every one began to say to him: "Lord, it is not I, is it?" 23 In reply he said: "The one who dips his hand with me into the bowl is the one who will betray me.[a] 24 True, the Son of man is going away, just as it is written about him, but woe[b] to that man through whom the Son of man is betrayed![c] It would have been better for that man if he had not been born."[d] 25 Judas, who was about to betray him, replied: "It is not I, is it, Rabbi?" Jesus said to him: "You yourself said it."

26 As they continued eating, Jesus took a loaf, and after saying a blessing, he broke it,[e] and giving it to the disciples, he said: "Take, eat. This means my body."[f] 27 And taking a cup, he offered thanks and gave it to them, saying: "Drink out of it, all of you,[g] 28 for this means my 'blood[h] of the covenant,'[i] which is to be poured out in behalf of many[j] for forgiveness of sins.[k] 29 But I say to you: I will by no means drink again any of this product of the vine until that day when I drink it new with you in the Kingdom of my Father."[l] 30 Finally, after singing praises,* they went out to the Mount of Olives.[m]

31 Then Jesus said to them: "All of you will be stumbled in connection with me on this night, for it is written: 'I will strike the shepherd, and the sheep of the flock will be scattered about.'[n] 32 But after I have been raised up, I will go ahead of you into Gal'i·lee."[o] 33 But Peter, in response, said to him: "Although all the others are stumbled in connection with you, I will never be stumbled!"[p] 34 Jesus said to him: "Truly I say to you, on this night, before a rooster crows, you will disown me three times."[q] 35 Peter said to him: "Even if I should have to die with you, I will by no means disown you." All the other disciples also said the same thing.

36 Then Jesus came with them to the spot called Geth·sem'a·ne,[a] and he said to the disciples: "Sit down here while I go over there and pray."[b] 37 And taking along Peter and the two sons of Zeb'e·dee, he began to feel grieved and to be greatly troubled.[c] 38 Then he said to them: "I am* deeply grieved, even to death. Stay here and keep on the watch with me."[d] 39 And going a little way forward, he fell facedown, praying:[e] "My Father, if it is possible, let this cup[f] pass away from me. Yet, not as I will, but as you will."[g]

40 He returned to the disciples and found them sleeping, and he said to Peter: "Could you not so much as keep on the watch for one hour with me?[h] 41 Keep on the watch[i] and pray continually,[j] so that you may not enter into temptation.[k] The spirit, of course, is eager,* but the flesh is weak."[l] 42 Again, a second time, he went off and prayed: "My Father, if it is not possible for this to pass away unless I drink it, let your will take place."[m] 43 And he came again and found them sleeping, for their eyes were heavy. 44 So leaving them, he again went off and prayed for a third time, saying once more the same thing. 45 Then he returned to the disciples and said to them: "At such a time as this, you are sleeping and resting! Look! The hour has drawn near for the Son of man to be betrayed into the hands of sinners. 46 Get up, let us go. Look! My betrayer has drawn near." 47 While he was still speaking, look! Judas, one of the Twelve, came and with him a large crowd with swords and clubs, sent from the chief priests and the elders of the people.[a]

48 Now his betrayer had given them a sign, saying: "Whoever it is I kiss, he is the one; take him into custody." 49 And going straight up to Jesus, he said: "Greetings, Rabbi!" and gave him a tender kiss. 50 But Jesus said to him: "Fellow, for what purpose are you present?"[b] Then they came forward and seized Jesus and took him into custody. 51 But look! one of those with Jesus reached out his hand and drew his sword and struck the slave of the high priest, taking off his ear.[c] 52 Then Jesus said to him: "Return your sword to its place,[d] for all those who take up the sword will perish by the sword.[e] 53 Or do you think that I cannot appeal to my Father to supply me at this moment more than 12 legions of angels?[f] 54 In that case, how would the Scriptures be fulfilled that say it must take place this way?" 55 In that hour Jesus said to the crowds: "Did you come out to arrest me with swords and clubs as against a robber? Day after day I used to sit in the temple teaching,[g] and yet you did not take me into custody.[h] 56 But all of this has taken place for the writings* of the prophets to be fulfilled."[i] Then all the disciples abandoned him and fled.[j]

57 Those who took Jesus into custody led him away to Ca·ia·phas[k] the high priest, where the scribes and the elders were gathered together.[l] 58 But Peter kept following him from a good distance, as far as the courtyard of the high priest, and after going inside, he sat with the house attendants to see the outcome.[m]

59 Now the chief priests and the entire San'he·drin were looking for false testimony against Jesus in order to put him to death.[a] 60 But they found none, although many false witnesses came forward.[b] Later two came forward 61 and said: "This man said, 'I am able to throw down the temple of God and build it up in three days.'"[c] 62 With that the high priest stood up and said to him: "Do you say nothing in reply? What is it these men are testifying against you?"[d] 63 But Jesus kept silent.[e] So the high priest said to him: "I put you under oath by the living God to tell us whether you are the Christ, the Son of God!"[f] 64 Jesus said to him: "You yourself said it. But I say to you: From now on you will see the Son of man[g] sitting at the right hand of power[h] and coming on the clouds of heaven."[i] 65 Then the high priest ripped his outer garments, saying: "He has blasphemed! What further need do we have of witnesses? See! Now you have heard the blasphemy. 66 What is your opinion?" They answered: "He deserves to die."[j] 67 Then they spat in his face[k] and hit him with their fists.[l] Others slapped him on the face,[m] 68 saying: "Prophesy to us, you Christ. Who struck you?"

69 Now Peter was sitting outside in the courtyard, and a servant girl came up to him and said: "You too were with Jesus the Gal·i·le'an!"[n] 70 But he denied it before them all, saying: "I do not know what you are talking about." 71 When he went out to the gatehouse, another girl noticed him and said to those there: "This man was with Jesus the Naz·a·rene'."[o] 72 Again he denied it, with an oath: "I do not know the man!" 73 After a little while, those standing around came up and said to Peter: "Certainly you are also one of them, for in fact, your dialect* gives you away." 74 Then he started to curse and swear: "I do not know the man!" And immediately a rooster crowed. 75 And Peter called to mind what Jesus had said, namely: "Before a rooster crows, you will disown me three times."[a] And he went outside and wept bitterly.

27 When morning came, all the chief priests and the elders of the people consulted together against Jesus to put him to death.[b] 2 After binding him, they led him off and handed him over to Pilate, the governor.[c]

3 Then Judas, his betrayer, seeing that Jesus had been condemned, felt remorse and brought the 30 pieces of silver back to the chief priests and elders,[d] 4 saying: "I sinned when I betrayed innocent blood." They said: "What is that to us? You must see to it!"* 5 So he threw the silver pieces into the temple and departed. Then he went off and hanged himself.[e] 6 But the chief priests took the silver pieces and said: "It is not lawful to put them into the sacred treasury, because they are the price of blood." 7 After consulting together, they used the money to buy the potter's field as a burial place for strangers. 8 Therefore, that field has been called Field of Blood[f] to this very day. 9 Then what was spoken through Jeremiah the prophet was fulfilled: "And they took the 30 silver pieces, the price that was set on the man, the one on whom a price was set by some of the sons of Israel, 10 and they gave them for the potter's field, according to what Jehovah* had commanded me."[a]

11 Jesus now stood before the governor, and the governor put the question to him: "Are you the King of the Jews?" Jesus replied: "You yourself say it."[b] 12 But while he was being accused by the chief priests and elders, he made no answer.[c] 13 Then Pilate said to him: "Do you not hear how many things they are testifying against you?" 14 But he did not answer him, no, not a word, so that the governor was very surprised.

15 Now from festival to festival, it was the custom of the governor to release a prisoner to the crowd, whomever they wanted.[d] 16 Just at that time they were holding a notorious prisoner called Bar·ab′bas. 17 So when they were gathered together, Pilate said to them: "Which one do you want me to release to you, Bar·ab′bas or Jesus the so-called Christ?" 18 For Pilate was aware that out of envy they had handed him over. 19 Moreover, while he was sitting on the judgment seat, his wife sent a message to him, saying: "Have nothing to do with that righteous man, for I suffered a lot today in a dream because of him." 20 But the chief priests and the elders persuaded the crowds to ask for Bar·ab′bas,[e] but to have Jesus put to death.[f] 21 In response the governor said to them: "Which of the two do you want me to release to you?" They said: "Bar·ab′bas." 22 Pilate said to them: "What, then, should I do with Jesus the so-called Christ?" They all said: "To the stake with him!"*[g] 23 He said: "Why? What bad thing did he do?" Still they kept shouting out all the more: "To the stake with him!"[h]

24 Seeing that it did no good but, rather, an uproar was arising, Pilate took water and washed his hands before the crowd, saying: "I am innocent of the blood of this man. You yourselves must see to it." 25 At that all the people said in answer: "Let his blood come upon us and upon our children."[a] 26 Then he released Bar·ab'bas to them, but he had Jesus whipped[b] and handed him over to be executed on the stake.[c]

27 Then the soldiers of the governor took Jesus into the governor's residence and gathered the whole body of troops together around him.[d] 28 And disrobing him, they draped him with a scarlet cloak,[e] 29 and they braided a crown out of thorns and put it on his head and put a reed in his right hand. And kneeling before him, they mocked him, saying: "Greetings,* you King of the Jews!" 30 And they spat on him[f] and took the reed and began hitting him on his head. 31 Finally, after they had mocked him, they stripped him of the cloak and put his outer garments on him and led him off to be nailed to the stake.[g]

32 As they were going out, they found a man of Cy·re'ne named Simon. This man they compelled into service to carry his torture stake.*[h] 33 And when they came to a place called Gol'go·tha, that is, Skull Place,[i] 34 they gave him wine mixed with gall* to drink;[j] but after tasting it, he refused to drink it. 35 When they had nailed him to the stake, they distributed his outer garments by casting lots,[k] 36 and they sat there keeping watch over him. 37 They also posted above his head the charge against him, in writing: "This is Jesus the King of the Jews."[a]

38 Then two robbers were put on stakes alongside him, one on his right and one on his left.[b] 39 And those passing by spoke abusively of him,[c] shaking their heads[d] 40 and saying: "You who would throw down the temple and build it in three days,[e] save yourself! If you are a son of God, come down off the torture stake!"[f] 41 In the same way also, the chief priests with the scribes and the elders began mocking him, saying:[g] 42 "Others he saved; himself he cannot save! He is King of Israel;[h] let him now come down off the torture stake, and we will believe in him. 43 He has put his trust in God; let Him now rescue him if He wants him,[i] for he said, 'I am God's Son.'"[j] 44 In the same way, even the robbers who were on stakes alongside him were reproaching him.[k]

45 From the sixth hour* on, a darkness fell over all the land until the ninth hour.#[l] 46 About the ninth hour, Jesus called out with a loud voice, saying: "E'li, E'li, la'ma sa·bach·tha'ni?" that is, "My God, my God, why have you forsaken me?"[m] 47 At hearing this, some of those standing there began to say: "This man is calling E·li'jah."[n] 48 And immediately one of them ran and took a sponge and soaked it in sour wine and put it on a reed and gave it to him to drink.[o] 49 But the rest of them said: "Let him be! Let us see whether E·li'jah comes to save him." 50 Again Jesus called out with a loud voice and yielded up his spirit.[p] were split. 52 And the tombs were opened, and many bodies of the holy ones who had fallen asleep were raised up 53 (and people coming out from among the tombs after his being raised up entered into the holy city), and they became visible to many people. 54 But when the army officer and those with him keeping watch over Jesus saw the earthquake and the things happening, they grew very much afraid and said: "Certainly this was God's Son."[a]

55 And many women were there watching from a distance, who had accompanied Jesus from Gal'i·lee to minister to him;[b] 56 among them were Mary Mag'da·lene and Mary the mother of James and Jo'ses and the mother of the sons of Zeb'e·dee.[c]

57 Now as it was late in the afternoon, a rich man of Ar·i·ma·the'a came, named Joseph, who had also become a disciple of Jesus.[d] 58 This man approached Pilate and asked for the body of Jesus.[e] Then Pilate commanded that it be given to him.[f] 59 Joseph took the body, wrapped it up in clean, fine linen,[g] 60 and laid it in his new tomb,[h] which he had quarried in the rock. And after rolling a big stone to the entrance of the tomb, he left. 61 But Mary Mag'da·lene and the other Mary continued there, sitting before the grave.[i]

62 The next day, which was after the Preparation,[j] the chief priests and the Pharisees gathered together before Pilate, 63 saying: "Sir, we recall what that impostor said while he was still alive, 'After three days I am to be raised up.'[k] 64 Therefore, command that the grave be made secure until the third day, so that his disciples may not come and steal him[a] and say to the people, 'He was raised up from the dead!' Then this last deception will be worse than the first." 65 Pilate said to them: "You may have a guard. Go make it as secure as you know how." 66 So they went and made the grave secure by sealing the stone and posting a guard.

28 After the Sabbath, when it was growing light on the first day of the week, Mary Mag'da·lene and the other Mary came to view the grave.[b]

2 And look! a great earthquake had taken place, for Jehovah's* angel had descended from heaven and had come and rolled away the stone, and he was sitting on it.[c] 3 His appearance was like lightning, and his clothing was as white as snow.[d] 4 Yes, out of their fear of him, the watchmen trembled and became as dead men.

5 But the angel said to the women: "Do not be afraid, for I know that you are looking for Jesus who was executed on the stake.[e] 6 He is not here, for he was raised up, just as he said.[f] Come, see the place where he was lying. 7 Then go quickly and tell his disciples that he was raised up from the dead, for look! he is going ahead of you into Gal'i·lee.[g] You will see him there. Look! I have told you."[h]

8 So, quickly leaving the memorial tomb, with fear and great joy, they ran to report to his disciples.[i] 9 And look! Jesus met them and said: "Good day!" They approached and took hold of his feet and did obeisance* to him. 10 Then Jesus said to them: "Have no fear! Go, report to my brothers so that they may go to Gal'i·lee, and there they will see me."

11 While they were on their way, some of the guards[a] went into the city and reported to the chief priests all the things that had happened. 12 And after these had gathered with the elders and had consulted together, they gave a considerable number of silver pieces to the soldiers 13 and said: "Say, 'His disciples came in the night and stole him while we were sleeping.'[b] 14 And if this gets to the governor's ears, we will explain the matter to* him and you will not need to worry." 15 So they took the silver pieces and did as they were instructed, and this story has been spread abroad among the Jews up to this very day.

CHAP. 1

1 The beginning of the good news about Jesus Christ, the Son of God: 2 Just as it is written in Isaiah the prophet: "(Look! I am sending my messenger ahead of you,* who will prepare your way.)[a] 3 A voice of one crying out in the wilderness: 'Prepare the way of Jehovah!* Make his roads straight.'"[b] 4 John the Baptizer was in the wilderness, preaching baptism in symbol of repentance for forgiveness of sins.[a] 5 And all the territory of Ju·de'a and all the inhabitants of Jerusalem were going out to him, and they were baptized* by him in the Jordan River, openly confessing their sins.[b] 6 Now John wore clothing of camel's hair and a leather belt around his waist,[a] and he ate locusts and wild honey.[b] 7 And he was preaching: "Someone stronger than I am is coming after me, the lace of whose sandals I am not worthy to stoop down and untie.[c] 8 I baptized you with water, but he will baptize you with holy spirit."[d]

9 In the course of those days, Jesus came from Naz'a·reth of Gal'i·lee and was baptized in the Jordan by John.[e] 10 And immediately on coming up out of the water, he saw the heavens being parted and, like a dove, the spirit coming down upon him.[f] 11 And a voice came out of the heavens: "You are my Son, the beloved; I have approved you."[g]

12 And immediately the spirit impelled him to go into the wilderness. 13 So he continued in the wilderness for 40 days, being tempted by Satan.[h] He was with the wild beasts, but the angels were ministering to him.[i]

14 Now after John was arrested, Jesus went into Gal'i·lee,[j] preaching the good news of God[k] 15 and saying: "The appointed time has been fulfilled, and the Kingdom of God has drawn near. Repent,[l] and have faith in the good news."

16 While walking alongside the Sea of Gal'i·lee, he saw Simon and Simon's brother Andrew[m] casting their nets into the sea,[n] for they were fishermen.[o] 17 So Jesus said to them: "Come after me, and I will make you fishers of men."*[p] 18 And at once they abandoned their nets and followed him.[q] 19 After going a little farther, he saw James the son of Zeb'e·dee and his brother John, while they were in their boat mending their nets,[r] 20 and without delay he called them. So they left their father Zeb'e·dee in the boat with the hired men and went off after him. 21 And they went into Caper'na·um.

As soon as the Sabbath began, he went into the synagogue and started to teach.[a] 22 And they were astounded at his way of teaching, for he was teaching them as one having authority, and not as the scribes.[b] 23 Just then there was a man in their synagogue who was under the power of an unclean spirit, and he shouted: 24 "What have we to do with you, Jesus the Naz·a·rene'?[c] Did you come to destroy us? I know exactly who you are, the Holy One of God!"[d] 25 But Jesus rebuked it, saying: "Be silent, and come out of him!" 26 And the unclean spirit, after throwing the man into a convulsion and yelling at the top of its voice, came out of him. 27 Well, the people were all so astonished that they began to discuss it among themselves, saying: "What is this? A new teaching! He authoritatively orders even the unclean spirits, and they obey him." 28 So the report about him spread quickly in all directions throughout the entire region of Gal'i·lee.

29 At that they left the synagogue and went to the home of Simon and Andrew with James and John.[e] 30 Now Simon's mother-in-law[f] was lying down sick with a fever, and they at once told him about her. 31 Going to her, he took her by the hand and raised her up. The fever left her, and she began ministering to them.

32 After evening had fallen, when the sun had set, the people began bringing to him all who were ill and demon possessed;[g] 33 and the whole city was gathered right at the door. 34 So he cured many who were ill with various sicknesses,[a] and he expelled many demons, but he would not let the demons speak, for they knew him to be Christ.*

35 Early in the morning, while it was still dark, he got up and went outside and left for an isolated place, and there he began praying.[b] 36 However, Simon and those with him hunted him down 37 and found him, and they said to him: "Everyone is looking for you." 38 But he said to them: "Let us go somewhere else, into the towns nearby, so that I may preach there also, for this is why I have come."[c] 39 And he went, preaching in their synagogues throughout the whole of Gal·i·lee and expelling the demons.[d]

40 There also came to him a leper, pleading with him even on bended knee, saying to him: "If you just want to, you can make me clean."[e] 41 At that he was moved with pity, and he stretched out his hand and touched him, and said to him: "I want to! Be made clean."[f] 42 Immediately the leprosy vanished from him, and he became clean. 43 Then he gave him strict orders and at once sent him away, 44 saying to him: "See that you say nothing to anyone, but go show yourself to the priest and offer for your cleansing the things Moses directed,[g] for a witness to them."[h] 45 But after going away, the man started to proclaim it a great deal and to spread the account widely, so that Jesus was no longer able to enter openly into a city, but he stayed outside in isolated places. Yet they kept coming to him from all sides.[i]

2 However, after some days he again entered into Ca·per′·na·um, and the word spread that he was at home.[j] 2 And so many gathered that there was no more room, not even around the door, and he began to speak the word to them.[a] 3 And they brought him a paralytic carried by four men.[b] 4 But they could not bring him right to Jesus because of the crowd, so they removed the roof above Jesus, and after digging an opening, they lowered the stretcher on which the paralytic was lying. 5 When Jesus saw their faith,[c] he said to the paralytic: "Child, your sins are forgiven."[d] 6 Now some of the scribes were there, sitting and reasoning in their hearts:[e] 7 "Why is this man talking this way? He is blaspheming. Who can forgive sins except one, God?"[f] 8 But immediately Jesus discerned by his spirit that they were reasoning that way among themselves, so he said to them: "Why are you reasoning these things in your hearts?[g] 9 Which is easier, to say to the paralytic, 'Your sins are forgiven,' or to say, 'Get up and pick up your stretcher and walk'? 10 But in order for you to know that the Son of man[h] has authority to forgive sins on earth—"[i] he said to the paralytic: 11 "I say to you, Get up, pick up your stretcher, and go to your home." 12 At that he got up and immediately picked up his stretcher and walked out in front of them all. So they were all astonished, and they glorified God, saying: "We have never seen anything like this."[j]

13 Again he went out alongside the sea, and all the crowd kept coming to him, and he began to teach them. 14 And as he was passing by, he caught sight of Le′vi the son of Al·phae′·us sitting at the tax office, and he said to him: "Be my follower." At that he rose up and followed him.[k] 15 Later he was dining* in his house, and many tax collectors and sinners were dining* with Jesus and his disciples, for there were many of them who were following him.[a] 16 But when the scribes of the Pharisees saw that he was eating with the sinners and tax collectors, they began saying to his disciples: "Does he eat with tax collectors and sinners?" 17 On hearing this, Jesus said to them: "Those who are strong do not need a physician, but those who are ill do. I came to call, not righteous people, but sinners."[b]

18 Now John's disciples and the Pharisees practiced fasting. So they came and said to him: "Why do John's disciples and the disciples of the Pharisees practice fasting, but your disciples do not practice fasting?"[c] 19 So Jesus said to them: "While the bridegroom[d] is with them, the friends of the bridegroom have no reason to fast, do they? As long as they have the bridegroom with them, they cannot fast. 20 But days will come when the bridegroom will be taken away from them,[e] and then they will fast on that day. 21 Nobody sews a patch of unshrunk cloth on an old outer garment. If he does, the new piece pulls away from the old, and the tear becomes worse.[f] 22 Also, no one puts new wine into old wineskins. If he does, the wine will burst the skins, and the wine is lost as well as the skins. But new wine is put into new wineskins."

23 Now as he was passing through the grainfields on the Sabbath, his disciples started to pluck the heads of grain as they went.[g] 24 So the Pharisees said to him: "Look here! Why are they doing what is not lawful on the Sabbath?" 25 But he said to them: "Have you never read what David did when he was in need and he and the men with him were hungry?[a] 26 How, in the account about A·bi′a·thar[b] the chief priest, he entered into the house of God and ate the loaves of presentation,* which it is not lawful for anybody to eat except the priests,[c] and he also gave some to the men who were with him?" 27 Then he said to them: "The Sabbath came into existence for the sake of man,[d] and not man for the sake of the Sabbath. 28 So the Son of man is Lord even of the Sabbath."[e]

3 Once again he entered into a synagogue, and a man with a withered* hand was there.[f] 2 So they were watching him closely to see whether he would cure the man on the Sabbath, in order to accuse him. 3 He said to the man with the withered* hand: "Get up and come to the center." 4 Next he said to them: "Is it lawful on the Sabbath to do good or to do harm, to save a life* or to kill?"[g] But they kept silent. 5 After looking around at them with indignation, being thoroughly grieved at the insensibility of their hearts,[h] he said to the man: "Stretch out your hand." And he stretched it out, and his hand was restored. 6 At that the Pharisees went out and immediately began holding council with the party followers of Herod[i] against him, in order to kill him.

7 But Jesus departed for the sea along with his disciples, and a great multitude from Gal′i·lee and from Ju·de′a followed him.[j] 8 Even from Jerusalem and from Id·u·me′a and from across the Jordan and from around Tyre and Si′don, a great multitude came to him when they heard about the many things he was doing. 9 And he told his disciples to have a small boat ready for him so that the crowd would not press in on him. 10 Because he cured many, all those who had serious diseases were crowding around him to touch him.[a] 11 Even the unclean spirits,[b] whenever they saw him, would fall down before him and cry out and say: "You are the Son of God."[c] 12 But many times he sternly ordered them not to make him known.[d]

13 He ascended a mountain and summoned those whom he wanted,[e] and they came to him.[f] 14 And he formed* a group of 12, whom he also named apostles, those who were to accompany him and whom he would send out to preach 15 and to have authority to expel demons.[g]

16 And the group of 12[h] that he formed* were Simon, to whom he also gave the name Peter,[i] 17 James the son of Zeb′e·dee and John the brother of James (he also gave these the name Bo·a·ner′ges, which means "Sons of Thunder"),[j] 18 Andrew, Philip, Bar·thol′o·mew, Matthew, Thomas, James the son of Al·phae′us, Thad·dae′us, Simon the Ca·na·nae′an,* 19 and Judas Is·car′i·ot, who later betrayed him.

Then he went into a house, 20 and again the crowd gathered, so that they were not able even to eat a meal. 21 But when his relatives heard about it, they went out to seize him, for they were saying: "He has gone out of his mind."[k] 22 Also, the scribes who came down from Jerusalem were saying: "He has Be·el′ze·bub,* and he expels the demons by means of the ruler of the demons."[a] 23 So after calling them to him, he spoke to them with illustrations: "How can Satan expel Satan? 24 If a kingdom becomes divided against itself, that kingdom cannot stand;[b] 25 and if a house becomes divided against itself, that house will not be able to stand. 26 Also, if Satan has risen up against himself and has become divided, he cannot stand but is coming to an end. 27 In fact, no one who enters the house of a strong man is able to steal his possessions unless he first ties up the strong man. Only then can he plunder his house. 28 Truly I say to you that all things will be forgiven the sons of men, no matter what sins they commit and what blasphemies they speak. 29 But whoever blasphemes against the holy spirit has no forgiveness forever[c] but is guilty of everlasting sin."[d] 30 He said this because they were saying: "He has an unclean spirit."[e]

31 Now his mother and his brothers[f] came, and standing outside, they sent someone in to call him.[g] 32 As there was a crowd sitting around him, they said to him: "Look! Your mother and your brothers are outside asking for you."[h] 33 But he replied to them: "Who are my mother and my brothers?" 34 Then he looked at those sitting around him in a circle and said: "See, my mother and my brothers![i] 35 Whoever does the will of God, this one is my brother and sister and mother."[j]

4 Again he began teaching beside the sea, and a very large crowd gathered near him. So he went aboard a boat and sat in it away from the shore, but the whole crowd was next to the sea, along the shore.[k] 2 And he began to teach them many things with illustrations,[a] and while he was teaching, he said to them:[b] 3 "Listen. Look! The sower went out to sow.[c] 4 As he was sowing, some seeds fell alongside the road, and the birds came and ate them up. 5 Others fell on rocky ground where there was not much soil, and they immediately sprang up because the soil was not deep.[d] 6 But when the sun rose, they were scorched, and they withered because they had no root. 7 Other seeds fell among the thorns, and the thorns came up and choked them, and they yielded no fruit.[e] 8 But others fell on the fine soil, and growing up and increasing, they began to yield fruit, and they were bearing 30, 60, and 100 times more."[f] 9 Then he added: "Let the one who has ears to listen, listen."[g]

10 Now when he was alone, those around him with the Twelve began questioning him about the illustrations.[h] 11 He said to them: "To you the sacred secret[i] of the Kingdom of God has been given, but to those outside all things are in illustrations,[j] 12 so that, though looking, they may look and still not see, and though hearing, they may hear and still not get the sense of it; nor will they ever turn back and receive forgiveness."[k] 13 Further, he said to them: "You do not know this illustration, so how will you understand all the other illustrations?

14 "The sower sows the word.[l] 15 These, then, are the ones alongside the road where the word is sown; but as soon as they have heard it, Satan comes[m] and takes away the word that was sown in them.[n] 16 Likewise, these are the ones sown on rocky ground; as soon as they have heard the word, they accept it with joy.[a] 17 Yet they have no root in themselves, but they continue for a time; then as soon as tribulation or persecution arises because of the word, they are stumbled. 18 There are still others that are sown among the thorns. These are the ones who have heard the word,[b] 19 but the anxieties[c] of this system of things* and the deceptive power of riches[d] and the desires[e] for everything else make inroads and choke the word, and it becomes unfruitful. 20 Finally, the ones that were sown on the fine soil are those who listen to the word and favorably receive it and bear fruit—30, 60, and 100 times more."[f]

21 He also said to them: "A lamp is not brought out to be put under a basket* or under a bed, is it? Is it not brought out to be put on a lampstand?[g] 22 For there is nothing hidden that will not be exposed; nothing is carefully concealed that will not come out in the open.[h] 23 Whoever has ears to listen, let him listen."[i]

24 He further said to them: "Pay attention to what you are hearing.[j] With the measure that you are measuring out, you will have it measured out to you, yes, you will have more added to you. 25 For whoever has will have more given to him,[k] but whoever does not have, even what he has will be taken away from him."[l]

26 So he went on to say: "In this way the Kingdom of God is just as when a man casts seeds on the ground. 27 He sleeps at night and rises up by day, and the seeds sprout and grow tall —just how, he does not know. 28 On its own the ground bears fruit gradually, first the stalk, then the head, finally the full grain in the head. 29 But as soon as the crop permits it, he thrusts in the sickle, because the harvesttime has come.”

30 And he went on to say: “With what can we compare the Kingdom of God, or with what illustration can we explain it? 31 It is like a mustard grain, which at the time it was sown in the ground was the tiniest of all the seeds on the earth.[a] 32 But when it has been sown, it grows and becomes greater than all other vegetable plants and produces great branches, so that the birds of heaven are able to find lodging under its shadow.”

33 With many illustrations[b] of that sort he spoke the word to them, to the extent that they were able to listen. 34 Indeed, without an illustration he would not speak to them, but he would explain all things privately to his disciples.[c]

35 And on that day, when evening had fallen, he said to them: “Let us cross to the other shore.”[d] 36 So after they had dismissed the crowd, they took him in the boat, just as he was, and there were other boats with him.[e] 37 Now a great violent windstorm broke out, and the waves kept crashing into the boat, so that the boat was close to being swamped.[f] 38 But he was in the stern, sleeping on the pillow.* So they woke him up and said to him: “Teacher, do you not care that we are about to perish?” 39 With that he got up and rebuked the wind and said to the sea: “Hush! Be quiet!”[g] And the wind abated, and a great calm set in. 40 So he said to them: “Why are you so afraid?* Do you not yet have any faith?” 41 But they felt an unusual fear, and they said to one another: “Who really is this? Even the wind and the sea obey him.”[a]

5 Then they came to the other side of the sea into the region of the Ger′a·senes.[b] 2 And immediately after Jesus got out of the boat, a man under the power of an unclean spirit met him from among the tombs.* 3 His haunt was among the tombs, and up to that time, absolutely no one was able to bind him securely, even with a chain. 4 He had often been bound with fetters and chains, but he snapped the chains apart and smashed the fetters; and nobody had the strength to subdue him. 5 And continually, night and day, he was crying out in the tombs and in the mountains and slashing himself with stones. 6 But on catching sight of Jesus from a distance, he ran and bowed down to him.[c] 7 Then he cried out with a loud voice: “What have I to do with you, Jesus, Son of the Most High God? I put you under oath by God not to torment me.”[d] 8 For Jesus had been saying to it: “Come out of the man, you unclean spirit.”[e] 9 But Jesus asked him: “What is your name?” And he replied: “My name is Legion, because there are many of us.” 10 And he kept pleading with Jesus not to send the spirits out of the country.[f]

11 Now a great herd of swine[g] was feeding there at the mountain.[h] 12 So the spirits pleaded with him: “Send us into the swine, so that we may enter into them.” 13 And he gave them permission. With that the unclean spirits came out and went into the swine, and the herd rushed over the precipice* into the sea, about 2,000 of them, and were drowned in the sea. 14 But their herders fled and reported it in the city and in the countryside, and people came to see what had happened.[a] 15 So they came to Jesus and saw the demon-possessed man, the one who previously had the Legion, sitting clothed and in his right mind, and they grew fearful. 16 Also, those who had seen it related to them how this had happened to the demon-possessed man and the swine. 17 So they began to plead with Jesus to go away from their region.[b]

18 Now as he was boarding the boat, the man who had been demon-possessed pleaded to go with him.[c] 19 However, he did not let him but said to him: "Go home to your relatives, and report to them all the things Jehovah* has done for you and the mercy he has shown you." 20 This man went away and started to proclaim in the De·cap′o·lis* all the things Jesus had done for him, and all the people were amazed.

21 After Jesus had crossed again by boat to the opposite shore, a large crowd gathered together to him, and he was by the sea.[d] 22 One of the presiding officers of the synagogue, named Ja′i·rus, now came, and on catching sight of him, he fell at his feet.[e] 23 He pleaded with him many times, saying: "My little daughter is extremely ill.* Please come and put your hands on her[f] so that she may get well and live." 24 At that Jesus went with him, and a large crowd was following him and pressing against him.

25 Now there was a woman who had had a flow of blood[g] for 12 years.[a] 26 She had suffered much* at the hands of many physicians and had spent all her resources, and she was no better but, rather, had become worse. 27 When she heard the reports about Jesus, she came up behind him in the crowd and touched his outer garment,[b] 28 for she kept saying: "If I touch just his outer garments, I will get well."[c] 29 And immediately her flow of blood dried up, and she sensed in her body that she had been healed of the grievous sickness.

30 Immediately Jesus realized in himself that power[d] had gone out of him, and he turned around in the crowd and asked: "Who touched my outer garments?"[e] 31 But his disciples said to him: "You see the crowd pressing in on you, and you ask, 'Who touched me?'" 32 However, he was looking around to see who had done this. 33 The woman, frightened and trembling, knowing what had happened to her, came and fell down before him and told him the whole truth. 34 He said to her: "Daughter, your faith has made you well. Go in peace,[f] and be healed from your grievous sickness."[g]

35 While he was yet speaking, some men from the home of the presiding officer of the synagogue came and said: "Your daughter died! Why bother the Teacher any longer?"[h] 36 But Jesus overheard their words and said to the presiding officer of the synagogue: "Have no fear,* only exercise faith."[i] 37 Now he did not let anyone follow him except Peter, James, and John the brother of James.[j] synagogue, and he saw the commotion and those weeping and wailing loudly.[a] 39 After stepping in, he said to them: "Why are you weeping and causing this commotion? The child has not died but is sleeping."[b] 40 At this they began to laugh at him scornfully. But after sending them all outside, he took the child's father and mother and those with him, and he went in where the child was. 41 Then, taking the hand of the child, he said to her: "Taʹli·tha cuʹmi," which, when translated, means: "Little girl, I say to you, 'Get up!'"[c] 42 And immediately the girl rose and began walking. (She was 12 years old.) And at once they were beside themselves with great ecstasy. 43 But he ordered them again and again* to let no one learn of this,[d] and he said that something should be given her to eat.

6 He departed from there and came into his home territory,[e] and his disciples followed him. 2 When it was the Sabbath, he started teaching in the synagogue, and most who heard him were astounded and said: "Where did this man get these things?[f] And why should this wisdom have been given to him, and such powerful works be performed through his hands?[g] 3 This is the carpenter,[h] the son of Mary[i] and the brother of James,[j] Joseph, Judas, and Simon,[k] is it not? And his sisters are here with us, are they not?" So they began to stumble because of him. 4 But Jesus said to them: "A prophet is not without honor except in his home territory and among his relatives and in his own house."[l] 5 So he was not able to do any powerful work there except to lay his hands on a few sick people and cure them. 6 Indeed, he was amazed at their lack of faith. And he went around in a circuit to the villages, teaching.[a]

7 He now summoned the Twelve and started sending them out two by two,[b] and he gave them authority over the unclean spirits.[c] 8 Also, he gave them orders to carry nothing for the trip except a staff—no bread, no food pouch, no money* in their belts[d]— 9 but to put on sandals and not to wear two garments.* 10 Further, he said to them: "Wherever you enter into a home, stay there until you leave that place.[e] 11 And wherever a place will not receive you or listen to you, on going out from there, shake off the dirt that is on your feet for a witness to them."[f] 12 Then they set out and preached that people should repent,[g] 13 and they expelled many demons[h] and greased many sick people with oil and cured them.

14 Now King Herod heard of this, for the name of Jesus became well-known, and people were saying: "John the Baptizer has been raised up from the dead, and that is why the powerful works are operating in him."[i] 15 But others were saying: "It is E·liʹjah." Still others were saying: "It is a prophet like one of the prophets of old."[j] 16 But when Herod heard it, he said: "The John whom I beheaded, this one has been raised up." 17 For Herod himself had sent out and arrested John and had bound him in prison on account of He·roʹdi·as, the wife of Philip his brother, because he had married her.[k] 18 For John had been saying to Herod: "It is not lawful for you to have your brother's wife."[a] 19 So He·ro'di·as was nursing a grudge against him and wanted to kill him, but she could not. 20 For Herod was in fear of John, knowing him to be a righteous and holy man,[b] and he was keeping him safe. After hearing him, he was at a great loss as to what to do, yet he continued to hear him gladly.

21 But a convenient day arrived when Herod spread an evening meal on his birthday[c] for his high officials and the military commanders and the most prominent men of Gal'i·lee.[d] 22 And the daughter of He·ro'di·as came in and danced and pleased Herod and those dining* with him. The king said to the girl: "Ask me for whatever you want, and I will give it to you." 23 Yes, he swore to her: "Whatever you ask me for, I will give it to you, up to half my kingdom." 24 So she went out and said to her mother: "What should I ask for?" She said: "The head of John the Baptizer." 25 She immediately rushed in to the king and made her request, saying: "I want you to give me right away on a platter the head of John the Baptist."[e] 26 Although this deeply grieved him, the king did not want to disregard her request, because of his oaths and his guests.* 27 So the king immediately sent a bodyguard and commanded him to bring John's head. So he went off and beheaded him in the prison 28 and brought his head on a platter. He gave it to the girl, and the girl gave it to her mother. 29 When his disciples heard of it, they came and took his body and laid it in a tomb.*

30 The apostles gathered around Jesus and reported to him all the things they had done and taught.[a] 31 And he said to them: "Come, you yourselves, privately into an isolated place and rest up a little."[b] For there were many coming and going, and they had no leisure time even to eat a meal. 32 So they set off in the boat for an isolated place to be by themselves.[c] 33 But people saw them going and many got to know it, and from all the cities they ran together on foot and got there ahead of them. 34 Well, on getting out, he saw a large crowd, and he was moved with pity for them,[d] because they were as sheep without a shepherd.[e] And he started to teach them many things.[f]

35 By now the hour had grown late, and his disciples came up to him and said: "This place is isolated, and the hour is already late.[g] 36 Send them away, so that they may go off into the surrounding countryside and villages and buy themselves something to eat."[h] 37 He replied to them: "You give them something to eat." At this they said to him: "Should we go off and buy 200 de·nar'i·i* worth of bread and give it to the people to eat?"[i] 38 He said to them: "How many loaves do you have? Go see!" After finding out, they said: "Five, besides two fish."[j] 39 And he instructed all the people to recline in groups on the green grass.[k] 40 So they reclined in groups of 100 and of 50. 41 Taking now the five loaves and the two fish, he looked up to heaven and said a blessing.[l] Then he broke the loaves up and began giving them to the disciples to place them before the people, and he divided up the two fish for all. 42 So they all ate and were satisfied, 43 and they took up 12 baskets full of fragments, aside from the fish.[a] 44 Those who ate the loaves were 5,000 men.

45 Then, without delay, he made his disciples board the boat and go on ahead to the opposite shore toward Beth·sa′i·da, while he himself sent the crowd away.[b] 46 But after saying good-bye to them, he went to a mountain to pray.[c] 47 When evening had fallen, the boat was in the middle of the sea, but he was alone on the land.[d] 48 So when he saw them struggling to row, for the wind was against them, about the fourth watch of the night* he came toward them, walking on the sea; but he was inclined to# pass them by. 49 On catching sight of him walking on the sea, they thought: "It is an apparition!" And they cried out. 50 For they all saw him and were troubled. But immediately he spoke to them and said: "Take courage! It is I; do not be afraid."[e] 51 Then he got up into the boat with them, and the wind abated. At this they were utterly amazed, 52 for they had not grasped the meaning of the loaves, but their hearts continued dull in understanding.

53 When they got across to land, they came to Gen·nes′a·ret and anchored the boat nearby.[f] 54 But as soon as they got out of the boat, people recognized him. 55 They ran around all that region and started to bring on stretchers those who were ailing to where they heard he was. 56 And wherever he would enter into villages or cities or the countryside, they would place the sick ones in the marketplaces, and they would plead with him that they might touch just the fringe of his outer garment.[a] And all those who touched it were made well.

7 Now the Pharisees and some of the scribes who had come from Jerusalem gathered around him.[b] 2 And they saw some of his disciples eat their meal with defiled hands, that is, unwashed ones.* 3 (For the Pharisees and all the Jews do not eat unless they wash their hands up to the elbow, clinging to the tradition of the men of former times, 4 and when they come from the market, they do not eat unless they wash themselves. There are many other traditions that they have received and cling to, such as baptisms of cups, pitchers, and copper vessels.)[c] 5 So these Pharisees and scribes asked him: "Why do your disciples not observe the tradition of the men of former times, but they eat their meal with defiled hands?"[d] 6 He said to them: "Isaiah aptly prophesied about you hypocrites, as it is written, 'This people honor me with their lips, but their hearts are far removed from me.[e] 7 It is in vain that they keep worshipping me, for they teach commands of men as doctrines.'[f] 8 You let go of the commandment of God and cling to the tradition of men."[g]

9 Further, he said to them: "You skillfully disregard the commandment of God in order to keep your tradition.[h] 10 For example, Moses said, 'Honor your father and your mother,'[i] and, 'Let the one who speaks abusively of* his father or mother be put to death.'[j] 11 But you say, 'If a man says to his father or his mother: "Whatever I have that could benefit you is corban (that is, a gift dedicated to God),"' 12 you no longer

let him do a single thing for his father or his mother.[a] 13 Thus you make the word of God invalid by your tradition that you have handed down.[b] And you do many things like this."[c] 14 So calling the crowd to him again, he said to them: "Listen to me, all of you, and understand the meaning.[d] 15 Nothing from outside a man that enters into him can defile him; but the things that come out of a man are the things that defile him."[e] 16 *—

17 Now when he had entered a house away from the crowd, his disciples began to question him about the illustration.[f] 18 So he said to them: "Are you also without understanding like them? Are you not aware that nothing from outside that enters into a man can defile him, 19 since it enters, not into his heart, but into his stomach, and it passes out into the sewer?" Thus he declared all foods clean. 20 Further, he said: "That which comes out of a man is what defiles him.[g] 21 For from inside, out of the heart of men,[h] come injurious reasonings, sexual immorality,* thefts, murders, 22 acts of adultery, greed, acts of wickedness, deceit, brazen conduct,* an envious eye, blasphemy, haughtiness, and unreasonableness. 23 All these wicked things come from within and defile a man."

heard about him and came and fell down at his feet.[a] 26 The woman was a Greek, a Sy·ro·phoe·ni'cian by nationality;* and she kept asking him to expel the demon from her daughter. 27 But he said to her: "First let the children be satisfied, for it is not right to take the bread of the children and throw it to the little dogs."[b] 28 But she replied to him: "Yes, sir, and yet even the little dogs underneath the table eat of the crumbs of the little children." 29 At that he said to her: "Because you said this, go; the demon has gone out of your daughter."[c] 30 So she went away to her home and found the young child lying on the bed, and the demon was gone.[d]

31 When Jesus returned from the region of Tyre, he went through Si'don to the Sea of Gal'i·lee, through the region of De·cap'o·lis.*[e] 32 Here they brought him a deaf man with a speech impediment,[f] and they pleaded with him to lay his hand on him. 33 And he took him aside privately, away from the crowd. Then he put his fingers into the man's ears, and after spitting, he touched his tongue.[g] 34 And looking up into heaven, he sighed deeply and said to him: "Eph'pha·tha," that is, "Be opened." 35 At this his ears were opened,[h] and his speech impediment was removed, and he began speaking normally. 36 With that he ordered them not to tell anyone,[i] but the more he would order them, the more they would proclaim it.[j] 37 Indeed, they were astounded beyond measure,[k] and they said: "He has done all things well. He even makes the deaf hear and the speechless speak."[l]

7:26 *Or "by birth." 7:31 *Or "the Ten City Region."

8 In those days, there was again a large crowd, and they had nothing to eat. So he summoned the disciples and said to them: 2 "I feel pity for the crowd,[a] because they have already stayed with me for three days and they have nothing to eat.[b] 3 If I send them off to their homes hungry,* they will give out on the road, and some of them are from far away." 4 But his disciples answered him: "From where will anyone get enough bread in this isolated place to satisfy these people?" 5 At this he asked them: "How many loaves do you have?" They said: "Seven."[c] 6 And he instructed the crowd to recline on the ground. Then he took the seven loaves, gave thanks, broke them, and began giving them to his disciples to serve, and they served them to the crowd.[d] 7 They also had a few small fish, and blessing these, he told them to serve these also. 8 So they ate and were satisfied, and they took up seven large baskets* full of leftover fragments.[e] 9 Now there were about 4,000 men. Then he sent them away.

10 Immediately he boarded the boat with his disciples and came into the region of Dal·manu'tha.[f] 11 Here the Pharisees came and started disputing with him, demanding from him a sign from heaven, to put him to the test.[g] 12 So he sighed deeply in his spirit and said: "Why does this generation seek a sign?[h] Truly I say, no sign will be given to this generation."[i] 13 With that he left them, got aboard again, and went to the opposite shore.

14 However, they forgot to take bread along, and they had nothing with them in the boat except for one loaf.[a] 15 And he warned them in no uncertain terms: "Keep your eyes open; look out for the leaven of the Pharisees and the leaven of Herod."[b] 16 So they began arguing with one another over the fact that they had no bread. 17 Noting this, he said to them: "Why do you argue over your having no bread? Do you not yet perceive and understand? Are your hearts still dull in understanding? 18 'Though having eyes, do you not see; and though having ears, do you not hear?' Do you not remember 19 when I broke the five loaves[c] for the 5,000 men, how many baskets full of fragments you collected?" They said to him: "Twelve."[d] 20 "When I broke the seven loaves for the 4,000 men, how many large baskets* full of fragments did you take up?" And they said to him: "Seven."[e] 21 With that he said to them: "Do you not yet understand?"

22 Now they put in at Bethsa'i·da. Here people brought him a blind man, and they pleaded with him to touch him.[f] 23 And he took the blind man by the hand and brought him outside the village. After spitting on his eyes,[g] he laid his hands on him and asked him: "Do you see anything?" 24 The man looked up and said: "I see people, but they look like trees walking about." 25 Again he laid his hands on the man's eyes, and the man saw clearly. His sight was restored, and he could see everything distinctly. 26 So he sent him home, saying: "Do not enter into the village."

27 Jesus and his disciples now left for the villages of Caesa·re'a Phi·lip'pi, and on the way he began to question his disciples, saying: "Who are people saying that I am?"[h] 28 They said to him: "John the Baptist,[i] but others say E·li′jah,[a] and still others, one of the prophets.” 29 And he put the question to them: “You, though, who do you say I am?” Peter answered him: “You are the Christ.”[b] 30 At that he strictly ordered them not to tell anyone about him.[c] 31 Also, he began teaching them that the Son of man must undergo many sufferings and be rejected by the elders and the chief priests and the scribes and be killed,[d] and rise three days later.[e] 32 Indeed, he was making that statement openly. But Peter took him aside and began to rebuke him.[f] 33 At this he turned, looked at his disciples, and rebuked Peter, saying: “Get behind me, Satan! because you think, not God’s thoughts, but those of men.”[g]

34 He now called the crowd to him with his disciples and said to them: “If anyone wants to come after me, let him disown himself and pick up his torture stake* and keep following me.[h] 35 For whoever wants to save his life* will lose it, but whoever loses his life* for my sake and for the sake of the good news will save it.[i] 36 Really, what good will it do a man to gain the whole world and to lose his life?[j] 37 What, really, would a man give in exchange for his life?[k] 38 For whoever becomes ashamed of me and my words in this adulterous* and sinful generation, the Son of man will also be ashamed of him[l] when he comes in the glory of his Father with the holy angels.”[m]

9 Furthermore, he said to them: “Truly I say to you that there are some of those standing here who will not taste death at all until first they see the Kingdom of God already having come in power.”[n] 2 Six days later Jesus took Peter and James and John along and led them up into a lofty mountain by themselves. And he was transfigured before them;[a] 3 his outer garments began to glisten, becoming far whiter than any clothes cleaner on earth could whiten them. 4 Also, E·li′jah with Moses appeared to them, and they were conversing with Jesus. 5 Then Peter said to Jesus: “Rabbi, it is fine for us to be here. So let us erect three tents, one for you, one for Moses, and one for E·li′jah.” 6 In fact, he did not know how to react, for they were quite fearful. 7 And a cloud formed, overshadowing them, and a voice[b] came out of the cloud: “This is my Son, the beloved.[c] Listen to him.”[d] 8 Then suddenly they looked around and saw that no one was with them any longer except Jesus.

9 As they were coming down from the mountain, he strictly ordered them not to relate to anybody what they had seen[e] until after the Son of man had risen from the dead.[f] 10 They took the word to heart,* but discussed among themselves what this rising from the dead meant. 11 And they began to question him, saying: “Why do the scribes say that E·li′jah[g] must come first?”[h] 12 He said to them: “E·li′jah does come first and restore all things;[i] but how is it that it is written about the Son of man that he must undergo many sufferings[j] and be treated with contempt?[k] 13 But I say to you that E·li′jah,[l] in fact, has come, and they did to him whatever they wanted, just as it is written about him.”[m] and there were scribes arguing with them.[a] 15 But as soon as all the crowd caught sight of him, they were astonished, and they ran up to him to greet him. 16 So he asked them: "What are you arguing about with them?" 17 And one of the crowd answered him: "Teacher, I brought my son to you because he has a speechless spirit.[b] 18 Wherever it seizes him, it throws him to the ground, and he foams at the mouth and grinds his teeth and loses his strength. I asked your disciples to expel it, but they were not able to do so." 19 In response he said to them: "O faithless generation,[c] how long must I continue with you? How long must I put up with you? Bring him to me."[d] 20 So they brought the boy to him, but at the sight of him, the spirit at once threw the child into convulsions. After falling on the ground, he kept rolling about, foaming at the mouth. 21 Then Jesus asked the father: "How long has this been happening to him?" He said: "From childhood on, 22 and often it would throw him into the fire and also into the water to destroy him. But if you can do anything, have pity on us and help us." 23 Jesus said to him: "That expression, 'If you can'! Why, all things are possible for the one who has faith."[e] 24 Immediately the child's father cried out and said: "I have faith! Help me out where I need faith!"[f]

25 Jesus, now noticing that a crowd was rushing toward them, rebuked the unclean spirit, saying to it: "You speechless and deaf spirit, I order you, get out of him and do not enter into him again!"[g] 26 After crying out and going through many convulsions, it came out, and the child seemed to be dead, so that most of the people were saying: "He is dead!" 27 But Jesus took him by the hand and raised him up, and he stood up. 28 So after he entered into a house, his disciples asked him privately: "Why could we not expel it?"[a] 29 He said to them: "This kind can come out only by prayer."

30 They departed from there and went through Gal'i·lee, but he did not want anyone to get to know about it. 31 For he was teaching his disciples and telling them: "The Son of man is going to be betrayed into men's hands, and they will kill him,[b] but despite being killed, he will rise three days later."[c] 32 However, they did not understand his statement, and they were afraid to question him.

33 And they came into Caper'na·um. Now when he was inside the house, he put the question to them: "What were you arguing about on the road?"[d] 34 They kept silent, for on the road they had been arguing among themselves about who is greater. 35 So he sat down and called the Twelve and said to them: "If anyone wants to be first, he must be last of all and minister of all."[e] 36 Then he took a young child and stood him in their midst; and putting his arms around him, he said to them: 37 "Whoever receives one of such young children[f] on the basis of my name receives me also; and whoever receives me receives not me only but also Him who sent me."[g]

38 John said to him: "Teacher, we saw someone expelling demons by using your name, and we tried to prevent him, because he was not following us."[h] 39 But Jesus said: "Do not try to prevent him, for there is no one who will do a powerful work on the basis of my name who will quickly be able to say anything bad about me. 40 For whoever is not against us is for us.[a] 41 And whoever gives you a cup of water to drink because you belong to Christ,[b] I tell you truly, he will by no means lose his reward.[c] 42 But whoever stumbles one of these little ones who have faith, it would be better for him if a millstone that is turned by a donkey were put around his neck and he were pitched into the sea.[d]

49 "For everyone must be salted with fire.[j] 50 Salt is fine, but if the salt ever loses its saltiness, with what will you season it?[k] Have salt in yourselves,[l] and keep peace with one another."[m]

10 From there he got up and came to the borders* of Ju·de′a across the Jordan, and again crowds gathered to him. As he was accustomed to do, he again began teaching them.[n] 2 And Pharisees approached, intent on testing him, and they asked whether it was lawful for a man to divorce a wife.[o] 3 He answered them: "What did Moses command you?" 4 They said: "Moses allowed the writing of a certificate of dismissal and divorcing her."[a] 5 But Jesus said to them: "Out of regard for your hard-heartedness,[b] he wrote this commandment for you.[c] 6 However, from the beginning of creation, 'He made them male and female.[d] 7 For this reason a man will leave his father and his mother,[e] 8 and the two will be one flesh,'[f] so that they are no longer two, but one flesh. 9 Therefore, what God has yoked together, let no man put apart."[g] 10 When they were again in the house, the disciples began to question him about this. 11 He said to them: "Whoever divorces his wife and marries another commits adultery[h] against her, 12 and if ever a woman after divorcing her husband marries another, she commits adultery."[i]

13 People now began bringing him young children for him to touch them, but the disciples reprimanded them.[j] 14 At seeing this, Jesus was indignant and said to them: "Let the young children come to me; do not try to stop them, for the Kingdom of God belongs to such ones.[k] 15 Truly I say to you, whoever does not receive the Kingdom of God like a young child will by no means enter into it."[l] 16 And he took the children into his arms and began blessing them, laying his hands on them.[m]

17 As he was going on his way, a man ran up and fell on his knees before him and put the question to him: "Good Teacher, what must I do to inherit everlasting life?"[n] 18 Jesus said to him: "Why do you call me good? Nobody is good except one, God.[o] 19 You know the commandments: 'Do not murder,[p] do not commit adultery,[q] do not steal,[r] do not bear false witness,[s] do not defraud,[t] honor

32 Now they were going on the road up to Jerusalem, and Jesus was going ahead of them, and they were astonished, but those who followed began to fear. We are going up to Jerusalem, and the Son of man will be handed over to the chief priests and the scribes. They will condemn him to death and hand him over to men of the nations, 34 and these will mock him and spit on him and scourge him and kill him, but three days later he will rise."[b]

35 James and John, the sons of Zeb′e·dee,[c] approached him and said to him: "Teacher, we want you to do for us whatever we ask of you."[d] 36 He said to them: "What do you want me to do for you?" 37 They replied: "Grant us to sit down, one at your right hand and one at your left, in your glory."[e] 38 But Jesus said to them: "You do not know what you are asking for. Can you drink the cup that I am drinking or be baptized with the baptism with which I am being baptized?"[f] 39 They said to him: "We can." At that Jesus said to them: "The cup I am drinking, you will drink, and with the baptism with which I am being baptized, you will be baptized.[g] 40 However, to sit down at my right hand or at my left is not mine to give, but it belongs to those for whom it has been prepared."

41 When the ten others heard about it, they became indignant at James and John.[h] 42 But Jesus called them to him and said to them: "You know that those who appear to be* ruling the nations lord it over them and their great ones wield authority over them.[a] 43 This must not be the way among you; but whoever wants to become great among you must be your minister,[b] 44 and whoever wants to be first among you must be the slave of all. 45 For even the Son of man came, not to be ministered to, but to minister[c] and to give his life* as a ransom in exchange for many."[d]

46 They then came into Jer·i·cho. But as he and his disciples and a considerable crowd were going out of Jer·i·cho, Bar·ti·mae·us (the son of Ti·mae·us), a blind beggar, was sitting beside the road.[e] 47 When he heard that it was Jesus the Naz·a·rene', he started shouting and saying: "Son of David,[f] Jesus, have mercy on me!"[g] 48 At this many began rebuking him, telling him to be silent, but all the more he kept shouting: "Son of David, have mercy on me!" 49 So Jesus stopped and said: "Call him to me." So they called the blind man, saying to him: "Take courage! Get up; he is calling you." 50 Throwing off his outer garment, he leaped to his feet and went to Jesus. 51 Then Jesus said to him: "What do you want me to do for you?" The blind man said to him: "Rab·bo'·ni,* let me recover my sight." 52 And Jesus said to him: "Go. Your faith has made you well."[h] And immediately he recovered his sight,[i] and he began to follow him on the road.

11 Now when they were getting near to Jerusalem, to Beth'pha·ge and Beth'a·ny[j] at the Mount of Olives, he sent two of his disciples[k] 2 and told them: "Go into the village that is within sight, and as soon as you enter it, you will find a colt tied on which no man has sat until now. Untie it and bring it here. 3 And if anyone says to you, 'Why are you doing this?' say, 'The Lord needs it and will send it back here right away.'" 4 So they went away and found the colt tied at a door, outside on the side street, and they untied it.[a] 5 But some of those standing there said to them: "What are you doing untying the colt?" 6 They told them just what Jesus had said, and they let them go.

7 And they brought the colt[b] to Jesus, and they put their outer garments on it, and he sat on it.[c] 8 Also, many spread their outer garments on the road, but others cut down foliage from the fields.[d] 9 And those going in front and those coming behind kept shouting: "Save, we pray![e] Blessed is the one who comes in Jehovah's* name![f] 10 Blessed is the coming Kingdom of our father David![g] Save, we pray, in the heights above!" 11 And he entered Jerusalem and went into the temple, and he looked around at everything, but since the hour was already late, he went out to Beth'a·ny with the Twelve.[h]

12 The next day when they were leaving Beth'a·ny, he felt hungry.[i] 13 From a distance he caught sight of a fig tree that had leaves, and he went to see whether he could find something on it. But on coming to it, he found nothing but leaves, for it was not the season for figs. 14 So he said to it: "Let no one eat fruit from you ever again."[j] And his disciples were listening.

15 They now came to Jerusalem. There he entered the temple and started to throw out those selling and buying in the temple, and he overturned the tables of the money changers and the benches of those selling doves,[a] 16 and he would not let anyone carry a utensil through the temple. 17 He was teaching and saying to them: "Is it not written, 'My house will be called a house of prayer for all the nations'?[b] But you have made it a cave of robbers."[c] 18 And the chief priests and the scribes heard it, and they began to seek how to kill him;[d] for they were in fear of him, because all the crowd was astounded at his teaching.[e]

19 When it became late in the day, they went out of the city. 20 But when they were passing by early in the morning, they saw the fig tree already withered from its roots.[f] 21 Peter, remembering it, said to him: "Rabbi, see! the fig tree that you cursed has withered."[g] 22 In reply Jesus said to them: "Have faith in God. 23 Truly I say to you that whoever tells this mountain, 'Be lifted up and thrown into the sea,' and does not doubt in his heart but has faith that what he says is going to happen, he will have it happen.[h] 24 This is why I tell you, all the things you pray and ask for, have faith that you have received them, and you will have them.[i] 25 And when you stand praying, forgive whatever you have against anyone, so that your Father who is in the heavens may also forgive you your trespasses."[j] 26 *—

27 They came again to Jerusalem. And as he was walking in the temple, the chief priests and the scribes and the elders came 28 and said to him: "By what authority do you do these things? Or who gave you this authority to do these things?"[k] 29 Jesus said to them: "I will ask you one question. Answer me, and I will tell you by what authority I do these things. 30 Was the baptism by John[a] from heaven or from men?* Answer me."[b] 31 So they began to reason among themselves, saying: "If we say, 'From heaven,' he will say, 'Why, then, did you not believe him?' 32 But dare we say, 'From men'?" They were in fear of the crowd, for these all held that John had really been a prophet.[c] 33 So they answered Jesus: "We do not know." Jesus said to them: "Neither am I telling you by what authority I do these things."

12 Then he started to speak to them with illustrations: "A man planted a vineyard[d] and put a fence around it and dug a vat for the winepress and erected a tower;[e] then he leased it to cultivators and traveled abroad.[f] 2 In due season he sent a slave to the cultivators to collect some of the fruits of the vineyard from them. 3 But they took him, beat him, and sent him away empty-handed. 4 Again he sent another slave to them, and that one they struck on the head and dishonored.[g] 5 And he sent another, and that one they killed, and many others, some of whom they beat and some of whom they killed. 6 One more he had, a beloved son.[h] He sent him to them last, saying, 'They will respect my son.' 7 But those cultivators said among themselves, 'This is the heir.[i] Come, let us kill him, and the inheritance will be ours.' 8 So they took him and killed him and threw him out of the vineyard.[j] 9 What will the owner of the vineyard do? He will come and kill the cultivators and will give the vineyard to others.[k] 10 Did you never read this scripture: 'The stone that the builders rejected, this has become the chief cornerstone.[a] 11 This has come from Jehovah, and it is marvelous in our eyes'?"[b]

12 At that they wanted to seize* him, but they feared the crowd, for they knew that he spoke the illustration with them in mind. So they left him and went away.[c]

13 Next they sent to him some of the Pharisees and of the party followers of Herod in order to catch him in his speech.[d] 14 On arriving, these said to him: "Teacher, we know you are truthful and you do not seek anyone's favor, for you do not look at the outward appearance of people, but you teach the way of God in line with truth. Is it lawful* to pay head tax to Caesar or not? 15 Should we pay, or should we not pay?" Detecting their hypocrisy, he said to them: "Why do you put me to the test? Bring me a de·nar'i·us* to look at." 16 They brought one, and he said to them: "Whose image and inscription is this?" They said to him: "Caesar's." 17 Jesus then said: "Pay back Caesar's things to Caesar,[e] but God's things to God."[f] And they were amazed at him.

18 Now the Sadducees, who say there is no resurrection,[g] came and asked him:[h] 19 "Teacher, Moses wrote us that if someone's brother dies and leaves a wife behind but does not leave a child, his brother should take the wife and raise up offspring for his brother.[i] 20 There were seven brothers. The first took a wife, but when he died he left no offspring. 21 And the second married her but died without leaving offspring, and the third the same way. 22 And all seven left no offspring. Last of all, the woman also died. 23 In the resurrection, whose wife will she be? For the seven had her as a wife." 24 Jesus said to them: "Is not this why you are mistaken, because you know neither the Scriptures nor the power of God?[a] 25 For when they rise from the dead, neither do men marry nor are women given in marriage, but they are as angels in the heavens.[b] 26 But concerning the dead being raised up, have you not read in the book of Moses, in the account about the thornbush, that God said to him: 'I am the God of Abraham and God of Isaac and God of Jacob'?[c] 27 He is a God, not of the dead, but of the living. You are very much mistaken."[d]

28 One of the scribes who had come up and heard them disputing, knowing that he had answered them in a fine way, asked him: "Which commandment is first* of all?"[e] 29 Jesus answered: "The first is, 'Hear, O Israel, Jehovah* our God is one Jehovah,* 30 and you must love Jehovah* your God with your whole heart and with your whole soul# and with your whole mind and with your whole strength.'[f] 31 The second is this, 'You must love your neighbor as yourself.'[g] There is no other commandment greater than these." 32 The scribe said to him: "Teacher, you spoke well, in line with truth, 'He is One, and there is no other besides him';[h] 33 and to love him with one's whole heart, with one's whole understanding, and with one's whole strength and to love one's neighbor as oneself is worth far more than all the whole burnt offerings and sacrifices."[a] 34 At this Jesus, discerning that he had answered intelligently, said to him: "You are not far from the Kingdom of God." But no one had the courage to question him anymore.[b]

35 However, as Jesus continued teaching in the temple, he said: "How is it that the scribes say that the Christ is David's son?[c] 36 By the holy spirit,[d] David himself said, 'Jehovah* said to my Lord: "Sit at my right hand until I put your enemies beneath your feet."'[e] 37 David himself calls him Lord, so how can it be that he is his son?"[f]

And the large crowd was listening to him with pleasure. 38 And in his teaching he went on to say: "Beware of the scribes who want to walk around in robes and want greetings in the marketplaces[g] 39 and front* seats in the synagogues and the most prominent places at evening meals.[h] 40 They devour the houses* of the widows, and for show# they make long prayers. These will receive a more severe^ judgment."

41 And he sat down with the treasury chests*[i] in view and began observing how the crowd was dropping money into the treasury chests, and many rich people were dropping in many coins.[j] 42 Now a poor widow came and dropped in two small coins of very little value.[k] 43 So he called his disciples to him and said to them: "Truly I say to you that this poor widow put in more than all the others who put money into the treasury chests.[a] 44 For they all put in out of their surplus, but she, out of her want, put in everything she had, all she had to live on."[b]

13 As he was going out of the temple, one of his disciples said to him: "Teacher, see! what wonderful stones and buildings!"[c] 2 However, Jesus said to him: "Do you see these great buildings? By no means will a stone be left here upon a stone and not be thrown down."[d]

3 As he was sitting on the Mount of Olives with the temple in view, Peter, James, John, and Andrew asked him privately: 4 "Tell us, when will these things be, and what will be the sign when all these things are to come to a conclusion?"[e] 5 So Jesus began to tell them: "Look out that nobody misleads you.[f] 6 Many will come on the basis of my name, saying, 'I am he,' and will mislead many. 7 Moreover, when you hear of wars and reports of wars, do not be alarmed; these things must take place, but the end is not yet.[g]

8 "For nation will rise against nation and kingdom against kingdom;[h] there will be earthquakes in one place after another; there will also be food shortages.[i] These are a beginning of pangs of distress.[j]

9 "As for you, look out for yourselves. People will hand you over to local courts,[k] and you will be beaten in synagogues[l] and be put on the stand before governors and kings for my sake, for a witness to them.[m] 10 Also, in all the nations, the good news has to be preached first.[n] 11 And when they are taking you to hand you over, do not be anxious beforehand about what to say; but whatever is given you in that hour, say this, for you are not the ones speaking, but the holy spirit is.[a] 12 Furthermore, brother will deliver brother over to death, and a father a child, and children will rise up against parents and have them put to death.[b] 13 And you will be hated by all people on account of my name.[c] But the one who has endured* to the end[d] will be saved.[e]

14 "However, when you catch sight of the disgusting thing that causes desolation[f] standing where it should not be (let the reader use discernment), then let those in Ju·de'a begin fleeing to the mountains.[g] 15 Let the man on the housetop not come down nor go inside to take anything out of his house; 16 and let the man in the field not return to the things behind to pick up his outer garment. 17 Woe to the pregnant women and those nursing a baby in those days![h] 18 Keep praying that it may not occur in wintertime; 19 for those days will be days of a tribulation[i] such as has not occurred from the beginning of the creation that God created until that time, and will not occur again.[j] 20 In fact, unless Jehovah* had cut short the days, no flesh would be saved. But on account of the chosen ones whom he has chosen, he has cut short the days.[k]

21 "Then, too, if anyone says to you, 'See! Here is the Christ,' or, 'See! There he is,' do not believe it.[l] 22 For false Christs and false prophets will arise[m] and will perform signs and wonders to lead astray, if possible, the chosen ones. 23 You, then, watch out.[n] I have told you all things beforehand.

24 "But in those days, after that tribulation, the sun will be darkened, and the moon will not give its light,[a] 25 and the stars will be falling out of heaven, and the powers that are in the heavens will be shaken. 26 And then they will see the Son of man[b] coming in the clouds with great power and glory.[c] 27 And then he will send out the angels and will gather his chosen ones together from the four winds, from earth's extremity to heaven's extremity.[d]

28 "Now learn this illustration from the fig tree: Just as soon as its young branch grows tender and sprouts its leaves, you know that summer is near.[e] 29 Likewise also you, when you see these things happening, know that he is near at the doors.[f] 30 Truly I say to you that this generation will by no means pass away until all these things happen.[g] 31 Heaven and earth will pass away,[h] but my words will by no means pass away.[i]

32 "Concerning that day or the hour nobody knows, neither the angels in heaven nor the Son, but the Father.[j] 33 Keep looking, keep awake,[k] for you do not know when the appointed time is.[l] 34 It is like a man traveling abroad who left his house and gave the authority to his slaves,[m] to each one his work, and commanded the doorkeeper to keep on the watch.[n] 35 Keep on the watch, therefore, for you do not know when the master of the house is coming,[o] whether late in the day or at midnight or at dawn* or early in the morning,[p] 36 in order that when he comes suddenly, he does not find you sleeping.[q] 37 But what I say to you, I say to all: Keep on the watch."[r] were looking for a way to seize* him by cunning# and kill him;[a] 2 for they were saying: "Not at the festival; perhaps there might be an uproar of the people."

3 And while he was at Beth'any dining* in the house of Simon the leper, a woman came with an alabaster jar of perfumed oil, genuine nard, very expensive. She broke open the alabaster jar and began pouring it on his head.[b] 4 At this some said to one another indignantly: "Why has this perfumed oil been wasted? 5 For this perfumed oil could have been sold for more than 300 de·nar'i·i* and the money given to the poor!" And they were greatly annoyed with# her. 6 But Jesus said: "Let her alone. Why do you try to make trouble for her? She did a fine deed toward me.[c] 7 For you always have the poor with you,[d] and you can do them good whenever you want to, but you will not always have me.[e] 8 She did what she could; she poured perfumed oil on my body beforehand, in view of the burial.[f] 9 Truly I say to you, wherever the good news is preached in all the world,[g] what this woman did will also be told in memory of her."[h]

10 And Judas Is·car'i·ot, one of the Twelve, went off to the chief priests in order to betray him to them.[i] 11 When they heard it, they were delighted and promised to give him silver money.[j] So he began seeking an opportunity to betray him.

12 Now on the first day of the Unleavened Bread,[k] when they customarily offered up the Passover sacrifice,[l] his disciples said to him: "Where do you want us to go and prepare for you to eat the Passover?"[a] 13 With that he sent two of his disciples and said to them: "Go into the city, and a man carrying an earthenware water jar will meet you. Follow him,[b] 14 and wherever he goes inside, say to the master of the house, 'The Teacher says: "Where is the guest room where I may eat the Passover with my disciples?"' 15 And he will show you a large upper room, furnished and ready. Prepare it for us there." 16 So the disciples went out, and they entered the city and found it just as he said to them, and they prepared for the Passover.

17 After evening had fallen, he came with the Twelve.[c] 18 And as they were reclining at the table and eating, Jesus said: "Truly I say to you, one of you who is eating with me will betray me."[d] 19 They began to be grieved and to say to him one by one: "It is not I, is it?" 20 He said to them: "It is one of the Twelve, the one dipping with me into the bowl.[e] 21 For the Son of man is going away, just as it is written about him, but woe to that man through whom the Son of man is betrayed![f] It would have been better for that man if he had not been born."[g]

22 And as they continued eating, he took a loaf, said a blessing, broke it, and gave it to them, saying: "Take it; this means my body."[h] 23 And taking a cup, he offered thanks and gave it to them, and they all drank out of it.[i] 24 And he said to them: "This means my 'blood[j] of the covenant,'[k] which is to be poured out in behalf of many.[l] 25 Truly I say to you, I will by no means drink anymore of the product of the vine until that day when I drink it new in the Kingdom of God." 26 Finally, after singing praises,* they went out to the Mount of Olives.[a]

27 And Jesus said to them: "You will all be stumbled, for it is written: 'I will strike the shepherd,[b] and the sheep will be scattered about.'[c] 28 But after I have been raised up, I will go ahead of you into Gal·i·lee."[d] 29 But Peter said to him: "Even if all the others are stumbled, I will not be."[e] 30 At that Jesus said to him: "Truly I say to you that today, yes, on this very night, before a rooster crows twice, you will disown me three times."[f] 31 But he kept insisting: "If I have to die with you, I will by no means disown you." Also, all the others began to say the same thing.[g]

32 So they came to a spot named Geth·sem′a·ne, and he said to his disciples: "Sit down here while I pray."[h] 33 And he took Peter and James and John along with him,[i] and he began to feel deeply distressed* and to be greatly troubled. 34 He said to them: "I am* deeply grieved,[j] even to death. Stay here and keep on the watch."[k] 35 And going a little way forward, he fell to the ground and began praying that, if it were possible, the hour might pass away from him. 36 And he said: "Abba,* Father,[l] all things are possible for you; remove this cup from me. Yet, not what I want, but what you want."[m] 37 He returned and found them sleeping, and he said to Peter: "Simon, are you sleeping? Did you not have the strength to keep on the watch for one hour?[n] 38 Keep on the watch and pray continually, so that you do not come into temptation.[o] The spirit, of course, is eager,* but the flesh is weak."[a] 39 And he went away again and prayed, saying the same thing.[b] 40 And he came again and found them sleeping, for their eyes were weighed down, so they did not know what to answer him. 41 And he returned the third time and said to them: "At such a time as this, you are sleeping and resting! It is enough! The hour has come![c] Look! The Son of man is being betrayed into the hands of sinners. 42 Get up, let us go. Look! My betrayer has drawn near."[d]

43 And immediately, while he was still speaking, Judas, one of the Twelve, arrived and with him a crowd with swords and clubs, sent from the chief priests and the scribes and the elders.[e] 44 Now his betrayer had given them an agreed sign, saying: "Whoever it is I kiss, he is the one; take him into custody, and lead him away under guard." 45 And he came straight up and approached him and said, "Rabbi!" and gave him a tender kiss. 46 So they seized him and took him into custody. 47 However, one of those standing by drew his sword and struck the slave of the high priest, taking off his ear.[f] 48 But in response Jesus said to them: "Did you come out to arrest me with swords and clubs as against a robber?[g] 49 Day after day I was with you in the temple teaching,[h] and yet you did not take me into custody. Nevertheless, this is to fulfill the Scriptures."[i]

50 And they all abandoned him and fled.[j] 51 However, a certain young man wearing only a fine linen garment over his naked body began to follow him nearby, and they tried to seize him, 52 but he left his linen garment behind and got away naked.*

53 They now led Jesus away to the high priest,[a] and all the chief priests and the elders and the scribes assembled.[b] 54 But Peter, from a good distance, followed him as far as into the courtyard of the high priest; and he was sitting together with the house attendants and warming himself before a bright fire.[c] 55 Now the chief priests and the entire San′he·drin were looking for testimony against Jesus in order to put him to death, but they were not finding any.[d] 56 Many, indeed, were giving false witness against him,[e] but their testimonies were not in agreement. 57 Also, certain ones were standing up and bearing false witness against him, saying: 58 "We heard him say, 'I will throw down this temple that was made with hands, and in three days I will build another not made with hands.'"[f] 59 But even on these grounds, their testimony was not in agreement.

60 Then the high priest stood up in their midst and questioned Jesus, saying: "Do you say nothing in reply? What is it these men are testifying against you?"[g] 61 But he kept silent and made no reply at all.[h] Again the high priest began to question him and said to him: "Are you the Christ the Son of the Blessed One?" 62 Then Jesus said: "I am; and you will see the Son of man[i] sitting at the right hand[j] of power and coming with the clouds of heaven."[k] 63 At this the high priest ripped his garments and said: "What further need do we have of witnesses?[l] 64 You heard the blasphemy. What is your decision?"* They all condemned him as deserving of death.[a] 65 And some started to spit on him[b] and to cover his face and hit him with their fists and say to him: "Prophesy!" And slapping him in the face, the court attendants took him.[c]

66 Now while Peter was below in the courtyard, one of the servant girls of the high priest came.[d] 67 On seeing Peter warming himself, she looked straight at him and said: "You too were with the Naz·a·rene′, this Jesus." 68 But he denied it, saying: "Neither do I know him nor do I understand what you are talking about," and he went outside to the entryway.* 69 There the servant girl saw him and again began to say to those standing by: "This is one of them." 70 Again he was denying it. And after a little while, those standing by again began saying to Peter: "Certainly you are one of them, for you are, in fact, a Gal·i·le′an." 71 But he started to curse and swear: "I do not know this man of whom you speak!" 72 Immediately a rooster crowed a second time,[e] and Peter recalled what Jesus had said to him: "Before a rooster crows twice, you will disown me three times."[f] And he broke down and began to weep.

15 Immediately at dawn, the chief priests with the elders and the scribes, indeed, the whole San′he·drin, consulted together, and they bound Jesus and led him off and handed him over to Pilate.[g] 2 So Pilate put the question to him: "Are you the King of the Jews?"[h] In answer he said: "You yourself say it."[i] 3 But the chief priests were accusing him of many things. 4 Now Pilate began questioning him again, saying: "Have you no reply to make?[j] See how many charges they are bringing against you."[a] 5 But Jesus made no further answer, so that Pilate was amazed.[b]

6 Well, from festival to festival, he used to release to them one prisoner whom they requested.[c] 7 At the time the man named Bar·ab′bas was in prison with the seditionists, who in their sedition had committed murder. 8 So the crowd came up and began to make their request according to what Pilate used to do for them. 9 He responded to them, saying: "Do you want me to release to you the King of the Jews?"[d] 10 For Pilate was aware that out of envy the chief priests had handed him over.[e] 11 But the chief priests stirred up the crowd to have him release Bar·ab′bas to them instead.[f] 12 Again in reply Pilate said to them: "What, then, should I do with the one you call the King of the Jews?"[g] 13 Once more they cried out: "To the stake with him!"[h] 14 But Pilate went on to say to them: "Why? What bad thing did he do?" Still they cried out all the more: "To the stake with him!"[i] 15 At that Pilate, wishing to satisfy the crowd, released Bar·ab′bas to them; and after having Jesus whipped,[j] he handed him over to be executed on the stake.[k]

16 The soldiers now led him off into the courtyard, that is, into the governor's residence, and they called the whole body of troops together.[l] 17 And they dressed him in purple and braided a crown of thorns and put it on him; 18 and they began to call out to him: "Greetings,* you King of the Jews!"[m] 19 Also, they were hitting him on the head with a reed and spitting on him, and they got on their knees and bowed down* to him. 20 Finally, after they had mocked him, they stripped him of the purple and put his outer garments on him. And they led him out to nail him to the stake.[a] 21 Also, they compelled into service a passerby, a certain Simon of Cy·re′ne, coming from the countryside, the father of Alexander and Ru′fus, to carry his torture stake.*[b]

22 So they brought him to the place called Gol′go·tha, which means, when translated, "Skull Place."[c] 23 Here they tried to give him wine drugged with myrrh,[d] but he would not take it. 24 And they nailed him to the stake and distributed his outer garments by casting lots over them to decide who would take what.[e] 25 It was now the third hour,* and they nailed him to the stake. 26 And the inscription of the charge against him was written: "The King of the Jews."[f] 27 Moreover, they put two robbers on stakes alongside him, one on his right and one on his left.[g] 28 — 29 And those passing by spoke abusively to him, shaking their heads[h] and saying: "Ha! You who would throw down the temple and build it in three days,[i] 30 save yourself by coming down off the torture stake." 31 In the same way also, the chief priests with the scribes were mocking him among themselves, saying: "Others he saved; himself he cannot save![j] 32 Let the Christ, the King of Israel, now come down off the torture stake,* so that we may see and believe."[k] Even those who were on stakes alongside him were reproaching him.[l]

33 When it became the sixth hour,* a darkness fell over all the land until the ninth hour.#[a] 34 And at the ninth hour, Jesus called out with a loud voice: "E'li, E'li, la'ma sa·bach·tha'ni?" which means, when translated: "My God, my God, why have you forsaken me?"[b] 35 And some of those standing near, on hearing it, began to say: "See! He is calling E·li'jah." 36 Then someone ran, soaked a sponge in sour wine, put it on a reed, and gave it to him to drink,[c] saying: "Let him be! Let us see whether E·li'jah comes to take him down." 37 But Jesus let out a loud cry and expired.*[d] 38 And the curtain of the sanctuary[e] was torn in two from top to bottom.[f] 39 Now when the army officer who was standing by with him in view saw that he had expired under these circumstances, he said: "Certainly this man was God's Son."[g]

40 There were also women watching from a distance, among them Mary Mag'da·lene as well as Mary the mother of James the Less and of Jo'ses, and Sa·lo'me,[h] 41 who used to accompany him and minister to him[i] when he was in Gal'i·lee, and many other women who had come up together with him to Jerusalem.

42 Now as it was already late in the afternoon, and since it was Preparation, that is, the day before the Sabbath, 43 there came Joseph of Ar·i·ma·the'a, a reputable member of the Council, who also himself was waiting for the Kingdom of God. He took courage and went in before Pilate and asked for the body of Jesus.[j] 44 But Pilate wondered whether he could already be dead, and summoning the army officer, he asked him whether Jesus had already died. 45 So after making certain from the army officer, he granted the body to Joseph. 46 After he bought fine linen and took him down, he wrapped him in the fine linen and laid him in a tomb*[a] that was quarried out of rock; then he rolled a stone up to the entrance of the tomb.[b] 47 But Mary Mag'da·lene and Mary the mother of Jo'ses continued looking at where he had been laid.[c]

16 So when the Sabbath[d] was over, Mary Mag'da·lene, Mary[e] the mother of James, and Sa·lo'me bought spices in order to come and apply them to his body.[f] 2 And very early on the first day of the week when the sun had risen, they came to the tomb.[g] 3 They were saying to one another: "Who will roll the stone away from the entrance of the tomb for us?" 4 But when they looked up, they saw that the stone had been rolled away, although it was very large.[h] 5 When they entered into the tomb, they saw a young man sitting on the right side, clothed in a white robe, and they were stunned. 6 He said to them: "Do not be stunned.[i] You are looking for Jesus the Naz·a·rene' who was executed on the stake. He was raised up.[j] He is not here. Look, here is the place where they laid him.[k] 7 But go, tell his disciples and Peter, 'He is going ahead of you into Gal'i·lee.[l] You will see him there, just as he told you.'"[m] 8 So when they came out, they fled from the tomb, trembling and overwhelmed with emotion. And they said nothing to anyone, for they were in fear.[n]

1 Seeing that many have undertaken to compile an account of the facts that are given full credence* among us,[a] 2 just as these were handed down to us by those who from the beginning were eyewitnesses[b] and attendants of the message,[c] 3 I resolved also, because I have traced all things from the start with accuracy, to write them to you in logical order, most excellent The·oph′i·lus,[d] 4 so that you may know fully the certainty of the things that you have been taught orally.[e]

5 In the days of Herod,[f] king of Ju·de′a, there was a priest named Zech·a·ri′ah of the division of A·bi′jah.[g] His wife was from the daughters of Aaron, and her name was Elizabeth. 6 They both were righteous before God, walking blamelessly in accord with all the commandments and legal requirements of Jehovah. 7 But they had no child, because Elizabeth was barren, and they both were well along in years.

8 Now as he was serving as priest in the assignment of his division[h] before God, 9 according to the established practice# of the priesthood it became his turn to offer incense[i] when he entered into the sanctuary of Jehovah.[j] 10 And the entire multitude of the people were praying outside at the hour of offering incense. 11 Jehovah's angel appeared to him, standing at the right side of the incense altar. 12 But Zech·a·ri′ah became troubled at the sight, and he was overcome with fear. 13 However, the angel said to him: "Do not be afraid, Zech·a·ri′ah, because your supplication has been favorably heard, and your wife Elizabeth will bear you a son, and you are to name him John.[a] 14 You will have joy and great gladness, and many will rejoice over his birth,[b] 15 for he will be great in the sight of Jehovah.[c] But he must drink no wine or any alcoholic drink at all,[d] and he will be filled with holy spirit even from before birth,#[e] 16 and he will turn back many of the sons of Israel to Jehovah their God.[f] 17 Also, he will go ahead of him with E·li′jah's spirit and power,[g] to turn back the hearts of fathers to children[h] and the disobedient ones to the practical wisdom of righteous ones, in order to get ready for Jehovah* a prepared people."[i]

18 Zech·a·ri′ah said to the angel: "How can I be sure of this? For I am old, and my wife is well along in years." 19 In reply the angel said to him: "I am Ga′bri·el,[j] who stands near before God,[k] and I was sent to speak with you and to declare this good news to you. 20 But look! you will be silent and unable to speak until the day these things take place, because you did not believe my words, which will be fulfilled in their appointed time." 21 Meanwhile, the people continued waiting for Zech·a·ri′ah, and they were surprised that he delayed so long in the sanctuary. 22 When he came out, he was unable to speak to them, and they perceived that he had just seen a supernatural sight* in the sanctuary. He kept making signs to them but remained speechless. 23 When the days of his holy service* were completed, he went off to his home.

24 Some days later Elizabeth his wife became pregnant, and she kept herself secluded for five months, saying: 25 "This is how Jehovah* has dealt with me in these days. He has turned his attention to me to take away my reproach among men."[a]

26 In her sixth month, the angel Ga·bri·el[b] was sent from God to a city of Gal·i·lee named Naz·a·reth, 27 to a virgin[c] promised in marriage* to a man named Joseph of David's house, and the name of the virgin was Mary.[d] 28 And coming in, the angel said to her: "Greetings, you highly favored one, Jehovah* is with you." 29 But she was deeply disturbed at his words and tried to understand what kind of greeting this might be. 30 So the angel said to her: "Do not be afraid, Mary, for you have found favor with God. 31 And look! you will become pregnant* and give birth to a son,[e] and you are to name him Jesus.[f] 32 This one will be great[g] and will be called Son of the Most High,[h] and Jehovah* God will give him the throne of David his father,[i] 33 and he will rule as King over the house of Jacob forever, and there will be no end to his Kingdom."[j]

34 But Mary said to the angel: "How is this to be, since I am not having sexual relations with a man?"[k] 35 In answer the angel said to her: "Holy spirit will come upon you,[l] and power of the Most High will overshadow you. And for that reason the one who is born will be called holy,[m] God's Son.[n] 36 And look! Elizabeth your relative has also conceived a son, in her old age, and this is the sixth month for her, the so-called barren woman; 37 for no declaration* will be impossible for God."[a] 38 Then Mary said: "Look! Jehovah's* slave girl! May it happen to me according to your declaration." At that the angel departed from her.

39 So Mary set out in those days and traveled with haste into the mountainous country, to a city of Judah, 40 and she entered the home of Zech·a·ri'ah and greeted Elizabeth. 41 Well, as Elizabeth heard the greeting of Mary, the infant in her womb leaped, and Elizabeth was filled with holy spirit 42 and loudly cried out: "Blessed are you among women, and blessed is the fruitage of your womb! 43 So how is it that this privilege is mine, to have the mother of my Lord come to me? 44 For look! as the sound of your greeting reached my ears, the infant in my womb leaped for joy. 45 Happy too is she who believed, for there will be a complete fulfillment of those things spoken to her from Jehovah."*

46 And Mary said: "My soul# magnifies Jehovah,[b] 47 and my spirit cannot keep from being overjoyed at God my Savior,[c] 48 because he has looked upon the low position of his slave girl.[d] For look! from now on all generations will declare me happy,[e] 49 because the powerful One has done great deeds for me, and holy is his name,[f] 50 and for generation after generation his mercy is upon those who fear him.[g] 51 He has acted mightily with his arm; he has scattered those who are haughty in the intention of their hearts.[h] 52 He has brought down powerful men from thrones[i] and has exalted lowly ones;[j] 53 he has fully satisfied hungry ones with good things[a] and has sent away empty-handed those who had wealth. 54 He has come to the aid of Israel his servant, remembering his mercy,[b] 55 just as he spoke to our forefathers, to Abraham and to his offspring,[c] forever." 56 Mary stayed with her about three months and then returned to her own home.

57 The time now came for Elizabeth to give birth, and she gave birth to a son. 58 And the neighbors and her relatives heard that Jehovah* had magnified his mercy to her, and they rejoiced with her.[d] 59 On the eighth day they came to circumcise the young child,[e] and they were going to name him after his father, Zech·a·ri′ah. 60 But his mother said in reply: "No! but he will be called John." 61 At this they said to her: "Not one of your relatives is called by this name." 62 Then they asked his father by signs what he wanted him to be called. 63 So he asked for a tablet and wrote: "John is his name."[f] At this they were all amazed. 64 Instantly his mouth was opened and his tongue was set free and he began to speak,[g] praising God. 65 And fear fell upon all those living in their neighborhood, and all these things began to be talked about in the whole mountainous country of Ju·de′a. 66 And all who heard noted it in their hearts, saying: "What will this young child turn out to be?" For the hand of Jehovah* was indeed with him.

67 Then Zech·a·ri′ah his father was filled with holy spirit, and he prophesied, saying: 68 "Let Jehovah* be praised, the God of Israel,[h] because he has turned his attention to his people and has brought them deliverance.[a] 69 And he has raised up a horn of salvation*[b] for us in the house of David his servant,[c] 70 just as he has spoken through the mouth of his holy prophets from of old,[d] 71 of a salvation from our enemies and from the hand of all those hating us;[e] 72 to show mercy in connection with our forefathers and to call to mind his holy covenant,[f] 73 the oath that he swore to Abraham our forefather,[g] 74 to grant us, after we have been rescued from the hands of enemies, the privilege of fearlessly rendering sacred service to him 75 with loyalty and righteousness before him all our days. 76 But as for you, young child, you will be called a prophet of the Most High, for you will go ahead of Jehovah* to prepare his ways,[h] 77 to give knowledge of salvation to his people by forgiveness of their sins,[i] 78 because of the tender compassion of our God. With this compassion a daybreak will visit us from on high, 79 to give light to those sitting in darkness and death's shadow[j] and to guide our feet in the way of peace."

80 And the young child grew up and became strong in spirit, and he continued in the desert until the day he showed himself openly to Israel.

2 Now in those days a decree went out from Caesar Au·gus′tus for all the inhabited earth to be registered. 2 (This first registration took place when Qui·rin′i·us was governor of Syria.) 3 And all the people went to be registered, each one to his own city. 4 Of course, Joseph[k] also went up from Gal′i·lee, from the city of Naz′a·reth, into Ju·de′a, to David's city, which is called Beth′le·hem,[l] because of his being a member of the house and family of David. 5 He went to get registered with Mary, who had been given him in marriage as promised[a] and who was soon to give birth.[b] 6 While they were there, the time came for her to give birth. 7 And she gave birth to her son, the firstborn,[c] and she wrapped him in strips of cloth and laid him in a manger,[d] because there was no room for them in the lodging place.

8 There were also in the same region shepherds living out of doors and keeping watch in the night over their flocks. 9 Suddenly Jehovah's* angel stood before them, and Jehovah's* glory gleamed around them, and they became very fearful. 10 But the angel said to them: "Do not be afraid, for look! I am declaring to you good news of a great joy that all the people will have. 11 For today there was born to you in David's city[e] a savior,[f] who is Christ the Lord.[g] 12 And this is a sign for you: You will find an infant wrapped in strips of cloth and lying in a manger." 13 Suddenly there was with the angel a multitude of the heavenly army,[h] praising God and saying: 14 "Glory in the heights above to God, and on earth peace among men of goodwill."*

15 So when the angels had departed from them into heaven, the shepherds began saying to one another: "Let us by all means go over to Beth'-le·hem and see what has taken place, which Jehovah* has made known to us." 16 And they went quickly and found Mary as well as Joseph, and the infant lying in the manger. 17 When they saw this, they made known the message that they had been told concerning this young child. 18 And all who heard were astonished at what the shepherds told them, 19 but Mary began to preserve all these sayings, drawing conclusions in her heart.[a] 20 Then the shepherds went back, glorifying and praising God for all they had heard and seen, just as it had been told to them.

21 After eight days, when it was time to circumcise him,[b] he was named Jesus, the name given by the angel before he was conceived.[c]

22 Also, when the time came for purifying them according to the Law of Moses,[d] they brought him up to Jerusalem to present him to Jehovah,* 23 just as it is written in Jehovah's* Law: "Every firstborn male# must be called holy to Jehovah."[e] 24 And they offered a sacrifice according to what is said in the Law of Jehovah: "a pair of turtledoves or two young pigeons."[f]

25 And look! there was a man in Jerusalem named Sim'e·on, and this man was righteous and devout, waiting for Israel's consolation,[g] and holy spirit was upon him. 26 Furthermore, it had been divinely revealed to him by the holy spirit that he would not see death before he had seen the Christ of Jehovah.* 27 Under the power of the spirit, he now came into the temple, and as the parents brought the young child Jesus in to do for him according to the customary practice of the Law,[h] 28 he took the child into his arms and praised God and said: 29 "Now, Sovereign Lord, you are letting your slave go in peace[i] according to your declaration, 30 because my eyes have seen your means of salvation[j] 31 that you have prepared in the sight of all the peoples,[a] 32 a light[b] for removing the veil from the nations[c] and a glory of your people Israel." 33 And the child's father and mother continued wondering at the things being spoken about him. 34 Also, Sim′e·on blessed them and said to Mary, the child's mother: "Look! This child is appointed for the falling[d] and the rising again of many in Israel[e] and for a sign to be spoken against[f] 35 (yes, a long sword will be run through you*),[g] in order that the reasonings of many hearts may be revealed."

36 Now there was a prophetess, Anna the daughter of Phan′u·el, of Ash′er's tribe. This woman was well along in years and had lived with her husband for seven years after they were married,* 37 and she was a widow now 84 years old. She was never missing from the temple, rendering sacred service night and day with fasting and supplications. 38 In that very hour she came near and began giving thanks to God and speaking about the child to all who were waiting for Jerusalem's deliverance.[h]

39 So when they had carried out all the things according to the Law of Jehovah,*[i] they went back into Gal′i·lee to their own city, Naz′a·reth.[j] 40 And the young child continued growing and getting strong, being filled with wisdom, and God's favor continued upon him.[k]

41 Now his parents were accustomed to go from year to year to Jerusalem for the festival of the Passover.[l] 42 And when he was 12 years old, they went up according to the custom of the festival.[m] 43 When the days of the festival were over and they were returning, the boy Jesus remained behind in Jerusalem, and his parents did not notice it. 44 Assuming that he was in the group traveling together, they went a day's journey and then began to search for him among the relatives and acquaintances. 45 But not finding him, they returned to Jerusalem and made a diligent search for him. 46 Well, after three days they found him in the temple, sitting in the midst of the teachers and listening to them and asking them questions. 47 But all those listening to him were in constant amazement at his understanding and his answers.[a] 48 Now when his parents saw him, they were astounded, and his mother said to him: "Child, why did you treat us this way? Here your father and I have been frantically looking for you." 49 But he said to them: "Why were you looking for me? Did you not know that I must be in the house of my Father?"[b] 50 However, they did not understand what he was saying to them.

51 Then he went down with them and returned to Naz′a·reth, and he continued subject* to them.[c] Also, his mother carefully kept all these sayings in her heart.[d] 52 And Jesus went on progressing in wisdom and in physical growth and in favor with God and men.

trict ruler of Ab·i·le′ne, 2 in the days of chief priest An′nas and of Ca′ia·phas,[a] God's declaration came to John[b] the son of Zech·a·ri′ah in the wilderness.[c]

3 So he went into all the country around the Jordan, preaching baptism in symbol of repentance for forgiveness of sins,[d] 4 just as it is written in the book of the words of Isaiah the prophet: "A voice of one crying out in the wilderness: 'Prepare the way of Jehovah!* Make his roads straight.[e] 5 Every valley must be filled up, and every mountain and hill leveled; the crooked ways must become straight, and the rough ways smooth; 6 and all flesh* will see the salvation of God.'"#[f]

7 So he began to say to the crowds coming out to be baptized by him: "You offspring of vipers, who has warned you to flee from the coming wrath?[g] 8 Therefore, produce fruits that befit repentance. Do not start saying to yourselves, 'We have Abraham as our father.' For I say to you that God is able to raise up children for Abraham from these stones. 9 Indeed, the ax is already lying at the root of the trees. Every tree, then, that does not produce fine fruit will be cut down and thrown into the fire."[h]

10 And the crowds were asking him: "What, then, should we do?" 11 In reply he said to them: "Let the man who has two garments* share with the man who has none, and let the one who has something to eat do the same."[i] 12 Even tax collectors came to be baptized,[j] and they said to him: "Teacher, what should we do?" 13 He said to them: "Do not demand* anything more than the tax rate."[a] 14 Also, those in military service were asking him: "What should we do?" And he said to them: "Do not harass* anybody or accuse anybody falsely,[b] but be satisfied with your provisions."#

15 Now the people were in expectation and all of them were reasoning in their hearts about John, "May he perhaps be the Christ?"[c] 16 John gave the answer, saying to all: "I, for my part, baptize you with water, but the one stronger than I am is coming, the lace of whose sandals I am not worthy to untie.[d] He will baptize you with holy spirit and with fire.[e] 17 His winnowing shovel is in his hand to clean up his threshing floor completely and to gather the wheat into his storehouse, but the chaff he will burn up with fire that cannot be put out."

18 He also gave many other exhortations and continued declaring good news to the people. 19 But Herod the district ruler, because of being reproved by John concerning He·ro′di·as the wife of his brother and concerning all the wicked deeds that Herod had done, 20 added this also to all those deeds: He locked John up in prison.[f]

21 Now when all the people were baptized, Jesus too was baptized.[g] As he was praying, the heaven was opened up,[h] 22 and the holy spirit in bodily form like a dove came down upon him, and a voice came out of heaven: "You are my Son, the beloved; I have approved you."[i]

4 Then Jesus, full of holy spirit, turned away from the Jordan, and he was led about by the spirit in the wilderness[v] 2 for 40 days, being tempted by the Devil.[w] And he ate nothing in those days, so when they had ended, he felt hungry. 3 At this the Devil said to him: “If you are a son of God, tell this stone to become a loaf of bread.” 4 But Jesus answered him: “It is written, ‘Man must not live on bread alone.’”[x]

5 So he brought him up and showed him all the kingdoms of the inhabited earth in an instant of time.[y] 6 Then the Devil said to him: “I will give you all this authority and their glory, because it has been handed over to me,[z] and I give it to whomever I wish. 7 If you, therefore, do an act of worship before me, it will all be yours.” 8 In reply Jesus said to him: “It is written, ‘It is Jehovah* your God you must worship, and it is to him alone you must render sacred service.'"[a]

9 He then led him into Jerusalem and stationed him on the battlement* of the temple and said to him: "If you are a son of God, throw yourself down from here,[b] 10 for it is written, 'He will give his angels a command concerning you, to preserve you,' 11 and, 'They will carry you on their hands, so that you may not strike your foot against a stone.'"[c] 12 In answer Jesus said to him: "It is said, 'You must not put Jehovah* your God to the test.'"[d] 13 So the Devil, having finished all the temptation, departed from him until another convenient time.[e]

14 Now Jesus returned in the power of the spirit into Gal'i·lee.[f] And good reports about him spread throughout all the surrounding country. 15 Also, he began to teach in their synagogues, and he was held in honor by all.

16 He then went to Naz'·a·reth,[g] where he had been brought up, and according to his custom on the Sabbath day, he entered the synagogue[h] and stood up to read. 17 So the scroll of the prophet Isaiah was handed to him, and he opened the scroll and found the place where it was written: 18 "Jehovah's* spirit is upon me, because he anointed me to declare good news to the poor. He sent me to proclaim liberty to the captives and a recovery of sight to the blind, to send the crushed ones away free,[i] 19 to preach Jehovah's* acceptable year."[j] 20 With that he rolled up the scroll, handed it back to the attendant, and sat down; and the eyes of all in the synagogue were intently fixed on him. 21 Then he began to say to them: "Today this scripture that you just heard is fulfilled."[a]

22 And they all began to give favorable witness about him and to be amazed at the gracious words coming out of his mouth,[b] and they were saying: "This is a son of Joseph, is it not?"[c] 23 At this he said to them: "No doubt you will apply this saying to me, 'Physician, cure yourself. Do also here in your home territory the things we have heard were done in Ca·per'na·um.'"[d] 24 So he said: "Truly I tell you that no prophet is accepted in his home territory.[e] 25 For instance, I tell you in truth: There were many widows in Israel in the days of E·li'jah when heaven was shut up for three years and six months, and a great famine came on all the land.[f] 26 Yet E·li'jah was sent to none of those women, but only to a widow in Zar'e·phath in the land of Si'don.[g] 27 Also, there were many lepers in Israel in the time of E·li'sha the prophet; yet not one of them was cleansed,* only Na'a·man the Syrian."[h] 28 Now all those hearing these things in the synagogue became filled with anger,[i] 29 and they rose up and rushed him outside the city, and they led him to the brow of the mountain on which their city had been built, in order to throw him down headlong. 30 But he went right through their midst and continued on his way.[j]

31 He then went down to Caper'na·um, a city of Gal'i·lee. And he was teaching them on the Sabbath,[k] 32 and they were astounded at his way of teaching,[l] because he spoke with authority. 33 Now in the synagogue there was a man with a spirit, an unclean demon, and he shouted with a loud voice:[a] 34 "Ah! What have we to do with you, Jesus the Naz·a·rene'?[b] Did you come to destroy us? I know exactly who you are, the Holy One of God."[c] 35 But Jesus rebuked it, saying: "Be silent, and come out of him." So after throwing the man down in their midst, the demon came out of him without hurting him. 36 At this they were all astonished and began to say to one another: "What kind of speech is this? For with authority and power he orders the unclean spirits, and out they come!" 37 So the news about him kept spreading into every corner of the surrounding country.

38 After leaving the synagogue, he entered into Simon's home. Now Simon's mother-in-law was suffering with a high fever, and they asked him to help her.[d] 39 So he stood over her and rebuked the fever, and it left her. Instantly she got up and began ministering to them.

40 But when the sun was setting, all those who had people sick with various diseases brought them to him. By laying his hands on each one of them, he cured them.[e] 41 Demons also came out of many, crying out and saying: "You are the Son of God."[f] But rebuking them, he would not permit them to speak,[g] for they knew him to be the Christ.[h]

42 However, at daybreak he departed and went to an isolated place.[i] But the crowds began searching* for him and came to where he was, and they tried to keep him from going away from them. 43 But he said to them: "I must also declare the good news of the Kingdom of God to other cities, because for this I was sent."[a] 44 So he went on preaching in the synagogues of Ju·de'a.

5 On one occasion when the crowd was pressing in on him and listening to the word of God, he was standing by the lake of Gen·nes'a·ret.[b] 2 And he saw two boats docked at the lakeside, but the fishermen had got out of them and were washing off their nets.[c] 3 Going aboard one of the boats, which was Simon's, he asked him to pull away a bit from land. Then he sat down, and he began teaching the crowds from the boat. 4 When he stopped speaking, he said to Simon: "Pull out to where it is deep, and let down your nets for a catch." 5 But in reply Simon said: "Instructor, we toiled all night and caught nothing,[d] but at your word I will lower the nets." 6 Well, when they did this, they caught a great number of fish. In fact, their nets began ripping apart.[e] 7 So they motioned to their partners in the other boat to come and assist them, and they came and filled both boats, so that these began to sink. 8 Seeing this, Simon Peter fell down at the knees of Jesus, saying: "Depart from me, Lord, because I am a sinful man." 9 For both he and those with him were overwhelmed with astonishment at the catch of fish they had taken, 10 and the same was true of both James and John, Zeb'e·dee's sons,[f] who were partners with Simon. But Jesus said to Simon: "Stop being afraid. From now on you will be catching men* alive."[g] 11 So they brought the boats back to land and abandoned everything and followed him.[h]

12 On another occasion while he was in one of the cities, look! there was a man full of leprosy! When he caught sight of Jesus, he fell facedown and begged him: "Lord, if you just want to, you can make me clean."[a] 13 So stretching out his hand, he touched him, saying: "I want to! Be made clean." Immediately the leprosy vanished from him.[b] 14 Then he gave the man orders to tell no one: "But go and show yourself to the priest, and make an offering for your cleansing, just as Moses directed,[c] for a witness to them."[d] 15 But the news about him just kept spreading, and large crowds would gather together to listen and to be cured of their sicknesses.[e] 16 However, he often went into the desolate areas to pray.

17 On one of those days while he was teaching, Pharisees and teachers of the Law who had come out of every village of Gal'i-lee and Ju·de'a and from Jerusalem were sitting there; and Jehovah's* power was with him to do healing.[f] 18 And look! men were carrying a paralyzed man on a stretcher, and they were trying to bring him in and place him before Jesus.[g] 19 So not finding a way to bring him in because of the crowd, they climbed up to the roof, and they lowered him on the stretcher through the tiling, right among those in front of Jesus. 20 When he saw their faith, he said: "Man, your sins are forgiven."[h] 21 Then the scribes and the Pharisees started to reason, saying: "Who is this who speaks blasphemies? Who can forgive sins except God alone?"[i] 22 But Jesus, discerning their reasoning, said in answer to them: "What are you reasoning in your hearts? 23 Which is easier, to say, 'Your sins are forgiven,' or to say, 'Get up and walk'? 24 But in order for you to know that the Son of man has authority on earth to forgive sins—" he said to the paralyzed man: "I say to you, Get up, pick up your stretcher, and go to your home."[a] 25 At that he stood up before them, picked up what he had been lying on, and went to his home, glorifying God. 26 Then one and all were seized with amazement, and they began to glorify God, and they became filled with awe, saying: "We have seen wonderful things today!"

27 Now after this, he went out and saw a tax collector named Le'vi sitting at the tax office, and he said to him: "Be my follower."[b] 28 And leaving everything behind, he rose up and began to follow him. 29 Then Le'vi spread a big reception feast for him in his house, and there was a large crowd of tax collectors and others who were dining* with them.[c] 30 At this the Pharisees and their scribes began murmuring to his disciples, saying: "Why do you eat and drink with tax collectors and sinners?"[d] 31 In reply Jesus said to them: "Those who are healthy do not need a physician, but those who are ill do.[e] 32 I have come to call, not righteous people, but sinners to repentance."[f]

33 They said to him: "John's disciples fast frequently and offer supplications, and so do those of the Pharisees, but yours eat and drink."[g] 34 Jesus said to them: "You cannot make the friends of the bridegroom fast while the bridegroom is with them, can you? 35 But days will come when the bridegroom[h] will indeed be taken away from them; then they will fast in those days.”[a]

36 He also gave an illustration to them: “Nobody cuts a patch from a new outer garment and sews it on an old garment. If he does, then the new patch tears away and the patch from the new garment does not match the old.[b] 37 Also, no one puts new wine into old wineskins. If he does, the new wine will burst the wineskins and it will be spilled out and the wineskins will be ruined. 38 But new wine must be put into new wineskins. 39 No one after drinking old wine wants new, for he says, ‘The old is nice.’”

6 Now on a sabbath he was passing through grainfields, and his disciples were plucking and eating the heads of grain,[c] rubbing them with their hands.[d] 2 At this some of the Pharisees said: “Why are you doing what is not lawful on the Sabbath?”[e] 3 But in reply Jesus said to them: “Have you never read what David did when he and the men with him were hungry?[f] 4 How he entered into the house of God and received the loaves of presentation* and ate and gave some to the men with him, which it is not lawful for anyone to eat but for the priests only?”[g] 5 Then he said to them: “The Son of man is Lord of the Sabbath.”[h]

6 On another sabbath[i] he entered the synagogue and began teaching. And a man was there whose right hand was withered.[j] 7 The scribes and the Pharisees were now watching Jesus closely to see whether he would cure on the Sabbath, in order to find some way to accuse him. 8 He, however, knew their reasoning,[k] so he said to the man with the withered hand: “Get up and stand in the center.” And he rose and stood there. 9 Then Jesus said to them: “I ask you men, Is it lawful on the Sabbath to do good or to do harm, to save a life* or to destroy it?”[a] 10 After looking around at them all, he said to the man: “Stretch out your hand.” He did so, and his hand was restored. 11 But they flew into a senseless rage, and they began to talk over with one another what they might do to Jesus.

12 On one of those days he went out to the mountain to pray,[b] and he spent the whole night in prayer to God.[c] 13 And when it became day, he called his disciples to him and chose from among them 12, whom he also named apostles:[d] 14 Simon, whom he also named Peter, Andrew his brother, James, John, Philip,[e] Bar·thol′o·mew, 15 Matthew, Thomas,[f] James the son of Al·phae′us, Simon who is called “the zealous one,” 16 Judas the son of James, and Judas Is·car′i·ot, who turned traitor.

17 And he came down with them and stood on a level place, and there was a large crowd of his disciples, and a great multitude of people from all Jude′a and Jerusalem and the coastal region of Tyre and Si′don, who came to hear him and to be healed of their sicknesses. 18 Even those troubled with unclean spirits were cured. 19 And all the crowd were seeking to touch him, because power was going out of him[g] and healing them all.

20 And he looked up at his disciples and began to say:

“Happy are you who are poor, for yours is the Kingdom of God.[h]

Consequently, when a flood came, the river dashed against that house but was not strong enough to shake it, for it was well-built.[f] 49 On the other hand, whoever hears and does nothing[g] is like a man who built a house on the ground without a foundation. The river dashed against it, and immediately it collapsed, and the ruin of that house was great."

7 When he had completed what he had to say to the people, he entered Ca·per'na·um. 2 Now an army officer's slave, who was dear to him, was seriously ill and about to pass away.[h] 3 When he heard about Jesus, he sent some elders of the Jews to him to ask him to come and make his slave well. 4 They came up to Jesus and began to plead with him earnestly, saying: "He is worthy of your granting him this, 5 for he loves our nation and he himself built our synagogue." 6 So Jesus went with them. But when he was not far from the house, the army officer had already sent friends to say to him: "Sir, do not bother, for I am not worthy to have you come under my roof.[a] 7 That is why I did not consider myself worthy to come to you. But say the word, and let my servant be healed. 8 For I too am a man placed under authority, having soldiers under me, and I say to this one, 'Go!' and he goes, and to another, 'Come!' and he comes, and to my slave, 'Do this!' and he does it." 9 When Jesus heard these things, he was amazed at him, and he turned to the crowd following him and said: "I tell you, not even in Israel have I found so great a faith."[b] 10 And when those who had been sent returned to the house, they found the slave in good health.[c]

11 Soon afterward he traveled to a city called Na'in, and his disciples and a large crowd were traveling with him. 12 As he got near the gate of the city, why look! there was a dead man being carried out, the only* son of his mother.[d] Besides, she was a widow. A considerable crowd from the city was also with her. 13 When the Lord caught sight of her, he was moved with pity for her,[e] and he said to her: "Stop weeping."[f] 14 With that he approached and touched the bier,* and the bearers stood still. Then he said: "Young man, I say to you, get up!"[g] 15 And the dead man sat up and started to speak, and Jesus gave him to his mother.[h] 16 Now fear seized them all, and they began to glorify God, saying: "A great prophet has been raised up among us,"[i] and, "God has turned his attention to his people."[j] 17 And this news concerning him spread out into all Ju·de'a and all the surrounding country.

18 Now John's disciples reported to him all these things.[a] 19 So John summoned two of his disciples and sent them to the Lord to ask: "Are you the Coming One,[b] or are we to expect a different one?" 20 When they came to him, the men said: "John the Baptist sent us to you to ask, 'Are you the Coming One, or are we to expect another?'" 21 In that hour he cured many people of sicknesses,[c] serious diseases, and wicked spirits, and he granted many blind people the gift of sight. 22 In reply he said to them: "Go and report to John what you have seen and heard: The blind are now seeing,[d] the lame are walking, the lepers are being cleansed, the deaf are hearing,[e] the dead are being raised up, and the poor are being told the good news.[f] 23 Happy is the one who finds no cause for stumbling in me."[g]

24 When the messengers of John had gone away, Jesus began to speak to the crowds about John: "What did you go out into the wilderness to see? A reed being tossed by the wind?[h] 25 What, then, did you go out to see? A man dressed in soft garments?[i] Why, those wearing splendid dress and living in luxury are in royal houses. 26 Really, then, what did you go out to see? A prophet? Yes, I tell you, and far more than a prophet.[j] 27 This is the one about whom it is written: 'Look! I am sending my messenger ahead of you, who will prepare your way ahead of you.'[k] 28 I tell you, among those born of women there is no one greater than John, but a lesser person in the Kingdom of God is greater than he is."[l] 29 (When all the people and the tax collectors heard this, they declared God to be righteous, for they had been baptized with the baptism of John.[a] 30 But the Pharisees and those versed in the Law disregarded the counsel* of God to them,[b] since they had not been baptized by him.)

31 "With whom, therefore, should I compare the men of this generation, and whom are they like?[c] 32 They are like young children sitting in a marketplace and calling out to one another, saying: 'We played the flute for you, but you did not dance; we wailed, but you did not weep.' 33 Likewise, John the Baptist has come neither eating bread nor drinking wine,[d] but you say: 'He has a demon.' 34 The Son of man has come eating and drinking, but you say: 'Look! A man who is a glutton and is given to drinking wine, a friend of tax collectors and sinners!'[e] 35 All the same, wisdom is proved righteous* by all its children."#[f]

36 Now one of the Pharisees kept asking him to dine with him. So he entered the house of the Pharisee and reclined at the table. 37 And look! a woman who was known in the city to be a sinner learned that he was dining* in the house of the Pharisee, and she brought an alabaster jar of perfumed oil.[g] 38 Taking a position behind him at his feet, she wept and began to wet his feet with her tears, and she wiped them off with the hair of her head. Also, she tenderly kissed his feet and poured the perfumed oil on them. 39 Seeing this, the Pharisee who had invited him said to himself: "If this man were really a prophet, he would know who and what kind of woman it is who is touching him, that she is a sinner."[a] 40 But in reply Jesus said to him: "Simon, I have something to say to you." He said: "Teacher, say it!"

41 "Two men were debtors to a certain lender; the one was in debt for 500 de·nar'i·i,* but the other for 50. 42 When they did not have anything to pay him back with, he freely forgave them both. Therefore, which one of them will love him more?" 43 In answer Simon said: "I suppose it is the one whom he forgave more." He said to him: "You judged correctly." 44 With that he turned to the woman and said to Simon: "Do you see this woman? I entered your house; you gave me no water for my feet. But this woman wet my feet with her tears and wiped them off with her hair. 45 You gave me no kiss, but this woman, from the hour that I came in, did not stop tenderly kissing my feet. 46 You did not pour oil on my head, but this woman poured perfumed oil on my feet. 47 Because of this, I tell you, her sins, many* though they are, are forgiven,[b] because she loved much. But the one who is forgiven little, loves little." 48 Then he said to her: "Your sins are forgiven."[c] 49 Those reclining at the table with him started to say among themselves: "Who is this man who even forgives sins?"[d] 50 But he said to the woman: "Your faith has saved you;[e] go in peace."

8 Shortly afterward he traveled from city to city and from village to village, preaching and declaring the good news of the Kingdom of God.[f] And the Twelve were with him, 2 as were certain women who had been cured of wicked spirits and sicknesses: Mary who was called Mag'da·lene, from whom seven demons had come out; 3 Jo·an'na[a] the wife of Chu'za, Herod's man in charge; Su·san'na; and many other women, who were ministering to them from their belongings.[b]

4 Now when a large crowd had gathered together with those who went to him from city to city, he spoke by means of an illustration:[c] 5 "A sower went out to sow his seed. As he was sowing, some of them fell alongside the road and were trampled on, and the birds of heaven ate them up.[d] 6 Some landed on the rock, and after sprouting, they dried up because they had no moisture.[e] 7 Others fell among the thorns, and the thorns that grew up with them choked them.[f] 8 But others fell on the good soil, and after sprouting, they produced 100 times more fruit."[g] As he said these things, he called out: "Let the one who has ears to listen, listen."[h]

9 But his disciples asked him what this illustration meant.[i] 10 He said: "To you it is granted to understand the sacred secrets of the Kingdom of God, but for the rest it is in illustrations[j] so that, though looking, they may look in vain, and though hearing, they may not get the sense.[k] 11 Now the illustration means this: The seed is the word of God.[l] 12 Those alongside the road are the ones who have heard, and then the Devil comes and takes the word away from their hearts so that they may not believe and be saved.[m] 13 Those on the rock are the ones who, when they hear the word, receive it with joy, but these have no root. They believe for a while, but in a season of testing, they fall away.[n] 14 As for that which fell among the thorns, these are the ones who have heard, but by being carried away by anxieties, riches,[a] and pleasures of this life,[b] they are completely choked and bring nothing to maturity.[c] 15 As for that on the fine soil, these are the ones who, after hearing the word with a fine and good heart,[d] retain it and bear fruit with endurance.[e]

16 "No one after lighting a lamp covers it with a vessel or puts it underneath a bed, but he puts it on a lampstand so that those who come in may see the light.[f] 17 For there is nothing hidden that will not become manifest, nor anything carefully concealed that will never become known and not come out in the open.[g] 18 Therefore, pay attention to how you listen, for whoever has will be given more,[h] but whoever does not have, even what he imagines he has will be taken away from him."[i]

19 Now his mother and brothers[j] came to him, but they were unable to get near him because of the crowd.[k] 20 So it was reported to him: "Your mother and your brothers are standing outside, wanting to see you." 21 In reply he said to them: "My mother and my brothers are these who hear the word of God and do it."[l]

22 One day he and his disciples got into a boat, and he said to them: "Let us cross to the other side of the lake." So they set sail.[m] 23 But as they were sailing along, he fell asleep. And a violent windstorm descended on the lake, and their boat began to fill up with water and to be in danger.[n] 24 So they went and woke him up, saying: "Instructor, Instructor, we are about to perish!" With that he got up and rebuked the wind and the raging of the water, and they subsided, and a calm set in.[o] 25 Then he said to them: "Where is your faith?" But they were filled with fear and were astounded, saying to one another: "Who really is this? For he orders even the winds and the water, and they obey him."[a]

26 And they put in to shore in the region of the Ger'a·senes,[b] which is on the side opposite Gal'i·lee. 27 As Jesus got out onto land, a demon-possessed man from the city met him. For a considerable time he had not worn clothing, and he was staying, not in a house, but among the tombs.[c] 28 At the sight of Jesus, he cried out and fell down before him, and with a loud voice, he said: "What have I to do with you, Jesus, Son of the Most High God? I beg you, do not torment me."[d] 29 (For Jesus had been ordering the unclean spirit to come out of the man. It had seized him on many occasions,[e] and he was repeatedly bound with chains and fetters and kept under guard, but he would break the bonds and be driven by the demon into the isolated places.) 30 Jesus asked him: "What is your name?" He said: "Legion," for many demons had entered into him. 31 And they kept pleading with him not to order them to go away into the abyss.[f] 32 Now a large herd of swine[g] was feeding there on the mountain, so they pleaded with him to permit them to enter into the swine, and he gave them permission.[h] 33 With that the demons came out of the man and went into the swine, and the herd rushed over the precipice* into the lake and drowned. 34 But when the herders saw what had happened, they fled and reported it in the city and in the countryside.

35 Then people went out to see what had happened. They came to Jesus and found the man from whom the demons had come out, clothed and in his right mind, sitting at the feet of Jesus, and they grew fearful. 36 Those who had seen it reported to them how the demon-possessed man had been made well. 37 Then a great number from the surrounding region of the Ger′a·senes asked Jesus to go away from them, because they were gripped by great fear. Then he went aboard the boat to depart. 38 However, the man from whom the demons had gone out kept begging to continue with him, but he sent the man away, saying:[a] 39 "Go back home, and keep on relating what God did for you." So he went away, proclaiming throughout the whole city what Jesus had done for him.

40 When Jesus returned, the crowd received him kindly, for they were all expecting him.[b] 41 But look! a man named Ja′i·rus came; this man was a presiding officer of the synagogue. And he fell at the feet of Jesus and began to plead with him to come to his house,[c] 42 because his only* daughter, who was about 12 years old, was dying.

As Jesus was going, the crowds pressed in on him. 43 Now there was a woman who had a flow of blood[d] for 12 years, and she had not been able to get a cure from anyone.[e] 44 She approached from behind and touched the fringe of his outer garment,[f] and immediately her flow of blood stopped. 45 So Jesus said: "Who touched me?" When they were all denying it, Peter said: "Instructor, the crowds are hemming you in and pressing against you."[g] 46 But Jesus said: "Someone touched me, for I know that power[a] went out of me." 47 Seeing that she had not escaped notice, the woman came trembling and fell down before him and declared before all the people why she touched him and how she was healed immediately. 48 But he said to her: "Daughter, your faith has made you well. Go in peace."[b]

49 While he was yet speaking, a representative of the presiding officer of the synagogue came, saying: "Your daughter has died; do not bother the Teacher any longer."[c] 50 On hearing this, Jesus answered him: "Have no fear, only have faith, and she will be saved."[d] 51 When he reached the house, he did not let anyone go in with him except Peter, John, James, and the girl's father and mother. 52 But people were all weeping and beating themselves in grief for her. So he said: "Stop weeping,[e] for she did not die but is sleeping."[f] 53 At this they began to laugh at him scornfully, because they knew she had died. 54 But he took her by the hand and called to her: "Child, get up!"[g] 55 And her spirit*[h] returned, and she rose immediately,[i] and he ordered that something be given her to eat. 56 Well, her parents were beside themselves, but he instructed them to tell no one what had happened.[j]

9 Then he called the Twelve together and gave them power and authority over all the demons[k] and to cure diseases.[l] 2 And he sent them out to preach the Kingdom of God and to heal, 3 and he said to them: "Carry nothing for the trip, neither staff nor food pouch nor bread nor money;* neither have

7 Now Herod* the district ruler# heard about everything that was happening, and he was greatly perplexed because some were saying that John had been raised up from the dead,[e] 8 but others were saying that E·li'jah had appeared, and still others that one of the ancient prophets had risen.[f] 9 Herod said: "John I beheaded.[g] Who, then, is this about whom I am hearing such things?" So he was trying to see him.[h]

10 When the apostles returned, they reported to Jesus all they had done.[i] With that he took them along and withdrew privately into a city called Bethsa'i·da.[j] 11 But the crowds, getting to know it, followed him. And he received them kindly and began to speak to them about the Kingdom of God, and he healed those needing a cure.[k] 12 Then the day was coming to a close. The Twelve now came up and said to him: "Send the crowd away, so that they may go into the surrounding villages and countryside to find lodging and provisions, because out here we are in an isolated place."[l] 13 But he said to them: "You give them something to eat."[m] They said: "We have nothing more than five loaves and two fish, unless perhaps we ourselves go and buy food for all these people." 14 There were, in fact, about 5,000 men. But he said to his disciples: "Have them sit down in groups of about 50 each." 15 And they did so and had them all sit down. 16 Taking now the five loaves and the two fish, he looked up to heaven and blessed them. Then he broke them up and began giving them to the disciples to set before the crowd. 17 So they all ate and were satisfied, and they took up the leftovers, 12 baskets of fragments.[a]

18 Later, while he was praying alone, the disciples came to him, and he questioned them, saying: "Who are the crowds saying that I am?"[b] 19 In reply they said: "John the Baptist, but others say E·li'jah, and still others say that one of the ancient prophets has risen."[c] 20 Then he said to them: "You, though, who do you say I am?" Peter answered: "The Christ of God."[d] 21 Then in a stern talk to them, he instructed them not to tell this to anybody,[e] 22 but he said: "The Son of man must undergo many sufferings and be rejected by the elders and the chief priests and the scribes and be killed,[f] and on the third day be raised up."[g]

23 Then he went on to say to all: "If anyone wants to come after me, let him disown himself[h] and pick up his torture stake* day after day and keep following me.[i] 24 For whoever wants to save his life* will lose it, but whoever loses his life* for my sake is the one who will save it.[j] 25 Really, what good will it do a man if he gains the whole world but loses his own self or suffers ruin?[k] 26 For whoever becomes ashamed of me and of my words, the Son of man will be ashamed of that person when he comes in his glory and that of the Father and of the holy angels.[a] 27 But I tell you truly, there are some of those standing here who will not taste death at all until first they see the Kingdom of God."[b]

28 In fact, about eight days after saying these words, he took Peter, John, and James along and climbed up the mountain to pray.[c] 29 And as he was praying, the appearance of his face changed and his clothing became glitteringly white. 30 And look! two men were conversing with him; they were Moses and E·li′jah. 31 These appeared with glory and began talking about his departure, which he was about to fulfill at Jerusalem.[d] 32 Now Peter and those with him were weighed down with sleep, but when they became fully awake, they saw his glory[e] and the two men standing with him. 33 And as these were departing from him, Peter said to Jesus: "Instructor, it is fine for us to be here. So let us erect three tents, one for you, one for Moses, and one for E·li′jah." He did not realize what he was saying. 34 But as he was saying these things, a cloud formed and began to overshadow them. As they entered into the cloud, they became afraid. 35 Then a voice[f] came out of the cloud, saying: "This is my Son, the one who has been chosen.[g] Listen to him."[h] 36 As the voice spoke, Jesus was found alone. But they kept quiet and did not report to anyone in those days any of the things they saw.[i]

37 The following day when they came down from the mountain, a large crowd met him.[j] 38 And look! a man called out from the crowd, saying: "Teacher, I beg you to take a look at my son, because he is my only one.[a] 39 And look! a spirit seizes him, and suddenly he cries out, and it throws him into convulsions with foaming at the mouth, and only with difficulty does it leave him after bruising him. 40 I begged your disciples to expel it, but they could not." 41 In response Jesus said: "O faithless and twisted generation,[b] how long must I continue with you and put up with you? Bring your son over here."[c] 42 But even as he was approaching, the demon hurled him to the ground and violently threw him into a convulsion. However, Jesus rebuked the unclean spirit and healed the boy and gave him back to his father. 43 And they were all astounded at the majestic power of God.

While they were all astonished at all the things he was doing, he said to his disciples: 44 "Listen carefully and remember these words, for the Son of man is going to be betrayed into men's hands."[d] 45 But they did not understand what he was saying. In fact, it was concealed from them so that they might not grasp it, and they were afraid to question him about this saying.

46 Then a dispute arose among them about which one of them was the greatest.[e] 47 Jesus, knowing the reasoning of their hearts, took a young child, stood him beside him, 48 and said to them: "Whoever receives this young child on the basis of my name receives me also; and whoever receives me also receives the One who sent me.[f] For the one who conducts himself as a lesser one among all of you is the one who is great."[g]

49 In response John said: "Instructor, we saw someone expelling demons by using your name, and we tried to prevent him, because he is not following with us."[h] 50 But Jesus said to him:

"Do not try to prevent him, for whoever is not against you is for you."

51 As the days were drawing near* for him to be taken up,[a] he resolutely set his face to go to Jerusalem. 52 So he sent messengers ahead of him. And they went and entered a village of Sa·mar′i·tans to make preparations for him. 53 But they did not receive him,[b] because he was determined* to go to Jerusalem. 54 When the disciples James and John[c] saw this, they said: "Lord, do you want us to call fire down from heaven and annihilate them?"[d] 55 But he turned and rebuked them. 56 So they went to a different village.

57 Now as they were going along the road, someone said to him: "I will follow you wherever you go." 58 But Jesus said to him: "Foxes have dens and birds of heaven have nests, but the Son of man has nowhere to lay down his head."[e] 59 Then he said to another: "Be my follower." The man said: "Lord, permit me first to go and bury my father."[f] 60 But he said to him: "Let the dead[g] bury their dead, but you go and declare abroad the Kingdom of God."[h] 61 And still another said: "I will follow you, Lord, but first permit me to say good-bye to those in my household." 62 Jesus said to him: "No man who has put his hand to a plow and looks at the things behind[i] is well-suited for the Kingdom of God."[j]

10 After these things the Lord designated 70 others and sent them out by twos[k] ahead of him into every city and place where he himself was to go. 2 Then he said to them: "Yes, the harvest is great, but the workers are few. Therefore, beg the Master of the harvest to send out workers into his harvest.[a] 3 Go! Look! I am sending you out as lambs in among wolves.[b] 4 Do not carry a money bag or a food pouch or sandals,[c] and do not greet anyone* along the road. 5 Wherever you enter into a house, say first: 'May this house have peace.'[d] 6 And if a friend of peace is there, your peace will rest upon him. But if there is not, it will return to you. 7 So stay in that house,[e] eating and drinking the things they provide,[f] for the worker is worthy of his wages.[g] Do not keep transferring from house to house.

8 "Also, wherever you enter into a city and they receive you, eat what is set before you 9 and cure the sick ones in it and tell them: 'The Kingdom of God has come near to you.'[h] 10 But wherever you enter into a city and they do not receive you, go out into its main streets and say: 11 'We wipe off against you even the dust that sticks to our feet from your city.[i] Nevertheless, know this, that the Kingdom of God has come near.' 12 I tell you that it will be more endurable for Sod′om in that day than for that city.[j]

13 "Woe to you, Cho·ra′zin! Woe to you, Beth·sa′i·da! because if the powerful works that have taken place in you had taken place in Tyre and Si′don, they would long ago have repented, sitting in sackcloth and ashes.[k] 14 Consequently, it will be more endurable for Tyre and Si′don in the judgment than for you. 15 And you, Ca·per′na·um, will you perhaps be exalted to heaven? Down to the Grave* you will come!

16 "Whoever listens to you listens to me.[a] And whoever disregards you disregards me also. Moreover, whoever disregards me disregards also him who sent me."[b]

17 Then the 70 returned with joy, saying: "Lord, even the demons are made subject to us by the use of your name."[c] 18 At that he said to them: "I see Satan already fallen[d] like lightning from heaven. 19 Look! I have given you the authority to trample underfoot serpents and scorpions, and over all the power of the enemy,[e] and nothing at all will harm you. 20 Nevertheless, do not rejoice because the spirits are made subject to you, but rejoice because your names have been written in the heavens."[f] 21 In that very hour he became overjoyed in the holy spirit and said: "I publicly praise you, Father, Lord of heaven and earth, because you have carefully hidden these things from wise and intellectual ones[g] and have revealed them to young children. Yes, O Father, because this is the way you approved.[h] 22 All things have been handed over to me by my Father, and no one knows who the Son is except the Father, and no one knows who the Father is except the Son[i] and anyone to whom the Son is willing to reveal him."[j]

23 With that he turned to the disciples and told them privately: "Happy are the eyes that see the things you are seeing.[k] 24 For I say to you, many prophets and kings desired to see the things you are observing but did not see them,[l] and to hear the things you are hearing but did not hear them."

25 Now look! a man versed in the Law stood up to test him and said: "Teacher, what do I need to do to inherit everlasting life?"[m] 26 He said to him: "What is written in the Law? How do you read?" 27 In answer he said: "'You must love Jehovah* your God with your whole heart and with your whole soul# and with your whole strength and with your whole mind'[a] and 'your neighbor as yourself.'"[b] 28 He said to him: "You answered correctly; keep doing this and you will get life."[c]

29 But wanting to prove himself righteous,[d] the man said to Jesus: "Who really is my neighbor?" 30 In reply Jesus said: "A man was going down from Jerusalem to Jer'i·cho and fell victim to robbers, who stripped him, beat him, and went off, leaving him half-dead. 31 Now by coincidence a priest was going down on that road, but when he saw him, he passed by on the opposite side. 32 Likewise, a Levite, when he came to the place and saw him, passed by on the opposite side. 33 But a certain Sa·mar'i·tan[e] traveling the road came upon him, and at seeing him, he was moved with pity. 34 So he approached him and bandaged his wounds, pouring oil and wine on them. Then he mounted him on his own animal and brought him to an inn and took care of him. 35 The next day he took out two denar'i·i,* gave them to the innkeeper, and said: 'Take care of him, and whatever you spend besides this, I will repay you when I return.' 36 Who of these three seems to you to have made himself neighbor[f] to the man who fell victim to the robbers?" 37 He said: "The one who acted mercifully toward him."[g] Jesus then said to him: "Go and do the same yourself."[h]

38 Now as they went on their way, he entered into a certain village. Here a woman named Martha[a] received him as a guest in her house. 39 She also had a sister called Mary, who sat down at the feet of the Lord and kept listening to what he was saying.* 40 Martha, on the other hand, was distracted with attending to many duties. So she came to him and said: "Lord, does it not matter to you that my sister has left me alone to attend to things? Tell her to come and help me." 41 In answer the Lord said to her: "Martha, Martha, you are anxious and disturbed about many things. 42 A few things, though, are needed, or just one. For her part, Mary chose the good portion,*[b] and it will not be taken away from her."

11 Now he was in a certain place praying, and when he stopped, one of his disciples said to him: "Lord, teach us how to pray, just as John also taught his disciples."

2 So he said to them: "Whenever you pray, say: 'Father, let your name be sanctified.*[c] Let your Kingdom come.[d] 3 Give us each day our bread according to our daily needs.[e] 4 And forgive us our sins,[f] for we ourselves also forgive everyone who is in debt to us;[g] and do not bring us into temptation.'"[h]

5 Then he said to them: "Suppose one of you has a friend and you go to him at midnight and say to him, 'Friend, lend me three loaves, 6 because one of my friends has just come to me on a journey and I have nothing to offer him.' 7 But that one replies from inside: 'Stop bothering me. The door is already locked, and my young children are with me in bed. I cannot get up and give you anything.' 8 I tell you, even if he will not get up and give him anything because of being his friend, certainly because of his bold persistence[a] he will get up and give him whatever he needs. 9 So I say to you, keep on asking,[b] and it will be given you; keep on seeking, and you will find; keep on knocking, and it will be opened to you.[c] 10 For everyone asking receives,[d] and everyone seeking finds, and to everyone knocking, it will be opened. 11 Indeed, which father among you, if his son asks for a fish, will hand him a serpent instead of a fish?[e] 12 Or if he also asks for an egg, will hand him a scorpion? 13 Therefore, if you, although being wicked, know how to give good gifts to your children, how much more so will the Father in heaven give holy spirit to those asking him!"[f]

14 Later he expelled a speechless demon.[g] After the demon came out, the speechless man spoke, and the crowds were amazed.[h] 15 But some of them said: "He expels the demons by means of Be·el′ze·bub,* the ruler of the demons."[i] 16 And others, to test him, began demanding a sign[j] out of heaven from him. 17 Knowing their thinking,[k] he said to them: "Every kingdom divided against itself comes to ruin, and a house divided against itself falls. 18 In the same way, if Satan is also divided against himself, how will his kingdom stand? For you say I expel the demons by means of Be·el′ze·bub. 19 If I expel the demons by means of Be·el′ze·bub, by whom do your sons expel them? This is why they will be your judges. 20 But if it is by means of God's finger[l] that I expel the demons, the Kingdom of God has really overtaken you.[a] 21 When a strong, well-armed man guards his palace, his belongings remain secure. 22 But when someone stronger than he is comes against him and conquers him, that man takes away all his weapons in which he was trusting, and he divides up the things he took from him. 23 Whoever is not on my side is against me, and whoever does not gather with me scatters.[b]

24 "When an unclean spirit comes out of a man, it passes through waterless places in search of a resting-place, and after finding none, it says, 'I will return to my house from which I moved.'[c] 25 And on arriving, it finds the house swept clean and adorned. 26 Then it goes and takes along seven other spirits more wicked than itself, and after getting inside, they dwell there. So the final circumstances of that man become worse than the first."

27 Now as he was saying these things, a woman from the crowd called out to him: "Happy is the womb that carried you and the breasts that nursed you!"[d] 28 But he said: "No, rather, happy are those hearing the word of God and keeping it!"[e]

29 When the crowds were massing together, he began to say: "This generation is a wicked generation; it looks for a sign, but no sign will be given to it except the sign of Jo'nah.[f] 30 For just as Jo'nah[g] became a sign to the Nin'e·vites, so will the Son of man be to this generation. 31 The queen of the south[h] will be raised up in the judgment with the men of this generation and will condemn them, for she came from the ends of the earth to hear the wisdom of Sol'o·mon. But look! something more than Sol'o·mon is here.[i] 32 The men of Nin'e·veh will rise in the judgment with this generation and will condemn it, because they repented at what Jo'nah preached.[a] But look! something more than Jo'nah is here. 33 After lighting a lamp, a person puts it, not in a hidden place nor under a basket,* but on the lampstand,[b] so that those who come in may see the light. 34 The lamp of the body is your eye. 37 When he had said this, a Pharisee asked him to dine with him. So he went in and reclined at the table. 38 However, the Pharisee was surprised at seeing that he did not first wash* before the dinner.[d] 39 But the Lord said to him: "Now you Pharisees, you cleanse the outside of the cup and dish, but inside you are full of greediness and wickedness.[e] 40 Unreasonable ones! The one who made the outside made also the inside, did he not? 41 But give as gifts of mercy* the things that are from within, and look! everything about you will be clean. 42 But woe to you Pharisees, because you give the tenth of the mint and of the rue and of every other garden herb,[f] but you disregard the justice and the love of God! cause you love the front seats in the synagogues and the greetings in the marketplaces![a] 44 Woe to you, because you are as those graves* that are not clearly visible,#[b] that men walk on and do not know it!"

45 In reply one of those versed in the Law said to him: "Teacher, in saying these things, you insult us also." 46 Then he said: "Woe also to you who are versed in the Law, because you load men down with loads hard to carry, but you yourselves do not touch the loads with one of your fingers![c]

53 So when he went out from there, the scribes and the Pharisees began to put extreme pressure on him and to ply him with many more questions, 54 lying in wait for him to catch him in something he might say.[a]

12 In the meantime, when a crowd of so many thousands had gathered together that they were stepping on one another, he started by saying first to his disciples: "Watch out for the leaven of the Pharisees, which is hypocrisy.[b] 2 But there is nothing carefully concealed that will not be revealed, and nothing secret that will not become known.[c] 3 Therefore, whatever you say in the darkness will be heard in the light, and what you whisper in private rooms will be preached from the housetops. 4 Moreover, I say to you, my friends,[d] do not fear those who kill the body and after this are not able to do anything more.[e] 5 But I will show you whom to fear: Fear the One who after killing has authority to throw into Ge·hen'na.[f] Yes, I tell you, fear this One.[g] 6 Five sparrows sell for two coins of small value, do they not? slaves whom the master on coming finds watching! Truly I say to you, he will dress* himself for service and have them recline at the table and will come alongside and minister to them. 38 And if he comes in the second watch,* even if in the third,# and finds them ready, happy are they! 39 But know this, if the householder had known at what hour the thief would come, he would not have let his house be broken into.[a] 40 You also, keep ready, because at an hour that you do not think likely, the Son of man is coming."[b]

41 Then Peter said: "Lord, are you telling this illustration just to us or also to everyone?" 42 And the Lord said: "Who really is the faithful steward,* the discreet one,# whom his master will appoint over his body of attendants△ to keep giving them their measure of food supplies at the proper time?[c] 43 Happy is that slave if his master on coming finds him doing so! 44 I tell you truthfully, he will appoint him over all his belongings. 45 But if ever that slave should say in his heart, 'My master delays coming,' and starts to beat the male and female servants and to eat and drink and get drunk,[d] 46 the master of that slave will come on a day that he is not expecting him and at an hour that he does not know, and he will punish him with the greatest severity and assign him a part with the unfaithful ones. 47 Then that slave who understood the will of his master but did not get ready or do what he asked* will be beaten with many strokes.[a] 48 But the one who did not understand and yet did things deserving of strokes will be beaten with few. Indeed, everyone to whom much was given, much will be demanded of him, and the one who was put in charge of much will have more than usual demanded of him.[b]

49 "I came to start a fire on the earth, and what more is there for me to wish if it has already been lit? 50 Indeed, I have a baptism with which to be baptized, and how I am distressed until it is finished![c] 51 Do you think I came to give peace on the earth? No, I tell you, but rather division.[d] 52 For from now on there will be five in one house divided, three against two and two against three. 53 They will be divided, father against son and son against father, mother against daughter and daughter against mother, mother-in-law against daughter-in-law and daughter-in-law against mother-in-law."[e]

54 Then he also said to the crowds: "When you see a cloud rising in the west, at once you say, 'A storm is coming,' and it happens. 55 And when you see that a south wind is blowing, you say, 'There will be a heat wave,' and it occurs. 56 Hypocrites, you know how to examine the appearance of earth and sky, but why do you not know how to examine this particular time?[f] 57 Why do you not judge also for yourselves what is righteous? 58 For example, when you are going with your legal opponent to a ruler, while on the way, get to work to settle the dispute with him so that he may not summon you before the judge, and the judge deliver you to the court officer, and the court officer throw you into prison.[g] 59 I tell you, you will certainly not get out of there until you pay over your last small coin.”*

13 At that time some who were present reported to him about the Gal·i·le′ans whose blood Pilate had mixed with their sacrifices. 2 In reply he said to them: “Do you think that those Gal·i·le′ans were worse sinners than all other Gal·i·le′ans because they have suffered these things? 3 No, I tell you; but unless you repent, you will all likewise be destroyed.[a] 4 Or those 18 on whom the tower in Si·lo′am fell, killing them—do you think that they had greater guilt than all other men who live in Jerusalem? 5 No, I tell you; but unless you repent, you will all be destroyed, as they were.”

6 Then he went on to tell this illustration: “A man had a fig tree planted in his vineyard, and he came looking for fruit on it but found none.[b] 7 Then he said to the vinedresser, ‘Here it is three years that I have come looking for fruit on this fig tree, but have found none. Cut it down! Why should it keep the ground useless?’ 8 In reply he said to him, ‘Master, leave it alone for one more year until I dig around it and put on manure. 9 If it produces fruit in the future, well and good; but if not, then cut it down.’”[c]

10 Now he was teaching in one of the synagogues on the Sabbath. 11 And look! a woman was there who had had a spirit of weakness* for 18 years; and she was bent double and was unable to straighten up at all. 12 When he saw her, Jesus addressed her and said: “Woman, you are released from your weakness.”[d] 13 And he laid his hands on her, and instantly she straightened up and began to glorify God. 14 But in response the presiding officer of the synagogue, indignant because Jesus did the cure on the Sabbath, said to the crowd: “There are six days on which work ought to be done;[a] so come and be cured on those days, and not on the Sabbath day.”[b] 15 However, the Lord answered him: “Hypocrites,[c] does not each one of you on the Sabbath untie his bull or his donkey from the stall and lead it away to give it something to drink?[d] 16 Should not this woman, who is a daughter of Abraham and whom Satan held bound for 18 years, be released from this bondage on the Sabbath day?” 17 Well, when he said these things, all his opposers began to feel shame, but the entire crowd began to rejoice at all the glorious things he did.[e]

18 So he went on to say: “What is the Kingdom of God like, and with what can I compare it? 19 It is like a mustard grain that a man took and planted in his garden, and it grew and became a tree, and the birds of heaven nested in its branches.”[f]

20 And again he said: “With what can I compare the Kingdom of God? 21 It is like leaven that a woman took and mixed with three large measures* of flour until the whole mass was fermented.”[g]

22 And he traveled from city to city and from village to village, teaching and continuing on his journey to Jerusalem. 23 Now a man said to him: “Lord, are those being saved few?” He said to them: 24 “Exert yourselves vigorously to get in through the narrow door,[a] because many, I tell you, will seek to get in but will not be able. 25 When the householder gets up and locks the door, you will stand outside knocking at the door, saying, 'Lord, open to us.'[b] But in answer he will say to you: 'I do not know where you are from.' 26 Then you will start saying, 'We ate and drank in your presence, and you taught in our main streets.'[c] 27 But he will say to you, 'I do not know where you are from. Get away from me, all you workers of unrighteousness!' 28 There is where your weeping and the gnashing of your teeth will be, when you see Abraham, Isaac, Jacob, and all the prophets in the Kingdom of God, but you yourselves thrown outside.[d] 29 Furthermore, people will come from east and west and from north and south, and will recline at the table in the Kingdom of God. 30 And look! there are those last who will be first, and there are those first who will be last."[e]

31 In that very hour some of the Pharisees came up and told him: "Get out and go away from here, because Herod wants to kill you." 32 And he said to them: "Go and tell that fox, 'Look! I am casting out demons and healing people today and tomorrow, and on the third day I will be finished.' 33 Nevertheless, I must go on today, tomorrow, and the following day, because it cannot be* that a prophet should be put to death outside of Jerusalem.[f] 34 Jerusalem, Jerusalem, the killer of the prophets and stoner of those sent to her[g]—how often I wanted to gather your children together the way a hen gathers her brood of chicks under her wings! But you did not want it.[a] 35 Look! Your house is abandoned to you.[b] I tell you, you will by no means see me until you say: 'Blessed is the one who comes in Jehovah's* name!'"[c]

14 On another occasion he went to eat a meal in the house of one of the leaders of the Pharisees on the Sabbath, and they were closely watching him. 2 And look! a man who had dropsy* was in front of him. 3 So in response Jesus asked those versed in the Law and the Pharisees: "Is it lawful to cure on the Sabbath or not?"[d] 4 But they kept silent. With that he took hold of the man, healed him, and sent him away. 5 Then he said to them: "Who of you, if his son or bull falls into a well,[e] will not immediately pull him out on the Sabbath day?"[f] 6 And they were not able to reply to this.

7 He then told the invited men an illustration when he noticed how they were choosing the most prominent places for themselves.[g] He said to them: 8 "When you are invited by someone to a marriage feast, do not recline in the most prominent place.[h] Perhaps someone more distinguished than you may also have been invited. 9 Then the one who invited you both will come and say to you, 'Let this man have your place.' Then you will proceed with shame to take the lowest place. 10 But when you are invited, go and recline in the lowest place, so that when the man who invited you comes, he will say to you, 'Friend, go on up higher.' Then you will have honor in front of all your fellow guests.[i] 11 For everyone who exalts himself will be humbled, and whoever humbles himself will be exalted."[a]

12 Next he said also to the man who had invited him: "When you spread a dinner or an evening meal, do not call your friends or your brothers or your relatives or your rich neighbors. Otherwise, they might also invite you in return, and it would become a repayment to you. 13 But when you spread a feast, invite the poor, the crippled, the lame, the blind;[b] 14 and you will be happy, because they have nothing with which to repay you. For you will be repaid in the resurrection[c] of the righteous ones."

15 On hearing these things, one of the fellow guests said to him: "Happy is the one who dines* in the Kingdom of God."

16 Jesus said to him: "A man was spreading a grand evening meal,[d] and he invited many. 17 He sent his slave out at the hour of the evening meal to say to the invited ones, 'Come, because everything is now ready.' 18 But they all alike began to make excuses.[e] The first said to him, 'I bought a field and need to go out and see it; I ask you, have me excused.' 19 And another said, 'I bought five yoke* of cattle and am going to examine them; I ask you, have me excused.'[f] 20 Still another said, 'I just got married, and for this reason I cannot come.' 21 So the slave came and reported these things to his master. Then the master of the house became angry and said to his slave, 'Go out quickly to the main streets and the alleys of the city, and bring in here the poor and crippled and blind and lame.' 22 In time the slave said, 'Master, what you ordered has been done, and still there is room.' 23 So the master said to the slave, 'Go out to the roads and the lanes and compel them to come in, so that my house may be filled.[a] 24 For I say to you, none of those men who were invited will taste my evening meal.'"[b]

25 Now large crowds were traveling with him, and he turned and said to them: 26 "If anyone comes to me and does not hate* his father and mother and wife and children and brothers and sisters, yes, and even his own life,#[c] he cannot be my disciple.[d] 27 Whoever does not carry his torture stake* and come after me cannot be my disciple.[e] 28 For example, who of you wanting to build a tower does not first sit down and calculate the expense to see if he has enough to complete it? 29 Otherwise, he might lay its foundation but not be able to finish it, and all the onlookers would start to ridicule him, 30 saying: 'This man started to build but was not able to finish.' 31 Or what king marching out against another king in war does not first sit down and take counsel whether he is able with 10,000 troops to stand up to the one who comes against him with 20,000? 32 If, in fact, he cannot do so, then while that one is yet far away, he sends out a body of ambassadors and sues for peace. 33 In the same way, you may be sure that not one of you who does not say good-bye to* all his belongings can be my disciple.[f]

15 Now all the tax collectors and the sinners kept gathering around him to hear him.[b] 2 And both the Pharisees and the scribes kept muttering: "This man welcomes sinners and eats with them." 3 Then he told them this illustration, saying: 4 "What man among you with 100 sheep, on losing one of them, will not leave the 99 behind in the wilderness and go after the lost one until he finds it?[c] 5 And when he has found it, he puts it on his shoulders and rejoices. 6 And when he gets home, he calls his friends and his neighbors together, saying to them, 'Rejoice with me, for I have found my sheep that was lost.'[d] 7 I tell you that in the same way, there will be more joy in heaven over one sinner who repents[e] than over 99 righteous ones who have no need of repentance.

8 "Or what woman who has ten drachma coins,* if she loses one of the drachmas,* does not light a lamp and sweep her house and search carefully until she finds it? 9 And when she has found it, she calls her friends[#] and neighbors together, saying, 'Rejoice with me, for I have found the drachma coin* that I had lost.' 10 In the same way, I tell you, joy arises among the angels of God over one sinner who repents."[f]

11 Then he said: "A man had two sons. 12 And the younger one said to his father, 'Father, give me the share of the property that should come to me.' So he divided his belongings between them. 13 A few days later, the younger son gathered all his things together and traveled to a distant country and there squandered his property by living a debauched* life. 14 When he had spent everything, a severe famine occurred throughout that country, and he fell into need. 15 He even went and attached himself to one of the citizens of that country, who sent him into his fields to herd swine.[a] 16 And he longed to be filled with the carob pods that the swine were eating, but no one would give him anything.

17 "When he came to his senses, he said, 'How many of my father's hired men have more than enough bread, while I am dying here from hunger! 18 I will get up and travel to my father and say to him: "Father, I have sinned against heaven and against you. 19 I am no longer worthy of being called your son. Make me as one of your hired men."' 20 So he got up and went to his father. While he was still a long way off, his father caught sight of him and was moved with pity, and he ran and embraced him* and tenderly kissed him. 21 Then the son said to him, 'Father, I have sinned against heaven and against you.[b] I am no longer worthy of being called your son.' 22 But the father said to his slaves, 'Quick! bring out a robe, the best one, and clothe him with it, and put a ring on his hand and sandals on his feet. 23 Also bring the fattened calf, slaughter it, and let us eat and celebrate, 24 for this son of mine was dead but has come to life again;[c] he was lost and has been found.' And they started to enjoy themselves.

25 "Now his older son was in the field, and as he returned and got near the house, he heard

Then his father came out and began to plead with him. 29 In reply he said to his father, ‘Look! 16 Then he also said to the disciples: “A rich man had a steward* who was accused of handling his goods wastefully. 2 So he called him and said, ‘What is this I hear about you? Hand in the account of your stewardship, for you can no longer manage the house.’ 3 Then the steward said to himself, ‘What am I to do, seeing that my master is taking the stewardship away from me? I am not strong enough to dig, and I am ashamed to beg. 4 Ah! I know what I will do, so that when I am removed from the stewardship, people will welcome me into their homes.’ 5 And calling to him each one of his master’s debtors, he said to the first, ‘How much do you owe my master?’ 6 He replied, ‘A hundred measures* of olive oil.’ He said to him, ‘Take back your written agreement and sit down and quickly write 50.’ 7 Next, he said to another one, ‘Now you, how much do you owe?’ He said, ‘A hundred large measures* of wheat.’ He said to him, ‘Take back your written agreement and write 80.’ 8 And his master commended the steward, though unrighteous, because he acted with practical wisdom;* for the sons of this system of things# are wiser in a practical way toward their own generation than the sons of the light[a] are.

9 “Also, I say to you: Make friends for yourselves by means of the unrighteous riches,[b] so that when such fail, they may receive you into the everlasting dwelling places.[c] 10 The person faithful in what is least is faithful also in much, and the person unrighteous in what is least is unrighteous also in much. 11 Therefore, if you have not proved yourselves faithful in connection with the unrighteous riches, who will entrust you with what is true? 12 And if you have not proved yourselves faithful in connection with what belongs to another, who will give you something for yourselves?[d] 13 No servant can be a slave to two masters, for either he will hate the one and love the other, or he will stick to the one and despise the other. You cannot be slaves to God and to Riches.”[e]

14 Now the Pharisees, who were money lovers, were listening to all these things, and they began to sneer at him.[a] 15 So he said to them: "You are those who declare yourselves righteous before men,[b] but God knows your hearts.[c] For what is considered exalted by men is a disgusting thing in God's sight.[d]

16 "The Law and the Prophets were until John. From then on, the Kingdom of God is being declared as good news, and every sort of person is pressing forward toward it.[e] 17 Indeed, it is easier for heaven and earth to pass away than for one stroke of a letter of the Law to go unfulfilled.[f]

Yes, even the dogs would come and lick his ulcers. 22 Now in the course of time, the beggar died and was carried off by the angels to Abraham's side.*

"Also, the rich man died and was buried. 23 And in the Grave* he lifted up his eyes, being in torment, and he saw Abraham from afar and Laz'a·rus by his side.# 24 So he called and said, 'Father Abraham, have mercy on me, and send Laz'a·rus to dip the tip of his finger in water and cool my tongue, for I am in anguish in this blazing fire.' 25 But Abraham said, 'Child, remember that you had your fill of good things in your lifetime, but Laz'a·rus for his part received bad things. Now, however, he is being comforted here, but you are in anguish. 26 And besides all these things, a great chasm has been fixed between us and you, so that those who want to go over from here to you cannot, neither may people cross over from there to us.' 27 Then he said, 'That being so, I ask you, father, to send him to the house of my father, 28 for I have five brothers, in order that he may give them a thorough witness so that they will not also come into this place of torment.' 29 But Abraham said, 'They have Moses and the Prophets; let them listen to these.'[a] 30 Then he said, 'No, indeed, father Abraham, but if someone from the dead goes to them, they will repent.' 31 But he said to him, 'If they do not listen to Moses[b] and the Prophets, neither will they be persuaded if someone rises from the dead.'"

17 Then he said to his disciples: "It is unavoidable that causes for stumbling should come. Nevertheless, woe to the one through whom they come! 2 It would be more advantageous for him if a millstone were hung from his neck and he were thrown into the sea than for him to stumble one of these little ones.[c] 3 Pay attention to yourselves. If your brother commits a sin, rebuke him,[d] and if he repents, forgive him.[e] 4 Even if he sins seven times a day against you and he comes back to you seven times, saying, 'I repent,' you must forgive him."[f] uprooted and planted in the sea!' and it would obey you.[a]

7 "Which one of you who has a slave plowing or shepherding would say to him when he comes in from the field, 'Come here at once and dine at the table'? 8 Rather, will he not say to him, 'Get something ready for me to have my evening meal, and put on an apron and serve me until I finish eating and drinking, and afterward you can eat and drink'? 9 He will not feel gratitude to the slave because he did what was assigned, will he? 10 Likewise, when you have done all the things assigned to you, say: 'We are good-for-nothing slaves. What we have done is what we ought to have done.'"[b]

11 While he was going to Jerusalem, he was passing between Sa·mar'i·a and Gal'i·lee. 12 And as he was entering a village, ten men with leprosy met him, but they stood at a distance.[c] 13 And they raised their voices and said: "Jesus, Instructor, have mercy on us!" 14 When he saw them, he said to them: "Go and show yourselves to the priests."[d] Then as they were going off, they were cleansed.[e] 15 One of them, when he saw that he was healed, turned back, glorifying God with a loud voice. 16 And he fell facedown at Jesus' feet, thanking him. Furthermore, he was a Sa·mar'i·tan.[f] 17 In reply Jesus said: "All ten were cleansed, were they not? Where, then, are the other nine? 18 Did no one else turn back to give glory to God except this man of another nation?" 19 Then he said to him: "Get up and be on your way; your faith has made you well."[g]

20 On being asked by the Pharisees when the Kingdom of God was coming,[h] he answered them: "The Kingdom of God is not coming with striking observableness; 21 nor will people say, 'See here!' or, 'There!' For look! the Kingdom of God is in your midst."*[a]

22 Then he said to the disciples: "Days will come when you will desire to see one of the days of the Son of man, but you will not see it. 23 And people will say to you, 'See there!' or, 'See here!' Do not go out or chase after them.[b] 24 For just as lightning flashes from one part of heaven to another part of heaven, so the Son of man[c] will be in his day.[d] 25 First, however, he must undergo many sufferings and be rejected by this generation.[e] 26 Moreover, just as it occurred in the days of Noah,[f] so it will be in the days of the Son of man:[g] 27 they were eating, they were drinking, men were marrying, women were being given in marriage until that day when Noah entered into the ark,[h] and the Flood came and destroyed them all.[i] 28 Likewise, just as it occurred in the days of Lot:[j] they were eating, they were drinking, they were buying, they were selling, they were planting, they were building. 29 But on the day that Lot went out of Sod'om, it rained fire and sulfur from heaven and destroyed them all.[k] 30 It will be the same on that day when the Son of man is revealed.[l]

31 "On that day let the person who is on the housetop but whose belongings are in the house not come down to pick these up, and likewise, the person out in the field must not return to the things behind. 32 Remember the wife of Lot.[m] 33 Whoever seeks to keep his life* safe will lose it, but whoever loses it will preserve it alive.[a] 34 I tell you, in that night two people will be in one bed; the one will be taken along, but the other will be abandoned.[b] 35 There will be two women grinding at the same mill; the one will be taken along, but the other will be abandoned." 36 *— 37 So in response they said to him: "Where, Lord?" He said to them: "Where the body is, there also the eagles will be gathered together."[c]

18 Then he went on to tell them an illustration about the need for them always to pray and not to give up,[d] 2 saying: "In a certain city there was a judge who had no fear of God and no respect for man. 3 There was also a widow in that city who kept going to him and saying, 'See that I get justice from my legal opponent.' 4 Well, for a while he was unwilling, but afterward he said to himself, 'Although I do not fear God or respect any man, 5 because this widow keeps making me trouble, I will see that she gets justice so that she will not keep coming and wearing me out with her demand.'"[e] 6 Then the Lord said: "Hear what the judge, although unrighteous, said! 7 Certainly, then, will not God cause justice to be done for his chosen ones who cry out to him day and night,[f] while he is patient toward them?[g] 8 I tell you, he will cause justice to be done to them speedily. Nevertheless, when the Son of man arrives, will he really find this faith on the earth?"

9 He also told this illustration to some who trusted in their own righteousness and who considered others as nothing: 10 "Two men went up into the temple to pray, the one a Pharisee and the other a tax collector. 11 The Pharisee stood and began to pray these things to himself, 'O God, I thank you that I am not like everyone else—extortioners, unrighteous, adulterers—or even like this tax collector. 12 I fast twice a week; I give the tenth of all things I acquire.'[a] 13 But the tax collector, standing at a distance, was not willing even to raise his eyes heavenward but kept beating his chest, saying, 'O God, be gracious to me,* a sinner.'[b] 14 I tell you, this man went down to his home and was proved more righteous than that Pharisee.[c] Because everyone who exalts himself will be humiliated, but whoever humbles himself will be exalted."[d]

15 Now people were also bringing him their infants for him to touch them, but on seeing this, the disciples began to reprimand them.[e] 16 However, Jesus called the infants to him, saying: "Let the young children come to me, and do not try to stop them, for the Kingdom of God belongs to such ones.[f] 17 Truly I say to you, whoever does not receive the Kingdom of God like a young child will by no means enter into it."[g]

18 And one of the rulers questioned him, saying: "Good Teacher, what must I do to inherit everlasting life?"[h] 19 Jesus said to him: "Why do you call me good? Nobody is good except one, God.[i] 20 You know the commandments: 'Do not commit adultery,[j] do not murder,[k] do not steal,[l] do not bear false witness,[m] honor your father and your mother.'"[n] 21 Then he said: "All of these I have kept from youth on." 22 After hearing that, Jesus said to him, "There is still one thing lacking about you: Sell all the things you have and distribute the proceeds to the poor, and you will have treasure in the heavens; and come be my follower."[a] 23 When he heard this, he became deeply grieved, for he was very rich.[b]

24 Jesus looked at him and said: "How difficult it will be for those having money to make their way into the Kingdom of God![c] 25 It is easier, in fact, for a camel to get through the eye of a sewing needle than for a rich man to enter the Kingdom of God."[d] 26 Those who heard this said: "Who possibly can be saved?"[e] 27 He said: "The things impossible with men are possible with God."[f] 28 But Peter said: "Look! We have left what was ours and followed you."[g] 29 He said to them: "Truly I say to you, there is no one who has left house or wife or brothers or parents or children for the sake of the Kingdom of God[h] 30 who will not get many times more in this period of time, and in the coming system of things,* everlasting life."[i]

31 Then he took the Twelve aside and said to them: "Look! We are going up to Jerusalem, and all the things written by means of the prophets about the Son of man will be accomplished.*[j] 32 For instance, he will be handed over to men of the nations[k] and will be mocked[l] and treated insolently and spat on.[m] 33 And after scourging him, they will kill him,[n] but on the third day he will rise."[o] 34 However, they did not get the meaning of any of these things, for these words were hidden from them, and they did not understand the things said.

35 Now as Jesus was getting near to Jer′i·cho, a blind man was sitting beside the road begging.[a] 36 Because he heard a crowd passing by, he began to inquire what was going on. 37 They reported to him: "Jesus the Naz·a·rene′ is passing by!" 38 At that he cried out: "Jesus, Son of David, have mercy on me!" 39 And those who were in front began rebuking him, telling him to keep quiet, but all the more he kept shouting: "Son of David, have mercy on me!" 40 Then Jesus stopped and commanded that the man be brought to him. After he came near, Jesus asked him: 41 "What do you want me to do for you?" He said: "Lord, let me recover my sight." 42 So Jesus said to him: "Recover your sight; your faith has made you well."[b] 43 And instantly he recovered his sight, and he began to follow him,[c] glorifying God. Also, at seeing it, all the people gave praise to God.[d]

19 He then entered Jer′i·cho and was passing through. 2 Now a man named Zac·chae′us was there; he was a chief tax collector, and he was rich. 3 Well, he was trying to see who this Jesus was, but he could not see because of the crowd, since he was short. 4 So he ran ahead and climbed a sycamore* tree in order to see him, for he was about to pass that way. 5 Now when Jesus got to the place, he looked up and said to him: "Zac·chae′us, hurry and get down, for today I must stay in your house." 6 With that he hurried down and joyfully welcomed him as a guest. 7 When they saw this, they were all muttering: "He went as a guest to the house of a man who is a sinner."[a] 8 But Zac·chae'us stood up and said to the Lord: "Look! The half of my belongings, Lord, I am giving to the poor, and whatever I extorted* from anyone, I am restoring four times over."[b] 9 At this Jesus said to him: "Today salvation has come to this house, because he too is a son of Abraham. 10 For the Son of man came to seek and to save what was lost."[c]

11 While they were listening to these things, he told another illustration, because he was near Jerusalem and they thought that the Kingdom of God was going to appear instantly.[d] 12 So he said: "A man of noble birth traveled to a distant land[e] to secure kingly power for himself and to return. 13 Calling ten of his slaves, he gave them ten mi'nas* and told them, 'Do business with these until I come.'[f] 14 But his citizens hated him and sent out a body of ambassadors after him to say, 'We do not want this man to become king over us.'

15 "When he eventually got back after having secured the kingly power,* he summoned the slaves to whom he had given the money,# in order to ascertain what they had gained by their business activity.[g] 16 So the first one came forward and said, 'Lord, your mi'na gained ten mi'nas.'[h] 17 He said to him, 'Well done, good slave! Because in a very small matter you have proved yourself faithful, hold authority over ten cities.'[i] 18 Now the second came, saying, 'Your mi'na, Lord, made five mi'nas.'[j] 19 He said to this one as well, 'You too be in charge of five cities.' 20 But another one came, saying, 'Lord, here is your mi'na that I kept hidden away in a cloth. 21 You see, I was in fear of you, because you are a harsh man; you take what you did not deposit, and you reap what you did not sow.'[a] 22 He said to him, 'By your own words I judge you, wicked slave. You knew, did you, that I am a harsh man, taking what I did not deposit and reaping what I did not sow?[b] 23 So why did you not put my money* in a bank? Then on my coming, I would have collected it with interest.'

24 "With that he said to those standing by, 'Take the mi'na from him and give it to the one who has the ten mi'nas.'[c] 25 But they said to him, 'Lord, he has ten mi'nas!'— 26 'I say to you, to everyone who has, more will be given, but from the one who does not have, even what he has will be taken away.[d] 27 Moreover, bring these enemies of mine here who did not want me to become king over them and execute them in front of me.'"

28 After he had said these things, he went on ahead, going up to Jerusalem. 29 And when he got near to Beth'pha·ge and Beth'a·ny at the mountain called Mount of Olives,[e] he sent two of the disciples,[f] 30 saying: "Go into the village that is within sight, and after you enter it, you will find a colt tied, on which no man has ever sat. Untie it and bring it here. 31 But if anyone asks you, 'Why are you untying it?' you must say, 'The Lord needs it.'" 32 So those who were sent went away and found it just as he had said to them.[g] 33 But as they were untying the colt, its owners said to them:

36 As he moved along, they were spreading their outer garments on the road.[b] 37 As soon as he got near the road down the Mount of Olives, the whole multitude of the disciples began to rejoice and to praise God with a loud voice because of all the powerful works they had seen, 38 saying: "Blessed is the one coming as the King in Jehovah's* name! Peace in heaven, and glory in the heights above!"[c] 39 However, some of the Pharisees from the crowd said to him: "Teacher, rebuke your disciples."[d] 40 But in reply he said: "I tell you, if these remained silent, the stones would cry out."

41 And when he got nearby, he viewed the city and wept over it,[e] 42 saying: "If you, even you, had discerned on this day the things having to do with peace—but now they have been hidden from your eyes.[f] 43 Because the days will come upon you when your enemies will build around you a fortification of pointed stakes and will encircle you and besiege* you from every side.[g] 44 They will dash you and your children within you to the ground,[h] and they will not leave a stone upon a stone in you,[i] because you did not discern the time of your being inspected."

47 He continued teaching daily in the temple. But the chief priests and the scribes and the principal ones of the people were seeking to kill him;[a] 48 but they did not find any way to do this, for the people one and all kept hanging on to him to hear him.[b]

20 On one of the days while he was teaching the people in the temple and declaring the good news, the chief priests and the scribes with the elders came 2 and said to him: "Tell us, by what authority do you do these things? Or who gave you this authority?"[c] 3 He replied to them: "I will also ask you a question, and you tell me: 4 Was the baptism of John from heaven or from men?"* 5 Then they drew conclusions among themselves, saying: "If we say, 'From heaven,' he will say, 'Why did you not believe him?' 6 But if we say, 'From men,' the people one and all will stone us, for they are convinced that John was a prophet."[d] 7 So they replied that they did not know its source. 8 Jesus said to them: "Neither am I telling you by what authority I do these things."

9 Then he began to tell the people this illustration: "A man planted a vineyard[e] and leased it to cultivators, and he traveled abroad for a considerable time.[f] 10 In due season he sent a slave to the cultivators so that they would give him some of the fruit of the vineyard. The cultivators, however, sent him away empty-handed, after beating him.[g] 11 But again he sent another slave. That one also they beat and humiliated* and sent away empty-handed. 12 Yet again he sent a third; this one also they wounded and threw out. 13 At this the owner of the vineyard said, 'What should I do? I will send my son, the beloved.[a] They will likely respect this one.' 14 When the cultivators caught sight of him, they reasoned with one another, saying, 'This is the heir. Let us kill him so that the inheritance may become ours.' 15 So they threw him out of the vineyard and killed him.[b] What, then, will the owner of the vineyard do to them? 16 He will come and kill these cultivators and will give the vineyard to others."

On hearing this, they said: "Never may that happen!" 17 But he looked straight at them and said: "What, then, does this mean where it is written: 'The stone that the builders rejected, this has become the chief cornerstone'?*[c] 18 Everyone falling on that stone will be shattered.[d] As for anyone on whom it falls, it will crush him."

19 The scribes and the chief priests then sought to get their hands on him in that very hour, but they feared the people, for they realized that he told this illustration with them in mind.[e] 20 And after observing him closely, they sent men whom they had secretly hired to pretend that they were righteous in order to catch him in his speech,[f] so as to turn him over to the government and to the authority of the governor. 21 And they questioned him, saying: "Teacher, we know you speak and teach correctly and show no partiality, but you teach the way of God in line with truth: 22 Is it lawful* for us to pay head tax to Caesar or not?" 23 But he detected their cunning and said to them: 24 "Show me a de·nar'i·us.* Whose image and inscription does it have?" They said: "Caesar's." 25 He said to them: "By all means, then, pay back Caesar's things to Caesar[a] but God's things to God."[b] 26 Well, they were not able to trap him in his speech before the people, but amazed at his answer, they became silent.

27 However, some of the Sadducees, those who say there is no resurrection,[c] came and asked him:[d] 28 "Teacher, Moses wrote us, 'If a man's brother dies, leaving a wife, but he was childless, his brother should take the wife and raise up offspring for his brother.'[e] 29 Now there were seven brothers. The first took a wife but died childless. 30 So the second 31 and the third married her. Likewise even all seven; they died and left no children. 32 Finally the woman also died. 33 Consequently, in the resurrection, whose wife will she become? For the seven had her as a wife."

34 Jesus said to them: "The children of this system of things* marry and are given in marriage, 35 but those who have been counted worthy of gaining that system of things and the resurrection from the dead neither marry nor are given in marriage.[f] 36 In fact, neither can they die anymore, for they are like the angels, and they are God's children by being children of the resurrection. 37 But that the dead are raised up, even Moses made known in the account about the thornbush, when he calls Jehovah* 'the God of Abraham and God of Isaac and God of Jacob.'[g] 38 He is a God, not of the dead, but of the living, for they are all living to him."*[a] 39 In response some of the scribes said: "Teacher, you spoke well." 40 For they no longer had the courage to ask him a single question.

41 In turn he asked them: "How is it they say that the Christ is David's son?[b] 42 For David himself says in the book of Psalms, 'Jehovah* said to my Lord: "Sit at my right hand 43 until I place your enemies as a stool for your feet."'[c] 44 David, therefore, calls him Lord; so how is he his son?"

45 Then, while all the people were listening, he said to his disciples: 46 "Beware of the scribes who like to walk around in robes and who love greetings in the marketplaces and front* seats in the synagogues and the most prominent places at evening meals,[d] 47 and who devour the houses* of the widows and for show# make long prayers. 21 Now as he looked up, he saw the rich dropping their gifts into the treasury chests.[e] 2 Then he saw a needy widow drop in two small coins of very little value,[f] 3 and he said: "Truly I say to you that this poor widow put in more than they all did.[g] 4 For all of these put in gifts out of their surplus, but she, out of her want,* put in all the means of living she had."[h]

5 Later, when some were speaking about the temple, how it was adorned with fine stones and dedicated things,[i] 6 he said: "As for these things that you now see, the days will come when not a stone will be left upon a stone and not be thrown down."[a] 7 Then they questioned him, saying: "Teacher, when will these things actually be, and what will be the sign when these things are to occur?"[b] 8 He said: "Look out that you are not misled,[c] for many will come on the basis of my name, saying, 'I am he,' and, 'The due time is near.' Do not go after them.[d] 9 Furthermore, when you hear of wars and disturbances,* do not be terrified. For these things must take place first, but the end will not occur immediately."[e]

10 Then he said to them: "Nation will rise against nation,[f] and kingdom against kingdom.[g] 11 There will be great earthquakes, and in one place after another food shortages and pestilences;[h] and there will be fearful sights and from heaven great signs.

12 "But before all these things happen, people will lay their hands on you and persecute you,[i] handing you over to the synagogues and prisons. You will be brought before kings and governors for the sake of my name.[j] 13 It will result in your giving a witness. 14 Therefore, resolve in your hearts not to rehearse beforehand how to make your defense,[k] 15 for I will give you words and wisdom that all your opposers together will not be able to resist or dispute.[l] 16 Moreover, you will be handed over* even by parents and brothers and relatives and friends, and they will put some of you to death,[m] 17 and you will be hated by all people because of my name.[n] 18 But not even a hair of your heads will perish.[o]

20 "However, when you see Jerusalem surrounded by encamped armies,[b] then know that the desolating of her has drawn near.[c] 21 Then let those in Ju·de'a begin fleeing to the mountains,[d] let those in the midst of her leave, and let those in the countryside not enter into her, 22 because these are days for meting out justice* in order that all the things written may be fulfilled. 23 Woe to the pregnant women and those nursing a baby in those days![e] For there will be great distress on the land and wrath against this people. 24 And they will fall by the edge of the sword and be led captive into all the nations;[f] and Jerusalem will be trampled on by the nations* until the appointed times of the nations* are fulfilled.[g]

25 "Also, there will be signs in the sun and moon and stars,[h] and on the earth anguish of nations not knowing the way out because of the roaring of the sea and its agitation. 26 People will become faint out of fear and expectation of the things coming upon the inhabited earth, for the powers of the heavens will be shaken. 27 And then they will see the Son of man[i] coming in a cloud with power and great glory.[j] 28 But as these things start to occur, stand up straight and lift up your heads, because your deliverance is getting near."

29 With that he told them an illustration: "Notice the fig tree and all the other trees.[k] 30 When they are budding, you see it for yourselves and know that now the summer is near. 31 Likewise also you, when you see these things happening, know that the Kingdom of God is near. 32 Truly I say to you that this generation will by no means pass away until all things happen.[a] 33 Heaven and earth will pass away, but my words will by no means pass away.[b]

34 "But pay attention to yourselves that your hearts never become weighed down with overeating and heavy drinking[c] and anxieties of life,[d] and suddenly that day be instantly upon you 35 as a snare.[e] For it will come upon all those dwelling on the face of the whole earth. 36 Keep awake,[f] then, all the time making supplication[g] that you may succeed in escaping all these things that must occur and in standing before the Son of man."[h]

37 So by day he would be teaching in the temple, but by night he would go out and lodge on the mountain called the Mount of Olives. 38 And all the people would come to him early in the morning to hear him in the temple.

22 Now the Festival of the Unleavened Bread, which is called Passover,[i] was getting near.[j] 2 And the chief priests and the scribes were looking for an effective way to get rid of him,[k] because they were afraid of the people.[l] 3 Then Satan entered into Judas, the one called Is·car'i·ot, who was numbered among the Twelve,[m] 4 and he went off and talked with the chief priests and temple captains about how to betray him to them.[n] 5 They were delighted at this and agreed to give him silver money.[o] 6 So he consented and began looking for a good opportunity to betray him to them without a crowd around.

7 The first day of the Unleavened Bread now arrived, on which the Passover sacrifice must be offered;[a] 8 so Jesus sent Peter and John, saying: "Go and get the Passover ready for us to eat."[b] 9 They said to him: "Where do you want us to get it ready?" 10 He said to them: "Look! When you enter into the city, a man carrying an earthenware water jar will meet you. Follow him into the house that he enters.[c] 11 And say to the landlord of the house, 'The Teacher says to you: "Where is the guest room where I may eat the Passover with my disciples?"' 12 And that man will show you a large, furnished upper room. Get it ready there." 13 So they left and found it just as he had told them, and they prepared for the Passover.

14 So when the hour came, he reclined at the table along with the apostles.[d] 15 And he said to them: "I have greatly desired to eat this Passover with you before I suffer; 16 for I tell you, I will not eat it again until it is fulfilled in the Kingdom of God." 17 And accepting a cup, he gave thanks and said: "Take this and pass it from one to the other among yourselves, 18 for I tell you, from now on, I will not drink again from the product of the vine until the Kingdom of God comes."

19 Also, he took a loaf,[e] gave thanks, broke it, and gave it to them, saying: "This means my body,[f] which is to be given in your behalf.[g] Keep doing this in remembrance of me."[h] 20 Also, he did the same with the cup after they had the evening meal, saying: "This cup means the new covenant[i] by virtue of my blood,[j] which is to be poured out in your behalf.[k]

21 "But look! the hand of my betrayer is with me at the table.[l] 22 For, indeed, the Son of man is going his way according to what has been determined;[m] all the same, woe to that man through whom he is betrayed!"[a] 23 So they began to discuss among themselves which one of them could really be about to do this.[b]

24 However, there also arose a heated dispute among them over which one of them was considered to be the greatest.[c] 25 But he said to them: "The kings of the nations lord it over them, and those having authority over them are called Benefactors.[d] 26 You, though, are not to be that way.[e] But let the one who is the greatest among you become as the youngest,[f] and the one taking the lead as the one ministering. 27 For which one is greater, the one dining* or the one serving?# Is it not the one dining?* But I am among you as the one serving.#[g]

28 "However, you are the ones who have stuck with me[h] in my trials;[i] 29 and I make a covenant with you, just as my Father has made a covenant with me, for a kingdom,[j] 30 so that you may eat and drink at my table in my Kingdom,[k] and sit on thrones[l] to judge the 12 tribes of Israel.[m]

31 "Simon, Simon, look! Satan has demanded to have all of you to sift you as wheat.[n] 32 But I have made supplication for you that your faith may not give out;[o] and you, once you have returned, strengthen your brothers."[p] 33 Then he said to him: "Lord, I am ready to go with you both to prison and to death."[q] 34 But he said: "I tell you, Peter, a rooster will not crow today until you have denied knowing me three times."[r] sandals,[a] you did not lack anything, did you?" They said: "No!" 36 Then he said to them: "But now let the one who has a money bag take it, likewise a food pouch, and let the one who has no sword sell his outer garment and buy one. 37 For I tell you that what is written must be accomplished in me, namely, 'He was counted with lawless ones.'[b] For this is being fulfilled concerning me."[c] 38 Then they said: "Lord, look! here are two swords." He said to them: "It is enough."

39 On leaving, he went as was his custom to the Mount of Olives, and the disciples also followed him.[d] 40 On arriving at the place, he said to them: "Carry on prayer so that you do not enter into temptation." 41 And he withdrew from them about a stone's throw away, and he bent his knees and began to pray, 42 saying: "Father, if you want to, remove this cup from me. Nevertheless, let, not my will, but yours take place."[f] 43 Then an angel from heaven appeared to him and strengthened him.[g] 44 But he was in such agony that he kept praying more earnestly;[h] and his sweat became as drops of blood falling to the ground. 45 When he rose from prayer and went to the disciples, he found them slumbering, exhausted from grief.[i] 46 He said to them: "Why are you sleeping? Get up and keep praying, so that you do not enter into temptation."[j]

47 While he was still speaking, look! a crowd, and the man called Judas, one of the Twelve, was leading them, and he approached Jesus to kiss him.[k] 48 But Jesus said to him: "Judas, are you betraying the Son of man with a kiss?" 49 When those around him saw what was going to happen, they said: "Lord, should we strike with the sword?" 50 One of them even struck the slave of the high priest, taking off his right ear.[a] 51 But in reply Jesus said: "That is enough." And he touched the ear and healed him. 52 Jesus then said to the chief priests and captains of the temple and elders who had come there for him: "Did you come out with swords and clubs as against a robber?[b] 53 While I was with you in the temple day after day,[c] you did not lay your hands on me.[d] But this is your hour and the authority of darkness."[e]

54 Then they arrested him and led him off,[f] and they brought him into the house of the high priest; but Peter was following at a distance.[g] 55 When they lit a fire in the middle of the courtyard and sat down together, Peter was sitting among them.[h] 56 But a servant girl, seeing him sitting in the light of the fire, looked closely at him and said: "This man was also with him." 57 But he denied it, saying: "I do not know him, woman." 58 After a short time another person saw him and said: "You too are one of them." But Peter said: "Man, I am not."[i] 59 And after about an hour had passed, another man began insisting strongly: "Certainly this man was also with him, for he is, in fact, a Gal·i·le'an!" 60 But Peter said: "Man, I do not know what you are saying." And instantly, while he was still speaking, a rooster crowed. 61 At this the Lord turned and looked straight at Peter, and Peter recalled the statement of the Lord when he had said to him: "Before a rooster crows today, you will disown me three times."[j] 62 And he went outside and wept bitterly.

63 Now the men who held Jesus in custody began to mock him,[a] hitting him;[b] 64 and after covering his face, they kept asking: "Prophesy! Who is it that struck you?" 65 And they said many other blasphemous things against him.

66 And when it became day, the assembly of elders of the people, both chief priests and scribes, gathered together,[c] and they led him into their San′he·drin hall and said: 67 "If you are the Christ, tell us."[d] But he said to them: "Even if I told you, you would not believe it at all. 68 Moreover, if I questioned you, you would not answer. 69 However, from now on the Son of man[e] will be seated at the powerful right hand of God."[f] 70 At this they all said: "Are you, therefore, the Son of God?" He said to them: "You yourselves are saying that I am." 71 They said: "Why do we need further testimony? For we ourselves have heard it out of his own mouth."[g]

23 So the multitude got up, one and all, and led him to Pilate.[h] 2 Then they began to accuse him,[i] saying: "We found this man subverting our nation, forbidding the paying of taxes to Caesar,[j] and saying he himself is Christ a king."[k] 3 Now Pilate asked him the question: "Are you the King of the Jews?" In answer he said: "You yourself are saying it."[l] 4 Then Pilate said to the chief priests and the crowds: "I find no crime in this man."[m] 5 But they insisted, saying: "He stirs up the people by teaching throughout all Ju·de′a, starting from Gal′i·lee even to here." 6 On hearing that, Pilate asked whether the man was a Gal·i·le′an. 7 After ascertaining that he was under the jurisdiction of Herod,[n] he sent him on to Herod, who was also in Jerusalem in those days.

8 When Herod saw Jesus, he rejoiced greatly. For a considerable time he had been wanting to see Jesus because he had heard much about him,[a] and he was hoping to see some sign performed by him. 9 So he began to question him at length, but he gave him no answer.[b] 10 However, the chief priests and the scribes kept standing up and vehemently accusing him. 11 Then Herod together with his soldiers treated him with contempt,[c] and he mocked him[d] by clothing him with a splendid garment and then sent him back to Pilate. 12 Herod and Pilate became friends with each other on that very day, for before that they had been at enmity with each other.

13 Pilate then called together the chief priests, the rulers, and the people 14 and said to them: "You brought this man to me as one inciting the people to revolt. Now look! I examined him in front of you but found in this man no grounds for the charges you are bringing against him.[e] 15 In fact, neither did Herod, for he sent him back to us, and look! he has done nothing deserving of death. 16 I will therefore punish him[f] and release him." 17 — 18 But the whole crowd shouted out: "Do away with this man, and release Bar·ab′bas to us!"[g] 19 (This man had been thrown into prison for sedition that had occurred in the city and for murder.) 20 Again Pilate called out to them, because he wanted to release Jesus.[h] 21 Then they began to yell, saying: "To the stake with him! To the stake with him!"[i] 22 The third time he said to them: "Why? What bad thing did this man do? I found in him nothing deserving of death; I will therefore punish him and release him." 23 At this they became insistent, demanding with loud voices that he be executed, and their voices prevailed.[a] 24 So Pilate made the decision that their demand be met. 25 He released the man whom they were demanding, who had been thrown into prison for sedition and murder, but he surrendered Jesus to their will.

26 Now as they led him away, they seized a certain Simon of Cy·re′ne, who was coming from the countryside, and they placed the torture stake* on him to carry it behind Jesus.[b] 27 A large number of people were following him, including women who kept beating themselves in grief and wailing for him. 28 Jesus turned to the women and said: "Daughters of Jerusalem, stop weeping for me. Weep instead for yourselves and for your children;[c] 29 for look! days are coming when people will say, 'Happy are the barren women, the wombs that did not give birth and the breasts that did not nurse!'[d] 30 Then they will start saying to the mountains, 'Fall over us!' and to the hills, 'Cover us over!'[e] 31 If they do these things when the tree is moist, what will occur when it is withered?"

32 Two other men, criminals, were also being led off to be executed with him.[f] 33 And when they got to the place called Skull,[g] they nailed him to the stake there alongside the criminals, one on his right and one on his left.[h] 34 But Jesus was saying: "Father, forgive them, for they do not know what they are doing." Furthermore, they cast lots to distribute his garments.[a] 35 And the people stood looking on. But the rulers were sneering and saying: "Others he saved; let him save himself if he is the Christ of God, the Chosen One."[b] 36 Even the soldiers mocked him, coming up and offering him sour wine[c] 37 and saying: "If you are the King of the Jews, save yourself." 38 There was also an inscription over him: "This is the King of the Jews."[d]

39 Then one of the criminals hanging there began to speak abusively to him,[e] saying: "You are the Christ, are you not? Save yourself and us too!" 40 In response the other rebuked him, saying: "Do you not fear God at all, now that you have received the same judgment? 41 And we rightly so, for we are getting back what we deserve for the things we did; but this man did nothing wrong." 42 Then he said: "Jesus, remember me when you get into your Kingdom."[f] 43 And he said to him: "Truly I tell you today, you will be with me in Paradise."[g]

44 Well, by now it was about the sixth hour,* and yet a darkness fell over all the land until the ninth hour,#[h] 45 because the sunlight failed; then the curtain of the sanctuary[i] was torn down the middle.[j] 46 And Jesus called out with a loud voice and said: "Father, into your hands I entrust my spirit."[k] After he said this, he expired.*[l] 47 Because of seeing what occurred, the army officer began to glorify God, saying: "Truly, this man was righteous."[m] 48 And when all the crowds that were gathered together there for this spectacle saw the things that occurred, they returned home, beating their chests. 49 And all those acquainted with him were standing at a distance. Also, women who had accompanied him from Gal′i·lee were there and saw these things.[a]

50 And look! there was a man named Joseph, a member of the Council, who was a good and righteous man.[b] 51 (This man had not voted in support of their scheme and action.) He was from Ar·i·ma·the′a, a city of the Ju·de′ans, and was waiting for the Kingdom of God. 52 This man went in before Pilate and asked for the body of Jesus. 53 And he took it down[c] and wrapped it up in fine linen, and he laid it in a tomb* carved in the rock,[d] where no man had yet lain. 54 Now it was the day of Preparation,[e] and the Sabbath[f] was about to begin. 55 But the women who had come with him from Gal′i·lee followed along and took a look at the tomb* and saw how his body was laid,[g] 56 and they went back to prepare spices and perfumed oils. But, of course, they rested on the Sabbath[h] according to the commandment.

24 But on the first day of the week, they came very early to the tomb,* bringing the spices they had prepared.[i] 2 But they found the stone rolled away from the tomb,[j] 3 and when they entered, they did not find the body of the Lord Jesus.[k] 4 While they were perplexed about this, look! two men in shining garments stood by them. 5 The women became frightened and kept their faces turned toward the ground, so the men said to them: "Why are you looking for the living one among the dead?[a] 6 He is not here, but has been raised up. Recall how he spoke to you while he was yet in Gal′i·lee, 7 saying that the Son of man must be handed over to sinful men and be executed on the stake and on the third day rise."[b] 8 Then they remembered his words,[c] 9 and they returned from the tomb and reported all these things to the Eleven and to all the rest.[d] 10 They were Mary Mag′da·lene, Jo·an′na, and Mary the mother of James. Also, the rest of the women with them were telling these things to the apostles. 11 However, these sayings seemed like nonsense to them, and they would not believe the women.

12 But Peter got up and ran to the tomb,* and stooping forward, he saw only the linen cloths. So he went off, wondering to himself what had occurred.

13 But look! on that very day, two of them were traveling to a village named Em·ma′us, about seven miles* from Jerusalem, 14 and they were conversing with each other about all these things that had happened.

15 Now as they were conversing and discussing these things, Jesus himself approached and began walking with them, 16 but their eyes were kept from recognizing him.[e] 17 He said to them: "What are these matters that you are debating between yourselves as you walk along?" And they stood still, looking sad. 18 In answer the one named Cle′o·pas said to him: "Are you a stranger dwelling alone in Jerusalem and do not know* the things that have occurred there during these days?" 19 He asked them: "What things?" They said to him: "The things concerning Jesus the Naz·a·rene',[a] who proved to be a prophet powerful in deed and word before God and all the people;[b] 20 and how our chief priests and rulers handed him over to be sentenced to death,[c] and they nailed him to the stake. 21 But we were hoping that this man was the one who was going to deliver Israel.[d] Yes, and besides all these things, this is the third day since these things occurred. 22 Moreover, some women from among us also astonished us, for they went early to the tomb* [e] 23 and when they did not find his body, they came saying that they had also seen a supernatural sight of angels, who said he is alive. 24 Then some of those who were with us went off to the tomb,* [f] and they found it just as the women had said, but they did not see him."

25 So he said to them: "O senseless ones and slow of heart to believe all the things the prophets have spoken! 26 Was it not necessary for the Christ to suffer these things[g] and to enter into his glory?" [h] 27 And starting with Moses and all the Prophets,[i] he interpreted to them things pertaining to himself in all the Scriptures.

28 Finally they got close to the village to which they were traveling, and he made as if to travel on farther. 29 But they urged him to remain, saying: "Stay with us, because it is almost evening and the day is nearly over." With that he went in to stay with them. 30 And as he was dining* with them, he took the bread, blessed it, broke it, and began handing it to them.[a] 31 At that their eyes were fully opened and they recognized him; but he disappeared from them.[b] 32 And they said to each other: "Were not our hearts burning within us as he was speaking to us on the road, as he was fully opening up* the Scriptures to us?" 33 And they got up in that very hour and returned to Jerusalem, and they found the Eleven and those assembled together with them, 34 who said: "For a fact the Lord was raised up, and he appeared to Simon!" [c] 35 Then they related the events on the road and how he became known to them by the breaking of the bread.[d]

36 While they were speaking of these things, he himself stood in their midst and said to them: "May you have peace." [e] 37 But because they were terrified and frightened, they imagined that they were seeing a spirit. 38 So he said to them: "Why are you troubled, and why have doubts come up in your hearts? 39 See my hands and my feet, that it is I myself; touch me and see, for a spirit does not have flesh and bones just as you see that I have." 40 And as he said this, he showed them his hands and his feet. 41 But while they were still not believing for sheer joy and amazement, he said to them: "Do you have something there to eat?" 42 So they handed him a piece of broiled fish, 43 and he took it and ate it before their eyes.

44 He then said to them: "These are my words that I spoke to you while I was yet with you,[f] that all the things written about me in the Law

1 In the beginning was the Word,[a] and the Word was with God,[b] and the Word was a god.*[c] 2 This one was in the beginning with God. 3 All things came into existence through him,[d] and apart from him not even one thing came into existence.

What has come into existence 4 by means of him was life, and the life was the light of men.[a] 5 And the light is shining in the darkness,[b] but the darkness has not overpowered it.

6 There came a man who was sent as a representative of God; his name was John.[c] 7 This man came as a witness, in order to bear witness about the light,[d] so that people of all sorts might believe through him. 8 He was not that light,[a] but he was meant to bear witness about that light.

9 The true light that gives light to every sort of man was about to come into the world.[b] 10 He was in the world,[c] and the world came into existence through him,[d] but the world did not know him. 11 He came to his own home, but his own people did not accept him. 12 However, to all who did receive him, he gave authority to become God's children,[e] because they were exercising faith in his name.[f] 13 And they were born, not from blood or from a fleshly will or from man's will, but from God.[g]

14 So the Word became flesh[h] and resided among us, and we had a view of his glory, a glory such as belongs to an only-begotten son[i] from a father; and he was full of divine favor* and truth. 15 (John bore witness about him, yes, he cried out: "This was the one of whom I said, 'The one coming behind me has advanced in front of me, for he existed before me.'")[j] 16 For we all received from his fullness, even undeserved kindness upon undeserved kindness. 17 Because the Law was given through Moses,[k] the undeserved kindness[l] and the truth came to be through Jesus Christ.[m] 18 No man has seen God at any time;[n] the only-begotten god[o] who is at the Father's side*[p] is the one who has explained Him.[q]

19 This is the witness John gave when the Jews sent priests and Levites from Jerusalem to ask him: "Who are you?"[r] 20 And he admitted it and did not deny it, saying: "I am not the Christ." 21 And they asked him: "What, then? Are you E·li'jah?"[a] He replied: "I am not." "Are you the Prophet?"[b] And he answered: "No!" 22 So they said to him: "Who are you? Tell us so that we may give an answer to those who sent us. What do you say about yourself?" 23 He said: "I am a voice of someone crying out in the wilderness, 'Make the way of Jehovah* straight,'[c] just as Isaiah the prophet said."[d] 24 Now those sent were from the Pharisees. 25 So they questioned him and said to him: "Why, then, do you baptize if you are not the Christ or E·li'jah or the Prophet?" 26 John answered them: "I baptize in water. One is standing among you whom you do not know, 27 the one coming behind me, the lace of whose sandal I am not worthy to untie."[e] 28 These things took place in Beth'a·ny across the Jordan, where John was baptizing.[f]

29 The next day he saw Jesus coming toward him, and he said: "See, the Lamb[g] of God who takes away the sin[h] of the world![i] 30 This is the one about whom I said: 'Behind me there comes a man who has advanced in front of me, for he existed before me.'[j] 31 Even I did not know him, but the reason why I came baptizing in water was so that he might be made manifest to Israel."[k] 32 John also bore witness, saying: "I viewed the spirit coming down as a dove out of heaven, and it remained upon him.[l] 33 Even I did not know him, but the very One who sent me to baptize in water said to me: 'Whoever it is upon whom you see the spirit coming down and remaining,[m] this is the one who baptizes in holy spirit.'[n] 34 And I have seen it, and I have given witness that this one is the Son of God."[o]

1:14 *Or "of undeserved kindness."
1:18 *Or "in the bosom position with the Father." This refers to a position of special favor.

35 Again the next day, John was standing with two of his disciples, 36 and as he looked at Jesus walking, he said: "See, the Lamb[a] of God!" 37 When the two disciples heard him say this, they followed Jesus. 38 Then Jesus turned, and seeing them following, he said to them: "What are you looking for?" They said to him: "Rabbi (which means, when translated, "Teacher"), where are you staying?" 39 He said to them: "Come, and you will see." So they went and saw where he was staying, and they stayed with him that day; it was about the tenth hour.* 40 Andrew,[b] the brother of Simon Peter, was one of the two who heard what John said and followed Jesus. 41 He first found his own brother Simon and said to him: "We have found the Mes·si'ah"[c] (which means, when translated, "Christ"), 42 and he led him to Jesus. When Jesus looked at him, he said: "You are Simon,[d] the son of John; you will be called Ce'phas" (which is translated "Peter").[e]

43 The next day he wanted to leave for Gal'i·lee. Jesus then found Philip[f] and said to him: "Be my follower." 44 Now Philip was from Beth·sa'i·da, from the city of Andrew and Peter. 45 Philip found Na·than'a·el[g] and said to him: "We have found the one of whom Moses, in the Law, and the Prophets wrote: Jesus, the son of Joseph,[h] from Naz'a·reth." 46 But Na·than'a·el said to him: "Can anything good come out of Naz'a·reth?" Philip said to him: "Come and see." 47 Jesus saw Na·than'a·el coming toward him and said about him: "See, truly an Israelite in whom there is no deceit."[i] 48 Na·than'a·el said to him: "How do you know me?" Jesus answered him: "Before Philip called you, while you were under the fig tree, I saw you." 49 Nathan'a·el responded: "Rabbi, you are the Son of God, you are King of Israel."[a] 50 Jesus answered him: "Do you believe because I told you I saw you under the fig tree? You will see things greater than these." 51 He then said to him: "Most truly I say to you men, you will see heaven opened up and the angels of God ascending and descending to the Son of man."[b]

2 And on the third day a marriage feast took place in Ca'na of Gal'i·lee, and the mother of Jesus was there. 2 Jesus and his disciples were also invited to the marriage feast.

3 When the wine ran short, the mother of Jesus said to him: "They have no wine." 4 But Jesus said to her: "Woman, why is that of concern to me and to you?* My hour has not yet come." 5 His mother said to those serving: "Do whatever he tells you." 6 Now there were six stone water jars sitting there as required by the purification rules of the Jews,[c] each able to hold two or three liquid measures.* 7 Jesus said to them: "Fill the jars with water." So they filled them to the brim. 8 Then he said to them: "Now draw some out and take it to the director of the feast." So they took it. 9 When the director of the feast tasted the water that had now been turned into wine, not knowing where it came from (although the servants who had drawn out the water knew), the director of the feast called the bridegroom 10 and said to him: "Everyone

12 After this he and his mother and his brothers[b] and his disciples went down to Ca·per′naum,[c] but they did not stay there many days.

13 Now the Passover[d] of the Jews was near, and Jesus went up to Jerusalem. 14 He found in the temple those selling cattle and sheep and doves,[e] and the money brokers in their seats. 15 So after making a whip of ropes, he drove all those with the sheep and cattle out of the temple, and he poured out the coins of the money changers and overturned their tables.[f] 16 And he said to those selling the doves: "Take these things away from here! Stop making the house of my Father a house of commerce!"*[g] 17 His disciples recalled that it is written: "The zeal for your house will consume me."[h]

18 Therefore, in response the Jews said to him: "What sign can you show us,[i] since you are doing these things?" 19 Jesus replied to them: "Tear down this temple, and in three days I will raise it up."[j] 20 The Jews then said: "This temple was built in 46 years, and will you raise it up in three days?" 21 But he was talking about the temple of his body.[k] 22 When, though, he was raised up from the dead, his disciples recalled that he used to say this,[l] and they believed the scripture and what Jesus had spoken.

23 However, when he was in Jerusalem at the festival of the Passover, many people put their faith in his name when they saw the signs that he was performing. 24 But Jesus would not entrust himself to them because he knew them all 25 and because he did not need to have anyone bear witness about man, for he knew what was in man.[a]

3 There was a man of the Pharisees named Nic·o·de′mus,[b] a ruler of the Jews. 2 This one came to him in the night[c] and said to him: "Rabbi,[d] we know that you have come from God as a teacher, for no one can perform these signs[e] that you perform unless God is with him."[f] 3 In response Jesus said to him: "Most truly I say to you, unless anyone is born again,*[g] he cannot see the Kingdom of God."[h] 4 Nic·o·de′mus said to him: "How can a man be born when he is old? He cannot enter into the womb of his mother a second time and be born, can he?" 5 Jesus answered: "Most truly I say to you, unless anyone is born from water[i] and spirit,[j] he cannot enter into the Kingdom of God. 6 What has been born from the flesh is flesh, and what has been born from the spirit is spirit. 7 Do not be amazed because I told you: You people must be born again. 8 The wind blows where it wants to, and you hear the sound of it, but you do not know where it comes from and where it is going. So it is with everyone who has been born from the spirit."[k]

9 In answer Nic·o·de′mus said to him: "How can these things be?" 10 Jesus replied: "Are you a teacher of Israel and yet do not know these things? 11 Most truly I say to you, what we know we speak, and what we have seen

we bear witness to, but you do not receive the witness we give. 12 If I have told you earthly things and you still do not believe, how will you believe if I tell you heavenly things? 13 Moreover, no man has ascended into heaven[a] but the one who descended from heaven,[b] the Son of man. 14 And just as Moses lifted up the serpent in the wilderness,[c] so the Son of man must be lifted up,[d] 15 so that everyone believing in him may have everlasting life.[e]

16 "For God loved the world so much that he gave his only-begotten Son,[f] so that everyone exercising faith in him might not be destroyed but have everlasting life.[g] 17 For God did not send his Son into the world for him to judge the world, but for the world to be saved through him.[h] 18 Whoever exercises faith in him is not to be judged.[i] Whoever does not exercise faith has been judged already, because he has not exercised faith in the name of the only-begotten Son of God.[j] 19 Now this is the basis for judgment: that the light has come into the world,[k] but men have loved the darkness rather than the light, for their works were wicked. 20 For whoever practices vile things hates the light and does not come to the light, so that his works may not be reproved.* 21 But whoever does what is true comes to the light,[l] so that his works may be made manifest as having been done in harmony with God."

22 After this Jesus and his disciples went into the Ju·de'an countryside, and there he spent some time with them and was baptizing.[m] 23 But John too was baptizing in Ae'non near Sa'lim, because there was a great quantity of water there,[a] and people kept coming and were being baptized;[b] 24 for John had not yet been thrown into prison.[c]

25 Now the disciples of John had a dispute with a Jew concerning purification. 26 So they came to John and said to him: "Rabbi, the man who was with you across the Jordan, about whom you bore witness,[d] see, this one is baptizing, and all are going to him." 27 In answer John said: "A man cannot receive a single thing unless it has been given him from heaven. 28 You yourselves bear me witness that I said, 'I am not the Christ,[e] but I have been sent ahead of that one.'[f] 29 Whoever has the bride is the bridegroom.[g] But the friend of the bridegroom, when he stands and hears him, has a great deal of joy on account of the voice of the bridegroom. So my joy has been made complete. 30 That one must keep on increasing, but I must keep on decreasing."

31 The one who comes from above[h] is over all others. The one who is from the earth is from the earth and speaks of things of the earth. The one who comes from heaven is over all others.[i] 32 He bears witness to what he has seen and heard,[j] but no man accepts his witness.[k] 33 Whoever has accepted his witness has put his seal to it* that God is true.[l] 34 For the one whom God sent speaks the sayings of God,[m] for He does not give the spirit sparingly.* 35 The Father loves the Son[n] and has given all things into his hand.[o] 36 The one who exercises faith in the Son has everlasting life;[p] the one who disobeys the Son will not see life,[q] but the wrath of God remains upon him.[r]

4 When the Lord became aware that the Pharisees had heard that Jesus was making and baptizing[a] more disciples than John— 2 although Jesus himself did no baptizing but his disciples did— 3 he left Ju·de'a and departed again for Gal'i·lee. 4 But it was necessary for him to go through Sa·mar'i·a. 5 So he came to a city of Sa·mar'i·a called Sy'char, near the field that Jacob had given to his son Joseph.[b] 6 In fact, Jacob's well was there.[c] Now Jesus, tired out as he was from the journey, was sitting at the well.* It was about the sixth hour.#

7 A woman of Sa·mar'i·a came to draw water. Jesus said to her: "Give me a drink." 8 (For his disciples had gone off into the city to buy food.) 9 So the Sa·mar'i·tan woman said to him: "How is it that you, despite being a Jew, ask me for a drink even though I am a Sa·mar'i·tan woman?" (For Jews have no dealings with Sa·mar'i·tans.)[d] 10 In answer Jesus said to her: "If you had known of the free gift of God[e] and who it is who says to you, 'Give me a drink,' you would have asked him, and he would have given you living water."[f] 11 She said to him: "Sir, you do not even have a bucket for drawing water, and the well is deep. From what source, then, do you have this living water? 12 You are not greater than our forefather Jacob, who gave us the well and who together with his sons and his cattle drank out of it, are you?" 13 In answer Jesus said to her: "Everyone drinking from this water will get thirsty again. 14 Whoever drinks from the water that I will give him will never get thirsty at all,[g] but the water that I will give him will become in him a spring of water bubbling up to impart everlasting life."[a] 15 The woman said to him: "Sir, give me this water, so that I may neither thirst nor keep coming over to this place to draw water."

16 He said to her: "Go, call your husband and come to this place." 17 The woman replied: "I do not have a husband." Jesus said to her: "You are right in saying, 'I do not have a husband.' 18 For you have had five husbands, and the man you now have is not your husband. This you have said truthfully." 19 The woman said to him: "Sir, I see that you are a prophet.[b] 20 Our forefathers worshipped on this mountain, but you people say that in Jerusalem is the place where people must worship."[c] 21 Jesus said to her: "Believe me, woman, the hour is coming when neither on this mountain nor in Jerusalem will you worship the Father. 22 You worship what you do not know;[d] we worship what we know, because salvation begins with the Jews.[e] 23 Nevertheless, the hour is coming, and it is now, when the true worshippers will worship the Father with spirit and truth, for indeed, the Father is looking for ones like these to worship him.[f] 24 God is a Spirit,[g] and those worshipping him must worship with spirit and truth."[h] 25 The woman said to him: "I know that Mes·si'ah is coming, who is called Christ. Whenever that one comes, he will declare all things to us openly." 26 Jesus said to her: "I am he, the one speaking to you."[i]

27 Just then his disciples arrived, and they were surprised because he was speaking with a woman. Of course, no one said: "What are you looking for?" or "Why are you talking to her?" 28 So the woman left her water jar and went off into the city and told the people: 29 "Come and see a man who told me everything I did. Could this not perhaps be the Christ?" 30 They left the city and began coming to him.

31 Meanwhile, the disciples were urging him: "Rabbi,[a] eat." 32 But he said to them: "I have food to eat that you do not know about." 33 So the disciples said to one another: "No one brought him anything to eat, did he?" 34 Jesus said to them: "My food is to do the will of him who sent me[b] and to finish his work.[c] 35 Do you not say that there are yet four months before the harvest comes? Look! I say to you: Lift up your eyes and view the fields, that they are white for harvesting.[d] Already 36 the reaper is receiving wages and gathering fruit for everlasting life, so that the sower and the reaper may rejoice together.[e] 37 For in this respect the saying is true: One is the sower and another the reaper. 38 I sent you to reap what you did not labor on. Others have labored, and you have entered into the benefit of their labor."

39 Many of the Sa·mar′i·tans from that city put faith in him because of the word of the woman who bore witness, saying: "He told me all the things I did."[f] 40 So when the Sa·mar′i·tans came to him, they asked him to stay with them, and he stayed there two days. 41 As a result, many more believed because of what he said, 42 and they said to the woman: "We no longer believe just because of what you said; for we have heard for ourselves, and we know that this man really is the savior of the world."[g]

43 After the two days, he left there for Gal′i·lee. 44 Jesus himself, however, bore witness that a prophet has no honor in his own homeland.[a] 45 So when he arrived in Gal′i·lee, the Gal·i·le′ans welcomed him, because they had seen all the things he did in Jerusalem at the festival,[b] for they too had gone to the festival.[c]

46 Then he came again to Ca′na of Gal′i·lee, where he had turned the water into wine.[d] Now there was a royal official whose son was sick in Ca·per′na·um. 47 When this man heard that Jesus had come out of Ju·de′a into Gal′i·lee, he went to him and asked him to come down and heal his son, for he was at the point of dying. 48 But Jesus said to him: "Unless you people see signs and wonders, you will never believe."[e] 49 The royal official said to him: "Lord, come down before my young child dies." 50 Jesus said to him: "Go your way; your son lives."[f] The man believed the word that Jesus spoke to him, and he left. 51 But while he was on his way down, his slaves met him to say that his boy was alive.* 52 So he asked them at what hour he got better. They replied to him: "The fever left him yesterday at the seventh hour."* 53 The father then knew that it was in the very hour that Jesus had said to him: "Your son lives."[g] So he and his whole household believed. 54 This was the second sign[h] Jesus performed when he came from Ju·de′a into Gal′i·lee.

5 After this there was a festival[i] of the Jews, and Jesus went up to Jerusalem. 2 Now in Jerusalem at the Sheep Gate[j] is a pool called in Hebrew Beth-za′tha, with five colonnades. 3 Within these a multitude of the sick, blind, lame, and those with withered* limbs were lying down. 4 — 5 But one man was there who had been sick for 38 years. 6 Seeing this man lying there and being aware that he had already been sick for a long time, Jesus said to him: "Do you want to get well?"[a] 7 The sick man answered him: "Sir, I do not have anyone to put me into the pool when the water is stirred up, but while I am on my way, another steps down ahead of me." 8 Jesus said to him: "Get up! Pick up your mat and walk."[b] 9 And the man immediately got well, and he picked up his mat* and began to walk.

That day was the Sabbath. 10 So the Jews began to say to the cured man: "It is the Sabbath, and it is not lawful for you to carry the mat."[c] 11 But he answered them: "The same one who made me well said to me, 'Pick up your mat and walk.'" 12 They asked him: "Who is the man who told you, 'Pick it up and walk'?" 13 But the healed man did not know who he was, for Jesus had slipped away into the crowd that was there.

14 After this Jesus found him in the temple and said to him: "See, you have become well. Do not sin anymore, so that something worse does not happen to you." 15 The man went away and told the Jews that it was Jesus who had made him well. 16 For this reason the Jews were persecuting Jesus, because he was doing these things during the Sabbath. 17 But he answered them: "My Father has kept working until now, and I keep working."[d] 18 This is why the Jews began seeking all the more to kill him, because not only was he breaking the Sabbath but he was also calling God his own Father,[e] making himself equal to God.[f]

19 Therefore, in response Jesus said to them: "Most truly I say to you, the Son cannot do a single thing of his own initiative, but only what he sees the Father doing.[a] For whatever things that One does, these things the Son does also in like manner. 20 For the Father has affection for the Son[b] and shows him all the things he himself does, and he will show him works greater than these, so that you may marvel.[c] 21 For just as the Father raises the dead up and makes them alive,[d] so the Son also makes alive whomever he wants to.[e] 22 For the Father judges no one at all, but he has entrusted all the judging to the Son,[f] 23 so that all may honor the Son just as they honor the Father. Whoever does not honor the Son does not honor the Father who sent him.[g] 24 Most truly I say to you, whoever hears my word and believes the One who sent me has everlasting life,[h] and he does not come into judgment but has passed over from death to life.[i]

25 "Most truly I say to you, the hour is coming, and it is now, when the dead will hear the voice of the Son of God, and those who have paid attention will live. 26 For just as the Father has life in himself,*[j] so he has granted also to the Son to have life in himself.[k] 27 And he has given him authority to do judging,[l] because he is the Son of man.[m] 28 Do not be amazed at this, for the hour is coming in which all those in the memorial tombs will hear his voice[n] 29 and come out, those who did good things to a resurrection of life, and those who practiced vile things to a resurrection of judgment.[o] 30 I cannot do a single thing of my own initiative.

5:26 *Or "has in himself the gift of life."

Just as I hear, I judge, and my judgment is righteous[a] because I seek, not my own will, but the will of him who sent me.[b]

31 "If I alone bear witness about myself, my witness is not true.[c] 32 There is another who bears witness about me, and I know that the witness he bears about me is true.[d] 33 You have sent men to John, and he has borne witness to the truth.[e] 34 However, I do not accept the witness from man, but I say these things so that you may be saved. 35 That man was a burning and shining lamp, and for a short time you were willing to rejoice greatly in his light.[f] 36 But I have the witness greater than that of John, for the very works that my Father assigned me to accomplish, these works that I am doing, bear witness that the Father sent me.[g] 37 And the Father who sent me has himself borne witness about me.[h] You have neither heard his voice at any time nor seen his form,[i] 38 and you do not have his word residing in you, because you do not believe the very one whom he sent.

39 "You are searching the Scriptures[j] because you think that you will have everlasting life by means of them; and these are the very ones* that bear witness about me.[k] 40 And yet you do not want to come to me[l] so that you may have life. 41 I do not accept glory from men, 42 but I well know that you do not have the love of God in you. 43 I have come in the name of my Father, but you do not receive me. If someone else came in his own name, you would receive that one. 44 How can you believe, when you are accepting glory from one another and you are not seeking the glory that is from the only God?[a] 45 Do not think that I will accuse you to the Father; there is one who accuses you, Moses,[b] in whom you have put your hope. 46 In fact, if you believed Moses, you would believe me, for he wrote about me.[c] 47 But if you do not believe his writings, how will you believe what I say?"

6 After this Jesus set out across the Sea of Gal'i·lee, or Ti·be'ri·as.[d] 2 And a large crowd kept following him,[e] because they were observing the miraculous signs he was performing in healing the sick.[f] 3 So Jesus went up on a mountain and sat down there with his disciples. 4 Now the Passover,[g] the festival of the Jews, was near. 5 When Jesus raised his eyes and saw that a large crowd was coming to him, he said to Philip: "Where will we buy bread for these people to eat?"[h] 6 However, he was saying this to test him, for he knew what he was about to do. 7 Philip answered him: "Two hundred denar'i·i* worth of bread is not enough for each of them to get even a little." 8 One of his disciples, Andrew, Simon Peter's brother, said to him: 9 "Here is a little boy who has five barley loaves and two small fish. But what are these among so many?"[i]

10 Jesus said: "Have the men sit down." As there was a lot of grass in that place, the men sat down there, about 5,000 in number.[j] 11 Jesus took the bread, and after giving thanks, he distributed it to those who were sitting there; he did likewise with the small fish, and they had as much as they wanted. 12 But when they had eaten their fill, he said to his disciples: "Gather together the fragments left over, so that nothing is wasted."

13 So they gathered them together and filled 12 baskets with fragments left over by those who had eaten from the five barley loaves.

14 When the people saw the sign he performed, they began to say: "This really is the Prophet who was to come into the world."[a] 15 Then Jesus, knowing that they were about to come and seize him to make him king, withdrew[b] again to the mountain all alone.[c]

16 When evening fell, his disciples went down to the sea,[d] 17 and boarding a boat, they set out across the sea for Ca·per′na·um. By now it had grown dark, and Jesus had not yet come to them.[e] 18 Also, the sea was getting rough because a strong wind was blowing.[f] 19 However, when they had rowed about three or four miles,* they saw Jesus walking on the sea and getting near the boat, and they became fearful. 20 But he said to them: "It is I; do not be afraid!"[g] 21 Then they were willing to take him into the boat, and right away the boat arrived at the land to which they had been heading.[h]

22 The next day the crowd that had stayed on the other side of the sea saw that there was no other boat there except a small one, and that Jesus had not boarded the boat with his disciples, but his disciples had left by themselves. 23 Boats from Ti·be′ri·as, however, arrived near the place where they ate the bread after the Lord had given thanks. 24 So when the crowd saw that neither Jesus nor his disciples were there, they boarded their boats and came to Ca·per′na·um to look for Jesus.

25 When they found him across the sea, they said to him: "Rabbi,[a] when did you get here?" 26 Jesus answered them: "Most truly I say to you, you are looking for me, not because you saw signs, but because you ate from the loaves and were satisfied.[b] 27 Work, not for the food that perishes, but for the food that remains for everlasting life,[c] which the Son of man will give you; for on this one the Father, God himself, has put his seal of approval."[d]

28 So they said to him: "What must we do to carry out the works of God?" 29 In answer Jesus said to them: "This is the work of God, that you exercise faith in the one whom he sent."[e] 30 Then they said to him: "What are you performing as a sign,[f] so that we may see it and believe you? What work are you doing? 31 Our forefathers ate the manna in the wilderness,[g] just as it is written: 'He gave them bread from heaven to eat.'"[h] 32 Jesus then said to them: "Most truly I say to you, Moses did not give you the bread from heaven, but my Father gives you the true bread from heaven. 33 For the bread of God is the one who comes down from heaven and gives life to the world." 34 So they said to him: "Lord, always give us this bread."

35 Jesus said to them: "I am the bread of life. Whoever comes to me will not get hungry at all, and whoever exercises faith in me will never get thirsty at all.[i] 36 But as I said to you, you have even seen me and yet do not believe.[j] 37 All those whom the Father gives me will come to me, and I will never drive away the one who comes to me;[k] 38 for I have come down from heaven[l] to do, not my own will, but the will of him who sent me.[m] 39 This is the will of him who sent me, that I should lose none out of all those whom he has given me, but that I should resurrect[a] them on the last day. 40 For this is the will of my Father, that everyone who recognizes the Son and exercises faith in him should have everlasting life,[b] and I will resurrect[c] him on the last day."

41 Then the Jews began to murmur about him because he had said: "I am the bread that came down from heaven."[d] 42 And they began saying: "Is this not Jesus the son of Joseph, whose father and mother we know?[e] How does he now say, 'I have come down from heaven'?" 43 In response Jesus said to them: "Stop murmuring among yourselves. 44 No man can come to me unless the Father, who sent me, draws him,[f] and I will resurrect him on the last day.[g] 45 It is written in the Prophets: 'They will all be taught by Jehovah.'*[h] Everyone who has listened to the Father and has learned comes to me. 46 Not that any man has seen the Father,[i] except the one who is from God; this one has seen the Father.[j] 47 Most truly I say to you, whoever believes has everlasting life.[k]

48 "I am the bread of life.[l] 49 Your forefathers ate the manna in the wilderness and yet they died.[m] 50 This is the bread that comes down from heaven, so that anyone may eat of it and not die. 51 I am the living bread that came down from heaven. If anyone eats of this bread he will live forever; and for a fact, the bread that I will give is my flesh in behalf of the life of the world."[n]

52 Then the Jews began to argue with one another, saying: "How can this man give us his flesh to eat?" 53 So Jesus said to them: "Most truly I say to you, unless you eat the flesh of the Son of man and drink his blood, you have no life in yourselves.[a] 54 Whoever feeds on my flesh and drinks my blood has everlasting life, and I will resurrect[b] him on the last day; 55 for my flesh is true food and my blood is true drink. 56 Whoever feeds on my flesh and drinks my blood remains in union with me, and I in union with him.[c] 57 Just as the living Father sent me and I live because of the Father, so also the one who feeds on me will live because of me.[d] 58 This is the bread that came down from heaven. It is not as when your forefathers ate and yet died. Whoever feeds on this bread will live forever."[e] 59 He said these things as he was teaching in a synagogue* in Caper·na·um.

60 When they heard this, many of his disciples said: "This speech is shocking; who can listen to it?" 61 But Jesus, knowing in himself that his disciples were murmuring about this, said to them: "Does this stumble you? 62 What, therefore, if you should see the Son of man ascending to where he was before?[f] 63 It is the spirit that is life-giving;[g] the flesh is of no use at all. The sayings that I have spoken to you are spirit and are life.[h] 64 But there are some of you who do not believe." For Jesus knew from the beginning those who did not believe and the one who would betray him.[i] 65 He went on to say: "This is why I have said to you, no one can come to me unless it is granted him by the Father."[j]

66 Because of this, many of his disciples went off to the things behind[k] and would no longer walk with him. 67 So Jesus said to the Twelve: "You do not want to go also, do you?" 68 Simon Peter answered him: "Lord, whom shall we go away to?[a] You have sayings of everlasting life.[b] 69 We have believed and have come to know that you are the Holy One of God."[c] 70 Jesus answered them: "I chose you twelve, did I not?[d] Yet one of you is a slanderer."*[e] 71 He was, in fact, speaking of Judas the son of Simon Is·car'i·ot, for this one was going to betray him, although he was one of the Twelve.[f]

7 After this Jesus continued traveling* about in Gal'i·lee, for he did not want to do so in Ju·de'a because the Jews were seeking to kill him.[g] 2 However, the Jewish Festival of Tabernacles*[h] was near. 3 So his brothers[i] said to him: "Leave here and go into Ju·de'a, so that your disciples may also see the works you are doing. 4 For no one does anything in secret when he seeks to be known publicly. If you are doing these things, show yourself to the world." 5 His brothers were, in fact, not exercising faith in him.[j] 6 So Jesus said to them: "My time has not yet arrived,[k] but your time is always at hand. 7 The world has no reason to hate you, but it hates me, because I bear witness about it that its works are wicked.[l] 8 You go up to the festival; I am not yet going up to this festival, because my time has not yet fully come."[m] 9 So after he told them these things, he remained in Gal'i·lee.

10 But when his brothers had gone up to the festival, then he also went up, not openly but in secret. 11 So the Jews began looking for him at the festival and saying: "Where is that man?" 12 And there was a lot of subdued talk about him among the crowds. Some would say: "He is a good man." Others would say: "He is not. He misleads the crowd."[a] 13 Of course, no one would speak about him publicly because of fear of the Jews.[b]

14 When the festival was half over, Jesus went up into the temple and began teaching. 15 And the Jews were astonished, saying: "How does this man have such a knowledge of the Scriptures*[c] when he has not studied at the schools?"#[d] 16 Jesus, in turn, answered them and said: "What I teach is not mine, but belongs to him who sent me.[e] 17 If anyone desires to do His will, he will know whether the teaching is from God[f] or I speak of my own originality. 18 Whoever speaks of his own originality is seeking his own glory; but whoever seeks the glory of the one who sent him,[g] this one is true and there is no unrighteousness in him. 19 Moses gave you the Law,[h] did he not? But not one of you obeys the Law. Why are you seeking to kill me?"[i] 20 The crowd answered: "You have a demon. Who is seeking to kill you?" 21 In answer Jesus said to them: "One deed I performed, and you are all surprised. 22 For this reason Moses has given you circumcision[j]—not that it is from Moses, but it is from the forefathers[k]—and you circumcise a man on a sabbath. 23 If a man receives circumcision on a sabbath so that the Law of Moses may not be broken, are you violently angry at me because I made a man completely well on a sabbath?[l] 24 Stop judging by the outward appearance, but judge with righteous judgment."[m]

25 Then some of the inhabitants of Jerusalem began to say: "This is the man they are seeking to kill, is it not?[n] 26 And yet see! he is speaking in public, and they say nothing to him.

Have the rulers come to know for certain that this is the Christ? 27 On the contrary, we know where this man is from;[a] yet when the Christ comes, no one is to know where he is from." 28 Then as he was teaching in the temple, Jesus called out: "You know me and you know where I am from. And I have not come of my own initiative,[b] but the One who sent me is real, and you do not know him.[c] 29 I know him,[d] because I am a representative from him, and that One sent me." 30 So they began seeking to get hold of him,[e] but no one laid a hand on him, for his hour had not yet come.[f] 31 Still, many of the crowd put faith in him,[g] and they were saying: "When the Christ comes, he will not perform more signs than this man has done, will he?"

32 The Pharisees heard the crowd murmuring these things about him, and the chief priests and the Pharisees sent officers to seize* him. 33 Jesus then said: "I will be with you a little while longer before I go to the One who sent me.[h] 34 You will look for me, but you will not find me, and where I am you cannot come."[i] 35 Therefore, the Jews said among themselves: "Where does this man intend to go, so that we will not find him? He does not intend to go to the Jews dispersed among the Greeks and teach the Greeks, does he? 36 What does he mean when he says, 'You will look for me, but you will not find me, and where I am you cannot come'?"

37 On the last day, the great day of the festival,[j] Jesus stood up and he called out: "If anyone is thirsty, let him come to me and drink.[k] 38 Whoever puts faith in me, just as the scripture has said: 'From deep within him streams of living water will flow.'"[a] 39 However, he said this concerning the spirit, which those who put faith in him were about to receive; for as yet there was no spirit,[b] because Jesus had not yet been glorified.[c] 40 Some in the crowd who heard these words began saying: "This really is the Prophet."[d] 41 Others were saying: "This is the Christ."[e] But some were saying: "The Christ is not coming out of Gal·i·lee, is he?[f] 42 Does the scripture not say that the Christ is coming from the offspring of David[g] and from Beth'·le·hem,[h] the village where David was?"[i] 43 So a division over him arose among the crowd. 44 Some of them, though, wanted to seize* him, but no one laid his hands on him.

45 Then the officers went back to the chief priests and Pharisees, and the latter said to them: "Why did you not bring him in?" 46 The officers replied: "Never has any man spoken like this."[j] 47 In turn the Pharisees answered: "You have not been misled also, have you? 48 Not one of the rulers or of the Pharisees has put faith in him, has he?[k] 49 But this crowd who do not know the Law are accursed people." 50 Nic·o·de'mus, who had come to him previously and who was one of them, said to them: 51 "Our Law does not judge a man unless it first hears from him and learns what he is doing, does it?"[l] 52 In answer they said to him: "You are not also out of Gal'i·lee, are you? Search and see that no prophet is to be raised up out of Gal'i·lee."*

8 12 Then Jesus spoke again to them, saying: "I am the light of the world.[m] Whoever follows me will by no means walk in darkness, but will possess the light[a] of life." 13 So the Pharisees said to him: "You bear witness about yourself; your witness is not true." 14 In answer Jesus said to them: "Even if I do bear witness about myself, my witness is true, because I know where I came from and where I am going.[b] But you do not know where I came from and where I am going. 15 You judge according to the flesh;*[c] I do not judge any man at all. 16 And yet even if I do judge, my judgment is truthful, because I am not alone, but the Father who sent me is with me.[d] 17 Also, in your own Law it is written: 'The witness of two men is true.'[e] 18 I am one who bears witness about myself, and the Father who sent me bears witness about me."[f] 19 Then they said to him: "Where is your Father?" Jesus answered: "You know neither me nor my Father.[g] If you did know me, you would know my Father also."[h] 20 He spoke these words in the treasury[i] as he was teaching in the temple. But no one seized him, for his hour had not yet come.[j]

21 So he said to them again: "I am going away, and you will look for me, and yet you will die in your sin.[k] Where I am going, you cannot come."[l] 22 The Jews then began to say: "He will not kill himself, will he? Because he says, 'Where I am going, you cannot come.'" 23 He went on to say to them: "You are from the realms below; I am from the realms above.[m] You are from this world; I am not from this world. 24 That is why I said to you: You will die in your sins. For if you do not believe that I am the one, you will die in your sins." 25 So they began to say to him: "Who are you?" Jesus replied to them: "Why am I even speaking to you at all? 26 I have many things to speak concerning you and to pass judgment on. As a matter of fact, the One who sent me is true, and the very things I heard from him I am speaking in the world."[a] 27 They did not grasp that he was talking to them about the Father. 28 Jesus then said: "After you have lifted up the Son of man,[b] then you will know that I am he[c] and that I do nothing of my own initiative;[d] but just as the Father taught me, I speak these things. 29 And the One who sent me is with me; he did not abandon me to myself, because I always do the things pleasing to him."[e] 30 As he was saying these things, many put faith in him.

31 Then Jesus went on to say to the Jews who had believed him: "If you remain in my word, you are really my disciples, 32 and you will know the truth,[f] and the truth will set you free."[g] 33 They replied to him: "We are Abraham's offspring and never have been slaves to anyone. How is it you say, 'You will become free'?" 34 Jesus answered them: "Most truly I say to you, every doer of sin is a slave of sin.[h] 35 Moreover, the slave does not remain in the household forever; the son remains forever. 36 So if the Son sets you free, you will be truly free. 37 I know that you are Abraham's offspring. But you are seeking to kill me, because my word makes no progress among you. 38 I speak the things I have seen while with my Father,[i] but you do the things you have heard from your father." 39 In answer they said to him: "Our father is Abraham." you are seeking to kill me, a man who has told you the truth that I heard from God.[a] Abraham did not do this. 41 You are doing the works of your father." They said to him: "We were not born from immorality;* we have one Father, God."

42 Jesus said to them: "If God were your Father, you would love me,[b] for I came from God and I am here. I have not come of my own initiative, but that One sent me.[c] 43 Why do you not understand what I am saying? Because you cannot listen to my word. 44 You are from your father the Devil, and you wish to do the desires of your father.[d] That one was a murderer when he began,*[e] and he did not stand fast in the truth, because truth is not in him. When he speaks the lie, he speaks according to his own disposition, because he is a liar and the father of the lie.[f] 45 Because I, on the other hand, tell you the truth, you do not believe me. 46 Who of you convicts me of sin? If I speak truth, why is it that you do not believe me? 47 The one who is from God listens to the sayings of God.[g] This is why you do not listen, because you are not from God."[h]

48 In answer the Jews said to him: "Are we not right in saying, 'You are a Sa·mar′i·tan[i] and have a demon'?"[j] 49 Jesus answered: "I do not have a demon, but I honor my Father, and you dishonor me. 50 But I am not seeking glory for myself;[k] there is One who is seeking and judging. 51 Most truly I say to you, if anyone observes my word, he will never see death at all."[l] 52 The Jews said to him: "Now we do know that you have a demon. Abraham died, also the prophets, but you say, 'If anyone observes my word, he will never taste death at all.' 53 You are not greater than our father Abraham, who died, are you? The prophets also died. Who do you claim to be?" 54 Jesus answered: "If I glorify myself, my glory is nothing. It is my Father who glorifies me,[a] the one who you say is your God. 55 Yet you have not known him,[b] but I know him.[c] And if I said I do not know him, I would be like you, a liar. But I do know him and am observing his word. 56 Abraham your father rejoiced greatly at the prospect of seeing my day, and he saw it and rejoiced."[d] 57 Then the Jews said to him: "You are not yet 50 years old, and still you have seen Abraham?" 58 Jesus said to them: "Most truly I say to you, before Abraham came into existence, I have been."[e] 59 So they picked up stones to throw at him, but Jesus hid and went out of the temple.

9 As he was passing along, he saw a man who had been blind from birth. 2 And his disciples asked him: "Rabbi,[f] who sinned, this man or his parents, so that he was born blind?" 3 Jesus answered: "Neither this man sinned nor his parents, but it was so that the works of God might be made manifest in his case.[g] 4 We must do the works of the One who sent me while it is day;[h] the night is coming when no man can work. 5 As long as I am in the world, I am the world's light."[i] 6 After he said these things, he spat on the ground and made a paste with the saliva, and he smeared the paste on the man's eyes[j] 7 and said to him: "Go wash in the pool of Si·lo′am" (which is translated "Sent Forth"). And he went and washed, and came back seeing.[k]

The man kept saying: "I am he." 10 So they asked him: "How, then, were your eyes opened?" 11 He answered: "The man called Jesus made a paste and smeared it on my eyes and said to me, 'Go to Si·lo'am and wash.'[a] So I went and washed and gained sight." 12 At this they said to him: "Where is that man?" He said: "I do not know."

13 They led the formerly blind man to the Pharisees. 14 Incidentally, the day that Jesus made the paste and opened his eyes[b] was the Sabbath.[c] 15 So this time the Pharisees also began asking the man how he gained sight. He said to them: "He put a paste on my eyes, and I washed, and I can see." 16 Some of the Pharisees then began to say: "This is not a man from God, for he does not observe the Sabbath."[d] Others said: "How can a man who is a sinner perform signs of that sort?"[e] So there was a division among them.[f] 17 And again they said to the blind man: "What do you say about him, since it was your eyes that he opened?" The man said: "He is a prophet."

18 However, the Jews did not believe that he had been blind and had gained sight, until they called the parents of the man who could now see. 19 And they asked them: "Is this your son who you say was born blind? How, then, does he now see?" 20 His parents answered: "We know that this is our son and that he was born blind. 21 But how it is that he now sees, we do not know; or who opened his eyes, we do not know. Ask him. He is of age. He must speak for himself." 22 His parents said these things because they were in fear of the Jews,[a] for the Jews had already come to an agreement that if anyone acknowledged him as Christ, that person should be expelled from the synagogue.[b] 23 This is why his parents said: "He is of age. Question him."

24 So a second time they called the man who had been blind and said to him: "Give glory to God; we know that this man is a sinner." 25 He answered: "Whether he is a sinner, I do not know. One thing I do know, that I was blind, but now I can see." 26 Then they said to him: "What did he do to you? How did he open your eyes?" 27 He answered them: "I told you already, and yet you did not listen. Why do you want to hear it again? You do not want to become his disciples also, do you?" 28 At this they scornfully told him: "You are a disciple of that man, but we are disciples of Moses. 29 We know that God has spoken to Moses, but as for this man, we do not know where he is from." 30 The man answered them: "This is certainly amazing, that you do not know where he is from, and yet he opened my eyes. 31 We know that God does not listen to sinners,[c] but if anyone is God-fearing and does his will, he listens to this one.[d] 32 From of old it has never been heard that anyone opened the eyes of one born blind. 33 If this man were not from God, he could do nothing at all."[e] 34 In answer they said to him: "You were altogether born in sin, and yet are you teaching us?" And they threw him out![f]

35 Jesus heard that they had thrown him out, and on finding him, he said: "Are you putting faith in the Son of man?" 36 The man answered: "And who is he, sir, so that I may put faith in him?" 37 Jesus said to him: "You have seen him, and in fact, he is the one speaking with you." 38 He said: "I do put faith in him, Lord." And he did obeisance* to him. 39 Jesus then said: "For this judgment I came into this world, that those not seeing might see[a] and those seeing might become blind."[b] 40 Those of the Pharisees who were with him heard these things, and they said to him: "We are not blind also, are we?" 41 Jesus said to them: "If you were blind, you would have no sin. But now you say, 'We see.' Your sin remains."[c]

10 "Most truly I say to you, the one who does not enter into the sheepfold through the door but climbs in by another way, that one is a thief and a plunderer.[d] 2 But the one who enters through the door is the shepherd of the sheep.[e] 3 The doorkeeper opens to this one,[f] and the sheep listen to his voice.[g] He calls his own sheep by name and leads them out. 4 When he has brought all his own out, he goes ahead of them, and the sheep follow him, because they know his voice. 5 They will by no means follow a stranger but will flee from him, because they do not know the voice of strangers." 6 Jesus spoke this comparison to them, but they did not understand what he was saying to them.

7 So Jesus said again: "Most truly I say to you, I am the door for the sheep.[h] 8 All those who have come in place of me are thieves and plunderers; but the sheep have not listened to them. 9 I am the door; whoever enters through me will be saved, and that one will go in and out and find pasturage.[i] 10 The thief does not come unless it is to steal and slay and destroy.[j] I have come that they may have life and have it in abundance. 11 I am the fine shepherd;[a] the fine shepherd surrenders his life* in behalf of the sheep.[b] 12 The hired man, who is not a shepherd and to whom the sheep do not belong, sees the wolf coming and abandons the sheep and flees —and the wolf snatches them and scatters them— 13 because he is a hired man and does not care for the sheep. 14 I am the fine shepherd. I know my sheep and my sheep know me,[c] 15 just as the Father knows me and I know the Father;[d] and I surrender my life* in behalf of the sheep.[e]

16 "And I have other sheep, which are not of this fold;[f] those too I must bring in, and they will listen to my voice, and they will become one flock, one shepherd.[g] 17 This is why the Father loves me,[h] because I surrender my life,*[i] so that I may receive it again. 18 No man takes it away from me, but I surrender it of my own initiative. I have authority to surrender it, and I have authority to receive it again.[i] This commandment I received from my Father."

19 A division again resulted among the Jews[k] because of these words. 20 Many of them were saying: "He has a demon and is out of his mind. Why do you listen to him?" 21 Others said: "These are not the sayings of a demonized man. A demon cannot open blind people's eyes, can it?"

22 At that time the Festival of Dedication took place in Jerusalem. It was wintertime, 23 and Jesus was walking in the temple in the colonnade of Sol'o·mon.[l] 24 Then the Jews surrounded him and began to say to him: "How long are you going to keep us* in suspense? If you are the Christ, tell us plainly." 25 Jesus answered them: "I told you, and yet you do not believe. The works that I am doing in my Father's name, these bear witness about me.[a] 26 But you do not believe, because you are not my sheep.[b] 27 My sheep listen to my voice, and I know them, and they follow me.[c] 28 I give them everlasting life,[d] and they will by no means ever be destroyed, and no one will snatch them out of my hand.[e] 29 What my Father has given me is something greater than all other things, and no one can snatch them out of the hand of the Father.[f] 30 I and the Father are one."*[g]

31 Once again the Jews picked up stones to stone him. 32 Jesus replied to them: "I displayed to you many fine works from the Father. For which of those works are you stoning me?" 33 The Jews answered him: "We are stoning you, not for a fine work, but for blasphemy;[h] for you, although being a man, make yourself a god." 34 Jesus answered them: "Is it not written in your Law, 'I said: "You are gods"'?*[i] 35 If he called "gods"[j] those against whom the word of God came—and yet the scripture cannot be nullified— 36 do you say to me whom the Father sanctified and sent into the world, 'You blaspheme,' because I said, 'I am God's Son'?[k] 37 If I am not doing the works of my Father, do not believe me. 38 But if I am doing them, even though you do not believe me, believe the works,[l] so that you may come to know and may continue knowing that the Father is in union with me and I am in union with the Father."[m] 39 So they tried again to seize him, but he escaped from their reach.

40 And he went away again across the Jordan to the place where John was baptizing at first,[a] and he stayed there. 41 And many people came to him and began saying: "John did not perform a single sign, but all the things John said about this man were true."[b] 42 And many put faith in him there.

11 Now a man named Laz'a·rus was sick; he was from Beth'a·ny, the village of Mary and her sister Martha.[c] 2 This was the Mary who poured perfumed oil on the Lord and wiped his feet dry with her hair;[d] it was her brother Laz'a·rus who was sick. 3 So his sisters sent a message to him, saying: "Lord, see! the one you have affection for is sick." 4 But when Jesus heard it, he said: "This sickness is not meant to end in death, but is for the glory of God,[e] so that the Son of God may be glorified through it."

5 Now Jesus loved Martha and her sister and Laz'a·rus. 6 However, when he heard that Laz'a·rus was sick, he actually remained in the place where he was for two more days. 7 Then after this he said to the disciples: "Let us go into Ju·de'a again." 8 The disciples said to him: "Rabbi,[f] just lately the Ju·de'ans were seeking to stone you,[g] and are you going there again?" 9 Jesus answered: "There are 12 hours of daylight, are there not?[h] If anyone walks in daylight, he does not stumble into anything, because he sees the light of this world. 10 But if anyone walks in the night, he stumbles, because the light is not in him."

11 After he said these things, he added: "Laz'a·rus our friend has fallen asleep,[i] but I am traveling there to awaken him." 12 The disciples then said to him: "Lord, if he is sleeping, he will get well." 13 Jesus, however, had spoken about his death. But they imagined he was speaking about taking rest in sleep. 14 Then Jesus said to them plainly: "Laz'a·rus has died,[a] 15 and I rejoice for your sake that I was not there, so that you may believe. But let us go to him." 16 So Thomas, who was called the Twin, said to his fellow disciples: "Let us also go, so that we may die with him."[b]

17 When Jesus arrived, he found that Laz'a·rus had already been in the tomb* for four days. 18 Now Beth'a·ny was near Jerusalem, about two miles* away. 19 And many of the Jews had come to Martha and Mary to console them concerning their brother. 20 When Martha heard that Jesus was coming, she went to meet him; but Mary[c] kept sitting at home. 21 Martha then said to Jesus: "Lord, if you had been here, my brother would not have died. 22 Yet even now I know that whatever you ask God for, God will give you." 23 Jesus said to her: "Your brother will rise." 24 Martha said to him: "I know he will rise in the resurrection[d] on the last day." 25 Jesus said to her: "I am the resurrection and the life.[e] The one who exercises faith in me, even though he dies, will come to life; 26 and everyone who is living and exercises faith in me will never die at all.[f] Do you believe this?" 27 She said to him: "Yes, Lord, I have believed that you are the Christ, the Son of God, the one coming into the world." 28 When she had said this, she went off and called Mary her sister, saying privately: "The Teacher[g] is here and is calling you." 29 On hearing this, she got up quickly and went to him.

30 Jesus had not yet come into the village, but he was still in the place where Martha had met him. 31 When the Jews who were with Mary in the house consoling her saw her get up quickly and go out, they followed her, supposing that she was going to the tomb*[a] to weep there. 32 When Mary arrived where Jesus was and caught sight of him, she fell at his feet and said to him: "Lord, if you had been here, my brother would not have died." 33 When Jesus saw her weeping and the Jews who had come with her weeping, he groaned within himself* and became troubled. 34 He said: "Where have you laid him?" They said to him: "Lord, come and see." 35 Jesus gave way to tears.[b] 36 At that the Jews began to say: "See, what affection he had for him!" 37 But some of them said: "Could not this man who opened the eyes of the blind man[c] prevent this one from dying?"

38 Then Jesus, after groaning again within himself, came to the tomb.* It was, in fact, a cave, and a stone was lying against it. 39 Jesus said: "Take the stone away." Martha, the sister of the deceased, said to him: "Lord, by now he must smell, for it has been four days." 40 Jesus said to her: "Did I not tell you that if you would believe you would see the glory of God?"[d] 41 So they took the stone away. Then Jesus raised his eyes heavenward[e] and said: "Father, I thank you that you have heard me. 42 True, I knew that you always hear me; but I spoke on account of the crowd standing around, so that they may believe that you sent me."[f] 43 When he had said these things, he cried out with a loud voice: "Laz'a·rus, come out!"[g] 44 The man who had been dead came out with his feet and hands bound with wrappings, and his face was wrapped with a cloth. Jesus said to them: "Free him and let him go."

45 Therefore, many of the Jews who had come to Mary and who saw what he did put faith in him,[a] 46 but some of them went off to the Pharisees and told them what Jesus had done. 47 So the chief priests and the Pharisees gathered the San'he·drin together and said: "What are we to do, for this man performs many signs?[b] 48 If we let him go on this way, they will all put faith in him, and the Romans will come and take away both our place* and our nation." 49 But one of them, Ca'i·a·phas,[c] who was high priest that year, said to them: "You do not know anything at all, 50 and you have not reasoned that it is to your benefit for one man to die in behalf of the people rather than for the whole nation to be destroyed." 51 He did not say this, however, of his own originality, but because he was high priest that year, he prophesied that Jesus was to die for the nation, 52 and not only for the nation but also to gather together into one the children of God who were scattered about. 53 So from that day on they conspired to kill him.

54 Therefore, Jesus no longer walked about publicly among the Jews, but he departed from there to the region near the wilderness, to a city called E'phra·im,[d] and he stayed there with the disciples. 55 Now the Passover[e] of the Jews was near, and many people from the countryside went up to Jerusalem before the Passover to cleanse themselves ceremonially. 56 They were looking for Jesus, and they were saying to one another as they stood around in the temple: "What is your opinion? That he will not come to the festival at all?" 57 But the chief priests and the Pharisees had given orders that if anyone got to know where Jesus was, he should report it, so that they could seize* him.

12 Six days before the Passover, Jesus arrived at Beth'a·ny, where Laz'a·rus[a] was, whom Jesus had raised up from the dead. 2 So they spread an evening meal for him there, and Martha was serving them,[b] but Laz'a·rus was one of those dining* with him. 3 Then Mary took a pound* of perfumed oil, genuine nard, very costly, and she poured it on the feet of Jesus and wiped his feet dry with her hair. The house became filled with the scent of the perfumed oil.[c] 4 But Judas Is·car'i·ot,[d] one of his disciples, who was about to betray him, said: 5 "Why was this perfumed oil not sold for 300 de·nar'i·i* and given to the poor?" 6 He said this, though, not because he was concerned about the poor, but because he was a thief and had the money box and used to steal the money put in it. 7 Then Jesus said: "Let her alone, so that she may keep this observance in view of the day of my burial.[e] 8 For you always have the poor with you,[f] but you will not always have me."[g]

9 Meanwhile, a large crowd of Jews got to know that he was there, and they came not only because of Jesus but also to see Laz'a·rus, whom he had raised up from the dead.[h] 10 The chief priests now conspired to kill Laz'a·rus also, 11 since it was because of him that many of the Jews were going there and putting faith in Jesus.[i]

12 The next day the large crowd that had come to the festival heard that Jesus was coming to Jerusalem. 13 So they took branches of palm trees and went out to meet him, and they began to shout: "Save, we pray you! Blessed is the one who comes in Jehovah's* name,[a] the King of Israel!"[b] 14 When Jesus found a young donkey, he sat on it,[c] just as it is written: 15 "Have no fear, daughter of Zion. Look! Your king is coming, seated on a donkey's colt."[d] 16 These things his disciples did not understand at first, but when Jesus was glorified,[e] they recalled that these things were written about him and that they did these things to him.[f]

17 Now the crowd that was with him when he called Laz'a·rus out of the tomb*[g] and raised him up from the dead kept bearing witness.[h] 18 This is also why the crowd went to meet him, because they heard he had performed this sign. 19 So the Pharisees said among themselves: "You see that you are not getting anywhere. Look! The whole world has gone after him."[i]

20 Now there were some Greeks among those who had come to worship at the festival. 21 So these approached Philip,[j] who was from Beth·sa'i·da of Gal'i·lee, and they began to request him, saying: "Sir, we want to see Jesus." 22 Philip came and told Andrew. Andrew and Philip came and told Jesus.

23 But Jesus answered them: "The hour has come for the Son of man to be glorified.[k] 24 Most truly I say to you, unless a grain of wheat falls to the ground and dies, it remains just one grain; but if it dies,[l] it then bears much fruit. 25 Whoever is fond of his life* destroys it, but whoever hates his life*[a] in this world will safeguard it for everlasting life.[b] 26 If anyone would minister to me, let him follow me, and where I am, there my minister will be also.[c] If anyone would minister to me, the Father will honor him. 27 Now I am* troubled,[d] and what should I say? Father, save me out of this hour.[e] Nevertheless, this is why I have come to this hour. 28 Father, glorify your name." Then a voice[f] came out of heaven: "I have glorified it and will glorify it again."[g]

29 The crowd that was standing there heard it and began to say that it had thundered. Others said: "An angel has spoken to him." 30 Jesus answered: "This voice has occurred, not for my sake, but for your sakes. 31 Now there is a judging of this world; now the ruler of this world[h] will be cast out.[i] 32 And yet I, if I am lifted up from the earth,[j] will draw all sorts of men to myself." 33 This he was really saying to indicate what sort of death he was about to die.[k] 34 Then the crowd answered him: "We heard from the Law that the Christ remains forever.[l] How can you say that the Son of man must be lifted up?[m] Who is this Son of man?" 35 So Jesus said to them: "The light will be among you a little while longer. Walk while you still have the light, so that darkness does not overpower you; whoever walks in the darkness does not know where he is going.[n] 36 While you have the light, exercise faith in the light, so that you may become sons of light."[o]

Jesus said these things and went off and hid from them. 37 Although he had performed so many signs before them, they were not putting faith in him, 38 so that the word of Isaiah the prophet might be fulfilled, who said: “Jehovah,* who has put faith in the thing heard from us?#[a] And as for the arm of Jehovah,* to whom has it been revealed?”[b] 39 The reason why they were not able to believe is that again Isaiah said: 40 “He has blinded their eyes and has made their hearts hard, so that they would not see with their eyes and understand with their hearts and turn around and I heal them.”[c] 41 Isaiah said these things because he saw his glory, and he spoke about him.[d] 42 All the same, many even of the rulers actually put faith in him,[e] but they would not acknowledge him because of the Pharisees, so that they would not be expelled from the synagogue;[f] 43 for they loved the glory of men even more than the glory of God.[g]

44 However, Jesus called out and said: “Whoever puts faith in me puts faith not only in me but also in him who sent me;[h] 45 and whoever sees me sees also the One who sent me.[i] 46 I have come as a light into the world,[j] so that everyone putting faith in me may not remain in the darkness.[k] 47 But if anyone hears my sayings and does not keep them, I do not judge him; for I came, not to judge the world, but to save the world.[l] 48 Whoever disregards me and does not receive my sayings has one to judge him. The word that I have spoken is what will judge him on the last day. 49 For I have not spoken of my own initiative, but the Father who sent me has himself given me a commandment about what to say and what to speak.[m] 50 And I know that his commandment means everlasting life.[n] So whatever I speak, I speak just as the Father has told me.”[o]

13 Now because he knew before the festival of the Passover that his hour had come[a] for him to leave this world and go to the Father,[b] Jesus, having loved his own who were in the world, loved them to the end.[c] 2 The evening meal was going on, and the Devil had already put it into the heart of Judas Is·car′i·ot,[d] the son of Simon, to betray him.[e] 3 So Jesus, knowing that the Father had given all things into his hands and that he came from God and was going to God,[f] 4 got up from the evening meal and laid aside his outer garments. And taking a towel, he wrapped it around his waist.[g] 5 After that he put water into a basin and started to wash the feet of the disciples and to dry them off with the towel that was wrapped around him. 6 Then he came to Simon Peter. He said to him: “Lord, are you washing my feet?” 7 Jesus answered him: “What I am doing you do not understand now, but you will understand after these things.” 8 Peter said to him: “You will certainly never wash my feet.” Jesus answered him: “Unless I wash you,[h] you have no share with me.” 9 Simon Peter said to him: “Lord, wash not only my feet but also my hands and my head.” 10 Jesus said to him: “Whoever has bathed does not need to have more than his feet washed, but is completely clean. And you men are clean, but not all of you.” 11 For he knew the man who was betraying him.[i] This is why he said: “Not all of you are clean.”

12 When, now, he had washed their feet and had put his outer garments on, he again reclined at the table and said to them: “Do you understand what I have done to you? 13 You address me as ‘Teacher’ and ‘Lord,’ and you are correct, for I am such.[a] 14 Therefore, if I, the Lord and Teacher, washed your feet,[b] you also should* wash the feet of one another.[c] 15 For I set the pattern for you, that just as I did to you, you should also do.[d] 16 Most truly I say to you, a slave is not greater than his master, nor is one who is sent greater than the one who sent him. 17 If you know these things, happy you are if you do them.[e] 18 I am not talking about all of you; I know the ones I have chosen. But this was so that the scripture might be fulfilled:[f] ‘The one who was eating my bread has lifted his heel against me.’*[g] 19 From this moment on, I am telling you before it occurs, so that when it does occur you may believe that I am he.[h] 20 Most truly I say to you, whoever receives anyone I send receives me also,[i] and whoever receives me receives also the One who sent me.”[j]

21 After saying these things, Jesus became troubled in spirit, and he bore witness, saying: “Most truly I say to you, one of you will betray me.”[k] 22 The disciples began to look at one another, being at a loss as to which one he was talking about.[l] 23 One of the disciples, the one whom Jesus loved,[m] was reclining close to* Jesus. 24 Therefore, Simon Peter nodded to this one and said to him: “Tell us whom he is talking about.” 25 So the latter leaned back on the chest of Jesus and said to him: “Lord, who is it?”[n] 26 Jesus answered: “It is the one to whom I will give the piece of bread that I dip.”[o] So after dipping the bread, he took it and gave it to Judas, the son of Simon Is·car’i·ot. 27 After Judas took the piece of bread, then Satan entered into him.[a] So Jesus said to him: “What you are doing, do it more quickly.” 28 However, none of those reclining at the table knew why he said this to him. 29 Some, in fact, were thinking that since Judas was holding the money box,[b] Jesus was telling him, “Buy what we need for the festival,” or that he should give something to the poor. 30 So after he received the piece of bread, he went out immediately. And it was night.[c]

31 When, therefore, he had gone out, Jesus said: “Now the Son of man is glorified,[d] and God is glorified in connection with him. 32 God himself will glorify him,[e] and he will glorify him immediately. 33 Little children, I am with you a little longer. You will look for me; and just as I said to the Jews, ‘Where I go you cannot come,’[f] I now say it also to you. 34 I am giving you a new commandment, that you love one another; just as I have loved you,[g] you also love one another.[h] 35 By this all will know that you are my disciples—if you have love among yourselves.”[i]

36 Simon Peter said to him: “Lord, where are you going?” Jesus answered: “Where I am going, you cannot follow me now, but you will follow later.”[j] 37 Peter said to him: “Lord, why is it I cannot follow you now? I will surrender my life* in your behalf.”[k] 38 Jesus answered: “Will you surrender your life* in my behalf? Most truly I say to you, a rooster will by no means crow until you have disowned me three times.”[l]

14 “Do not let your hearts be troubled.[m] Exercise faith in God;[n] exercise faith also in me. 2 In the house of my Father are many dwelling places.* Otherwise, I would have told you, for I am going my way to prepare a place for you.[a] 3 Also, if I go my way and prepare a place for you, I will come again and will receive you home to myself, so that where I am you also may be.[b] 4 And where I am going, you know the way."

5 Thomas[c] said to him: "Lord, we do not know where you are going. How can we know the way?"

6 Jesus said to him: "I am the way[d] and the truth[e] and the life.[f] No one comes to the Father except through me.[g] 7 If you men had known me, you would have known my Father also; from this moment on you know him and have seen him."[h]

8 Philip said to him: "Lord, show us the Father, and it is enough for us."

9 Jesus said to him: "Even after I have been with you men for such a long time, Philip, have you not come to know me? Whoever has seen me has seen the Father also.[i] How is it you say, 'Show us the Father'? 10 Do you not believe that I am in union with the Father and the Father is in union with me?[j] The things I say to you I do not speak of my own originality,[k] but the Father who remains in union with me is doing his works. 11 Believe me that I am in union with the Father and the Father is in union with me; otherwise, believe because of the works themselves.[l] 12 Most truly I say to you, whoever exercises faith in me will also do the works that I do; and he will do works greater than these,[m] because I am going my way to the Father.[n] 13 Also, whatever you ask in my name, I will do this, so that the Father may be glorified in connection with the Son.[a] 14 If you ask anything in my name, I will do it.

15 "If you love me, you will observe my commandments.[b] 16 And I will ask the Father and he will give you another helper* to be with you forever,[c] 17 the spirit of the truth,[d] which the world cannot receive, because it neither sees it nor knows it.[e] You know it, because it remains with you and is in you. 18 I will not leave you bereaved.* I am coming to you.[f] 19 In a little while the world will see me no more, but you will see me,[g] because I live and you will live. 20 In that day you will know that I am in union with my Father and you are in union with me and I am in union with you.[h] 21 Whoever has my commandments and observes them is the one who loves me. In turn, whoever loves me will be loved by my Father, and I will love him and will clearly show myself to him."

22 Judas,[i] not Is·car'i·ot, said to him: "Lord, what has happened that you intend to show yourself clearly to us and not to the world?"

23 In answer Jesus said to him: "If anyone loves me, he will observe my word,[j] and my Father will love him, and we will come to him and make our dwelling* with him.[k] 24 Whoever does not love me does not observe my words. The word that you are hearing is not mine, but belongs to the Father who sent me.[l]

25 "I have spoken these things to you while I am still with you. 26 But the helper, the holy spirit, which the Father will send in my name, that one will teach you all things and bring back to your minds all the things I told you.[m] 27 I leave you peace; I give you my peace.[a] I do not give it to you the way that the world gives it. Do not let your hearts be troubled nor let them shrink out of fear. 28 You heard that I said to you, 'I am going away and I am coming back to you.' If you loved me, you would rejoice that I am going to the Father, for the Father is greater than I am.[b] 29 So now I have told you before it occurs, so that you may believe when it does occur.[c] 30 I will not speak with you much more, for the ruler of the world[d] is coming, and he has no hold on me.*[e] 31 But for the world to know that I love the Father, I am doing just as the Father has commanded me to do.[f] Get up, let us go from here.

15 "I am the true vine, and my Father is the cultivator. 2 He takes away every branch in me not bearing fruit, and he cleans every one bearing fruit, so that it may bear more fruit.[g] 3 You are already clean because of the word that I have spoken to you.[h] 4 Remain in union with me, and I will remain in union with you. Just as the branch cannot bear fruit by itself unless it remains in the vine, neither can you unless you remain in union with me.[i] 5 I am the vine; you are the branches. Whoever remains in union with me and I in union with him, this one bears much fruit;[j] for apart from me you can do nothing at all. 6 If anyone does not remain in union with me, he is thrown out like a branch and dries up. And men gather those branches and throw them into the fire, and they are burned. 7 If you remain in union with me and my sayings remain in you, ask whatever you wish and it will take place for you.[k] 8 My Father is glorified in this, that you keep bearing much fruit and prove yourselves my disciples.[a] 9 Just as the Father has loved me,[b] so I have loved you; remain in my love. 10 If you observe my commandments, you will remain in my love, just as I have observed the commandments of the Father and remain in his love.

11 "These things I have spoken to you, so that my joy may be in you and your joy may be made full.[c] 12 This is my commandment, that you love one another just as I have loved you.[d] 13 No one has love greater than this, that someone should surrender his life* in behalf of his friends.[e] 14 You are my friends if you do what I am commanding you.[f] 15 I no longer call you slaves, because a slave does not know what his master does. But I have called you friends, because I have made known to you all the things I have heard from my Father. 16 You did not choose me, but I chose you, and I appointed you to go and keep bearing fruit and that your fruit should remain, so that no matter what you ask the Father in my name, he may give it to you.[g]

17 "These things I command you, that you love one another.[h] 18 If the world hates you, you know that it has hated me before it hated you.[i] 19 If you were part of the world, the world would be fond of what is its own. Now because you are no part of the world,[j] but I have chosen you out of the world, for this reason the world hates you.[k] 20 Keep in mind the word I said to you: A slave is not greater than his master. If they have persecuted me, they will also persecute you;[l] if they have observed my word, they will also observe yours. 21 But they will do all these things against you on account of my name, because they do not know the One who sent me.[a] 22 If I had not come and spoken to them, they would have no sin.[b] But now they have no excuse for their sin.[c] 23 Whoever hates me also hates my Father.[d] 24 If I had not done among them the works that no one else did, they would have no sin;[e] but now they have both seen me and hated me as well as my Father. 25 But this happened in order to fulfill the word written in their Law: 'They hated me without cause.'[f] 26 When the helper comes that I will send you from the Father, the spirit of the truth,[g] which comes from the Father, that one will bear witness about me;[h] 27 and you, in turn, are to bear witness,[i] because you have been with me from the beginning.

16 "I have said these things to you so that you may not be stumbled. 2 Men will expel you from the synagogue.[j] In fact, the hour is coming when everyone who kills you[k] will think he has offered a sacred service to God. 3 But they will do these things because they have not come to know either the Father or me.[l] 4 Nevertheless, I have told you these things so that when the hour for them to happen arrives, you will remember that I told them to you.[m]

"I did not tell you these things at first, because I was with you. 5 But now I am going to the One who sent me;[n] yet not one of you asks me, 'Where are you going?' 6 But because I have told you these things, grief has filled your hearts.[o] 7 Nevertheless, I am telling you the truth, it is for your benefit that I am going away. For if I do not go away, the helper[p] will not come to you; but if I do go, I will send him to you. 8 And when that one comes, he will give the world convincing evidence concerning sin and concerning righteousness and concerning judgment: 9 first concerning sin,[a] because they are not exercising faith in me;[b] 10 then concerning righteousness, because I am going to the Father and you will see me no longer; 11 then concerning judgment, because the ruler of this world has been judged.[c]

12 "I still have many things to say to you, but you are not able to bear them now. 13 However, when that one* comes, the spirit of the truth,[d] he will guide you into all the truth, for he will not speak of his own initiative, but what he hears he will speak, and he will declare to you the things to come.[e] 14 That one will glorify me,[f] because he will receive from what is mine and will declare it to you.[g] 15 All the things that the Father has are mine.[h] That is why I said he receives from what is mine and declares it to you. 16 In a little while you will see me no longer,[i] and again, in a little while you will see me."

17 At that some of his disciples said to one another: "What does he mean by saying to us, 'In a little while you will not see me, and again, in a little while you will see me,' and, 'because I am going to the Father'?" 18 So they were saying: "What does he mean by saying, 'a little while'? We do not know what he is talking about." 19 Jesus knew they wanted to question him, so he said to them: "Are you asking one another this because I said: 'In a little while you will not see me, and again, in a little while you will see me?' 20 Most truly I say to you, you will weep and wail, but the world will rejoice; you will be grieved, but your grief will be turned into joy.[a] 21 When a woman is giving birth, she has grief because her hour has come, but when she has given birth to the child, she remembers the tribulation no more because of the joy that a man has been born into the world. 22 So you also, now you have grief; but I will see you again, and your hearts will rejoice,[b] and no one will take away your joy. 23 In that day you will ask me no question at all. Most truly I say to you, if you ask the Father for anything,[c] he will give it to you in my name.[d] 24 Until now you have not asked for a single thing in my name. Ask and you will receive, so that your joy may be complete.

25 "I have spoken these things to you in comparisons. The hour is coming when I will no longer speak to you in comparisons, but I will tell you plainly about the Father. 26 In that day you will make request of the Father in my name; in saying this, I do not mean that I will make request for you. 27 For the Father himself has affection for you, because you have had affection for me[e] and have believed that I came as God's representative.[f] 28 I came as the Father's representative and have come into the world. Now I am leaving the world and am going to the Father."[g]

29 His disciples said: "See! Now you are speaking plainly and are not using comparisons. 30 Now we know that you know all things and you do not need to have anyone question you. By this we believe that you came from God." 31 Jesus answered them: "Do you believe now? 32 Look! The hour is coming, indeed, it has come, when each one of you will be scattered to his own house and you will leave me alone.[a] But I am not alone, because the Father is with me.[b] 33 I have said these things to you so that by means of me you may have peace.[c] In the world you will have tribulation, but take courage! I have conquered the world."[d]

17 Jesus spoke these things, and raising his eyes to heaven, he said: "Father, the hour has come. Glorify your son so that your son may glorify you,[e] 2 just as you have given him authority over all flesh,[f] so that he may give everlasting life[g] to all those whom you have given to him.[h] 3 This means everlasting life,[i] their coming to know you, the only true God,[j] and the one whom you sent, Jesus Christ.[k] 4 I have glorified you on the earth,[l] having finished the work you have given me to do.[m] 5 So now, Father, glorify me at your side with the glory that I had alongside you before the world was.[n]

6 "I have made your name manifest* to the men whom you gave me out of the world.[o] They were yours, and you gave them to me, and they have observed# your word. 7 Now they have come to know that all the things you gave me are from you; 8 because I have given them the sayings that you gave me,[p] and they have accepted them and have certainly come to know that I came as your representative,[q] and they have believed that you sent me.[r] 9 I make request concerning them; I make request, not concerning the world, but concerning those whom you have given me, because they are yours; 10 and all my things are yours and yours are mine,[a] and I have been glorified among them.

11 "I am no longer in the world, but they are in the world,[b] and I am coming to you. Holy Father, watch over them[c] on account of your own name, which you have given me, so that they may be one* just as we are one.*[d] 12 When I was with them, I used to watch over them[e] on account of your own name, which you have given me; and I have protected them, and not one of them is destroyed[f] except the son of destruction,[g] so that the scripture might be fulfilled.[h] 13 But now I am coming to you, and I am saying these things in the world, so that they may have my joy made complete in themselves.[i] 14 I have given your word to them, but the world has hated them, because they are no part of the world,[j] just as I am no part of the world.

15 "I do not request that you take them out of the world, but that you watch over them because of the wicked one.[k] 16 They are no part of the world,[l] just as I am no part of the world.[m] 17 Sanctify them* by means of the truth;[n] your word is truth.[o] 18 Just as you sent me into the world, I also sent them into the world.[p] 19 And I am sanctifying myself in their behalf, so that they also may be sanctified by means of truth.

20 "I make request, not concerning these only, but also concerning those putting faith in me through their word, 21 so that they may all be one,[q] just as you, Father, are in union with me and I am in union with you,[r] that they also may be in union with us, so that the world may believe that you sent me. 22 I have given them the glory that you have given me, in order that they may be one just as we are one.[a] 23 I in union with them and you in union with me, in order that they may be perfected into one,* so that the world may know that you sent me and that you loved them just as you loved me. 24 Father, I want those whom you have given me to be with me where I am,[b] in order that they may look upon my glory that you have given me, because you loved me before the founding of the world.[c] 25 Righteous Father, the world has, indeed, not come to know you,[d] but I know you,[e] and these have come to know that you sent me. 26 I have made your name known to them and will make it known,[f] so that the love with which you loved me may be in them and I in union with them."[g]

18 After he said these things, Jesus went out with his disciples across the Kid'ron Valley*[h] to where there was a garden, and he and his disciples went into it.[i] 2 Now Judas, his betrayer, also knew the place, because Jesus had often met there with his disciples. 3 So Judas brought the detachment of soldiers and officers of the chief priests and of the Pharisees and came there with torches and lamps and weapons.[j] 4 Then Jesus, knowing all the things that were going to happen to him, stepped forward and said to them: "Whom are you looking for?" 5 They answered him: "Jesus the Naz·a·rene'."[k] He said to them: "I am he." Now Judas, his betrayer, was also standing with them.[l]

6 However, when Jesus said to them, "I am he," they drew back and fell to the ground.[a] 7 So he asked them again: "Whom are you looking for?" They said: "Jesus the Naz·a·rene'." 8 Jesus answered: "I told you that I am he. So if you are looking for me, let these men go." 9 This was to fulfill what he had said: "Of those whom you have given me, I have not lost a single one."[b]

10 Then Simon Peter, who had a sword, drew it and struck the slave of the high priest, cutting off his right ear.[c] The name of the slave was Malchus. 11 Jesus, however, said to Peter: "Put the sword into its sheath.[d] Should I not drink the cup that the Father has given me?"[e]

12 Then the soldiers and the military commander and the officers of the Jews seized* Jesus and bound him. 13 They led him first to An'nas, for he was the father-in-law of Ca'ia·phas,[f] who was high priest that year.[g] 14 Ca'ia·phas was, in fact, the one who had advised the Jews that it was to their benefit for one man to die in behalf of the people.[h]

15 Now Simon Peter, as well as another disciple, was following Jesus.[i] That disciple was known to the high priest, and he went with Jesus into the courtyard of the high priest, 16 but Peter was standing outside at the door.* So the other disciple, who was known to the high priest, went out and spoke to the doorkeeper and brought Peter in. 17 The servant girl who was the doorkeeper then said to Peter: "You are not also one of this man's disciples, are you?" He said: "I am not."[j] 18 Now the slaves and the officers were standing around a charcoal fire they had made, because it was cold and they were warming themselves. Peter also was standing with them and warming himself.

19 So the chief priest questioned Jesus about his disciples and about his teaching. 20 Jesus answered him: "I have spoken to the world publicly. I always taught in a synagogue and in the temple,[a] where all the Jews come together, and I said nothing in secret. 21 Why do you question me? Question those who have heard what I told them. See! These know what I said." 22 After he said these things, one of the officers who was standing by gave Jesus a slap in the face[b] and said: "Is that the way you answer the chief priest?" 23 Jesus answered him: "If I said something wrong, bear witness* about the wrong; but if what I said was right, why do you hit me?" 24 Then An'nas sent him away bound to Ca'ia·phas the high priest.[c]

25 Now Simon Peter was standing there warming himself. Then they said to him: "You are not also one of his disciples, are you?" He denied it and said: "I am not."[d] 26 One of the slaves of the high priest, who was a relative of the man whose ear Peter had cut off,[e] said: "I saw you in the garden with him, did I not?" 27 However, Peter denied it again, and immediately a rooster crowed.[f]

28 Then they led Jesus from Ca'ia·phas to the governor's residence.[g] It was now early in the morning. But they themselves did not enter into the governor's residence, so that they would not get defiled[h] but could eat the Passover. 29 So Pilate came outside to them and said: "What accusation do you bring against this man?” 30 They answered him: “If this man were not a wrongdoer,* we would not have handed him over to you.” 31 So Pilate said to them: “Take him yourselves and judge him according to your law.”[a] The Jews said to him: “It is not lawful for us to kill anyone.”[b] 32 This was to fulfill the word that Jesus had spoken to indicate what sort of death he was about to die.[c]

33 So Pilate entered the governor’s residence again and called Jesus and said to him: “Are you the King of the Jews?”[d] 34 Jesus answered: “Are you asking this of your own originality, or did others tell you about me?” 35 Pilate replied: “I am not a Jew, am I? Your own nation and the chief priests handed you over to me. What did you do?” 36 Jesus answered:[e] “My Kingdom is no part of this world.[f] If my Kingdom were part of this world, my attendants would have fought that I should not be handed over to the Jews.[g] But as it is, my Kingdom is not from this source.” 37 So Pilate said to him: “Well, then, are you a king?” Jesus answered: “You yourself are saying that I am a king.[h] For this I have been born, and for this I have come into the world, that I should bear witness to the truth.[i] Everyone who is on the side of the truth listens to my voice.” 38 Pilate said to him: “What is truth?”

After saying this, he went out again to the Jews and said to them: “I find no fault in him.[j] 39 Moreover, you have a custom that I should release a man to you at the Passover.[k] So do you want me to release to you the King of the Jews?” 40 Again they shouted: “Not this man, but Bar·ab′bas!” Now Bar·ab′bas was a robber.[l]

19 Pilate then took Jesus and scourged him.[a] 2 And the soldiers braided a crown of thorns and put it on his head and clothed him with a purple robe,[b] 3 and they kept coming up to him and saying: “Greetings,* you King of the Jews!” They also kept slapping him in the face.[c] 4 Pilate went outside again and said to them: “See! I bring him outside to you in order for you to know that I find no fault in him.”[d] 5 So Jesus came outside, wearing the crown of thorns and the purple robe. And Pilate said to them: “Look! The man!” 6 However, when the chief priests and the officers saw him, they shouted: “To the stake with him! To the stake with him!”*[e] Pilate said to them: “Take him yourselves and execute him,# for I do not find any fault in him.”[f] 7 The Jews answered him: “We have a law, and according to the law he ought to die,[g] because he made himself God’s son.”[h]

8 When Pilate heard what they were saying, he became even more fearful, 9 and he entered the governor’s residence again and said to Jesus: “Where are you from?” But Jesus gave him no answer.[i] 10 So Pilate said to him: “Are you refusing to speak to me? Do you not know that I have authority to release you and I have authority to execute you?”* 11 Jesus answered him: “You would have no authority over me at all unless it had been granted to you from above. This is why the man who handed me over to you has greater sin.”

12 For this reason Pilate kept trying to find a way to release him, but the Jews shouted: “If

19:3 *Or “Hail.” 19:6 *Or “Execute him on the stake! Execute him on the stake!” #Or “execute him on the stake.” 19:10 *Or “execute you on the stake?”

you release this man, you are not a friend of Caesar. Everyone who makes himself a king speaks against* Caesar."[a] 13 Then Pilate, after hearing these words, brought Jesus outside, and he sat down on a judgment seat in a place called the Stone Pavement, but in Hebrew, Gab′ba·tha. 14 Now it was the day of Preparation[b] of the Passover; it was about the sixth hour.* And he said to the Jews: "See! Your king!" 15 However, they shouted: "Take him away! Take him away! To the stake with him!"* Pilate said to them: "Shall I execute your king?" The chief priests answered: "We have no king but Caesar." 16 Then he handed him over to them to be executed on the stake.[c]

So they took charge of Jesus. 17 Bearing the torture stake* for himself, he went out to the so-called Skull Place,[d] which is called Gol′go·tha in Hebrew.[e] 18 There they nailed him to the stake[f] alongside two other men, one on each side, with Jesus in the middle.[g] 19 Pilate also wrote a title and put it on the torture stake.* It was written: "Jesus the Naz·a·rene′ the King of the Jews."[h] 20 Many of the Jews read this title, because the place where Jesus was nailed to the stake was near the city, and it was written in Hebrew, in Latin, and in Greek. 21 However, the chief priests of the Jews said to Pilate: "Do not write, 'The King of the Jews,' but that he said, 'I am King of the Jews.'" 22 Pilate answered: "What I have written, I have written."

23 Now when the soldiers had nailed Jesus to the stake, they took his outer garments and divided them into four parts, one for each soldier, and they also took the inner garment. But the inner garment was without a seam, being woven from top to bottom. 24 So they said to one another: "Let us not tear it, but let us cast lots over it to decide whose it will be."[a] This was to fulfill the scripture: "They divided my garments among themselves, and they cast lots for my clothing."[b] So the soldiers actually did these things.

25 By the torture stake* of Jesus, however, there were standing his mother[c] and his mother's sister; Mary the wife of Clo′pas and Mary Mag′da·lene.[d] 26 So when Jesus saw his mother and the disciple whom he loved[e] standing nearby, he said to his mother: "Woman, see! Your son!" 27 Next he said to the disciple: "See! Your mother!" And from that hour on, the disciple took her into his own home.

28 After this, when Jesus knew that by now all things had been accomplished, in order to fulfill the scripture he said: "I am thirsty."[f] 29 A jar was sitting there full of sour wine. So they put a sponge full of the sour wine on a hyssop* stalk and held it up to his mouth.[g] 30 When he had received the sour wine, Jesus said: "It has been accomplished!"[h] and bowing his head, he gave up his spirit.*[i]

31 Since it was the day of Preparation,[j] so that the bodies would not remain on the torture stakes[k] on the Sabbath (for that Sabbath day was a great one),[l] the Jews asked Pilate to have the legs broken and the bodies taken away. 32 So the soldiers came and broke the legs of the first man and those of the other man who was on a stake alongside him. 33 But on coming to Jesus, they saw that he was already dead, so they did not break his legs. 34 But one of the soldiers jabbed his side with a spear,[a] and immediately blood and water came out. 35 And the one who has seen it has given this witness, and his witness is true, and he knows that what he says is true, so that you also may believe.[b] 36 In fact, these things took place for the scripture to be fulfilled: "Not a bone of his will be broken."*[c] 37 And again, a different scripture says: "They will look to the one whom they pierced."[d]

38 Now after these things, Joseph of Ar·i·ma·the'a, who was a disciple of Jesus but a secret one because of his fear of the Jews,[e] asked Pilate if he could take away the body of Jesus, and Pilate gave him permission. So he came and took the body away.[f] 39 Nic·o·de'mus,[g] the man who had come to him in the night the first time, also came, bringing a mixture* of myrrh and aloes weighing about a hundred pounds.#[h] 40 So they took the body of Jesus and wrapped it in linen cloths with the spices,[i] according to the burial custom of the Jews. 41 Incidentally, there was a garden at the place where he was executed,* and in the garden was a new tomb#[j] in which no one had ever yet been laid. 42 Because it was the day of Preparation[k] of the Jews and the tomb was nearby, they laid Jesus there.

20 On the first day of the week, Mary Mag'da·lene came to the tomb# early,[l] while it was still dark, and she saw that the stone had already been taken away from the tomb.#[a] 2 So she came running to Simon Peter and to the other disciple, for whom Jesus had affection,[b] and she said to them: "They have taken away the Lord out of the tomb,[c] and we do not know where they have laid him."

3 Then Peter and the other disciple set out for the tomb. 4 The two of them began running together, but the other disciple ran faster than Peter and reached the tomb first. 5 Stooping forward, he saw the linen cloths lying there,[d] but he did not go in. 6 Then Simon Peter also came, following him, and he went into the tomb. And he saw the linen cloths lying there. 7 The cloth that had been on his head was not lying with the other cloth bands but was rolled up in a place by itself. 8 Then the other disciple who had reached the tomb first also went in, and he saw and believed. 9 For they did not yet understand the scripture that he must rise from the dead.[e] 10 So the disciples went back to their homes.

11 Mary, however, kept standing outside near the tomb, weeping. While she was weeping, she stooped forward to look into the tomb, 12 and she saw two angels[f] in white sitting where the body of Jesus had been lying, one at the head and one at the feet. 13 And they said to her: "Woman, why are you weeping?" She said to them: "They have taken my Lord away, and I do not know where they have laid him." 14 After saying this, she turned around and saw Jesus standing there, but she did not realize that it was Jesus.[g] 15 Jesus said to her: "Woman, why are you weeping? Whom are you looking for?" She, thinking it was the gardener, said to him: "Sir, if you have carried him off, tell me where you have laid him, and I will take him away." 16 Jesus said to her: "Mary!" On turning around, she said to him in Hebrew: "Rab·bo′ni!" (which means "Teacher!") 17 Jesus said to her: "Stop clinging to me, for I have not yet ascended to the Father. But go to my brothers[a] and say to them, 'I am ascending to my Father[b] and your Father and to my God[c] and your God.'" 18 Mary Mag′da·lene came and brought the news to the disciples: "I have seen the Lord!" And she told them what he had said to her.[d]

19 When it was late that day, the first day of the week, and the doors were locked where the disciples were for fear of the Jews, Jesus came and stood in their midst and said to them: "May you have peace."[e] 20 After saying this, he showed them his hands and his side.[f] Then the disciples rejoiced at seeing the Lord.[g] 21 Jesus said to them again: "May you have peace.[h] Just as the Father has sent me,[i] I also am sending you."[j] 22 After saying this he blew on them and said to them: "Receive holy spirit.[k] 23 If you forgive the sins of anyone, they are forgiven; if you retain those of anyone, they are retained."

24 But Thomas,[l] one of the Twelve, who was called the Twin, was not with them when Jesus came. 25 So the other disciples were telling him: "We have seen the Lord!" But he said to them: "Unless I see in his hands the print* of the nails and stick my finger into the print of the nails and stick my hand into his side,[m] I will never believe it."

26 Well, eight days later his disciples were again indoors, and Thomas was with them. Jesus came, although the doors were locked, and he stood in their midst and said: "May you have peace."[a] 27 Next he said to Thomas: "Put your finger here, and see my hands, and take your hand and stick it into my side, and stop doubting* but believe." 28 In answer Thomas said to him: "My Lord and my God!" 29 Jesus said to him: "Because you have seen me, have you believed? Happy are those who have not seen and yet believe."

30 To be sure, Jesus also performed many other signs before the disciples, which are not written down in this scroll.[b] 31 But these have been written down so that you may believe that Jesus is the Christ, the Son of God, and because of believing, you may have life by means of his name.[c]

21 After this Jesus manifested himself* again to the disciples, at the Sea of Ti·be′ri·as. He made the manifestation in this way. 2 There were together Simon Peter, Thomas (who was called the Twin),[d] Na·than′·a·el[e] from Ca′na of Gal′i·lee, the sons of Zeb′e·dee,[f] and two others of his disciples. 3 Simon Peter said to them: "I am going fishing." They said to him: "We are coming with you." They went out and got aboard the boat, but during that night they caught nothing.[g]

4 However, just as day was breaking, Jesus stood on the beach, but the disciples did not realize that it was Jesus.[h] 5 Then Jesus said to them: "Children, you do not have anything* to eat, do you?" They answered: "No!" 6 He said to them: "Cast the net on the right side of the boat and you will find some." So they cast it, but they were not able to haul it in because of the large number of fish.[a] 7 Then the disciple whom Jesus loved[b] said to Peter: "It is the Lord!" Now Simon Peter, on hearing that it was the Lord, put on* his outer garment, for he was naked,# and plunged into the sea. 8 But the other disciples came in the small boat, dragging the net full of fish, for they were not a long way from land, only about 300 feet* away.

9 When they came ashore, they saw there a charcoal fire with fish lying on it and bread. 10 Jesus said to them: "Bring some of the fish you just now caught." 11 So Simon Peter went on board and hauled the net ashore full of big fish, 153 of them. And though there were so many, the net did not burst. 12 Jesus said to them: "Come, have your breakfast." Not one of the disciples had the courage to ask him: "Who are you?" because they knew it was the Lord. 13 Jesus came and took the bread and gave it to them, and the same with the fish. 14 This was now the third time[c] that Jesus appeared to the disciples after being raised up from the dead.

15 When they had finished breakfast, Jesus said to Simon Peter: "Simon son of John, do you love me more than these?" He replied to him: "Yes, Lord, you know I have affection for you." He said to him: "Feed my lambs."[d] 16 Again he said to him a second time: "Simon son of John, do you love me?" He replied: "Yes, Lord, you know I have affection for you." He said to him: "Shepherd my little sheep."[e] 17 He said to him a third time: "Simon son of John, do you have affection for me?" Peter became grieved that he asked him the third time: "Do you have affection for me?" So he said to him: "Lord, you are aware of all things; you know that I have affection for you." Jesus said to him: "Feed my little sheep.[a] 18 Most truly I say to you, when you were younger, you used to clothe yourself and walk about where you wanted. But when you grow old, you will stretch out your hands and another man will clothe you and carry you where you do not wish." 19 He said this to indicate by what sort of death he would glorify God. After he said this, he said to him: "Continue following me."[b]

20 Peter turned around and saw the disciple whom Jesus loved[c] following, the one who at the evening meal had also leaned back on his chest and said: "Lord, who is the one betraying you?" 21 So when he caught sight of him, Peter said to Jesus: "Lord, what about this man?" 22 Jesus said to him: "If it is my will for him to remain until I come, of what concern is that to you? You continue following me." 23 So the saying went out among the brothers that this disciple would not die. However, Jesus did not say to him that he would not die, but he said: "If it is my will for him to remain until I come, of what concern is that to you?"

24 This is the disciple[d] who gives this witness about these things and who wrote these things, and we know that his witness is true.

25 There are also, in fact, many other things that Jesus did, which if ever they were written in full detail, I suppose the world itself could not contain the scrolls written.[e]

1 The first account, O Theoph'i·lus, I composed about all the things Jesus started to do and to teach[a] 2 until the day that he was taken up,[b] after he had given instructions through holy spirit to the apostles he had chosen.[c] 3 After he had suffered, he showed himself alive to them by many convincing proofs.[d] He was seen by them throughout 40 days, and he was speaking about the Kingdom of God.[e] 4 While he was meeting with them, he ordered them: "Do not leave Jerusalem,[a] but keep waiting for what the Father has promised,[b] about which you heard from me; 5 for John, indeed, baptized with water, but you will be baptized with holy spirit[c] not many days after this."

6 So when they had assembled, they asked him: "Lord, are you restoring the kingdom to Israel at this time?"[d] 7 He said to them: "It does not belong to you to know the times or seasons that the Father has placed in his own jurisdiction.[a] 8 But you will receive power when the holy spirit comes upon you,[b] and you will be witnesses[c] of me in Jerusalem,[d] in all Ju·de′a and Sa·mar′i·a,[e] and to the most distant part of the earth.”[f] 9 After he had said these things, while they were looking on, he was lifted up and a cloud caught him up from their sight.[g] 10 And as they were gazing into the sky while he was on his way, suddenly two men in white garments[h] stood beside them 11 and said: “Men of Gal′i·lee, why do you stand looking into the sky? This Jesus who was taken up from you into the sky will come in the same manner as you have seen him going into the sky.”

12 Then they returned to Jerusalem[i] from a mountain called the Mount of Olives, which is near Jerusalem, only a sabbath day’s journey away. 13 When they arrived, they went up into the upper room where they were staying. There were Peter as well as John and James and Andrew, Philip and Thomas, Bar·thol′o·mew and Matthew, James the son of Al·phae′us, and Simon the zealous one, and Judas the son of James.[j] 14 With one purpose all of these were persisting in prayer, together with some women[k] and Mary the mother of Jesus and with his brothers.[l]

15 During those days Peter stood up in the midst of the brothers (the number* of people was altogether about 120) and said: 16 “Men, brothers, it was necessary for the scripture to be fulfilled that the holy spirit spoke prophetically through David about Judas,[m] who became a guide to those who arrested Jesus.[n] 17 For he had been numbered among us[o] and he obtained a share in this ministry. 18 (This very man, therefore, purchased a field with the wages for unrighteousness,[a] and falling headfirst, his body burst open* and all his insides spilled out.[b] 19 This became known to all the inhabitants of Jerusalem, so that the field was called in their language A·kel′da·ma, that is, “Field of Blood.”) 20 For it is written in the book of Psalms, ‘Let his dwelling become desolate, and let there be no inhabitant in it’[c] and, ‘His office of oversight let someone else take.’[d] 21 It is therefore necessary that of the men who accompanied us during all the time in which the Lord Jesus carried on his activities* among us, 22 starting with his baptism by John[e] until the day he was taken up from us,[f] one of these men should become a witness with us of his resurrection.”[g]

23 So they proposed two, Joseph called Bar′sab·bas, who was also called Justus, and Mat·thi′as. 24 Then they prayed and said: “You, O Jehovah,* who know the hearts of all,[h] designate which one of these two men you have chosen 25 to take the place of this ministry and apostleship, from which Judas deviated to go to his own place.”[i] 26 So they cast lots over them,[j] and the lot fell to Mat·thi′as, and he was counted* along with the 11 apostles.

2 Now while the day of the Festival of Pentecost[k] was in progress, they were all together at the same place. 2 Suddenly there was a noise from heaven, just like that of a rushing, stiff breeze, and it filled the whole house where they were sitting.[l]

3 And tongues as if of fire became visible to them and were distributed, and one came to rest on each one of them, 4 and they all became filled with holy spirit[a] and started to speak in different languages,* just as the spirit enabled them to speak.[b]

5 At that time devout Jews from every nation under heaven were staying in Jerusalem.[c] 6 So when this sound occurred, a crowd gathered and was bewildered, because each one heard them speaking in his own language. 7 Indeed, they were utterly amazed and said: "See here, all these who are speaking are Gal·i·le'ans,[d] are they not? 8 How is it, then, that each one of us is hearing his own native language?* 9 Par'thi·ans, Medes,[e] and E'lam·ites;[f] the inhabitants of Mes·o·po·ta'mi·a, Ju·de'a and Cap·pa·do'ci·a, Pon'tus and the province of Asia,[g] 10 Phryg'i·a and Pamphyl'i·a, Egypt and the regions of Lib'y·a near Cy·re'ne; sojourners from Rome, both Jews and proselytes;[h] 11 Cre'tans; and Arabians—we hear them speaking in our languages about the magnificent things of God." 12 Yes, they were all astonished and perplexed, saying to one another: "What does this mean?" 13 However, others mocked them and said: "They are full of sweet wine."*

14 But Peter stood up with the Eleven[i] and spoke to them in a loud voice: "Men of Jude'a and all you inhabitants of Jerusalem, let this be known to you and listen carefully to my words. 15 These people are, in fact, not drunk, as you suppose, for it is the third hour of the day.* 16 On the contrary, this is what was said through the prophet Joel: 17 '"And in the last days," God says, "I will pour out some of my spirit on every sort of flesh, and your sons and your daughters will prophesy and your young men will see visions and your old men will dream dreams,[a] 18 and even on my male slaves and on my female slaves I will pour out some of my spirit in those days, and they will prophesy.[b] 19 And I will give wonders* in heaven above and signs on earth below—blood and fire and clouds of smoke. 20 The sun will be turned into darkness and the moon into blood before the great and illustrious day of Jehovah* comes. 21 And everyone who calls on the name of Jehovah* will be saved."'[c]

22 "Men of Israel, hear these words: Jesus the Naz·a·rene' was a man publicly shown to you by God through powerful works and wonders* and signs that God did through him in your midst,[d] just as you yourselves know. 23 This man, who was handed over by the determined will* and foreknowledge of God,[e] you fastened to a stake by the hand of lawless men, and you did away with him.[f] 24 But God resurrected him[g] by releasing him from the pangs* of death, because it was not possible for him to be held fast by it.[h] 25 For David says about him: 'I keep Jehovah* constantly in front of me,# for he is at my right hand that I may never be shaken. 26 On this account my heart became cheerful and my tongue rejoiced greatly. And I* will reside in hope; 27 because you will not leave me* in the Grave,# nor will you allow your loyal one to see corruption.[a] 28 You have made life's ways known to me; you will fill me with great joy in your presence.'*[b]

29 "Men, brothers, it is permissible to speak with freeness of speech to you about the family head David, that he died and was buried,[c] and his tomb is with us to this day. 30 Because he was a prophet and knew that God had sworn to him with an oath that he would seat one of his offspring* on his throne,[d] 31 he foresaw and spoke about the resurrection of the Christ, that neither was he forsaken in the Grave# nor did his flesh see corruption.[e] 32 God resurrected this Jesus, and of this we are all witnesses.[f] 33 Therefore, because he was exalted to the right hand of God[g] and received the promised holy spirit from the Father,[h] he has poured out what you see and hear. 34 For David did not ascend to the heavens, but he himself says, 'Jehovah said to my Lord: "Sit at my right hand 35 until I place your enemies as a stool for your feet."'[i] 36 Therefore, let all the house of Israel know for a certainty that God made him both Lord[j] and Christ, this Jesus whom you executed on a stake."[k]

37 Now when they heard this, they were stabbed to the heart, and they said to Peter and the rest of the apostles: "Men, brothers, what should we do?" 38 Peter said to them: "Repent,[l] and let each one of you be baptized[m] in the name of Jesus Christ for forgiveness of your sins,[n] and you will receive the free gift of the holy spirit. 39 For the promise[a] is to you and your children, and to all those who are far away, to all those whom Jehovah* our God may call to himself."[b] 40 And with many other words he gave a thorough witness and kept exhorting them, saying: "Get saved from this crooked generation."[c] 41 So those who gladly accepted his word were baptized,[d] and on that day about 3,000 people* were added.[e] 42 And they continued devoting themselves to the teaching of the apostles, to associating together,* to the taking of meals,[f] and to prayers.[g]

43 Indeed, fear began to fall upon everyone,* and many wonders# and signs began to occur through the apostles.[h] 44 All those who became believers were together and had everything in common, 45 and they were selling their possessions[i] and properties and distributing the proceeds to all, according to what each one needed.[j] 46 And day after day they were in constant attendance in the temple with a united purpose, and they took their meals in different homes and shared their food with great rejoicing and sincerity of heart, 47 praising God and finding favor with all the people. At the same time Jehovah* continued to add to them daily those being saved.[k]

3 Now Peter and John were going up into the temple for the hour of prayer, the ninth hour,* 2 and a man who was lame from birth was being carried. Every day they would put him near the temple door that was called Beautiful, so he could ask for gifts of mercy from those entering the temple. 3 When he caught sight of Peter and John about to go into the temple, he began asking for gifts of mercy. 4 But Peter, together with John, looked straight at him and said: "Look at us." 5 So he fixed his attention on them, expecting to get something from them. 6 However, Peter said: "Silver and gold I do not possess, but what I do have is what I give you. In the name of Jesus Christ the Naz·a·rene', walk!"[a] 7 With that he took hold of him by the right hand and raised him up.[b] Instantly his feet and his ankles were made firm;[c] 8 and leaping to his feet,[d] he began walking and went with them into the temple, walking and leaping and praising God. 9 And all the people saw him walking and praising God. 10 And they began to recognize him, that this was the man who used to sit waiting for gifts of mercy at the Beautiful Gate of the temple,[e] and they were completely astonished and ecstatic about what had happened to him.

11 While the man was still holding on to Peter and John, all the people ran together to them at what was called Sol'·o·mon's Colonnade,[f] completely surprised. 12 When Peter saw this, he said to the people: "Men of Israel, why are you so amazed at this, and why are you staring at us as though by personal power or godly devotion we have made him walk? 13 The God of Abraham and of Isaac and of Jacob,[g] the God of our forefathers, has glorified his Servant,[h] Jesus,[i] whom you handed over[j] and disowned before Pilate, even though he had decided to release him. 14 Yes, you disowned that holy and righteous one, and you asked for a man who was a murderer to be given to you,[k] 15 whereas you killed the Chief Agent of life.[a] But God raised him up from the dead, of which fact we are witnesses.[b] 16 And through his name, and by our faith in his name, this man whom you see and know has been made strong. The faith that is through him has made this man completely healthy in front of all of you. 17 And now, brothers, I know that you acted in ignorance,[c] just as your rulers also did.[d] 18 But in this way God has fulfilled the things he announced beforehand through the mouth of all the prophets, that his Christ would suffer.[e]

19 "Repent,[f] therefore, and turn around[g] so as to get your sins blotted out,[h] so that seasons of refreshing may come from Jehovah himself* 20 and he may send the Christ appointed for you, Jesus. 21 Heaven must hold this one within itself until the times of restoration of all things of which God spoke through the mouth of his holy prophets of old. 22 In fact, Moses said: 'Jehovah* your God will raise up for you from among your brothers a prophet like me.[i] You must listen to whatever he tells you.[j] 23 Indeed, anyone* who does not listen to that Prophet will be completely destroyed from among the people.'[k] 24 And all the prophets from Samuel and those who followed him, as many as have spoken, have also plainly declared these days.[l] 25 You are the sons of the prophets and of the covenant that God made with your forefathers,[m] saying to Abraham: 'And by means of your offspring* all the families of the earth will be blessed.'[n] 26 God, after raising up his Servant, sent him to

4 While the two were speaking to the people, the priests, the captain of the temple, and the Sadducees[b] came up to them. 2 These were annoyed because the apostles were teaching the people and were openly declaring the resurrection of Jesus from the dead.[c] 3 So they seized them and took them into custody[d] until the next day, for it was already evening. 4 However, many of those who had listened to the speech believed, and the number of the men became about 5,000.[e]

5 The next day their rulers, elders, and scribes gathered together in Jerusalem, 6 along with An′nas[f] the chief priest, Ca′·ia·phas,[g] John, Alexander, and all who were relatives of the chief priest. 7 They stood Peter and John in their midst and began to question them: "By what power or in whose name did you do this?" 8 Then Peter, filled with holy spirit,[h] said to them:

"Rulers of the people and elders, 9 if we are being examined today about a good deed to a crippled man,[i] and you want to know who made this man well, 10 let it be known to all of you and to all the people of Israel that in the name of Jesus Christ the Naz·a·rene′,[j] whom you executed on a stake[k] but whom God raised up from the dead,[l] by means of him this man stands here healthy in front of you. 11 This is 'the stone that was treated by you builders as of no account that has become the chief cornerstone.'*[m]

12 Furthermore, there is no salvation in anyone else, for there is no other name[a] under heaven that has been given among men by which we must get saved."[b]

13 Now when they saw the outspokenness* of Peter and John, and perceived that they were uneducated# and ordinary men,[c] they were astonished. And they began to realize that they had been with Jesus.[d] 14 As they were looking at the man who had been cured standing with them,[e] they had nothing to say in answer to this.[f] 15 So they commanded them to go outside the San′he·drin hall, and they began consulting with one another, 16 saying: "What should we do with these men?[g] Because, for a fact, a noteworthy sign has occurred through them, one evident to all the inhabitants of Jerusalem,[h] and we cannot deny it. 17 So that this does not spread any further among the people, let us threaten them and tell them not to speak to anyone anymore on the basis of this name."[i]

18 With that they called them and ordered them not to say anything at all or to teach on the basis of the name of Jesus. 19 But in reply Peter and John said to them: "Whether it is right in the sight of God to listen to you rather than to God, judge for yourselves. 20 But as for us, we cannot stop speaking about the things we have seen and heard."[j] 21 So after they had threatened them further, they released them, since they did not find any grounds for punishing them and on account of the people,[k] because they were all glorifying God over what had happened. 22 For the man on whom this miracle* of healing had been done was more than 40 years old.

23 After being released, they went to their own people and reported what the chief priests and the elders had said to them. 24 On hearing this, they raised their voices with one accord to God and said:

"Sovereign Lord, you are the One who made the heaven and the earth and the sea and all the things in them,[a] 25 and who said through holy spirit by the mouth of our forefather David,[b] your servant: 'Why did nations become agitated and peoples meditate on empty things? 26 The kings of the earth took their stand and the rulers gathered together as one against Jehovah* and against his anointed one.'#[c] 27 For truly both Herod and Pontius Pilate[d] with men of the nations and with peoples of Israel were gathered together in this city against your holy servant Jesus, whom you anointed,[e] 28 to do what your hand and counsel had determined beforehand to occur.[f] 29 And now, Jehovah,* give attention to their threats, and grant to your slaves to keep speaking your word with all boldness, 30 while you stretch out your hand for healing and while signs and wonders* occur[g] through the name of your holy servant Jesus."[h]

31 And when they had made supplication,* the place where they were gathered together was shaken, and they were one and all filled with the holy spirit[i] and were speaking the word of God with boldness.[j]

32 Moreover, the multitude of those who believed were of one heart and soul,* and not even one of them would say that any of the things he possessed was his own, but they had all things in common.[a] 33 And with great power the apostles continued giving the witness about the resurrection of the Lord Jesus,[b] and undeserved kindness was upon them all in large measure. 34 In fact, no one was in need among them,[c] for all those who owned fields or houses would sell them and bring the value of what was sold, 35 and they would deposit it at the feet of the apostles.[d] In turn distribution would be made to each one according to his need.[e] 36 So Joseph, who was also called by the apostles Bar′na·bas[f] (which means, when translated, "Son of Comfort"), a Levite, a native of Cy′prus, 37 owned a piece of land, and he sold it and brought the money and deposited it at the feet of the apostles.[g]

5 However, a man named An·a·ni′as, together with his wife Sap·phi′ra, sold some property. 2 But he secretly held back some of the price, with his wife's knowledge, and he brought just a part of it and deposited it at the feet of the apostles.[h] 3 But Peter said: "An·a·ni′as, why has Satan emboldened you to lie[i] to the holy spirit[j] and secretly hold back some of the price of the field? 4 As long as it remained with you, did it not remain yours? And after it was sold, was it not in your control? Why have you thought up such a deed as this in your heart? You have lied, not to men, but to God." 5 On hearing these words, An·a·ni′as collapsed and died. And great fear came over all those who heard about it. 6 Then the younger men rose, wrapped him in cloths, carried him out, and buried him.

7 Now after an interval of about three hours his wife came in, not knowing what had happened. 8 Peter said to her: "Tell me, did you two sell the field for so much?" She said: "Yes, for that amount." 9 So Peter said to her: "Why did you two agree to make a test of the spirit of Jehovah?* Look! The feet of those who buried your husband are at the door, and they will carry you out." 10 Instantly she collapsed at his feet and died. When the young men came in, they found her dead and they carried her out and buried her alongside her husband. 11 So great fear came over the whole congregation and over all those hearing about these things.

12 Moreover, through the hands of the apostles many signs and wonders* continued to occur among the people;[a] and they would all meet together in Sol'o·mon's Colonnade.[b] 13 True, none of the others had the courage to join them; nevertheless, the people were speaking highly of them. 14 More than that, believers in the Lord kept on being added, great numbers both of men and of women.[c] 15 They even brought the sick out into the main streets and laid them there on small beds and mats, so that as Peter would pass by, at least his shadow might fall on some of them.[d] 16 Also, crowds of people from the cities around Jerusalem kept coming, carrying sick people and those troubled with unclean spirits, and they were one and all cured.

17 But the high priest rose, and all those with him, who were of the sect of the Sadducees, and they were filled with jealousy. 18 And they seized* the apostles and put them in the public jail.[a] 19 But during the night, Jehovah's* angel opened the doors of the prison,[b] brought them out, and said: 20 "Go and take your stand in the temple, and keep on speaking to the people all the sayings about this life." 21 After hearing this, they entered the temple at daybreak and began to teach.

Now when the high priest and those with him arrived, they called together the San'he·drin and the entire assembly of elders of the sons of Israel, and they sent out to the jail to have the apostles brought before them. 22 But when the officers got there, they did not find them in the prison. So they returned and made their report, 23 saying: "We found the jail locked and secure, and the guards were standing at the doors, but on opening it up, we found no one inside." 24 Well, when both the captain of the temple and the chief priests heard these words, they were perplexed about what would come of this. 25 But someone came and reported to them: "Look! The men you put in prison are in the temple, standing and teaching the people." 26 Then the captain went off with his officers and brought them in, but without violence, because they were afraid of being stoned by the people.[c]

27 So they brought them and stood them before the San'he·drin. Then the high priest questioned them 28 and said: "We strictly ordered you not to keep teaching on the basis of this name,[d] and yet look! you have filled Jerusalem with your teaching, and you are determined to bring the blood of this man upon us."[a] 29 In answer Peter and the other apostles said: "We must obey God as ruler rather than men.[b] 30 The God of our forefathers raised up Jesus, whom you killed, hanging him on a stake.*[c] 31 God exalted this one as Chief Agent[d] and Savior[e] to his right hand,[f] to give repentance to Israel and forgiveness of sins.[g] 32 And we are witnesses of these matters,[h] and so is the holy spirit,[i] which God has given to those obeying him as ruler."

33 When they heard this, they were infuriated* and wanted to do away with them. 34 But a Pharisee named Ga·ma'li·el[j] rose in the San'he·drin; he was a Law teacher esteemed by all the people, and he gave the command to put the men outside for a little while. 35 Then he said to them: "Men of Israel, be careful as to what you intend to do about these men. 36 For instance, before these days Theu'das rose up, saying he himself was somebody, and a number of men, about 400, joined his party. But he was done away with, and all those who were following him were dispersed and came to nothing. 37 After him, Judas the Gal·i·le'an rose up in the days of the registration, and he drew followers after himself. That man also perished, and all those who were following him were scattered. 38 So under the present circumstances, I say to you, do not meddle with these men, but let them alone. For if this scheme or this work is from men, it will be overthrown; 39 but if it is from God, you will not be able to overthrow them.[k] Otherwise, you may even be found fighters against God himself."[l] 40 At this they took his advice, and they summoned the apostles, flogged* them,[a] and ordered them to stop speaking on the basis of Jesus' name, and let them go.

41 So they went out from before the San'he·drin, rejoicing[b] because they had been counted worthy to be dishonored in behalf of his name. 42 And every day in the temple and from house to house[c] they continued without letup teaching and declaring the good news about the Christ, Jesus.[d]

6 Now in those days when the disciples were increasing, the Greek-speaking Jews began complaining against the Hebrew-speaking Jews, because their widows were being overlooked in the daily distribution.[e] 2 So the Twelve called the multitude of the disciples together and said: "It is not right* for us to leave the word of God to distribute food to tables.[f] 3 So, brothers, select for yourselves seven reputable men*[g] from among you, full of spirit and wisdom,[h] that we may appoint them over this necessary matter;[i] 4 but we will devote ourselves to prayer and to the ministry of the word." 5 What they said was pleasing to the whole multitude, and they selected Stephen, a man full of faith and holy spirit, as well as Philip,[j] Proch'o·rus, Ni·ca'nor, Ti'mon, Par'me·nas, and Nic·o·la'us, a proselyte of Antioch. 6 They brought them to the apostles, and after praying, they laid their hands on them.[k]

7 Consequently, the word of God continued to spread,[l] and the number of the disciples kept multiplying very much[m] in Jerusalem; and a large crowd of priests began to be obedient to the faith.[n]

8 Now Stephen, full of divine favor and power, was performing great wonders* and signs among the people. 9 But some men of the so-called Synagogue of the Freedmen came forward, along with some Cy·re′ni·ans and Alexandrians, and some from Ci·li′cia and Asia, to dispute with Stephen. 10 But they could not hold their own against the wisdom and the spirit with which he was speaking.[a] 11 Then they secretly persuaded men to say: "We have heard him speaking blasphemous things against Moses and God." 12 And they stirred up the people, the elders, and the scribes, and coming upon him suddenly, they forcibly seized him and led him to the San′he·drin. 13 And they brought forward false witnesses, who said: "This man does not stop speaking things against this holy place and against the Law. 14 For instance, we have heard him say that this Jesus the Naz·a·rene′ will throw down this place and change the customs that Moses handed down to us."

15 And as all those sitting in the San′he·drin stared at him, they saw that his face was like an angel's face.

7 But the high priest said: "Are these things so?" 2 Stephen replied: "Men, brothers and fathers, listen. 5 And yet, he did not give him any inheritance in it, no, not even enough to put his foot on; but he promised to give it to him as a possession and after him to his offspring,[a] though as yet he had no child. 6 Moreover, God told him that his offspring would be foreigners in a land not theirs and that the people would enslave them and afflict# them for 400 years.[b] 7 'And that nation for which they will slave I will judge,'[c] God said, 'and after these things they will come out and will offer sacred service to me in this place.'[d]

there,[a] and so did our forefathers.[b] 16 They were carried to She′chem and were laid in the tomb that Abraham had bought for a sum of silver money from the sons of Ha′mor in She′chem.[c]

17 "Just as the time was approaching to fulfill the promise that God had announced to Abraham, the people grew and multiplied in Egypt, 18 until there rose a different king over Egypt, one who did not know of Joseph.[d] 19 This one dealt cunningly with our race and wrongfully forced the fathers to abandon their infants so that they would not be kept alive.[e] 20 At that time Moses was born, and he was divinely beautiful.* And he was nursed# for three months in his father's home.[f] 21 But when he was abandoned,*[g] the daughter of Phar′aoh took him and brought him up as her own son.[h] 22 So Moses was instructed in all the wisdom of the Egyptians. In fact, he was powerful in his words and deeds.[i]

23 "Now when he reached the age of 40, it came into his heart* to make a visit on# his brothers, the sons of Israel.[j] 24 When he caught sight of one of them being unjustly treated, he defended him and avenged the one being abused by striking down the Egyptian. 25 He thought that his brothers would grasp that God was giving them salvation by his hand, but they did not grasp it. 26 The next day he appeared to them as they were fighting, and he tried to reconcile them in peace, saying: 'Men, you are brothers. Why do you mistreat each other?' 27 But the one who was mistreating his neighbor pushed him away, saying: 'Who appointed you ruler and judge over us? 28 You do not want to do away with me the way you did away with the Egyptian yesterday, do you?' 29 On hearing this, Moses fled and lived as a foreigner in the land of Mid′i-an, where he became the father of two sons.[a]

30 "After 40 years had passed, an angel appeared to him in the wilderness of Mount Si′nai in the flame of a burning thornbush.[b] 31 When Moses saw it, he was amazed at the sight. But as he was approaching to investigate, Jehovah's* voice was heard: 32 'I am the God of your forefathers, the God of Abraham and of Isaac and of Jacob.'[c] Moses started trembling and did not dare to investigate further. 33 Jehovah* said to him: 'Remove the sandals from your feet, for the place where you are standing is holy ground. 34 I have certainly seen the oppression of my people who are in Egypt, and I have heard their groaning,[d] and I have come down to rescue them. Now come, I will send you off to Egypt.' 35 This same Moses whom they had disowned, saying: 'Who appointed you ruler and judge?'[e] is the very one God sent[f] as both ruler and deliverer by means of the angel who appeared to him in the thornbush. 36 This man led them out,[g] performing wonders* and signs in Egypt[h] and at the Red Sea[i] and in the wilderness for 40 years.[j]

37 "This is the Moses who said to the sons of Israel: 'God will raise up for you from among your brothers a prophet like me.'[k] 38 This is the one who came to be among the congregation in the wilderness with the angel[l] who spoke to him[m] on Mount Si′nai and with our forefathers, and he received living sacred pronouncements to give us.[a] 39 Our forefathers refused to obey him, but they pushed him aside[b] and in their hearts they turned back to Egypt,[c] 40 saying to Aaron: 'Make gods for us to go ahead of us. For we do not know what has happened to this Moses, who led us out of the land of Egypt.'[d] 41 So they made a calf in those days and brought a sacrifice to the idol and began to enjoy themselves in the works of their hands.[e] 42 So God turned away from them and handed them over to offer sacred service to the army of heaven,[f] just as it is written in the book of the Prophets: 'It was not to me that you made offerings and sacrifices for 40 years in the wilderness, was it, O house of Israel? 43 But it was the tent of Mo'loch[g] and the star of the god Re'phan that you took up, the images that you made to worship them. So I will deport you beyond Babylon.'[h]

44 "Our forefathers had the tent of the witness in the wilderness, just as He gave orders when speaking to Moses to make it according to the pattern he had seen.[i] 45 And our forefathers received possession of it and brought it in with Joshua into the land possessed by the nations,[j] whom God drove out from before our forefathers.[k] Here it remained until the days of David. 46 He found favor in the sight of God and asked for the privilege of providing a dwelling place for the God of Jacob.[l] 47 But it was Sol'o·mon who built a house for him.[m] 48 However, the Most High does not dwell in houses made with hands,[n] just as the prophet says: 49 'The heaven is my throne,[o] and the earth is my footstool.[p] What sort of house will you build for me? Jehovah* says. Or where is my resting-place? 50 My hand made all these things, did it not?'[a]

51 "Obstinate men and uncircumcised in hearts and ears, you are always resisting the holy spirit; as your forefathers did, so you do.[b] 52 Which one of the prophets did your forefathers not persecute?[c] Yes, they killed those who announced in advance the coming of the righteous one,[d] whose betrayers and murderers you have now become,[e] 53 you who received the Law as transmitted by angels[f] but have not kept it."

54 Well, at hearing these things, they were infuriated* in their hearts and began to grind their teeth at him. 55 But he, being full of holy spirit, gazed into heaven and caught sight of God's glory and of Jesus standing at God's right hand,[g] 56 and he said: "Look! I see the heavens opened up and the Son of man[h] standing at God's right hand."[i] 57 At this they cried out at the top of their voices and put their hands over their ears and rushed at him all together. 58 After throwing him outside the city, they began stoning him.[j] The witnesses[k] laid down their outer garments at the feet of a young man called Saul.[l] 59 As they were stoning Stephen, he made this appeal: "Lord Jesus, receive my spirit." 60 Then, kneeling down, he cried out with a strong voice: "Jehovah,* do not charge this sin against them."[m] And after saying this, he fell asleep in death.

8 Saul, for his part, approved of his murder.[n]

On that day great persecution arose against the congregation that was in Jerusalem;

all except the apostles were scattered throughout the regions of Ju·de′a and Sa·mar′i·a.[a] 2 But devout men carried Stephen away to bury him, and they made a great mourning over him. 3 Saul, though, began to ravage the congregation. He would invade one house after another, dragging out both men and women and turning them over to prison.[b]

4 However, those who had been scattered went through the land declaring the good news of the word.[c] 5 Now Philip went down to the city* of Sa·mar′i·a[d] and began to preach the Christ to them. 6 The crowds with one accord were paying attention to what Philip said while they listened and observed the signs he was performing. 7 For many had unclean spirits, and these would cry out with a loud voice and come out.[e] Moreover, many who were paralyzed and lame were cured. 8 So there came to be a great deal of joy in that city.

9 Now in the city was a man named Simon, who prior to this had been practicing magical arts and amazing the nation of Sa·mar′i·a, claiming that he was somebody great. 10 All of them, from the least to the greatest, would pay attention to him and say: "This man is the Power of God, which is called Great." 11 So they would pay attention to him because he had amazed them for quite a while by his magical arts. 12 But when they believed Philip, who was declaring the good news of the Kingdom of God[f] and of the name of Jesus Christ, both men and women were getting baptized.[g] 13 Simon himself also became a believer, and after being baptized, he continued with Philip;[h] and he was amazed at seeing the signs and great powerful works taking place.

14 When the apostles in Jerusalem heard that Sa·mar′i·a had accepted the word of God,[a] they sent Peter and John to them; 15 and these went down and prayed for them to get holy spirit.[b] 16 For it had not yet come upon any one of them, but they had only been baptized in the name of the Lord Jesus.[c] 17 Then they laid their hands on them,[d] and they began to receive holy spirit.

18 Now when Simon saw that the spirit was given through the laying on of the hands of the apostles, he offered them money, 19 saying: "Give me this authority also, so that anyone on whom I lay my hands may receive holy spirit." 20 But Peter said to him: "May your silver perish with you, because you thought you could acquire the free gift of God with money.[e] 21 You have neither part nor share in this matter, for your heart is not straight in the sight of God. 22 So repent of this badness of yours, and supplicate Jehovah* that, if possible, the wicked intention of your heart may be forgiven you; 23 for I see you are a bitter poison* and a slave of unrighteousness." 24 In answer Simon said to them: "Make supplication for me to Jehovah* that none of the things you have said may come upon me."

25 Therefore, when they had given the witness thoroughly and had spoken the word of Jehovah,* they started back toward Jerusalem, and they went declaring the good news to many villages of the Sa·mar′i·tans.[f]

26 However, Jehovah's* angel[g] spoke to Philip, saying: "Get up and go to the south to the road that runs down from Jerusalem to Gaz′a.” (This is a desert road.) 27 With that he got up and went, and look! an E·thi·o′pian eunuch,* a man who had authority under Can·da′ce, queen of the E·thi·o′pi·ans, and who was in charge of all her treasure. He had gone to Jerusalem to worship,[a] 28 and he was returning and was sitting in his chariot, reading aloud the prophet Isaiah. 29 So the spirit said to Philip: “Go over and approach this chariot.” 30 Philip ran alongside and heard him reading aloud Isaiah the prophet, and he said: “Do you actually know* what you are reading?” 31 He said: “Really, how could I ever do so unless someone guided me?” So he urged Philip to get on and sit down with him. 32 Now this was the passage of Scripture that he was reading: “Like a sheep he was brought to the slaughter, and like a lamb that is silent before its shearer, so he does not open his mouth.[b] 33 During his humiliation, justice was taken away from him.[c] Who will tell the details of his generation? Because his life is taken away from the earth.”[d]

34 The eunuch then said to Philip: “I beg you, about whom does the prophet say this? About himself or about some other man?” 35 Philip began to speak, and starting with this scripture, he declared to him the good news about Jesus. 36 Now as they were going along the road, they came to a body of water, and the eunuch said: “Look! Here is water; what prevents me from getting baptized?” 37 — 38 With that he commanded the chariot to halt, and both Philip and the eunuch went down into the water, and he baptized him. 39 When they came up out of the water, Jehovah’s spirit quickly led Philip away, and the eunuch did not see him anymore, but he went on his way rejoicing. 40 Philip, however, found himself in Ash′dod, and he went through the territory and kept on declaring the good news to all the cities until he got to Caes·a·re′a.[a]

9 But Saul, still breathing threat and murder against the disciples of the Lord,[b] went to the high priest 2 and asked him for letters to the synagogues in Damascus, so that he might bring bound to Jerusalem any whom he found who belonged to The Way,[c] both men and women.

3 Now as he was traveling and getting near Damascus, suddenly a light from heaven flashed around him,[d] 4 and he fell to the ground and heard a voice say to him: “Saul, Saul, why are you persecuting me?” 5 He asked: “Who are you, Lord?” He said: “I am Jesus,[e] whom you are persecuting.[f] 6 But get up and go into the city, and you will be told what you must do.” 7 Now the men who were traveling with him stood speechless, hearing, indeed, the sound of a voice but seeing no one.[g] 8 Saul then got up from the ground, and though his eyes were open, he could see nothing. So they led him by the hand and brought him into Damascus. 9 And for three days he did not see anything,[h] and he neither ate nor drank.

10 There was a disciple named An·a·ni′as[i] in Damascus, and the Lord said to him in a vision: “An·a·ni′as!” He said: “Here I am, Lord.” 11 The Lord said to him: “Get up, go to the street called Straight, and look for a man named Saul, from Tarsus,[j] at the house of Judas. For look!

he is praying, 12 and in a vision he has seen a man named An·a·ni′as come in and lay his hands on him so that he may recover sight.”[a] 13 But An·a·ni′as answered: “Lord, I have heard from many about this man, about all the harm he did to your holy ones in Jerusalem. 14 And here he has authority from the chief priests to arrest* all those calling on your name.”[b] 15 But the Lord said to him: “Go! because this man is a chosen vessel to me[c] to bear my name to the nations[d] as well as to kings[e] and the sons of Israel. 16 For I will show him plainly how many things he must suffer for my name.”[f]

17 So An·a·ni′as went and entered the house, and he laid his hands on him and said: “Saul, brother, the Lord Jesus, who appeared to you on the road along which you were coming, has sent me so that you may recover sight and be filled with holy spirit.”[g] 18 And immediately, what looked like scales fell from his eyes, and he recovered his sight. He then got up and was baptized, 19 and he ate some food and gained strength.

He stayed for some days with the disciples in Damascus,[h] 20 and immediately in the synagogues he began to preach about Jesus, that this one is the Son of God. 21 But all those hearing him were astonished and were saying: “Is this not the man who ravaged those in Jerusalem who call on this name?[i] Did he not come here for the purpose of arresting them and taking them* to the chief priests?”[j] 22 But Saul kept on acquiring more and more power and was confounding the Jews who lived in Damascus, as he proved logically that this is the Christ.[k]

23 Now when many days had passed, the Jews plotted together to do away with him.[a] 24 However, their plot against Saul became known to him. They were also watching the gates closely both day and night in order to do away with him. 25 So his disciples took him and let him down by night through an opening in the wall, lowering him in a basket.[b]

26 On arriving in Jerusalem,[c] he made efforts to join the disciples, but they were all afraid of him, because they did not believe he was a disciple. 27 So Bar′na·bas[d] came to his aid and led him to the apostles, and he told them in detail how on the road he had seen the Lord,[e] and that he had spoken to him, and how in Damascus he had spoken boldly in the name of Jesus.[f] 28 So he remained with them, moving about freely in* Jerusalem, speaking boldly in the name of the Lord. 29 He was talking and disputing with the Greek-speaking Jews, but these made attempts to do away with him.[g] 30 When the brothers found out about this, they brought him down to Caes·a·re′a and sent him off to Tarsus.[h]

31 Then, indeed, the congregation throughout the whole of Ju·de′a and Gal′i·lee and Sa·mar′i·a[i] entered into a period of peace, being built up; and as it walked in the fear of Jehovah* and in the comfort of the holy spirit,[j] it kept on multiplying.

32 Now as Peter was traveling through all the region, he came down also to the holy ones who lived in Lyd′da.[k] 33 There he found a man named Ae·ne′as, who had been lying flat on his bed for eight years, for he was paralyzed. 34 Peter said to him: “Ae·ne′as, Jesus Christ heals you.[a] Rise and make up your bed."[b] And he got up immediately. 35 When all those living in Lyd′da and the Plain of Shar′on saw him, they turned to the Lord.

36 Now there was in Jop′pa a disciple named Tab′i·tha, which means, when translated, "Dor′cas."* She abounded in good deeds and gifts of mercy that she was making. 37 But in those days she fell sick and died. So they bathed her and laid her in an upper room. 38 Since Lyd′da was near Jop′pa, when the disciples heard that Peter was in that city, they sent two men to him to urge him: "Please come to us without delay." 39 At that Peter got up and went with them. And when he arrived, they led him up into the upper room; and all the widows presented themselves to him, weeping and showing many garments and robes* that Dor′cas had made while she was with them. 40 Peter then put everyone outside,[c] and kneeling down, he prayed. Then turning toward the body, he said: "Tab′i·tha, rise!" She opened her eyes, and as she caught sight of Peter, she sat up.[d] 41 Giving her his hand, he raised her up, and he called the holy ones and the widows and presented her alive.[e] 42 This became known throughout all Jop′pa, and many became believers in the Lord.[f] 43 He remained for quite a few days in Jop′pa with a tanner named Simon.[g]

10 Now there was a man in Caes·a·re′a named Cornelius, an army officer* in what was called the Italian unit.# 2 He was a devout man who feared God together with all his household, and he made many gifts of mercy to the people and made supplication to God continually. 3 About the ninth hour[a] of the day,* he saw plainly in a vision an angel of God come in to him and say: "Cornelius!" 4 Cornelius stared at him, terrified, and asked: "What is it, Lord?" He said to him: "Your prayers and gifts of mercy have ascended as a remembrance before God.[b] 5 So now send men to Jop′pa and summon a man named Simon who is called Peter. 6 This man is staying as a guest with* Simon, a tanner who has a house by the sea." 7 As soon as the angel who spoke to him left, he called two of his servants and a devout soldier from among those who were his attendants, 8 and he related everything to them and sent them to Jop′pa.

9 The next day as they were continuing on their journey and were approaching the city, Peter went up to the housetop about the sixth hour* to pray. 10 But he became very hungry and wanted to eat. While they were preparing the meal, he fell into a trance[c] 11 and saw heaven opened and something* descending like a great linen sheet being let down by its four corners on the earth; 12 and in it were all sorts of four-footed animals and reptiles* of the earth and birds of heaven. 13 Then a voice said to him: "Get up, Peter, slaughter and eat!" 14 But Peter said: "Not at all, Lord, because I have never eaten anything defiled and unclean."[d] 15 And the voice spoke again to him, the second time: "Stop calling defiled the things God has cleansed." 16 This happened a third time, and immediately it* was taken up into heaven.

17 While Peter was still perplexed about what the vision he had seen could mean, just then the men sent by Cornelius asked where Simon's house was and stood there at the gate.[a] 18 They called out and inquired whether Simon who was called Peter was a guest there. 19 As Peter was still pondering over the vision, the spirit[b] said: "Look! Three men are asking for you. 20 So get up, go downstairs and go with them, not doubting at all, because I have sent them." 21 Then Peter went downstairs to the men and said: "Here I am, the one you are looking for. Why are you here?" 22 They said: "Cornelius,[c] an army officer, a righteous and God-fearing man who is well-reported-on by the whole nation of the Jews, was given divine instructions by a holy angel to send for you to come to his house and to hear what you have to say." 23 So he invited them in and had them stay as his guests.

The next day he got up and went off with them, and some of the brothers from Jop'pa went with him. 24 The following day he entered into Caes·a·re'a. Cornelius, of course, was expecting them and had called together his relatives and close friends. 25 As Peter entered, Cornelius met him, fell down at his feet, and did obeisance* to him. 26 But Peter lifted him up, saying: "Rise; I too am just a man."[d] 27 As he conversed with him, he went in and found many people assembled. 28 He said to them: "You well know how unlawful it is for a Jew to associate with or approach a man of another race,[a] and yet God has shown me that I should call no man defiled or unclean.[b] 29 So I came, really without objection, when I was sent for. Therefore, I ask you why you sent for me."

30 Then Cornelius said: "Four days ago counting from this hour, I was praying in my house at the ninth hour;* just then a man in bright clothing stood in front of me 31 and said: 'Cornelius, your prayer has been favorably heard, and your gifts of mercy have been remembered before God. 32 Therefore, send to Jop'pa and call for Simon who is called Peter. This man is a guest in the house of Simon, a tanner, by the sea.'[c] 33 I then sent for you at once, and you were kind enough to come here. So now we are all present before God to hear all the things you have been commanded by Jehovah* to say."

34 At this Peter began to speak, and he said: "Now I truly understand that God is not partial,[d] 35 but in every nation the man who fears him and does what is right is acceptable to him.[e] 36 He sent out the word to the sons of Israel to declare to them the good news of peace[f] through Jesus Christ—this one is Lord of all.[g] 37 You know the subject that was talked about throughout all Ju·de'a, starting from Gal'i·lee[h] after the baptism that John preached: 38 about Jesus who was from Naz'a·reth, how God anointed him with holy spirit[i] and power, and he went through the land doing good and healing all those oppressed by the Devil,[j] because God was with him.[k] 39 And we are witnesses of all the things he did both in the country of the Jews and in Jerusalem; but they did away

44 While Peter was still speaking about these matters, the holy spirit came upon all those hearing the word.[g] 45 And the circumcised believers* who had come with Peter were amazed, because the free gift of the holy spirit was being poured out also on people of the nations. 46 For they heard them speaking in foreign languages* and magnifying God.[h] Then Peter responded: 47 "Can anyone deny water to prevent these from being baptized[i] who have received the holy spirit just as we have?" 48 With that he commanded them to be baptized in the name of Jesus Christ.[j] Then they requested him to stay for some days.

11 Now the apostles and the brothers who were in Ju·de'a heard that people of the nations had also accepted the word of God. 2 So when Peter came up to Jerusalem, the supporters of circumcision[k] began to criticize* him, 3 saying: "You went into the house of men who were not circumcised and ate with them." 4 At this Peter went on to explain the matter in detail to them, saying:

5 "I was in the city of Jop'·pa praying, and while in a trance I saw a vision, something* descending like a great linen sheet being let down by its four corners from heaven, and it came right down to me.[a] 6 Looking closely into it, I observed four-footed animals of the earth, wild beasts, reptiles,* and birds of heaven. 7 I also heard a voice say to me: 'Get up, Peter, slaughter and eat!' 8 But I said: 'Certainly not, Lord, because a defiled or unclean thing has never entered my mouth.' 9 The second time, the voice from heaven answered: 'You stop calling defiled the things God has cleansed.' 10 This happened a third time, and everything was pulled up again into heaven. 11 Also just at that moment, three men were standing at the house where we were staying, having been sent to me from Caes·a·re'a.[b] 12 Then the spirit told me to go with them, not doubting at all. But these six brothers also went with me, and we entered into the house of the man.

13 "He reported to us how he saw the angel stand in his house and say: 'Send men to Jop'pa and summon Simon who is called Peter,[c] 14 and he will tell you things by which you and all your household may get saved.' 15 But when I started to speak, the holy spirit fell on them just as it did also on us in the beginning.[d] 16 At this I recalled the saying of the Lord, how he used to say: 'John baptized with water,[e] but you will be baptized with holy spirit.'[f] 17 If, therefore, God gave the same free gift to them that he gave to us who have believed in the Lord Jesus Christ, who was I that I should be able to hinder God?"*[a]

18 When they heard these things, they stopped objecting,* and they glorified God, saying: "So, then, God has also granted to people of the nations repentance leading to life."[b]

19 Now those who had been scattered[c] by the tribulation that arose over Stephen went as far as Phoe·ni'cia, Cy'prus, and Antioch, but they spoke the word only to the Jews.[d] 20 However, some of the men among them from Cy'prus and Cy·re'ne came to Antioch and began talking to the Greek-speaking people, declaring the good news of the Lord Jesus. 21 Furthermore, the hand of Jehovah* was with them, and a great number became believers and turned to the Lord.[e]

22 The report about them reached the ears of the congregation in Jerusalem, and they sent out Bar'na·bas[f] as far as Antioch. 23 When he arrived and saw the undeserved kindness of God, he rejoiced and began to encourage them all to continue in the Lord with heartfelt resolve;[g] 24 for he was a good man and full of holy spirit and faith. And a considerable crowd was added to the Lord.[h] 25 So he went to Tarsus to make a thorough search for Saul.[i] 26 After he found him, he brought him to Antioch. So for a whole year they assembled with them in the congregation and taught quite a crowd, and it was first in Antioch that the disciples were by divine providence called Christians.[j]

27 In those days prophets[k] came down from Jerusalem to Antioch. 28 One of them named Ag'a·bus[a] stood up and foretold through the spirit that a great famine was about to come on the entire inhabited earth,[b] which, in fact, did take place in the time of Claudius. 29 So the disciples determined, each according to what he could afford,[c] to send relief*[d] to the brothers living in Ju·de'a; 30 and this they did, sending it to the elders by the hand of Bar'na·bas and Saul.[e]

12 About that time Herod the king began mistreating some of those of the congregation.[f] 2 He put James the brother of John[g] to death by the sword.[h] 3 When he saw that it was pleasing to the Jews, he also went on to arrest Peter. (This was during the days of the Unleavened Bread.)[i] 4 He seized him and put him in prison,[j] turning him over to four shifts of four soldiers each to guard him, intending to bring him out* before the people after the Passover. 5 So Peter was being kept in the prison, but the congregation was intensely praying to God for him.[k]

6 When Herod was about to bring him out, that night Peter was sleeping bound with two chains between two soldiers, and guards in front of the door were keeping watch over the prison. 7 But look! Jehovah's* angel was standing there,[l] and a light shone in the prison cell. Hitting Peter on the side, he woke him, saying: "Get up quickly!" And the chains fell off his hands.[m] 8 The angel said to him: "Get dressed* and put on your sandals." He did so. Finally he said to him: "Put your outer garment on, and keep following me." 9 And he went out and kept following him, but he did not know that what was happening through the angel was real. In fact, he thought he was seeing a vision. 10 Going past the first sentinel guard and the second, they reached the iron gate leading into the city, and this opened to them by itself. After they went out, they made their way down one street, and immediately the angel departed from him. 11 And Peter, realizing what was happening, said: "Now I know for sure that Jehovah* sent his angel and rescued me from Herod's hand and from everything that the Jews were expecting to happen."[a] 12 After he realized this, he went to the house of Mary the mother of John who was called Mark,[b] where quite a few were gathered together and were praying. 13 When he knocked at the door of the gateway, a servant girl named Rhoda came to answer the call. 14 On recognizing the voice of Peter, she was so overjoyed that she did not open the gate, but ran inside and reported that Peter was standing at the gateway. 15 They said to her: "You are out of your mind." But she kept insisting that it was so. They began to say: "It is his angel." 16 But Peter remained there, knocking. When they opened the door, they saw him and were astonished. 17 But he motioned to them with his hand to be silent and told them in detail how Jehovah* had brought him out of the prison, and he said: "Report these things to James[c] and the brothers." With that he went out and traveled to another place.

18 Now when it became day, there was quite a disturbance among the soldiers over what had become of Peter. 19 Herod made a diligent search for him, and not finding him, he interrogated the guards and commanded them to be led off to punishment;[a] and he went down from Ju·de′a to Caes·a·re′a and spent some time there.

20 Now he was in an angry* mood against the people of Tyre and Si′don. So they came to him with one purpose, and after persuading Blastus, the man in charge of the king's household affairs,# they sued for peace, because their country was supplied with food from the land of the king. 21 On a set day, Herod clothed himself with royal raiment and sat down on the judgment seat and began giving them a public address. 22 Then the people who were assembled began shouting: "A god's voice, and not a man's!" 23 Instantly the angel of Jehovah* struck him, because he did not give the glory to God, and he was eaten up with worms and died.

24 But the word of Jehovah* went on growing and spreading.[b]

25 As for Bar′na·bas[c] and Saul, after fully carrying out the relief work in Jerusalem,[d] they returned and took along with them John,[e] the one also called Mark.

13 Now in Antioch there were prophets and teachers in the local congregation:[f] Bar′nabas, Sym′e·on who was called Ni′ger, Lucius of Cy·re′ne, Man′aen who was educated with Herod the district ruler, and Saul. 2 As they were ministering# to Jehovah* and fasting, the holy spirit said: "Set aside for me Bar′na·bas and Saul[g] for the work to which I have called them."[h] 3 Then after fasting and praying, they laid their hands on them and sent them off.

4 So these men, sent out by the holy spirit, went down to Se·leu′cia, and from there they sailed away to Cy′prus. 5 When they arrived in Sal′a·mis, they began proclaiming the word of God in the synagogues of the Jews. They also had John as an attendant.*[a]

6 When they had gone through the whole island as far as Pa′phos, they met up with a Jewish man named Bar-Je′sus, who was a sorcerer and a false prophet. 7 He was with the proconsul* Sergius Paulus, an intelligent man. Calling Bar′na·bas and Saul to him, this man was eager to hear the word of God. 8 But El′y·mas the sorcerer (for that is how his name is translated) began opposing them, trying to turn the proconsul away from the faith. 9 Then Saul, also called Paul, becoming filled with holy spirit, looked at him intently 10 and said: "O man full of every sort of fraud and every sort of villainy, you son of the Devil,[b] you enemy of everything righteous, will you not quit distorting the right ways of Jehovah?* 11 Look! Jehovah's* hand is upon you, and you will be blind, not seeing the sunlight for a time." Instantly a thick mist and darkness fell on him, and he went around trying to find someone to lead him by the hand. 12 Then the proconsul, on seeing what had happened, became a believer, for he was astounded at the teaching of Jehovah.*

13 Now Paul and his companions put out to sea from Pa′phos and arrived at Perga in Pam·phyl′i·a. But John[c] left them and returned to Jerusalem.[d] 14 However, they went on from Perga and came to Antioch in Pi-sid′i·a. And going into the synagogue[a] on the Sabbath day, they took a seat. 15 After the public reading of the Law[b] and the Prophets, the presiding officers of the synagogue sent word to them, saying: "Men, brothers, if you have any word of encouragement for the people, tell it." 16 So Paul stood up, and motioning with his hand, he said:

"Men, Israelites and you others who fear God, listen. 17 The God of this people Israel chose our forefathers, and he exalted the people while they lived as foreigners in the land of Egypt and brought them out of it with an uplifted arm.[c] 18 And for a period of about 40 years, he put up with them in the wilderness.[d] 19 After destroying seven nations in the land of Ca′naan, he assigned their land as an inheritance.[e] 20 All of that was during about 450 years.

"After this he gave them judges until Samuel the prophet.[f] 21 But afterward they demanded a king,[g] and God gave them Saul the son of Kish, a man of the tribe of Benjamin,[h] for 40 years. 22 After removing him, he raised up for them David as king,[i] about whom he bore witness and said: 'I have found David the son of Jes′se[j] a man agreeable to my heart;[k] he will do all the things I desire.' 23 According to his promise, from the offspring* of this man, God has brought to Israel a savior, Jesus.[l] 24 Before the arrival of that one, John had preached publicly to all the people of Israel baptism in symbol of repentance.[m] 25 But as John was finishing his course, he would say: 'What do you suppose I am? I am not he. But look! One is coming after me the sandals of whose feet I am not worthy to untie.'[n] 26 "Men, brothers, you descendants of Abraham's family and those others among you who fear God, the word of this salvation has been sent to us.[a] 27 For the inhabitants of Jerusalem and their rulers did not recognize this one, but when acting as judges, they fulfilled the things spoken by the Prophets,[b] which are read aloud every sabbath. 28 Even though they found no cause for death,[c] they demanded of Pilate to have him executed.[d] 29 And when they had accomplished all the things written about him, they took him down from the stake* and laid him in a tomb.#[e] 30 But God raised him up from the dead,[f] 31 and for many days he became visible to those who had gone with him from Gal'i·lee up to Jerusalem. These are now his witnesses to the people.[g]

32 "So we are declaring to you the good news about the promise made to the forefathers. 33 God has completely fulfilled it to us, their children, by resurrecting Jesus;[h] just as it is written in the second psalm: 'You are my son; today I have become your father.'[i] 34 And the fact that He resurrected him from the dead never again to return to corruption, He has stated in this way: 'I will give you the expressions of loyal love promised to David, which are faithful.'[j] 35 So it also says in another psalm: 'You will not allow your loyal one to see corruption.'[k] 36 David, on the one hand, rendered service to God in his own generation, fell asleep in death, was laid with his forefathers, and did see corruption.[l]

37 On the other hand, the one whom God raised up did not see corruption.[a]

38 "Let it therefore be known to you, brothers, that through this one a forgiveness of sins is being proclaimed to you,[b] 39 and that from all the things from which you could not be declared guiltless by means of the Law of Moses,[c] everyone who believes is declared guiltless by means of this one.[d] 40 Therefore, watch out that what is said in the Prophets does not come upon you: 41 'Look at it, you scorners, and be amazed, and perish, for I am doing a work in your days, a work that you will never believe even if anyone relates it to you in detail.'"[e]

42 Now when they were going out, the people pleaded with them to speak about these matters on the following Sabbath. 43 So after the synagogue assembly was dismissed, many of the Jews and the proselytes who worshipped God followed Paul and Bar'na·bas, who, as they spoke to them, urged them to remain in the undeserved kindness of God.[f]

44 The next Sabbath nearly all the city gathered together to hear the word of Jehovah.* 45 When the Jews saw the crowds, they were filled with jealousy and began blasphemously contradicting the things Paul was saying.[g] 46 Then Paul and Bar'na·bas boldly said to them: "It was necessary for the word of God to be spoken first to you.[h] Since you are rejecting it and do not judge yourselves worthy of everlasting life, look! we turn to the nations.[i] 47 For Jehovah* has commanded us in these words: 'I have appointed you as a light of nations, for you to be a salvation to the ends of the earth.'"[a]

48 When those of the nations heard this, they began to rejoice and to glorify the word of Jehovah,* and all those who were rightly disposed for everlasting life became believers. 49 Furthermore, the word of Jehovah* was being spread throughout the whole country. 50 But the Jews incited the prominent women who were God-fearing and the principal men of the city, and they stirred up persecution[b] against Paul and Bar′na·bas and threw them outside their boundaries. 51 So they shook the dust off their feet against them and went to I·co′ni·um.[c] 52 And the disciples continued to be filled with joy[d] and holy spirit.

14 Now in I·co′ni·um they entered together into the synagogue of the Jews and spoke in such a manner that a great multitude of both Jews and Greeks became believers. 2 But the Jews who did not believe stirred up and wrongly influenced the people* of the nations against the brothers.[e] 3 So they spent considerable time speaking with boldness by the authority of Jehovah,* who bore witness to the word of his undeserved kindness by allowing signs and wonders# to be performed through them.[f] 4 However, the multitude of the city was divided; some were for the Jews but others for the apostles. 5 When both the people of the nations and the Jews with their rulers made an attempt to treat them insolently and stone them,[g] 6 they were informed of it, and they fled to the cities of Lyc·a·o′ni·a, Lys′tra and Der′be, and to the surrounding country.[h]

8 Now in Lys′tra there was a man sitting down whose feet were crippled. He was lame from birth and had never walked. 9 This man was listening to Paul as he was speaking. Paul, looking intently at him and seeing that he had faith to be made well,[a] 10 said with a loud voice: "Stand up on your feet." So the man leaped up and began walking.[b] 11 When the crowds saw what Paul had done, they cried out in the Lyc·a·o′ni·an language: "The gods have become like humans and have come down to us!"[c] 12 And they started calling Bar′na·bas Zeus, but Paul Her′mes, since he was taking the lead in speaking. 13 And the priest of Zeus, whose temple was at the entrance of the city, brought bulls and garlands* to the gates and wanted to offer sacrifices with the crowds.

14 However, when the apostles Bar′na·bas and Paul heard of it, they ripped their garments and leaped out into the crowd and cried out: 15 "Men, why are you doing these things? We too are humans having the same infirmities as you have.[d] And we are declaring the good news to you, for you to turn from these vain things to the living God, who made the heaven and the earth and the sea and all the things in them.[e] 16 In past generations he permitted all the nations to go on in their ways,[f] 17 although he did not leave himself without witness[g] in that he did good, giving you rains from heaven and fruitful seasons,[h] satisfying you with food and filling your hearts with gladness."[i] 18 And yet despite saying these things, they barely restrained the crowds from sacrificing to them.

19 But Jews arrived from Antioch and I·co′ni·um and persuaded the crowds,[a] and they stoned Paul and dragged him outside the city, imagining that he was dead.[b] 20 However, when the disciples surrounded him, he got up and entered the city. On the next day he left with Bar′·na·bas for Der′be.[c] 21 After declaring the good news to that city and making quite a few disciples, they returned to Lys′·tra, I·co′ni·um, and Antioch. 22 There they strengthened the disciples,[d] encouraging them to remain in the faith and saying: "We must enter into the Kingdom of God through many tribulations."[e] 23 Moreover, they appointed elders for them in each congregation,[f] offering prayer with fasting,[g] and they entrusted them to Jehovah, in whom they had become believers.

24 Then they went through Pi·sid′i·a and came into Pam·phyl′i·a,[h] 25 and after proclaiming the word in Perga, they went down to At·ta·li′a. 26 From there they sailed off for Antioch, where they had been entrusted to the undeserved kindness of God for the work they had now completed.[i]

27 When they had arrived and had gathered the congregation together, they related the many things God had done by means of them, and that he had opened to the nations the door to faith.[j] 28 So they spent considerable time with the disciples.

15 Now some men came down from Ju·de′a and began to teach the brothers: "Unless you get circumcised according to the custom of Moses,[k] you cannot be saved." 2 But after quite a bit of dissension and disputing by Paul and Bar′na·bas with them, it was arranged for Paul, Bar′nabas, and some of the others to go up to the apostles and elders in Jerusalem[a] regarding this issue.*

3 So after being escorted partway by the congregation, these men continued on through both Phoe·ni′cia and Sa·mar′i·a, relating in detail the conversion of people of the nations and bringing great joy to all the brothers. 4 On arriving in Jerusalem, they were kindly received by the congregation and the apostles and the elders, and they related the many things God had done by means of them. 5 But some of those of the sect of the Pharisees who had become believers stood up from their seats and said: "It is necessary to circumcise them and command them to observe the Law of Moses."[b]

6 So the apostles and the elders gathered together to look into this matter. 7 After much intense discussion* had taken place, Peter rose and said to them: "Men, brothers, you well know that from early days God made the choice among you that through my mouth people of the nations should hear the word of the good news and believe.[c] 8 And God, who knows the heart,[d] bore witness by giving them the holy spirit,[e] just as he did to us also. 9 And he made no distinction at all between us and them,[f] but purified their hearts by faith.[g] 10 So why are you now making a test of God by imposing on the neck of the disciples a yoke[h] that neither our forefathers nor we were capable of bearing?[i] 11 On the contrary, we have faith that we are saved through the undeserved kindness of the Lord Jesus[a] in the same way that they are."[b]

12 At that the entire group became silent, and they began to listen to Bar′na·bas and Paul relate the many signs and wonders* that God had done through them among the nations. 13 After they finished speaking, James replied: "Men, brothers, hear me. 14 Sym′e·on[c] has related thoroughly how God for the first time turned his attention to the nations to take out of them a people for his name.[d] 15 And with this the words of the Prophets agree, just as it is written: 16 'After these things I will return and raise up again the tent* of David that is fallen down; I will rebuild its ruins and restore it, 17 so that the men who remain may earnestly seek Jehovah,* together with people of all the nations, people who are called by my name, says Jehovah,* who is doing these things,[e] 18 known from of old.'[f] 19 Therefore, my decision* is not to trouble those from the nations who are turning to God,[g] 20 but to write them to abstain from things polluted by idols,[h] from sexual immorality,*[i] from what is strangled,# and from blood.[j] 21 For from ancient times Moses has had those who preach him in city after city, because he is read aloud in the synagogues on every sabbath."[k]

22 Then the apostles and the elders, together with the whole congregation, decided to send chosen men from among them to Antioch, along with Paul and Bar′na·bas; they sent Judas who was called Bar′sab·bas and Silas,[a] who were leading men among the brothers. 23 They wrote this and sent it through them:

"The apostles and the elders, your brothers, to those brothers in Antioch,[b] Syria, and Cili′cia who are from the nations: Greetings! 24 Since we have heard that some went out from among us and caused you trouble with what they have said,[c] trying to subvert you,* although we did not give them any instructions, 25 we have come to a unanimous decision to choose men to send to you together with our beloved Bar′na·bas and Paul, 26 men who have given up their lives* for the name of our Lord Jesus Christ.[d] 27 We are therefore sending Judas and Silas, so that they also may report the same things by word of mouth.[e] 28 For the holy spirit[f] and we ourselves have favored adding no further burden to you except these necessary things: 29 to keep abstaining from things sacrificed to idols,[g] from blood,[h] from what is strangled,#[i] and from sexual immorality.*[j] If you carefully keep yourselves from these things, you will prosper. Good health to you!"△

30 So when these men were dismissed, they went down to Antioch, and they gathered the whole group together and handed them the letter. 31 After reading it, they rejoiced over the encouragement. 32 And Judas and Silas, since they were also prophets, encouraged the brothers with many talks and strengthened them.[k] 33 After they had spent some time there, they were sent off in peace by the brothers to those who had sent them. 34 *— 35 But

36 After some days, Paul said to Bar′na·bas: "Let us now# return and visit the brothers in every one of the cities where we proclaimed the word of Jehovah,* to see how they are."[a] 37 Bar′na·bas was determined to take along John, who was called Mark.[b] 38 Paul, however, was not in favor of taking him along with them, seeing that he had departed from them in Pam·phyl′i·a and had not gone with them to the work.[c] 39 At this there was a sharp burst of anger, so that they separated from each other; and Bar′na·bas[d] took Mark along and sailed away to Cy′prus. 40 Paul selected Silas and departed after he had been entrusted by the brothers to the undeserved kindness of Jehovah.*[e] 41 He went through Syria and Ci·li′cia, strengthening the congregations.

16 So he arrived at Der′be and also at Lys′tra.[f] And a disciple named Timothy[g] was there, the son of a believing Jewish woman but of a Greek father, 2 and he was well-reported-on by the brothers in Lys′tra and I·co′ni·um. 3 Paul expressed the desire for Timothy to accompany him, and he took him and circumcised him because of the Jews in those places,[h] for they all knew that his father was a Greek. 4 As they traveled on through the cities, they would deliver to them for observance the decrees that had been decided on by the apostles and the elders who were in Jerusalem.[i] 5 Then, indeed, the congregations continued to be made firm in the faith and to increase in number day by day.

6 Moreover, they traveled through Phryg′i·a and the country of Ga·la′ti·a,[a] because they were forbidden by the holy spirit to speak the word in the province of Asia. 7 Further, when they came down to Mys′i·a, they made efforts to go into Bi·thyn′i·a,[b] but the spirit of Jesus did not permit them. 8 So they passed by* Mys′i·a and came down to Tro′as. 9 And during the night a vision appeared to Paul—a Mac·e·do′ni·an man was standing there urging him and saying: "Step over into Mac·e·do′ni·a and help us." 10 As soon as he had seen the vision, we tried to go into Mac·e·do′ni·a, drawing the conclusion that God had summoned us to declare the good news to them.

11 So we put out to sea from Tro′as and made a straight run to Sam′o·thrace, but on the following day to Ne·ap′o·lis; 12 and from there we went to Phi·lip′pi,[c] a colony, which is the principal city of the district of Mac·e·do′ni·a. We stayed in this city for some days. 13 On the Sabbath day we went outside the gate beside a river, where we thought there was a place of prayer, and we sat down and began speaking to the women who had assembled. 14 And a woman named Lyd′i·a, a seller of purple from the city of Thy·a·ti′ra[d] and a worshipper of God, was listening, and Jehovah* opened her heart wide to pay attention to the things Paul was saying. 15 Now when she and her household got baptized,[e] she urged us: "If you have considered me to be faithful to Jehovah,* come and stay at my house." And she just made us come.

16 Now it happened that as we were going to the place of prayer, a servant girl with a spirit, a demon of divination,[a] met us. She supplied her masters with much profit by fortune-telling.* 17 This girl kept following Paul and us and crying out with the words: "These men are slaves of the Most High God[b] and are proclaiming to you the way of salvation." 18 She kept doing this for many days. Finally Paul got tired of it and turned and said to the spirit: "I order you in the name of Jesus Christ to come out of her." And it came out that very hour.[c]

19 Well, when her masters saw that their hope of profit was gone,[d] they seized Paul and Silas and dragged them into the marketplace to the rulers.[e] 20 Leading them up to the civil magistrates, they said: "These men are disturbing our city very much.[f] They are Jews, 21 and they are proclaiming customs that it is not lawful for us to adopt or practice, seeing that we are Romans." 22 And the crowd rose up together against them, and the civil magistrates, after tearing the garments off them, gave the command to beat them with rods.[g] 23 After they had inflicted many blows on them, they threw them into prison and ordered the jailer to guard them securely.[h] 24 Because he got such an order, he threw them into the inner prison and fastened their feet in the stocks.

25 But about the middle of the night, Paul and Silas were praying and praising God with song,[i] and the prisoners were listening to them. 26 Suddenly a great earthquake occurred, so that the foundations of the jail were shaken. Moreover, all the doors were instantly opened, and everyone's bonds came loose.[a] 27 When the jailer woke up and saw that the prison doors were open, he drew his sword and was about to kill himself, assuming that the prisoners had escaped.[b] 28 But Paul called out with a loud voice: "Do not hurt yourself, for we are all here!" 29 So he asked for lights and rushed in, and seized with trembling, he fell down before Paul and Silas. 30 He brought them outside and said: "Sirs, what must I do to get saved?" 31 They said: "Believe in the Lord Jesus, and you will get saved, you and your household."[c] 32 Then they spoke the word of Jehovah* to him together with all those in his house. 33 And he took them along in that hour of the night and washed their wounds. Then he and his entire household were baptized without delay.[d] 34 He brought them into his house and set a table before them, and he rejoiced greatly with all his household now that he had believed in God.

35 When it became day, the civil magistrates sent the constables to say: "Release those men." 36 The jailer reported their words to Paul: "The civil magistrates have sent men to have you two released. So come out now and go in peace." 37 But Paul said to them: "They flogged us publicly, uncondemned,* though we are Romans,[e] and threw us into prison. Are they now throwing us out secretly? No, indeed! Let them come themselves and escort us out." 38 The constables reported these words to the civil magistrates. These grew fearful when they heard that the men were Romans.[f] 39 So they came and pleaded with them, and after escorting them out, they requested them to depart from the city. 40 But they came out of the prison and went to the home of Lyd′i·a; and when they saw the brothers, they encouraged them[a] and departed.

17 They now traveled through Am·phip′o·lis and Ap·ol·lo′ni·a and came to Thes·sa·lo·ni′ca,[b] where there was a synagogue of the Jews. 2 So according to Paul's custom[c] he went inside to them, and for three sabbaths he reasoned with them from the Scriptures,[d] 3 explaining and proving by references that it was necessary for the Christ to suffer[e] and to rise from the dead,[f] saying: "This is the Christ, this Jesus whom I am proclaiming to you." 4 As a result, some of them became believers and associated themselves with Paul and Silas,[g] and so did a great multitude of the Greeks who worshipped God, along with quite a few of the principal women.

5 But the Jews, getting jealous,[h] gathered together some wicked men who were loitering at the marketplace and formed a mob and proceeded to throw the city into an uproar. They assaulted the house of Ja′son and were seeking to have Paul and Silas brought out to the mob. 6 When they did not find them, they dragged Ja′son and some of the brothers to the city rulers, crying out: "These men who have overturned* the inhabited earth are present here also,[i] 7 and Ja′son has received them as his guests. All these men act in opposition to the decrees of Caesar, saying there is another king, Jesus."[j] 8 When they heard these things, the crowd and the city rulers were alarmed; 9 and after taking sufficient security* from Ja′son and the others, they let them go.

10 Immediately by night the brothers sent both Paul and Silas to Be·roe′a. On arriving, they went into the synagogue of the Jews. 11 Now these were more noble-minded than those in Thes·sa·lo·ni′ca, for they accepted the word with the greatest eagerness of mind, carefully examining the Scriptures daily to see whether these things were so. 12 Therefore, many of them became believers, and so did quite a few of the reputable Greek women as well as some of the men. 13 But when the Jews from Thes·sa·lo·ni′ca learned that the word of God was also being proclaimed by Paul in Be·roe′a, they came there to incite and agitate the crowds.[a] 14 Then the brothers immediately sent Paul away to the sea,[b] but both Silas and Timothy remained behind there. 15 However, those accompanying Paul brought him as far as Athens, and they departed after receiving instructions that Silas and Timothy[c] should come to Paul as quickly as possible.

16 Now while Paul was waiting for them in Athens, his spirit within him became irritated on seeing that the city was full of idols. 17 So he began to reason in the synagogue with the Jews and the other people who worshipped God and every day in the marketplace with those who happened to be on hand. 18 But some of both the Ep·i·cu·re′an and the Sto′ic philosophers began disputing with him, and some were saying: "What is it this chatterer would like to tell?" Others: "He seems to be a proclaimer of foreign deities." This was because he was declaring the good news of Jesus and the resurrection.[a] 19 So they took hold of him and led him to the Ar·e·op′a·gus, saying: "Can we get to know what this new teaching is that you are speaking about? 20 For you are introducing some things that are strange to our ears, and we want to know what these things mean." 21 In fact, all Athenians and the foreigners staying* there would spend their leisure time doing nothing else but telling or listening to something new. 22 Paul now stood in the midst of the Ar·e·op′a·gus[b] and said:

"Men of Athens, I see that in all things you seem to be more given to the fear of the deities* than others are.[c] 23 For instance, while passing along and carefully observing your objects of veneration,* I found even an altar on which had been inscribed 'To an Unknown God.' Therefore, what you are unknowingly worshipping, this I am declaring to you. 24 The God who made the world and all the things in it, being, as he is, Lord of heaven and earth,[d] does not dwell in handmade temples;[e] 25 nor is he served by human hands as if he needed anything,[f] because he himself gives to all people life and breath[g] and all things. 26 And he made out of one man[h] every nation of men to dwell on the entire surface of the earth,[i] and he decreed the appointed times and the set limits of where men would dwell,[j] 27 so that they would seek God, if they might grope for him and really find him,[k] although, in fact, he is not far off from each one of us. 28 For by him we have life and move and exist, even as some of your own poets have said, 'For we are also his children.'*

29 "Therefore, since we are the children* of God,[a] we should not think that the Divine Being is like gold or silver or stone, like something sculptured by the art and design of humans.[b] 30 True, God has overlooked the times of such ignorance;[c] but now he is declaring to all people everywhere that they should repent. 31 Because he has set a day on which he purposes to judge[d] the inhabited earth in righteousness by a man whom he has appointed, and he has provided a guarantee to all men by resurrecting him from the dead."[e]

32 Now when they heard of a resurrection of the dead, some began to scoff,[f] while others said: "We will hear you again about this." 33 So Paul left them, 34 but some men joined him and became believers. Among them were Di·o·nys′i·us, who was a judge of the court of the Ar·e·op′a·gus, and a woman named Dam′a·ris, and others besides them.

18 After this he departed from Athens and came to Corinth. 2 And he found a Jew named Aq′ui·la,[g] a native of Pon′tus who had recently come from Italy with Pris·cil′la his wife, because Claudius had ordered all the Jews to leave Rome. So he went to them, 3 and because he had the same trade, he stayed at their home and worked with them,[h] for they were tentmakers by trade. 4 He would give a talk* in the synagogue[i] every sabbath[j] and would persuade Jews and Greeks.

5 When, now, both Silas[k] and Timothy[l] came down from Mac·e·do′ni·a, Paul began to be intensely occupied with the word, witnessing to the Jews to prove that Jesus is the Christ.[a] 6 But after they kept on opposing him and speaking abusively, he shook out his garments[b] and said to them: "Let your blood be on your own heads.[c] I am clean.[d] From now on I will go to people of the nations."[e] 7 So he transferred from there* and went into the house of a man named Titius Justus, a worshipper of God, whose house adjoined the synagogue. 8 But Cris'pus,[f] the presiding officer of the synagogue, became a believer in the Lord, along with all his household. And many of the Corinthians who heard began to believe and be baptized. 9 Moreover, the Lord said to Paul in a vision by night: "Do not be afraid, but keep on speaking and do not keep silent, 10 for I am with you[g] and no man will assault you to harm you; for I have many people in this city." 11 So he stayed there for a year and six months, teaching the word of God among them.

12 While Gal'li·o was proconsul* of A·cha'ia, the Jews made a concerted attack against Paul and led him to the judgment seat, 13 saying: "This man is persuading people to worship God in a way contrary to the law." 14 But as Paul was about to speak, Gal'li·o said to the Jews: "If, indeed, it were some wrong or a serious crime, O Jews, it would be reasonable for me to hear you out patiently. 15 But if it is controversies over speech and names and your own law,[h] you yourselves must see to it. I do not wish to be a judge of these things." 16 With that he drove them away from the judgment seat. 17 So they all seized Sos'the·nes,[a] the presiding officer of the synagogue, and began beating him in front of the judgment seat. But Gal'li·o would not get involved at all with these things.

18 However, after staying quite a few days longer, Paul said good-bye to the brothers and sailed away for Syria, accompanied by Pris·cil'la and Aq'ui·la. He had his hair clipped short in Cen'chre·ae,[b] for he had made a vow. 19 So they arrived at Eph'e·sus, and he left them there; but he entered the synagogue and reasoned with the Jews.[c] 20 Although they kept requesting him to stay longer, he would not consent 21 but said goodbye and told them: "I will return to you again, if Jehovah* is willing." And he put out to sea from Eph'e·sus 22 and came down to Caes·a·re'a. And he went up* and greeted the congregation and then went down to Antioch.[d]

23 After spending some time there, he departed and went from place to place through the country of Ga·la'ti·a and Phryg'i·a,[e] strengthening all the disciples.[f]

24 Now a Jew named A·pol'los,[g] a native of Alexandria, arrived in Eph'e·sus; he was an eloquent man who was well-versed in the Scriptures. 25 This man had been instructed# in the way of Jehovah,* and aglow with the spirit, he was speaking and teaching accurately the things about Jesus, but he was acquainted only with the baptism of John. 26 He began to speak boldly in the synagogue, and when Pris·cil'la and Aq'ui·la[h] heard him, they took him into their company and explained the way of God more accurately to him. 27 Further, because he wanted to go across to A·cha′·ia, the brothers wrote to the disciples, urging them to receive him kindly. So when he got there, he greatly helped those who through God's undeserved kindness had become believers; 28 for publicly and with great intensity he thoroughly proved the Jews to be wrong, showing them from the Scriptures that Jesus is the Christ.[a] 19 In the course of events, while A·pol′los[b] was in Corinth, Paul went through the inland regions and came down to Eph′e·sus.[c] There he found some disciples 2 and said to them: "Did you receive holy spirit when you became believers?"[d] They replied to him: "Why, we have never heard that there is a holy spirit." 3 So he said: "In what, then, were you baptized?" They said: "In John's baptism."[e] 4 Paul said: "John baptized with the baptism in symbol of repentance,[f] telling the people to believe in the one coming after him,[g] that is, in Jesus." 5 On hearing this, they got baptized in the name of the Lord Jesus. 6 And when Paul laid his hands on them, the holy spirit came upon them,[h] and they began speaking in foreign languages and prophesying.[i] 7 There were about 12 men in all.

8 Entering the synagogue,[j] for three months he spoke with boldness, giving talks and reasoning persuasively about the Kingdom of God.[k] 9 But when some stubbornly refused to believe,* speaking injuriously about The Way[l] before the crowd, he withdrew from them[m] and separated the disciples from them, giving talks daily in the school auditorium of Ty·ran′·nus. 10 This went on for two years, so that all those living in the province of Asia heard the word of the Lord, both Jews and Greeks.

11 And God kept performing extraordinary powerful works through the hands of Paul,[a] 12 so that even cloths and aprons that had touched his body were carried to the sick,[b] and the diseases left them, and the wicked spirits came out.[c] 13 But some of the Jews who traveled around casting out demons also tried to use the name of the Lord Jesus over those who had wicked spirits; they would say: "I solemnly charge you by Jesus whom Paul preaches."[d] 14 Now there were seven sons of a Jewish chief priest named Sce′va doing this. 15 But in answer the wicked spirit said to them: "I know Jesus[e] and I am acquainted with Paul;[f] but who are you?" 16 At that the man with the wicked spirit leaped on them, overpowered them one after the other, and prevailed against them, so that they fled naked and wounded out of that house. 17 This became known to all, both the Jews and the Greeks who lived in Eph′e·sus; and fear fell upon them all, and the name of the Lord Jesus went on being magnified. 18 And many of those who had become believers would come and confess and report their practices openly. 19 Indeed, quite a number of those who practiced magical arts brought their books together and burned them up before everybody.[g] And they calculated their value and found them worth 50,000 pieces of silver. 20 Thus in a mighty way, the word of Jehovah* kept growing and prevailing.[a]

21 After these things had taken place, Paul resolved in his spirit that after going through Mac·e·do′ni·a[b] and A·cha′ia, he would travel to Jerusalem.[c] He said: "After going there, I must also see Rome."[d] 22 So he sent to Mac·e·do′ni·a two of those who ministered to him, Timothy[e] and E·ras′tus,[f] but he himself stayed on for some time in the province of Asia.

23 At that time quite a disturbance[g] arose concerning The Way.[h] 24 For a man named De·me′tri·us, a silversmith who made silver shrines of Ar′temis, brought considerable profit to the craftsmen.[i] 25 He gathered them and others who worked at such things and said: "Men, you well know that from this business comes our prosperity. 26 Now you see and hear how, not only in Eph′e·sus[j] but in nearly all the province of Asia, this Paul has persuaded a considerable crowd and turned them to another opinion, saying that the gods made by hands are not really gods.[k] 27 Moreover, the danger exists not only that this business of ours will come into disrepute but also that the temple of the great goddess Ar′temis will be viewed as nothing, and she who is worshipped in the whole province of Asia and the inhabited earth will be deprived of her magnificence." 28 Hearing this and becoming full of anger, the men began crying out: "Great is Ar′te·mis of the E·phe′sians!"

29 So the city became filled with confusion, and all together they rushed into the theater, dragging along with them Ga′ius and Ar·is·tar′chus,[l] Mac·e·do′ni·ans, traveling companions of Paul. 30 For his part, Paul was willing to go inside to the people, but the disciples would not permit him. 31 Even some of the commissioners of festivals and games who were friendly to him sent word to him, pleading with him not to risk going into the theater. 32 Some were, in fact, crying out one thing and others something else; for the assembly was in confusion and the majority of them did not know the reason why they had come together. 33 So they brought Alexander out of the crowd, the Jews shoving him forward, and Alexander motioned with his hand and wanted to make his defense to the people. 34 But when they recognized that he was a Jew, they all started shouting in unison for about two hours: "Great is Ar′te·mis of the E·phe′sians!"

35 When the city recorder had finally quieted the crowd, he said: "Men of Eph′e·sus, who really is there among men who does not know that the city of the E·phe′sians is the temple keeper of the great Ar′te·mis and of the image that fell from heaven? 36 Since these things are indisputable, you should keep calm and not act rashly. 37 For you have brought these men here who are neither robbers of temples nor blasphemers of our goddess. 38 So if De·me′tri·us[a] and the craftsmen with him do have a case against someone, court days are held and there are proconsuls;* let them bring charges against one another. 39 But if you are searching for anything beyond that, it must be decided in a regular assembly. 40 For we are really in danger of being charged with sedition over today's affair, since there are no grounds we could present as a reason for this disorderly mob." 41 And after saying this, he dismissed the assembly.

20 When the uproar had subsided, Paul sent for the disciples, and after he had encouraged them and said farewell, he began his journey to Mac·e·do′ni·a. 2 After going through those regions and giving many words of encouragement to the ones there, he arrived in Greece. 3 He spent three months there, but because a plot was hatched against him by the Jews[a] when he was about to set sail for Syria, he made up his mind to return through Mac·e·do′ni·a. 4 He was accompanied by Sop′·a·ter the son of Pyr′rhus of Be·roe′a, Ar·is·tar′chus[b] and Secun′dus of the Thes·sa·lo′ni·ans, Ga′ius of Der′be, Timothy[c] and, from the province of Asia, Tych′i·cus[d] and Troph′i·mus.[e] 5 These men went on ahead and were waiting for us in Tro′as; 6 but we put out to sea from Phi·lip′·pi after the days of the Unleavened Bread,[f] and within five days we came to them in Tro′as, and there we spent seven days.

7 On the first day of the week, when we were gathered together to have a meal, Paul began addressing them, as he was going to depart the next day; and he prolonged his speech until midnight. 8 So there were quite a few lamps in the upper room where we were gathered together. 9 Seated at the window, a young man named Eu′ty·chus sank into a deep sleep while Paul kept talking, and overcome by sleep, he fell down from the third story and was picked up dead. 10 But Paul went downstairs, threw himself on him and embraced him,[g] and said: "Stop making a commotion, for he is alive."[h] 11 He then went upstairs and began the meal and ate. He continued conversing for quite a while, until daybreak, and then he departed. 12 So they took the boy away alive and were comforted beyond measure.

13 We now went ahead to the ship and set sail for As′sos, where we were intending to take Paul aboard, for after giving instructions to this effect, he was intending to go there on foot. 14 So when he caught up with us in As′sos, we took him aboard and went to Mit·y·le′ne. 15 And sailing away from there the next day, we arrived off Chi′os, but the day after that, we touched at Sa′mos, and on the following day, we arrived at Mi·le′tus. 16 Paul had decided to sail past Eph′e·sus[a] so as not to spend any time in the province of Asia, for he was hurrying to get to Jerusalem[b] on the day of the Festival of Pentecost if he possibly could.

17 However, from Mi·le′tus he sent word to Eph′e·sus and called for the elders of the congregation. 18 When they came to him, he said to them: "You well know how I conducted myself among you from the first day I stepped into the province of Asia,[c] 19 slaving for the Lord with all humility*[d] and with tears and trials that befell me by the plots of the Jews, 20 while I did not hold back from telling you any of the things that were profitable* nor from teaching you publicly[e] and from house to house.[f] 21 But I thoroughly bore witness both to Jews and to Greeks about repentance[g] toward God and faith in our Lord Jesus.[h] 22 And now look! bound in* the spirit, I am traveling to Jerusalem, although not knowing what will happen to me there, 23 except that from city to city the holy spirit repeatedly bears witness to me, saying that imprisonment and tribulations are waiting for me.[a] 24 Nevertheless, I do not consider my own life* of any importance to me,# if only I may finish my course[b] and the ministry that I received from the Lord Jesus, to bear thorough witness to the good news of the undeserved kindness of God.

25 "And now look! I know that none of you among whom I preached the Kingdom will ever see my face again. 26 So I call you to witness this very day that I am clean from the blood of all men,[c] 27 for I have not held back from telling you all the counsel* of God.[d] 28 Pay attention to yourselves[e] and to all the flock, among which the holy spirit has appointed you overseers,[f] to shepherd the congregation of God,[g] which he purchased with the blood of his own Son.[h] 29 I know that after my going away oppressive wolves will enter in among you[i] and will not treat the flock with tenderness, 30 and from among you yourselves men will rise and speak twisted things to draw away the disciples after themselves.[j]

31 "Therefore keep awake, and bear in mind that for three years,[k] night and day, I never stopped admonishing each one of you with tears. 32 And now I entrust you to God and to the word of his undeserved kindness, which word can build you up and give you the inheritance among all the sanctified ones.[l] 33 I have desired no man's silver or gold or clothing.[m] 34 You yourselves know that these hands have provided for my own needs[n] and the needs of those with me. 35 I have shown you in all things that by working hard in this way,[a] you must assist those who are weak and must keep in mind the words of the Lord Jesus, when he himself said: 'There is more happiness in giving[b] than there is in receiving.'"

36 And when he had said these things, he knelt down with all of them and prayed. 37 Indeed, quite a bit of weeping broke out among them all, and they embraced Paul* and affectionately# kissed him, 38 for they were especially pained at the word he had spoken that they would not see his face anymore.[c] Then they accompanied him to the ship.

21 After tearing ourselves away from them and putting out to sea, we ran with a straight course and came to Cos, on the next day to Rhodes, and from there to Pat'a·ra. 2 When we found a ship that was crossing to Phoe·ni'cia, we went aboard and sailed away. 3 After coming in sight of the island of Cy'prus, we left it behind on the left side* and sailed on to Syria and landed at Tyre, where the ship was to unload its cargo. 4 We searched for and found the disciples and remained there for seven days. But through the spirit they repeatedly told Paul not to set foot in Jerusalem.[d] 5 So when our time there was over, we left and started on our way, but they all, together with the women and children, accompanied us until we were outside the city. And kneeling down on the beach, we prayed 6 and said good-bye to one another. Then we went aboard the ship, and they returned to their homes.

7 We then completed the voyage from Tyre and arrived at

Ptol·e·ma′is, and we greeted the brothers and stayed one day with them. 8 The next day we left and came to Caes·a·re′a, and we entered the house of Philip the evangelizer, who was one of the seven men,[a] and we stayed with him. 9 This man had four unmarried* daughters who prophesied.[b] 10 But after we had stayed there for quite a number of days, a prophet named Ag′a·bus[c] came down from Ju·de′a. 11 And he came to us and took Paul's belt and tied his own feet and hands and said: "Thus says the holy spirit, 'The man to whom this belt belongs will be bound like this by the Jews in Jerusalem,[d] and they will give him into the hands of people of the nations.'"[e] 12 Now when we heard this, both we and those who were there began begging him not to go up to Jerusalem. 13 Then Paul answered: "What are you doing by weeping and trying to weaken my resolve?* Rest assured, I am ready not only to be bound but also to die at Jerusalem for the name of the Lord Jesus."[f] 14 When he would not be dissuaded, we stopped objecting* and said: "Let the will of Jehovah# take place."

15 Now after these days we prepared for the journey and started on our way to Jerusalem. 16 Some of the disciples from Caes·a·re′a also went with us, taking us to Mna′son of Cy′prus, an early disciple at whose home we were to be guests. 17 When we got to Jerusalem, the brothers welcomed us gladly. 18 But on the following day Paul went in with us to James,[g] and all the elders were present. 19 And he greeted them and began giving a detailed account of the things God did among the nations through his ministry.

20 After hearing this, they began to glorify God, but they said to him: "You see, brother, how many thousands of believers there are among the Jews, and they are all zealous for the Law.[a] 21 But they have heard it rumored about you that you have been teaching all the Jews among the nations an apostasy from Moses, telling them not to circumcise their children or to follow the customary practices.[b] 22 What, then, is to be done about it? They are certainly going to hear that you have arrived. 23 So do what we tell you: We have four men who have put themselves under a vow. 24 Take these men with you and cleanse yourself ceremonially together with them and take care of their expenses, so that they may have their heads shaved. Then everyone will know that there is nothing to the rumors they were told about you, but that you are walking orderly and you are also keeping the Law.[c] 25 As for the believers from among the nations, we have sent them our decision in writing that they should keep away from what is sacrificed to idols[d] as well as from blood,[e] from what is strangled,*[f] and from sexual immorality."#[g]

26 Then Paul took the men the next day and cleansed himself ceremonially along with them,[h] and he went into the temple to give notice of when the days for the ceremonial cleansing would be completed and the offering should be presented for each one of them.

27 Now when the seven days were about to end, the Jews from Asia, on seeing him in the temple, stirred up the whole crowd, and they seized him, 28 shouting: "Men of Israel, help! This is the man who teaches everyone everywhere against our people and our Law and this place. And what is more, he even brought Greeks into the temple and has defiled this holy place."[a] 29 For they had previously seen Troph'i·mus[b] the E·phe'sian in the city with him, and they assumed that Paul had brought him into the temple. 30 The whole city was in an uproar, and the people came running together and seized Paul and dragged him outside the temple, and immediately the doors were closed. 31 While they were trying to kill him, word reached the commander of the army unit that all Jerusalem was in confusion; 32 and he immediately took soldiers and army officers and ran down to them. When they caught sight of the military commander and the soldiers, they stopped beating Paul.

33 Then the military commander came near and took him into custody and ordered that he be bound with two chains;[c] then he inquired who he was and what he had done. 34 But some in the crowd began shouting out one thing, and others something else. So being unable himself to learn anything for certain because of the disturbance, he commanded him to be brought to the soldiers' quarters. 35 But when he reached the stairs, he had to be carried by the soldiers because of the violence of the crowd, 36 for a crowd of the people kept following, crying out: "Do away with him!"

37 As he was about to be led into the soldiers' quarters, Paul said to the military commander: "Am I allowed to say something to you?" He said: "Can you speak Greek? 38 Are you not, then, the Egyptian who some time ago stirred up a sedition and led the 4,000 dagger men out into the wilderness?" 39 Then Paul said: "I am, in fact, a Jew,[a] of Tarsus[b] in Ci·li'cia, a citizen of no obscure city. So I beg you, permit me to speak to the people." 40 After he gave permission, Paul, standing on the stairs, motioned with his hand to the people. When a great silence fell, he addressed them in the Hebrew language,[c] saying:

22 "Men, brothers and fathers, hear my defense to you now."[d] 2 Well, when they heard that he was addressing them in the Hebrew language, they kept all the more silent, and he said: 3 "I am a Jew,[e] born in Tarsus of Ci·li'cia,[f] but educated in this city at the feet of Ga·ma'li·el,[g] instructed according to the strictness of the ancestral Law,[h] and zealous for God just as all of you are this day.[i] 4 I persecuted this Way to the point of death, binding and handing over to prisons both men and women,[j] 5 as the high priest and all the assembly of elders can bear witness. From them I also obtained letters to the brothers in Damascus, and I was on my way to bring those who were there in bonds to Jerusalem to be punished.

6 "But as I was traveling and getting near to Damascus, about midday, suddenly out of heaven a great light flashed all around me,[k] 7 and I fell to the ground and heard a voice say to me: 'Saul, Saul, why are you persecuting me?' 8 I answered: 'Who are you, Lord?' And he said to me: 'I am Jesus the Naz·a·rene', whom you are persecuting.' 9 Now the men who were with me did see the light, but they did not hear the voice of the one speaking to me. 10 At that I said: 'What should I do, Lord?' The Lord said to me: 'Rise, go into Damascus, and there you will be told about everything it is appointed for you to do.'[a] 11 But since I could not see anything because of the glory of that light, I arrived in Damascus led by the hand of those who were with me.

12 "Then a man named An·a·ni'as, a devout man according to the Law, well-reported-on by all the Jews living there, 13 came to me. He stood by me and said to me: 'Saul, brother, regain your sight!' And that very moment I looked up and saw him.[b] 14 He said: 'The God of our forefathers has chosen you to come to know his will and to see the righteous one[c] and to hear the voice of his mouth, 15 because you are to be a witness for him to all men of the things you have seen and heard.[d] 16 And now why are you delaying? Rise, get baptized, and wash your sins[e] away by your calling on his name.'[f]

17 "But when I had returned to Jerusalem[g] and was praying in the temple, I fell into a trance 18 and saw him saying to me: 'Hurry up and get out of Jerusalem quickly, because they will not accept your witness concerning me.'[h] 19 And I said: 'Lord, they themselves well know that I used to imprison and flog in one synagogue after another those believing in you;[i] 20 and when the blood of Stephen your witness was being spilled, I was standing by and approving and guarding the outer garments of those doing away with him.'[j] 21 And yet he said to me: 'Go, because I will send you out to nations far away.'"[k]

22 Now they kept listening to him down to this word. Then they raised their voices, saying: "Take such a man away from the earth, for he is not fit to live!" 23 Because they were crying out, throwing their outer garments about, and tossing dust into the air,[a] 24 the military commander ordered Paul to be brought into the soldiers' quarters and said that he should be interrogated under scourging, so that he could learn exactly why they were shouting against Paul this way. 25 But when they had stretched him out for the whipping, Paul said to the army officer standing there: "Is it lawful for you to scourge a Roman* who has not been condemned?"[#b] 26 Well, when the army officer heard this, he went to the military commander and reported it, saying: "What are you intending to do? For this man is a Roman." 27 So the military commander approached and said to him: "Tell me, are you a Roman?" He said: "Yes." 28 The military commander responded: "I purchased these rights as a citizen for a large sum of money." Paul said: "But I have them by birth."[c]

29 Immediately, therefore, the men who were about to interrogate him under torture backed away from him; and the military commander became afraid when he realized that he was a Roman and that he had bound him in chains.[d]

30 So the next day, because he wanted to know for sure just why he was being accused by the Jews, he released him and commanded the chief priests and all the San'he·drin to assemble. He then brought Paul down and had him stand among them.[e]

22:25 *Or "Roman citizen." #Or "has not had a trial?"

23 Looking intently at the San′he·drin, Paul said: "Men, brothers, I have behaved before God with a perfectly clear conscience[a] down to this day." 2 At this the high priest An·a·ni′as ordered those standing by him to strike him on the mouth. 3 Then Paul said to him: "God is going to strike you, you whitewashed wall. Do you sit to judge me according to the Law and at the same time violate the Law by commanding me to be struck?" 4 Those standing by said: "Are you insulting the high priest of God?" 5 And Paul said: "Brothers, I did not know he was high priest. For it is written, 'You must not speak injuriously of a ruler of your people.'"[b]

6 Now Paul, knowing that the one part was made up of Sadducees but the other of Pharisees, cried out in the San′he·drin: "Men, brothers, I am a Pharisee,[c] a son of Pharisees. Over the hope of the resurrection of the dead I am being judged." 7 Because he said this, a dissension arose between the Pharisees and the Sadducees, and the assembly was split. 8 For the Sadducees say that there is neither resurrection nor angel nor spirit, but the Pharisees accept* them all.[d] 9 So a great uproar broke out, and some of the scribes of the party of the Pharisees rose and began arguing fiercely, saying: "We find nothing wrong in this man, but if a spirit or an angel spoke to him[e]—." 10 Now when the dissension grew great, the military commander feared that Paul would be torn apart by them, and he commanded the soldiers to go down and snatch him from their midst and bring him into the soldiers' quarters.

11 But the following night the Lord stood by him and said: "Take courage![a] For just as you have been giving a thorough witness about me in Jerusalem, so you must also bear witness in Rome."[b]

12 When it became day, the Jews formed a conspiracy and bound themselves with a curse, saying that they would neither eat nor drink until they had killed Paul. 13 There were more than 40 men who formed this oath-bound conspiracy. 14 These men went to the chief priests and the elders and said: "We have solemnly bound ourselves with a curse* not to eat anything at all until we have killed Paul. 15 So now you together with the San′he·drin should inform the military commander that he should bring him down to you as though you want to examine his case more thoroughly. But before he gets near, we will be ready to do away with him."

16 However, the son of Paul's sister heard of the ambush they were planning, and he entered the soldiers' quarters and reported it to Paul. 17 Paul then called one of the army officers to him and said: "Take this young man to the military commander, for he has something to report to him." 18 So he brought him and led him to the military commander and said: "The prisoner Paul called me and asked me to bring this young man to you because he has something to tell you." 19 The military commander took him by the hand and withdrew privately and asked him: "What do you have to report to me?" 20 He said: "The Jews have agreed to request you to bring Paul down to the San′he·drin tomorrow, as though they intend to learn more details about his case.[c] 21 But do not let them persuade you, for more than 40 of their men are waiting to ambush him, and they have bound themselves with a curse* neither to eat nor to drink until they have killed him;[a] and they are now ready, waiting for the promise from you." 22 So the military commander let the young man go, after ordering him: "Do not tell anyone that you have informed me of this."

23 And he summoned two of the army officers and said: "Get 200 soldiers ready to march clear to Caes·a·re'a, also 70 horsemen and 200 spearmen, at the third hour of the night.* 24 Also, provide horses for Paul to ride, to take him safely to Felix the governor." 25 And he wrote a letter with this content:

26 "Claudius Lys'i·as to His Excellency, Governor Felix: Greetings! 27 This man was seized by the Jews and was about to be killed by them, but I came quickly with my soldiers and rescued him,[b] because I learned that he is a Roman.[c] 28 And wanting to find out the cause for which they were accusing him, I brought him down into their San'he·drin.[d] 29 I found him to be accused about questions of their Law,[e] but not charged with a single thing deserving of death or prison bonds. 30 But because a plot against the man has been made known to me,[f] I am at once sending him to you and ordering the accusers to speak against him before you."

31 So these soldiers took Paul[g] according to their orders and brought him by night to An·tip'a·tris. 32 The next day they permitted the horsemen to go on with him, but they returned to the soldiers' quarters.

33 The horsemen entered Caes·a·re'a and delivered the letter to the governor and also presented Paul to him. 34 So he read it and asked what province he was from and learned that he was from Ci·li'cia.[a] 35 "I will give you a thorough hearing," he said, "when your accusers arrive."[b] And he commanded that he be kept under guard in Herod's palace.*

24 Five days later the high priest An·a·ni'as[c] came down with some elders and a public speaker* named Ter·tul'lus, and they presented their case against Paul to the governor.[d] 2 When he was called, Ter·tul'lus started accusing him, saying:

"Seeing that we enjoy great peace through you and that through your forethought reforms are taking place in this nation, 3 at all times and also in all places we acknowledge this, Your Excellency Felix, with the greatest thankfulness. 4 But that I may not detain you any further, I beg you to hear us briefly in your kindness. 5 For we have found this man to be a pest,*[e] stirring up seditions[f] among all the Jews throughout the inhabited earth, and he is a spearhead of the sect of the Naz·a·renes'.[g] 6 He also tried to profane the temple, so we seized him.[h] 7 *— 8 When you examine him yourself, you will find out about all these things of which we are accusing him."

9 With that the Jews also joined in the attack, asserting that these things were true. 10 When the governor nodded to Paul to speak, he answered:

23:35 *Or "praetorium." 24:1 *Or "a lawyer." 24:5 *Or "troublemaker." Lit., "pestilence." 24:7 *See App. A3.

"Knowing well that this nation has had you as judge for many years, I readily speak in my own defense.[a] 11 As you can verify for yourself, it has not been more than 12 days since I went up to worship in Jerusalem;[b] 12 and they found me neither arguing with anyone in the temple nor stirring up a mob, either in the synagogues or throughout the city. 13 Nor can they prove to you the things they are accusing me of right now. 14 But I do admit this to you, that according to the way that they call a sect, in this manner I am rendering sacred service to the God of my forefathers,[c] as I believe all the things set forth in the Law and written in the Prophets.[d] 15 And I have hope toward God, which hope these men also look forward to, that there is going to be a resurrection[e] of both the righteous and the unrighteous.[f] 16 Because of this I always strive to maintain a clear* conscience before God and men.[g] 17 Now after quite a number of years, I arrived to bring gifts of mercy[h] to my nation and to make offerings. 18 While I was caring for these matters, they found me ceremonially cleansed in the temple,[i] but not with a crowd or causing a disturbance. But there were some Jews from the province of Asia 19 who ought to be present before you to accuse me if they actually have anything against me.[j] 20 Or let the men here say for themselves what wrong they found as I stood before the San·he·drin, 21 except for this one thing that I cried out while standing among them: 'Over the resurrection of the dead I am today being judged before you!'"[k]

22 However, Felix, knowing quite well the facts concerning this Way,[a] began to put them off and say: "Whenever Lys·i·as the military commander comes down, I will decide these matters involving you." 23 And he gave orders to the army officer that the man be kept under arrest but given some freedom, and that his people be allowed to attend to his needs.

24 Some days later Felix came with Dru·sil'la his wife, who was Jewish, and he sent for Paul and listened to him speak about the belief in Christ Jesus.[b] 25 But as Paul talked about righteousness and self-control and the judgment to come,[c] Felix became frightened and answered: "Go away for now, but when I have an opportunity I will send for you again." 26 At the same time he was hoping that Paul would give him money. For that reason, he sent for him even more frequently and conversed with him. 27 But when two years had elapsed, Felix was succeeded by Porcius Festus; and because Felix desired to gain favor with the Jews,[d] he left Paul in custody.

25 Therefore Festus,[e] after arriving in the province and taking charge, went up three days later to Jerusalem from Caes·a·re'a. 2 And the chief priests and the principal men of the Jews gave him information against Paul.[f] So they began to beg Festus 3 as a favor* to send for Paul to come to Jerusalem. But they were planning to ambush Paul and kill him along the road.[g] 4 However, Festus answered that Paul was to be kept in Caes·a·re'a and that he himself was about to go back there shortly. 5 "So let those who are in power among you," he said, "come down with me and accuse him if, indeed, the man has done something wrong."[h]

6 So when he had spent not more than eight or ten days among them, he went down to Caes·a·re′a, and the next day he sat down on the judgment seat and commanded Paul to be brought in. 7 When he came in, the Jews who had come down from Jerusalem stood around him, bringing against him many serious charges that they were unable to prove.[a]

8 But Paul said in defense: "Neither against the Law of the Jews nor against the temple nor against Caesar have I committed any sin."[b] 9 Festus, desiring to gain favor with the Jews,[c] said in reply to Paul: "Do you wish to go up to Jerusalem and be judged before me there concerning these things?" 10 But Paul said: "I am standing before the judgment seat of Caesar, where I ought to be judged. I have done no wrong to the Jews, of which you are also becoming well-aware. 11 If I am really a wrongdoer and have committed anything deserving of death,[d] I do not beg off from dying; but if there is no substance to the accusations these men have made against me, no man has the right to hand me over to them as a favor. I appeal to Caesar!"[e] 12 Then Festus, after speaking with the assembly of counselors, replied: "To Caesar you have appealed; to Caesar you will go."

13 After some days had passed, A·grip′pa the king and Bernice arrived in Caes·a·re′a for a courtesy visit to Festus. 14 Since they were spending a number of days there, Festus presented Paul's case to the king, saying:

"There is a man who was left as a prisoner by Felix, 15 and when I was in Jerusalem the chief priests and the elders of the Jews brought information about him,[a] asking for a judgment of condemnation against him. 16 But I replied to them that it is not Roman procedure to hand any man over as a favor before the accused man meets his accusers face-to-face and gets a chance to speak in his defense concerning the complaint.[b] 17 So when they arrived here, I did not delay, but the next day I sat down on the judgment seat and commanded the man to be brought in. 18 Taking the stand, the accusers did not charge him with any of the wicked things I had expected concerning him.[c] 19 They simply had certain disputes with him concerning their own worship of the deity*[d] and concerning a man named Jesus, who was dead but who Paul kept asserting was alive.[e] 20 Being at a loss as to how to handle this dispute, I asked if he would like to go to Jerusalem and be judged there concerning these matters.[f] 21 But when Paul appealed to be kept in custody for the decision by the August One,*[g] I commanded him to be held until I should send him on to Caesar."

22 A·grip′pa then said to Festus: "I would like to hear the man myself."[h] "Tomorrow," he said, "you will hear him." 23 So the next day A·grip′pa and Bernice came with much pompous show and entered the audience chamber together with military commanders as well as the prominent men in the city; and when Festus gave the command, Paul was brought in. 24 And Festus said: "King A·grip′pa and all you who are present with us, you see this man about whom the whole Jewish populace have petitioned me both in Jerusalem and here, shouting that he ought not to live any longer.[a] 25 But I perceived that he had done nothing deserving of death.[b] So when this man himself appealed to the August One, I decided to send him. 26 But I have nothing certain to write about him to my Lord. So I brought him before all of you, and especially before you, King A·grip′pa, so that after the judicial examination has taken place, I might have something to write. 27 For it seems unreasonable to me to send a prisoner and not also to indicate the charges against him."

26 A·grip′pa[c] said to Paul: "You are permitted to speak in your own behalf." Then Paul stretched out his hand and proceeded to say in his defense:

2 "Concerning all the things of which I am accused by the Jews,[d] King A·grip′pa, I consider myself happy that it is before you I am to make my defense this day, 3 especially because you are an expert on all the customs as well as the controversies among the Jews. Therefore, I beg you to hear me patiently.

4 "Indeed, the manner of life I led from youth up among my people* and in Jerusalem is well-known by all the Jews[e] 5 who were previously acquainted with me, if they would be willing to testify, that according to the strictest sect of our form of worship,[f] I lived as a Pharisee.[g] 6 But now for the hope of the promise that was made by God to our forefathers,[h] I stand on trial; 7 this is the same promise our 12 tribes are hoping to see fulfilled by intensely rendering him sacred service night and day. Concerning this hope I am accused by Jews,[i] O King.

8 "Why is it considered* unbelievable among you that God raises up the dead? 9 I, for one, was convinced that I should commit many acts of opposition against the name of Jesus the Naz·a·rene′. 10 This is exactly what I did in Jerusalem, and I locked up many of the holy ones in prisons,[a] for I had received authority from the chief priests;[b] and when they were to be executed, I cast my vote against them. 11 By punishing them often in all the synagogues, I tried to force them to recant; and since I was extremely furious with them, I went so far as to persecute them even in outlying cities.

12 "While doing this as I was traveling to Damascus with authority and a commission from the chief priests, 13 I saw at midday on the road, O King, a light beyond the brilliance of the sun flash from heaven around me and around those traveling with me.[c] 14 And when we had all fallen to the ground, I heard a voice say to me in the Hebrew language: 'Saul, Saul, why are you persecuting me? To keep kicking against the goads* makes it hard for you.' 15 But I said: 'Who are you, Lord?' And the Lord said: 'I am Jesus, whom you are persecuting. 16 But rise and stand on your feet. This is why I have appeared to you, to choose you as a servant and a witness both of things you have seen and things I will make you see respecting me.[d] 17 And I will rescue you from this people and from the nations, to whom I am sending you[e] 18 to open their eyes,[f] to turn them from darkness[g] to light[h] and from the authority of Satan[i] to God, so that they may receive forgiveness of sins[j] and an inheritance among those sanctified by their faith in me.'

19 "Therefore, King A·grip′pa, I did not become disobedient to the heavenly vision, 20 but to those in Damascus[a] first and then to those in Jerusalem,[b] and over all the country of Ju·de′a, and also to the nations, I was bringing the message that they should repent and turn to God by doing works that befit repentance.[c] 21 This is why the Jews seized me in the temple and tried to kill me.[d] 22 However, because I have experienced the help that is from God, I continue to this day bearing witness to both small and great, saying nothing except what the Prophets as well as Moses stated was going to take place[e]— 23 that the Christ was to suffer[f] and that as the first to be resurrected from the dead,[g] he was going to proclaim light both to this people and to the nations."[h]

24 Now as Paul was saying these things in his defense, Festus said in a loud voice: "You are going out of your mind, Paul! Great learning is driving you out of your mind!" 25 But Paul said: "I am not going out of my mind, Your Excellency Festus, but I am speaking words of truth and of a sound mind. 26 For a fact, the king to whom I am speaking so freely well knows about these things; I am convinced that not one of these things escapes his notice, for none of this has been done in a corner.[i] 27 Do you, King A·grip′pa, believe the Prophets? I know that you believe." 28 But A·grip′pa said to Paul: "In a short time you would persuade me to become a Christian." 29 At this Paul said: "I wish to God that whether in a short time or in a long time, not only you but also all those who hear me today would become men such as I am, with the exception of these prison bonds."

30 Then the king rose and so did the governor and Bernice and the men seated with them. 31 But as they were leaving, they began saying to one another: "This man is doing nothing deserving of death or prison bonds."[a] 32 A·grip′pa then said to Festus: "This man could have been released if he had not appealed to Caesar."[b]

27 Now as it was decided for us to sail away to Italy,[c] they handed Paul and some other prisoners over to an army officer named Julius, of the unit of Au·gus′tus. 2 Going aboard a ship from Ad·ra·myt′ti·um that was about to sail to ports along the coast of the province of Asia, we set sail; Ar·is·tar′chus,[d] a Mac·e·do′ni·an from Thes·sa·lo·ni′ca, was with us. 3 The next day we landed at Si′don, and Julius treated Paul with kindness* and permitted him to go to his friends and enjoy their care.

4 And putting out to sea from there, we sailed under the shelter of Cy′prus, because the winds were against us. 5 Then we navigated through the open sea along Ci·li′cia and Pamphyl′i·a and put into port at My′ra in Ly′ci·a. 6 There the army officer found a ship from Alexandria that was sailing for Italy, and he made us board it. 7 Then after sailing on slowly quite a number of days, we came to Cni′dus with difficulty. Because the wind did not let us make headway, we sailed under the shelter of Crete off Sal·mo′ne. 8 And sailing with difficulty along the coast, we came to a place called Fair Havens, which was near the city of La·se′a.

9 A considerable time had passed and by now it was hazardous to navigate, because even the fast of Atonement Day[e]

was already over, so Paul made a recommendation 10 to them: "Men, I can see that this voyage is going to result in damage and great loss not only of the cargo and the ship but also of our lives."* 11 However, the army officer listened to the pilot and the shipowner rather than to what Paul was saying. 12 Since the harbor was unsuitable for wintering, the majority advised setting sail from there to see if they could somehow make it to spend the winter in Phoenix, a harbor of Crete that opens toward the northeast and toward the southeast.

13 When the south wind blew softly, they thought they had achieved their purpose, and they lifted anchor and began sailing along Crete close to the shore. 14 After a short time, however, a violent wind called Eu·ro·aq′·ui·lo* rushed down on it. 15 As the ship was violently seized and was not able to keep its head against the wind, we gave way to it and were driven along. 16 Then we ran under the shelter of a small island called Cau′·da, and yet we were hardly able to get the skiff* at the stern of the ship under control. 17 But after hoisting it aboard, they used supports to undergird the ship, and fearing that they would run aground on the Syr′tis,* they lowered the gear and so were driven along. 18 Because we were being violently tossed by the storm, they began to lighten the ship the following day. 19 And on the third day, they threw away the tackling of the ship with their own hands.

20 When neither sun nor stars appeared for many days and a violent* storm was battering us, all hope of our being saved finally began to fade. 21 After they had gone a long time without food, Paul stood up in their midst and said: "Men, you certainly should have taken my advice and not have put out to sea from Crete and as a result suffered this damage and loss.[a] 22 Still, I now urge you to take courage, for not one* of you will be lost, only the ship will. 23 This night an angel[b] of the God to whom I belong and to whom I render sacred service stood by me 24 and said: 'Have no fear, Paul. You must stand before Caesar,[c] and look! God has granted to you all those sailing with you.' 25 So take courage, men, for I believe God that it will be exactly as I was told. 26 However, we must be cast ashore on some island."[d]

27 Now when the 14th night fell and we were being tossed about on the Sea of A′dri·a, at midnight the sailors began to suspect that they were getting near to some land. 28 They sounded the depth and found it 20 fathoms,* so they proceeded a short distance and again made a sounding and found it 15 fathoms.# 29 And fearing that we might run aground on the rocks, they cast out four anchors from the stern and began wishing for it to become day. 30 But when the sailors began trying to escape from the ship and were lowering the skiff into the sea under the pretense of intending to let down anchors from the bow, 31 Paul said to the army officer and the soldiers: "Unless these men remain in the ship, you cannot be saved."[e] 32 Then the soldiers cut away the ropes of the skiff and let it fall off.

33 Now close to daybreak, Paul encouraged them all to take some food, saying: "Today is the 14th day you have been waiting anxiously, and you have gone without taking any food at all. 34 So I encourage you to eat some food; this is in the interests of your safety, for not a hair of the head of any one of you will perish." 35 After he said this, he took bread, gave thanks to God before them all, broke it, and started eating. 36 So they all took courage and began taking some food themselves. 37 In all we were 276 persons* in the ship. 38 When they had eaten enough food to be satisfied, they lightened the ship by throwing the wheat overboard into the sea.[a]

39 When daylight came, they could not recognize the land,[b] but they saw a bay with a beach and were determined to beach the ship there if they could. 40 So they cut away the anchors and let them fall into the sea, at the same time loosening the lashings of the rudder oars; and after hoisting the foresail to the wind, they made for the beach. 41 When they struck a shoal washed on each side by the sea, they ran the ship aground and the bow got stuck and stayed immovable, but the stern began to be violently broken to pieces by the waves.[c] 42 At this the soldiers decided to kill the prisoners so that no one might swim away and escape. 43 But the army officer was determined to bring Paul safely through and prevented them from carrying out their plan. He commanded those able to swim to jump into the sea and make it to land first, 44 and the rest were to follow, some on planks and some on pieces of the ship. So all were brought safely to land.[a]

28 After we made it to safety, we learned that the island was called Malta.[b] 2 And the foreign-speaking people* showed us extraordinary kindness.# They kindled a fire and received all of us kindly because of the rain that was falling and because of the cold. 3 But when Paul collected a bundle of sticks and laid it on the fire, a viper came out because of the heat and fastened itself on his hand. 4 When the foreign-speaking people caught sight of the venomous creature hanging from his hand, they began saying to one another: "Surely this man is a murderer, and although he made it to safety from the sea, Justice* did not permit him to keep on living." 5 However, he shook the creature off into the fire and suffered no harm. 6 But they were expecting him to swell up or suddenly to drop dead. After they waited for a long time and saw that nothing bad happened to him, they changed their mind and began saying he was a god.

7 Now in the neighborhood of that place were lands belonging to the principal man of the island, whose name was Pub'li·us, and he welcomed us and entertained us hospitably for three days. 8 It so happened that the father of Pub'li·us was lying in bed sick with fever and dysentery, and Paul went in to him and prayed, laid his hands on him, and healed him.[c] 9 After this occurred, the rest of the people on the island who were sick also began to come to him and be cured.[d] 10 They also honored us with many gifts, and when we were setting sail, they loaded us up with whatever we needed.

11 Three months later we set sail in a ship with the figurehead "Sons of Zeus." The ship was from Alexandria and had wintered in the island. 12 Putting into port at Syracuse, we remained there for three days; 13 from there we went along and arrived at Rhe'gi·um. A day later a south wind sprang up and we made it into Pu·te'o·li on the second day. 14 Here we found brothers and were urged to remain with them for seven days, and so we went toward Rome. 15 From there the brothers, when they heard the news about us, came as far as the Marketplace of Ap'pi·us and Three Taverns to meet us. On catching sight of them, Paul thanked God and took courage.[a] 16 When finally we entered Rome, Paul was permitted to stay by himself with the soldier guarding him.

17 However, three days later he called together the principal men of the Jews. When they had assembled, he said to them: "Men, brothers, although I had done nothing contrary to the people or the customs of our forefathers,[b] I was handed over as a prisoner from Jerusalem into the hands of the Romans.[c] 18 And after making an examination,[d] they wanted to release me, for there were no grounds for putting me to death.[e] 19 But when the Jews objected, I was compelled to appeal to Caesar,[f] but not because I had any accusation to make against my nation. 20 So for this reason I asked to see and speak to you, for it is because of the hope of Israel that I have this chain around me."[g] 21 They said to him: "We have not received letters about you from Ju·de'a, nor have any of the brothers who came from there reported or spoken anything bad about you. 22 But we think it proper to hear from you what your thoughts are, for truly as regards this sect,[a] we know that it is spoken against everywhere."[b]

23 They now arranged for a day to meet with him, and they came in even greater numbers to him in his lodging place. And from morning to evening, he explained the matter to them by bearing thorough witness concerning the Kingdom of God, to persuade them about Jesus[c] from both the Law of Moses[d] and the Prophets.[e] 24 Some began to believe the things he said; others would not believe. 25 So because they disagreed with one another, they began to leave, and Paul made this one comment:

"The holy spirit aptly spoke through Isaiah the prophet to your forefathers, 26 saying, 'Go to this people and say: "You will indeed hear but by no means understand, and you will indeed look but by no means see.[f] 27 For the heart of this people has grown unreceptive, and with their ears they have heard without response, and they have shut their eyes, so that they might never see with their eyes and hear with their ears and understand with their heart and turn back and I heal them."'[g] 28 So let it be known to you that this salvation from God has been sent out to the nations;[h] they will certainly listen to it."[i] 29 *—

30 So he remained there for an entire two years in his own rented house,[j] and he would kindly receive all those who came to him, 31 preaching the Kingdom of God to them and teaching about the Lord Jesus Christ with the greatest freeness of speech,*[k] without hindrance.

1 Paul, a slave of Christ Jesus and called to be an apostle, set apart for God's good news,[a] 2 which he promised beforehand through his prophets in the holy Scriptures, 3 concerning his Son, who came to be from the offspring* of David[b] according to the flesh, 4 but who with power was declared God's Son[c] according to the spirit of holiness by means of resurrection from the dead[d]—yes, Jesus Christ our Lord. 5 Through him we received undeserved kindness and an apostleship[e] with a view to obedience by faith among all the nations[f] respecting his name, 6 among which nations you also have been called to belong to Jesus Christ— 7 to all those who are in Rome as God's beloved ones, called to be holy ones:

May you have undeserved kindness and peace from God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ.

8 First of all, I give thanks to my God through Jesus Christ concerning all of you, because your faith is talked about throughout the whole world. 9 For God, to whom I render sacred service with my spirit in connection with the good news about his Son, is my witness of how without ceasing I always mention you in my prayers,[g] 10 begging that if at all possible I may now at last succeed in coming to you by God's will. 11 For I am longing to see you, that I may impart some spiritual gift to you for you to be made firm; 12 or, rather, that we may have an interchange of encouragement[h] by one another's faith, both yours and mine.

13 But I do not want you to be unaware, brothers, that many times I have intended to come to you—but I have been prevented until now—in order that I might acquire some fruitage also among you just as among the rest of the nations. 14 Both to Greeks and to foreigners,* both to wise and to senseless ones, I am a debtor; 15 so I am eager to declare the good news also to you there in Rome.[a] 16 For I am not ashamed of the good news;[b] it is, in fact, God's power for salvation to everyone having faith,[c] to the Jew first[d] and also to the Greek.[e] 17 For in it God's righteousness is being revealed by faith and for faith,[f] just as it is written: "But the righteous one will live by reason of faith."[g]

18 For God's wrath[h] is being revealed from heaven against all ungodliness and unrighteousness of men who are suppressing the truth[i] in an unrighteous way, 19 because what may be known about God is clearly evident among them, for God made it clear to them.[j] 20 For his invisible qualities are clearly seen from the world's creation onward, because they are perceived by the things made,[k] even his eternal power[l] and Godship,[m] so that they are inexcusable. 21 For although they knew God, they did not glorify him as God nor did they thank him, but they became empty-headed in their reasonings and their senseless hearts became darkened.[n] 22 Although claiming they were wise, they became foolish 23 and turned the glory of the incorruptible God into something like the image of corruptible man and birds and four-footed creatures and reptiles.*[o]

24 Therefore, God, in keeping with the desires of their hearts, gave them up to uncleanness, so that their bodies might be dishonored among them. 25 They exchanged the truth of God for the lie and venerated* and rendered sacred service to the creation rather than the Creator, who is praised forever. Amen. 26 That is why God gave them over to uncontrolled sexual passion,[a] for their females changed the natural use of themselves into one contrary to nature;[b] 27 likewise also the males left the natural use of* the female and became violently inflamed in their lust toward one another, males with males,[c] working what is obscene and receiving in themselves the full penalty,# which was due for their error.[d]

28 Just as they did not see fit to acknowledge God,* God gave them over to a disapproved mental state, to do the things not fitting.[e] 29 And they were filled with all unrighteousness,[f] wickedness, greed,[g] and badness, being full of envy,[h] murder,[i] strife, deceit,[j] and malice,[k] being whisperers,# 30 backbiters,[l] haters of God, insolent, haughty, boastful, schemers of what is harmful, disobedient to parents,[m] 31 without understanding,[n] false to agreements, having no natural affection, and merciless. 32 Although these know full well the righteous decree of God—that those practicing such things are deserving of death[o]—they not only keep on doing them but also approve of those practicing them.

2 Therefore you are inexcusable, O man, whoever you are,[p] if you judge; for when you judge another, you condemn yourself, because you who judge practice the same things.[a] 2 Now we know that God's judgment is in harmony with truth, against those who practice such things.

3 But do you suppose, O man, that while you judge those who practice such things and yet you do them, you will escape the judgment of God? 4 Or do you despise the riches of his kindness[b] and forbearance*[c] and patience,[d] because you do not know that God in his kindness is trying to lead you to repentance?[e] 5 But according to your stubbornness and your unrepentant heart, you are storing up wrath for yourself on the day of wrath and of the revealing of God's righteous judgment.[f] 6 And he will pay back to each one according to his works:[g] 7 everlasting life to those who are seeking glory and honor and incorruptibleness[h] by endurance in work that is good; 8 however, for those who are contentious and who disobey the truth but obey unrighteousness, there will be wrath and anger.[i] 9 There will be tribulation and distress on every person* who works what is harmful, on the Jew first and also on the Greek; 10 but glory and honor and peace for everyone who works what is good, for the Jew first[j] and also for the Greek.[k] 11 For there is no partiality with God.[l]

12 For all those who sinned without law will also perish without law;[m] but all those who sinned under law will be judged by law.[n] 13 For the hearers of law are not the ones righteous before God, but the doers of law will be declared righteous.[o] 14 For when people of the nations, who do not have law,[a] do by nature the things of the law, these people, although not having law, are a law to themselves. 15 They are the very ones who demonstrate the matter of the law to be written in their hearts, while their conscience is bearing witness with them, and by* their own thoughts they are being accused or even excused. 16 This will take place in the day when God through Christ Jesus judges the secret things of mankind,[b] according to the good news I declare.

17 If, now, you are a Jew in name[c] and rely on law and take pride in God, 18 and you know his will and approve of things that are excellent because you are instructed* out of the Law,[d] 19 and you are convinced that you are a guide of the blind, a light for those in darkness, 20 a corrector of the unreasonable ones, a teacher of young children, and having the framework of the knowledge and of the truth in the Law— 21 do you, however, the one teaching someone else, not teach yourself?[e] You, the one preaching, "Do not steal,"[f] do you steal? 22 You, the one saying, "Do not commit adultery,"[g] do you commit adultery? You, the one abhorring idols, do you rob temples? 23 You who take pride in law, do you dishonor God by your transgressing of the Law? 24 For "the name of God is being blasphemed among the nations because of you," just as it is written.[h]

25 Circumcision[i] is, in fact, of benefit only if you practice law;[j] but if you are a transgressor of law, your circumcision has become uncircumcision. 26 If, therefore, an uncircumcised person[a] keeps the righteous requirements of the Law, his uncircumcision will be counted as circumcision, will it not?[b] 27 And the physically uncircumcised person will, by carrying out the Law, judge you who are a transgressor of law despite having its written code and circumcision. 28 For he is not a Jew who is one on the outside,[c] nor is circumcision something on the outside, on the flesh.[d] 29 But he is a Jew who is one on the inside,[e] and his circumcision is that of the heart[f] by spirit and not by a written code.[g] That person's praise comes from God, not from people.[h]

3 What, then, is the advantage of the Jew, or what is the benefit of circumcision? 2 A great deal in every way. First of all, that they were entrusted with the sacred pronouncements of God.[i] 3 What, then, is the case? If some lacked faith, will their lack of faith invalidate the faithfulness of God? 4 Certainly not! But let God be found true,[j] even if every man be found a liar,[k] just as it is written: "That you might be proved righteous in your words and might win when you are being judged."[l] 5 However, if our unrighteousness highlights God's righteousness, what are we to say? God is not unjust when he expresses his wrath, is he? (I am speaking in human terms.) 6 By no means! How, otherwise, will God judge the world?[m]

7 But if by my lie the truth of God has been made more prominent to his glory, why am I also being judged as a sinner? 8 And why not say, just as some men falsely claim that we say, "Let us do bad things that good things may come"? The judgment against those men is in harmony with justice.[n]

9 What then? Are we in a better position? Not at all! For above we have made the charge that Jews as well as Greeks are all under sin;[a] 10 just as it is written: "There is not a righteous man, not even one;[b] 11 there is no one who has any insight; there is no one who searches for God. 12 All men have turned aside, all of them have become worthless; there is no one who shows kindness, not so much as one."[c] 13 "Their throat is an open grave; they have deceived with their tongues."[d] "Venom of asps is behind their lips."[e] 14 "And their mouth is full of cursing and bitterness."[f] 15 "Their feet are swift to shed blood."[g] 16 "Ruin and misery are in their ways, 17 and they have not known the way of peace."[h] 18 "There is no fear of God before their eyes."[i]

19 Now we know that all the things the Law says, it addresses to those under the Law, so that every mouth may be silenced and all the world may become accountable to God for punishment.[j] 20 Therefore, no one* will be declared righteous before him by works of law,[k] for by law comes the accurate knowledge of sin.[l]

21 But now apart from law God's righteousness has been revealed,[m] as the Law and the Prophets bear witness,[n] 22 yes, God's righteousness through the faith in Jesus Christ, for all those having faith. For there is no distinction.[o] 23 For all have sinned and fall short of the glory of God,[p] 24 and it is as a free gift[q] that they are being declared righteous by his undeserved kindness[r] through the release by the ransom paid by Christ Jesus.[s] 25 God presented him as an offering for propiation*[a] through faith in his blood.[b] This was to demonstrate his own righteousness, because God in his forbearance# was forgiving the sins that occurred in the past. 26 This was to demonstrate his own righteousness[c] in this present season, so that he might be righteous even when declaring righteous the man who has faith in Jesus.[d]

27 Where, then, is the boasting? There is no place for it. Through what law? That of works?[e] No indeed, but through the law of faith. 28 For we consider that a man is declared righteous by faith apart from works of law.[f] 29 Or is he the God of the Jews only?[g] Is he not also the God of people of the nations?[h] Yes, also of people of the nations.[i] 30 Since God is one,[j] he will declare circumcised people righteous[k] as a result of faith and uncircumcised people righteous[l] by means of their faith. 31 Do we, then, abolish law by means of our faith? Not at all! On the contrary, we uphold law.[m]

4 That being so, what will we say was gained by Abraham, our forefather according to the flesh? 2 For instance, if Abraham was declared righteous as a result of works, he would have reason to boast, but not with God. 3 For what does the scripture say? "Abraham put faith in Jehovah,* and it was counted to him as righteousness."[n] 4 Now to the man who works, his pay is not counted as an undeserved kindness but as something owed to him.* 5 On the other hand, to the man who does not work but puts faith in the One who declares the ungodly one righteous, his faith is counted as righteousness.[o]

6 Just as David also speaks of the happiness of the man to whom God counts righteousness apart from works: 7 "Happy are those whose lawless deeds have been pardoned and whose sins have been covered;* 8 happy is the man whose sin Jehovah* will by no means take into account."[a]

9 Does this happiness, then, only come to circumcised people or also to uncircumcised people?[b] For we say: "Abraham's faith was counted to him as righteousness."[c] 10 Under what circumstances, then, was it counted as righteousness? When he was circumcised or uncircumcised? He was not yet circumcised but was uncircumcised. 11 And he received a sign[d]—namely, circumcision—as a seal* of the righteousness by the faith he had while in his uncircumcised state, so that he might be the father of all those having faith[e] while uncircumcised, in order for righteousness to be counted to them; 12 and so that he might be a father to circumcised offspring, not only to those who adhere to circumcision but also to those who walk orderly in the footsteps of the faith that our father Abraham[f] had while in the uncircumcised state.

13 For it was not through law that Abraham or his offspring* had the promise that he should be heir of a world,[g] but it was through righteousness by faith.[h] 14 For if those who adhere to law are heirs, faith becomes useless and the promise has been abolished. 15 In reality the Law produces wrath,[i] but where there is no law, neither is there any transgression.[j]

16 That is why it is through faith, so that it might be according to undeserved kindness,[a] in order for the promise to be sure to all his offspring,[b] not only to those who adhere to the Law but also to those who adhere to the faith of Abraham, who is the father of us all.[c] 17 (This is just as it is written: "I have appointed you a father of many nations.")[d] This was in the sight of God, in whom he had faith, who makes the dead alive and calls the things that are not as though they are. 18 Although beyond hope, yet based on hope, he had faith that he would become the father of many nations according to what had been said: "So your offspring* will be."[e] 19 And although he did not grow weak in faith, he considered his own body, now as good as dead (since he was about 100 years old),[f] as well as the deadness* of the womb of Sarah.[g] 20 But because of the promise of God, he did not waver in a lack of faith; but he became powerful by his faith, giving God glory 21 and being fully convinced that what He had promised He was also able to do.[h] 22 Therefore, "it was counted to him as righteousness."[i]

23 However, the words "it was counted to him" were not written for his sake only,[j] 24 but also for our sake, to whom it will be counted, because we believe in Him who raised Jesus our Lord up from the dead.[k] 25 He was handed over for the sake of our trespasses[l] and was raised up for the sake of declaring us righteous.[m]

peace* with God through our Lord Jesus Christ,[a] 2 through whom we also have obtained access by faith into this undeserved kindness in which we now stand;[b] and let us rejoice,* based on hope of the glory of God. 3 Not only that, but let us rejoice* while in tribulations,[c] since we know that tribulation produces endurance;[d] 4 endurance, in turn, an approved condition;[e] the approved condition, in turn, hope,[f] 5 and the hope does not lead to disappointment;[g] because the love of God has been poured out into our hearts through the holy spirit, which was given to us.[h]

6 For, indeed, while we were still weak,[i] Christ died for ungodly men at the appointed time. 7 For hardly would anyone die for a righteous man; though perhaps for a good man someone may dare to die. 8 But God recommends his own love to us in that, while we were yet sinners, Christ died for us.[j] 9 Much more, then, since we have now been declared righteous by his blood,[k] will we be saved through him from wrath.[l] 10 For if when we were enemies we became reconciled to God through the death of his Son,[m] how much more we will be saved by his life, now that we have become reconciled. 11 Not only that, but we are also rejoicing in God through our Lord Jesus Christ, through whom we have now received the reconciliation.[n]

12 That is why, just as through one man sin entered into the world and death through sin,[o] and so death spread to all men because they had all sinned[p]—. 13 For sin was in the world before the Law, but sin is not charged against anyone when there is no law.[q] 14 Nevertheless, death ruled as king from Adam down to Moses, even over those who had not sinned in the same way that Adam transgressed, who bears a resemblance to the one who was to come.[a]

15 But the gift is not like the trespass. For if by one man's trespass many died, how much more did the undeserved kindness of God and his free gift by the undeserved kindness of the one man,[b] Jesus Christ, abound* to many![c] 16 Also, it is not the same with the free gift as with the way things worked through the one man who sinned.[d] For the judgment after one trespass was condemnation,[e] but the gift after many trespasses was a declaration of righteousness.[f] 17 For if by the trespass of the one man death ruled as king through that one,[g] how much more will those who receive the abundance of the undeserved kindness and of the free gift of righteousness[h] rule as kings[i] in life through the one person, Jesus Christ![j]

18 So, then, as through one trespass the result to men of all sorts was condemnation,[k] so too through one act of justification the result to men of all sorts[l] is their being declared righteous for life.[m] 19 For just as through the disobedience of the one man many were made sinners,[n] so also through the obedience of the one person many will be made righteous.[o] 20 Now the Law came on the scene so that trespassing might increase.[p] But where sin abounded, undeserved kindness abounded still more. 21 To what end? So that just as sin ruled as king with death,[q] so also undeserved kindness might rule as king through righteousness leading to everlasting life through Jesus Christ our Lord.[a]

6 What are we to say then? Should we continue in sin so that undeserved kindness may increase? 2 Certainly not! Seeing that we died with reference to sin,[b] how can we keep living any longer in it?[c] 3 Or do you not know that all of us who were baptized into Christ Jesus[d] were baptized into his death?[e] 4 So we were buried with him through our baptism into his death,[f] in order that just as Christ was raised up from the dead through the glory of the Father, so we also should walk in a newness of life.[g] 5 If we have become united with him in the likeness of his death,[h] we will certainly also be united with him in the likeness of his resurrection.[i] 6 For we know that our old personality was nailed to the stake along with him[j] in order for our sinful body to be made powerless,[k] so that we should no longer go on being slaves to sin.[l] 7 For the one who has died has been acquitted* from his sin.

8 Moreover, if we have died with Christ, we believe that we will also live with him. 9 For we know that Christ, now that he has been raised up from the dead,[m] dies no more;[n] death is no longer master over him. 10 For the death that he died, he died with reference to sin* once for all time,[o] but the life that he lives, he lives with reference to God. 11 Likewise you, consider yourselves to be dead with reference to sin but living with reference to God by Christ Jesus.[p]

12 Therefore, do not let sin continue to rule as king in your mortal bodies[q] so that you should obey their desires. 13 Neither go on presenting your bodies* to sin as weapons of unrighteousness, but present yourselves to God as those alive from the dead, also your bodies* to God as weapons of righteousness.[a] 14 For sin must not be master over you, seeing that you are not under law[b] but under undeserved kindness.[c]

15 What follows? Are we to commit a sin because we are not under law but under undeserved kindness?[d] Certainly not! 16 Do you not know that if you present yourselves to anyone as obedient slaves, you are slaves of the one you obey,[e] either of sin[f] leading to death[g] or of obedience leading to righteousness? 17 But thanks to God that although you were once the slaves of sin, you became obedient from the heart to that pattern of teaching to which you were handed over. 18 Yes, since you were set free from sin,[h] you became slaves to righteousness.[i] 19 I am speaking in human terms because of the weakness of your flesh; for just as you presented your members as slaves to uncleanness and lawlessness leading to lawlessness, so now present your members as slaves to righteousness leading to holiness.[j] 20 For when you were slaves of sin, you were free as to righteousness.

21 What, then, was the fruit that you used to produce at that time? Things of which you are now ashamed. For the end of those things is death.[k] 22 However, now that you were set free from sin and became slaves to God, you are producing your fruit in the way of holiness,[l] and the end is everlasting life.[m] 23 For the wages sin pays is death,[n] but the gift God gives is everlasting life[o] by Christ Jesus our Lord.[p]

7 Can it be that you do not know, brothers, (for I am speaking to those who know law) that the Law is master over a man as long as he lives? 2 For instance, a married woman is bound by law to her husband while he is alive; but if her husband dies, she is released from the law of her husband.[a] 3 So, then, while her husband is living, she would be called an adulteress if she became another man's.[b] But if her husband dies, she is free from his law, so that she is not an adulteress if she becomes another man's.[c]

4 So, my brothers, you also were made dead to the Law through the body of the Christ, that you might become another's,[d] the one who was raised up from the dead,[e] so that we should bear fruit to God.[f] 5 For when we were living according to the flesh, the sinful passions that were awakened by the Law were at work in our bodies* to produce fruit for death.[g] 6 But now we have been released from the Law,[h] because we have died to that which restrained us, in order that we might be slaves in a new sense by the spirit[i] and not in the old sense by the written code.[j]

7 What, then, are we to say? Is the Law sin? Certainly not! Really, I would not have come to know sin had it not been for the Law.[k] For example, I would not have known covetousness if the Law had not said: "You must not covet."[l] 8 But sin, finding the opportunity afforded by the commandment, worked out in me covetousness of every sort, for apart from law sin was dead.[m] 9 In fact, I was once alive apart from law. But when the commandment arrived, sin came to life again, but I died.[n] 10 And the commandment that was to lead to life,[a] this I found led to death. 11 For sin, finding the opportunity afforded by the commandment, seduced me and killed me through it. 12 So the Law in itself is holy, and the commandment is holy and righteous and good.[b]

13 Therefore, did what is good result in my death? Certainly not! But sin did, that it might be shown to be sin working out death in me through what is good,[c] so that through the commandment sin might become far more sinful.[d] 14 For we know that the Law is spiritual, but I am fleshly, sold under sin.[e] 15 For I do not understand what I am doing. For I do not practice what I wish, but I do what I hate. 16 However, if I do what I do not wish, I agree that the Law is fine. 17 But now I am no longer the one doing it, but it is the sin that resides in me.[f] 18 For I know that in me, that is, in my flesh, there dwells nothing good; for I have the desire to do what is fine but not the ability to carry it out.[g] 19 For I do not do the good that I wish, but the bad that I do not wish is what I practice. 20 If, then, I do what I do not wish, I am no longer the one carrying it out, but it is the sin dwelling in me.

21 I find, then, this law in my case: When I wish to do what is right, what is bad is present with me.[h] 22 I really delight in the law of God according to the man I am within,[i] 23 but I see in my body* another law warring against the law of my mind[j] and leading me captive to sin's law[k] that is in my body.* 24 Miserable man that I am! Who will rescue me from the body undergoing this death? 25 Thanks to God through Jesus Christ our Lord! So, then, with my mind I myself am a slave to God's law, but with my flesh to sin's law.[l]

8 Therefore, those in union with Christ Jesus have no condemnation. 2 For the law of the spirit that gives life in union with Christ Jesus has set you free[a] from the law of sin and of death. 3 What the Law was incapable of doing[b] because it was weak[c] through the flesh, God did by sending his own Son[d] in the likeness of sinful flesh[e] and concerning sin, condemned sin in the flesh, 4 so that the righteous requirement of the Law might be fulfilled in us[f] who walk, not according to the flesh, but according to the spirit.[g] 5 For those who live according to the flesh set their minds on the things of the flesh,[h] but those who live according to the spirit, on the things of the spirit.[i] 6 For setting the mind on the flesh means death,[j] but setting the mind on the spirit means life and peace;[k] 7 because setting the mind on the flesh means enmity with God,[l] for it is not in subjection to the law of God, nor, in fact, can it be. 8 So those who are in harmony with the flesh cannot please God.

9 However, you are in harmony, not with the flesh, but with the spirit,[m] if God's spirit truly dwells in you. But if anyone does not have Christ's spirit, this person does not belong to him. 10 But if Christ is in union with you,[n] the body is dead because of sin, but the spirit is life because of righteousness. 11 If, now, the spirit of him who raised up Jesus from the dead dwells in you, the one who raised up Christ Jesus from the dead[o] will also make your mortal bodies alive[p] through his spirit that resides in you.

12 So, then, brothers, we are under obligation, not to the flesh to live according to the flesh;[q] 13 for if you live according to the flesh, you are sure to die; but if you put the practices of the body to death[a] by the spirit, you will live.[b] 14 For all who are led by God's spirit are indeed God's sons.[c] 15 For you did not receive a spirit of slavery causing fear again, but you received a spirit of adoption as sons, by which spirit we cry out: "Abba,* Father!"[d] 16 The spirit itself bears witness with our spirit[e] that we are God's children.[f] 17 If, then, we are children, we are also heirs—heirs indeed of God, but joint heirs[g] with Christ—provided we suffer together[h] so that we may also be glorified together.[i]

18 For I consider that the sufferings of the present time do not amount to anything in comparison with the glory that is going to be revealed in us.[j] 19 For the creation is waiting with eager expectation for the revealing of the sons of God.[k] 20 For the creation was subjected to futility,[l] not by its own will, but through the one who subjected it, on the basis of hope 21 that the creation itself will also be set free[m] from enslavement to corruption and have the glorious freedom of the children of God. 22 For we know that all creation keeps on groaning together and being in pain together until now. 23 Not only that, but we ourselves also who have the firstfruits, namely, the spirit, yes, we ourselves groan within ourselves[n] while we are earnestly waiting for adoption as sons,[o] the release from our bodies by ransom. 24 For we were saved in this hope; but hope that is seen is not hope, for when a man sees a thing, does he hope for it? 25 But if we hope[p] for what we do not see,[q] we keep eagerly waiting for it with endurance.[r]

our weakness;[a] for the problem is that we do not know what we should pray for as we need to, but the spirit itself pleads for us with unuttered* groanings. 27 But the one who searches the hearts[b] knows what the meaning of the spirit is, because it is pleading in harmony with God for the holy ones.

28 We know that God makes all his works cooperate together for the good of those who love God, those who are the ones called according to his purpose;[c] 29 because those whom he gave his first recognition he also foreordained to be patterned after the image of his Son,[d] so that he might be the firstborn[e] among many brothers.[f] 30 Moreover, those whom he foreordained[g] are the ones he also called;[h] and those whom he called are the ones he also declared to be righteous.[i] Finally those whom he declared righteous are the ones he also glorified.[j]

31 What, then, are we to say about these things? If God is for us, who will be against us?[k] 32 Since he did not even spare his own Son but handed him over for us all,[l] will he not also, along with him, kindly give us all other things? 33 Who will file accusation against God's chosen ones?[m] God is the One who declares them righteous.[n] 34 Who will condemn them? Christ Jesus is the one who died, yes, more than that the one who was raised up, who is at the right hand of God[o] and who also pleads for us.[p]

35 Who will separate us from the love of the Christ?[q] Will tribulation or distress or persecution or hunger or nakedness or danger or sword?[r] 36 Just as it is written: "For your sake we are being put to death all day long; we have been accounted as sheep for slaughtering."[a] 37 On the contrary, in all these things we are coming off completely victorious[b] through the one who loved us. 38 For I am convinced that neither death nor life nor angels nor governments nor things now here nor things to come nor powers[c] 39 nor height nor depth nor any other creation will be able to separate us from God's love that is in Christ Jesus our Lord.

9 I am telling the truth in Christ; I am not lying, as my conscience bears witness with me in holy spirit, 2 that I have great grief and unceasing pain in my heart. 3 For I could wish that I myself were separated from the Christ as the cursed one for the sake of my brothers, my relatives according to the flesh, 4 who are Israelites. To them belong the adoption as sons[d] and the glory and the covenants[e] and the giving of the Law[f] and the sacred service[g] and the promises.[h] 5 To them the forefathers belong,[i] and from them the Christ descended according to the flesh.[j] God, who is over all, be praised forever. Amen.

6 However, it is not as though the word of God has failed. For not all who descend from Israel are really "Israel."[k] 7 Neither are they all children because they are Abraham's offspring;[l] rather, "What will be called your offspring will be through Isaac."[m] 8 That is, the children in the flesh are not really the children of God,[n] but the children by the promise[o] are counted as the offspring.* 9 For the word of promise was as follows: "At this time I will come and Sarah will have a son."[p] 10 Not only then but also when Rebek'ah conceived twins from the one man, Isaac our fore-father;[a] 11 for when they had not yet been born and had not practiced anything good or bad, so that God's purpose respecting the choosing might continue dependent, not on works, but on the One who calls, 12 it was said to her: "The older will be the slave of the younger."[b] 13 Just as it is written: "I loved Jacob, but E′sau I hated."[c]

14 What are we to say, then? Is there injustice with God? Certainly not![d] 15 For he says to Moses: "I will show mercy to whomever I will show mercy, and I will show compassion to whomever I will show compassion."[e] 16 So, then, it depends, not on a person's desire or on his effort,* but on God, who has mercy.[f] 17 For the scripture says to Phar′aoh: "For this very reason I have let you remain: to show my power in connection with you and to have my name declared in all the earth."[g] 18 So, then, he has mercy on whomever he wishes, but he lets whomever he wishes become obstinate.[h]

19 You will therefore say to me: "Why does he still find fault? For who has withstood his will?" 20 But who are you, O man, to be answering back to God?[i] Does the thing molded say to its molder: "Why did you make me this way?"[j] 21 What? Does not the potter have authority over the clay[k] to make from the same lump one vessel for an honorable use, another for a dishonorable use? 22 What, then, if God had the will to demonstrate his wrath and to make his power known, and he tolerated with much patience vessels of wrath made fit for destruction? 23 And if this was done to make known the riches of his glory on vessels of mercy,[l] which he prepared beforehand for glory, 24 namely, us, whom he called not only from among Jews but also from among nations,[a] what of it? 25 It is as he says also in Ho·se′a: "Those not my people[b] I will call 'my people,' and her who was not loved, 'beloved';[c] 26 and in the place where it was said to them, 'You are not my people,' there they will be called 'sons of the living God.'"[d]

27 Moreover, Isaiah cries out concerning Israel: "Although the number of the sons of Israel may be as the sand of the sea, only the remnant will be saved.[e] 28 For Jehovah* will make an accounting on the earth, concluding it and cutting it short."#[f] 29 Also, just as Isaiah foretold: "Unless Jehovah* of armies had left an offspring# to us, we should have become just like Sod′om, and we should have resembled Go·mor′rah."[g]

30 What are we to say, then? That people of the nations, although not pursuing righteousness, attained righteousness,[h] the righteousness that results from faith;[i] 31 but Israel, although pursuing a law of righteousness, did not attain to that law. 32 For what reason? Because they pursued it, not by faith, but as by works. They stumbled over the "stone of stumbling";[j] 33 as it is written: "Look! I am laying in Zion a stone[k] of stumbling and a rock of offense, but the one who rests his faith on it will not be disappointed."[l]

10 Brothers, the goodwill of my heart and my supplication to God for them are indeed for their salvation.[m] 2 For I bear them witness that they have a zeal for God,[n] but not according to accurate knowledge. 3 For because of not knowing the righteousness of God[a] but seeking to establish their own,[b] they did not subject themselves to the righteousness of God.[c] 4 For Christ is the end of the Law,[d] so that everyone exercising faith may have righteousness.[e]

5 For Moses writes about the righteousness that is by the Law: "The man who does these things will live by means of them."[f] 6 But the righteousness resulting from faith says: "Do not say in your heart,[g] 'Who will ascend into heaven?'[h] that is, to bring Christ down, 7 or, 'Who will descend into the abyss?'[i] that is, to bring Christ up from the dead." 8 But what does it say? "The word is near you, in your own mouth and in your own heart";[j] that is, "the word" of faith, which we are preaching. 9 For if you publicly declare with your mouth that Jesus is Lord,[k] and exercise faith in your heart that God raised him up from the dead, you will be saved. 10 For with the heart one exercises faith for righteousness, but with the mouth one makes public declaration[l] for salvation.

11 For the scripture says: "No one who rests his faith on him will be disappointed."[m] 12 For there is no distinction between Jew and Greek.[n] There is the same Lord over all, who is rich* toward all those calling on him. 13 For "everyone who calls on the name of Jehovah* will be saved."[o] 14 However, how will they call on him if they have not put faith in him? How, in turn, will they put faith in him about whom they have not heard? How, in turn, will they hear without someone to preach? 15 How, in turn, will they preach unless they have been sent out?[p] Just as it is written: "How beautiful are the feet of those who declare good news of good things!"[a]

16 Nevertheless, they did not all obey the good news. For Isaiah says: "Jehovah,* who has put faith in the thing heard from us?"[#b] 17 So faith follows the thing heard.[c] In turn, what is heard is through the word about Christ. 18 But I ask, They did not fail to hear, did they? Why, in fact, "into all the earth their sound went out, and to the ends of the inhabited earth their message."[d] 19 But I ask, Israel did not fail to know, did they?[e] First Moses says: "I will incite you to jealousy through that which is not a nation; I will incite you to violent anger through a foolish nation."[f] 20 But Isaiah becomes very bold and says: "I was found by those who were not seeking me;[g] I became known to those who were not asking for me."[h] 21 But he says regarding Israel: "All day long I have spread out my hands toward a disobedient and obstinate people."[i]

11 I ask, then, God did not reject his people, did he?[j] By no means! For I too am an Israelite, of the offspring* of Abraham, from the tribe of Benjamin. 2 God did not reject his people, whom he first recognized.[k] Do you not know what the scripture says in connection with E·li′jah, as he pleads with God against Israel? 3 "Jehovah,* they have killed your prophets, they have dug up your altars, and I alone am left, and now they are trying to take my life."[#l] 4 Yet, what does the divine pronouncement say to him? "I have left for myself 7,000 men who have not bent the knee to Ba′al."[m] 5 So in the same way, at the present time also, there is a remnant[n] according to a choosing through undeserved kindness. 6 Now if it is by undeserved kindness,[a] it is no longer through works;[b] otherwise, the undeserved kindness would no longer be undeserved kindness.

7 What, then? The very thing Israel is earnestly seeking he did not obtain, but the ones chosen obtained it.[c] The rest had their senses dulled,[d] 8 just as it is written: "God has given them a spirit of deep sleep,[e] eyes that do not see and ears that do not hear, down to this very day."[f] 9 Also, David says: "Let their table become a snare and a trap and a stumbling block and a retribution for them. 10 Let their eyes become darkened so that they cannot see, and always make them bend their backs."[g]

11 So I ask, They did not stumble and fall completely, did they? Certainly not! But by their false step, there is salvation to people of the nations, to incite them to jealousy.[h] 12 Now if their false step means riches to the world and their decrease means riches to people of the nations,[i] how much more will their full number mean!

13 Now I speak to you who are people of the nations. Seeing that I am an apostle to the nations,[j] I glorify* my ministry[k] 14 to see if I may in some way incite my own people* to jealousy and save some from among them. 15 For if their being cast away[l] means reconciliation for the world, what will the acceptance of them mean but life from the dead? 16 Further, if the part of the dough taken as firstfruits is holy, the entire batch is also holy; and if the root is holy, the branches are also.

17 However, if some of the branches were broken off and you, although being a wild olive, were grafted in among them and became a sharer of the richness of the olive's root, 18 do not be arrogant toward* the branches. If, though, you are arrogant toward* them,[a] remember that it is not you who bears the root, but the root bears you. 19 You will say, then: "Branches were broken off so that I might be grafted in."[b] 20 That is true! For their lack of faith, they were broken off,[c] but you are standing by faith.[d] Do not be haughty, but be in fear. 21 For if God did not spare the natural branches, neither will he spare you. 22 Consider, therefore, God's kindness[e] and severity. There is severity toward those who fell,[f] but toward you there is God's kindness, provided you remain in his kindness; otherwise, you too will be lopped off. 23 And they also, if they do not remain in their lack of faith, will be grafted in,[g] for God is able to graft them back in. 24 For if you were cut out of the olive tree that is wild by nature and were grafted contrary to nature into the garden olive tree, how much more will these who are natural branches be grafted back into their own olive tree!

25 For I do not want you to be unaware of this sacred secret,[h] brothers, so that you do not become wise in your own eyes: A partial dulling of senses has come upon Israel until the full number of people of the nations has come in, 26 and in this manner all Israel[i] will be saved. Just as it is written: "The deliverer* will come out of Zion[j] and turn away ungodly practices from Jacob. 27 And this is my covenant with them,[k] when I take their sins away."[l] 28 True, with respect to the good news, they are enemies for your sakes; but with respect to God's choosing, they are beloved for the sake of their forefathers.[a] 29 For the gifts and the calling of God are not things he will regret. 30 For just as you were once disobedient to God[b] but have now been shown mercy[c] because of their disobedience,[d] 31 so also these now have been disobedient with mercy resulting to you, so that they themselves may also now be shown mercy. 32 For God has confined all of them together in disobedience[e] so that he might show all of them mercy.[f]

33 O the depth of God's riches and wisdom and knowledge! How unsearchable his judgments are and beyond tracing out his ways are! 34 For "who has come to know Jehovah's* mind, or who has become his adviser?"[g] 35 Or, "who has first given to him, so that it must be repaid to him?"[h] 36 Because from him and by him and for him are all things. To him be the glory forever. Amen.

12 Therefore, I appeal to you by the compassions of God, brothers, to present your bodies[i] as a living sacrifice, holy[j] and acceptable to God, a sacred service with your power of reason.[k] 2 And stop being molded by this system of things,* but be transformed by making your mind over,[l] so that you may prove to yourselves[m] the good and acceptable and perfect will of God.

3 For through the undeserved kindness given to me, I tell everyone there among you not to think more of himself than it is necessary to think,[n] but to think so as to have a sound mind, each one as God has given* to him a measure of faith.[a] 4 For just as we have in one body many members,[b] but the members do not all have the same function, 5 so we, although many, are one body in union with Christ, but individually we are members belonging to one another.[c] 6 Since, then, we have gifts that differ according to the undeserved kindness given to us,[d] if it is of prophecy, let us prophesy in proportion to our faith; 7 or if it is a ministry, let us be at this ministry; or the one who teaches, let him be at his teaching;[e] 8 or the one who encourages,* let him give encouragement;[#f] the one who distributes,[△] let him do it liberally;[g] the one who presides,[▫] let him do it diligently;[□h] the one who shows mercy, let him do it cheerfully.[i]

9 Let your love be without hypocrisy.[j] Abhor what is wicked;[k] cling to what is good. 10 In brotherly love have tender affection for one another. In showing honor to one another, take the lead.[l] 11 Be industrious,[#] not lazy.[△m] Be aglow with the spirit.[n] Slave for Jehovah.[o] 12 Rejoice in the hope. along with the lowly things.[a] Do not become wise in your own eyes.[b]

17 Return evil for evil to no one.[c] Take into consideration what is fine from the viewpoint of* all men. 18 If possible, as far as it depends on you, be peaceable with all men.[d] 19 Do not avenge yourselves, beloved, but yield place to the wrath;[e] for it is written: "'Vengeance is mine; I will repay,' says Jehovah."#[f] 20 But "if your enemy is hungry, feed him; if he is thirsty, give him something to drink; for by doing this you will heap fiery coals on his head."[g] 21 Do not let yourself be conquered by the evil, but keep conquering the evil with the good.[h]

13 Let every person* be in subjection to the superior authorities,[i] for there is no authority except by God;[j] the existing authorities stand placed in their relative positions by God.[k] 2 Therefore, whoever opposes the authority has taken a stand against the arrangement of God; those who have taken a stand against it will bring judgment against themselves. 3 For those rulers are an object of fear, not to the good deed, but to the bad.[l] Do you want to be free of fear of the authority? Keep doing good,[m] and you will have praise from it; 4 for it is God's minister to you for your good. But if you are doing what is bad, be in fear, for it is not without purpose that it bears the sword. It is God's minister, an avenger to express wrath* against the one practicing what is bad.

5 There is therefore compelling reason for you to be in subjection, not only on account of that wrath but also on account of your conscience.[a] 6 That is why you are also paying taxes; for they are God's public servants constantly serving this very purpose. 7 Render to all their dues: to the one who calls for the tax, the tax;[b] to the one who calls for the tribute, the tribute; to the one who calls for fear, such fear;[c] to the one who calls for honor, such honor.[d]

8 Do not owe anything to anyone except to love one another;[e] for whoever loves his fellow man has fulfilled the law.[f] 9 For the law code, "You must not commit adultery,[g] you must not murder,[h] you must not steal,[i] you must not covet,"[j] and whatever other commandment there is, is summed up in this saying: "You must love your neighbor as yourself."[k] 10 Love does not work evil to one's neighbor;[l] therefore, love is the law's fulfillment.[m]

11 And do this because you know the season, that it is already the hour for you to awake from sleep,[n] for now our salvation is nearer than at the time when we became believers. 12 The night is well along; the day has drawn near. Let us therefore throw off the works belonging to darkness[o] and let us put on the weapons of the light.[p] 13 Let us walk decently[q] as in the daytime, not in wild parties* and drunkenness, not in immoral intercourse and brazen conduct,#[r] not in strife and jealousy.[s] 14 But put on the Lord Jesus Christ,[t] and do not be planning ahead for the desires of the flesh.[u] has faith to eat everything, but the man who is weak eats only vegetables. 3 Let the one eating not look down on the one not eating, and let the one not eating not judge the one eating,[a] for God has welcomed him. 4 Who are you to judge the servant of another?[b] To his own master he stands or falls.[c] Indeed, he will be made to stand, for Jehovah* can make him stand.

5 One man judges one day as above another;[d] another judges one day the same as all others;[e] let each one be fully convinced in his own mind. 6 The one who observes the day observes it to Jehovah.* Also, the one who eats, eats to Jehovah,* for he gives thanks to God;[f] and the one who does not eat does not eat to Jehovah,* and yet gives thanks to God.[g] 7 Not one of us, in fact, lives with regard to himself only,[h] and no one dies with regard to himself only. 8 For if we live, we live to Jehovah,[i] and if we die, we die to Jehovah. So both if we live and if we die, we belong to Jehovah.*[j] 9 For to this end Christ died and came to life again, so that he might be Lord over both the dead and the living.[k]

10 But why do you judge your brother?[l] Or why do you also look down on your brother? For we will all stand before the judgment seat of God.[m] 11 For it is written: "'As surely as I live,'[n] says Jehovah,* 'to me every knee will bend, and every tongue will make open acknowledgment to God.'"[o] 12 So, then, each of us will render an account for himself to God.[p]

13 Therefore, let us not judge one another any longer[q] but, rather, be determined not to put a stumbling block or an obstacle before a brother.[r] 14 I know and am convinced in the Lord Jesus that nothing is unclean in itself;[a] only where a man considers something to be unclean, to him it is unclean. 15 For if your brother is being offended because of food, you are no longer walking according to love.[b] Do not by your food ruin* that one for whom Christ died.[c] 16 Therefore, do not let the good you do be spoken of as bad. 17 For the Kingdom of God does not mean eating and drinking,[d] but means righteousness and peace and joy with holy spirit. 18 For whoever slaves for Christ in this way is acceptable to God and has approval with men.

19 So, then, let us pursue the things making for peace[e] and the things that build one another up.[f] 20 Stop tearing down the work of God just for the sake of food.[g] True, all things are clean, but it is detrimental for* a man to eat when it will cause stumbling.[h] 21 It is best not to eat meat or drink wine or do anything over which your brother stumbles.[i] 22 The faith that you have, keep it to yourself before God. Happy is the man who does not judge himself by what he approves. 23 But if he has doubts, he is already condemned if he eats, because he does not eat based on faith. Indeed, everything that is not based on faith is sin.

15 We, though, who are strong ought to bear the weaknesses of those not strong,[j] and not to be pleasing ourselves.[k] 2 Let each of us please his neighbor for his good, to build him up.[l] 3 For even the Christ did not please himself,[m] but just as it is written: "The reproaches of those reproaching you have fallen upon me."[n] 4 For all the things that were written beforehand were written for our instruction,[a] so that through our endurance[b] and through the comfort from the Scriptures we might have hope.[c] 5 Now may the God who supplies endurance and comfort grant you to have among yourselves the same mental attitude that Christ Jesus had, 6 so that unitedly[d] you may with one voice* glorify the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ.

7 So welcome* one another,[e] just as the Christ also welcomed you,[f] with glory to God in view. 8 For I tell you that Christ became a minister of those who are circumcised[g] in behalf of God's truthfulness, so as to verify the promises He made to their forefathers,[h] 9 and that the nations might glorify God for his mercy.[i] Just as it is written: "That is why I will openly acknowledge you among the nations, and to your name I will sing praises."[j] 10 And again he says: "Be glad, you nations, with his people."[k] 11 And again: "Praise Jehovah,* all you nations, and let all the peoples praise him."[l] 12 And again Isaiah says: "There will be the root of Jes'se,[m] the one arising to rule nations;[n] on him nations will rest their hope."[o] 13 May the God who gives hope fill you with all joy and peace by your trusting in him, so that you may abound* in hope with power of holy spirit.[p]

14 Now I myself am convinced about you, my brothers, that you yourselves are also full of goodness, filled with all knowledge, and that you are able to admonish* one another. 15 However, I have written to you more outspokenly on some points, so as to give you another reminder, because of the undeserved kindness given to me from God 16 for me to be a public servant of Christ Jesus to the nations.[a] I am engaging in the holy work of the good news of God,[b] so that these nations might be an acceptable offering, sanctified with holy spirit.

17 So I have reason to exult in Christ Jesus over the things pertaining to God. 18 For I will not presume to speak about anything except what Christ has done through me in order for the nations to be obedient, by my word and deed, 19 with the power of signs and wonders,*[c] with the power of God's spirit, so that from Jerusalem and in a circuit as far as Il·lyr'i·cum I have thoroughly preached the good news about the Christ.[d] 20 In this way, indeed, I made it my aim not to declare the good news where the name of Christ had already been made known, so as not to build on another man's foundation; 21 but just as it is written: "Those who received no report about him will see, and those who have not heard will understand."[e]

22 This is also why I was many times hindered from coming to you. 23 But now I no longer have untouched territory in these regions, and for many* years I have longed to come to you. 24 Therefore, when I journey to Spain, I hope that I will see you and be accompanied partway there by you after I have first enjoyed your company for a time. 25 But now I am about to travel to Jerusalem to minister to the holy ones.[f] 26 For those in Mac·e·do'ni·a and A·cha'ia have been pleased to share their things by a contribution to the poor among the holy ones in Jerusalem.[g] 27 True, they have been pleased to do so, and indeed they were debtors to them; for if the nations have shared in their spiritual things, they also owe it to minister to them with their material things.[a] 28 So after I have finished with this and have delivered this contribution* securely to them, I will depart by way of you for Spain. 29 Moreover, I know that when I do come to you, I will come with a full measure of blessing from Christ.

30 Now I urge you, brothers, through our Lord Jesus Christ and through the love of the spirit, that you exert yourselves with me in prayers to God for me,[b] 31 that I may be rescued[c] from the unbelievers in Ju·de′a and that my ministry in behalf of Jerusalem may prove to be acceptable to the holy ones,[d] 32 so that by God's will I will come to you with joy and be refreshed together with you. 33 May the God who gives peace be with all of you.[e] Amen.

16 I am introducing* to you Phoe′be, our sister, who is a minister of the congregation that is in Cen′chre·ae,[f] 2 so that you may welcome her in the Lord in a way worthy of the holy ones and give her whatever help she may need,[g] for she herself also proved to be a defender of many, including me.

3 Give my greetings to Pris′ca and Aq′ui·la,[h] my fellow workers in Christ Jesus, 4 who have risked their own necks for me*[i] and to whom not only I but also all the congregations of the nations give thanks. 5 Also greet the congregation that is in their house.[j] Greet my beloved E·pae′ne·tus, who is a firstfruits of Asia for Christ. 6 Greet Mary, who has worked hard for you. 7 Greet An·dron′i·cus and Ju′nias, my relatives[k] and fellow prisoners, who are men well-known to the apostles and who have been in union with Christ longer than I have.

8 Give my greetings to Ampli·a′tus, my beloved in the Lord. 9 Greet Ur·ba′nus, our fellow worker in Christ, and my beloved Sta′chys. 10 Greet A·pel′les, the approved one in Christ. Greet those from the household of A·ris·tob′u·lus. 11 Greet Hero′di·on, my relative. Greet those from the household of Nar·cis′sus who are in the Lord. 12 Greet Try·phae′na and Try·pho′sa, women who are working hard in the Lord. Greet Per′sis, our beloved one, for she has worked hard in the Lord. 13 Greet Ru′fus, the chosen one in the Lord, and his mother and mine. 14 Greet A·syn′cri·tus, Phle′gon, Her′mes, Pat′ro·bas, Her′mas, and the brothers with them. 15 Greet Phi·lol′o·gus and Julia, Ne′reus and his sister, and O·lym′pas, and all the holy ones with them. 16 Greet one another with a holy kiss. All the congregations of the Christ greet you.

17 Now I urge you, brothers, to keep your eye on those who create divisions and causes for stumbling contrary to the teaching that you have learned, and avoid them.[a] 18 For men of that sort are slaves, not of our Lord Christ, but of their own appetites,* and by smooth talk and flattering speech they seduce the hearts of unsuspecting ones. 19 Your obedience has come to the notice of all, and so I rejoice over you. But I want you to be wise as to what is good, but innocent as to what is evil.[b] 20 For his part, the God who gives peace will crush Satan[c] under your feet shortly. May the undeserved kindness of our Lord Jesus be with you.

1 Paul, called to be an apostle[a] of Christ Jesus by God's will, and Sos'the·nes our brother, 2 to the congregation of God that is in Corinth,[b] to you who have been sanctified in union with Christ Jesus,[c] called to be holy ones, together with all those everywhere who are calling on the name of our Lord Jesus Christ,[d] their Lord and ours:

3 May you have undeserved kindness and peace from God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ.

4 I always thank my God for you in view of the undeserved kindness of God given to you in Christ Jesus; 5 because in everything you have been enriched in him, in full ability to speak and in full knowledge,[e] 6 just as the witness about the Christ[f] has been made firm among you, 7 so that you do not lack in any gift at all, while you are eagerly waiting for the revelation of our Lord Jesus Christ.[g] 8 He will also make you firm to the end so that you may be open to no accusation in the day of our Lord Jesus Christ.[h] 9 God is faithful,[i] by whom you were called into fellowship* with his Son, Jesus Christ our Lord.

10 Now I urge you, brothers, through the name of our Lord Jesus Christ, that you should all speak in agreement and that there should be no divisions among you,[a] but that you may be completely united in the same mind and in the same line of thought.[b] 11 For some from the house of Chlo'e have informed me regarding you, my brothers, that there are dissensions among you. 12 What I mean is this, that each one of you says: "I belong to Paul," "But I to A·pol'los,"[c] "But I to Ce'phas,"* "But I to Christ." 13 Is the Christ divided? Paul was not executed on the stake for you, was he? Or were you baptized in the name of Paul? 14 I thank God that I baptized none of you except Cris'pus[d] and Ga'ius,[e] 15 so that no one may say that you were baptized in my name. 16 Yes, I also baptized the household of Steph'a·nas.[f] As for the rest, I do not know whether I baptized anyone else. 17 For Christ sent me, not to baptize, but to declare the good news;[a] and not with wisdom of speech,* so that the torture stake# of the Christ should not be made useless.

18 For the speech about the torture stake# is foolishness to those who are perishing,[b] but to us who are being saved, it is God's power.[c] 19 For it is written: "I will make the wisdom of the wise men perish, and the intelligence of the intellectuals I will reject."[d] 20 Where is the wise man? Where is the scribe? Where is the debater of this system of things?# Has not God made the wisdom of the world foolish? 21 For since, in the wisdom of God, the world did not get to know God[e] through its wisdom,[f] God was pleased through the foolishness[g] of what is preached to save those believing.

22 For the Jews ask for signs[h] and the Greeks look for wisdom; 23 but we preach Christ executed on the stake, to the Jews a cause for stumbling but to the nations foolishness.[i] 24 However, to those who are called, both Jews and Greeks, Christ is the power of God and the wisdom of God.[j] 25 Because a foolish thing of God is wiser than men, and a weak thing of God is stronger than men.[k]

26 For you see his calling of you, brothers, that there are not many wise in a fleshly way,[l] not many powerful, not many of noble birth,#[m] 27 but God chose the foolish things of the world to put the wise men to shame; and God chose the weak things of the world to put the strong things to shame;[a] 28 and God chose the insignificant things of the world and the things looked down on, the things that are not, to bring to nothing the things that are,[b] 29 so that no one might boast in the sight of God. 30 But it is due to him that you are in union with Christ Jesus, who has become to us wisdom from God, also righteousness[c] and sanctification[d] and release by ransom,[e] 31 so that it may be just as it is written: "The one who boasts, let him boast in Jehovah."*[f]

2 So when I came to you, brothers, I did not come with extravagant speech[g] or wisdom declaring the sacred secret[h] of God to you. 2 For I decided not to know anything among you except Jesus Christ, and him executed on the stake.[i] 3 And I came to you in weakness and in fear and with much trembling; 4 and my speech and what I preached were not with persuasive words of wisdom but with a demonstration of spirit and power,[j] 5 so that your faith might be, not in men's wisdom, but in God's power.

6 Now we speak wisdom among those who are mature,[k] but not the wisdom of this system of things# nor that of the rulers of this system of things, who are to come to nothing.[l] 7 But we speak God's wisdom in a sacred secret,[m] the hidden wisdom, which God foreordained before the systems of things for our glory. 8 It is this wisdom that none of the rulers of this system of things# came to know,[n] for if they had known it, they would not have executed* the glorious Lord. 9 But just as it is written: "Eye has not seen and ear has not heard, nor have there been conceived in the heart of man the things that God has prepared for those who love him."[a] 10 For it is to us God has revealed them[b] through his spirit,[c] for the spirit searches into all things, even the deep things of God.[d]

11 For who among men knows the things of a man except the man's spirit within him? So, too, no one has come to know the things of God except the spirit of God. 12 Now we received, not the spirit of the world, but the spirit that is from God,[e] so that we might know the things that have been kindly given us by God. 13 These things we also speak, not with words taught by human wisdom,[f] but with those taught by the spirit,[g] as we explain* spiritual matters with spiritual words.

14 But a physical man does not accept* the things of the spirit of God, for they are foolishness to him; and he cannot get to know them, because they are examined spiritually. 15 However, the spiritual man examines all things,[h] but he himself is not examined by any man. 16 For "who has come to know the mind of Jehovah,* so that he may instruct him?"[i] But we do have the mind of Christ.[j]

3 So, brothers, I was not able to speak to you as to spiritual men,[k] but as to fleshly men, as to infants[l] in Christ. 2 I fed you milk, not solid food, for you were not yet strong enough. In fact, neither are you strong enough now,[m] 3 for you are still fleshly.[n] Since there are jealousy and strife among you, are you not fleshly[o] and are you not walking as men do? 4 For when one says, "I belong to Paul," but another says, "I to A·pol'los,"[a] are you not acting like mere men?

5 What, then, is A·pol'los? Yes, what is Paul? Ministers[b] through whom you became believers, just as the Lord granted each one. 6 I planted,[c] A·pol'los watered,[d] but God kept making it grow, 7 so that neither is the one who plants anything nor is the one who waters, but God who makes it grow.[e] 8 Now the one who plants and the one who waters are one,* but each person will receive his own reward according to his own work.[f] 9 For we are God's fellow workers. You are God's field under cultivation, God's building.[g]

10 According to the undeserved kindness of God that was given to me, I laid a foundation[h] as a skilled master builder,* but someone else is building on it. But let each one keep watching how he is building on it. 11 For no one can lay any other foundation than what is laid, which is Jesus Christ.[i] 12 Now if anyone builds on the foundation gold, silver, precious stones, wood, hay, or straw, 13 each one's work will be shown for what it is,* for the day will show it up, because it will be revealed by means of fire,[j] and the fire itself will prove what sort of work each one has built. 14 If anyone's work that he has built on it remains, he will receive a reward; 15 if anyone's work is burned up, he will suffer loss, but he himself will be saved; yet, if so, it will be as through fire.

16 Do you not know that you yourselves are God's temple[k] and that the spirit of God dwells in you?[l] 17 If anyone destroys the temple of God, God will destroy him; for the temple of God is holy, and you are that temple.[a]

18 Let no one deceive himself: If anyone among you thinks he is wise in this system of things,* let him become a fool, so that he may become wise. 19 For the wisdom of this world is foolishness with God, for it is written: "He catches the wise in their own cunning."[b] 20 And again: "Jehovah* knows that the reasonings of the wise men are futile."[c] 21 So let no one boast in men; for all things belong to you, 22 whether Paul or A·pol'·los or Ce'phas*[d] or the world or life or death or things now here or things to come, all things belong to you; 23 in turn you belong to Christ;[e] Christ, in turn, belongs to God.

4 A man should regard us as attendants* of Christ and stewards of God's sacred secrets.[f] 2 In this regard, what is expected of stewards is that they be found faithful. 3 Now to me it is of very little importance to be examined by you or by a human tribunal.* In fact, I do not even examine myself. 4 For I am not conscious of anything against myself. But by this I am not proved righteous; the one who examines me is Jehovah.*[g] 5 Therefore, do not judge[h] anything before the due time, until the Lord comes. He will bring the secret things of darkness to light and make known the intentions of the hearts, and then each one will receive his praise from God.[i]

6 Now, brothers, these things I have applied* to myself and A·pol'·los[j] for your good, that through us you may learn the rule: "Do not go beyond the things that are written," so that you may not be puffed up with pride,[a] favoring one against the other. 7 For who makes you different from another? Indeed, what do you have that you did not receive?[b] If, in fact, you did receive it, why do you boast as though you did not receive it?

8 Are you already satisfied? Are you already rich? Have you begun ruling as kings[c] without us? I really wish that you had begun ruling as kings, so that we also might rule with you as kings.[d] 9 For it seems to me that God has put us the apostles last on exhibition as men condemned to death,[e] because we have become a theatrical spectacle to the world,[f] and to angels and to men. 10 We are fools[g] because of Christ, but you are discreet in Christ; we are weak, but you are strong; you are held in honor, but we in dishonor. 11 Down to this very hour we continue to hunger[h] and thirst[i] and to be poorly clothed* and to be beaten#[j] and to be homeless 12 and to toil, working with our own hands.[k] When insulted, we bless;[l] when persecuted, we patiently endure;[m] 13 when slandered, we answer mildly;*[n] we have become as the refuse# of the world, the offscouring of all things, until now.

14 I am writing these things, not to put you to shame, but to admonish you as my beloved children. 15 For though you may have 10,000 guardians* in Christ, you certainly do not have many fathers; for in Christ Jesus, I have become your father through the good news.[o] 16 I urge you, therefore, become imitators of me.[p] 17 That is why I am sending Timothy to you, because he is my beloved and faithful child in the Lord. He will remind you of my methods* in connection with Christ Jesus,[a] just as I am teaching everywhere in every congregation.

18 Some are puffed up with pride, as though I were not coming to you. 19 But I will come to you shortly, if Jehovah* wills, and I will get to know, not the speech of those who are puffed up with pride, but their power. 20 For the Kingdom of God is a matter not of speech but of power. 21 Which do you prefer? Shall I come to you with a rod[b] or with love and mildness of spirit?

5 Actually sexual immorality*[c] is reported among you, and such immorality* as is not even found among the nations—of a man living with# his father's wife.[d] 2 And are you proud of it? Should you not rather mourn,[e] so that the man who committed this deed should be taken away from your midst?[f] 3 Although absent in body, I am present in spirit, and I have already judged the man who has done this, as if I were actually with you. 4 When you are gathered together in the name of our Lord Jesus, and knowing that I am with you in spirit along with the power of our Lord Jesus, 5 you must hand such a man over to Satan[g] for the destruction of the flesh, so that the spirit may be saved in the day of the Lord.[h]

6 Your boasting is not good. Do you not know that a little leaven ferments* the whole batch of dough?[i] 7 Clear away the old leaven so that you may be a new batch, inasmuch as you are free from ferment.* For, indeed, Christ our Passover lamb[a] has been sacrificed.[b] 8 So, then, let us keep the festival,[c] not with old leaven, nor with leaven of badness and wickedness, but with unleavened bread of sincerity and truth.

9 In my letter I wrote you to stop keeping company* with sexually immoral people,# 10 not meaning entirely with the sexually immoral people# of this world[d] or the greedy people or extortioners or idolaters. Otherwise, you would actually have to get out of the world.[e] 11 But now I am writing you to stop keeping company*[f] with anyone called a brother who is sexually immoral# or a greedy person[g] or an idolater or a reviler△ or a drunkard[h] or an extortioner,[i] not even eating with such a man. 12 For what do I have to do with judging those outside? Do you not judge those inside, 13 while God judges those outside?[j] "Remove the wicked person from among yourselves."[k]

6 Does any one of you who has a dispute with another[l] dare to go to court before unrighteous men, and not before the holy ones? 2 Or do you not know that the holy ones will judge the world?[m] And if the world is to be judged by you, are you not competent to try very trivial matters? 3 Do you not know that we will judge angels?[n] Then why not matters of this life? 4 If, then, you do have matters of this life to be tried,[o] is it the men looked down on in the congregation whom you assign as judges? 5 I am speaking to move you to shame. Is there not one wise man among you who is able to judge between his brothers? 6 Instead, brother goes to court against brother, and before unbelievers at that!

7 Really, it is already a defeat for you when you have lawsuits with one another. Why not rather let yourselves be wronged?[a] Why do you not rather let yourselves be defrauded? 8 Instead, you wrong and defraud, and your brothers at that!

9 Or do you not know that unrighteous people will not inherit God's Kingdom?[b] Do not be misled.* Those who are sexually immoral,#[c] idolaters,[d] adulterers,[e] men who submit to homosexual acts,[f] men who practice homosexuality,△[g] 10 thieves, greedy people,[h] drunkards,[i] revilers,* and extortioners will not inherit God's Kingdom.[j] 11 And yet that is what some of you were. But you have been washed clean;[k] you have been sanctified;[l] you have been declared righteous[m] in the name of the Lord Jesus Christ and with the spirit of our God.

12 All things are lawful* for me, but not all things are advantageous.[n] All things are lawful for me, but I will not let myself be controlled# by anything. 13 Food is for the stomach and the stomach is for food, but God will bring both of them to nothing.[o] The body is not for sexual immorality* but for the Lord,[p] and the Lord is for the body. 14 But God raised up the Lord[q] and will also raise us up out of death[r] through his power.[s]

15 Do you not know that your bodies are members of Christ?[t] Should I, then, take the members of the Christ away and join them to a prostitute? By no means! 16 Do you not know that anyone who is joined to a prostitute is one body with her? For "the two," says he, "will be one flesh."[a] 17 But whoever is joined to the Lord is one with him in spirit.[b] 18 Flee from sexual immorality!*[c] Every other sin that a man may commit is outside his body, but whoever practices sexual immorality is sinning against his own body.[d] 19 Do you not know that your body is the temple[e] of the holy spirit within you, which you have from God?[f] Also, you do not belong to yourselves,[g] 20 for you were bought with a price.[h] By all means, glorify God[i] in your body.[j]

7 Now concerning the things about which you wrote, it is better for a man not to touch* a woman; 2 but because of the prevalence of sexual immorality,* let each man have his own wife[k] and each woman have her own husband.[l] 3 Let the husband give to his wife her due, and let the wife also do likewise to her husband.[m] 4 The wife does not have authority over her own body, but her husband does; likewise, the husband does not have authority over his own body, but his wife does. 5 Do not deprive each other except by mutual consent for an appointed time, so that you may devote time to prayer and may come together again, in order that Satan may not keep tempting you for your lack of self-control. 6 However, I say this by way of concession, not as a command. 7 But I wish all men were as I am. Nevertheless, each one has his own gift[n] from God, one in this way, another in that way.

as I am.[a] 9 But if they do not have self-control, let them marry, for it is better to marry than to be inflamed with passion.[b]

10 To the married people I give instructions, not I but the Lord, that a wife should not separate from her husband.[c] 11 But if she does separate, let her remain unmarried or else be reconciled with her husband; and a husband should not leave his wife.[d]

12 But to the others I say, yes, I, not the Lord:[e] If any brother has an unbelieving wife and she is agreeable to staying with him, let him not leave her; 13 and if a woman has an unbelieving husband and he is agreeable to staying with her, let her not leave her husband. 14 For the unbelieving husband is sanctified in relation to his wife, and the unbelieving wife is sanctified in relation to the brother; otherwise, your children would be unclean, but now they are holy. 15 But if the unbelieving one chooses to depart,* let him depart; a brother or a sister is not bound under such circumstances, but God has called you to peace.[f] 16 For wife, how do you know whether you will save your husband?[g] Or, husband, how do you know whether you will save your wife?

17 Nevertheless, just as Jehovah* has given each one a portion, let each one so walk as God has called him.[h] And so I give this directive in all the congregations. 18 Was any man already circumcised when he was called?[i] Let him not undo his circumcision. Has any man been called while uncircumcised? Let him not get circumcised.[j] 19 Circumcision means nothing, and uncircumcision means nothing;[k] what means something is the observing of God's commandments.[a] 20 In whatever state each one was called, let him remain in it.[b] 21 Were you called when a slave? Do not let it concern you;[c] but if you can become free, then seize the opportunity. 22 For anyone who was called in the Lord when a slave is the Lord's freedman;[d] likewise anyone who was called when a freeman is a slave of Christ. 23 You were bought with a price;[e] stop becoming slaves of men. 24 In whatever state each one was called, brothers, let him remain in it before God.

25 Now concerning virgins,* I have no command from the Lord, but I give my opinion[f] as one who had mercy shown him by the Lord to be faithful. 26 Therefore, I think that it is best for a man to continue as he is in view of the present difficulty. 27 Are you bound to a wife? Stop seeking a release.[g] Are you freed from a wife? Stop seeking a wife. 28 But even if you did marry, you would commit no sin. And if a virgin married, such a person would commit no sin. However, those who do will have tribulation in their flesh. But I am trying to spare you.

29 Moreover, this I say, brothers, the time left is reduced.[h] From now on, let those who have wives be as though they had none, 30 and those who weep as those who do not weep, and those who rejoice as those who do not rejoice, and those who buy as those who do not possess, 31 and those making use of the world as those not using it to the full; for the scene of this world is changing. 32 Indeed, I want you to be free from anxiety. The unmarried man is anxious for the things of the Lord, how he may gain the Lord's approval. 33 But the married man is anxious for the things of the world,[a] how he may gain the approval of his wife, 34 and he is divided. Further, the unmarried woman, as well as the virgin, is anxious for the things of the Lord,[b] that she may be holy both in her body and in her spirit. However, the married woman is anxious for the things of the world, how she may gain the approval of her husband. 35 But I am saying this for your personal advantage, not to restrict* you, but to move you to what is appropriate and to constant devotion to the Lord without distraction.

36 But if anyone thinks he is behaving improperly by remaining unmarried,* and if he is past the bloom of youth, then this is what should take place: Let him do what he wants; he does not sin. Let them marry.[c] 37 But if anyone stands settled in his heart and has no necessity, but has authority over his own will and has made the decision in his own heart to remain unmarried,* he will do well.[d] 38 So also, whoever marries* does well, but whoever does not marry will do better.[e]

39 A wife is bound as long as her husband is alive.[f] But if her husband should fall asleep in death, she is free to be married to whomever she wants, only in the Lord.[g] 40 But in my opinion, she is happier if she remains as she is; and I certainly think I also have God's spirit.

8 Now concerning food offered to idols:[h] We know we all have knowledge.[i] Knowledge puffs up, but love builds up.[j] 2 If anyone thinks he knows something, he does not yet know it as he should know it. 3 But if anyone loves God, this one is known by him.

4 Now concerning the eating of food offered to idols, we know that an idol is nothing[a] in the world and that there is no God but one.[b] 5 For even though there are so-called gods, whether in heaven or on earth,[c] just as there are many "gods" and many "lords," 6 there is actually to us one God,[d] the Father,[e] from whom all things are and we for him;[f] and there is one Lord, Jesus Christ, through whom all things are[g] and we through him.

7 However, not all have this knowledge.[h] But some, because of their former association with the idol, eat food as something sacrificed to an idol,[i] and their conscience, being weak, is defiled.[j] 8 But food will not bring us nearer to God;[k] we are no worse off if we do not eat, nor better off if we eat.[l] 9 But keep watching that your right to choose does not somehow become a stumbling block to those who are weak.[m] 10 For if anyone should see you who have knowledge having a meal in an idol temple, will not the conscience of that one who is weak be emboldened to the point of eating food offered to idols? 11 So by your knowledge the man who is weak is being ruined, your brother for whose sake Christ died.[n] 12 When you sin against your brothers in this way and wound their weak conscience,[o] you are sinning against Christ. 13 That is why if food makes my brother stumble, I will never again eat meat at all, so that I will not make my brother stumble.[p]

9 Am I not free? Am I not an apostle? Have I not seen Jesus our Lord?[q] Are you not my work in the Lord? 2 Even if I am not an apostle to others, I most certainly am to you! For you are the seal confirming my apostleship in the Lord.

3 My defense to those who examine me is as follows: 4 We have the right* to eat and drink, do we not? 5 We have the right to be accompanied by a believing wife,*[a] as the rest of the apostles and the Lord's brothers[b] and Ce′phas,#[c] do we not? 6 Or is it only Bar′na·bas[d] and I who do not have the right to refrain from working for a living? 7 What soldier ever serves at his own expense? Who plants a vineyard and does not eat of its fruit?[e] Or who shepherds a flock and does not partake of some of the milk of the flock?

8 Am I saying these things from a human viewpoint? Or does not the Law also say these things? 9 For it is written in the Law of Moses: "You must not muzzle a bull when it is threshing out the grain."[f] Is it bulls that God is concerned about? 10 Or is it actually for our sakes that he says it? It was really written for our sakes, because the man who plows and the man who threshes ought to do so in the hope of receiving a share.

11 If we have sown spiritual things among you, is it too much if we reap material support from you?[g] 12 If other men have this rightful claim over you, do we not have it much more so? Nevertheless, we have not made use of this right,*[h] but we are enduring all things so that we might not in any way hinder the good news about the Christ.[i] 13 Do you not know that the men performing sacred duties eat the things of the temple, and that those regularly serving at the altar receive a share from the altar?[a] 14 In this way, too, the Lord commanded for those proclaiming the good news to live by means of the good news.[b]

15 But I have not made use of a single one of these provisions.[c] Indeed, I have not written these things so that this would be done for me, for it would be better to die than—no man will take away my grounds for boasting![d] 16 Now if I am declaring the good news, it is no reason for me to boast, for necessity is laid upon me. Really, woe to me if I do not declare the good news![e] 17 If I do this willingly, I have a reward; but even if I do it against my will, I still have a stewardship entrusted to me.[f] 18 What, then, is my reward? That when I declare the good news, I may offer the good news without cost, to avoid abusing my authority* in the good news.

19 For though I am free from all people, I have made myself the slave to all, so that I may gain as many people as possible. 20 To the Jews I became as a Jew in order to gain Jews;[g] to those under law I became as under law, though I myself am not under law, in order to gain those under law.[h] 21 To those without law I became as without law, although I am not without law toward God but under law toward Christ,[i] in order to gain those without law. 22 To the weak I became weak, in order to gain the weak.[j] I have become all things to people of all sorts, so that I might by all possible means save some. 23 But I do all things for the sake of the good news, in order to share it with others.[k] ing in a contest* exercises self-control in all things. Of course, they do it to receive a crown that can perish,[a] but we, one that does not perish.[b] 26 Therefore, the way I am running is not aimlessly;[c] the way I am aiming my blows is so as not to be striking the air; 27 but I pummel* my body[d] and lead it as a slave, so that after I have preached to others, I myself should not become disapproved# somehow.

10 Now I want you to know, brothers, that our forefathers were all under the cloud[e] and all passed through the sea[f] 2 and all got baptized into Moses by means of the cloud and of the sea, 3 and all ate the same spiritual food[g] 4 and all drank the same spiritual drink.[h] For they used to drink from the spiritual rock that followed them, and that rock meant* the Christ.[i] 5 Nevertheless, God was not pleased with most of them, for they were struck down in the wilderness.[j]

6 Now these things became examples for us, in order for us not to desire injurious things, as they desired them.[k] 7 Neither become idolaters, as some of them did; just as it is written: "The people sat down to eat and drink. Then they got up to have a good time."[l] 8 Neither let us practice sexual immorality,* as some of them committed sexual immorality,* only to fall, 23,000 of them in one day.[m] 9 Neither let us put Jehovah* to the test,[n] as some of them put him to the test, only to perish by the serpents.[o] 10 Neither be murmurers, as some of them murmured,[p] only to perish by the destroyer.[q] 11 Now these things happened to them as examples, and they were written for a warning to us[a] upon whom the ends of the systems of things have come.

12 So let the one who thinks he is standing beware that he does not fall.[b] 13 No temptation has come upon you except what is common to men.[c] But God is faithful, and he will not let you be tempted beyond what you can bear,[d] but along with the temptation he will also make the way out so that you may be able to endure it.[e]

14 Therefore, my beloved ones, flee from idolatry.[f] 15 I speak as to men with discernment; judge for yourselves what I say. 16 The cup of blessing that we bless, is it not a sharing in the blood of the Christ?[g] The loaf that we break, is it not a sharing in the body of the Christ?[h] 17 Because there is one loaf, we, although many, are one body,[i] for we are all partaking of that one loaf.

18 Look at Israel in the fleshly sense: Are not those who eat the sacrifices sharers with the altar?[j] 19 What, then, am I saying? That what is sacrificed to an idol is anything, or that an idol is anything? 20 No; but I say that what the nations sacrifice, they sacrifice to demons and not to God;[k] and I do not want you to become sharers with the demons.[l] 21 You cannot be drinking the cup of Jehovah* and the cup of demons; you cannot be partaking of "the table of Jehovah"[m] and the table of demons. 22 Or 'are we inciting Jehovah to jealousy'?[n] We are not stronger than he is, are we?

23 All things are lawful,* but not all things are advantageous. All things are lawful, but not all things build up.[o] 24 Let each one keep seeking, not his own advantage, but that of the other person.[p]

25 Eat whatever is sold in a meat market, making no inquiry because of your conscience, 26 for "to Jehovah* belong the earth and everything in it."[a] 27 If an unbeliever invites you and you want to go, eat whatever is set before you, making no inquiry on account of your conscience. 28 But if anyone says to you, "This is something offered in sacrifice," do not eat because of the one who told you and because of conscience.[b] 29 I do not mean your own conscience, but that of the other person. For why should my freedom be judged by another person's conscience?[c] 30 If I am partaking with thanks, why am I to be spoken of abusively over that for which I give thanks?[d]

31 Therefore, whether you are eating or drinking or doing anything else, do all things for God's glory.[e] 32 Keep from becoming causes for stumbling to Jews as well as Greeks and to the congregation of God,[f] 33 just as I am trying to please all people in all things, not seeking my own advantage,[g] but that of the many, so that they may be saved.[h]

11 Become imitators of me, just as I am of Christ.[i]

2 I commend you because in all things you remember me and you are holding fast the traditions just as I handed them on to you. 3 But I want you to know that the head of every man is the Christ;[j] in turn, the head of a woman is the man;[k] in turn, the head of the Christ is God.[l] 4 Every man who prays or prophesies with something on his head shames his head; 5 but every woman who prays or prophesies[m] with her head uncovered shames her head, for it is one and the same as if she were a woman with a shaved head. 6 For if a woman does not cover herself, she should have her hair cut off; but if it is disgraceful for a woman to have her hair cut off or shaved, she should be covered.

7 For a man should not have his head covered, as he is God's image[a] and glory, but the woman is man's glory. 8 For man did not come from woman, but woman came from man.[b] 9 And what is more, man was not created for the sake of the woman, but woman for the sake of the man.[c] 10 That is why the woman ought to have a sign of authority on her head, because of the angels.[d]

11 Besides, in connection with the Lord, neither is woman separate from man nor is man separate from woman. 12 For just as the woman is from the man,[e] so also the man is through the woman; but all things are from God.[f] 13 Judge for yourselves: Is it fitting for a woman to pray to God with her head uncovered? 14 Does not nature itself teach you that long hair is a dishonor to a man, 15 but if a woman has long hair, it is a glory to her? For her hair is given to her instead of a covering. 16 However, if anyone wants to argue in favor of some other custom, we have no other, nor do the congregations of God.

17 But while giving these instructions, I do not commend you, because it is, not for the better, but for the worse that you meet together. 18 For first of all, I hear that when you come together in a congregation, divisions exist among you; and to an extent I believe it. 19 For there will certainly also be sects among you,[g] so that those of you who are approved may also become evident.

to eat the Lord's Evening Meal.[a] 21 For when you eat it, each one takes his own evening meal beforehand, so that one is hungry but another is intoxicated. 22 Do you not have houses for eating and drinking? Or do you despise the congregation of God and make those who have nothing feel ashamed? What can I say to you? Should I commend you? In this I do not commend you.

23 For I received from the Lord what I also handed on to you, that the Lord Jesus on the night[b] on which he was going to be betrayed took a loaf, 24 and after giving thanks, he broke it and said: "This means my body,[c] which is in your behalf. Keep doing this in remembrance of me."[d] 25 He did the same with the cup[e] also, after they had the evening meal, saying: "This cup means the new covenant[f] by virtue of my blood.[g] Keep doing this, whenever you drink it, in remembrance of me."[h] 26 For whenever you eat this loaf and drink this cup, you keep proclaiming the death of the Lord, until he comes.

27 Therefore, whoever eats the loaf or drinks the cup of the Lord unworthily will be guilty respecting the body and the blood of the Lord. 28 First let a man approve himself after scrutiny,[i] and only then let him eat of the loaf and drink of the cup. 29 For the one who eats and drinks without discerning the body eats and drinks judgment against himself. 30 That is why many among you are weak and sick, and quite a few are sleeping in death.[j] 31 But if we would discern what we ourselves are, we would not be judged. 32 However, when we are judged, we are disciplined by Jehovah,[k] so that we may not become condemned with the world.[a] 33 Consequently, my brothers, when you come together to eat it, wait for one another. 34 If anyone is hungry, let him eat at home, so that when you come together it is not for judgment.[b] But as for the remaining matters, I will put them in order when I get there.

12 Now concerning the spiritual gifts,[c] brothers, I do not want you to be uninformed. 2 You know that when you were people of the nations,* you were influenced and led astray to those voiceless idols,[d] following wherever they might lead you. 3 Now I would have you know that nobody when speaking by God's spirit says: "Jesus is accursed!" and nobody can say: "Jesus is Lord!" except by holy spirit.[e]

4 Now there are different gifts, but there is the same spirit;[f] 5 and there are different ministries,[g] and yet there is the same Lord; 6 and there are different activities,* and yet it is the same God who performs them all in everyone.[h] 7 But the manifestation of the spirit is given to each one for a beneficial purpose.[i] 8 For to one is given speech* of wisdom through the spirit, to another speech of knowledge according to the same spirit, 9 to another faith[j] by the same spirit, to another gifts of healing[k] by that one spirit, 10 to yet another operations of powerful works,[l] to another prophesying, to another discernment of inspired expressions,[m] to another different tongues,*[n] and to another interpretation of tongues.[o] 11 But all these operations are performed by the very same spirit, distributing to each one respectively just as it wills.

12 For just as the body is one but has many members, and all the members of that body, although many, are one body,[a] so too is the Christ. 13 For by one spirit we were all baptized into one body, whether Jews or Greeks, whether slaves or free, and we were all made to drink one spirit.

14 For, indeed, the body is made up not of one member but of many.[b] 15 If the foot should say, "Because I am not a hand, I am no part of the body," that does not make it no part of the body. 16 And if the ear should say, "Because I am not an eye, I am no part of the body," that does not make it no part of the body. 17 If the whole body were an eye, where would the sense of hearing be? If it were all hearing, where would the sense of smell be? 18 But now God has arranged each of the body members just as he pleased.

19 If they were all the same member, where would the body be? 20 But now they are many members, yet one body. 21 The eye cannot say to the hand, "I do not need you," or again, the head cannot say to the feet, "I do not need you." 22 On the contrary, the members of the body that seem to be weaker are necessary, 23 and the parts of the body that we think to be less honorable we surround with greater honor,[c] so our unseemly parts are treated with greater modesty, 24 whereas our attractive parts do not need anything. Nevertheless, God has so composed the body, giving greater honor to the part that had a lack, 25 so that there should be no division in the body, but its members should have mutual concern for one another.[d] 26 If one member suffers, all the other members suffer with it;[a] or if a member is glorified, all the other members rejoice with it.[b]

27 Now you are Christ's body,[c] and each of you individually is a member.[d] 28 And God has assigned the respective ones in the congregation: first, apostles;[e] second, prophets;[f] third, teachers;[g] then powerful works;[h] then gifts of healings;[i] helpful services; abilities to direct;[j] different tongues.[k] 29 Not all are apostles, are they? Not all are prophets, are they? Not all are teachers, are they? Not all perform powerful works, do they? 30 Not all have gifts of healings, do they? Not all speak in tongues, do they?[l] Not all are interpreters,* are they?[m] 31 But keep striving for* the greater gifts.[n] And yet I will show you a surpassing way.[o]

13 If I speak in the tongues of men and of angels but do not have love, I have become a clanging gong or a clashing cymbal. 2 And if I have the gift of prophecy and understand all the sacred secrets and all knowledge,[p] and if I have all the faith so as to move* mountains, but do not have love, I am nothing.#[q] 3 And if I give all my belongings to feed others,[r] and if I hand over my body so that I may boast, but do not have love,[s] I do not benefit at all.

4 Love[t] is patient*[u] and kind.[v] Love is not jealous.[w] It does not brag, does not get puffed up,[x] 5 does not behave indecently,*[y] does not look for its own interests,[z] does not become provoked.[a] It does not keep account of the injury.#[b] 6 It does not rejoice over unrighteousness,[c] but rejoices with the truth. 7 It bears all things,[a] believes all things,[b] hopes all things,[c] endures all things.[d]

8 Love never fails. But if there are gifts of prophecy, they will be done away with; if there are tongues,* they will cease; if there is knowledge, it will be done away with. 9 For we have partial knowledge[e] and we prophesy partially, 10 but when what is complete comes, what is partial will be done away with. 11 When I was a child, I used to speak as a child, to think as a child, to reason as a child; but now that I have become a man, I have done away with the traits of a child. 12 For now we see in hazy outline* by means of a metal mirror, but then it will be face-to-face. At present I know partially, but then I will know accurately,# just as I am accurately known. 13 Now, however, these three remain: faith, hope, love; but the greatest of these is love.[f]

14 Pursue love, yet keep striving for* the spiritual gifts, but preferably that you may prophesy.[g] 2 For the one who speaks in a tongue speaks, not to men, but to God, for no one listens,[h] but he speaks sacred secrets[i] by the spirit. 3 However, the one who prophesies builds up and encourages and consoles men by his speech. 4 The one who speaks in a tongue builds up himself, but the one who prophesies builds up a congregation. 5 Now I would like for all of you to speak in tongues,[j] but I prefer that you prophesy.[k] Indeed, the one who prophesies is greater than the one who speaks in tongues, unless he interprets,* so that the congregation may be built up. 6 But at this time, brothers, if I should come speaking to you in tongues, what good would I do you unless I spoke to you either with a revelation[a] or with knowledge[b] or with a prophecy or with a teaching?

7 It is the same with the inanimate things that produce sound, whether a flute or a harp. Unless there is an interval to the tones, how can what is being played on the flute or on the harp be recognized? 8 For if the trumpet sounds an indistinct call, who will get ready for battle? 9 In the same way, unless you with the tongue use speech that is easily understood, how will anyone know what is being said? You will, in fact, be speaking into the air. 10 It may be that there are many kinds of speech in the world, and yet no kind is without meaning. 11 For if I do not understand the sense of the speech, I will be a foreigner to the one speaking, and the one speaking will be a foreigner to me. 12 So also with you, since you eagerly desire the gifts of the spirit, seek to abound in gifts that will build up the congregation.[c]

13 Therefore, let the one who speaks in a tongue pray that he may interpret.[d] 14 For if I am praying in a tongue, it is my gift of the spirit that is praying, but my mind is unproductive. 15 What is to be done, then? I will pray with the gift of the spirit, but I will also pray with my mind. I will sing praise with the gift of the spirit, but I will also sing praise with my mind. 16 Otherwise, if you offer praise with a gift of the spirit, how will the ordinary person in your midst say "Amen" to your giving of thanks, since he does not know what you are saying? 17 True, you are giving thanks in a fine way, but the other man is not being built up. 18 I thank God that I speak in more tongues than all of you do. 19 Nevertheless, in a congregation I would rather speak five words with my mind, that I might also instruct# others, than ten thousand words in a tongue.[a]

20 Brothers, do not become young children in your understanding,[b] but be young children as to badness;[c] and become full-grown in your understanding.[d] 21 In the Law it is written: "'With the tongues of foreigners and with the lips of strangers I will speak to this people, and even then they will refuse to listen to me,' says Jehovah."*[e] 22 Therefore, tongues are not a sign for the believers but for the unbelievers,[f] whereas prophecy is not for the unbelievers but for the believers. 23 So if the whole congregation comes together to one place and they all speak in tongues, but ordinary people or unbelievers come in, will they not say that you have lost your minds? 24 But if you are all prophesying and an unbeliever or an ordinary person comes in, he will be reproved and closely examined by them all. 25 The secrets of his heart then become evident, so that he will fall facedown and worship God, declaring: "God is really among you."[g]

26 What is to be done, then, brothers? When you come together, one has a psalm, another has a teaching, another has a revelation, another has a tongue, and another has an interpretation.[h] Let all things take place for building up. 27 And if someone speaks in a tongue, let it be limited to two or three at the most, and in turns, and someone must interpret.[a] 28 But if there is no interpreter, he must keep silent in the congregation and speak to himself and to God. 29 Let two or three prophets[b] speak, and let the others discern the meaning. 30 But if another one receives a revelation while sitting there, let the first speaker keep silent. 31 For you can all prophesy one at a time, so that all may learn and all may be encouraged.[c] 32 And gifts of the spirit of the prophets are to be controlled by the prophets. 33 For God is a God not of disorder but of peace.[d]

As in all the congregations of the holy ones, 34 let the women keep silent in the congregations, for it is not permitted for them to speak.[e] Rather, let them be in subjection,[f] as the Law also says. 35 If they want to learn something, let them ask their husbands at home, for it is disgraceful for a woman to speak in the congregation.

36 Was it from you that the word of God originated, or did it reach only as far as you?

37 If anyone thinks he is a prophet or is gifted with the spirit, he must acknowledge that the things I am writing to you are the Lord's commandment. 38 But if anyone disregards this, he will be disregarded.* 39 So, my brothers, keep striving to prophesy,[g] and yet do not forbid the speaking in tongues.[h] 40 But let all things take place decently and by arrangement.*[i]

15 Now I remind you, brothers, of the good news that I declared to you,[j] which you also accepted, and for which you have taken your stand. 2 Through it you are also being saved if you hold firmly to the good news I declared to you, unless you became believers for nothing.

3 For among the first things I handed on to you was what I also received, that Christ died for our sins according to the Scriptures;[a] 4 and that he was buried,[b] yes, that he was raised up[c] on the third day[d] according to the Scriptures;[e] 5 and that he appeared to Ce′phas, *[f] and then to the Twelve.[g] 6 After that he appeared to more than 500 brothers at one time,[h] most of whom are still with us, though some have fallen asleep in death. 7 After that he appeared to James,[i] then to all the apostles.[j] 8 But last of all he appeared also to me[k] as if to one born prematurely.

9 For I am the least of the apostles, and I am not worthy of being called an apostle, because I persecuted the congregation of God.[l] 10 But by God's undeserved kindness I am what I am. And his undeserved kindness to me was not in vain, but I labored more than all of them; yet it was not I, but the undeserved kindness of God that is with me. 11 Whether, then, it is I or they, this is the way we preach, and this is the way you believed.

12 Now if it is being preached that Christ has been raised from the dead,[m] how is it that some among you say there is no resurrection of the dead? 13 If, indeed, there is no resurrection of the dead, then Christ has not been raised up. 14 But if Christ has not been raised up, our preaching is certainly in vain, and your faith is also in vain. 15 Moreover, we are also found to be false witnesses of God,[a] because we have given witness against God by saying that he raised up the Christ,[b] whom he did not raise up if the dead are really not to be raised up. 16 For if the dead are not to be raised up, neither has Christ been raised up. 17 Further, if Christ has not been raised up, your faith is useless; you remain in your sins.[c] 18 Then also those who have fallen asleep in death in union with Christ have perished.[d] 19 If in this life only we have hoped in Christ, we are to be pitied more than anyone.

20 But now Christ has been raised from the dead, the firstfruits of those who have fallen asleep in death.[e] 21 For since death came through a man,[f] resurrection of the dead also comes through a man.[g] 22 For just as in Adam all are dying,[h] so also in the Christ all will be made alive.[i] 23 But each one in his own proper order: Christ the firstfruits,[j] afterward those who belong to the Christ during his presence.[k] 24 Next, the end, when he hands over the Kingdom to his God and Father, when he has brought to nothing all government and all authority and power.[l] 25 For he must rule as king until God has put all enemies under his feet.[m] 26 And the last enemy, death, is to be brought to nothing.[n] 27 For God "subjected all things under his feet."[o] But when he says that 'all things have been subjected,'[p] it is evident that this does not include the One who subjected all things to him.[q] 28 But when all things will have been subjected to him, then the Son himself will also subject himself to the One who subjected all things to him,[r] that God may be all things to everyone.[s]

29 Otherwise, what will they do who are being baptized for the purpose of being dead ones?[a] If the dead are not to be raised up at all, why are they also being baptized for the purpose of being such? 30 Why are we also in danger every hour?[b] 31 Daily I face death. This is as sure as my exultation over you, brothers, which I have in Christ Jesus our Lord. 32 If like other men, I have fought with wild beasts at Eph'e·sus,[c] of what good is it to me? If the dead are not to be raised up, "let us eat and drink, for tomorrow we are to die."[d] 33 Do not be misled. Bad associations spoil useful habits.*[e] 34 Come to your senses in a righteous way and do not practice sin, for some have no knowledge of God. I am speaking to move you to shame.

35 Nevertheless, someone will say: "How are the dead to be raised up? Yes, with what sort of body are they coming?"[f] 36 You unreasonable person! What you sow is not made alive unless first it dies. 37 And as for what you sow, you sow, not the body that will develop, but just a bare grain, whether of wheat or of some other kind of seed; 38 but God gives it a body just as it has pleased him, and gives to each of the seeds its own body. 39 Not all flesh is the same flesh, but there is one of mankind, there is another flesh of cattle, another flesh of birds, and another of fish. 40 And there are heavenly bodies[g] and earthly bodies;[h] but the glory of the heavenly bodies is one sort, and that of the earthly bodies is a different sort. 41 The glory of the sun is one sort, and the glory of the moon is another,[a] and the glory of the stars is another; in fact, one star differs from another star in glory.

42 So it is with the resurrection of the dead. It is sown in corruption; it is raised up in incorruption.[b] 43 It is sown in dishonor; it is raised up in glory.[c] It is sown in weakness; it is raised up in power.[d] 44 It is sown a physical body; it is raised up a spiritual body. If there is a physical body, there is also a spiritual one. 45 So it is written: "The first man Adam became a living person."*[e] The last Adam became a life-giving spirit.[f] 46 However, what is spiritual is not first. What is physical is first, and afterward what is spiritual. 47 The first man is from the earth and made of dust;[g] the second man is from heaven.[h] 48 Like the one made of dust, so too are those made of dust; and like the heavenly one, so too are those who are heavenly.[i] 49 And just as we have borne the image of the one made of dust,[j] we will bear also the image of the heavenly one.[k]

50 But I tell you this, brothers, that flesh and blood cannot inherit God's Kingdom, nor does corruption inherit incorruption. 51 Look! I tell you a sacred secret: We will not all fall asleep in death, but we will all be changed,[l] 52 in a moment, in the blink* of an eye, during the last trumpet. For the trumpet will sound,[m] and the dead will be raised up incorruptible, and we will be changed. 53 For this which is corruptible must put on incorruption,[n] and this which is mortal must put on immortality.[o] 54 But when this which is corruptible puts on incorruption and this which is mortal puts on immortality, then the saying that is written will take place: "Death is swallowed up forever."[a] 55 "Death, where is your victory? Death, where is your sting?"[b] 56 The sting producing death is sin,[c] and the power for sin is the Law.*[d] 57 But thanks to God, for he gives us the victory through our Lord Jesus Christ![e]

15:30 *Or "all the time?" 15:32 *Or possibly, "from a human viewpoint." 15:33 *Or "corrupt good morals."

15:45 *Or "soul." 15:52 *Or "twinkling."

58 Therefore, my beloved brothers, be steadfast,[f] immovable, always having plenty to do[g] in the work of the Lord, knowing that your labor is not in vain[h] in connection with the Lord.

16 Now concerning the collection for the holy ones,[i] you may follow the directions I gave to the congregations of Ga·la′ti·a. 2 On the first day of every week, each of you should set something aside according to his own means, so that collections will not take place when I arrive. 3 But when I get there, I will send the men you approve of in your letters[j] to take your kind gift to Jerusalem. 4 However, if it seems advisable for me to go there also, they will go there with me.

5 But I will come to you when I have gone through Mac·e·do′ni·a, for I will be going through Mac·e·do′ni·a;[k] 6 and perhaps I will stay or even spend the winter with you, so that you may accompany me partway to where I may be going. 7 For I do not want to see you now just in passing, since I hope to spend some time with you,[l] if Jehovah* permits. 8 But I am remaining in Eph′e·sus[m] until the Festival of Pentecost, 9 because a large door that leads to activity has been opened to me,[n] but there are many opposers.

10 Now if Timothy[o] arrives, make sure that he has nothing to fear while among you, for he is performing the work of Jehovah,*[a] just as I am. 11 Therefore, let no one look down on him. Send him on his way in peace, so that he may come to me, for I am waiting for him together with the brothers.

12 Now concerning A·pol′los[b] our brother, I strongly urged him to come to you with the brothers. It was not his intention to come now, but he will come when he has the opportunity.

13 Stay awake,[c] stand firm in the faith,[d] carry on in a manly way,*[e] grow mighty.[f] 14 Let everything you do be done with love.[g]

15 Now I urge you, brothers: You know that the household of Steph′a·nas is the firstfruits of A·cha′ia and that they devoted themselves to ministering to the holy ones. 16 May you also keep submitting yourselves to people like that and to all those cooperating and working hard.[h] 17 But I rejoice over the presence of Steph′a·nas[i] and For·tu·na′tus and A·cha′i·cus, because they have made up for your not being here. 18 For they have refreshed my spirit and yours. Therefore, give recognition to men of that sort.

19 The congregations of Asia send you their greetings. Aq′ui·la and Pris′ca together with the congregation that is in their house[j] greet you heartily in the Lord. 20 All the brothers greet you. Greet one another with a holy kiss.

21 Here is my greeting, Paul's, in my own hand.

22 If anyone has no affection for the Lord, let him be accursed. O our Lord, come! 23 May the undeserved kindness of the Lord Jesus be with you. 24 May my love be with all of you in union with Christ Jesus.

15:56 *Or "and the Law gives sin its power." 16:7, 10 *See App. A5.

16:13 *Or "be courageous."

1 Paul, an apostle of Christ Jesus through God's will, and Timothy[a] our brother, to the congregation of God that is in Corinth, including all the holy ones who are in all A·cha'ia:[b]

2 May you have undeserved kindness and peace from God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ.

3 Praised be the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ,[c] the Father of tender mercies[d] and the God of all comfort,[e] 4 who comforts* us in all our trials#[f] so that we may be able to comfort others[a] in any sort of trial# with the comfort that we receive from God.[b] 5 For just as the sufferings for the Christ abound in us,[c] so the comfort we receive through the Christ also abounds. 6 Now if we face trials,# it is for your comfort and salvation; and if we are being comforted, it is for your comfort, which acts to help you to endure the same sufferings that we also suffer. 7 And our hope for you is unwavering, knowing as we do that just as you share in the sufferings, so you will also share in the comfort.[d]

8 For we do not want you to be unaware, brothers, of the tribulation we experienced in the province of Asia.[a] We were under extreme pressure beyond our own strength, so that we were very uncertain even of our lives.[b] 9 In fact, we felt that we had received the sentence of death. This was so that we would trust, not in ourselves, but in the God[c] who raises up the dead. 10 From such a great risk of death he did rescue us and will rescue us, and our hope is in him that he will also continue to rescue us.[d] 11 You also can help us by your supplication for us,[e] in order that many may give thanks in our behalf for the favor we receive in answer to the prayers of many.*[f]

12 For the thing we boast of is this, our conscience bears witness that we have conducted ourselves in the world, and especially toward you, with holiness and godly sincerity, not with fleshly wisdom,[g] but with God's undeserved kindness. 13 For we are really not writing you about anything except what you can read* and understand, and I hope you will continue to understand these things fully,# 14 just as you have also understood to an extent that we are a cause for you to boast, just as you will also be for us in the day of our Lord Jesus.

15 So with this confidence, I was intending to come first to you, so that you might have a second occasion for joy;* 16 for I intended to visit you on my way to Mac·e·do'ni·a, to return to you from Mac·e·do'ni·a, and then to have you send me off to Ju·de'a.[h] 17 Well, when I had such an intention, I did not view the matter lightly, did I? Or do I purpose things in a fleshly way, so that I am saying "Yes, yes" and then "No, no"? 18 But God can be relied on that what we say to you is not "yes" and yet "no." 19 For the Son of God, Jesus Christ, who was preached among you through us, that is, through me and Sil·va'nus* and Timothy,[a] did not become "yes" and yet "no," but "yes" has become "yes" in his case. 20 For no matter how many the promises of God are, they have become "yes" by means of him.[b] Therefore, also through him is the "Amen" said to God,[c] which brings him glory through us. 21 But the one who guarantees that you and we belong to Christ and the one who anointed us is God.[d] 22 He has also put his seal on us[e] and has given us the token of what is to come,* that is, the spirit,[f] in our hearts.

23 Now I call on God as a witness against me* that it is to spare you that I have not yet come to Corinth. 24 Not that we are the masters over your faith,[g] but we are fellow workers for your joy, for it is by your faith that you are standing.

2 For I have made up my mind not to come to you again in sadness. 2 For if I make you sad, who will be there to cheer me up except the one I saddened? 3 I wrote what I did, so that when I come I may not be saddened by those over whom I ought to rejoice, because I have confidence that what brings me joy brings all of you the same joy. 4 For out of much tribulation and anguish of heart I wrote you with many tears, not to sadden you,[h] but to let you know the depth of love I have for you.

1:11 *Or "because of many prayerful faces." 1:13 *Or possibly, "what you already well know." #Lit., "to the end." 1:15 *Or possibly, "so that you might benefit twice."

1:19 *Also called Silas. 1:22 *Or "the down payment (earnest money); the guarantee (pledge) of what is to come." 1:23 *Or "my soul."

5 Now if anyone has caused sadness,[a] he has saddened, not me, but all of you to an extent —not to be too harsh in what I say. 6 This rebuke given by the majority is sufficient for such a man; 7 now you should instead kindly forgive and comfort him,[b] so that he may not be overwhelmed* by excessive sadness.[c] 8 I therefore exhort you to confirm your love for him.[d] 9 For this is also why I wrote to you: to determine whether you would give proof of your obedience in all things. 10 If you forgive anyone for anything, I do also. In fact, whatever I have forgiven (if I have forgiven anything) has been for your sake in Christ's sight, 11 so that we may not be overreached* by Satan,[e] for we are not ignorant of his designs.#[f]

12 Now when I arrived in Tro′as[g] to declare the good news about the Christ and a door was opened to me in the Lord, 13 my spirit felt no relief because of not finding Titus[h] my brother. So I said good-bye to them and departed for Mac·e·do′ni·a.[i]

14 But thanks be to God, who always leads us in a triumphal procession in company with the Christ and through us spreads* the fragrance of the knowledge of him in every place! 15 For to God we are a sweet fragrance of Christ among those who are being saved and among those who are perishing; 16 to the latter ones an odor* of death leading to death,[j] to the former ones a fragrance of life leading to life. And who is adequately qualified for these things? 17 We are, for we are not peddlers of* the word of God[a] as many men are, but we speak in all sincerity as sent from God, yes, in the sight of God and in company with Christ.

3 Are we starting to recommend ourselves again? Or do we need, like some men, letters of recommendation to you or from you? 2 You yourselves are our letter,[b] inscribed on our hearts and known and being read by all mankind. 3 For you are shown to be a letter of Christ written by us as ministers,[c] inscribed not with ink but with the spirit of a living God, not on stone tablets[d] but on fleshly tablets, on hearts.[e]

4 We have this sort of confidence toward God through the Christ. 5 Not that we of ourselves are adequately qualified to consider that anything comes from us, but our being adequately qualified comes from God,[f] 6 who has indeed adequately qualified us to be ministers of a new covenant,[g] not of a written code,[h] but of spirit; for the written code condemns to death,[i] but the spirit makes alive.[j]

7 Now if the code that administers death and that was engraved in letters on stones[k] came with such glory that the sons of Israel could not gaze at the face of Moses because of the glory of his face,[l] a glory that was to be done away with, 8 why should the administering of the spirit[m] not be with even greater glory?[n] 9 For if the code administering condemnation[o] was glorious,[p] how much more glorious would be the administering of righteousness![q] 10 In fact, even what had once been made glorious has been stripped of glory because of the glory that excels it.[r] 11 For if what was to be done away with was brought in with glory,[s] how much greater would be the glory of what remains![t]

2:7 *Or "swallowed up." 2:11 *Or "outwitted." #Or "intentions; schemes." 2:14 *Or "makes perceptible." 2:16 *Or "fragrance." 2:17 *Or "not commercializing; not making profit from."

12 Since we have such a hope,[a] we are using great freeness of speech, 13 and not doing what Moses did when he would put a veil over his face[b] so that the sons of Israel might not gaze intently at the end of what was to be done away with. 14 But their minds were dulled.[c] For to this present day, the same veil remains unlifted when the old covenant is read,[d] because it is taken away only by means of Christ.[e] 15 In fact, to this day whenever Moses is read,[f] a veil lies upon their hearts.[g] 16 But when one turns to Jehovah,* the veil is taken away.[h] 17 Now Jehovah* is the Spirit,[i] and where the spirit of Jehovah* is, there is freedom.[j] 18 And all of us, while we with unveiled faces reflect like mirrors the glory of Jehovah,* are transformed into the same image from one degree of glory to another,# exactly as it is done by Jehovah* the Spirit.[△k]

4 Therefore, since we have this ministry through the mercy that was shown us, we do not give up. 2 But we have renounced the shameful, underhanded things, not walking with cunning or adulterating the word of God;[l] but by making the truth manifest, we recommend ourselves to every human conscience in the sight of God.[m] 3 If, in fact, the good news we declare is veiled, it is veiled among those who are perishing, 4 among whom the god of this system of things*[n] has blinded the minds of the unbelievers,[o] so that the illumination# of the glorious good news about the Christ, who is the image of God,[p] might not shine through.[q] 5 For we are preaching, not about ourselves, but about Jesus Christ as Lord and ourselves as your slaves for Jesus' sake. 6 For God is the one who said: "Let the light shine out of darkness,"[a] and he has shone on our hearts to illuminate them[b] with the glorious knowledge of God by the face of Christ.

7 However, we have this treasure[c] in earthen vessels,[d] so that the power beyond what is normal may be God's and not from us.[e] 8 We are hard-pressed in every way, but not cramped beyond movement; we are perplexed, but not absolutely with no way out;[f] 9 we are persecuted, but not abandoned;[g] we are knocked down, but not destroyed.[h] 10 Always we endure in our body the death-dealing treatment that Jesus suffered,[i] that the life of Jesus may also be made manifest in our body. 11 For we who live are ever being brought face-to-face with death[j] for Jesus' sake, so that the life of Jesus may also be made manifest in our mortal flesh. 12 So death is at work in us, but life in you.

13 Now because we have the same spirit of faith as that of which it is written: "I exercised faith, therefore I spoke";[k] we too exercise faith and therefore we speak, 14 knowing that the One who raised Jesus up will raise us up also with Jesus and will present us together with you.[l] 15 For all these things are for your sake, so that the increase of the undeserved kindness should abound even more because many more are offering thanksgiving to the glory of God.[m]

16 Therefore, we do not give up, but even if the man we are outside is wasting away, certainly the man we are inside is being renewed from day to day. 17 For though the tribulation* is momentary and light, it works out for us a glory that is of more and more surpassing greatness# and is everlasting;[a] 18 while we keep our eyes, not on the things seen, but on the things unseen.[b] For the things seen are temporary, but the things unseen are everlasting.

5 For we know that if our earthly house, this tent, should be torn down,[c] we are to have a building from God, a house not made with hands,[d] everlasting in the heavens. 2 For in this house we do indeed groan, earnestly desiring to put on the one for us# from heaven,[△e] 3 so that when we do put it on, we will not be found naked. 4 In fact, we who are in this tent groan, being weighed down, because we do not want to put this one off, but we want to put the other on,[f] so that what is mortal may be swallowed up by life.[g] 5 Now the one who prepared us for this very thing is God,[h] who gave us the spirit as a token of what is to come.*[i]

6 So we are always of good courage and know that while we have our home in the body, we are absent from the Lord,[j] 7 for we are walking by faith, not by sight. 8 But we are of good courage and would prefer to be absent from the body and to make our home with the Lord.[k] 9 So whether at home with him or absent from him, we make it our aim to be acceptable to him. 10 For we must all appear* before the judgment seat of the Christ, so that each one may be repaid according to the things he has practiced while in the body, whether good or bad.*[a]

11 Therefore, since we know the fear of the Lord, we keep persuading men, but we are well-known* to God. However, I hope that we are well-known* also to your consciences. 12 We are not recommending ourselves to you again but giving you an incentive to boast about us, so that you may be able to answer those who boast over the outward appearance[b] but not over what is in the heart. 13 For if we were out of our mind,[c] it was for God; if we are sound in mind, it is for you. 14 For the love the Christ has compels us, because this is what we have concluded, that one man died for all;[d] so, then, all had died. 15 And he died for all so that those who live should live no longer for themselves,[e] but for him who died for them and was raised up.

16 So from now on we know no man from a fleshly viewpoint.[f] Even if we once knew Christ according to the flesh, we certainly no longer know him in that way.[g] 17 Therefore, if anyone is in union with Christ, he is a new creation;[h] the old things passed away; look! new things have come into existence. 18 But all things are from God, who reconciled us to himself through Christ[i] and gave us the ministry of the reconciliation,[j] 19 namely, that God was by means of Christ reconciling a world to himself,[k] not counting their offenses against them,[l] and he entrusted to us the message of the reconciliation.[m]

as though God were making an appeal through us. As substitutes for Christ, we beg: "Become reconciled to God." 21 The one who did not know sin,[a] he made to be sin* for us, so that by means of him we might become God's righteousness.[b]

6 Working together with him,[c] we also urge you not to accept the undeserved kindness of God and miss its purpose.[d] 2 For he says: "In an acceptable time I heard you, and in a day of salvation I helped you."[e] Look! Now is the especially acceptable time. Look! Now is the day of salvation.

3 In no way are we giving any cause for stumbling, so that no fault may be found with our ministry;[f] 4 but in every way we recommend ourselves as God's ministers,[g] by the endurance of much, by tribulations, by times of need, by difficulties,[h] 5 by beatings, by imprisonments,[i] by riots, by hard work, by sleepless nights, by times without food;[j] 6 by purity, by knowledge, by patience,[k] by kindness,[l] by holy spirit, by love free from hypocrisy,[m] 7 by truthful speech, by God's power;[n] through the weapons of righteousness[o] in the right hand* and in the left,# 8 through glory and dishonor, through bad report and good report. 11 We have opened our mouth to speak* to you, Corinthians, and we have opened wide our heart. 12 We are not restricted in* our affections for you,[a] but you are restricted in your own tender affections for us. 13 So in response—I speak as to my children—you too open your hearts wide.*[b]

14 Do not become unevenly yoked* with unbelievers.[c] For what fellowship do righteousness and lawlessness have?[d] Or what sharing does light have with darkness?[e] 15 Further, what harmony is there between Christ and Be'li·al?[f] Or what does a believer# share in common△ with an unbeliever?[g] 16 And what agreement does God's temple have with idols?[h] For we are a temple of a living God;[i] just as God said: "I will reside among them[j] and walk among them, and I will be their God, and they will be my people."[k] 17 "'Therefore, get out from among them, and separate yourselves,' says Jehovah, 'and quit touching the unclean thing';[l] "'and I will take you in.'"[m] 18 "'And I will become a father to you,[n] and you will become sons and daughters to me,'[o] says Jehovah,* the Almighty."

7 Therefore, since we have these promises,[p] beloved ones, let us cleanse ourselves of every defilement of flesh and spirit,[q] perfecting holiness in the fear of God.

2 Make room for us in your hearts.[r] We have wronged no one, we have corrupted no one, we have taken advantage of no one.[a] 3 I do not say this to condemn you. For I have said before that you are in our hearts to die together and to live together. 4 I have great freeness of speech toward you. I have great boasting in regard to you. I am filled with comfort; I am overflowing with joy in all our affliction.[b]

5 In fact, when we arrived in Mac·e·do′ni·a,[c] our bodies* got no relief, but we continued to be afflicted in every way—there were fights on the outside, fears within. 6 But God, who comforts those who are downhearted,[d] comforted us by the presence of Titus; 7 and not only by his presence but also by the comfort he received because of you, as he reported back to us about your longing for me, your deep sorrow, and your earnest concern* for me; so I rejoiced even more.

8 For even if I saddened you by my letter,[e] I do not regret it. Even if I did at first regret it (seeing that the letter saddened you, though only for a little while), 9 now I rejoice, not because you were just saddened, but because you were saddened into repenting. For you were saddened in a godly way, so that you suffered no harm because of us. 10 For sadness in a godly way produces repentance leading to salvation, leaving no regret;[f] but the sadness of the world produces death. 11 For see what a great earnestness your being saddened in a godly way produced in you, yes, clearing of yourselves, yes, indignation, yes, fear, yes, earnest desire, yes, zeal, yes, righting of the wrong![g] In every respect you demonstrated yourselves to be pure* in this matter. 12 Although I wrote to you, I did not do it for the one who did the wrong,[a] nor for the one who was wronged, but so that your earnestness for us might be made evident among you in the sight of God. 13 That is why we have been comforted.

But in addition to our comfort, we rejoiced even more over the joy of Titus, because all of you refreshed his spirit. 14 For if I have boasted to him about you, I have not been put to shame; but just as all the things we told you were true, so also our boasting to Titus has proved true. 15 Also, his tender affections toward you are greater as he remembers the obedience of all of you,[b] how you received him with fear and trembling. 16 I rejoice that in every way I may have confidence in* you.

8 Now we want you to know, brothers, about the undeserved kindness of God that has been granted to the congregations of Mac·e·do′ni·a.[c] 2 During a great test under affliction, their abundance of joy and their deep poverty made the riches of their generosity abound.* 3 For it was according to their means,[d] yes, I testify, it was even beyond their means,[e] 4 while they on their own initiative kept earnestly begging us for the privilege of kindly giving, to have a share in the relief ministry for the holy ones.[f] 5 And not merely as we had hoped, but first they gave themselves to the Lord and to us through God's will. 6 So we encouraged Titus[g] that, just as he had initiated this work among you, he should also complete this same kind giving on your part. 7 Nevertheless, just as you abound in every-

8 I am saying this, not to command you, but to make you aware of the earnestness of others and to test the genuineness of your love. 9 For you know the undeserved kindness of our Lord Jesus Christ, that although he was rich, he became poor for your sake,[b] so that you might become rich through his poverty.

10 And in this I give my opinion:[c] This is for your benefit, seeing that already a year ago you not only initiated the action but also showed your desire to do it. 11 So now, also complete what you started to do, so that your readiness to act may be completed according to the means you have available. 12 For if the readiness is there first, it is especially acceptable according to what a person has,[d] not according to what a person does not have. 13 For I do not want to make it easy for others, but difficult for you; 14 but that by means of an equalizing, your surplus at the present time might offset their need, so that their surplus might also offset your deficiency, that there may be an equalizing. 15 Just as it is written: "The person with much did not have too much, and the person with little did not have too little."[e]

16 Now thanks be to God for putting the same earnest concern for you in the heart of Titus,[f] 17 because he has indeed responded to the encouragement, but being very eager, he is coming to you on his own initiative. 18 But we are sending along with him the brother whose praise in connection with the good news has spread through all the congregations. 19 Not only that, but he was also appointed by the congregations to be our traveling companion as we administer this kind gift for the glory of the Lord and in proof of our readiness to assist. 20 Thus we are avoiding having any man find fault with us in connection with this liberal contribution that we are administering.[a] 21 For we 'care for everything honestly, not only in the sight of Jehovah* but also in the sight of men.'[b]

22 Moreover, we are sending with them our brother whom we have often tested and found to be diligent in many matters, but now much more diligent on account of his great confidence in you. 23 If, though, there is any question about Titus, he is my companion* and a fellow worker for your interests; or if there are questions about our brothers, they are apostles of congregations and a glory of Christ. 24 So demonstrate the proof of your love to them,[c] and show the congregations why we boasted about you.

9 Now concerning the ministry that is for the holy ones,[d] it is not really necessary for me to write you, 2 for I know your willingness about which I am boasting to the Mac·e·do′ni·ans, that A·cha′ia has been ready now for a year, and your zeal has stirred up the majority of them. 3 But I am sending the brothers, so that our boasting about you might not prove empty in this respect and that you may really be ready, just as I said you would be. 4 Otherwise, if the Mac·e·do′ni·ans should come with me and find you not ready, we—not to mention you—should be put to shame by our confidence in you. 5 So I thought it necessary to encourage the brothers to come to you ahead of time and to get your promised bountiful gift ready in advance, so that this might be ready as a generous gift, and not as something extorted.

6 But as to this, whoever sows sparingly will also reap sparingly, and whoever sows bountifully will also reap bountifully.[a] 7 Let each one do just as he has resolved in his heart, not grudgingly* or under compulsion,[b] for God loves a cheerful giver.[c]

8 Moreover, God is able to cause all his undeserved kindness to abound toward you so that you are always completely self-sufficient in everything, as well as having plenty for every good work.[d] 9 (Just as it is written: "He has distributed widely;* he has given to the poor. His righteousness continues forever."[e] 10 Now the One who abundantly supplies seed to the sower and bread for eating will supply and multiply the seed for you to sow and will increase the harvest of your righteousness.) 11 In everything you are being enriched for every sort of generosity, which produces through us an expression of thanks to God; 12 because the ministry of this public service is not only to provide well for the needs of the holy ones[f] but also to be rich in many expressions of thanks to God. 13 Through the proof that this relief ministry gives, they glorify God because you are submissive to the good news about the Christ, as you publicly declared, and because you are generous in your contribution to them and to all.[g] 14 And with supplication for you, they express affection for you because of the surpassing undeserved kindness of God upon you.

15 Thanks be to God for his indescribable free gift.

10 Now I myself, Paul, appeal to you by the mildness and kindness of the Christ,[a] lowly though I am when among you face-to-face,[b] but bold toward you when absent.[c] 2 I beg that when present, I may not have to be bold and take the strong measures that I expect against some who view us as if we walked in a fleshly manner. 3 For though we walk in the flesh, we do not wage warfare according to what we are in the flesh. 4 For the weapons of our warfare are not fleshly,[d] but powerful by God[e] for overturning strongly entrenched things. 5 For we are overturning reasonings and every lofty thing raised up against the knowledge of God,[f] and we are bringing every thought into captivity to make it obedient to the Christ; 6 and we are prepared to inflict punishment for every disobedience,[g] as soon as your own obedience is complete.

7 You look at things according to their face value. If anyone is confident in himself that he belongs to Christ, let him reflect again on this fact: Just as he belongs to Christ, so do we also. 8 For even if I should boast a bit too much about the authority that the Lord gave us to build you up and not to tear you down,[h] I would not be put to shame. 9 For I do not want to seem as though I were trying to terrify you by my letters. 10 For they say: "His letters are weighty and forceful, but his presence in person is weak and his speech contemptible." 11 Let such a man consider that what we say* by letters when absent, this we will also do# when present.[a] 12 For we do not dare to class ourselves or compare ourselves with some who recommend themselves.[b] But when they measure themselves by themselves and compare themselves with themselves, they are without understanding.[c]

13 However, we will not boast outside our assigned boundaries, but within the boundary of the territory that God measured out to us,* making it reach even as far as you.[d] 14 Really, we are not overextending ourselves as if we did not reach you, for we were the first to reach as far as you with the good news about the Christ.[e] 15 No, we are not boasting outside our assigned boundaries about the labors of someone else, but we hope that as your faith continues to increase, what we have done may be made to increase, within our territory. Then we will abound still more, 16 so that we may declare the good news to the countries beyond you, so as not to boast in what has already been done in someone else's territory. 17 "But the one who boasts, let him boast in Jehovah."[f] 18 For it is not the one who recommends himself who is approved,[g] but the one whom Jehovah recommends.[h]

11 I wish you would put up with me in a little unreasonableness. But, in fact, you are putting up with me! 2 For I am jealous over you with a godly jealousy,* for I personally promised you in marriage to one husband that I might present you as a chaste# virgin to the Christ.[i] 3 But I am afraid that somehow, as the serpent seduced Eve by its cunning,[j] your minds might be corrupted away from the sincerity and the chastity* that are due the Christ.[a] 4 For as it is, if someone comes and preaches a Jesus other than the one we preached, or you receive a spirit other than what you received, or good news other than what you accepted,[b] you easily put up with him. 5 For I consider that I have not proved inferior to your superfine apostles in a single thing.[c] 6 But even if I am unskilled in speech,[d] I certainly am not in knowledge; indeed we made it clear to you in every way and in everything.

7 Or did I commit a sin by humbling myself that you might be exalted, because I gladly declared the good news of God to you without cost?[e] 8 Other congregations I deprived* by accepting provisions# in order to minister to you.[f] 9 Yet, when I was present with you and I fell into need, I did not become a burden on anyone, for the brothers who came from Mac·e·do'ni·a abundantly supplied my needs.[g] Yes, in every way I kept myself from becoming a burden to you and will continue to do so.[h] 10 As surely as the truth of Christ is in me, I will not stop this boasting[i] in the regions of A·cha'ia. 11 For what reason? Because I do not love you? God knows I do.

12 But what I am doing I will continue to do,[j] in order to eliminate the pretext of those who are wanting a basis* for being found equal to us in the things# about which they boast. 13 For such men are false apostles, deceitful workers, disguising themselves as apostles of Christ.[k] 14 And no wonder, for Satan himself keeps disguising himself as an angel of light.[l] 15 It is therefore nothing extraordinary if his ministers also keep disguising themselves as ministers of righteousness. But their end will be according to their works.[a]

16 I say again: Let no one think I am unreasonable. But even if you do, then accept me as an unreasonable person, so that I too may boast a little. 17 What I now say is, not as following the Lord's example, but as an unreasonable person would, with boastful self-confidence. 18 Since many are boasting according to the flesh,* I too will boast. 19 Since you are so "reasonable," you gladly put up with the unreasonable ones. 20 In fact, you put up with whoever enslaves you, whoever devours your possessions, whoever grabs what you have, whoever exalts himself over you, and whoever strikes you in the face.

21 I say this to our dishonor, since it may seem that we have acted in weakness.

But if others act boldly—I am talking unreasonably—I too act boldly. 22 Are they Hebrews? I am one also.[b] Are they Israelites? I am one also. Are they Abraham's offspring?* I am also.[c] 23 Are they ministers of Christ? I reply like a madman, I am more outstandingly one: I have done more work,[d] been imprisoned more often,[e] suffered countless beatings, and experienced many near-deaths.[f] 24 Five times I received 40 strokes less one from the Jews,[g] 25 three times I was beaten with rods,[h] once I was stoned,[i] three times I experienced shipwreck,[j] a night and a day I have spent in the open sea; 26 in journeys often, in dangers from rivers, in dangers from robbers, in dangers from my own people,[k] in dangers from the nations,[a] in dangers in the city,[b] in dangers in the wilderness, in dangers at sea, in dangers among false brothers, 27 in labor and toil, in sleepless nights often,[c] in hunger and thirst,[d] frequently without food,[e] in cold and lacking clothing.*

28 Besides those things of an external kind, there is what rushes in on me from day to day:* the anxiety for all the congregations.[f] 29 Who is weak, and I am not weak? Who is stumbled, and I am not incensed?

30 If I must boast, I will boast of the things that show my weakness. 31 The God and Father of the Lord Jesus, the One who is to be praised forever, knows I am not lying. 32 In Damascus the governor under A·re'tas the king was guarding the city of the Dam·a·scenes' to seize me, 33 but I was lowered in a basket* through a window in the city wall,[g] and I escaped his hands.

12 I have to boast. It is not beneficial, but I will move on to supernatural visions[h] and revelations of the Lord.[i] 2 I know a man in union with Christ who, 14 years ago—whether in the body or out of the body, I do not know; God knows—was caught away to the third heaven. 3 Yes, I know such a man —whether in the body or apart from the body, I do not know; God knows— 4 who was caught away into paradise and heard words that cannot be spoken and that are not lawful for a man to say. 5 I will boast about such a man, but I will not boast about myself except of my weaknesses. 6 For even if I want to boast, I will not be unreasonable, for I would say the truth.

11:18 *That is, on human grounds. 11:22 *Lit., "seed."

11:27 *Lit., "and in nakedness." 11:28 *Or "the daily pressure on me." 11:33 *Or "wicker basket."

But I refrain from doing so, in order that no one should give me more credit than what he sees in me or hears from me, 7 just because of receiving such extraordinary revelations.

To keep me from becoming overly exalted, I was given a thorn in the flesh,[a] an angel of Satan, to keep slapping* me, so that I might not be overly exalted. 8 Three times I begged the Lord about this, that it would depart from me. 9 But he said to me: "My undeserved kindness is sufficient for you, for my power is being made perfect in weakness."[b] Most gladly, then, I will boast about my weaknesses, in order that the power of the Christ may remain over me like a tent. 10 So I take pleasure in weaknesses, in insults, in times of need, in persecutions and difficulties, for Christ. For when I am weak, then I am powerful.[c]

11 I have become unreasonable. You compelled me to, for I ought to have been recommended by you. For I did not prove to be inferior to your superfine apostles in a single thing, even if I am nothing.[d] 12 Indeed, the signs of an apostle were produced among you with great endurance,[e] and by signs and wonders* and powerful works.[f] 13 For how were you less favored than the rest of the congregations, except that I myself did not become a burden to you?[g] Kindly forgive me for this wrong.

14 Look! This is the third time I am ready to come to you, and I will not become a burden. For I am seeking, not your possessions,[h] but you; for the children[i] are not expected to save up for their parents, but the parents for their children. 15 For my part, I will most gladly spend and be completely spent for you.*[a] If I love you so much more, am I to be loved the less? 16 But be that as it may, I did not burden you.[b] Nevertheless, you say I was "crafty" and I caught you "by trickery." 17 I did not take advantage of you through any of those whom I sent to you, did I? 18 I urged Titus and I sent the brother with him. Titus did not take advantage of you at all, did he?[c] We walked in the same spirit, did we not? In the same footsteps, did we not?

19 Have you been thinking all along that we have been making our defense to you? It is before God that we are speaking in union with Christ. But, beloved ones, all that we do is to build you up. 20 For I am afraid that somehow when I arrive, I may not find you as I wish and I may not be as you wish, but instead, there may be strife, jealousy, outbursts of anger, dissension, backbiting, whispering,* being puffed up with pride, and disorder. 21 Perhaps when I come again, my God might humiliate me before you, and I may have to mourn over many of those who previously sinned but have not repented of their uncleanness and sexual immorality* and brazen conduct# that they have practiced.

13 This is the third time I am coming to you. "On the testimony* of two or three witnesses every matter must be established."[d] 2 Although I am absent now, it is as if I were present for the second time, and I give my warning in advance to those who sinned previously and to all the rest, that if ever I come again I will not spare them, 3 since you are seeking proof that Christ, who is not weak toward you but strong among you, is really speaking through me. 4 For, indeed, he was executed on the stake because of weakness, but he is alive because of God's power.[a] True, we also are weak with him, but we will live together with him[b] because of God's power toward you.[c]

5 Keep testing whether you are in the faith; keep proving what you yourselves are.[d] Or do you not recognize that Jesus Christ is in union with you? Unless you are disapproved. 6 I truly hope you will recognize that we are not disapproved.

7 Now we pray to God that you may do nothing wrong, not that we may appear approved, but that you may do what is fine, even if we may appear disapproved. 8 For we can do nothing against the truth, but only for the truth. 9 We certainly rejoice whenever we are weak but you are powerful. And this is what we are praying for, your being readjusted. 10 That is why I write these things while absent, so that when I am present, I may not have to be severe in using the authority that the Lord gave me,[a] to build up and not to tear down.

11 Finally, brothers, continue to rejoice, to be readjusted, to be comforted,[b] to think in agreement,[c] to live peaceably;[d] and the God of love and of peace[e] will be with you. 12 Greet one another with a holy kiss. 13 All the holy ones send you their greetings.

14 The undeserved kindness of the Lord Jesus Christ and the love of God and the sharing in the holy spirit be with all of you.

1 Paul, an apostle, neither from men nor through a man, but through Jesus Christ[a] and God the Father,[b] who raised him up from the dead, 2 and all the brothers with me, to the congregations of Ga·la′ti·a:

3 May you have undeserved kindness and peace from God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ. 4 He gave himself for our sins[c] so that he might rescue us from the present wicked system of things*[d] according to the will of our God and Father,[e] 5 to whom be the glory forever and ever. Amen.

6 I am amazed that you are so quickly turning away* from the One who called you with Christ's undeserved kindness to another sort of good news.[f] 7 Not that there is another good news; but there are certain ones who are causing you trouble[g] and wanting to distort the good news about the Christ. 8 However, even if we or an angel out of heaven were to declare to you as good news something beyond the good news we declared to you, let him be accursed. 9 As we have said before, I now say again, Whoever is declaring to you as good news something beyond what you accepted, let him be accursed.

10 Is it, in fact, men I am now trying to persuade or God? Or am I trying to please men? If I were still pleasing men, I would not be Christ's slave. 11 For I want you to know, brothers, that the good news I declared to you is not of human origin;[h] 12 for neither did I receive it from man, nor was I taught it, but it was through a revelation by Jesus Christ.

13 Of course, you heard about my conduct formerly in Ju′da·ism,[a] that I kept intensely* persecuting the congregation of God and devastating it;[b] 14 and I was making greater progress in Ju′da·ism than many of my own age in my nation, as I was far more zealous for the traditions of my fathers.[c] 15 But when God, who separated me from my mother's womb and called me through his undeserved kindness,[d] thought good 16 to reveal his Son through me so that I might declare the good news about him to the nations,[e] I did not immediately consult with any human;* 17 nor did I go up to Jerusalem to those who were apostles before I was, but I went to Arabia, and then I returned to Damascus.[f]

18 Then three years later I went up to Jerusalem[g] to visit Ce′phas,*[h] and I stayed with him for 15 days. 19 But I did not see any of the other apostles, only James[i] the brother of the Lord. 20 Now regarding the things I am writing you, I assure you before God that I am not lying.

21 After that I went into the regions of Syria and Ci·li′cia.[j] 22 But I was personally unknown to the congregations of Ju·de′a that were in union with Christ. 23 They only used to hear: "The man who formerly persecuted us[k] is now declaring the good news about the faith that he formerly devastated."[l] 24 So they began glorifying God because of me.

2 Then after 14 years I again went up to Jerusalem with Bar′na·bas,[m] also taking Titus along with me.[n] 2 I went up as a result of a revelation, and I presented to them the good news that I am preaching among the nations. This was done privately, however, before the men who were highly regarded, to make sure that I was not running or had not run in vain. 3 Nevertheless, not even Titus,[a] who was with me, was compelled to be circumcised,[b] although he was a Greek. 4 But that matter came up because of the false brothers brought in quietly,[c] who slipped in to spy on the freedom[d] we enjoy in union with Christ Jesus, so that they might completely enslave us;[e] 5 we did not yield in submission to them,[f] no, not for a moment,* so that the truth of the good news might continue with you.

6 But regarding those who seemed to be important[g]—whatever they were makes no difference to me, for God does not go by a man's outward appearance—those highly regarded men imparted nothing new to me. 7 On the contrary, when they saw that I had been entrusted with the good news for those who are uncircumcised,[h] just as Peter had been for those who are circumcised— 8 for the one who empowered Peter for an apostleship to those who are circumcised also empowered me for those who are of the nations[i]— 9 and when they recognized the undeserved kindness that was given me,[j] James[k] and Ce′phas* and John, the ones who seemed to be pillars, gave Bar′na·bas and me[l] the right hand of fellowship,# so that we should go to the nations but they to those who are circumcised. 10 They asked only that we keep the poor in mind, and this I have also earnestly endeavored to do.[m]

11 However, when Ce′phas*[n] came to Antioch,[o] I resisted# him face-to-face, because he was clearly in the wrong.* 12 For before certain men from James[a] arrived, he used to eat with people of the nations;[b] but when they arrived, he stopped doing this and separated himself, fearing those of the circumcised class.[c] 13 The rest of the Jews also joined him in putting on this pretense,* so that even Bar′na·bas was led along with them in their pretense.* 14 But when I saw that they were not walking in step with the truth of the good news,[d] I said to Ce′phas* before them all: "If you, though you are a Jew, live as the nations do and not as Jews do, how can you compel people of the nations to live according to Jewish practice?"[e]

15 We who are Jews by birth, and not sinners from the nations, 16 recognize that a man is declared righteous, not by works of law, but only through faith[f] in Jesus Christ.[g] So we have put our faith in Christ Jesus, so that we may be declared righteous by faith in Christ and not by works of law, for no one* will be declared righteous by works of law.[h] 17 Now if we have also been found sinners while seeking to be declared righteous by means of Christ, is Christ then sin's minister? Certainly not! 18 If the very things that I once tore down I build up again, I demonstrate that I am a transgressor. 19 For through law I died toward law,[i] so that I might become alive toward God. 20 I am nailed to the stake along with Christ.[j] It is no longer I who live,[k] but it is Christ who is living in union with me. Indeed, the life that I now live in the flesh I live by faith in the Son of God,[l] who loved me and handed himself over for me.[a] 21 I do not reject* the undeserved kindness of God,[b] for if righteousness is through law, Christ actually died for nothing.[c]

3 O senseless Ga·la'tians! Who has brought you under this evil influence,[d] you who had Jesus Christ openly portrayed before you as nailed to the stake?[e] 2 This one thing I want to ask* you: Did you receive the spirit through works of law or because of faith in what you heard?[f] 3 Are you so senseless? After starting on a spiritual course,* are you finishing on a fleshly course?#[g] 4 Did you undergo so many sufferings for nothing? If it really was for nothing. 5 Therefore, does the one who supplies you the spirit and performs powerful works[h] among you do it because of your works of law or because of your faith in what you heard? 6 Just as Abraham "put faith in Jehovah,* and it was counted to him as righteousness."[i]

7 Surely you know that it is those who adhere to faith who are sons of Abraham.[j] 8 Now the scripture, foreseeing that God would declare people of the nations righteous through faith, declared the good news beforehand to Abraham, namely: "By means of you all the nations will be blessed."[k] 9 So those who adhere to faith are being blessed together with Abraham, who had faith.[l]

10 All those who depend on works of law are under a curse, for it is written: "Cursed is everyone who does not remain in all the things written in the scroll of the Law by doing them."[m] 11 Moreover, it is evident that by law no one is declared righteous with God,[a] because "the righteous one will live by reason of faith."[b] 12 Now the Law is not based on faith. Rather, "anyone who does these things will live by means of them."[c] 13 Christ purchased us,[d] releasing us[e] from the curse of the Law by becoming a curse instead of us, because it is written: "Accursed is every man hung upon a stake."[f] 14 This was so that the blessing of Abraham would come to the nations by means of Christ Jesus,[g] so that we might receive the promised spirit[h] through our faith.

15 Brothers, I speak using a human illustration: Once a covenant is validated, even if only by a man, no one annuls it or attaches additions to it. 16 Now the promises were spoken to Abraham and to his offspring.[i] It does not say, "and to your descendants,"# in the sense of many. Rather, it says, "and to your offspring," in the sense of one, who is Christ.[j] 17 Further, I say this: The Law, which came into being 430 years later,[k] does not invalidate the covenant previously made by God, so as to abolish the promise. 18 For if the inheritance is based on law, it is no longer based on a promise; but God has kindly given it to Abraham through a promise.[l]

19 Why, then, the Law? It was added to make transgressions manifest,[m] until the offspring* should arrive[n] to whom the promise had been made; and it was transmitted through angels[o] by the hand of a mediator.[p] 20 Now there is no mediator when just one person is involved, but God is only one. 21 Is the Law, therefore, against the promises of God? Certainly not! For if a law had been given that could give life, righteousness would actually have been by means of law. 22 But the Scripture handed all things over to the custody of sin, so that the promise resulting from faith in Jesus Christ might be given to those exercising faith.

23 However, before the faith arrived, we were being guarded under law, being handed over into custody, looking to the faith that was about to be revealed.[a] 24 So the Law became our guardian* leading to Christ,[b] so that we might be declared righteous through faith.[c] 25 But now that the faith has arrived,[d] we are no longer under a guardian.*[e]

26 You are all, in fact, sons of God[f] through your faith in Christ Jesus.[g] 27 For all of you who were baptized into Christ have put on Christ.[h] 28 There is neither Jew nor Greek,[i] there is neither slave nor freeman,[j] there is neither male nor female,[k] for you are all one in union with Christ Jesus.[l] 29 Moreover, if you belong to Christ, you are really Abraham's offspring,*[m] heirs[n] with reference to a promise.[o]

4 Now I say that as long as the heir is a young child, he is no different from a slave, although he is the lord of all things, 2 but he is under supervisors and stewards until the day set ahead of time by his father. 3 Likewise, we too, when we were children, were enslaved by the elementary things of the world.[p] 4 But when the full limit of the time arrived, God sent his Son, who was born of a woman[q] and who was under law,[r] 5 that he might release by purchase those under law,[s] so that we might receive the adoption as sons.[t]

6 Now because you are sons, God has sent the spirit[a] of his Son into our hearts,[b] and it cries out: "*Abba, Father!"[c] 7 So you are no longer a slave but a son; and if a son, then you are also an heir through God.[d]

8 Nevertheless, when you did not know God, you were enslaved to those who are not really gods. 9 But now that you have come to know God or, rather, have come to be known by God, how is it that you are turning back again to the weak[e] and beggarly elementary things and want to slave for them over again?[f] 10 You are scrupulously observing days and months[g] and seasons and years. 11 I fear for you, that somehow I have wasted my efforts on you.

12 Brothers, I beg you, become as I am, because I also used to be as you are.[h] You did me no wrong. 13 But you know that it was because of a physical illness that I had my first opportunity to declare the good news to you. 14 And though my physical condition was a trial for you, you did not treat me with contempt or disgust;* but you received me like an angel of God, like Christ Jesus. 15 Where is that happiness you had? For I bear you witness that, if it had been possible, you would have gouged out your eyes and given them to me.[i] 16 So, then, have I become your enemy because I tell you the truth? 17 They are zealous to win you over, but not for a good purpose; they want to alienate you from me, so that you may be eager to follow them. 18 However, it is always fine for someone to seek zealously after you for a good purpose and not just when I am present with you,

19 my little children,[a] for whom I am again experiencing birth pains until Christ is formed* in you. 20 I wish I could be present with you just now and speak in a different way, because I am perplexed over you.

21 Tell me, you who want to be under law, Do you not hear the Law? 22 For example, it is written that Abraham had two sons, one by the servant girl[b] and one by the free woman;[c] 23 but the one by the servant girl was actually born through natural descent*[d] and the other by the free woman through a promise.[e] 24 These things may be taken as a symbolic drama; for these women mean two covenants, the one from Mount Si′nai,[f] which bears children for slavery and which is Ha′gar. 25 Now Ha′gar means Si′nai,[g] a mountain in Arabia, and she corresponds with the Jerusalem today, for she is in slavery with her children. 26 But the Jerusalem above is free, and she is our mother.

27 For it is written: "Be glad, you barren woman who does not give birth; break into joyful shouting, you woman who does not have birth pains; for the children of the desolate woman are more numerous than those of her who has the husband."[h] 28 Now you, brothers, are children of the promise the same as Isaac was.[i] 29 But just as then the one born through natural descent* began persecuting the one born through spirit,[j] so also now.[k] 30 Nevertheless, what does the scripture say? "Drive out the servant girl and her son, for the son of the servant girl will by no means be an heir with the son of the free woman."[l] 31 So, brothers, we are children, not of a servant girl, but of the free woman.

5 For such freedom Christ set us free. Therefore, stand firm,[a] and do not let yourselves be confined again in a yoke of slavery.[b]

2 See! I, Paul, am telling you that if you become circumcised, Christ will be of no benefit to you.[c] 3 Again I bear witness to every man who gets circumcised that he is under obligation to keep the whole Law.[d] 4 You are separated from Christ, you who are trying to be declared righteous by means of law;[e] you have fallen away from his undeserved kindness. 5 For our part, we are by spirit eagerly waiting for the hoped-for righteousness resulting from faith. 6 For in union with Christ Jesus, neither circumcision nor uncircumcision is of any value,[f] but faith operating through love is.

7 You were running well.[g] Who hindered you from continuing to obey the truth? 8 This sort of persuasion does not come from the One calling you. 9 A little leaven ferments the whole batch of dough.[h] 10 I am confident that you who are in union with the Lord[i] will not come to think otherwise; but the one who is causing you trouble,[j] whoever he may be, will receive the judgment he deserves. 11 As for me, brothers, if I am still preaching circumcision, why am I still being persecuted? In that case the stumbling block of the torture stake*[k] has been eliminated. 12 I wish the men who are trying to unsettle you would emasculate themselves.*

13 You were called to freedom, brothers; only do not use this freedom as an opportunity to pursue fleshly desires,[a] but through love slave for one another.[b] 14 For the entire Law has been fulfilled* in one commandment, namely: "You must love your neighbor as yourself."[c] 15 If, though, you keep on biting and devouring one another,[d] look out that you do not get annihilated by one another.[e]

16 But I say, Keep walking by spirit[f] and you will carry out no fleshly desire at all.[g] 17 For the flesh is against the spirit in its desire, and the spirit against the flesh; these are opposed to each other, so that you do not do the very things you want to do.[h] 18 Furthermore, if you are being led by spirit, you are not under law.

19 Now the works of the flesh are plainly seen, and they are sexual immorality,[i] uncleanness, brazen conduct,#[j] 20 idolatry, spiritism,[k] hostility, strife, jealousy, fits of anger, dissensions, divisions, sects, 21 envy, drunkenness,[l] wild parties,* and things like these.[m] I am forewarning you about these things, the same way I already warned you, that those who practice such things will not inherit God's Kingdom.[n]

22 On the other hand, the fruitage of the spirit is love, joy, peace, patience,* kindness, goodness,[o] faith, 23 mildness, self-control.[p] Against such things there is no law. 24 Moreover, those who belong to Christ Jesus have nailed to the stake the flesh together with its passions and desires.[q]

25 If we are living by spirit, let us also go on walking orderly by spirit.[a] 26 Let us not become egotistical,[b] stirring up competition with one another,[c] envying one another.

6 Brothers, even if a man takes a false step before he is aware of it, you who have spiritual qualifications try to readjust such a man in a spirit of mildness.[d] But keep an eye on yourself,[e] for fear you too may be tempted.[f] 2 Go on carrying the burdens of one another,[g] and in this way you will fulfill the law of the Christ.[h] 3 For if anyone thinks he is something when he is nothing,[i] he is deceiving himself. 4 But let each one examine his own actions,[j] and then he will have cause for rejoicing in regard to himself alone, and not in comparison with the other person.[k] 5 For each one will carry his own load.*[l]

6 Moreover, let anyone who is being taught* the word share in all good things with the one who gives such teaching.#[m]

7 Do not be misled: God is not one to be mocked. For whatever a person is sowing, this he will also reap;[n] 8 because the one sowing with a view to his flesh will reap corruption from his flesh, but the one sowing with a view to the spirit will reap everlasting life from the spirit.[o] 9 So let us not give up in doing what is fine, for in due time we will reap if we do not tire out.[p] 10 So, then, as long as we have the opportunity, let us work what is good toward all, but especially toward those related to us in the faith.

11 See with what large letters I have written you with my own hand.

12 All those who want to make a good impression in the flesh* are the ones who try to compel you to get circumcised, doing so only to avoid being persecuted for the torture stake# of the Christ. 13 For even those who are getting circumcised do not keep the Law themselves,[a] but they want you to be circumcised so that they may have cause for boasting about your flesh. 14 But may I never boast, except in the torture stake# of our Lord Jesus Christ,[b] through whom the world has been put to death* with regard to me and I with regard to the world. 15 For neither is circumcision anything nor is uncircumcision,[a] but a new creation is.[b] 16 As for all those who walk orderly by this rule of conduct, peace and mercy be upon them, yes, upon the Israel of God.[c]

a Re 2:1, 3

2 May you have undeserved kindness and peace from God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ.

3 Praised be the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, for he has blessed us with every spiritual blessing in the heavenly places in union with Christ,[a] 4 as he chose us to be in union with him* before the founding of the world, that we should be holy and unblemished[b] before him in love. 5 For he foreordained us[c] to be adopted as his own sons[d] through Jesus Christ, according to his good pleasure and will,[e] 6 in praise of his glorious undeserved kindness[f] that he kindly bestowed on us by means of his beloved one.[g] 7 By means of him we have the release by ransom through the blood of that one,[h] yes, the forgiveness of our trespasses,[i] according to the riches of his undeserved kindness.

8 This undeserved kindness he caused to abound toward us in all wisdom and understanding* 9 by making known to us the sacred secret[j] of his will. It is according to his good pleasure that he himself purposed 10 for an administration* at the full limit of the appointed times, to gather all things together in the Christ, the things in the heavens and the things on the earth.[k] Yes, in him 11 with whom we are in union and were assigned as heirs,[l] having been foreordained according to the purpose of the one who accomplishes all things as he decides according to his will, 12 so that we who have been first to hope in the Christ should serve for the praise of his glory. 13 But you also hoped in him after you heard the word of truth, the good news about your salvation. After you believed, you were sealed[m] by means of him with the promised holy spirit, 14 which is a token in advance* of our inheritance,[a] for the purpose of releasing God's own possession[b] by a ransom,[c] to his glorious praise.

15 That is why I also, since I have heard of the faith that you have in the Lord Jesus and the love that you demonstrate toward all the holy ones, 16 never stop giving thanks for you. I continue mentioning you in my prayers, 17 that the God of our Lord Jesus Christ, the Father of glory, may give you a spirit of wisdom and of revelation in the accurate knowledge of him.[d] 18 He has enlightened the eyes of your heart, so that you may know to what hope he called you, what glorious riches he holds as an inheritance for the holy ones,[e] 19 and how surpassing the greatness of his power is toward us believers.[f] It is according to the operation of the mightiness of his strength, 20 which he exercised toward Christ when he raised him up from the dead and seated him at his right hand[g] in the heavenly places, 21 far above every government and authority and power and lordship and every name that is named,[h] not only in this system of things* but also in that to come. 22 He also subjected all things under his feet[i] and made him head over all things with regard to the congregation,[j] 23 which is his body,[k] the fullness of him who fills up all things in all.

2 Furthermore, God made you alive, though you were dead in your trespasses and sins,[l] 2 in which you at one time walked according to the system of things* of this world,[m] according to the ruler of the authority of the air,[a] the spirit[b] that is now at work in the sons of disobedience. 3 Yes, among them we all at one time conducted ourselves in harmony with the desires of our flesh,[c] carrying out the will of the flesh and of our thoughts,[d] and we were naturally children of wrath[e] just as the rest. 4 But God, being rich in mercy,[f] because of his great love with which he loved us,[g] 5 made us alive together with the Christ, even when we were dead in trespasses[h]—by undeserved kindness you have been saved. 6 Moreover, he raised us up together and seated us together in the heavenly places in union with Christ Jesus,[i] 7 so that in the coming systems of things* he might demonstrate the surpassing riches of his undeserved kindness in his graciousness# toward us in union with Christ Jesus.

8 By this undeserved kindness you have been saved through faith,[j] and this is not of your own doing; rather, it is God's gift. 9 No, it is not a result of works,[k] so that no one should have grounds for boasting. 10 We are God's handiwork* and were created[l] in union with Christ Jesus[m] for good works, which God determined in advance for us to walk in them.

11 Therefore, remember that at one time you, people of the nations by fleshly descent, were the ones called "uncircumcision" by those called "circumcision," which is made in the flesh by human hands. 12 At that time you were without Christ, alienated from the state of Israel, strangers to the covenants of the promise;[a] you had no hope and were without God in the world.[b] 13 But now in union with Christ Jesus, you who were once far off have come to be near by the blood of the Christ. 14 For he is our peace,[c] the one who made the two groups one[d] and destroyed the wall in between that fenced them off.[e] 15 By means of his flesh he abolished the enmity, the Law of commandments consisting in decrees, in order to make the two groups in union with himself into one new man[f] and to make peace, 16 and to reconcile fully both peoples in one body to God through the torture stake,*[g] because he had killed off the enmity[h] by means of himself. 17 And he came and declared the good news of peace to you who were far off, and peace to those near, 18 because through him we, both peoples, have free access to the Father by one spirit.

19 So you are no longer strangers and foreigners,[i] but you are fellow citizens[j] of the holy ones and are members of the household of God,[k] 20 and you have been built up on the foundation of the apostles and prophets,[l] while Christ Jesus himself is the foundation cornerstone.[m] 21 In union with him the whole building, being harmoniously joined together,[n] is growing into a holy temple for Jehovah.*[o] 22 In union with him you too are being built up together into a place for God to inhabit by spirit.[p]

3 For this reason I, Paul, the prisoner[q] of Christ Jesus in behalf of you, the people of the nations— 2 if, really, you have heard about the stewardship[r] of God's undeserved kindness that was given to me for your sakes, 3 that by way of a revelation the sacred secret was made known to me, just as I wrote previously in brief. 4 So when you read this, you can realize my comprehension of the sacred secret[a] of the Christ. 5 In other generations this secret was not made known to the sons of men as it has now been revealed to his holy apostles and prophets by spirit,[b] 6 namely, that people of the nations should, in union with Christ Jesus and through the good news, be joint heirs and fellow members of the body[c] and partakers with us of the promise. 7 I became a minister of this according to the free gift of God's undeserved kindness that was given me through the operation of his power.[d]

8 To me, a man less than the least of all holy ones,[e] this undeserved kindness was given,[f] so that I should declare to the nations the good news about the unfathomable riches of the Christ 9 and should make everyone see the administration of the sacred secret[g] that has been hidden through the ages in God, who created all things. 10 This was so that now, through the congregation,[h] there might be made known to the governments and the authorities in the heavenly places the greatly diversified wisdom of God.[i] 11 This is according to the eternal purpose that he formed in connection with the Christ,[j] Jesus our Lord, 12 by means of whom we have this free-ness of speech and free access[k] with confidence through our faith in him. 13 So I ask you not to give up on account of my tribulations in your behalf, for these mean glory for you.[l]

14 For this reason I bend my knees to the Father, 15 to whom every family in heaven and on earth owes its name.
16 I pray that he may grant you through the abundance of his glory to be made mighty in the man you are inside,[a] with power through his spirit, 17 and that through your faith you may have the Christ dwell in your hearts with love.[b] May you be rooted[c] and established on the foundation,[d] 18 in order that with all the holy ones you may be thoroughly able to comprehend fully what is the breadth and length and height and depth, 19 and to know the love of the Christ,[e] which surpasses knowledge, so that you may be filled with all the fullness that God gives.

20 Now to the one who can, according to his power that is operating in us,[f] do more than superabundantly beyond all the things we ask or conceive,[g] 21 to him be the glory by means of the congregation and by means of Christ Jesus to all generations forever and ever. Amen.

4 Therefore I, the prisoner[h] in the Lord, appeal to you to walk worthily[i] of the calling with which you were called, 2 with all humility*[j] and mildness, with patience,[k] putting up with one another in love,[l] 3 earnestly endeavoring to maintain the oneness of the spirit in the uniting bond of peace.[m] 4 One body there is,[n] and one spirit,[o] just as you were called to the one hope[p] of your calling;
5 one Lord,[q] one faith, one baptism; 6 one God and Father of all, who is over all and through all and in all.

7 Now undeserved kindness was given to each one of us according to how the Christ measured out the free gift.[r] 8 For it says: "When he ascended on high he carried away captives;

he gave gifts in men."[a] 9 Now what does the expression "he ascended" mean but that he also descended into the lower regions, that is, the earth? 10 The very one who descended is also the one who ascended[b] far above all the heavens,[c] so that he might give fullness to all things.

11 And he gave some as apostles,[d] some as prophets,[e] some as evangelizers,[f] some as shepherds and teachers,[g] 12 with a view to the readjustment of the holy ones, for ministerial work, to build up the body of the Christ,[h] 13 until we all attain to the oneness* of the faith and of the accurate knowledge of the Son of God, to being a full-grown# man,[i] attaining the measure of stature that belongs to the fullness of the Christ. 14 So we should no longer be children, tossed about as by waves and carried here and there by every wind of teaching[j] by means of the trickery of men, by means of cunning in deceptive schemes. 15 But speaking the truth, let us by love grow up in all things into him who is the head, Christ.[k] 16 From him all the body[l] is harmoniously joined together and made to cooperate through every joint that gives what is needed. When each respective member functions properly, this contributes to the growth of the body as it builds itself up in love.[m]

17 So this is what I say and bear witness to in the Lord, that you should no longer go on walking just as the nations also walk,[n] in the futility* of their minds.[o] 18 They are in darkness mentally and alienated from the life that belongs to God, because of the ignorance that is in them, because of the insensitivity* of their hearts. 19 Having gone past all moral sense, they gave themselves over to brazen conduct*[a] to practice every sort of uncleanness with greediness.

20 But you did not learn the Christ to be like this, 21 if, indeed, you heard him and were taught by means of him, just as truth is in Jesus. 22 You were taught to put away the old personality[b] that conforms to your former course of conduct and that is being corrupted according to its deceptive desires.[c] 23 And you should continue to be made new in your dominant mental attitude,*[d] 24 and should put on the new personality[e] that was created according to God's will in true righteousness and loyalty.

25 Therefore, now that you have put away deceit, each one of you speak truth with his neighbor,[f] because we are members belonging to one another.[g] 26 Be wrathful, but do not sin;[h] do not let the sun set while you are still angry;[i] 27 do not give the Devil an opportunity.[j] 28 Let the one who steals steal no more; rather, let him do hard work, doing good work with his hands,[k] so that he may have something to share with someone in need.[l] 29 Let a rotten word not come out of your mouth,[m] but only what is good for building up as the need may be, to impart what is beneficial to the hearers.[n] 30 Also, do not be grieving God's holy spirit,[a] with which you have been sealed[b] for a day of releasing by ransom.[c]

31 Put away from yourselves every kind of malicious bitterness,[d] anger, wrath, screaming, and abusive speech,[e] as well as everything injurious.[f] 32 But become kind to one another, tenderly compassionate,[g] freely forgiving one another just as God also by Christ freely forgave you.[h]

5 Therefore, become imitators of God,[i] as beloved children, 2 and go on walking in love,[j] just as the Christ also loved us*[k] and gave himself for us* as an offering and a sacrifice, a sweet fragrance to God.[l]

3 Let sexual immorality* and every sort of uncleanness or greediness not even be mentioned among you,[m] just as is proper for holy people;[n] 4 neither shameful conduct nor foolish talking nor obscene jesting[o]—things that are not befitting—but rather the giving of thanks.[p] 5 For you know this, recognizing it for yourselves, that no sexually immoral person*[q] or unclean person or greedy person,[r] which means being an idolater, has any inheritance in the Kingdom of the Christ and of God.[s]

6 Let no man deceive you with empty words, for because of such things the wrath of God is coming upon the sons of disobedience. 7 Therefore, do not be sharers with them; 8 for you were once darkness, but you are now light[t] in connection with the Lord.[u] Go on walking as children of light, 9 for the fruitage of the light consists of every sort of goodness and righteousness and truth.[a] 10 Keep on making sure of what is acceptable[b] to the Lord; 11 and stop sharing in the unfruitful works that belong to the darkness;[c] rather, expose them for what they are. 12 For the things they do in secret are shameful even to mention. 13 Now all the things that are being exposed* are made evident by the light, for everything that is being made evident is light. 14 Therefore, it is said: "Awake, O sleeper, and arise from the dead,[d] and the Christ will shine upon you."[e]

15 So keep strict watch that how you walk is not as unwise but as wise persons, 16 making the best use of your time,[f] because the days are wicked. 17 On this account stop being unreasonable, but keep perceiving what the will of Jehovah is.[g] 18 Also, do not get drunk with wine,[h] in which there is debauchery,* but keep getting filled with spirit. 19 Speak to one another# with psalms, praises to God, and spiritual songs, singing[i] and accompanying yourselves with music[j] in your hearts to Jehovah,*[k] 20 always giving thanks[l] to our God and Father for everything in the name of our Lord Jesus Christ.[m]

21 Be in subjection to one another[n] in fear of Christ. 22 Let wives be in subjection to their husbands[o] as to the Lord, 23 because a husband is head of his wife[p] just as the Christ is head of the congregation,[q] he being a savior of this body. 24 In fact, as the congregation is in subjection to the Christ, wives should also be to their husbands in everything. 25 Husbands, continue loving your wives,[a] just as the Christ also loved the congregation and gave himself up for it,[b] 26 in order that he might sanctify it, cleansing it with the bath of water by means of the word,[c] 27 so that he might present the congregation to himself in its splendor, without a spot or a wrinkle or any of such things,[d] but holy and without blemish.[e]

28 In the same way husbands should love their wives as their own bodies. A man who loves his wife loves himself, 29 for no man ever hated his own body,* but he feeds and cherishes it, just as the Christ does the congregation, 30 because we are members of his body.[f] 31 "For this reason a man will leave his father and his mother and he will stick to* his wife, and the two will be one flesh."[g] 32 This sacred secret[h] is great. Now I am speaking about Christ and the congregation.[i] 33 Nevertheless, each one of you must love his wife[j] as he does himself; on the other hand, the wife should have deep respect for her husband.[k]

6 Children, be obedient to your parents[l] in union with the Lord, for this is righteous. 2 "Honor your father and your mother"[m] is the first command with a promise: 3 "That it may go well with you* and you may remain a long time on the earth." 4 And fathers, do not be irritating your children,[n] but go on bringing them up in the discipline[o] and admonition* of Jehovah.#[p]

5 Slaves, be obedient to your human* masters,[a] with fear and trembling in the sincerity of your hearts, as to the Christ, 6 not only when being watched, just to please men,*[b] but as Christ's slaves doing the will of God whole-souled.#[c] 7 Slave with a good attitude, as to Jehovah#[d] and not to men, 8 for you know that whatever good each one does, he will receive this back from Jehovah,#[e] whether he is a slave or a freeman. 9 Also, you masters, keep treating them in the same way, not threatening, for you know that both their Master and yours is in the heavens,[f] and there is no partiality with him.

10 Finally, go on acquiring power[g] in the Lord and in the mightiness of his strength. 11 Put on the complete suit of armor[h] from God so that you may be able to stand firm against the crafty acts* of the Devil; 12 because we have a struggle,*[i] not against blood and flesh, but against the governments, against the authorities, against the world rulers of this darkness, against the wicked spirit forces[j] in the heavenly places. 13 For this reason take up the complete suit of armor from God,[k] so that you may be able to resist in the wicked day and, after you have accomplished everything, to stand firm.

14 Stand firm, therefore, with the belt of truth fastened around your waist,[l] wearing the breastplate of righteousness,[m] 15 and having your feet shod in readiness to declare the good news of peace.[n] 16 Besides all of this, take up the large shield of faith,[a] with which you will be able to extinguish all the wicked one's burning arrows.*[b] 17 Also, accept the helmet of salvation,[c] and the sword of the spirit, that is, God's word,[d] 18 while with every form of prayer[e] and supplication you carry on prayer on every occasion in spirit.[f] And to that end stay awake, constantly making supplication in behalf of all the holy ones. 19 Pray also for me, that the words may be given to me when I open my mouth, so that I may be able to speak boldly in making known the sacred secret of the good news,[g] 20 for which I am acting as an ambassador[a] in chains, and that I may speak about it with boldness, as I ought to speak.

21 Now so that you may also know about me and how I am doing, Tych'i·cus,[b] a beloved brother and faithful minister in the Lord, will make everything known to you.[c] 22 I am sending him to you for this very purpose, so that you may know how we are and that he may comfort your hearts.

23 May the brothers have peace and love with faith from God the Father and the Lord Jesus Christ. 24 May the undeserved kindness be with all those loving our Lord Jesus Christ in incorruptness.

1 Paul and Timothy, slaves of Christ Jesus, to all the holy ones in union with Christ Jesus who are in Phi·lip'pi,[a] along with overseers and ministerial servants:[b] 2 May you have undeserved kindness and peace from God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ.

plication of mine for all of you. I offer each supplication with joy,[a] 5 because of the contribution you have made to* the good news from the first day until this moment. 6 For I am confident of this very thing, that the one who started a good work in you will bring it to completion[b] until the day of Christ Jesus.[c] 7 It is only right for me to think this regarding all of you, since I have you in my heart, you who are sharers with me in the undeserved kindness both in my prison bonds[d] and in the defending and legally establishing of the good news.[e]

8 For God is my witness of how I am longing for all of you with such tender affection as Christ Jesus has. 9 And this is what I continue praying, that your love may abound still more and more[f] with accurate knowledge[g] and full discernment;[h] 10 that you may make sure of the more important things,[i] so that you may be flawless and not stumbling others[j] up to the day of Christ; 11 and that you may be filled with righteous fruit, which is through Jesus Christ,[k] to God's glory and praise.

12 Now I want you to know, brothers, that my situation has actually turned out for the advancement of the good news, 13 so that my prison bonds[l] for the sake of Christ have become public knowledge[m] among all the Prae·to'ri·an Guard and all the rest. 14 Now most of the brothers in the Lord have gained confidence because of my prison bonds, and they are showing all the more courage to speak the word of God fearlessly.

15 True, some are preaching the Christ out of envy and rivalry, but others out of goodwill.

1:5 *Or "because of your participation in furthering."

16 The latter are proclaiming the Christ out of love, for they know that I have been appointed to defend the good news;[a] 17 but the former do it out of contentiousness, not with a pure motive, for they are intending to create trouble for me in my prison bonds. 18 With what result? Only that in every way, whether in pretense or in truth, Christ is being proclaimed, and I rejoice over this. In fact, I will also keep on rejoicing, 19 for I know that this will result in my salvation through your supplication[b] and with the support of the spirit of Jesus Christ.[c] 20 This is in harmony with my eager expectation and hope that I will not be ashamed in any respect, but that with all freeness of speech Christ will now, as always before, be magnified by means of my body, whether through life or through death.[d]

21 For in my case, to live is Christ[e] and to die is gain.[f] 22 Now if I am to live on in the flesh, this is a fruitage of my work; yet what I would choose, I do not make known. 23 I am torn between these two things, for I do desire the releasing and the being with Christ,[g] which is, to be sure, far better.[h] 24 However, it is more necessary for me to remain in the flesh for your sakes. 25 So, being confident of this, I know I will remain and continue with all of you for your advancement and your joy in the faith, 26 so that your exultation may overflow in Christ Jesus because of me when I am again present with you.

27 Only behave* in a manner worthy of the good news about the Christ,[i] so that whether I come and see you or I am absent, I may hear about you and learn that you are standing firm in one spirit, with one soul,*[a] striving side by side for the faith of the good news, 28 and in no way being frightened by your opponents. This very thing is a proof of destruction[b] for them, but of salvation for you;[c] and this is from God. 29 For you have been given the privilege in behalf of Christ, not only to put your faith in him but also to suffer in his behalf.[d] 30 For you are facing the same struggle that you saw me face,[e] which you now hear that I am still facing.

2 If, then, there is any encouragement in Christ, if any consolation of love, if any spiritual fellowship,* if any tender affection and compassion, 2 make my joy full by being of the same mind and having the same love, being completely united,* having the one thought in mind.[f] 3 Do nothing out of contentiousness[g] or out of egotism,[h] but with humility* consider others superior to you,[i] 4 as you look out not only for your own interests,[j] but also for the interests of others.[k]

5 Keep this mental attitude in you that was also in Christ Jesus,[l] 6 who, although he was existing in God's form,[m] gave no consideration to a seizure, namely, that he should be equal to God.[n] 7 No, but he emptied himself and took a slave's form[o] and became human.[p] 8 More than that, when he came as a man, he humbled himself and became obedient to the point of death,[q] yes, death on a torture stake.#[r] 9 For this very reason, God exalted him to a superior position[a] and kindly gave him the name that is above every other name,[b] 10 so that in the name of Jesus every knee should bend—of those in heaven and those on earth and those under the ground[c]— 11 and every tongue should openly acknowledge that Jesus Christ is Lord[d] to the glory of God the Father.

12 Consequently, my beloved ones, just as you have always obeyed, not only during my presence but now much more readily during my absence, keep working out your own salvation with fear and trembling. 13 For God is the one who for the sake of his good pleasure energizes you, giving you both the desire and the power to act. 14 Keep doing all things free from murmuring[e] and arguments,[f] 15 so that you may come to be blameless and innocent, children of God[g] without a blemish in the midst of a crooked and twisted generation,[h] among whom you are shining as illuminators in the world,[i] 16 keeping a tight grip on the word of life.[j] Then I may have reason for rejoicing in Christ's day, knowing that I did not run in vain or work hard in vain. 17 However, even if I am being poured out like a drink offering[k] on the sacrifice[l] and the holy service* to which your faith has led you, I am glad and I rejoice with all of you. 18 In the same way, you also should be glad and rejoice with me.

19 Now I am hoping in the Lord Jesus to send Timothy[m] to you shortly, so that I may be encouraged when I receive news about you. 20 For I have no one else of a disposition like his who will genuinely care for your concerns. 21 For all the others are seeking their own interests, not those of Jesus Christ.

22 But you know the proof he gave of himself, that like a child[a] with a father he slaved with me to advance the good news. 23 Therefore, he is the one I am hoping to send just as soon as I see how things turn out for me. 24 Indeed, I am confident in the Lord that I myself will also come soon.[b]

25 But for now I consider it necessary to send to you E·paph·ro·di'tus, my brother and fellow worker and fellow soldier, and your envoy and personal servant for my need,[c] 26 since he is longing to see all of you and is depressed because you heard he had fallen sick. 27 Indeed, he did fall sick nearly to the point of death; but God had mercy on him, in fact, not only on him but also on me, so that I should not have one grief after another. 28 Therefore, I am sending him with the greatest urgency, so that when you see him you may again rejoice and I may also be less anxious. 29 So give him the customary welcome in the Lord with all joy, and keep holding men of that sort dear,[d] 30 because he nearly died on account of the work of Christ,* risking his life# in order to make up for your not being here to render personal service to me.[e]

3 Finally, my brothers, continue rejoicing in the Lord.[f] It is not troublesome for me to write the same things to you, and it is for your safety.

2 Look out for the dogs; look out for those who cause injury; look out for those who mutilate the flesh.[g] 3 For we are those with the real circumcision,[h] we who are rendering sacred service by God's spirit and boasting in Christ Jesus[i] and who do not base our confidence in the flesh, 4 though I, if anyone, do have grounds for confidence in the flesh.

If any other man thinks he has grounds for confidence in the flesh, I have more: 5 circumcised the eighth day,[a] of the nation of Israel, of the tribe of Benjamin, a Hebrew born from Hebrews;[b] regarding law, a Pharisee;[c] 6 regarding zeal, persecuting the congregation;[d] regarding righteousness based on law, one who proved himself blameless. 7 Yet, the things that were gains to me, I have considered loss* on account of the Christ.[e] 8 What is more, I do indeed also consider all things to be loss on account of the excelling value of the knowledge of Christ Jesus my Lord. For his sake I have taken the loss of all things and I consider them as a lot of refuse,* that I may gain Christ 9 and be found in union with him, not because of my own righteousness from following the Law, but because of the righteousness that is through faith[f] in Christ,[g] the righteousness from God based on faith.[h] 10 My aim is to know him and the power of his resurrection[i] and to share in his sufferings,[j] submitting myself to a death like his,[k] 11 to see if at all possible I may attain to the earlier resurrection from the dead.[l]

12 Not that I have already received it or am already made perfect, but I am pressing on[m] to see if I may also lay hold on that for which Christ Jesus selected me.*[n] 13 Brothers, I do not yet consider myself as having taken hold of it; but one thing is certain: Forgetting the things behind[a] and stretching forward to the things ahead,[b] 14 I am pressing on toward the goal for the prize[c] of the upward call[d] of God by means of Christ Jesus. 15 Therefore, let those of us who are mature[e] be of this mental attitude, and if you are mentally inclined otherwise in any respect, God will reveal the above attitude to you. 16 At any rate, to the extent we have made progress, let us go on walking orderly in this same course.

17 Unitedly become imitators of me,[f] brothers, and keep your eye on those who are walking in a way that is in harmony with the example we set for you. 18 For there are many—I used to mention them often but now I mention them also with weeping—who are walking as enemies of the torture stake* of the Christ. 19 Their end is destruction, and their god is their belly, and their glory is really their shame, and they have their minds on earthly things.[g] 20 But our citizenship[h] exists in the heavens,[i] and we are eagerly waiting for a savior from there, the Lord Jesus Christ,[j] 21 who will transform our humble body to be like* his glorious body[k] by his great power that enables him to subject all things to himself.[l]

4 Consequently, my brothers whom I love and long for, my joy and crown,[m] stand firm[n] in this way in the Lord, my beloved ones.

2 I urge Eu·o′di·a and I urge Syn′ty·che to be of the same mind in the Lord.[o] 3 Yes, I request you also, as a true fellow worker,* to keep assisting these women who have striven# side by side with me for the good news, along with Clement as well as the rest of my fellow workers, whose names are in the book of life.[a]

4 Always rejoice in the Lord. Again I will say, Rejoice![b] 5 Let your reasonableness[c] become known to all men. The Lord is near. 6 Do not be anxious over anything,[d] but in everything by prayer and supplication along with thanksgiving, let your petitions be made known to God;[e] 7 and the peace[f] of God that surpasses all understanding will guard your hearts[g] and your mental powers* by means of Christ Jesus.

8 Finally, brothers, whatever things are true, whatever things are of serious concern, whatever things are righteous, whatever things are chaste,* whatever things are lovable, whatever things are well-spoken-of, whatever things are virtuous, and whatever things are praiseworthy, continue considering# these things.[h] 9 The things that you learned as well as accepted and heard and saw in connection with me, practice these,[i] and the God of peace will be with you.

10 I rejoice greatly in the Lord that now at last you have renewed your concern for me.[j] Though you were concerned about me, you lacked opportunity to show it. 11 Not that I am saying this because I am in need, for I have learned to be self-sufficient* regardless of my circumstances.[k] 12 I know how to be low on provisions[l] and how to have an abundance. In everything and in all circumstances I have learned the secret of both how to be full and how to hun-

14 Nevertheless, you did well to share with me in my tribulation. 15 In fact, you Phi·lip′pi·ans also know that after you first learned the good news, when I departed from Mac·e·do′ni·a, not a congregation shared with me in the matter of giving and receiving, except you alone;[b] 16 for while I was in Thes·sa·lo·ni′ca, you sent something to me for my need not just once but twice. 17 Not that I am looking for a gift, but I want the fruitage that brings more credit to your account. 18 However, I have everything I need and even more. I am fully supplied, now that I have received from E·paph·ro·di′tus[a] what you sent, a sweet fragrance,[b] an acceptable sacrifice, well-pleasing to God. 19 In turn my God will fully supply all your need[c] according to his riches in glory by means of Christ Jesus. 20 Now to our God and Father be the glory forever and ever. Amen.

21 Give my greetings to every holy one in union with Christ Jesus. The brothers who are with me send you their greetings. 22 All the holy ones, but especially those of the household of Caesar,[d] send you their greetings.

23 The undeserved kindness of the Lord Jesus Christ be with the spirit you show.

1 Paul, an apostle of Christ Jesus through God's will, and Timothy[a] our brother, 2 to the holy ones and faithful brothers in union with Christ at Co·los′sae:

May you have undeserved kindness and peace from God our Father.

3 We always thank God, the Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, when we pray for you, 4 since we heard of your faith in Christ Jesus and the love you have for all the holy ones 5 because of the hope that is being reserved for you in the heavens.[a] You previously heard about this hope through the message of truth of the good news 6 that has come to you. Just as the good news is bearing fruit and increasing in all the world,[b] so it is also doing among you from the day you heard and accurately knew the undeserved kindness of God in truth. 7 That is what you have learned from our beloved fellow slave Ep′a·phras,[c] who is a faithful minister of the Christ on our behalf. 8 He also made known to us your love in a spiritual way.*

9 That is also why from the day we heard of it, we have never stopped praying for you[d] and asking that you may be filled with the accurate knowledge[e] of his will in all wisdom and spiritual comprehension,[f] 10 so as to walk worthily of Jehovah* in order to please him fully as you go on bearing fruit in every good work and increasing in the accurate knowledge of God;[g] 11 and may you be strengthened with all power according to his glorious might[h] so that you may endure fully with patience and joy, 12 as you thank the Father, who made you qualify to share in the inheritance of the holy ones[i] in the light.

13 He rescued us from the authority of the darkness[j] and transferred us into the kingdom of his beloved Son, 14 by means of whom we have our release by ransom, the forgiveness of our sins.[k] 15 He is the image of the invisible God,[l] the firstborn of all creation;[m] 16 because by means of him all other things were created in the heavens and on the earth, the things visible and the things invisible,[a] whether they are thrones or lordships or governments or authorities. All other things have been created through him[b] and for him. 17 Also, he is before all other things,[c] and by means of him all other things were made to exist, 18 and he is the head of the body, the congregation.[d] He is the beginning, the firstborn from the dead,[e] so that he might become the one who is first in all things; 19 because God was pleased to have all fullness to dwell in him,[f] 20 and through him to reconcile to himself all other things[g] by making peace through the blood[h] he shed on the torture stake,* whether the things on the earth or the things in the heavens.

21 Indeed, you who were once alienated and enemies because your minds were on the works that were wicked, 22 he has now reconciled by means of that one's fleshly body through his death, in order to present you holy and unblemished and open to no accusation before him[i]— 23 provided, of course, that you continue in the faith,[j] established on the foundation[k] and steadfast,[l] not being shifted away from the hope of that good news that you heard and that was preached in all creation under heaven.[m] Of this good news I, Paul, became a minister.[n]

24 I am now rejoicing in my sufferings for your sake,[o] and I am undergoing the tribulations of the Christ that are yet lacking in my flesh in behalf of his body,[p] which is the congregation.[q] 25 I became a minister of this congregation in accord with the stewardship[r] from God that was given to me in your behalf to preach the word of God fully, 26 the sacred secret[a] that was hidden from the past systems of things*[b] and from the past generations. But now it has been revealed to his holy ones,[c] 27 to whom God has been pleased to make known among the nations the glorious riches of this sacred secret,[d] which is Christ in union with you, the hope of his glory.[e] 28 He is the one we are proclaiming, admonishing everyone and teaching everyone in all wisdom, so that we may present every person complete in union with Christ.[f] 29 To this end I am indeed working hard, exerting myself with his strength that is operating powerfully within me.[g]

2 For I want you to realize how great a struggle I am having in your behalf and in behalf of those at La·o·di·ce′a[h] and in behalf of all those who have not personally seen me.* 2 This is so that their hearts may be comforted[i] and that they may be harmoniously joined together in love[j] and may have all the riches that result from the full assurance of their understanding, in order to gain an accurate knowledge of the sacred secret of God, namely, Christ.[k] 3 Carefully concealed in him are all the treasures of wisdom and of knowledge.[l] 4 I am saying this so that no one may delude you with persuasive arguments. 5 Though I am absent in body, I am with you in spirit, rejoicing to see your good order[m] and the firmness of your faith in Christ.[n]

6 Therefore, just as you have accepted Christ Jesus the Lord, go on walking in union with him, 7 being rooted and built up in him[a] and being stabilized in the faith,[b] just as you were taught, and overflowing with thanksgiving.[c]

8 Look out that no one takes you captive* by means of the philosophy and empty deception[d] according to human tradition, according to the elementary things of the world and not according to Christ; 9 because it is in him that all the fullness of the divine quality dwells bodily.[e] 10 So you have acquired a fullness by means of him, the one who is the head of all government and authority.[f] 11 By your relationship with him, you were also circumcised with a circumcision performed without hands by stripping off the fleshly body,[g] by the circumcision that belongs to the Christ.[h] 12 For you were buried with him in his baptism,[i] and by your relationship with him you were also raised up[j] together through your faith in the powerful work of God, who raised him up from the dead.[k]

13 Furthermore, though you were dead in your trespasses and in the uncircumcised state of your flesh, God made you alive together with him.[l] He kindly forgave us all our trespasses[m] 14 and erased* the handwritten document[n] that consisted of decrees[o] and was in opposition to us.[p] He has taken it out of the way by nailing it to the torture stake.[#q] 15 He has stripped the governments and the authorities bare and has publicly exhibited them as conquered,[r] leading them in a triumphal procession by means of it.*

16 Therefore, do not let anyone judge you about what you eat and drink[s] or about the observance of a festival or of the new moon[a] or of a sabbath.[b] 17 Those things are a shadow of the things to come,[c] but the reality belongs to the Christ.[d] 18 Let no man deprive you of the prize[e] who takes delight in a false humility and a form of worship of the angels, "taking his stand on"* the things he has seen. He is actually puffed up without proper cause by his fleshly frame of mind, 19 and he is not holding fast to the head,[f] to the one through whom the whole body is supplied and harmoniously joined together by means of its joints and ligaments and made to grow with the growth that is from God.[g]

20 If you died together with Christ with respect to the elementary things of the world,[h] why do you live as if still part of the world by further subjecting yourselves to the decrees:[i] 21 "Do not handle, nor taste, nor touch," 22 referring to things that all perish with their use, according to the commands and teachings of men?[j] 23 Although those things have an appearance of wisdom in a self-imposed form of worship and a false humility, a harsh treatment of the body,[k] they are of no value in combating the satisfying of the flesh.

3 If, however, you were raised up with the Christ,[l] go on seeking the things above, where the Christ is seated at the right hand of God.[m] 2 Keep your minds fixed on the things above,[n] not on the things on the earth.[o] 3 For you died, and your life has been hidden with the Christ in union with God. 4 When the Christ, our life,[p] is made manifest, then you also will be made manifest with him in glory.[q]

5 Deaden, therefore, your body members[a] that are on the earth as respects sexual immorality,* uncleanness, uncontrolled sexual passion,[b] hurtful desire, and greediness, which is idolatry. 6 On account of those things the wrath of God is coming. 7 That is how you too used to conduct yourselves* in your former way of life.#[c] 8 But now you must put them all away from you: wrath, anger, badness,[d] abusive speech,[e] and obscene talk[f] out of your mouth. 9 Do not lie to one another.[g] Strip off the old personality*[h] with its practices, 10 and clothe yourselves with the new personality,[i] which through accurate knowledge is being made new according to the image of the One who created it,[j] 11 where there is neither Greek nor Jew, circumcision nor uncircumcision, foreigner, Scyth'i·an,* slave, or freeman; but Christ is all things and in all.[k]

12 Accordingly, as God's chosen ones,[l] holy and loved, clothe yourselves with the tender affections of compassion,[m] kindness, humility,[n] mildness,[o] and patience.[p] 13 Continue putting up with one another and forgiving one another freely[q] even if anyone has a cause for complaint against another.[r] Just as Jehovah freely forgave you, you must also do the same.[s] 14 But besides all these things, clothe yourselves with love,[t] for it is a perfect bond of union.[u]

15 Also, let the peace of the Christ rule in your hearts,[v] for you were called to that peace in one body. And show yourselves thankful. 16 Let the word of the Christ reside in you richly in all wisdom. Keep on teaching and encouraging one another with psalms,[a] praises to God, spiritual songs sung with gratitude,# singing in your hearts to Jehovah.[△b] 17 Whatever it is that you do in word or in deed, do everything in the name of the Lord Jesus, thanking God the Father through him.[c]

18 You wives, be in subjection to your husbands,[d] as it is becoming in the Lord. 19 You husbands, keep on loving your wives[e] and do not be bitterly angry* with them.[f] 20 You children, be obedient to your parents in everything,[g] for this is well-pleasing to the Lord. 21 You fathers, do not be exasperating* your children,[h] so that they do not become downhearted.# 22 You slaves, be obedient in everything to those who are your human* masters,[i] not only when they are watching, just to please men,# but with sincerity of heart, with fear of Jehovah.[△] 23 Whatever you are doing, work at it whole-souled* as for Jehovah,[△j] and not for men, 24 for you know that it is from Jehovah[△] you will receive the inheritance as a reward.[k] Slave for the Master, Christ. 25 Certainly the one who does wrong will be repaid for the wrong he has done,[l] and there is no partiality.[m]

4 You masters, treat your slaves in a righteous and fair way, knowing that you also have a Master in heaven.[n]

2 Persevere in prayer,[o] remaining awake in it with thanksgiving.[a] 3 At the same time, pray also for us,[b] that God may open a door for the word so that we can declare the sacred secret about the Christ, for which I am in prison bonds,[c] 4 and that I may proclaim it as clearly as I ought to.

5 Go on walking in wisdom toward those on the outside, making the best use of your time.*[d] 6 Let your words always be gracious, seasoned with salt,[e] so that you will know how you should answer each person.[f]

7 Tych′i·cus,[g] my beloved brother and faithful minister and fellow slave in the Lord, will tell you all the news about me. 8 I am sending him to you so that you will know how we are and that he may comfort your hearts. 9 He is coming along with O·nes′i·mus,[h] my faithful and beloved brother, who is from among you; they will tell you all the things happening here.

10 Ar·is·tar′chus,[i] my fellow captive, sends you his greetings, and so does Mark,[j] the cousin of Bar′na·bas (concerning whom you received instructions to welcome him[k] if he comes to you), 11 and Jesus who is called Justus, who are of those circumcised. Only these are my fellow workers for the Kingdom of God, and they have become a source of great comfort* to me. 12 Ep′a·phras,[l] a slave of Christ Jesus who is from among you, sends you his greetings. He is always exerting himself in your behalf in his prayers, so that you may finally stand complete and with firm conviction in all the will of God. 13 For I bear him witness that he makes great efforts in your behalf and in behalf of those in La·o·di·ce′a and Hi·e·rap′o·lis.

1 Paul, Sil·va′nus,*[a] and Timothy,[b] to the congregation of the Thes·sa·lo′ni·ans in union with God the Father and the Lord Jesus Christ:

May you have undeserved kindness and peace.

2 We always thank God when we mention all of you in our prayers,[c] 3 for we continually remember your faithful work, your loving labor, and your endurance because of your hope[d] in our Lord Jesus Christ in the presence of our God and Father. 4 For we know, brothers loved by God, his choosing of you, 5 because the good news we preach did not come to you with speech alone but also with power and with holy spirit and with strong conviction, just as you know what sort of men we became among you for your sakes. 6 And you became imitators of us[a] and of the Lord,[b] seeing that you accepted the word under much tribulation[c] with joy of holy spirit, 7 so that you became an example to all the believers in Mac·e·do′ni·a and in A·cha′ia.

8 The fact is, not only has the word of Jehovah* sounded out from you in Mac·e·do'ni·a and A·cha'ia but your faith in God has spread abroad in every place,[a] so that we do not need to say anything. 9 For they themselves keep reporting about our first contact with you and how you turned to God from your idols[b] to slave for a living and true God, 10 and to wait for his Son from the heavens,[c] whom he raised up from the dead, namely, Jesus, who rescues us from the wrath that is coming.[d]

2 You yourselves surely know, brothers, that our visit to you has not been without results.[e] 2 For although we had first suffered and been insolently treated in Phi·lip'pi,[f] as you know, we mustered up boldness* by means of our God to tell you the good news of God[g] in the face of much opposition.# 3 For the exhortation we give does not spring from error or from uncleanness or with deceit, 4 but just as we have been approved by God to be entrusted with the good news, so we speak to please, not men, but God, who examines our hearts.[h]

5 In fact, you know that we never used flattering speech or put on any false front with greedy motives;[i] God is witness! 6 Nor have we been seeking glory from men, either from you or from others, though we could be an expensive burden as apostles of Christ.[j] 7 On the contrary, we became gentle in your midst, as when a nursing mother tenderly cares for* her own children. 8 So having tender affection for you, we were determined* to impart to you, not only the good news of God but also our very selves,*[a] because you became so beloved to us.[b]

9 Surely you remember, brothers, our labor and toil. We were working night and day, so that we would not put an expensive burden on any one of you,[c] when we preached the good news of God to you. 10 You are witnesses, God is also, of how loyal and righteous and blameless we behaved toward you believers. 11 You well know that we kept exhorting and consoling you and bearing witness to each one of you,[d] just as a father[e] does his children, 12 so that you would go on walking worthily of God,[f] who is calling you to his Kingdom[g] and glory.[h]

13 Indeed, that is why we also thank God unceasingly,[i] because when you received God's word, which you heard from us, you accepted it not as the word of men but, just as it truthfully is, as the word of God, which is also at work in you believers. 14 For you, brothers, became imitators of the congregations of God in union with Christ Jesus that are in Ju·de'a, because you suffered at the hands of your own countrymen[j] the same things that they also are suffering at the hands of the Jews, 15 who even killed the Lord Jesus[k] and the prophets and persecuted us.[l] Furthermore, they are not pleasing God, but are against the interests of all men, 16 as they try to prevent us from speaking to people of the nations so that these might be saved.[m] In this way they always fill up the measure of their sins. But his wrath has at last come upon them.[n]

17 But when we were separated from* you, brothers, for just a short time (in person, not in our hearts), because of our strong desire, we made every effort to see you in person.* 18 For this reason we wanted to come to you, yes I, Paul, tried not just once but twice; yet Satan cut across our path. 19 For what is our hope or joy or crown of exultation before our Lord Jesus at his presence? Is it not in fact you?[a] 20 You certainly are our glory and joy.

3 So when we could bear it no longer, we thought it best to stay on alone in Athens;[b] 2 and we sent Timothy,[c] our brother and God's minister* in the good news about the Christ, to make you firm# and comfort you regarding your faith, 3 so that no one might be shaken* by these tribulations. For you yourselves know that we cannot avoid suffering such things.#[d] 4 For when we were with you, we used to tell you in advance that we would suffer tribulation, and that is what has happened, just as you know.[e] 5 That is why, when I could bear it no longer, I sent to learn of your faithfulness,[f] in case somehow the Tempter[g] might have tempted you, and our labor might have turned out to be in vain.

6 But Timothy has just now come to us from you[h] and has given us the good news about your faithfulness and love, that you always continue to remember us fondly and that you long to see us in the same way as we also do you. 7 That is why, brothers, in all our distress* and tribulation, we have been comforted because of you and the faithfulness you demonstrate.[i] 8 Because we are revitalized* if you are standing firm in the Lord. 9 For how can we show our thanks to God concerning you in return for the great joy we feel before our God on your account? 10 Night and day we make supplications as earnestly as we can to see you in person* and to supply what is lacking in your faith.[a]

11 Now may our God and Father himself and our Lord Jesus make a way for us to come to you. 12 Moreover, may the Lord cause you to increase, yes, to abound in love for one another[b] and for all, just as we do for you, 13 so that he may make your hearts firm, blameless in holiness before our God[c] and Father at the presence of our Lord Jesus[d] with all his holy ones.

4 Finally, brothers, just as you received instruction from us on how you should walk in order to please God,[e] just as you are in fact walking, we request you and appeal to you by the Lord Jesus to keep doing it more fully. 2 For you know the instructions* we gave you through the Lord Jesus.

3 For this is the will of God, that you should be holy[f] and abstain from sexual immorality.[g] 4 Each one of you should know how to control his own body[h] in holiness[i] and honor, 5 not with greedy, uncontrolled sexual passion[j] like the nations have that do not know God.[k] 6 No one should go beyond proper limits and take advantage of his brother in this matter, because Jehovah* exacts punishment for all these things, just as we told you previously and also strongly warned you. 7 For God has called us, not for uncleanness, but for holiness.[a] 8 So, then, the man who disregards this is disregarding, not man, but God,[b] who gives you his holy spirit.[c]

9 However, concerning brotherly love,[d] you do not need us to write to you, for you yourselves are taught by God to love one another.[e] 10 In fact, you are doing so toward all the brothers in all of Mac·e·do'ni·a. But we urge you, brothers, to go on doing so in fuller measure. 11 Make it your aim to live quietly[f] and to mind your own business[g] and to work with your hands,[h] just as we instructed you, 12 so that you may walk decently in the eyes of people outside[i] and not need anything.

13 Moreover, brothers, we do not want you to be ignorant* about those who are sleeping in death,[j] so that you may not sorrow as the rest do who have no hope.[k] 14 For if we have faith that Jesus died and rose again,[l] so too God will bring with him those who have fallen asleep in death through Jesus.[m] 15 For this is what we tell you by Jehovah's* word, that we the living who survive to the presence of the Lord will in no way precede those who have fallen asleep in death; 16 because the Lord himself will descend from heaven with a commanding call, with an archangel's[n] voice and with God's trumpet, and those who are dead in union with Christ will rise first.[o] 17 Afterward we the living who are surviving will, together with them, be caught away in clouds[p] to meet the Lord[q] in the air; and thus we will always be with the Lord.[r] 18 So keep comforting one another with these words.

5 Now as for the times and the seasons, brothers, you need nothing to be written to you. 2 For you yourselves know very well that Jehovah's* day[a] is coming exactly as a thief in the night.[b] 3 Whenever it is that they are saying, "Peace and security!" then sudden destruction is to be instantly on them,[c] just like birth pains on a pregnant woman, and they will by no means escape. 4 But you, brothers, you are not in darkness, so that the day should overtake you as it would thieves, 5 for you are all sons of light and sons of day.[d] We belong neither to night nor to darkness.[e]

6 So, then, let us not sleep on as the rest do,[f] but let us stay awake[g] and keep our senses.[h] 7 For those who sleep, sleep at night, and those who get drunk are drunk at night.[i] 8 But as for us who belong to the day, let us keep our senses and put on the breastplate of faith and love and the hope of salvation as a helmet[j] 9 because God assigned us, not to wrath, but to the acquiring of salvation[k] through our Lord Jesus Christ. 10 He died for us,[l] so that whether we stay awake or are asleep,* we should live together with him.[m] 11 Therefore, keep encouraging* one another and building one another up,[n] just as you are in fact doing.

12 Now we request you, brothers, to show respect for those who are working hard among you and presiding over you in the Lord and admonishing you; 13 and to give them extraordinary consideration in love because of their work.[o] Be peaceable with one another.[p] 14 On the other hand, we the Father and the Lord Jesus Christ.

3 We are obligated always to give thanks to God for you, brothers. This is fitting, because your faith is growing exceedingly and the love of each and every one of you is increasing toward one another.[a] 4 As a result we ourselves take pride in you[a] among the congregations of God because of your endurance and faith in all your persecutions and the hardships* that you are suffering.#[b] 5 This is a proof of the righteous judgment of God, leading to your being counted worthy of the Kingdom of God, for which you are indeed suffering.[c]

6 This takes into account that it is righteous on God's part to repay tribulation to those who make tribulation for you.[d] 7 But you who suffer tribulation will be given relief along with us at the revelation of the Lord Jesus[e] from heaven with his powerful angels[f] 8 in a flaming fire, as he brings vengeance on those who do not know God and those who do not obey the good news about our Lord Jesus.[g] 9 These very ones will undergo the judicial punishment of everlasting destruction[h] from before the Lord and from the glory of his strength, 10 at the time when he comes to be glorified in connection with his holy ones and to be regarded in that day with wonder among all those who exercised faith, because the witness we gave met with faith among you.

11 To that very end we always pray for you, that our God may count you worthy of his calling[i] and with his power perform completely all the good that he pleases and every work of faith. 12 This is so that the name of our Lord Jesus may be glorified in you and you in union with him, according to the undeserved kindness of our God and of the Lord Jesus Christ.

2 However, brothers, concerning the presence of our Lord Jesus Christ[j] and our being gathered together to him,[k] we ask you 2 not to be quickly shaken from your reason nor to be alarmed either by an inspired statement*[a] or by a spoken message or by a letter appearing to be from us, to the effect that the day of Jehovah#[b] is here.

3 Let no one lead you astray* in any way, because it will not come unless the apostasy[c] comes first and the man of lawlessness[d] gets revealed, the son of destruction.[e] 4 He stands in opposition and exalts himself above every so-called god or object of worship,* so that he sits down in the temple of God, publicly showing himself to be a god. 5 Do you not remember that when I was still with you, I used to tell you these things?

6 And now you know what is acting as a restraint, so that he will be revealed in his own due time. 7 True, the mystery of this lawlessness is already at work,[f] but only until the one who is right now acting as a restraint is out of the way. 8 Then, indeed, the lawless one will be revealed, whom the Lord Jesus will do away with by the spirit of his mouth[g] and bring to nothing by the manifestation[h] of his presence. 9 But the lawless one's presence is by the operation of Satan[i] with every powerful work and lying signs and wonders*[j] 10 and every unrighteous deception[k] for those who are perishing, as a retribution because they did not accept the love of the truth in order that they might be saved. 11 That is why God lets a deluding influence mislead them so that they may come to believe the lie,[l] 12 in order that they all may be judged because they did not believe the truth but took pleasure in unrighteousness.

13 However, we are obligated always to thank God for you, brothers loved by Jehovah,* because from the beginning God selected you[a] for salvation by sanctifying you[b] with his spirit and by your faith in the truth. 14 He called you to this through the good news we declare, so that you may acquire the glory of our Lord Jesus Christ.[c] 15 So, then, brothers, stand firm[d] and maintain your hold on the traditions that you were taught,[e] whether it was by a spoken message or by a letter from us. 16 Moreover, may our Lord Jesus Christ himself and God our Father, who loved us[f] and gave everlasting comfort and good hope[g] by means of undeserved kindness, 17 comfort your hearts and make you firm* in every good deed and word.

3 Finally, brothers, carry on prayer for us,[h] that the word of Jehovah* may keep spreading rapidly[i] and being glorified, just as it is with you, 2 and that we may be rescued from harmful and wicked men,[j] for faith is not a possession of all people.[k] 3 But the Lord is faithful, and he will strengthen you and protect you from the wicked one. 4 Moreover, we have confidence in the Lord regarding you, that you are carrying out and will go on carrying out our instructions. 5 May the Lord continue to guide your hearts successfully to the love of God[l] and to the endurance[m] for the Christ.

6 Now we are giving you instructions, brothers, in the name of our Lord Jesus Christ, to withdraw from every brother who is walking disorderly[a] and not according to the tradition* that you# received from us.[b] 7 For you yourselves know how you should imitate us,[c] because we did not behave in a disorderly way among you, 8 nor did we eat anyone's food free.*[d] On the contrary, by labor and toil we were working night and day so as not to impose an expensive burden on any one of you.[e] 9 Not that we do not have authority,[f] but we wanted to offer ourselves as an example for you to imitate.[g] 10 In fact, when we were with you, we used to give you this order: "If anyone does not want to work, neither let him eat."[h] 11 For we hear that some are walking disorderly among you,[i] not working at all, but meddling with what does not concern them.[j] 12 To such people we give the order and exhortation in the Lord Jesus Christ that they should work quietly and eat food they themselves earn.[k]

13 For your part, brothers, do not give up in doing good. 14 But if anyone is not obedient to our word through this letter, keep this one marked and stop associating with him,[l] so that he may become ashamed. 15 And yet do not consider him an enemy, but continue admonishing him[m] as a brother.

16 Now may the Lord of peace himself give you peace constantly in every way.[n] May the Lord be with all of you.

17 Here is my greeting, Paul's, in my own hand,[o] which is a sign in every letter; this is the way I write.

18 The undeserved kindness of our Lord Jesus Christ be with all of you.

1 Paul, an apostle of Christ Jesus by the command of God our Savior and of Christ Jesus, our hope,[a] 2 to Timothy,*[b] a genuine child[c] in the faith:

May you have undeserved kindness and mercy and peace from God the Father and Christ Jesus our Lord.

3 Just as I encouraged you to stay in Eph′e·sus when I was about to go to Mac·e·do′ni·a, so I do now, in order for you to command certain ones not to teach different doctrine, 4 nor to pay attention to false stories[d] and to genealogies. Such things end up in nothing useful[e] but merely give rise to speculations rather than providing anything from God in connection with faith. 5 Really, the objective of this instruction* is love[f] out of a clean heart and out of a good conscience and out of faith[a] without hypocrisy. 6 By deviating from these things, some have been turned aside to meaningless talk.[b] 7 They want to be teachers[c] of law, but they do not understand either the things they are saying or the things they insist on so strongly.

8 Now we know that the Law is fine if one applies it properly,* 9 recognizing that law is made, not for a righteous man, but for those who are lawless[d] and rebellious, ungodly and sinners, disloyal* and profane, murderers of fathers and murderers of mothers, manslayers, 10 sexually immoral people,* men who practice homosexuality,# kidnappers, liars, perjurers,△ and everything else that is in opposition to the wholesome* teaching[a] 11 according to the glorious good news of the happy God, with which I was entrusted.[b]

12 I am grateful to Christ Jesus our Lord, who imparted power to me, because he considered me faithful by assigning me to a ministry,[c] 13 although formerly I was a blasphemer and a persecutor and an insolent man.[d] Nevertheless, I was shown mercy because I acted in ignorance and with a lack of faith. 14 But the undeserved kindness of our Lord abounded exceedingly along with faith and the love that is in Christ Jesus. 15 This saying is trustworthy and deserving of full acceptance: Christ Jesus came into the world to save sinners.[e] Of these, I am foremost.[f] 16 Nevertheless, I was shown mercy so that by means of me as the foremost case, Christ Jesus might demonstrate all his patience, making me an example to those who are going to rest their faith on him for everlasting life.[g]

17 Now to the King of eternity,[h] incorruptible,[i] invisible,[j] the only God,[k] be honor and glory forever and ever. Amen.

18 This instruction* I entrust to you, my child Timothy, in harmony with the prophecies that were made about you, that by these you may go on waging the fine warfare,[l] 19 holding faith and a good conscience,[m] which some have thrust aside, resulting in the shipwreck of their faith. 20 Hy·me·nae′us[n] and Alexander are among these, and I have handed them over to Satan[o] so that they may be taught by discipline not to blaspheme.

2 First of all, then, I urge that supplications, prayers, intercessions, and thanksgiving be made concerning all sorts of men, 2 concerning kings and all those who are in high positions,[a] so that we may go on leading a calm and quiet life with complete godly devotion and seriousness.[b] 3 This is fine and acceptable in the sight of our Savior, God,[c] 4 whose will is that all sorts of people should be saved[d] and come to an accurate knowledge of truth. 5 For there is one God,[e] and one mediator[f] between God and men,[g] a man, Christ Jesus,[h] 6 who gave himself a corresponding ransom for all[i]—this is what is to be witnessed to in its own due time. 7 For the purpose of this witness[j] I was appointed a preacher and an apostle[k]—I am telling the truth, I am not lying—a teacher of nations[l] in the matter of faith and truth.

8 So I desire that in every place the men carry on prayer, lifting up loyal hands,[m] without anger[n] and debates.[o] 9 Likewise, the women should adorn themselves in appropriate* dress, with modesty and soundness of mind,# not with styles of hair braiding and gold or pearls or very expensive clothing,[p] 10 but in the way that is proper for women professing devotion to God,[q] namely, through good works.

11 Let a woman learn in silence* with full submissiveness.[r] 12 I do not permit a woman to teach or to exercise authority over a man, but she is to remain silent.[s] 13 For Adam was formed first, then Eve.[t] 14 Also, Adam was not deceived, but the woman was thoroughly deceived[u] and became a transgressor. 15 However, she will be kept safe through childbearing,[a] provided she continues in faith and love and holiness along with soundness of mind.#[b]

3 This statement is trustworthy: If a man is reaching out to be an overseer,[c] he is desirous of a fine work. 2 The overseer should therefore be irreprehensible, a husband of one wife, moderate in habits, sound in mind,[d] orderly, hospitable,[e] qualified to teach,[f] 3 not a drunkard,[g] not violent, but reasonable,[h] not quarrelsome,[i] not a lover of money,[j] 4 a man presiding over* his own household in a fine manner, having his children in subjection with all seriousness[k] 5 (for if any man does not know how to preside over* his own household, how will he care for the congregation of God?), 6 not a newly converted man,[l] for fear that he might get puffed up with pride and fall into the judgment passed on the Devil. 7 Moreover, he should also have a fine testimony* from outsiders[m] so that he does not fall into reproach# and a snare of the Devil.

8 Ministerial servants should likewise be serious, not double-tongued,* not indulging in a lot of wine, not greedy of dishonest gain,[n] 9 holding the sacred secret of the faith with a clean conscience.[o]

10 Also, let these be tested as to fitness* first; then let them serve as ministers, as they are free from accusation.[p]

11 Women should likewise be serious, not slanderous,[q] moderate in habits, faithful in all things.[a]

12 Let ministerial servants be husbands of one wife, presiding in a fine manner over their children and their own households. 13 For the men who minister in a fine manner are acquiring for themselves a fine standing and great freeness of speech in the faith that is in Christ Jesus.

14 I am writing you these things, though I am hoping to come to you shortly, 15 but in case I am delayed, so that you may know how you ought to conduct yourself in God's household,[b] which is the congregation of the living God, a pillar and support of the truth. 16 Indeed, the sacred secret of this godly devotion is admittedly great: 'He was made manifest in flesh,[c] was declared righteous in spirit,[d] appeared to angels,[e] was preached about among nations,[f] was believed upon in the world,[g] was received up in glory.'

4 However, the inspired word* clearly says that in later times some will fall away from the faith, paying attention to misleading inspired statements#[h] and teachings of demons, 2 by means of the hypocrisy of men who speak lies,[i] whose conscience is seared as with a branding iron. 3 They forbid marriage[j] and command people to abstain from foods[k] that God created to be partaken of[l] with thanksgiving by those who have faith[m] and accurately know the truth. 4 For every creation of God is fine,[n] and nothing is to be rejected[o] if it is received with thanksgiving, 5 for it is sanctified through God's word and prayer over it.

6 By giving this counsel to the brothers, you will be a fine minister of Christ Jesus, one nourished with the words of the faith and of the fine teaching that you have followed closely.[a] 7 But reject irreverent false stories,[b] like those told by old women. On the other hand, train yourself with godly devotion as your aim. 8 For physical training* is beneficial for a little, but godly devotion is beneficial for all things, as it holds promise of the life now and the life that is to come.[c] 9 That statement is trustworthy and deserves full acceptance. 10 This is why we are working hard and exerting ourselves,[d] because we have rested our hope on a living God, who is a Savior[e] of all sorts of men,[f] especially of faithful ones.

11 Keep on giving these commands and teaching them. 12 Never let anyone look down on your youth. Instead, become an example to the faithful ones in speaking, in conduct, in love, in faith, in chasteness.* 13 Until I come, continue applying yourself to public reading,[g] to exhortation,* to teaching. 14 Do not neglect the gift in you that was given you through a prophecy when the body of elders laid their hands on you.[h] 15 Ponder over* these things; be absorbed in them, so that your advancement may be plainly seen by all people. 16 Pay constant attention to yourself and to your teaching.[i] Persevere in these things, for by doing this you will save both yourself and those who listen to you.[j]

5 Do not severely criticize an older man.[k] On the contrary, appeal to him as a father, to younger men as brothers, 2 to older women as mothers, to younger women as sisters, with all chasteness.

3 Give consideration to* widows who are truly widows.[#a] 4 But if any widow has children or grandchildren, let these learn first to practice godly devotion in their own household[b] and to repay their parents and grandparents what is due them,[c] for this is acceptable in God's sight.[d] 5 Now the woman who is truly a widow and left destitute has put her hope in God[e] and continues in supplications and prayers night and day.[f] 6 But the one who gives herself to sensual gratification is dead though she is living. 7 So keep on giving these instructions,* so that they may be irreprehensible. 8 Certainly if anyone does not provide for those who are his own, and especially for those who are members of his household, he has disowned the faith and is worse than a person without faith.[g]

9 A widow is to be put on the list if she is not less than 60 years old, was the wife of one husband, 10 having a reputation for fine works,[h] if she raised children,[i] if she practiced hospitality,[j] if she washed the feet of holy ones,[k] if she assisted the afflicted,[l] if she devoted herself to every good work.

11 On the other hand, do not put younger widows on the list, for when their sexual desires come between them and the Christ, they want to marry. 12 And they will incur judgment because they have abandoned their first expression of faith.* 13 At the same time they also learn to be unoccupied, going around from one house to another; yes, not only unoccupied but also gossipers and meddlers in other people's affairs,[a] talking about things they should not. 14 Therefore, I desire the younger widows to marry,[b] to bear children,[c] to manage a household, to give no opportunity to the opposer to criticize. 15 In fact, some have already been turned aside to follow Satan. 16 If any believing woman has relatives who are widows, let her assist them so that the congregation is not burdened. Then it can assist those who are truly widows.*[d]

17 Let the elders who preside in a fine way[e] be considered worthy of double honor,[f] especially those who work hard in speaking and teaching.[g] 18 For the scripture says, "You must not muzzle a bull when it is threshing out the grain,"[h] also, "The worker is worthy of his wages."[i] 19 Do not accept an accusation against an older man* except on the evidence of two or three witnesses.[j] 20 Reprove[k] before all onlookers those who practice sin,[l] as a warning to the rest.* 21 I solemnly charge you before God and Christ Jesus and the chosen angels to observe these instructions without any prejudice or partiality.[m]

22 Never lay your hands hastily on any man;*[n] neither become a sharer in the sins of others; keep yourself chaste.

23 Do not drink water any longer,* but take a little wine for the sake of your stomach and your frequent cases of sickness.

24 The sins of some men are publicly known, leading directly to judgment, but those of other men become evident later.[o]

25 In the same way also, the fine works are publicly known[a] and those that are otherwise cannot be kept hidden.[b]

6 Let those who are under the yoke of slavery keep on considering their owners worthy of full honor,[c] so that the name of God and the teaching may never be spoken of injuriously.[d] 2 Moreover, let those having believing owners not be disrespectful to them because they are brothers. Rather, they should serve more readily, because those receiving the benefit of their good service are believers and beloved.

Keep on teaching these things and giving these exhortations. 3 If any man teaches another doctrine and does not agree with the wholesome* instruction,[e] which is from our Lord Jesus Christ, nor with the teaching that is in harmony with godly devotion,[f] 4 he is puffed up with pride and does not understand anything.[g] He is obsessed* with arguments and debates about words.[h] These things give rise to envy, strife, slander,# wicked suspicions, 5 constant disputes about minor matters by men who are corrupted in mind[i] and deprived of the truth, thinking that godly devotion is a means of gain.[j] 6 To be sure, there is great gain in godly devotion[k] along with contentment.* 7 For we have brought nothing into the world, and neither can we carry anything out.[l] 8 So, having food* and clothing,# we will be content with these things.[m]

9 But those who are determined to be rich fall into temptation and a snare[n] and many senseless and harmful desires that plunge men into destruction and ruin.[a] 10 For the love of money is a root of all sorts of injurious things, and by reaching out for this love some have been led astray from the faith and have stabbed themselves all over with many pains.[b]

11 However, you, O man of God, flee from these things. But pursue righteousness, godly devotion, faith, love, endurance, and mildness.[c] 12 Fight the fine fight of the faith; get a firm hold on the everlasting life for which you were called and you offered the fine public declaration in front of many witnesses.

13 Before God, who preserves all things alive, and Christ Jesus, who as a witness made the fine public declaration before Pontius Pilate,[d] I give you orders 14 to observe the commandment in a spotless and irreprehensible way until the manifestation of our Lord Jesus Christ,[e] 15 which the happy and only Potentate will show in its own appointed times. He is the King of those who rule as kings and Lord of those who rule as lords,[f] 16 the one alone having immortality,[a] who dwells in unapproachable light,[b] whom no man has seen or can see.[c] To him be honor and eternal might. 20 Timothy, guard what has been entrusted to you,[i] turning away from the empty speeches that violate what is holy and from the contradictions of the falsely called "knowledge."[j] 21 By making a show of such knowledge, some have deviated from the faith.

1 Paul, an apostle of Christ Jesus by God's will according to the promise of the life that is through Christ Jesus,[a] 2 to Timothy, a beloved child:[b]

May you have undeserved kindness, mercy, and peace from God the Father and Christ Jesus our Lord.

3 I am grateful to God, to whom I am rendering sacred service as my forefathers did, and with a clean conscience, never ceasing to remember you in my supplications night and day. 4 As I remember your tears, I am longing to see you, so that I may get filled with joy. 5 For I recall your unhypocritical faith,[c] which dwelled first in your grandmother Lo'is and your mother Eu'nice, but which I am confident is also in you.

6 For this reason I remind you to stir up like a fire the gift of God that is in you through the laying of my hands on you.[d] 7 For God did not give us a spirit of cowardice,[e] but one of power[f] and of love and of soundness of mind. 8 So do not become ashamed either of the witness about our Lord[g] or of me, a prisoner for his sake, but take your part in suffering adversity[h] for the good news by relying on the power of God.[i] 9 He saved us and called us with a holy calling,[j] not because of our works, but because of his own purpose and undeserved kindness.[k] This was given to us in connection with Christ Jesus before times long ago, 10 but now it has been made clearly evident through the manifestation of our Savior, Christ Jesus,[a] who has abolished death[b] and has shed light on life[c] and incorruption[d] through the good news,[e] 11 for which I was appointed a preacher and an apostle and a teacher.[f]

12 This is why I am also suffering these things,[g] but I am not ashamed.[h] For I know the One whom I have believed, and I am confident that he is able to guard what I have laid up in trust with him until that day.[i] 13 Keep holding to the standard* of wholesome# words[j] that you heard from me with the faith and love that result from union with Christ Jesus. 14 Guard this fine trust by means of the holy spirit, which is dwelling in us.[k]

15 You know this, that all the men in the province of Asia[l] have turned away from me, including Phy·gel'us and Her·mog'e·nes. 16 May the Lord grant mercy to the household of On·e·siph'o·rus,[m] for he often refreshed me, and he did not become ashamed of my prison chains. 17 On the contrary, when he was in Rome, he diligently looked for me and found me. 18 May the Lord grant him to find mercy from Jehovah* in that day. And you well know all the services he rendered in Eph'e·sus.

2 You, therefore, my child,[a] keep on acquiring power in the undeserved kindness that is in Christ Jesus; 2 and the things you heard from me that were supported by many witnesses,[b] these things entrust to faithful men, who, in turn, will be adequately qualified to teach others. 3 As a fine soldier[c] of Christ Jesus, take your part in suffering adversity.[d] 4 No man serving as a soldier involves himself* in the commercial businesses# of life, in order to gain the approval of the one who enrolled him as a soldier. 5 And even in the games, anyone who competes is not crowned unless he has competed according to the rules.[e] 6 The hardworking farmer must be the first to partake of the fruits. 7 Give constant thought to what I am saying; the Lord will give you understanding* in all things.

8 Remember that Jesus Christ was raised up from the dead[f] and was David's offspring,*[g] according to the good news I preach,[h] 9 for which I am suffering and being imprisoned as a criminal.[i] Nevertheless, the word of God is not bound.[j] 10 For this reason I go on enduring all things for the sake of the chosen ones,[k] so that they too may obtain the salvation that is through Christ Jesus, along with everlasting glory. 11 This saying is trustworthy: Certainly if we died together, we will also live together;[l] 12 if we go on enduring, we will also rule together as kings;[m] if we deny, he will also deny us;[n] 13 if we are unfaithful, he remains faithful, for he cannot deny himself.

14 Keep reminding them of these things, instructing* them before God not to fight about words, something of no usefulness at all because it harms# those listening. 15 Do your utmost to present yourself approved to God, a workman with nothing to be ashamed of, handling the word of the truth aright.[a] 16 But reject empty speeches that violate what is holy,[b] for they will lead to more and more ungodliness, 17 and their word will spread like gangrene. Hy·me·nae′us and Phi·le′tus are among them.[c] 18 These men have deviated from the truth, saying that the resurrection has already occurred,[d] and they are subverting the faith of some. 19 Despite that, the solid foundation of God remains standing, having this seal, "Jehovah* knows those who belong to him,"[e] and, "Let everyone calling on the name of Jehovah*[f] renounce unrighteousness."

20 Now in a large house there are utensils* not only of gold and silver but also of wood and earthenware, and some for an honorable use but others for a use lacking honor. 21 So if anyone keeps clear of the latter ones, he will be an instrument* for an honorable use, sanctified, useful to his owner, prepared for every good work. 22 So flee from youthful desires, but pursue righteousness, faith, love, peace, along with those who call on the Lord out of a clean heart.

23 Further, reject foolish and ignorant debates,[g] knowing that they produce fights. 24 For a slave of the Lord does not need to fight, but needs to be gentle* toward all,[a] qualified to teach, showing restraint when wronged,[b] 25 instructing with mildness those not favorably disposed.[c] Perhaps God may give them repentance* leading to an accurate knowledge of truth,[d] 26 and they may come to their senses and escape from the snare of the Devil, seeing that they have been caught alive by him to do his will.[e]

3 But know this, that in the last days[f] critical times hard to deal with will be here. 2 For men will be lovers of themselves, lovers of money, boastful, haughty, blasphemers, disobedient to parents, unthankful, disloyal, 3 having no natural affection, not open to any agreement, slanderers, without self-control, fierce, without love of goodness, 4 betrayers, headstrong, puffed up with pride, lovers of pleasures rather than lovers of God, 5 having an appearance of godliness but proving false to its power;[g] and from these turn away. 6 From among these arise men who slyly work their way into households and captivate weak women loaded down with sins, led by various desires, 7 always learning and yet never able to come to an accurate knowledge of truth.

8 Now in the way that Jan′nes and Jam′bres opposed Moses, so these also go on opposing the truth. Such men are completely corrupted in mind, disapproved as regards the faith. 9 Nevertheless, they will make no further progress, for their folly* will be very plain to all, as it was with those two men.[h] 10 But you have closely followed my teaching, my course of life,[i] my purpose, my faith, my patience, my love, my endurance, 11 the persecutions and sufferings such as I experienced in An·ti·och,[a] in I·co′ni·um,[b] in Lys′tra.[c] I endured these persecutions, and the Lord rescued me from them all.[d] 12 In fact, all those desiring to live with godly devotion in association with Christ Jesus will also be persecuted.[e] 13 But wicked men and impostors will advance from bad to worse, misleading and being misled.[f]

14 You, however, continue in the things that you learned and were persuaded to believe,[g] knowing from whom you learned them 15 and that from infancy[h] you have known the holy writings,[i] which are able to make you wise for salvation through faith in Christ Jesus.[j] 16 All Scripture is inspired of God[k] and beneficial for teaching,[l] for reproving, for setting things straight,* for disciplining in righteousness,[m] 17 so that the man of God may be fully competent, completely equipped for every good work.

4 I solemnly charge you before God and Christ Jesus, who is to judge[n] the living and the dead,[o] and by his manifestation[p] and his Kingdom:[q] 2 Preach the word;[r] be at it urgently in favorable times and difficult times; reprove,[s] reprimand, exhort, with all patience and art of teaching.[t] 3 For there will be a period of time when they will not put up with the wholesome* teaching,[u] but according to their own desires, they will surround themselves with teachers to have their ears tickled.#[v] 4 They will turn away from listening to the truth and give attention to false stories. 5 You, though, keep your senses in all things, endure hardship,[w] do

1 Paul, a slave of God and an apostle of Jesus Christ according to the faith of God's chosen ones and the accurate knowledge of the truth that is according to godly devotion 2 and is based on a hope of the everlasting life[a] that God, who cannot lie,[b] promised long ago; 3 but in his own due time, he made his word known through the preaching entrusted to me[c] according to the command of our Savior, God; 4 to Titus, a genuine child according to the faith we share:

May you have undeserved kindness and peace from God the Father and Christ Jesus our Savior.

5 I left you in Crete so that you would correct the things that were defective* and make appointments of elders in city after city, as I instructed you: 6 if there is any man free from accusation, a husband of one wife, having believing children who are not accused of debauchery* or rebelliousness.[d] 7 For as God's steward, an overseer must be free from accusation, not self-willed,[e] not quick-tempered,[f] not a drunkard, not violent,* not greedy of dishonest gain, 8 but hospitable,[g] a lover of goodness, sound in mind,[h] righteous, loyal,[i] self-controlled,[j] 9 holding firmly to the faithful word as respects his art of teaching,[k] so that he may be able both to encourage# by the teaching that is wholesome^[l] and to reprove[m] those who contradict.

10 For there are many rebellious men, profitless talkers, and deceivers, especially those who adhere to the circumcision.[n] 11 It is necessary to shut their mouths, because these very men keep on subverting entire households by teaching things they should not for the sake of dishonest gain. 12 A certain one of them, their own prophet, said: "Cre'tans are always liars, injurious wild beasts, idle gluttons."

13 This witness is true. For this very reason, keep on reproving them with severity so that they may be healthy in the faith, 14 paying no attention to Jewish fables and commandments of men who turn away from the truth. 15 All things are clean to clean people;[a] but to those who are defiled and faithless, nothing is clean, for both their minds and their consciences are defiled.[b] 16 They publicly declare that they know God, but they disown him by their works,[c] because they are detestable and disobedient and not approved for good work of any sort.

2 You, however, keep on speaking what is consistent with wholesome^ teaching.[d] 2 Let the older men be moderate in habits, serious, sound in mind, healthy in faith, in love, in endurance. 3 Likewise, let the older women be reverent in behavior, not slanderous, not enslaved to a lot of wine, teachers of what is good, 4 so that they may advise* the younger women to love their husbands, to love their children, 5 to be sound in mind, chaste, working at home,* good, subjecting themselves to their own husbands,[e] so that the word of God may not be spoken of abusively.

6 Likewise, keep on urging the younger men to be sound in mind,[f] 7 showing yourself to be an example of fine works in every way. Teach what is pure* with all seriousness,[g] 8 using wholesome* speech that cannot be criticized,[a] so that those who oppose may be put to shame, having nothing negative# to say about us.[b] 9 Let slaves be in subjection to their owners in all things,[c] trying to please them, not talking back, 10 not stealing from them,[d] but showing complete trustworthiness, so that in every way they may adorn the teaching of our Savior, God.[e]

11 For the undeserved kindness of God has been manifested, bringing salvation to all sorts of people.[f] 12 It trains us to reject ungodliness and worldly desires[g] and to live with soundness of mind and righteousness and godly devotion amid this present system of things,[h] 13 while we wait for the happy hope[i] and glorious manifestation of the great God and of our Savior, Jesus Christ, 14 who gave himself for us[j] to set us free[k] from every sort of lawlessness and to cleanse for himself a people who are his own special possession, zealous for fine works.[l]

15 Keep on speaking these things and exhorting* and reproving with full authority.[m] Do not let anyone look down on you.

3 Continue reminding them to be in subjection and to be obedient to governments and authorities,[n] to be ready for every good work, 2 to speak injuriously of no one, not to be quarrelsome, but to be reasonable,[o] displaying all mildness toward all men.[p] 3 For we too were once senseless, disobedient, led astray, being slaves to various desires and pleasures, carrying on in badness and envy, detestable, hating one another.

4 However, when the kindness of our Savior, God,[q] and his love for mankind were manifested 5 (not because of any righteous works we had done,[a] but because of his own mercy),[b] he saved us by means of the bath that brought us to life[c] and by making us new by holy spirit.[d] 6 He poured this spirit out richly* on us through Jesus Christ our Savior,[e] 7 so that after being declared righteous through the undeserved kindness of that one,[f] we might become heirs[g] according to a hope of everlasting life.[h]

8 These words are trustworthy, and I want you to keep stressing these matters, so that those who have believed God may keep their minds focused on maintaining fine works. These things are fine and beneficial to men.

9 But have nothing to do with foolish arguments and genealogies and disputes and fights over the Law, for they are unprofitable and futile.[i] 10 As for a man who promotes a sect,[j] reject him[k] after a first and a second admonition,*[l] 11 knowing that such a man has deviated from the way and is sinning and is self-condemned.

12 When I send Ar′te·mas or Tych′i·cus[m] to you, do your utmost to come to me at Ni·cop′o·lis, for that is where I have decided to spend the winter. 13 Carefully supply Ze′nas, who is versed in the Law, and A·pol′los so that they may lack nothing for their trip.[n] 14 But let our people also learn to maintain fine works so as to help in cases of urgent need,[o] so that they may not be unproductive.*[p]

15 All those with me send you their greetings. Give my greetings to those who have affection for us in the faith.

May the undeserved kindness be with all of you.

PHILEMON

OUTLINE OF CONTENTS

Greetings (1-3)
Philemon's love and faith (4-7)
Paul's appeal for Onesimus (8-22)
Final greetings (23-25)

1 Paul, a prisoner[a] for the sake of Christ Jesus, and Timothy[b] our brother, to Phi·le′mon our beloved fellow worker, 2 and to Ap′phi·a our sister, and to Ar·chip′pus[c] our fellow soldier, and to the congregation that is in your house:[d]

3 May you have undeserved kindness and peace from God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ.

4 I always thank my God when I mention you in my prayers,[e] 5 as I keep hearing of your faith and the love that you have for* the Lord Jesus and for* all the holy ones. 6 I pray that your sharing in the faith may move you to acknowledge every good thing that we have through Christ. 7 For I received much joy and comfort on hearing of your love, because the hearts* of the holy ones have been refreshed through you, brother.

8 For this very reason, though I have great freeness of speech in connection with Christ to order you to do what is proper, 9 I would rather appeal to you on the basis of love, seeing that I am Paul an older man, yes, now also a prisoner for the sake of Christ Jesus. 10 I am appealing to you for my child, whose father I became[a] while in prison,* O·nes′i·mus.[b] 11 He was formerly useless to you, but now he is useful to you and to me. 12 I am sending him back to you, yes him, my very own heart.*

13 I would like to keep him here for myself so that he might take your place in ministering to me during my imprisonment for the sake of the good news.[c] 14 But I do not want to do anything without your consent, so that your good deed may be done, not under compulsion, but of your own free will.[d] 15 Perhaps this is really why he broke away for a short while,* so that you may have him back forever, 16 no longer as a slave,[e] but as more than a slave, as a brother who is beloved,[f] especially so to me, but how much more so to you, both in the flesh and in the Lord. 17 So if you consider me a friend,* receive him kindly the same way you would me. 18 Moreover, if he did you any wrong or owes you anything, charge it to my account. 19 I, Paul, am writing with my own hand: I will pay it back—not to mention that you owe me even your own self. 20 Yes, brother,

21 I am confident that you will comply, so I am writing you, knowing that you will do even more than what I say. 22 But along with that, also prepare a place for me to stay, for I am hoping that through your prayers I will be given back to you.*[a]

23 Sending you greetings is Ep′a·phras,[b] my fellow captive in union with Christ Jesus, 24 also Mark, Ar·is·tar′chus,[c] De′mas,[d] and Luke,[e] my fellow workers.

25 The undeserved kindness of the Lord Jesus Christ be with the spirit you show.

1 Long ago God spoke to our forefathers by means of the prophets on many occasions and in many ways.[a] 2 Now at the end of these days he has spoken to us by means of a Son,[b] whom he appointed heir of all things,[c] and through whom he made the systems of things.*[d] 3 He is the reflection of God's glory[e] and the exact representation of his very being,[f] and he sustains all things by the word of his power. And after he had made a purification for our sins,[g] he sat down at the right hand of the Majesty on high.[h] 4 So he has become better than the angels[i] to the extent that he has inherited a name more excellent than theirs.[j]

5 For example, to which one of the angels did God ever say: "You are my son; today I have become your father"?[k] And again: "I will become his father, and he will become my son"?[l] 6 But when he again brings his Firstborn[m] into the inhabited earth, he says: "And let all of God's angels do obeisance to him."*

7 Also, he says about the angels: "He makes his angels spirits, and his ministers*[n] a flame of fire."[o] 8 But about the Son, he says: "God is your throne[p] forever and ever, and the scepter of your Kingdom is the scepter of uprightness.* 9 You loved righteousness, and you hated lawlessness. That is why God, your God, anointed you[a] with the oil of exultation more than your companions."[b] 10 And: "At the beginning, O Lord, you laid the foundations of the earth, and the heavens are the works of your hands. 11 They will perish, but you will remain; and just like a garment, they will all wear out, 12 and you will wrap them up just as a cloak, as a garment, and they will be changed. But you are the same, and your years will never come to an end."[c]

13 But about which of the angels has he ever said: "Sit at my right hand until I place your enemies as a stool for your feet"?[d] 14 Are they not all spirits for holy service,*[e] sent out to minister for those who are going to inherit salvation?

2 That is why it is necessary for us to pay more than the usual attention to the things we have heard,[f] so that we never drift away.[g] 2 For if the word spoken through angels[h] proved to be sure, and every transgression and disobedient act received a punishment in harmony with justice,[i] 3 how will we escape if we have neglected so great a salvation?[j] For it began to be spoken through our Lord[k] and was verified for us by those who heard him, 4 while God joined in bearing witness with signs and wonders* and various powerful works[a] and with the holy spirit distributed according to his will.[b]

5 For it is not to angels that he has subjected the inhabited earth to come,[c] about which we are speaking. 6 But in one place a certain witness said: "What is man that you keep him in mind, or a son of man that you take care of him?[d] 7 You made him a little lower than angels; you crowned him with glory and honor, and appointed him over the works of your hands. 8 All things you subjected under his feet."[e] By subjecting all things to him,[f] God left nothing that is not subject to him.[g] Now, though, we do not yet see all things in subjection to him.[h] 9 But we do see Jesus, who was made a little lower than angels,[i] now crowned with glory and honor for having suffered death,[j] so that by God's undeserved kindness he might taste death for everyone.[k]

10 For it was fitting that the one for whom and through whom all things exist, in bringing many sons to glory,[l] should make the Chief Agent of their salvation[m] perfect through sufferings.[n] 11 For both the one who is sanctifying and those who are being sanctified[o] all stem from one,[p] and for this reason he is not ashamed to call them brothers,[q] 12 as he says: "I will declare your name to my brothers; in the midst of the congregation I will praise you with song."[r] 13 And again: "I will put my trust in him."[s] And again: "Look! I and the young children, whom Jehovah* gave me."[t]

14 Therefore, since the "young children" are sharers of blood and flesh, he also similarly shared in the same things,[a] so that through his death he might bring to nothing the one having the means to cause death,[b] that is, the Devil,[c] 15 and that he might set free* all those who were held in slavery all their lives by their fear of death.[d] 16 For it is not really angels he is assisting, but he is assisting Abraham's offspring.[e] 17 Consequently, he had to become like his "brothers" in all respects,[f] so that he could become a merciful and faithful high priest in things relating to God, in order to offer a propitiatory sacrifice[g] for the sins of the people.[h] 18 Since he himself has suffered when being put to the test,[i] he is able to come to the aid of those who are being put to the test.[j]

3 Consequently, holy brothers, partakers of the heavenly calling,[k] consider the apostle and high priest whom we acknowledge#—Jesus.[l] 2 He was faithful to the One who appointed him,[m] just as Moses also was in all the house of that One.[n] 3 For he is counted worthy of more glory[o] than Moses, since the one who constructs a house has more honor than the house itself. 4 Of course, every house is constructed by someone, but the one who constructed all things is God. 5 Now Moses was faithful as an attendant in all the house of that One as a testimony* of the things that were to be spoken afterward, 6 but Christ was faithful as a son[p] over God's house. We are His house[q] if, indeed, we hold on firmly to our freeness of speech and the hope of which we boast down to the end.

7 Therefore, just as the holy spirit says,[a] "Today if you listen to his voice, 8 do not harden your hearts as on the occasion of provoking to bitter anger, as in the day of testing in the wilderness,[b] 9 where your forefathers put me to the test and tried me, despite seeing my works for 40 years.[c] 10 This is why I became disgusted with this generation and said: 'They always go astray in their hearts, and they have not come to know my ways.' 11 So I swore in my anger: 'They will not enter into my rest.'"[d]

12 Beware, brothers, for fear there should ever develop in any one of you a wicked heart lacking faith by drawing away from the living God;[e] 13 but keep on encouraging one another each day, as long as it is called "Today,"[f] so that none of you should become hardened by the deceptive power of sin. 14 For we actually become partakers of* the Christ only if we hold firmly down to the end the confidence we had at the beginning.[g] 15 As it is said, "Today if you listen to his voice, do not harden
your hearts as on the occasion of provoking to bitter anger."[h]

16 For who heard and yet provoked him to bitter anger?
Was it not, in fact, all those who went out of Egypt under Moses?[i] 17 Moreover, with whom did God become disgusted for 40 years?[j] Was it not with those who sinned, whose dead bodies fell in the wilderness?[k] 18 And to whom did he swear that they would not enter into his rest? Was it not to those who acted disobediently? 19 So we see that they could not enter in because of lack of faith.[a]

4 Therefore, since a promise of entering into his rest remains, let us be on guard* for fear someone among you seems to fall short of it.[b] 2 For we have also had the good news declared to us,[c] just as they had;
but the word that they heard did not benefit them, because they were not united by faith with those who listened. 3 For we who have exercised faith do enter into the rest, just as he has said: "So I swore in my anger, 'They will not enter into my rest,'"[d] although his works were finished from the founding of the world.[e] 4 For in one place he has said of the seventh day as follows: "And God rested on the seventh day from all his works,"[f] 5 and here again he says: "They will not enter into my rest."[g]

6 Therefore, since it remains for some to enter into it, and those to whom the good news was first declared did not enter in because of disobedience,[h] 7 he again marks off a certain day by saying long afterward in David's psalm, "Today"; just as it has been said above, "Today if you listen to his voice, do not harden your hearts."[i] 8 For if Joshua[j] had led them into a place of rest, God would not afterward have spoken of another day. 9 So there remains a sabbath-rest for the people of God.[k] 10 For the man who has entered into God's rest has also rested from his own works, just as God did from his own.[l]

11 Let us therefore do our utmost to enter into that rest, so that no one may fall into the same pattern of disobedience.[m] 12 For the word of God is alive and exerts power[n] and is sharper than any two-edged sword[a] and pierces even to the dividing of soul* and spirit,* and of joints from the marrow, and is able to discern thoughts and intentions of the heart. 13 And there is not a creation that is hidden from his sight,[b] but all things are naked and openly exposed to the eyes of the one to whom we must give an account.[c]

14 Therefore, since we have a great high priest who has passed through the heavens, Jesus the Son of God,[d] let us hold on to our public declaration of him.[e] 15 For we do not have a high priest who cannot sympathize with our weaknesses,[f] but we have one who has been tested in all respects as we have, but without sin.[g] 16 Let us, then, approach the throne of undeserved kindness with freeness of speech,[h] so that we may receive mercy and find undeserved kindness to help us at the right time.

5 For every high priest taken from among men is appointed in their behalf over the things relating to God,[i] so that he may offer gifts and sacrifices for sins.[j] 2 He is able to deal compassionately* with the ignorant and erring# ones, since he too is confronted with△ his own weakness, 3 and because of that he must make offerings for his own sins just as he does for those of the people.[k]

4 A man does not take this honor of his own accord, but he receives it only when he is called by God, just as Aaron was.[l] 5 So, too, the Christ did not glorify himself[m] by becoming a high priest, but was glorified by the One who said to him: "You are my son; today I have become your father."[a] 6 As he also says in another place, "You are a priest forever in the manner of Mel·chiz′e·dek."[b]

7 During his life on earth,* Christ offered up supplications and also petitions, with strong outcries and tears,[c] to the One who was able to save him out of death, and he was favorably heard for his godly fear. 8 Although he was a son, he learned obedience from the things he suffered.[d] 9 And after he had been made perfect,[e] he became responsible for everlasting salvation to all those obeying him,[f] 10 because he has been designated by God a high priest in the manner of Mel·chiz′e·dek.[g]

11 We have much to say about him, and it is difficult to explain, because you have become dull in your hearing. 12 For although by now* you should be teachers, you again need someone to teach you from the beginning the elementary things[h] of the sacred pronouncements of God, and you have gone back to needing milk, not solid food. 13 For everyone who continues to feed on milk is unacquainted with the word of righteousness, for he is a young child.[i] 14 But solid food belongs to mature people, to those who through use have their powers of discernment* trained to distinguish both right and wrong.

6 Therefore, now that we have moved beyond the primary doctrine[j] about the Christ, let us press on to maturity,[k] not laying a foundation again, namely, repentance from dead works and faith in God, 2 the teaching on baptisms and the laying on of the hands,[a] the resurrection of the dead[b] and everlasting judgment. 3 And this we will do, if God indeed permits.

4 For as regards those who were once enlightened[c] and who have tasted the heavenly free gift and who have become partakers of holy spirit 5 and who have tasted the fine word of God and powers of the coming system of things,* 6 but have fallen away,[d] it is impossible to revive them again to repentance, because they nail the Son of God to the stake again for themselves and expose him to public shame.[e] 7 For the ground receives a blessing from God when it drinks in the rain that frequently falls on it and then produces vegetation useful to those for whom it is cultivated. 8 But if it produces thorns and thistles, it is rejected and is near to being cursed, and in the end it will be burned.

9 But in your case, beloved ones, we are convinced of better things, things related to salvation, even though we are speaking in this way. 10 For God is not unrighteous so as to forget your work and the love you showed for his name[f] by ministering and continuing to minister to the holy ones. 11 But we desire each one of you to show the same industriousness so as to have the full assurance of the hope[g] down to the end,[h] 12 so that you may not become sluggish,[i] but be imitators of those who through faith and patience inherit the promises.

13 For when God made his promise to Abraham, since he could not swear by anyone greater, he swore by himself,[j] 14 saying: "I will surely bless you and I will surely multiply you."[a] 15 So after Abraham had shown patience, he obtained this promise. 16 For men swear by someone greater, and their oath is the end of every dispute, since it is a legal guarantee to them.[b] 17 In this same way, when God decided to demonstrate more clearly to the heirs of the promise[c] the unchangeableness of his purpose,* he guaranteed it# with an oath, 18 in order that through two unchangeable things in which it is impossible for God to lie,[d] we who have fled to the refuge may have strong encouragement to take firm hold of the hope set before us. 19 We have this hope[e] as an anchor for the soul,* both sure and firm, and it enters in within the curtain,[f] 20 where a forerunner has entered in our behalf, Jesus,[g] who has become a high priest in the manner of Mel·chiz′e·dek forever.[h]

First, his name is translated "King of Righteousness," and then also king of Sa′lem, that is, "King of Peace." 3 In being fatherless, motherless, without genealogy, having neither a beginning of days nor an end of life, but being made like the Son of God, he remains a priest for all time.*[j]

Le'vi[a] who receive their priestly office have a commandment to collect tithes from the people,[b] that is, from their brothers, even though these are descendants* of Abraham. 6 But this man who did not trace his genealogy from them took tithes from Abraham and blessed the one who had the promises.[c] 7 Now it is undeniable that the lesser one is blessed by the greater. 8 And in the one case, it is men who are dying who receive tithes, but in the other case, it is someone of whom witness is given that he lives.[d] 9 And it could be said that even Le'vi, who receives tithes, has paid tithes through Abraham, 10 for he was still a future descendant* of his forefather when Mel·chiz'e·dek met him.[e]

11 If, then, perfection was attainable through the Levitical priesthood[f] (for it was a feature of the Law that was given to the people), what further need would there be for another priest to arise who is said to be in the manner of Mel·chiz'e·dek[g] and not in the manner of Aaron? 12 For since the priesthood is being changed, it becomes necessary to change the Law as well.[h] 13 For the man about whom these things are said came from another tribe, from which no one has officiated at the altar.[i] 14 For it is clear that our Lord has descended from Judah,[j] yet Moses said nothing about priests coming from that tribe.

15 And this becomes even clearer when another priest[k] arises who is like Mel·chiz'e·dek,[l] 16 who has become such, not by the legal requirement that depends on fleshly descent, but by the power of an indestructible life.[a] 17 For it is said in witness of him: "You are a priest forever in the manner of Mel·chiz'e·dek."[b]

18 So, then, the former commandment is set aside because it is weak and ineffective.[c] 19 For the Law made nothing perfect,[d] but the introduction of a better hope[e] did, through which we are drawing near to God.[f] 20 Also, inasmuch as this was not done without an oath being sworn 21 (for, indeed, there are men who have become priests without a sworn oath, but this one has become so through an oath sworn respecting him by the One who said: "Jehovah* has sworn, and he will not change his mind,# 'You are a priest forever'"),[g] 22 Jesus has accordingly become the guarantee* of a better covenant.[h] 23 Furthermore, many had to become priests in succession[i] because death prevented them from continuing as such, 24 but because he continues alive forever,[j] his priesthood has no successors. 25 So he is able also to save completely those who are approaching God through him, because he is always alive to plead for them.[k]

26 For it is fitting for us to have such a high priest who is loyal, innocent, undefiled,[l] separated from the sinners, and exalted above the heavens.[m] 27 Unlike those high priests, he does not need to offer up sacrifices daily,[n] first for his own sins and then for those of the people,[o] because he did this once for all time when he offered himself up.[p] 28 For the Law appoints as high priests men who have weaknesses,[q] but the word of the oath[r] sworn after the Law appoints a son, who has been made perfect[a] forever.

8 Now this is the main point of what we are saying: We have such a high priest as this,[b] and he has sat down at the right hand of the throne of the Majesty in the heavens,[c] 2 a minister* of the holy place[d] and of the true tent, which Jehovah# set up, and not man. 3 For every high priest is appointed to offer both gifts and sacrifices; so it was necessary for this one also to have something to offer.[e] 4 If he were on earth, he would not be a priest,[f] since there are already men who offer the gifts according to the Law. 5 These men are offering sacred service in a typical representation and a shadow[g] of the heavenly things;[h] just as Moses, when about to construct the tent, was given the divine command: For He says: "See that you make all things after their pattern that was shown to you in the mountain."[i] 6 But now Jesus has obtained a more excellent ministry* because he is also the mediator[j] of a correspondingly better covenant,[k] which has been legally established on better promises.[l]

7 If that first covenant had been faultless, there would have been no need for a second.[m] 8 For he does find fault with the people when he says: "'Look! The days are coming,' says Jehovah,# 'when I will make with the house of Israel and with the house of Judah a new covenant. 9 It will not be like the covenant that I made with their forefathers on the day I took hold of their hand to lead them out of the land of Egypt,[n] because they did not remain in my covenant, so I stopped caring for them,' says Jehovah.# 10 "'For this is the covenant that I will make with the house of Israel after those days,' says Jehovah.# 'I will put my laws in their mind, and in their hearts I will write them.[a] And I will become their God, and they will become my people.[b] 11 "'And they will no longer teach each one his fellow citizen and each one his brother, saying: "Know Jehovah!"# For they will all know me, from the least to the greatest of them. 12 For I will be merciful toward their unrighteous deeds, and I will no longer call their sins to mind.'"[c] 13 In his saying "a new covenant," he has made the former one obsolete.[d] Now what is obsolete and growing old is near to vanishing away.[e]

9 For its part, the former covenant used to have legal requirements for sacred service and its holy place[f] on earth. 2 For a first tent compartment was constructed, in which were the lampstand[g] and the table and the display of the loaves of presentation;[h] and it is called the Holy Place.[i] 3 But behind the second curtain[j] was the tent compartment called the Most Holy.[k] 4 This had a golden censer[l] and the ark of the covenant[m] completely overlaid with gold,[n] in which were the golden jar containing the manna[o] and Aaron's rod that budded[p] and the tablets[q] of the covenant; 5 and above it were the glorious cherubs overshadowing the propitiatory cover.[r] But now is not the time to speak of these things in detail.

regularly to perform the sacred services;[a] 7 but the high priest enters alone into the second compartment once a year,[b] not without blood,[c] which he offers for himself[d] and for the sins that the people[e] committed in ignorance. 8 Thus the holy spirit makes it clear that the way into the holy place had not yet been revealed while the first tent was standing.[f] 9 This tent is an illustration for the present time,[g] and according to this arrangement, both gifts and sacrifices are offered.[h] However, these are not able to make the conscience of the man doing sacred service perfect.[i] 10 They have to do only with foods and drinks and various ceremonial washings.*[j] They were legal requirements concerning the body[k] and were imposed until the appointed time to set things straight.

11 However, when Christ came as a high priest of the good things that have already taken place, he passed through the greater and more perfect tent not made with hands, that is, not of this creation. 12 He entered into the holy place, not with the blood of goats and of young bulls, but with his own blood,[l] once for all time, and obtained an everlasting deliverance* for us.[m] 13 For if the blood of goats and of bulls[n] and the ashes of a heifer* sprinkled on those who have been defiled sanctifies for the cleansing of the flesh,[o] 14 how much more will the blood of the Christ,[p] who through an everlasting spirit offered himself without blemish to God, cleanse our consciences from dead works[q] so that we may render sacred service to the living God?[r]

15 That is why he is a mediator of a new covenant,[a] in order that because a death has occurred for their release by ransom[b] from the transgressions under the former covenant, those who have been called may receive the promise of the everlasting inheritance.[c] 16 For where there is a covenant, the death of the human covenanter needs to be established, 17 because a covenant is valid at death, since it is not in force as long as the human covenanter is living. 18 Consequently, neither was the former covenant put into effect* without blood. 19 For when Moses had spoken every commandment of the Law to all the people, he took the blood of the young bulls and of the goats, with water, scarlet wool, and hyssop, and sprinkled the book* and all the people, 20 saying: "This is the blood of the covenant that God has commanded you to keep."[d] 21 He likewise sprinkled the tent and all the vessels of the holy service* with the blood.[e] 22 Yes, according to the Law nearly all things are cleansed with blood,[f] and unless blood is poured out no forgiveness takes place.[g]

23 Therefore, it was necessary for the typical representations[h] of the things in the heavens to be cleansed by these means,[i] but the heavenly things require far better sacrifices. 24 For Christ did not enter into a holy place made with hands,[j] which is a copy of the reality,[k] but into heaven itself,[l] so that he now appears before* God on our behalf.[m] 25 This was not done to offer himself often, as when the high priest enters into the holy place from year to year[a] with blood that is not his own. 26 Otherwise, he would have to suffer often from the founding of the world. But now he has manifested himself once for all time at the conclusion of the systems of things* to do away with sin through the sacrifice of himself.[b] 27 And just as it is reserved for men to die once for all time, but after this to receive a judgment, 28 so also the Christ was offered once for all time to bear the sins of many;[c] and the second time that he appears it will be apart from sin,* and he will be seen by those earnestly looking for him for their salvation.[d]

10 For since the Law has a shadow[e] of the good things to come,[f] but not the very substance of the things, it* can never, by the same sacrifices that are continually offered year after year, make those who approach perfect.[g] 2 Otherwise, would not the sacrifices have stopped being offered, because those rendering sacred service once cleansed would have no consciousness of sins anymore? 3 On the contrary, these sacrifices are a reminder of sins year after year,[h] 4 for it is not possible for the blood of bulls and of goats to take sins away.

5 So when he comes into the world, he says: "'Sacrifice and offering you did not want, but you prepared a body for me. 6 You did not approve of whole burnt offerings and sin offerings.'[i] 7 Then I said: 'Look! I have come (in the scroll* it is written about me) to do your will, O God.'"[j] 8 After first saying: "You did not want nor did you approve of sacrifices and offerings and whole burnt offerings and sin offerings"—sacrifices that are offered according to the Law— 9 then he says: "Look! I have come to do your will."[a] He does away with what is first in order to establish what is second. 10 By this "will"[b] we have been sanctified through the offering of the body of Jesus Christ once for all time.[c]

11 Also, every priest takes his station day after day to offer holy service*[d] and to make the same sacrifices often,[e] which can never take sins away completely.[f] 12 But this man offered one sacrifice for sins for all time and sat down at the right hand of God,[g] 13 from then on waiting until his enemies should be placed as a stool for his feet.[h] 14 For it is by one sacrificial offering that he has made those who are being sanctified perfect[i] for all time. 15 Moreover, the holy spirit also bears witness to us, for after it has said: 16 "'This is the covenant that I will make with them after those days,' says Jehovah.* 'I will put my laws in their hearts, and in their minds I will write them.'"[j] 17 Then it says: "And I will no longer call their sins and their lawless deeds to mind."[k] 18 Now where there is forgiveness of these, there is no longer an offering for sin.

19 Therefore, brothers, since we have boldness* for the way of entry into the holy place[l] by the blood of Jesus, 20 which he opened up* for us as a new and living way through the curtain,[m] that is, his flesh, 21 and since we have a great priest over the house of God,[n] 22 let us approach with sincere hearts and complete faith, having had our hearts sprinkled clean from a wicked conscience[a] and our bodies bathed with clean water.[b] 23 Let us hold firmly the public declaration of our hope without wavering,[c] for the one who promised is faithful. 24 And let us consider* one another so as to incite# to love and fine works,[d] 25 not forsaking our meeting together,[e] as some have the custom, but encouraging one another,[f] and all the more so as you see the day drawing near.[g]

26 For if we practice sin willfully after having received the accurate knowledge of the truth,[h] there is no longer any sacrifice for sins left,[i] 27 but there is a certain fearful expectation of judgment and a burning indignation that is going to consume those in opposition.[j] 28 Anyone who has disregarded the Law of Moses dies without compassion on the testimony of two or three.[k] 29 How much greater punishment do you think a person will deserve who has trampled on the Son of God and who has regarded as of ordinary value the blood of the covenant[l] by which he was sanctified, and who has outraged the spirit of undeserved kindness with contempt?[m] 30 For we know the One who said: "Vengeance is mine; I will repay." And again: "Jehovah* will judge his people."[n] 31 It is a fearful thing to fall into the hands of the living God.

32 However, keep remembering the former days in which, after you were enlightened,[o] you endured a great struggle along with sufferings. 33 At times you were publicly exposed* both to reproaches and to tribulations, and at times you shared* with those who were having such an experience. 34 For you expressed sympathy for those in prison and you accepted joyfully the plundering of your belongings,[a] knowing that you yourselves have a better and an enduring possession.[b]

35 Therefore, do not throw away your boldness,* which will be richly rewarded.[c] 36 For you need endurance,[d] so that after you have done the will of God, you may receive the fulfillment of the promise. 37 For yet "a very little while,"[e] and "the one who is coming will arrive and will not delay."[f] 38 "But my righteous one will live by reason of faith,"[g] and "if he shrinks back, I have* no pleasure in him."[h] 39 Now we are not the sort who shrink back to destruction,[i] but the sort who have faith for the preserving of our lives.*

11 Faith is the assured expectation of what is hoped for,[j] the evident demonstration* of realities that are not seen. 2 For by means of it, the men of ancient times* had witness borne to them.

3 By faith we perceive that the systems of things* were put in order by God's word, so that what is seen has come into existence from things that are not visible.

though he died, he still speaks[a] through his faith.

5 By faith E'noch[b] was transferred so as not to see death, and he was nowhere to be found because God had transferred him;[c] for before he was transferred he received the witness that he had pleased God well. 6 Moreover, without faith it is impossible to please God well, for whoever approaches God must believe that he is* and that he becomes the rewarder of those earnestly seeking him.[d]

7 By faith Noah,[e] after receiving divine warning of things not yet seen,[f] showed godly fear and constructed an ark[g] for the saving of his household; and through this faith he condemned the world,[h] and he became an heir of the righteousness that results from faith.

8 By faith Abraham,[i] when he was called, obeyed by going out to a place he was to receive as an inheritance; he went out, although not knowing where he was going.[j] 9 By faith he lived as a foreigner in the land of the promise as in a foreign land,[k] living in tents[l] with Isaac and Jacob, the heirs with him of the very same promise.[m] 10 For he was awaiting the city having real foundations, whose designer* and builder is God.[n]

13 In faith all of these died, although they did not receive the fulfillment of the promises;[a] but they saw them from a distance[b] and welcomed them and publicly declared that they were strangers and temporary residents in the land. 14 For those who speak in such a way make it evident that they are earnestly seeking a place of their own. 15 And yet, if they had kept remembering the place from which they had departed,[c] they would have had opportunity to return. 16 But now they are reaching out for a better place, that is, one belonging to heaven. Therefore, God is not ashamed of them, to be called on as their God,[d] for he has prepared a city for them.[e]

17 By faith Abraham, when he was tested,[f] as good as offered up Isaac—the man who had gladly received the promises attempted to offer up his only-begotten son[g]— 18 although it had been said to him: "What will be called your offspring* will be through Isaac."[h] 19 But he reasoned that God was able to raise him up even from the dead, and he did receive him from there in an illustrative way.[i]

20 By faith also Isaac blessed Jacob[j] and E'sau[k] concerning things to come.

21 By faith Jacob, when about to die,[l] blessed each of the sons of Joseph[m] and worshipped while leaning on the top of his staff.[n] beautiful[a] and they did not fear the order of the king.[b] 24 By faith Moses, when grown up,[c] refused to be called the son of Phar'aoh's daughter,[d] 25 choosing to be mistreated with the people of God rather than to have the temporary enjoyment of sin, 26 because he considered the reproach of the Christ to be riches greater than the treasures of Egypt, for he looked intently toward the payment of the reward. 27 By faith he left Egypt,[e] but not fearing the anger of the king,[f] for he continued steadfast as seeing the One who is invisible.[g] 28 By faith he observed the Passover and the splashing of the blood, so that the destroyer might not harm* their firstborn.[h]

29 By faith they passed through the Red Sea as on dry land,[i] but when the Egyptians attempted it, they were swallowed up.[j]

30 By faith the walls of Jer'i·cho fell down after the people had marched around them for seven days.[k] 31 By faith Ra'hab the prostitute did not perish with those who acted disobediently, because she received the spies in a peaceable way.[l]

32 And what more will I say? For time will fail me if I go on to relate about Gid'e·on,[m] Ba'rak,[n] Samson,[o] Jeph'thah,[p] David,[q] as well as Samuel[r] and the other prophets. 33 Through faith they defeated kingdoms,[s] brought about righteousness, obtained promises,[t] stopped the mouths of lions,[u] 34 quenched the force of fire,[v] escaped the edge of the sword,[w] from a weak state were made powerful,[x] became mighty in war,[y] routed invading armies.[z] 35 Women received their dead by resurrection,[a] but other men were tortured because they would not accept release by some ransom, in order that they might attain a better resurrection. 36 Yes, others received their trial by mockings and scourgings, indeed, more than that, by chains[b] and prisons.[c] 37 They were stoned,[d] they were tried, they were sawn in two,* they were slaughtered by the sword,[e] they went about in sheepskins, in goatskins,[f] while they were in need, in tribulation,[g] mistreated;[h] 38 and the world was not worthy of them. They wandered about in deserts and mountains and caves[i] and dens of the earth.

39 And yet all of these, although they received a favorable witness because of their faith, did not obtain the fulfillment of the promise, 40 because God had foreseen something better for us,[j] so that they might not be made perfect apart from us.

12 So, then, because we have such a great cloud of witnesses surrounding us, let us also throw off every weight and the sin that easily entangles us,[k] and let us run with endurance the race that is set before us,[l] 2 as we look intently at the Chief Agent and Perfecter of our faith, Jesus.[m] For the joy that was set before him he endured a torture stake,* despising shame, and has sat down at the right hand of the throne of God.[n] 3 Indeed, consider closely the one who has endured such hostile speech from sinners[o] against their own interests, so that you may not get tired and give up.[p] ing your blood shed. 5 And you have entirely forgotten the exhortation that addresses you as sons: "My son, do not belittle the discipline from Jehovah, nor give up when you are corrected by him; 6 for those whom Jehovah* loves he disciplines, in fact, he scourges# everyone whom he receives as a son."[a]

7 You need to endure as part of your discipline.* God is treating you as sons.[b] For what son is not disciplined by his father?[c] 8 But if you have not all shared in receiving this discipline, you are really illegitimate children, and not sons. 9 Furthermore, our human fathers* used to discipline us, and we gave them respect. Should we not more readily submit ourselves to the Father of our spiritual life and live?[d] 10 For they disciplined us for a short time according to what seemed good to them, but he does so for our benefit so that we may partake of his holiness.[e] 11 True, no discipline seems for the present to be joyous, but it is painful;* yet afterward, it yields the peaceable fruit of righteousness to those who have been trained by it.

12 Therefore, strengthen the hands that hang down and the feeble knees,[f] 13 and keep making straight paths for your feet,[g] so that what is lame may not be put out of joint but, rather, may be healed. 14 Pursue peace with all people[h] and the sanctification*[i] without which no man will see the Lord. 15 Carefully watch that no one fails to obtain the undeserved kindness of God, so that no poisonous root springs up to cause trouble and many are defiled by it;[a] 16 and watch that among you there is no one who is sexually immoral* nor anyone who does not appreciate sacred things, like E'sau, who gave up his rights as firstborn in exchange for one meal.[b] 17 For you know that afterward when he wanted to inherit the blessing, he was rejected; for although he earnestly tried to bring about a change of mind* with tears,[c] it was to no avail.#

18 For you have not approached something that can be felt[d] and that has been set aflame with fire,[e] and a dark cloud and thick darkness and a storm,[f] 19 and the blast of a trumpet[g] and the voice speaking words,[h] which on hearing, the people begged that nothing further should be spoken to them.[i] 20 For they could not bear the command: "If even a beast touches the mountain, it must be stoned."[j] 21 Also, the display was so terrifying that Moses said: "I am afraid and trembling."[k] 22 But you have approached a Mount Zion[l] and a city of the living God, heavenly Jerusalem,[m] and myriads* of angels 23 in general assembly,[n] and the congregation of the firstborn who have been enrolled in the heavens, and God the Judge of all,[o] and the spiritual lives[p] of righteous ones who have been made perfect,[q] 24 and Jesus the mediator[r] of a new covenant,[s] and the sprinkled blood, which speaks in a better way than Abel's blood.[t]

25 See that you do not refuse to listen to* the one who is speaking. For if those who

7 Remember those who are taking the lead among you,[a] who have spoken the word of God to you, and as you contemplate how their conduct turns out, imitate their faith.[b]

8 Jesus Christ is the same yesterday and today, and forever.

9 Do not be led astray by various and strange teachings, for it is better for the heart to be strengthened by undeserved kindness than by foods,* which do not benefit those occupied with them.[c]

10 We have an altar from which those who offer sacred service at the tent have no authority to eat.[d] 11 For the bodies of those animals whose blood is taken into the holy place as a sin offering by the high priest are burned up outside the camp.[e] 12 Therefore, Jesus also suffered outside the city gate[f] in order to sanctify the people with his own blood.[g] 13 Let us, then, go to him outside the camp, bearing the reproach he bore,[h] 14 for we do not have here a city that remains, but we are earnestly seeking the one to come.[i] 15 Through him let us always offer to God a sacrifice of praise,[j] that is, the fruit of our lips[k] that make public declaration to his name.[l] 16 Moreover, do not forget to do good and to share what you have with others,[m] for God is well-pleased with such sacrifices.[n]

17 Be obedient to those who are taking the lead among you[o] and be submissive,[p] for they are keeping watch over you* as those who will render an account,[q] so that they may do this with joy and not with sighing, for this would be damaging to you.

13:9 *That is, rules about food. 13:17 *Or "your souls."

18 Keep praying for us, for we trust we have an honest* conscience, as we wish to conduct ourselves honestly in all things.[a] 19 But I especially urge you to pray so that I may be restored to you the sooner.

20 Now may the God of peace, who brought up from the dead the great shepherd[b] of the sheep, our Lord Jesus, with the blood of an everlasting covenant, 21 equip you with every good thing to do his will, working in us through Jesus Christ what is well-pleasing in his sight, to whom be the glory forever and ever. Amen.

22 Now I urge you, brothers, to listen patiently to this word of encouragement, for I have written you a short letter. 23 I want you to know that our brother Timothy has been released. If he comes soon, I will be with him when I see you.

24 Give my greetings to all those who are taking the lead among you and to all the holy ones. Those in Italy[a] send you their greetings.

25 The undeserved kindness be with all of you.

1 James,[a] a slave of God and of the Lord Jesus Christ, to the 12 tribes that are scattered about:

Greetings!

2 Consider it all joy, my brothers, when you meet with various trials,[a] 3 knowing as you do that this tested quality of your faith produces endurance.[b]

4 But let endurance complete its work, so that you may be complete and sound in all respects, not lacking in anything.[a]

5 So if any one of you is lacking in wisdom, let him keep asking God,[b] for he gives generously to all and without reproaching,[c] and it will be given him.[d] 6 But let him keep asking in faith,[e] not doubting at all,[f] for the one who doubts is like a wave of the sea driven by the wind and blown about. 7 In fact, that man should not expect to receive anything from Jehovah; 8 he is an indecisive man,[g] unsteady in all his ways.

9 But let the lowly brother rejoice* over his exaltation,[h] 10 and the rich one over his humiliation,[i] because like a flower of the field he will pass away. 11 For just as the sun rises with its scorching heat and withers the plant, and its flower falls off and its outward beauty perishes, so too the rich man will fade away in the midst of his pursuits.[j]

12 Happy is the man who keeps on enduring trial,[k] because on becoming approved he will receive the crown of life,[l] which Jehovah* promised to those who continue loving Him.[m] 13 When under trial, let no one say: "I am being tried by God." For with evil things God cannot be tried, nor does he himself try anyone. 14 But each one is tried by being drawn out and enticed* by his own desire.[n] 15 Then the desire, when it has become fertile,* gives birth to sin; in turn sin, when it has been carried out, brings forth death.[o]

16 Do not be misled, my beloved brothers. 17 Every good gift and every perfect present is from above,[a] coming down from the Father of the celestial lights,[b] who does not vary or change like the shifting shadows.*[c] 18 It was his will to bring us forth by the word of truth,[d] so that we would become a kind of firstfruits of his creatures.[e]

19 Know this, my beloved brothers: Everyone must be quick to listen, slow to speak,[f] slow to anger,[g] 20 for man's anger does not bring about God's righteousness.[h] 21 Therefore, put away all filthiness and every trace of badness,*[i] and accept with mildness the implanting of the word that is able to save you.#

22 However, become doers of the word[j] and not hearers only, deceiving yourselves with false reasoning. 23 For if anyone is a hearer of the word and not a doer,[k] this one is like a man looking at his own face* in a mirror. 24 For he looks at himself, and he goes away and immediately forgets what sort of person he is. 25 But the one who peers into the perfect law[l] that belongs to freedom and continues in it has become, not a forgetful hearer, but a doer of the work; and he will be happy in what he does.[m]

26 If any man thinks he is a worshipper of God* but does not keep a tight rein on# his tongue,[n] he is deceiving his own heart, and his worship is futile. 27 The form of worship* that is clean and undefiled from the standpoint of our God and Father is this: to look after orphans[a] and widows[b] in their tribulation,[c] and to keep oneself without spot from the world.[d]

2 My brothers, you are not holding to the faith of our glorious Lord Jesus Christ while showing favoritism, are you?[e] 2 For if a man with gold rings on his fingers and in splendid clothing comes into your meeting, but a poor man in filthy clothing also enters, 3 do you look with favor on the one wearing the splendid clothing and say, "You take this seat here in a fine place," and do you say to the poor one, "You keep standing" or, "Take that seat there under my footstool"?[f] 4 If so, do you not have class distinctions among yourselves,[g] and have you not become judges rendering wicked decisions?[h]

5 Listen, my beloved brothers. Did not God choose those who are poor from the world's standpoint to be rich in faith[i] and heirs of the Kingdom, which he promised to those who love him?[j] 6 But you have dishonored the poor. Is it not the rich who oppress you[k] and drag you before law courts? 7 Do they not blaspheme the fine name by which you were called? 8 If, now, you carry out the royal* law according to the scripture, "You must love your neighbor as yourself,"[l] you are doing quite well. 9 But if you continue showing favoritism,[m] you are committing sin, and you are convicted* by the law as transgressors.[n]

10 For if anyone obeys all the Law but makes a false step in one point, he has become an offender against all of it.[o] 11 For the one who said, "You must not commit adultery,"[p] also said, "You must not murder."[q] If, now, you do not commit adultery but you do murder, you have become a transgressor of law. 12 Keep on speaking and behaving in such a way as those do who are going to be judged by the law of a free people.*[a] 13 For the one who does not practice mercy will have his judgment without mercy.[b] Mercy triumphs over judgment.

14 Of what benefit is it, my brothers, if someone says he has faith but he does not have works?[c] That faith cannot save him, can it?[d] 15 If a brother or a sister is lacking clothing* and enough food for the day, 16 yet one of you says to them, "Go in peace; keep warm and well fed," but you do not give them what they need for their body, of what benefit is it?[e] 17 So, too, faith by itself, without works, is dead.[f]

18 Nevertheless, someone will say: "You have faith, and I have works. Show me your faith without the works, and I will show you my faith by my works." 19 You believe that there is one God, do you? You are doing quite well. And yet the demons believe and shudder.[g] 20 But do you care to know, O empty man, that faith without works is useless? 21 Was not Abraham our father declared righteous by works after he offered up Isaac his son on the altar?[h] 22 You see that his faith was active along with his works and his faith was perfected by his works,[i] 23 and the scripture was fulfilled that says: "Abraham put faith in Jehovah,* and it was counted to him as righteousness,"[j] and he came to be called Jehovah's* friend.[k]

24 You see that a man is to be declared righteous by works and not by faith alone. 25 In the same manner, was not Ra'hab the prostitute also declared righteous by works after she received the messengers hospitably and sent them out by another way?[a] 26 Indeed, just as the body without spirit* is dead,[b] so also faith without works is dead.[c]

3 Not many of you should become teachers, my brothers, knowing that we will receive heavier* judgment.[d] 2 For we all stumble* many times.[e] If anyone does not stumble in word, he is a perfect man, able to bridle also his whole body. 3 If we put bridles in the mouths of horses to make them obey us, we guide also their whole body. 4 Look also at ships: Although they are so big and are driven by strong winds, they are steered by a very small rudder wherever the man at the helm is inclined to go.

5 So, too, the tongue is a small part of the body, and yet it makes great brags. See how small a fire it takes to set a great forest ablaze! 6 The tongue is also a fire.[f] The tongue represents a world of unrighteousness among our body members, for it defiles all the body[g] and sets the whole course of life* on fire, and it is set on fire by Ge·hen′na.# 7 For every kind of wild animal and bird and reptile* and sea creature is to be tamed and has been tamed by humans. 8 But no human can tame the tongue. It is unruly and injurious, full of deadly poison.[h] 9 With it we praise Jehovah,* the Father, and yet with it we curse men who have come into existence "in the likeness of God."[i] 10 Out of the same mouth come blessing and cursing.

My brothers, it is not right for things to happen this way.[a] 11 A spring does not cause the fresh* water and the bitter water to bubble out of the same opening, does it? 12 My brothers, a fig tree cannot produce olives, or a grapevine figs, can it?[b] Neither can salt water produce fresh water.

13 Who is wise and understanding among you? Let him by his fine conduct demonstrate works performed with a mildness that comes from wisdom. 14 But if you have bitter jealousy[c] and contentiousness*[d] in your hearts, do not be bragging[e] and lying against the truth. 15 This is not the wisdom that comes down from above; it is earthly,[f] animalistic, demonic. 16 For wherever there are jealousy and contentiousness,* there will also be disorder and every vile thing.[g]

17 But the wisdom from above is first of all pure,[h] then peaceable,[i] reasonable,[j] ready to obey, full of mercy and good fruits,[k] impartial,[l] not hypocritical.[m] 18 Moreover, the fruit of righteousness is sown in peaceful conditions[n] for* those who are making peace.[o]

4 What is the source of the wars and fights among you? Do they not originate from your fleshly desires that carry on a conflict within you?*[p] 2 You desire, and yet you do not have. You go on murdering and coveting, and yet you are not able to obtain. You go on fighting and waging war.[q] You do not have because of your not asking. 3 When you do ask, you do not receive because you are asking for a wrong purpose, so that you may spend it on your fleshly desires.

4 Adulteresses,* do you not know that friendship with the world is enmity with God? Whoever, therefore, wants to be a friend of the world is making himself an enemy of God.[a] 5 Or do you think that for no reason the scripture says: "The spirit that has taken up residence within us keeps enviously longing"?[b] 6 However, the undeserved kindness that He gives is greater. So it says: "God opposes the haughty ones,[c] but he gives undeserved kindness to the humble ones."[d]

7 Therefore, subject yourselves to God;[e] but oppose the Devil,[f] and he will flee from you.[g] 8 Draw close to God, and he will draw close to you.[h] Cleanse your hands, you sinners,[i] and purify your hearts,[j] you indecisive ones. 9 Give way to misery and mourn and weep.[k] Let your laughter be turned into mourning, and your joy into despair. 10 Humble yourselves in the eyes of Jehovah,*[l] and he will exalt you.[m]

11 Stop speaking against one another, brothers.[n] Whoever speaks against a brother or judges his brother speaks against law and judges law. Now if you judge law, you are not a doer of law but a judge. 12 There is only one who is Lawgiver and Judge,[o] the one who is able to save and to destroy.[p] But you, who are you to be judging your neighbor?[q]

13 Come, now, you who say: "Today or tomorrow we will travel to this city and will spend a year there, and we will do business and make some profit,"[r] 14 whereas you do not know what your life will be like tomorrow.[a] For you are a mist that appears for a little while and then disappears.[b] 15 Instead, you should say: "If Jehovah* wills,[c] we will live and do this or that." 16 But now you take pride in your arrogant boasting. All such boasting is wicked. 17 Therefore, if someone knows how to do what is right and yet does not do it, it is a sin for him.[d]

5 Come, now, you rich men, weep and wail over the miseries that are coming upon you.[e] 2 Your riches have rotted, and your clothing has become moth-eaten.[f] 3 Your gold and silver have rusted away, and their rust will be a witness against you and will consume your flesh. What you have stored up will be like a fire in the last days.[g] 4 Look! The wages you have withheld from the workers who harvested your fields keep crying out, and the cries for help of the reapers have reached the ears of Jehovah* of armies.[h] 5 You have lived in luxury and for self-gratification on the earth. You have fattened your hearts on the day of slaughter.[i] 6 You have condemned; you have murdered the righteous one. Is he not opposing you?

7 Be patient then, brothers, until the presence of the Lord.[j] Look! The farmer keeps waiting for the precious fruit of the earth, exercising patience over it until the early rain and the late rain arrive.[k] 8 You too exercise patience;[l] make your hearts firm, because the presence of the Lord has drawn close.[m]

9 Do not grumble* against one another, brothers, so that you do not get judged.[n] Look!

The Judge is standing before the doors. 10 Brothers, take as a pattern of the suffering of evil[a] and the exercising of patience[b] the prophets who spoke in the name of Jehovah.[c] 11 Look! We consider happy# those who have endured.[d] You have heard of the endurance of Job[e] and have seen the outcome Jehovah gave,[f] that Jehovah* is very tender in affection△ and merciful.[g]

12 Above all, my brothers, stop swearing, either by heaven or by earth or by any other oath. But let your "Yes" mean yes and your "No," no,[h] so that you do not become liable to judgment.

13 Is there anyone suffering hardship among you? Let him carry on prayer.[i] Is there anyone in good spirits? Let him sing psalms.[j] 14 Is there anyone sick among you? Let him call the elders[k] of the congregation to him, and let them pray over him, applying oil to him[l] in the name of Jehovah.* 15 And the prayer of faith will make the sick one# well, and Jehovah* will raise him up. Also, if he has committed sins, he will be forgiven.

16 Therefore, openly confess your sins[a] to one another and pray for one another, so that you may be healed. A righteous man's supplication has a powerful effect.*[b] 17 E·li′jah was a man with feelings like ours, and yet when he prayed earnestly for it not to rain, it did not rain on the land for three years and six months.[c] 18 Then he prayed again, and the heaven gave rain and the land produced fruit.[d]

19 My brothers, if anyone among you is led astray from the truth and another turns him back, 20 know that whoever turns a sinner back from the error[e] of his way will save him* from death and will cover a multitude of sins.[f]

1 Peter, an apostle[a] of Jesus Christ, to the temporary residents scattered about in Pon′tus, Ga·la′ti·a, Cap·pa·do′ci·a,[b] Asia, and Bi·thyn′i·a, to those chosen 2 according to the foreknowledge of God the Father,[c] with sanctification by the spirit,[d] for the purpose of being obedient and sprinkled with the blood of Jesus Christ:[e]

May undeserved kindness and peace be increased to you.

3 Praised be the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, for according to his great mercy he gave us a new birth[f] to a living hope[g] through the resurrection of Jesus Christ from the dead,[h] 4 to an incorruptible and undefiled and unfading inheritance.[i] It is reserved in the heavens for you,[j] 5 who are being safeguarded by God's power through faith for a salvation ready to be revealed in the last period of time. 6 Because of this you are greatly rejoicing, though for a short time, if it must be, you have been distressed by various trials,[k] 7 in order that the tested quality of your faith,[l] of much greater value than gold that perishes despite its being tested* by fire, may be found a cause for praise and glory and honor at the revelation of Jesus Christ.[m] 8 Though you never saw him, you love him. Though you do not see him now, yet you exercise faith in him and are greatly rejoicing with an indescribable and glorious joy, 9 as you attain the goal of your faith, your salvation.*[n]

10 Concerning this salvation, the prophets who prophesied about the undeserved kindness meant for you made a diligent inquiry and a careful search.[a] 11 They kept on investigating what particular time or what season the spirit within them was indicating concerning Christ[b] as it testified beforehand about the sufferings meant for Christ[c] and about the glory that would follow. 12 It was revealed to them that they were ministering, not to themselves, but to you, regarding what has now been announced to you by those who declared the good news to you with holy spirit sent from heaven.[d] Into these very things, angels are desiring to peer.

13 So brace up your minds for activity;[e] keep your senses completely;[f] set your hope on the undeserved kindness that will be brought to you at the revelation of Jesus Christ. 14 As obedient children, stop being molded by* the desires you formerly had in your ignorance, 15 but like the Holy One who called you, become holy yourselves in all your conduct,[g] 16 for it is written: "You must be holy, because I am holy."[h]

17 And if you are calling on the Father who judges impartially[i] according to each one's work, conduct yourselves with fear[j] during the time of your temporary residence. 18 For you know that it was not with corruptible things, with silver or gold, that you were set free*[k] from your futile way of life handed down to you by your forefathers.# 19 But it was with precious blood,[l] like that of an unblemished and spotless lamb,[m] that of Christ.[n] 20 True, he was foreknown before the founding of the world,[o] but he was made manifest at the end of the times for your sake.[p]

1:7 *Or "refined." 1:9 *Or "the salvation of your souls."

1:14 *Or "fashioned after." 1:18 *Lit., "you were ransomed; you were redeemed." #Or "by tradition."

21 Through him you are believers in God,[a] the one who raised him up from the dead[b] and gave him glory,[c] so that your faith and hope might be in God.

22 Now that you have purified yourselves* by your obedience to the truth with unhypocritical brotherly affection[d] as the result, love one another intensely from the heart.[e] 23 For you have been given a new birth,[f] not by corruptible, but by incorruptible seed,[g] through the word of the living and enduring God.[h] 24 For "all flesh is like grass, and all its glory is like a blossom of the field; the grass withers, and the flower falls off, 25 but the saying* of Jehovah# endures forever."[i] And this "saying"* is the good news that was declared to you.[j]

2 So rid yourselves of all badness[k] and deceit and hypocrisy and envy and all backbiting. 2 As newborn infants,[l] form a longing for the unadulterated* milk of the word, so that by means of it you may grow to salvation,[m] 3 provided you have tasted* that the Lord is kind.

4 As you come to him, a living stone rejected by men[n] but chosen, precious to God,[o] 5 you yourselves as living stones are being built up into a spiritual house[p] to be a holy priesthood, in order to offer up spiritual sacrifices[q] acceptable to God through Jesus Christ.[r] 6 For it says in Scripture: "Look! I am laying in Zion a chosen cornerstone, a precious foundation cornerstone, and no one exercising faith in it will ever be disappointed."*[s]

7 It is to you, therefore, that he is precious, because you are believers; but to those not believing, "the stone that the builders rejected,[a] this has become the chief cornerstone"[b] 8 and "a stone of stumbling and a rock of offense."[c] They are stumbling because they are disobedient to the word. To this very end they were appointed. 9 But you are "a chosen race, a royal priesthood, a holy nation,[d] a people for special possession,[e] that you should declare abroad the excellencies"[f] of the One who called you out of darkness into his wonderful light.[g] 10 For you were once not a people, but now you are God's people;[h] once you had not been shown mercy, but now you have received mercy.[i]

11 Beloved, I urge you as foreigners and temporary residents[j] to keep abstaining from fleshly desires,[k] which wage war against you.*[l] 12 Maintain your conduct fine among the nations,[m] so that when they accuse you of being wrongdoers, they may be eyewitnesses of your fine works[n] and, as a result, glorify God in the day of his inspection.

13 For the Lord's sake subject yourselves to every human creation,[o] whether to a king[p] as being superior 14 or to governors as sent by him to punish wrongdoers but to praise those who do good.[q] 15 For it is the will of God that by doing good you may silence the ignorant talk of unreasonable men.[r] 16 Be as free people,[s] using your freedom, not as a cover* for doing wrong,[t] but as slaves

2:7 *Lit., "the head of the corner." 2:9 *Lit., "the virtues," that is, his praiseworthy qualities and deeds. 2:11 *Or "the soul." 2:13 *Or "institution." 2:15 *Lit., "muzzle." 2:16 *Or "an excuse."

of God.[a] 17 Honor men of all sorts,[b] have love for the whole association of brothers,*[c] be in fear of God,[d] honor the king.[e]

18 Let servants be in subjection to their masters with all due fear,[f] not only to the good and reasonable but also to those hard to please. 19 For it is agreeable when someone endures hardship* and suffers unjustly because of conscience toward God.[g] 20 For what merit is there if you are beaten for sinning and you endure it?[h] But if you endure suffering because of doing good, this is an agreeable thing to God.[i]

21 In fact, to this course you were called, because even Christ suffered for you,[j] leaving a model for you to follow his steps closely.[k] 22 He committed no sin,[l] nor was deception found in his mouth.[m] 23 When he was being insulted,[n] he did not insult# in return.[o] When he was suffering,[p] he did not threaten, but he entrusted himself to the One who judges[q] righteously. 24 He himself bore our sins[r] in his own body on the stake,[s] so that we might die to# sins and live to righteousness. And "by his wounds you were healed."[t] 25 For you were like sheep going astray,[u] but now you have returned to the shepherd[v] and overseer of your souls.*

3 In the same way, you wives, be in subjection to your husbands,[w] so that if any are not obedient to the word, they may be won without a word through the conduct of their wives,[x] 2 because of having been eyewitnesses of your chaste conduct[y] together with deep respect. 3 Do not let your adornment be external—the braiding of hair and the wearing of gold ornaments[a] or fine clothing— 4 but let it be the secret person of the heart in the incorruptible adornment of the quiet and mild spirit,[b] which is of great value in the eyes of God. 5 For this is how the holy women of the past who hoped in God used to adorn themselves, subjecting themselves to their husbands, 6 just as Sarah obeyed Abraham, calling him lord.[c] And you have become her children, provided you continue doing good and do not give in to fear.[d]

7 You husbands, in the same way, continue dwelling with them according to knowledge.* Assign them honor[e] as to a weaker vessel, the feminine one, since they are also heirs with you[f] of the undeserved favor of life, in order for your prayers not to be hindered.

8 Finally, all of you have unity of mind,*[g] fellow feeling, brotherly affection, tender compassion,[h] and humility.[i] 9 Do not pay back injury for injury[j] or insult for insult.[k] Instead, repay with a blessing,[l] for you were called to this course, so that you might inherit a blessing.

10 For "whoever would love life and see good days must guard his tongue from bad[m] and his lips from speaking deception. 11 Let him turn away from what is bad[n] and do what is good;[o] let him seek peace and pursue it.[p] 12 For the eyes of Jehovah* are on the righteous, and his ears listen to their supplication,[q] but the face of Jehovah* is against those doing bad things."[r]

is good?[a] 14 But even if you should suffer for the sake of righteousness, you are happy.[b] However, do not fear what they fear,* nor be disturbed.[c] 15 But sanctify the Christ as Lord in your hearts, always ready to make a defense before everyone who demands of you a reason for the hope you have, but doing so with a mild temper[d] and deep respect.[e]

16 Maintain a good conscience,[f] so that in whatever way you are spoken against, those who speak against you may be put to shame[g] because of your good conduct as followers of Christ.[h] 17 For it is better to suffer because you are doing good,[i] if it is God's will to allow it, than because you are doing evil.[j] 18 For Christ died once for all time for sins,[k] a righteous person for unrighteous ones,[l] in order to lead you to God.[m] He was put to death in the flesh[n] but made alive in the spirit.[o] 19 And in this state he went and preached to the spirits in prison,[p] 20 who had formerly been disobedient when God was patiently waiting* in Noah's day,[q] while the ark was being constructed,[r] in which a few people, that is, eight souls,# were carried safely through the water.[s]

4 Since Christ suffered in the flesh,[a] you too arm yourselves with the same mental disposition;* because the person who has suffered in the flesh has desisted from sins,[b] 2 so that he may live the remainder of his time in the flesh, no more for the desires of men,[c] but for God's will.[d] 3 For the time that has passed by is sufficient for you to have done the will of the nations[e] when you carried on in acts of brazen conduct,* unbridled passions, overdrinking, wild parties,# drinking bouts, and lawless idolatries.[f] 4 They are puzzled that you do not continue running with them in the same decadent course of debauchery, so they speak abusively of you.[g] 5 But these people will render an account to the one who is ready to judge those living and those dead.[h] 6 In fact, this is why the good news was declared also to the dead,[i] so that although they are judged in the flesh from the standpoint of men, they might live in harmony with the spirit from God's standpoint.

7 But the end of all things has drawn close. Therefore, be sound in mind,[j] and be vigilant* with a view to prayers.[k] 8 Above all things, have intense love for one another,[l] because love covers a multitude of sins.[m] 9 Be hospitable to one another without grumbling.[n] 10 To the extent that each one has received a gift, use it in ministering to one another as fine stewards of God's undeserved kindness that is expressed in various ways.[o] 11 If anyone speaks, let him do so as speaking pronouncements from God; if anyone ministers, let him do so as depending on the strength that God supplies;[a] so that in all things God may be glorified[b] through Jesus Christ. The glory and the might are his forever and ever. Amen.

12 Beloved ones, do not be surprised about the fiery trials that you are experiencing,[c] as though something strange were happening to you. 13 On the contrary, go on rejoicing[d] over the extent to which you are sharers in the sufferings of the Christ,[e] so that you may rejoice and be overjoyed also during the revelation of his glory.[f] 14 If you are being reproached* for the name of Christ, you are happy,[g] because the spirit of glory, yes, the spirit of God, is resting upon you.

15 However, let none of you suffer as a murderer or a thief or a wrongdoer or a busybody in other people's matters.[h] 16 But if anyone suffers as a Christian, let him not feel ashamed,[i] but let him keep on glorifying God while bearing this name. 17 For it is the appointed time for the judgment to start with the house of God.[j] Now if it starts first with us,[k] what will the outcome be for those who are not obedient to the good news of God?[l] 18 "And if the righteous man is being saved with difficulty, what will happen to the ungodly man and the sinner?"[m] 19 So, then, let those who are suffering in harmony with the will of God keep on entrusting* themselves# to a faithful Creator while they are doing good.[n]

5 Therefore, as a fellow elder, a witness of the sufferings of the Christ and a sharer of the glory that is to be revealed,[o] I make this appeal* to the elders among you: 2 Shepherd the flock of God[a] under your care, serving as overseers,* not under compulsion, but willingly before God;[b] not for love of dishonest gain,[c] but eagerly; 3 not lording it over those who are God's inheritance,[d] but becoming examples to the flock.[e] 4 And when the chief shepherd[f] has been made manifest, you will receive the unfading crown of glory.[g]

5 In the same way, you younger men, be in subjection to the older men.*[h] But all of you clothe# yourselves with humility△ toward one another, because God opposes the haughty ones, but he gives undeserved kindness to the humble ones.[i]

6 Humble yourselves, therefore, under the mighty hand of God, so that he may exalt you in due time,[j] 7 while you throw all your anxiety* on him,[k] because he cares for you.[l] 8 Keep your senses, be watchful![m] Your adversary, the Devil, walks about like a roaring lion, seeking to devour someone.[n] 9 But take your stand against him,[o] firm in the faith, knowing that the same kind of sufferings are being experienced by the entire association of your brothers in the world.[p] 10 But after you have suffered a little while, the God of all undeserved kindness, who called you to his everlasting glory[q] in union with Christ, will himself finish your training. He will make you firm,[r] he will make you strong,[s] he will firmly ground you. 11 To him be the might forever. Amen.

12 Through Sil·va'nus,*[t] whom I regard as a faithful brother, I have written you in

1 Simon Peter, a slave and an apostle of Jesus Christ, to those who have acquired a faith as precious as ours* through the righteousness of our God and the Savior Jesus Christ:

2 May undeserved kindness and peace be increased to you by an accurate knowledge[a] of God and of Jesus our Lord, 3 for his divine power has granted* us all the things that contribute to life and godly devotion through the accurate knowledge of the One who called us[b] by his own glory and virtue. 4 Through these things he has granted* us the precious and very grand promises,[c] so that through these you may become sharers in divine nature,[a] having escaped from the world's corruption produced by wrong desire.*

5 For this very reason, put forth all earnest effort[b] to supply to your faith virtue,[c] to your virtue knowledge,[d] 6 to your knowledge self-control, to your self-control[e] endurance, to your endurance godly devotion,[f] 7 to your godly devotion brotherly affection, to your brotherly affection love.[g] 8 For if these things exist in you and overflow, they will prevent you from being either inactive or unfruitful*[h] regarding the accurate knowledge of our Lord Jesus Christ.

1:1 *Or "a faith held in equal privilege with ours." 1:3, 4 *Or "freely given." 1:4 *Or "by lust." 1:8 *Or "unproductive."

9 For anyone lacking these things is blind, shutting his eyes to the light,[a] and has become forgetful of his cleansing from his sins[b] of long ago. 10 Therefore, brothers, be all the more diligent to make your calling[c] and choosing sure for yourselves, for if you keep on doing these things, you will by no means ever fail.[d] 11 In fact, in this way you will be richly granted entrance into the everlasting Kingdom[e] of our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ.[f]

12 For this reason I intend always to remind you of these things, although you know them and are well-established in the truth that is present in you. 13 But I consider it right, as long as I am in this tabernacle,[g] to stir you with reminders,[h] 14 knowing as I do that my tabernacle is soon to be removed, just as also our Lord Jesus Christ made clear to me.[i] 15 I will always do my utmost so that after my departure, you may be able to recall these things for yourselves.

16 No, it was not by following artfully contrived false stories that we made known to you the power and presence of our Lord Jesus Christ, but rather, we were eyewitnesses of his magnificence.[j] 17 For he received from God the Father honor and glory when words such as these* were conveyed to him by the magnificent glory: "This is my Son, my beloved, whom I myself have approved."[k] 18 Yes, these words we heard coming from heaven while we were with him in the holy mountain.

19 So we have the prophetic word made more sure, and you are doing well in paying attention to it as to a lamp[a] shining in a dark place (until day dawns and a daystar[b] rises) in your hearts. 20 For you know this first, that no prophecy of Scripture springs from any private interpretation. 21 For prophecy was at no time brought by man's will,[c] but men spoke from God as they were moved* by holy spirit.[d]

2 However, there also came to be false prophets among the people, as there will also be false teachers among you.[e] These will quietly bring in destructive sects, and they will even disown the owner who bought them,[f] bringing speedy destruction upon themselves. 2 Furthermore, many will follow their brazen conduct,*[g] and because of them the way of the truth will be spoken of abusively.[h] 3 Also, they will greedily exploit you with counterfeit words. But their judgment, decided long ago,[i] is not moving slowly, and their destruction is not sleeping.[j]

4 Certainly God did not refrain from punishing the angels who sinned,[k] but threw them into Tar·ta·rus,[l] putting them in chains# of dense darkness to be reserved for judgment.[m] 5 And he did not refrain from punishing an ancient world,[n] but kept Noah, a preacher of righteousness,[o] safe with seven others[p] when he brought a flood upon a world of ungodly people.[q] 6 And by reducing the cities of Sod'om and Go·mor'rah to ashes, he condemned them,[r] setting a pattern for ungodly people of things to come.[a] 7 And he rescued righteous Lot,[b] who was greatly distressed by the brazen conduct of the lawless people— 8 for day after day that righteous man was tormenting his righteous soul* over the lawless deeds that he saw and heard while dwelling among them. 9 So, then, Jehovah* knows how to rescue people of godly devotion out of trial,[c] but to reserve unrighteous people to be destroyed# on the day of judgment,[d] 10 especially those who seek to defile the flesh of others[e] and who despise authority.*[f]

Daring and self-willed, they are not afraid to speak abusively of glorious ones, 11 whereas angels, although they are greater in strength and power, do not bring against them an accusation in abusive terms, out of respect for# Jehovah.[g] 12 But these men, like unreasoning animals that act on instinct and are born to be caught and destroyed, speak abusively about things of which they are ignorant.[h] They will suffer destruction brought on by their own destructive course, 13 suffering harm as their reward for their own harmful course.

They consider it pleasurable to indulge in luxurious living,[i] even in the daytime. They are spots and blemishes who revel* in their deceptive teachings while feasting together with you.[j] 14 Their eyes are full of adultery[k] and are unable to desist from sin, and they entice unstable ones.* They have a heart trained in greed. They are accursed children. 15 Abandoning the straight path, they have been led astray. They have followed the path of Ba'laam[a] the son of Be'or, who loved the reward of wrongdoing,[b] 16 but was reproved for his own violation of what was right.[c] A voiceless beast of burden speaking with a human voice hindered the prophet's mad course.[d]

17 These are waterless springs and mists driven by a violent storm, and the blackest darkness has been reserved for them.[e] 18 They make high-sounding statements that are empty. By appealing to the desires of the flesh[f] and with acts of brazen conduct,* they entice people who have just escaped from those who live in error.[g] 19 While they are promising them freedom, they themselves are slaves of corruption;[h] for if anyone is overcome by someone, he is his slave.*[i] 20 Certainly if after escaping from the defilements of the world[j] by an accurate knowledge of the Lord and Savior Jesus Christ, they get involved again with these very things and are overcome, their final state has become worse for them than the first.[k] 21 It would have been better for them not to have accurately known the path of righteousness than after knowing it to turn away from the holy commandment they had received.[l] 22 What the true proverb says has happened to them: "The dog has returned to its own vomit, and the sow that was bathed to rolling in the mire."[m]

3 Beloved ones, this is now the second letter I am writing you in which, as in my first one, I am stirring up your clear thinking faculties by way of a reminder,[a] 2 that you should remember the sayings previously spoken* by the holy prophets and the commandment of the Lord and Savior through your apostles. 3 First of all know this, that in the last days ridiculers will come with their ridicule, proceeding according to their own desires[b] 4 and saying: "Where is this promised presence of his?[c] Why, from the day our forefathers fell asleep in death, all things are continuing exactly as they were from creation's beginning."[d]

5 For they deliberately ignore this fact, that long ago there were heavens and an earth standing firmly out of water and in the midst of water by the word of God;[e] 6 and that by those means the world of that time suffered destruction when it was flooded with water.[f] 7 But by the same word the heavens and the earth that now exist are reserved for fire and are being kept until the day of judgment and of destruction of the ungodly people.[g]

8 However, do not let this escape your notice, beloved ones, that one day is with Jehovah* as a thousand years and a thousand years as one day.[h] 9 Jehovah* is not slow concerning his promise,[i] as some people consider slowness, but he is patient with you because he does not desire anyone to be destroyed but desires all to attain to repentance.[j] 10 But Jehovah's* day[k] will come as a thief,[l] in which the heavens will pass away[m] with a roar,* but the elements being intensely hot will be dissolved, and earth and the works in it will be exposed.[a]

11 Since all these things are to be dissolved in this way, consider what sort of people you ought to be in holy acts of conduct and deeds of godly devotion, 12 as you await and keep close in mind# the presence of the day of Jehovah,*[b] through which the heavens will be destroyed[c] in flames and the elements will melt in the intense heat! 13 But there are new heavens and a new earth that we are awaiting according to his promise,[d] and in these righteousness is to dwell.[e]

14 Therefore, beloved ones, since you are awaiting these things, do your utmost to be found finally by him spotless and unblemished and in peace.[f] 15 Furthermore, consider the patience of our Lord as salvation, just as our beloved brother Paul also wrote you according to the wisdom given him,[g] 16 speaking about these things as he does in all his letters. However, some things in them are hard to understand, and these things the ignorant* and unstable are twisting, as they do also the rest of the Scriptures, to their own destruction.

17 You, therefore, beloved ones, having this advance knowledge, be on your guard so that you may not be led astray with them by the error of the lawless people and fall from your own steadfastness.*[h] 18 No, but go on growing in the undeserved kindness and knowledge of our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ. To him be the glory both now and to the day of eternity. Amen.

1 That which was from the beginning, which we have heard, which we have seen with our eyes, which we have observed and our hands have felt, concerning the word of life,[a] 2 (yes, the life was made manifest, and we have seen and are bearing witness[b] and reporting to you the everlasting life[c] that was with the Father and was made manifest to us), 3 that which we have seen and heard we are reporting also to you,[d] so that you too may have fellowship* with us. And this fellowship of ours is with the Father and with his Son Jesus Christ.[e] 4 And we are writing these things so that our joy may be complete.

5 This is the message that we heard from him and are announcing to you: God is light,[f] and there is no darkness at all in him.* 6 If we make the statement, "We are having fellowship with him," and yet we go on walking in the darkness, we are lying and are not practicing the truth.[a] 7 However, if we are walking in the light as he himself is in the light, we do have fellowship with one another, and the blood of Jesus his Son cleanses us from all sin.[b]

8 If we make the statement, "We have no sin," we are misleading ourselves[c] and the truth is not in us. 9 If we confess our sins, he is faithful and righteous so as to forgive us our sins and to cleanse us from all unrighteousness.[d] 10 If we make the statement, "We have not sinned," we are making him a liar, and his word is not in us.

2 My little children, I am writing you these things so that you may not commit a sin. And yet, if anyone does commit a sin, we have a helper* with the Father, Jesus Christ,[e] a righteous one.[f] 2 And he is a propitiatory sacrifice*[g] for our sins,[h] yet not for ours only but also for the whole world's.[a] 3 And by this we realize that we have come to know him, namely, if we continue observing his commandments. 4 The one who says, "I have come to know him," and yet does not observe his commandments is a liar, and the truth is not in this person. 5 But whoever does observe his word, in this person the love of God has truly been made perfect.[b] By this we know that we are in union with him.[c] 6 The one who says he remains in union with him is himself under obligation to go on walking just as that one walked.[d]

7 Beloved ones, I am writing you, not a new commandment, but an old commandment that you have had from the beginning.[e] This old commandment is the word that you heard. 8 Again, I am writing you a new commandment, which is true in his case and in yours, because the darkness is passing away and the true light is already shining.[f]

9 The one who says that he is in the light and yet hates[g] his brother is still in the darkness.[h] 10 The one who loves his brother remains in the light,[i] and in him there is no cause for stumbling. 11 But the one who hates his brother is in the darkness and is walking in the darkness,[j] and he does not know where he is going,[k] because the darkness has blinded his eyes.

12 I am writing you, little children, because your sins have been forgiven you for the sake of his name.[l] 13 I am writing you, fathers, because you have come to know him who is from the beginning. I am writing you, young men, because you have conquered the wicked one.[m] I write you, young children, because you have come to know the Father.[a] 14 I write you, fathers, because you have come to know him who is from the beginning. I write you, young men, because you are strong[b] and the word of God remains in you[c] and you have conquered the wicked one.[d]

15 Do not love either the world or the things in the world.[e] If anyone loves the world, the love of the Father is not in him;[f] 16 because everything in the world—the desire of the flesh[g] and the desire of the eyes[h] and the showy display of one's means of life*—does not originate with the Father, but originates with the world. 17 Furthermore, the world is passing away and so is its desire,[i] but the one who does the will of God remains forever.[j]

18 Young children, it is the last hour, and just as you have heard that the antichrist is coming,[k] even now many antichrists have appeared,[l] from which fact we know that it is the last hour. 19 They went out from us, but they were not of our sort;*[m] for if they had been of our sort, they would have remained with us. But they went out so that it might be shown that not all are of our sort.[n] 20 And you have an anointing from the holy one,[o] and all of you have knowledge. 21 I write you, not because you do not know the truth,[p] but because you know it, and because no lie originates with the truth.[q]

22 Who is the liar but the one who denies that Jesus is the Christ?[r] This is the antichrist,[s] the one who denies the Father and the Son. 23 Everyone who denies the Son does not have the Father either.[t] But whoever acknowledges the Son[u] has the Father also.[v] 24 As for you, what you have heard from the beginning must remain in you.[a] If what you have heard from the beginning remains in you, you will also remain in union with the Son and in union with the Father. 25 Furthermore, this is what he himself promised us —the life everlasting.[b]

26 I write you these things about those who are trying to mislead you. 27 And as for you, the anointing that you received from him[c] remains in you, and you do not need anyone to be teaching you; but the anointing from him is teaching you about all things[d] and is true and is no lie. Just as it has taught you, remain in union with him.[e] 28 So now, little children, remain in union with him, so that when he is made manifest we may have freeness of speech[f] and not shrink away from him in shame at his presence. 29 If you know that he is righteous, you also know that everyone who practices righteousness has been born from him.[g]

3 See what sort of love the Father has given us,[h] that we should be called children of God![i] And that is what we are. That is why the world does not know us,[j] because it has not come to know him.[k] 2 Beloved ones, we are now children of God,[l] but it has not yet been made manifest what we will be.[m] We do know that when he is made manifest we will be like him, because we will see him just as he is. 3 And everyone who has this hope in him purifies himself,[n] just as that one is pure.

4 Everyone who practices sin is also practicing lawlessness, and sin is lawlessness. 5 You know, too, that he was made manifest to take away our sins,[o] and there is no sin in him. 6 Everyone remaining in union with him does not practice sin;[p] no one who practices sin has either seen him or come to know him. 7 Little children, let no one mislead you; the one who practices righteousness is righteous, just as that one is righteous. 8 The one who practices sin originates with the Devil, because the Devil has been sinning from the beginning.*[a] For this purpose the Son of God was made manifest, to break up# the works of the Devil.[b]

9 Everyone who has been born from God does not practice sin,[c] for His seed* remains in such one, and he cannot practice sin, for he has been born from God.[d] 10 The children of God and the children of the Devil are evident by this fact: Whoever does not practice righteousness does not originate with God, nor does the one who does not love his brother.[e] 11 For this is the message that you have heard from the beginning, that we should love one another;[f] 12 not like Cain, who originated with the wicked one and slaughtered his brother.[g] And for what reason did he slaughter him? Because his own works were wicked,[h] but those of his brother were righteous.[i]

13 Do not be surprised, brothers, that the world hates you.[j] 14 We know that we have passed over from death to life,[k] because we love the brothers.[l] The one who does not love remains in death.[m] 15 Everyone who hates his brother is a murderer,[n] and you know that no murderer has everlasting life remaining in him.[o] 16 By this we have come to know love, because that one surrendered his life for us,[p] and we are under obligation to surrender our lives* for our brothers.[a] 17 But whoever has the material possessions of this world and sees his brother in need and yet refuses to show him compassion, in what way does the love of God remain in him?[b] 18 Little children, we should love, not in word or with the tongue,[c] but in deed[d] and truth.[e]

19 By this we will know that we originate with the truth, and we will assure* our hearts before him 20 regarding whatever our hearts may condemn us in, because God is greater than our hearts and knows all things.[f] 21 Beloved ones, if our hearts do not condemn us, we have freeness of speech toward God;[g] 22 and whatever we ask we receive from him,[h] because we are observing his commandments and doing what is pleasing in his eyes. 23 Indeed, this is his commandment: that we have faith in the name of his Son Jesus Christ[i] and love one another,[j] just as he gave us a commandment. 24 Moreover, the one who observes his commandments remains in union with him, and he in union with such one.[k] And by the spirit that he gave us, we know that he remains in union with us.[l]

4 Beloved ones, do not believe every inspired statement,*[m] but test the inspired statements# to see whether they originate with God,[n] for many false prophets have gone out into the world.[o]

2 This is how you know that the inspired statement is from God: Every inspired statement that acknowledges Jesus Christ as having come in the flesh originates with God.[p] 3 But every inspired statement that does not acknowledge Jesus does not originate with God.[a] Furthermore, this is the antichrist's inspired statement that you have heard was coming,[b] and now it is already in the world.[c]

4 You originate with God, little children, and you have conquered them,[d] because the one who is in union with you[e] is greater than the one who is in union with the world.[f] 5 They originate with the world;[g] that is why they speak what originates with the world and the world listens to them.[h] 6 We originate with God. Whoever comes to know God listens to us;[i] whoever does not originate with God does not listen to us.[j] By this we distinguish the inspired statement of truth from the inspired statement of error.[k]

7 Beloved ones, let us continue loving one another,[l] because love is from God, and everyone who loves has been born from God and knows God.[m] 8 Whoever does not love has not come to know God, because God is love.[n] 9 By this the love of God was revealed in our case, that God sent his only-begotten Son[o] into the world so that we might gain life through him.[p] 10 The love is in this respect, not that we have loved God, but that he loved us and sent his Son as a propitiatory sacrifice*[q] for our sins.[r]

11 Beloved ones, if this is how God loved us, then we are also under obligation to love one another.[s] 12 No one has seen God at any time.[t] If we continue loving one another, God remains in us and his love is made perfect in us.[u] 13 By this we know that we are remaining in union with him and he in union with us, because he has given his spirit to us. 14 In addition, we ourselves have seen and are bearing witness that the Father has sent his Son as Savior of the world.[a] 15 Whoever acknowledges that Jesus is God's Son,[b] God remains in union with such one and he in union with God.[c] 16 And we have come to know and believe the love that God has for us.[d]

God is love,[e] and the one who remains in love remains in union with God and God remains in union with him.[f] 17 In this way love has been made perfect in us, so that we may have freeness of speech*[g] in the day of judgment, because just as that one is, so are we ourselves in this world. 18 There is no fear in love,[h] but perfect love casts* fear out, because fear restrains us. Indeed, the one who is fearful has not been made perfect in love.[i] 19 We love, because he first loved us.[j]

20 If anyone says, "I love God," and yet is hating his brother, he is a liar.[k] For the one who does not love his brother,[l] whom he has seen, cannot love God, whom he has not seen.[m] 21 And we have this commandment from him, that whoever loves God must also love his brother.[n]

5 Everyone who believes that Jesus is the Christ has been born from God,[o] and everyone who loves the one who caused to be born loves him who has been born from that one. 2 By this we know that we love the children of God,[p] when we love God and carry out his commandments. 3 For this is what the love of God means, that we observe his commandments;[q] and yet his commandments are not burdensome,[r] 4 because everyone who* has been born from God conquers the world.[a] And this is the conquest that has conquered the world, our faith.[b]

5 Who can conquer the world?[c] Is it not the one who has faith that Jesus is the Son of God?[d] 6 This is the one who came by means of water and blood, Jesus Christ, not with the water only,[e] but with the water and with the blood.[f] And the spirit is bearing witness,[g] because the spirit is the truth. 7 For there are three witness bearers: 8 the spirit[h] and the water[i] and the blood;[j] and the three are in agreement.

9 If we accept the witness of men, the witness of God is greater. Because this is the witness God gives, the witness that he has given about his Son. 10 The person putting his faith in the Son of God has the witness within himself. The person not having faith in God has made him a liar,[k] because he has not put his faith in the witness given by God concerning his Son. 11 And this is the witness, that God gave us everlasting life,[l] and this life is in his Son.[m] 12 The one who has the Son has this life; the one who does not have the Son of God does not have this life.[n]

13 I write you these things so that you may know that you have life everlasting,[o] you who put your faith in the name of the Son of God.[p] 14 And this is the confidence* that we have toward him,[q] that no matter what we ask according to his will, he hears us.[r] 15 And if we know that he hears us concerning whatever we are asking, we know that we are to have the things we ask for, since we have asked them of him.[s]

1 The older man* to the chosen lady and to her children, whom I truly love, and not only I but also all those who have come to know the truth, 2 because of the truth that remains in us and will be with us forever. 3 There will be with us undeserved kindness, mercy, and peace from God the Father and from Jesus Christ, the Son of the Father, with truth and love.

4 I rejoice very much because I have found some of your children walking in the truth,[a] just as we received commandment from the Father. 5 So now I request you, lady, that we love one another. (I am writing you, not a new commandment, but one that we had from the beginning.)[a] 6 And this is what love means, that we go on walking according to his commandments.[b] This is the commandment, just as you have heard from the beginning, that you should go on walking in it. 7 For many deceivers have gone out into the world,[c] those not acknowledging Jesus Christ as coming in the flesh.[d] This is the deceiver and the antichrist.[e]

Please send them on their way in a manner worthy of God.[a] 7 For it was in behalf of his name that they went out, not taking anything[b] from the people of the nations. 8 So we are under obligation to show hospitality to such ones,[c] so that we may become fellow workers in the truth.[d]

OUTLINE OF CONTENTS

Greetings (1, 2)

1 Jude, a slave of Jesus Christ, but a brother of James,[a] to the called ones[b] who are loved by God the Father and preserved for Jesus Christ:[c]

2 May mercy and peace and love be increased to you.

3 Beloved ones, although I was making every effort to write you about the salvation we hold in common,[d] I found it necessary to write you to urge you to put up a hard fight for the faith[e] that was once for all time delivered to the holy ones. 4 My reason is that certain men have slipped in among you who were long ago appointed to this judgment by the Scriptures; they are ungodly men who turn the undeserved kindness of our God into an excuse for brazen conduct*[a] and who prove false to our only owner# and Lord, Jesus Christ.[b]

5 Although you are fully aware of all of this, I want to remind you that Jehovah,* having saved a people out of the land of Egypt,[c] afterward destroyed those not showing faith.[d] 6 And the angels who did not keep their original position but forsook their own proper dwelling place,[e] he has reserved with eternal bonds in dense darkness for the judgment of the great day.[f] 7 In the same manner, Sod'om and Go·mor'rah and the cities around them also gave themselves over to gross sexual immorality* and pursued unnatural fleshly desires;[a] they are placed before us as a warning example by undergoing the judicial punishment of everlasting fire.[b]

8 Despite this, these men too are indulging in dreams, defiling the flesh, despising authority, and speaking abusively of glorious ones.[c] 9 But when Mi·cha·el[d] the archangel[e] had a difference with the Devil and was disputing about Moses' body,[f] he did not dare to bring a judgment against him in abusive terms,[g] but said: "May Jehovah* rebuke you."[h] 10 But these men are speaking abusively about all the things they really do not understand.[i] And in all the things that they do understand by instinct like unreasoning animals,[j] they go on corrupting themselves.

11 Too bad for them, for they have followed the path of Cain[k] and have rushed into the erroneous course of Ba'laam[l] for reward, and they have perished in the rebellious talk[m] of Kor'ah![n] 12 These are the rocks hidden below water at your love feasts[o] while they feast with you, shepherds who feed themselves without fear;[p] waterless clouds carried here and there by the wind;[q] fruitless trees in late autumn, having died twice* and having been uprooted; 13 wild waves of the sea that cast up the foam of their own shame;[r] stars with no set course, for which the blackest darkness stands reserved forever.[s]

14 Yes, the seventh one in line from Adam, E'noch,[t] also prophesied about them when he said: "Look! Jehovah* came with his holy myriads#[u] 15 to execute judgment against all,[v] and to convict all the ungodly concerning all their ungodly deeds that they did in an ungodly way, and concerning all the shocking things that ungodly sinners spoke against him."[a]

16 These men are murmurers,[b] complainers about their lot in life, following their own desires,[c] and their mouths make grandiose boasts, while they are flattering others* for their own benefit.[d]

17 As for you, beloved ones, call to mind the sayings that have been previously spoken* by the apostles of our Lord Jesus Christ, 18 how they used to say to you: "In the last time there will be ridiculers, following their own desires for ungodly things."[e] 19 These are the ones who cause divisions,[f] animalistic men,* not having spirituality.#[g] 20 But you, beloved ones, build yourselves up on your most holy faith, and pray with holy spirit,[g] 21 in order to keep yourselves in God's love,[h] while you await the mercy of our Lord Jesus Christ with everlasting life in view.[i] 22 Also, continue showing mercy[j] to some who have doubts;[k] 23 save them[l] by snatching them out of the fire. But continue showing mercy to others, doing so with fear, while you hate even the garment that has been stained by the flesh.[m]

24 Now to the one who is able to guard you from stumbling and to make you stand unblemished[n] in the sight of his glory* with great joy, 25 to the only God our Savior through Jesus Christ our Lord, be glory, majesty, might, and authority for all past eternity and now and into all eternity. Amen.

CHAP. 1

1 A revelation* by Jesus Christ, which God gave him,[a] to show his slaves[b] the things that must shortly take place. And he sent his angel and presented it in signs through him to his slave John,[c] 2 who bore witness to the word God gave and to the witness Jesus Christ gave, yes, to all the things he saw. 3 Happy is the one who reads aloud and those who hear the words of this prophecy and who observe the things written in it,[d] for the appointed time is near.

4 John to the seven congregations[e] that are in the province of Asia:

May you have undeserved kindness and peace from "the One who is and who was and who is coming,"[f] and from the seven spirits[g] that are before his throne, 5 and from Jesus Christ, "the Faithful Witness,"[h] "the firstborn from the dead,"[i] and "the Ruler of the kings of the earth."[j]

To him who loves us[k] and who set us free from our sins by means of his own blood[a]— 6 and he made us to be a kingdom,[b] priests[c] to his God and Father—yes, to him be the glory and the might forever. Amen.

7 Look! He is coming with the clouds,[d] and every eye will see him, and those who pierced him; and all the tribes of the earth will beat themselves in grief because of him.[e] Yes, Amen.

8 "I am the Al′pha and the O·me′ga,"*[f] says Jehovah# God, "the One who is and who was and who is coming, the Almighty."[g]

9 I John, your brother and a sharer with you in the tribulation[h] and kingdom[i] and endurance[j] in association with Jesus,[k] was on the island called Pat′mos for speaking about God and bearing witness concerning Jesus. 10 By inspiration I came to be in the Lord's day, and I heard behind me a strong voice like that of a trumpet, 11 saying: "What you see, write in a scroll and send it to the seven congregations:

1:1 *Or "A disclosure; An uncovering."

in Eph′e·sus,[a] in Smyr′na,[b] in Per′ga·mum,[c] in Thy·a·ti′ra,[d] in Sar′dis,[e] in Philadelphia,[f] and in La·o·di·ce′a.”[g]

12 I turned to see who was speaking with me, and when I turned, I saw seven golden lampstands,[h] 13 and in the midst of the lampstands someone like a son of man,[i] clothed in a garment that reached down to the feet and wearing a golden sash around his chest. 14 Moreover, his head and his hair were white as white wool, as snow, and his eyes were like a fiery flame,[j] 15 and his feet were like fine copper[k] when glowing in a furnace, and his voice was like the sound of many waters. 16 And he had in his right hand seven stars,[l] and out of his mouth a sharp, long, two-edged sword[m] was protruding, and his countenance* was like the sun when it shines at its brightest.[n] 17 When I saw him, I fell as dead at his feet.

And he laid his right hand on me and said: “Do not be afraid. I am the First[o] and the Last,[p] 18 and the living one,[q] and I became dead,[r] but look! I am living forever and ever,[s] and I have the keys of death and of the Grave.*[t] 19 So write down the things you saw, and the things that are, and the things that will take place after these. 20 As for the sacred secret of the seven stars that you saw in my right hand and of the seven golden lampstands: The seven stars mean the angels of the seven congregations, and the seven lampstands mean the seven congregations.[u]

2 “To the angel[v] of the congregation in Eph′e·sus[w] write: These are the things that he says who holds the seven stars in his right hand and walks among the seven golden lampstands:[a] 2 ‘I know your deeds, and your labor and endurance, and that you cannot tolerate bad men, and that you put to the test those who say they are apostles,[b] but they are not, and you found them to be liars. 3 You are also showing endurance, and you have persevered for the sake of my name[c] and have not grown weary.[d] 4 Nevertheless, I hold this against you, that you have left the love you had at first.

5 “‘Therefore remember from where you have fallen, and repent[e] and do the deeds you did at first. If you do not, I will come to you, and I will remove your lampstand[f] from its place, unless you repent.[g] 6 Still, you do have this in your favor: that you hate the deeds of the sect of Nic·o·la′us,[h] which I also hate. 7 Let the one who has an ear hear what the spirit says to the congregations:[i] To the one who conquers[j] I will grant to eat of the tree of life,[k] which is in the paradise of God.’

8 “And to the angel of the congregation in Smyr′na write: These are the things that he says, ‘the First and the Last,’[l] who became dead and came to life again:[m] 9 ‘I know your tribulation and poverty—but you are rich[n]—and the blasphemy by those who call themselves Jews and really are not, but they are a synagogue of Satan.[o] 10 Do not be afraid of the things you are about to suffer.[p] Look! The Devil will keep on throwing some of you into prison so that you may be fully put to the test, and you will have tribulation for ten days. Prove yourself faithful even to death, and I will give you the crown of life.[q] 11 Let the one who has an ear hear[r] what the spirit says to the congregations: The one who conquers[s] will by no means be harmed by the second death.’[t]

14 "'Nevertheless, I have a few things against you, that you have there those adhering to the teaching of Ba′laam,[f] who taught Ba′lak[g] to put a stumbling block before the sons of Israel, to eat things sacrificed to idols and to commit sexual immorality.*[h] 15 In the same way, you also have those adhering to the teaching of the sect of Nic·o·la′us.[i] 16 So repent. If you do not, I am coming to you quickly, and I will war against them with the long sword of my mouth.[j]

17 "'Let the one who has an ear hear what the spirit says to the congregations:[k] To the one who conquers[l] I will give some of the hidden manna,[m] and I will give him a white pebble, and written on the pebble is a new name that no one knows except the one receiving it.'

20 "'Nevertheless, I do hold this against you, that you tolerate that woman Jez′e·bel,[q] who calls herself a prophetess, and she teaches and misleads my slaves to commit sexual immorality*[a] and to eat things sacrificed to idols. 21 And I gave her time to repent, but she is not willing to repent of her sexual immorality.* 22 Look! I am about to throw her into a sickbed, and those committing adultery with her into great tribulation, unless they repent of her deeds. 23 And I will kill her children with deadly plague, so that all the congregations will know that I am the one who searches the innermost thoughts* and hearts, and I will give to you individually according to your deeds.[b]

4 After this I saw, and look! an opened door in heaven, and the first voice that I heard speaking with me was like a trumpet, saying: "Come up here, and I will show you the things that must take place." 2 After this I immediately came to be in the power of the spirit, and look! a throne was in its position in heaven, and someone was seated on the throne.[a] 3 And the One seated had the appearance of a jasper stone[b] and a sardius stone,* and all around the throne was a rainbow like an emerald in appearance.[c]

4 All around the throne were 24 thrones, and on these thrones I saw seated 24 elders[d] dressed in white garments, and on their heads golden crowns. 5 From the throne were coming lightning[e] and voices and thunders;[f] and there were seven lamps of fire burning before the throne, and these mean the seven spirits of God.[g] 6 Before the throne was something resembling a glassy sea,[h] like crystal.

In the midst of the throne* and around the throne were four living creatures[i] that were full of eyes in front and behind. 7 The first living creature was like a lion,[j] and the second living creature was like a young bull,[k] and the third living creature[l] had a face like a man's, and the fourth living creature[m] was like a flying eagle.[n] 8 As for the four living creatures, each one of them had six wings; they were full of eyes all around and underneath.[o] And continuously, day and night, they say: "Holy, holy, holy is Jehovah*[p] God, the Almighty, who was and who is and who is coming."[a]

9 Whenever the living creatures give glory and honor and thanksgiving to the One seated on the throne, the One who lives forever and ever,[b] 10 the 24 elders[c] fall down before the One seated on the throne and worship the One who lives forever and ever, and they cast their crowns before the throne, saying: 11 "You are worthy, Jehovah* our God, to receive the glory[d] and the honor[e] and the power,[f] because you created all things,[g] and because of your will they came into existence and were created."

5 And I saw in the right hand of the One seated on the throne[h] a scroll written on both sides,* sealed tight with seven seals. 2 And I saw a strong angel proclaiming with a loud voice: "Who is worthy to open the scroll and break its seals?" 3 But no one in heaven or on earth or underneath the earth was able to open the scroll or to look into it. 4 I gave way to a great deal of weeping because no one was found worthy to open the scroll or to look into it. 5 But one of the elders said to me: "Stop weeping. Look! The Lion of the tribe of Judah,[i] the root[j] of David,[k] has conquered[l] so as to open the scroll and its seven seals."

6 And I saw standing in the midst* of the throne and of the four living creatures and in the midst of the elders[m] a lamb[n] that seemed to have been slaughtered,[o] having seven horns and seven eyes, and the eyes mean the seven spirits of God[p] that have been sent out into the whole earth. 7 At once he came forward and took it out of the right hand of the One seated on the throne.[q] 8 When he took the

(The incense means the prayers of the holy ones.)[b] 9 And they sing a new song,[c] saying: "You are worthy to take the scroll and open its seals, for you were slaughtered and with your blood you bought people for God[d] out of every tribe and tongue* and people and nation,[e] 10 and you made them to be a kingdom[f] and priests to our God,[g] and they are to rule as kings[h] over the earth."

11 And I saw, and I heard a voice of many angels around the throne and the living creatures and the elders, and the number of them was myriads of myriads* and thousands of thousands,[i] 12 and they were saying with a loud voice: "The Lamb who was slaughtered[j] is worthy to receive the power and riches and wisdom and strength and honor and glory and blessing."[k]

13 And I heard every creature in heaven and on earth and underneath the earth[l] and on the sea, and all the things in them, saying: "To the One sitting on the throne[m] and to the Lamb[n] be the blessing and the honor[o] and the glory and the might forever and ever."[p] 14 The four living creatures were saying: "Amen!" and the elders fell down and worshipped.

6 And I saw when the Lamb[q] opened one of the seven seals,[r] and I heard one of the four living creatures[s] say with a voice like thunder: "Come!" 2 And I saw, and look! a white horse,[t] and the one seated on it had a bow; and a crown was given him,[u] and he went out conquering and to complete his conquest.[v]

3 When he opened the second seal, I heard the second living creature[a] say: "Come!" 4 Another came out, a fiery-colored horse, and it was granted to the one seated on it to take peace away from the earth so that they should slaughter one another, and he was given a great sword.[b]

5 When he opened the third seal,[c] I heard the third living creature[d] say: "Come!" And I saw, and look! a black horse, and the one seated on it had a pair of scales in his hand. 6 I heard what sounded like a voice in the midst of the four living creatures say: "A quart* of wheat for a de·nar′i·us#[e] and three quarts of barley for a de·nar′i·us; and do not harm the olive oil and the wine."[f]

7 When he opened the fourth seal, I heard the voice of the fourth living creature[g] say: "Come!" 8 And I saw, and look! a pale horse, and the one seated on it had the name Death. And the Grave* was closely following him. And authority was given them over the fourth part of the earth, to kill with a long sword and with food shortage[h] and with deadly plague and by the wild beasts of the earth.[i]

9 When he opened the fifth seal, I saw underneath the altar[j] the souls*[k] of those slaughtered because of the word of God and because of the witness they had given.[l] 10 They shouted with a loud voice, saying: "Until when, Sovereign Lord, holy and true,[m] are you refraining from judging and avenging our blood on those who dwell on the earth?"[n] 11 And a white robe was given to each of them,[a] and they were told to rest a little while longer, until the number was filled of their fellow slaves and their brothers who were about to be killed as they had been.[b]

12 And I saw when he opened the sixth seal, and a great earthquake occurred; and the sun became black as sackcloth made of hair,* and the entire moon became as blood,[c] 13 and the stars of heaven fell to the earth as when a fig tree shaken by a high wind drops its unripe figs. 14 And the heaven departed as a scroll that is being rolled up,[d] and every mountain and every island was removed from its place.[e] 15 Then the kings of the earth, the high officials, the military commanders, the rich, the strong, every slave, and every free person hid in the caves and among the rocks of the mountains.[f] 16 And they keep saying to the mountains and to the rocks: "Fall over us[g] and hide us from the face of the One seated on the throne[h] and from the wrath of the Lamb,[i] 17 because the great day of their wrath has come,[j] and who is able to stand?"[k]

7 After this I saw four angels standing on the four corners of the earth, holding tight the four winds of the earth, so that no wind could blow on the earth or on the sea or on any tree. 2 And I saw another angel ascending from the sunrise,* having a seal of the living God; and he called with a loud voice to the four angels to whom it was granted to harm the earth and the sea, 3 saying: "Do not harm the earth or the sea or the trees, until after we have sealed[l] the slaves of our God in their foreheads."[m]

4 And I heard the number of those who were sealed, 144,000,[n] sealed out of every tribe of the sons of Israel:[a]

5 Out of the tribe of Judah 12,000 sealed; out of the tribe of Reu'ben 12,000;
out of the tribe of Gad 12,000;
6 out of the tribe of Ash'er 12,000;

8 out of the tribe of Zeb'u·lun 12,000;
out of the tribe of Joseph 12,000;
out of the tribe of Benjamin 12,000 sealed.

9 After this I saw, and look! a great crowd, which no man was able to number, out of all nations and tribes and peoples and tongues,*[c] standing before the throne and before the Lamb, dressed in white robes;[d] and there were palm branches in their hands.[e] 10 And they keep shouting with a loud voice, saying: "Salvation we owe to our God, who is seated on the throne,[f] and to the Lamb."[g]

11 All the angels were standing around the throne and the elders[h] and the four living creatures, and they fell facedown before the throne and worshipped God, 12 saying: "Amen! Let the praise and the glory and the wisdom and the thanksgiving and the honor and the power and the strength be to our God forever and ever.[i] Amen."

are they and where did they come from?" 14 So right away I said to him: "My lord, you are the one who knows." And he said to me: "These are the ones who come out of the great tribulation,[a] and they have washed their robes and made them white in the blood of the Lamb.[b] 15 That is why they are before the throne of God, and they are rendering him sacred service day and night in his temple; and the One seated on the throne[c] will spread his tent over them.[d] 16 They will hunger no more nor thirst anymore, neither will the sun beat down on them nor any scorching heat,[e] 17 because the Lamb,[f] who is in the midst* of the throne, will shepherd them[g] and will guide them to springs# of waters of life.[h] And God will wipe out every tear from their eyes."[i]

7 The first one blew his trumpet. And there was hail and fire mingled with blood, and it was hurled to the earth;[a] and a third of the earth was burned up, and a third of the trees were burned up, and all the green vegetation was burned up.[b]

8 The second angel blew his trumpet. And something like a great mountain burning with fire was hurled into the sea.[c] And a third of the sea became blood;[d] 9 and a third of the living creatures* in the sea died,[e] and a third of the ships were wrecked.

10 The third angel blew his trumpet. And a great star burning like a lamp fell from heaven, and it fell on a third of the rivers and on the springs# of waters.[f] 11 The name of the star is Wormwood. And a third of the waters turned into wormwood, and many of the people died from the waters, because these had been made bitter.[g]

12 The fourth angel blew his trumpet. And a third of the sun was struck[h] and a third of the moon and a third of the stars, in order that a third of them might be darkened[i] and the day might not have light for a third of it, and the night likewise.

13 And I saw, and I heard an eagle flying in midheaven say with a loud voice: "Woe, woe, woe[j] to those dwelling on the earth because of the rest of the trumpet blasts of the three angels who are about to blow their trumpets!"[k]

9 The fifth angel blew his trumpet.[l] And I saw a star that had fallen from heaven to the earth, and the key to the shaft* of the abyss[m] was given to him. 2 He opened the shaft* of the abyss, and smoke ascended out of the shaft* like the smoke of a great furnace, and the sun was darkened,[a] also the air, by the smoke of the shaft.* 3 And locusts came out of the smoke onto the earth,[b] and authority was given to them, the same authority that the scorpions of the earth have. 4 They were told not to harm the vegetation of the earth or any green plant or any tree, but only those people who do not have the seal of God on their foreheads.[c]

5 And it was granted the locusts, not to kill them, but to torment them five months, and their torment was like torment by a scorpion[d] when it strikes a person. 6 In those days people will seek death but will by no means find it, and they will long to die, but death will flee from them.

7 And in appearance the locusts resembled horses prepared for battle;[e] on their heads were what seemed to be crowns of gold, and their faces were like human faces, 8 but they had hair like women's hair. And their teeth were like those of lions,[f] 9 and they had breastplates like iron breastplates. And the sound of their wings was like the sound of horse-drawn chariots rushing into battle.[g] 10 Also, they have tails with stingers like scorpions, and in their tails is their authority to hurt the people for five months.[h] 11 They have over them a king, the angel of the abyss.[i] In Hebrew his name is A·bad′don,* but in Greek he has the name A·pol′lyon.#

12 The one woe is past. Look! Two more woes[j] are coming after these things.

13 The sixth angel[k] blew his trumpet.[l] And I heard one voice from the horns of the golden altar[m] that is before God 14 say to the sixth angel who had the trumpet: "Untie the four angels who are bound at the great river Eu·phra′tes."[a] 15 And the four angels who have been prepared for the hour and day and month and year were untied to kill a third of the people.

16 The number of the armies of cavalry was two myriads of myriads;* I heard the number of them. 17 And this is how I saw the horses in the vision and those seated on them: They had fire-red and hyacinth-blue and sulfur-yellow breastplates, and the heads of the horses were like the heads of lions,[b] and fire and smoke and sulfur came out of their mouths. 18 A third of the people were killed by these three plagues, by the fire and the smoke and the sulfur that came out of their mouths. 19 For the authority of the horses is in their mouths and in their tails, for their tails are like serpents and have heads, and with these they inflict harm.

20 But the rest of the people who were not killed by these plagues did not repent of the works of their hands; they did not stop worshipping the demons and the idols of gold and silver and copper and stone and wood, which can neither see nor hear nor walk.[c] 21 And they did not repent of their murders nor of their spiritistic practices nor of their sexual immorality* nor of their thefts.

10 And I saw another strong angel descending from heaven, arrayed* with a cloud, and a rainbow was on his head, and his face was like the sun,[d] and his legs# were like pillars of fire, 2 and he had in his hand a little scroll that had been unrolled. earth, 3 and he cried out with a loud voice just as when a lion roars.[a] And when he cried out, the voices of the seven thunders[b] spoke.

4 Now when the seven thunders spoke, I was about to write, but I heard a voice out of heaven[c] say: "Seal up the things the seven thunders spoke, and do not write them down." 5 The angel whom I saw standing on the sea and on the earth raised his right hand to heaven, 6 and he swore by the One who lives forever and ever,[d] who created the heaven and the things in it and the earth and the things in it and the sea and the things in it:[e] "There will be no delay any longer. 7 But in the days when the seventh angel[f] is about to blow his trumpet,[g] the sacred secret[h] that God declared as good news to his own slaves the prophets[i] is indeed brought to a finish."

8 And I heard the voice out of heaven[j] speaking again with me and saying: "Go, take the opened scroll that is in the hand of the angel who is standing on the sea and on the earth."[k] 9 I went to the angel and told him to give me the little scroll. He said to me: "Take it and eat it up,[l] and it will make your stomach bitter, but in your mouth it will be sweet like honey." 10 I took the little scroll out of the hand of the angel and ate it,[m] and in my mouth it was sweet like honey,[n] but when I had eaten it, my stomach was made bitter. 11 And they said to me: "You must prophesy again about peoples and nations and tongues* and many kings."

11 And a reed like a rod*[o] was given to me as he said: "Get up and measure the temple sanctuary of God and the altar and those worshipping in it. 2 But as for the courtyard that is outside the temple sanctuary, leave it out and do not measure it, because it has been given to the nations, and they will trample the holy city[a] underfoot for 42 months.[b] 3 I will cause my two witnesses to prophesy for 1,260 days dressed in sackcloth." 4 These are symbolized by the two olive trees[c] and the two lampstands[d] and are standing before the Lord of the earth.[e]

5 If anyone wants to harm them, fire comes out of their mouths and consumes their enemies. If anyone should want to harm them, this is how he must be killed. 6 These have the authority to shut up the sky*[f] so that no rain may fall[g] during the days of their prophesying, and they have authority over the waters to turn them into blood[h] and to strike the earth with every sort of plague as often as they wish.

7 When they have finished their witnessing, the wild beast that ascends out of the abyss will wage war with them and conquer them and kill them.[i] 8 And their corpses will be on the main street of the great city that is in a spiritual sense called Sod′om and Egypt, where their Lord was also executed on the stake. 9 And those of the peoples and tribes and tongues* and nations will look at their corpses for three and a half days,[j] and they do not allow their corpses to be laid in a tomb. 10 And those dwelling on the earth rejoice over them and celebrate, and they will send gifts to one another, because these two prophets tormented those dwelling on the earth.

11 After the three and a half days, spirit of life from God entered into them,[k] and they stood on their feet, and great fear fell upon those who saw them. 12 And they heard a loud voice

14 The second woe[a] is past. Look! The third woe is coming quickly.

15 The seventh angel blew his trumpet.[b] And there were loud voices in heaven, saying: "The kingdom of the world has become the Kingdom of our Lord[c] and of his Christ,[d] and he will rule as king forever and ever."[e]

16 And the 24 elders[f] who were seated before God on their thrones fell upon their faces and worshipped God, 17 saying: "We thank you, Jehovah* God, the Almighty, the one who is[g] and who was, because you have taken your great power and begun ruling as king.[h] 18 But the nations became wrathful, and your own wrath came, and the appointed time came for the dead to be judged and to reward[i] your slaves the prophets[j] and the holy ones and those fearing your name, the small and the great, and to bring to ruin those ruining* the earth."[k]

19 And the temple sanctuary of God in heaven was opened, and the ark of his covenant was seen in his temple sanctuary.[l] And there were flashes of lightning and voices and thunders and an earthquake and a great hail.

12 Then a great sign was seen in heaven: A woman[m] was arrayed* with the sun, and the moon was beneath her feet, and on her head was a crown of 12 stars, 2 and she was pregnant. And she was crying out in her pains and in her agony to give birth.

3 Another sign was seen in heaven. Look! A great fiery-colored dragon,[a] with seven heads and ten horns and on its heads seven diadems;* 4 and its tail drags a third of the stars[b] of heaven, and it hurled them down to the earth.[c] And the dragon kept standing before the woman[d] who was about to give birth, so that when she did give birth, it might devour her child.

5 And she gave birth to a son,[e] a male, who is to shepherd all the nations with an iron rod.[f] And her child was snatched* away to God and to his throne. 6 And the woman fled into the wilderness, where she has a place prepared by God and where they would feed her for 1,260 days.[g]

7 And war broke out in heaven: Mi·cha·el*[h] and his angels battled with the dragon, and the dragon and its angels battled 8 but they did not prevail,* nor was a place found for them any longer in heaven. 9 So down the great dragon[i] was hurled, the original serpent,[j] the one called Devil[k] and Satan,[l] who is misleading the entire inhabited earth;[m] he was hurled down to the earth,[n] and his angels were hurled down with him. 10 I heard a loud voice in heaven say:

"Now have come to pass the salvation[o] and the power and the Kingdom of our God[p] and the authority of his Christ, because the accuser of our brothers has been hurled down, who accuses them day and night before our God![q] 11 And they conquered him[r] because of the blood of the Lamb[a] and because of the word of their witnessing,[b] and they did not love their souls*[c] even in the face of death. 12 On this account be glad, you heavens and you who reside in them! Woe for the earth and for the sea,[d] because the Devil has come down to you, having great anger, knowing that he has a short period of time."[e]

13 Now when the dragon saw that it had been hurled down to the earth,[f] it persecuted the woman[g] who gave birth to the male child. 14 But the two wings of the great eagle[h] were given to the woman, so that she might fly into the wilderness to her place, where she is to be fed for a time and times and half a time*[i] away from the face of the serpent.[j]

15 And the serpent spewed out water like a river from its mouth after the woman, to cause her to be drowned by the river. 16 But the earth came to the woman's help, and the earth opened its mouth and swallowed up the river that the dragon spewed out from its mouth. 17 So the dragon became enraged at the woman and went off to wage war with the remaining ones of her offspring,*[k] who observe the commandments of God and have the work of bearing witness concerning Jesus.[l]

13 And it* stood still on the sand of the sea.

And the dragon[a] gave to the beast its power and its throne and great authority.[b]

3 I saw that one of its heads seemed to have been fatally wounded, but its mortal wound had been healed,[c] and all the earth followed the wild beast with admiration. 4 And they worshipped the dragon because it gave the authority to the wild beast, and they worshipped the wild beast with the words: "Who is like the wild beast, and who can do battle with it?" 5 It was given a mouth speaking great things and blasphemies, and it was given authority to act for 42 months.[d] 6 And it opened its mouth in blasphemies[e] against God to blaspheme his name and his dwelling place, even those residing in heaven.[f] 7 It was permitted to wage war with the holy ones and conquer them,[g] and it was given authority over every tribe and people and tongue* and nation. 8 And all those who dwell on the earth will worship it. 11 Then I saw another wild beast ascending out of the earth, and it had two horns like a lamb, but it began speaking like a dragon.[o] 12 It exercises all the authority of the first wild beast[p] in its sight. wound was healed.[a] 13 And it performs great signs, even making fire come down out of heaven to the earth in the sight of mankind.

14 It misleads those who dwell on the earth, because of the signs that it was permitted to perform in the sight of the wild beast, while it tells those who dwell on the earth to make an image[b] to the wild beast that had the sword-stroke and yet revived.[c] 15 And it was permitted to give breath* to the image of the wild beast, so that the image of the wild beast should both speak and cause to be killed all those who refuse to worship the image of the wild beast.

16 It puts under compulsion all people—the small and the great, the rich and the poor, the free and the slaves—that these should be marked on their right hand or on their forehead,[d] 17 and that nobody can buy or sell except a person having the mark, the name[e] of the wild beast or the number of its name.[f] 18 This is where it calls for wisdom: Let the one who has insight calculate the number of the wild beast, for it is a man's number,* and its number is 666.[g]

14 Then I saw, and look! the Lamb[h] standing on Mount Zion,[i] and with him 144,000[j] who have his name and the name of his Father[k] written on their foreheads. 2 I heard a sound coming out of heaven like the sound of many waters and like the sound of loud thunder; and the sound that I heard was like singers who accompany themselves by playing on their harps. 3 And they are singing what seems to be a new song[l] before the throne and before the four living creatures[m] and the elders,[a] and no one was able to master that song except the 144,000,[b] who have been bought from the earth. 4 These are the ones who did not defile themselves with women; in fact, they are virgins.[c] These are the ones who keep following the Lamb no matter where he goes.[d] These were bought[e] from among mankind as firstfruits[f] to God and to the Lamb, 5 and no deceit was found in their mouths; they are without blemish.[g]

6 And I saw another angel flying in midheaven,* and he had everlasting good news to declare to those who dwell on the earth, to every nation and tribe and tongue# and people.[h] 7 He was saying in a loud voice: "Fear God and give him glory, because the hour of judgment by him has arrived,[i] so worship the One who made the heaven and the earth and the sea[j] and the springs* of water."

8 Another, a second angel, followed, saying: "She has fallen! Babylon the Great[k] has fallen,[l] she who made all the nations drink of the wine of the passion* of her sexual immorality!"#[m]

9 Another angel, a third, followed them, saying in a loud voice: "If anyone worships the wild beast[n] and its image and receives a mark on his forehead or on his hand,[o] 10 he will also drink of the wine of the anger of God that is poured out undiluted into the cup of His wrath,[p] and he will be tormented with fire and sulfur[q] in the sight of the holy angels and in the sight of the Lamb. 11 And the smoke of their torment ascends forever and ever,[r] and day and night they have no rest, those who worship the wild beast and its image and whoever

14 Then I saw, and look! a white cloud, and seated on the cloud was someone like a son of man,[e] with a golden crown on his head and a sharp sickle in his hand.

15 Another angel emerged from the temple sanctuary, calling with a loud voice to the one seated on the cloud: "Put your sickle in and reap, because the hour has come to reap, for the harvest of the earth is fully ripe."[f]
16 And the one seated on the cloud thrust his sickle into the earth, and the earth was reaped.

17 And still another angel emerged from the temple sanctuary that is in heaven, and he also had a sharp sickle.

18 And still another angel emerged from the altar, and he had authority over the fire. And he called out with a loud voice to the one who had the sharp sickle, saying: "Put your sharp sickle in and gather the clusters of the vine of the earth, for its grapes have become ripe."[g] 19 The angel thrust his sickle into the earth and gathered the vine of the earth, and he hurled it into the great winepress of God's anger.[h]
20 The winepress was trodden outside the city, and blood came out of the winepress as high up as the bridles of the horses for a distance of 1,600 stadia.*

15 And I saw in heaven another sign, great and wonderful, seven angels[a] with seven plagues. These are the last ones, because by means of them the anger of God is brought to a finish.[b]

2 And I saw something like a sea of glass[c] mingled with fire, and those who are victorious[d] over the wild beast and its image[e] and the number of its name[f] were standing by the sea of glass, holding harps of God. 3 They were singing the song of Moses[g] the slave of God and the song of the Lamb,[h] saying:

"Great and wonderful are your works,[i] Jehovah* God, the Almighty.[j] Righteous and true are your ways,[k] King of eternity.[l]
4 Who will not really fear you, Jehovah,* and glorify your name, for you alone are loyal?[m] For all the nations will come and worship before you,[n] because your righteous decrees have been revealed."

5 After this I saw, and the sanctuary of the tent of the witness[o] was opened in heaven,[p]
6 and the seven angels with the seven plagues[q] emerged from the sanctuary, clothed with clean, bright linen and with golden sashes wrapped around their chests.
7 One of the four living creatures gave the seven angels seven golden bowls that were full of the anger of God,[r] who lives forever and ever. 8 And the sanctuary became filled with smoke because of the glory of God[s] and because of his power, and no one was able to enter the sanctuary until the seven plagues[t] of the seven angels were finished.

16 And I heard a loud voice out of the sanctuary[u] say to the seven angels: "Go and pour out the seven bowls of the anger of God on the earth."[v]

15:3, 4 *See App. A5.

2 The first one went off and poured out his bowl on the earth.[a] And a hurtful and malignant ulcer[b] afflicted the people who had the mark of the wild beast[c] and who were worshipping its image.[d]

3 The second one poured out his bowl into the sea.[e] And it became blood[f] like that of a dead man, and every living creature* died, yes, the things in the sea.[g]

4 The third one poured out his bowl into the rivers and the springs* of water.[h] And they became blood.[i] 5 I heard the angel over the waters say: "You, the One who is and who was,[j] the loyal One,[k] are righteous, for you have issued these judgments,[l] 6 because they poured out the blood of holy ones and of prophets,[m] and you have given them blood to drink;[n] they deserve it."[o] 7 And I heard the altar say: "Yes, Jehovah* God, the Almighty,[p] true and righteous are your judgments."[#q]

8 The fourth one poured out his bowl on the sun,[r] and to the sun it was granted to scorch the people with fire. 9 And the people were scorched by the great heat, but they blasphemed the name of God, who has the authority over these plagues, and they did not repent and give glory to him.

10 The fifth one poured out his bowl on the throne of the wild beast. And its kingdom became darkened,[s] and they began to gnaw their tongues because of their pain, 11 but they blasphemed the God of heaven because of their pains and their ulcers, and they did not repent of their works.

12 The sixth one poured out his bowl on the great river Euphra′tes,[t] and its water was dried up[a] to prepare the way for the kings[b] from the rising of the sun.*

13 And I saw three unclean inspired expressions* that looked like frogs come out of the mouth of the dragon[c] and out of the mouth of the wild beast and out of the mouth of the false prophet. 14 They are, in fact, expressions inspired by demons and they perform signs,[d] and they go out to the kings of the entire inhabited earth, to gather them together to the war[e] of the great day of God the Almighty.[f]

15 "Look! I am coming as a thief.[g] Happy is the one who stays awake[h] and keeps his outer garments, so that he may not walk naked and people look upon his shamefulness."[i]

16 And they gathered them together to the place that is called in Hebrew Armageddon.*[j]

17 The seventh one poured out his bowl on the air. At this a loud voice came out of the sanctuary[k] from the throne, saying: "It has come to pass!" 18 And there were flashes of lightning and voices and thunders, and there was a great earthquake unlike any that had occurred since men came to be on the earth,[l] so extensive and so great was the earthquake. 19 The great city[m] split into three parts, and the cities of the nations fell; and Babylon the Great[n] was remembered before God, to give her the cup of the wine of the fury of his wrath.[o] 20 Also, every island fled, and mountains were not found.[p] 21 Then great hailstones, each about the weight of a talent,* fell from heaven on the people,[q] and the people blasphemed God because of the plague of hail,[a] for the plague was unusually great.

17 One of the seven angels who had the seven bowls[b] came and said to me: "Come, I will show you the judgment on the great prostitute who sits on many waters,[c] 2 with whom the kings of the earth committed sexual immorality,*[d] and earth's inhabitants were made drunk with the wine of her sexual immorality."#[e]

3 And he carried me away in the power of the spirit into a wilderness. And I saw a woman sitting on a scarlet-colored wild beast that was full of blasphemous names and that had seven heads and ten horns. 4 The woman was clothed in purple[f] and scarlet, and she was adorned with gold and precious stones and pearls,[g] and she had in her hand a golden cup that was full of disgusting things and the unclean things of her sexual immorality.# 5 On her forehead was written a name, a mystery: "Babylon the Great, the mother of the prostitutes[h] and of the disgusting things of the earth."[i] 6 And I saw that the woman was drunk with the blood of the holy ones and with the blood of the witnesses of Jesus.[j]

Well, on seeing her I was greatly amazed. 7 So the angel said to me: "Why is it that you were amazed? I will tell you the mystery of the woman[k] and of the wild beast that is carrying her and that has the seven heads and the ten horns:[l] 8 The wild beast that you saw was, but is not, and yet is about to ascend out of the abyss,[m] and it is to go off into destruction. And the inhabitants of the earth—those whose names have not been written in the scroll of life[n] from the founding of the world—will be amazed when they see how the wild beast was, but is not, and yet will be present.

9 "This calls for a mind* that has wisdom: The seven heads[a] mean seven mountains, where the woman sits on top. 10 And there are seven kings: Five have fallen, one is, and the other has not yet arrived; but when he does arrive, he must remain a short while. 11 And the wild beast that was but is not,[b] it is also an eighth king, but it springs from the seven, and it goes off into destruction.

12 "The ten horns that you saw mean ten kings who have not yet received a kingdom, but they do receive authority as kings for one hour with the wild beast. 13 These have one thought, so they give their power and authority to the wild beast. 14 These will battle with the Lamb,[c] but because he is Lord of lords and King of kings,[d] the Lamb will conquer them.[e] Also, those with him who are called and chosen and faithful will do so."[f]

15 He said to me: "The waters that you saw, where the prostitute is sitting, mean peoples and crowds and nations and tongues.*[g] 16 And the ten horns[h] that you saw and the wild beast,[i] these will hate the prostitute[j] and will make her devastated and naked, and they will eat up her flesh and completely burn her with fire.[k] 17 For God put it into their hearts to carry out his thought,[l] yes, to carry out their one thought by giving their kingdom to the wild beast,[m] until the words of God will have been accomplished. 18 And the woman[n] whom you saw means the great city that has a kingdom over the kings of the earth."

18 After this I saw another angel descending from heaven with great authority, and the earth was illuminated by his glory. 2 And he cried out with a strong voice, saying: "She has fallen! Babylon the Great has fallen,[a] and she has become a dwelling place of demons and a place where every unclean spirit* and every unclean and hated bird lurks![b] 3 For because of the wine of the passion* of her sexual immorality,[#] all the nations have fallen victim,[c] and the kings of the earth committed sexual immorality with her,[d] and the merchants[△] of the earth became rich owing to the power of her shameless luxury."

4 And I heard another voice out of heaven say: "Get out of her, my people,[e] if you do not want to share with her in her sins, and if you do not want to receive part of her plagues.[f] 5 For her sins have massed together clear up to heaven,[g] and God has called her acts of injustice* to mind.[h] 6 Repay her in the way she treated others,[i] yes, pay her back double for the things she has done;[j] in the cup[k] she has mixed, mix a double portion for her.[l] 7 To the extent that she glorified herself and lived in shameless luxury, to that extent give her torment and mourning. For she keeps saying in her heart: 'I sit as queen, and I am not a widow, and I will never see mourning.'[m] 8 That is why in one day her plagues will come, death and mourning and famine, and she will be completely burned with fire,[n] because Jehovah* God, who judged her, is strong.[o]

9 "And the kings of the earth who committed sexual immorality* with her and lived with her in shameless luxury will weep and beat themselves in grief over her when they see the smoke from her burning. 10 They will stand at a distance because of their fear of her torment and say: 'Too bad, too bad, you great city,[a] Babylon you strong city, because in one hour your judgment has arrived!'

11 "Also, the merchants of the earth are weeping and mourning over her, because there is no one to buy their full cargo anymore, 12 a full cargo of gold, silver, precious stones, pearls, fine linen, purple cloth, silk, and scarlet cloth; and everything made from scented wood; and every sort of object made from ivory, and from precious wood, copper, iron, and marble; 13 also cinnamon, Indian spice, incense, perfumed oil, frankincense, wine, olive oil, fine flour, wheat, cattle, sheep, horses, carriages, slaves, and human lives.* 14 Yes, the fine fruit that you* desired has left you, and all the delicacies and the splendid things have vanished from you, never to be found again.

15 "The merchants who sold these things, who became rich from her, will stand at a distance because of their fear of her torment and will weep and mourn, 16 saying: 'Too bad, too bad, the great city, clothed with fine linen, purple, and scarlet and richly adorned with gold ornaments, precious stones, and pearls,[b] 17 because in one hour such great riches have been devastated!'

"And every ship captain and every seafaring person and sailors and all those who make a living by the sea stood at a distance 18 and cried out as they looked at the smoke from her burning and said: 'What city is like the great city?' 19 They threw dust on their heads and cried out, weeping and mourning, and said: 'Too bad, too bad, the great city, in which all those who had ships at sea became rich from her wealth, because in one hour she has been devastated!'[a]

20 "Be glad over her, O heaven,[b] also you holy ones[c] and apostles and prophets, because God has pronounced his judgment on her in your behalf!"[d]

21 And a strong angel lifted up a stone like a great millstone and hurled it into the sea, saying: "Thus with a swift pitch will Babylon the great city be hurled down, and she will never be found again.[e] 22 And the sound of singers who accompany themselves on the harp, of musicians, of flutists, and of trumpeters will never be heard in you again. And no craftsman who practices any trade will ever be found in you again, and no sound of a millstone will ever be heard in you again. 23 No light of a lamp will ever shine in you again, and no voice of a bridegroom and of a bride will ever be heard in you again; for your merchants were the top-ranking men of the earth, and by your spiritistic practices[f] all the nations were misled. 24 Yes, in her was found the blood of prophets and of holy ones[g] and of all those who have been slaughtered on the earth."[h]

19 After this I heard what seemed to be a loud voice of a great crowd in heaven. They said: "Praise Jah![i] The salvation and the glory and the power belong to our God, 2 because his judgments are true and righteous.[j] For he has executed judgment on the great prostitute who corrupted the earth with her sexual immorality, and he has avenged the blood of his slaves that is on her hands."#[a] 3 And right away for the second time they said: "Praise Jah!*[b] And the smoke from her goes on ascending forever and ever."[c]

4 And the 24 elders[d] and the four living creatures[e] fell down and worshipped God who sits on the throne and said: "Amen! Praise Jah!"*[f]

5 Also, a voice came from the throne and said: "Be praising our God, all you his slaves,[g] who fear him, the small ones and the great."[h]

6 And I heard what sounded like a voice of a great crowd and like the sound of many waters and like the sound of heavy thunders. They said: "Praise Jah,*[i] because Jehovah# our God, the Almighty,[j] has begun to rule as king![k] 7 Let us rejoice and be overjoyed and give him glory, because the marriage of the Lamb has arrived and his wife has prepared herself. 8 Yes, it has been granted to her to be clothed with bright, clean, fine linen—for the fine linen stands for the righteous acts of the holy ones."[l]

9 And he tells me, "Write: Happy are those invited to the evening meal of the Lamb's marriage."[m] Also, he tells me: "These are the true sayings of God." 10 At that I fell down before his feet to worship him. But he tells me: "Be careful! Do not do that![n] I am only a fellow slave of you and of your brothers who have the work of witnessing concerning Jesus.[o] Worship God![p] For the witness concerning Jesus is what inspires prophecy."[q]

one seated on it is called Faithful[a] and True,[b] and he judges and carries on war in righteousness.[c] 12 His eyes are a fiery flame,[d] and on his head are many diadems.* He has a name written that no one knows but he himself, 13 and he is clothed with an outer garment stained* with blood, and he is called by the name The Word[e] of God. 14 Also, the armies in heaven were following him on white horses, and they were clothed in white, clean, fine linen. 15 And out of his mouth protrudes a sharp, long sword[f] with which to strike the nations, and he will shepherd them with a rod of iron.[g] Moreover, he treads the winepress of the fury of the wrath of God the Almighty.[h] 16 On his outer garment, yes, on his thigh, he has a name written, King of kings and Lord of lords.[i]

17 I saw also an angel standing in the sun, and he cried out with a loud voice and said to all the birds that fly in midheaven:* "Come here, be gathered together to the great evening meal of God,[j] 18 so that you may eat the flesh of kings and the flesh of military commanders and the flesh of strong men[k] and the flesh of horses and of those seated on them,[l] and the flesh of all, of freemen as well as of slaves and of small ones and great."

19 And I saw the wild beast and the kings of the earth and their armies gathered together to wage war against the one seated on the horse and against his army.[m] 20 And the wild beast was caught, and along with it the false prophet[n] that performed in front of it the signs with which he misled those who received the mark of the wild beast[o] and those who worship its image.[p] While still alive, they both were hurled into the fiery lake that burns with sulfur.[a] 21 But the rest were killed off with the long sword that proceeded out of the mouth of the one seated on the horse.[b] And all the birds were filled with their flesh.[c]

20 And I saw an angel coming down out of heaven with the key of the abyss[d] and a great chain in his hand. 2 He seized the dragon,[e] the original serpent,[f] who is the Devil[g] and Satan,[h] and bound him for 1,000 years. 3 And he hurled him into the abyss[i] and shut it and sealed it over him, so that he would not mislead the nations anymore until the 1,000 years were ended. After this he must be released for a little while.[j]

4 And I saw thrones, and those who sat on them were given authority to judge. Yes, I saw the souls* of those executed# for the witness they gave about Jesus and for speaking about God, and those who had not worshipped the wild beast or its image and had not received the mark on their forehead and on their hand.[k] And they came to life and ruled as kings with the Christ[l] for 1,000 years. 5 (The rest of the dead[m] did not come to life until the 1,000 years were ended.) This is the first resurrection.[n] 6 Happy and holy is anyone having part in the first resurrection;[o] over these the second death[p] has no authority,[q] but they will be priests[r] of God and of the Christ, and they will rule as kings with him for the 1,000 years.[s] them together for the war. The number of these is as the sand of the sea. 9 And they advanced over the whole earth and encircled the camp of the holy ones and the beloved city. But fire came down out of heaven and consumed them.[a] 10 And the Devil who was misleading them was hurled into the lake of fire and sulfur, where both the wild beast[b] and the false prophet already were;[c] and they will be tormented* day and night forever and ever.

11 And I saw a great white throne and the One seated on it.[d] From before him the earth and the heaven fled away,[e] and no place was found for them. 12 And I saw the dead, the great and the small, standing before the throne, and scrolls were opened. But another scroll was opened; it is the scroll of life.[f] The dead were judged out of those things written in the scrolls according to their deeds.[g] 13 And the sea gave up the dead in it, and death and the Grave* gave up the dead in them, and they were judged individually according to their deeds.[h] 14 And death and the Grave* were hurled into the lake of fire.[i] This means the second death,[j] the lake of fire.[k] 15 Furthermore, whoever was not found written in the book of life[l] was hurled into the lake of fire.[m]

21 And I saw a new heaven and a new earth;[n] for the former heaven and the former earth had passed away,[o] and the sea[p] is no more. 2 I also saw the holy city, New Jerusalem, coming down out of heaven from God[q] and prepared as a bride adorned for her husband.[r] 3 With that I heard a loud voice from the throne say: "Look! The tent of God is with mankind, and he will reside with them, and they will be his people. And God himself will be with them.[a] 4 And he will wipe out every tear from their eyes,[b] and death will be no more,[c] neither will mourning nor outcry nor pain be anymore.[d] The former things have passed away."

5 And the One seated on the throne[e] said: "Look! I am making all things new."[f] Also he says: "Write, for these words are faithful* and true." 6 And he said to me: "They have come to pass! I am the Al′pha and the O·me′ga,* the beginning and the end.[g] To anyone thirsting I will give from the spring# of the water of life free.[△h] 7 Anyone conquering will inherit these things, and I will be his God and he will be my son. 8 But as for the cowards and those without faith[i] and those who are disgusting in their filth and murderers[j] and the sexually immoral*[k] and those practicing spiritism and idolaters and all the liars,[l] their portion will be in the lake that burns with fire and sulfur.[m] This means the second death."[n]

9 One of the seven angels who had the seven bowls that were full of the seven last plagues[o] came and said to me: "Come, and I will show you the bride, the Lamb's wife."[p] 10 So he carried me away in the power of the spirit to a great and lofty mountain, and he showed me the holy city Jerusalem coming down out of heaven from God[q] 11 and having the glory of God.[r] Its radiance was like a most precious stone, like a jasper stone shining crystal clear.[s] 12 It had a great and lofty wall and had 12 gates with 12 angels at the gates, and on the gates were inscribed the names of the 12 tribes of the sons of Israel. 13 On the east were three gates, and on the north three gates, and on the south three gates, and on the west three gates.[a] 14 The wall of the city also had 12 foundation stones, and on them were the 12 names of the 12 apostles[b] of the Lamb.

15 Now the one who was speaking with me was holding a golden reed as a measure in order to measure the city and its gates and its wall.[c] 16 And the city is laid out as a square, and its length is as great as its width. And he measured the city with the reed, 12,000 stadia;* its length and width and height are equal. 17 He also measured its wall, 144 cubits* according to a man's measure, at the same time an angel's measure. 18 Now the wall was made of jasper,[d] and the city was pure gold like clear glass. 19 The foundations of the city wall were adorned with every sort of precious stone: the first foundation was jasper, the second sapphire, the third chal·ce′do·ny, the fourth emerald, 20 the fifth sar·don′yx, the sixth sardius, the seventh chrys′o·lite, the eighth beryl, the ninth topaz, the tenth chrys′o·prase, the eleventh hyacinth, the twelfth amethyst. 21 Also, the 12 gates were 12 pearls; each one of the gates was made of one pearl. And the main street of the city was pure gold, like transparent glass.

22 I did not see a temple in it, for Jehovah* God the Almighty[e] is its temple, also the Lamb is. 23 And the city has no need of the sun nor of the moon to shine on it, for the glory of God illuminated it,[a] and its lamp was the Lamb.[b] 24 And the nations will walk by means of its light,[c] and the kings of the earth will bring their glory into it. 25 Its gates will not be closed at all by day, for night will not exist there.[d] 26 And they will bring the glory and the honor of the nations into it.[e] 27 But anything defiled and anyone who does what is disgusting and deceitful will in no way enter into it;[f] only those written in the Lamb's scroll of life will enter.[g]

22 And he showed me a river of water of life,[h] clear as crystal, flowing out from the throne of God and of the Lamb[i] 2 down the middle of its main street. On both sides of the river were trees of life producing 12 crops of fruit, yielding their fruit each month. And the leaves of the trees were for the healing of the nations.[j]

3 And there will no longer be any curse. But the throne of God and of the Lamb[k] will be in the city, and his slaves will offer him sacred service; 4 and they will see his face,[l] and his name will be on their foreheads.[m] 5 Also, night will be no more,[n] and they have no need of lamplight or sunlight, for Jehovah* God will shed light upon them,[o] and they will rule as kings forever and ever.[p]

6 He said to me: "These words are faithful# and true;[q] yes, Jehovah,* the God who inspired the prophets,[r] has sent his angel to show his slaves the things that must shortly take place. 7 Look! I am coming quickly.[s] Happy is anyone observing the words of the prophecy of this scroll."[t]

8 Well I, John, was the one hearing and seeing these things.

Glossary of Bible Terms

A

Ab. After the Babylonian exile, the name of the 5th month of the Jewish sacred calendar and the 11th month of the secular calendar. It ran from mid-July to mid-August. It is not mentioned by name in the Bible; it is simply referred to as "the fifth month." (Nu 33:38; Ezr 7:9)—See App. B15.

Abib. The original name of the first month of the Jewish sacred calendar and the seventh month of the secular calendar. It means "Green Ears (of Grain)" and ran from mid-March to mid-April. After the Jews' return from Babylon, it was called Nisan. (De 16:1) —See App. B15.

Abyss. From the Greek word a´bys·sos, meaning "exceedingly deep" or "unfathomable, boundless." It is used in the Christian Greek Scriptures to refer to a place or condition of confinement. It includes the grave but is not limited to it.—Lu 8:31; Ro 10:7; Re 20:3.

Achaia. In the Christian Greek Scriptures, the Roman province of southern Greece with its capital at Corinth. Achaia included all of the Peloponnese and the central part of continental Greece. (Ac 18:12)—See App. B13.

Adar. After the Babylonian exile, the name of the 12th month of the Jewish sacred calendar and the 6th month of the secular calendar. It ran from mid-February to mid-March. (Es 3:7)—See App. B15.

Adultery. Voluntary sexual intercourse by a married man or woman with someone other than his or her mate.—Ex 20:14; Mt 5:27; 19:9.

Alabaster. The name of small perfume jars originally made of a stone found near Alabastron, Egypt. Such containers were usually made with a narrow neck that could be sealed to prevent any of the precious perfume from leaking. The stone itself also came to be known by the same name.—Mr 14:3.

Alamoth. A musical term meaning "Maidens; Young Women," probably alluding to the soprano voices of young women. It was likely used to indicate that a musical piece or accompaniment was to be executed at a high register.—1Ch 15:20; Ps 46:Sup.

Alpha and Omega. Names of the first and last letters of the Greek alphabet; they are used together three times in Revelation as a title for God. In these contexts this expression means the same as "the first and the last" and "the beginning and the end."—Re 1:8; 21:6; 22:13.

Altar. A raised structure or platform made of dirt, rocks, a block of stone, or wood covered with metal on which sacrifices or incense were offered in worship. In the first room of the tabernacle and of the temple, there was a small "altar of gold" for offering incense. It was made of wood covered with gold. A larger "altar of copper" for burnt sacrifices was located outside in the courtyard. (Ex 27:1; 39:38, 39; Ge 8:20; 1Ki 6:20; 2Ch 4:1; Lu 1:11)—See App. B5 and B8.

Amen. "So be it," or "surely." The word comes from the Hebrew root word 'a·man´, which means "to be faithful, trustworthy." "Amen" was said in agreement to an oath, a prayer, or a statement. In Revelation, it is used as a title for Jesus.—De 27:26; 1Ch 16:36; Re 3:14.

Angels. From the Hebrew mal·'akh´ and the Greek ag´ge·los. Both words literally mean "messenger" but are rendered "angel" when referring to spirit messengers. (Ge 16:7; 32:3; Jas 2:25; Re 22:8) Angels are powerful spirit creatures, created by God long before the creation of mankind. They are also referred to in the Bible as "holy myriads," "sons of God," and "morning stars." (De 33:2; Job 1:6; 38:7) They were not made with the ability to reproduce their own kind but were created individually. They number well over a hundred million. (Da 7:10) The Bible indicates that they have personal names and distinct personalities, yet they humbly refuse to receive worship, and most even avoid disclosing their names. (Ge 32: 29; Lu 1:26; Re 22:8, 9) They have different ranks and are assigned a variety of roles, including serving before Jehovah's throne, conveying his messages, intervening in behalf of Jehovah's earthly servants, executing God's judgments, and supporting the preaching of the good news. (2Ki 19:35; Ps 34:7; Lu 1:30, 31; Re 5:11; 14:6) In the future they will support Jesus in fighting the battle of Armageddon.—Re 19:14, 15.

Anoint. The Hebrew word basically means "to smear with liquid." Oil was applied to a person or an object to symbolize dedication to a special service. In the Christian Greek Scriptures, the word is also used of the pouring out of holy spirit on those chosen for the heavenly hope.—Ex 28:41; 1Sa 16:13; 2Co 1:21.

Antichrist. The Greek term has a twofold meaning. It refers to that which is anti, or opposed to, Christ. It may also refer to a false Christ, one in the place of Christ. All people, organizations, or groups that falsely claim to represent Christ or claim to be the Messiah or that oppose Christ and his disciples can properly be called antichrists.—1Jo 2:22.

Apostasy. This term in Greek (a·po·sta·si´a) comes from a verb literally meaning "to stand away from." The noun has the sense of "desertion, abandonment, or rebellion." In the Christian Greek Scriptures, "apostasy" is used primarily with regard to those who defect from true worship.—Pr 11:9; Ac 21:21; 2Th 2:3.

Apostle. The basic sense of the word is "one sent forth," and it is used of Jesus and certain ones who were sent to serve others. Most frequently, it is used with regard to the disciples whom Jesus personally selected as a group of 12 appointed representatives. —Mr 3:14; Ac 14:14.

Aram; Aramaeans. Descendants of Shem's son Aram who mainly lived in regions from the Lebanon Mountains across to Mesopotamia and from the Taurus Mountains in the north down to Damascus and beyond in the south. This area, called Aram in Hebrew, was later referred to as Syria, and its inhabitants were referred to as Syrians.—Ge 25:20; De 26:5; Ho 12:12.

Aramaic. A Semitic language closely related to Hebrew, using the same alphabet. It was originally spoken by the Aramaeans but later became the international language of trade and communication in the Assyrian and Babylonian empires. It was also the official administrative language of the Persian Empire. (Ezr 4:7) Parts of the books of Ezra, Jeremiah, and Daniel were written in Aramaic.—Ezr 4:8–6:18; 7:12-26; Jer 10:11; Da 2:4b–7:28.

Archangel. Meaning "chief of the angels." The prefix "arch" means "chief" or "principal." This definition, coupled with the fact that "archangel" in the Bible is used only in the singular, indicates that there is just one archangel. The Bible gives the name of the archangel, identifying him as Michael.—Da 12:1; Jude 9; Re 12:7.

Areopagus. A high hill in Athens, north-west of the Acropolis. It was also the name of the council (court) that held meetings there. Paul was brought to the Areopagus by Stoic and Epicurean philosophers to explain his beliefs.—Ac 17:19.

Ark of the covenant. The chest made of acacia wood and overlaid with gold, which was kept in the Most Holy of the tabernacle and later in the Most Holy of the temple built by Solomon. It had a solid gold cover with two cherubs facing each other. Its principal contents were the two tablets of the Ten Commandments. (De 31:26; 1Ki 6:19; Heb 9:4) —See App. B5 and B8.

Armageddon. From the Hebrew Har Meghiddohn´, meaning "Mountain of Megiddo." The word is associated with "the war of the great day of God the Almighty" in which "the kings of the entire inhabited earth" gather to wage war against Jehovah. (Re 16:14, 16; 19:11-21)—See GREAT TRIBULATION.

Armor. The protective clothing worn by soldiers, namely, helmet, coat of mail, girdle, greaves, and shield.—1Sa 31:9; Eph 6:13-17.

Aselgeia.—See BRAZEN CONDUCT.

Ashtoreth. A Canaanite goddess of war and fertility, the wife of Baal.—1Sa 7:3.

Asia. In the Christian Greek Scriptures, the name of the Roman province that included what is today the western part of Turkey, as well as some coastal islands, such as Samos and Patmos. The capital was Ephesus. (Ac 20:16; Re 1:4)—See App. B13.

Assembly. A group of people gathered by appointment. In the Hebrew Scriptures, this word often refers to gatherings of the people of Israel at religious festivals or at events of great national significance.—De 16:8; 1Ki 8:5.

Astrologer. A person who studies the movements of the sun, moon, and stars in order to predict future events.—Da 2:27; Mt 2:1.

Atonement. In the Hebrew Scriptures, the concept was connected with sacrifices that were made to allow people to approach God and worship him. Under the Mosaic Law, sacrifices were made, particularly on the annual Day of Atonement, in order to effect reconciliation with God despite the sins of individuals and of the whole nation. Those sacrifices pointed to Jesus' sacrifice, which completely atoned for mankind's sins once for all time, giving people the opportunity to be reconciled to Jehovah.—Le 5:10; 23:28; Col 1:20; Heb 9:12.

Azazel. A Hebrew name that possibly means "Goat That Disappears." On the Day of Atonement, the goat designated for Azazel was sent into the wilderness, symbolically carrying off the nation's sins of the past year.—Le 16:8, 10.

B

Baal. A Canaanite god regarded as the owner of the sky and giver of rains and fertility. "Baal" was also used as a designation for local lesser gods. The Hebrew word means "Owner; Master."—1Ki 18:21; Ro 11:4.

Baptism; Baptize. The verb means "to immerse," or dip under water. Jesus made baptism a requirement for his followers. The Scriptures also refer to John's baptism, baptism with holy spirit, and baptism with fire, among others.—Mt 3:11, 16; 28:19; Joh 3:23; 1Pe 3:21.

Bath. A liquid measure that is estimated to equal about 22 L (5.81 gal), according to archaeological findings of jar fragments bearing this name. Most of the other dry and liquid measures in the Bible are calculated in relation to the estimated volume of the bath measure. (1Ki 7:38; Eze 45:14)—See App. B14.

Beelzebub. A designation applied to Satan, the prince, or ruler, of the demons. It is possibly an alteration of Baal-zebub, the Baal worshipped by the Philistines at Ekron.—2Ki 1:3; Mt 12:24.

Brazen conduct. From the Greek a·sel'gei·a, a phrase pertaining to acts that are serious violations of God's laws and that reflect a brazen or boldly contemptuous attitude; a spirit that betrays disrespect or even contempt for authority, laws, and standards. The expression does not refer to wrong conduct of a minor nature.—Ga 5:19; 2Pe 2:7.

Breastpiece. The jewel-studded pouch worn by Israel's high priest over his heart whenever he entered the Holy. It was called "the breastpiece of judgment" because it contained the Urim and the Thummim, which were used in revealing Jehovah's judgments. (Ex 28:15-30)—See App. B5.

Brother-in-law marriage. A custom, later incorporated into the Mosaic Law, whereby a man would marry the sonless widow of his deceased brother in order to produce children to carry on his brother's line. Also known as levirate marriage.—Ge 38:8; De 25:5.

Bul. The name of the eighth month of the Jewish sacred calendar and the second month of the secular calendar. It comes from a root meaning "yield; produce" and ran from mid-October to mid-November. (1Ki 6:38)—See App. B15.

Burnt offering. An animal sacrifice that was burned on the altar as a total offering to God; no part of the animal (bull, ram, male goat, turtledove, or young pigeon) was kept by the worshipper.—Ex 29:18; Le 6:9.

C

Cab. A dry measure of 1.22 L (1.11 dry qt), based on the estimated volume of the bath measure. (2Ki 6:25)—See App. B14.

Caesar. A Roman family name that became a title for the Roman emperors. Augustus, Tiberius, and Claudius are mentioned by name in the Bible, and though Nero is not mentioned by name, it applies to him as well. "Caesar" is also used in the Christian Greek Scriptures to represent civil authority, or the State.—Mr 12:17; Ac 25:12.

Canaan. A grandson of Noah, and the fourth son of Ham. The 11 tribes that descended from Canaan eventually inhabited the region along the eastern Mediterranean between Egypt and Syria. That area was called "the land of Canaan." (Le 18:3; Ge 9:18; Ac 13:19)—See App. B4.

Capital. The ornamental top of a column. The twin columns Jachin and Boaz stood in front of Solomon's temple. (1Ki 7:16)—See App. B8.

Cassia. A product from the cassia bark tree (Cinnamomum cassia), which is of the same family as the cinnamon tree. Cassia was used as a perfume and as an ingredient of the holy anointing oil.—Ex 30:24; Ps 45:8; Eze 27:19.

Chaff. The husks that are separated from the edible portion of grain during threshing and winnowing. Chaff is used in figures of speech as a symbol of something worthless and undesirable.—Ps 1:4; Mt 3:12.

Chaldea; Chaldeans. Originally the land and people occupying the delta area of the Tigris and Euphrates rivers; in time the terms were used for all of Babylonia and its people. "Chaldeans" also referred to an educated class of people who studied science, history, languages, and astronomy but who practiced magic and astrology as well.—Ezr 5:12; Da 4:7; Ac 7:4.

Chariot. A two-wheeled, horse-drawn vehicle used primarily in war.—Ex 14:23; Jg 4:13; Ac 8:28.

Chemosh. The chief god of the Moabites.—1Ki 11:33.

Cherubs. Angels of high rank having special duties. They are different from seraphs.—Ge 3:24; Ex 25:20; Isa 37:16; Heb 9:5.

Chief Agent. The Greek term basically means "Chief Leader." It refers to the essential role of Jesus Christ in freeing faithful humans from the deadly effects of sin and in leading them to everlasting life.—Ac 3:15; 5:31; Heb 2:10; 12:2.

Chief priest. An alternate term for "high priest" in the Hebrew Scriptures. In the Christian Greek Scriptures, the expression "chief priests" evidently denoted the principal men of the priesthood, possibly including any deposed high priests and the heads of the 24 priestly divisions.—2Ch 26:20; Ezr 7:5; Mt 2:4; Mr 8:31.

Chislev. After the Jews' return from Babylon, the name of the ninth month of the Jewish sacred calendar and the third month of the secular calendar. It ran from mid-November to mid-December. (Ne 1:1; Zec 7:1)—See App. B15.

Christ. The title of Jesus, from the Greek word Khri·stos´, which is equivalent to the Hebrew word translated "Messiah," or "Anointed One."—Mt 1:16; Joh 1:41.

Christian. A God-given name for the followers of Jesus Christ.—Ac 11:26; 26:28.

Circumcision. The removal of the foreskin of the male genital organ. The procedure was made mandatory for Abraham and his descendants, but it is not a requirement for Christians. It is also used figuratively in a variety of contexts.—Ge 17:10; 1Co 7:19; Php 3:3.

Cities of refuge. Levite cities where an unintentional manslayer could seek asylum from the avenger of blood. Six such cities, spread throughout the Promised Land, were appointed by Moses and later by Joshua, under Jehovah's direction. Upon reaching a city of refuge, the fugitive stated his case to the elders at the city gate and was received hospitably. To prevent willful murderers from taking advantage of this provision, the asylum seeker had to stand trial in the city where the killing took place in order to prove his innocence. If proved innocent, he was returned to the city of refuge, where he had to stay within its boundaries for the rest of his life or until the death of the high priest.—Nu 35:6, 11-15, 22-29; Jos 20:2-8.

City of David. The name given to the city of Jebus after David conquered it and built his royal residence there. It is also called Zion. It is the southeastern part as well as the oldest part of Jerusalem.—2Sa 5:7; 1Ch 11:4, 5.

Clean. Biblically, this word refers not only to physical cleanliness but also to maintaining or restoring to a condition that is without blemish, spotless, and free from anything that soils, adulterates, or corrupts in a moral or spiritual way. Under the Mosaic Law, the word refers to being ceremonially clean.—Le 10:10; Ps 51:7; Mt 8:2; 1Co 6:11.

Communion offering. A sacrifice presented to Jehovah as a request for peace with him. The worshipper and his household, the officiating priest, and the priests on duty all partook of it. Jehovah received, as it were, the pleasing smoke of the burning fat. The blood, representing the life, was also given to him. It was as if the priests and the worshippers sat at the meal together with Jehovah, signifying a peaceful relationship.—Le 7:29, 32; De 27:7.

Conclusion of the system of things. The period of time leading up to the end of the system of things, or state of affairs, dominated by Satan. It runs concurrently with Christ's presence. Under the direction of Jesus, angels will "separate the wicked from among the righteous" and destroy them. (Mt 13:40-42, 49) Jesus' disciples were interested in the timing of that "conclusion." (Mt 24:3) Before his return to heaven, he promised his followers that he would be with them until that time.—Mt 28:20.

Concubine. A secondary wife who was often a slave girl.—Ex 21:8; 2Sa 5:13; 1Ki 11:3.

Congregation. A group of people gathered together for a particular purpose or activity. In the Hebrew Scriptures, it generally refers to the nation of Israel. In the Christian Greek Scriptures, it refers to individual congregations of Christians but more often to the Christian congregation in general.—1Ki 8:22; Ac 9:31; Ro 16:5.

Cor. A dry and a liquid measure. It equaled 220 L (58.1 gal/200 dry qt), based on the estimated volume of the bath measure. (1Ki 5:11)—See App. B14.

Coral. A hard, stonelike substance that is formed from the skeletons of tiny sea animals. It is found in the ocean in a variety of colors, including red, white, and black. Corals were especially plentiful in the Red Sea. In Bible times, red coral was highly prized and was made into beads and other ornaments.—Pr 8:11.

Cornerstone. A stone placed at the angle, or corner, of a building where two walls meet, important in joining and binding them together. The principal cornerstone was the foundation cornerstone; a particularly strong one was generally chosen for public buildings and city walls. The word is used in a figurative sense for the founding of the earth, and Jesus is spoken of as "the foundation cornerstone" of the Christian congregation, which is likened to a spiritual house.—Eph 2:20; Job 38:6.

Courtyard. The fenced, open area surrounding the tabernacle, and later one of the walled, open-air yards around the main building of the temple. The altar of burnt offering was located in the courtyard of the tabernacle and in the inner courtyard of the temple. (See App. B5, B8, B11.) The Bible also mentions courtyards in connection with houses and palaces.—Ex 8:13; 27:9; 1Ki 7:12; Es 4:11; Mt 26:3.

Covenant. A formal agreement, or contract, between God and humans or between two human parties to do or refrain from doing something. Sometimes only one party was responsible to carry out the terms (a unilateral covenant, which was essentially a promise). At other times both parties had terms to carry out (a bilateral covenant). Besides covenants made by God with humans, the Bible mentions covenants between men, tribes, nations, or groups of people. Among the covenants that have had a far-reaching effect are those that God made with Abraham, David, the nation of Israel (Law covenant), and the Israel of God (new covenant).—Ge 9:11; 15:18; 21:27; Ex 24:7; 2Ch 21:7.

Curse. To threaten or pronounce evil on someone or something. It is not to be confused with profanity or with violent anger. A curse is often a formal declaration of a pronouncement or prediction of evil, and when made by God or by an authorized person, it has a prophetic value and force.—Ge 12:3; Nu 22:12; Ga 3:10.

Curtain. The beautifully woven piece of fabric embroidered with figures of cherubs that separated the Holy from the Most Holy in both the tabernacle and the temple. (Ex 26:31; 2Ch 3:14; Mt 27:51; Heb 9:3)—See App. B5.

This was the only day of the year on which the high priest went into the Most Holy of the tabernacle. There he offered the blood of the sacrifices for his sins, the sins of the other Levites, and the sins of the people. It was a time of holy convention and fasting, and it was also a sabbath, a time to abstain from regular work.—Le 23:27, 28.

Jesus passed through this region, but there is no record of his having visited any of the cities. (Mt 4:25; Mr 5:20)—See App. A7 and B10.

Called "the sons of the true God" at Genesis 6:2 and "angels" at Jude 6, they were not created wicked; rather, they were angels who made themselves enemies of God by disobeying him in Noah's day and joining in Satan's rebellion against Jehovah.—De 32:17; Lu 8:30; Ac 16:16; Jas 2:19.

Director. As used in the Psalms, the Hebrew term seems to refer to one who in some way arranged songs and directed the singing of them, rehearsed and trained the Levite singers, and even led official performances. Other translations render this term "chief musician" or "musical director."—Ps 4:Sup; 5:Sup.

Dirge. A composition, lyrical or musical, expressing deep sorrow, such as the grief expressed because of the death of a friend or a loved one; a lamentation.—2Sa 1:17; Ps 7: Sup.

Elder; Older man. A man of mature age, but in the Scriptures, one who primarily holds a position of authority and responsibility in a community or a nation. The word is also used of heavenly creatures in the book of Revelation. The Greek word pre·sby´te·ros is translated "elder" when it refers to those responsible for taking the lead in the congregation.—Ex 4:29; Pr 31:23; 1Ti 5:17; Re 4:4.

Eunuch. In a literal sense, a castrated male. Such men were often appointed in royal courts as attendants or caretakers of the queen and the concubines. The term also refers to a man who was, not a literal eunuch, but an official assigned to duties in the court of the king. It is used figuratively for a 'eunuch for the Kingdom,' one who exercises self-control so as to apply himself more fully to the service of God.—Mt 19:12; Es 2:15; Ac 8:27.

Euphrates. The longest and most important river of southwest Asia, and one of the two major rivers in Mesopotamia. It is first mentioned at Genesis 2:14 as one of the four rivers of Eden. Fathom. A linear unit for measuring the depth of water, equal to 1.8 m (6 ft). (Ac 27:28) —See App. B14.

Festival of Booths. Also called the Festival of Tabernacles, or the Festival of Ingathering. It was held on Ethanim 15-21. It celebrated the harvest at the end of the agricultural year for Israel and was a time of rejoicing and thanksgiving for Jehovah's blessings on their crops. During the days of the festival, people lived in booths, or rooflike shelters, to remind them of the Exodus from Egypt. It was one of the three festivals that males were required to go to Jerusalem to observe.—Le 23:34; Ezr 3:4.

Firstborn. Primarily, the oldest son of a father (rather than the firstborn of the mother). In Bible times, the firstborn son held an honored position in the family and was given the headship of the household when the father died. The term also refers to the first male offspring of animals, at times called "firstlings."—Ex 11:5; 13:12; Ge 25:33; Col 1:15.

Firstfruits. The earliest fruits of a harvest season; the first results or products of anything. Jehovah required the nation of Israel to offer their firstfruits to him, whether it be of man, animal, or the fruitage of the ground. As a nation, the Israelites offered firstfruits to God at the Festival of Unleavened Bread and at Pentecost. The term

"firstfruits" was also used figuratively of Christ and his anointed followers.—1Co 15: 23; Nu 15:21; Pr 3:9; Re 14:4.

Freeman; Freedman. During Roman rule, a "freeman" was one who was born free, possessing full rights of citizenship. In contrast, a "freedman" was one emancipated from slavery. Formal emancipation granted the freedman Roman citizenship, but he was not eligible for political office. Informal emancipation freed the individual from slavery but did not give full civil rights.—1Co 7:22.

Furnace. A structure for smelting ore or melting metal; also used to fire pottery and other ceramic items. In Bible times, furnaces were made of brick or stone. A furnace for firing pottery and ceramics and for burning lime is also called a kiln.—Ge 15:17; Da 3:17; Re 9:2.

G

Gehenna. The Greek name for the Valley of Hinnom, southwest of ancient Jerusalem. (Jer 7:31) It was prophetically spoken of as a place where dead bodies would be strewn. (Jer 7:32; 19:6) There is no evidence that animals or humans were thrown into Gehenna to be burned alive or tormented. So the place could not symbolize an invisible region where human souls are tormented eternally in literal fire. Rather, Gehenna was used by Jesus and his disciples to symbolize the eternal punishment of "second death," that is, everlasting destruction, annihilation.—Re 20:14; Mt 5:22; 10:28.

Gerah. A weight equivalent to 0.57 g (0.01835 oz t). It corresponded to 1/20 shekel. (Le 27:25)—See App. B14.

Gilead. In a strict sense, the fertile area east of the Jordan River that extended north and south of the Valley of Jabbok. At times used for the entire Israelite territory east of the Jordan, where the tribes of Reuben, Gad, and the half tribe of Manasseh lived. (Nu 32:1; Jos 12:2; 2Ki 10:33)—See App. B4.

Gittith. A musical term of uncertain meaning, though it seems to be derived from the Hebrew word gath. Some believe that it may be a melody associated with songs related to wine making, since gath refers to a winepress.—Ps 81:Sup.

Glean. To gather whatever portion of a crop the harvesters had intentionally or unintentionally left behind. The Mosaic Law directed the people not to reap the edges of their fields completely nor to take all the olives or grapes. It was the God-given right of the poor, the afflicted, the foreign resident, the fatherless child, and the widow to glean what was left after harvest.—Ru 2:7.

Goad. A long rod with a sharp metal point, used by farmers to prod an animal. The goad is compared to the words of a wise person that move the listener to heed wise counsel. "Kicking against the goads" is drawn from the action of a stubborn bull that resists the prodding of the goad by kicking against it, resulting in injury to itself.—Ac 26:14; Jg 3:31.

Godly devotion. Reverence, worship, and service to Jehovah God, with loyalty to his universal sovereignty.—1Ti 4:8; 2Ti 3:12.

Grave. When lowercased, referring to an individual grave; when capitalized, the common grave of mankind, equivalent to the Hebrew "Sheol" and the Greek "Hades." It is described in the Bible as a symbolic place or condition wherein all activity and consciousness cease.—Ge 47:30; Ec 9:10; Ac 2:31.

Great tribulation. The Greek word for "tribulation" conveys the idea of distress or suffering resulting from the pressures of circumstances. Jesus spoke of an unprecedented "great tribulation" that would come upon Jerusalem and especially of one that would later befall mankind in connection with his future 'coming with glory.' (Mt 24: 21, 29-31) Paul described this tribulation as a righteous act of God against "those who do not know God and those who do not obey the good news" about Jesus Christ. Revelation chapter 19 shows Jesus as the one leading heavenly armies against "the wild beast and the kings of the earth and their armies." (2Th 1:6-8; Re 19:11-21) "A great crowd" is shown as surviving that tribulation. (Re 7:9, 14)—See ARMAGEDDON.

Greek. The language spoken by the people of Greece; also, a native of Greece or one whose family originated there. In the Christian Greek Scriptures, the word also has a broader usage, referring to all non-Jewish peoples or to those who were influenced by Greek language and culture.—Joe 3:6; Joh 12:20.

Guilt offering. A sacrifice for personal sins. It differed slightly from other sin offerings in that it was to satisfy or restore certain covenant rights that the repentant wrongdoer had lost because of a sin and to give him relief from the penalty.—Le 7:37; 19:22; Isa 53:10.

H

Hades. A Greek word corresponding to the Hebrew word "Sheol." It is translated "Grave" (capitalized), to distinguish it as the common grave of mankind.—See GRAVE.

Hebrew. A designation first used for Abram (Abraham), distinguishing him from his Amorite neighbors. It was used thereafter to refer to Abraham's descendants through his grandson Jacob as well as to their language. By the time of Jesus, the Hebrew language had come to include many Aramaic expressions and was the language spoken by Christ and his disciples.—Ge 14:13; Ex 5:3; Ac 26:14.

Hermes. A Greek god, son of Zeus. In Lystra, Paul was mistakenly called Hermes in reference to that god's supposed role as messenger of the gods and the god of skillful speech.—Ac 14:12.

Herod. The family name of a dynasty that ruled over the Jews by appointment from Rome. The first was Herod the Great, famous for rebuilding the temple in Jerusalem and for ordering the slaughter of children in an attempt to destroy Jesus. (Mt 2:16; Lu 1:5) Herod Archelaus and Herod Antipas, sons of Herod the Great, were appointed over sections of their father's domain. (Mt 2:22) Antipas was a tetrarch, popularly referred to as "king," who ruled during Christ's three-year ministry and through the period up to Acts chapter 12. (Mr 6:14-17; Lu 3:1, 19, 20; 13:31, 32; 23:6-15; Ac 4:27; 13:1) After that, Herod Agrippa I, grandson of Herod the Great, was executed by God's angel after ruling for a short time. (Ac 12:1-6, 18-23) His son, Herod Agrippa II, became ruler and reigned up to the time of the Jewish revolt against Rome.—Ac 23:35; 25:13, 22-27; 26: 1, 2, 19-32.

High place. A place of worship usually on top of a hill, a mountain, or a man-made platform. Although high places were sometimes used for the worship of God, they are most often associated with pagan worship of false gods.—Nu 33:52; 1Ki 3:2; Jer 19:5.

High priest. Under the Mosaic Law, the principal priest who represented the people before God and supervised the other priests. Also called "the chief priest." (2Ch 26:20; Ezr 7:5) He alone was allowed to enter the Most Holy, the innermost compartment of the tabernacle and later of the temple. He did so only on the annual Day of Atonement. The term "high priest" is also applied to Jesus Christ.—Le 16:2, 17; 21:10; Mt 26:3; Heb 4:14.

Hin. A liquid measure and the container for that measure. It is equivalent to 3.67 L (7.75 pt), based on a statement by the historian Josephus that a hin equaled two Athenian choes. (Ex 29:40)—See App. B14.

Holy; Holiness. A quality possessed inherently by Jehovah; a state of absolute moral purity and sacredness. (Ex 28:36; 1Sa 2:2; Pr 9:10; Isa 6:3) When referring to humans (Ex 19:6; 2Ki 4:9), animals (Nu 18:17), things (Ex 28:38; 30:25; Le 27:14), places (Ex 3:5; Isa 27:13), time periods (Ex 16:23; Le 25:12), and activities (Ex 36:4), the original Hebrew word conveys the thought of separateness, exclusiveness, or sanctification to the holy God; a state of being set aside for Jehovah's service. In the Christian Greek Scriptures, the words rendered "holy" and "holiness" likewise denote separation to God. The words are also used to refer to purity in one's personal conduct.—Mr 6:20; 2Co 7:1; 1Pe 1:15, 16.

Holy, the. The first and larger compartment of the tabernacle or of the temple, as distinguished from the innermost compartment, the Most Holy. In the tabernacle, the Holy contained the golden lampstand, golden altar of incense, table of showbread, and golden utensils; in the temple, it contained the golden altar, ten golden lampstands, and ten tables of showbread. (Ex 26:33; Heb 9:2)—See App. B5 and B8.

Holy spirit. The invisible energizing force that God puts into action to accomplish his will. It is holy because it comes from Jehovah, who is clean and righteous to the highest degree, and because it is God's means to accomplish what is holy.—Lu 1:35; Ac 1:8.

Homer. A dry measure corresponding to the cor. Based on the estimated volume of the bath measure, it equaled 220 L (200 dry qt). (Le 27:16)—See App. B14.

Horeb; Mount Horeb. The mountainous region surrounding Mount Sinai. Another name for Mount Sinai. (Ex 3:1; De 5:2)—See App. B3.

Horn. Referring to animal horns, which were used as drinking vessels, as vessels for oil, as containers for ink and cosmetics, and as musical or signaling instruments. (1Sa 16:1, 13; 1Ki 1:39; Eze 9:2) "Horn" is often used figuratively for strength, conquest, and victory.—De 33:17; Mic 4:13; Zec 1:19.

Horns of the altar. Hornlike projections extending outward from the four corners of certain altars. (Le 8:15; 1Ki 2:28)—See App. B5 and B8.

Hyssop. A plant with fine branches and leaves, used for sprinkling blood or water in cleansing ceremonies. It was possibly marjoram (Origanum maru; Origanum syriacum). As used at John 19:29, it may have been marjoram attached to a branch or durra, a variety of common sorghum (Sorghum vulgare), since this plant could have provided a stalk long enough to carry the sponge of sour wine to Jesus' mouth.—Ex 12:22; Ps 51:7.

I

Idol; Idolatry. An idol is an image, a representation of anything, real or imagined, that people may use in worship. Idolatry is the veneration, love, worship, or adoration of an idol.—Ps 115:4; Ac 17:16; 1Co 10:14.

Illyricum. A Roman province northwest of Greece. Paul traveled this far in his ministry, but it is not stated whether he preached in Illyricum or merely up to it. (Ro 15:19)—See App. B13.

Incense. A compound of aromatic gums and balsams that burns slowly, giving off a fragrant aroma. A special four-ingredient incense was made for use at the tabernacle and the temple. It was burned morning and night on the altar of incense in the Holy compartment, and on the Day of Atonement, it was burned inside the Most Holy compartment. It was symbolic of the acceptable prayers of God's faithful servants. Its use was not required of Christians.—Ex 30:34, 35; Le 16:13; Re 5:8.

Israel. The name God gave to Jacob. It came to refer to all his descendants collectively, at any one time. The descendants of Jacob's 12 sons were often called the sons of Israel, the house of Israel, the people (men) of Israel, or the Israelites. Israel was also used as the name for the ten-tribe northern kingdom that broke away from the southern kingdom, and later as a term for anointed Christians, "the Israel of God."—Ga 6:16; Ge 32:28; 2Sa 7:23; Ro 9:6.

J

Jacob. A son of Isaac and Rebekah. God later gave him the name Israel, and he became the patriarch of the people of Israel (also called Israelites and later, Jews). He was the father of the 12 sons who, along with their descendants, made up the 12 tribes of the nation of Israel. The name Jacob continued to be used for the nation or people of Israel.—Ge 32:28; Mt 22:32.

Jeduthun. A term of uncertain meaning appearing in the superscriptions of Psalms 39, 62, and 77. These superscriptions appear to be instructions for the performance of the psalm, perhaps identifying a style or a musical instrument. There was a Levitical musician named Jeduthun, so this performance style or instrument may have been associated with him or his sons.

Jehovah. The common English rendering of the Tetragrammaton (the four Hebrew letters for the personal name of God), which appears over 7,000 times in this translation.—See App. A4 and A5.

Jew. A term used for a person of the tribe of Judah after the fall of the ten-tribe kingdom of Israel. (2Ki 16:6) After the Babylonian exile, it was used with regard to Israelites from various tribes who returned to Israel. (Ezr 4: 12) Later, it was used throughout the world to distinguish Israelites from those of the Gentile nations. (Es 3:6) The term is also used figuratively by the apostle Paul when reasoning that nationality is of no consequence in the Christian congregation.—Ro 2:28, 29; Ga 3:28.

Jubilee. Every 50th year, counting from Israel's entry into the Promised Land. The land was to lie fallow during the Jubilee year, and Hebrew slaves were to be set free. Hereditary lands that had been sold were returned. The Jubilee was, in a sense, an entire year of festival, a year of liberty that restored the nation to the state it had enjoyed when God first established it.—Le 25:10.

Judah. Jacob's fourth son by his wife Leah. In his deathbed prophecy, Jacob foretold that a great and lasting ruler would come from Judah's family line. Jesus, in his human existence, descended from Judah. The name Judah also refers to the tribe and later to the kingdom named after Judah. Described as the southern kingdom, Judah was made up of the Israelite tribes of Judah and Benjamin and included the priests and Levites. Judah occupied the southern part of the country that included Jerusalem and the temple.—Ge 29:35; 49:10; 1Ki 4:20; Heb 7:14.

Judges. Men raised up by Jehovah to save his people prior to the period of Israel's human kings.—Jg 2:16.

Judgment Day. A specific day, or period, when particular groups, nations, or mankind in general are called to account by God. It may be a time when those judged to be deserving of death are executed, or the judgment may afford opportunity for some to be saved and gain everlasting life. Jesus Christ and his apostles pointed to a future "Judgment Day" involving not only the living but also those who died in the past.—Mt 12:36.

Judgment seat. Usually a raised outdoor platform, approached by steps, from which seated officials could address the crowds and announce their decisions. The expressions "judgment seat of God" and "judgment seat of the Christ" are symbolic of Jehovah's arrangement for judging mankind. —Ro 14:10; 2Co 5:10; Joh 19:13.

Lake of fire. A symbolic place that "burns with fire and sulfur," also described as "the second death." Unrepentant sinners, the Devil, and even death and the Grave (or, Hades) are thrown into it. The inclusion of a spirit creature and also of death and Hades, all of which cannot be affected by fire, indicates that this lake is a symbol, not of everlasting torment, but of everlasting destruction.—Re 19:20; 20:14, 15; 21:8.

Last days. This and similar expressions, such as "the final part of the days," are used in Bible prophecy to refer to the time when historical events would reach a final climax. (Eze 38:16; Da 10:14; Ac 2:17) Depending on the nature of the prophecy, this may be a period covering just a few years or many. Most notably, the Bible uses this term regarding "the last days" of the present system of things, during Jesus' invisible presence.—2Ti 3:1; Jas 5:3; 2Pe 3:3.

Law. When it is capitalized, this word refers either to the Mosaic Law or to the first five books of the Bible. When it is lowercased, it may refer to individual laws of the Mosaic Law or a principle of law.—Nu 15:16; De 4:8; Mt 7:12; Ga 3:24.

Lay hands on. Hands were laid on a person to appoint him to a special work or to designate him for a blessing, a healing, or a gift of the holy spirit. Sometimes hands were laid on animals before they were sacrificed. —Ex 29:15; Nu 27:18; Ac 19:6; 1Ti 5:22.

Leaven. A substance added to dough or to liquids to cause fermentation; especially a portion of fermented dough preserved from a previous batch. Often used in the Bible as a symbol of sin and corruption, it is also used to indicate hidden, pervasive growth. —Ex 12:20; Mt 13:33; Ga 5:9.

Lebanon Mountain range. One of the two mountain ranges forming the mountain system of the land of Lebanon. The Lebanon range is on the west, and the Anti-Lebanon range is on the east. A long, fertile valley separates the two ranges. The Lebanon range rises up almost directly from the Mediterranean coast, and its summits average between 1,800 and 2,100 m (6,000 and 7,000 ft) in elevation. In ancient times, Lebanon was covered with majestic cedars, which were highly prized by the surrounding nations. (De 1:7; Ps 29:6; 92:12)—See App. B7.

Leprosy; Leper. A serious skin disease. In the Scriptures, leprosy is not restricted to the disease known by that name today, for it could affect not only humans but also clothing and houses. A person afflicted with leprosy is called a leper.—Le 14:54; Lu 5:12.

Lepton. In the Christian Greek Scripture period, the smallest Jewish copper or bronze coin. Translated as "mite" in some Bible versions. (Mr 12:42; Lu 21:2; ftns.)—See App. B14.

Levi; Levite. Jacob's third son by his wife Leah; also the tribe named after him. His three sons became the founders of the three principal divisions of what is known as the Levitical priesthood. At times, the term "Levites" applies to the whole tribe, but usually it excludes the priestly family of Aaron. The tribe of Levi did not receive an allotment of land in the Promised Land but was given 48 cities within the boundaries of land apportioned to the other tribes.—De 10:8; 1Ch 6:1; Heb 7:11.

Leviathan. An animal usually associated with water, apparently some form of aquatic creature. At Job 3:8 and 41:1, it seems to refer to the crocodile or some other aquatic creature of great proportions and strength. At Psalm 104:26, it may be some type of whale. Elsewhere it is used figuratively and is not identifiable with any one animal.—Ps 74:14; Isa 27:1.

Loaves of presentation.—See SHOWBREAD.

Locusts. A variety of grasshoppers that migrate in great swarms. They were considered clean for food in the Mosaic Law. Large swarms that consume everything in their path, causing massive destruction, were regarded as a plague.—Ex 10:14; Mt 3:4.

Log. The smallest liquid measure mentioned in the Bible. In the Jewish Talmud, it is described as 1/12 of a hin, so using that as a basis, the log would have a capacity of 0.31 L (0.66 pt). (Le 14:10)—See App. B14.

Loom. A frame used for weaving threads or yarns into cloth.—Ex 39:27.

Lord's Evening Meal. A literal meal consisting of unleavened bread and wine as symbols of Christ's body and blood; a memorial of Jesus' death. Since this is an observance that Christians are Scripturally required to keep, it is also appropriately termed "the Memorial."—1Co 11:20, 23-26.

Lots. Pebbles or small bits of wood or stone that were used in making decisions. These were gathered into the folds of a garment or into a vessel and then shaken. The lot that fell out or was drawn out was the one chosen. This was often done prayerfully. The term "lot" is used both literally and figuratively with the meaning "share" or "portion."—Jos 14:2; Ps 16:5; Pr 16:33; Mt 27:35.

Loyal love. Most frequently rendered from the Hebrew word che·sedh, referring to love motivated by commitment, integrity, loyalty, and deep attachment. It is often used in connection with God's love for humans, but it is also love shown between humans.—Ex 34:6; Ru 3:10.

M

Macedonia. A region north of Greece that gained prominence under Alexander the Great and remained independent until conquered by the Romans. Macedonia was a Roman province when the apostle Paul made his first visit to Europe. Paul visited the area three times. (Ac 16:9)—See App. B13.

Magistrates. Under the government of Babylon, police magistrates were civil officers in the jurisdictional districts who knew the law and had limited judicial authority. In Roman colonies, the civil magistrates were administrators of the government. Their duties included maintaining order, controlling finances, judging violators of the law, and ordering the carrying out of punishment.—Da 3:2; Ac 16:20.

Mahalath. A term, evidently musical, found in the superscriptions of Psalms 53 and 88. It may be related to a Hebrew root verb meaning "grow weak; fall sick," thereby suggesting a gloomy and sad tone, which would harmonize with the somber content of the two songs.

Malcam. Probably the same as Molech, the chief god of the Ammonites. (Zep 1:5)—See MOLECH.

Manna. The main food of the Israelites during their 40 years in the wilderness. It was provided by Jehovah. It miraculously appeared on the ground under a layer of dew every morning except on the Sabbath. When the Israelites first saw it, they said, "What is it?" or, in Hebrew, "man hu'?" (Ex 16:13-15, 35) In other contexts, it is referred to as "the grain of heaven" (Ps 78:24), "bread from heaven" (Ps 105:40), and "the bread of mighty ones" (Ps 78:25). Jesus also referred to manna in a figurative sense.—Joh 6:49, 50.

Maskil. A Hebrew term of uncertain meaning in the superscriptions of 13 psalms. It possibly means "contemplative poem." Some think that a word similar in form, translated 'serve with discretion,' may be related in meaning.—2Ch 30:22; Ps 32:Sup.

Measuring reed. A measuring reed was six cubits long. Based on the common cubit, it measured 2.67 m (8.75 ft); based on the long cubit, it measured 3.11 m (10.2 ft). (Eze 40:3, 5; Re 11:1)—See App. B14.

Medes; Media. A people descended from Japheth's son Madai; they settled in the mountainous Iranian plateau that became the country of Media. The Medes joined with Babylon to defeat Assyria. At that time, Persia was a province under Media, but Cyrus revolted and Media was merged with Persia to form the Medo-Persian Empire that defeated the Neo-Babylonian Empire in 539 B.C.E. Medes were present in Jerusalem at Pentecost in 33 C.E. (Da 5:28, 31; Ac 2:9)—See App. B9.

Mediator. One who intercedes between two parties in order to reconcile them. In the Scriptures, Moses and Jesus are the mediators of the Law covenant and the new covenant respectively.—Ga 3:19; 1Ti 2:5.

Memorial tomb. A burial place in which the remains of a deceased person were placed. This term renders the Greek word mne·mei'·on, which comes from the verb "to remind," suggesting that the person who has died is remembered.—Joh 5:28, 29.

Merodach. The chief god of the city of Babylon. After the Babylonian king and lawmaker Hammurabi made Babylon the capital of Babylonia, Merodach (or, Marduk) grew in importance, finally displacing a number of the earlier gods and becoming the chief god of the Babylonian pantheon. In later periods, the name Merodach (or, Marduk) was replaced by the title "Belu" ("Owner"), and Merodach was commonly spoken of as Bel.—Jer 50:2.

Messiah. A word derived from the Hebrew word for "anointed" or "anointed one." "Christ" is the equivalent derived from the Greek.—Da 9:25; Joh 1:41.

Miktam. A Hebrew word used in the superscriptions of six psalms (Ps 16, 56-60). It is a technical term of uncertain meaning, though it may be related to the word "inscription."

Milcom. A god worshipped by the Ammonites, probably the same as the god Molech. (1Ki 11:5, 7) Near the close of his reign, Solomon built high places to this false god.—See MOLECH.

Mildew. Any of many parasitic plant diseases caused by fungi. It has been suggested that the mildew mentioned in the Bible is black stem rust (Puccinia graminis).—1Ki 8:37.

Mile. A measure of distance occurring only once in the original text of the Christian Greek Scriptures at Matthew 5:41, probably referring to the Roman mile that was equal to 1,479.5 m (4,854 ft). The three other occurrences of "mile" at Luke 24:13, John 6:19, and John 11:18 refer to statute miles converted from the ancient stadia of the original text.—See App. B14.

Millstone. A round stone placed on top of a similar stone and used to grind grain into flour. A peg that was fitted into the center of the lower stone served as a pivot for the upper stone. In Bible times, hand mills operated by the women were used in most homes. Since a family's daily bread depended on the hand mill, the Mosaic Law forbade confiscating it or its upper grindstone as security. Larger mills of a similar construction were turned by animals.—De 24:6; Mr 9:42.

Mina. Also called maneh in Ezekiel. A unit both of weight and of monetary value. Based on archaeological evidence that a mina equaled 50 shekels, and a shekel weighed 11.4 g, the mina of the Hebrew Scriptures weighed 570 g (18.35 oz t).

There may also have been a royal mina, as in the case of the cubit. In the Christian Greek Scriptures, a mina was equivalent to 100 drachmas. It weighed 340 g (10.9 oz t). Sixty minas equaled a talent. (Ezr 2:69; Lu 19:13)—See App. B14.

Ministerial servant. A rendering of the Greek word di·a´ko·nos, which is often translated "minister" or "servant." "Ministerial servant" refers to one who serves as an assistant to the body of elders in the congregation. He must meet Bible standards to qualify for this privilege of service.—1Ti 3:8-10, 12.

Miracles; Powerful works. Actions or phenomena that surpass all powers known to humans and are attributed to a supernatural agency. Such expressions as "sign," "portent," and "wonder" are sometimes used synonymously in the Bible.—Ex 4:21; Ac 4:22; Heb 2:4.

Molech. A god of the Ammonites; possibly the same as Malcam, Milcom, and Moloch. It may be a title rather than the name of a specific god. The Mosaic Law demanded the death penalty for anyone who sacrificed his children to Molech.—Le 20:2; Jer 32:35; Ac 7:43.

Moloch.—See MOLECH.

Morning star.—See DAYSTAR.

Moses, Law of. The Law that Jehovah gave Israel through Moses in the wilderness of Sinai in 1513 B.C.E. The first five books of the Bible are often referred to as the Law.—Jos 23:6; Lu 24:44.

Most Holy, the. The innermost room of the tabernacle and of the temple, where the ark of the covenant was kept; also called the Holy of Holies. Other than Moses, the only person allowed to enter the Most Holy was the high priest, and he could enter only on the annual Day of Atonement.—Ex 26:33; Le 16:2, 17; 1Ki 6:16; Heb 9:3.

Mound. A geographic or structural feature of the City of David. It may have been terraced supporting walls or some other supporting feature.—2Sa 5:9; 1Ki 11:27.

Mourning. The outward expression of grief over a death or some other calamity. In Bible times, it was customary to mourn for a period of time. In addition to weeping loudly, mourners wore special clothes, put ashes on their head, ripped their garments, and beat their chest. Professional mourners were sometimes invited to funerals.—Ge 23:2; Es 4:3; Re 21:4.

Muth-labben. A term in the superscription of Psalm 9. Traditionally, it meant "concerning the death of the son." Some suggest that it was the name or perhaps the opening words of a familiar melody to be used when singing this psalm.

Myrrh. An aromatic gum resin obtained from a variety of thorny shrubs or small trees of the genus Commiphora. Myrrh was one of the ingredients of the holy anointing oil. It was used to scent such things as garments or beds, and it was added to oil for massages and body lotions. Myrrh was also used to prepare bodies for burial.—Ex 30:23; Pr 7:17; Joh 19:39.

N

Nard. A costly fragrant oil of light-reddish color, derived from the spikenard plant (Nardostachys jatamansi). Because it was expensive, nard was often mixed with inferior oils, and it was sometimes counterfeited. Notably, both Mark and John state that "genuine nard" was used on Jesus.—Mr 14:3; Joh 12:3.

Nazarene. A name for Jesus, as one from the town of Nazareth. It is probably related to the Hebrew word used at Isaiah 11:1 for "sprout." It was later applied to Jesus' followers as well.—Mt 2:23; Ac 24:5.

Nazirite. A word taken from the Hebrew for "One Singled Out," "Dedicated One," "Separated One." There were two classes of Nazirites: those who volunteered and those who were appointed as such by God. A man or a woman could take a special vow to Jehovah to live as a Nazirite for a period of time. Those voluntarily taking the vow had three principal restrictions: they were to drink no alcohol nor eat any product of the grapevine, they were not to cut their hair, and they were not to touch a dead body. Those appointed by God as Nazirites remained such for life, and Jehovah specified the requirements for them.—Nu 6:2-7; Jg 13:5.

Nehiloth. A term of uncertain meaning, occurring in the superscription of Psalm 5. Some believe that it refers to a wind instrument, linking it with a Hebrew root word related to cha·lil´ (flute). However, it may designate a melody.

Nephilim. The violent hybrid sons who were the children of materialized angels and the daughters of men before the Flood.—Ge 6:4.

Nethinim. Non-Israelite temple servants, or ministers. The Hebrew term literally means "Given Ones," implying that they were given for temple service. Likely, many of the Nethinim were descendants of the Gibeonites, whom Joshua had constituted "gatherers of wood and drawers of water for the assembly and for Jehovah's altar."—Jos 9:23, 27; 1Ch 9:2; Ezr 8:17.

New moon. The first day of each month of the Jewish calendar, which was observed as a day for gathering together, feasting, and offering special sacrifices. In later periods, the day became an important national festival, and people abstained from work.—Nu 10:10; 2Ch 8:13; Col 2:16.

Nisan. After the Babylonian exile, the new name for Abib, the first month of the Jewish sacred calendar and the seventh month of the secular calendar. It ran from mid-March to mid-April. (Ne 2:1)—See App. B15.

O

Oath. A sworn statement to certify that something is true, or a solemn promise that a person will or will not do a certain thing. It is frequently a vow made to a superior, especially to God. Jehovah reinforced his covenant with Abraham by a sworn oath.—Ge 14:22; Heb 6:16, 17.

Omer. A dry measure equaling 2.2 L (2 dry qt), or a tenth of an ephah. (Ex 16:16, 18) —See App. B14.

Onyx. A semiprecious stone, a hard variety of agate, or a banded form of chalcedony. The onyx has white layers alternating with black, brown, red, gray, or green layers. It was used in the special garments of the high priest.—Ex 28:9, 12; 1Ch 29:2; Job 28:16.

Overseer. A man whose primary responsibility is to watch over and shepherd the congregation. The basic idea inherent in the Greek term e·pi´sko·pos is that of protective supervision. The terms "overseer" and "elder" (pre·sby´te·ros) refer to the same position in the Christian congregation, with "elder" indicating the mature qualities of the one so appointed, and "overseer" emphasizing the duties inherent in this appointment.—Ac 20:28; 1Ti 3:2-7; 1Pe 5:2.

Papyrus. A reedlike aquatic plant used in making such things as baskets, containers, and boats. It was also used to make a writing material similar to paper and was used in many scrolls.—Ex 2:3.

Paradise. A beautiful park, or parklike garden. The first such place was Eden, made by Jehovah for the first human pair. When speaking to one of the criminals next to him on the torture stake, Jesus indicated that the earth would become a paradise. At 2 Corinthians 12:4, the word evidently refers to a figurative paradise, and at Revelation 2:7, to a heavenly paradise.—Ca 4:13; Lu 23:43.

Parchment. The skin of a sheep, goat, or calf prepared for use as writing material. It was more durable than papyrus and was used for scrolls of the Bible. The parchments that Paul requested Timothy to bring were possibly portions of the Hebrew Scriptures. Some of the Dead Sea Scrolls were written on parchment.—2Ti 4:13.

Party followers of Herod.—See HEROD; PARTY FOLLOWERS OF.

Passover. An annual festival observed on the 14th day of Abib (later called Nisan) to commemorate the deliverance of the Israelites from Egypt. It was observed by slaughtering and roasting a lamb (or goat), which was then eaten with bitter greens and unleavened bread.—Ex 12:27; Joh 6:4; 1Co 5:7.

Pentecost. The second of the three major festivals that all Jewish males were required to celebrate in Jerusalem. Pentecost, meaning "Fiftieth (Day)," is the name used in the Christian Greek Scriptures for what is called the Festival of Harvest or Festival of Weeks in the Hebrew Scriptures. It was celebrated on the 50th day counted from Nisan 16.—Ex 23:16; 34:22; Ac 2:1.

Persia; Persians. A land and a people regularly mentioned along with, and evidently related to, the Medes. In their early history, the Persians held only the southwestern part of the Iranian plateau. Under Cyrus the Great (who according to some ancient historians was born of a Persian father and a Median mother), the Persians became dominant over the Medes, though the empire continued to be dual. Cyrus conquered the Babylonian Empire in 539 B.C.E. and allowed the Jews in captivity to return to their homeland. The Persian Empire extended from the Indus River on the east to the Aegean Sea on the west. The Jews were under Persian rule until Alexander the Great defeated the Persians in 331 B.C.E. The Persian Empire was foreseen in a vision by Daniel, and it figures in the Bible books of Ezra, Nehemiah, and Esther. (Ezr 1:1; Da 5:28)—See App. B9.

Pestilence. Any rapidly spreading infectious disease capable of attaining epidemic proportions and of causing death. It is often related to the execution of divine judgment. —Nu 14:12; Eze 38:22, 23; Am 4:10.

Pharaoh. A title given to the kings of Egypt. Five pharaohs are named in the Bible (Shishak, So, Tirhakah, Nechoh, and Hophra), but others are left anonymous, including those who had extensive dealings with Abraham, Moses, and Joseph.—Ex 15:4; Ro 9:17.

Pharisees. A prominent religious sect of Judaism in the first century C.E. They were not of priestly descent, but they were strict observers of the Law in its smallest detail, and they elevated oral traditions to the same level. (Mt 23:23) They opposed any Greek cultural influence, and as scholars of the Law and the traditions, they had great authority over the people. (Mt 23:2-6) Some were also members of the Sanhedrin. They often opposed Jesus regarding Sabbath observance, traditions, and association with sinners and tax collectors. Some became Christians, including Saul of Tarsus.—Mt 9: 11; 12:14; Mr 7:5; Lu 6:2; Ac 26:5.

Philistia; Philistines. The land on the southern coast of Israel that came to be called Philistia. The immigrants from Crete who settled there were called Philistines. David subdued them, but they remained independent and were constant enemies of Israel. (Ex 13:17; 1Sa 17:4; Am 9:7)—See App. B4.

Pillar. An upright structural support or column, or something resembling such a column. Some were set up to commemorate historic acts or events. Structural pillars were used in the temple and the royal structures built by Solomon. Pagan peoples set up sacred pillars in connection with their false religion, and the Israelites at times took up this practice. (Jg 16:29; 1Ki 7:21; 14: 23)—See CAPITAL.

Pim. A weight as well as the price charged by the Philistines for sharpening various metal implements. Several stone weights found in archaeological excavations in Israel bear the ancient Hebrew consonants of "pim"; their average weight is 7.8 g (0.2508 oz t), which would be approximately two thirds of a shekel.—1Sa 13:20, 21.

Pledge. An object of personal property given by a debtor to his creditor as a guarantee of the future repayment of a loan. It was also called security. The Mosaic Law contained stipulations concerning pledges in order to protect the interests of poor and defenseless members of the nation.—Ex 22:26; Eze 18:7.

Pomegranate. A fruit that is shaped like an apple, with a rosette or crown at one end. Crowded within the hard rind are small capsules full of juice, each containing a tiny pink or red seed. Pomegranate-shaped ornaments adorned the hem of the high priest's blue sleeveless coat as well as the capitals of the pillars Jachin and Boaz in front of the temple.—Ex 28:34; Nu 13:23; 1Ki 7:18.

Porneia.—See SEXUAL IMMORALITY.

Potter. A maker of earthenware pots, dishes, and other vessels. The Hebrew word for potter literally means "former." The potter's authority over the clay is often used to illustrate Jehovah's sovereignty over individuals and nations.—Isa 64:8; Ro 9:21.

Praetorian Guard. A group of Roman soldiers established as a bodyguard for the Roman emperor. The guard came to be a powerful political force in supporting or overthrowing an emperor.—Php 1:13.

Prefect. An official lower in rank than a satrap in the Babylonian government. In the Bible, prefects were in a position of authority over the wise men in the Babylonian court. Prefects are also mentioned during the rule of King Darius the Mede.—Da 2:48; 6:7.

Preparation. A name for the day before the Sabbath, during which the Jews made the necessary preparations. The day ended at sundown of what is today called Friday, at which time the Sabbath would begin. The Jewish day ran from evening to evening.—Mr 15:42; Lu 23:54.

Presence. In some contexts in the Christian Greek Scriptures, this word describes the royal presence of Jesus Christ from the time of his invisible enthronement as Messianic King onward in the last days of this system of things. Christ's presence is not simply a coming followed by a quick departure; rather, it covers a marked period of time.—Mt 24:3.

Priest. A man who officially represented God to the people he served, instructing them about God and his laws. Priests also represented the people before God, offering sacrifices as well as interceding and pleading for the people. Before the Mosaic Law was instituted, the family head served as priest for his family. Under the Mosaic Law, the male members of the family of Aaron of the tribe of Levi made up the priesthood. The rest of the male Levites were their assistants. At the inauguration of the new covenant, spiritual Israel became a nation of priests, with Jesus Christ as High Priest.—Ex 28:41; Heb 9:24; Re 5:10.

Proconsul. The principal governor of a province administered by the Roman Senate. He had judicial and military power, and although his actions were subject to review by the Senate, he wielded supreme authority in the province.—Ac 13:7; 18:12.

Prophecy. An inspired message, whether a revelation of divine will or the proclamation of it. Prophecy may be an inspired moral teaching, an expression of a divine command or judgment, or a declaration of something to come.—Eze 37:9, 10; Da 9:24; Mt 13:14; 2Pe 1:20, 21.

Prophet. One through whom divine purposes are made known. Prophets acted as spokesmen for God, conveying not only predictions but also Jehovah's teachings, commands, and judgments.—Am 3:7; 2Pe 1:21.

Propitiation.—See ATONEMENT.

Propitiatory cover. The cover of the ark of the covenant, before which the high priest spattered the blood of sin offerings on Atonement Day. The Hebrew term comes from a root verb meaning "to cover over (sin)" or perhaps "to wipe away (sin)." It was made of solid gold, with two cherubs, one mounted at each end. It is sometimes referred to simply as "the cover." (Ex 25:17-22; 1Ch 28:11; Heb 9:5)—See App. B5.

Proselyte. A convert. In the Scriptures, this refers to one who embraced Judaism, which in the case of a male involved getting circumcised.—Mt 23:15; Ac 13:43.

Prostitute. A person who engages in sexual relations outside the marriage bond, especially for money. (The Greek word for "prostitute," por'ne, comes from a root meaning "to sell.") The term usually refers to a woman, although male prostitutes are also mentioned in the Bible. Prostitution was condemned in the Mosaic Law, and a prostitute's wages were unacceptable as a contribution to Jehovah's sanctuary, in contrast with the pagan practice of using temple prostitutes as a source of revenue. (De 23:17, 18; 1Ki 14:24) The Bible also uses the term figuratively, referring to people, nations, or organizations that engage in some form of idolatry while claiming to be worshippers of God. For example, the religious entity called "Babylon the Great" is described in Revelation as a prostitute because she has consorted with the rulers of this world for power and material gain.—Re 17:1-5; 18:3; 1Ch 5:25.

Proverb. A wise saying or short story that teaches a lesson or expresses a profound truth in very few words. A Biblical proverb may take the form of a puzzling saying or a riddle. A proverb embodies a truth in expressive language, often metaphorically. Some sayings became common expressions of ridicule or contempt for certain people.—Ec 12:9; 2Pe 2:22.

Psalm. A song of praise to God. Psalms were set to music and sung by worshippers, including in public worship of Jehovah God at his temple in Jerusalem.—Lu 20:42; Ac 13:33; Jas 5:13.

Purim. The annual festival celebrated on the 14th and 15th of Adar. It commemorates the Jews' deliverance from destruction in Queen Esther's time. The non-Hebrew word pu·rim' means "lots." The Festival of Purim, or Festival of Lots, was so named from the act of Haman in casting Pur (the Lot) to determine the day to carry out his extermination plot against the Jews.—Es 3:7; 9:26.

Q

Queen of Heaven. The title of a goddess worshipped by apostate Israelites in the days of Jeremiah. Some suggest that it refers to the Babylonian goddess Ishtar (Astarte). The name of her earlier Sumerian counterpart, Inanna, means "Queen of Heaven." Besides being associated with the heavens, she was a fertility goddess. Astarte is also called "Lady of Heaven" in an Egyptian inscription.—Jer 44:19.

R

Rahab. An expression used symbolically in the books of Job, Psalms, and Isaiah (not to be confused with the woman Rahab in the book of Joshua). In the book of Job, the context helps to identify Rahab as a sea monster; in other contexts this sea monster is used as a symbol for Egypt.—Job 9:13; Ps 87:4; Isa 30:7; 51:9, 10.

Ransom. A price paid to provide a release from captivity, punishment, suffering, sin, or even an obligation. The price was not always monetary. (Isa 43:3) A ransom was required in a number of different situations. For example, all firstborn boys or male animals in Israel belonged to Jehovah, and a ransom, or redemption price, needed to be paid to release them from exclusive use in Jehovah's service. (Nu 3:45, 46; 18:15, 16) If an unguarded, dangerous bull killed someone, a ransom was imposed on its owner in order to release him from the prescribed death sentence. (Ex 21:29, 30) However, no ransom was accepted for a willful murderer. (Nu 35:31) Most important, the Bible highlights the ransom that Christ paid by his sacrificial death in order to release obedient humankind from sin and death.—Ps 49:7, 8; Mt 20:28; Eph 1:7.

Reed. A term used for numerous plants commonly growing in wet places. The plant intended in many cases is Arundo donax. (Job 8:11; Isa 42:3; Mt 27:29; Re 11:1)—See MEASURING REED.

Repentance. In Biblical usage, a change of mind accompanied by heartfelt regret over a former way of life, wrong actions, or what one has failed to do. Genuine repentance produces fruitage, a changed course of action.—Mt 3:8; Ac 3:19; 2Pe 3:9.

Resurrection. A rising up from death. The Greek word a·na´sta·sis literally means "raising up; standing up." Nine resurrections are mentioned in the Bible, including the resurrection of Jesus by Jehovah God. Although other resurrections were performed through Elijah, Elisha, Jesus, Peter, and Paul, these miracles are clearly attributed to God's power. The earthly resurrection of "both the righteous and the unrighteous" is essential to God's purpose. (Ac 24:15) The Bible also mentions a heavenly resurrection, termed "the earlier" or "the first" resurrection, involving the spirit-anointed brothers of Jesus.—Php 3:11; Re 20:5, 6; Joh 5:28, 29; 11:25.

Righteousness. In the Scriptures, what is right according to God's standard of right and wrong.—Ge 15:6; De 6:25; Pr 11:4; Zep 2:3; Mt 6:33.

S

Sabbath. From a Hebrew word meaning "to rest; to cease." It is the seventh day of the Jewish week (sunset Friday to sunset Saturday). Some other festive days in the year, as well as the 7th and 50th years, were also called sabbaths. On the Sabbath day, no work except priestly service in the sanctuary was to be done. In Sabbath years, the land was to lie uncultivated and fellow Hebrews were not pressed for repayment of debts. In the Mosaic Law, the restrictions for the Sabbath were reasonable, but religious leaders gradually added to them, so that by Jesus' day they were hard for people to observe.—Ex 20:8; Le 25:4; Lu 13:14-16; Col 2:16.

Sackcloth. A coarse cloth used in making sacks, or bags, such as those for containing grain. It was usually woven from dark-colored goat's hair and was the traditional garment of mourning.—Ge 37:34; Lu 10:13.

Sacred pillar. An upright pillar, usually of stone, and evidently a phallic symbol of Baal or of other false gods.—Ex 23:24.

Sacred pole. The Hebrew word ('ashe·rah´) refers to (1) a sacred pole representing Asherah, a Canaanite goddess of fertility, or (2) an image of the goddess Asherah herself. The poles apparently stood upright and were made, at least in part, of wood. They may have been uncarved poles, or even trees.—De 16:21; Jg 6:26; 1Ki 15:13.

Sacred secret. An aspect of God's purpose that originates with God, is withheld until his own time, and is revealed only to those whom he chooses to make it known.—Mr 4:11; Col 1:26.

Sacred service. Ministry, or work, that is sacred, being directly related to one's worship of God.—Ro 12:1; Re 7:15.

Sacrifice. An offering presented to God as a token to express thanksgiving, to acknowledge guilt, and to restore good relations with him. Starting with Abel, humans offered various voluntary sacrifices, including animals, until the Mosaic Law covenant made them a requirement. Animal sacrifices were no longer needed after Jesus gave his own life as a perfect sacrifice, though Christians continue to offer spiritual sacrifices to God.—Ge 4:4; Heb 13:15, 16; 1Jo 4:10.

Sadducees. A prominent religious sect of Judaism made up of wealthy aristocrats and priests who wielded great authority over the activities at the temple. They rejected the many oral traditions observed by the Pharisees as well as other Pharisaic beliefs. They did not believe in the resurrection or in the existence of angels. They opposed Jesus. —Mt 16:1; Ac 23:8.

Samaria. The capital city of the northern ten-tribe kingdom of Israel for some 200 years, as well as the name of its entire territory. The city was built on a mountain of the same name. In Jesus' time, Samaria was the name of the Roman district that lay between Galilee in the north and Judea in the south. Jesus usually refrained from preaching in the region in his travels, but at times he passed through it and spoke to the inhabitants. Peter used the second figurative key of the Kingdom when the Samaritans received the holy spirit. (1Ki 16:24; Joh 4:7; Ac 8:14)—See App. B10.

Samaritans. The term initially referred to the Israelites of the northern ten-tribe kingdom, but after the conquest of Samaria by the Assyrians in 740 B.C.E., it included the foreigners brought in by the Assyrians. In Jesus' day, rather than having a racial or political connotation, the name usually referred to those who belonged to the religious sect that was located in the vicinity of ancient Shechem and Samaria. The sect's adherents held certain beliefs that were distinctly different from those of Judaism.—Joh 8:48.

Sanctuary. Generally, a place set apart for worship, a holy place. Most often, though, it designates either the tabernacle or the temple in Jerusalem. The term is also used of God's dwelling place in the heavens.—Ex 25: 8, 9; 2Ki 10:25; 1Ch 28:10; Re 11:19.

Sanhedrin. The Jewish high court in Jerusalem. In Jesus' day, it was made up of 71 members, including the high priest and others who had held the office of high priest, members of the high priestly families, elders, tribal and family heads, and scribes. —Mr 15:1; Ac 5:34; 23:1, 6.

Satan. A Hebrew word meaning "Resister." When used with the definite article in the original languages, it refers to Satan the Devil, God's chief Adversary.—Job 1:6; Mt 4: 10; Re 12:9.

Satrap. A viceroy, or governor of a province, in the Babylonian and Persian empires. A satrap was appointed by the king as a chief ruler.—Ezr 8:36; Da 6:1.

Scepter. A baton or rod carried by a ruler as an emblem of royal authority.—Ge 49:10; Heb 1:8.

Scourge. In the Hebrew Scriptures, this term usually refers to a plague, a disease, or a calamity sent from Jehovah as punishment. In the Christian Greek Scriptures, it refers to beating or flogging with a whip that had knots or barbed ends.—Nu 16:49; Joh 19:1.

Scribe. A copyist of the Hebrew Scriptures. By the time Jesus came to earth, it designated a class of men learned in the Law. They opposed Jesus.—Ezr 7:6, ftn.; Mr 12: 38, 39; 14:1.

Scripture(s). The sacred writings of God's Word. This expression occurs only in the Christian Greek Scriptures.—Lu 24:27; 2Ti 3:16.

Scroll. A long sheet of parchment or papyrus, with writing on one side, which was usually rolled around a stick. The Scriptures were written and copied on scrolls, the common book form during the period of Bible writing. —Jer 36:4, 18, 23; Lu 4:17-20; 2Ti 4:13.

Seah. A dry measure. Basing the capacity on the corresponding liquid bath measure, it would equal 7.33 L (6.66 dry qt). (2Ki 7:1) —See App. B14.

Seal. A device used to make an impression (usually on clay or wax) that showed ownership, authenticity, or agreement. Ancient seals consisted of a piece of hard material (stone, ivory, or wood) having engraved letters or designs in reverse. A seal is used figuratively for something stamped as authentic, or as a mark of possession, or as something that is hidden or secret.—Ex 28: 11; Ne 9:38; Re 5:1; 9:4.

Seal ring. A type of seal that was worn on the finger or on a cord, probably around the neck. Also called a signet ring, it was the symbol of authority of a ruler or an official. (Ge 41:42)—See SEAL.

Sect. A body of people adhering to a doctrine or to a leader and following their own beliefs. It is used of the two prominent branches of Judaism, the Pharisees and the Sadducees. Non-Christians also called Christianity a "sect" or "the sect of the Nazarenes," possibly viewing it as a breakaway from Judaism. Sects eventually developed in the Christian congregation; "the sect of Nicolaus" is mentioned specifically in Revelation.—Ac 5:17; 15:5; 24:5; 28:22; Re 2:6; 2Pe 2:1.

Seer. A person enabled by God to discern the divine will, one whose eyes had been opened to see or understand things that were not evident to humans in general. The Hebrew word is drawn from a root word meaning "to see," either literally or figuratively. A seer was a person consulted by others for wise counsel on problems encountered.—1Sa 9:9.

Selah. A technical term for music or recitation found in Psalms and Habakkuk. It may mean a pause in the singing or in the music, or in both, for the purpose of silent meditation or to make the sentiment just expressed stand out. The Greek Septuagint rendering is di·a′psal·ma, defined as "a musical interlude."—Ps 3:4; Hab 3:3.

Seraphs. Spirit creatures stationed around Jehovah's throne in the heavens. The Hebrew term sera·phim′ literally means "burning ones."—Isa 6:2, 6.

Sexual immorality. From the Greek porneí′a, a general term for all unlawful sexual intercourse. It includes adultery, prostitution, sexual relations between unmarried individuals, homosexuality, and bestiality. It is used figuratively in Revelation with regard to a religious prostitute called "Babylon the Great" to describe her consorting with the rulers of this world for power and material gain. (Rev 14:8; 17:2; 18:3; Mt 5:32; Ac 15:29; Ga 5:19)—See PROSTITUTE.

Shebat. After the Babylonian exile, the name of the 11th month of the Jewish sacred calendar and the 5th month of the secular calendar. It ran from mid-January to mid-February. (Zec 1:7)—See App. B15.

Shekel. The basic Hebrew unit of weight and of monetary value. The weight equaled 11.4 g (0.403 oz; 0.367 oz t). The "shekel of the holy place" may have been an expression used to emphasize that the weight should be precise or that it should conform to a standard weight kept at the tabernacle. There may have been a royal shekel (different from the common shekel) or a standard weight kept at the royal palace.—Ex 30:13.

Sheminith. A musical term literally meaning "the eighth" that may refer to a lower musical register, or mode. For instruments, the word probably pointed to those that produced the bass tones of the musical scale. For songs, it likely referred to musical accompaniment in a lower range and sung accordingly.—1Ch 15:21; Ps 6:Sup; 12:Sup.

Sheol. A Hebrew word corresponding to the Greek word "Hades." It is translated "Grave" (capitalized), to distinguish it as the common grave of mankind rather than an individual grave.—Ge 37:35; Ps 16:10; Ac 2:31 (ftns.).

Showbread. Twelve loaves of bread that were placed in two stacks of six each on the table in the Holy compartment of the tabernacle and of the temple. Also called "layer bread" and "loaves of presentation." This offering to God was replaced with fresh bread on each Sabbath. The bread that was removed was normally eaten only by the priests. (2Ch 2:4; Mt 12:4; Ex 25:30; Le 24:5-9; Heb 9:2)—See App. B5.

Sign. An object, act, situation, or unusual display that has significance as an indicator of something else, present or future.—Ge 9:12, 13; 2Ki 20:9; Mt 24:3; Re 1:1.

Sin offering. A sacrifice offered for unintentional sin committed because of weakness of the imperfect flesh. Various animal sacrifices, from bull to pigeon, were used, according to the position and circumstances of the one whose sin was being atoned for.—Le 4:27, 29; Heb 10:8.

Sivan. After the Babylonian exile, the name of the third month of the Jewish sacred calendar and the ninth month of the secular calendar. It ran from mid-May to mid-June. (Es 8:9)—See App. B15.

Sling. A leather strip or a woven band of such materials as animal sinews, rushes, or hair. The wide center part held the projectile, often a stone. One end of the sling was tied to the hand or wrist, while the other was held in the hand and released when the sling was swung. Ancient nations employed slingers in their armies.—Jg 20:16; 1Sa 17:50.

Snuffers. Tools made of gold, possibly similar to tongs, that were used in the tabernacle and the temple to put out the flame on lamps.—Ex 37:23.

Solomon's Colonnade. In the temple in Jesus' day, a covered passageway on the east of the outer courtyard, popularly believed to be a remnant from Solomon's temple. There Jesus walked 'in the wintertime,' and there early Christians met for worship. (Joh 10:22, 23; Ac 5:12)—See App. B11.

Song of the Ascents. The superscription of Psalms 120-134. Although there are various ideas on the meaning of the phrase, many believe that these 15 psalms were sung by joyful Israelite worshippers as they 'ascended' to Jerusalem, which was situated high in the mountains of Judah, in order to attend the three great annual festivals there.

Son of David. A phrase often applied to Jesus, emphasizing that he is the Heir of the Kingdom covenant that was to be fulfilled by someone in David's lineage.—Mt 12:23; 21:9.

Son of man. An expression found about 80 times in the Gospels. It applies to Jesus Christ and shows that by means of his fleshly birth, he became a human and was not simply a spirit creature with a materialized body. The phrase also indicates that Jesus would fulfill the prophecy recorded at Daniel 7:13, 14. In the Hebrew Scriptures, this expression was used for Ezekiel and Daniel, highlighting the difference between these mortal spokesmen and the divine Originator of their message.—Eze 3:17; Da 8:17; Mt 19:28; 20:28.

Sons of Aaron. Descendants of Levi's grandson Aaron, who was chosen as the first high priest under the Mosaic Law. The sons of Aaron performed the priestly duties at the tabernacle and at the temple.—1Ch 23:28.

Sorcery. The use of power that is acknowledged to be from wicked spirits.—2Ch 33:6.

Soul. The traditional rendering of the Hebrew word ne·phesh and the Greek word psy·khe´. In examining the way these terms are used in the Bible, it becomes evident that they basically refer to (1) people, (2) animals, or (3) the life that a person or an animal has. (Ge 1:20; 2:7; Nu 31:28; 1Pe 3:20; also ftns.) In contrast to the way that the term "soul" is used in many religious contexts, the Bible shows that both ne·phesh and psy·khe´, in connection with earthly creatures, refer to that which is material, tangible, visible, and mortal. In this translation, these original-language words have most often been rendered according to their meaning in each context, using such terms as "life," "creature," "person," "one's whole being," or simply as a personal pronoun (for example, "I" for "my soul"). In most cases, footnotes give the alternative rendering "soul." When the term "soul" is used, either in the main text or in footnotes, it should be understood in line with the above explanation. When referring to doing something with one's whole soul, it means to do it with one's whole being, wholeheartedly, or with one's whole life. (De 6:5; Mt 22:37) In some contexts, these original-language words can be used to refer to the desire or appetite of a living creature. They can also refer to a dead person or a dead body.—Nu 6:6; Pr 23:2; Isa 56:11; Hag 2:13.

Span. A linear measure approximately equal to the distance between the end of the thumb and the end of the little finger when the hand is spread out. Based on the cubit of 44.5 cm (17.5 in.), a span would be 22.2 cm (8.75 in.) in length. (Ex 28:16; 1Sa 17:4)—See App. B14.

Spelt. An inferior kind of wheat (Triticum spelta), the kernels of which are not readily separated from the chaff.—Ex 9:32.

Spirit. The Hebrew word ru´ach and the Greek word pneu´ma, often translated "spirit," have a number of meanings. All of them refer to that which is invisible to human sight and gives evidence of force in motion. The Hebrew and Greek words are used with reference to (1) wind, (2) the active life-force in earthly creatures, (3) the impelling force that issues from a person's figurative heart and causes him to say and do things in a certain way, (4) inspired expressions originating from an invisible source, (5) spirit persons, and (6) God's active force, or holy spirit.—Ex 35:21; Ps 104:29; Mt 12:43; Lu 11:13.

Spiritism. The belief that the spirits of dead humans survive the death of the physical body and that they can and do communicate with the living, especially through a person (a medium) particularly susceptible to their influence. The Greek word for "practice of spiritism" is phar·ma·ki´a, which literally means "druggery." This term came to be connected with spiritism because in ancient times, drugs were used when invoking the power of the demons in order to practice sorcery.—Ga 5:20; Re 21:8.

Spirit medium. Someone who claims to talk with the dead.—Le 20:27; De 18:10-12; 2Ki 21:6.

Spoil. Personal or household effects, livestock, or other items of value that are taken as plunder from a defeated enemy.—Jos 7: 21; 22:8; Heb 7:4.

Stake. An upright pole to which a victim was fastened. It was used in some nations for execution and/or for exposing a dead body as a warning to others or for public humiliation. The Assyrians, noted for their savage warfare, impaled captives by hanging their bodies atop pointed stakes that had been run up through the abdomen into the chest cavity of the victim. In Jewish law, though, those guilty of such heinous crimes as blasphemy or idolatry were first killed by stoning or by some other method, and then their dead bodies were hung on stakes, or trees, as warning examples to others. (De 21:22, 23; 2Sa 21:6, 9) The Romans sometimes simply tied a victim to the stake, in which case he might live for several days before he died from pain, thirst, hunger, and exposure to the sun. In other cases, such as the execution of Jesus, they nailed the hands and feet of the accused to a stake. (Lu 24:20; Joh 19:14-16; 20:25; Ac 2:23, 36)—See TORTURE STAKE.

Stocks. An instrument of confinement for punishment. Some devices confined only the feet, while others kept the body in a distorted position, perhaps confining feet, hands, and neck.—Jer 20:2; Ac 16:24.

Stoic philosophers. A Greek school of philosophers who believed that happiness consists of living in accord with reason and nature. The truly wise man, in their estimation, was indifferent to pain or pleasure.—Ac 17:18.

Superscription. The heading at the beginning of a psalm that identifies the writer, gives background information, provides musical instructions, or indicates the use or purpose of the psalm.—See the superscriptions of Psalms 3, 4, 5, 6, 7, 30, 38, 60, 92, 102.

Synagogue. A word meaning "a bringing together; an assembly," but in most scriptures, the building or place where Jews assembled for Scripture reading, instruction, preaching, and prayer. In Jesus' day, each sizable town in Israel had a synagogue, and the larger cities had more than one.—Lu 4: 16; Ac 13:14, 15.

Syria; Syrians.—See ARAM; ARAMAEANS.

Syrtis. Two large shallow gulfs on the coast of Libya, North Africa, feared by ancient sailors because of the treacherous sandbanks that were constantly shifting as a result of the tides. (Ac 27:17)—See App. B13.

System(s) of things. Rendering of the Greek word ai·on´ when it refers to the current state of affairs or features that distinguish a certain period of time, epoch, or age. The Bible speaks of "the present system of things," referring to the prevailing state of affairs in the world in general and the worldly way of life. (2Ti 4:10) By means of the Law covenant, God introduced a system of things that some might call the Israelite or Jewish epoch. By means of his ransom sacrifice, Jesus Christ was used by God to introduce a different system of things, one primarily involving the congregation of anointed Christians. This marked the beginning of a new epoch, characterized by the realities foreshadowed by the Law covenant. When in the plural, this phrase refers to the various systems of things, or prevailing states of affairs, that have existed or will exist.—Mt 24:3; Mr 4:19; Ro 12:2; 1Co 10:11.

T

Tabernacle. A transportable tent of worship used by Israel after the Exodus from Egypt. It housed the ark of the covenant of Jehovah, which was representative of God's presence, and served as a place of sacrifice and worship. It is also sometimes called "the tent of meeting." It was a framework of wooden panels enclosed by linen coverings embroidered with cherubs. It was divided into two rooms, the first called the Holy, and the second, the Most Holy. (Jos 18:1; Ex 25:9)—See App. B5.

Talent. The largest of the Hebrew units of weight and of monetary value. It weighed 34.2 kg (75.5 lb; 91.75 lb t; 1,101 oz t). A Greek talent was smaller, weighing about 20.4 kg (44.8 lb; 54.5 lb t; 654 oz t). (1Ch 22:14; Mt 18:24)—See App. B14.

Tammuz. (1) The name of a deity over whom apostate Hebrew women in Jerusalem wept. It has been suggested that Tammuz was originally a king who was deified after his death. In Sumerian text, Tammuz is called Dumuzi and is identified as the consort or lover of the fertility goddess Inanna (the Babylonian Ishtar). (Eze 8:14) (2) After the Babylonian exile, the name of the fourth Jewish lunar month of the sacred calendar and the tenth month of the secular calendar. This month ran from mid-June to mid-July. —See App. B15.

Tarshish, ships of. Initially a term used for ships that made trips to ancient Tarshish (modern-day Spain). It seems that the term eventually came to stand for large ships capable of long-distance travel. Solomon and Jehoshaphat utilized such ships for trade purposes.—1Ki 9:26; 10:22; 22:48.

Tartarus. In the Christian Greek Scriptures, a prisonlike abased condition into which the disobedient angels of Noah's day were cast. At 2 Peter 2:4, the use of the verb tar·ta·ro´o (to "cast into Tartarus") does not signify that "the angels who sinned" were cast into the pagan mythological Tartarus (that is, an underground prison and place of darkness for the lesser gods). Rather, it indicates that they were abased by God from their heavenly place and privileges and were delivered over to a condition of deepest mental darkness respecting God's bright purposes. Darkness also marks their own eventuality, which the Scriptures show is everlasting destruction along with their ruler, Satan the Devil. Therefore, Tartarus denotes the lowest condition of abasement for those rebellious angels. It is not the same as "the abyss" spoken of at Revelation 20:1-3.

Tebeth. After the Babylonian exile, the name of the tenth month of the Jewish sacred calendar and the fourth month of the secular calendar. It ran from mid-December to mid-January. It is generally referred to simply as "the tenth month." (Es 2:16)—See App. B15.

Temple. The permanent building in Jerusalem that replaced the portable tabernacle as the center of Israelite worship. The first temple was built by Solomon and was destroyed by the Babylonians. The second one was built by Zerubbabel after the return from Babylonian exile and was later rebuilt by Herod the Great. In the Scriptures, the temple was often simply called "the house of Jehovah." (Ezr 1:3; 6:14, 15; 1Ch 29:1; 2Ch 2:4; Mt 24:1)—See App. B8 and B11.

Tenth (tithe). A tenth part, or 10 percent, given or paid as a tribute, especially for religious purposes. It is also called a "tithe," and giving it is called "tithing." (Mal 3:10; De 26:12; Mt 23:23) Under the Mosaic Law, a tenth of the produce of the land and a tenth of the increase of the herds and flocks were given to the Levites yearly to support them. The Levites gave a tenth of this tenth to the Aaronic priesthood to support them. There were some additional tithes as well. Tithing is not required of Christians.

Tent of meeting. An expression applied both to the tent of Moses and to the sacred tabernacle originally erected in the wilderness. —Ex 33:7; 39:32.

Teraphim. Family gods or idols, at times consulted for omens. (Eze 21:21) Some were the size and shape of a man, while others were much smaller. (Ge 31:34; 1Sa 19:13, 16) Archaeological findings in Mesopotamia indicate that possessing the teraphim images had a bearing on who would receive the family inheritance. (This may explain why Rachel took her father's teraphim.) This does not seem to have been the case in Israel, although the idolatrous use of teraphim existed in the days of the judges as well as the kings, and they were included among the items destroyed by faithful King Josiah. —Jg 17:5; 2Ki 23:24; Ho 3:4.

Testimony. "The Testimony" usually refers to the Ten Commandments as written on the two stone tablets given to Moses.—Ex 31:18.

Thanksgiving offering. A communion offering intended to praise God for his provisions and loyal love. The flesh of the animal offering and both leavened and unleavened bread were eaten. The flesh had to be eaten the same day.—2Ch 29:31.

Thresh; Threshing floor. The process of releasing grain from its stalk and chaff; the place where this work was done. Threshing was done by hand with a rod, or for larger quantities, with special equipment, such as threshing sledges or rollers, pulled by animals. The equipment ran over the grain that was spread on the threshing floor, a flat circular area usually at a high elevation exposed to wind.—Le 26:5; Isa 41:15; Mt 3:12.

Tishri.—See ETHANIM and App. B15.

Torture stake. The rendering of the Greek word stau·ros´, meaning an upright stake or pole, such as the one on which Jesus was executed. There is no evidence that the Greek word meant a cross, such as the pagans used as a religious symbol for many centuries before Christ. "Torture stake" conveys the full intent of the original word, since Jesus also used the word stau·ros´ to indicate the torture, suffering, and shame that his followers would face. (Mt 16:24; Heb 12:2)—See STAKE.

Transgress; Transgression. To overstep a stated law; the act of overstepping a law. It is synonymous with "sin" in the Bible.—Ps 51:3; Ro 5:14.

Tree of life. A tree in the garden of Eden. The Bible does not indicate that it had inherent life-giving qualities in its fruit; instead, it represented God's guarantee of everlasting life to those he would allow to eat of its fruit. —Ge 2:9; 3:22.

Tree of the knowledge of good and bad. A tree in the garden of Eden that God used as a symbol of his right to set the standards for mankind as to what is "good" and what is "bad."—Ge 2:9, 17.

Tribute. Payment by one State or ruler to another as a mark of submission, in order to maintain peace or to gain protection. (2Ki 3:4; 18:14-16; 2Ch 17:11) The word is also used for a personal tax on individuals.—Ne 5:4; Ro 13:7.

True God, the. A rendering of the Hebrew expression for "the God." In many cases, this use of the definite article in Hebrew serves to distinguish Jehovah as the only true God in contrast to false gods. The rendering "the true God" carefully preserves the full meaning of the Hebrew expression in such contexts.—Ge 5:22, 24; 46:3; De 4:39.

Trumpet. A wind instrument made of metal, used for signaling and for music. According to Numbers 10:2, Jehovah gave instructions for making two silver trumpets that would be used to sound specific signals for summoning the assembly, for breaking camp, or for proclaiming war. These likely were straight trumpets, unlike the curved "horns" that were actually made from animal horns. Trumpets of unspecified construction were also included among the musical instruments at the temple. The sound of trumpets often symbolically accompanies the proclamation of Jehovah's judgments or other significant events of divine origin.—2Ch 29:26; Ezr 3:10; 1Co 15:52; Re 8:7–11:15.

Turban. A cloth wrapped around the head and worn as a headdress. The high priest wore a turban of fine linen, with a gold plate tied to its front with a blue cord. The king wore a turban under his crown. Job used the expression figuratively when he likened his justice to a turban.—Ex 28:36, 37; Job 29: 14; Eze 21:26.

U

Unclean. May refer to being physically dirty or to breaking moral laws. In the Bible, though, the word often refers to what is not acceptable, or not clean, according to the Mosaic Law. (Le 5:2; 13:45; Mt 10:1; Ac 10: 14; Eph 5:5)—See CLEAN.

Undeserved kindness. A Greek word with the central idea of that which is agreeable and winsome. The word is often used to refer to a kind gift or a kind manner of giving. When referring to the undeserved kindness of God, the word describes a free gift given generously by God, with no expectation of repayment. Thus, it is an expression of God's bounteous giving and generous love and kindness toward humans. The Greek term is also rendered by such expressions as "favor" and "kind gift." It is given unearned and unmerited, motivated solely by the generosity of the giver.—2Co 6:1; Eph 1:7.

Unleavened. Referring to bread that is made without leaven.—De 16:3; Mr 14:12; 1Co 5:8.

Urim and Thummim. Objects used by the high priest in a manner similar to the use of lots to determine the divine will when questions of national importance needed an answer from Jehovah. The Urim and Thummim were put inside the high priest's breastpiece when he entered the tabernacle. Their use seems to have ceased when the Babylonians destroyed Jerusalem.—Ex 28:30; Ne 7:65.

V

Vow. A solemn promise made to God to perform some act, make some offering or gift, enter some service, or abstain from certain things not unlawful in themselves. It carried the force of an oath.—Nu 6:2; Ec 5:4; Mt 5:33.

Vow offering. A voluntary offering that accompanied certain vows.—Le 23:38; 1Sa 1:21.

W

Wadi. The valley or bed of a stream that is usually dry except during the rainy season; the word may also refer to the stream itself. Some streams were fed by springs and were therefore perennial. The wadi is referred to as "valley" in some contexts.—Ge 26:19; Nu 34:5; De 8:7; 1Ki 18:5; Job 6:15.

Warp. In weaving, the group of threads running the length of the fabric. The set of threads woven alternately over and under these at right angles across the cloth are the woof.—Jg 16:13.

Watchman. One who guards against possible harm to people or property, often during the night, and who may sound an alarm in the face of threatened danger. Watchmen were often stationed on the city walls and towers to observe those approaching before they got close. A watchman in the military is usually called a guard or a sentry. Figuratively, prophets served as watchmen to the nation of Israel, warning of impending destruction.—2Ki 9:20; Eze 3:17.

Wave offering. An offering in which the priest evidently placed his hands under the hands of the worshipper who was holding the sacrifice to be presented and waved them back and forth; or the priest himself waved the offering. This action represented a presenting of the sacrificial offerings to Jehovah. —Le 7:30.

Way, the. An expression used figuratively in the Scriptures to refer to a mode of action or conduct that is either approved or disapproved by Jehovah. Those who became followers of Jesus Christ were spoken of as belonging to "The Way," that is, they kept a way of life centered on faith in Jesus Christ, following his example.—Ac 19:9.

Wicked one, the. A designation for Satan the Devil, who stands in opposition to God and his righteous standards.—Mt 6:13; 1Jo 5:19.

Winepress. Usually two pits (vats) cut out of natural limestone, one higher than the other, and connected by a small channel. As the grapes were crushed in the upper pit, the juice flowed into the lower pit. The word is used figuratively for God's judgment.—Isa 5:2; Re 19:15.

Wineskin. A skin bottle made of the complete hide of an animal, such as a goat or a sheep, and used for holding wine. Wine was put into new wineskins, because as it ferments, it generates carbon dioxide gas that exerts pressure on the skin bottles. New skins expand; old, inflexible ones burst under the pressure.—Jos 9:4; Mt 9:17.

Woof. In weaving, the set of threads running the width of the fabric. These were woven alternately over and under the warp, that is, the group of threads running the length of the fabric.—Le 13:59.

Wormwood. Various woody plants having an intensely bitter taste and a strong aromatic odor. Wormwood is used figuratively in the Bible to describe the bitter effects of immorality, enslavement, injustice, and apostasy. At Revelation 8:11, "wormwood" denotes a bitter and poisonous substance, also called absinthe.—De 29:18; Pr 5:4; Jer 9:15; Am 5:7.

Y

Yoke. A bar borne upon a person's shoulders, from each side of which loads were suspended, or a wooden bar or frame placed over the necks of two draft animals (usually cattle) when pulling a farm implement or a wagon. Because slaves often used yokes to carry heavy burdens, the yoke was used figuratively to represent enslavement or subjection to another person, as well as oppression and suffering. Removing or breaking the yoke signified liberation from bondage, oppression, and exploitation.—Le 26:13; Mt 11:29, 30.

Z

Zeus. The supreme god of the polytheistic Greeks. In Lystra, Barnabas was mistakenly identified as Zeus. Ancient inscriptions found near Lystra refer to "priests of Zeus" and "Zeus the sun-god." The ship Paul traveled on from the island of Malta had the figurehead "Sons of Zeus," that is, the twin brothers Castor and Pollux.—Ac 14:12; 28:11.

Zion; Mount Zion. The name of the Jebusite fortress city of Jebus that was on the southeast hill of Jerusalem. After David captured it, he built his royal residence there, and it came to be called "the City of David." (2Sa 5:7, 9) Zion became a mountain especially holy to Jehovah when David had the Ark transferred there. Later, the name included the temple area on Mount Moriah, and at times the entire city of Jerusalem. It is often used symbolically in the Christian Greek Scriptures.—Ps 2:6; 1Pe 2:6; Re 14:1.

Ziv. The original name of the second month of the Jewish sacred calendar and the eighth month of the secular calendar. It ran from mid-April to mid-May. It is named Iyyar in the Jewish Talmud and other works dated after the Babylonian exile. (1Ki 6:37)—See App. B15.

A1 Principles of Bible Translation

The Bible was originally written in ancient Hebrew, Aramaic, and Greek. Today it is available in whole or in part in about 2,600 languages. The vast majority of people who read the Bible do not understand the original languages and therefore must rely on a translation. What principles should guide how the Bible is translated, and how did these govern the rendering of the New World Translation of the Holy Scriptures?

Some might conclude that a strict, word-for-word, interlinear-style translation would enable the reader to get closest to what was expressed in the original languages. However, that is not always the case. Consider a few of the reasons:

- No two languages are exactly alike in grammar, vocabulary, and sentence structure. A professor of Hebrew, S. R. Driver, wrote that languages "differ not only in grammar and roots, but also . . . in the manner in which ideas are built up into a sentence." Different languages require quite different thought patterns. "Consequently," continues Professor Driver, "the forms taken by the sentence in different languages are not the same."
- No modern language exactly mirrors the vocabulary and grammar of Biblical Hebrew, Aramaic, and Greek, so a word-for-word translation of the Bible could be unclear or at times could even convey the wrong meaning.
- The meaning of a word or an expression may vary depending on the context in which it is used.

A translator may be able to mirror the literal rendering of the original language in some passages, but this must be done very carefully.

Here are some examples of how word-for-word translation can be misunderstood:

- The Scriptures use the expressions “sleep” and “fall asleep” to refer both to physical sleep and to the sleep of death. (Matthew 28:13; Acts 7:60) When these expressions are used in contexts that refer to death, Bible translators can use such wording as “fall asleep in death,” which helps the modern reader avoid confusion.—1 Corinthians 7:39; 1 Thessalonians 4:13; 2 Peter 3:4.
- The apostle Paul used an expression found at Ephesians 4:14 that can be literally translated “in the playing of dice of men.” This ancient idiom alludes to the practice of cheating others when using dice. In most languages, a literal rendering of this allusion makes little sense. Translating this expression as “the trickery of men” is a clearer way to convey the meaning.
- At Romans 12:11, a Greek expression is used that literally means “to the spirit boiling.” This wording does not convey the intended meaning in English, so it is rendered “aglow with the spirit” in this translation.
- During his famous Sermon on the Mount, Jesus used an expression that is often translated “Blessed are the poor in spirit.” (Matthew 5:3, King James Version) But in many languages, a literal rendering of this expression is obscure. In some cases, a strictly literal translation could imply that “the poor in spirit” are mentally unbalanced or lacking in vitality and determination. However, Jesus was here teaching people that their happiness depended, not on satisfying their physical needs, but on recognizing their need for God’s guidance. (Luke 6:20) Thus, such renderings as “those conscious of their spiritual need” or “those who know their need for God” convey more accurately the meaning of the original expression.—Matthew 5:3; The New Testament in Modern English.

ΟΙΠΤΩΧΟΙ ΤΩΠΝΕΥΜΑΤΙ

MATTHEW 5:3

Literal English: “the poor in spirit”

Idea: “those conscious of their spiritual need”

- In many contexts, the Hebrew word translated “jealousy” corresponds to the common meaning of the English word, namely, to feel anger over the apparent unfaithfulness of a close associate or to envy others for their possessions. (Proverbs 6:34; Isaiah 11:13) However, the same Hebrew word also has a positive connotation. For example, it may be used of the “zeal,” or protective ardor, that Jehovah shows for his servants or of his "requiring exclusive devotion." (Exodus 34: 14; 2 Kings 19:31; Ezekiel 5:13; Zechariah 8:2) It may also be used of the "zeal" that his faithful servants have for God and his worship or of their 'tolerating no rivalry' toward him. —Psalm 69:9; 119:139; Numbers 25:11.

- The Hebrew expression that usually refers to the human hand has a wide variety of meanings. Depending on the context, this word may be rendered "authority," "generosity," or "power." (2 Samuel 8:3; 1 Kings 10:13; Proverbs 18:21) In fact, this particular word is translated over 40 different ways in the English edition of the New World Translation of the Holy Scriptures.

יָד

The Hebrew word yadh is usually rendered "hand," but depending on the context, this word may be rendered "authority," "generosity," "power," and many other ways

In view of these factors, Bible translation involves more than simply rendering an original-language word with the same term each time it occurs. A translator must use good judgment in order to select words in the target language that best represent the ideas of the original-language text. In addition, there is a need to structure the sentences in a way that conforms to the rules of grammar of the target language, making the text easy to read.

At the same time, extremes in rewording the text must be avoided. A translator who liberally paraphrases the Bible according to how he interprets the overall idea could distort the meaning of the text. How so? The translator may erroneously insert his opinion of what the original text means or may omit important details contained in the original text. So while paraphrases of the Bible may be easy to read, their very freeness at times may prevent the reader from getting the true message of the text.

Doctrinal bias can easily color a translator's work. For example, Matthew 7:13 says: "Spacious is the road leading off into destruction." Some translators, perhaps affected by doctrinal bias, have used the term "hell" rather than what the Greek term really means, namely, "destruction."

A Bible translator must also consider that the Bible was written using the common, everyday language of average people, such as farmers, shepherds, and fishermen. (Nehemiah 8:8, 12; Acts 4:13) Therefore, a good translation of the Bible makes the message it contains understandable to sincere people, regardless of their background. Clear, common, readily understood expressions are preferred over terms that are rarely used by the average person.

Quite a number of Bible translators have taken the unjustifiable liberty of omitting God's name, Jehovah, from modern translations even though that name is found in ancient Bible manuscripts. (See Appendix A4.) Many translations replace the name with a title, such as "Lord," and some even obscure the fact that God has a name. For example, in some translations, Jesus' prayer recorded at John 17:26 reads: "I made you known to them," and at John 17:6, "I have revealed you to those whom you gave me." However, a faithful rendering of Jesus' prayer reads: "I have made your name known to them," and "I have made your name manifest to the men whom you gave me."

As stated in the foreword to the original English edition of the New World Translation: "We offer no paraphrase of the Scriptures. Our endeavor all through has been to give as literal a translation as possible, where the modern English idiom allows and where a literal rendition does not for any clumsiness hide the thought." Thus, the New World Bible Translation Committee has endeavored to strike a balance between using words and phrasing that mirror the original and, at the same time, avoiding wording that reads awkwardly or hides the intended thought. As a result, the Bible can be read with ease and the reader can have full confidence that its inspired message has been transmitted faithfully.—1 Thessalonians 2:13.

A reliable translation must:

- Sanctify God's name by restoring it to its rightful place in the Scriptures.—Matthew 6:9.
- Accurately convey the original message that was inspired by God.—2 Timothy 3:16.
- Translate expressions literally when the wording and structure of the target language allow for such renderings of the original-language text.
- Communicate the correct sense of a word or a phrase when a literal rendering would distort or obscure the meaning.
- Use natural, easy-to-understand language that encourages reading.—Nehemiah 8:8, 12.

A2 Features of This Revision

The New World Translation of the Christian Greek Scriptures was released in English in 1950, and the complete New World Translation of the Holy Scriptures was published in 1961. Since then, tens of millions of readers in well over 100 languages have benefited from this accurate yet readable rendering of the Holy Scriptures from the original languages.

Over the past half century, however, languages have changed. The current New World Bible Translation Committee recognized the need to respond to those changes in order to touch the heart of today's reader. For this reason, a number of style and vocabulary changes have been made in this revision, with the following objectives in mind:

- Use of modern, understandable language. For example, the expression "long-suffering" can be misunderstood to mean "someone who suffers for a long time." However, the intended idea is that of deliberate restraint, which is better expressed by the term "patience." (Galatians 5:22) The now obsolete meaning of "dumb" was replaced with "speechless." (Matthew 9:32, 33) The term "harlot" was changed to "prostitute." (Genesis 38:15) In this revision, "fornication" is usually rendered as "sexual immorality"; "loose conduct" as "brazen conduct"; and "revelries" as "wild parties." (Galatians 5:19-21) The expression "time indefinite" was replaced with such terms as "forever," "lasting," "everlasting," or "long ago," to convey the intended meaning in each context.—Genesis 3:22; Exodus 31:16; Psalm 90:2; Ecclesiastes 1:4; Micah 5:2.

  The term "seed" in ancient Hebrew and Greek could refer to plant seed as well as to human offspring, or descendants, or to semen. Because it is no longer common in English to use the term "seed" when referring to humans, it was replaced with expressions that convey the intended idea according to the context. (Genesis 1:11; 22:17; 48:4; Matthew 22:24; John 8:37) In most cases, the term "offspring" is now used when referring to the Edenic promise, found at Genesis 3:15.

  The English verb "impale" was used in previous versions of this Bible in connection with the execution of Jesus. While this term could refer to the way that Jesus was nailed to the torture stake, it is more often used in reference to the ancient method of execution by running a sharp stake through the body and fixing the victim on it. Since Jesus was not impaled with the torture stake, this revision uses such expressions as "executed on a stake" and "nailed to the stake" with regard to the manner in which Jesus was fastened to the torture stake.—Matthew 20:19; 27:31, 35.

- Biblical expressions clarified. Some terms used in previous editions of the English New World Translation often needed to be explained in order to be properly understood. For example, the Hebrew term "Sheol" and the Greek term "Hades" are used in the Bible to refer to the common grave of mankind. Those terms are unknown to many, and "Hades" has a dual meaning as a result of its usage in Greek mythology. Therefore, both terms were replaced with what was meant by the Bible writers, "the Grave." The terms "Sheol" and "Hades" are now given in footnotes.—Psalm 16:10; Acts 2:27.

  In past editions, the Hebrew word ne·phesh and the Greek word psy·khe· were consistently rendered "soul." In view of the many misconceptions regarding the meaning of the word "soul," this approach helped the reader to see how the inspired Bible writers used these original-language terms. Depending on the context, those words may refer (1) to a person, (2) to the life of a person, (3) to living creatures, (4) to the desires and appetite of a person or, in some cases, (5) even to dead individuals. However, since such use of the word "soul" is not common in English, the decision was made to render these original-language words according to their intended meaning, usually with a footnote that reads "Or 'soul.'" (See, for example, Genesis 1:20; 2:7; Leviticus 19:28; Psalm 3:2; Proverbs 16:26; Matthew 6:25.) However, in some poetic or well-known contexts, the word "soul" was retained in the main text, along with a footnote referring to the Glossary or showing another possible rendering.—Deuteronomy 6:5; Psalm 131:2; Proverbs 2:10; Matthew 22:37.

  Similarly, the word "kidney" was retained when it refers to the literal organ. However, when it is used figuratively in such verses as Psalm 7:9 and 26:2 and Revelation 2:23, the intended idea of "deepest emotions" or "innermost thoughts" is conveyed in the main text, and the literal idea is given in a footnote.

  Like its Hebrew and Greek equivalents, the English expression "heart" has both a literal and a figurative meaning, so it was usually retained in the main text. However, in a few contexts where the sense was not clear, a more explicit rendering was used. For example, in the book of Proverbs, "in want of heart"

now reads "lacking good sense," and the literal idea is given in a footnote. Other expressions, for instance, "fat," "flesh," and "horn," were handled similarly, according to the context. (Genesis 45:18; Ecclesiastes 5:6; Job 16:15) Some of these expressions are discussed in the "Glossary of Bible Terms."

- Enhanced readability. In previous editions of the English New World Translation, auxiliary expressions were used to indicate whether the Hebrew verb is in the imperfect or the perfect state. For example, the continuous action often expressed by imperfect verbs was indicated by means of the expressions "proceeded to," "went on to," "came to be," and so forth. The emphasis often conveyed by the Hebrew perfect verb was denoted by the added expressions "certainly," "must," "actually," and similar ones. As a result, these terms were used thousands of times in the text. In this revision, auxiliary terms were retained in certain contexts by using such expressions as "kept," "keep on," and "used to" when there was a valid reason to express continuous action. (Genesis 3:9; 34:1; Proverbs 2:4) However, they were omitted to enhance readability when the auxiliary expressions were not critical for conveying the original meaning.
- Conveying the correct idea of words involving gender. Hebrew and Greek nouns indicate male or female gender, and in Greek, also neuter. At times, though, reflecting the gender of the original-language term may obscure the intended meaning. In both Hebrew and Greek, plural nouns are generally masculine, not only when referring exclusively to males but also when referring to both males and females. For example, though the expression "the sons of Israel" may refer to the 12 sons of Jacob, it more often refers to the entire nation of Israel, both men and women. (Genesis 46:5; Exodus 35:29) So in the revision, this phrase was often rendered "Israelites" to show that it refers to the entire nation. Similarly, the expression "fatherless boy" was rendered "fatherless child" or "orphan" to show that it may refer to a boy or a girl. On the other hand, since the Bible uses the male gender in reference to God and to his Son, as well as to various angels and demons, there is no basis for using genderless terms as is done in some modern translations.
- Omission of indicators for second person plural. Past editions also indicated whether the pronouns "you" and "your" and second person verbs were singular or plural by using small capital letters to show plurality. This feature was not retained in this revision, but readers may consult earlier editions of this translation for this information.

All adjustments in the Bible text were made prayerfully, carefully, and with deep respect for the fine work of the original New World Bible Translation Committee.

Other features of this revision:

This Bible edition contains a limited number of footnotes. The footnotes generally fall into the following categories:

"Or"	Alternative ways the text could be rendered from Hebrew, Aramaic, or Greek that would give the same overall idea.—Genesis 1:2, footnote on "active force"; Joshua 1:8, "undertone."
"Or possibly"	Alternative ways the text could be rendered that would convey a valid yet different overall idea. —Genesis 21:6, "laugh with me"; Zechariah 14:21, "Canaanite."
"Lit."	A word-for-word translation from the Hebrew, Aramaic, or Greek or the basic meaning of an original-language expression.—Genesis 30:22, "pregnant"; Exodus 32:9, "obstinate."
Meaning and background information	Meaning of names (Genesis 3:17, "Adam"; Exodus 15:23, "Marah"); details about weights and measures (Genesis 6:15, "cubits"); the antecedent of a pronoun (Genesis 38:5, "He"); helpful information in the Appendix and the Glossary.—Genesis 37:35, "Grave"; Matthew 5:22, "Gehenna."

The front section, entitled "An Introduction to God's Word," contains an outline of basic teachings found in the Bible. Immediately following the Bible text is the "Table of the Books of the Bible," the "Bible Words Index," and the "Glossary of Bible Terms." The Glossary helps the reader understand selected expressions according to their Bible-specific usage. Appendix A contains the following sections: "Principles of Bible Translation," "Features of This Revision," "How the Bible Came to Us," "The Divine Name in the Hebrew Scriptures," "The Divine Name in the Christian Greek Scriptures," "Chart: Prophets and Kings of Judah and of Israel," and "Main Events of Jesus' Earthly Life." Appendix B contains maps, charts, and other information useful to diligent Bible students.

In the main text of the Bible, each book features an outline of its chapter contents, along with the related verses, giving the reader an overview of the entire book. The center column of each page contains the most relevant marginal references from previous editions, pointing to related Bible verses.

A3 How the Bible Came to Us

The Author and Originator of the Bible is also its Preserver. He is the One who caused this statement to be recorded:

"The word of our God endures forever."
—Isaiah 40:8.

That statement is true, even though no original Bible manuscript of the Hebrew and Aramaic Scriptures* or of the Christian Greek Scriptures has survived to our day. Therefore, how can we be so certain that the contents of the Bible we have today truly reflect the original inspired writings?

COPYISTS PRESERVE GOD'S WORD

Regarding the Hebrew Scriptures, part of the answer lies in an ancient tradition that was established by God, who said that the text should be copied.# For example, Jehovah instructed the kings of Israel to make their own copies of the written Law. (Deuteronomy 17:18) Additionally, God made the Levites responsible for preserving the Law and teaching it to the people. (Deuteronomy 31:26; Nehemiah 8:7) After the exile of the Jews to Babylon, a class of copyists, or scribes (Sopherim), developed. (Ezra 7:6, footnotes) Over time, those scribes made numerous copies of the 39 books of the Hebrew Scriptures.

Through the centuries, scribes meticulously copied these books. During the Middle Ages, a group of Jewish scribes known as the Masoretes carried on that tradition. The oldest complete Masoretic manuscript is the Leningrad Codex, which dates from 1008/1009 C.E. However, in the middle of the 20th century, some 220 Biblical manuscripts or fragments were discovered among the Dead Sea Scrolls. Those Biblical manuscripts were more than a thousand years older than the Leningrad Codex. A comparison of the Dead Sea Scrolls with the Leningrad Codex confirms a vital point: While the Dead Sea Scrolls contain some variations in wording, none of those variations affect the message itself.

* Referred to simply as the Hebrew Scriptures from here on.

One reason the manuscripts needed to be copied was that the originals were written on perishable materials.

What about the 27 books of the Christian Greek Scriptures? Those books were first penned by some of the apostles of Jesus Christ and by a few other early disciples. Following the tradition of the Jewish scribes, early Christians made copies of those books. (Colossians 4:16) Despite attempts by Roman Emperor Diocletian and others to destroy all early Christian literature, thousands of ancient fragments and manuscripts have been preserved until our day.

Christian writings were also translated into other languages. Early translations of the Bible include those in such ancient languages as Armenian, Coptic, Ethiopic, Georgian, Latin, and Syriac.

ESTABLISHING THE HEBREW AND GREEK TEXTS FOR TRANSLATION

Not all copies of ancient Bible manuscripts contain identical wording. How, then, can we know what the original text contained?

"It may be safely said that no other work of antiquity has been so accurately transmitted"

The situation could be likened to that of a teacher who asks 100 students to copy a chapter of a book. Even if the original chapter was later lost, a comparison of the 100 copies would still reveal the original text. While each student might make some errors, it is highly unlikely that all the students would make exactly the same ones. Similarly, when scholars compare the thousands of fragments and copies of ancient Bible books available to them, they can detect copyist error and determine the original wording.

How confident can we be that the thoughts contained in the original Bible texts have been accurately transmitted to us? Commenting on the text of the Hebrew Scriptures, scholar William H. Green stated: "It may be safely said that no other work of antiquity has been so accurately transmitted." Regarding the Christian Greek Scriptures, or so-called New Testament, Bible scholar F. F. Bruce wrote: "The evidence for our New Testament writings is ever so much greater than the evidence for many writings of classical authors, the authenticity of which no one dreams of

Chapter 40 of Isaiah's book in the Dead Sea Scrolls (dated from 125 to 100 B.C.E.)

When compared with Hebrew manuscripts from about a thousand years later, only minor differences were found, mostly in spelling questioning." He also said: "If the New Testament were a collection of secular writings, their authenticity would generally be regarded as beyond all doubt."

Hebrew Text: The New World Translation of the Hebrew Scriptures (1953-1960) was based on Biblia Hebraica, by Rudolf Kittel. Since that time, updated editions of the Hebrew text, namely, Biblia Hebraica Stuttgartensia and Biblia Hebraica Quinta, have included recent research based on the Dead Sea Scrolls and other ancient manuscripts. These scholarly works reproduce the Leningrad Codex in the main text along with footnotes that contain comparative wording from other sources, including the Samaritan Pentateuch, the Dead Sea Scrolls, the Greek Septuagint, the Aramaic Targums, the Latin Vulgate, and the Syriac Peshitta. Both Biblia Hebraica Stuttgartensia and Biblia Hebraica Quinta were consulted when preparing the present revision of the New World Translation.

Greek Text: In the late 19th century, scholars B. F. Westcott and F.J.A. Hort compared existing Bible manuscripts and fragments as they prepared the Greek master text that they felt most closely reflected the original writings. In the mid-20th century, the New World Bible Translation Committee used that master text as the basis for its translation. Other early papyri, thought to date back to the second and third centuries C.E., were also used. Since then, more papyri have become available. In addition, master texts such as those by Nestle and Aland and by the United Bible Societies reflect recent scholarly studies. Some of the findings of this research were incorporated into this present revision.

Based on those master texts, it is evident that some verses of the Christian Greek Scriptures found in older translations, such as the King James Version, were actually additions made by later copyists and were never part of the inspired Scriptures. However, because the verse division generally accepted in Bible translations was already established in the 16th century, the omission of these verses now creates gaps in the verse numbering in most Bibles. The verses are Matthew 17:21; 18:11; 23:14; Mark 7:16; 9:44, 46; 11:26; 15:28; Luke 17:36; 23:17; John 5:4; Acts 8:37; 15:34; 24:7; 28:29; and Romans 16:24. In this revised edition, those omitted verses are indicated by a footnote at the location of the omission.

Regarding the long conclusion for Mark 16 (verses 9-20), the short conclusion for Mark 16, and the wording found at John 7:53–8:11, it is evident that none of these verses were included in the original manuscripts. Therefore, those spurious texts have not been included in this revision.*

Some other wording has been adjusted to incorporate what scholars generally accept as the most authentic reflection of the original writings. For instance, according to some manuscripts, Matthew 7:13 reads: "Go in through the narrow gate because broad is the gate and spacious is the road leading off into destruction." In previous editions of the New World Translation, "is the gate" was not included in the text. However, further study of the manuscript evidence led to the conclusion that "is the gate" was in the original text. So it was included in this present edition. There are a number of similar refinements. However, these adjustments are minor, and none of them change the basic message of God's Word.

* Further details on why these verses are viewed as spurious can be found in the footnotes of the New World Translation of the Holy Scriptures—With References, published in 1984.

A4 The Divine Name in the Hebrew Scriptures

The divine name, represented by the four Hebrew consonants יהוה, appears nearly 7,000 times in the Hebrew Scriptures. This translation renders those four letters, known as the Tetragrammaton, "Jehovah." That name is by far the most frequently occurring name in the Bible. While the inspired writers refer to God by many titles and descriptive terms, such as "Almighty," "Most High," and "Lord," the Tetragrammaton is the only personal name they use to identify God.

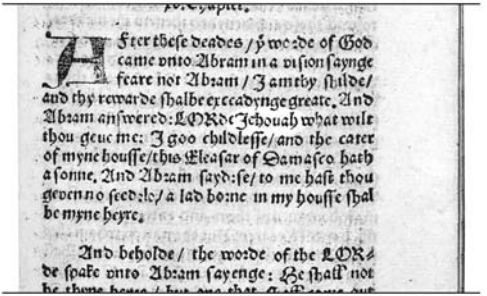
The divine name in the ancient Hebrew letters used before the Babylonian exile

The divine name in the Hebrew letters used after the Babylonian exile

Jehovah God himself directed Bible writers to use his name. For example, he inspired the prophet Joel to write: "Everyone who calls on the name of Jehovah will be saved." (Joel 2:32) And God caused one psalmist to write: "May people know that you, whose name is Jehovah, you alone are the Most High over all the earth." (Psalm 83:18) In fact, the divine name appears some 700 times in the book of Psalms alone—a book of poetic writings that were to be sung and recited by God's people. Why, then, is God's name missing from many Bible translations? Why does this translation use the form "Jehovah"? And what does the divine name, Jehovah, mean?

Why is the name missing from many Bible translations? The reasons vary. Some feel that Almighty God does not need a unique name to identify him. Others appear to have been influenced by the Jewish tradition of avoiding the use of the name, perhaps out of fear of desecrating it. Still others believe that since no one can be sure of the exact pronunciation of God's name, it is better just to use a title, such as "Lord" or "God." Such objections, however, lack merit for the following reasons:

- Those who argue that Almighty God does not need a unique name ignore evidence that early copies of his Word, including



Excerpts from the Psalms in a Dead Sea Scroll dated to the first half of the first century C.E. The text is in the style of the Hebrew letters commonly used after the Babylonian exile, but the Tetragrammaton appears repeatedly in distinctive ancient Hebrew letters those preserved from before the time of Christ, contain God's personal name. As noted above, God directed that his name be included in his Word some 7,000 times. Obviously, he wants us to know and use his name.

- Translators who remove the name out of deference to Jewish tradition fail to recognize a key fact. While some Jewish scribes refused to pronounce the name, they did not remove it from their copies of the Bible. Ancient scrolls found in Qumran, near the Dead Sea, contain the name in many places. Some Bible translators hint that the divine name appeared in the original text by substituting the title "LORD" in capital letters. But the question remains, Why have these translators felt free to substitute or remove God's name from the Bible when they acknowledge that it is found in the Bible text thousands of times? Who do they believe gave them authority to make such a change? Only they can say.
- Those who say that the divine name should not be used because it is not known exactly how to pronounce it will nevertheless freely use the name Jesus. However, Jesus' first-century disciples said his name quite differently from the way most Christians do today. To Jewish Christians, the name Jesus was probably pronounced Ye·shu´a'. And the title "Christ" was Ma·shi´ach, or "Messiah." Greek-speaking Christians called him I·e·sous´ Khri·stos´, and Latin-speaking Christians Ie´sus Chri´stus. Under inspiration, the Greek translation of his name was recorded in the Bible, showing that first-century Christians followed the sensible course of using the form of the name common in their language. Similarly, the New World Bible Translation Committee feels that it is reasonable to use the form "Jehovah," even though that rendering is not exactly the way the divine name would have been pronounced in ancient Hebrew.

Why does the New World Translation use the form "Jehovah"? In English, the four letters of the Tetragrammaton (יהוה) are represented by the consonants YHWH. As was true of all written words in ancient Hebrew, the Tetragrammaton contained no vowels. When ancient Hebrew was in everyday use, readers easily provided the appropriate vowels.

About a thousand years after the Hebrew Scriptures were completed, Jewish scholars developed a system of pronunciation points, or signs, by which to indicate what vowels to use when reading Hebrew. By that time, though, many Jews had the

After these deades / ye worde of God came vnto Abram in a vision sayinge feare not Abram / I am thy shilde / and thy rewarde shalbe exceadynge greate. And Abram answered: LORde Iehouah what wilt thou geue me: I goo childlesse / and the eater of myne housse / this Eleasar of Damasco hath a sonne. superstitious idea that it was wrong to say God's personal name out loud, so they used substitute expressions. Thus, it seems that when they copied the Tetragrammaton, they combined the vowels for the substitute expressions with the four consonants representing the divine name. Therefore, the manuscripts with those vowel points do not help in determining how the name was originally pronounced in Hebrew. Some feel that the name was pronounced "Yahweh," whereas others suggest different possibilities. A Dead Sea Scroll containing a portion of Leviticus in Greek transliterates the divine name Iao. Besides that form, early Greek writers also suggest the pronunciations Iae, I·a·be´, and I·a·ou·e´. However, there is no reason to be dogmatic. We simply do not know how God's ancient servants pronounced this name in Hebrew. (Genesis 13:4; Exodus 3:15) What we do know is that God used his name repeatedly in communication with his people, that they addressed him by that name, and that they used it freely in speaking with others.—Exodus 6:2; 1 Kings 8:23; Psalm 99:9.

Why, then, does this translation use the form "Jehovah"? Because that form of the divine name has a long history in the English language.

The first rendering of God's personal name in an English Bible appeared in 1530 in William Tyndale's translation of the Pentateuch. He used the form "Iehouah." Over time, the English language changed, and the spelling of the divine name was modernized. For example, in 1612, Henry Ainsworth used the form "Iehovah" throughout his translation of the book of Psalms. Then, in 1639, when that work was revised and printed with the Pentateuch, the form "Jehovah" was used. In 1901, the translators who produced the American Standard Version of the Bible used the form "Jehovah" where the divine name appeared in the Hebrew text.

Explaining why he used "Jehovah" instead of "Yahweh" in his 1911 work Studies in the Psalms, respected Bible scholar Joseph Bryant Rotherham said that he wanted to employ a "form of the name more familiar (while perfectly acceptable) to the general Bible-reading public." In 1930 scholar A. F. Kirkpatrick made a similar point regarding the use of the form "Jehovah." He said: "Modern grammarians argue that it ought to be read Yahveh or Yahaveh; but JEHOVAH seems firmly rooted in the English language, and the really important point is not the exact pronunciation, but the recognition that it is a Proper Name, not merely an appellative title like 'Lord.'"

What is the meaning of the name Jehovah? In Hebrew, the name Jehovah comes from a verb that means "to become," and a number of scholars feel that it reflects the causative form of that Hebrew verb. Thus, the understanding of the New World Bible Translation Committee is that God's name means "He Causes to Become." Scholars hold varying views, so we cannot be dogmatic about this meaning. However, this definition well fits Jehovah's role as the Creator of all things and the Fulfiller of his purpose. He not only caused the physical universe and intelligent beings to exist, but as events unfold, he continues to cause his will and purpose to be realized.

The Tetragrammaton, YHWH: "He Causes to Become"

הוה
The verb HWH: "to become"

Therefore, the meaning of the name Jehovah is not limited to the related verb found at Exodus 3:14, which reads: "I Will Become What I Choose to Become" or, "I Will Prove to Be What I Will Prove to Be." In the strictest sense, those words do not fully define God's name. Rather, they reveal an aspect of God's personality, showing that he becomes what is needed in each circumstance to fulfill his purpose. So while the name Jehovah may include this idea, it is not limited to what he himself chooses to become. It also includes what he causes to happen with regard to his creation and the accomplishment of his purpose.

The Divine Name in the Christian Greek Scriptures

Bible scholars acknowledge that God's personal name, as represented by the Tetragrammaton (יהוה), appears almost 7,000 times in the original text of the Hebrew Scriptures. However, many feel that it did not appear in the original text of the Christian Greek Scriptures. For this reason, most modern English Bibles do not use the name Jehovah when translating the so-called New Testament. Even when translating quotations from the Hebrew Scriptures in which the Tetragrammaton appears, most translators use "Lord" rather than God's personal name.

The New World Translation of the Holy Scriptures does not follow this common practice. It uses the name Jehovah a total of 237 times in the Christian Greek Scriptures. In deciding to do this, the translators took into consideration two important factors: (1) The Greek manuscripts we possess today are not the originals. Of the thousands of copies in existence today, most were made at least two centuries after the originals were composed. (2) By that time, those copying the manuscripts either replaced the Tetragrammaton with Ky´ri·os, the Greek word for "Lord," or they copied from manuscripts where this had already been done.

The New World Bible Translation Committee determined that there is compelling evidence that the Tetragrammaton did appear in the original Greek manuscripts. The decision was based on the following evidence:

- Copies of the Hebrew Scriptures used in the days of Jesus and his apostles contained the Tetragrammaton throughout the text. In the past, few people disputed that conclusion. Now that copies of the Hebrew Scriptures dating back to the first century have been discovered near Qumran, the point has been proved beyond any doubt.
- In the days of Jesus and his apostles, the Tetragrammaton also appeared in Greek translations of the Hebrew Scriptures. For centuries, scholars thought that the Tetragrammaton was absent from manuscripts of the Greek Septuagint translation of the Hebrew Scriptures. Then, in the mid-20th century, some very old fragments of the Greek Septuagint version that existed in Jesus' day were brought to the attention of scholars. Those fragments contain the personal name of God, written in Hebrew characters. So in Jesus' day, copies of the Scriptures in Greek did contain the divine name. However, by the fourth century C.E., major manuscripts of the Greek Septuagint, such as the Codex Vaticanus and Codex Sinaiticus, did not contain the divine name in the books from Genesis through Malachi (where it had been in earlier manuscripts). Hence, it is not surprising that in texts preserved from that time period, the divine name is not found in the so-called New Testament, or Greek Scripture portion of the Bible.

- The Christian Greek Scriptures themselves report that Jesus often referred to God's name and made it known to others. (John 17:6, 11, 12, 26) Jesus plainly stated: "I have come in the name of my Father." He also stressed that his works were done in his "Father's name."—John 5:43; 10:25.

Jesus plainly stated: "I have come in the name of my Father." He also stressed that his works were done in his "Father's name"

- Since the Christian Greek Scriptures were an inspired addition to the sacred Hebrew Scriptures, the sudden disappearance of Jehovah's name from the text would seem inconsistent. About the middle of the first century C.E., the disciple James said to the elders in Jerusalem: "Symeon has related thoroughly how God for the first time turned his attention to the nations to take out of them a people for his name." (Acts 15:14) It would not be logical for James to make such a statement if no one in the first century knew or used God's name.
- The divine name appears in its abbreviated form in the Christian Greek Scriptures. At Revelation 19:1, 3, 4, 6, the divine name is embedded in the word "Hallelujah." This comes from a Hebrew expression that literally means "Praise Jah." "Jah" is a contraction of the name Jehovah. Many names used in the Christian Greek Scriptures were derived from the divine name. In fact, reference works explain that Jesus' own name means "Jehovah Is Salvation."
- Early Jewish writings indicate that Jewish Christians used the divine name in their writings. The Tosefta, a written collection of oral laws that was completed by about 300 C.E., says with regard to Christian writings that were burned on the Sabbath: "The books of the Evangelists and the books of the minim [thought to be Jewish Christians] they do not save from a fire. But they are allowed to burn where they are, they and the references to the Divine Name which are in them." This same source quotes Rabbi Yosé the Galilean, who lived at the beginning of the second century C.E., as saying that on other days of the week, "one cuts out the references to the Divine Name which are in them [understood to refer to the Christian writings] and stores them away, and the rest burns."

- Some Bible scholars acknowledge that it seems likely that the divine name appeared in Hebrew Scripture quotations found in the Christian Greek Scriptures. Under the heading "Tetragrammaton in the New Testament," The Anchor Bible Dictionary states: "There is some evidence that the Tetragrammaton, the Divine Name, Yahweh, appeared in some or all of the O[ld] T[estament] quotations in the N[ew] T[estament] when the NT documents were first penned." Scholar George Howard says: "Since the Tetragram was still written in the copies of the Greek Bible [the Septuagint] which made up the Scriptures of the early church, it is reasonable to believe that the N[ew] T[estament] writers, when quoting from Scripture, preserved the Tetragram within the biblical text."

- Recognized Bible translators have used God's name in the Christian Greek Scriptures. Some of these translators did so long before the New World Translation was produced. These translators and their works include: A Literal Translation of the New Testament . . . From the Text of the Vatican Manuscript, by Herman Heinfetter (1863); The Emphatic Diaglott, by Benjamin Wilson (1864); The Epistles of Paul in Modern

God's name at Acts 2:34 in The Emphatic Diaglott, by Benjamin Wilson (1864)

English, by George Barker Stevens (1898); St. Paul's Epistle to the Romans, by W. G. Rutherford (1900); The New Testament Letters, by J.W.C. Wand, Bishop of London (1946). In addition, in a Spanish translation in the early 20th century, translator Pablo Besson used "Jehová" at Jude 14, and nearly 100 footnotes in his translation suggest the divine name as a likely rendering. Long before those translations, Hebrew versions of the Christian Greek Scriptures from the 16th century onward used the Tetragrammaton in many passages. In the German language alone, at least 11 versions use "Jehovah"

(or the transliteration of the Hebrew "Yahweh") in the Christian Greek Scriptures, while four translators add the name in parentheses after "Lord." More than 70 German translations use the divine name in footnotes or commentaries.

- Bible translations in over one hundred different languages contain the divine name in the Christian Greek Scriptures. Many African, Native American, Asian, European, and Pacific-island languages use the divine name liberally. (See the list on pages 1742 and 1743.) The translators of these editions decided to use the divine name for reasons similar to those stated above. Some of these translations of the Christian Greek Scriptures have appeared recently, such as the Rotuman Bible (1999), which uses "Jihova" 51 times in 48 verses, and the Batak (Toba) version (1989) from Indonesia, which uses "Jahowa" 110 times.

Without a doubt, there is a clear basis for restoring the divine name, Jehovah, in the Christian Greek Scriptures. That is exactly what the translators of the New World Translation have done. They have a deep respect for the divine name and a healthy fear of removing anything that appeared in the original text.—Revelation 22:18, 19.

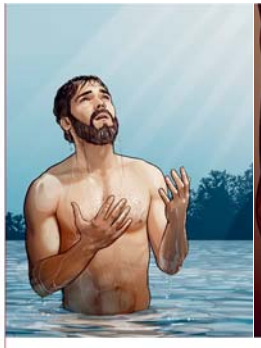
B1 The Message of the Bible

Jehovah God has the right to rule. His method of ruling is best.
His purpose for the earth and for mankind will be fulfilled.

After 4026 B.C.E.

"The serpent" questions Jehovah's right to rule and his way of ruling. Jehovah promises to raise up an "offspring," or a "seed," who will eventually crush the serpent, Satan. (Genesis 3:1-5, 15, footnote) However, Jehovah allows time for humans to rule themselves under the serpent's influence.



1943 B.C.E.

Jehovah tells Abraham that the promised "offspring" will be one of his descendants. —Genesis 22:18.

After 1070 B.C.E.

Jehovah assures King David and later his son Solomon that the promised "offspring" would come through their family line. —2 Samuel 7:12, 16; 1 Kings 9:3-5; Isaiah 9:6, 7.

29 C.E.

Jehovah identifies Jesus as the promised "offspring" who is the Heir to David's throne. —Galatians 3:16; Luke 1:31-33; 3:21, 22.

33 C.E.

The serpent, Satan, briefly cripples the promised "offspring" by having Jesus killed. Jehovah raises Jesus to life in heaven and accepts the value of Jesus' perfect life, thus providing the basis to forgive sins and to give Adam's descendants everlasting life. —Genesis 3:15; Acts 2:32-36; 1 Corinthians 15:21, 22.

About 1914 C.E.

Jesus hurls the serpent, Satan, to the earth, confining him there for a short time.—Revelation 12:7-9, 12.

Future

Jesus imprisons Satan for 1,000 years and then destroys him, symbolically bruising him in the head. Jehovah's original purpose for the earth and for mankind is fulfilled, his name is cleared of reproach, and his way of ruling is vindicated.—Revelation 20:1-3, 10; 21:3, 4.
